Said Hamilton, "The fire kept getting hotter and hotter, creating its own winds. There were some horrible wind currents at work."

That was when Watts and Walls nearly got trapped, he said.

The firemen were on the west side of the fire, trying to work from a distance. As the smoke thickened, the engine on the fire truck coughed and conked out because of lack of oxygen.

Since the pumper engine was still working, Watts and Walls wet down the truck, trying to save it. That nearly cost them their lives, said Hamilton.

They finally had to abandon the truck and ran between a guarter and a half mile to escape the flames," he added. "The fire was on their heels all the way."

Watts joined the fire department in September 1982. Walls was a volunteer with the Hereford Fire Department five years, left for a while, and rejoined the department in 1988

Spain said the cost of replacing the fire truck would be around $50,000.

"We're going to be short-handed on equipment until we can get the truck replaced," he stated. "I'm calling everywhere to see where we can find another truck."

Hamilton said about 200 acres of CRP grass were destroyed.

'CRP grass is a real problem for us," he said. "There are about 100,000 acres of CRP grass in Deaf Smith County.

"With conditions as dry as they are right now, unless we get some rain, that could cause us some real problems in the future," he said.

Wimberly lost a storage shed and some corrals, but firemen were able to save his two-story home.

Hospital board approves emergency room contract

The Deaf Smith County Hospital District board of directors, in regular monthly session Tuesday night, approved a formal contract for emergency room service, approved the hospital's participation in a community aquatic center, and accepted operations, financial and other routine reports.

The board also heard a report from City Manager Chester Nolen on the status of water and sewer lines in the hospital area. Directors requested the information in conjunction with studies on hospital renovation.

A discussion on proposed hospital renovations was tabled, and board president John Perrin set a separate work session on the topic for May 9. Directors will canvass election returns that day and continue with a 5 to 7 p.m. workshop.

Nolen also requested the hospital's participation in funding the construction of the new $1.2 million aquatic center. A commitment of $100,000, paid over a three-year period, was requested from the hospital district.

After a brief discussion, the board approved the $100,000 commitment, but it will be paid over a five-year period. Ron Rives, hospital CEO, HRMC announced termination of its

HISD unveils building, reveals move-in costs

By GARRY WESNER

Managing Editor The Hereford Independent School District officially opened its new administration building on Tuesday with a ribbon-cutting and open house. The facility, 601 N. 25 Mile Avenue, was purchased by trustees last year after heated debate over the need for the facility.

During grand opening ceremonies, Superintendent Charles W. Greenawalt encouraged everyone in attendance to pick up a list detailing the costs involved in the move.

Greenawalt said he had pledged to make the move-in costs public at the time the building was purchased.

Wes Fisher, president of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, opened the ceremony by recalling that the chamber cut the first ribbon on the building on March 26, 1986, when it opened as a Smith's Supermarket, at which time he predicted it would be a great asset to the community.

Mayor Bob Josserand hailed the building as a "step in the right direction," while Greenawalt praised the school board for agreeing to the purchase, saying a "visionary" board was required to make such a deal. Greenawalt thanked those who supported the move for their backing and said, "For those who were a little skeptical ... we hope we can relieve some of your anxieties" after seeing the building in use. He noted that the 53,000-squarefoot facility houses 55 employees and has 6,000-square-feet of warehouse space.

In addition, the banquet facilities at the front of the building have been booked from now through the end of May, beginning Thursday with a political forum for candidates for school board, hospital board and city commission.

Also scheduled there will be the Senior Banquet and Senior Prom. According to district figures, the final purchase price for the building was $499,376.

In addition, $61,349 was spent in renovations and moving in, for a total cost to the district of $560,725.

Of those additional expenses, the largest was $22,130 for renovation of the facility, then $7,119 for Hereford ISD man-hours.

Ruland said it was "unfortunate that incorrect ballots were provided his office, but we can't stop an election that is already underway." He said the 17 ballots cast would stand.

HRMC observes week honoring volunteers

Hereford Regional Medical Center joins other hospitals across the nation this week in observing National Volunteer Week, and a special luncheon will be held Friday to pay tribute to the workers.

"Hospital volunteers give freely of their time to help others," Ron Rives, HRMC chief executive office. said Tuesday. "Their altruistic dedication to this hospital and to our patients shows the high idealism that is the basis of volunteer work."

Volunteers perform a variety of functions at the hospital, according to Rives. "They help with the gift shop, assist with guest services, and help with special community mailings. Their friendly offers of help to patients and their families and their upbeat, positive attitudes are their biggest contribution to the hospital.

Elizabeth Fowler, director of guest services at HRMC, is hosting the Friday luncheon. The hospital auxiliary is open to all adults, according to Quintna Waits, president of the volunteer group.

'We have men and women of all ages who donate a few hours to many hours each to the hospital each week. Many of our volunteers have retired from business or teaching, and they want to find new ways of making a difference," said Waits. "Volunteering is very satisfying because we know that we are doing something and pedestrian paths and telecommuuseful. Both the employees of the nications.

Opinion seals Blackmun reputation

Champion of women's rights strikes once again

WASHINGTON (AP) - A new Supreme Court ruling cements retiring Justice Harry A. Blackmun's status as a champion of women's rights and offers dramatic proof of the high court's increased sensitivity to women's role in America.

Blackmun wrote for the court Tuesday as it voted 6-3 to outlaw the practice of excluding people from juries because of their sex.

Such actions by prosecutors and defense lawyers perpetuate "archaic and overbroad stereotypes" about men and women and violate the Constitution's guarantee of equal protection, said Blackmun, who plans to retire from the court this summer.

Coming 21 years after he wrote the landmark Roe vs. Wade abortionrights opinion, Tuesday's ruling establishes Blackmun as "the most vocal supporter of equal rights for women on the court," said Jane Larson, a Northwestern University law professor.

contribution in such a positive light. O'Connor "are not exactly flaming

"He is not a very distinguished justice," said Michael McConnell, a law professor at the University of Chicago. "He is praised because of reaching the 'right' result in one case (Roe) and a few more will cheer this.

Some legal experts viewed Blackmun's opinion in the jury-selection case as the predictable result of his steadily increasing liberalism since Richard M. Nixon named him to the court in 1970. Blackmun announced early this year that he would no longer vote to uphold the death penalty.

The jury-selection decision also represented a logical progression for the court from its rulings starting in 1986 that barred prosecutors and defense lawyers from excluding potential jurors because of race, said American University law professor Herman Schwartz.

'Look who joined him in this," Schwartz said, adding that Justices But not everyone sees Blackmun's Anthony M. Kennedy and Sandra Day liberals."

O'Connor wrote for the court the last time it addressed a gender-based equal-protection issue in 1982, when the court said states cannot bar men from government-supported nursing schools.

Such a policy "tends to perpetuate the stereotyped view of nursing as an exclusively woman's job," wrote O'Connor, who became the first female justice only a year earlier.

Blackmun's jury-selection opinion used several pages to criticize the court's earlier reliance on such stereotypes. In 1872, the court said states could refuse to let women practice law because their "paramount destiny" was to be wives and mothers, he noted.

But starting in 1971, Kennedy noted in a separate opinion, the high court has issued more than 20 decisions creating a "strong presumption" that gender-based government classifications are invalid.

Some of those rulings were won by the court's newest member, Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, who argued several cases before the court during the 1970s as a pioneering women's rights advocate. Blackmun cited some of those cases as laying the groundwork for the new ruling.

In fact, the case decided Tuesday - involving a man who challenged an all-female jury in a paternity case followed Ginsburg's frequent strategy of using a man instead of a woman to challenge a policy as sexually discriminatory.

Ginsburg joined Blackmun's opinion, as did O'Connor and Justices John Paul Stevens and David H. Souter.

Justice Antonin Scalia mocked the majority in a dissent that asserted, "Times and trends do change, and unisex is unquestionably in fashion." He was joined by the other two strongest conservatives, Chief Justice William H. Rehnquist and Justice Clarence Thomas.

Immunization drive begins over all state

AUSTIN -- The Texas Department of Health has kicked off what state officials are calling the largest immunization campaign in Texas history.

Shots Across Texas, a comprehensive campaign to raise the immunization rates of Texans age 2 and under was unveiled at a news conference on Friday.

The goal of Shots Across Texas is to immunize at least 90 percent of Texas children age 2 and under by 1996.

"Currently, fewer than 60 percent of Texas children younger than 2 are fully immunized," said Dr. David R. Smith, Texas Commissioner of Health. "Texas ranks among the last in the United States and is behind many developing nations in providing immunizations against polio, measles and diphtheria for our children.

"The problem isn't that the resources aren't available. It's that many people are unaware of how important it is to immunize their children. That's why Shots Across Texas is so critically needed."

"Patsy" recalled that her father was loved by his family and respected by the public. He had received a classical education and was an accomplished musician, an author, statesman, inventor and farmer.

Thomas Jefferson remembered that in 1785 he succeeded Franklin as minister to France and had brought Patsy with him to Paris where she attended a convent school.

Concluding the program, "Jefferson" asked his daughter to see that the following words were engraved on his headstone: "Here was buried Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of American Independence, of the statute of Virginia for religious freedom, and father of the University of Virginia."

The Demons had to feel relieved that Hereford didn't score more.

The game was called because of darkness after the seventh inning (the game started at 5:30). By UIL rules, the game will remain a tie; it will not be continued, boys' athletic director Danny Haney said.

Close play

Somewhere in this tangle of bodies and cloud of dust is a baseball. Hereford's Chris Vallejo (22) tried to score on a wild pitch, but was called out at the plate in a close play. Dumas pitcher Cameron Melban tagged Vallejo. Catcher Cody Anderson looks on in the background. The game ended in a 9-9 tie Tuesdsay after darkness fell over Whiteface Field.

Kelso claims 3rd in district

Hereford golfer Kelly Kelso finished in third place in the District 1-4A girls medalist race, completed Saturday in Pampa. Kelso, a senior, shot an 84 for the final round and finished with a district total of 524. This information was inadvertantly omitted from a story on the girls' golf team in Tuesday's Brand. Dumas sophomore Jamie McInturff won her second district crown, totalling 485. She advances to the Region I-4A golf tournament as an individual.

District track meet results

Besides the members of the Hereford track teams who advanced to regionals or will serve as alternates, several other Hereford boys and girls earned points at the District 1-4A Track Meet held Friday and Saturday in Dumas.

Hereford did lead Dumas in the error column, 6-4, but the Demons were coming on strong with three in the final three innings. The Demons added to the ugliness with five wild pitches by relief pitcher Bubba Swimmer in the last two innings: all came with a man on second, and four of those men came home to score.

Hereford went into the bottom of the seventh trailing 9-6. Scott Ahola and Ray Hastings started the rally with consecutive singles, Sonny Perez pinch-ran for Hastings, and both runners moved up on a wild pitch. Ahola scored on a sacrifice fly by Andrew Tijerina, making it 9-6.

Perez went to third on a wild pitch, Michael Marquez walked and advanced on another wild pitch, but Perez couldn't score. Zambrano bounced a single up the middle, and the speedy Marquez scored the tying run well ahead of the throw from center field.

It was Zambrano's first at-bat of the game. He entered the game in the sixth inning after Stacey Sanders was ejected for throwing an elbow at the Dumas first baseman's head.

Hereford stands in second place in District 1-4A with a 4-1 record, 10-9 overall. Dumas stays at 1-4 and 7-12.

Borger went to 6-0 Tuesday with a 12-0 pasting of Caprock (2-4) in Amarillo. Randall improved to 3-3 with a 9-2 win over Pampa (1-5) at Randall.

The Herd's rally preserved a game-and-a-half lead over Randall. "It shows we have a little character in order to come back," Herd coach J.J. Villarreal said. "It's something we haven't done that we know we can do.

"We've given the teams that are challenging for a playoff spot, given them an opportunity. They're going to be coming after us," he said. "We've got to play great baseball. If we play great baseball, we'll be fine." Dumas got on the board first with two runs in the first. Jeff Willis led off with a double and scored on a nice squeeze bunt by Swimmer. Cameron Melban reached on one throwing error by Hereford pitcher Andrew Tijerina and scored on another throwing error by Tijerina, and Dumas led 2-0.

Sonics clinch West; Hawks draw closer in East

By CHRIS SHERIDAN AP Sports Writer Seattle lost, yet still clinched the West.

Atlanta won, moving closer to clinching the East.

On a Tuesday night featuring several games with playoff implications, there were plenty of good contests, but no huge surprises.

In the Eastern Conference, Atlanta, Indiana, New Jersey and Miami won games they needed to win. In the Western Conference, Seattle and Houston lost games they really didn't need to win.

It all added up to a slightly clearer playoff picture, although one or two upsets in the last five days of the regular season could muddle things again.

The Hawks, playing their fourth game in five nights, defeated the Knicks 87-84 at Madison Square Garden. If Atlanta wins its final two games (at Miami on Thursday, vs. Orlando on Saturday), the Hawks will have the homecourt advantage throughout the conference playoffs.

The SuperSonics lost 122-116 at Phoenix, but they knew by halftime they had already clinched the West because San Antonio defeated Houston 90-80 at the Alamodome. Seattle will have the homecourt edge as long as it stays alive in the postseason.

Atlanta's victory gave it a one-game lead over Chicago and a 1-1/2-game advantage over the Knicks. If the Hawks and Bulls - both teams Suns 122, SuperSonics 116 have two games left - wind up with the same record, Chicago wins the tiebreaker based on its 3-2 season series edge over the Hawks.

"It was important to win and it was great preparation for the playoffs, but we still have to realize we've got two more games left," said guard Craig Ehlo, who sparked the Hawks with 14 points off the bench.

"Winning here means nothing if we don't win the next two," said Danny Manning, who had 16 points and 12 rebounds. Kevin Willis led

Suns 122, SuperSonics 116 Seattle led almost all the way before Charles Barkley took over down the stretch. Barkley had 11 points and eight rebounds in the final quarter, and five of the rebounds came in the last 1:40. Spurs 90, Rockets 80

Negele Knight made a 20-foot jumper to give the Spurs the lead for ood with 3:00 left, then buried a 3-pointer with 1:14 left to extend San Antonio's lead to 81-76. David Robinson, who led San Antonio with 22 points, hit six free throws in the final minute and Dennis Rodman Magic 132, Pistons 104 added a 3-pointer at the buzzer. At the Palace of Au Pacers 111, Bullets 110

At USAir Arena, Reggie Miller scored 34 points and hit the deciding basket with 2.8 seconds left. Rik Smits added 23 points on 11-for-15 shooting.

The Pacers led by as many as 26 in the third quarter, but the Bullets rallied behind rookie center Gheorge Muresan's 13 points and five rebounds in the fourth period. Nets 115, 76ers 110

At the Spectrum, Derrick Coleman had a triple-double with 31 points, 12 rebounds and 10 assists and Kenny Anderson added 19 points and 11 assists.

Heat 126, Timberwolves 99 At Miami Arena, the Heat reduced its magic number to one.

'Our work is not finished," forward Grant Long said. "We still have to win one game, and we have two tough ones (Atlanta, Indiana) ahead of us."

Miami also can qualify if Charlotte loses any of its last four games.

Orioles' new relief ace earns save

By The Associated Press

For a guy who's supposed to be slowing down, Lee Smith quickly is putting up some big numbers.

Smith earned his seventh save Tuesday night, preserving the Baltimore Orioles' 4-3 victory over the California Angels.

Smith, 36, has appeared in seven ames and closed out all but one of Baltimore's wins. He has not allowed an earned run yet, exactly what the Orioles wanted when they signed baseball's career saves leader.

"They say I lost my fastball about eight years ago, so what's new?" Smith said. "You look at my record, but every year someone says big old Lee Smith is through."

Orioles manager Johnny Oates, however, wants to make sure he doesn't put a premature end to his relief ace.

"We're going to have to find a way to not kill him," Baltimore manager Johnny Oates said. "It's great that he has seven saves, but we have to find a way to get a few more runs or not have to get to him." In other games, Toronto trounced Texas 13-3, Cleveland beat Minnesota 7-6, Chicago defeated Milwaukee 6-2, Boston topped Oakland 13-5, Detroit downed Kansas City 9-5 and Seattle stopped New York 7-1.

Smith relieved with one out and a runner on first base. He struck out pinch-hitter Greg Myers, gave up a single to Damion Easley and retired Chad Curtis on a fly ball for career save No. 408.

Smith set a major-league record by getting his seventh save only 12 games into the season. The old mark was 14 by Bruce Sutter of the Chicago Cubs in 1980.

Jeffrey Hammonds homered and drove in two runs at Camden Yards and Brady Anderson doubled twice. Jamie Moyer (1-1) became the first Baltimore starter besides Mike Mussina and Ben McDonald to win this year.

Tim Salmon and Rex Hudler homered in California's third straight loss. Phil Leftwich (0-2) was the loser.

Blue Jays 13, Rangers 3

In Toronto, three-run homers by Carlos Delgado and Joe Carter highlighted the Blue Jays' season-high 17-hit attack.

Delgado connected for his league-leading eighth homer in the fourth inning, capping a five-run burst that made it 11-2. Carter had three hits, including his sixth homer, and drove in four runs.

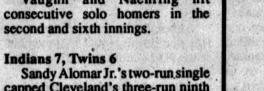

Juan Guzman (2-1) allowed two runs, one earned, on seven hits in seven innings, while Kevin Brown (0-4) tied a team record by giving up 10 runs.

Cowboys need to fill holes with Sunday's draft

By DENNE H. FREEMAN AP Sports Writer

IRVING, Texas (AP) - It's a good thing for the Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys that the NFL draft is this Sunday because they sure have a lot of holes to fill.

A day after learning offensive lineman Kevin Gogan was headed to the Los Angeles Raiders, the Cowboys were told that linebacker Ken Norton was ready to sign a five-year, $8.5 million deal with the San Francisco 49ers.

Norton would become the seventh wide receiver Alvin Harper could be next.

He wasn't able to sign a deal with Pittsburgh before the midnight Monday deadline for restricted free agents, but he still could be traded to the Steelers.

Harper turned down a three-year, $4.3 million contract with Pittsburgh and still has a $866,000, one-year offer from the Cowboys that would make him an unrestricted free agent next year.

He caught 36 passes last season second best in the league.

Norton's loss was not unexpected and he said Dallas never even made an offer. The 49ers have courted him since the free agency period began.

"I'm very happy," he said. 'From the start, they let me know that I was their top guy, the guy they wanted. It's always nice to be appreciated."

"I think from the outset they didn't let me feel like I was part of their plans for the future, so I had to pretty much worry about my own future," Norton said.

The first six players who've left Dallas went to other teams for a total of $23.5 million.

On Monday, Gogan took advantage of the Cowboys' success - and the $34.6 million salary cap - and signed a $3.6 million, three-year contract with the Los Angeles Raiders.

Defensive lineman Tony Casillas went to the Kansas City Chiefs for $6 million over four years; offensive lineman John Gesek left for the Washington Redskins at $3.6 million for three years; and defensive tackle Angeles Rams for $7.7 million over four years.

Quarterback Bernie Kosar took a $1.6 million, two-year deal with the Miami Dolphins and kicker Eddie Murray left for the Philadelphia Eagles and $1 million for two years.

The Cowboys have spent $8.5 million since the free-agent season began, signing fullback Daryl Johnston for three years at $4.2 million and offensive lineman Nate Newton for three years at $3.4 million.

Dallas also spent $800,000 on guard Derek Kennard of the New Cowboy to leave this offseason and and his 21.6 yards per catch was think about myself and my family and Jimmie Jones went to the Los replace Gogan. Kennard started 32 consecutive games for the Saints and is considered a good run blocker.

Not counting Norton, the Cowboys have 11 remaining free agents, including Harper and center Mark Stepnoski, both starters.

Stepnoski is recovering from a broken leg and is expected to sign a one-year deal to stay in Dallas.

The other free agents are fullback Tommie Agee, safety Bill Bates, center-guard Frank Cornish, safety Joe Fishback, running back Derrick Gainer, tight end Scott Galbraith, center Dale Hellestrae, safety Elvin Patterson and special teams star Matt

UT's Gustafson catches Dedeaux

By CHIP BROWN

Associated Press Writer AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Texas coach Cliff Gustafson celebrated pulling into a tie with Southern Cal's Rod Dedeaux for career coaching victories not as a milestone in history, but as an end to his team's slump.

Gustafson, the Texas coach for 27 years, collected victory No. 1,332 as the Longhorns defeated Houston is an incidental thing," Gustafson Baptist 6-5 in 10 innings Tuesday night.

Gustafson needed 258 fewer games to reach Dedeaux's record. He has 325 losses and 2 ties, while Dedeaux, who coached 45 years at USC, lost 571 and tied 11.

"It was exciting and I guess if you have to celebrate a milestone, it's nice to do it in exciting fashion," Gustafson said. Texas won it when Tony Vasut scored on a sacrifice fly by Wylie Campbell in the bottom of the 10th.

For Gustafson, 63, a man who cares little about records, the victory was appreciated as a boost to his slumping team.

The Longhorns, who sat atop the Southwest Conference at the beginning of the month, have fallen to fourth in the league by winning only seven of their last 15. They still tournament in May.

"The way we have been playing lately, as I have said all along, I just want this team to get each win as the opportunity comes for us and whatever milestone happens for me said.

Gustafson's first chance to break Dedeaux's record will come Friday when Texas (31-16) plays host to Grand Canyon.

"I wish that it wouldn't be any bigger than any other normal game," Gustafson said. "I don't want our players to feel that there is any added pressure on them to win a ballgame. It's an important game for us to establish a good season's record so that we may be considered for an NCAA bid.

"I'm pulling for him," said Dedeaux, 80, who led USC to 11 NCAA championships and 28 conference titles before retiring in 1986.

"We have been good friends for many, many years," Dedeaux said. "I can recall his victories that were can qualify and host the conference at our expense and he deserved every one of them."

For Gustafson, breaking the record will be one of the crowning achievements in a career that includes two national championships, 17 trips to the College World Series, 21 SWC titles and a legion of star former players such as Roger Clemens, Greg Swindell and Burt Hooton.

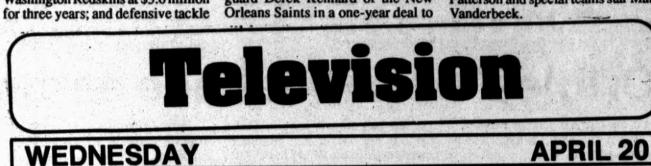

Gustafson is 1,332-325-2 in collegiate games since taking over at Texas in 1968. Overall, he is 1,371-329-2, including games against professional or semi-professional teams.

Although Texas won Tuesday, Houston Baptist (30-15), a member of the NAIA, controlled most of the game.

After stranding five base runners early and enduring a 35-minute rain delay, HBU's Keith Harrison ripped an RBI triple to ignite a four-run sixth inning for the Huskies.

Shea Morenz homered in the sixth and eighth to help Texas tie the game at 4-4 and force extra innings.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This is for the 72-year-old grandmother in Miami who told you she had tested HIV-positive. You reeled off statistics on the incidence of transfusion-related infections. But you neglected to tell the woman the most important thing ---GET TESTED AGAIN.

False-positives occur more often than you think. People who have been told they were HIV-positive and have suffered through the agony that accompanies such a revelation have later discovered that the diagnosis was in error. I remember reading about a

AND IS MANY

QUESTION: What is a doodlebug? ANSWER: Doodlebugs are the larvae stage of insects called ant lions. These insects, which resemble dragonflies and damselflies, have softer bodies, are poor fliers and probably do not feed.

After mating, the ant lions lay eggs in soft soil. The eggs hatch into larvae called doodlebugs, which look similar to a small beetle.

The doodlebugs dig steep, coneshaped pits by crawling backward in a circle and tossing soft soil away with its jaws. Then, it crawls under the pit to await its prey, usually ants or other crawling insects.

When prey tumbles into the pit, the doodlebug will latch on and drag it into the soil. Then, a paralyzing venom is injected into the prey's body. The venom digests and dissolves the internal parts of the prey and the doodlebug sucks the food out through hollow jaws.

Eventually the doodlebug forms 673, Hereford, Texas 79045.)

into a cocoon about the size of a pencil eraser, made of silk and grains of sand. After about two months the pupa emerges to the top, splits open and out comes the adults ant lion. The adult immediately mates and lays its eggs; thus, its lifespan is short.

The life cycle from egg to adult may be two or three years, depending on the availability of the doodlebug's food supply. If you like to doodle with pets, get some doodlebugs. A shallow container filled with loose soil or fine sand, a supply of ants and a few doodlebugs will keep you entertained for hours at a time.

Cassels welcomed as new study club member

Cindy Cassels was welcomed as Mary Herring was named a new member of La Madre Mia chairman to plan the club's June 12 Study Club when the women met trip to Ruidoso, N.M. The group will April 14 in the home of Francyne stay in the home of club member, Bromlow. Merle Clark and Linda Ruth Black. Cumpton served as co-hostesses.

President Bromlow conducted the business meeting with standing answering roll call by telling about

An evening of visiting and woman who committed suicide after she got the AIDS virus from a blood having been diagnosed HIV-positive. Soon after her death, the family learned there was a mix-up of paperwork and she was not HIVpositive after all.

My heart goes out to this 72-year-old grandmother, but I would advise her not to accept a single test result. She should be tested twice more--at different laboratories. And may God go with her.--Concerned in Okeecho-bee, Fla.

DEAR CONCERNED: How right you are. Thanks for the input. Keep reading for yet another angle:

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This letter is for the stunned grandma, age 72, whose doctor told her she is HIVpositive. She hadn't had sex since her husband died in 1981 and assumed that transfusion.

Please ask the poor dear if she had a recent flu shot. SOmetimes a flu shot will produce a false-positive. The woman should ask to be re-tested .--An L.P.N. in Michigan

DEAR L.P.N.: I appreciate the reinforcement. Please, "Grandma," if you see this column, let me know you followed through. I'll be greatly relieved.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Since I am freshly divorced, it is very easy for me to remember that I shelled out $35,000 for my wife's college education, while my salary paid the $56,000 in household expenses, including a cleaning woman, as well as 70 percent of the grocery bills, the payments for the sports car she drove, the insurance and the mortgage. Whenever we ate out, I picked up the

Being a Southern gentleman, I wanted to do the right thing during our eight-year marriage. Considering that she made almost as much money as I did, I assumed she had a nice savings account.

Well, she did not. I still don't know what she did with all her money. Of course, with our crazy divorce laws, she was entitled to half of everything, and I had no recourse.

If I ever get married again, you can be sure the pre-nuptial agreement will cover everything. I will wash half the dishes, and she will mow half the lawn. I will clean the bathub, and she will change the oil in the cars. I will stay at home with the children, and she will make the living. I will take the Landers, P.O.1 kids on vacation while she paints the 60611-0562.

house. And last but not least, if I should decide to divorce her, she will NOT get half of everything my grandfather, my father and I worked for all our lives.

While this letter may seem strange to some, it is not a joke among Southern gentlemen who have been there .-- Magee, Miss.

DEAR MAGEE: Some Northern gentlemen have been there, too, but every study I have seen shows that women, not men, end up poorer after divorce.

Jackson, Detten tie for best speaker

Rick Jackson and Dennis Detten tied for best Hereford Toastmasters Club speaker when the group met Thursday evening, April 14, at Sirloin Stockade.

Stan McCabe and Dave Kimmel tied for best evaluator and Linda Minchew was selected as best topic speaker.

Dan Hall led the pledge and the invocation was given by Stan McCabe. Rick Jackson presided over the business meeting.

Charles Minchew served as Toastmaster; Pat Varner, timer; Dan Hall, "ah" counter; Bob Lohr, grammarian; Linda Minchew, wordm r; and assiduous, the chosen word.

Topicmaster was Linda Weaver and topic speakers included Linda Minchew, Dave Kimmel, Stan McCabe, Bob Lohr, Dan Hall and

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR WASTE DISPOSAL PERMIT

JIM NICHOLSON DBA JIM NICHOLSON CATTLE COM-PANY, Route 4, Box 40, Here-ford, Texas 79045 has applied to the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission (Commission) for a permit (Proposed Permit NO. 03662) to authorize the disposal of waste and wastewater from a cattle feedlot operation. The feedlot operation will consist of a maximum of 2,750 head of cattle. Stormwater will be retained in one storage playa lake. Wastewater from the playa lake is to be disposed of by evaporation and/or irrigation. Manure/solids will be disposed as fertilizer on agricultural land. No discharge of pollutants into the waters of the State is authorized by this permit. The cattle feedlot operation is on the east side of County Road I, approximately two and one half miles north of the intersection of Farm-to-Market Road 1058 and County Road I and about two miles west of Hereford in Deaf Smith County, Texas. This location is in the drainage area of the Upper Prairie Dog Town North Fork Red River in Segment No. 0229 of the Red River Basin. The Executive Director of the Commission has prepared a draft permit based on the application submitted by the applicant and other information presently available.

Legal Authority: Section 26.028 of the Texas Water Code and 30 TAC Chapter 305 of the Rules of the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission. Ask Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB: I had a hysterctomy because of large fibroid tumors when I was 48 years old. I am 55 now. I had my ovaries removed also ecause of my age and I was afraid of ovarian cancer. Since my surgery, I have been on 0.625 mg of Premarin five days a week. I also took Provera until two years ago. I am now wondering if I should go off Premarin. The doctor I'm seeing suggested I go off Premarin because my mother died of breast cancer at the age of 50 and her sister died of breast cancer at age

I am afraid if I stop Premarin I will have osteoporosis and heart problems. I am small-boned, rather slim, and have rarely drank milk or used dairy products. My cholesterol is high at 240, but my "good" cholesterol is very high.

The doctor I'm now seeing said he does prescribe Premarin, but in my situation I'm at a higher risk of getting breast cancer than a heart attack. I don't want to increase my risk of getting breast cancer because of Premarin. Can you help me make my decision by giving me your opinion? DEAR READER: No one can guarantee you that you will not get breast cancer whether you use estrogen replacement or not. But despite your family history, I would have to say your increased risk from using Premarin is from small to non-existent. Your risk of osteoporosis as a small-boned, slim woman who has evidently had a low calcium intake is rather significant. Which suggests your risk of a hip fracture and death from it is probably the greater risk. About 25 percent of individuals who have a hip fracture die within three months after the fracture.

The main concern about estrogen replacement is the increased risk of endometrial cancer of the uterus. Since you have no uterus that is not a consideration in your case.

To help you evaluate your choices, I am sending you a free copy of Spe-cial Report 151, Menopause and Hormones. Others who want this report can send $3 with a stamped (52 cents), self-addressed, No. 10 envelope for it to THE HEALTH LETTER/151, P.O. Box 5537, Riverton, NJ 08077-5537. Many studies show no increased risk of breast cancer from estrogen therapy. One of the best and largest shows that any increase disappears within two years after stopping estrogen. Family history is a weak risk factor. Your mother's breast cancer at age 50 is significant. Your aunt's history at age 78 is not. Breast cancer in a relative at that age is not a factor in increasing a woman's risk from inherited factors.

DEARDR. LAMB: My mother is 65 ears old and has a leaky valve in her heart. Her doctor said it may have occurred from a past illness, and although it will never get better, it could get worse. Could you explain the nature of this problem, the cause and the outlook?

DEAR READER: The aortic valve at the outlet of the heart may be damaged by rheumatic fever in early life and allow blood to leak backward into the heart after each contraction. The mitral valve between the upper and lower chambers of the left heart may also be damaged from rheumatic fever. When that happens, the valves do not improve but can get worse. In both instances, if a person's health is adequate, the valves can be replaced to provide very satisfactory function.

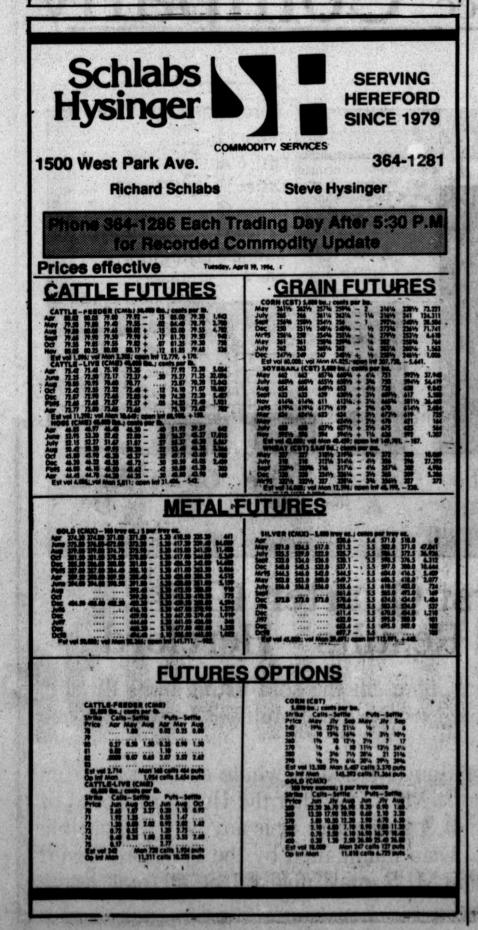

These problems are almost nonexistent today in developed countries because antibiotics have prevented and treated streptococcal throats, which in turn prevents rheumatic fever. Once rheumatic heart disease was one of the leading causes of heart disease in the United States.

Dr. Lamb welcomes letters from readers with health questions. You can write to him at P.O. Box 5537, Riverton, NJ 08077-5537. Although Dr. Lamb cannot reply to all letters personally, he will respond to se-lected questions in future columns.

This application is subject to a Commission resolution adopted August 18, 1993, which directs the Commission's Executive Director to act on behalf of the Commission and issue final approval of certain permit matters. The Executive Director will issue this permit unless one or more persons file written protests and/or a request for a hearing within 30 days after publication of this notice.

If you wish to request a public hearing, you must submit your request in writing. You must state (1) your name, mailing address and daytime phone number; (2) the permit number or other recognizable reference to this application; (3) the statement "I/we request a public hearing;" (4) a brief description of how you, or the persons you represent, would be adversely affected by the granting of the application; (5) a description of the location of your property relative to the applicant's operations; and (6) your proposed adjustment to the application/permit which would application per line to ause satisfy your concerns and cause you to withdraw your request for hearing. If one or more protests and/or requests for hearing are filed, the Executive Director will not issue the permit and will forward the application to the Office of Hearings Examiners where a hearing may be held. Commission public hearings are evidentiary legal proceedings similar to civil court non-jury trials. Although general comments from the public may be submitted either in writing prior to the hearing, or orally at the start of the hearing, the law requires that the Commission's decision about whether to approve or deny the application be based on evidence and testimony submitted during the public hearing, presented under oath and subject to cross-examination by the other parties. Public comments are not evidence and cannot be the basis for the Commission's ultimate decision. In the event a hearing is held, the Office of Hearings Examiners will submit a recommendation to the Commission for final decision. If no protests or requests for hearing are filed, the Executive Director will sign the permit 30 days after publication of this

Clowns to appear before Big Top

Skeeter and Packy, national touring clowns of the Carson & Barnes 5-Ring Circus will be in Hereford this week as part of promotional activities for the circus.

They will appear at several Hereford locations on Friday, April 22.

The circus will present two shows here on Wednesday, April 27. The 4:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. shows are sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

On Friday, Skeeter and Packy will start the day at Bluebonnet Intermediate School at 8:30 p.m.

They will visit with Captain Billy at KPAN Radio at 9:15 a.m., then to Tierra Blanca Elementary School at 10 a.m.

In the afternoon, they will be at Northwest Elementary at 1 p.m., at West Central Intermediate at 1:45 p.m., then Shirley Intermediate at 2:30 p.m.

Skeeter and Packy, also known as Tina Bausch and Roger Alton when they are out of their clown personas, are what is known in circus lingo as "advance clowns."

They travel in advance of the big show to stir up excitement and to attract customers to the circus.

They also promote good will among the circus, sponsors and local community by providing free shows at various locations.

When Bausch was 10 years old growing up in Columbus, Ohio, an old tramp clown named Al Ross daubed a spot of red grease paint on her nose and told her that she should be a clown.

studying their lifestyles, skills and art. She studied with several oldtimers, or master clowns.

Later, she a break to go to "regular college" where she earned a bachelor's degree in communications. She also attended Ringling Brother's famous Clown College, where she earned her MBA, or "Master of Buffoonery.'

Over the years she has developed the character of Skeeter, a wide-eyed innocent clown who thrives on the childish laughter and smiles that follow her from town to town, show to show, child to child.

Alton's father was the town doctor in a small Florida community. He rented trailer space to various circus people on hiatus for the winter and his son grew up with the circus kids.

He grew to love the romance of the circus, the joy of performing and the lifestyle of being on the road. Over time he developed his clown character into Packy.

When Skeeter and Packy arrive in Hereford a few days before the circus, they will present a funny show with a serious message. The clowns devote a portion of their clown show to telling kids to stay in school, to stay away from drugs and to respect themselves and others.

They don't hit kids over the head with a sermon, but rather run the message throughout the show.

Carson & Barnes Circus knows that some of the children may not be able to visit the circus and by having Skeeter and Packy visit them, they get a taste of the circus to cherish.

As to the circus itself, everyone is Since that time, Bausch has invited to come out to the Bull Barn explored the realm of clowning, grounds on Circus Morning to watch

Two Hereford High School students were honored recently by the Hereford Kiwanis Club as Students of the Month for March. Edna Delgado, right, is a three-year member of National Honor Society, a HOSTS mentor, is in the band and is a two-year drill team member. She plans to attend West Texas A&M University. Aaron Stevens, second from right, is shown with his parents, Ike and Suzanne Stevens. He is ranked second in the HHS senior class. He is in Key Club, played football for four years and plans to attend Texas Tech University in the fall.

at the Chamber offices, 701 N. Main; K'Bob's Steakhouse; The Atrium; Troy's Sweet Shop; and The Hereford observance of National American Hopme Week. Those attending the tour had the opportunity to sign up for the grand door prize--a trip to Angel Fire donated by Marn and Nocky Tyler.

Mark Andrews announced the winner of the drawing. Pat Newton, First National Bank, presented a program at the Realtor meeting on mortgage loans. She explained the fees, rates and discount points on different types of home loans.

Morales will review audit of prison beds

AUSTIN (AP) - An audit that said there were 5,500 empty prison beds available in the state prison system is being reviewed by the Texas attorney general's office.

Attorney General Dan Morales said his top staff would complete the review as soon as possible. But Morales said he would oppose using any prison beds that could place the state prison system back "under the thumb" of federal court control.

If that happened, he said, federal courts would probably place population caps on prisons currently under construction.

"Who knows how many beds that would cost us? Very likely tens of thousands of state prison beds," Morales said.

Earlier this month, an audit by State Comptroller John Sharp said the prison system, which currently holds about 70,000 inmates, could be expanded by 5,500 without creating inhumane or overcrowded conditions.

Grant made for disposal of used oil

AMARILLO -- The Panhandle Regional Planning Commission has announced the receipt of a $300,000 grant through the Texas Natural Resources Conservation Commission to develop a network of public used oil/used oil filter collection centers throughout the Panhandle.

Over the next months, 80 new collection centers will be established. State law prohibits the disposal of automotive waste oil and oil filters by any means other than recycling. Residents who dump oil in alleys or put waste oil and oil filters in Dumpsters can be charged with a Class A misdemeanor.

The new regulations have the greatest impact on people who change the oil and filter in their own cars or pickups. They must now take on the responsibility for properly disposing of the waste oil and filters generated.

Currently, the commission notes, there are 30 publicly operated centers in the region, most within a 60-mile radius of Amarillo. There also a number of private businesses that accept used oil.

The audit caused a political furor because some 30,000 state inmates are backed up in county jails.

Morales said it is important for the state to take advantage of every prison bed it can under the settlement of the Ruiz lawsuit. The 20-year-old lawsuit filed by inmate David Ruiz. forced drastic changes in the prison system.

"No longer is it necessary to look toward a federal court who is directing us with regard to how to build our prisons, how to staff our prisons, how to operate, how to administer our prisons ... those limitations now have been vacated,' Morales said.

But Morales said he disagreed with his Republican opponent, Don Wittig of Houston, that the state should re-open the Ruiz case. Wittig says the state gave away too much in the settlement, and that the federal courts are still involved in monitoring the prison system.

When Less Is More

Each year, every American uses about 190 pounds of plastic. Of that, about 60 pounds is packaging that gets thrown away after opening purchases. In fact, plastic used for packaging consumes some 33 percent of the limited space available in landfills. Reducing this waste starts in the store. Look for packages that offer more contents, and LESS waste. Buy potatoes, carrots and other vegetables loose, whenever you can. Besides cutting waste, you'll help send manufacturers the message that smart shoppers know less is more!
