Brief Community Center Dedication Slated Sunday

Between 1,500 and 2,000 persons from Hereford and the surrounding area are expected to attend the formal opening of Hereford Community Center Sunday afternoon.

youth in recent weeks, but formal opening ceremonies were postponed for improvement of parking lot facilities.

Youth Pleads Guilty To DWI

A 16-year-old Latin-American youth of Hereford Thursday morning pleaded guilty to charge of driving while intoxicated, first offense, in Justice of the Peace court.

The youth was arrested Wednesday evening after having operated a 1957 model car which overturned in the Labor Camp, according to Deaf Smith County Deputy Sheriff Bill McCarver, arresting officer.

Mrs. J. E. Hill of Hereford will be special guest. She will be present with trustees of the Jim Hill Estate, which donated much of the cost of constructing the center.

The Hereford Campfire Council will present a Hobby Show on the afternoon of the opening. About 200 girls will present the exhibit.

Johnson Takes Polygraph Test

In order to present another side of a story appearing on Feb. 25, the Sunday Brand publishes the following statement from Thurmond Johnson.

Johnson, a farmer-rancher who lives near Friona, is currently under $1,000 bond set by the Justice of the Peace after he was arrested and charged with the felony offense of robbery by assault.

The charge resulted from a complaint filed on Feb. 23 by a Hereford man, the complaint alleging that Johnson had, by assault and violence, forced the complainant to write a $13,850.51 check drawn on the First National Bank of Hereford, on the morning of Feb. 23.

Johnson's statement follows: "Several days ago I voluntarily submitted to a truth serum test which showed that I was telling the truth in denying the charges against me. I made a public statement about this, but no action has been taken. I have now submitted to a polygraph or lie detector test given by a doctor in Dallas who is a professor of Legal Medicine at Baylor University Law School, and is supposed to be one of the best in this area. This test also shows that I am telling the truth when I deny the charges made against me.

"Among others, the following questions were asked me, and I gave the answers shown: 'Q. Is your name Thurmond Johnson?' A. Yes (Continued on page 2)

Will S Kerr Dies In Windmill Fall

Funeral Services for Will S Kerr, 58, a school teacher, farmer and former implement dealer in Hereford, will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday in the First Presbyterian Church of Hereford.

Will S Kerr

Mr. Kerr, of 1103 Park Ave., died at 12:30 p. m. Friday of injuries received when he fell from a windmill at his farm south of Hereford City limits.

The Rev. Russell Wingert, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will officiate at services. Burial will be in West Park Cemetery under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home of Hereford.

Mr. Kerr, a mathematics teacher at Hereford High School, had taught Friday morning before going to his farm about noon.

Another man, unidentified, was working above Mr. Kerr on the windmill when Mr. Kerr slipped and fell. He sustained a broken neck in the 15-foot fall.

Hereford Pro Shares Honors

Hereford golf pro Bud Posey and Dick Turner, pro of San Angelo, tied another twosome to share pro - pro top honors in finals of the three-day spring meeting for the West Texas Pro-Am Golf Association Wednesday at Lubbock Country Club.

Posey and Turner tied Butch Mitchell of Lubbock and Jim O'Brien of Artesia for first place, each team recording 66. Play in the partnership tournament began Monday.

Aiken Named To Law Foundation

John D. Aikin, Hereford attorney, has been appointed a resident representative of the Southwestern Legal Foundation, it was announced this week.

The Legal Foundation, which shares headquarters with the SMU School of Law in the Southwestern Legal Center, affords a program of continuing legal education for practicing lawyers.

Representing the 96th Judicial District Bar Association, Aikin will serve to advise lawyers in this area of Foundation programs and submit recommendations concerning training programs.

Sen. Andy Rogers Praises Worth Of DE At Banquet

State Senator from the 30th District of Texas, praised the growth of Distributive Education at the annual Hereford High School DE class's Employer - Employee Banquet in the high school cafeteria Friday night.

Before more than 100 students, employers and special guests attending, Sen. Rogers told phases of growth of distributive education in Texas since it was started in 1937.

"Distributive education helps eliminate waste, one of the worst national diseases today," Sen. Rogers said. "The program provides training for a profession before the student graduates, and the DE student can choose a field of work prior to his graduation."

Go-Kart Trophy Races Scheduled

A trophy race will mark the first event to be held on Hereford Go - Kart Club's newly-constructed track at Veterans Park Sunday afternoon.

Races are scheduled to begin about 2:30 p. m., according to Richard Clark, secretary-treasurer of the club. From 25 to 50 karts are expected to enter for the eight trophies slated for presentation.

The dirt track was completed last week end, Clark said, and kartists from area towns are invited to compete.

"We plan to hold at least one trophy race per month," said Clark. "There will be elimination and final races in each of the eight classifications."

Either Clark or Del Bainum will be starter.

Officers Find 4 Youths; Seek 6 Still Missing

Two juvenile girls, 14 and 16 years old, a 16-year-old boy and a 22-year-old man of Hereford were taken into custody of local authorities at Lubbock Friday evening while the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department sought the whereabouts of six other young persons reported missing from Hereford since Saturday night, March 12.

Leroy Morrison, 22, one of the four returned to Hereford, was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor here Saturday in connection with the case.

The four taken into custody in Lubbock had last been seen in Hereford at about 9 p. m. March 12. It is thought that they left together in the 16-year-old boy's car that night, according to Deaf Smith County Deputy Sheriff L. R. Cherryhomes.

Others reported missing, all of Hereford, include three girls, two of them 14 years old, and the other 16; and three young men, 16, 17 and 24 years old.

Cherryhomes said that he and deputies in the Lubbock County Sheriff's Department arrested the two male youths in Lubbock at about 5:30 p. m. Friday. They were sharing an apartment there, he said.

The two girls taken into custody shared another apartment several blocks away in Lubbock, Cherryhomes said. They were found in their apartment at about 7 p. m. Friday, he said.

One of the important phases of distributive education pointed out by the senator was that "DE keeps many of the best youth at home." He commented that the program serves the producer, consumer, retailer.

Galena Park Educator Unanimous Selection

Paul Lester Stevens of Galena Park, Tex., has been unanimously named superintendent of schools by the trustees of the Hereford Rural High School District.

He will assume his duties on July 1, replacing Fred J. Cunningham, who announced his resignation on Jan. 25, to become effective June 30. Cunningham resigned the Hereford school post to become associated with the American Desk Manufacturing Company, which he will represent in Colorado.

Stevens, a 38-year-old professional administrator, was selected after almost two months of interviews and study by the local board.

He presently is serving as executive assistant superintendent of Galena Park Public Schools. Galena Park is located near Houston.

Stevens attended schools in Wichita Falls and Paducah before graduating from North Side High School, Fort Worth, in 1938. He attended Texas A&M College until 1943, when he became probation officer for the delinquent boys' department of the Harris County Probation Department.

The following year, while continuing his probation work, Stevens became a classroom teacher and visiting teacher in the Galena Park schools. This combination continued until 1948, when he went into school work full-time, doing visiting and classroom teaching and assisting the superintendent.

In 1949, he received his Bachelor of Science degree in education from Texas A&M. That year he became assistant to the superintendent at Galena Park, with duties of pupil accounting, textbook custodian.

Seniors Work On Rehearsals Of Class Play

Rehearsals continued this week for "Don't Take My Penny", the Hereford High School senior class's three-act comedy offering, to be presented in the high school auditorium Thursday and Friday nights, March 24 - 25.

Written by Anne Coulter Martin, the production is under direction of Mrs. Bilye Buck, senior coordinator. Curtain time each night is 8 p. m.

Jeanette Rayburn will take the lead role of Penny, and her leading man is Joe Sherman, who will characterize Kerry, Penny's boyfriend.

Yarborough Backs Ike's Sugar Plan

Senator Ralph Yarborough of Texas made a statement on the floor of the U. S. Senate Thursday arguing that President Eisenhower be given stand-by power over foreign sugar quotas and that he allocate more than 27 per cent of our domestic market to American farmers.

The statement gives a boost to local hopes that increased sugar beet acreage can be obtained for this section of Texas. It also raised hopes for getting a sugar beet refinery located in Hereford.

Senator Yarborough's statement said:

"Yesterday (Wednesday) the President of the United States appealed for authority to adjust sugar quotas for foreign countries and to re-allocate quotas at home and abroad. The President warned that our foreign supply of sugar could be endangered, thus denying the American people an adequate supply of sugar.

"Under the 'quota system' the United States is permitted to produce only 27 per cent of the sugar used in the United States. Under this system, my home state of Texas is allocated about 1,800 acres for sugar beet production, only three square miles, while the American people and the people of Texas are forced to buy three out of every four pounds of sugar they use from foreign sources.

"We ought to produce more sugar at home, as a matter of national safety, and for our own defense. Sugar beets form the best paying crop, not only in the high plains of Texas, but in many high plains regions of the central western part of the United States. Those farmers have sought sugar beet acreage.

"I have been told that they can't get it because of a cartel, the sugar cartel. It's time we thought more of America and of her security and prosperity than of a high-powered lobbying cartel.

"I refuse to go hat in hand and beg a Washington sugar cartel lobby to give Texas a few more measly acres of sugar beets.

"I have not always seen eye to eye with the President of the United States on foreign policy, but I am 100 per cent behind him on this requested power over sugar quotas. For our national security, I hope that the President is given this stand-by power over foreign sugar quotas, and that he allocates more than 27 per cent of our domestic market to our own American farmers.

"Once we go beyond our own borders, I think we might well consider the situation of our neighbors with a common land boundary with the United States, because no hostile submarines could cut off their trade with us."

James W. Witherspoon, Hereford attorney who is working on a committee to get more acreage and a sugar refinery here, was interviewed by the

Panel Of 100 For Petit Jury

A 100-member panel of petit jurors has been called to convene in 69th District Courtroom Tuesday at 1:30 p. m.

The district court session is scheduled to take up a civil case and several criminal cases after jurors are selected from the venire.

District Judge Harry Schultz of Dalhart and District Attorney Frank McKown of Dumas will arrive in Hereford Tuesday morning. Deaf Smith County Sheriff Charles Skelton said that several criminal cases would probably be put before the jurors during the session.

Jurors for the February term include: Anthony Paschel, Mrs. R. A. Frye, Roy Manning, Mrs. William Wimberley, J. R. Overstreet, N. R. Miller, J. F. Martin, C. C. Stewart, A. H. Husemann, Mrs. A. T. Frye, Leroy J. Williamson, Mrs. M. T. Rutter.

Around Town

After many, many long night sessions, the Hereford school board has announced the new superintendent. Although Paul L. Stevens happened to be the man that was wanted by each member of the board, none of the trustees was able to talk very long without commenting about the outstanding quality of the many applicants who applied. There seems to be a feeling that the Hereford school system is one of the choice positions.

This is officially the first day of spring. But spring can be a confusing season in this part of the country. It snows one day, blows the next, turns cold and hot almost as quickly as you can write it. Then, when you're about to pack up and leave for good, it finally gets nice... and stays that way. Hereford Man Gets Science Fellowship

Richard L. Tucker fellowship winner

Richard L. Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Tucker, 206 Roosevelt, this week received a National Science Foundation cooperative graduate fellowship to accelerate his study and research at the University of Texas in 1960-61.

The fellowship ranges from $1,650 for nine months to $2,200 for 12 months, and also provides for payment of tuition and regular fees.

Tucker, 24, a 1953 graduate of Hereford High School, and his wife and small son live in Austin. He is presently working on his master's degree in civil engineering, and his wife teaches at the University.

The cooperative fellowship is a new-type predoctoral award established by the National Science Foundation in 1959. Tucker was selected as a fellow.

and director of visual education.

Stevens received his M. Ed. degree with a major in administrative education from the University of Houston in 1933.

From 1934 until 1958, Stevens was assistant superintendent. In addition to his other duties, he purchased all teaching supplies, prepared the annual transportation report and assisted with the annual superintendent's report, the annual budget, building program planning and curriculum.

In 1958, Stevens was named executive assistant superintendent, with additional duties as director of transportation.

Stevens' wife, Dale, is a native of Lubbock. They have two sons: Mickey, 15, is a sophomore in high school; and David, 13, is in the eighth grade.

"I feel it is quite an honor to be named superintendent at Hereford," Stevens commented in a telephone interview with the Brand Friday, immediately after he was selected at a breakfast meeting of the board. "Hereford has an outstanding school system with exceptional possibilities for growth," he said.

Stevens said he and his family would visit in Hereford during the Easter holidays, to become acquainted and to investigate the housing situation. Stevens said he wanted to buy or build a house in Hereford.

At Friday's meeting, trustees voted to set Stevens' salary at $12,000, with an additional $500 allowance for moving expenses.

The Galena Park school system currently has about 9580 students enrolled, with an annual budget of $4,123,081, about four times the current budget for the Hereford school system.

Professionally, Stevens is a member of the National Education Association, Texas State Teachers Association, Harris County Administrators Association, secretary of the Gulf Coast School Officials Association, consultant on a state committee for writing a handbook on pupil accounting and a member of a special committee on textbook problems for the TEA.

He is a member of Kiwanis Club, committeeman for Cub Scouts and treasurer of the Pony League baseball. He and his family are members of the Parkside Christian Church in Galena Park, where he is a member of the board of deacons, the board of trustees and the building committee.

"Paul Stevens was the unanimous choice of the board," Hereford school board president W. R. Hair said. "We were fortunate in having an extremely large number of excellent applicants from which to choose."

The welcome address was presented by Ronnie Byers, president of the Distributive Education Club here. Leldon Womble introduced special guests, and Lynn Thompson played dinner music at the piano.

Invocation was by Barbara Jacobs, and John N. Messenger gave the benediction.

At the close of the affair, the DE students presented a gift of appreciation to Kenneth Hart, DE coordinator at Hereford High.

Club officers introduced Glenna Bellar, vice-president, Sandy Blythe, secretary-treasurer, Betty Walser, reporter, Zell Crump, sweetheart, and Audrie Self, parliamentarian.

Student employees introduced their respective employers during the banquet.

Speaking of food, the school board Friday voted to buy a complete record changer - amplifier system for the new junior - senior high cafeteria. They think it will improve both the attendance and the atmosphere. The Student Council will have charge of picking out and playing the records, a system which is used with success in many other area schools.

Gosh, we can't seem to get off the food subject! The FHA chapter at high school is planning a huge chili supper at Aikman cafeteria on Saturday, March 26, from 5 - 8 p. m. Proceeds will be used in their continuing project on foreign exchange students.

An organizational meeting and election of officers for the Hereford Little League will be held on Friday, March 25, at 7:30 p. m. in the Hereford State Bank. All persons interested are urged to attend.

A meeting of all Hereford and Deaf Smith County real estate salesmen and brokers has been called for Tuesday, March 22, at 3 p. m. in the Jim Hill Hotel Ballroom. Ervin Luedtke, Austin, executive secretary of the Texas Real Estate Association, will speak.

On Feb. 1, 1938, the Kerr Implement Company was moved to a location south of the City Hall.

In addition to his business, Mr. Kerr was a worker for interests of Hereford and was elected a member of the Hereford Independent School Board in 1935.

His father served four terms as county judge here. While campaigning for the office, Judge Kerr became a friend of the late cowboy-humorist Will Rogers. His father established the first general merchandise store this side of Amarillo in 1898.

Survivors include his wife; four sons, Clifford, Joe, and Norman, all of Hereford, and Pat of Alamogordo, N. M.; two sisters, Mrs. Clay Ridgeway of Hereford and Mrs. Bob Birchfield of Amarillo; two brothers, Reavis of Hereford and Bryan McDonald of Canyon; and two grandsons.

At the time Mr. Kerr was born, his parents resided at Dimmitt, where Judge Kerr operated an old general merchandise store in the early days.

Mr. Kerr gained experience in the drug and real estate business and several other enterprises.

On Feb. 1, 1938, Mr. Kerr went into partnership with George Garrison in operation of the John Deere agency for this territory, and in 1932, Mr. Kerr bought Mr. Garrison's interest.

This is truly a wonderful part of the country.

The Hereford High School PTA meeting scheduled for Wednesday has been cancelled. The next meeting will be held in April, when the joint installation service is slated.

More than 1200 persons ate at the Lions Pancake Supper last Thursday. As usual, the food was good. Outgoing Boss Lion Labry Ballard had his whole crew out working on the affair. Our younger son managed to spill half a cup of coffee (no, he doesn't drink it yet) in his mother's plate. But she said the pancakes still tasted good, although a bit soggy. I think she was just glad to get out of cooking a meal... and I don't blame her.

At 2:30 p. m. Sunday the beautiful new Hereford Community Center will be officially dedicated. If you haven't seen it, this will be a fine opportunity. To use a phrase that can be over-worked, the Center is an asset to Hereford. Already, it is getting full use.

At 3 p. m. Sunday the Hereford Area Foundation will meet with the Rev. Don Davidson to hear a plan which might result in the Methodist home in Hereford. It would be a community project to some extent and might solve a problem that the Foundation has been worried about; operation of the home once it is built. The meeting will be held in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

In a continued meeting from Monday, the County Commission Thursday granted approval for an irrigation water line to be installed underneath a county road northwest of the city. The Commission also approved the temporary transfer of $5,000 from the right-of-way fund to the officers salary fund. The remainder of the day was spent looking at furniture for the renovated courthouse. No decision was made by the group on what type of furniture to buy.

Brand on Senator Yarbrough's statement.

"Everyone should write Senator Yarbrough," Witherspoon urged, "and ask him not to stop with turning over the quotas to the President. The Congress should write the law itself, as it should be, to protect the American growers."

"At the same time, Congress should make a new appraisal of the whole agricultural situation to give relief to areas developed in the last 15 years, such as the Panhandle of Texas, which has lost its cotton and wheat acreage."

"It would be an injustice and wrong to protect old beet areas at the detriment of newer irrigated beet growing sections," Witherspoon commented.

"We need to keep the ball rolling until our purpose is accomplished. We can't get discouraged," he concluded.

Witherspoon, with Henry Sears, Lee Benefield and Hank Williams, recently went to Denver and to Washington, D. C., in an effort to get larger acreage allotments and control of the acreage shifted from the government to the sugar companies.

BY JIMMIE GILLENTE
A few days of pretty weather, and things are looking up. This country is located in what economists call the "high energy zone" — and it is more important than most of us begin to realize.

During the long, wet spell people lost interest, became discouraged, and business in general fell off sharply. The same is true in warmer climates, as well as the damp wet areas; likewise, it can get so cold that people can't stir about much. Out here, the climate is usually just right for maximum productivity. Not too much sunshine, but just enough. The only excuse people have for not working is being plain lazy, and no one likes to admit that. Sometimes, it takes an exceptional spell of weather to make us appreciate our usual good climate.

It looked as if everybody and their dog turned out for the pancake supper Thursday evening. Labry Ballard says they fed almost 1,300 people to set a new record. I noticed that Mrs. Seth B. Holman, former Brand publisher, was down from Amarillo. Ann said that she is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mike Baird, a few days, and really did appreciate getting to visit with so many people. Like all old timers who came back, however, she was amazed at the huge numbers she did not know; mostly newcomers who have moved here in the past five to eight years.

Warning! Keep your dogs up. Several people have lost dogs this week, due to poisoning. Probably strychnine from reports I hear. Anyway, it's that time of year again — and at least one poisoner seems to be at work.

I am real proud of Clint Formby. He hasn't been in one of his jams in a long time. Either he has turned over a new leaf, or things have been quieter than I thought.

Don Zimmerman is the only Hereford resident I know who made the big St. Patrick's Day celebration at Shamrock. Notice where they were to host 35,000 people — and it seems that we should have been represented in greater numbers. B. F. Cain and Dub Reeves are the only two former Shamrock residents I can recall — and I figure they are both afraid to go back.

This area lost a good citizen and a fine man in the passing of Bill Kerr. Bill was a hometown leader in the community and for many years was active on the school board, along with other civic duties. I remember back a few years when we hunted up the very first Santa Claus letters ever written to The Brand. As I recall, it happened in 1908, and Bill

Hereford 4-H Club Meets Wednesday

The Hereford 4-H club met Wednesday at the Stanton Junior High library. The meeting was called to order by the president, Jim Higgins. Gary Royal, club secretary, called the roll.

Mrs. Carrol Higgins, leader, announced that the county Elimination contest would be held April 9. She told the club members about the various kinds of demonstrations the members could give.

John Pattick talked to the group about soil conservation.

Seven new members were welcomed into the club. They are as follows: Ross Baird, Frank Dutton, Gary Gorden, Bill Cale, Tim Northcutt, Ronald Ott. Other members present were Dan Thomas, Larry Hill, Paul Drager, Jim Shearhart and Com McGowan.

wrote one of those first letters.

Roy Peet was telling me the other day that he is still getting things ready to build his shop on McKinley. He says the grounds will be particularly rough because everyone expects him to have a "green thumb" when it comes to shrubs and flowers. I hadn't thought about it, but he pretty well expressed my feelings on the subject.

If you haven't seen the inside of the new Community Center, don't miss the opening today. Honest, it is really nice and you will probably be surprised. No other town in this part of the U. S. has such a center. If you have guests over the week end, the tour is something they will really enjoy.

Meanwhile, several crews have been busy planting potatoes this week. Acreage, the way I get it, will be sharply under last year; many of the old growers will be back, although some will be on a smaller scale.

Hereford has a new superintendent, and I hear that he was a first choice with every member of the board. This is no small achievement — and is about the best recommendation a fellow could have. I understand that he plans to visit the community over the Easter holidays.

D. C. Kinsey is back. He says "for good", which someone in the crowd immediately started debating. Kins says they liked Portales fine, but Hereford always seemed like home so when he got a chance to sell his Ford business, they made tracks in this direction as fast as they could. Anyway, it seems

Sadie Lee Oliver Club Holds Meet

The Sadie Lee Oliver Club met Monday in the Westway Community House. Sandra Green was presiding officer. Miss Loreta Fowler gave a demonstration on sponge cake.

Members present were Nancy and Sandra Green, Joyce Cooper, Anna and Donna Johnson, Carla Stengel, Kathryn Flood, Camille Pavlicek, Barbara Zinser and Janis Turrentine.

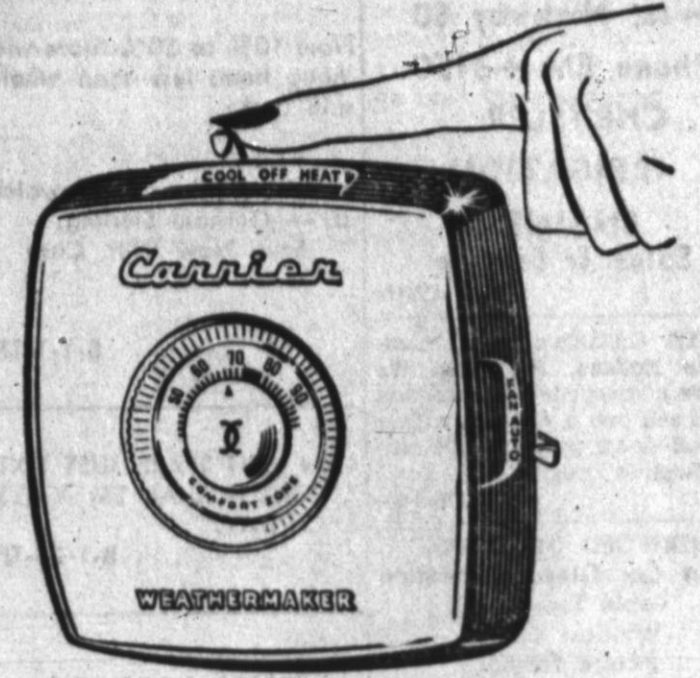

Visitors present were Mrs. H. R. Green and Janie, Mrs. Frank Zinser and children, Mrs. Emmett Johnson, Mrs. Alice Cooper.

like old times to get those "Kinsey reports" first hand.

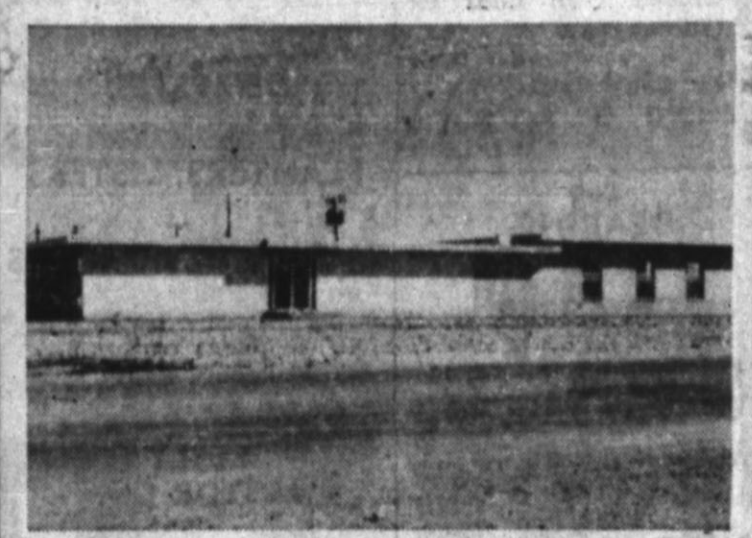

My wife got the yard plowed up the other day — and this is a signal to "go fishing. I have my tackle box all packed ed, and if I have not already gone before this comes out it will be just because I couldn't find anyone to go with me except Marlin Gilliland — and I might even go with him as a last resort.

Shower Honors Recent Bride

Mrs. John Henry Gruhkey was named honoree at the post-nuptial shower given Saturday afternoon March 23 in the home of Mrs. R. L. Pinnell near Adrian.

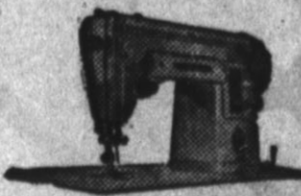

The refreshment table carried out the bride's color theme of pink and white with appointments in milk glass and silver. The center focal point was of pink roses arranged with a miniature bridal couple. Tall white tapers gave candle-lighting. Mrs. E. L. Pinnell of Amarillo and Mrs. R. C. Chism of Kerrick, presided.

The shower was introduced as the bride was directed on a treasure hunt.

Those signing the guest register were: Mrs. P. H. Gruhkey, the bridegroom's mother, and his sister, Mrs. Bob Banks of Amarillo, Mesdames Henry Scott of Vega and granddaughter Cindy of Skellytown, R. M. Gruhkey, Bob Gruhkey and Martha, Butch Betts, Jim Cavin, Kenneth Milner, E. B. Founds, F. A. Kromer, A. P. Jones, Bill Brown, Jack Fincher, N. C. Leslie, L. E. Garrison, Leland Burns, C. F. Hornfeld, Lloyd Hornfeld, V. E. Lemke, N. L. Jacobson, Wilbur Harris, Bud Heaton, Lloyd Heaton Jr., H. D. Tomlinson, D. W. Morgan, Cal Jackson, Gene Moore, all of Adrian.

Others attending were Mesdames Hardy Harris and granddaughter, Elizabeth, E. L. Pinnell and Mitchell of Amarillo, Billie Gruhkey of Canyon, Mrs. Joe Cullender and children of Kerrick, and Kaye Gault of Vega. Miss Billie Gruhkey presided at the guest book. Assisting hostesses were Mesdames D. W. Morgan, Cal Jackson, H. D. Tomlinson, Leland Burns and L. E. Garrison.

Style Show Is Presented For L'Allegra Club Guest Affair

L'Allegra Study Club featured a guest affair Thursday evening at a meeting held in the Popular Store with Mrs. Irving Alexander presenting a style show for entertainment. Mrs. Bill Dameron served as hostess. The women's department of the store was turned into party rooms where St. Patrick's Day decorations emphasized the March 17 date.

Mrs. J. W. Robinson Jr. welcomed the guests and introduced Mrs. Alexander who presented Mrs. Ronald Babione who gave a clever and descriptive reading, "What is a Dress?" Mrs. J. D. Pitman opened the style show as she outlined an imaginary plane trip with five stop-over scenes at strategic points to present appropriate new spring styles for each occasion.

Bay View Completes Program On Africa

Bay View Study Club met in the Community Center Club rooms Thursday afternoon for the concluding program in a series of programs on "Africa". Mrs. A. M. Jones used a map of Africa to point up the wide differences in the various parts of the country. "Colonial and partitioning of Africa has prevented economical and political development. Leaders, both black and white, together with the United Nations, now recognize that Africa must be dealt with as a whole and not in isolated parts. There is a movement now underway for federation of those parts of Africa where people have the most in common. This plan included the federation of West Africa, Congo Africa, East Africa, Southern Africa and the Continental Africa". She said. Mrs. Carl Perrin told about "United States relations with Africa have always been commercial, cultural and religious rather than colonial. All the countries of Africa are now independent or becoming so, and in their attempt to establish a democratic form of government, they must have help if they are to maintain a stable economy. They need help now in putting down rebellion and with their racial problems. One of the greatest needs of Africa now is trained educators among their people, along economical and political lines. If the United States does not help — the Soviet Bloc will. If the United States does not give practical aid in establishing their government Africa will be lost to the Soviet Bloc".

Members of the club attending were Mesdames D. H. Alexander, Phillip Barkley, H. L. Benefield, Colby Conkright, C. W. Fisher, Jimmie Gillentine, E. W. Harrison, A. M. Jones, Will S. Kerr, J. W. Kirby, Paul Mathers, R. B. Miller, Eugene Naugle and Carl Perrin.

Mrs. Alexander served as narrator. Scenes included: A St. Patrick's Day Party, A Bon Voyage Party, A Street scene in New York or Hereford, A Week end in the country and a day at the Beach. Models wearing all the newest and loveliest in Spring clothes included Mesdames J. D. Pitman, Bill Dameron, J. W. Robinson Jr., Joe Lyons, Tommy Carnahan, Ronald Babione, Stanley Slagle, O. G. Hill Jr., Jimmie Easley and Donna Blythe, Shirley Thompson, Suzanne Langley, Linda Edwards, Monica Slagle, Kerri, Gregg and Kim Dameron and Judy Bradley. Miss Carolyn Brocks, dressed as a gay little leprechaun, added to the St. Patrick's Day atmosphere and presided at the refreshment table which was laid with a white organdy cloth over green. Shamrocks were sprinkled over the cloth and an arrangement of white gladioli in silver bowl formed the centerpiece. Coffee was served from a silver service. Approximately fifty guests attended.

A: Yes
Q: Have you told me the truth today?
A: Yes
Q: Are you over 21 years of age?
A: Yes
Q: Are you guilty of the charges against you?
A: No
Q: Are you sitting in a chair?
A: Yes
Q: Did you in any manner force the complainant to write the check?
A: No
Q: Are you wearing a shirt?
A: Yes
Q: Is the complainant telling the truth about giving you the check?
A: No
Q: Have you lied during this test?
A: No

"The doctor's report says that his test shows that I was telling the truth in my answers to these questions. His report says: 'The total graph recordings, both norm test results and the two (2) graphs resulting from actual test administration have been carefully studied, analyzed and compared in the light of a clinical observation of the subject during the test. As a result of this study no evidence of conscious deception on the part of the subject has been developed. Thus, on the basis of the reflections indicated in the permanent polygraph recordings and their evaluations by this examiner and due consideration of the clinical and psychological observations, it is the opinion of this examiner that this subject did not give deceptive answers in response to any of the above quoted test questions and that there exists no demonstrable evidence of deception in the test results.'"

"I would like to challenge the complainant to either go with me to any laboratory or other place, public or private, and submit himself to the same type of test, and I will take these tests right along with him, so long as it is a reputable and independent establishment, or if it is a public establishment such as the State Police. If he will not do this, then I think he ought to withdraw the charges he has made against me, because it is hurting me and my reputation to have these charges outstanding, and I will go to any length to prove that I am innocent."

Plainview will return the game at Hereford on Friday, March 25.

Several Texans Good Senate Floor Speakers

By TEX EASLEY
WASHINGTON — The Southern anti-civil rights filibuster brings to mind when Texas' Tom Connally participated in such talkathons. Old timers around the Capitol recall that the now-retired Texas senator probably reached the zenith of his speaking career in denouncing anti-lynch bills and other such legislation which came up in the 1930's. None of the present crop of senators, it is generally conceded, are of the old school of rough and tumble, colorful debaters to which Connally belonged.

Probably the nearest — but on the opposite side of the fence on civil rights issues and therefore not aiding the southern bloc — is Minnesota's Hubert Humphrey, a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. When the word spread that Connally was speaking or about to speak in opposition to one of those measures which now bear the general classification of "civil rights" legislation, the Senate chamber would fill quickly. With a skillful change in pace, Connally at times would address a foe in mellifluous and flattering terms, then in an abrupt switch burst forth with a stinging denunciation of his opponent's views if not at the foe himself. Perhaps only one other Texan equalled if not surpassed Connally's reputation as a Congressional — Joseph Weldon Bailey.

Born Oct. 6, 1862 near Crystal Springs, Miss., Bailey moved to Gainesville, Texas, in 1885. He was succeeded in the House by Speaker Sam Rayburn.

Bailey served in the House from 1891 to 1901, then went to the Senate for 10 years. He returned to the House in 1911 and served there until resigning, to be succeeded by Rayburn in 1913. He died in a courtroom in Sherman in 1929 while defending a client.

No one now is left in the House who served with Bailey, but the old timers still recall his oratorical feats.

Rep. W. R. (Bob) Poage of Waco recalls hearing Bailey making a speech in Waco in 1919, during an unsuccessful campaign against Pat Neff for the governorship.

"I was a student at Baylor University at the time," Poage said. "I can hear him now as he spoke in great, rolling tones. In his words he was pleading for the 'great principles which I believe to be fundamental.' And he pronounced it 'fun-dye-mental.'"

In later years two other Texans who served only in the House (Connally, like Bailey, served in both bodies) gained reputations for eloquence far and beyond that of the average. They were Fritz Lanham of Fort Worth and Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin, both now retired.

According to historical accounts, Sam Houston was a man of considerable note when it came to speaking on the Senate floor.

NEW STATUS SYMBOLS
GLEN RIDGE, N. J. — Henry M. Rose II, a plant engineer, has found a good playing in status symbols. His hobby is designing unofficial coats of arms for anyone who wants to order them.

The Sunday Brand, Hereford, Texas, Sunday, March 20, 1960
 Rose's heraldry shows major aspects in a person's life, either serious or humorous. His hobby started as a joke a few years ago. Then orders began pouring in from everywhere. He squeezes 30 or 40 items relating to a person's life into each coat of arms. The finishing touch is a "garbled Latin" motto beneath the crest — such as a phony Latin translation of "Ask Dad a Question and You Get a 45-Minute Lecture." Have you read the classifieds?

Begorra! T'Was Credit To The Irish

Gay and appropriate decorations marked the St. Patrick's Day party given by members of Les Meres Study Club Tuesday evening in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

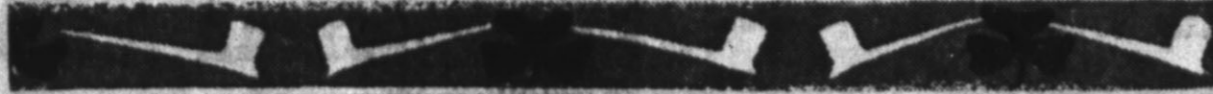

The happy little Leprechauns, who always come out of hiding on that day to do a good deed for someone, were there to help decorate the party table as well as green hats, shamrocks, pipes, the Irish flag and even potatoes.

Centering the table was a green derby surrounded by tiny white hats, pipes and flags. Gleaming little shamrocks were scattered over the cloth. Individual tables were centered with green top hats holding a single white candle and a large shamrock against the wall backed the large table. Daffodils and apple blossoms on a shamrock base added a touch of spring.

Games of bridge and "42" provided entertainment following the barbecue supper.

Those in attendance were Messrs. and Mesdames Noel Clemmons, Doc Carter, Dick Gholson, Nelson Reiger, Irvin Robinson, Wade Thompson, Delmo Williams, Donald Waters, Armon Lauderback, and Mesdames Cliff Kerr, Kenneth Maxwell and Clarence Veazey.

Texas' Prospects In 1960 Olympics Team

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

What are Texas' prospects for the Olympics team this year? In 1956 there were two — Bobby Morrow, the great sprinter of Athlete Christian, and Eddie Southern, versatile star of the University of Texas.

There were other Texans on the team but they were from colleges in other areas so Morrow and Southern were the only authentic olympians from Texas.

Morrow won both sprints and ran on the victorious 400-meter relay team. He was making one of the greatest individual showings in the history of the world-wide games.

Southern ran second in the 400-meter hurdles to Glenn Davis. It was considered a fine performance since Southern was only a college freshman. But it left something for him to shoot at.

Morrow and Southern are trying for a return to the Olympics. Southern is a good bet to make it but there's considerable doubt about Morrow. Even his coach, Oliver Jackson, admits the sprinter is facing a "tough fight."

Bobby lost something more than a race last year when he got a leg injury in the Meet of Champions at Houston. He never could attain the condition he knew when he was the big man of the Olympics. He failed to even qualify in the National AAU; thus he didn't get to compete for America in the dual meet with Russia or in the Pan American games.

Morrow has been working for the Olympics ever since then and apparently is back in sound physical condition. But he may be battling two things: psychology (the great failure he experienced may have jarred his confidence) and incentive.

Bobby is out of college now and making a place for himself in banking. Will he pay the price that a return to the Olympics entails? He already has experienced the greatest glory a track man might attain and he also has suffered deep humiliation that might have left him a little bitter.

The guess is that Morrow won't make the Olympics once more although that certainly is not the personal desire of the writer. Morrow has epitomized the finest in athletics. He has been a great credit to sport, to Texas and to himself.

Southern should make the Olympics without undue trouble. He again probably will have Davis to compete with, in either the 400-meter dash or the 400-meter hurdles, whichever he chooses. But Southern beat Davis the last time he ran against the Ohio State bullet. Davis was ill at the time but nevertheless Southern beat his jinx. He went on to the championship of the NCAA in the 400-yard dash.

Southern has the confidence and desire to become king of the 400-meter men in the Olympics. There are few other Texas athletes who appear capable of making it although the Border Olympics — the first big meet of the year showed Texas would have a fair share of top tracksters. Probably the best showing was that of David Clark of North Texas State, first Texan to go over 14 feet in the pole vault in some time.

Al Lawrence of Houston is a bright Olympic prospect. Trouble is that he is an Australian and must compete for that country if he goes to the Olympics. Lawrence is going to find out just how fast he can run the 2-mile when he tries out for the Australian Olympics team soon.

Bill Wedemeyer

Wheat Program Outlined By FB Research Chief

A four-point program for the wheat program of the United States was outlined Thursday morning at a breakfast meeting.

About 50 farmers and businessmen heard Bill Wedemeyer, research director of the Texas Farm Bureau, Waco, explain the program which is sought by the American Farm Bureau.

The program was the second in a series of meetings sponsored by the county FB on agriculture problems.

First part of the proposed program would discontinue acreage allotments and marketing quotas for the 1961 wheat crop. Secondly, the price support for the 1961 wheat crop should be set on a parity of not less than 120 per cent of the price support for corn. With corn support of $1.12 per bushel, this would be a price of not less than $1.34 per bushel for wheat.

Thirdly, the Commodity Credit Corporation should be restricted to selling its stored grain for not less than 150 per cent of the above floor, or roughly $2 per bushel, plus marketing costs.

Finally, the "Soil Bank" program, which now includes about 28 million acres, would be increased to 43 million acres by 1963, plus an additional 17 million acres from the wheat bill, for a total acreage reserve of about 60 million acres.

"This is a package deal" Wedemeyer said. "We can't support one part of the program by itself. All four points must be included if the program is to be successful."

Wedemeyer also said he felt that with this program, much of the surplus controlled by the C. C. C. could be depleted through Public Law 480 for famine relief and other uses.

At the start of his talk, Wedemeyer said the nation's economy had gotten out of balance. At the turn of the century, he said, 90 per cent of the country's population was on the farm, with this group getting 90 per cent of the income. Now, he says, farmers constitute 12 per cent of the population, getting 8 per cent of the income.

Argen Draper, Mrs. H. E. Miller was present as a visitor. The next meeting will be April 3 with the Bippus club entertaining.

L. A. E. Club Has Religious Program

Mrs. Joe Johnson served as hostess for the L. A. E. Study Club's regular session held in the First National Bank Community Room Tuesday afternoon. Roll call dealt with social problems.

Mrs. Jim Loving presented the program on "Religion" reviewing the book "Preacher's Kids" by Grace Nies Fletcher. "This is a true story of a Methodist preacher's child who was inspired to write at the early age of eight after telling a big lie about a lion in school. When they investigated the story by checking with her father, he told her the next time she thought up a big story like that to write it down on paper. Since that time Miss Fletcher has authored many books", Mrs. Loving said.

Members of the club attending the meeting were Mesdames C. E. Beauford, Lois Dugan, Gordon Elliott, Emmett Hale, Altus Higgins, A. N. Hopson, Virgil Marsh, B. A. Reddell, T. W. Roberson, Leroy Suttle, Edgar Sowell, Jim Loving and the hostess.

WHAT SHOULD A FARMER PAY FOR DELINTING COTTONSEED?

$20 — $35 — $50 PER TON?

Five years ago when our delinting plant was built, we had only the saw delinting process. This was the safest method known and the most reasonable in price; only $20 per ton for cleaning, delinting, treating and sacking. Now five years later, the price remains the same for this process and we haven't changed a word. We were skeptical of any other method of delinting seed due to the number of complaints farmers had about ruined seed delinted by any other process.

The complaints still exist. Two years ago, we investigated a new process of acid delinting seed known as the "wet acid" process. At that time there was one other wet acid plant on the Plains, but several plants of this type in the El Paso Valley. The machine used in the "wet acid" process was patented and we obtained a franchise for one of these machines.

The advantage to the farmer in having acid delinted using the "wet acid" process is safe. Why, over similar processes? Because the seed stay in contact with the acid only a minute or so and then are washed with enough water whereby there is no trace of acid left. The sacks will not show up with holes.

The disadvantage is that the price is ordinarily about $15 per ton higher than the "dry acid" or "gas" method. Ours, the "wet acid" process, is a continuous process. The seed are not run in batches and we use several times as much acid in the delinting process.

We have a gravity table which floats out most of the light seed that do not germinate, anyhow.

In our two years of operation, we haven't had one complaint about ruining seed or that the sacks are eaten up by excess acid.

More of the certified seed growers are changing to the "wet acid" process each year. There are several "wet acid" plants on the Plains now. Their price is like ours, none have had complaints and not one has ever had to replace a farmer's seed. The $15 per ton difference amounts to about 20 cents per acre more.

We are in a position to either "saw" delint or "wet acid" delint your seed any time. For an appointment call Hub 2705 or bring them here.

Lions Club Sponsors Weekend Of Activities

By MRS. R. L. PINNELL
The Lions Club had a lively week end for the community with their regular meeting Thursday night and basketball game on Friday evening.

Coach Gee's tumbling class composed of Paul Jackson, Jerry Homfeld, Sam Brown, Perry Grubkey, Jimmy Almsworth, Calvin Peters, Bill Gudgelf, Jerry Fortenberry, Jerry Whitten, Cecil Blassen-game, Kippy Morgan, Wayne Milner, Terry Creitz, Sandy Ferguson and Talbert Anderson, put on an exhibition for the Lions and their guests which numbered 40 persons.

Ladies responsible for the meal in the new school cafeteria were Mesdames John Lewis, E. K. Pinnell, M. H. Zaring, N. L. Jacobson, Hallie Gee and Midge Stroup.

Boss Lion John Horton reports that proceeds from the game and pie sale were profitable. The beef was won by Earl Brown whose ticket turned out to be the lucky number drawn. The "Lighthouse for the Blind" broom sale will take place on the streets of Adrian all day Saturday.

The Neomi Hare MYF sub-district met in Adrian on Sunday afternoon at the Methodist Church. It included young people from Canyon, Hereford, Vega, Friona and Adrian. Sub-district officers brought a meditation followed by a program under direction of Chaplain Dwayne Roar of Boy's Ranch.

He introduced his group and explained it had started in his home on Sunday nights when the boys gathered to sing and talk. It has been named "Sing-spiration." The boys also gave short sermons and personal testimony. Refreshments were served by the group to 35 or 40 young people.

Circle Two of the WSCS met Wednesday night at the Methodist Church for a program on Fellowship - One with the Other, led by Mrs. Robert Jacobson. Those attending were Mesdames Hazel Chilton, Jim Cavin, A. P. Jones, Fred Harwood, Gene Moore, Hallie Gee, Edd Olomson and R. L. Jacobson.

Mrs. Gene Moore attended the annual conference of the Women's Society of Christian Service held in Brownfield on Tuesday.

Erma Lou Jordan and Moran Pounds of Amarillo visited his parents, the E. B. Pounds and other friends on Sunday.

Mrs. Jack Weaver was hostess to a party Wednesday afternoon at the Simms Community House. Demonstrator was Mrs. Alice Nivens of Hereford. Attending were Mesdames Charley Burk, Glenn Hetzler, M. W. Blankenship, J. V. Perrin, John Hill, Claude Bogle, Jim Stocks, Jim Cavin, R. L. Pinnell and Joe Don Weaver.

Methodist Men met for breakfast Monday morning for almost the first time since last fall, due to the bad weather. Oldham County agent G. C. Franks of Vega was guest speaker after the meal prepared by N. L. and R. L. Jacobson. He spoke on "Stewardship of the Soil."

Attending were A. P. Jones, the Rev. Gene Moore, the Rev. Bruce Parks of Vega, John Skagus, Kippy Morgan, Terry Creitz, R. D. Sisk, D. W. Morgan, Leland Burns, V. E. Lemke, Lorin Creitz, Edd Olomson, the speaker, Franks, and R. L. and N. L. Jacobson.

Sunday guests of the DeWitt Parkers were her brother, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Tate and daughter, Roark Daisy Ray and granddaughter Terry Lynn of Amarillo. In the afternoon the Parkers, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Parker, and family Cathy and Aaron Wood of Happy visited with the group.

On Wednesday Mrs. Red Garrison, John and Lee of Amarillo visited her parents, the John Proctors.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Jacobson returned Thursday night from a meeting of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank in Austin. The returned by way of El Paso, Alamogordo, N. M. and Roswell for a sight - seeing trip.

Mrs. Gayle Fagan and daughter Gaylene of Abilene arrived last Monday by bus in Amarillo where her parents, the O. A. Bronnims, met her to return her for several days visit. Husband Gayle is at Ft. Bliss for a two - weeks training school. Erma Fay Bronniman of West Texas and Oscar Jr. of Cleardon Junior College joined the family for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weems and daughter Mrs. Melinda Dugan of Hereford visited the Bud Heaton on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Parker and Mrs. Earl Croff visited Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Burgess at Hereford Saturday.

Mrs. Emma Bales returned home Friday morning after an extended visit in Groesbeck with her mother, Mrs. Esther Webb, who has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Glass and family moved into Adrian from the Fred Perry farm on Saturday. They moved into the house formerly occupied by the Fred Taylor family.

Sunday guests of the Cal Jacksons were his son, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ray Jackson and Sharon of Tucumcari, N. M.

Earl Croff has been a patient in the Veteran's Hospital in Amarillo since Wednesday where he is undergoing tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson of Harlan, Iowa visited in the home of the V. E. Lemkes recently enroute home from Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lovelless and family visited their grandparents Saturday from Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hammit and family of Lockney were week end guests of her parents, the Horace Betts.

Mrs. Henry Scott of Vega and granddaughter Cynthia of Skelleytown visited Sunday afternoon with her daughter, Mrs. Butch Betts and Mrs. Horace Betts.

Mr. and Mrs. Labry Ballard and family visited Friday with relatives in town. Susan remained for a longer visit and on Sunday her grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Spande, returned her to her home in Hereford.

Mrs. Eva Story, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Story and family of Woodward, Okla. arrived Monday for several days visit with Wesley's parents, the Ernest Franks. Wesley returned home on Wednesday leaving his grandmother and Debbie for a longer stay.

Donnie Morgan visited this week end with his parents, the D. W. Morgans, from his school at Kerrville.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Milner and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Ferguson entertained the seventh and eighth graders Friday night with a game party and slumber party. The children gathered at the Milners for the first celebration, then the girls went to the Fergusons for the slumber party. The boys remained at the Milners.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Burns, Marsha Vickie and Chris of Walcott, Coralie Fortenberry, Phyllis Peters, Ronald Johnson, Billy Perry, Joe and Jimmy Tafoya, Doris Horton, Sue Brownlee, James Whaley, Linda Pinnell, Myrna Zaring, Harvey Bronnoman and Jerry Milner.

Kelley Outlines Goals Of Communism At Lions Club

Dean Kelley of Amarillo Wednesday outlined to the Hereford Lions Club the dangers of Communism, which are threatening the United States and other members of the free world.

By way of background, Kelley quoted Nikita Khrushchev, Soviet premier, during his 1959 visit to the United States, "Your grandchildren will live under Socialism."

Socialism, Kelley said, is halfway between democracy and Communism.

He then outlined six major steps by which the Russian threat may become a reality within the next few years.

Lenin started his movement with 17 followers, which quickly grew until he had 40,000 when Russia was overthrown in 1917. Now, Kelley pointed out, the Communists number one billion, with only two and three quarters billion in the world.

The second point is militarily. Kelley said the United States' aim now has become deterrence, rather than victory. But the Russians would prefer to Between Russia and the United States are one billion uncommitted people, which the Communists are winning with words and books, using pure propaganda and agitation.

Finally, the Russians are destroying the hope of religion to convert the world, as they allow Russians over 50 to worship as they please but punish those younger than that who attend religious services.

Basically, Kelley concluded, the three rules of Communism are: 1. There is no God; 2. Man is a material machine which can be changed or directed; and 3. Man is activated by his economic being.

win without fighting, so the industrial might of the U.S. would be destroyed.

On the economics, Russia produces for armament, while the United States is more interested in turning out consumer goods. Russia will undersell many American foreign markets, Kelley declared, since American business is geared for profits while the government operates most Russian plants. He pointed Iraq as a prime example of how the Russians undermined the U. S. position and said the Russians next would make strong bids for markets in Central and South America.

Kelley debunked the theory that free educational systems are the only ones capable of turning out top engineers and scientists, saying that Germany and Russia both turned out top-caliber people with strictly regimented schools.

Communications is another danger area, according to Kel-

Walcott 4-H Girls See Demonstration

The Walcott 4-H club met Tuesday for a demonstration on sponge cake. Vicki Burns was presiding officer and Marsha Burns was program chairman. Miss Loreta Fowler presented the demonstration.

The cake will be one of the bake show products. The group judged a sponge cake that Miss Fowler had brought from the preceding club.

Vicki and Marsha Burns furnished the refreshments of cake and punch.

Those present were Regina Steward, Carolyn Webb, Alice Myers, Mary Weaver, Maria Jack, Gay Wyly, Adair Melton, Phyllis Tice, Elizabeth Burrus, Sylvia Ivie, Vicki and Marsha Burns, Marilyn Tice, Dianne Jack and Nancy Tyler. Miss Fowler and Mrs. Glenn Burrus were also present.

Hold Rites For Mother Of Local Woman Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Ada L. Necase of Pampa, mother of Mrs. Roy Calvert of Hereford, were held Thursday at 3:30 p. m. in the Central Baptist Church in Pampa. The Rev. L. H. Upshaw officiated, assisted by Dr. Howard Scott, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Hereford.

Mrs. Necase died in Highland-

Capt. Wood Is Fixture Of Big Bend Country

ALPINE — Capt. C. D. Wood has decided he's about settled down. Which is expected, since he recently marked his 90th birthday.

Actually, he has been a fixture in the Big Bend Country of Texas for a half century. He fought in the Spanish - American War, saw service in the Philippines, met his bride in the Far East, and survived Mexican rebel raids.

He came to Texas to operate a factory to make candleilla wax, a highly prized ingredient for several products. Later, he became a judge. Wood was born Jan. 27, 1870, at Boliva, Tenn.

In 1898 he was given command as captain of the Tennessee Mountain Infantry to fight in the Spanish - American War. After the conflict, Capt. Wood was transferred to the Philippines where he served for five years. During this time he "met the girl I married," a school teacher, Julia Bouchette. When his tour of duty was over in the Philippines, he followed Miss Bouchette to the English Crown Colony in Hong Kong, where she was teaching, and they were married in 1904.

Shortly after, the Woods returned to the United States where Wood engaged in the real estate business in Pittsburg, Pa.

In 1911 they decided to go west and landed in the Big Bend country where they established the first candleilla wax factory in the United States at Double Mills, on the Maravillas Creek, in Brewster County.

The wax comes from a desert plant known as candleilla that grows along the Rio Grande in the Big Bend of Texas and across the river in the northern Mexico.

General Hospital in Pampa at 9:45 p. m. Monday. She had been ill several years. She was 85 years old.

Mrs. Necase had been a member of the Baptist Church in Pampa for the past 24 years.

Survivors include three daughters, Miss Grace N e c a s e of Pampa; Mrs. Beatrice Melton of Bakersfield, Calif., and Mrs. Calvert; a sister, Mrs. Nora Vernon of Elk City, Okla.; five grandchildren and many other relatives.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery in Pampa.

As the plants were harvested in one area, the factory was moved to a new location where the plants were more plentiful. Their second location was in lower Brewster County at McKinney Springs, near the Stillwell Ranch, then to Glen Springs, which is now a part of the Big Bend National Park.

Mrs. Norman Moore To Head Beta Sigma Phi Chapter Club

Officers for the 1960 - 61 season were elected at the regular session of Xi Epsilon Alpha Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority held Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Paul Harvey. Mrs. Ronald Babione assisted as hostess.

Officers for the coming season include Mrs. Norman Moore, president, Mrs. Charles Laing, vice - president; Mrs. J. D. Whitaker, recording secretary; Mrs. Clyde Russell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ann Woodward, treasurer; Mrs. Ronald Babione, extension officer; Mrs. A. E. Hodges and Mrs. Ernest Wade, City Council delegates; Mrs. E. N. Johnson, alternate City Council delegate.

Theme of the program for the evening was "Friendship". Mrs. Clyde Russell presented "Examples of Friendship" using the Bible to illustrate types of friendship.

Mrs. Ray Suits gave the meaning of friendship as defined by great poets and essay writers, and read poems dealing with friendship.

Hereford High School exchange student, Miss Mari Niinisto from Finland spoke on the influence of the exchange student in the United States and other nations, stating that to her way of thinking, "No program could have so

Progressive HD Group Holds Meet

The Progressive Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Alvis Jolly. Presiding officer was Mrs. P. L. Carmichael. Program subject was 1960 Census of Population. Mrs. Earl Plank gave the program.

Mrs. C. V. Burges was leader for the afternoon and introduced Mrs. Plank who gave the program on "The Nation's Five-foot Shelf."

She pointed out that some censuses are taken every ten years and others, every five years. Three censuses — population, housing and agriculture — are carried out with the aid of enumerators. There are some other censuses taken through the aid of volunteer reporters by mail.

Business enacted included a report on the recreational workshop attended by the recreation committee, given by Mrs. Taft McGee.

Plans were made for entertaining the Cultural HD club April 19.

Members present were Mesdames P. L. Carmichael, C. V. Burges, Leon Coffin, H. L. Hershey, Earl Plank, E. C. Hammett, T. J. Parsons, Fred Autry, Darrell Thomason, Dale Hallows, Taft McGee, and the hostess, Mrs. Jolly.

It was while he had his wax factory at Glen Springs that Mexican rebels made a raid May 5, 1916, killing three and wounding four of the nine soldiers of the 6th Cavalry stationed there. One civilian, little Tommy, 7 year - old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Compton, clerk of the general store, was killed. Capt. Wood's eyes lighted up great an influence toward friendship with other nations". She also told the schools, social life, industry agriculture and government in her own country.

Members attending were Mesdames Harold Beauchamp, Clyde Russell, Charles Laing, E. N. Johnson, J. D. Whitaker, Ray Suits, A. E. Hodges, Ernest Wade, Ann Woodward, Byrdie Fellers and the hostesses, Mrs. T. J. Parsons was a special guest.

as he recalled this hair - raising experience and described it. "When I heard the heavy gunfire, I grabbed my rifle and hurried over to the home of my neighbor, Oscar de Montel. He got his rifle and we took off in the direction of the shooting and ran directly into the enemy."

"The whole settlement was on fire and a Mexican sentry took a shot at us. "In our rush to get away from the bullets we ran into a wire fence with such force it knocked the breath out of us. We stayed on the ground until the sentry quit firing. "We scrambled up and ran to a mesa about 500 yards away and stayed there in hiding until daybreak. We watched from the hideout as the raiders saddled and packed up their horses with stolen goods."

In 1927 Capt. and Mrs. Wood moved to Alpine to make their home. In 1928 he was appointed Judge of Brewster County, later being elected to the of-ice, serving until 1933, at which time he retired. His wife died about three years ago. He drives his car to town and pays his daily visits to business places to visit with his many friends.

He has one son, Drury, Wood, Del Rio; one grandson, Charles D. Wood, Dallas, and two great - grandsons.

In commenting about his 90 years of life he said, "I should be shot - not congratulated."

SUMMERFIELD NEWS

Area Study Club Group Observes Husband's Night

By BETTY WALSER

The Summerfield Study Club was hostess to "Husband's Night" Thursday evening in the Guy Walser home. The ladies had originally planned their husband's night for February and had to postpone it because of bad weather. After the dinner, special guests, the Virgil Dodsons of Hereford, showed their color films on Alaska which they took last summer while vacationing in the forty-ninth state. Those who enjoyed the dinner and film are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Noland, Mr. and Mrs. Ky Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Lookingbill, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clearman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lance and Ann, Mr.

and Mrs. Lee Curry, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Baker, and from Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Walser, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Sr., and the host and hostess.

The Summerfield Baptist Church has proposed a plan to assist the Harvey J. Mangets, who lived on the Pitman-Taylor farm, whose home burned recently. Anyone wishing to help with the plan should contact Carl Lee.

Mrs. Billie Henington and Jenene have moved in with the Reese Dawsons in Hereford. Durven Baker and Betty Walser visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fans of Shalower Friday.

Mrs. Ray Johnson returned home this week after visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Gainesville.

The Rev. and Mrs. Merle Weathers and Dianne were in Amarillo Tuesday on business. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Boston who have bought the "51 Motel" in Dimmitt, held their farm sale Friday.

Mrs. Jackie Dulin and children of Tahoka visited in the R. B. Baker home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Curry were in Amarillo Saturday visiting with the John Blacks and R. A. Bakers.

The Rev. and Mrs. Merle Weathers and Dianne were in Clovis Thursday on business.

The Summerfield Baptist Church had fellowship Wednesday evening with a covered-dish supper. A large crowd enjoyed the supper.

Mrs. Norman Moore and a Mrs. Campbell of Hereford visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Curry Thursday.

Sunday will be the last day that the Rev. Merle Weathers will preach at the Summerfield Baptist Church. Reverend Weathers and his family will move to Clovis, where he will serve as pastor of the First Baptist Church there.

The Mary Martha Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church in Hereford met in the home of Mrs. Lee Curry Friday afternoon. After a short business meeting, refreshments

Beta Sigma Phi Chapter Elects New Officers

Kappa Iota Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority held a regular meeting in the Friendship Room of the Hereford State Bank Tuesday evening.

New officers for the next year were elected including Mrs. Larry Summers, president; Mrs. Don Baugous, vice-president; Mrs. Hicks Roberson, recording secretary; Mrs. Delbert Bainum, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Barrett, treasurer; Mrs. Bill Kendall, extension officer; Mrs. Art McQueary, civilian defense officer; Mrs. John Schneider and Mrs. Howard Gore, City Council representatives and Mrs. J. D. Greeson, alternate City Council representative.

Plans were also made during the business session for the annual Preferential Tea which will be held Sunday March 20.

Mrs. John Schneider introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Mrs. O. Wertenberger, who began her program on "Pictures" with a discussion of Impressionist Artists, such as Monet, Cezanne and Van Gogh, giving special attention to Van Gogh's life and displaying numerous color prints of his works.

Other areas of art discussed by Mrs. Wertenberger were great landscapes and the Madonnas.

She concluded her program with a discussion of modern style artists, describing modern art as expression of the times in which we live, which has been with us for a long time and will continue to be with us for some time to come.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. D. R. Johnson and Mrs. Bill Kendall.

Others attending were: Mesdames Cecil Coker, Frank Barrett, Don Baugous, Charles Bell, Bob Brotherton, Robert Hickman, Carl Hollingsworth, Bill Kendall, Art McQueary, Howard Gore, Delbert Bainum, were served to several members present and two guests, Mrs. A. S. Curry and Mrs. Cassin Jones of Friona.

National Debt Is Topic For Meet

Mrs. Sue James presented the program at the Calloplan Club meeting Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Jon Fraser.

The program dealt with the question "Can we survive the fast growing national debt?" Mrs. James stressed the fundamental challenges of the 60's, using audio visuals and charts to emphasize her talk. She named three ways of lowering the national debt: 1. To keep the dollar as good as the merchandise by arresting inflation, 2. Balancing and producing a surplus budget and 3. Keeping prices from rising in industry.

Members present were Mesdames Paul Coneway, Alton Fraser, J. T. Gilbreath Jr., Roy Grubbs, Sue James, Earnest Langley, Ansel McDowell, N.E. Milburn, A. T. Mims, M. W. Nobles, Leslie Owen, Carl Perrin, and the hostess.

Community Center Stands Today As Tribute To 'American Way Of Life'

Formal opening of Hereford's new, modern Community Center is scheduled for this afternoon. Among other things, the center is unquestionably one of the outstanding buildings of its type in the southwest. Needless to say, all of us are proud of it. The center marks realization of a long standing dream on the part of scores of interested citizens. It is a civic achievement to which all of us can point with justified pride. It is our center, because we helped plan, build and pay for it. Already current bookings of meeting rooms along with teenage activities, have more than justified its existence. Even in the brief weeks the center has been open, it has been accepted and generally put to service by residents of the community. This, after all, is the acid test which justifies or denies its need for existence.

Most of all, though, the Hereford Community Center proves to the world that Americans can and will achieve almost any accomplishment when the desire is sufficient and without federal aid, red tape or government sponsorship. Our accomplishment, we admit, was spurred through a generous 50 percent donation on the part of Jim Hill Estate, but it was still far from easy to raise the matching funds as specified in the gift. Donations, rummage sales, bake sales, wall tiles and hundreds of other promotions were used in order to make the dream a reality. Needless to say, because of this effort and sacrifice, we are far better off and certainly, we appreciate the center all the more.

The One Place Where We Excel

Few people recognize the ever-increasing efficiency of the American farmer, and this is all the more true on the local level, where we can boast some of the nation's foremost agriculturists.

The average farmer this year will produce enough food and fiber for himself and 25 others, which is three times more than in 1950. Farmers worked 1.1 billion man-hours last year, down from 23.9 billion man hours in 1920, when the same acreage was farmed. Production was up 10 times that of 1920. Very few other phases of American life can point to such increased efficiency.

In a nutshell, the increase can be attributed to use of machinery, application of fertilizer, better seeds and better methods.

With the situation come complex problems, not the least of which is tremendous loss of rural population. Excess production provides another headache and, needless to say, employment of these extra people in cities and industry has also complicated our national economic situation.

Our constantly increasing population may, as statisticians predict, ultimately solve the problem. However, we wonder if the farmer — resourceful fellow that he is — will not also come up with new and improved angles on farming. Currently, our situation is unique in that most other nations suffer from malnutrition and starvation, while our cups in America runneth over, and voluntary diets are applied to prevent individual obesity.

The United States of America can point with pride to numerous achievements, but not one of them can touch our basic achievement in agriculture. Surely, it is the one single point on which we have absolutely no equal or rival throughout the world.

On this occasion, it is well to pay a worthwhile tribute to Jim Hill, successful pioneer rancher and farmer, whose influence following his death has continued just as during his life. Administration of Hill Estate funds has definitely been just as American in nature as was the pioneer himself. A single library, a large grant — and this influence would have been gone. Instead, we have been challenged as a community to tighten our belts a notch, pitch in and go to work. Today, we have a hospital wing and a community center — and we are all the more proud of them because we had a part in their creation. They are ours. They are more than brick and mortar, and for this feeling we owe Jim Hill our ever constant appreciation.

In these days of federal grants, federal aid and growing socialist trends, we have all the more reason to be proud of accomplishments such as our community center. They stand as a tribute to grassroots America — and in testimony of the possibilities which are offered day by day in our American way of life.

Which Way Are We Going?

This Country faces grave danger from four little words.

They are simple words but put together they form a compelling sales pitch, a rallying cry, an ultimate pronouncement of doom.

The words are: "Russia will overtake us." Seldom has a phrase so small shown such political utility. With these four words, an able advocate can prove an emergency, justify a course and damn the opposition (Continued on Page 2)

What Happened To Political Rally?

Political activity is beginning to pick up these days, and we note with interest that the rally at Walcott has been rescheduled for March 25.

What with improved communications people seem to have generally dropped the old fashioned political gathering. Taken on the local level, however, there has never been a satisfactory substitute. We can understand how the regional, state and national candidates are unable to make all of the rallies at conflicting times, but the method is probably the most economical possible for the local candidate.

True enough, he may bid in a pie, spend a few dollars here and there, but he is still ahead when he compares the small cost with radio, television and newspaper space. In addition, the voters meet the candidates, talk with them in person, and generally get a chance to fire specific questions.

The political rally should never have vanished in our opinion especially in small towns and communities. It is still practical and, we predict, will some day resume its popularity.

Pass The Milk, Butter And Eggs

Seldom do we think of our community as foremost in dairy production but, nevertheless, we seem to be gaining a favorable reputation along this line. It was sufficient, at least, to attract a study group from distant Tunisia in French West Africa.

In addition to awakening many of us to accomplishments of our neighbors, the visit also points up the tremendous degree of diversification this territory has achieved. A foremost producer of cattle, wheat and vegetables, our area is helping supply the Amarillo and Lubbock centers with milk and eggs.

As in other fields, it is interesting to note that Deaf Smith producers are leading the way in modernizing the dairy, chicken and egg production businesses. Application of good equipment, know-how and hard work have been the backbone of our operations in other production fields, and the same appears to be the basis of present expansion into the newer service divisions.

Areas adjacent to Dallas, Ft. Worth, Houston and other Texas cities have reaped tremendous sales volume from dairy products as these cities doubled and tripled in population during the past decade. A similar situation can naturally be expected in this territory during the next 10 to 25 years — and there is no substitute for being on the ground floor.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

In the Steps of Christ

"Now there stood by the Cross of Jesus, His mother . . ." (John 19:25). And so the end had come at last, the end that was in reality only the beginning for all of mankind. Mary had to be there on Calvary's heights. It took courage to watch Him die, but somehow she summoned it up. She had brought Him into the world amid Bethlehem's squalor. It was to her that He addressed the fateful words: "I must be about My Father's business." And it was at her urging that He began his public ministry at the Marriage Feast of Cana. It was inevitable that the tenderest of His last words should be directed at her and, through the Apostle John, to all mankind. "Woman, behold thy son . . . Son, behold thy mother." In less than an hour, she would be taking His body to the tomb, cradling it in her arms in a heart-rending scene that would inspire artists and sculptors for centuries to come. Pieta, mother and son.

March Has Number Of Special Weeks, Days

By MRS. R. L. CRISWELL
March: the month when spring should arrive. But it seems a little slow to us now and these "in the twenties" temperatures each night and early morning make it seem even farther away.

March has a number of special weeks which we should take time out to think about and perhaps do something about. The first one that comes to mind is Red Cross month.

Let's think of what the Red Cross has to do with our everyday lives — not in the folks who keep it going (and it does take quite a few people to keep it going) but some of the things 'they' do in the name of Red Cross, and in our own home town and county.

As one man put it recently: "I knew I could give of my time even if I did not give my money". Does that have a familiar sound to you?

There has been a lot of publicity about the Red Cross selling when they should have been giving, etc. Read the February, 1960, Holiday Magazine and you will find all the answers there.

Now back to our town and county. In the past four months the Red Cross has given in grants and outright more than $1,000 to people in need of the necessities of life, and some of it, of course, included emergency care. Did you know that blood was flown from our county bank to a town in New Mexico to save a woman's life. Let's not only give of our time but our money also, just as the man thought it wasn't worthwhile to give of his money, but changed his mind and now supports it with money and time. Let's give of both if at all possible, and if not, be generous with money.

Then March is National Buttermilk Bread month. Ask any good cook how to make good cornbread and she will tell you her recipe uses buttermilk as a basis. Cornbread and buttermilk and good ol' turnip greens — any oldtimer will tell you there is nothing more tasty than just that after a hard day's work. Perhaps the old cowboy might "argy" a little for beef, but everyone to his own taste.

One oldtimer even gave me a recipe for Buttermilk Gravy and it was a springtime dish too. Perhaps I should look it up in the back issue of the Brand and try it out again.

Other observations in March include: The World Day of Prayer, sponsored by the United Church Women and National Council of Churches, was observed on March 4.

National Save Your Vision Week, sponsored by the American Optometric Association.

National 4-H Club Week, sponsored by the USDA, Cooperative Extension Service. Deaf Smith County can almost 'bust' the buttons right off its shirt in being so proud of our boys and girls and the wonderful things they have accomplished in 4-H work.

Girl Scout Week. Doesn't it make your heart swell with pride when you think of the men and women who work with our boys and girls in scout work and the many other organizations for training them to be real men and women of tomorrow.

Oh, there are many others all with national approval, such as Peanut Week, Want Ad Week, Campfire Girls Founders Day (March 17), St. Patrick's Day, Easter Seal Week, Wildlife Week, and so on.

And Smile Week. What would life be without smiles. So many smiles that touch your heart and others that touch your funnybone.

PAVING GETS UNDER WAY

A city of Littlefield representatives this week began contacting residents to secure cooperation in a .75-block paving solicitor, began checking with property owners estate man, employed by the city for part-time work as a paving solicitor, began checking with property owners Friday. Carmickle will work throughout the city on streets designated for paving in the city's program. City manager J. W. Harrison asked that property owners interested in joining the paving project contact him at phone number 844. In a separate announcement, Harrison said that crews are working throughout the city on patching of streets. Damage is extensive to streets due to severe weather this winter. "We're getting to these repairs just as fast as possible," the city manager said. Two crews are working on the repairs. The City Council chose the "best paving possible" for the project, selecting a $189,300 bid for crushed caliche and hot mix. This total is based on about 75 blocks of paving. Unit prices were given and the final total will be less if fewer blocks are paved. Councilmen have said the bid was lower than they expected.

SPANISH FIESTA SLATED

Thirteenth National Pan-American Fiesta will be held in Olton Public Schools for the first time March 19. This fiesta is sponsored by Llano Estacado Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese. Two Spanish Club students, Harvie Jordan and Genevieve Curry, have been selected to represent Olton in the Pan-American king and queen contest. They will compete with kings and queens from guest schools for the royal titles of the entire fiesta. Some four to five hundred students are expected to attend. Some fourteen various contests will be conducted at 10:15 in the morning. These contests will include Spanish music, dance, spelling, vocabulary, speaking, poetry writing, prose and poetry memory work, reading, writing and others. Exhibits of photography and arts and crafts will be entered in the contest. Students from all guest schools have entered the contest. Prizes and ribbons will be awarded to winners in all divisions of the Spanish contest. Lunch will be served in the cafeteria to students and guests.

COUNTY MAY ASK BOND

A proposed loop around Amarillo may bring Randall County voters a bond election. The loop and methods of financing it were discussed Monday by Randall County Commissioners Court. C. Y. Johnson, precinct 4 commissioner, said the State Highway Department has planned the loop but has not engineered it. Until it is engineered, the county cannot estimate cost of the loop. One section of the loop, a strip connecting the Amarillo Expressway and Farm-to-Market road 1541 (Washington Street) is almost out of the planning stage. Estimates place the number of acres involved in right-of-way purchases at 400. The State of Texas will participate in buying right-of-way on a 50-50 basis. Roland Black, executive secretary of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, said he does not think a bond issue can receive the two-thirds majority for approval. Randall County's portion of the proposed loop runs straight south from Highway 66 to a point 1.5 miles west of Hollywood, then east across the expressway and Washington five miles before turning north to the Potter County line.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm may be putting an odd twist on a set of figures his letter this week indicates. We never attempt to correct him.

Dear editor:

When I run out of something to do out here on this bindweed farm, and I can do it any time I don't feel like working, I like to amuse myself by reviewing the latest situations on the farm problem.

Last night I got an entirely new slant on the farm problem and its importance. According to an article I read in a newspaper which must have fallen out of an airplane, I don't know how else it could have gotten wedged between the forks of a tree ten feet above the ground, that farmer's incomes have dropped twenty per cent in the last two years while their expenses have gone up five per cent.

"The farmers are going bankrupt," the governor of Nebraska said on reading these figures.

Well, lots of farmers have been heading toward bankruptcy for years, but as long as they don't actually get there, or they get there but not stay there, they seem to keep plugging away.

But what interested me in this report was the reaction of another group of leaders to it.

"Our concern goes deeper than for farmers, for merely maintaining the family-size farm," they said. "Many small towns in this nation are dependent on the farmers. If the farmers go broke, what'll happen to these towns?"

But they needn't have stopped there. Look at it this way. Not only are many small towns dependent on the farmers, but many big towns are sort of dependent on small towns, and big cities are dependent on little cities, and Washington is dependent on all of them. And come to think of it, a lot of other nations are depending on Washington.

So, if I lose money out here on this farm, it's not concern for myself that bothers me. It's an international worry.

Up to now, I figured whether I made any money or not was more or less my worry, plus my banker's, but viewed in this newer light, it's clear that the entire world is depending on me to make a profit, and consequently the farmer's plight is everybody's plight.

I had no idea so much responsibility rests on me, and I will appreciate it if you'll see that Congress helps me make a profit this year. I don't ask this for myself. I'm looking at it internationally.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

 "Expand federal housing
 "Build more power dams
 "Let Washington control the schools
 "Forget balanced budgets
 "Step up our rate of growth
 "Star new welfare projects
 "Or Russia will overtake us."
 Before panic drives us to grab all these straws in a last grim gesture of survival, we may have time to answer a pertinent question:

 "Which way are we going?"
 Are we headed toward perfection of the free economy which has made possible the world's highest standard of living?
 If we are, Russia shows no eagerness to catch us, as she most recently demonstrated by agreeing to export automobiles while her own people fidget on waiting lists.
 Or is our goal an all-powerful central government? If that is the case, then we are the pursuers and the chase is futile because Russia is already there.

Open House Sunday, 2:30 to 5 p.m.

With the completion of Hereford's Community Center, Killingsworth Construction Co. again feels the satisfaction that comes with a job well done.

This immaculate building will be a tribute to the city of Hereford and it's fine citizens for scores of years to come.

We join with the city officials (and those who worked so untiringly on this worthwhile project) in urging you to attend the open house of the Community Center.

And we offer our Congratulations to the people of Hereford in the accomplishing of their goal in having one of the most beautiful and modern Community Centers in the Golden Spread.

Mrs. Charlotte Word Gives Warm, Excellent Program

In observance of Texas Composer's Day, the Music Study Club presented Mrs. Charlotte Ingham Word, composer - pianist; in an open program in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Word, who is well-known through music circles in the state and especially in the Panhandle area, has written numerous compositions for piano, voice, organ and violin, and has won several musical awards. She received her musical training at Oberlin Conservatory of Music.

The program was outstanding, not only for the performance of the artist, but also for the charming personality of the performer herself. Inspiration for her compositions has come from times of great joy or sorrow, and the mood of the music was felt by the large and appreciative audience. Especially were the children in the audience delighted with a group of children's numbers which Mrs. Word has affectionately dedicated to her nine grandchildren.

Assisting on the program was Mrs. Millard Word Jr., vocalist, whose warm, well-controlled voice pleased the listeners, and by Mrs. Howard Scott, organist, and members of the Music Study Club, whose talents are always enhanced by the spontaneity of her performances.

A reception honoring the performers was held in the church social hall immediately following the program. Arrangements were made by the hospitality committee, headed by Mrs. T. W. Roberson, and including Mesdames Norman Moore, James Alston, Joe Haeker, Paul Lyons, A. J. Schroeter, Carl Mountz and Ed Line. Mrs. A. O. Thompson was in charge of table decorations.

A St. Patrick's Day theme was noted in decorations. The main table was laid with a white organdy cloth over green, and centered with a large green shamrock rising in the midst of daffodils and apple blossoms. Green candles burned in crystal candelabra. Tea and coffee services were placed at either end of the table with Mrs. Carl Wimberley, 7th District TMFC vice-president, and Mrs. James Alston, district treasurer, presiding.

The children's table, arranged especially for them, was laid in white and had a row of bright green candles parading down the center length. Small green shamrocks dotted the cloth and refreshments of punch, sandwiches and cookies carried out the St. Patrick's Day theme in motif and color. Mrs. J. D. Neill presided. Out-of-town guests attending were from Clarendon, Hedley, Amarillo, Canyon and Dawn.

VFW Auxiliary Holds Meeting

Mesdames Arnold Wall, L.H. Lookingbill Jr., Dub Maddox and Bill Craig were named to serve on a nominating committee for new officers at the Veteran's of Foreign Wars Auxiliary meeting held Monday night at the VFW Hall. Hostesses were Mesdames Wayne Lawrence and A. J. Ralston.

Members also voted to send a one dollar per member contribution to the VFW Eten Rapids, Mich., Orphans Home to provide new Easter clothes for the children. A contribution was also made to the VFW Memorial Chapel in Austin.

Those present were Mesdames Bill Craig, Lloyd Olson, L. H. Lookingbill Jr., Doyce Nevins, Lewis Schneider, L. J. Clark, Blue Turpin, Jim Lookingbill, Molly Schofield, Dub Maddox, Leonard Davis and the hostesses.

Hold Recreational Workshop Monday

Mrs. J. B. Caraway conducted a recreational workshop for recreational committees of the various Home Demonstration Clubs Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. James G. Gandy.

Hammett and Mrs. Alvis Jolly, all of Progressive; Mrs. Alice Cox and Mrs. W. H. Awtry Sr., West Hereford; Mrs. J. G. Gandy, Cultural; and Mrs. J. B. Caraway, Dawn.

Superior Rating Music Students

Twenty-three Hereford music students, two Friona students and one from Dawn made superior ratings in the Seventh District Junior Festival of the National Federation of Music Clubs held here Saturday, Mar. 12. There were 75 entrants.

Included were vocal solo, Sherry White and Joe Ella McGee, second year. Piano solo, superior rating for second consecutive year; James Schulz, Angela Grubbs, Rebecca Elliott, Billy Neal, Francine Brown, Nancy Parsons, Darla Howell and Jerry Cass of Friona and Phyllis Richardson of Dawn.

Making superior ratings for the second consecutive year in piano solo were; Robert Thompson, Elena Atkinson, Sharon Garrison, Marsha Hardwick, Ann Braddy, Jana Cole, Dianne Jack, Ann Mercer, Nicholas Osborn, Patti Nobles, and Joe Ella McGee.

Making superior ratings for the third consecutive year were Becky Long and Dorothy Bowman.

Making superior ratings for the fourth consecutive year were Merle Carmichael and Penny Johnson.

Hold Meeting of Cultural HD

The Cultural Home Demonstration club met recently in the home of Mrs. James G. Gandy with Mrs. Clinton Jackson presiding over the meeting. Mrs. Grady Parsons held the opening exercises. Roll call was answered with "Why Take Census?" and "How Women Can Help with Census."

Mrs. J. T. Richardson and Mrs. Gandy will represent the Cultural Home Demonstration club at the workshop for making straw handbags.

Those present for the meeting were Mesdames Grady Parsons, George Parker, P. M. Houser, Clifton Jackson, J. T. Richardson, Joe Storey, Ira Scott, Mrs. Gandy and two guests, Mrs. Alfred May and Mrs. J.B. Caraway of Dawn.

Here are Mrs. Hamman's four other reasons for liking her electric clothes dryer — Latrice, 2 years of age; Terry, 8; Gary, 11; and Steve, 4.

"Certainly one reason is because it is trouble-free. I've had mine for over 2 years with no trouble—just delight. There's no fading of colors either and I dry delicate things, too, just by setting the dial for delicate fabrics."

OFF THE Shelf

By H. A. TUCK

If It Moves, Salute It, a novel by Bob Duncan, obviously draws its title from the old Army saying, "If it moves, salute it; if it doesn't move, pick it up; if you can't pick it up, paint it."

This is an amusing book about the Shogun rest hotel operated by the Army in post-war Japan. Located on the outskirts of Tokyo, it is run by Captain Stone, an easy-going officer who has the place decorated in high style, complete with carpets, curtains, bar and all the trimmings.

It houses an odd assortment of Special Service musicians and entertainers, plus the visiting service athletic teams who occasionally build bonfires in the room, practice punts in the lobby and otherwise enjoy themselves.

But Lt. Billings starts to change things when he becomes Executive Officer of the company. He gradually instills such unheard-of things as physical training, guard duty and other onerous details.

Eventually he manages to edge out Captain Stone, earning his Captaincy and full command. This is when all the luxuries disappear and Captain Billings wonders how he can bring his efficiency to the attention of higher brass.

The mystery of a continuing source of Japanese-made whiskey is the only drawback, something that Capt. Billings can't figure out.

An easy-going Kansas farm boy who honestly likes physical training is the only one who doesn't have much trouble. He rises from night desk clerk to First Sergeant of the company, but finds he's in a rough spot trying to court a Japanese girl, run down the whiskey supply,

Parental Authority Subject Of Meeting

"A New Kind of Discipline" was the topic of study at the El Nino Study Club session held Monday evening in the Community Room of the First National Bank. Mrs. Darrell Blanton was hostess.

Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., who presented the program, reviewed an article by Margaret Mead appearing recently in Parent's Magazine, dealing with parental authority — How to use — not abuse.

She said, in part, "We are developing a new theory of childhood suitable for the twentieth century America, neither old-fashioned strict, nor too free and easy."

Members of the club in attendance were Mesdames Blanton, Ivan Block, Jim Bookout, Ben Childers, R. A. Daniel, Bill Decker, John Jacobsen Jr., Gayle Neal, Sam Nunnally, W. J. Reeves, Bill Waldrep and Melvin Young.

A kwan is a unit of measurement in Japan. Its American equivalent is 8.2673 pounds.

keep the men from murdering the Captain and draw maps and graphs for the Captain.

Eventually, Captain Billings gets attention from the higher-ups and the new C. O. is none other than Captain Stone.

If It Moves, Salute It, is the gentle satire of an occupying Army, whose men take advantage of every possible opening. It can provide an entertaining evening. You'll find it on the reserved list at the Deaf Smith County Library.

Lone Star Study Club, Guests Shown Color Slides Of Alaska

Members of the Lone Star Club and guests were entertained at a special meeting of the club Saturday evening in the Community Center.

The program was provided by Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Dodson, who showed selected films of a six-weeks tour of Alaska made by the Dodsons last summer. They also showed films of parts of the United States. Following the program, a social hour was held and refreshments were served. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kelton, J. J. Durham, John Jacobsen Jr., R. G. Blue, E. J. Grady, G. W. # Give Your Son A Place He Can Feel Is His Own

By VIVIAN BROWN
A boy's world could very likely be his room at home. Give him an atode in which he can spend time comfortably, and it is up to you to supply the comfort.

He likes to dream, to work puzzles, to learn magic, perhaps. It may be a book on ventriloquism that provides his secret research of the moment. It could be "top secret" exercises to develop his muscles so that he will be brawny as his real-life hero.

A boy likes shelves to display his accumulation of things — record player, books, radio, science projects, collection of shells and butterflies.

He'll like a roomy closet for his fishing rod, gun, skis, skates, baseball bat, catcher's mitt, skin diving equipment. He could use small drawers also, for all sorts of things. Ideal are the kind Mom uses for spices. Mount them on wooden supports and paint them to match the room furniture. Small collections of anything from favored marbles to bottle caps may be stored out to find their way into these small drawers.

A boy needs a bed on which to stretch, better than a chair any day, he'll tell you. He likes to put his feet up when he is reading, writing or just doing nothing. It's a wise mother who puts a dark coverlet on his bed, one that can be washed frequently in the washing machine. A boy doesn't like to be reminded to remove his shoes when he loafs on the bed, or to keep his head off the bed bolsters.

He'd like to be permitted to hang mobiles and airplanes from the ceiling.

A desk and chair that is conducive to work will help keep him pinned down to study sessions and home work. New plastic topped desks are cleaned easily. Some have storage areas within them.

Night tables have space for books. Naugahyde upholstery on bedroom benches add color and are practical.

It is important to choose small scale furniture for a boy's room. He'll need space to move around. Let him clutter his room with objects he loves, but avoid cluttering it with overstuffed chairs and other overwhelming furniture.

If a boy must inherit old bedroom furniture from the master bedroom, for instance, try to modernize the pieces. Remove the foot and headboard of the bed if possible, and paint the furniture a gay color. A boy who has a dreary room will have little incentive to use it for study, reading, playing or

FOR THE BOY: Merton Gershun designed this small scaled but sturdy furniture in a warm-toned walnut, a blend of contemporary and early American. The desk has a plastic top. Naugahyde upholstery is used on the bench and seat of the captain's chair. Unfinished spice boxes are mounted on wooden supports.

Christian Women's Fellowship Meets

Group Two of the Christian Women's Fellowship met at 2:30 p. m. on Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Robert Veigel. The meeting was opened with prayer.

During the business session the group signed cards for four of the church members who are ill. They voted to send an amount of money to the State Fund to help send Mrs. Paulene Themes, State Secretary, to the World Convention in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Zoe Williams presented the program on Belgian Congo Churches. She said in part, "There are 14 organized churches in the Congo area and there is a great need for more churches and more missionaries."

The devotional was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Ray Suit and her theme was "Go Forth, Oh, Child of God." It ended with the CWF prayer.

A total of 10 members were present. Refreshments were served to Mesdames Carlos Vaughn, J. J. Clark, F. S. Smith, Ray Suit, Zoe Williams, Nona Jowell, C. R. Smith, Hazel Williams, Emma Smith, Nelma Sowell and the hostess.

'The Unanointed' Review Given At La Plata Study Club Meeting

A review of Laurene Chinn's The Unanointed was presented by Mrs. Elmer Patterson at the regular meeting of La Plata Study Club in the home of Mrs. Bill Thompson Tuesday evening.

"Mrs. Chinn, a resident of Borger and past president of the Panhandle Pen Women, may be the outstanding writer in Texas for 1959," the speaker commented.

Since its release in March, 1959, the book has been chosen as a monthly offering by both The Literary Guild and The Dollar Book Club. It went into its second printing before the release date, and Mrs. Chinn reported at the recent meeting of Pen Women that the Crown Publishing Company and the author have realized $18,000 from The Dollar Book Club alone.

"While much is recorded in the Bible of the deeds of Job, main character in the book, we are told practically nothing of his personal life," the author commented in her introduction.

She explains that whereas David, whom Job served, was the anointed of the Lord, Job, while performing essential services for the Kingdom of Israel, was the unanointed.

The story of the love between Job and Reba, David's second wife (according to the book, but really a fictional character), is fictional, all the accounts of Job's leadership in battle and of David and his kingdom are true to the accounts in I and II Samuel and I Kings.

"Crown hails Mrs. Chinn as a very talented new writer, and the discerning reader will agree as he enjoys her graphic descriptions and lyric wording," Mrs. Patterson said.

Other Panhandle writers mentioned by the reviewer include Laura V. Hamner, Al Dewlin, Dr. J. A. Hill, Loula Grace Erdman, Helene Huff, Ocie Wilson and Cleo Tom Terry. She also mentioned Christianity and Mental Health by Max Leach of Abilene.

With Mrs. A. J. Schroeter playing the accompaniment the Robert L. Card lost his sight in an automobile accident two years ago.

During his hospitalization, he had time to ponder his situation. "Either I could lay around feeling sorry for myself and make everyone around me miserable, or I could make the best of it, start life again and try to get a job."

Recently, Card pledged his corneas during an eye conservation drive by the Middletown Lions Club. His corneas were not damaged. When he dies, they will be transplanted in the eyes of two blind persons.

OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

This is a sign of LIFE

It takes time to see and time to act. That's why good vision is important to safe driving.

With 20/50 vision, you won't see a STOP sign nearer than 90 feet. At 60 miles an hour you will be 200 feet PAST the sign before you can stop.

And at night the problem is multiplied. That's why two-thirds of all traffic deaths occur at night.

Seeing quickly and clearly is vital to safe driving. An examination by a professional optometrist every year can tell you if you are visually prepared to drive. He might help you save a life—maybe your own.

Don't live to regret! Live to be thankful that you could see the Sign of Life.

Six Music Students In Community Enter Festival

By MRS. CARL WIMBERLEY
Six music students from the Dawn community entered the Junior Music Festival of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs held in Hereford Saturday. Nancy Parson, senior at Hereford High School, and Phyllis Richardson, member of the fourth grade at the Dawn School, received ratings of "Superior."

Linda Stewart and Beverly Betzen received "Excellent" ratings. Laura Higgins and Douglas May were others who participated. All entered the piano solo events.

Miss Parsons is a member of the "C Sharp" club in Hereford. Others are members of the Dawn Musettes.

Others attending were Mrs. J. Parsons, Mrs. Jack Higgins, Mrs. R. T. Stewart, Mrs. N. R. Miller, Mrs. Clarence

Betzen, Mrs. Ted Richardson, Mrs. Melvin May, Mari Niinisto and Mrs. Carl Wimberley. Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCabe and children, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Caraway and family attended revival services last week at the Central Church of Christ in Hereford.

Mrs. H. H. Miller, Audni, Jon David and Dion are attending Wednesday evening Lenten services each week at the Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church in Amarillo.

The Miller family attended Sunday morning services this week at the First Presbyterian Church in Hereford. A special service in observance of 4-H clubs was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spicer of Bovina are the parents of a baby son born Thursday, March 10. The Spicer family formerly lived in the Dawn community.

Several local people attended the Teachers Conference Friday and Saturday in Amarillo. Teachers attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Killingsworth, and Mrs. Ray Wells of the Dawn School, Mrs. Richard Hagar and Mrs. Reece Stewart, who teach at Alkman Elementary School in Hereford.

John Huseman and Ted Wimberley went with other members of the mixed choir of the Hereford High School to Amarillo recently. The choir sang at the opening of the Teachers Conference. Mari Niinisto and Nancy Parsons also attended.

Mrs. Mary Gentry returned Monday from Dallas where she has visited relatives the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gentry, who were scheduled to attend the National Convention of the Farmers Union in Denver, Colo. this week, had to cancel their plans because of pressing demands of spring cultivation which have delayed for three months because of the weather.

Gentry was elected to be a delegate to the National Convention at the State Convention in Fort Worth last fall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moore of Kress were recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Tooley.

Bruce Wimberley, First Sgt. in the ROTC in West Texas State College in Canyon, has been chosen one of five candidates for the honor of Distinguished Military Student, which will be awarded two of the candidates in the spring of 1961. The final selection will be based upon the active military training in the summer and the 1960-61 record in ROTC at the college.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dixon and son Charles of Wichita Falls visited over the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wimberley. Mrs. Wimberley is the Glenn Dixon's daughter.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Miller Friday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hill and daughter Iva Jean, and Miss Vera Crawford of Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralley Wedel and Karl Wedel of Amarillo called in the Miller home Saturday afternoon. They had attended the Junior Music Festival in Hereford where Karl entered the snare drum event. He plays the drums with the Amarillo Symphony.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Heckman of Amarillo visited last Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heckman.

Dick Huffs From Alaska Visit George Turrentine

By MRS. HAROLD RUDD
Mr. and Mrs. Dick Huff of Eka, Alaska, visited in the George Turrentine home last Tuesday. The wind was so strong they were afraid their trailer house would turn over. They parked their mobile home in the shelter of the trees at the Turrentine home.

They visited with the family and Mrs. Bess Werner. They told them of their life in Alaska, showed them pictures of the county there and also showed their gold nuggets. They recently sold their gold mine and began touring the rest of the United States. The Huffs remained through the night and left Wednesday morning to continue their trip through the Panhandle and on to Oklahoma.

Mrs. S. A. Mays of Arlington and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Tarter of Lubbock spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Frank. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Mays and family of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Singletery and family of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Meharg and family of Hereford joined the group for dinner.

Mrs. J. B. Odum and Jerry went to Hale Center Friday and spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ross White.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison of Hereford visited with Mrs. Bess Werner Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thomas, Sue, Bud and Jeanne ate supper and spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. O.W. Pair at Shallowater.

Mrs. Paul Rudd and granddaughters, Teresa, Susan, Lynn and Patsy spent Friday in Amarillo. They also visited with Mrs. J. E. Weeks.

Mrs. Emmitt Johnson and Mrs. Alice Cooper attended the plastic flower demonstration at the Community Center in Hereford Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Kaul were hosts for a 42 party in their home Saturday evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Owens, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Northcutt, Sue and Ray, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morrison, and Judith and Larry Kaul.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson and family of Hereford visited with Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Johnson Thursday evening.

Nancy Green attended the Tri-Hi-Y salad supper at the Community Center in Hereford Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCathern went to Pampa last Tuesday to be with his mother, Mrs. Maggie McCathern, who was ill. They went to Borger on Thursday and visited with her uncle, Britt Cleveland, in the hospital there. They spent the night there with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Lillard.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ritter, Linda and Larry spent Saturday afternoon in Amarillo.

The Amana Story

By DICK WALKER

NOTE: This is a continuation of the Amana Story. To understand better the Amana products, I believe we should know some of the background of the Amana people.

A new product comes into being because someone realizes the need for the new product. So it was in 1932 that George Foerster with other associates built the first commercial coolers.

Amana truly became pioneers in the refrigerator business. In the years 1934-35, this small concern built walk-in coolers of all sizes for home, farm and institution.

In the late 30's, they built and installed locker plants. In fact, Amana built the first turn key locker plant in America — meaning that the entire construction and installation was done by Amana.

Of course, valuable experience was gained during this period of growth. Among the many innovations pioneered by Amana was direct contact freezing now an important feature in the Amana Upright Freezer. . .

During the early 40's, Amana people worked closely with Government Engineers on the design and construction of refrigeration equipment. The giant coolers used by the Navy were perhaps the most spectacular.

These giant coolers had a 6800 cubic foot capacity. They were 93 feet long and weighed 42,000 lbs. They used 68 compressors that ran on gas and electricity. They were actually landed on the South Pacific Islands already filled with food and in full operation. Amana built 25% of all of these "Giant Reefers" as they were known.

And then, in 1940, Amana began work on the Free-O-Frost refrigerators. It took many months of hard work, but they finally perfected it.

In June of 1943, fire destroyed the factory. Yet, in a short six weeks, they were back on the job and producing. The U. S. Government awarded Amana three "E's" for outstanding performance in World War II.

Although the war years primarily devoted to the production of war products, Amana people prepared for the coming peace. In 1945, they designed the first upright freezer. This was the 30 R. The first three built of wood (steel was not available) are still being used. The 30R with remote compressor was followed by the 25W, self contained and built of stainless steel.

Call it a gamble or call it foresight, Amana people believed that the upright freezer would appeal to the American housewife. Their foresight paid off. Amana became the world's largest producer of upright freezers and the recognized leader in this field.

Because of problems inherent in an expanding, growing company, Amana Refrigeration became a private corporation in 1950, still headed by the man who founded the company, George C. Foerster.

Today, Amana Refrigeration, Inc., stands as a strong independent. Amana's growth has been rapid but sound. True, certain growing pains have been suffered by the company but expanding lines, greater facilities and modern facilities have given the company the right to label itself as specialists in low temperature refrigeration.

Drop by today and let me show you the Amana Products. Its Walkers Refrigeration, 3rd at Schley.

You can't pull Soft Water out of a hat!

WATER CONDITIONING IS A SCIENCE—NOT A TRICK!
Do not be misled by fast talk about special metal gadgets which make water behave softer—or claims for soft water without chemicals . . .

SOFTENING WATER IS A CHEMICAL PROCESS—
A simple one when hardness is the only problem . . . a complex one when dissolved iron or other elements are present . . .

But with modern domestic water conditioning equipment, it can be as simple and automatic as pushing a button.

For a practical, scientific solution to your water problem, see the Water Conditioning Dealer whose name appears in this advertisement. He is proud to display the W.C.A.I. Membership Insignia . . . the symbol of Competence and Integrity in the field of Water Conditioning.

Harmony Music Study Club Has Organization Meeting

An organizational meeting for a new music study club in Hereford was held in the home of Mrs. Henry Turner, 606 S. Twenty-five Mile Ave., Monday evening. Mrs. Hershel Miller was co-hostess.

Sponsored by the Dawn Music Club, the name chosen for the club was "The Harmony Music Club". Object of the club is to further individual musical effort and elevate the musical standards of the homes and community through coordinated study.

New officers elected include: Mrs. Henry Turner, president; Mrs. Ulys Pierce, vice-president; Mrs. Jame Clearman, secretary; Mrs. Sam Long, treasurer; Mrs. Albert Ricketts, parliamentarian; Mrs. Morris Hacker, reporter; Mrs. Weldon Stephan, choral director; Mrs. Baxter London, assistant choral director; Mrs. V. H. Poarch, historian; and Mrs. J. F. Cheatham, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Carl Wimberley, vice-president, Seventh District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs, conducted the installation rites.

Meetings will be held once each month in homes of members and special programs featuring guest artists will be held. Yearbooks are in the process of making with Mrs. Ulys Pierce, chairman. Plans include a constructive program and relative musical selections to be presented at each meeting.

Charter members present were Mesdames J. F. Cheatham, Jamie Clearman, Baxter London, Sam Long, Ulys Pierce, V. H. Poarch, Albert Ricketts, Weldon Stephan and the hostess. Other charter members include Mesdames Morris Hacker, Kenneth Neill, and associate members, Mesdames Gayle Neal and

J. B. Snead. Special guests were Mrs. Carl Wimberley and Mrs. Hershel Miller of Dawn Music Club, and Mrs. Bill Stanford of the Hereford Music Study Club.

Program for the evening included reading of the music club collect by Mrs. Carl Wimberley, "How Great Thou Art", sung by Mrs. Weldon Stephan, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Sam Long, and a brief resume of objectives and accomplishments of Federated Music Clubs presented by Mrs. Carl Wimberley. In conclusion, Mrs. Hershel Miller sang "I Talked With God Last Night", accompanied by Mrs. Bill Stanford.

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS

A Guide to the Point of Sale

Our local stores are the display rooms and warehouses for the world's finest products. Efficient banking, insurance, real estate and other business services are also available to the people in our community. The readers of this newspaper find our advertising columns a dependable guide to the point of sale—a useful source for up-to-date news and information about these goods and services.

In order that advertising expenditures may be made with us on the basis of known values, as required for any sound business investment, this newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Every advertiser should know about A.B.C. The Bureau is a cooperative, non-profit association of 3,450 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Working together, these buyers and sellers of advertising establish standards for paid circulation, rules and methods for auditing and reporting the circulations of newspapers and periodicals.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors visits us to make a thorough audit of our circulation records. The FACTS established by his audit are published by the Bureau in A.B.C. reports which are available to you, our advertisers. These reports tell you how much circulation we have, where it goes, how it is sold and other FACTS essential to the profitable use of newspaper advertising. Ask us for a copy of our A.B.C. report.

REMEMBER WHEN?

By CHARLIE SEEDS

The light of the torch of liberty was dark. The great lady looked down on the bay, her arm held high.

She was a giant statue, a gift from the people of France to the people of the United States. The famed French sculptor Bartholdi had labored for years to form this symbol of the welcome America offered to the people of the world who sought freedom and a new opportunity. And the task of transporting and erecting the statue in its permanent home was an immense achievement.

Now, many years later, the torch of liberty would blaze brightly. It was President Wilson who permanently turned on the lights in the famous statue, as thousands of onlookers cheered. Here was a bright beacon of hope which would always burn. This was the Statue of Liberty!

Remember the year? The pace of life was slower in those days. A man took his time about most things . . . including buying a car. He wanted to be sure he could get the right car at the right price.

The year was 1916. Being sure of getting the right deal is a smart idea today too. And you'll get the best deal on the right car — when you buy a new 1960 FORD from us. We'll give you an old-fashioned honest deal . . . with the most up-to-date terms! CHARLIE SEEDS MOTOR CO., INC., 146 E. 2nd, EM4-2727.
