BIG SPRING CLEANS UP ON LAMESA

Big Spring baseball fans had heaps of enjoyment last Saturday and Sunday for they had the pleasure of seeing the home team take two games from the Lamesa Lobos. And it meant a deal of satisfaction to the fans to "pour it on" the Lobos. One other game played with Lamesa earlier in the season went to Big Spring so the record for this season is one to be proud of, especially as concerns the games with Lamesa.

Saturday's game went to Big Spring by a score of 10 to 5. The home team took the lead in the first inning and kept well ahead of the Lamesa boys. The Big Spring bunch outwitted the Lamesa players as well as played a fast fielding game. "Spec" Williamson featuring in three fast double plays. Lefty Baber pitched a mighty fine game against the Lobos.

Sunday's game was one of the hardest fought games ever witnessed on the home grounds and for a time it appeared as though the weatherman was determined to aid Lamesa win. The game had to be called at the end of the fifth inning until a shower passed over, and at the time the score was 1 to 0 in favor of Lamesa. In the seventh a home run by Gus White scored two runs, making the outlook indeed bad for our side. The bunch never did quit fighting and staged batting rallies in the seventh, eighth and ninth innings to bring in 6 tallies. Grisset, Payne, Thornton and Weathered did the heavy stick work in both games. Weathered proved a hoodoo for the Lamesa twirlers for in both games he rapped out two-baggers after the pitcher had deliberately passed heavy hitting LeRoy Grisset in order to pitch to Weathered. Weathered's two-base hit in the ninth-inning Sunday brought in the winning run for Big Spring.

Sammy Sain staged a couple of sensational plays to rob Lamesa batters of what appeared to be safe hits. Moore and Vick, pitching for Big Spring let the heavy hitting Lobos down with only three hits in Sunday's contest.

WHAT'S DOING IN WEST TEXAS

By West Texas C. of C.

PEOPLE ARE SPENDING

MORE TIME IN OPEN

That more people are spending their vacations in the open is shown by reports received by the State board of health from tourist camps thruout the state. These camps are crowded with cross-country hikers who carry their camping outfits with them and sleep with the sky for a canopy, and cook their bacon and potatoes over a camp fire. These folks return home tired and brown, but are all the better off for their sun baths.

While fresh air and sunshine are advised by the state board of health as highly beneficial to health, campers and tourists are advised to observe the following health protective measures: vaccination against typhoid fever; boil all water unless obtained from a known safe supply; and avoid being bitten by mosquitoes

DENY T. & P. PETITION TO GIVE UP MIDLAND

Washington, July 23.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has denied the petition of the Texas and Pacific, asking that the commission make further findings and conclusions in support and explanation of its decision refusing jurisdiction of the road's application to abandon the Midland & Northwestern. The last road extends from Midland to Seminole, a distance of sixty-five miles, of which the Texas & Pacific became owner through foreclosure of notes for materials.

The commission has twice held that the Texas & Pacific application for permission to abandon did not come within its jurisdiction. Litigation is pending in the Travis County District Court brought by the State of Texas to force the Texas & Pacific which has never operated the Midland, to rehabilitate and resume its operation. The Texas & Pacific has indicated that if it loses the issues will be brought to the Supreme Court of the United States.

A week ago the Texas & Pacific asked the commission to amplify its opinion and to state whether or not the operation of the Midland had been abandoned at the time the property was acquired and at the time of application to abandon. Also the commission was asked to determine whether the Midland had ceased to be a line of railroad at the time it was acquired by the Texas & Pacific. As the case stands the next development will depend upon action of the Texas courts upon the State's suit.—Dallas News.

NINE FLOWERS FOR FALL BLOOMING

Here are nine kinds of flowers it is not yet too late to plant to furnish blossoms and beauty from early fall till frost—Candytuft, Mignonette, Nasturtium, Petunia, Portulaca, Salvia, Verbena, Wallflower, Zinnia.—Clarence Poe, in The Progressive Farmer.

Just because Big Spring did not develop a boom when the Chalk oil field was tapped, some of our folks imagine we are not going to profit from the discovery of this field. Really, oil development is barely started in this section and the old town is going to take on a real growth as this development gains headway.

So far the Chalk oil field looks like the real thing. Every test drilled in that section has come in a producer. While no big wells have yet been secured, from one to two hundred wells above the 1600-foot depth look mighty good to the big oil companies.

With politics now in the scrap heap we can now talk about crops, the weather and other topics which will not cause us to get hot under the collar and fall out with our friends because they cannot see things as we see them.

Miss Pattie Speed visited friends in Lamesa Sunday.

If we expect to secure an up to date hotel, swimming pool and other needed conveniences to promote the growth of our home town, some of the local capitalists will have to loosen up a little. You must show others you have faith in the future of your town. Big Spring must be sold to her citizens before it is sold to others.

An old time resident informed us this week that he was very much encouraged over the way land values in Howard county are increasing. When he came here you could buy good land at from one to two dollars per acre, whereas at present as much as $33 an acre is being asked for land quite a few miles from Big Spring.

read this tragic recital of conditions as given by a Salvation Army officer in a dispatch printed in the Springfield (Mass.) Republican. It was clipped by one thoughtful newspaper man and added to another:

"Automobiles with predatory drivers account for the majority of the unmarried mothers cared for at fifteen Salvation maternity homes in the last two years. Col. Margaret Beville, territorial director of the Army's social service, said that 42 per cent of the patients were 'school girls of high or elementary grades, averaging 16 years of age. To have an average of 16,' she added, 'means that we must have an astounding number of girls who are becoming mothers between the ages of 11 and 14.'

"In an 'exact survey' just concluded, said Col. Beville, the majority of girls in the fifteen institutions 'attributed their difficulties to automobile flirtations.' Of 397 girls now in the homes, 169 were declared to be of 'school age.'

"Twenty years ago,' the director explained, 'our rescue homes were always filled with women of mature age. From whatever source we found these women, however, they were, with only a few exceptions, women who had deliberately chosen what has mistakenly been called "the easiest way." This is not the situation today. Red-light districts have been largely done away with and so have the saloons with back rooms, and, between the police and the activities of citizens' committees, we have practically eliminated open prostitution on the streets. In spite of these reforms, the Salvation Army in this one territory now has twice the number of maternity homes that it operated in those lurid days of the past, and they are all filled to capacity by whom? Not by professional, deliberate and conscious violators of the social code, although we still work among that class, too—but by school children, many of whom have been obliged to go direct to our institutions for the ordeal of motherhood. I have had my matrons in all of the fifteen institutions interview very carefully every girl admitted during the last two years and in a majority of cases we find that the same cause—automobiles with predatory drivers—was the cause of the difficulty.' "

The newspaper man who clipped the item said in a memorandum accompanying it:

"This tells of a shocking state of affairs. I am persuaded it is largely true because it is in line with what can be observed in practically every city. We too, here in Dallas have the 'predatory driver' and the flirtatious, reckless girl. Both lack the restraining influence of a good home. The 'predatory drivers' are of all ages, and so are the girls. Fundamentally the cause is the decadence of good home influences. In too many cases home now means merely a place to sleep. The rest of the time is spent 'running around.' Mother do not look after their daughters as they should, and show little concern in many instances if their daughters do not get in before 1 or 2 a. m. Fathers take little interest in their sons, simply giving them cars and money and letting them have a 'good time.' What else could be expected? Of course, I do not mean to imply that the American home is gone—but it is going. Nor is it the intent to arraign all parents. But the tendency is too pronounced to be ignored. I have no idea as to what can be done about it."

Remedy and Its Application

The stream can best be purified at its source. The nearer its mouth the purifying process is undertaken, the more difficult it becomes.

In the solution of social, moral and spiritual problems particularly, and those patriotic and political in their nature, the place to begin is in the home, with father and mother not only as teachers but exemplars as well.

Every one who things at all seriously upon the more important and greater things of life must know that the foundation of every good trait and ambition, every helpful practice and wholesome habit, righteous idea and worthy goal, needed by the young, should be instilled in them while under the influence of parents.

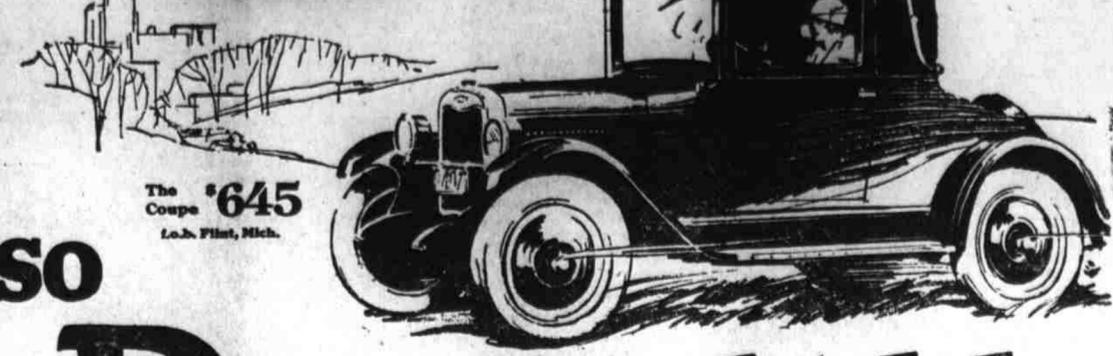

Let parents as well as children remember that "He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man." Woe is always awaiting those who are "lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God."

are here begged to give attention to these truths:

That it is the history of the ages, the experience of all who have gone before, that you can not do wrong and be happy.

That right living, righteousness, is not only a spiritual prerequisite, but also an economic principle.

That while there are greater and more numerous temptations perhaps presented to you, it must be said that you have more clearly defined ideas of right and wrong than did the youth of half a century ago.

Below are given some wonderful gems of wisdom from the wisest of men, the writer of the book of Proverbs:

My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth. He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers: Frowardness is in his heart; he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord. Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

He that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul; all they that hate me love death.

Forsake the foolish and live; and go in the way of understanding.

A wise son maketh a glad father; but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion.

The way of a fool is right in his own eyes; but he that harkeneth unto counsel is wise.

A wise man feareth and departeth from evil; but the fool rageth and is confident.

standing seeketh knowledge; but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

A wicked door giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow; and the father a fool hath no joy.

Who curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly.

Open rebuke is better than secret love.

He that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

Dear Young People: Opportunity beats a regular tattoo on your door from the cradle to the grave. Opportunities for business, for improvement intellectually, for doing good, are ever before you. But these are not all: Every temptation is an opportunity for triumph. Every battle with Satan is an opportunity for victory. Every stumbling-block furnishes material for a stepping-stone.

Put your trust in Him who never disappoints.

Fight the good fight while you can win it. It means happiness both here and hereafter.—Dallas News.

Run-Down gave out easily

"MY health wasn't any account at all," says Mrs. H. L. Cayton, of Washington, N. C. "I would start to do my housework and I would give out before I had done anything at all. I did not have any strength, and if I did the least thing it seemed to tax me so I could not finish. I was run-down sure enough. Several of my friends had taken Cardui and they said to me, 'Why don't you try it?' I knew I needed something to build up my general health and to increase my strength. Finally one day when I was recovering from a spell of sickness, I decided to try Cardui. I got a bottle and began to take it. I could notice that I was improving as my appetite got better and I did not give out nearly so quick. I took several bottles and I felt lots better. Two years ago I decided to take it again. It built me up and made me feel like a different person. It is the greatest medicine for women that I know anything about."

THANKS VOTERS

I desire at this time to express thanks and appreciation to the citizens of Howard county for the confidence and good will shown me in my race for Sheriff and Tax Collector of Howard county. I especially wish to thank all who voted for me in the first primary as well as those who gave me to understand that I was their second choice for the place.

As I propose to make the race for this office in the run-off primary, Saturday, August 28, I am going to ask those who voted for one of the defeated candidates in the primary last Saturday to consider my qualifications and fitness for the office and if they can conscientiously vote for me to do so August 28.

Naturally I am going to depend on my friends who stood by me in the election just closed to rally to my support in August for it will be due entirely to their efforts and support that it will be possible for me to be elected.

I will appreciate the support and influence of all the good people of Howard County.

ANDREW MERRICK.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Gift of Daily Bread.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—God's Good Gifts.

I. Lusting for the Fleshpots of Egypt (vv. 1-12).

1. Murmuring against Moses and Aaron (vv. 1-3).

As they journeyed from Elim into the great wilderness, they became conscious of the scarcity of some of the things they had enjoyed even in Egyptian slavery. Only a few days before they were singing God's praises for their wondrous deliverance at the Red Sea (Ex. 15). Their complaint not only displayed ingratitude but a deep-seated impiety. It was against God that they were murmuring, for He had led them into the wilderness. His object in so doing was to teach them to walk by faith instead of sight. They went so far as to express the wish that they had died in Egypt with full stomachs rather than to be walking in the wilderness by faith.

2. God's answer to their murmurings (vv. 4-12).

(1) He promised to rain bread from heaven (vv. 4, 5).

His purpose in this was to teach them that man liveth not by bread alone, but by every word that proceeded out of the mouth of the Lord (Deut. 8:3).

(2) He promised to give them a vision of His glory (vv. 6-10).

This served as a warning and encouragement. Moses and Aaron told the children of Israel that the glory of the Lord should be seen in the morning as a reminder that their murmuring was against the Lord and not against themselves.

(3) He promised them flesh and bread (vv. 11, 12).

"At even ye shall eat flesh and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread."

II. Quails and Manna Given (vv. 13-15).

At the appointed time God gave the Israelites the promised food. He first allowed them to feel their need to show them that man's highest need is not physical food, but living faith and fellowship with God.

1. In the evening the quails came up (v. 13).

Since they desired flesh, He gave them flesh to eat. God frequently caters to the desires of His people, knowing that the best way to teach them is to allow them to be filled with their own folly.

2. In the morning God gave the manna (vv. 14, 15).

The Israelites did not know what it was. They therefore exclaimed, What is it? Moses told them that it was the bread which the Lord had given them to eat.

III. The Responsibilities of the Israelites (vv. 16-21).

1. They must gather a certain rate daily (v. 16).

The purpose of this was to test their faith. They must look to Him for their daily bread (Matt. 6:11).

2. Every man must gather for himself (v. 16).

This teaches us the important lesson that every man must appropriate Christ for himself.

3. They must not gather in excess of one day's supply (vv. 18-20).

That which was in excess of a day's supply became corrupt. The Christian must use what gifts the Father bestows upon him. Christian grace and Bible truth must not be hoarded up—they are good only when put to use.

4. The manna must be gathered fresh every morning (v. 21).

This was to be done early before the sun was up. So must we seek Christ, who is our manna, every day and the first thing in the day (John 8:57).

5. The manna must be eaten to preserve life.

They were in a wilderness, so could live only by the eating of the food which God gave. It is so with Christ (John 6:53).

6. Due consideration should be given to the Sabbath day (vv. 22-31).

A double portion was to be gathered the day before so as to keep inviolate the Sabbath day.

IV. Manna Kept as a Memorial (vv. 32-38).

This was to be kept as a reminder of God's favor in feeding them in the wilderness, even for supplying them with bread for forty years until they reached the promised land.

To Give All

The love of the base spirit is the desire to take all it can. The love of the nobler spirit is the desire to give all it can.

Infection of Excellence

If one life shines the next life to it must catch the light. It is the infection of excellence.

Best Preparation

Doing good in this life is the best preparation for the life to come.

The Sower

This is the way the cartoonist visualizes the news that The State Fair of Texas is offering special premiums totaling $10,000 over a five-year period, for agricultural improvement in Texas. The premiums will be awarded in a contest between county exhibits, beginning with the fortieth annual State Fair, Oct. 9-24 next, and ending with the exposition of 1930.

STATE FAIR OF 1926 TO CHRONICLE FORTY YEARS OF PROGRESS

Great Educational Institution Instructs in Every Line of Human Endeavor.

Nearly half a century of Progress and development in Texas and the Southwest will be chronicled through the fortieth annual State Fair of Texas to be held at Dallas, Oct. 9 to Oct. 24, 1926.

Premiums and awards to be offered at the 1926 exposition encompass departments significant of every activity carried on throughout the magnificent reaches of the great Lone Star State.

Forty years ago—in 1886—the State Fair of Texas came into being. Every year since, under the direction of a group of far-sighted patriotic, earnestly loyal Texas business men, it has been demonstrated to hundreds of thousands of visitors, by means of comprehensive physical displays, the adaptability, productivity and efficiency of Texas and the Southwest.

Great Educational Institution. Educational in the broadest sense and co-operating with other Texas educational institutions—notably the Agricultural and Mechanical College—the State Fair of Texas runs the whole gamut of instruction to those who would find out, from agriculture—in which it is the ranking state—through the list, including cattle raising, dairying, general livestock production, manufacturing and exports, progress in the fine arts, the latest developments in implements and machinery of every description, port facilities, poultry production, mineral resources and mining development, progress in engineering and various classes of construction—every enterprise in which the human mind is interested.

Operated with no thought save that which will come through development of Texas and the Southwest, the State Fair of Texas is entirely unselfish in its aims. With physical properties and equipment, including permanent buildings, valued at more than $3,500,000, the home of the State Fair is the 157-acre Fair Park tract, owned by the City of Dallas and maintained as a public park the year round.

They asked Thomas Aloysius McSwen, who hailed from old Grand Saline, what he thought of the Fair, after he'd visited there, and Thomas replied: "It's sure keen."

It might be said that the State Fair of Texas is now fair, fat and forty. The fortieth annual exposition will be held at Dallas Oct. 9-24 next.

Dinner-Horn

When James Stephen Hogg, former governor of Texas, was a "one-gallus" lad on a Wood county farm, he was summoned to his dinner by a dulcet blast from an old-fashioned cow-horn. J. F. Reeves of Mineola, long-time and consistent booster of Wood county's agricultural possibilities, has the horn, which he cherishes as an historic relic of Hogg and of early days in Texas.

When the big Agricultural Day dinner is given at the State Fair of Texas this year, the diners will be summoned to the banquet just as Hogg was when a boy. A veteran bugler of the Civil War is said to be practicing a letter-day mess call on the homely instrument, and this is to be a signal for the guests at the dinner to "come and get it."

ELLIS COUNTY PLANS BIG STATE FAIR SHOW

Plans for the comprehensive agricultural exhibit to be made at the State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Oct. 9-24, by Ellis county, anticipate contributions to the general exhibit by every community in the county.

W. B. Sims of Ennis has been named as general chairman of the Ellis County Exhibit committee, and has announced an executive committee composed of C. H. Pigg, Waxahachie; W. M. Love, county agent; Jelks F. Castellaw of Ennis, secretary of the Ellis County Fair, and Hanks Davis of Waxahachie. A publicity committee with a personnel of a dozen prominent men, and an exhibit committee numbering more than twenty, have also been named. The publicity body will be on hand at the Ellis county exhibit all the while, to give information, either verbal or written, to all who may inquire.

STATE MANUFACTURERS TO MEET AT STATE FAIR

Announcement is made by G. M. Kaebel of San Antonio, vice president and general manager of the Texas State Manufacturers Association, that the annual meeting of the association, that was to have been held at Houston the latter part of May, will now take place during the State Fair of Texas, at Dallas, Oct. 9-24 next. The session will be incident to the holding of the Texas Industrial Exposition during the State Fair. All officials and managers of Texas industries will be invited and there will be addresses by prominent industrial leaders. The exposition will run for eighteen days. On one day alone, in 1925, 150,000 people visited and studied the displays maintained throughout the exposition.

WHO SAID FARM RELIEF? NOT TEXAS FARMERS!

Texas farmers, as a rule, aren't much concerned by all this "holler" about "farm relief."

That man who gets out and hits the ball, most generally, doesn't need any relief—he works out his own salvation.

At the State Fair of Texas, every year, there's a comprehensive demonstration and proof of the manner in which Texas farmers accomplish this, through the attractive, edifying, instructive county agricultural exhibits, and there'll be more of them this year, Oct. 9-24, than ever before.

OLDHAM COUNTY AGENT BUSY ON FAIR EXHIBIT

Harmon Benton, Oldham county agricultural agent, isn't letting any grass grow under his feet, in anticipation of Oldham county's agricultural exhibit at the State Fair of Texas, Oct. 9-24. As early as June 1 Mr. Oldham was active in selecting various small grains which will go into the exhibit, and he is confident that Oldham county's showing will be up in the first rank when the scoring records are made.

CLEBURNE CHAMBER AFTER JOHNSON COUNTY EXHIBIT

Johnson county and Cleburne, through the Cleburne Chamber of Commerce, aren't going to overlook their opportunity for showing the diversified agricultural abilities of their section at the State Fair of Texas, Oct. 9-24 this year. The Cleburne Chamber, early in June, issued a call for samples of the oat and wheat crop of Johnson county to be brought in, in connection with preparations for the State Fair exhibit. It is declared that the oat and wheat crops in Johnson county this year are better than for some time, and the belief is strong that first place for these grains could easily be taken.

KEEP YOUR NAME OFF

THE "SUCKER LISTS"

Farm and Ranch is receiving letters from readers complaining of "slick-tongued" peddlers who are abroad in rural districts selling poultry tonics "guaranteed to double the egg yield," and other stock remedies as well as spectacles and various forms of merchandise. Every person who goes into the country to sell some article is not a swindler. No doubt many have legitimate propositions, but there are others who misrepresent, and by clever talking induce farmers and farmers' wives to purchase worthless remedies and worthless articles of merchandise. The same thing happens in our cities every day. We are all more or less gullible and inclined to listen to smooth talkers and make purchases for which we are sorry. Many a business man has been talked into buying worthless stocks, or it is not a reflection on our farmers if they occasionally get swindled by smooth agents. If everybody were careful and used good judgment, the people of this country would save $1,000,000,000 a year, but we keep right on adding to the "sucker" lists which are in possession of the slick agents who work both city and country for "easy money."

It is always better to deal with persons whom you know to be reliable rather than with strangers. This advice holds good in both city and country.—Farm and Ranch.

T. & P. IMPROVEMENTS AT FORT WORTH

Fort Worth, Texas, July 24.—The population of Fort Worth will be increased by at least 5,000 through the proposed extension of the Texas & Pacific Railroad terminal facilities here Roscoe Ady, industrial commissioner of the Chamber of Commerce of Fort Worth.

The extension of T. & P. switching yards and shops on a tract of 1,600 acres recently purchased by the railroad was announced Monday night, July 19, by J. L. Lancaster of Dallas, president of the road, who was one of the speakers of a festival celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the entry of the first railroad into Fort Worth.

Fans from Colorado, Loraine, Westbrook, Coahoma, Midland, Roscoe, Garden City, Stanton and other points who were here Saturday and Sunday to witness the ball games between the Big Spring and Lamesa team certainly got their money's worth of entertainment; and especially so in Sunday's game. Of course there was a large crowd of Lamesa fans on hand but they didn't seem to enjoy these two games.

Mrs. Ferrell Redditt of Dallas was called here the latter part of last week by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. L. F. Nall.

MISS MACKAILL AT BEST IN "JOANNA"

Dorothy Mackaill, beautiful blond film queen, is her most enchanting self in her latest picture, "Joanna," which comes to the R. and R. Lyric Monday and Tuesday, August 2-3.
Miss Mackaill, who represents all that is fresh and spirited in the modern girl, is cast in a role that brings out the full play of these delightful attributes. According to the story of "Joanna," the young film star, impersonating a dress model, is given a million dollars, with the injunction to spend it as she sees fit.

She is not told where the million dollars comes from. Later, after she has spent it all in a hectic hitting of high spots, she discovers that she has been the pawn in a wager between two magnates relative to the ability of a modern girl to live a fine life even if given the wherewithal to purchase the luxuries that her heart craves. It is unnecessary to state that the little dress model pulls through—and with flying colors.

Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon Miss Mackaill for her flawless characterization. There are times when her performance makes the heart leap with joy.

Excellent support is given the lovely actress by Jack Mulhall, who is co-featured with her. No finer delineation of a clean-cut youth could be imagined than that given by this young man. Included in the supporting cast are George Fawcett, Lillian Langdon, John T. Murray and Edwards Davis.

Two promising newcomers made their film debut in the picture last night. They were Rita Carewe, daughter of Edwin Carewe, who produced and directed the picture, and Dolores del Rio.

To all indications "Joanna" is a winner. It is surely one of Edwin Carewe's best productions, and that's saying a great deal.

John W. Shortes for many years one of Howard county's substantial citizens was nominated for county and district clerk of Martin county in the primary election last Saturday. Mr. Shortes moved to Martin county about two years ago.

Greatest Need of Big Spring is a First Class Hotel. Let's Get It!

Development Now Assured

Make Many Tests in Other Companies More Wells There

The Marland, Magnolia, and other oil fields in the Big Spring area are being developed. The Marland Oil Co. is drilling several tests, two inch gas lines having been completed to locations on sections 86, 95 and 97. The cellars for some of these tests have been completed and drilling operations will be started soon.

Iatan Well a Good Producer
The California Oil Company's test on section n, block 29, Twp. 18, is said to be good for 100 barrels daily following a light shot last Friday. The oil formation was encountered at a depth of 2810 feet.

Marland Oil Co. Activities
The Marland Oil Co.'s Chalk No. 1 on the southeastern quarter of section 113, is now pumping fifty barrels or more oil per day and will be kept on pump for the present.

The Marland Chalk No. 2, located 660 feet south of well No. 1 was spudded in this week and is now drilling below the 100-foot mark.

This company recently tested out a water well near the Chalk home to ascertain if a water supply sufficient to operate a number of rotary rigs was available. A four inch stream was pumped for thirty-six hours without diminishing the supply, conclusively proving the water supply was adequate. It is now reported that the Marland Co. will place from two to ten rotary drilling rigs in the Chalk field in the very near future.

A loading space alongside the T. & P. tracks in Big Spring was recently secured by the Marland Co. for storing piping and other supplies which were to be shipped into Big Spring for use in the Chalk field. It is stated that casing for thirty wells is now enroute to this point.

Pipe Line From Chalk Field
Work on the Kay County Pipe Line Co.'s pipe line from the Chalk field to the T. & P. Ry. just east of Coahoma is now going forward.

A number of the wells in the field are now connected with lines supplying the 55,000 barrel storage tank on section 86. The oil will be delivered to loading rack on the railroad from the storage tank by gravity flow.

SWEETWATER WINS THE LADIES BALL GAME
The Sweetwater Business Women were successful in carrying off the honors in the baseball game played here Wednesday afternoon with the ladies ball team of the East Side Circle of the First Methodist church with a close score of 21 to 20 in the visiting team's favor.

Both teams were pretty evenly matched and the one in town made scores enough so that the other team could catch up with them their next time up. Each player tried to outswat the other one, and in the course of the game some fancy curves and cuts were witnessed by the medium sized crowd in attendance.

The line-up for the Big Spring team was: Ruby Gary, p; Martha Moody, c; Mrs. Chas. Herring, 1b; Zou Hardy, 2b; Essie Bradley, ss; Mrs. George Mims, 3b; Mrs. J. A. Myers, lf; Miss Bernice Johnston, cf; Mrs. Effie McMahon, rf.

CONSTRUCTION COMPANY STARTS WORK ON GRADE
Work on a grade level in paving district of the city of Big Spring was started this week by the General Construction Co. of Fort Worth, who will be in charge of the paving of 20 city blocks in the business district of our city. Grading, excavating, and rebuilding portions of the streets is underway and as soon as the grade level is established the work of putting in the curbs and paving forms will be started.

The equipment of the General Construction Co. has arrived and as soon as the preliminary details of the work are taken care of, actual paving will be started.

Excavations on Main street in front of the courthouse is underway this week.

Deputy Sheriff J. H. Choate left Wednesday night for Wichita Falls to accompany Frank Stewart, who is to be placed in a state institution for treatment.

John Currie and niece, Miss Agnes Currie, spent several days this week visiting relatives and friends in San Angelo.

Old Settlers All-day Picnic

Several Hundred Old Timers Expected to Spend Today at City Park in Get-to-gether Meeting

Old Settlers of all ages, ranging from the white bearded old gentleman who is an octogenarian or past, to the younger one just over the twenty-year line, but who is said to be an old timer, will assemble at the City Park today, in an all-day get to gether, with a big barbecue and picnic dinner served at the noon day hour.

Committees in charge of this entertainment have been hard at work making plans for this big affair which promises to be one of the best in the history of the Old Settlers Association. An interesting program has been arranged for the day, and it is the hope of all that this occasion will prove a pleasureable one for everyone in attendance. Everyone who has resided in Howard county for twenty years or longer is invited to come and bring the family. Each one is asked to bring a well filled basket of picnic eats. Barbecued beef, pickles and bread will be served by the committee, and every one is urged to bring cakes and pies, enough for everybody. One hundred will be needed and volunteers are asked to bake cakes and pies and donate them to the association for this big celebration.

The big day will start about ten o'clock this morning with the get-acquainted meeting. While the Old Settlers are gathering, the "early birds" can pass around through the crowd to see who is present, and to exchange greetings. This will constitute the program of the morning. At 12 o'clock the barbecue and picnic dinner will be served.

In the afternoon, a program of speechmaking has been arranged. All of the old timers will be asked to make short talks and this will give each one an opportunity to tell an interesting tale of the long ago, when this country roamed by the buffaloes, was the land of the Indians, and the town of Big Spring was a mere watering hole.

This evening's program will be a full and delightful one. At eight o'clock the Fiddlers Contest of which I. B. Cauble is chairman, will be held. Each old fiddler will play three pieces, and judges will decide who produces the best music. Following this contest an old fashioned dance will be given. A platform will be placed in the park, and to the tunes of songs of long ago the popular dance steps befitting an old timer will be reviewed.

Every old settler in Howard county is urged to attend this all day get together and make it an affair that will long be cherished by the old timers. A good time is assured everyone and a large crowd is expected. Every old settler come to the picnic.

BALL GAMES FOR NEXT SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

The baseball team of Post, Texas, will be the next team to go up against the Big Spring T. & P. team and games will be played at the ball park in Big Spring next Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

The record of the Big Spring team is known thruout West Texas and Post knows they must have a real ball team if they bring home the bacon. The Post fans claim they have a team which is as good as ours and they expect to take both games. The members of the Big Spring team expect to take both games so you can expect a warm time when these two teams face each other here next Saturday and Sunday.

The Big Spring team has been playing real baseball and deserves the loyal support of every fan. The best encouragement to the team is to fill the grandstand for the games, so turn out in force Saturday and Sunday and show the boys you are for them.

Attend these games and bring your friends.

Funeral services for Armenia Pararas, Mexican girl, were held Wednesday, July 21, by the Rix Undertaking Co. Interment in the Mexican cemetery.

BAKE CAKES AND PIES FOR OLD SETTLERS PICNIC

Even old folks have a sweet tooth! Consequently one hundred pies and cakes will be needed for the Old Settlers picnic, which is being held in our city today (Friday), and the good cooks of the town are urged to bake a pie or cake and donate to the picnic committee.

A free barbecued dinner will be served the old settlers consisting of barbecued beef, bread and pickles and to top the meal off in good shape and to leave a sweet taste in the mouth of the old timers, the committee wants to serve them cake or pie. If you possibly have time won't you please bake one and donate it for the picnic? This is a personal solicitation for your cake or pie, so do not wait for a phone call from the committee. Bake the cake or pie and if you have no way of getting it to the city park by the noon hour, phone one of the committee and they will call for it. It will be appreciated and is needed.

All old settlers coming to the picnic can bring a cake or pie along with them, with the other good eats they want with the barbecue, then they will be assured of a real feast. Remember now that you have been asked to donate a pie or cake for the picnic. A hearty response is expected in the way of an assortment of all flavored cakes and pies.

CROP CONDITIONS BENEFITED BY RAINS

Practically every portion of Howard county was well-dampened by the series of showers and rains, which held forth last Saturday and Sunday afternoons and Monday morning. An inch or more of rain is the report from the greater portion of the county.

We have all the rain needed and plenty of sunshine during the next three or four weeks is what will be needed to make the field crops come along in great shape, and the same warm, sunshiny weather will be a wonderful help in discouraging crop pests which are making their appearance in some sections of our county.

Crop conditions are better than has been the case in years, and according to all accounts the cotton crop is about a month ahead of the regular schedule. The rains came in time to insure fine feed crops.

August is the month in which crops are made or wiped out and we are hoping that favorable crop weather may be in force this year. All are indeed pleased with the splendid outlook for good crops in our county.

"MORE COTTON ON FEWER ACRES" IS BEING TRIED

R. E. Carroll, a successful farmer, who lives seven miles northwest of Knott, is trying the plan of raising more and better cotton on fewer acres. This week he brought in a stalk of cotton from his place, and a healthier and more substantial plant could not be found. The tap root of the cotton stalk was over a foot in length, with side roots of good size and numerous. Mr. Carroll stated that this was one of the smaller cotton stalks of his field of 26 acres. The stalk was heavily loaded with bolls, squares and blooms, and a heavy yield is expected from this acreage.

Mr. Carroll also has 37 acres of feed and judging from the two heads of maize that he brought into the office we think that his cotton crop can't exceed the feed. The maize heads were fine and large, and very full.

Rainfall this season has been plentiful in the Knott section and it has been a great boost to crop conditions in that territory.

OPENING SERVICES TO BE HELD AT NEW CHURCH AUGUST 8

Opening services in the new Methodist church at the corner of West Fourth and Scurry streets will be held on Sunday morning, August 8, according to plans announced by Rev. W. C. Hinds, pastor. Work on the interior of the building is nearing completion, the grounds about the church are being cleaned, and this will be a completed job on August 6, ready for the opening services to be held Sunday, August 8.

An announcement of the program to be given at the opening service will appear in next week's issue of the paper.

Dan's the Man; Wins In a Walk

Dan Moody Seems to Have Secured More Votes for Governor Than the Entire Field, July 24

The result of Saturday's Democratic primary was a decisive victory for Attorney General Dan Moody. Miriam Ferguson announced that she would resign the office of Governor on or about November first, following a special session of the Legislature.

Mrs. Ferguson called for a special session of the Legislature to convene September 13th. In the run-off primary August 28, the following state officers will be selected: attorney general and treasurer.

In the race for Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, 11th District, W. P. Leslie, Colorado, defeated J. B. Littler, incumbent; and a former resident of Big Spring.

Following is the latest returns on the election pertaining to the state offices: Dan Moody's majority over all other candidates for Governor dropped to 174 at 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when the Texas Election Bureau announced returns from 249 out of 252 counties in the State, 167 complete.

Moody's vote has ranged from more than 3,000 majority to around that figure less than a majority since compilation of returns from Saturday's primary was begun. Election bureau officials said Wednesday night there was little indication whether Moody would maintain a majority when all the votes shall have been counted. The vote for Governor at 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon stood:

Moody 398,155, Ferguson 272,854, Davidson 120,123, Zimmerman 2,430, Johnston 1,123, Williams 1,451.

The vote for other State offices: Attorney General—Pollards 132,216, Allred 126,699, Brachfield 121,776, Irwin 101,008, Hornsby 87,711, Christopher 37,557.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—Marrs 325,316, Bennett 150,639, Humphreys 138,186.

Commissioner of Agriculture—Terrell 447,256, Bolln 138,721.

Land Commissioner—Robinson 310,295, Terrell 290,468.

Railroad Commissioner—Terrell 310,966, Speer 158,865, Baughman 121,484.

Judge Court of Criminal Appeals—Hawkins 342,500, Pierson 249,053.

In the Republican race for the governorship, returns from 116 counties 101 complete, gave H. H. Haines, regular party candidate, 7,108 votes to 3,308 for E. P. Scott, representing the Wurzbach faction.

LIGHTS WEAKEN WHILE ELECTION RETURNS WERE BRIGHT
Electric lights in the city of Big Spring burned low Saturday night while election returns, both local and state, brought favorable reports to many of the Howard county voters. The business district of the city was a place of darkness, with flickering lights in the drug stores and confectioneries illuminating the down town district, with the help of numerous automobiles in motion on this busy evening. The motion picture theaters were also handicapped by the weak electrical power.

The activities centered on the court house lawn, where the returns of the Democratic primary were being posted. Hundreds of people stood until midnight to get the latest results sent over the wires.

The cause of the electrical trouble came from Sweetwater, where two transformers burned out at the plant of the West Texas Electric Co. The accident caused no interruption in the service only it was weak and flickered.

MAN ARRESTED ON SUSPICION
Hilliard Fatherec, claiming Lawton, Okla., as his home, was arrested by Sheriff Frank House Wednesday. He was arrested on suspicion of having stolen some tools which he disposed of at a fraction of their value.

WM. FISHER ROMPS ON T. F. NABORS

Uncle Wm. Fisher has a complaint to register against T. F. Nabors, and says that a man who farms like he does ought to be run out of the county. In fact he claims Nabors is capable of arousing as much trouble in a community as the fellow who cuts stove wood and helps his wife around the home.

Mr. Fisher points out that Mr. Nabors not only keeps his fields and fence rows clear of weeds but goes out along the road bordering his fields and swats the weeds. "He is not satisfied with one good crop such as cotton," says Mr. Fisher, "but always plants enough feed to run his place two or three years. He keeps good milk cows, chickens, plenty of hogs to provide meat and lard thruout the year, and some to sell. He has fruit, melons and garden truck to sell in season, butter and eggs at all seasons and is therefore able to live without mortgaging his crops before they are planted."

As a farmer, whose fields cannot be seen from the road on account of the weeds, Mr. Fisher objects to such farming because if every farmer followed Mr. Nabors' example everybody would be too busy twelve months out of the year to even talk politics, instead of just at cotton planting and cotton picking time.

When Mr. Fisher finished his tongue lashing, Mr. Nabors advised him to quit farming and become governor, as he was satisfied Uncle Bill would make an ideal governor for the State of Texas.

FRANK ROWLAND VICTIM OF AUTO CRASH AT DONNA

Frank Rowland, a former resident of this city died as a result of injuries received in an auto crash on Monday, July 19, at Donna, Texas, where he was residing at the time of his death. Mr. Rowland, in company with Rev. C. L. Ewing, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Donna, were riding in a coupe, when they were struck by a passenger train at the crossing two blocks east of the depot. The view of the railroad track was cut by buildings on the railroad rightofway, and evidently the train crew nor the men in the car saw each other.

Mr. Rowland who is about 40 years of age, is survived by his wife, to whom he had recently been married; five brothers and one sister.

Mr. Rowland who made his home in this county until about seven years ago, was engaged in the farming industry in Howard county.

BUICK SEDAN DEMOLISHED IN ACCIDENT LAST SUNDAY

A Buick sedan, driven by Jack Carter of the Carter Motor Company of Colorado, was demolished in an automobile accident late Sunday afternoon when the auto left the hardsurfaced road and turned turtle on the Bankhead highway, about a mile and a half east of town. Mr. Carter in company with two other men were making the turn near the Parrish Grove, and the car began to leave the pavement. The road was slick from recent rains, and when the brakes were applied the car turned turtle, completely wrecking it.

The three men escaped with slight injuries, receiving several painful cuts and bruises.

COUNTY CONVENTION WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

Delegates selected at the various conventions last Saturday are reminded of the County Convention which will be held in the District court room at the courthouse at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, and all are urged to attend. Delegates to the State convention will be selected at this meeting Saturday afternoon and other important matters will come up for discussion, according to G. B. Cunningham, county chairman.

A. H. BUGG
THANKS VOTERS

I take this method of extending thanks to the voters of Precinct one for their support in my race for county commissioner of this precinct. I deeply appreciate your support and good will, and respectfully ask that you support me in the run-off primary to be held Saturday, August 28. I also appeal to those who did not support me in the first primary to give me their vote in the coming primary.

For the benefit of those who are not acquainted with me I wish to state that I have resided in West Texas more than forty years and have been a resident of Howard county for the past seven years. I have been reasonably successful as a farmer, livestock raiser and in business, and feel that I am qualified to carefully and conscientiously perform all the duties of County Commissioner in an efficient manner. If honored with this office I will devote all the time required to the faithful performance of the duties of the office and be ever on the alert to safeguard the best interests of Howard county.

I may not be able to see all of you before the August 28 primary so I ask that you make inquiry as to my ability and fitness for this office and ascertain whether or not I am capable of performing the duties in a satisfactory manner. If you ascertain from my friends and neighbors that I am a man who is dependable, and capable of fulfilling the duties of county commissioner in a manner that will best serve the entire citizenship I ask that you vote for me on Saturday, August 28.

Again thanking the friends who stood by me in the first primary; I ask a continuation of your good will and influence in the run-off primary.

A. B. EDWARDS' INVENTION PLACED ON THE MARKET

A device to facilitate air service to automobile tires at garages and filling stations has been invented by Prof. A. B. Edwards of this city, this being the twenty-first invention of Mr. Edwards that is now on the market. Mr. Edwards left Wednesday evening for Chicago, and Buffalo, N. Y. to have tools made for the manufacturing of his invention.

A patent has been secured on this device, and a company with adequate capital has been organized and they will place the invention on the market. Headquarters of the company will be in Abilene, Texas, and Mr. Edwards is to be general and sales manager of the company, but he will continue to make his home in this city.

The device will probably be on the market by September 10, and many orders for it have already been booked for future delivery. According to Mr. Edwards there seems to be a ready market for the invention. It is to be sold at a moderate price, within the buying limit of every garage and filling station. It is an accurate air gauge, and also is a time saver and consequently all auto men are favorably impressed with it.

TO THE VOTERS OF HOWARD COUNTY, TEXAS

I wish to take this means of thanking my friends for their support during my candidacy for reelection to the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Howard county. I appreciate their confidence more than I can tell, and will continue to try to deserve same by working faithfully for the strict enforcement of all laws. In view of the fact that it is necessary for me to be in the run-off race Saturday, August 25, I must appeal to my friends to come to my aid for it is impossible for me to do much campaigning, as the duties of the office require practically all my time.

I think I have demonstrated that I am ready day or night to apprehend the lawbreaker; and that I will continue to do so is the only promise I have to make. I will appreciate the vote and influence of the good people of Howard county, regardless of whether or not you voted for me in the primary, July 24. Please remember I will appreciate your vote Saturday, August 25, although it may be impossible for me to personally solicit same.

Yours truly,
FRANK HOUSE.

REVIVAL DRAWING BIG CROWDS EACH DAY

In spite of the heavy downpour of rains and bad roads the revival meeting at First Christian church has and is, attracting large crowds each night. Evangelist George B. Kellemis is a plain forceful Gospel preacher and does not fear to preach it just as God's word gives it to him. Even a child does not grow weary but is held in rapt attention while he is presenting the plain Gospel truths. Does not preach to please man but God.

If you love good music do not fail to hear Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Jacks of Dallas, Texas, and the fine Revival Chorus. The beautiful and catchy songs that are being used are easy, yet when you once hear them you cannot get the tune out of your head. Mr. Jacks solos hold everyone in rapt attention and his sweet voice brings the message in song to the hearts of his hearers. Mrs. Jacks is a highly accomplished pianist and everyone enjoys her special selections. The young people services, conducted especially for young people from ten to eleven each morning are increasing in numbers and interest with every service. Mrs. Jacks tells a beautiful Gospel story each morning and the children are asked to repeat that story the next morning. The "Demonstration of the Cross" will be depicted by the children on Friday night week the last Friday night in the meeting. This demonstration recently put on in one of the larger churches in Dallas was so much appreciated by the vast audience that Mrs. Jacks and the children were requested to put it on again on the following Monday night when the great auditorium was packed and jammed forty minutes before starting time for the second demonstration.

Sunday night Mr. Jacks will whistle the "Mocking Bird" with variations and imitate the bird itself. He imitates the Flute, Slide Trombone, Xylophone and Piccolo on his hands. He is the whistling wonder of the age.

The following subjects will be discussed in order.

Friday night—"Bible Baptism;" also baptismal service.

Saturday night—Rest and Prayer night.

Sunday morning, 11 a. m.—"The Silent Dead."

Sunday night, 8:15—"The King of Terrors."

Monday night—"Hell."

Tuesday night—"The End of the World."

Wednesday night—"Doubting and Damned."

Thursday night—"Resisting Salvation."

Friday night—Demonstration of the Cross. The entire service will be conducted by the children.

CARD OF THANKS TO THE VOTERS

I want to thank every single voter who cast a ballot in the Democratic primary on Saturday, July 24, not only do I want to thank those who voted in my favor in the race for the office of Public Weigher, but all those who had for first choice one of my opponents. I appreciate all that you did for me.

J. W. CARPENTER THANKS THE VOTERS

I take this method to thank each and everyone of the voters of Howard county, who cast their ballot in my favor for the office of Public Weigher in the Democratic primary last Saturday. Your loyalty and support enabled me to lead the ticket in the race, and I want all of you to know that I certainly appreciate it. Since I am to be in the run-off on August 25, let me again solicit your support. If you believe that I am the man for the place, I feel kindly toward all of my fellowmen, regardless of whether they are fit to give me the office of Public Weigher or not, and have no malice in my heart for anyone.

Thanking you again for your support, I am,

Your friend,
J. W. CARPENTER.

GENSBERG'S STORE ROBBED

The store of Max Gensberg on East Second street was broken into Wednesday night and shoes and clothing stolen. The burglar broke the lock on the front door to gain entrance, and left the building with his loot thru the rear door.

T. & P. passenger train No. 5 due here at 8:55 a. m. was three hours late Wednesday. The delay was due to an accident at Baird; a drawhead was pulled from a box car of a freight train tying up the main line traffic until repairs could be made.

GREATER MOVIE SEASON

The whole family's going!

NOT so long ago folks never even bothered to say, "Where will we go tonight?" There wasn't any place to go, so they just stayed home.

Today it's different. Everyone says, "Let's go to the Movies." That is, NEARLY everyone.

Do YOU belong to that small minority? Perhaps you haven't seen any of the recently released productions. If so, you cannot realize to what artistic heights the motion picture has ascended.

Just the day before yesterday, a store show; yesterday, an excellent form of amusement, but still young and feeling its way; today, the principal, and oftentimes the only, entertainment for countless millions.

During August the entire nation will celebrate the thirtieth birthday of the motion picture. August is Greater Movie Season.

Take this opportunity to convince yourself that, in every way, they are bigger and better than ever.

Illogical Isabel

By RUBY DOUGLAS

(Copyright.)

BECAUSE Isabel was such a distinct combination of practical good sense and inconsistent whimsicality, her friends had long since nicknamed her "Illogical Isabel."

At first she had been annoyed. Then her better judgment came to her aid and she reasoned it out as being a compliment rather than otherwise.

"No one whom you dislike ever has a nickname," she argued. "A nickname that they call you to your face is always in the nature of a pet name."

"You're perfectly right," agreed her chum. "Now, who would think of nicknaming Elizabeth Bradford? No one would dare. No one loves her enough to shorten her name affectionately to Beth."

"But—well, you know Harvey isn't going to sail his boat in the big race, don't you?" asked Isabel, seemingly quite beside the subject.

"What on earth has that to do with nicknames?" exclaimed her chum.

"Everything!" declared Isabel. "I told him I simply wouldn't sail with him on Friday, the thirteenth, and he won't sail the Hydrophobia without me."

The other girl laughed heartily. "What a combination, anyway. A boat called the Hydrophobia and a girl so whimsical that she won't sail because of a silly date. Poor Harvey!"

"Yes; he said I was as superstitious as a peasant! He even added that perhaps the little boat's name would suit me better than it did the boat itself and—"

The day before the water sports arrived and Isabel had not changed her mind about Harvey. He had not made effort to see her. This only made it worse, and Isabel was wondering where she should go so as to have a good excuse for not being at the yacht races on the following day.

She began to wonder who would help Harvey sail the race. Surely he would not ask some other girl. She always held the gib sheet for him, and she could not conceive of some other girl being of any real help in the stern of the little craft whose name had caused so much trouble.

Being practical in spots, she turned to some good reading to try to take her mind off her unhappiness. Fiction failed to hold her attention. Perhaps this was because in most modern fiction the lovers are happy at the end. This was no way to take her mind from Harvey.

Eventually she chose a book from her father's reading table. It contained some essays and lectures on improving the mind, on broadening the vision, on discarding the petty things in life that so often upset the mental apparatus.

"All quarrels may be traced back to misunderstandings," she read.

She put down the book. Was this true? Had she and Harvey merely misunderstood each other? Was he, perhaps, as unhappy as she was at this moment? Did she misunderstand his meaning?

"I know I am inconsistent," she argued with herself. "And of course that makes me quite illogical. But what of it?"

Dismissing the case against herself, she decided, with very prompt and practical application to what she had just discovered, that the thing to do was to patch up the silly quarrel with Harvey and help him to sail the Hydrophobia the following day. She hoped it was not too late.

She jumped into her little roadster and drove down to the shore where she knew the boys would be busy getting their boats ready to race.

Harvey was not there. The Hydrophobia was lolling idly at her mooring, the water lapping her sides monotonously.

"Have you seen Harvey?" she asked one of the boys who was busy cleaning up his craft.

"No—don't believe he's going to sail," he replied.

"Oh, yes he is," replied Isabel.

She hastened back to the village and made a wide detour to her home in order to pass the home of Harvey's people. She knew that he was having his vacation and would, as likely as not, be about the garden somewhere.

She saw him on the porch and blew her horn loudly. He looked up at once and dashed out to the street as if he were on a sprint for a prize.

"Isabel!" he cried.

"Why aren't you doling up your mad little boat?" she asked, laughing and quite ignoring their quarrel.

"Because my mad little sweetheart won't sail with me," he replied, catching her mood.

"But she will! She knows you couldn't embark on any sea without her to help you manage the craft."

"Do you mean that?" he asked, jumping in beside her.

Isabel promptly started the car. "Please—we're right in front of your father's house," she protested.

They drove to the harbor and together they put the Hydrophobia into the pink of perfection.

"We've done everything but put powder on her nose," laughed Isabel as they surveyed their pretty, clean boat.

Put plenty on your own tomorrow, dear, for we're going to run up into the wind and win this race. And then—" he asked.

Isabel nodded. "Yes—you may ask father—if we win," she told him.

Mazie Parks Her Car

By JANE OSBORN

(Copyright.)

EVERY morning—save Sundays—at almost precisely five minutes before eight a shabby little motor runabout drew up in front of the Hindley place and stopped at almost precisely the same spot.

"He's got a brass nerve," remarked Mr. James Hindley, viewing the arrival of this little vehicle from the vantage point of his place at the head of the table in the Hindley breakfast room. "Parks that vile car of his there every morning and leaves it there until the six-five comes in at night. I'll see the authorities about it."

"But there isn't any law to prevent parking, is there?" asked Doris Hindley. "Probably the man who owns the car is a commuter living quite a way out in the country and he doesn't like to leave the car right in front of the station for fear it would be in the way, so he just parks it here."

"It isn't a man," informed Ted, the nineteen-year-old son, hitherto deeply engrossed in his omelet, toast and coffee. "It's a girl."

"That doesn't really alter the situation," remarked Tom of twenty-five, who had overheard part of the conversation as he entered the dining room.

"I'll have Benson speak to the young woman," said the father of the family. Benson was the entirely dignified elderly chauffeur who drove Mr. Hindley's expensive imported car.

Mr. Hindley spoke to Benson that morning about it as Benson drove his employer to his office in the brick works that had made him a millionaire. And the next morning, on seeing the shabby little car again parked under his favorite maple tree, he questioned Benson.

"Well, you see, sir," said Benson, trying to hide some confusion and embarrassment, "the young woman that owns it is quite young and—well, I didn't like to frighten her. She seemed to think that she had done something almost criminal and that her license would be taken away from her, so—well, I hadn't the heart, sir, to insist on her putting her car somewhere else. She said the leaves of the tree were so thick that it served to keep the rain off in summer, and also served to keep off the bright sun which would blister the paint."

"If you're too soft-hearted to attend to it," said Mr. Hindley patiently, "get one of the men to do it. No—perhaps that wouldn't be quite courteous. I'll ask Miss Doris."

So the task was given to Doris Hindley, who lay in wait for the owner of the pathetic little car the next morning.

"That Miss Kelsey is the most interesting girl," said Doris at dinner that night. "You really ought to meet her"—this to her brothers. "She's studying art in the city and living out in the country with an old woman because it's cheaper that way. Her father was a court painter in Russia before the war and they had to flee, and then he died and she had to go to work at anything. She sold papers for a while and then she worked in an office until she could save enough to begin studying art. She bought that car for twenty-five dollars and got it into condition and painted it herself and—she's the prettiest thing—"

"Did you tell her about parking further down the road?" asked Mr. Hindley, growing impatient.

"I forgot all about it," said Doris in surprise. "We had such a short time before her train went and I was so interested."

"Yes," said Mr. Hindley, wearily. "Perhaps you'd be willing to say something about it tomorrow." He addressed his younger son, Ted agreed and was sure he would be successful, but next night he reported the remarkable coincidence that he had discovered on talking with Mazie Kelsey that her very best friend in art school was Laura Drake, that peach of a girl he had met in the mountains the year before. And Mazie had arranged to have them meet in the city at lunch some time. "After that it seemed a bit awkward to ask her to move her car. I thought perhaps you'd be willing to speak to her about it." This remark was addressed to Tom, his elder brother. So Tom said he'd do what he could. Next night he made no report until he was reminded by his sister.

"Blame it all," he said. "The girl is so sweet and pretty I just couldn't. It didn't seem quite gallant." He didn't mention the fact that the reason why he had declined to play bridge after dinner with his family that night was because he was going to drive his speedy little roadster out to the farmhouse that Mazie called home.

So, somewhat vexed and really very tired of the sight of the shabby car in front of his house, Mr. James Hindley said he would speak to the young woman the next morning.

That night Doris, Ted and Tom interrupted each other to ask him what luck he had.

"Why," said the older man, smiling a little sheepishly. "I suggested to the young lady that she would do better to leave the car in our garage, where it could be looked after. She seemed so grateful, and, by the way, she seems rather lonely."

"Doris can go over with me tonight," said Tom with enthusiasm.

And before the summer was over the charming Mazie had become the even more charming Mrs. Tom Hindley.

ELEVENTH VICTORY FOR THE "LITTLE POTATOES"

The "Little Potatoes" annexed their eleventh victory for the season Tuesday morning when they beat the "East Siders" in a rather one-sided baseball affair. The game belonged to the Spuds from the first inning. The final score was 14 to 7.

The nine from the East Side could not solve the slants of Barnett and Conway, pitchers for the Spuds, nor could they make the right connection with ball and glove when the Potatoes were doing their slugging.

This is the second defeat of the East Siders within the past week at the hands of the Little Vegetables. The other game was played last Friday and the score was 15 to 6. In this game Barnett, pitching for the Potatoes, struck out twenty men.

The line-up for Tuesday's game was as follows:

East Siders: B. W. Ernest, 2b; D. Billy Ford, 1b; Joe Ernest, cf; Mac Underwood, p; Crockett Petty, cf; Clifton Sanders, ss; George Neel, 3b; Ray Balch, 1b; Tom Coble, c.

Little Potatoes: Wilbur Barnett, p-ss; Fred Kobers, 1b; Truett Grant, c; Lenus Conway, ss-p; G. C. Choate, cf; John Stripling, 2b; Willis King, rf; Ralph Duvall, lf; Allen Stripling, 3b; Clinton Jones, 2b; Umpire, A. G. Hall.

DISAPPROVE USE OF SMALL SIZED ENVELOPES

The Postmaster General has requested all postmasters to urge dealers to discontinue buying miniature sized envelopes for the following reasons:

First, Being so small the address is crowded and frequently not plainly written.

Second, In running letters thru the cancelling machine the address is often obliterated.

Third, They do not tie well in packages of other sized envelopes which means that it requires more time of Post office clerks and railway postal clerks in handling them.

Make Mile a Minute

The thrill of traveling a mile a minute by rail was first experienced in 1848, when the Antelope, a 10-ton engine built under the direction of Superintendent Minot of the Boston & Maine railroad, covered the 26 miles between Boston and Lawrence in just 26 minutes. The engine had single drivers, six feet in diameter.

Every detail was carefully arranged to give the new engine a chance to break all previous records. Minot selected an engineer named Pemberton to drive the locomotive. Pemberton was reluctant at first, but when Minot threatened to take the throttle himself, he agreed to try. Minot rode with him.

Men were sent over the road to spike down all switches and see that everything was in perfect order. It was before telegraphy had been introduced and to run a mile a minute required careful preparation.

A large crowd gathered at the station and amid cheers and waving of hats, the Antelope began its historic run. Half way to Lawrence, Minot looked at his watch. Fourteen minutes had elapsed. He urged Pemberton to get more speed and Pemberton pulled the throttle wide open. The engine responded and when the train was brought to a stop at the station, Minot's watch showed just 26 minutes had elapsed since the start.—Railway Life.

Have Own Tribunal

One of the strangest tribunals in England sits at regular intervals in an upper room at the corner of King street and St. James' street, west, in the center of the great art world of London.

It is the antique dealers' "High Court of Justice," to which any of the 550 members of the British Antique Dealers' association has the right to appeal. Its judges, who sometimes number as many as 20, include some of the world's greatest experts on precious stones, old china, tapestries, pictures and antique furniture.

Disputes arising out of the sale of an antique of more than ordinary importance are often referred to the court for arbitration, and if they think fit, the judges have the right to call independent art experts.

It is to protect the interests of antique dealers and safeguard the honor of their industry that this tribunal has been established.

Foolhardy Feat

For five shillings ($1.25) an English steeplejack performed a feat so dangerous that a film star would probably ask a small fortune for doing the same thing.

As a result of an argument with another steeplejack over the merits of their respective bicycles, this man had his machine hauled to the top of a 90-foot chimney. With smoke belching from the chimney, the steeplejack calmly mounted his bicycle and balanced himself on the narrow ledge for two minutes. The other steeplejack then mounted the chimney and paid over the five shillings which had been won by the performance of this daring feat.

Gems From California

In one mine near Ramona, Calif., the tourmaline crystals are often gigantic, some being five inches in diameter, fifteen pounds or so in weight and dark green to opaque, whilst other smaller ones are a deep rich green and classed as gems. The famous Pala Chief mine near Pala produces not only the commercially valuable lepidolite (lithia mica) from which comes our lithia tablets, but also kunzite and gem tourmalines of red, blue and green—as well as Spodumene, both white and lavender—truly one of the most remarkable mines on our entire globe.—Los Angeles Times.

Complete Address

S. Gruskin, New London, Conn., hardware merchant, recently received a letter addressed as follows:

"Mr. S. Gruskin Hardware and Household Utensils, Paints, Glass, Seeds, Wire, Fencings, Roofing Paper, Tel. connection, 615 Bank street, New London, Conn., America."

The letter was from a writer in Europe who had copied Mr. Gruskin's letterhead, word for word, and who believed that all the words were necessary for the proper address.—Good Hardware.

Honesty Still Best Policy

Why are nice women nice? Because of the knowledge that being nice pays, and is easier than being tough.

The greatest sermon ever written, or ever will be written, is that honesty is the best policy. No one man wrote this sermon; all men lived, proved it. Those who violate the sermon know better; they are actuated by meanness, recklessness. Many of them are put in jail; a few hanged; all punished in one way or another.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Since You're So Wise

From a ladies' paper: "When the gay bard of Avon fondly inquired, 'What so rare as a day in June?' he was probably thinking of the smiles and tears and tenderness of the wedding day."

Now tell us what James Russell Lowell was thinking of when he wrote "To be or not to be."—Boston Transcript.

IN SOCIETY

MISS MABEL RICKER IS PARTY HONOREE

In the lovely rooms of the L. S. McDowell home on Scurry street, which were bedecked with pretty summer blossoms, guests were received on last Thursday afternoon, by Mrs. L. S. McDowell who most delightfully entertained in compliment to Miss Mabel Ricker, who was a guest in our city for the week, and who has recently returned from New York City, where she had been a student under Oscar Seagle, the noted baritone.

The pretty trees, shrubs, colorful summer blossoms and well kept lawn of this, one of the most attractive homes in the city, were admired by the guests as they entered and supplied a pretty view thru the windows of the solarium, and other entertaining rooms during the afternoon hours.

Bridge was the diversion chosen by the hostess for entertainment of the guests and six daintily appointed tables were arranged for the play. The honoree did not engage in the play, but passed from group to group, exchanging greetings and friendly conversation with the guests. In the series of interesting bridge games Miss Lillian Frances Gary won top score and was beautifully favored.

At the refreshment hour, luncheon covers of pretty design were spread, and a plate luncheon of unusual attractiveness was passed. Dainty nut cups in pink and red, holding candied pecans were given as party favors. In souvenering the honor guest, Mrs. McDowell presented Miss Ricker with a very lovely gift.

Those included in this complimentary hospitality were: Mrs. Bob Austin, Mrs. J. D. Biles, Mrs. E. O. Ellington, Mrs. F. H. Roe, Mrs. V. H. Flewellen, Mrs. F. C. Hopkins, Mrs. O. E. Wolfe, Mrs. A. L. Wetsel, Mrs. Eb Hatch, Mrs. Hilo Hatch, Mrs. J. C. Hurt, Mrs. Harry Hurt, Mrs. D. Hillard, Mrs. Travis Reed, Mrs. J. L. Thomas, Mrs. Homer Markham, and Misses Zou Hardy, Spencer Leatherwood, Thelma Fox, Lillian Frances Gary, Nell Hatch and Jena Jordan.

Out of town visitors attending this delightful affair honoring Miss Ricker were: Mrs. F. H. Etheridge, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. H. B. Robb, Dallas, and Miss Vera Hall, Abilene.

COMPLIMENTARY TO OUT OF TOWN VISITORS

A most pleasing hospitality of the week in which out of town guests, who are in Big Spring visiting relatives and friends were complimented, was the one of Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. J. Clifford Hurt entertained informally in their honor.

The hostess provided a lovely setting for the party, and chose bridge for the afternoon's diversion. At two prettily appointed tables, the guests were seated and between interesting bits of conversation a series of games were played.

At the tea hour Mrs. Hurt served a dainty salad course with frosted punch to the ten guests who were: Mrs. Harold Whipple and Mrs. Joseph Church of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Louis Powell of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. F. H. Etheridge of Los Angeles, Cal.; Miss Vera Hall, Abilene; Miss Mary Holmes, Corsicana; Miss Mabel Ricker, Mrs. J. D. Biles, Mrs. Harry Hurt, and Miss Gertrude McIntyre.

MRS. J. Y. ROBB HOSTESS TO 1922 BRIDGE CLUB

The pretty home of J. Y. Robb in Fairview Heights was the meeting place for the members of the 1922 Bridge Club members this week, with Mrs. Robb hostess on Tuesday afternoon.

She arranged for four tables of players, including in the hospitality the club members and Miss Nell Hatch, Mrs. Hilo Hatch, Mrs. John Hodges, and Mrs. H. B. Robb of Dallas. At the conclusion of the two hours play when scores were compared, Mrs. O. E. Wolfe had won the honor of club high score, and Miss Nell Hatch made visitor's high score.

A pleasant aftermath to the play was a delectable salad course.

HONORED IN NEW YORK CITY

Mrs. Elta Campbell Roberts and Miss Willie Campbell, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Campbell, were entertained at luncheon by Miss Margaret Wilson, last Saturday at the Woman's City Club of New York.

Next Wednesday afternoon Miss Wilson will have Mrs. Roberts and Miss Campbell to tea in her apartment.

Mrs. Roberts and Miss Campbell are spending their vacation in New York.—Abilene Reporter.

JOHNSON-HATCH

The many friends of the contracting parties were surprised to learn of the marriage of Thomas E. Johnson of Colorado and Miss Helen Hatch of this city, the ceremony being performed in Stanton, Texas, Saturday evening, July 24, by the Rev. Mr. Atchinson, pastor of the First Christian church of Stanton. The plans for the wedding were kept secret, from everyone except the attendants, who were: Misses Louise and Lillian Shive, and Mildred Frances McNew, of this city and James Jones, Pete Flannigan and A. L. Houston of Stanton.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hatch of this city and she is admired by all for her many lovely traits of character. She was a student at Simmons University at Abilene during the past school year and had previously attended summer school there, and during this time, she became a very popular student on the campus. She has made her home in this city since childhood and has a host of warm friends who wish her every success and happiness.

The groom comes to us recommended as an energetic, dependable and upright young citizen, and he is held in high esteem by all who know him.

The happy couple are at home in Colorado, where the groom is employed by the Berry Lumber Co.

The Herald joins a host of friends thruout this section in extending congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds.

MRS. ELLINGTON ENTERTAINS THE PIONEER BRIDGE CLUB

At tables of pretty appointment, the members of the Pioneer Bridge club found places on Wednesday afternoon to become engaged in a series of interesting bridge games with Mrs. E. O. Ellington hostess at her attractive home on Main street.

Three tables of players contested in the games with invited guests playing substitute hands for absent members. Mrs. R. C. Strain was successful in winning club high score, and Miss Lillian Frances Gary made visitors high score.

At the refreshment hour, Mrs. Ellington served a delectable two course luncheon to the twelve guests. Beside the club members those present were: Mrs. F. H. Etheridge, of Los Angeles, Calif.; Miss Vera Hall of Abilene, and Miss Lillian Frances Gary.

TEMP CURRIE JR. ENTER-TAINS S. S. CLASS

Little Master Temp Currie Jr., was host to the members of his Sunday School class of the Presbyterian church of which Mrs. J. O. Tamsitt is teacher on last Thursday afternoon, inviting them to a picnic. About fifteen youngsters assembled at the Currie home, where they played games on the lawn and made merry after which a delicious picnic supper was spread. Assorted sandwiches, salad, cake and other picnic delicacies were enjoyed by the children. Everyone present reported a most enjoyable time.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Howard County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Furman W. Jett by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Howard County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Big Spring, Texas, on the first Monday in September, A. D. 1926, the same being the 6 day of September A. D. 1926, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 29 day of July A. D. 1926, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1938, wherein Irna Jett is plaintiff, and Furman W. Jett is defendant, and said petition alleging Plaintiff is and has been for more than twelve months a bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas, and a resident in Howard County in said State more than six months before filing petition.

Defendant and plaintiff were legally married in Howard County, Texas, February 26, 1920; lived together as husband and wife till in the month of August, 1925, at which time plaintiff separated herself from defendant, the separation permanent for the reason that, though plaintiff had been devoted to defendant, kind to, and indulgent with him during all the time they lived together and while he was unemployed, taxing herself to the utmost of her strength at different times to earn support and maintenance for herself and defendant and their child, defendant not inclined to find employment and refusing to devote himself to work, when opportunity afforded, and failing to support and maintain plaintiff and their child, and finally ordering her away from him and their temporary abode because she refused to join him in a scheme to defeat payment of rental for their room, under demand that she should not return to him, rudely tearing her baby away from her arms and when she had repossessed it, breaking the screen to effect entrance into room where she was and he, his mother joining him, making an assault upon plaintiff and tearing her baby away from her, the bad treatment in neglecting her and the child, in refusing to support and maintain them and finally driving her away, and then assaulting her so that she stood in terror of him, the outrages perpetrated upon her rendering her further living with him wholly insupportable.

Two children and only two were born of the marriage, the first February 19, 1921, and which died two weeks after its birth, the other, Evelyn Muriel, now about three years old.

Plaintiff has cared for the child; has devoted herself to its support and maintenance and care, and will provide for her support, maintenance and education and is a suitable person to have care and custody of her.

Defendant is profligate and has not cared for the said child; is not a suitable person to have or exercise custody over her.

Plaintiff prays that she be divorced from defendant and for the care and custody of the said child.

Herein fail not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Big Spring, on this the 29 day of July, A. D. 1926.

(Seal) J. I. PRICHARD, Clerk, District Court, Howard Co., Texas. 45-41.

CITIZENS OPPOSE MOVING EXPRESS OFFICE

A petition is now being circulated requesting the officials of the Texas & Pacific Ry. Co. and the American Railway Express Co. not to move the frame structure, used as an express office into the space at the foot of Main street.

According to the ordinances of the city it is not lawful to move a frame structure from one location within the fire limits of our city to another location within such limits and therefore the officials of the above named companies should not ask a concession that has been and will be denied the citizens of Big Spring.

Furthermore this building right at the foot of our Main street will prove an unsightly obstruction and the citizenship have a right to protest its location at this point.

Surely the goodwill of the citizenship of Big Spring is worth something to the Texas and Pacific Railway and the American Railway Express Co. but we do not believe they will gain friends if the officials of these companies attempt to override the wishes of the majority of the citizens of this city.
