Assessments For Candidates Set

Saturday was the final day for candidates to various state, district and county offices to pay filing fees for placing their names on the ballot for the May 7 Democratic primary here.

The budgeted amount for the 1960 primaries has been set at $1.615, apportioned among the various races and candidates, according to Deaf Smith County Democratic chairman L. H. Woodford.

With eight candidates filing for two county commission posts, Precinct One and Precinct Three, fees were set at $65 each, for a total of $520.

The four candidates for the county tax assessor-collector's office were required to pay $140 each for a total of $560 in fees.

The two candidates for county sheriff were to pay $140 each, for a total of $280. The lone candidate for the county attorney's office was to pay $105 for filing fee.

In the 69th District Attorney's race, each of the two candidates were to pay $50 for a total of $100.

As stipulated in the election code of the state, the three candidates for representative of 96th Legislative District were to pay $10 each, for a total of $30 going toward the primary's budget. Likewise, the two candidates filing for representative of 18th Congressional District were to pay $10 each for a $20 total.

The single candidate for the State Board of Education was not required to render a filing fee in this county as his only pay is expense coverage while he is on duty, Woodford said.

HIGH-SCORING CARL MILLER hugs the ball in the midst of some action that would not be out of place on a football field when Hereford barely edged Levelland in a clash here Friday evening. But Houdini couldn't have tied Miller up as he marked 32 points in the Whitefaces' favor, just short of the record 38 points scored in the same gym by Hereford's Bobby Shelton last year. As Levelland's Roy Sage, falls at the heels of Miller. Behind Levelland's David Schmidley are Whitefaces Charlie Burrus and Thomas Coffman. Hereford won the tension-packed clash, 64-65. Plan Fiesta For Latin - Americans

Hereford merchants, during their regular meeting Friday, heard a request for aid on a Latin - American Fiesta in September, approved the Christmas fund financial report and outlined a new merchandising promotion.

Three delegates from the St. Joseph's Club met with the group Friday requesting cooperation from the merchants in presenting a Latin - American Fiesta on Sept. 15, 16 and 17.

After a lengthy discussion of prior fiestas, the group voted to name three persons to meet in a planning session.

Chairman Paul Harvey picked Don Zimmerman, Irving Alexander and Charles Scheetz as a merchants sub - committee. Harvey asked that the St. Joseph's Club and the Latin - American Progress Club each send three delegates to a special planning session.

Meeting of the delegates was set for Friday, March 4, at 9 a. m. in the chamber of commerce directors rooms.

Christmas fund for the 1959 holiday activities was reviewed by the group. Receipts totalled $2,374, while expenditures were $2,189.04, which leaves a balance of $184.96. This will be applied to the cost of the 1960 holiday promotion.

Pack Brogdon and Irving Alexander presented a report on "Operation 29", a special promotion slated for Monday, Feb. 29. The Leap Year activity will feature merchandise with prices ending in "29".

Committee appointments for the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce were approved by the board of directors last week during their regular meeting.

Chamber president Palmer Norton made the nominations for the working committee heads for 1960 - 61 year. They were unanimously approved by the directors.

Heading the aviation committee this year will be Dr. A. T. Mims. Education committee work will be under the direction of Bill Davis, while Jimmie Gillentine was named to head the industrial development committee.

Jack Renfro will be chairman of the registered livestock committee, E. M. Malone will be in charge of the committee on dairy and poultry and Dr. L. B. Barnett was named chairman of the commercial cattle committee.

In charge of the tourist and convention committee is Sam Bell. Civic affairs committee is to be headed by Mrs. Elmer Patterson and legislative affairs activities will be directed by Dr. Hap Cavness. Gene Moore was (Continued on Page 2)

2 Rural Fires Hit Barn, Grass

One of two fires breaking out in rural areas of Deaf Smith County this week claimed a huge barn containing grain, farming equipment and an undetermined number of pigs Saturday morning.

The other fire, which was reported to Hereford Volunteer Fire Department Friday afternoon, burned one - third of a section of grassland.

A large barn on the property rented by A. J. "Doc" Bezer, 11 miles north and six miles east of Hereford, was practically burned to the ground when Fire Marshal Clay Angelo and Fireman Onias Carroll arrived on the scene at 8 a. m. Saturday.

Angelo theorized that the fire may have started near the location of heating lights inside the barn. Damage to the barn and its contents was estimated at $10,000 by Angelo.

The barn, owned by Mrs. Bill Gilles, contained 20,000 pounds of stored grain, a tractor, acetylene welding equipment, three sows and an undetermined number of small pigs. A 21-foot sleep freezer full of meat also was destroyed in the fire.

It was not known when the fire started. Bezer discovered the blaze from his home.

Rowland Takes Landrace Honors In Stock Show

H. H. Rowland of Hereford again proved he was one of the top Landrace breeders in the state by placing a Reserve Champion in the senior Landrace Gilt Class of the Ft. Worth Stock Show last weekend.

Another gilt, entered in the senior class of the show, placed second. The show marked the first time either gilt had ever been shown.

Rowland took only two entries to the show. There were some 30 entries in each gilt class.

Rowland, who farms one mile north of Hereford, placed a Reserve Champion in the senior gilt division of the Ft. Worth show last year. During the same show, he had placed winners in eight Landrace classes.

HERD DOWNS LOBOS, 65-64

Hereford Hosts Dumas In District Showdown

In the tightest race possible, Hereford will face the Dumas Demons in Whiteface gym Tuesday night to decide the championship of District 1-AAA. Hereford stayed in contention for a share of the title by taking a 65 - 64 thriller from Levelland Friday night.

The Demons are on top of the heap in the loop scramble with a 6 - 1 record, while Hereford victory would close the district schedule with a tie for first place and a play - off game to decide which team would go into regional competition. A Dumas victory, of course, would give the Demons outright possession of the district crown.

Friday night's victory was another "must" game and the young Herd fought off a bitter Levelland rally in the final 90 seconds for the win.

Big Carl Miller, whose 6 - 4% height makes him the tallest on the squad, proved again that his recent performances have not been accidents. He poured in 32 points for Hereford. Coach Gano Tubb finally put his Lobos into a sagging defense with three men guarding Miller during the second half under the basket.

For a time it turned into a duel between Miller on one side and Doug Cannon and Roy Sage on the other. Cannon fired in 25 points and Sage got 17 for the spoiler Lobos.

The game opened up with Hereford trying to run the Lobos off the court. The Herd shot to an 18 - 6 lead before the Lobos woke up and started to fight back. Levelland had closed the gap to 12 - 20 at the end of the first period.

No more than seven points separated the Whitefaces from the hard - working Levelland squad in the second period until Miller and Burrus put in field goals to give Hereford a 39 - 39 margin at the half.

There was more of the same in the third stanza as Hereford held leads of four to seven points. But Sage netted a free throw and Cannon two charity tosses to narrow the gap to 56 - 51 at the end of the quarter.

For the packed gymnasium, there was more than enough excitement in the fourth quarter as Levelland roared up into a lead. The quarter opened with Ronnie Botkin getting a field goal and Charlie Thomas netting a free throw, as Hereford got what seemed to be a secure 59 - 51 lead.

But Dick Tubb hit two straight field goals and Miller garnered a jump shot as Hereford held to a 61 - 55 margin.

Then Cannon and Sage combined for seven points to put the Lobos in front 62 - 61 with 1:30 remaining.

Around Town

Valentine's Day used to be a time to exchange cards, with an occasional box of candy or some roses for extra - special girls. But did you notice the number of men with gift packages on the streets this week? Could this be a return to romanticism in an age of science and reason? Although the best girl appreciates such gifts on Feb. 14, there's nothing like an unexpected present for lighting up a girl's eyes.

We've decided Dale Young, who lives at 812 Ave. K, has the right idea on TV antennas in this country. His tall antenna went halfway down during December's ice storm.

Dale says work and illness kept him from repairing the damage. But subsequent rain, snow and winds have failed to knock it to the ground. It also swings with the wind. Young said, which makes it a pretty good weather vane for the neighbors. F. S.: He's still getting good reception.

Mrs. Audrey Thompson, one of Hereford's five gadabout widows who went to Phoenix, Ariz., for the winter, has returned home. "I just plain got homesick," she said. She headed for the sun with Mrs. Henry Hastings, Mrs. Myrtle Wright, Mrs. James M. Gilliland and Mrs. Joe Prowell, but they almost froze when they got to Arizona. "After we finally got thawed out, Phoenix lit up and took notice of us. And while you folks in Hereford were having snow storms, we were out picking oranges," she laughed. Probated Terms Follow Guilty Pleas By Two

A Hereford woman charged with forgery and a Hereford man charged with driving while intoxicated both pleaded guilty in 69th District Court Wednesday afternoon and were placed on terms of probation.

Nellie Saiz, 19, was indicted for forgery and passing forged instruments in the recent session of 69th District Grand Jury, which convened Feb. 1. District Judge Harry Schultz placed the woman on three years probation after she entered a plea of guilty to the indictment.

Two Sessions Of City Commission Slated Monday

The Hereford City Manager's office will buzz with activity Monday as two meetings, both open to the public, have been scheduled.

The day's agenda includes a special meeting for opening of sealed bids for a proposed sewer line along east Highway 60 at 2 p. m., and City Commissioners will take action on the city's budget for the coming year at 7:30 p. m.

At the Feb. 1 meeting of Hereford City Commission, a discussion was held in connection with proposed changes in the budget for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1960, and ending April 30, 1961.

The call for sewer line bids was issued by the commissioners in regular meeting last month.

The 4,600 - foot line will be installed along Highway 60 from Benefield's Corner to the location of Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative. Contractors were asked to include costs of sewer pipe and installation charges when submitting bids.

Annual Police Department Report Shows A Busy Year

The year 1959 was a busy one for Hereford Police Department, as shown on the department's annual report submitted to Hereford City Commission recently.

The report, submitted by Police Chief Henry Aycock, showed that squad cars travelled 113,439 miles in connection with patrol activities, which contrasts with 65,193 miles in 1958.

There were 11,528 dispatch entries, which contrasts with only 8,699 in 1958.

Criminal arrests totalled 323 in 1959. There were 293 arrests in 1958 and 315 in 1957, the report showed. Drunk charges resulted from 160 of the arrests.

Disturbance charges constituted 26 of the arrests, and 23 persons were arrested for investigation. Driving while intoxicated charges stemmed from 20 of the arrests.

Other arrests included: 12 for

Report Thefts From 2 Vehicles

Hereford police this week were investigating two cases of theft of articles from vehicles parked in the city.

Two Hereford residents, Ronald Babione and Mrs. June Dearing, filed separate complaints claiming that items were taken from their parked vehicles, according to Hereford Police Chief Henry Aycock. Value of items, including a box of tools, a woman's ring and four silver dollars, was estimated in excess of $200.

Incumbents File For Re-election To City Posts

Incumbents Dr. R. R. Wills and Troy Moore Thursday filed for re - election to two Hereford City Commission posts scheduled to be filled in an April election. To date, they are the only candidates seeking the posts.

Both are currently completing two - year terms as commissioners. Wills has filed for re - election to Place 4 and Moore filed for Place 3.

Saturday morning saw no new candidates for three Hereford Rural High School Board posts scheduled in another April election.

Filing intentions to run for the Board vacancies last month were Lee Kent, Gaylord Newell and B. F. Cain. Cain is incumbent to one of the posts. (Continued on Page 2)

EVEN VERY YOUNG MEN have special girls who need super-duper boxes of candy on Valentine's Day. Five-Year-Old Gary Godwin finds adult-sized displays are no deterrent, as he calls a wooden box into action for a boost. Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Godwin, 118 Ranger Drive. Higgins-Bolinger Vows Are Exchanged In Home Rites Vows were exchanged at seven o'clock in the evening of Feb. 7 by Miss Lilly Higgins and Ray Bolinger of Summerfield. The Rev. W. L. Bolinger, pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church of Lubbock, read the double-ring ceremony for his son and his bride.

The wedding took place in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Higgins, 13th and B Avenue, in the presence of relatives and close friends.

The bride chose a white satin brocade street-length dress featuring long petal point organza sleeves and organza overskirt. The bateau neckline was cuffed with a fold of the satin and the entire bodice was sprinkled with rhinestones.

Her veil, which was attached to a small brocade hat, was of lace, and the bridal bouquet, carried on a white Bible, was single white chrysanthemum surrounded by miniature chrysanthemums tied with white satin streamers. The traditional custom of something old, new, borrowed and blue was carried out.

Following the wedding, an informal reception was held in the home. Assisting with the refreshments were the bride's sisters, Wanda, Wilma and Loretta.

When the couple left on a short honeymoon trip, the bride was wearing a beige suit with matching shoes and yellow accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Hereford High School and attended West Texas State College the past semester. Bolinger is also a graduate of Hereford field, where the couple will make their home.

High School and is presently engaged in farming near Summer-

Out-of-town relatives attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bolinger, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bolinger, and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bolinger of Dimmitt; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Huckaby of Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Higgins of Earth; and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Miller of Plainview.

Bay View Club Continues Study About 'Far East'

Continuing the study of the far East, Members of the Bay View Study Club heard a program on "Indonesia - Asian Democracy in Trouble" at a meeting of the club held in the new home of Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Carl Perrin presented the first part of the program speaking mainly on why democracy in Indonesia is in trouble. She said in part; Sukarno the most important man in Indonesia, and his people want democracy and tried to maintain a democracy, but there are many reasons why it has failed. First their attitude toward capitalism, to colonialism, to the white man and to education, almost make it impossible for democracy to work. Their lack of food and their health problems are a great set back because they live entirely on what they produce themselves. Malnutrition is a great factor, and there are 80 million people with only 800 doctors to serve them.

There are one thousand people on every square mile and as a rule they are lazy. "They do not want to be like Americans if they have to work for it."

Mrs. E. W. Harrison told of "Great Asians - Poets, Authors and Leaders", mentioning and discussing Chiang Kai Chek, president of the Chinese Republic; Cagawa, Japanese Christian

CELEERY CUE
When you are buying celery, make sure that the outer ribs on the stalks aren't cracked. Even if these are not so cracked that they have to be discarded, they may be tough.

NUTRIENTS IN POTATOES
Potatoes offer a lot of food value inexpensively: they provide calories, iron and thiamine every month of the year; at some seasons they also provide vitamin C.

BETTER CRUSTS
Many good cooks find it most satisfactory to bake their fruit pies on a low oven rack. This browns the bottom crust rapidly and helps to keep it from being soggy.

YOUR RED CROSS ON THE JOB

By CORINNE J. NEELY

ATTENTION!

FIRST AID CLASSES are being formed following registration last fall. February, Tuesday 23rd instructor Henry W. Aycock will have one group to meet to make plans as to date, time and how often wish to meet. Some 14 have registered there will be room in this class for 6 more. Call the Red Cross Office to register this week. Phone EM 4-3761. The place is the City Hall at 7:30 P.M. Rural classes are planned as soon as instructors are available. They will be notified.

WATER SAFETY CERTIFICATES for last summer's classes are in Streu Hardware Store. See committeeman Oliver Streu and pick up your certificate if you have not done so. He wants to get them all out before the summer classes begin. He has buttons, badges and pins if you wish to buy them when you pick up certificates. Beginner and intermediate buttons are free. Jr. Life guard patch and pins are sold at cost as is Sr. Lifeguard and Swimmer patches. He also handles the text books.

By JIMMIE GILLETTE
So many things are happening these days that very few people get excited and, even then, it takes something big (such as landing a space ship on the moon), to create any interest. Therefore, when Argen Draper called up, breathless and nervous with excitement, I knew she really had a news tip that wouldn't quit - and that is exactly what happened:

"Get a photographer out to

For COLDS take 666

Westway quick," panted the diligent Argen. "The folks out here have donated labor to put a new roof on the community house, and you can get a picture of J. C. Morrison and Bernie Northcutt both working at the same time."

Argen was right, of course. Either one of these old boys at hard, manual labor would be worth driving a hundred miles for the picture. As usual, though, our photographers were out with both cameras and didn't get back for almost an hour. Consequently, we missed the picture of the year. In fact, it probably won't occur again.

"Flu" cases seem numerous these days. A lot of things have changed, but they still put you to bed, tell you to rest, and give you aspirin - and that's about it. As the old boy said, if it develops into pneumonia they have a good, dependable treatment - but the flu is sort of in between.

Jack Paar fans came up with varied reactions when the comedian walked out Thursday night. I judged that the audience sympathized with Jack, along with some of his beatnik friends who were giving NBC a bad time. Personally, I thought Jack acted quite childish. If these same old boys who were becoming NBC were to hire a driver for their personal automobile, and this driver was headed for a tree at 100 - miles an hour - would the owner of the car have the right to reach over and turn the wheel . . . just enough to miss the tree?

Or, to put it another way, if you hired a cook in your home would you have the right to substitute from your own ice box when she came out with a big plate of ham to serve to a delegation of Jewish guests?

Like a lot of people, I will miss Jack Paar, but he had too much trouble with too many people not to have been off the beam at least once in a while. He seems to be the temperamental, prima donna type with a persecution complex, who probably needs some psychoanalysis. The only thing that makes me unhappy is the fact that I didn't get to hear the story which NBC edited out on the grounds of being questionable. Measured by some of the stuff they let pass, it must have been a lulu.

Meanwhile, NBC stayed put while Jack's buddies panned the network and even called it names. They didn't cut an inch of the tape. This, to me, is freedom of speech! Transmission of immoral or questionable stories is another subject, included in the network's policy of operation. Being in the newspaper business, I hate to brag on TV - but I feel that NBC, official stood up for their convictions, and they deserve a big hand. In contrast to recent rigged shows and "payolas", this is a healthy switch. I would say that TV is growing up, which is a mighty good thing for the country.

I had a nice letter from Marshall Formby, who indicates that he withdrew from the governor race for three reasons: the early primaries, a probability of splitting Democrats of Texas, and prospects of a bitter race. Marshall says, however, "Do not forget 1962!" "Blue and Gold banquets". Naturally, his son, Jimmy, was scheduled to attend the one at Aikman School.

Ervin Robinson is the only fellow I ever saw who said he was glad to lose his finger. A year or so back, he lost part of a finger on his right hand, and recently caught the tip of the adjoining finger in a pump belt, losing another joint.

"The one I lost this time has been stiff ever since I lost the first joint," said Ervin, "and it has given me a lot of trouble. Honest, I am glad to have them the same size." U. S. influence in Japan is stronger than most of us think, according to the Wall Street

Journal, which reports: "Although Japan's annual fish catch is the largest in the world, home-grown beefsteak gains in popularity. Per capita rice consumption drops, reflecting a shift to bread. Beer replaces sake as the top alcoholic drink."

This Falcon Lake fishing must truly be fabulous. Bernard Roberson is one of the last fellows I would have figured as an angler, but, sure enough, he and Mrs. Roberson are thinking about making the trip. Bernard confides, however, that they stop by Abilene and pick up the George Grahams - just to be sure they get their limits.

Eula Lee Cave is chomping at the bit to get on the job at the new community center, but the weather keeps lousing things up, mainly parking. They did have a Cub Scout "Blue and Gold banquet" there Friday night, though, and City Manager Dudley Bayne is getting a lot of ribbing. Being intensely interested in the city center project - plus the fact that he has a son in the Cubs - Dudley worked like a dog all day Friday, helping with decorations and the like. When he got home and dressed for the affair, he discovered that there were two "Blue and Gold banquets". Naturally, his son, Jimmy, was scheduled to attend the one at Aikman School.

To make things worse for the sore and aching Dudley, all of the moms and pops were complaining because he did not even show up, much less help with the decorations.

Weather Prediction: Clean out your storm cellar. There will be a lot of talk about cyclones this spring, and those little warning systems will wheeze and jangle from time to time. We've never had a tornado in Hereford, but a couple have come close - and many people insist, "There's always a first time."

Connie Robinson, David Brumley Wed In Home Ceremony Sunday

Miss Connie Tom Robinson became the bride of David Lee Brumley in a ceremony read in the home of the bride's parents at 6:30 p. m. Sunday, Feb. 7. The Rev. Melvin Mathis, pastor of the First Methodist Church of McAdoo, presided at the double-ring ceremony. Traditional wedding music was played by Miss Bonnie Wagner.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Robinson, 501 East Third St., and the bridegroom is the son of Homer Brumley and the late Mrs. Brumley.

Vows were exchanged before an improvised altar arranged with giant white chrysanthemums and fernery flanked by seven - branched candelabra holding lighted wedding tapers. Lighting the tapers were Caroline Brumley, sister of the bridegroom, and Garry Robinson, the bride's nephew.

Miss Emily Puckett of Fort Stockton was the bride's - only attendant. She wore a frock of carnation pink faille made along princess lines with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Pete Plank served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Jody Bezner, Arvel Marshall, Canyon, and John Shields, Lubbock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractive in a bone white wool original suit styled with pencil slim skirt and semi - fitted jacket tied at the waist with a matching belt. Fluted ruffles outlined the lapels and formed the collar in the back. She wore matching accessories and a small satin hat accented with a tiny veil studded with rhinestones. Her only jewelry was a tear - drop pearl necklace with matching earring rings, and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid surrounded by feathered carnations.

The bride's mother wore a beige shantung dress with black patent accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the home of

New Tax On Gas Stirs Controversy

By VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN — Here we go again! It seems as if a segment of Texas history is repeating itself as the state and numerous gas companies go to court to decide the constitutionality of a new gas tax.

Some 80 gas companies have filed suit asking the court to declare invalid the natural gas severance beneficiary tax passed by the Legislature last summer.

Six of the suits are set for trial beginning Feb. 15.

They will be tried in the same Austin district court in which the contest over the old gas gathering tax was begun. This tax law was passed by the Legislature in 1951 and eventually declared unconstitutional by the U. S. Supreme Court.

Gas companies are attacking the new severance beneficiary tax on much the same grounds they did the gathering tax. They contend it is in violation of interstate commerce laws.

Passage of the severance tax came after one of the hardest battles of the stormy six month session. It places a 1.5 per cent levy on the pipelines on the grounds that they benefit from the taking out of the gas.

Revenue-wise, the gas tax represents a rather modest portion of the overall tax program passed in 1959. It was estimated it would bring in about $15,000,000 of an overall $185,000,000.

In the 12 races for statewide office this year, there will be only 22 candidates.

Six state officials are seeking re-election unopposed.

Some years ago, there were almost as many candidates in the governor's race alone as there are now for all the statewide offices. In those days the filing fee was only $100. Today's price is killing off the competition.

Filing fees today are 5 per cent of the annual salary, which runs $1,250 for governor, $1,125 for U. S. Senator, $600 for lieutenant governor, etc.

If you're one of those lucky Texans who hasn't yet been hit by influenza, State Health Commissioner J. E. Peavy has advice for you: "Don't take any chances."

In several cities the flu has reached epidemic proportions. Dallas reported the highest flu-caused death toll since the 1918 seige.

Dr. Peavy said flu ordinarily lasts on three to five days but must be taken seriously because of the possibility of complications such as pneumonia.

He advised against self-treatment and urged victims to go to bed and call a doctor at the outset.

Some 85 per cent of local P-TA leaders in Texas favor a special session to raise teachers' salaries, according to a report made to Gov. Price Daniel.

Mrs. T. W. Whaley of Kosse, president of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, told the governor that executive committee members of 563 local P-TA units were polled.

She said 8,155 favored a special session, 847 were undecided and 563 were against it. There were no suggestions as to how to pay the bill.

Governor Daniel has held off calling a special session pending the development of enough public and legislative support to carry it through to success.

Next Texas Legislature may be called upon to vote on whether the U. S. Constitution should be amended to outlaw the poll tax.

U. S. Senate has voted out a proposed amendment to void the tax. It goes next to the House, which has passed such a measure five times before.

If the House passes, it will then have to be ratified within seven years by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states.

Texas is one of five states which still have a poll tax. Others are Virginia, Mississippi, Alabama and Arkansas.

Texas drivers have from now until midnight, April 1, to get new license plates for their cars.

State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer predicts that nearly 5,000,000 cars will be registered this year. This adds up to some long lines April 1 unless a lot of people buy early.

Greer emphasized the importance of each vehicle owner's registering his car or truck in his home county. When he goes

Area Home Makers Club Holds Meeting

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS
Frio Home Makers Club met Tuesday, Jan. 26, in the home of Mrs. Carlton Dobbins. Mrs. Floyd Cole presented a program and demonstration on fitting commercial patterns to different figures.

The club voted to ask for the Alaskan film by Cotton John's touring party. Present for the meeting were Mesdames Earnest Harder, Edgar Vinson, T. L. Sparkman Jr., Frank Robbins, Floyd Cole, Owen Andrews, Henry Dobbs, James Dobbs, Jim Brooks, Joe Scott and the hostess. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Harlan Barber on Feb. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Barber and sons have been to Big Spring to visit the infant daughter of Mrs. Barber's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Franklin. The baby has been seriously ill in a hospital. The Franklins live at Lenora.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Self have moved to the Harlan Barber place, where Charles will help Barber farm this year. They have been remodeling and redecorating the house into which the Selfs moved.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harkins and Russell have gone to California with Earl's parents to visit relatives.

Visiting the Glen Andrews Sunday were Mrs. Andrews' relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Metcalf, Glen Ray and Linda, and her father, Bradley Burrus, all from Canyon.

Among those who have moved during January were Mr. and Mrs. David Yandell. They moved a house from Tahoka to a location on the southwest corner of Mrs. Yandell's parents, the G. W. Parkers place, a mile south of Hereford. They have been redecorating as well as laying water lines and other work connected with the project.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams and family are living on the Ray Johnson farm, having moved recently.

and Mrs. T. L. Sparkman Jr. and family, Mrs. Elmer Jones and Joel, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Benson.

The Owen Andrews are remodeling their kitchen by removing a partition to make a larger living area. They also plan new cabinets. D. C. Miller is to build the cabinets.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gripp and children visited Glenn's parents, the A. G. Gripps at Conway last Saturday.

Mrs. Glenn Gripp visited Mrs. Delmo Williams at Hereford Monday afternoon. The Rev. and Mrs. B. H. Baldwin were visiting the Robert Baldwins at Lubbock Saturday.

Texas Commission on City and County Government plans to send a questionnaire to city and county officials and other interested persons on the possibility of combining some city and county functions.

Aim, according to the Commission, would not be to combine city and county governments, but to find ways to economize by eliminating duplicating services.

Seventeen Texas Counties, it was pointed out, have 55 per cent of the state's population. It is in these areas that city and county problems tend to overlap.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has charged a Wisconsin manufacturer of drafting equipment with fixing the prices of goods sold to the state.

Suit was filed in an Austin district court against the Hamilton Manufacturing Co. of Two Rivers, Wisconsin.

Wilson contends the company, through "suggestions" to its distributors, set the prices on more than 200 different items totaling $100,000.00.

Modern Civilization Demands More And Better Roads Than Ever Before

Once again we are hearing much discussion of the "unit" or "central control plan" of county roads for this community. Some are highly in favor of the plan, while others are bitterly opposed. Arguments on both sides of the question are frequently bitter.

Handled properly, there is little question in our mind that a central road system would solve many problems. We do not have in mind a fancy engineer at a fabulous salary as provided under some Texas laws. We do think, on the other hand, that a County Road Supervisor might be practical. He would be voluntarily hired by the County Commissioners and would be responsible to that body. In addition, he would eliminate duplicate equipment; he would allocate improvements on an equitable basis — and would use some of the present funds to gradually increase pavement into all areas of the county. Most of all, he would work toward road improvements over the entire county, instead of creating four distinct subdivisions, each competing with the other for prestige.

Even with present salaries, this plan appears worth considering. Apply our county operating system to public schools, and you would find each trustee hiring teachers for his particular building; he would also personally oversee and operate his own bus route independently, and many duplicate services would prevail.

Under a central, overall road operation our county commissioners would assume an entirely different status. They would probably be paid a token salary or, like city officials, be paid on a per-meeting basis. Because they would be concerned more with the general county picture, instead of chug holes and minute details, they would concentrate more intensively on general improvements.

Election of our county commissioners on a basis of road work goes back to the days when wagons and buggies provided our No. 1 method of travel. Lack of communications, plus time required to visit remote areas, was the basis upon which our 1960 system of operating county roads was founded. Most citizens, at that time, were assessed a day's work or a week's work on the roads — and it proved highly efficient.

'Go - Karts' Go

"Go-Karts", as those midget automobiles are popular known, appear to be spreading among all ages and in all stratas of life in Hereford. Almost overnight, a club was formed and a track is now under construction. "Karting" has become a popular topic when two or more people meet, even for only a few minutes.

Recreation seems to be the only excuse for the new fad so far as we can see, save as a possible form of expression for pent-up emotions in some few cases. It is doubtful that the carts will ever provide a popular form of transportation which might even compete with the foreign imports.

At this early stage of the game, most people look upon "Go-Karting" as a fad. It can follow the pattern of the outboard motor and become a lasting part of everyday life in America, or the "Kart" can take its place in some dark corner of the garage along with the now obsolete Yo-Yo and Hula-Hoop. Right now, though, it is about the hottest thing in town.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

"Now it can truly be said that the earth turns on a point of faith," reads the inscription on the chapel wall at the South Pole Station. There the 17 Navy men of Deep Freeze IV have brought the warmth of faith into the frozen continent of Antarctica.

When their recreation building, where services were held, caved in under the weight of snow early this year, Petty Officer C. Norman Engel of Spring Lake, N. J., requested permission to build the chapel. All members of the group pitched in to carpenter, paint or shovel snow. The U. S. Navy sent me a photograph, on which this sketch is based, after the first plane was able to land there in November. There is a steeple and cross on top of the gabled roof. Inside, on the altar, is a reversible cross, plain on one side and a crucifix on the other. On either side is a Star of David and the Buddhist Lotus leaf, for among the men are at least one Protestant, one Catholic, one Jew and a Buddhist. Each took turns on Sundays to give sermons to his crewmates on his religion in "The Chapel of Our Faith."

Hereford Needs Home For Elderly Residents

By MRS. R. L. CRISWELL
Soliloquy of an aged man while thinking of the proposed new home for the aged.
Ole Folks Home, Rest Home, phr tooey.
Who wants to rest day and night?
Makes me think of that gag poem I heard on the radio t'other day.
The one about youth being spent.
How do I know my youth is all spent.
My get up and go, has got up and went.
In spite of it all I am able to grin.
When I think of the places my get up has been.
Old age is golden, so I've heard it said, but Sometimes I wonder as I get into bed,
My ears in a drawer, my teeth in a cup.
My eyes on the table until I wake up.
Ere sleep dims my eyes, I say to myself
Is there anything else I should put on the shelf?
I am happy to say, as I close my door.
My friends are the same or perhaps a bit more.
When I was young, my slippers were red.
I could kick my heels right over my head.
When I grew older, my slippers were blue,
But still I could dance the whole night through.
Now that I'm old my slippers are black.
I walk to the store and puff my way back.
The reason I know my youth has been spent
My get up and go has got up and went.

I really don't mind when I think with a grin,
Of all the grand places my get up has been.
Since I have retired from life's competition
I busy myself with complete repetition.
I get up each morning and dust off my wits
Pick up the paper and read the obits.
If my name is missing I know I'm not dead,
So I eat a good breakfast, and go back to bed.
Author unknown.
Golden Age Home — well that's a bit better. But what's wrong with Happy Day Home. We are all coming to an end anyway. Most people that go to one of these "pay if you stay" places have at least reached the Mineral Age. What is a mineral age? Aw! You know that ol' saw don't you? Well it's when you have silver in your hair, gold in yer teeth (or you needed a gold mine to pay for them) and lead in your feet (or seat).
Shucks! I ain't got no lead in my feet. If I kin get on my feet, I can get along as well as the next one.
There wuz a little of man in one of them rest homes. He wuz a old bachelor. Never had got married and he war 90 year old. Well ever day of the worl he gits up and puts on a fresh white shirt and a red necktie fore he's ready for the day.
He proposes to every single woman that comes into the place. Soon as he gits in talkin' distance, he begins by tellin em how lonely he is, and then he pops the question fore they know what is on his mind.
One day they brought a little ole lady in because her mind wandered a bit. You knew right off she wasn't happy about it but was resigned to it. He wuz talking to her and up and popped the question.
She give him one o' them looks and said "No! I wont marry you; nor any man I know."
Poor feller, he wuz feelin purty low; but she was fine and most kilt the nurses a tellin em about her proposal when she said, "Guess I shouldda married the old goat. Maybe I coulda got out o' this place."

45 YEARS AGO

Farmer Experimenting Types Of Dairy Feed

45 YEARS AGO
Mr. Henry Cloyd, one of the dairymen of the county, is making some experiments with different dairy feeds that are likely to prove interesting when completed. Mr. Cloyd was milking five dairy cows, giving them a ration of bran with just a little oil meal for the protein ration and cane fodder for roughness.

He was getting a very good milk flow but it was costing him more to feed the cows than the products were bringing. He was paying $35 per ton for bran and $25 per ton for his oil meal. Mr. Boys, farm demonstrator, suggested to him that he cut out the bran ration and substitute alfalfa hay and increase the amount of oil meal to about four pounds a day instead of one pound. If a study is given to the ration fed first as compared to the one now being fed, it will be seen why his dairy was not paying.

The bran for which he was paying $22 per ton contained about 10 1-2 per cent of protein or dairy producing food, while alfalfa hay can be bought for $14 per ton, containing 11 per cent, and there is less waste in feeding. Oil meal, which he was formerly feeding but little and which cost $25 per ton, contains about 37 per cent of protein.

By using alfalfa and oil meal instead of bran, he can reduce his feed bill to about one third what it was and get equally as good results.

He is now trying it out and a report will be given later.

SCHOOL ABSENCES RUN HIGH

A raging wave of influenza and other respiratory ailments apparently reached a peak in the Littlefield area last week and health authorities Saturday looked for signs of a let-up. Hospitals here during the past week were filled to capacity and school absenteeism rose to a high of 16 percent Friday. Dr. Ralph Maurer, county health officer, estimated that during the past week the area within a 15-mile radius of Littlefield had 300 to 400 cases of influenza. Littlefield Hospital-Clinic reported all its beds taken at various times during the week. At nights, some patients were placed in the lounge to take care of an overflow. Medical Arts Clinic-Hospital reported it was filled to capacity during the week and that an influx of the sick forced some patients into beds in the halls and basement. Use of the basement of the hospital for patients this week was the first such occasion in the history of the hospital. Some surgical cases were postponed so doctors could care for the flu-ridden. But Dr. Maurer and Dr. W. C. Nowlin, city health officer, felt Saturday that the flu siege may have let up in the last two days of the week. Both the city and county health officers said the wave of illness could be classed as "definitely an epidemic." Ralph Schilling, the superintendent of schools, reported Friday that 316 students were absent that day. That was 16 percent of the enrollment. Normal absenteeism runs about six per cent.

RAIN, SNOW SATURATE AREA

Moore County farmers have to think back 16 years to recall a winter as wet as this one. More than an inch of rain and snow this week, added to three inches of rainfall in December and a half-dozen other snow and ice storms, reminded many residents of the winter of 1943-44 when the area was snow-bound repeatedly. While wheat and maize farmers were eyeing possible bumper crops for '60, cattle growers and electrical service suppliers were a little less jubilant about the weather. County Agricultural Agent Martin Gossett said Saturday there were no known cattle losses in the heavy snowfall, but that shrinkage due to cold weather, muddy fields and snow-covered wheat had hurt the local cattle industry.

FORMER DIMMITT MAKES HEADLINES

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, in a front-page news story Monday told how Walter Hodges, a former Dimmitt resident, failed the attempt of a Yankee hoodlum to rob him at a gun point Sunday. Hodges was manager of Castro County Hospital about ten years ago and a farmer for many years in this area. He and his family moved from here to Wellington and from Wellington to Saint Jo, near Nocena, in Montague County. Following is the Fort Worth Star-Telegram news story: "A gunman with a Yankee accent made a pretty bad mistake here Sunday as he tried to rob a 6-foot, 2 inch Texas farmer. The farmer, Walter Hodges, 49, of Saint Jo, knocked the bandit's gun out of his hand, beat him into unconsciousness and probably fractured his jaw. Would have turned him over to the sheriff, too, if the bandit's girl friend hadn't recovered the gun and held off Hodges until she and the dazed robber could escape. Montague County Sheriff Tom Lindsey said it happened this way: Hodges drove out about 10:30 a.m. Sunday to feed some cattle. As he pulled his pickup truck up to a barn near his farm home, a tow-tone green car, occupied by a man and a woman, pulled in behind him. When the gunman demanded money, Hodges began unzipping the front of his coveralls to reach his pocketbook. As the bandit took the pocketbook, Hodges noticed the gun was pointed off to one side. He went into action with both fists. The gun flew in one direction, the wallet in another and the bandit wound up flat on the ground."

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editors note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his hindweed farm views the Russian agricultural situation this week. Anything to get the spotlight off his farming.

Dear editor:
Not being a general in the Army or an atomic scientist, I'm in no position to say anything important about the missile lag and how far Russia is ahead of us in this matter, although that she's ahead of us is pretty obvious, but when it comes to ideas on farming, I'm ready with an answer, and as everybody knows, if America's missile men were as productive as America's farmers, Russian would be the one worrying about the missile lag. You haven't heard of anybody in Washington worrying about where we're going to store guided missiles, have you?

But what brings me to this is an article I read yesterday on an agricultural conference being held in Moscow. As I understand it, Communist leaders from all the provinces throughout Russia are gathering to review the situation and find out why Russian farming is so far behind. Somebody in Russia has woken up to the fact you can't eat guided missiles.

And what interest me about the conference is an idea suggested by Mr. Khrushchev, who toured the United States last year and visited some farms. He's arguing that what's needed is a "cash incentive to make reluctant peasants better collective farmers."
Mr. Khrushchev has put his finger on the source of the trouble. Regardless of how thrilling it is to see our country's satellites chafing each other around through space, regardless of how exciting it is to see a picture of the backside of the moon taken by your own brilliant scientists, there's nothing that's ever been found yet that's a complete substitution for cash in hand.

A cash incentive is one of the most effective tools of agriculture ever invented by the mind of man, and that goes I suspect too for teachers, lawyers, doctors, grocers, men, editors, blacksmiths, and occasionally a Congressman.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

'Hearts Trumps' Is Theme In Party Of La Madra Mia

Fete Husbands At Valentine Party

February's traditional theme of Valentines and cupids marked the Young Mother's Study Club party honoring husbands held Tuesday evening in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

The buffet table, from which a Valentine supper was served, was laid with a white cloth centered with red and white carnations interspersed with lacy red hearts.

Following the meal, Hearts and "42" games were played. Prizes were won by Mrs. Kenneth Malone and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Wilson.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames James Alston, Labry Ballard, Bill Bradley, Kenneth Malone, Dick Godwin, Jess Robinson, Dale Young, Marshall Wilson and Weldon Roberson. Assuming the hostess duties were Mesdames Labry Ballard, Gerald McCaskill and James Headstream.

The table was laid with a red cloth overlaid with white net. A large white styrofoam heart formed the centerpiece, with sweetheart silhouettes standing close by. In the background stood a large ming tree blossoming with red hearts.

'The American Image Abroad' Topic For Pioneer Study Club

Exchange students at Hereford High School told of their countries and their people at the Pioneer Study Club February luncheon and program meeting held Tuesday in the home of Mrs. O. G. Hill, Assisting hostesses were Mesdames E. S. Ireland, A. L. Manjeot and Mary Seigler.

The luncheon tables featured cupids and hearts in decor in observance of the Valentine month. Mrs. Burl France gave the invocation and Mrs. W. C. Hromas led the group in the allegiance to the flag.

Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, program leader, introduced the speakers, Miss Mari Niinisto of Finland and Flemming Hansen of Denmark.

In keeping with the program theme, "The American Image Abroad", Miss Niinisto told of the influence of Finland's location between Russia and Sweden, and said that while Finland is forced to take Russia into consideration in all her decisions, the people are essentially Swedish. She also showed color slides of Finland and gave fur-remainder of the evening with prize winners receiving the traditional box of candy. Fun and frivolity reigned throughout the evening.

Arrangements for the party were made by Mesdames Dean Herring, Dennis Lomas and Paul Schroeter, members of the social committee.

Couples attending were Messrs. and Mesdames: Joe Hacker, R. V. Hale, Ted Hardwick, Dean Herring, Dennis Lomas, Harold Morton, Bobby Owen, Buddy Pickens, Eugene Sparks, Bobby Williams, G. C. Merritt Jr., Charles Frye, John Smith and N. D. Bartlett, Jr.,

Hereford.....

Joking aside, let's get behind this plan and carry it through. Hereford does need a home for the elderly, not just because we have a number of relatives in other cities, but because of the healthful climate and mineral content of the water and that others might have the healing power of Hereford water, which not only keeps the town without a toothache, but will heal broken bones of those whose bones have become brittle with age.

This not only would bring money into Hereford but bring healing and health to those who have been injured and make their days happier.

People are living longer, and this is an age of young people. Whether you like to think of it that way or not. Look around you. Men and women are being retired much younger to make way for the younger generation.

Soon, the younger generation has passed into the older generation and now we have four generations instead of two. The young, not so young, the older and the elderly, or I suppose we could add another and say the aged.

Remember the joke of the little boy who came in from school and asked his mother if she wasn't glad she was growing older every day. This was a new thought, and she must have thought a minute before saying "Well, I don't know, am I?" He replied "Well you better be glad, for if you weren't you would be dead".

We are growing older each day, whether we like to think of it in that way or not, and there comes a time when we must think about it and know that if we live long enough we will need to have someone to care for us.

It cannot always be our family. The flowers from which bees gather nectar largely determine the color, flavor and aroma of honey. If a jar of honey does not have the flower source on the label, the sweet is probably a blend of different floral honeys.

VITAMINS FOR YOU
Green asparagus is a good source of vitamin A; white or bleached asparagus has relatively little vitamin A.

DIFFERENCE IN BEANS
Know the difference between Navy and Great Northern dry beans? Both are a white color, but the Great Northern is larger than the Navy bean and somewhat flat in shape.

SALAD ZEST
Pickled onions are sometimes labeled "cocktail onions." Try adding some of them to a green salad for zesty flavor.

Cultural HD Club Has Meet

The Cultural Home Demonstration met Thursday at 9:30 a. m. in the home of Mrs. Joe Story with Mrs. Earl DeHart conducting the meeting.

Mrs. DeHart read the opening exercise and introduced Mrs. Pat Robinson who gave a demonstration on new shrubs. Roll call was answered with "A New Shrub I'd Like to Have and Why," or "My Shrubbery Problem."

Mrs. Story gave the expansion education committee recommendation. Mrs. J. G. Gandy gave the last council report. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Edgar Telchik Feb. 26 at 2:30 p. m.

Those attending were Mesdames T. E. Brisendine, a visitor; Pat Robinson, J. T. Richardson, Earl DeHart, G. A. Parsons, Edgar Telchik, Ralph Packard, George Parker, James G. Gandy, P. M. Houser and the hostess, Mrs. Story.

own pocketbook. There should be some small jobs for each to do, just little things to give them an interest and a feeling there was something to enjoy and not just sit and wait for death.

Some of the ladies who love cooking could help in the kitchen, such as peeling potatoes and making raw salads. Anything to keep away that frustrating feeling of being absolutely good for nothing.

They would need at least one night a week for recreation. There are some 20 or 30 clubs that could be responsible for one night a week for a recreational hour of games, songs and jokes, and the classes in high school could put on an occasional skit for their entertainment.

It would give the kids a chance of knowing the old folks and learning to respect them. By the groups taking turns, it would cause no hardship for any one group.

Oh yes, it will take time, money, and effort from us all, but when something is needed, it can always be done if enough people get behind it and push. If isn't the individual or the army as a whole, but the everlasting teamwork of every bloomin' soul.

And let's not forget the need for a museum and the fact that the new jail will soon be finished and something will be done with the old one. It could be used for a museum, and we need to preserve some of the articles of the way of life, as it was known by the people who will live in the home.

Unpaved Roads In Area Impassable After Rain

By MRS. CARL WIMBERLEY
The rain and snow which fell from Tuesday until Thursday in the area resulted in .80 inch of moisture. Unpaved roads were in many instances impassable for several days.
Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Killingsworth and Mrs. Ray Wells of Canyon, who teach at the Dawn School, became stranded in the snow between Unbarger and Dawn. The Killingsworths finally got to school after 11 a. m. but no pupils were there so they returned to Canyon.
Mrs. Wells missed classes the other days of the week because of the illness of her son, J. G., who had the flu. She was absent Monday with the flu.

Mrs. Tom Langston of Canyon has been teaching in Mrs. Wells' absence.
Many pupils were absent from school the past week because of illness. Several high school students missed classes.
Judge Jerry Kolander of the Juvenile Court in Amarillo will be the speaker for the Dawn School P-TA meeting Feb. 18. This meeting will be on Thursday evening.

An eight-day revival will begin at the Dawn Baptist Church Sunday, Feb. 28. The Rev. A. B. Mosely, pastor of the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church of Amarillo will be speaker. Bobby Miller, a student at West Texas State College, will be the song leader.
Several men of the building committee of the Dawn Church made a business trip to Amarillo Monday evening to meet with a contractor. Those who went from the Dawn area were Reece Stewart, R. L. Johnson, H. S. Fuller Sr., R. T. Stewart, Edgar Lemons, W. T. Beavers and Charles Davenport, pastor.
Lucy Beth Miller, a student at Hardin Simmons University spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Miller.
Larry Oglesby of Canyon visited several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Caraway. Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oglesby.
William Wimberley was dismissed late last Monday evening from the Deaf Smith County Hospital where he spent several days for medical treatment.
The Dawn Home Demonstration club met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. L. W. Toolsey. Because of the bad roads only a few members were present.
Because of illness and bad weather the Dawn Music Club Reciprocity Tea has been postponed until in the spring.
Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Stewart and children Linda and Jerry left Friday for Oklahoma City, Okla., where they visited until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Zed Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Russell and children.
Mrs. Zed Stewart has been ill for several weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Airhart visited relatives at Pampa Sunday.
Funeral Services were held Sunday afternoon at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Amarillo for Mrs. Inez Wedel, who passed away Friday in the Deaf Smith County Hospital in Hereford fol-

Get Most For Your Money By Planning

By ARGEN DRAPER
Have you ever brought home a bargain hat or bag - or shoes of a delightfully "different" color or only to find that they didn't go with a thing you had? In that case, they may have been expensive accessories after all. Accessories that are worn with only a few things or for just special occasions are quite expensive.
To get the most for your money, plan carefully before you buy - remember the color and design of your basic dresses or suits. Accessories should accent or complement a costume. They can add spice to a simple solid color dress or suit, or supply the unifying note with a striking Spring dress or plaid suit.
Avoid using too many different colors in one costume. The eye jumps from one spot to another, and you lose the effect of unity. A general rule for the use of contrasting color, texture or pattern in accessories is never repeat more than three times - generally two are smarter; for example, shoes, bag and gloves, or shoes, bag and hat, or bag and hat.
Have you ever bought a lovely garment or piece of fabric that looked "sad" after the first laundering?

Much of the success or failure in laundering synthetic fibers lies in the following directions given by manufacturers: Read the label carefully before buying if you want to be sure you can launder the fabric at home. Follow directions given. The label may read something like this:
"Hand-wash". Specific directions may be given. In this case, the fabric cannot be handled carelessly or washed in a tub with strong soap and very hot water.
"Wash at home or in commercial laundry with careful methods."
"Can be washed in commercial laundry with ordinary methods."
"Color fast." Homemakers should be able to wash this with regular laundry if she is sure of the reputation of her dealer and manufacturer.
Labels should tell you what the fabric is, how to handle it, and what you can expect from it in the way of service. When you get the label home, label it giving the garment and description and file it somewhere in a drawer or recipe type file near where you do the laundry. Always look for a good descriptive label when you buy.

This is a good time to organize shrubs into screen or foundation plantings around the home. Any shrubs that dot the lawn and complicate mowing may be reset at this time.
Consider potential size of the tree or shrub, when choosing a location for setting or resetting. Large growing plants are not suited for planting around the walls or foundation of the average home. They do make excellent screen plantings to give privacy to the work or recreation area of the landscape. Some large plants that require little water are althea, ligustrums, Arizona cypress, cherry laurel and others. Nearly all of the hollies should be used in screen planting rather than placed around the house as they grow rapidly and get large.
Shrubs for foundation plantings should be in proportion to the size of the house. For the low, ranch type house, which is popular now, true shrubs, that is, shrubs that will not grow over 8 to 10 feet, are best suited. There are many true shrubs that are drought, and pest resistant. A few are dwarf junipers.

spirea, dwarf pyracantha, nandina, abelia and others.
Proper location of shrubs will save work in pruning and care, and add to the attractiveness and comfort of home grounds.
The office has a list of shrubs adapted in this area also a bulletin for shrubs for-year round color.
This is about the last call for the tree orders from the Texas Forest Service. The order has to be in by the first of March.

Snow Presents Many Problems

By MRS. S. N. THWEATT
The snow storm the past week was not beneficial since so much wind accompanied it that the snow didn't stay in the fields. Feeding was a job for most ranchers, and a number of cattle roamed from their pastures.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Head of Rosedale, N. M. visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown Sunday evening.
Ronnie Buse spent Thursday, Friday and Friday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henderson of Bippus during last week. The Hendersons took Ronnie home on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown and children visited with Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Pulliam in Portales, N. M. Sunday. The Browns reported that no snow fell at Portales during last week.
Mrs. J. E. Rouse made a trip to Rosedale, N. M. on Thursday. She reported that the snow had drifted across the highway in places and the road crew had to clear the road in places.
Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt made a trip to Carlsbad, N.

M. Sunday where they visited Mrs. Thweatt's sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis and a brother, Frank Hagan. Mr. Hagan was released from Monahan's Hospital on Saturday and is spending some time with the Lewises in Carlsbad. Mr. Hagan is recovering as expected. The Thweatts reported snow as far as Clovis, N. M. and no moisture elsewhere.
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brown and sons Earl and Roger visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frances Decker of Broadview, N. M. Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown and son Tommy visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shadix of Rosedale Sunday.

REMEMBER WHEN?

By CHARLIE SEEDS
He was the most beloved American humorist of this century... the homespun philosopher whose warmth and wit had won him a permanent place in America's heart. He was a star of stage and screen, and a newspaper columnist read by millions. His name was Will Rogers.
On that August day the smiling comedian took off in a plane flown by a man almost equally famous, the pilot with the familiar eye patch, Wiley Post, one of the pioneers of aviation. The two men were flying over Fairbanks, Alaska, to Point Barrow. En route, over the wild country of the frozen north, tragedy struck. The small plane crashed, and both Rogers and Post were killed.
It was a moment of national mourning, for in the troubled times of those years the unruly hair, twinkling eyes and broad grin of Will Rogers, actor and comic, had endeared him to millions. He would be sorely missed.
Remember the year?
Those were days when smiles were sometimes scarce... and so were dollars. Any man who bought a car then shopped for a dealer who would give him the best buy.
The year was 1935.
These are better days... but it still pays to shop for the best buy in a new car. We'll save you money on a brand - new 1960 FORD. And you'll have the added security of buying from an established, reliable dealer, CHARLIE SEEDS MOTOR CO., INC., 146 E. Second Phone EM4-2727.

Weather In Community Presents Complications

By MRS. E. L. PINNELL

"Ain't Been Nowhere or Seen Nobody" was the single melody heard from most everyone this week. School let out at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon and electricity went off soon after. The weather in years past has been the main topic of conversation but everyone seems to want to forget it now. Ed Olomon, depot agent, reports that the 11 a.m. freight train didn't get through until 10 p. m. and then only after behind two snowplows.

The Textline - Adrian basketball games were postponed from Friday to Saturday nights. The school open-house originally planned Monday night was cancelled indefinitely, according to Superintendent Jones. Much illness is reported but school reopened Monday with buses remaining on the pavement.

Last Saturday night found Cub Scout master John T. Lewis and fathers A. P. Jones, Earl Brown, Gene Moore, Bill James and R. M. Grahley attending a council dinner at the First Baptist Church in Amarillo. Guest speaker was Chester H. Lauck, the former "Lum" of "Lum and Abner" radio fame. He is presently the Executive assistant of the Continental Oil Company.

Henry Webb, BSU director in Amarillo and senior student in West Texas State College, was speaker at the Baptist Church Sunday. He was dinner guest of the Bob Caldwell.

Mrs. Nellye Davis and Mrs. Grace Baker left Saturday for an extended visit with three sisters, one brother and many nephews and nieces in Corydon, Ind.

Theft continues in the community when in the early hours of Sunday morning someone entered the Floyd Brown barn and stole two saddles, chaps, lariet ropes, hackamores, bridles and spurs owned by Jimmy and Billy Don Brown and used in their business of cattle raising. The loss was located when in the early hours Jimmy came for the equipment in order to feed before the ground thawed. He went to the house to report what he had found and Sheriff Doy Thompson of Oldham County was summoned from Vega.

The thief or thieves were tracked to the spot where it is thought the equipment was carried and loaded into a vehicle. They left the gates open to the lot and the horses were also out but were not taken. No definite clues have been reported but officers are on the lookout.

A 4-H Result Demonstration for Adult Leaders was held recently in the home of Mrs. E. L. Pinnell. Miss Loreta Fowler, 4-H Agent of Hereford led the demonstration on work to be completed by the Caprock 4-H club in the next three months. Present were Mesdames Clint Homfeld, Jake Fortenberry, M. H. Zaring, Jr. and the hostess, Mrs. Pinnell. Mrs. Gene Moore and Susan visited overnight Thursday in Lella Lake with her parents, the N. D. Seagos.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Moore of Pampa spent Monday in Adrian with their son, the Rev. and Mrs. Gene Moore.

Mrs. H. D. Tomlinson spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Amarillo with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pinnell and Mitchell.

American Music Subject Of Meet

"A Parade of American Music" was the theme of the Music Study Club program presented in the home of Mrs. J. C. McCracken Monday afternoon.

Miss Frances Dameron, program leader, gave a brief resume of music on the American scene, telling of the origin and development of Indian music, Negro spirituals, mountain folk music and Western music. She also mentioned light opera and the operetta as developed by Victor Herbert and Gershwin.

Musical selections included "Juba Dance" (Dett), played by Mrs. Joe Hacker, and Mrs. T. W. Roberson played guitar accompaniment and Mrs. C. J. Mountz led the group in singing folk songs. Songs included "Carry Me Back To Old Virginia," "Red River Valley," "Down in the Valley," "Old Black Joe," "Old Paint," "When You and I Were Young Maggie," and "Home on the Range". Mrs. Howard Scott played "Polonaise" (McDowell).

Mrs. C. J. Mountz sang "I Heard a Forest Praying" (De Rose), with her daughter, Mrs. B. Y. Crosthwait, accompanying at the piano. "I'm Proud to be An American" (Gibb) was sung by Mesdames T. W. Roberson, W. T. Carmichael, C. J. Mountz, Dale Young and W. E. Thompson. Mrs. Paul Lyon served as accompanist.

In conclusion, "America The Beautiful", the hymn of the month, was sung in unison.

Members in attendance were Mesdames J. R. Allison, Bill Bradley, W. T. Carmichael, Steve Clements, R. P. Coneway, Ellis Coombes, B. Y. Crosthwait, Cliff Estes, Joe Hacker, Paul Lyons, George McLean, C. J. Mountz, T. W. Roberson, A. J. Schroeter, Lowell Sharp, A. O. Thompson, W. T. Thompson, Dale Young, Howard Scott, Jeff Gilbreath, S. O. Wilson, J. D. Neill, Miss Frances Dameron and the hostess, Mrs. Louise Gaines of New Jersey, the former Miss Louise Oberthier of Hereford, was special guest.

Discovery of what is true and practice of what is good are the most important objects of philosophy, wrote Voltaire, the French dramatist - reformer who died in 1778.

Mrs. Zona Cochran of Hereford spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wagoner Saturday night.

By MRS. T. L. COLLINS
Walcott School was closed on Thursday and Friday, Feb. 4 and 5. A large amount of rain, sleet and snow fell on Wednesday and the next morning. High winds blew the snow into deep drifts in places. Some cattle strayed. The electricity was off from 3:30 p. m. Wednesday until about 4 p. m. Friday.
Several in the community have had the flu, but most children were back in school Monday. All the grades have been busy working on valentines to be used on the trays of children who are hospitalized. Mrs. J. V. Perrin is the Walcott Junior Red Cross Mother this year. She had been asked to have the residents of the community share with those who are sick at this time.

The third and fourth grades are working on a "February Program" for Friday, Feb. 19, at 8 p. m. Two plays will be presented. One is "The Tooth, the Whole Tooth and Nothing but the Tooth." It is to be presented because this is National Dental Health Week. They will also do some singing and have other special features. Everyone is invited to attend and bring cookies for refreshments.
Monday's sunset was a most colorful one in the community.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Downing went to Canyon on Friday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Cosby and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Downing and friends for the week end.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Collins drove to Lubbock on Friday afternoon to fill an appointment there. That night they stayed with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Troyer in Littlefield. On Saturday they ate dinner with Mrs. J. F. Ward in Hereford before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Burns, Vicki, Marsha and Cris went to Amarillo on Saturday to visit friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burns and children.
Mr. and Mrs. Bick Hooser and Gregory from Lubbock visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tice and family on Saturday night and Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bass and Charles visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bass at Texola, Okla. on Saturday. On Sunday they visited her father, Ed Whipkey at Mayfield, Okla.
Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henderson and sons visited relatives and friends in Levelland on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Tyler and children and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hall of Hereford, drove to Floydada on Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Simpson and children. Sisters of Mrs. Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Womble and Dustin and Mrs. Loyd Reynolds of Amarillo visited in Floydada over the week end also. The Tylers spent the night there with Mr. and ed jointly by the Messenger Home Demonstration Club and the Walcott P.T.O. Everyone is invited to come and meet the county "office-seekers." Ladies should bring a pie.

Remember a Soil Conservation meeting will be held on Wednesday night Feb. 17 at 7:30 at Walcott School. Films will be shown and everyone is invited to attend.

OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

Can YOU really see at night?

Some people cannot. They avoid driving at night because they feel unsafe and unsure. Their vision actually changes after dark. Night vision can be improved in some cases where special lenses are required. If you are troubled with night blindness, consult a professional optometrist.

And if it can not be improved, he will advise you to:

- * Drive slower
- * Never take your eyes off the road
- * Watch the edge of the highway
- * Don't look at approaching headlights
