

U.N. Orders An End To War In Palestine

Decision Is Strongest Yet Made By Body

Jews And Arabs Are Given Three Days To Comply

LAKE SUCCESS, July 16. (AP)—The Security Council last night ordered the war in Palestine stopped.

The 11-nation council gave the Jews and Arabs three days to cease firing and committed itself to back up the decision with force.

The delegates also ordered an unconditional cease-fire in Jerusalem, effective by tonight. The Holy City is to be demilitarized.

The final vote came on an American resolution after three days of debate. The ballot was 7 to 1 with only Syria in opposition.

It marked a British break with the Arab world but during the closing hours of debate Sir Alexander Cadogan sought to soften the blow by explaining carefully that his government was not endorsing any suggestion that the Arabs are the aggressors.

Under the council order failure of either side to comply within three days automatically "demonstrates" a breach of world peace. The council then is committed to immediately consider invoking its most potent weapons under the UN charter—diplomatic sanctions, economic sanctions and international land, sea and air forces.

Johnson Declares Defense Is No. 1 Job Of U. S. Now

By the Associated Press

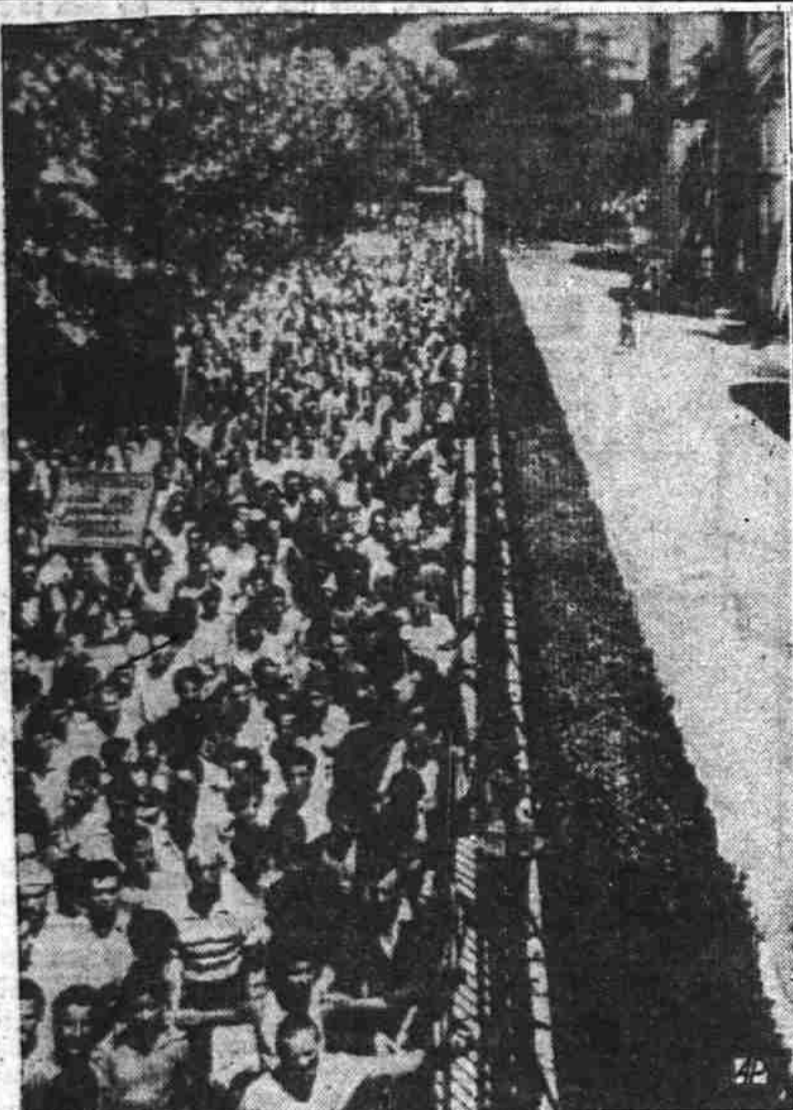

Creation of an impregnable defense is the number one job facing the United States today, Lyndon Johnson, candidate for the U. S. Senate says.

Johnson, who revised his speaking schedule today to attend the funeral of an uncle, Sterling Price, at Blanco, told an audience at Mineola yesterday that: "If the nation falls back on the disarmament policies of the Harding administration, war may come."

"I don't think a man here would walk up to Jack Dempsey and slap him. And no country will take a war slap at us if we are champions in military might and other folks know it."

Coke Stevenson, an opponent in the race, today carried his handshaking tour to West Central Texas with no definite schedule. Yesterday he visited Corsicana, Hillsboro, Cleburne and Granbury. He spent the night at Fort Worth.

George Peddy, also a candidate for the Senate, attended reunion celebrations at Glen Rose and Granbury today. Peddy, who visited Orange and other Gulf Coast points yesterday, declared that Stevenson and Johnson "are cutting each other's throats."

Fresh Disorders Erupt In Italy

ROME, July 16. (AP)—Fresh disorders erupted in Italy today as a Communist-led general strike sputtered to a halt.

The Communists called off the strike after Premier Alcide de Gasperi's government said it would use force to break the "insurrection." The official end of the walkout at noon (4 a. m. CST) came amid scenes of wild tumult in the Chamber of Deputies where Christian Democrats and Communists engaged in fist fights.

At least 13 persons were killed and more than 100 injured in the Communist-sparked rioting. Even before the hour set by the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor (CGLI) for the end of the walkout, the strike virtually had collapsed.

A back-to-work movement began late yesterday. The CGIL knuckled under when De Gasperi's government stood firm against this most serious challenge yet to its authority.

In the last hours of the strike 16 persons were wounded, three seriously, in a gun battle in Bologna. Police used their guns on strikers after they were fired on from the windows of the Chamber of Labor office there.

Investment Risks Not U. S. Tradition

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board went after tradition today. The tradition: that Americans are always eager to take risks in investments.

It just isn't so, the board reported. It said a survey made this year turned up the following information: 1. Only about six million of the nation's 145 million persons own stocks and bonds—not counting government savings bonds.

THOUSANDS TO BE IN ESCORT

Vast Rites Set For Pershing

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—A vast military funeral procession is planned for general of the Armies John J. Pershing.

Tentative plans call for an escort of thousands of infantry and bluejackets, marines and Air Force personnel. In addition, there is to be a farewell salute by Air Force planes over the grave of the 87-year-old war hero, who died early yesterday at Walter Reed Hospital after 10 years of steadily falling health.

Diplomacy Is Out In Future Red Dealings

Retaliatory Action Must Be Used Now

BERLIN, July 16. (AP)—Only two courses of action have any hope of breaking the Soviet blockade which is strangling this city and bringing Europe closer to war than at any time since Munich.

The first is the use of Western power military forces to clear land routes. The second is retaliatory action by the West in other parts of the world which would make it too costly for the Soviet Union to continue its Berlin policy.

This is the common belief of the Western allies and the Germans. They believe further that the Soviet Union has killed international diplomacy in the accepted sense.

No one dealing with the Russians in Berlin in the past three years has any hope that any note or protest would have any effect on Soviet policy. This includes any United Nation or world court action.

Failing to achieve what she wanted in Germany at the conference table, Russia has abandoned mediation for direct pressure propaganda.

In the simplest terms two million Germans and 25,000 Western allies in Berlin are being held as pawns by Russia to achieve her aims in Germany.

These aims are principally two. The first is establishment of a strong German government on the Soviet model dominated by the Communists.

The second is a Soviet voice in the economic life of Germany, principally the industrial Ruhr. The squeeze on Berlin was not brought about by the currency reform or the setting up of a Western German government.

It started months ago when the Russians first cut off Allied military trains. The Russians warned the Americans and British today that Soviet fighter planes will be training in air corridors down which the Western Allies are bringing supplies to blockaded Berlin.

The Russians have been posting such notices more regularly as the American and British Air Forces stepped up their air lift.

Both American and British officers described the increasing Russian air activity in the corridors as "severe harassment tactics intended to make things awkward for us."

They emphasized that the Russian action was not affecting the operation of the air lift. Meanwhile the Soviet-licensed press continued its propaganda efforts to belittle the air lift and insisted that the Western powers "will have to take the step back" in the Berlin stalemate.

The American Military Government has told Berliners they have a right to demand the lifting of Russia's "brutal starvation blockade" and promised them more aid through the allied air bridge.

Company Will Expand To Three Unit System

L. C. Porter Announces New Move At Dallas

Division headquarters for the Texas & Pacific Railway company are being returned to Big Spring.

L. C. Porter, who is to become operations vice-president of the T&P on Aug. 1, advised the Herald from Dallas Friday morning that the company is expanding to a three-division set-up within the next 45 to 60 days.

Earlier in the week, in a visit here, Porter had indicated such a move would be recommended to W. G. Vollmer, president.

Approximately 35 to 40 officials and employees will be required to staff the division headquarters here, it was estimated. Included will be a superintendent, two assistant superintendents, chief dispatcher, other dispatchers and clerks.

Other headquarters will be in Fort Worth and Alexandria, La. The new set-up will replace the present arrangement in which the railroad operates its 1,300-miles in two divisions, both headquartered at Fort Worth. A similar three-division system was in force about 10 years ago.

Each of the new divisions will be in the charge of a superintendent, Porter said, with one such sector from El Paso to Fort Worth headquartered in Big Spring; a second from Fort Worth to Texas and Shreveport, La., and including the T&P's T-C division through Paris and Sherman, headquartered at Fort Worth; and a third from Shreveport to New Orleans headquartered at Alexandria.

The entire top floor of the T&P passenger terminal here is to be remodeled to provide office space for division headquarters, and work is due to start next week. Unofficial estimates are that preparations will represent a project of approximately $60,000.

Personnel affected by the expanding of operations into three divisions were notified at Fort Worth Thursday afternoon and Friday morning, but no fixed time was given. Porter put an estimate of two months as the outside time required to complete preparations.

Since 1939, the T&P has operated its western division from Fort Worth to El Paso out of Fort Worth but with George R. French in charge of the Big Spring-El Paso sector as assistant division superintendent.

Anticipating the development, Porter conferred with chamber of commerce community leaders here concerning housing prospects and was given assurance that everything possible would be done to supply the needs.

Corporation Being Planned For Housing

Plans for forming a $60,000 corporation here to provide housing needs anticipated in connection with return of T&P Railway division headquarters to Big Spring were announced this morning.

Formal application for a charter probably will be submitted early next week, spokesmen said. L. C. Porter, newly named operations vice-president for T&P, was here Tuesday for private conferences with several chamber of commerce officials and business men, and in response to his request for definite assurance of adequate housing for personnel who will be transferred here, two meetings were called Wednesday in the chamber of commerce conference room.

At a Wednesday morning session, with Elmo Wasson, chamber of commerce president, presiding, business men discussed tentative plans, and another meeting was arranged for Wednesday afternoon. All stock was subscribed at an afternoon meeting, and J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce manager, was designated to arrange for a charter application.

Although definite requirements will not be known for several days, indications are that at least 25 living units will be needed.

AMARILLOAN INVOLVED

Shooting Climaxes Paraplegic's Fight

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 16. (AP)—A paraplegic veteran was reported in fair condition today after a shooting that climaxed a fist fight from wheel chairs at Kennedy Veterans Hospital.

The wounded man, Richard Hicks, 31, of Canalou, Mo., was shot through the left thigh by a similarly paralyzed patient, said Dr. Clyde Beck, hospital manager. Beck identified Hicks' assailant as Wallace Rice, 28, of Amarillo, Tex., who, hospital authorities said, has the highest I. Q. of all the patients here.

Beck said Rice wheeled his chair over to a friend, Dow Duckworth, 20, of Gainesville, Tex. After Duckworth showed him how to work the pistol, Beck said Rice fired a shot through the floor to make sure the gun was working and then shot Hicks.

Both Rice and Duckworth are held in locked wards pending an investigation by the FBI, Beck said. As the shooting occurred on a federal reservation, civil authorities were not called in.

Beck said both men—paralyzed from the waist down—had previously fought on the hospital sunporch until both fell from their wheelchairs. Guards separated them and carried the two men to their beds.

Tucker Faces New Charges

CHICAGO, July 16. (AP)—A $100,000 false arrest suit was filed in federal court yesterday against the Tucker Corp. and Preston Tucker, the automobile manufacturing firm's president.

Julian C. Ryer of Chicago, one of the attorneys representing three New York men in a receivership suit against the corporation, said in his suit he was "forcible and illegally" detained at the Tucker plant Wednesday for 30 minutes.

The suit said Ryer had gone to the plant with a deputy U. S. Marshal to serve Tucker with a summons in the receivership action. Ryer said Tucker, after he was served the summons, flashed a deputy sheriff's badge and told him he was under arrest.

Tucker said in a statement Ryer had misrepresented himself as a Tucker dealer to gain entrance to a closed meeting of dealers at the plant. Tucker said he challenged Ryer at the meeting and then had a plant guard escort him from the building.

CIVIL RIGHTS

Southerners See New Era In Politics

ATLANTA, July 16. (AP)—Many leading Southerners expressed belief today the civil rights battle marks a major turning point in the nation's political history.

The U. S. is witnessing, they said: 1—Either the first pangs of a new party; 2—Or the beginning of a significant shift, a new lineup of supporters and policies under the old Democratic and Republican labels.

Some of the South's largest newspapers saw an end to the half-century of one-party Democratic rule in the South, and a sort of "fruit basket turnover" in the nation's political mills.

Editor Ralph McGill of the Atlanta Constitution summed it up today with an emphatic: "An era is ended."

Angry Rebels Push Convention Plans

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 16. (AP)—Angry Southern Democrats went ahead today with plans to put up their own ticket in the November elections, but one of their leaders said frankly they have no chance of winning.

Others, however, counted on a solid Southern bloc of 127 electoral votes behind a Dixie candidate for president.

STRIKE FLARE-UP

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 16. (AP)—Forty state troopers stood guard at the E. I. Du Pont de Nemours chemical plant at Belle, W. Va., last night, and brought at least a temporary halt to the clubbings and stonings that have marked a four-day-old strike.

In disorder that continued through most of yesterday several automobiles were upset as they attempted to enter the gates, and men who wielded rubber couplings taken from railroad cars smashed windows in several others. A total of nine injuries have been reported since the strike began.

Communists Cut Mukden's Food With Refugees

MUKDEN, July 14. (Delayed). (AP)—Manchurian Reds have adopted a new technique in the long siege of Mukden.

Refugees are herded into starving Mukden, there to draw on the slim government food supply as much as possible.

Some two million refugees are crowded here. Many said Chinese Communists brought them to the very edges of the city and shoved them into town.

The food problem is acute. Government planes are flying in food. Outgoing planes load up with refugees and fly them to places where food is more plentiful. It is an expensive operation, and the influx of hungry peasants seems never ending.

Look Who Is Calling Names

Look who is calling whom what. The conformist has taken another blast at Marshal Tito and his communists in Yugoslavia. It even accused Tito of conducting a "regime of terror." My, my.

To quote the conformist, Tito's representatives in the forthcoming Yugoslav congress are being intimidated and unable to "speak for the real will of the masses of party members." Yes sir. And the Yugoslav communists are accused of having a touch of nationalism and thus against the worldwide communist movements.

This is all very funny—though tragically funny—coming as it does from the same source that is seeking to choke Berlin to death and chase out the Allies in the process; which is carrying on its own peculiar brand of terror and suppression behind the iron curtain; which in effect says that there is no such thing as international communism but Moscow communism.

It appears there is no honor among communists, either.

Perseverance Bears Fruits

An announcement that the board of control will recommend new building appropriations of $2,000,000 or more for the Big Spring State hospital has been made here by Sen. Sterling Parrish.

Of course this does not mean that the appropriation will be made, but in this instance there is every reason to believe that chances are that the proposal will go through on this amount or even a larger one.

During the past session of the legislature, Sen. Parrish worked with local delegations frequently in appealing to the state board of control to ask for new building appropriations. But the economy wave was on for new buildings for eleemosynary institutions. Efforts to work new construction into Senate bills were whittled for the reason that no new taxes were destined to be added and appropriations already were being. Now the need for facilities is compelling.

But all of this laid groundwork for effective presentation this year to the board of the needs of this area for expanded eleemosynary facilities. The senator intimated several weeks ago that the board indicated it would give favorable consideration. Perseverance is bearing its fruits.

PEOPLE ARE FUNNY, SAYS OFFICE WORKER

By HAL BOYLE PHILADELPHIA, July 13. — "People!" Tony said. "I think people don't make sense."

He'd just seen the Democratic Convention finish up after three days of heat and speeches and people rushing about.

The delegates were everywhere: in the lobbies, on the sidewalks, in the stores but it was in the Convention Hall that they really suffered.

Tony actually didn't get out to the Convention Hall. He was just working in an office and he looked at it from the office window mostly.

And all the time he laughed. "I never saw anything like it," he said. "Look. The people are all in a hurry. They keep going around and around like they were caught in the revolving doors in Wanamaker's on Christmas Eve." He couldn't get used to it, any of it. "People don't make sense," he said.

We ran into a cop who had charge of sending out limousines to big shot politicians who wanted to go some place but felt too important to ride in taxicabs. "I'm getting confused," the cop said, shaking his head. "A big shot from Washington called me and said to send the machine around. I forgot his name. It sounded like Mr. Pistol."

"So the machine goes to his hotel and a man steps up and asks if this is the machine for Mr. Pistol. The driver says yes it is. So the man gets in and says to drive him out to the Convention Hall. And he gets out there."

But it turns out he ain't Mr. Pistol. Mr. Pistol is still standing out front of his hotel, waiting for the machine to pick him up and he calls me up and bawls me out for being slow."

Tony laughs, and looks out the window, and says he's been around a bit and he's never seen things as strange as people.

Truman's Challenge

By JAMES MARLOW PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—President Truman has embarked his campaign for the presidency with a sharp, tough, fighting challenge to the Republicans to stand and deliver.

He did it early Thursday in his speech here to the Democratic Convention, accepting the Presidential nomination. Right at the end of his speech he announced that he is calling the Republican-controlled Congress back into special session July 26. That means this:

1. He's going to ask Congress to pass certain laws, such as those aimed at controlling the cost of living.

2. But most of what he said he'll ask for is something which the Republicans—in their own 1948 platform worked out here three weeks ago—also say needs to be done or studied.

3. That will put the Republicans on the spot of having to deliver on their platform promises.

In his speech Mr. Truman very clearly outlined the Democratic Party's campaign tactics in trying to win the presidency and control of Congress.

1. Claim credit for the Democratic party for all the good things Congress and the government have done since Franklin D. Roosevelt became President in 1933.

2. Attack the present Republican-controlled Congress as a do-nothing—or do-badly—friend of the rich; and blame it for the things left undone.

Here's an example of what you'll be hearing about No. 1: Mr. Truman pointed to the tremendous rise in the earnings of workers and farmers since 1932 and said both groups would be "ungrateful" if they didn't vote for his Democratic Party.

Here are examples of No. 2: A. The high cost of living and the end of OPA and price control.

B. Mr. Truman blamed this Congress for failing to pass a strong federal housing bill to wipe out slums and provide low-cost rentals.

C. Mr. Truman blamed this Congress for failing to pass a health program that would provide more medical care.

D. Mr. Truman blamed this Congress for not passing a law that would bring more people within the benefits of social security. Further, he said, Congress actually knocked 750,000 people out from under the protection of social security.

E. Federal aid to education. Mr. Truman blamed Congress for not voting such help.

F. Mr. Truman blamed this Congress for not acting on the civil rights program he recommended to it last February. That program included an anti-lynching law, a law wiping out the polltax, and other things. Such a program would have helped Negroes mostly, and mostly in the South. So he'll ask for action by the special session on civil rights.

(The Republican platform calls for "prompt enactment" of a law to stop lynching, and end to the polltax and other things.)

Democratic Party Suffers Its Death Struggles At Philadelphia Meeting

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, — Footnote on Philadelphia — There is nothing more agonizing than to watch a person die. At Philadelphia it was equally agonizing to watch a one-party in its death struggles.

It was especially agonizing because the doctor in charge wouldn't call in a specialist.

It seldom happens in real life anymore, because doctors have got over professional jealousy and use common sense about calling in specialists. But history will record that the tragic death struggles of the Democratic Party at Philadelphia were largely because one very nice, optimistic little man set serious and confident, claiming that all would come out right if things were left to him. He flatly refused to call in a surgeon.

At first the relatives protested, said they wanted a new doctor. But the little family doctor said no. His old-fashioned medicine had been good enough before, he said, and it was good enough now. So the relatives sat round the bedside, quietly calculating what inheritance they could salvage out of the deceased's estate. They were reconciled to the death.

Personally, I don't like to see people die; so I came back to Washington early where a perspiring State Department is now grappling with the worst war crisis since before Pearl Harbor.

SHOW DOWN IN BERLIN Ire against Russia is so tense in Berlin that certain high-placed U. S. officials (civilians) have been urging Gen. Lucius Clay to break the Soviet blockade by force.

They want him to arm a food train in the American zone of Germany and send it speeding through the Russian zone to Berlin with U. S. troops in armored cars riding along behind the engine ready to shoot if the Russians resist.

These U. S. officials go so far as to plan countermeasures in case the Russians sabotage the rail line. They propose that a corps of U. S. army engineers be sent along to repair any torn-up rails, also to repair the River Elbe bridge if blown up by the Russians.

Some officials, quite close to Clay, claim that Russia is not ready for war and would try to "localize" and trouble with the "United States. There might be some clashes between U. S. and Red Army troops around Berlin, they advise, but Russia would not let them spread to the rest of Europe. She would backdown first.

General Clay, however, doesn't agree. So far he has rejected this explosive advice. He says that if an incident took place, you never can control men's passions. Trouble might spread whether Moscow wanted it or not. Privately, Clay has described such measures as "unwise and dangerous," likely to "commit us to war."

Instead General Clay favors economic sanctions, before making a move which could convert a cold war into a shooting war. For instance, Clay thinks that we have been too lenient with the Russians regarding shipping and air facilities, that we should crack down on the Russians economically. This would hurt, but not risk war.

In brief, here is one historic case where a soldier is reluctant to use force though civilians urge it. Congratulated by an old acquaintance on not being trigger-happy, General Clay remarked:

"Maybe that's why they keep a soldier in Berlin."

NOTE—Clay trained during the war under War Mobilizer Jimmy Byrnes, a great believer in the art of persuasion to accomplish things.

TITO'S PUBLICITY

Yugoslavia's frank Ambassador Sava Kasanovic was attending a diplomatic reception when Sen. Harley Kilgore, West Virginia Democrat, joshed him about Yugoslavia's break with the Cominform.

"I notice," Kilgore greeted the ambassador, "that Yugoslavia has been in the news lately."

"Yes," smiled Kasanovic, "we haven't needed a press agent for several days."

BEHIND THE NOTE TO RUSSIA Here is the inside story behind the diplomatic protest sent by the U. S., France and England against the Russian blockade of Berlin.

Real fact is that the United States did not inspire the recent simultaneous notes. It was the pet project of British Foreign Minister Bevin.

Late at night, Bevin summoned U. S. Ambassador Lew Douglas and French Ambassador Rene Massigli. Handing them copies of a note, he said that his advisers had prepared the draft of a protest to Moscow and that the United States, Great Britain and France ought to dispatch it simultaneously.

"See what you think of it," he said.

Ambassador Douglas replied that the United States would have to wait and study it. But the French ambassador told Bevin on the spot that the note was too strong. France, he said, could not go along.

Later the French rewrote the original Bevin note. They pointed out that the note was an ultimatum based on such strong language that the Russians could give only one reply—a flat no. Instead they suggested a milder tone with at least some points on which Russia could agree.

The United States concurred with the French and the final notes were based upon the general ideas proposed by the French.

BERLIN MERRY-GO-ROUND

In Berlin, Ambassador Robert Murphy was awakened one night by the sound of singing and tap dancing in his cloister garden. Going to the balcony, he discovered the entertainer was the lone American sentry stationed there to guard him. When Murphy rebuked him mildly, the G. I. said: "Sorry, sir, but that tune is a favorite of mine."

The Russian blockade has not been able to keep the stork out of the American sector. In fact the stork has an especially easy time there for hospital charges, including prenatal care, are $15.

One of the hardships suffered by blockaded Americans in Berlin is tearfully told in the official U. S. Bulletin: "Owing to gasoline rationing, house delivery of Coca Cola will be temporarily suspended."

Most Germans happily consume the contents of any CARE packages they receive, but if sold, the packages bring 2,500 marks, which is a full month's salary for a white-collar worker.

When Mrs. Lucius D. Clay emerged from a plane in Frankfurt the other day, she looked like a worker in a flour mill. The plane had just carried a load of flour to Berlin.

Cargo planes are not returning empty from Berlin; many an American family is shipping its furniture, even pianos—out of the blockaded city by air.

Cigarette in the Frankfurt PX: A G. I. at the lingerie counter, holding up a brassiere for the inspection of his fraulein. She cannot be admitted to the PX but stands eagerly at the door. "How's this for size?" he calls out, and she grins and says, "Ya, ya."

Burt Lancaster May Get Film Earmarked For Power

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD, Pa.—Burt Lancaster will go to 20th-Fox for "Down to the Sea in Ships"—if he can get together with the studio on a salary.

The deal is not completed yet, because there is a difference of opinion as to how much Lancaster is worth. But he likes the story and is eager to do the film, which was once planned for Tyrone Power.

Joan Fontaine finished her last scene of "You Gotta Stay Happy." She now takes a six-month vacation for the birth of her baby. The picture's end didn't come any too soon.

Universal-International plunked out around $50,000 for the Broadway show, "Mexican Hayride," and is ending up with little more than a title and a song for the money. Most of the show is not being used in the Abbott and Costello version, only the Cole Porter hit tune, "I Love You," remaining.

U-I may be the next studio to be marked for an upheaval. The studio is learning—the hard way—that its action melodramas are doing much better business than the prestige films aimed for Academy Awards.

Alan Ladd will help glamorize the U. S. mail service in "Postal Inspector." That nearly completes film coverage of government bureaus, with the possible exception of labor department. Did I just give some screen writer an idea?

MANY STARS HAVE SURGERY DONE ON NOSE

Cyrano de Bergerac got a great deal of delight out of the size of his nose, and saw in its massiveness a combination of intelligence, courage, masterfulness and a few more of the virile graces. But around Broadway these days considerably less such diligent confidence is placed in the size of a schnoz.

Once a Roman nose was considered the ultimate in a matinee idol's facade. Francis X. Bushman captivated the gals of his day. Even now, an exception to the rule is Louis Calhern, who owns a mighty Roman job, a handsome nasal extension which wins him feminine admirers by the score, and got him one of the best looking wives around.

Elsewhere, though, the old faith in such extension of facial physiognomy seems to have gone down some plastic surgeon's drain. Actors, singers, prize fighters, dancers—even managers and agents have their smaller noses truncated at the drop of a scalpel. Milton Berle had a not too unattractive sniffer prettified. The other day a lovely lady named Martha Stephenson Kemp Mature McKelway, one of the real dolls of saloon society, turned up with her sniffer in a sling, and announced she simply had got tired of the old one. Fannie Brice had hers done years ago, and so did Jon Hall, the movie star; in fact Jon had his clipped twice, once to fix things after a college football accident, the other time after he trounced Tommy Dorsey.

Someone asked Columnist Louis Sobol why he didn't have his schnoz cut down and Louis answered that having his sheared would be like cutting a man in half. Betty Bruce, Nanette Farbury, Nan Wynn of "Finian's Rainbow," Harry Richmond, Carole Landis, Dolores Gray, the sensation of London in "Annie Get Your Gun," all had their nasal verandas shortened under the careful eye of plastic sawbones.

Togliatti Shooting

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

All Italy—indeed the whole of Europe—is rocking from the impact of the attempted assassination of Palmiro Togliatti, fiery Italian Communist leader who is widely credited with being Moscow's ablest foreign operator.

Even as Togliatti was being operated on for removal of the bullets which gravely wounded him, wildcat strikes began to spread throughout the peninsula at Red instigation. The Communist press howled for the resignation of Catholic Premier De Gasperi.

The premier himself condemned the assault and rushed to Togliatti's side in the hospital. The harassed chief of state summed up the shooting thus:

"The worst thing that could happen!"

That would seem to be a fair appraisal. The potentialities of this sensational development are so great that no one can foresee the end. This much is clear:

On the face of it any immediate repercussions must be to the advantage of Moscow. Even if Togliatti recovers, he has been martyred and a mighty flame of anger has swept the Communist world and its sympathizers.

Whether Russia gains or loses in the long run depends heavily on whether sheoverplays her hand in her anxiety to take advantage of the situation.

We have seen that the Communist leadership's first move was to start a wave of strikes sweeping through Italy. There you have the makings of a possible revolution, should Red passions be allowed to run that far by Moscow.

And in neighboring France, whose unhappy government long has been fighting for its life in the face of Communist machinations, the Red flag was flung into this new gale sweeping over from Italy. The French Communist party charged that the shooting was "a plot of imperialist war mongers and their agents."

The Bolsheviks are extraordinarily good organizers, ever ready to take advantage of any development like the Togliatti affair. I think we are safe in assuming that they will exploit this shooting as far as they dare.

Suppose, for example, the Communist high command should debate whether this would be an opportune moment to try to start a revolution in Italy and establish a Soviet government. The first thing Moscow would have to ask itself would be: "Could we control such an upheaval or would it be likely to spread and cause another general conflagration?"

The answer to that certainly must be that the gamble would be a terrific risk. On that delicate basis the Reds must decide.

The potentialities of the sensational Togliatti development are so great as to divert the spotlight at least temporarily from the German crisis. This is despite the fact that Russia yesterday replied to the demand by America, Britain and France that she immediately raise the food-blockade against Western Berlin with its population of some 2,400,000.

Officials in Washington, Paris and London have been silent regarding details of the reply. However, a report from London said the Russians would be willing to join in four power talks for a settlement of differences as regards all Germany.

Story Behind Warrant Issue

In announcing plans for issuing warrants to finance some community improvements, Big Spring city commissioners indicated that they remember the old saw about multiple methods for skinning a cat.

There certainly is nothing extraordinary about a warrant issue, because it is far from uncommon for cities and counties to follow that course to obtain funds for financing needed projects when means are not available for cash payment. It may be regarded as unusual, however, when officials in a city of Big Spring's size say that they intend to issue $100,000 in warrants without an increase in taxes. Such an announcement should, and probably will, prompt skeptics to call for an explanation.

For the benefit of those who may be pondering that matter, here is the way the city commissioners have it planned:

To begin with, they foresee no necessity for increasing the current tax levy of $1.70 per $100 valuation because they have funds coming from other sources that have long since been earmarked for improvements such as those planned, especially paving. Since it will be necessary to show a tax levy to support the warrants, they will merely increase the interest and sinking fund's part of the levy on the next budget. This year the interest and sinking fund is receiving 35-cents of the $1.70 assessment, while the general fund is receiving 75-cents. Therefore, if it is necessary to increase the interest and sinking fund's part to $1 next year, the general fund's part will be reduced in like amount, which would give it 70-cents of the $1.70. The five-cent change is merely used as an example here, of course, since the exact amount required has not been determined. However, an amount will be deducted from the general fund equal to that added to the interest and sinking fund.

To make up the general fund's loss, money from the parking meter fund will be transferred, which will mean that parking meters actually retire the warrants. Commissioners say that is exactly what they want. The commission went on record several months ago as favoring use of all parking meter revenues for street work and other related improvements.

Naturally it would be simpler if the city could list anticipated parking meter receipts in support of the warrants, but only taxes can be set aside for that purpose. Therefore, the round-about course outlined above was charted as a method for obtaining the improvements this year.—WACIL MCNAIR

Politics Are Put On Spot

By ALEX TROFFKY

PALO ALTO, Cal.—Names in big type and not-so-candid photographs on posters often are all voters know of political candidates. So the Palo Alto Mail-Dispatch decided to change the situation.

It is putting office-seekers on the spot and their careers on the table by asking them to fill out scientific questionnaires about their activities and capabilities and then publishing the results. The Mail-Dispatch claims such "career profiles" are a "first" in the nation.

So far eight candidates have agreed to bare their lives. The newspaper says "busy electioneering by minutes is a weak excuse for the 30 to 60 minutes it takes to fill out the career inventory... so that voters can have the democratic prerogative to examine pertinent and unbiased factual information... without benefit of editorial coloration."

The surveys are the Van Allyn qualification inventories widely used by business and industry for selection and placement of personnel and by educational institutions in vocational guidance work. They make much lighter reading than the usual political statements.

They reveal a person's vocational abilities, limitations and potentialities. Measurements of character (honesty, public loyalty, etc.) and measurements of ideologies (progressiveness, conservatism, socialism, etc.) are not included.

For instance, two board of trustees candidates, Charles P. Burgess and Donald R. Lilly, were quizzed on 35 identical subjects. Their answers were analyzed and summed up in terse paragraphs under each subject heading. Some of the deductions were not at all complimentary.

Scores ranging from "0" to "9" were given all responses, and zigzag charts carried under the photographs. Burgess and Lilly both averaged "2" on their charts, excelling with the highest score of "6" in a few subjects, getting average scores in many others, but drawing blanks in some.

On the subject of administration, for example, Lilly "does not care to assume full responsibility for decisions of critical importance but prefers collaboration with others. He has had courses in economics and political science in college. Has had no experience in operating his own business or as a corporation officer. Will stick to his decision regardless of the opinions of others."

On the subject of people, Burgess' answers show he "finds people stimulating to him, but has had no training or experience in matters dealing with the human equation."

The candidates also give their views and are rated accordingly on the subjects of tools, machines, dexterity, strength, drafting, accounting, mathematics, records, grammar, art, foods, health, services, animals, agriculture, speech, entertainment, writing, research, selling, adventure, music, languages, religion, minerals, electricity, mechanics, meteorology, construction, chemistry, physics, athletics and transportation.

BUILDERS of DESTINY

The Church occupies a distinctive place in the life of a community. Its imposing architecture and the atmosphere of sanctity that surrounds it mark it as an institution that rises above the sordid things of this world.

Other institutions—banks, stores, warehouses, shops, factories, schools—all have important functions and serve the people in their respective fields. But the Church ministers to the spiritual needs of men and serves the interests of the soul.

The life of any community would be incomplete without the influence of the Church in the lives of the people. No family, no home, no life can fulfill its highest destiny without religion to point the way to peace and spiritual security.

Whether you live in a city or small town or in a rural community, you will find that the churches there are deeply interested in you and would gladly welcome you to their services and fellowship. They will lead you in the way of God, which is the way of life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Volunteer Date To Avoid Draft Is Announced

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—Eighteen-year-olds who want to avoid being drafted next year can start volunteering in the armed forces next Wednesday, July 21.

The date was set yesterday by Secretary of Defense Forrestal.

Under the draft law, all young men 18 through 25 must register, but none can be drafted until reaching the age of 19.

However, 18-year-olds become draft-subject on their 19th birthday—unless they're already in service for a special one-year hitch, followed by a longer period in the reserves.

The new law limits the annual total of these enlistments to: Army 110,000; Navy 36,000, including 6,000 Marines; Air Force 15,000. For the first four weeks after July 21, the Army will accept 10,000 men; Navy-Marines 3,000; Air Force 1,300.

Court To Hear Negro Vote Case

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 16. (AP)—A Negro's request for the right to vote in South Carolina's Democratic primary—traditionally for white voters only—will be heard in federal district court today.

The petition was filed by David Brown of Beaufort County. It is opposed by 86 state and county officials of the Democratic Party. Brown has asked for a permanent injunction against state party rules that limit Negro enrollment as members. Membership, and a pledge endorsing racial segregation, are required for primary voting rights.

The petition will be heard by Judge J. Waties Waring, who ruled a year ago that qualified Negro electors be allowed to vote in the party's primary elections.

Since then, the party has accorded membership only to those Negroes who hold general election registration certificates. Brown contends that Waring's order goes further, and includes other Negroes as well.

McGrath To Direct Truman Campaign

PHILADELPHIA, July 16. (AP)—The election campaign of President Truman and his running mate, Sen. Alben W. Barkley, will be directed by Sen. Howard McGrath.

McGrath was retained without opposition yesterday as chairman of the Democratic National Committee at a post-convention session at which he predicted President Truman will win the November election because "his kind of courage, his kind of confidence, do not fail."

Russian Papers Play Up Togliatti Case

MOSCOW, July 16. (AP)—Soviet newspapers were filled today with protests of Russian citizens against the attempt on the life of Italian Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti.

The press also carried voluminous Tass dispatches from Rome on the Italian general strike and described the labor scene as a series of bloody conflicts between workers and police.

Tass also reported protests against the assassination attempt from Communists in the United States, France and other countries.

GET THIS REGULAR SIZE PACKAGE OF Post's RAISIN BRAN for only 25¢

There's golden energy in those golden flakes of Post's Toasties. Crisper, fresher—more delicate flavor—they're the best-tasting corn flakes that ever came down the pike.

If you've already tasted Post's Raisin Bran, you know what a big two cents' worth you get in this special sale. Those crispy flakes and tender raisins are a super combination. And no wonder! There are more plump, tender raisins in Post's Raisin Bran than you get in any other raisin bran. And, Post's Raisin Bran is made with America's favorite bran flakes—Post's. The flakes add flavor to the raisins—the raisins add flavor to the flakes. It's a perfect Post combination!

Satchel Paige Saves Game, Tribe Sweeps Twin Bill From Athletics
By The Associated Press
It's Bill Vecek's turn to laugh
now. Old Satchel Paige has contributed an important win to the Cleveland Indians' pennant drive.
When Vecek, Tribe president, signed the ageless Negro pitcher to his first major league contract on July 7, some observers said it was just another of Vecek's stunts to keep the turnstiles humming in the Forest City.

But Paige, who has played for and against some of the greatest names in baseball, is demonstrating that he still has some stuff in his right arm which critics allege is anywhere from 30 to 50 years old.
Paige shuffled out of the bullpen in Philadelphia's Shibe Park last night in the second game of a twilight-night doubleheader against the second place Athletics and gained credit for an 8-3 Cleveland victory.
The triumph enabled the Indians, who won the first game, 6-1, behind the four-hit pitching of Steve Gromek, to increase their first place margin over the Athletics to two-and-one-half games.
Paige, who hurled two scoreless innings against St. Louis in his big time debut last Friday night, relieved Starter Bob Lemon in the sixth and snuffed out a Philadelphia rally that brought the A's to within a run of a tie.
The Indians scored once in the seventh to take a 5-3 lead but the A's came back and tied it up when Hank Masicki culled one of Paige's slants for a two-run homer. But after that Paige applied the brakes.
Ken Keltner quickly put Cleveland ahead again by hammering his 21st homer of the year in the eighth inning and Larry Doby clinched the decision for the running Paige by banging a two-run home in the ninth.
The twin setbacks cut the A's margin over the third place New York Yankees to one percentage point as the world champions beat the St. Louis Browns, 4-2, in a night toss at New York.

On-Job Course Enrollment Will End On July 29

Enrollment for three classes of veterans in the Howard County Vocational school will need to be completed by July 29 said E. C. Dodd, co-ordinator, Friday.
Dodd said that one class in distributive education (retail sales etc.) and two additional ones in vocational agriculture were contemplated. He said instructors were available for all three. One of the agricultural classes would meet here, the other at Coahoma.
The distributive education unit, which amounts largely to on-the-job training in sales and service institutions, would be held at Howard county junior college on a 25-hour per week full-time basis of 12 1/2 hours per week part time.
J. O. Jolley is due to join the staff as supervisor for this training.
Veterans applying will need to bring their honorable discharge, and a copy of the marriage license for subsistence, and if additional dependents are claimed, the birth certificate for at least one of the children. Complete information may be had by calling Dodd at HCVC.

Second Scurry Test Has Shows

Magnolia No. 1 Winston, south central Scurry county, took a drill-stem test from 6,900-30 feet.
Recovery was 1.15 feet of and 40 feet of drilling mud and 180 feet of salt water during two hours the test was open. The test showed a small amount of gas and was coring ahead. Top of the oil zone in the lime was 6,790 feet and that gives 30 feet of pay above the water. It might make a small well from that zone. Location is 330 feet out of the northeast corner of subdivision 37, lot 72, Kirkland & Fields.

Sun No. 1 Schattell, in the first 12 hours of official potential testing, flowed through quarter-inch choke and made 260 barrels of 44.2 gravity oil. It made no water.
The test was to be completed at 6:30 p. m. and the well will go on production. Should it continue at its present rate, it would show potential in excess of 500 barrels per day. Location is in section 186-97,
H&T, six miles southwest of Snyder.
It is a discovery in the Canyon section of the Pennsylvania.

In northern Howard county, Seaboard No. 2 Caldwell, section 32-32-3n, T&P, waited on cement set after a squeeze job to seal a casing split. Total depth is 5,183 feet in lime. Seaboard No. 1 Zant, section 28-32-3n, T&P, was fishing for bit cones at 4,095 feet.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Naomi Is A Conquerer Of Sorrow With Love

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
Scripture—Ruth.

Faith and loving kindness are the themes of this lesson. Naomi, wife and mother, who, through love for her daughter-in-law and un-failing kindness to her, renewed her own faith in the goodness of God toward her after her bereavement and grief therefor.

Our modern world, so full of hatred, rivalry, wrangles, intolerance and injustice, is so badly in need of kindness and love. Just simple human kindness could do so much to turn the bitterness and strife into peace.

Why do not people of all races and nations strive for understanding of one another, so that they can live together in tranquility? At the moment it seems as if this most desirable state never will be achieved, but we too must have faith that in God's own good time it will be accomplished.

We—the small people of the earth—must work toward it in our own lives, and small though our contribution may be—it will help, as the leaven in the dough leavens the whole mass.

Our story is told in the book of Ruth, but it is not Ruth who is the heroine of our lesson—it is her mother-in-law, Naomi, whose name means "pleasant one," or "blessed one."

The story starts in Bethlehem, which later became the birthplace of Jesus. It is situated five miles below Jerusalem. There lived a man named Elimelech, his wife, Naomi, and two sons, Mahlon and Chilion.

There was a famine in the land, and Elimelech decided to leave his own country and take his family to Moab, where there was food. The Moabites were of the same stock as the Hebrews, a semitic race, descended from Lot. Their language was similar to Hebrew.

Time passed and Elimelech died; the two sons grew up, and married Moabite women, Orpah and Ruth. Evidently the widowed mother and the two sons and their wives formed a happy, united family.

Sorrow struck this happy home again, however, when the two sons died, leaving the three women widows. Bereaved of husband and sons, Naomi longed for her old home, and decided she would go back to Bethlehem.

The three women started, but on the way Naomi told her daughters-in-law that they should go to their own people, each to her mother's house, marry again and have children. Orpah did as was suggested, after taking an affectionate farewell of Naomi.

Ruth, however, refused to leave her, protesting that wherever Naomi went, there she would go; that Naomi's God should be hers, and she called upon the Lord to witness that nothing but death would part the two.

When the two reached Bethlehem and people asked, "Is not this Naomi?" she answered bitterly, "Call me not Naomi, call me Mara; for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me." Mara means "bitter."

It was the barley season in Israel, and when the grain was reaped, poor women were permitted to follow the reapers and collect what was left of the grain for themselves. Humiliating as it must have been for Ruth, she volunteered to go into a near-by field and gather the sheaves to support herself and Naomi.

The owner of the field where Ruth gleaned was a man named Boaz, a distant relative of Naomi's and a very well known man in those parts.

He noticed Ruth and ordered his men to treat her kindly and invited her to eat her lunch with his family and servants. He even told his men to purposely leave extra grain behind in their harvesting so that Ruth might be able to play home, for, he told Ruth, he had heard of her goodness to her mother-in-law.

We have already studied the story of Ruth, and know how Boaz eventually married her so that her children could inherit Elimelech's property. The whole community seems to have approved of the marriage, and when Ruth had a son, Naomi's cup of happiness was full. When told that "thy daughter-in-law, which loveth thee...hath born him...Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it."

The baby was named Obed, and he was the father of Jesse and grandfather of David, therefore an ancestor of Jesus.

Thus, love and faith conquered sorrow in this beautiful Old Testament story.

Man Is Charged With Plotting To Kill Mother

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., July 16. (AP)—Jack Chester Young, 31, was being held today on a charge that he tried to hire another man to kill his mother for $5,000, State Policeman Sidney Steinberger said.

Steinberger said he and several other police officers were in an adjoining room yesterday when Young made the offer to Sheldon Yost, 29. Both Young and Yost are residents of Stillwater, Pa.

The offer, Steinberger said, involved Young's mother, Mrs. Mary R. Young, 62, of Bendertown, Pa. Young was charged specifically with solicitation to commit murder, the state policeman said.

Young first approached Yost last Wednesday, Steinberger said, and Yost told him to return later. Yost informed police, Steinberger said, and they were posted in an adjoining room when Young met Yost the second time.

Steinberger said Young gave no reason for his action and made no statement. He was scheduled for arraignment today.

Impounded B-17 Has Forced Delay

HALIFAX, N.S., July 16. (AP)—Engine trouble has delayed the return to the United States of a flying fortress believed originally headed for Palestine.

The converted B-17 was impounded by customs after it landed here Sunday on what its pilot said was a routine navigation flight. It had been reported the nine passengers were on their way to join the Israeli army.

A Royal Canadian Air Force aircraft is scheduled to escort the plane to the border, where it would be picked up by an interceptor squadron of the U.S. Air Force.

It was reported American officials will seize the craft when it lands at Westchester County Airport, N.Y.

Clarification Sought In Radio Speech Law

HOUSTON, July 16. (AP)—Federal district court here has been asked to clarify the right of radio stations to allow free speech to political candidates.

The suit was filed yesterday by the Houston Post Publishing Company as owner of Station KPRC. KPRC officials said they were caught in a "squeeze" between state laws and federal regulations.

Texas laws, they said, make the radio station liable for anything that any speaker may say over the station's facilities.

The Federal Communications Commission on June 28 made final a ruling holding that a station has no right to edit a candidate's speech.

"No exception exists," the commission said in part, "in the case of material which is either libelous or might tend to involve the station in any action for damages."

Officials of KPRC said Texas At-
