Money-saving audit draws praise in state

AUSTIN (AP) - A state comptroller's audit, recommending 460 money saving ideas totaling $4.5 billion, is drawing praise from officials and business groups.

Gov. Ann Richards said Comptroller John Sharp and his staff deserved credit for emphasizing efficiency. "John Sharp is doing exactly what government ought to do," she said. The National Federation of Independent Businesses, which represents thousands of Texas small business owners, echoed that.

"These recommendations go against the grain of vested interests content with the status quo," said Robert Howden, director of the group's Texas chapter.

In releasing the audit Thursday, Sharp said the ideas - from eliminating front license plates to reorganizing state bureaucracies - could salvage vital services, avoid a tax increase and make the government more businesslike.

"We want state government to run a lot more like how Southwest Airlines operates in Texas and a lot less like how General Motors functions out of Detroit," he said. It is the second such audit in two years as cash-strapped lawmakers try to balance the state budget.

In 1991, Sharp proposed nearly 1,000 ideas that would have saved $4.2 billion. That year, the Legislature enacted about two-thirds of the recommendations for $2.4 billion in savings and raised taxes by $2.6 billion.

Lawmakers today face a projected deficit of more than $3 billion, despite state revenues growing by $1.8 billion. The governor and legislative leaders have vowed, however, not to raise taxes.

Sharp said the 800-page audit, entitled "Against the Grain," gives lawmakers the tools to avoid another tax increase.

"The people of the state of Texas don't believe they're getting what they pay for at the government store," he said.

The audit's recommendations range from simple to complex. For example, it says the state could save $160,000 by halting the planned name change that would change the name of the Department of Health to the Department of "Public Health."

The largest single cost savings, about $1.4 billion over the next two years, would come from a complicated reorganization of the Medicaid Disproportionate Share Hospital

Laundry worker is $17 million winner

AUSTIN (AP) - Arjustice Morris may change the skyline in tiny Caldwell.

Mrs. Morris, 37, claimed the $17 million Lotto Texas jackpot drawn Wednesday night and promptly said she wanted to build three big houses in Caldwell for her family, her parents and her husband's parents.

"Caldwell won't look the same when we're done. Oh, yes it will. It will just be a prettier picture," Mrs. Morris said after collecting the first installment of her winnings - $891,517.52.

Caldwell, located 22 miles south of Bryan, has a population of about 3,400.

"Everyone knows everyone," said Mrs. Morris, who promptly quit her job as a laundry worker in a nursing home Thursday.

"I called one friend to check the numbers and make sure I had won. And then she (the friend) told everyone. By this morning I had to change my phone number." Mrs. Morris' husband, David, also quit his job as a truck driver for an oil company.

"It's time to party," Morris said. Mrs. Morris, a $10-a-week lotto player, said she normally ponders the selection of her lotto numbers for awhile.

But Wednesday night she almost forgot to play. Morris reminded her after 9 p.m. and she randomly scribbled down some numbers. The lotto drawings are at 10 p.m. every Wednesday and Saturday.

Mrs. Morris, who was the only one to pick the winning numbers 4-12-17-25-35-42, will receive $882,000 every year for the next 19 years.

She said after buying the houses for her family, she would likely spoil her three children and help relatives pay bills.

Schumacher, Marsh 'hog' spotlight in stock show

By GARRY WESNER
Managing Editor

Top honors in the 31st annual market hog show at the Hereford Young Farmers Livestock Show left the county Thursday night when Tucker Schumacher of Dimmitt claimed top honors.

Schumacher, 14, a member of Dimmitt FFA, captured the five-county Grand Champion trophy with his 206-pound lightweight Hampshire hog.

Kelly Marsh, 9, a member of Deaf

Smith County 4-H, was named county Grand Champion and five-county Reserve Champion with his 205-pound Cross hog.

County Reserve Champion honors went to Keith Lindell, 21, of Hereford FFA, who showed a 222-pound Cross hog in the mediumweight division.

The selection of the top hogs and showmen culminated a grueling seven-hour show that featured an estimated 235 barrows brought in from throughout the area.

When the dust had settled in the showmanship competition, 26 contenders had been narrowed to four winners - all from Deaf Smith County.

In the Junior Showmanship contest, Cody Marsh, 9, of Deaf Smith County 4-H, won top honors.

Second place went to Houston

Smith, 9, of Deaf Smith County 4-H. Top senior showman was Don Metcalf, 17, of Deaf Smith 4-H, while Karen Allemand, 16, of Hereford FFA came in second.

The HYF livestock show continues today with the sheep competition, which begins at 4:30 p.m. in the Bull Barn.

Activities will be preceded by a pee-wee hog showmanship competition, which will feature children under age 8 competing for showmanship honors - some of them using borrowed hogs to display to the judges.

The show will conclude on Saturday with the annual livestock sale, set for 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

The following are the placings in the hog show. Where two numbers are listed for a competitor, the first number is the five-county ranking and the second is the placement among Deaf Smith County exhibitors.

Editor's note: Photos of the champion hogs and exhibitors, as well as showmanship awards, were not available today due to camera problems. The Brand hopes to have photos of these winners in Sunday's edition.

Elderly hot about Clinton plan to limit SS benefits

WASHINGTON (AP) - Senate Democrats and groups representing tens of millions of older people are grousing as President Clinton considers limiting benefits paid to Social Security recipients.

Drawing the most heat is a proposal to eliminate for one year the annual increase to keep recipients ahead of inflation.

That could cut the budget deficit by $10 billion in 1994. But it would take a $282 bite out of the average retiree's annual payments, bringing them to $7,836, according to the American Association of Retired Persons.

"Such a proposal is unacceptable," Senate Finance Committee Chairman Daniel Patrick Moynihan said Thursday after the White House acknowledged that it was among ideas under consideration.

Other plans Clinton is considering would hold Social Security cost-of-living increases below the inflation rate or increase the taxes the most well-to-do recipients pay on their benefits.

All would provide billions of dollars in savings for Clinton's effort to reduce budget red ink with changes in the government's biggest program, which will cost more than $300 billion this year.

Opposition from Moynihan, the Senate's expert on Social Security, is important because Social Security legislation must move through his committee. The negative reaction

Amarillo youth certified to stand trial as adult

A 16-year-old Amarillo youth, charged with attempted murder of a Hereford teen in October, 1992, has been certified to stand trial as an adult, according to Lou Serrano, juvenile probation officer.

The ruling came after a certification hearing in Deaf Smith County Juvenile Court this week, with Judge Tom Simons presiding. Following the hearing, the youth--Adrian Cordova--was arraigned as an adult and placed in county jail. Bond was set at $15,000.

Court action is still pending against three other Amarillo juveniles and two adults in connection with the drive-by shooting here. Michael Herrera, 18, was seriously injured in the shooting and is still recovering, reported Serrano. Demiseo Banda, 17, was treated for a slight wound after the incident.

A police investigation of the Oct. 17, 1992 shooting indicated that a car stopped in front of a house where the two victims were standing. Someone in the car fired a shotgun at the two men, then drove away. Two juveniles were arrested in connection with the shooting two days later.

Ten persons are indicted here by grand jury

Ten persons were indicted Thursday by the Deaf Smith County Grand Jury.

Indicted on felony driving while intoxicated charges were Julian Benavidez, Lonires Sotela Vera, Jose Olibarez (also known as Victor Duran), Jose Tijerina III, and Sylvia Cervantez Castillo.

Indicted for carrying weapons in prohibited places were Jeremy M. Lueb, Esteban Galindo and T.J. McGee. Galindo was also indicted for failure to stop and render assistance. Terry Garcia was indicted for criminal mischief over $750 and under $2,000; and Richard Garcia Puente Jr. was indicted for burglary of a building.

Morales reviews court rule on judges' election

AUSTIN (AP) - The state attorney general is continuing to review a federal appeals court ruling that struck down as unconstitutional at-large judicial elections in eight Texas counties, a spokesman says.

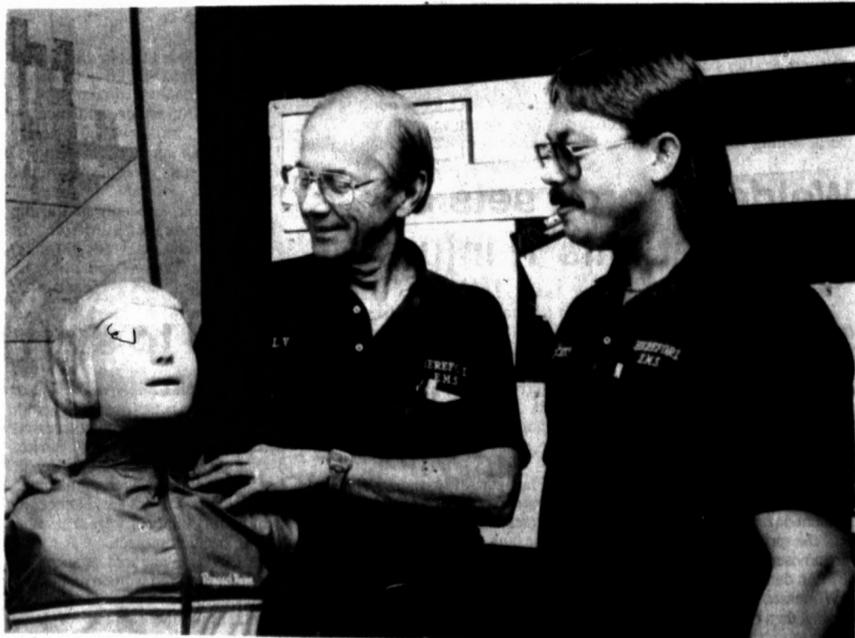

Attorney General Dan Morales has not decided what the state's next step will be in the three-year battle over state district court elections, but it "will be in the direction of developing a new system of judicial selection," said spokesman Ron Dusek.

Minority legislators and other lawmakers have urged Morales to quickly settle the lawsuit brought by the League of United Latin American Citizens.

Members of the Legislative Black Caucus and the Mexican American Legislative Caucus said they will meet with Morales on Monday.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals on Wednesday struck down judicial elections in Bexar, Dallas, Ector, Harris, Jefferson, Lubbock, Midland and Tarrant counties. The court upheld the Travis County system.

The court said the election systems discriminated against black and Hispanic voters, and gave Texas 180 days to develop a new plan.

Welder's torch sets off blast that kills 1, injures 1

HOUSTON (AP) - A welder's torch touched off an explosion that ripped through a chemical storage tank, leaving one man dead and another injured, fire officials said. "One of them was welding on top. That's what caused the explosion," Houston Fire Chief Eddie Corral said of the Thursday morning blast.

The four-alarm fire that followed was brought under control within an hour, but dozens of residents who live near the primarily industrial area were advised to remain in their homes until the danger of fumes passed.

Witnesses said one of the men was welding, then backed away but started the blowtorch again. The force of the blast threw him an estimated 100 feet.

"I heard the explosion and when I turned around I saw this fellow flying through the air, and I said, 'Oh, Lord,'" witness John Vincent said. "I saw these two men up there and it (the tank) exploded like a watermelon and it was just melting," added another witness, Jimmy Jackson. "It shook everything."

Jerry L. Reue, 40, was pronounced dead at the scene, Capt. Rick Flanagan, a fire department spokesman, said.

Flanagan said authorities believed the man was an independent contractor who was performing work on the tank. Firefighters removed his body from the top of an adjacent tank.

The injured man was identified as Bill Notgrass, 39, believed to be an employee of Khempak Industries Inc., the operator of the tank. He was being treated for facial burns at Hermann Hospital.

Corral said the tank held sodium sulfide, which becomes hydrogen sulfide when it burns. It is considered a low to moderate hazard.

AUDIT-----

program. That program provides funds for hospitals that carry a large burden of uncompensated and indigent care.

The audit also recommends ways the state could obtain more federal money for numerous health and human services programs.

It suggests eliminating about 3,700 state jobs, including 1,500 through incentives offered for early retirement.

Anticipating outcry from some agencies and other special interests, Sharp said he and his staff were prepared to back up every proposal as the Legislature considers his report.

"We will debate anyone at any time on any one of these proposals," he said. "We're going to defend every single one of them."

However, he declined to predict how many recommendations or how much total savings the Legislature might adopt from his lengthy list.

"That's really not our decision to make," Sharp said.

Among the audit's other recommendations:

- Merge the agencies which oversee horse and dog race wagering, the lottery and bingo into a single state gaming office.

- Improve enforcement of child support, with a goal of collecting 100 percent of the payments owed children by the year 2000.

- Eliminate free meals served to state prison guards.

- Utilize extra beds in privately operated prisons.

- Use empty beds at state hospitals for low-risk prisoners needed alcohol and drug treatment.

- Increase the revenues of the prison industries program.

- Offer incentives and make it easier for school districts that wish to consolidate.

- Eliminate the Texas High Speed Rail Authority, which oversees the proposed 200 mph "bullet train," and transfer its duties to the Railroad Commission.

- Charge a fee to reinstate suspended drivers' licenses.

- Shift functions of the State Preservation Board, which is restoring the Capitol, to the General Services Commission, which is responsible for Capitol complex buildings.

- Abolish the State Banking Board and transfer its duties to the banking commissioner.

- Consolidate field offices of the Water Commission and Air Control Board.

Brooks shocks Clovis with surprise nightclub concert

CLOVIS, N.M. (AP) - Country music superstar Garth Brooks shocked a nightclub audience in this military town when he and his band staged a surprise performance under the name "Yukon Jack."

"When he hit the stage everybody was in shock," said Steve Richie, general manager of KSEL, a Clovis radio station that broadcast the 90-minute performance live. "The whole club just came to a screeching halt."

Word traveled fast in this eastern New Mexico town of 34,000 that is home to Cannon Air Force Base.

The 100-member audience at Clovis City Limits swelled to nearly 1,000 within an hour of Brooks' hitting the stage Wednesday night, Richie said.

Joan Cook, a receptionist in the singer's manager's office in Nashville, Tenn., said today Brooks' show in Clovis was "something he just went ahead and did himself."

TDH to start county transportation plan

Deaf Smith County residents are going to have better access to health care thanks to a federal grant received by the Texas Department of Health. This grant will enable Public Health Region 2 of the Texas Department of Health to place a VISTA volunteer in Deaf Smith County in order to develop a transportation project.

VISTA is a national program of volunteer men and women of all ages and backgrounds who are committed to increasing the capacity of low-income people to improve the conditions of their lives. Serving in both rural and urban settings for a minimum of one year, VISTA workers receive a monthly subsistence allowance and health insurance, which does not affect Social Security or welfare benefits, but is subject to taxes.

CHRIST'S CHURCH FELLOWSHIP

Dr. Alton Tomlin and the church congregation extend a warm invitation to the public to join them in worship and praise.

"Some Principles of Revival" is Dr. Tomlin's message for the 10:45 a.m. Sunday worship service. It is taken from the text Nehemiah 9. Before the Sunday worship service, Church School meets at 9:30 a.m.

The youth meets each Sunday at 6:30 p.m. and the Women's Bible Study meets at 7 p.m. Monday and 9:30 a.m. Wednesday.

A spokesperson for the church said, "Christ's Church Fellowship's guideposts to teach, direct and mold us into a people of faith, love and purpose are: Exalting Christ (John 12:32); fullness of the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:8); harmonious relationships (John 13:35); healthy teaching (John 6:63); a love for the lost (Luke 19:10); praise and worship (Psalm 96:2-3); and a passion for personal holiness (II Cor. 3:18)."

Have you found the church home where you can walk in unity and mission? A fellowship where you are accepted and loved? Where all the gifts operating in the first century church are available to believers today? Where the wholeness of the Bible is taught?

The spokesperson continued, "Please come visit us and see for yourself what kind of church and what kind of folks we are. Would you like to sit down with us, ask questions and dialogue with us?"

Hereford netters take aim on titles

By JAY PEDEN
Sports Editor

After having players finish second in all four divisions at last spring's district tournament, members of the Hereford tennis team will set their sights on moving one step up this spring.

They start on the road to district championships at 9 a.m. Saturday with a dual match against Amarillo High in Amarillo.

"We've got four good dual matches before our first tournament that will bring in some good practice: Canyon twice, Amarillo High and Brownfield," coach Natalie Sims said. "The dual matches are basically practice against other people. You don't know their secret trick like you do out here."

Hereford's first tournament is in San Angelo Feb. 19-20. The Herd won its division there last year. Other tournaments include Plainview, Borger, Abilene and Amarillo. Hereford hosts a tournament March 12-13, where the Herd will be the defending champs.

Team tennis is in the fall, though. Spring tennis is for individual championships, and Hereford will have boys and girls contending in both singles and doubles.

None of last spring's District 1-4A champions will return, because all but one player has graduated. Borger's singles winners Barry Thrutchley and Darnett Jordan are gone, as are boys' doubles champs Joe Welborn and Sameer Mohan of Pampa. Lyndee McNeese is gone from Borger's champion girls' duo, and Dawna Denny will likely play singles, Sims said.

Hereford's top contender this year might be Greg Coplen in boys singles after finishing second to Thrutchley last year. The senior played both football and tennis in the fall but skipped basketball to concentrate on tennis for this spring.

Coplen's main competition will be from teammate Jamie Kapka. Last year he teamed with Torey Sellers to finish second in district in doubles, but after Sellers' graduation, Kapka has switched to singles.

"Greg and Jamie are fighting for it," Sims said. "They've played twice (in spring practice). Greg won both times, but Jamie's coming closer every time."

Randall's Kevin Morgan would be the only other boys' singles contender, Sims said.

In doubles, Hereford's teams will be Donny Perales and Chris Lyles, and Pete Vargas and B.J. Lockmiller. Bobby Perales--Donny's twin brother and Lyles' partner last year--is out after wrist surgery.

In the girls' competition, none of the top two district finishers will be back in either singles or doubles. In singles, Jordan and second-place Teresa Baker of Hereford have graduated. In doubles, half of each duo graduated.

To try and fill those voids, Sims three good singles players and three good doubles teams to choose from.

For singles, there's Bri Reinauer, Michelle Berend and Gabriela Gamez. Reinauer teamed with Robin Sublett (graduated) to finish second in doubles last year. The district's other contenders would be Borger's Denny and Pampa's Patty Barker, Sims said.

For doubles, Hereford has Emily and Sherry Fuston, the fourth-place finishers last year; Brooke Weishaar and Kara Sandoval; and Natalie McWhorter and Paige Robbins.

Contender

Hereford's Greg Coplen should be a top contender for the District 1-4A boys singles tennis title. The Herd starts its spring season Saturday in Amarillo with a dual match against Amarillo High.

Football ignored as press chases Talley

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) - Super Bowl Week may have hit its zenith - or nadir - with football an afterthought.

Much of the talk Thursday was about bars and bodyguards, not the approaching NFL championship game.

Media members congregated at the table manned by Darryl Talley. Others went for Jim Kelly. And Marv Levy. And Cornelius Bennett.

Talley reportedly was in a shouting-punching-showing altercation with Magic Johnson's bodyguard, identified only as Anthony, on Sunday night. A story in Wednesday's Fort Worth Star-Telegram said Anthony had punched Talley in the face while they were at Roxbury's, a popular nightclub.

"I supposedly was the guy involved in this thing, and nothing happened," said the always affable Talley. "I was not in a fight and there's nothing to it. I have no black eyes and my nose is fine. There was no incident and no fight."

After about 10 minutes of interrogation, questions, Talley stood up, grabbed a microphone, and said: "ATTENTION EVERYBODY!"

NOTHING HAPPENED! OK?"

Unfortunately, it wasn't. So the media mob headed for Kelly, who, according to the Star-Telegram, had made remarks to Johnson that spurred the confrontation. Kelly, not surprisingly, was no help.

"It's nothing," he said. "It's not worth the concern you guys give it. I know where my focus is and where our team's focus is."

Still, the reporters and guys with microphones and television cameras persisted. On to Levy, who got quite annoyed by the attention the alleged incident was receiving.

"Our players told me it's not true," he said, "and I think they have more credibility than how that story emanated. It says Wednesday in a Fort Worth paper, quoting a number of unnamed Dallas Cowboys who were present, naming Bills, but saying Jim Kelly and Darryl Talley were not available for comment."

Both were available at our press conferences on Monday.

"Nice but clumsy try, fellas. This is no issue to our players."

Bennett was in the club, too. He sat at a table Thursday, patiently

Rockets reject Bulls

By The Associated Press

With two losses in a row, the Houston Rockets needed a team they'd been successful against.

How about the two-time NBA champion Chicago Bulls?

Hakeem Olajuwon scored 18 points and got 17 rebounds and Vernon Maxwell scored 18 points and harassed Michael Jordan, as the Rockets beat the Bulls 94-83 Thursday night for the fifth time in their last six meetings.

"There's no rational explanation why Houston has success against us," Chicago coach Phil Jackson said. "Maybe it's the water. They are an athletic team but we beat some other athletic teams with good records."

The Bulls left town without solving the mystery and with their 12th loss in 13 tries in The Summit but the Rockets aren't fooling themselves into thinking they've reached the Bulls' level on a regular basis.

"The difference between our team and their's is that they beat the teams they're supposed to beat and we play to the level of the opposition," Olajuwon said. "The consistency level is completely different."

The Rockets have lost to Denver twice this season and to Milwaukee while beating division leaders Chicago and New York this month.

Chicago contested the Rockets in the first quarter, leading 24-23 at the end of the period but Olajuwon's basket early in the second quarter put the Rockets ahead to stay.

They led 48-38 at the half and boosted that to 59-46 early in the third quarter. Chicago used a 16-7 surge to cut the lead but the Rockets still were ahead 66-58 to start the fourth quarter.

That's when a 19-6 run, ending with five minutes left in the game, put the game out of reach.

"If we could have that kind of record against some of the sub-500 clubs, we'd be sitting up there with a great record right now," Rockets coach Rudy Tomjanovich said.

Michael Jordan led the Bulls with 26 points, hitting 12 of 27 shots, but he was pestered the entire game by Maxwell.

"They've got our number," Michael Jordan said. "They play extremely well every time we play them. If they played the Bulls every night they'd probably have a better record than they do now. I'm glad we only see them twice."

Maxwell takes a personal interest in trying to disrupt Jordan because he feels the Bulls' super star doesn't respect his defensive play. The two players sparred beneath the Bulls basket late in the second quarter.

"He taunted me all the way down the floor after that incident," Maxwell said. "I just told him don't grab me around the neck. I said that and I was done. He told me I was trying to fire up the crowd and I said 'what's the big deal with that?'"

The Rockets had lost two straight games after winning eight in a row. Before that, they'd lost seven in a row.

"The timing was right for us to do this," Houston coach Rudy Tomjanovich said. "Our team needed to get back to its foundation—defense. Plus, we got some big shots down the stretch."

The Bulls must pick up their intensity, Jordan said.

"Teams want it more than we do, we're not executing properly," he said. "Basically, the other teams are becoming the aggressor. They had a terrible third quarter but we had a worse one."

"The three-peat is not even a concern, now the way we are playing."

In other games, it was Atlanta 110, New York 105; Milwaukee 109, Miami 87; Cleveland 127, Orlando 113; and Indiana 127, LALakers 110.

Elks' Hoopshoot winners

Slade Hodges (left) won the right to represent Hereford at the state Hoopshoot competition Feb. 27 in Mesquite when he won his age group at the district competition Jan. 23 in Borger. Hodges hit 20-of-25 free throws to win. Two other Hereford boys finished second in their age groups: Kevin King (center) and Brent Berend

Iowa takes emotional win

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) - Gritty, emotional, inspirational - all words used to describe the late Chris Street.

The same words could be used to describe Iowa's performance Thursday night in its first game since Street was killed.

The Hawkeyes overcame a 15-point deficit in the final 3:30 of regulation and went on to a 96-90 overtime win over Michigan State.

In a tribute to Street, the starting forward who was killed Jan. 19 in a traffic accident, the Iowa players wore a black patch with Street's initials and jersey number, 40, on their uniforms.

"He would have been proud of this," an emotionally drained Iowa coach Tom Davis said afterwards. "He would have loved it. He was the toughest tiger in the town."

In other Top 25 games, No. 8 Arizona cruised past Oregon 92-60, No. 10 UNLV beat Nevada 110-95, No. 14 Purdue defeated Northwestern 83-73 and No. 17 Utah beat Wyoming 64-45.

Iowa's comeback was led by the hot shooting of Val Barnes, who finished with 29 points. Barnes hit three 3-pointers down the stretch, including the one that tied the game at 76 with 20 seconds remaining in regulation.

Jon Zulauf had a chance to ice the game for the Spartans with two free throws while Michigan State led 76-73 with 28 seconds remaining, but he missed both.

"We had the big lead and we were still trying to score," Michigan State coach Judd Heathcote said. "Maybe we would have been smarter to run some time off the clock. All we had to do was make one of Zulauf's foul shots. But that didn't happen."

Acie Earl, who had 27 points and 16 rebounds, started the overtime with a layin off his own missed jumper. The Hawkeyes quickly built an 85-78 lead and the Spartans (10-5, 2-4 Big Ten) never threatened.

The Hawkeyes (13-3, 2-2) had postponed games with Northwestern and Penn State last week and hadn't played since a 65-56 loss at Duke on Jan. 16.

No. 8 Arizona 92, Oregon 60
At Eugene, Ore., Damon Stoudamire, playing in his home state before 15 friends and family members, had a season-high 17 points, 10 rebounds and 6 assists as the Wildcats won their 10th in a row and remained unbeaten in the Pac-10.

The Wildcats (12-2, 6-0) led by as many as 19 in the first half and 15 at halftime.

"I don't remember having a team shoot that many air balls in a game," Oregon (7-12, 0-7) coach Jerry Green said.

No. 10 UNLV 110, Nevada 95

At Reno, Nev., J.R. Rider broke the 30-point mark for the sixth straight time. He scored 38, including 28 in the second half on 8-of-13 shooting from the field and 12 of 13 from the foul line.

Dexter Boney added 20 for the Rebels (12-1, 5-1). Ric Herrin and Eric Morris both had 21 to lead the Wolf Pack (7-8, 2-6).

No. 14 Purdue 83, Northwestern 73
At Evanston, Ill., Gene Keady got career coaching win No. 300 as his team tuned up its offensive output a notch.

"When we score 80-some points, it's a magnificent achievement," said Keady, whose team ranks 10th and next to last in the Big Ten with a 72.3 scoring average.

The Boilermakers (12-3, 3-3) were led by Glenn Robinson's 18 points.

No. 17 Utah 64, Wyoming 45

At Laramie, Wyo., Jimmy Soto scored 13 points. Larry Cain added 12 and Utah's tenacious defense shut down Wyoming's inside game and forced the Cowboys to resort to a futile and off-target long-distance attack.

The victory was the 10th straight for Utah (15-2, 8-0 WAC). Wyoming dropped to 10-7, 4-4.

Ryan talks with Oilers

HOUSTON (AP) - Former Philadelphia Eagles head coach Buddy Ryan interviewed with Oilers owner Bud Adams and general manager Mike Holovak Thursday for Houston's defensive coordinator job.

Ryan told KRIV-TV in Houston that the interview "went great."

Asked if he was offered the job, Ryan said with a chuckle, "I think they're going to interview some other people also."

The Oilers fired defensive coordinator Jim Eddy earlier this month, a day after the Buffalo Bills staged the greatest comeback in NFL history against Houston in the opening round of the playoffs.

Holovak said earlier this week that he was considering Ryan, Oilers assistant general manager Floyd Reese and former Chicago Bears defensive coordinator Vince Tobin to succeed Eddy.

Ryan said even though he would prefer a head coaching job, he thought he could be a good addition to the Oilers coaching staff.

"I think I qualify as a head coach," Ryan said. "I thought I had the job in New England. But (former San Francisco Giants head coach) Bill Parcells beat me out."

"I'm ready to get back in football," Ryan said. "The Houston Oilers (have) got a great chance to go to the Super Bowl. I've been to the Super Bowl with every team I've had except the Eagles so I'm here to help them do it."

Jim Ryan, the former coach's son and agent, said, "Buddy has the utmost respect for Bud Adams and Mike Holovak so it seems like a good fit."

Southwest Outdoors

with Mel Phillips

According to a press release from the outgoing Secretary of the Interior Manual Lujan: "Without the excise taxes...on hunting and fishing equipment, states would not be able to pay for many of the fish and wildlife restoration and recreation projects the public has come to take for granted."

Translated: the free-loading environmental extremists continue to pick the pockets of the hunters and anglers. How much do our sportsmen pay? $351.8 million that comes from hidden taxes. Hidden taxes like an 11 percent excise tax on rifles and ammunition, an 11 percent tax on certain archery equipment, and a 10 percent tax on fishing equipment. The list goes on.

So next time one of the environmental extremists puts the hurt on this country's hunters and anglers, just remind them who is actually paying the bills for those restoration and preservation projects. And paying the bills without even so much as a "thank you" from the tree-huggers and animal rights crowd.

Outdoor World '93, the largest sportsman's show between Dallas and Denver, will take place Feb. 12-14 at the Amarillo Civic Center. Special attractions include three seminar centers that will feature free instruction from leading experts on fishing, camping and hunting.

If you are interested in learning more about the seasonal patterns and daily habits of big bass, the free seminars by John Hope of the "Fishing Texas" television show offer you a chance to learn from a master angler. John spent his last year at Lake Amistad, where he used a video camera to chronicle the behavior of several bass that were implanted with radio transmitters. Not just guess work but the results of long, hard work by Hope will help you catch more fish.

My old friend and a great fisherman, Dreabon Joiner, will discuss catching big bass at his home lake, Lake Fork. His daily seminars will disclose some mid-lake hot spots for catching bass at Ute Lake, where he won $30,000 at a Redman national tournament.

Tom Smith from Denver and star on the "Lure of the Wild" television show, will share some secrets on fly fishing for trout and monster northern pike in Canada. A national champion elk caller, Tom can answer your questions about hunting for deer and elk in the Rocky Mountain states.

Good news--It is a tradition of the Outdoor Word shows that a copy of my newspaper column will save you $1 off the cost of a $4 adult admission ticket. In 1993, this offer is limited to one discount per adult. Stop by our Southwest Outdoors booth on the floor of the coliseum. I look forward to meeting you.

SUPER BOWL

answering queries about Sunday night.

"Probably half the guys on both teams know guys from the Cowboys," Bennett said. "There were a lot of actors and actresses in the club."

"For one thing, it was too crowded. Anybody could've bumped anybody. I don't know what happened."

"If something had happened, I'm sure I would've been around to see it. If Darryl had got hit, I'm sure his face would've been swollen."

Finally, Bennett was tired of the line of questioning.

"Doesn't anybody want to talk football?" he asked.

Fortunately for the Cowboys, football was the major topic of conversation. They are one of the youngest teams in any Super Bowl, although there are several veterans - including defensive end Charles Haley and defensive back Ray Horton, who have played in the big game with other teams.

"We've got as good a chance as anyone in the NFL to be good for awhile," guard John Gesek said. "Look around, some of these guys look like the paper boy. They are just kids."

One of those kids, rookie middle linebacker Robert Jones, doesn't want to hear about how callow the Cowboys are. Jones, who might not see much action against Buffalo's three-receiver, one-back, no-huddle attack - even though he had an outstanding season - thinks it doesn't matter.

"We've been hearing all year long about our lack of experience," Jones said. "People said that we didn't have enough experience in the playoffs and weren't going to beat the San Francisco 49ers at Candlestick Park. But you saw the results. You can't predict the game on experience. It's not there. It's in the heart."

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Well, another one arrived today -- an invitation for my 7-year-old son to attend a "friend's" birthday party.

So what's the problem? The problem is that this "friend" is a child that my son sees only in school. There are at least 20 other children in "Jimmy's" class whom he sees only in school, and they, too, have birthday parties. This means I have to go out and buy a gift for 20 kids I don't know. This comes to at least $200 a year.

These birthday parties have been going on since the kids were in kindergarten together. Last year, Jimmy went to three parties in one weekend. No child needs that much social life, and the cost of gifts is considerable.

I'm not writing for advice, Ann. I just want to tell those well-meaning parents to stop this nonsense. Parties should be for family and/or good friends, not kids you go to school with. Sign me--Paried Out in Buffalo

DEAR P.O.'d In Buff.: Sorry, I'm marching to a different drummer. It's better to invite the entire class than to hurt feelings by leaving out the less popular kids.

You don't need to spend $10 on a gift. Shop around. Or bake something special that kids like. A little imagination can go a long way.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am handicapped, although one would not know it by looking at me. I have a decal on my car, and often when parking, I get stares and rude remarks, such as "Where is your wheelchair?"

Strangely enough, I see many cars parked illegally in these same handicapped spots, sometimes with one occupant waiting in the car, as if this allows them to park there while I drive around looking for a space.

How about a snappy answer to let these clods know I am not obligated to explain the nature of my disability?--Dorothy in Washington

DEAR D.: Sorry, I'm fresh out of snappy answers, especially one that might result in a fat lip. Silence is sometimes the best response. I recommend it.

DEAR READERS: I love you all and would do anything in my power to help you; however there are some things I simply cannot do. I hope you understand. I am unable to:

1. Find a husband for your daughter or a wife for your son.
  2. Lend you money to start a new business.
  3. Get you an appointment with Mayor Daley.
  4. Give you my home telephone number so you can call after work.
  5. Read your manuscript and tell you if it is marketable.
  6. Have dinner with you.
  7. Translate your letter into Spanish so you can write to a relative in South America.
  8. Get you on Phil Donahue, Oprah Winfrey or Joan Rivers.
  9. Offer you a position in my office.
  10. Send a check to help you through college.
  11. Attend your wedding, your son's Bar Mitzvah, or your parents' 50th wedding anniversary.
- Sincerely yours,
Ann Landers

When planning a wedding, who pays for what? Who stands where? "The Ann Landers Guide for Brides" has all the answers. Send a self-addressed, long, business-size envelope and a check or money order for $3.65 (this includes postage and handling) to: Brides, c/o Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562.

ANN LANDERS: Do you have any idea how many people you insult on a daily basis with your Judeo/Christian-based "problem solving"?

There are thousands of specialists in this country who help people with problems--psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, as well as government and private agencies. So why do you insist on telling your readers to consult ministers priests and rabbis?

When you dole out such advice, you are insulting 10 percent of the population. A survey 13 months in the making revealed that more than 23 million Americans are, by their own admission, atheists. (There are only 1,186,000 agnostics and 29,000 humanists.)

In some states, the percentage of atheists is even higher: Oregon, 17.2 percent; Washington, 14 percent; Wyoming, 13.5 percent; California, 13 percent; Arizona, 12 percent; Vermont and Colorado, 11.4 percent; and Montana, 10.2 percent. Your systematic ignoring of atheists is an insult. The counsel you give should reflect reality, not your own personal bias. If you, Ann Landers, wish to take advice from a rabbi, feel free to do so, but don't assume that ALL your readers want advice from a representative of organized religion.

Every time you write, "consult your clergyman," atheists all over the country write to haul you up short (we get copies), but you ignore them. I find it incredible that you have gotten away with your bias and prejudice for so many years. It's high time YOU woke up and smelled the coffee.--Madalyn Murray O'Hair, founder, American Atheists, Inc.

DEAR MADALYN: I knew before I read the signature that the letter had to be from you. Hello again. You and I have had correspondence before.

My column is read by 90 million people every day. By your logic, 10 percent of my readers are atheists. This means 90 percent, or 81 million, are believers, which gives them a fairly healthy majority.

The advice I give is strictly on a take-it-or-leave-it-basis. I do not expect everything I write to get the approval of every reader.

It is only natural that what appears in this space reflects my own biases, My own heritage and my own philosophy. When I suggest to a reader that he or she check with a physician, I do not get pounced upon by Christian Scientists, so why am I hearing from you again with the same old complaint? Why can you not accept the fact that we are coming from totally different places?

If you do not believe in God, Madalyn, it's perfectly all right with me. I am not trying to force religion on anybody. But I'll be darned if I will stop advising my readers to seek help from their spiritual leaders just because some atheists don't like it.

When planning a wedding, who pays for what? Who stands where?

"The Ann Landers Guide for Brides" has all the answers. Send a self-addressed, long, business-size envelope and a check or money order for $3.65 (this includes postage and handling) to: Brides, c/o Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE MAGNITUDE OF THE BIBLICAL ARMIES

THE ARMY OF ISRAEL CONSISTED OF INFANTRY ONLY AND WAS COMPOSED OF SPEARMEN, SLINGERS, AND ARCHERS. (NUM. 11:21) IT INCLUDED ALL THE ABLE BODIED MEN OF THE NATION FROM TWENTY YEARS OLD AND UPWARD, ABLE TO GO FORTH TO WAR. THE LEVITES WERE THE ONLY MALES EXEMPTED FROM SERVICE BECAUSE THEY WERE THE PRIESTHOOD. WHEN KING SOLOMON RULED, HE ADDED CAVALRY AND CHARIOTS TO HIS FORCES, SWELLING THE NUMBERS AND THEREBY INCREASING THEIR EFFECTIVE POWER. HOWEVER, WHEN IT CAME TO GREAT POWER, THE ANCIENT ARMIES OF NEBUCHADNEZZAR OF BABYLON OUT-RANKED THEM ALL! BESIDES INFANTRY AND CAVALRY HE EMPLOYED A CORPS OF ELEPHANT DRIVERS, POSSIBLY THE FORERUNNER OF THE MODERN-DAY TANK. IT WAS JUST SUCH AN IMPOSING FORCE THAT ONE DAY, SUDDENLY, ENCIRCLED JERUSALEM.....

...AND JERUSALEM LIES AT THE MERCY OF NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S BESIEGING ARMY.
