Local Roundup SBOE slates vote on 'easy courses'

Four arrested Thursday

Deaf Smith County sheriff's deputies arrested three persons Thursday: a man, 43, for reckless conduct; a man, 45, for violation of a protective order and criminal trespass; and a man, 22, for driving while intoxicated and violation of probation.

Deputies reported problems with a pit bull in the San Jose Labor Camp. The dog attacked a patrol car, grasped one of the wheels in its jaws and shook the car.

Hereford police arrested a man, 22, at U.S. Highway 60 and Schley on Thursday for defective equipment, no driver's license, display of a fictitious license plate and failure to maintain financial responsibility.

Reports included criminal non-support in the 600 block of W. Third; doors found open by officers on East U.S. Highway 60 and in the 200 block of Main; criminal mischief in the 200 block of Ave. H; domestic disturbance in the 300 block of Ave. I; Class C assault in the 100 block of Ave. K in a domestic disturbance; unauthorised use of a motor vehicle in the 900 block of Union; burglary of a motor vehicle in the 400 block of E. Sixth; dog running loose in the 800 block of Knight; disorderly conduct among neighbors in the 700 block of Ave. H; and violation of a protective order.

Police issued no tickets Thursday.

Hereford volunteer firefighters were called to a bicycle-pickup accident Thursday at 1:25 p.m. and a minor accident today at 2:23 a.m. at East 15th and U.S. Highway 60.

Chance for more storms

Tonight, a 40 percent chance of thunderstorms, some may be severe in the evening, otherwise partly cloudy with a low in the upper 50s. South wind 10 to 15 mph.

Saturday, partly cloudy with a 40 percent chance of afternoon thunderstorms. High in the mid 80s. South wind 10 to 20 mph and gusty.

The extended forecast for Sunday through Tuesday: a chance of mainly afternoon and evening thunderstorms each day, otherwise partly cloudy. High in the 80s. Lows in the 60s.

This morning's low at KPAN was 58 after a high Thursday of 87. KPAN recorded .53 of an inch of rain from Thursday's thunderstorm.

Truckers meeting is Tuesday

A meeting of the West Texas Agricultural Truckers Association will be held Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Hereford Community Center.

Carl Young of the Texas Department of Commerce and other officials will be at the meeting to help explain to truckers and others how they may be able to get assistance from problems stemming from last October's early freeze and storm.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil - President Bush flies to the tumultuous Earth Summit in Brazil, vowing to face critics of U.S. environmental policy and protect American taxpayers.

PANAMA CITY, Panama - Again, it was a scene played repeatedly for television viewers back home: President Bush being hustled off a stage by Secret Service agents amid tremendous confusion.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil - The largest group of heads of state ever assembled assured that for at least one day, the world would focus on a problem that needs immediate care: the sick planet.

WASHINGTON - Over two decades, Ross Perot's multimillion-dollar government contracts left a trail of troublesome audits and investigations that alleged irregularities such as unfair bidding practices, excessive charges and costly errors.

WASHINGTON - Who are these "cultural elite" so mocked by Vice President Dan Quayle? "They know who they are," Quayle said, but described them as the big-money sophisticates who sneer at traditional moral values. What started as a skirmish against television's "Murphy Brown" has escalated into a full-scale family values crusade.

WASHINGTON - The nation's largest infant formula manufacturer faces major price-fixing charges, while its top two competitors have agreed to donate 54 million servings to the government for distribution to the poor in order to settle similar but lesser complaints.

WASHINGTON - After fighting off a popular balanced-budget constitutional amendment, House Democratic leaders say they'll turn to the real job of finding a way to cut the federal budget deficit for the upcoming fiscal year.

WASHINGTON - Quick: Who are Fred Upton, Norm Sisisky, Nick Joe Rahall and David Hobson? They're all members of the House of Representatives millionaires' club and living proof that wealth is not the ticket to prominence in Washington.

LUBBOCK - President Bush's barometer city is wavering. According to the latest Pulse of America poll, a monthly survey of 400 residents picked at random, the folks in Lubbock are leaning toward the other Texan, likely independent candidate Ross Perot.

WASHINGTON - A law giving members of Congress a hefty pay raise in exchange for dropping their speaking fees seems to have caused a decline in public speeches by Texas congressmen.

WASHINGTON - Over two decades, Ross Perot's multimillion dollar government contracts left a trail of troublesome audits and investigations that alleged irregularities such as unfair bidding practices, excessive charges and costly errors.

WASHINGTON - Backers of a balanced-budget constitutional amendment say the measure's defeat in the House won't prevent them from trying to resuscitate it at a later date.

WASHINGTON - Six of the eight Democratic congressmen who pooled their resources in 1988 to buy a Caribbean island have apparently given up on their dreams of turning the hideaway into a vacation retreat or a real estate profit.

EDINBURG - A new plea bargain plan is on the table for a former delivery truck driver charged with 21 counts of involuntary manslaughter in Texas' worst school bus accident, attorneys say.

MOUNT PLEASANT - The bodies of three workmen were recovered Thursday afternoon from a pipeline manhole near a new sewage plant, authorities said.

AUSTIN - Watered-down courses in English, mathematics and science would no longer be allowed for high-school graduation credit under a proposal that's been OK'd by a State Board of Education committee.

AUSTIN - Over the past 10 years at the University of Texas-Austin, salaries for law, business and engineering professors have skyrocketed past the university's average, while salaries for liberal arts, fine arts and education professors have dipped below that average. That's according to a new report that has received mixed reviews from faculty.

HOUSTON - A state agency is investigating whether several certified Texas peace officers violated the law by working as body guards for a Saudi Arabian prince and princess, Harris County District Attorney John B. Holmes says.

HOUSTON - A former U.S. Customs Service agent who became a whistle-blower is challenging the seizure of a trunkload of information he gathered concerning possible official corruption.

AUSTIN - Regents for the University of Texas system approved a $3.4 billion budget for the next fiscal year, a 7 percent increase from current spending.

AUSTIN - There may be more teacher's pests in school next year, some officials have said, because of a new state law that requires custodians to get a state license before they can use pesticides.

AUSTIN - An inventory of Texas school buildings, ordered by lawmakers looking to foot part of the construction bill, has found some costly needs.

Committee recommends no credit for graduation

AUSTIN (AP) - Watered-down courses in English, mathematics and science would no longer be allowed for high-school graduation credit under a proposal that's been OK'd by a State Board of Education committee.

The proposal would prevent some courses from being used for credit as soon as the 1992-93 school year, and others in a year or more. Students who earned credits before the cut-off date would not lose them.

The number of students enrolled in each of nine classes involved ranged from about 40,000 to about 130,000 in 1990-91, the last year for which figures are available, according to Texas Education Agency spokesman Joey Lozano. That's out of total enrollment in grades nine through 12 of 871,051.

The number of students in all of the classes combined totaled more than 465,000, but Lozano said the same student may be enrolled in several such courses.

The full board was scheduled to consider the change Friday for the courses, which Lozano said have been used for students having difficulty with traditional courses.

Putting weaker students into regular classes, rather than keeping them in below-level courses, will tend to improve their performance "by providing them with models of expert behavior," said Stephenie Yearwood of the Texas Council of Teachers of English, which supports the change.

But she cautioned board members that to succeed, the move must be tied to staff development and availability of appropriate textbooks.

"It is a fallacy to expect that simply putting weaker students in an average classroom will automatically produce improved student achievement; it is just as likely to produce frustrated dropouts," Ms. Yearwood told the Committee on Students.

Education Commissioner Lionel "Skip" Meno said in recommending the change that students functioning below grade level must get intensive help from school districts.

TEA will work to provide teaching materials to school districts, which could use current texts from below-level courses in combination with other books, said Marvin Veselka, associate education commissioner for curriculum and assessment.

The agency also has discussed plans to offer activities this summer for teachers making the change, and following up with help as needed, Veselka said.

Under the proposal, school districts could not offer Correlated Language Arts (CLA) I, Fundamentals of Mathematics, Consumer Mathematics or Introductory Physical Science for credit beginning in the 1992-93 school year.

TEA spokesman Lozano said that in 1990-91, there were 51,173 students enrolled in CLA I; 46,753 in Fundamentals of Math; 45,584 in Consumer Math; and 40,528 in Introductory Physical Science.

Correlated Language Arts II-IV and Applied Biology courses could not be offered for credit after the 1992-93 school year. After the 1995-96 school year, school districts could not offer Pre-Algebra for credit.

There were 38,729 students enrolled in CLA II in 1990-91, along with 32,647 in CLA III, and 28,263 in the fourth-year class. There also were 51,411 in the introductory biology course, and 130,378 in Pre-Algebra, Lozano said.

Veselka said a number of school districts on their own initiative have been turning away from the scaled-back courses. For example, he said, the 1990-91 enrollment in Fundamentals of Math was down from 76,000 in the 1985-86 school year.

Board Member Mary Knotts Perkins of Lufkin said such courses still could be offered for no credit, if students need the help.

The State Board of Education discussed raising performance standards for students in May, when they also were told that 8,138 seniors after four tries had failed a new, more challenging skills test required for graduation. That's 4.7 percent of the 174,871 students who originally took the test as juniors.

Board members and others expressed concern that students' courses had not prepared them for the test.

PCS funds in county reported

Funding of programs by Panhandle Community Services in Deaf Smith County in 1991 was the third highest among the 26 counties served by PCS.

A report made to the PCS board recently shows $1,245,305 provided for programs in Deaf Smith County. Johnny Latham, county commissioner for Precinct 4, serves on the board.

Potter County, $2,031,004, and Randall County, $1,250,420, led the list. Gray County was fourth with a total of $1,170,691.

In the 26-county area, PCS funding from state and federal sources reached $9,934,319 in 1991.

Most of the funding in Deaf Smith County went to payments for housing for low income residents. A total of $1,068,666 was paid property owners taking part in the HUD program.

Other expenditures of funds were for home weatherization, $25,294; energy crisis, $8,683; emergency relief, $1,688; staff, $85,531, and miscellaneous needs, $55,443.

In making the report, the PCS pointed out that economic analysts estimate that turnover value of each dollar spent is seven times. Total value of the expenditure in the 26-county area was estimated at more than $69 million.

Obituary

MARK HENRY PONDER
June 8, 1992

Services for Mark Henry Ponder, 24, of Lubbock, former Hereford resident, were held at 3 p.m. Friday in Rose Chapel of Gilliland-Watson Funeral Home with burial in Restlawn Cemetery. Officiating was Bro. Joseph Myers of Gospel Chapel of Amarillo.

Mr. Ponder was born at Dimmitt and lived in Hereford until moving to Clovis, N.M., at the age of 12. He was a member of Foursquare Pentecostal Church in Lubbock. He had worked as a prep chef at a restaurant in Lubbock.

Survivors are his father, Sammy Ponder of Houston; his mother, Annie Hobbs Osborne of Houston; his stepfather, Otis Osborne of Houston; a sister, Sherri Ponder of Woodland Park, Colo.; his grandmother, Marie Teague of Hereford; his grandfather, James L. Ponder of Wildorado; three half-brothers and a half-sister.

Knights re-enact El Camino Real

Members of the Knights of Columbus from Hereford and from throughout the state, and from Louisiana and Mexico, gathered recently to re-enact the journeys on El Camino Real at stops in Texas, Louisiana and Mexico. The road was used extensively by religious officials since the 1500s.

Manufacturer of infant formula faces major price-fixing charge

WASHINGTON (AP) - The nation's largest infant formula manufacturer faces major price-fixing charges, while its top two competitors have agreed to donate 54 million servings to the poor to settle similar but lesser complaints.

Abbott Laboratories, which makes Similac and Isomil, was charged Thursday with bid-rigging and conspiracy in a civil lawsuit and an administrative complaint filed by the Federal Trade Commission.

In part, the case involves sales to the government's nutrition subsidy program for poor women, infants and children, or WIC.

Kevin J. Arquit, director of the FTC's Bureau of Competition, said the agency "will be asking the federal court to order Abbott to pay back to the federal government the millions of dollars that were lost as a result of that price-fixing."

He would not say exactly how much the government is seeking.

To settle lesser charges against them, Mead Johnson & Co. and American Home Products Corp. agreed to give the government 3.6 million pounds of powdered infant formula. That's enough for 54 million individual servings, and worth $25 million wholesale, Arquit said. Mead Johnson will provide the bulk of the formula powder, 3.1 million pounds.

Federal civil suits against those two companies were also filed Thursday, but a federal judge approved the settlement agreement that was filed simultaneously.

The three companies control nearly 90 percent of the $1.5 billion infant formula industry, with Abbott representing about 50 percent, Mead Johnson about 30 percent and American Home Products about 8 percent, the FTC said.

Duane L. Burnham, Abbott's chairman and chief executive, said his company had "competed responsibly, aggressively and completely within the law. We will continue to vigorously defend this position."

Among the FTC's actions:

-A civil antitrust lawsuit accuses Abbott, whose Ross Laboratories in Columbus, Ohio, makes the infant formula, of bid-rigging in 1990 in connection with a contract to provide formula to more than 40,000 infants in Puerto Rico. The contract was through the WIC program.

-The negotiated settlement with Mead Johnson, the Evansville, Ind., corporation that makes Enfamil and Prosobee, concludes several civil antitrust charges.

-The negotiated settlement with American Home Products ends the FTC's civil antitrust accusation that the company signaled its competitors during the Puerto Rico bidding. The company's pharmaceutical division, Wyeth-Ayerst Laboratories in Radnor, Pa., makes SMA and Nursoy brands.

The pending Abbott charges include conspiracy, but the negotiated settlements with the other two accuse them only of unilateral actions.

Autopsies scheduled on pipeline workers

MOUNT PLEASANT, Texas (AP) - Authorities are attempting to determine what killed three men whose bodies were recovered from a pipeline manhole near a new sewage plant.

The men, found Thursday, were not identified pending notification of relatives.

All were employed by Onco Enterprises Inc., a Round Rock construction company. They were working on a subcontract for Conex Construction Inc., also of Round Rock north of Austin, said Mike Bishop, Conex president.

Titus County officials said the bodies were taken to the Southwest Institute of Forensic Science in Dallas for autopsies.

Bishop said the men were finishing up a yearlong contract for his firm, installing wastewater lines for Mount Pleasant, located about 110 miles east of Dallas.

Mount Pleasant Fire Chief Larry McRae said there was no oxygen in the hole.

"We took readings with meters, explosion meters and oxygen meters, and determined there was zero percent of oxygen in the hole," he said. "At that time, we rigged our equipment to recover the bodies."

The chief said sewage was flowing through the pipe and the workmen had placed a portable ladder in the hole.

LEXINGTON, Va. (AP) - Lexington's historic main square has been taken 125 years back in time for a one-minute scene in a movie starring Richard Gere and Jodie Foster.

The square has been given dirt roads and horse traffic for the movie. Gere plays a Civil War soldier returning to Ms. Foster, who thought her husband from a short, unhappy marriage was long dead. Eventually she falls in love with him. Then she discovers he is not really her husband.

The plot is similar to that of "The Return of Martin Guerre," an early 1980s French film starring Gerard Depardieu and set in medieval France.

The production crew spent all day Wednesday coordinating more than 100 extras in period costumes and shooting nine takes of what will end up being less than a minute of the film, "Sommersby."

Blazers, Bulls playing sloppy series

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) - Air vs. Glide. Best of the East vs. Best in the West. Defending champs vs. talented challengers. The players and teams everyone wanted to see in the NBA Finals.

Yet here they are, the Chicago Bulls and Portland Trail Blazers, exchanging airballs and turnovers, sputtering and slopping their way to a series tie heading into tonight's Game 5.

These are the two best teams in basketball?

"You talk about the athletes on the floor, Michael Jordan and Clyde Drexler, you expect to see some high-flying stuff," Portland coach Rick Adelman said Thursday. "But both teams' success really depends on how well we defend. We take away the things each other does well."

"Both teams have great defenses. That's why we're here. It is more of a counterpunching, half-court situation."

Coaches and players say both teams haven't played their best. Believe them.

"It was an exhibition of ineptitude that both teams played," Chicago coach Phil Jackson said, explaining a series of fourth-quarter turnovers and botched layups in Portland's 93-88 victory Wednesday. The Bulls are mad because they've blown two fourth-quarter leads. The Blazers are upset that the Bulls give them so little credit.

"We've been in control of every game, but we've made some mental mistakes that have cost us," said Scottie Pippen, one of Chicago's most mistake-prone players. "We had them on the ropes in Game 2 and Game 4. It's just a matter of going out and playing better overall."

Adelman is amused by the Bulls' self-pity.

"As far as I know, they haven't changed the rules for the Finals," he said. "The games are still 48 minutes long. If the Bulls only play for 42, that's not our problem."

"They think they should have won the series already. But if they wanted to be 4-0 and celebrating and dancing on someone's graves, they should have won those two games."

The Trail Blazers have won two of the last three games despite playing well offensively for only a few stretches.

Their victories were not pretty. Neither was Chicago's win in Game 3.

This series features two teams that do nothing easily.

The Bulls rolled through the playoffs last season with only two losses. They have had at least two defeats in each of their last three rounds this postseason.

"It's never easy," said Jordan, who has blamed late-game fatigue for his failure in the clutch in Games 2 and 4.

The Trail Blazers have a penchant for getting off to terrible starts. Sometimes they rally. Sometimes they don't. In Game 4, they were down by 10 before they scored their first point, trailed by as many as 13 and were still losing by seven with less than nine minutes to play.

"Boy, if they say it's not easy, they ought to take a joyride in our vehicle," Portland's Terry Porter said.

Portland's Jerome Kersey said the Trail Blazers wanted Game 4 more than the Bulls did, a fact Jordan didn't dispute.

"They played like it," he said.

So Jackson and Jordan have teamed up to challenge their team to play better. The coach and the leader want the Bulls to get mad. If there's one thing the Bulls have done well in respond to adversity - they have yet to lose two playoff games in a row.

Girls' hoop coach may be hired soon

Hereford officials have finished second interviews with possible girls' basketball coaches, girls' athletic director Brenda Reeh said today.

Reeh said that she, boys' AD Danny Haney, HISD Superintendent Charles Greenawalt and HHS principal Terry Russell would meet next week to discuss the candidates.

Carl Hubbell, a member of the Hall of Fame, pitched a complete game 18-inning shutout for the Giants against the Cardinals in 1933.

Pitcher Bob Gibson set a record of seven consecutive World Series victories, all complete games.

No-hitters thrown at state tourney

AUSTIN (AP) - No-hitters at the University Interscholastic League tournament have traditionally been infrequent. In the first 43 years of the state championship, only 13 had been tossed in all five classes.

But on Thursday, in the semifinal round of the 44th annual event, two more teams were held hitless, each under unique circumstances.

Class A Flatonia's senior-freshman duo of Rodney Williams and Aaron Masek no-hit Baird for an 8-0 win and only the second game since the division was created in 1979. It is the tournament's third combined no-hitter.

That game was played at Nelson Field in the early afternoon. A few hours later at Disch-Falk Field, the site of all five title games today, Freeport Brazoswood's Matt Senterfitt matched the feat in a Class 5A semifinal.

The senior southpaw's gem took only six innings as his teammates scored four times in the bottom of the sixth for a 10-0 victory over El Paso Coronado.

UIL awards a victory to any team leading by 10 or more runs after five innings.

Senterfitt was masterful, striking out nine, including the first three Thunderbirds of the game. Only two balls reached the outfield - harmless flies to center and right.

"I just felt great. The curveball was working for me early and when I felt I was losing it, I went to my fastball," he said.

The hardest hit ball off Senterfitt, 11-1, was the last out of the sixth, a line drive by Tait Roberts to Jason Rendon at third. Rendon had the day's longest blast, a 355-foot second-inning home run that was all the support Senterfitt needed.

It was the first no-hitter in the UIL's largest-school group since 1970 and only the second to invoke the 10-run rule. Ironically, the other came in 1949, the first time two no-hitters were thrown in one tournament.

The feat happened again in 1967, with former major leaguer Burt Hooten tossing one of the gems.

A third no-hitter almost was tossed Thursday as Valley Mills sophomore Donnie Sadler allowed one soft hit over second base in a 6-0 victory over Detroit.

Sadler also had three hits, scored three runs, stole a base and drove in a run.

The 19-2 Eagles, the defending Class A champions, will put their 17-game winning streak on the line today against 21-6 Flatonia.

In the other classes, South San Antonio will try to add to its record number of state titles as it seeks its seventh crown in the 5A championship against Brazoswood. The Bobcats have not won since 1967.

Robstown cruised past Big Spring in the semis and is one victory away from its second consecutive 4A championship. The Cotton Pickers face Bridge City, which survived the semifinals with a dramatic victory over Denison.

The 3A title will go to the winner of the Bellville-Queen City matchup and the 2A crown will be won by either China Spring or Shiner.

Denison's Erik Brown was poised to be the day's first hero but instead was saddled with his fifth loss of the year when Bridge City sophomore Daron Benoit hit a two-out, two-run single for a 6-5 victory.

Brown started the game at second base and became the seventh player to hit two triples in the tournament. His three-base hits drove in one run and allowed him to score another.

Brown was sharp in relief of Dax Powell, first striking out Bridge City cleanup hitter Eric Johansson then allowing one hit in two innings.

But with two out in the seventh and the score 5-4, he allowed a two-run single to Benoit, a sophomore hitting .205 who was hitless in three previous at-bats.

"When you're in that position and the game is on the line, you have to be ready," Benoit said.

Robstown, 28-6, was ready for its third straight trip to the finals, scoring six runs in the first two innings. But the 15-14-1 Big Spring Steers, making their tournament debut, didn't give up despite facing an 8-0 deficit.

They got five hits in the seventh. A Cotton Picker error added to their four-run rally that ended with a fly ball to right with runners on first and second.

Robstown defeated West Mesquite 7-6 in last year's final after falling in the 1990 title game. They were semifinal casualties in 1987 and 1988.

Thursday's last game pitted two former UIL tournament mainstays but have missed the tournament for most of the last two decades.

South San Antonio won the battle, defeating Lufkin 6-4. The 21-6 Bobcats

Mariners, Nintendo get final approval

SEATTLE (AP) - Major league baseball owners finally hit a home run for Seattle business leaders and baseball fans when they approved the sale of the Mariners to a group that will keep the team in town.

"Today is the beginning of a new era for baseball here in the Northwest," Mayor Norm Rice said after the owners voted 25-1 in New York Thursday to confirm the deal.

The vote brought to an end months of behind-the-scenes negotiations as owners wrangled with the question of allowing non-North American ownership of the American League Mariners.

Approval of the purchase by the Japanese-led Baseball Club of Seattle came only after the baseball owners were assured that day-to-day control of the team would remain in Seattle, rather than with Hiroshi Yamauchi, president of Nintendo Co. Ltd. of Kyoto, Japan.

Yamauchi is putting up $75 million of the Baseball Club's $125 million investment.

"We're just relieved," said Mick McHugh, owner of F.X. McRory's, as he dispensed free champagne Thursday afternoon. The restaurant, located across the street from the Kingdome, where the Mariners play,

Morris' four-hitter outduels Clemens

By BEN WALKER
AP Baseball Writer

Back in the days when Roger Clemens and Jack Morris were growing up, there used to be great pitching duels all the time. There was Koufax-Marichal and Gibson-Drysdale, Seaver-Carlton and Palmer-Hunter, and it seemed like they happened three and four times each season.

Nowadays, they don't have those kinds of games much. Teams don't play each other as often as they used to, and pitchers don't pitch as frequently as they did.

Once in awhile, though, a nice matchup comes along worth noticing. So it was Thursday night at SkyDome when Clemens, baseball's best pitcher these days, faced Morris, baseball's reigning best big-game pitcher.

Morris beat Clemens this time, tossing a four-hitter that led Toronto past Boston 4-0. The Blue Jays won their fourth in a row and the Red Sox have lost nine of 13.

"I've faced Morris many times, and if you don't get to him early, like any top-notch starter he'll settle in and get his momentum going," Clemens said.

Clemens had been 9-0 in his previous 12 starts against the Blue Jays. But Joe Carter, Dave Winfield and Pat Borders homered off Clemens, and that was plenty for Morris.

"There's no denying he's one of the great pitchers in the game today - probably the best," Morris said. "But he's been beaten before and he'll be beaten again."

In other games, California defeated Chicago 4-0 and Baltimore downed Detroit 7-5.

Clemens (9-4) had won his last six starts overall and was leading the majors with a 1.56 ERA.

Morris (7-3) pitched his first shutout since Game 7 of the World Series last October. He walked three and struck out two in his fifth complete game of the season and his 27th regular-season shutout.

"I don't know if I'd call this my best performance of the year," Morris said. "Maybe after the sixth inning. That's about the time all my pitches started to click."

Clemens gave up seven hits and left after Winfield's solo home run in the eighth inning made it 4-0. He struck out seven and walked three.

Carter put Toronto ahead with a two-run homer in the third inning. Carter's 12th home run of the season came with two out.

Borders hit a solo homer, his sixth, in the seventh inning.

Baseball seeks to limit games on cable

By JAY FRANK
The Houston Post

HOUSTON (AP) - Fay Vincent, the fellow who's urging Houstonians to attend more Astros games, at the same time is pushing for you to get less baseball on basic cable television.

The commissioner and his colleagues in Major League Baseball are waging a quiet but intent determined battle against cable superstations - such as TBS and WGN - in the hope of generating new revenue for the expected leaner TV times ahead.

If they win, games likely would disappear from the superstations, with some or all moving to pay TV. In other words, the telecasts you now see as part of your basic cable service would cost extra. Or they might not be available in any form.

That's the bad news. The good news is that industry observers insist baseball's odds for quick success are longer than those for the Astros winning this year's World Series.

"As it's currently proposed, the war (on the superstations) won't go anywhere," said a high-ranking TV executive who requested anonymity. "The major reason: It would anger too many people."

"Baseball's problem is a complicated one that will require much more discussion and debate before it's resolved."

But the MLB chieftains are giving it the old major-league try. They're mounting a two-pronged attack, one with some congressional support and the other without - so far.

First, they're trying to rewrite copyright law through legislation being considered by the House Judiciary Committee. The bill, whose sponsors include Rep. Jack Brooks (D-Beaumont), would phase out the "compulsory license" that sets the copyright terms for cable companies' transmission of superstation programming.

Simply put, a superstation is defined as a local broadcast station - WGN in Chicago, for example - whose signal is beamed by satellite to cable systems around the country.

The systems pay set amounts to receive WGN, which carries Cubs and White Sox games. The money then goes to the Copyright Royalty Tribunal, where it's apportioned to MLB, motion picture companies and other owners of programs airing on WGN. This year MLB will receive $28 million (for 1989 - there's considerable lag time in the CRT's payments).

Baseball also receives annual fees from the "superstation teams." The combined total in 1992 will be $20 million.

But these figures aren't good enough, says Vincent & Co. They want more control over, and revenue from, superstation telecasts. They claim these "imported games" have an adverse effect on: local clubs' attendance, TV ratings for local and network baseball telecasts and negotiations with the national networks.

"One of the long-standing rights in baseball is territory. It's part and parcel of each franchise and helps determine its (a team's) value," said Ted Haracz, head of marketing for the Astros.

"What the superstations do is invade teams' territories without adequate compensation. In essence, they devalue your franchise."

Dave Alworth, MLB director of broadcasting, says the compulsory license is outdated and should be overhauled so baseball can do business in a "free market."

"The (compulsory) license has been in place since 1976. It was designed to help cable grow, to help it get programming it otherwise couldn't get," Alworth said.

"But today there are about 100 cable services, and the superstations are the only ones where systems pay a government-regulated, fixed rate without having to negotiate."

"We'd gladly give up our payments from the tribunal and the clubs to take our chances in the free market. We think it would be better for us financially."

But Jeff Treeman of United Video, the distributor of WGN's signal, says there's no reason to change the setup. He believes that the compulsory license is fair for everyone.

"Baseball complains it isn't being paid enough (for superstation games)," Treeman said, "but it fails to show any documentation. It needs to produce some specific audience numbers."

"Our research says baseball is being fairly paid because the audience for superstation games just isn't that large."

"With all the choices on cable available for viewers, baseball has an awful lot of competition."

Competition is at the heart of MLB's other assault on the superstations. It wants Congress to force cable systems to black out superstation coverage of an event that's also on a broadcast station (or cable network).

For instance, let's say Channel 20 is showing the Astros playing at Atlanta, and the game also is on TBS. If the proposed legislation were in place - and as yet it has no sponsors - Houston cable systems would have to black out TBS. And the same would apply in any other markets having "duplicate telecasts."

This plan, like the copyright revision, would severely restrict the superstations' domain.

"It's another way to get superstation baseball off the air in distant markets," says Bob Chlopak, a spokesman for the National Association of Broadcasters, which opposes the copyright and duplication proposals.

"TBS would show the Braves in Atlanta, but not in very many other places," Chlopak said. "It's a different way for baseball to get to virtually the same end - shifting games to regional cable and pay-per-view."

Alworth doesn't buy Chlopak's gloomy prediction that fewer telecasts on the superstations would lead to more on pay TV.

"Baseball has a love affair with over-the-air TV," Alworth declared.

"This isn't a diabolical plot to go to pay-per-view, just an attempt to get a better shake from the superstations."

Local bass anglers are discovering the joy of trying to solve the mystery of catching bass during something called post spawn. Anglers who last week could easily catch a limit of quality bass now return with empty live wells. (Note the paltry results of recent tournaments at Meredith and Greenbelt.)

The available food supply in our lakes has increased dramatically because most sunfish and minnows have completed their spawns. When a predator switches from feeding on adult-sized minnows and starts snacking on little bait, it makes sense for the angler to start throwing some really small lures.

Tip of the Week--Buy two bags of two-inch Power Grubs: one white and the other chartreuse. With eight-pound Magnathin line (or less) try using either a Carolina rig or 1/8-ounce Flea Fly jig tipped with a Power Grub. S-l-o-w-l-y probe both sides of the second point off the main lake points.

The bite will be delicate. When you feel something akin to a clump of moss on the grub, set the hook with a sweeping motion. Eight-pound line does not permit a jerk-his-head-off hook set.

Other solutions for this transition-time for bass are called catfish and trout. The water is getting warmer, so start fishing for catfish during the evenings.

Our Rocky Mountain sister states are stocking trout in every creek, pond and lake. They love Texans with tourist dollars, and eager rainbows are just waiting for you. My favorite spot in New Mexico is Cimarron Canyon between Raton and Eagle Nest Lake. Even an amateur with a fly rod can fool those tasty trout.

Congratulations to Rick Jones of Fritch for winning the June 4 Fun Tournament at Lake Meredith. Rodney Sweet of Borger was second by just 3/100 of a pound. Out of 30 bass anglers, only two caught legal fish, and the winner squeaked the scales at 1.57 pounds. Ten walleye anglers competed before current state record holder Hank McWilliams of Borger won with 2.56 pounds. The new motto at Meredith is "Catch a keeper and win a tournament!" Only three of the 40 entries caught keeper fish.

Good news: 15 kids entered that tournament. The free entries for kids under 17 will continue at Lake Greenbelt on Thursday. The adult entry fee is $20, and all kids under 17 may fish free with a paid contestant. It's a memory that no kid will ever forget. Call (806) 353-3654 for details. See you at the lake.

Winfield hit his 10th home run of the season and the 416th of his career in the eighth.

Angels 4, White Sox 0
Bert Blyleven got his 281st victory. Blyleven (2-0) gave up four hits in six innings and struck out four at Chicago.

Joe Grahe, shifted from being a starter to a stopper since Bryan Harvey was sidelined with elbow trouble, pitched 2-2-3 innings for his first major league save.

Lee Stevens hit a two-run double in the top of the sixth for a 3-0 lead against Alex Fernandez (3-7). Luis Polonia scored twice and stole two bases, a day after he stole four times. Orioles 7, Tigers 5

Joe Orsulak hit a three-run homer in the first inning and Baltimore won at Tiger Stadium.

Orsulak's first home run of the season capped a four-run inning against Bill Gullettson (7-4).

Rob Deer hit his 16th home run for Detroit Travis Fryman also homered for Detroit.

Alan Mills (3-1) pitched 1 1-3 innings for the victory and Gregg Olson went 1 1-3 innings for his 17th save.

Loss of the team would have hit Kingdome-area businesses hard, he said.

His clientele was also pleased. "I think it's just wonderful," said Rick Ladwig, a plant manager. "It takes the weight off the shoulders of the team and the fans to know we have a professional baseball club in town."

Wedding shower held for Yvonne Hinshaw

Yvonne Hinshaw, July 25 bride-elect of Brad Allred, was honored with a bridal shower Saturday morning, June 6, in the home of Betty Martin, 206 Ranger Drive.

Welcoming guests with the honoree were her mother, Maxine Hinshaw; her sister, Nancy Hinshaw; Brad Allred; his mother, Joyce Allred; and his grandmothers, Mary Allred and Alene West.

Breakfast quiche, cinnamon rolls, fresh fruit, coffee, punch and lemon puffs were served by Gladys Merritt and Carolyn Baxter. The table was decorated using the color scheme of hunter green, burgundy and navy blue. Further enhancing the setting were topiary trees and fresh grapevine ivy.

Bride-elect honored

Tips for staying young

Although genes have a lot to do with your longevity, there's still a lot you can do to make the most of whatever heredity hands you.

1. Don't smoke
2. Exercise at least three times a week for more than 20 minute a session.
3. Keep your dietary intake of sugar, salt, caffeine ad fat low.
4. Avoid alcohol, or limit its use to about once a day.
5. Keep your weight within the guidelines for your age and height but avoid yo-yo dieting.
6. Get regular medical checkups: every three to four years before age 50, every year or two thereafter.
7. Keep current on immunizations including mumps, measles, rubella, diphtheria and tetanus.
8. Avoid excessive exposure to the sun and use sunscreen regularly.
9. Always wear a seat belt in a car.
10. Never drink and drive or ride with a driver who's been drinking.
11. Make sure there are working smoke alarms in your home.
12. Be careful about taking medication. Don't hesitate to ask your doctor about any prescription. Never abuse drugs.
13. Ask your doctor about vitamin supplements.
14. Try to avoid stress.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) - Author James A. Michener pledged to help a museum named after him collect more works by painters who put Bucks County on the artistic map.

"We have got to beat the bushes to find where they are so that we can have a first-class museum," Michener said Wednesday at groundbreaking for a $1.65 million expansion of the Michener Art Museum.

Bucks County, just north of Philadelphia, was the site of an artists colony around the turn of the century.

Among the artists represented in the museum: Daniel Garber, Edward Willis Redfield, Fern Coppedge, Walter Elmer Schofield, Edward Hicks and Helen Frankenthaler.

Michener, 85, grew up in Doylestown. His works include "Texas" "Hawaii" and other blockbusters.

Military Muster

Navy Ensign Jessie J. Guerrero, son of Jessie A. and Magdalena Guerrero of 825 Brevard, was recently commissioned upon graduation from the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC) Program.

During each undergraduate semester at Texas Tech University, Lubbock, officer candidates completed naval science courses as well as a full academic schedule that led to a degree. These courses, combined with annual summer training aboard ships ad sore installations, served to prepare NROTC graduates for the duties and responsibilities of a commissioned officer.

He is a 1985 graduate of Hereford High School, Hereford.

The Northern Lights have been seen as far south as Florida.

1950s theme used at hamburger cookout

Carol Kelley presented a program entitled "Name That Tune" featuring tunes from the 1950s when members of Xi Epsilon Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority met recently in the home of Susan Shaw.

President Holly Bixler conducted the business session and Melinda Henson, recording secretary, took a silent roll and read the minutes of the previous meeting.

Appreciation was heard from Linda Arellano, Sharon Bodner, Dona Hendrickson, Marge Bell, Holly Bixler, Peggy Hyer, Susan Shaw, Danell Culp, Susan Cardinal, Deann Harris and Ruby Lee. A special thank you was extended by Billie Brown for the visits by sorority members and gifts presented to her throughout the year. Also, appreciation was voiced by Connie Matthews for the assistance received with rituals and from Holly Bixler for being chosen as Girl of the Year.

A report from City Council was made on the 1992-93 officers. They will include Denise Hafliager, president; Peggy Hyer, vice president; Patty Urbanczyk, recording secretary; Nan Gauthreaux, corresponding secretary; Mary Beth Messer, treasurer; and Brenda Thomas, parliamentarian.

Denise Hafliager, scrapbook chairman, presented Bixler with her scrapbook reading the dedication. President Bixler led the closing ritual and Mizpah.

Members of the social committee served hamburgers, chips and bottled Coke to those present. The hamburgers were served on plastic multi-colored dishes that were used at drive-ins during the 1950s. Dessert included brownies topped with ice cream and hot fudge.

In depicting the 1950s theme, hostesses were attired in poodle skirts, bobbie socks and tennis shoes. The room was decorated with 45 records and other memorabilia of that period. Peggy Hyer and Carol Kelley were finalists in the hula-hoop contest.

Following the meeting, a chapter birthday party was held to reveal secret sisters. Adopted sister, Billie Brown, was presented with a gift from the chapter.

Those present included Linda Arellano, Marge Bell, Holly Bixler, Sharon Bodner, Dalene Burns, Susan Cardinal, Danell Culp, Denise Hafliager, Deann Harris, Dona Hendrickson, Melinda Henson, Peggy Hyer, Carol Kelley, Ruby Lee, Connie Matthews, Gaye Reily, Ruby Sanders, Susan Shaw and Kay Williams.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I know you said you were never going to write about your meatloaf recipe again, but I have used it for several years and have always had a lot of compliments on it. It is the best meatloaf recipe I have ever found and I don't hesitate to serve it when I have company. It's delicious.

You haven't printed this recipe for some years, Ann. Just think of all the new brides and younger people out there who haven't had the opportunity to try this treat. In fact, often when I have served it, my guests are very surprised when I tell them, "This is Ann Landers' Meatloaf Recipe."

Please consider putting it in your column one more time for all the new cooks. They will love it.--Pauline in Torrance, Calif.

DEAR PAULINE: I can't believe I'm doing this after solemnly swearing I wouldn't, but I've had at least 500 requests since I took that oath, so her it is:

Ann Landers' Meatloaf Recipe

2 pounds ground round steak
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups bread crumbs
3/4 cup ketchup
1 tsp. Accent
1/2 cup warm water
1 pkg. Lipton's onion soup mix

Mix thoroughly. Put into loaf pan, cover with two strips of bacon, if you like that flavor, pour over all one 8-oz. can tomato sauce. Bake one hour at 350 degrees. Serves six.

P.S. This recipe was pre-micro-wave. I'll bet some of you experienced cooks can figure out exactly how much time it would take in the microwave. If anyone wants to experiment, please let me know how long it took.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Please print this letter before the summer holidays begin. I can't bear another visit from my relatives and their kids.

A couple will write and ask if they can come and spend a few days with me. I let them know they are welcome, then before they arrive, they phone and say, "I hope you don't mind if we bring the kids."

Well, I DO mind. I'm a senior citizen, living alone on a fixed income in a small two-bedroom place. The "kids" raid my refrigerator, spill milk on my rugs and furniture, eat food in the bedrooms and take control of my TV. All this while the parents, who are watching, say absolutely nothing, forcing me to be the heavy.

These relatives drain my hot water tank every night, which is to be expected when five extra people are in the place. And feeding these five people for a week can turn out to be pretty darned expensive.

So, please, if the two of you can't come without your children, don't come at all. We never have a good visit anyway. I'm too busy cooking meals and cleaning up after every-body.--Somewhere in Ontario

DEAR ONTARIO: Here's your letter. I wonder how many readers will see themselves. Or, is it true, as I've heard so often--the guilty parties never think you mean them.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I love your Gems of the Day and have often thought that I would like to contribute one. I'm not sure the enclosed qualifies, but I am sending it anyway.--J.R.D. in West Palm Beach

DEAR J.R.D. and W.P.B.: You bet it qualifies. Thanks for sending it.

Those who believe great things are accomplished only by the young would do well to keep the following in mind: George Bernard Shaw won the Nobel Prize when he was 69.

Golda Meir was 71 when she became prime minister of Israel. Jessica Tandy was 80 when she won her first Oscar for "Driving Miss Daisy."

Benjamin Franklin was one of the authors of the Constitution when he was 81.

George Burns is booked at the Palladium in London on his 100th birthday.

Drugs are everywhere. They're easy to get, easy to use and even easier to get hooked on. If you have questions about drugs, you need Ann Landers' booklet, "The Lowdown on Dope." Send a self-addressed, long, business-size envelope and a check or money order for $3.65 (this includes postage and handling) to: Lowdown, c/o Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562.

A few minutes should be set aside each day for the family to do nothing but read.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

GIFT GIVING IN BIBLICAL TIMES

IN THE BIBLE, GIFTS HAVE BEEN GIVEN FOR COUNTLESS REASONS. BY FATHERS TO SONS, AS A DOWRY TO A DAUGHTER ON HER MARRIAGE, BY THE BRIDEGROOM TO THE FATHER OF THE BRIDE, TO FELLOW MEN OUT OF GOOD WILL OR TO SECURE A FAVOR. AS A CASE IN POINT, TAKE THE EXAMPLE OF JACOB'S GIFTS TO HIS BROTHER ESAU. JACOB, AFTER YEARS OF SEPARATION FROM HIS BROTHER, WAS FACED WITH THE GRIM FACT HE MUST MEET ESAU WHOM HE HAD WRONGED IN THE PAST. AS A GIFT OF REPENTANCE HERE IS WHAT JACOB GAVE: "TWO HUNDRED SHE-GOATS, AND TWENTY HE-GOATS, TWO HUNDRED EWES, AND TWENTY RAMS, THIRTY MILCH CAMELS WITH THEIR COLTS, FORTY KINE, AND TEN BULLS, TWENTY SHE-ASSES, AND TEN FOALS." THAT'S SAYING YOU ARE SORRY IN A BIG WAY! THE GIFTS REQUIRED TO BARTER FOR A WIFE WERE ALSO VERY IMPORTANT WHEN ONE REALIZES THAT THE CONCERNED FATHER OF THE BRIDEGROOM HAD TO ARRANGE FOR THEM TO BE TRANSPORTED.....

...STURDY CAMELS ARE LOADED WITH FOOD, WATER, WINE, GARMENTS, AND RICH GIFTS OF SILKS, AND FINE WOOLS - NOT TO MENTION SHEKELS OF GOLD, AND TALENTS OF SILVER. FOR OBTAINING A WIFE IS A VERY COSTLY AFFAIR, AND SERIOUS, AS LONG JOURNEYS THROUGH THE WILD COUNTRY OF THESE ANCIENT TIMES ARE FILLED WITH MANY DANGERS AND HARDSHIPS!

Here's how it works: On June 13 and 14 you can purchase items from our Fine Jewelry department totaling $200 or more for a single transaction and defer the billing to your Mervyn's account until August 1992. No payment will be due for these purchases until September 1992. No finance charges will be added to your account for these purchases during the deferred period.

A Mervyn's Diamond Certificate will be sent to you following every diamond purchase of 0.20 carat total weight or more. It documents the number of diamonds, their quality and weight, and the price you paid. You can also use it to trade up to another piece of diamond jewelry, provided your diamond is undamaged and in its original mounting.
