State Comptroller John Sharp speaker at chamber banquet

Citizen of the Year

S.L. "Shirley" Garrison, center, was named Citizen of the Year on Thursday by Hereford Lions Club President Art Gonzales, who presents him with a plaque of recognition. Watching on is Garrison's wife, Mildred. Garrison was praised for his years of service to Hereford and Deaf Smith County and for his leadership in the community. The presentation was made during the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce's annual banquet, held in the Bull Barn. See additional photo Page 2.

S.L. "Shirley" Garrison was named Citizen of the Year on Thursday by Hereford Lions Club President Art Gonzales, who presents him with a plaque of recognition.

Garrison was presented the honor by Hereford Lions Club president Art Gonzales on behalf of the club, which selects and announces the Citizen of the Year at every banquet.

In introducing Garrison, Gonzales said that "he has been a part of making good things happen in Hereford."

Garrison, Gonzales said, has labored long and hard to make the Hereford Senior Citizens Center what it is today, including time he spent on the board during the center's half-million-dollar expansion program several years ago. He currently serves as president of that group's board of directors.

He was co-chairman of the county centennial celebration in 1990, is active in First United Methodist Church, has been a trustee of McMurry University and was named Ag Man of the Year in 1992. In addition, Garrison has served on the Texas Sugar Beet Board for 17 years.

He grew up in Idalou and graduated from Texas Tech University in 1940, married his wife, Mildred, in 1941, and joined the U.S. Army in 1944, serving in Germany for two years working on that country's agricultural needs.

After returning to Idalou in 1948, Garrison moved to Hart, then to the Easter Community in 1954.

His three children all graduated from Hereford High School.

Through the years, Gonzales said, Garrison was a charter stockholder in one local feedyard, brought a seed company here and now is involved in banking, feedlots, seed companies and grain elevators.

An obviously moved Garrison mounted the platform to a standing ovation to accept his award from Gonzales and congratulations from chamber board president Wes Fisher.

"I feel very humble tonight. I don't deserve this, I don't think," Garrison said.

Until the award was announced, Garrison said, he could not figure out why his wife, who has just been released from the hospital, was insistent on attending the banquet.

The Citizen of the Year presentation was the culmination of the banquet.

Also on the program was a reunion performance by the Hereford Chamber Singers on the occasion of the group's 20th anniversary, and an address by State Comptroller John Sharp.

The Chamber Singers were chartered in 1974 and has traveled around the world representing Hereford.

A special group of 40 Singers was gathered for the banquet, featuring members of the original group and current Singers.

They sang a variety of numbers, beginning with "Zippety, Doo Dah" from "Song of the South," followed by a country music medley and a gospel medley featuring a solo by Jan Walser on "Poor Wayfaring Stranger."

The singing performance ended with a rendition of Lee Greenwood's song "God Bless the USA."

Sharp was introduced by State Sen. Teel Bivins and the two political allies and personal friends traded barbs throughout the evening about their times together.

Sharp mixed humor and seriousness in his message, saying he thought he was getting a special Texas A&M University welcome when greeted by the Herd Maroon-clad Hereford Hustlers, and by the appearance of fellow Aggie Wes Klett, chamber board vice president, serving as master of ceremonies.

Sharp reviewed his Texas Performance Review, which he said landed in the Comptroller's Office in 1990 after the Legislative Budget Board told legislators it could not possibly do such a review during the legislative session.

He referred to a cereal commercial in which "Mikey" gets stuck trying the cereal by saying, "I was Mikey and that's how it ended up in our shop."

But, he continued, the performance review is now a permanent function of the office, which will now have to conduct one every two years.

A performance review to find ways to save money, Sharp said, is not (See GARRISON, Page 2)

Drug dog uses his nose in suspected drug case

BY RICK LANNING

Staff Writer

Ricky, the drug-sniffing canine, has been credited with making a drug bust.

The formidable 54-pound police dog, first ever used by the Hereford Police Department, sniffed out four plastic bags of suspected marijuana after officers stopped a car on Highway 60 Monday.

Ricky's efforts resulted in the arrest of 33-year-old Jesus Carrera of Clovis who was charged with illegal drug possession.

Texas Highway Patrolman Eddie Aguilar pulled a car over about five miles west of Hereford. Suspicious about the possible presence of marijuana, Aguilar received permission from the owner of the vehicle to search the car.

Then Aguilar sent for Ricky and Hereford Patrolman Dave Ellis, who is assigned to the police department's special K-9 unit.

Born in Holland and trained to detect illegal narcotics, Ricky went right to work.

The dog and Ellis searched the inside of the car. As they passed by the driver's side door, Ricky stiffened -- and Ellis knew the dog was onto something.

Further search of the car uncovered a brown cloth glove from beneath the driver's seat -- Ricky pulled it into view.

Ellis noticed the glove contained

Local youth still in competition at livestock show

Two Hereford youth are in the running for grand champion honors in the Houston Livestock Show steer judging in the Astrodome Friday night.

Michael Carlson drove his middleweight Charolais to the breed championship Thursday to qualify for the final judging.

And, Colby Christie showed his middleweight Simmental to the championship in that breed Thursday.

Another Hereford youth, Don Metcalf, reached the barrow grand championship judging Thursday with his heavyweight barrow, but lost out in the finals. Metcalf's animal won breed championship to reach grand championship round.

Approximately 25 youth representing Hereford FFA and Deaf Smith County 4-H earned the right to sell their animals at auction after placing in their respective divisions.

a clear plastic bag. Inside the bag, he said, was four one-quarter ounce bags of marijuana individually wrapped.

Aguilar continued search and found evidence of other controlled substances in the car. Carrera was placed under arrest and transported to the Hereford County Jail where he was arraigned by Justice of the Peace Johnnie Turrentine who ordered him held under $1,000 bond.

Ricky is a Belgian Malinois who started training to become a police dog the day he was born. He joined the Hereford police department in February.

The dog is trained to detect illegal drugs, search buildings, catch criminals, and protect police. His number one weapon, said Ellis, is his ability to bite and hold a suspect.

Ricky understands only Dutch -- all Ellis's commands are made in Dutch -- and his jaws are powerful enough to apply 900 pounds of pressure per square inch.

The animal's sense of smell is sensitive enough to detect marijuana, cocaine, heroin, and amphetamines. In one experiment made by police, a small quantity of marijuana was concealed in a clock on a wall.

Ricky found it. Hereford Police Chief David Wagner described Ricky's work as "fantastic."

Said Wagner, "This police dog has really come aboard. Everybody down here and the community at large has accepted him quite well."

Railroad gets second street-blocking ticket

The Santa Fe Railway got another message Thursday from the City of Hereford -- a citation for blocking a crossing.

Police Chief David Wagner cited a train at mid-afternoon for blocking the Progressive Road crossing for more than the five minutes allowed by law.

City Manager Chester Nolen said the train was across the street for 25 minutes.

The citation Thursday is the second to be issued the railway company for staying on crossings more than the prescribed time.

On Feb. 18, Chief Wagner cited a train for blocking three crossings. Fines of $50 for each of the three violations were levied against the railway by Municipal Court Judge Tawanna Holloway.

In addition, the judge assessed $33 in court costs for each citation, for a total of $249.

Nolen said the fines and court costs have been paid. Maximum fine that may be levied is $100 per violation.

The city manager reported a public relations representative of the railroad recently visited Hereford but offered no solutions to problems.

"I talked to him about cleaning up the right of way and improving the crossings but got no response," said Nolen.

Petitions with names of several hundred Hereford residents recently were sent to the railroad's home office in Illinois, calling for improvements and an end to blocked crossings.

Tooley files paperwork for run at school board seat

The first candidate in this year's Hereford Independent School District trustee election filed his paperwork to run on Thursday.

Randy Tooley, 46, will seek the District 3 seat currently held by Raymond Schlabs, who is secretary of the board.

The terms of Schlabs and District 1 trustee and board president Ron Weishaar expire this May.

Neither incumbent had filed for re-election as of Friday morning.

Tooley is a farmer in the Dawn area.

Filing for the school board will remain open until March 23. There is no filing fee or petition required to run for office. Filing documents may be picked up in the superintendent's office, 136 Avenue F.

The election will be held Saturday, May 7.

Brigham Brown spells way to title in Junior Bee here

Brigham Brown, a 5th grader at West Central School, captured the Junior Bee championship Thursday, competing against 15 other students in the first day of the Deaf Smith County Spelling Bee.

Brigham, 11, survived 20 rounds of words and edged Kyle Artho, also 11 and a 5th grader at St. Anthony's, for the title. Kyle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Artho.

The senior division of the bee was scheduled at 3 p.m. today in the Heritage Room at Deaf Smith County Library. As junior winner, Brown will compete against 14 spellers from grades 6 through 8 in the Senior Bee to determine the county champ.

Brigham, son of Mark and Melissa Brown, correctly spelled "entertain" after Artho stumbled, then he spelled "fugitive" to capture the title. Brigham received a $50 savings bond from Hereford State Bank, while Artho was presented a $25 gift certificate from Gibson's. Speedy Nieman, county bee director, made the presentations.

Nathan Horrell from West Central finished fourth; Eddie Trotter of Nazarene Christian Academy was fifth, and Tiffanie Murillo of Shirley School was sixth.

Today's county winner will advance to the Regional Bee at West Texas A&M University April 9. The bee is being aired by KPAN Radio.

Comptroller welcomed

approached as "find 10 billion dollars in Texas (to cut); let's abolish the University of Texas."

Instead, he said, it operates the same way businesses and individuals do during tight financial times - by finding ways to deliver the same services currently being delivered, but at a lower cost.

Through the performance reviews, Sharp said, three things were learned:

1. When business is in a financial pinch, it "will always remember its customers," whereas government "forgets who their customers are."

For example, he said, the Texas Water Commission would tell applicants that they could not have applications completed in less than three years because of financial constraints, and for those applicants to tell their representatives to appropriate more money.

2. "It is politically much harder to cut spending," he said, with the second hardest thing being to raise taxes, "which is why the second hardest thing happens more often than the hardest."

3. "We've learned the difference between conservatives and liberals

... we'll both spend every dime in the treasury, but conservatives feel bad about it," he said.

Sharp praised Bivins for sponsoring legislation that will help one phase of his performance review and save considerable money.

Sharp said the current system of delivering food stamps involves spending $84 million with the U.S. Banknote Corp. in New York State to print them, then another $6.1 million with Magic Valley Express in Omaha to deliver them to food stamp outlets.

"After that you drive grocery stores nuts" trying to reconcile food stamps to purchases, while banks lose thousands of dollars processing the used food stamps to be sent to the Federal Reserve, where they are destroyed.

At the same time, food stamps are traded or sold to purchase such things as alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs -- "We've even documented in Texas where people have bought houses with food stamps."

Under legislation introduced Bivins, however, the paper money is replaced with a credit card that debits the person's account and sends the money straight to the grocer.

In appreciation for Bivins' work on the legislation -- which recently was given federal approval for implementation -- Sharp presented the Amarillo lawmaker with the first welfare card to be printed.

In closing, Sharp commented on the Texas Competitiveness Council, which he said has already had the effect of forcing the consolidation of 33 state-run printing shops in Travis County into one operation.

"Competition works," the comptroller said, explaining that a business owner who thinks he can deliver a service cheaper than the state can now be allowed to go to the competitiveness council with a proposal, rather than to the agency.

If it's found that the contractor would save the state money, the council can force that agency to contract for the service.

Following Sharp's remarks, Fisher presented the comptroller with a "Hereford Bull" and said, "John, you have renewed our faith in state government."

Richards holds to lead over Bush

DALLAS (AP) - Gov. Ann Richards is holding onto a lead over likely Republican nominee George W. Bush in the Texas gubernatorial race, says a company that recently finished a statewide survey for two Texas newspapers.

"Richards clearly is holding her own on not only Republican issues but on those issues (that) have been a problem for recent incumbents," Blum & Weprin Associates Inc., said of its statewide telephone poll last week of 1,006 registered voters.

The Dallas Morning News and the Houston Chronicle reported in today's editions that Richards was favored by 52 percent of the voters and George W. Bush by 42 percent. Six percent responded "other" or "don't know."

The poll has a margin of error of plus or minus 3.5 percentage points, meaning that the percentage for each candidate could vary by that much in either direction.

Prospective voters were asked, "If the general election for Texas governor were being held today, whom would you vote for?"

Texans also gave Richards higher marks than Bush on state issues, saying she would do a better job at funding education and handling jobs and the economy.

Richards and Bush are expected to brush past little-known opponents in party primaries on Tuesday.

Chuck McDonald, campaign spokesman for the governor, said the results reflect Texans' confidence in the governor. Karl Rove, chief consultant for Bush, said the results stem from the governor being better known.

In the head-to-head matchup, Richards drew 57 percent of women voters, 89 percent of blacks and 79 percent of Hispanics.

Bush's areas of strengths are among white voters - where he had 51 percent - and among Republicans and independent Republicans.

The survey indicated that still up for grabs are men, the elderly, the college-educated and the wealthy.

According to the poll, 67 percent approve of the job Richards is doing as governor and almost half said they have a favorable opinion of Bush, the managing general partner of the Texas Rangers and oldest son of former President Bush.

It's the highest approval rating for Richards since October 1992, based on previous polls.

On the issues, Texans said they believed Richards would do a better job than Bush in handling the economy, funding education and dealing with gun control and gun ownership.

Both candidates rated high on the question of honor. Seventy-six percent said Richards is an honorable public servant; 56 percent said Bush would be.

Jury returns guilty verdict in conspiracy trial of couple

AMARILLO, Texas (AP) - Americans should heed the message a federal jury sent in convicting a man who preyed on embittered farmers, a prosecutor says.

"You can't retaliate against judges," prosecutor Bill Mateja said Thursday. "You can't go out and file false and frivolous liens in the deed records against individuals you think you've been wronged by."

Roy Schwasinger, leader of the group "We the People," was convicted Thursday of conspiring to harass and intimidate judges who foreclosed on Texas farmers. Jurors found the 59-year-old Fort Collins, Colo., resident guilty of two counts of conspiracy and 11 counts of obstruction of justice.

The jury also convicted his wife, 53-year-old Leanna Louise Hoyt, on all counts.

"These people are protesters with the best of intentions," Amarillo attorney Paige Brittain said before the trial started Feb. 17. "They're motivated by a desire to restore the American farmer with his property."

Brittain, who represents the couple, did not return a telephone call to The Associated Press on Thursday.

The jury's five-hour deliberations ended with a blanket acquittal for J.B. Foster, 79, Darrell Sturgess, 54, was convicted of conspiracy and cleared on 12 other counts.

Sentencing will be determined in May, Mateja said.

The four Colorado residents were accused of trying to intimidate and impede Texas court officials by filing bogus liens on them.

Prosecutors say Schwasinger went around the country urging disgruntled farmers to file retaliatory financial statements purporting that judges and attorneys owed them millions of dollars. He also told the farmers not to pay taxes or repay bank loans, investigators say.

Investigators have said that Schwasinger asks people who lost land through foreclosure to pay $300 to join his campaign against the nation's system of land financing.

Seven Texas defendants in the case reached plea bargains last week that spared them from jail time.

The Texans had filed false documents against officials including U.S. District Bankruptcy Judge John C. Akard of Lubbock and Lubbock Mayor David Langston, an attorney.

Herd falls to Brownfield

The Hereford baseball team opened the Levelland Tournament with a 9-3 loss to Brownfield on Thursday.

The loss drops Hereford to 1-2. The Herd was to continue tournament play early today against Dalhart.

"We didn't play as well as we have in the past," coach J.J. Villarreal said. Hereford had beaten Plainview 5-4 in its last game, on Tuesday. "We did hit the ball better though."

Hereford scored two runs in the first inning and one in the fourth, Villarreal said, and he used four pitchers: Louis Hernandez, Josh Tice, Scott Ahola and J.J. Rico. Tice took the loss.

Villarreal did not have his scorebook with him when reached at home Thursday evening, and he said he couldn't provide any more specific information.

Tech, A&M women clash for SWC title

By JEAN PAGEL
Associated Press Writer
LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Winner takes all Saturday in the sold-out Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

Texas A&M wants its first-ever Southwest Conference championship in women's basketball.

Texas Tech wants to protect its reputation as defending national champion.

Never before in SWC history have the two top women's teams fought for the league title in the final regular-season game.

"That's great pressure. That's great pressure," A&M coach Lynn Hickey mused Thursday.

"Hey, it is tough, and we are young and we're on their home floor (but) ... this is what we've been working for, for years," Hickey said.

It's also unusual that perennial women's basketball power Texas isn't in the picture. The Longhorns (17-8, 9-4) are two games back behind both Texas Tech and Texas A&M in the conference race.

Tech (23-3 overall) and A&M (20-5) earned identical 11-2 SWC records with victories Wednesday. The Lady Raiders romped 89-63 over Texas Christian; the Aggies blew an 18-point lead over Baylor but held on to win, 90-87.

Tech coach Marsha Sharp called Saturday's 3:10 p.m. tipoff a showcase for women's basketball.

Neither coach said she expects any extra tension from last month's notorious brawl between A&M men's players and Tech fans at the Lubbock coliseum.

What's at stake - top seed in the post-season tournament - creates a spotlight that's plenty big.

"Both of these groups are motivated because of the stakes," Sharp said. "It will be a very close game - some jitters early, but I expect both teams to settle in."

The Aggies hadn't lost a conference game when they beat Tech 67-64 in College Station on Feb. 5. Since then, though, they lost to Texas and Houston.

The Lady Raiders lost to A&M and Texas in the first half of the conference race, but have won their last six SWC matches.

"We're better now than we were a month ago. We're playing more together," Sharp said.

"We know that we're going to have to play even better than before - the home-floor advantage is tremendous," Hickey said.

Hickey said her players beat Tech last time through aggressive rebounding and good reaction to zone defense. She said her team, which finished fourth in the SWC last year, worked this week on sharpness and confidence.

"We want to be competitive and go out with the idea that we're not happy with 20 wins and second place," Hickey said. "We've never had a ring."

Floyd, Thorpe share Doral lead

MIAMI (AP) - Ray Floyd, who plays where he wants when he wants, and Jim Thorpe, who plays where he can when he can, share the first-round lead in the Doral-Ryder Open.

Floyd, 51, can't make up his mind whether to play the senior circuit or the regular PGA Tour. He's welcome on both and can pick and choose his spots.

"I keep saying I'm going to play most of my golf with the seniors because it's easier," Floyd said Thursday after a remarkable short game preserved a 4-under-par 68 in a 40 mph wind.

"But I really miss the guys on this side. I miss the competition. It's still fun to come back and compete against the best.

Thorpe, 45, isn't yet eligible for the seniors, is no longer exempt on the regular tour and plays where he can get a spot. He got into this tournament only as the recipient of the last sponsor's exemption.

3-on-3 tourney set in Canyon

A 3-on-3 basketball tournament will be held March 19-20 at the West Texas A&M University Activity Center.

The tournament will include several divisions, including Top Gun, 30 years and older, and several junior divisions.

The entry deadline—with $30 entry fee—is March 15. For more information, call Charles Byrd at 655-3536.

Borger ousted from state tourney

By The Associated Press
Waco Midway knocked Borger out of the girls' state basketball tournament with a 61-47 semifinal win Thursday in the Erwin Center in Austin.

Borger, the runner-up in District 1-4A, had its Cinderella season ended at 29-8. The Lady Bulldogs took a big stride towards the state tournament with a bi-district upset over perennial-power Levelland Feb. 15 in Hereford.

It was the first state tournament for Borger since 1942, when it won a pre-UIL championship. The Borger program was disbanded during the next off-season and wasn't revived until 1977.

Midway took control of the game late in the first half, shutting down Borger with pressure and ripping off a 12-0 run just before intermission.

Mary Curry led four Midway players in double figures with 15 points. Krystle Hammond had 14 points, Bridget Lucenay added 13, while Amanda Mooney chipped in 12 for Midway, which connected on 23 of 50 shots, or 46 percent.

Midway never allowed the Bulldogs to get any closer than 11 in the final quarter.

Borger was led by Robbyn Smith's 17 points and 11 rebounds.

In the other 4A semifinal, Cynthia Hogg and Cassandra Branch each scored 14 as Dallas Lincoln earned its second trip to the Class 4A state title game in four years with a 59-47 victory against Tomball.

Lincoln (29-5), the runner-up in Class 4A in 1991, will meet Waco Midway (36-3) in Saturday's championship game.

Lincoln's superior size and quickness were too much for Tomball, which was forced into physical, banging matchups and simply wore down. The Lady Cougars, who were making their first state tournament appearance, finished the year 27-6.

Tomball was led by Rochelle Larrabee with 18 points and Tanya Pieprzycza, who added 12 points and 12 rebounds.

The Lady Cougars, who led 20-19 in the second quarter, pulled within seven, 46-39, with 6:36 left in the game on a 3-pointer by Jamie Bailey. But Lincoln's press dismantled Tomball's offense down the stretch and kept the Lady Cougars from getting any closer than 10 in the final 2:26.

Lincoln had 15 steals and was able to convert 21 Tomball turnovers into 17 points. The Lady Cougars had just five steals.

Midway was the Class 4A runner-up in 1990 and won state championships in Class 3A in 1975 and 1976. The Pantherettes won the Class 2A crown in 1969 and 1973. They were Class B champs in 1955.

Rams sign Cowboys' DT

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Defensive tackle Jimmie Jones of the Dallas Cowboys has reached agreement on a four-year contract with the Los Angeles Rams worth $7.7 million, the Los Angeles Times reported Friday.

The Rams aggressively pursued Jones, who earned $385,000 for the Cowboys last season, after hearing rumors that defensive end might receive an offer sheet from the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Times said.

Jones spent Thursday in Chicago visiting with the Bears, but left in a hurry to travel to Anaheim after fielding the Rams' contract offer.

Jones will receive a $2 million signing bonus.

"He has signed and has already left LA," the Times quoted agent

Drew Rosenhaus as saying. "He's the first Cowboy to leave. It's nice to win, but it's more important to pay the bills."

"This is a great start," Rams coach Chuck Knox was quoted as saying. "This is a guy that we identified from the beginning who could help us."

The Times also reported that after agreeing to terms with Jones, the Rams have turned their attention to Atlanta quarterback Chris Miller.

"I'd love to play for the Rams; I grew up a Rams fan," Miller told the Times. "I was born in Pomona and lived in Claremont. It would be a thrill to play for them. I want to play on grass and play on the West Coast."

Class 3A
Dripping Springs 57, Canyon 53
Waco La Vega 58, Brownsboro 57

Katrina Price scored 41 points, including a game-tying 3-pointer as time expired in regulation, to help Waco La Vega edge Brownsboro 58-57 in overtime Thursday in the Class 3A state semifinals.

Waco La Vega (32-3), making its first appearance in the state tournament, advances to the championship game Saturday against last year's Class 3A runner-up, Dripping Springs (35-3), which also needed overtime to defeat Canyon, 57-53.

Canyon, making its 14th trip to the state tournament, ends the season at 30-4. Brownsboro finished the year 38-1.

Brownsboro, the only undefeated team entering the University Interscholastic League state tournament, appeared to have the game won in regulation against La Vega.

But with the Bearettes leading 53-50, Hallee Ashley missed the back end of a one-and-one with 6.8 seconds left and Price swooped up the rebound and charged downcourt.

She darted through most of the Brownsboro team before launching a running 3-pointer from the top of the key that swished through as the buzzer sounded, tying the game at 53.

She knocked down a 3-pointer to open the three-minute overtime period and added a drive on the baseline, giving La Vega all the points they would need to win.

Price, who is headed to Stephen F. Austin next year, hit six 3-pointers, tying the girls state tournament record shared by two others. She scored 25 of her team's 34 second-half points.

Brownsboro was led by Carrie Foy, a 6-3 senior, who had 20 points, and Marcie Bruner, who hit for 15. Ashley added 14 for the Bearettes.

In the second semifinal, Jinni Touchstone hit a putback with 10.3 seconds left in regulation to pull Dripping Springs even with Canyon at 51 and send the game into overtime.

Sandi Bourland hit a driving bank shot and Melanie McMullen added two short jumpers for Dripping Springs, and the Tigers held Canyon to only one hoop in overtime to secure the victory.

Canyon, which utilized a patient passing attack in a half-court offense, was led by Jennifer Butler with 18 points and Courtney Sims with 14.

Class A
Jayton 50, Moulton 44
Sudan 71, La Rue La Poynor 55

The Class A girls state basketball championship will be a West Texas shootout thanks in part to Sudan's Danielle Martin and Jayton's Buffy Ferguson.

Martin sizzled from 3-point range as she bombed her way to 34 points and helped Sudan run away from La Rue La Poynor 71-55 Thursday in the Class A semifinals of the University

Interscholastic League state tournament.

Martin was the difference for the Hornettes (34-3), tying the girls state tournament record for 3-pointers with six.

In the second semifinal, Ferguson scored 23 points to help Jayton (34-2) escape with a 50-44 victory against Moulton, which barely fell short of a phenomenal comeback in the fourth quarter.

Jayton, with a student enrollment of 49, and Sudan, which has 133 students, are both located on the South Plains and will meet Saturday morning to settle bragging rights.

Sudan, which won the Class A state championship in 1983 and 1987, will be making its fourth appearance in the title game. Jayton, which reached the state tournament in 1989 and 1991, will be making its first showing in a title game.

Jayton won Thursday despite 26 points from Moulton's Denise Pilat, who scored 12 points in a 16-4 run that pulled the Bobkittens within 46-44 with 2:03 left in the game.

Moulton finished the year 31-8 after making its 15th appearance in the state tournament.

Manning leads Hawks in beating of Bullets

By CHRIS SHERIDAN

AP Sports Writer

Things haven't been this way for Danny Manning since he was a collegian at Kansas.

He's once again the go-to guy on the best team in the conference.

Manning had 22 points, 13 rebounds and seven assists Thursday night as the Atlanta Hawks won their fifth straight, beating Washington 109-98. Atlanta hasn't lost since obtaining Manning from the Los Angeles Clippers and has opened a 2 1/2-game lead over the New York Knicks in the East.

"In his two or three games here, he's really gone out of his way to (fit in)," Atlanta center Jon Koncak said. "But in the fourth quarter, when we needed big baskets, he's come in and done that, too."

That's what Manning did against the Bullets when they got close in the fourth quarter. The Hawks had just a one-point lead before Duane Ferrell dunked on a pass from Manning to spark an 8-0 run that made it 102-93 with 3:04 left. Manning had four points in the surge.

After the Bullets closed to 104-97, Manning hit two straight jumpers to seal it.

"That's what we need from him," Koncak said. "We need a guy to move the ball throughout the game, and then when the game's on the line, to step up and make the big shots."

Manning's seven assists were a team-high.

"It's not like he wants to shoot every time. He likes to get everybody involved, and that's a tribute to him," said Duane Ferrell, who scored 21 while subbing for flu-ridden Kevin Willis.

In three games since the trade, Manning is 22-of-43 from the field.

"I'm feeling more comfortable every game," Manning said. "I feel that whenever I get the ball, I can make something happen."

Don MacLean scored 23 and Pervis Ellison had 21 for the Bullets, who lost for the seventh time in eight games.

Cavaliers 95, 76ers 87

At Richfield, Ohio, Mark Price made two key defensive plays in the final minute.

First, he bumped Dana Barros and forced him to lose the ball with 40 seconds left, causing the Sixers to foul Tyrone Hill. After Hill made the two foul shots to put Cleveland up by six, Price blocked Clarence Weatherspoon's 3-point attempt from the top of the key.

Magic 107, Dallas 94

At Dallas, Shaquille O'Neal scored 43 points - six below his career-high - and seemed mad at coach Bob Hill afterward for taking him out with 2:44 to play.

O'Neal, playing against an overmatched and smaller front line, scored the most points against the Mavericks since Michael Jordan had 43 in 1990.

Dallas pulled to 84-78 with 8:05 left, but O'Neal scored six points in a 12-0 run that pushed the lead to 18. Jim Jackson scored 21 points and Jamal Mashburn added 20 for the Mavericks.

Knicks 97, Nets 86

At New York, a close game turned lopsided early in the fourth quarter as the Knicks opened the period with a 15-0 run.

Greg Anthony scored 18 points for the second consecutive game after losing his starting spot to Derek Harper. Patrick Ewing added 28 points and 16 boards.

Warriors 120, Suns 107

At Oakland, Calif., Mullin hit 11 of 13 shots from the field and scored 25 points. Golden State led almost the whole way.

Avery Johnson made his last seven shots to finish with a season-high 23 points on 10-of-13 shooting. The Suns, meanwhile, shot just 43 percent.

Purdue sets up showdown with Michigan

By The Associated Press

The stars of the Big Ten's junior class will meet Sunday with the conference title on the line.

Purdue's Glenn Robinson, the nation's leading scorer, had 31 points Thursday night to lead the ninth-ranked Boilermakers to an 86-70 victory over No. 18 Minnesota. That leaves Purdue (24-4, 12-4 Big Ten) one-half game behind No. 3 Michigan (12-3), the school with the junior class that has reached consecutive national championship games.

They meet Sunday in Ann Arbor, Mich., the Wolverines coming off a 71-58 loss to Wisconsin.

"I was feeling pretty good," said Robinson, who bettered the 30-point mark for the 13th time this season and with 12 rebounds posted his 15th double-double of the season. "Last night after we saw the score and that Michigan lost, I kind of got fired up."

He was just over his 29.3 average and finished 11-for-17 from the field.

"We tried to find a way to stop Glenn, to the right, to the left, down the gut, we couldn't find a way to stop him," Minnesota coach Clem Haskins said.

Now it's up to Michigan.

Cuonzo Martin added 20 points and Matt Waddell had 12 points and a career-high 10 assists for the Boilermakers, who scored 16 of their final 18 points from the free-throw line.

Voshon Lenard topped Minnesota (19-10, 9-7) with 17 points, while Townsend Orr and David Grim had 14 apiece.

No. 8 Arizona 95, Washington 62

The Wildcats (24-4, 13-3 Pac-10) took a one-game lead over UCLA for first place in the Pac-10 by winning their seventh straight. The last loss for Arizona was Feb. 5 at Washington (5-19, 3-12), which committed 30 turnovers, one short of the school record. Khalid Reeves had 28 points and Ray Ows added a career-high 25 for Arizona. Jamie Booker had 15 points to lead the Huskies.

No. 13 Kansas 97, Iowa St. 79

Richard Scott had a career-high 25 points in his final home game for the Jayhawks (23-6, 8-5 Big Eight). The Cyclones (13-12, 3-10) were never closer than 13 points in the second half. Greg Ostertag had 17 points and set a Kansas season record for blocked shots with his 73rd.

Southern Cal 85, No. 15 UCLA 79

The Trojans (14-11, 7-9 Pac-10) knocked the Bruins out of the first-place tie with their fourth victory in five games against UCLA at the Sports Arena. Brandon Martin had 19 points and Mark Boyd added 17 as Southern Cal avenged a 101-72 loss earlier in the season. Tyus Edney had 20 points and six assists for UCLA (19-5, 12-4). Southern Cal went on an 11-2 run to make it 64-53 with 6:28 remaining.

No. 20 California 82, Oregon 73

Lamond Murray had 26 points and Jason Kidd had 25 as the Golden Bears (20-6, 11-4 Pac-10) reached 20 wins for the 12th time in school history. Kidd had five assists and broke the conference season record with 249. Orlando Williams had 22 points for the visiting Ducks (9-15, 5-10).

No. 24 Ala.-Birmingham 84, Dayton 53

Robert Shannon had five 3-pointers and finished with 29 points as the Blazers (21-6, 7-4 Great Midwest) held the Flyers (6-19, 1-11) to 34 percent shooting. It was Dayton's first game since coach Jim O'Brien was fired and the Blazers led by as much as 41. Chris Daniels led the Flyers with 11 points.

TCU coach Iba will be evaluated

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Texas Christian basketball coach Moe Iba will be "evaluated thoroughly" at season's end, athletic director Frank Windegger says.

Windegger told the Fort Worth Star-Telegram he is "very concerned" with the performance of the Horned Frogs, who will finish below .500 for the second consecutive season.

TCU is 7-18 overall and 3-10 in the Southwest Conference going into Sunday afternoon's final regular season game against Texas.

A timetable has not been established for the evaluation, said Windegger, who will assess "the entire program." The athletic director and Chancellor William E. Tucker will reach a "mutual decision" regarding Iba's future upon completion of the evaluation, Windegger said Thursday.

Iba, whose teams have compiled a 96-106 record entering Saturday's regular-season finale against Texas, inherited a bare cupboard before the 1987-88 season.

After that initial 9-19 campaign, Iba joined the late Buster Brannon as the only other coach to produce four consecutive winning seasons in school history.

"You've got to win," Iba said. "We're as unhappy with it as anybody else. We don't think we're getting the job done, either. We've already proved we can get the job done by winning, and we can get it done again."

Iba, whose annual base salary is about $100,000, has two years remaining on the four-year contract he signed after the 1991-92 team went 23-11 and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament.

Home attendance ranks among Windegger's chief concerns. As recently as the 1991-92 season, TCU averaged 5,080 spectators at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. TCU has averaged 2,846 in 11 home games this season.

Windegger does not question the coaching abilities of Iba, the son of legendary coach Henry Iba.

"No, and there never has been," Windegger said. "He's an excellent coach on the floor."

Iba-coached teams are responsible for four of the 12 winning seasons posted by TCU in the past 35 years, and his program never has been found to break NCAA regulations.

"We weren't competitive a year ago," Iba said. "This year's team is competitive. We haven't won the number of games we should have won, and I'm not happy with that. We could have done much better than we've done this year."

Sandberg, Jackson may not meet

By The Associated Press
Ryne Sandberg may hit against Mike Jackson today in the exhibition opener for the Chicago Cubs and San Francisco Giants.

No big deal, right? Wrong.

It was Jackson who hit Sandberg with a pitch in last year's exhibition opener, fracturing Sandberg's hand and causing a bench-clearing brawl.

Sandberg spent the first month of the season with his hand in a cast.

"That was last year," Giants manager Dusty Baker said when asked about the incident. "Besides, Jackson is pitching the eighth inning and Sandberg probably won't be in there anyway."

Fourteen exhibition games were slated for today, but the preseason began Thursday with three games. Pittsburgh beat Minnesota 7-5.

Atlanta downed the University of Georgia 10-5 and Kansas City defeated Central Florida 4-2.

Several teams had intrasquad games, and the most attention - surprise - was paid to the Chicago White Sox and baseball's most celebrated rookie.

Michael Jordan took the field under game conditions for the first time since high school and went 0-for-3 with two strikeouts and an error. His team lost 12-7 after his two-out error allowed the go-ahead run to score.

"Some critics may see it as a setback, but I saw it as an opportunity to go out and see what a baseball game is like," Jordan said after playing all six innings.

"It was my first game and I felt nervous and out of my element. Hopefully, I'll get another chance and be a little more comfortable."

White Sox manager Gene Lamont said Jordan would not start today in the exhibition opener against Texas. But Lamont said Jordan is likely to play some right field.

Pirates 7, Twins 5
At Bradenton, Fla., Orlando Merced had a three-run homer and a two-run double and Alejandro Pena got a save in his return from a year-long absence.

Merced, the subject of off-season trade rumors, homered in the third inning off loser Keith Garagozzo to give Pirates the lead for good at 4-2.

Braves 10, Georgia 5
At West Palm Beach, Fla., rookie Ryan Klesko had three hits and one of Atlanta's four home runs. The others were hit by rookies Mike Kelly, Troy Hughes and Javier Lopez.

Deion Sanders, Jeff Blauser and Fred McGriff helped the Braves to a pair of first-inning runs.

Royals 4, Central Florida 2
At Haines City, Fla., Phil Hitt singled in the go-ahead run in the seventh inning and rookie shortstop Joe Randa had three singles.

Kansas City led 2-0 until Central Florida put together three singles and a double against Rusty Meacham to tie it 2-2 in the top of the seventh.

Astros intrasquad
Carmelo Martinez had three hits, including a two-run double, leading his team to an 8-2 victory Thursday in the Houston Astros' only spring intrasquad game.

Martinez, a non-roster invitee who signed a Class AAA contract, also had a pair of singles in his side's 13-hit attack.

Phil Nevin, Andy Stankiewicz and Scooter Tucker added two hits apiece for the winners.

Left-hander Gino Minutelli allowed 10 hits and all of the winners' runs while lasting 1-23 innings. Two hits were wind-aided in the four-run third, which began with an error by second baseman James Mouton.

Left-hander Mike Hampton, a candidate for the No. 5 starting spot, allowed an unearned run in two innings for the winners.

Oilers discuss trading Moon

HOUSTON (AP) - Houston Oilers owner Bud Adams confirmed Thursday night that he has talked with the Los Angeles Rams and other teams about a possible trade for quarterback Warren Moon.

However, Adams said he was in no hurry to make a deal.

"We've had conversations with other teams besides the Rams about Warren Moon," Adams told KRIV-TV of Houston.

"We still want to keep both quarterbacks," he said, referring to Moon and backup Cody Carlson.

"The quarterback situation is something we do not have to address right now. If we have to put him up for trade, there will be plenty of clubs that want to discuss the matter."

Rams executive vice president John Shaw said he had four or five conversations with Adams concerning Moon.

"At this point, I'm not even sure he's going to be traded, to be honest," Shaw said. "If they were interested, they'd get back to us. We haven't made an offer and they haven't given us a price."

It will be difficult for the Oilers to keep both quarterbacks under the salary cap that goes into effect next season. Moon will earn $3.2 million and Carlson will get $3 million.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our beautiful 21-year-old daughter still lives at home, attends nursing school and has never given us any problems. For four years, "Emily" dated a young man who came from a fine family. We thought a lot of him. They grew very close, and "Will" was at our house constantly. This past summer, he dropped her with no warning, saying they should both date other people. We agreed with him and thought Emily would, too.

We were wrong. Emily grieved all summer. We hoped she might meet someone else and get over him, but it didn't happen.

Just as she was getting her life back together, Will started to call her again. It was obvious that he was using her. He phones only when he is out of money or has nothing else to do. Every weekend, Emily sits by the phone, hoping he will call. When he does, she runs over to his house and spends the night there.

This is upsetting to my husband and me, but we don't know how far we should go. After all, Emily is 21. We have let her know that we disapprove, but it hasn't helped. Please don't tell us to give her an ultimatum. We don't want her to move out. We want her to stay at home and finish school.

Can you give us some guidance?—Beside Ourselves in Virginia

DEAR PARENTS: Obviously, Emily has lost her pride, and that is pathetic. It sounds as if she is hopelessly hung up on the guy, so there is no point in lecturing her.

All you can do is stand by and help her pick up the pieces. And when it's over, be generous. Don't say, "We told you so."

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I work for a small company that employs about 20 people. We get along but don't socialize outside of the office. Most of us just tolerate each other because we work together.

Two years ago, when it was time for the Christmas party, our boss insisted that we have the festivities at his home. To make a long story short, no one had a good time.

"Mrs. Boss" sat in the kitchen with her mother. Their son, who works in the office, didn't even bother to come downstairs. The other sons, who know everyone at work, came in only to say hello and then left. The following morning, we all agreed that we didn't want to go through that ever again.

Well, guess what. Our boss insisted on having the Christmas party at his house again, and we all went and had the usual lousy time. My question is this: Do you think we have an obligation to go to the boss' party in his home year after year? If not, how do we get out of it?—Wondering In Yonkers

DEAR YONKERS: The answer is NO. The senior employee should tell the boss you have all voted for a party in the office. I'll bet his wife will be relieved. P.S. Your office sounds like a snake pit.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: At long last, America has grown up. Gone are the Victorian pretenses. The blinders are off, and we are facing reality.

Too bad it took a terrible scourge like AIDS to produce the "miracle," but now we are seeing brutally frank (though sometimes embarrassing) government-sponsored TV spots advocating latex condoms.

It wasn't too long ago that the word "condom" was not uttered in polite conversation, but now we read it in newspapers and hear it in our living rooms, our kitchens or wherever a radio or TV happens to be.

The public-service spot I like best features the silhouette of a young couple locked in a passionate embrace. The woman asks, "Did you bring it?" The man says, "Uh oh...I forgot." She responds abruptly, "Then forget it."

That commercial is one that millions of young women can relate to. It lets them know they have the right to call the shots and cast the deciding vote.

How about a round of applause for the public health officials who are sponsoring material that is so frank nobody can miss the message.—J.E. Outside the Beltway

DEAR BELTWAY: I, too, applaud the openness with which this administration is approaching the problem of AIDS, but the wrong audience is being targeted.

Approximately 12 million new cases of sexually transmitted diseases were reported last year, and two-thirds of that number occurred in people under age 25. Somehow, we must get the message across to TEEN-AGERS. I'm talking about high school kids and college students in their early 20s. We must destroy their illusion that they are indestructible and it can't happen to them.

We must also get the word out that the people MOST at risk for AIDS are homosexuals and drug abusers who share needles. We must keep reminding them that no thrill and no high is worth the risk of AIDS.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—For one motorist, Jack Nicholson proved as scary in person as he can be in his films.

Nicholson was charged Monday with misdemeanor assault and vandalism for allegedly beating the car of a motorist with a golf club, the city attorney's office said.

Nicholson publicist Sandy Bressler did not return a telephone call.

Nicholson allegedly got out of a Mercedes-Benz at a red light in suburban Studio City on Feb. 8 and, using a golf club, began hitting a car driven by Robert Blank, according to a police report.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

"HE WAS A MIGHTY HUNTER BEFORE THE LORD!"
NIMROD WAS A SON OF KUSH AND A GRANDSON OF HAM, ONE OF THE THREE SONS OF NOAH. THE EVENTS OF HIS LIFE ARE RECORDED IN A SINGLE PASSAGE (GEN. 10:8-12) WHICH, FROM THE CONCISENESS OF ITS LANGUAGE, LEAVES CONSIDERABLE UNCERTAINTY ABOUT HIS REIGN. ALL THAT WE KNOW OF NIMROD IS THAT HE WAS "A MIGHTY HUNTER BEFORE THE LORD" AND A POTENT MONARCH, THE BEGINNINGS OF WHOSE ORIGINAL KINGDOM EMBRACED BABEL, ERECH, ACCAD AND CALNEH, CITIES IN THE LAND OF SHINAR. HE WAS SOMEWHAT OF A CONQUEROR BECAUSE HIS KINGDOM KEPT ADVANCING IN TERRITORY UNTIL IT HAD PROGRESSED INTO ASSYRIA, WHERE HE IS SAID TO HAVE FOUNDED THE GREAT CITY OF NINEVEH! ANY OF HIS FURTHER ACHIEVEMENTS ARE LOST IN THE ANNALS OF TIME, BUT WE STILL SPEAK OF A SKILLFUL HUNTER AS BEING A "NIMROD" -- SMALL GLORY FOR ONE WHO WAS A "MIGHTY EMPEROR!"
