Hall move from home explained by officials

By GEORGIA TYLER
Staff Writer

Moving the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center to Fort Worth was likened Tuesday to seeing a child leave home.

Margaret Formby, founder and executive director of the CHOF, admitted at a news conference that "it's like losing one of the children." But, she was quick to add, "I'm tickled that it will be taken to a new level" in its new home.

Formby and CHOF President Roger Eades during a news conference Tuesday announced that an offer from a Fort Worth group to become the new home of the CHOF would be accepted.

No date for the move can be fixed, Eades said, because the building that will house CHOF will be renovated.

Formby said the location in the Stockyards area of North Fort Worth is at the head of "Mule Alley." The building is Mule Barn D, she added.

Reached by the Associated Press, Bill Thornton, vice president of economic development for the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, praised the decision.

"We're very excited," he said. "This is something that we felt from the very beginning was a natural fit in our community. We're very proud of our Southwestern heritage."

Eades and Formby estimated that initially the new quarters will provide 10,000 square feet of space, compared with the 6,000 feet now available for the facility.

"There is room for expansion to about 16,000 in a few years," said Formby.

A planning committee will begin work within a few weeks but Eades said he does not anticipate a move for several months. Executive committee of the CHOF board will be combined with a Fort Worth committee to prepare for the move, Eades added.

Formby would not speculate on her involvement with the Cowgirl Hall of Fame in the future although she will continue as executive director. "I feel I'll always be involved some way," she said.

Agreeing with her, Eades declared that the Fort Worth sponsors "wouldn't have it any other way."

How the move will affect other staff members, neither Formby nor Eades could discuss with certainty.

Both, though, said Virginia Artho will continue as publications chairman for the Cowgirl Hall of Fame for the time being.

And, during the transition, the staff will continue to work in Hereford, said Formby.

Reacting to the announcement of the move, Hereford Mayor Bob Josslerand commended Formby, Eades and the CHOF board for their dedication.

"The citizens of Hereford and Deaf Smith County are extremely sorry to see it leave but we realize and understand that it had outgrown our capabilities for space and tourism that it deserves," said Josslerand.

"We appreciate the hard work the board has put in and wish for tremendous success in the future, honoring women of the West. I think Fort Worth is the logical place," the mayor added.

Formby expressed satisfaction that the new home will be the "right place."

Eades said one of the determining factors in selecting the new home was the potential for tourism, saying, "There are more than a million tourists in that area."

He reminded that the CHOF "reached the point that to expand, we would have to do something." The board began last October to explore moving the facility.

Several cities applied to provide a new location, but the field was narrowed to four, Dodge City, Kan., and, in Texas, Granbury, Abilene and Fort Worth. The final cut put Abilene and Fort Worth for a vote by the board, Eades said.

While the decision to move to Fort Worth was not unanimous, Eades said, it was by a majority.

The 1994 Rhinestone Roundup and induction of CHOF honorees will be held in Fort Worth, probably in the fall.

The late Patsy Cline, country and western recording artist, and Wilma Mankiller, principle chief of the Cherokee Nation, and early-day trick riders, Mattie Goff Newcombe and the late Florence Hughes Randolph.

Since the inception of the CHOF in 1975, a Rhinestone Roundup has been held annually, except for 1980.

Memorabilia and photographs of the 121 honorees as well as contributions by another 600 women are included in the museum collection.

"We couldn't go on -- we've outgrown the staff and building in Hereford," Formby said with a sad note in her voice.

Vandals break windows at car dealership, building

Hereford Police are looking for the vandals who used pellet guns to shoot out the windows of five cars parked outside Stevens Chevrolet-Oldsmobile, 615 N. 25 Mile Avenue, and who shot up windows in the 300 block of Main Street Tuesday night.

Total damage to the cars and windows was estimated at around $4,000, according to police.

Officers don't know if the incidents are related but said they are under investigation.

Jerry Stevens, manager of the car dealership, said three of the damaged cars were Hereford patrol cars that had been traded in by the police department for new vehicles.

"We had already pre-sold the cars to a buyer in New York," said Stevens. "Now we'll have to replace the windows."

Anyone with information on the shooters is asked to call the police department at 364-2323.

According to Stevens, the vandals shot out the side, front, driver, passenger, and rear windows.

Making an announcement

Roger Eades, chairman of the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center, and Margaret Formby, executive director, speak to area media representatives on Tuesday about their plans for the center. The two formally announced that the hall will move to Fort Worth after a building in the historic Stockyard District is renovated and funds are raised for operating the facility.

HISD passes amended agreement for new pool

By GARRY WESNER
Managing Editor

The Hereford Independent School District board of trustees came within 40 words of scuttling an interlocal agreement between the district and the city for participation in the new Aquatic Center.

Trustees were asked to approve the agreement -- and a commitment for $150,000 toward construction costs and continuing operating expenses -- at their regular meeting on Tuesday.

However, Trustee Mike Veazey expressed concern over the continuing operating expenses portion of the contract, saying he was hesitant to make a commitment without knowing how much those operating expenses would be.

In addition, Trustee Jim Marsh questioned the use of the term "three-year lease" in connection with the agreement, saying the city could come back to the district after $150,000 is paid and demand additional money.

Superintendent Charles W. Greenawalt said the district wrote the agreement as a lease to satisfy the state, because the district cannot give money to the city for construction.

Instead, the district is leasing the facility from the city for $150,000 -- to be paid out over three years, beginning, Greenawalt said, when the building is completed in June 1995.

Both Greenawalt and City Manager Chester Nolen explained that the lease terms were strictly related to the payment of the $150,000, but Marsh argued that future city commissions could require additional payment after that time.

Greenawalt and Nolen said the terms of the lease provided the district continual usage of the center -- which will include an indoor pool for year-round use -- for years after the lease period expires.

If that was the case, Marsh said, the contract should be worded so that "we know we're not out any other money" except operating expenses.

Veazey's contention was that there were no firm figures presented for operating expenses of the pool.

Nolen explained that the city is not sure how much it will cost to run the pool, but that the city would likely shoulder the entire burden during the summer months, when the outdoor leisure pool is open.

He also reminded trustees that the city began studying a covered, 25-meter pool to meet school requirements for participation in UIL swimming competitions.

"I personally feel the school's carrying a pretty big chunk of this load," Marsh said. "Our cost is not going to end with this $150,000 by a long shot."

Trustee Joe Flood -- who has been serving on a joint city/county/school pool committee with board president Ron Weishaar -- responded that the district has the population that likely will use the pool more.

Weishaar was in San Angelo on Tuesday and did not attend the session. Vice president Steve Wright presided over the four-hour meeting.

"The district could not build a pool for $150,000," Greenawalt pointed out, noting there has already been interest in forming a swim team and that district employees could use the pool for part of their wellness programs.

Public waits to pay last respects to Nixon

By ERNEST SANDER

YORBA LINDA, Calif. (AP) - Presidents and other dignitaries gathered for Richard Nixon's funeral today, but the night belonged to ordinary people who stood for hours in chilly, damp weather to say goodbye.

Mourners waited up to eight hours in a line three miles long to file past the flag-draped mahogany casket of the 37th president, borne home with fanfare Tuesday to the place of his austere childhood.

"You're standing out there for hours in the cold. You don't know what to expect. But those five minutes made the whole thing worth it. It was worth every minute," said a tearful Barbara Casey, 46, of Westminster.

Nixon's body was carried home aboard the same blue-and-white jet that brought him back to California after he resigned in disgrace 20 years ago. He died Friday in New York at age 81 after a stroke.

An estimated 25,000 people had filed past the closed casket at the Richard Nixon Library & Birthplace by early today, waiting for hours as temperatures fell below 50 degrees. The viewing was to continue nearly until noon, with the funeral this afternoon.

Six hours before the viewing ended, officials were discouraging people from getting on the line's end because they wouldn't make it through before the 11 a.m. closing time. But the crowd showed no signs of letting up.

"I would have been here even if the wait had been all night," said Dennis Elmore, 41, of San Jacinto, emerging from the library early this morning. "I turned and saw the coffin, and there he was. His soul is there. You can feel the aura."

In the library's lobby, mourners were greeted by a photograph of a grinning Nixon giving a thumbs-up gesture. Wreaths from China, Poland and Russia adorned the coffin, which stood on a pedestal under the gaze of a military honor guard.

Visitors during the day Tuesday waited through intermittent rain and hail. Some wore Nixon campaign buttons. Some wept quietly.

Today's ceremony was for the powerful, with every living president and delegations from at least 55 countries expected. President Clinton, who as a student protested Nixon's Vietnam War policies, was to deliver a eulogy.

Circus coming along

Circus workers with the Carson & Barnes Five-Ring Circus, below, and West Central Intermediate School students, above, shiver in the cold Wednesday as work proceeded on erecting the circus's tent and grounds for today's performances. The tent was raised by elephants for shows at 4:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. Students from all area schools turned out at the Bull Barn grounds to watch the raising of the tent, the unloading of the menagerie of exotic animals and preparations for the circus.

Local Roundup

Showers, maybe

A touch of winter made a brief return visit to Hereford Wednesday morning when the temperature dropped to the freezing mark, 32 degrees, after a high on Tuesday of 76. A 20 percent chance of evening showers or thunderstorms and a northeast wind 10-15 mph are forecast for Wednesday evening. Thursday should come in sunny and warmer with a high of about 65 degrees. Northwest winds, 10-15, will shift to southwest in the afternoon.

Care center to open doors

Hereford Care Center will celebrate its first anniversary of operation with an open house on Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The facility, 231 Kingwood, will feature several special activities throughout the day. The Senior Citizens Line Dancers will perform from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. Throughout the day, homemade donuts and cinnamon rolls and coffee will be served, while a chicken fried steak lunch will be served from noon to 1 p.m. at a cost of $2 per person. From 2 p.m. to 3 p.m., the Senior Citizens Choir will perform and from 3:40 p.m. to 4 p.m., a pianist will entertain the residents and guests.

IRS urges caution opening envelopes

AUSTIN (AP) - Officials at the Internal Revenue Service center in Austin have instructed workers to inspect envelopes carefully after receiving two explosive devices disguised as tax filings in the past week.

Kenneth Vargas, an IRS spokesman in Austin, said Tuesday that two business-sized envelopes contained "apparent incendiary devices" that were set off by an automated mail processing machine.

There were no injuries or reports of damage to IRS equipment. "We have met with employees who handle the mail and have briefed them about the letter devices. Precautions are being taken to handle suspicious looking mail prior to opening it," Vargas said.

"At this time it's still not determined how dangerous the devices were or what they were intended to do," Vargas said. "We do not believe they would have resulted in very serious injuries or damage."

Vargas said the letters appear to have originated from Kansas. The Austin service center, which has never had such an incident in its 30 years, processes tax returns from Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas.

The charred remains of the devices were sent to an IRS laboratory in Washington, D.C., Vargas said.

The incident is under investigation by the Internal Revenue Inspection Service and the U.S. Postal Inspector, Vargas said.

"It will take several days for the lab to tell us what the devices were intended to do," he said.

Vargas said he couldn't pinpoint when the devices were triggered because the envelopes were lumped in with thousands of pieces of mail that have been processed by IRS letter-opening equipment over the past week.

$1 million for prisons is no help, says Bush

AUSTIN (AP) - Republican gubernatorial candidate George W. Bush's campaign is criticizing Democratic Gov. Ann Richards' announcement that she found $1 million in her office budget to help pay for additional jail cells for state prisoners.

A Bush spokeswoman, Deborah Burstion-Wade, said Tuesday that the funds will do little to eliminate the backlog of some 30,000 state convicts in county jails.

"The governor decided to take $1 million out of her $116.3 million office budget to help fund construction of 15,000 beds. It sounds great, but that is all it does. When you pull the curtain back, there is almost nothing there," Ms. Burstion-Wade said.

She said costs for start-up, construction and operation of the 15,000 beds is about $311 million and that the $1 million from Richards' budget would construct and operate about 48 beds.

Bush has proposed constructing thousands of tents to use as housing for the state convicts being held by Texas counties.

Richards said she wasn't surprised by the attack from her Republican opponent, adding that he overlooks both the savings and redirecting the money toward an important goal.

"The importance here is that we saved money in our budget, and I think the second ingredient is that we were able to put it where it needed to be put most right now," she said. "I would be very surprised if you heard anything out of the campaign that said we had done anything good," she added.

Civil rights activists seeking adjustment of 1991 legislation

By SONYA ROSS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - Civil rights activists are putting the onus on Congress to adjust the Civil Rights Act of 1991 after a Supreme Court decision making it inapplicable for thousands of job-discrimination suits that were filed before the law was passed.

The high court ruled Tuesday that the law, which overturned a series of 1989 high court rulings on employment bias, can't be applied to cases that were pending on Nov. 21, 1991, the date President Bush signed the law.

"Congress is going to have to do something about this, if they want to make sure some people who have been victimized by discrimination get proper remedies," said Ted Shaw, chief of litigation for the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund.

But help is not likely to come on Capitol Hill. Congress balked at extending such protection three years ago - Democrats wanted retroactive protection, Republicans did not - and the law came out vague.

The law's vagueness was at the core of a decision written by Justice John Paul Stevens, who said Congress "has the power to amend a statute" that it believes we have misconstrued.

"It may even, within broad constitutional bounds, make such a change retroactive and thereby undo what it perceives to be the undesirable past consequences of a misinterpretation of its work product," Stevens wrote.

"We thought Congress had made it clear," said Ralph Neas, executive director of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights. "I'm confident there will be meetings on Capitol Hill, with Clinton administration officials, to look at this decision and make legislation to make it clear."

But the debate continued Tuesday. "As a matter of simple justice, trustees table the agreement until estimated operating figures were provided.

They agreed to amend the agreement to address the concerns of Veazey and Marsh.

Veazey said he would vote for the agreement if the provision for operating costs was removed and discussed later and made a motion to accept the agreement with the stipulation that it remove references about operating expenses. That motion was seconded by Flood.

Marsh then offered an amendment to the motion that would add a clause to the contract saying the district would not have to pay any more money beyond the $150,000 other than operating expenses agreed upon between the two entities.

Marsh's amendment was seconded by Veazey and it passed on a 6-0 vote.

Veazey's amended motion then passed on a 5-1 vote, with Marsh workers subjected to such acts whose cases were still pending at the time the law was enacted should have the benefit of the law," Rep. Don Edwards, D-Calif., said Tuesday. He had been one of the law's principal sponsors.

But Sen. John Danforth, R-Mo., the law's principal Republican author, said the question of retroactivity "was not answered in the final bill with complete clarity." He said he was "gratified" by the court's ruling.

Wade Henderson, lobbyist for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said he doubted whether Congress would make the statute clearer.

"The reason the statute wasn't more clear-cut in the first place is because we couldn't satisfy that political fight," he said.

Other civil rights activists had a more ambitious pursuit: pressing President Clinton to appoint a fervent civil rights advocate to the Supreme Court.

Such solid voices for civil rights as William Brennan, Byron White and the late Thurgood Marshall are gone. Soon to retire is Justice Harry Blackmun, who was the lone dissenter in the two 8-1 decisions rendered Tuesday.

"Clearly, Clinton needs to re-establish that voice on the court, a voice that pricks the conscience of the nation," said Barbara Arnwine, director of the Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights Under Law. "The issue is, where will that new voice arise?"

Before Congress passed the employment bias law, people alleging on-the-job bias only could get back pay and reinstatement.

The 1991 law allows those people to collect compensatory and punitive damages and for the first time makes jury trials available in bias cases.

The law also allows lawsuits for illegal racial bias in all phases of an employment relationship - hiring, promotions and firings.

voting against the measure.

In other board action on Tuesday: -- Trustees discussed a variety of possibilities regarding air conditioning and roof needs at Shirley School and charged district architect Larry Harvey with preparing bid documents for a standing seam metal roof and a heating and air conditioning system similar to one installed last year at Hereford High School.

Harvey estimated the cost of such a project at $846,150, including $465,500 for the air conditioning system and $365,650 for the roof.

Harvey said he would prepare bid documents so that the district could break the air conditioning project into phases, installing the new system first in parts of the building where refrigerated units are located on the roof and there are no windows to accept evaporative units.

In that configuration, 15 evaporative air conditioners currently on the roof would be temporarily moved to windows until the air conditioning could be completed at a later date.

Following discussion of the Shirley project, Greenawalt urged trustees to hold special meetings soon to look at all construction projects in the district and create a priority list of what needs to be done to district facilities.

He suggested trustees even consider the possibility of a bond issue to do several capital projects at once, because the $800,000 the district is budgeting each year could cover payments on 15-year bonds of as much as $8 million.

That way, many projects could be completed in a couple of years, rather than doing them one year at a time.

No decision was made on setting such a meeting.

Help solve the cancer puzzle

It's a puzzle yet to be solved, but cancer research is never child's play.

For decades, our century's best minds struggled to fit together myriad pieces of the most intricate puzzle on earth: the living cell. How many genes does a cell contain? Which enzymes tell the cell to divide? Not to divide? A defect in one gene, scientists have found, can promote a defect in its neighbor which may cause yet another defect impairing a pathway of genes that turn on and off, telling cells to grow and not to grow. The result is cancer.

Once science puts all the pieces together, the puzzle of cancer will be solved. Helping to bring that day closer is the Cancer Research Fund of the Damon Runyon-Walter Winchell Foundation. Established in 1946, it has awarded more than $79 million in grants and fellowships to some 2,400 young scientists. One hundred percent of every donation made goes to cancer research.

Hereford Brand movie review

'Movie should have been filmed in France'

BY RICK LANNING
Staff Writer

"My Father The Hero," playing at the Varsity Theatre in Canyon, would have been a better film had it been made in France.

Gerard Depardieu, who starred as the father, speaks English, but barely. As the divorced dad of a precocious 14-year-old, he struggles with a script that tries to tell a story of adolescence and growing pains and nearly succeeds. But it would have been better in French with sub-titles.

I have always admired Depardieu as an actor. But it seems American directors have a problem when they take talented foreign actors like Depardieu or Marcello Mastroianni and put them into an English-speaking film.

French films, especially comedies, use subtlety to make their point. There is nothing subtle about "My Father The Hero."

Depardieu takes his sullen daughter to a tropical island paradise in the Caribbean for a vacation. He is trying to resurrect his relationship with her and at the same time build a relationship with a girl friend in Paris who refuses to accept his phone calls.

There his daughter makes a fool out of him, passing him off as her lover. She courts romance with older men, driving Depardieu to distraction with her antics. Because he loves her, he allows himself to be used by his daughter to pursue a romance with a handsome 17-year-old island dweller whose father owns a boat.

The real story is told in the last 30 minutes of the movie. There are some poignant moments, the filming is beautiful, and Depardieu comes close to showing off his talents as one of France's leading actors.

On a scale of one to five, I would give the movie a three. But it should have been filmed in France.

Now I have some good news for ATLANTA (AP) - Cold feet for Amy Carter?

The daughter of former President Carter and her fiance postponed their May 28 wedding, The Atlanta Journal-Constitution reported Saturday.

Carter, 26, and Michael Antonucci, 27, gave no reason for the decision, the newspaper said.

The couple met when they were students at Brown University in Providence, R.I. They had planned to marry at an outdoor ceremony at the National Ornamental Metal Museum in Memphis.

Weishaar, Sandoval are alternates to state meet

The Hereford tennis doubles team of Brooke Weishaar and Kara Sandoval finished third at the Region I-4A Tennis Tournament, which was completed Tuesday in San Angelo.

The Hereford duo, seeded fourth, played three matches on Tuesday: losing in the semifinals; winning the third place match; then losing a playoff match.

Their third-place finish makes them an alternate to the state tennis tournament, set for May 13-14 in Austin. They would play at state if either of the top two finishers cannot go; that is unlikely, but always possible.

Weishaar and Sandoval had a first round bye, then won in straight sets in the second round on Monday. In Tuesday's semifinals, they ran up against the No. 1 seeds, Carrie Helbing and Suzanne Singleton of Wichita Falls, who beat them 6-1, 6-1.

Helbing and Singleton went on to win the finals over their Wichita Falls teammates, Mindy James and Mindy Goff, 6-2, 6-0. Helbing and Singleton dominated the tournament, losing only five games in three matches.

Weishaar and Sandoval won the third-place match in three sets, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5, over Lara Stevenson and Amy Dominguez of Big Spring. The Hereford pair had a chance at a state berth in a playback match, but they lost to the two Mindys from Wichita Falls, 6-2, 6-0.

In girls' singles, Dawna Denny of Borger won the finals, 6-2, 7-5 over Lindsey Woodworth of Fort Worth Arlington Heights. Both will go to Austin.

In boys' doubles, the Pampa duo of Brooks Gentry and Stephan Bressler took third, losing in a playback match. Mark Burton and Nikhil Mankodi of Wichita Falls took the title, defeating Vuong Dao and Keith Jordan of Boswell, 6-4, 6-2.

In boys' singles, Plainview's Zach Gibson finished fourth. Rob Hogan of Wichita Falls won the championship, 6-3, 6-4 over Greg Biddison of Big Spring, who then lost a playback match to Jason Lester of Fort Stockton, 6-4, 6-4, so Hogan and Lester advance to state.

In all, Wichita Falls got half of the eight state tournament berths.

Herd clinches playoff berth

By JAY PEDEN

Break out the bubbly. The Hereford baseball team clinched its first playoff berth since 1989 with a 16-9 victory over Caprock Tuesday in Amarillo.

Hereford improved its record to 6-1-1 in District 1-4A, 12-9-1 overall. Only Borger with its perfect 8-0 record is ahead of the Herd in the district standings. Randall is in third at 4-4 and, with two games left, can't catch Hereford.

"It was a big game for me, probably the biggest all year, because we got in the playoffs," said first-year coach J.J. Villarreal. "Now we can concentrate on beating Randall (Saturday) instead of concentrating on the playoff hunt. We're in there."

The Herd broke open a close game—it was 5-4 through four innings—with five runs in the fifth inning and three each in the sixth and seventh.

Hereford got a little help from Caprock—seven walks, four errors, Villarreal said—but mostly the bats broke out in big way as the Herd collected 17 hits. Armando Zambrano Chris Vallejo and Stacey Sanders all went 3-for-5, while Ray Hastings and Jacob Lopez went 2-for-5. Russ Watts put an exclamation mark on the explosion with a two-run homer, his second of the year.

The beneficiary of this offense was pitcher Andrew Tijerina, who improved his record to 7-4. He struck out seven and gave up eight hits and four walks in six and two-thirds innings. After Caprock got two runs in the seventh, Louis Hernandez relieved for the final out.

Villarreal gave the credit for the team's success to senior leadership.

"After the Plainview game (an 8-2 loss on March 22) our seniors got together and decided they were going to take a leadership role. They stepped it up a notch. When you have senior leadership, that helps the whole team."

"I think what has gotten us to this point is defense," Villarreal continued. "Coach (Henry) Perez has done a great job with the outfield, and coach (Pete) Rodriguez has done a great job with the infielders. It got to the point that they were taking 500 ground balls a week. They did a great job with these kids."

Hoyfield hangs up gloves because of heart problems

ATLANTA (AP) - The great heart that helped make Evander Holyfield a champion finally let him down.

Holyfield, 31, retired Tuesday after being diagnosed with a heart condition, a challenger he'd beaten for four years.

The announcement came four days after he lost his heavyweight title to Michael Moorer on a 12-round decision.

The condition was manifested by severe fatigue and was diagnosed after the fight Friday night in Las Vegas. It is not life threatening, said Holyfield's personal physician, Dr. Ronald Stephens.

"It was not like he was sitting on a time bomb," said cardiologist Dr. Douglas Morris. "His heart was not functioning at its maximum level. We did not look at this that his life was imperiled at any time."

Stephens told a news conference at Crawford Long Hospital that Holyfield's condition is under control and he could lead a normal life if he follows a less strenuous lifestyle, meaning no more boxing.

"When Dr. Stephens told me, it was an easy decision," said Holyfield, who walked to the podium with the aid of a nurse. "I'm going to miss boxing a lot, but I believe God put boxing in my life for a reason. I had a lot of love for it and it made a better life for me and my family."

Stephens said the condition, diagnosed as a non-compliant left ventricle or "stiff heart," prevented sufficient oxygen from being pumped to muscles and tissues.

The left ventricle is one of four chambers of the heart and one of two ventricles. It is responsible for pumping blood out of the heart to the body. The right ventricle pumps blood to the lungs.

Stephens said that after the fight Holyfield, who lost for only the second time in 32 fights, immediately was taken to a Las Vegas hospital to treat a kidney condition caused by dehydration and strenuous exercise. He was given massive amounts of fluid, but his heart was not able to handle the fluid buildup.

"That's when we realized he had a cardiac condition," said Stephens, chief of general surgery at Crawford Long Hospital. Holyfield returned to Atlanta on Sunday night and was admitted to the hospital. He will undergo one more cardiac test today before being released.

Stephens said the cause of Holyfield's condition is unknown so far, but it was not caused by fighting.

As he slowly trudged to the elevator and to his hospital room, Holyfield was asked if it was a sad day.

"No. It's a bright day," he said. "I'm breathing and I've got my health."

Girls' golf team finishes 8th at regional tourney

The Hereford girls' golf team finished the season in eighth place at the Region I-4A Golf Tournament, which was completed Tuesday in San Angelo.

Hereford slipped one stroke on Tuesday, shooting 390 after a 389 on Monday, for a tournament total of 779.

Andrews' A team won the tournament with a 661, and Snyder was second at 683, far ahead of third-place Stephenville (752). Andrews continued its long string of state tournament berths, and Snyder replaced Hereford, which had gone the last three years.

Hereford was one of three teams in the field of 11 which had a higher score on the second day than on the very-windy first day.

Senior Kelly Kelso led Hereford individually, shooting an 87 Tuesday for a total of 177. That was the 11th-best score of the tournament.

Hereford's other players, all underclassmen, were: Karen Manchec, 95-194; Krista Beville, 103-204; Stephanie Bixler, 110-209; and Kristin Calkins, 105-209.

Girls teams: 1, Andrews A, 321-340-661; 2, Snyder, 338-345-683; 3, Stephenville, 377-375-752; 4, Borger, 381-378-759; 5, Andrews B, 383-381-764; 6, Burk Burnett, 399-370-769; 7, Lamesa, 394-381-775; 8, Hereford, 389-390-779; 9, FW Arlington Heights, 415-435-850; 10, Justin Northwest, 439-456-895; 11, Granbury, 388-DNF.

Girls medalists: 1, Brooke Lowrance, Snyder, 74-71-145; 2, Jamie McInturff, Dumas, 75-74-149; 3, Tori Hester, Andrews, 73-81-154.

Boys teams: 1, Andrews, 303-297-600; 2, Plainview, 304-308-612; 3, Borger, 304-311-615; 4, Pampa, 307-308-615 (Borger beat Pampa for third place on the third hole of a playoff); 5, Justin Northwest, 328-290-618; 6, Burk Burnett, 311-309-620; 7, Granbury, 313-314-627; 8, Snyder, 320-312-632; 9, Monahans, 322-311-633; 10, FW Arlington Heights A, 329-327-656; 11, Brownwood, 332-324-656; 12, FW Arlington Heights B, 410-368-778.

Boys medalists: 1, Derrick Pursley, Andrews, 73-70-143; 2, Jonathan Moseley, Stephenville, 73-73-145; 3, Fred Barnabe, Pampa, 73-75-148.

Cowboys get Fishback back

IRVING, Texas (AP) - The Dallas Cowboys on Monday resigned safety Joe Fishback, a key special teams player, to a one-year contract and have signed Keith Powe, a defensive lineman who went to camp with the team in 1991.

The Cowboys also are negotiating with several undrafted rookies, including Syracuse wide receiver Shelby Hill, a high-rated junior who did poorly as a senior.

The team said it is moving the annual Governor's Cup exhibition game against the Houston Oilers to the Alamodome in San Antonio for 1995-97. This year's game will be Aug. 15 in Mexico City.

WTAMU names Stone as coach

CANYON, Texas (AP) - West Texas A&M defensive coordinator Morris Stone was named head football coach Tuesday.

Stone, 31, has served as interim head coach since Ron Steel resigned last month.

The Buffalos went 3-6 last season under Stone's defensive coaching. He served as the offensive coordinator in 1992.

Stone, a linebacker and kicker at Angelo State in the early '80s, coached at Galveston Ball High School in 1991, at Texas Tech as a graduate assistant from 1989-90 and at Midwestern State from 1987-88.

One of the greats of all time in golf, Bobby Jones, retired from competition at the age of 28.

Rod Laver of Australia won the tennis grand slam as an amateur and again as a professional.

Cincinnati stays Red hot

By The Associated Press
It seems a little like 1990 at Riverfront Stadium these days. With seven wins in eight games, the Cincinnati Reds have the best record in the majors at 13-5. The latest win came Tuesday night, when Tim Lincecum pitched a five-hitter in an 8-2 rout of the Chicago Cubs.

"It seems everybody is doing so well. You don't want to be the one to mess it up," Lincecum said. "The clubhouse is great."

Last year, he was 10-5. This season, he's 2-0. Against the Cubs, Lincecum walked three and struck out one in his fourth complete game in 37 career starts. The Cubs scored both runs in the second, then got just two runners into scoring position the rest of the game.

"Early on, our bullpen was kind of carrying us," Reds manager Davey Johnson said. "Now our starters are all doing an exceptional job. Every guy goes out and tries to do better than the previous guy. It's a nice little thing they've got going."

Thomas Howard, making his third start, and Tony Fernandez drove in three runs each.

"It's good to win the types of games we've had the last couple of

Seles says she will play again

HAMBURG, Germany (AP) - Monica Seles, who remains sidelined indefinitely nearly a year after she was stabbed in the back during a tournament in Hamburg, said in a magazine interview that she plans to return to competition.

"Of course I will play tennis again," Sports Illustrated magazine quoted Seles as saying in its issue released today. "I don't want to be remembered just as someone who grunted and giggled. I'd hate to be remembered only for that."

"I also don't want to be the one with the knife in the back." There's still a lot I can accomplish."

Seles, 20, held the No. 1 ranking when she was stabbed during a change-over last April 30 when an obsessed fan of Steffi Graf leaned from the stands and plunged a kitchen knife into her back. The assailant, Guenter Parche, received a two-year suspended sentence in October.

Stephanie Tolleson of International Management Group issued a statement this week "in response to inaccurate reports internationally over the weekend" that Seles would not return.

"Monica has made no decision as to when she will return to competitive play," Tolleson said. "She is not entered in any tournaments this year, and she does not know when she will be able to return."

"Monica has spent the past few months focusing on her physical rehabilitation in order to return to the sport she loves."

days," Howard said. "We fall behind early, but everybody is still in the game. When we've gotten opportunities to score, we haven't missed those chances. That's the mark of a good team."

In other games, San Diego beat New York 6-3, Los Angeles beat Philadelphia 4-3, Atlanta beat Florida 9-6, Montreal beat San Francisco 7-3, St. Louis beat Colorado 2-1 and Pittsburgh beat Houston 7-4.

Turk Wendell (0-1), called up Saturday when Jose Guzman went on the disabled list, gave up eight hits and six runs in four-plus innings.

Chicago has lost nine of 11 and is 5-13, the worst in the majors.

"We didn't make smart pitches," Cubs manager Tom Trebelhorn said.

Padres 6, Mets 3

Hours after he was charged with soliciting a prostitute on a Manhattan street, Scott Sanders earned his first career save.

Sanders pitched 1-2/3 innings in relief of former-Met Wally Whitehurst (2-3), who matched his career high with nine strikeouts and allowed three runs and five hits in seven innings.

"Tonight, mentally it was great to be in the game in a pressure situation," said Sanders, whose three previous appearances this season were starts. "I love them."

Pete Smith (1-3) lost his third straight start, allowing four runs and six hits in seven innings, with three strikeouts and two walks.

Dodgers 4, Phillies 3

Henry Rodriguez and Raul Mondesi singled in runs in the seventh inning, and Los Angeles rallied from a 2-0 deficit to send visiting Philadelphia to its second four-game losing streak this season.

After David West (0-3) walked Brett Butler and allowed a single to Jose Offerman, Heathcliff Slocumb yielded the singles to Rodriguez and Mondesi.

Gary Wayne (1-2) allowed one hit in 1 1/3 innings. Todd Worrell pitched a perfect ninth for his second save.

Braves 9, Marlins 6

Rookie Mike Kelly got his first major-league RBIs with a three-run double that broke a 6-6 tie in the eighth. Visiting Atlanta avoided what would have been its sixth loss in seven games.

Mark Wohlers (3-0) gave up a game-tying homer to Orestes Destrade, his third, leading off the seventh. Greg McMichael pitched two perfect innings for his fifth save. Luis Aquino (1-1) was the loser.

Expos 7, Giants 3

Shortstop Royce Clayton's two-run throwing error and Cliff Floyd's sacrifice fly in fifth inning helped Montreal rally from a 3-1 deficit at Olympic Stadium.

Jeff Fassero (2-1) allowed six hits in 7 1/3 innings, and Mel Rojas got four outs for his fifth save in the Expos' last six victories.

Billy Swift (3-2) allowed six runs - three earned - and four hits in 6 1/3 innings, losing to the Expos for the first time in six decisions.

Cardinals 2, Rockies 1

Bob Tewksbury cooled off the league's highest-scoring team, striking out a career-high 10 at Busch Stadium and becoming the first five-game winner in the majors.

Tewksbury (5-0) allowed five hits and walked none in his second straight complete game. He has won nine of his last 11 starts since Aug. 28, 1993.

Ray Lankford led off the first with a homer off Armando Reynoso (1-2). Terry McGriff added a run-scoring single in the second.

Pirates 7, Astros 4

Doubles by Brian Hunter and Carlos Garcia helped visiting Pittsburgh score four runs and overcome a 4-3 eighth-inning deficit.

Mark Dewey (2-0), who got the final out in the seventh, was the winner. Rick White pitched the last two innings for his fourth save. Todd Jones (0-2) was the loser.

Trade paid off for Hawks

By The Associated Press
The Atlanta Hawks, the top-seeded team in the Eastern Conference playoffs, clearly aren't so highly regarded by the public.

The Feb. 24 trade of Dominique Wilkins, the leading scorer in franchise history, to the Los Angeles Clippers raised plenty of doubts about whether this was the kind of deal a contending team should make.

Danny Manning's unhappy final years with the Clippers also caused some to question his attitude and character, and his first game at Atlanta in a Hawks uniform prompted as many boos as cheers.

Manning's performance down the stretch gives little hint that the trade damaged the team's hopes for the playoffs that start Thursday night. The Hawks play host to the eighth-seeded Heat, who became the 16th and last team to qualify for the playoffs by defeating Atlanta at Miami last Thursday.

It was the only time the Heat beat the Hawks in four games this season. "Dominique was here for a very long time and is a legend in the city," Manning said. "I'm not going to replace Dominique. I'm just going to go out, play my game and do the best I can."

In other playoff openers Thursday night, Indiana is at Orlando in the East, while it's Denver at Seattle and Utah at San Antonio in the Western Conference.

On Friday, it's New Jersey at New York and Cleveland at Chicago in the East and Portland at Houston and Golden State at Phoenix in the West.

The Hawks were 37-16 before the Manning-Wilkins trade, a .698 percentage, and 20-9 with Manning on the roster, or .690.

That's hardly a precipitous drop, but the Hawks still found it necessary to defend Manning.

"Danny is an all-star caliber player and is six years younger than Wilkins," coach Lenny Wilkins said. "Anytime you get an opportunity to make this kind of deal, you're kind of foolish if you don't."

Wilkins said that no one who knows Manning or deals with him in the media questions his attitude.

"He has outstanding character, and the fact that he was unhappy there (Los Angeles) doesn't belittle him at all," Wilkins said.

Orlando, in its fifth season, makes its first postseason appearance after winning 50 games for the first time. The Magic are the No. 4 seed in the East ahead of No. 5 Indiana, which won its last eight games of the season, a franchise record.

"I've waited a long time for this," said Nick Anderson, the team's first pick in the college draft before its first season. "There are a lot of guys that may never get to say they were on a team that won 50 games. I can say I have."

Fourth-seeded San Antonio has the homecourt advantage in the first round against Utah, but the Jazz were 5-0 against the Spurs this season. San Antonio hopes to reverse the trend with its advantage at center, where David Robinson is coming off a 71-point performance Sunday that won him the NBA scoring title over Shaquille O'Neal.

Seattle is the top seed in the West and has homecourt advantage throughout the playoffs because of its NBA-best 63-19 record.

But like Atlanta in the East, the SuperSonics feel they don't get the respect they deserve.

"When they've talked about the West, they've talked about Phoenix or Houston. People have said all along that we're going to fall apart sooner or later," forward Detlef Schrempf said.

Denver, despite a 2-2 split of the season series with the Sonics, matches Miami's 42-40 record as the worst among the 16 playoff teams.

High winds delay Rangers' win over Tigers

By BEN WALKER
AP Baseball Writer

Not since Stu Miller was blown off the mound at Candlestick Park during the 1961 All-Star game has the wind caused more trouble for a pitcher than the opposing batters.

Winner Rick Helling was knocked off-balance by gusts up to 50 mph, and the high winds caused a 45-minute delay Tuesday night in the Texas Rangers' 6-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

"I caught myself several times before I came set, because I was worried the umpires were going to call a balk," Helling said. "A couple of times I stumbled because of the wind. I've never seen anything close to that."

The wind at The Ballpark forced the team to move fans from the upper deck to lower areas. It also uprooted several trees in the parking lot and blew down a street light.

Inside the stadium, it turned a fly ball to shallow center by Jose Canseco into a popup that fell near the feet of Tigers first baseman Cecil Fielder.

Several hours earlier, a tornado struck the north Texas town of Gainesville. On Monday, a tornado touched down in Lancaster, south of Dallas, and killed four people.

In other games, Toronto downed Kansas City 8-6, Baltimore beat Oakland 10-4, Seattle topped Boston 4-3 in 10 innings, California defeated New York 6-3, Cleveland beat Minnesota 11-3 and Chicago stopped Milwaukee 3-0.

In the top of the sixth inning at Texas, Helling was blown around just before he began his windup. In the bottom of the sixth, with light rain starting to fall, play was stopped.

Helling (2-0) gave up one run on seven hits in six innings. Tigers starter Mike Moore (2-2) left after the wind delay, and Texas scored three times against Jose Lima for a 6-1 lead.

Blue Jays 8, Royals 6
Joe Carter tied a major league record with his 29th RBI in April and Toronto won at Kansas City.

Carter matched Ron Cey, Dale Murphy and Dave Winfield for most RBIs in April. Colorado's Andres Galarraga also has 29 this month.

Devon White went 4-for-4, was hit by a pitch and scored three times. Todd Stottlemyre (3-0) won in his first start of the season and Mike Timlin got his second save. Carter had an RBI double during a four-run first inning against Chris Haney (1-1).

Orioles 10, Athletics 4
Brady Anderson hit two home runs and two doubles.

The A's went 0-8 on their road trip to Boston, New York and Baltimore. Rafael Palmeiro and Chris Hoiles also homered in the Orioles' seventh win in 10 games.

Arthur Rhodes (1-3) pitched a three-hitter. He struck out eight and retired the last 16 batters. Bobby Witt (1-2) gave up six runs in the first two innings.

Angels 6, Yankees 3

Brian Anderson, pitching on his 22nd birthday, took a shutout into the ninth inning at Yankee Stadium before tiring and stopped New York's six-game winning streak.

Anderson (3-0) struck out five in his fifth big league start. He left after Gerald Williams' two-out, two-run double in the ninth.

Dwight Smith homered and drove in three runs for California. Melido Perez (2-1) was the loser.

Mariners 4, Red Sox 3
Pitcher Greg Harris made a wild throw on a bases-loaded grounder by Torey Lovullo with one out in the 10th inning, giving Seattle its win over Boston at the Kingdome.

The Mariners loaded the bases on Rich Amaral's double and two intentional walks. Lovullo grounded back to Harris (1-2), who threw past catcher Dave Valle. Lovullo was credited with an RBI on the fielder's choice.

Bobby Ayala (2-1) pitched two perfect innings and struck out three. Andre Dawson hit his 417th career homer for the Red Sox.

White Sox 3, Brewers 0
Alex Fernandez pitched his second shutout of the season and host Chicago stopped Milwaukee's five-game winning streak.

Fernandez (2-3) gave up six singles.

Indians 11, Twins 3
Manny Ramirez hit a three-run homer and Candy Maldonado also connected.

Kenny Lofton tripled, doubled, drove in two runs and scored twice for the Indians. Albert Belle doubled twice.

Dave Winfield homered and doubled for Minnesota, and Scott Lewis also homered. Mark Clark (2-0) was the winner and Jose Mesa got his second save. Pat Mahomes (1-1) was the loser.

NBA has no problem with Murphy

HOUSTON (AP) - Calvin Murphy won't get any credit for making Denver's Mahmoud Abdul-Rauf miss the free throw that allowed Murphy to keep the NBA single season free throw shooting percentage record.

A referee tossed the ball to Murphy during a timeout in the third quarter of Sunday's game against Houston after Abdul-Rauf made the first shot of a two-shot foul.

"That's no problem," NBA vice president Rod Thorn said. "Everybody was laughing about it. I don't think Mahmoud even saw it. He was in the huddle."

During the timeout, the referee tossed the ball to Murphy, who rubbed it and threw it back to the official.

When play resumed, Abdul-Rauf stepped to the line, blew a kiss in Murphy's direction and missed the free throw. Abdul-Rauf finished with a .956 percentage for the year on 219 of 229 free throws.

Murphy kept the record of .958 set in 1981.

Thorn said he watched film of the incident and saw no harm.

"When I first heard about it, I thought it happened while the game was in play," Thorn said.

"If the game is going on and Mahmoud is at the line and all of a sudden the referee tosses the ball to Calvin and he puts his hands on it, that could be distraction. But that's something different."

Abdul-Rauf joked after the game on Sunday that he missed on purpose.

"I did that for a reason, man," he said. "With the No. 1 free throw shooter an old-timer, and the No. 2 free throw shooter a new-timer, we can make a mean video, man. Mahmoud and Murphy. M&M, man."

They Have a Spark
CINCINNATI (AP) - Coaches usually like veteran quarterbacks but at least one NFL star, nose tackle Tim Krumrie of the Cincinnati Bengals, casts a vote for young signal-callers.

"I like having young guys in the huddle," Tim said. "They have a spark, a look you can see in their eyes. You can see it. I feed off that."

with the following members being absent: none

there came on to be considered the matter of providing for election of trustees to be held on the 7th day of May, 1994, and on the motion of trustee Steve Wright and seconded by trustee Joe Flood, duly put and carried with all voting "aye" and none voting "nay", it is ordered that an election be held in this school district on the 7th day of May, 1994, between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. for the election of two trustees to serve on the Board of Trustees as follows:

Single Member District I on the Board of Trustees of the Hereford Independent School District to succeed Ron Weishaar whose term is expiring.

Single Member District III on the Board of Trustees of the Hereford Independent School District to succeed Raymond Schlabs whose term is expiring.

The Hereford Independent School District shall constitute one voting precinct for the purpose of holding the trustee election, and the place of the election shall be at the Community Center, 100 Avenue C, Hereford, Texas. The presiding judge over the election shall be Doris Buckert and she shall select clerks to assist her in holding the election.

Voting in the election shall be by paper ballots. No candidate for any position who has not filed his or her name at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the election, the date being midnight, April 7, 1994, shall have his or her name printed on the ballot. Such person shall designate in the written notice and request to have his or her name placed on the official ballot for the two single member districts which shall be elected by majority vote. A person who does not file such notice and request within this time shall not be entitled to have his or her name printed on the official ballot to be used at the election. The order in which the names appear for the two single member district positions shall be determined by lot; that is, a number representing the name of each of the candidates shall be placed on a slip of paper, and such slip shall be drawn from a receptacle after they have been mixed, and the names shall then be printed on the ballot in which their numbers are drawn. No person shall be elected trustee unless he or she is a qualified voter and a resident of the Hereford Independent School District. No person shall be elected to the position of Single Member District I Trustee unless he or she resides within the boundaries of the single member district at the time of filing for the position. No person shall be elected to the position of Single Member District III Trustee unless he or she resides within the boundaries of the single member district at the time of filing for the position.

The candidate for Single Member District I receiving a majority of the votes cast for all candidates for the position shall be declared elected. If no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast for Single Member District I, then two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall run against each other for the position. The runoff election shall be held on Saturday, the 4th day of June, 1994, between 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Absentee voting for the runoff election shall be conducted as set out below except that absentee voting shall take place between May 16, 1994 and May 31, 1994 with the polls to be open the same hours as during the regular election.

The candidate for Single Member District III receiving a majority of the votes cast for all candidates for the position shall be declared elected. If no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast for Single Member District III, then two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall run against each other for the position. The runoff election shall be held on Saturday, the 4th day of June, 1994, between 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Absentee voting for the runoff election shall be conducted as set out below except that absentee voting shall take place between May 16, 1994 and May 31, 1994 with the polls to be open the same hours as during the regular election.

Absentee voting shall be conducted by David Ruland who is hereby appointed clerk for absentee voting in the election. The place of the absentee voting will be the County Clerk's Office, Deaf Smith County Courthouse, Hereford, Texas. Requests for ballots by mail should be directed in writing to the absentee voting clerk, David Ruland, County Clerk, Deaf Smith County Courthouse, Hereford, Texas, 79045. Absentee voting by personal appearance will begin on the 11th day of April, 1994, and continue through the 26th day of April, 1994, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on each day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or official state holiday. This order shall constitute the election order for the call of the election described. The Superintendent of Schools shall post at each of three (3) public places in this District a notice of the election, stating in substance the contents of this election order and the time and place fixed for the election. The Superintendent shall also cause a notice of the election to be published in at least one newspaper not more than thirty nor less than ten days prior to the election. The Superintendent shall supply to the clerk for absentee voting all necessary ballots, ballot boxes, poll lists, stub box, tally sheets, and other election supplies necessary for holding the election; and shall likewise make provision on the day of the election for the supplies to the polling place for the election judge and her clerks to conduct the election. All election materials including notice of election, ballots, instruction cards, affidavits, and other forms which the voter may be requested to sign, and all absentee voting materials, shall be printed both in English and in Spanish or Spanish translations thereof shall be made available in the circumstances permitted and in the manner required by law. The Board of Trustees shall canvass the returns of the election on the 10th day of May, 1994. Said election shall be held in accordance with the Texas Election Code except as modified by the Texas Education Code.

Adopted and entered in the minutes of the Board on the 1st day of February, 1994.

Public invited to bazaar

The congregation of First Presbyterian Church is hosting the church's Spring Bazaar from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Saturday at the church. The public is invited to attend the event which will feature arts, crafts, baked goods and good garage sale items. Displaying a few of the articles that will be for sale are Lynn Kriegshausner, at left, and Linda Arellano.

Sorority chapters will observe Founder's Day

Founder's Day will be celebrated by the three Hereford chapters of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Thursday. Members of Alpha Iota Mu, Xi Epsilon Alpha and Alpha Alpha Chapters will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday in the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church to observe the special day.

The chairman of the celebration is Barbara Burkhalter and the mistress of ceremonies for the evening will be Pattie Urbanczyk. Burkhalter has been selected for the honor of presenting the special message from the International Executive Council of Beta Sigma Phi. Other members taking part in the program are Jamie Bromman, Linda Arellano, Marcia Mardis, Melinda Henson and Susan Cardinal.

Awards will be presented during the festivities to outstanding chapter members, recognizing them for their sorority and community work. Some local Beta Sigma Phi projects include the Lifeline Program, Rape Crisis/Domestic Violence Center, Operation Good Shepherd, the Deaf Smith County Chapter of the American Red Cross, Christmas Stocking Fund, Adopted Sister Program at Westgate Nursing Home, the Deaf Smith County Library Video Fund and to give financial assistance in local crisis situations.

The three local chapters will join with 12,500 chapters of 250,000 members throughout the world to celebrate Beta Sigma Phi Founder's Day which honors Walter W. Ross, a man who during the depression, saw a need among the young women he met in his work as a traveling encyclopedia salesman. He believed they needed more in their lives than work, responsibility and hardship and decided to devote his life to providing them with a social and cultural outlet.

Ross' efforts brought seven young women in Abilene, Kan. together in 1931 to form that sort of organization. Beta Sigma Phi met their needs and continues to meet the needs of hundreds of thousands of women today. This April 30, Walter Ross will be remembered by this, the largest Greek letter sorority in the world.

Throughout the 63 years of its history, the members of Beta Sigma Phi have enjoyed programs for cultural studies and numerous social events. They devote much of their time and effort to service, and recently raised over $250,000 for sorority sisters who suffered losses due to Hurricanes Andrew and Iniki and to flooding in the midwestern U.S.

A typical year finds the chapters donating over $3 million directly to local charities, reflecting over 200,000 work hours. The chapters have created their own international funds which donate millions to health research groups, hunger projects and other worthwhile causes. Through Beta Sigma Phi's International loan and scholarship funds, members and their families receive assistance.

The federal government levied an income tax for the first time in 1861.

Ask Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB: Over-the-counter prescription tablets do not ease my pain from arthritis. I am now taking "Live Cell Therapy" tablets to see if I get any relief from pain. I asked my doctor about this therapy. He said he had never heard of it. I am old enough to remember Charlie Chaplin moving to Switzerland to take this therapy. I also remember John F. Kennedy bragging about his new found virility after spending a few weeks at a famous Swiss clinic. What better endorsement can you get for a product than Bob Hope who is 90-plus and George Burns, both of whom are still active? I would appreciate any information you can give me about Live Cell Therapy.

DEAR READER: One word comes to mind: FRAUD! Of course this is not approved by the Food and Drug Administration for that very reason. It is an old and disproved idea. Originally, Dr. Paul Niehans in Switzerland did experiments by injecting the cells of various organs from baby or unborn animals. This was the origin of the idea that injecting young cells into people would act as a youth potion. It is true that Pope Pius received this treatment, but he also received other treatment for his medical problems which were the real benefit. I can't corroborate that any of the other people you mentioned or who were mentioned in the flyer you sent have ever even received Live Cell Therapy, and I don't believe everything I read in the tabloids.

Such frauds are not allowed in the United States. I note this was from a Holistic Health Center in London, England, and Zurich, Switzerland.

Barrett honored

The American Association of Blood Banks recently honored Ed Charles Barrett with a plaque for his many years of blood donations in order to help others. The plaque was presented by Debra Alford, chairman of the Blood Bank Committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Women's Division.

Saturday deadline to join Community Concert Assoc.

The Hereford Community Concert Association is currently conducting its annual membership drive and invites the public to take advantage of four outstanding professional concerts which will be offered during the 1994-95 concert season.

During the membership drive which will run until Saturday, CCA's campaign headquarters are located at the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce office, 701 N. Main St. The office will be open from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. weekdays and 8 a.m. until noon Saturday.

Membership dues are $15 for adults; $7.50 for students through grade 12; $40 for a family where the children are still living at home; $50 for contributor status; $100 for patron designation; $250 for sponsor designation; and $500 to be a benefactor.

The four performances which are planned this November and January, February and March of 1995 include The Vancouver Wind Trio, Pianist John Bayless, Mezzo-Soprano Brenda Boozer and The Soloists of St. Petersburg.

There will be no individual performance tickets sold—attendance at the concerts is by membership card only.

In addition to being able to attend concerts in Hereford, association members are also welcome to attend concerts in Plainview, Pampa, Borger, Dumas and Dalhart.

Further information can be obtained by calling Pat Fisher at 364-0294 or going by the C of C office.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Meeting a fawning Madonna after a 71-point game had basketball star David Robinson smiling about which was the better score.

"They were both fun," the San Antonio Spurs player said after the singer, wearing a black, midriff-baring top that exposed her pierced navel, rushed into the lockerroom Sunday to congratulate him on his high scoring.

Robinson won the National Basketball Association season-scoring record, overtaking Shaquille O'Neal of the Orlando Magic. Robinson became just the fourth NBA player to score 70 or more points in a game.

"Madonna prayed with us after the game," said Robinson, who favors spending time with his wife and children to grabbing the limelight.

Before departing, Madonna chatted with bare-chested forward Dennis Rodman, famous for his blond hair, tattooed arms and on-court outbursts.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Time hasn't mellowed Hunter S. Thompson, say fans who relish the "gonzo" journalist's rough edges.

"I would have died if I'd gotten here and found a kindly, old grandfather type," said Julie Elton of St. Louis, who waited three hours Saturday in a block-long line before Thompson finally showed up for a book signing.

Then, he minced no words. Asked about the death of former president Richard Nixon, Thompson said "Richard who?"

On the Middle East, Thompson responded: "Bad food." How about Whitewater? "It's a great mixer."

"He didn't seem to want to talk about much," said Bob Anderson, 26, of New Orleans. "But he's funny as hell."

Thompson gained fame in the 1960s and '70s with irreverent reporting later dubbed "gonzo" journalism. At 54, the author of "Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas," "Hell's Angels" and other books, shows no sign of settling down.

He left when he felt like it — early. "When Hunter's ready to go, he goes," said friend Ellie Rand.

SATURDAY—Games noon until 4 p.m.

MONDAY—Line dance 9-11 a.m., devotional 12:45 p.m., water exercises.

TUESDAY—Stretch and flex 10-10:45 a.m., water exercises, Golden Spread Hearing 1-4 p.m.

WEDNESDAY—Stretch and flex 10-10:45 a.m., water exercises, ceramics 1:30 p.m.

WIN A FREE NORDIC TRACK

GET ON THE RIGHT TRACK

Fill out the entry form below, bring it into our store, and drop it into the entry box for your chance to win a free NordicTrack Skier.

OFFICIAL RULES ENTRY FORM

1. TO ENTER: No purchase is required. Print your name, address, zip code and phone number on the Official Sweepstakes Entry Form provided at participating stores. Deposit the completed Entry Form in the Official Sweepstakes Entry Box. Limit one entry per eligible adult per day. Each entry must be hand printed. No photocopies or mechanically reproduced entries will be honored. Sweepstakes are not responsible for lost, late, misdirected, illegible or incomplete entries.
2. DRAWING: A drawing will be held at each participating store to randomly select winners on or about Saturday, May 21, 1994 at close of business. The drawing will be conducted by authorized persons representing the participating store(s) whose decision shall be final. Odds of winning any prize depends upon the number of entries received.
3. WINNERS: Winners selected at each participating store (one (1) per participating store) will receive a NordicTrack Exercise Machine Model #4040, average retail value $539.95. NOT INCLUDED: Any federal, state, or local taxes. Such taxes are the sole responsibility of the winner(s). Prizes must be accepted as described above. No cash substitutions.
4. THE "GET ON THE RIGHT TRACK" SWEEPSTAKES IS BEING CONDUCTED INDIVIDUALLY IN PARTICIPATING STORES IN THE CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES AND HAWAII. ELIGIBILITY IS LIMITED TO ADULTS 18 YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER. EMPLOYEES OF THE PARTICIPATING STORES, FRANCHISE COMPANIES, THEIR ADVERTISING OR PROMOTIONAL AGENCIES OR ANYONE ENGAGED IN THE DEVELOPMENT OR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE "GET ON THE RIGHT TRACK" SWEEPSTAKES AND THEIR IMMEDIATE FAMILIES ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO WIN. VOID WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW. ALL FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL LAWS APPLY.
5. WINNERS will be notified by certified mail and need not be present to win. Winners may be required to submit an Affidavit of Eligibility and Liability release. Failure to comply with this provision will result in disqualification and an alternate winner will be selected. By acceptance of a prize, the winner consents to the use of his or her name and address for the purpose of advertising without additional compensation.

ALL ENTRIES MUST BE RECEIVED NO LATER THAN SATURDAY, MAY 21, 1994

When Less Is More

Each year, every American uses about 190 pounds of plastic. Of that, about 60 pounds is packaging that gets thrown away after opening purchases. In fact, plastic used for packaging consumes some 33 percent of the limited space available in landfills. Reducing this waste starts in the store. Look for packages that offer more contents, and LESS waste. Buy potatoes, carrots and other vegetables loose, whenever you can. Besides cutting waste, you'll help send manufacturers the message that smart shoppers know less is more!
