

County 4-H Club Members Attend Tractor School

A tractor workshop was held at Hay's Implement Company on Monday through Thursday, Aug. 12-15, for 4-H club members from Deaf Smith County. Nearly every club in the county was represented.

A film entitled 4-H Trails was shown on Monday night and a series of other films, "Tractor Safety", "Farm Tractor Safety and the Family" were presented on the following nights.

This course, taught by Cecil Oglesby and John Fielder; is the third in a series of four. In this course 4-H club members learn about engine ignitions, saving fuel, valves and valve service, steering and front wheels, power transmissions, care of tires, trouble shooting, and winter care. The youngsters study from books, 4-H Tractor Program. At the end of the course, they will complete the book and fill in the work sheets and the quiz sheet and turn them in to Lefty Thomas to be graded.

At 4-H achievement night, awards will be presented to the boys who have most successfully completed the questions and work sheets.

Each year the boys are given a choice of what they would most like to do in a course. This year they selected the tractor school and we have been very pleased with the progress they have made," said Lefty Thomas, county agent. They learn through viewing the films, listening to lectures by the instructors and then asking questions and discussing their ideas together.

ATTENDING A 4-H Tractor School held at Hay's Implement Co., Monday through Thursday are Denis Goheen, James Jesko, Steve Robbins, Ronnie Burgess, Roy Burgess, Tommy Bezner, Steve Olsen, Roy Goheen, Larry Oglesby, Rodney

Goheen, Joyce Bezner, and Stephen Jesko. C. T. Goheen, Frank Robbins, and George Olsen assisted Cecil Oglesby with the program. (Staff Photo)

100 Trainees Needed To Fill State Highway Patrol Ranks

The Texas Department of Public Safety is in need of approximately 100 "better than average" young Texans to fill the ranks of the Highway Patrol and help stem the tide of traffic tragedy and rising crime in the Lone Star State.

Applications will be accepted until September 9 for a training school which begins

Nov. 19 at the DPS Law Enforcement Academy in Austin where qualified men will participate in a police training program and receive salaries while in training.

Application may be made by men 21 to 35 years of age through any Department of Public Safety office, or by contacting a DPS patrolman.

The following will be applicable for men selected for the November 19 school:

1. The school will be for Highway Patrol personnel exclusively; all applicants selected for training will be assigned to the Patrol Service.

2. Every effort will be made to assign them to stations within 100 miles of their present homes.

3. Upon graduation, the new Highway Patrolmen will benefit by a pay increase from the present $412 per month to $453. Highway Patrolmen also receive the following benefits:

Two weeks vacation annually, 13 or more holidays each year as provided by the Legislature, 12 days per year sick leave which may accumulate to a maximum of 36 days, $10 per month added to salary at the end of each five years to a maximum of 25 years, modern liberal retirement system based on age and/or years of service, social security benefits, travelling expenses when away from station as prescribed by law, group hospitalization and life plan available, uniforms and the necessary equipment to perform duties furnished.

"The career jobs offered actually are more than just jobs—they are positions of sacred trust in an organization whose people have earned for it the respect of not only all Texans, but everyone who comes to or travels through our great state," said Col. Homer Garrison Jr., department director.

"The satisfaction of serving and protecting his fellowmen is the priceless possession of each of our patrolmen. We invite young men who can meet the requirements to secure the full facts concerning the rewarding careers offered in the uniformed ranks of the Department of Public Safety, by contacting a patrolman or one of our offices."

During the course of their study at the Law Enforcement Academy student patrolmen are given intensive training in such subjects as Texas Highway Law, Traffic Accident Investigation, Emergency First Aid, Professional Driving, and Firearms Technique.

In addition to the classroom work they are taught self-protection by means of judo, boxing, wrestling and various other police-protection methods. While in attendance at the Academy they will be brought into top physical condition.

SATISFYING CAREER
The training of a Highway Patrolman is a test of an individual's intellectual, emotional and physical stamina. It is an educational process which prepares him for one of the most self-satisfying careers in public service—law enforcement.

REWARDING SERVICE
In his training he is taught to recognize and control any situation that might arise from dealing with unusual situations and stress. He is prepared for dealing with unusual situations under adverse conditions.

"The very nature of police work is demanding on the law enforcement officer—but it is also very rewarding. It deals with getting people to conform to the rules and regulations of society with a minimum of friction."

The Highway Patrolman's duties are as varied as the geography of the state in which he patrols. A day's duty may consist of tracking a tornado in the swirling sands of West Texas, or rescuing a stranded citizen along a hurricane-swept coastal area. It may involve the high speed pursuit and apprehension of a flagrant traffic law violator or wanted criminal.

A HALF-BURIED CAUTION SIGN and water-filled ruts at the intersection of Moreman and Centre resulted from heavy rains in the Hereford area last week. The rain was generally heavy across the area and deflated most crops, especially in the dryland area to the west. The rain apparently came "at the right time" for the grain sorghum crop this year. Cropland was beginning to dry from the last series of rains, but the two inches or more of moisture assured an ample supply to harvest. (Staff Photo)

This is a specialized profession only for young men of above average intelligence, with high moral standards and unusual physical courage. The Highway Patrolman's primary job is much like that of a shepherd—supervising traffic on the highways, which includes accident investigation, traffic direction and traffic law enforcement.

By his presence on the highways of Texas the Highway Patrolman has the opportunity and duty of assisting motorists in distress, whether it is helping change a tire or rendering first aid to someone critically injured in an accident—this same aid often being the difference between life and death.

At the end of two years of satisfactory performance a patrolman is eligible to compete in promotional examinations to advance to the rank of sergeant, or to vacancies which may exist in the Narcotics Section, the Intelligence Section or in other specialized services of the Department of Public Safety. He also is eligible for the Safety Education Service and, after five years the patrolman may apply for promotion to the storied Texas Rangers.

Sigman's Boyhood Interest Becomes His Main Hobby

By Sara Gilentine
Brand Staff Reporter

"I became interested in pigeons when I was a little boy growing up on a farm. Since then the interest has grown and now I have about 110 birds," said Stan Sigman.

Sigman has only Birmingham Rollers and Tumblers at the present time but in the past he has raised almost every variety of pigeon. He breeds his own pigeons for both color and performance.

"Many people don't realize that pigeons are a very clean and beautiful animal if they are well trained. I breed pigeons for show mainly now. The shows range from backyard shows, to district shows to national shows. The pigeons which participate in these shows have no odor and carry no disease from a pigeon," Sigman added.

On July 28, Sigman conducted a backyard pigeon show at his own home. People came all over the area including Wichita Falls, Odessa, Hollis, N. M., Lovington, N. M., Post and Abenathy. There were also many youngsters entered in the show from the Hereford area.

He explained that pigeons have a very interesting history and that they were used in both the first and second world wars. They were standard equipment for paratroopers and infantrymen who ventured behind enemy lines.

If these men lost contact with the rest of their group they would write their position on a slip of paper and attach it to the pigeon. When released the pigeon would fly to its home base with the needed information. These pigeons have been known to fly as far as 2,000 miles to reach their home, he explained.

In the past, Sigman has raised homing pigeons which he has personally raced over 400 miles. These races are still held in the Amarillo area but there are very few racers around the Hereford area.

"People could learn a lot from these pigeons," continued Sigman. "These birds mate for life, and unless their mate dies, the pigeon will not accept another mate. They both take part in the care and feeding of the young also. The hen sits on the eggs from about 5 p.m. till 10 a.m., then the cock takes his turn. Pigeons also give milk, both the male and the female and so both of them take part in feeding the young birds."

"Sigman now has about 110 birds in three kits or groups. These kits are grown and trained together. He starts the training by putting them on the loft for about ten days and just letting them walk around. Then he forces them off the loft with a sprinkling hose.

He also teaches them to come back to the loft after a certain length of time by placing food once a day at a certain time in their pens.

The pigeons are fed a specially prepared mixture of wheat, peas, milo, corn, grit, and water. This is bought in large cans and mixed by the Sigmans.

Neither heat or cold bothers the pigeons but moisture does. Pigeons will die if their feet become wet for any length of time.

Sigman raises pigeons only as a hobby, but in the past few years he has had many children ask to buy his birds and he has sold many of them. Champion pigeons sell for anywhere up to $300, but other pigeons can be purchased for a much lower price.

He trains his pigeons not to light on anything but their own loft and if he finds any pigeons which are lighting on anything else, he destroys them so they will not spread this bad habit.

The variety of pigeons Sigman raises are taught to tumble in a group from the sky and stop only a short distance before they hit the ground. They are one of the most unusual birds in existence today.

faces against top choices in their districts.
Dumas, Levelland and Littlefield are also the three top ranking teams in district 1-AAA.
"We think we can compete a little better this year than we did last year," stated the head football coach. "We're pretty optimistic since we have a lot of big boys and a lot of desire. We are going to try to have a real good football team."
The team, he pointed out, is stronger than last year's team which was crippled by injuries. However, the Whitefaces will have more depth in some spots while at other positions it will be about the same, Meredith noted.

A squad meeting of the freshmen team is to be held Saturday Aug. 24, at 2 p.m., according to coach Hugh Sullivan. Equipment will be issued and team members will be given physical examination forms.
Physicals will be given during the week with practice to begin after school starts.
Whiteface fans are invited to attend the workouts.

ans were almost all either cowboys or oil millionaires.
Christa was met in Amarillo by her American parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Carmichael. Her American sister, Merle is in Colorado at a band camp at this time.

It was well after mid-night when Christa went to sleep for the first time in the United States and she was very glad for that sleep after such a long day.

The next morning, Friday, was a busy day for the exchange student. She began her day with a tour of her new home and a visit with her new parents and her day was also filled with a visit to the school, meeting many people, and a tour of Hereford.

When asked about school life, Christa replied, "School has always been a big part of my life, not only because I enjoy studying, but also because my father is a college professor at the University of Graz. He is a chemistry teacher."

Christa belonged to a Catholic Youth Club in Austria and participated in almost all of its activities. They included meetings, dances and trips. In November of last year, the club took its annual trip to Rome, Italy.

She was graduated from the gymnasium last year. The girls in her graduating class and two sponsors took a trip to France and toured the city.

While in the United States, Christa would like to study Spanish and add a knowledge of that to her French and English. She also plans to study both American history and literature. In this way she hopes to learn just as much as she can about the people and customs of the United States.

"When I return to Austria," added Christa, "I plan to study languages and become an interpreter or to study chemistry and become a pharmacist."

Next Thursday, the Carmichaels plan to take Christa to Gunnison, Colo., where they will meet Merle. They then plan to show Christa some of the different parts of the country on the way back.

steps not exceeding 15 miles per hour.

This will keep the speed limits from changing abruptly from the 70 mph highway speed to the 30 mph city limit, he said.

Change in the speed limits is a result of a law passed during the recent session of the Texas Legislature upping speed limits.

Even though the top limit has been increased, roads which are unsafe for increased speeds will be designated and signs posted.

The speed increase is not effective until 12:01 a.m. Friday.

Indian Dance Program Set New Palo Duro Theatre

The Kwahadi Indian dancers of the Boy Scout troop 80 in Amarillo will furnish several specialty dances to climax the meeting and program of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation in the Palo Duro Canyon Theater on Sunday, Aug. 18 at 7:15 p.m.

The appearance of these skillful young men will give members of the Foundation and their friends the opportunity to see the effectiveness of color and movement on the stage. It will be a preview on a small scale of one kind of entertainment for which the theater is designed.

Kwahadi dancers have been studying Indian lore and dancing for three years. Ralph Irelan is their chief instructor and Rick Jensen is the leader.

Jack Bryant, also of Amarillo, is their manager. They will be introduced by Fred Poppe. They perform dances from Sioux, Comanche, Kiowa and Cheyenne tribes, and specialize in group dances from the Pueblos along the Rio Grande.

It is fitting that these boys should present the first evening performance in the Canyon theater said Mrs. Ples Harper, Foundation president. The Kwahadi clan was a part of the Comanche tribe and the word means "antelope eater."

Their leader was Quannah Parker and under him they fought the last battle in the Palo Duro Canyon, she pointed out.

When the Scouts chose the Kwahadi name, they did it after a thorough study of the history of the Canyon.

Although the theater is not finished, the seating platform and stage are complete and the concrete risers make fairly comfortable seats. Taking advantage of this, the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation is calling an inspection meeting.

Members and interested friends will meet at 7:15. They will be able to see the layout of the newest structure now that the framework is in; the building, which houses the box office and rest rooms. They will be able to see the general effect of this building and the entrance.

During the meeting, the audience will be asked to participate in some acoustical tests to test the effect of a large group in the theater.

With a small group, a cello dropped on stage can be heard anywhere in the theater. Such acoustical perfection is very rare in any building.

In addition to the inspection, the membership will vote on a plan which the executive board is presenting for consideration. This plan would capitalize the first year of the show and raise money for its production by selling 200 units for $500 apiece.

The "angels" who buy these would be following the system generally used to raise money for Broadway productions. If the plan is adopted, those who want to become "angels" may do so immediately.

The idea is under consideration in order to complete the financing for the show in time to produce it in the summer of 1964. The bulk of the money needs to be in sight eleven or twelve months before the opening date of the show.

When this issue of the Brand hits the streets, we will be well on our way to the state of Nuevo Leon in Mexico, and more specifically, the city of Monterrey, and as the time of departure draws nearer, we become more anxious. Actually, guess we should have gone a week ago, since we haven't contributed much to the welfare of the Hereford Brand for the past days anyhow.

Monterrey, we understand, is quite modern and in many ways is much like our own cities. It boasts over 800,000 population and is criss-crossed with one-way streets. That's going to be a real interesting, particularly since we do not read one word of Spanish.

The Lord willing and the creeks don't rise, we'll be in the city Monday morning. We plan to remain all week and come back around the 23rd or 24th of this month. All-in-all, it should be a real pleasant vacation.

Frank Ford, Sr., another nomadic Herefordite dropped by the office last week and left one of the most disreputable looking hats that we have ever seen. The note to Jimmie Gillentine read: "It may be a short crop this year, and we thought you might need your hat back."

Frank refused to say where he got the thing, but told us that Jimmie could probably figure out where he left it. After much head scratching, Jimmie remembered that the hat (which belonged to Baz) had been discarded at the Herman Neff ranch in Canada as they were passing through on their way home.

Jim reports that they had intended to bury the hat, along with some other garbage, cans, etc. when they left the ranch, but unfortunately had lost their shovel. And apparently, even the bears weren't interested in it.

We would suggest that next time they try burning the rubbish.

merce is up to their old tricks again. Apparently they are getting a little disturbed over the possibility, and probability, that Hereford will whip their ears down in the forthcoming Chamber of Commerce membership contest. The following is a telegram received by Deaf Smith County Chamber President Maurice Tannahill:

But according to Mr. Tannahill, when the runnings start all Dumas will be able to see will be heels and dust. Dumas will be so far down in the cellar they'll have to build ladders to see the "Mets".

If this keeps up, we're going to have more radio stations in the country than we have insurance salesmen!

Miss Cheryl Parker (Brady Studio)

Wedding Planned

The engagement of Miss Cheryl June Parker and Jerry Hodges has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Parker, 415 Knight. The couple will pledge vows on Sept. 7.

Miss Parker attended Hereford High School. Her fiancé, a graduate of Hereford High School, will be a senior at West Texas State University this fall. He is a business major. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hodges Jr. of Frio.

Channer-Williams Vows Read In Home Ceremony

On Saturday, Aug. 10, at 4 p. m., Miss Willa Sue Channer and Daniel David Williams were married in the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Channer, 607 South 25 Mile Avenue. The Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Williams of Shepherd are the parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Herschel Thurston, pastor of the First Methodist Church, read the double ring marriage vows before a mantel centered with a symmetrical arrangement of white gladioli and snow white chrysanthemums.

A white satin wedding bench was used in the ceremony. Behind the kneeling bench was a white iron lace wedding fence, and at each side of the fireplace was a candelabra containing white wedding tapers.

Dr. Channer gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white corded silk tunic sheath with an organza appliqued overskirt. Her nose veil was attached to a cabbage rose of white fabric. She carried a bouquet of white glamelias atop a white Bible.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Lonnie Cardinal. She wore a gold cotton sheath dress with black accessories and a corsage of Frenched white carnations.

Candles were lighted by Andy Channer. Tom Stalcup of Lubbock was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Channer wore a cinnamon sheath dress with champagne accessories and a corsage of Frenched white carnations.

A reception followed the ceremony. At the bride's book was Mrs. Don Jackson, Mrs. Bob Veigel and Mrs. Lonnie Cardinal served at the refreshment table. An arrangement of white gladioli and white chrysanthemums in a cut glass container centered the table, which was covered with a white linen cloth. The two-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

For the wedding trip through parts of Texas, Mrs. Williams wore a white linen sheath dress with a red and white checked jacket and white accessories.

For a short time the couple will live at 3922 Simpson, Apt. 220, Dallas. Mrs. Williams, a graduate of Hereford High School and the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing, is with the Wadley Blood Research Center. Her husband, a graduate of Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, is an accountant with Owens-Illinois Glass Company.

Double Ring Vows Exchanged By Carolyn Kuper, Allen Evers

A late afternoon ceremony on August 12 in Saint Anthony's Catholic Church united in marriage Miss Carolyn Ann Kuper and Allen Richard Evers. The Rev. Hubert Byrnes officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kuper of Summerfield are the parents of the bride. A 1962 graduate of Hereford High School, she attended West Texas State College last year and is a private music teacher for pupils in Umbarger, Hereford, Nazareth, and Summerfield.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Evers of Umbarger. He attended Canyon High School, served six months in the army, and is with the Hereford Safeway store.

Three fan-shaped arrangements of white ruffled gladioli and majestic daisies were placed on the altar for the double ring ceremony. On each side of the altar were baskets of gladioli standing in front of fern trees.

Organ selections played by Miss Linda Wieck of Umbarger included traditional Rossini marches, "On This Day O Beautiful Mother," "O' Mary to Love Thee," "Pani Angelicus," and "Veni Jesus." Edward Dziak Jr., accompanied by Miss Wieck, sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother at Your Feet is Kneeling."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of satin and Chantilly lace fashioned by her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Phillip Acker of Nazareth. The fitted bodice of Chantilly lace over satin was reembroidered with aurora crystals and seed pearls and featured a scalloped neckline. Matching lace edged the skirt. A cathedral train descended from large satin roses at the waistline in back.

Her veil of tulle edged with lace was attached to a large pillbox accented with tiny roses and beads. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of fringed carnations with two Japhets orchids. Her only jewelry was a very small gold cross, set with an opal, belonging to her grandfather.

A sister of the groom, Mrs. Alphonse Huseman of Nazareth, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were sisters of the bride, Miss Lynda Kuper and Miss Dolores Kuper. Miss Rosemary Dupnik, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Each of the attendants wore a formal gown of chiffon and net over taffeta with roses of the same material on the left shoulder and at the waist in back, a leaf hat with a short veil, white gloves, and a tiny gold bell on a chain, gifts from the bride. Each carried a cascade bouquet of fringed carnations.

Miss Lynda Kuper's dress was pink over yellow and her hat pink. Miss Dolores Kuper was dressed in yellow over blue with a yellow hat. The matron of honor wore blue over pink with a blue hat.

The flower girl wore a dress fashioned exactly like the bride's gown, but without the train. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with streamers of rainbow ribbon to match the colors of the attendants' dresses. She wore a tiny gold cross, a gift from the bride.

Donnie Evers, brother of the groom, was ringbearer. Alphonse Huseman of Nazareth served as his brother-in-law's best man. Groomsmen were brothers of the bride and groom, Marvin Kuper and Charles Evers. Guests were seated by Johnny Kuper, brother of the bride; Eddie Evers, brother of the groom; a cousin of the groom, Fred Wieck of Umbarger, Harold Irlbeck of Canyon and Herman Acker, an uncle of the bride.

Nuptial Mass was served by Larry Kuper, brother of the bride; Billy Hollenstein; the groom's cousin, Melvin Wieck of Umbarger, and Wayne Schilling of Black.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Kuper, wore a dusty rose lace dress with brown accessories and a white Japhets orchid corsage. Mrs. Evers, mother of the bridegroom, wore a floral dress of crepe. Her corsage was fringed white carnations.

A reception and dance in Saint Anthony's Hall followed the ceremony. About 400 guests were registered by Miss Dannelle Crowley of Dimmitt. Serving the bride's table at the buffet dinner were Dorothy Weick, cousin of the groom, Jo Ann Haschke of Umbarger, Kathy Marnell, Linda, Carla, and Donna Stengel, and cousins of the bride, Kathleen Kuper, Charlyn Braddock of Nazareth, Diana Acker of Nazareth, and Sherrie Schulte.

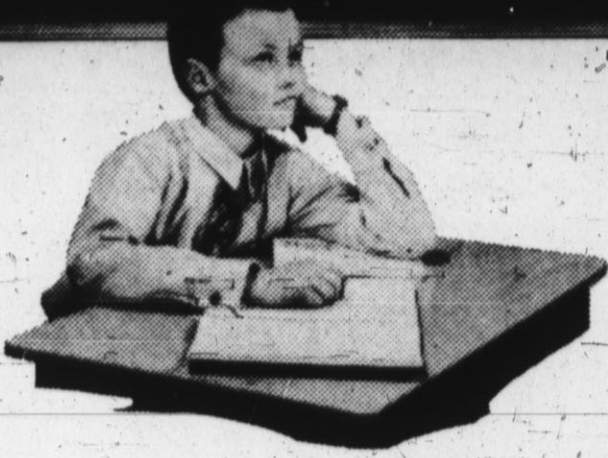

The wedding cake, crystal candelabra, and the bridal bouquet were placed on a table covered with white nylon lace over white satin. This table stood in front of the buffet table for the bridal party. On extensions of the three-tiered wedding cake were dolls dressed to match the bride's gown and those of her attendants. Mrs. John Henderson and Mrs. A. C. Stengel, both of Frio, served the cake.

For her going away costume the bride chose a pale peach dress with a rounded neckline and pleated skirt and a light jacket. Her accessories were white and her corsage the orchids lifted from the bridal bouquet. After the wedding trip to points of interest in Colorado, the couple will live in Summerfield.

Versatile Blender Can Be Used For Many Purposes

By DALE STEVENS
BRAND SOCIETY EDITOR
Many women find a blender is a very useful and versatile kitchen appliance. In some homes it is always on the countertop so that it can be used frequently. In others it is stored away and used only occasionally, mostly for summer beverages.

This collection of recipes represents only a few of the many ways to prepare foods with a blender. Preparation of baby foods, special diet foods, and many other blender possibilities are not included. Those who use blenders constantly will have many other ideas. Those who rarely use them may find that these recipes suggest others.

BLENDER KETCHUP
Use dead-ripe tomatoes, white vinegar, and spices tied in a cloth bag.

- 48 medium tomatoes (about 8 pounds)
 - 2 ripe sweet red peppers
 - 2 sweet green peppers
 - 4 onions
 - 3 cups vinegar
 - 3 cups sugar
 - 3 T. salt
 - 1 1/2 t. allspice
 - 3 t. dry mustard
 - 1 1/2 t. cloves
 - 1 1/2 t. cinnamon
 - 1/2 t. hot red pepper
- Quarter tomatoes; remove stem ends. Add peppers, seeded and cut in strips, and onions, peeled and quartered. Mix. Put vegetables in blender container, filling jar 3/4 full. Blend at high speed 4 seconds; pour into large kettle. Repeat until all vegetables are blended.

Add vinegar, sugar, salt, and spices, tied loosely in this muslin bag. Simmer, uncovered, in slow oven (325 degrees) or in electric saucepan until volume is reduced in half. Remove spices. Seal immediately in hot sterilized jars. Makes five pints.

CHICKEN CASHEW SPREAD

- 2 T. mayonnaise
 - 1 6-oz. can boned chicken
 - 1 cup cashews
 - 1/2 cup cut-up celery
 - 2 sprigs parsley
 - 1/2 t. Worcestershire sauce
- Put all ingredients in blender container and blend until almost smooth. Chill. Use as spread on open-faced sandwiches. Yield: 1 1/2 cups.

SANDWICH SPREADS

Cut into blender container left over ham or roast in pieces, add mayonnaise and sweet pickles to taste, celery and onions if desired, cover, and blend.

SHRIMP PASTE

- 2 T. chili sauce
 - 2 T. mayonnaise
 - 1 thin slice unpeeled lemon
 - 1 5-oz. can shrimp, drained
- Put all ingredients into a blender container. Cover and blend until smooth at high speed. Stop once or twice and push the ingredients down from the sides of the container. Serve on crackers or Melba toast.

MAYONNAISE

- 1 egg
 - 2 T. mild vinegar
 - 1/2 t. dry mustard
 - 1 t. salt
 - 1 cup salad oil
- Place first four ingredients in blender container and add about 1/2 cup oil. Blend thoroughly. Without stopping beater, remove the cover and gradually add remaining oil. As the mixture thickens it may be necessary to stop the blender and stir the mayonnaise down occasionally. (Makes 1 1/2 cups)

CRUMBS

In preparing crumbs for dressing, meat loaf, pie crusts, etc., the best results will be obtained if only one slice of bread, 6 graham crackers, 4 pieces zwieback, or 12 vanilla wafers are placed in the container at a time. Each of these amounts will yield about one-third cup. Cover container and blend until fine; repeat until you have the desired amount.

INSTANT CHEESECAKE

- 2 envelopes gelatin
- Juice of 1/2 lemon
- Thin strip shave lemon - peel.
- 1/2 cup hot milk
- 1/4 cup sugar

yolks, cover and blend for five seconds. Remove cover, add ice and cream, and continue to blend for 20 seconds longer or until dessert begins to thicken.

Fresh Coconut Cream Pie

- 1 cup sugar
 - 1/4 t. salt
 - 1/2 cup cornstarch
 - 3 cups hot milk
 - 3 egg yolks, beaten
 - 1 t. vanilla
 - 1/2 t. almond extract
 - 2 cups grated fresh coconut
 - 1 9-in. baked pie shell
 - 1 cup whipping cream
- Break coconut meat into small pieces and place in blender con-

AMONG THE MANY INTERESTING ways a blender can be useful is the preparation of ketchup. The materials for making Blender Ketchup can be quickly assembled and easily prepared with a recipe from the latest edition of Farm Journal Freezing and Canning Cookbook. This recipe and other suggestions for daily use of the blender are included in this week's Let's Cook Something. (Staff Photo)

2 egg yolks

- 2 ounces cream cheese
 - 1 heaping cup crushed ice
 - 1/2 cup heavy cream

Add sugar, egg yolks, and cream cheese, cover and blend on high speed for 10 seconds. Remove cover, add ice and cream and continue to blend for 15 seconds. Immediately pour into a 4-cup springform pan and sprinkle with zwieback crumbs. Serves 6.

Strawberry Bavarian Cream

- 1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen strawberries
 - 2 envelopes gelatin
 - 1/4 cup cold milk
 - 1/4 cup sugar
 - 2 egg yolks
 - 1 heaping cup crushed ice
 - 1 cup cream
- Defrost berries and drain 1/2 cup juice into saucepan. Heat just to a simmer. Into blender container put gelatin and milk. Add hot strawberry juice, cover, and blend for 40 seconds. Add sugar, strawberries, and egg Yolks. Blend until finely grated. Set aside.

Combine sugar, cornstarch, and salt in medium saucepan; gradually add milk and stir some of hot mixture into beaten egg yolks. Using about one cup of grated coconut, combine remaining ingredients with hot mixture in saucepan and cook over low heat about five minutes. Cover tightly and refrigerate for an hour. Turn into pie shell and refrigerate three hours. To serve, whip cream and spread over filling; top with remaining coconut.

BANANA SHAKE

 - 2 cups cold milk
 - 1 T. sugar
- Break banana into small pieces and put into blender container. Add milk and sugar. Cover and blend until smooth and fluffy. Serve at once.

FROM FINLAND as a student this year at Hereford High School, is Miss Tuula Lehti of Salo. She is to live with T. J. Parsons during the school year. Tuula is here in the United States because of an invitation sent by Mr. and Mrs. Parsons to her parents and is not a foreign exchange student. The Finnish student is a cousin of Mari Niinisto, who lived with the Parsons while attending Hereford High. (Staff Photo)

HERE And THERE

Mrs. Melvin Kaul
Here to live as a daughter in the T. J. Parsons home this school year and be a sister to the Parsons youngest daughter, Doris, is Miss Tuula Lehti of Salo, Finland. Tuula is not an exchange student. She is here "on her own" because she wanted so much to come to the United States to study. She is being sent to school here by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Arvi Lehti.

She is a cousin of Mari Niinisto also of Salo who lived with the Parsons family as an exchange student in 1908-10. While Mari was here, Tuula began corresponding with Doris Parsons and they became fast friends. So when Mrs. Parsons wrote and asked her to come live here and go to school, she was eager to do so.

She left Helsinki, Finland, Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. by plane. They made a landing at Oslo, Norway, and two landings in Iceland and arrived in New York Thursday morning. Tuula then took a jet to Dallas and then to Amarillo where she was met by the Parsons when she arrived at 3:30 that afternoon.

She was to have arrived on Friday but when she came a day early, she states that arriving in Dallas she was "in difficulty" on how to notify her American family. The agent at the airport came to her rescue, called the Parsons, and told them their girl from Finland was arriving in Amarillo in an hour and a half.

Asked if she had a guide or some one to help her board the plane in New York, she replied that she had a guide but lost her and so got on safely by herself.

Besides her parents Tuula has two brothers—Talesto and Timo. They live on a fair sized farm out of Salo which is between Helsinki and Turko, (80 acres being a large farm there.) Her father farms and also owns a plastic factory. They own a summer cottage about 10 miles from the farm on a lake and spend much time in summer there.

Tuula says it has been very hot in Finland this summer and so they have gone swimming nearly every day. At the cottage there is a "sauna" or bath house. These are found at most of the cottages. As to lakes—she says there are 66,000 in Finland.

She attends the Lutheran Church in Finland which is the state church. More than 80 per cent of the Finnish people are Lutheran.

Tuula doesn't know yet whether her credits from the high school in Salo will qualify her as a junior or senior. She has studied several languages including German, English, Swedish (everybody must have Swedish) and Finnish. They study 16 different subjects each week for the school year, so her work here will be a challenge and an adventure to which she is looking with eager anticipation.

On arrival Tuula presented her new American mother with a bouquet of roses and red carnations brought from Finland with her. This carried out the Finnish custom of presenting flowers to a member of the family who is arriving or departing. Her family sent a piece of Swedish glass, a home covered knife and some Finnish chocolate to the Parsons family.

The Parsons family, now living on Fuller street, will be moving to a farm 9 miles northeast of Hereford as soon as a house is built there. They have purchased the farm recently. Mr. and Mrs. Max Stipe and Vikki have purchased the Parsons house on J Street and have moved there.

A "coffee" honoring Mrs. Dennis Barnard of Tucson, Ariz. who has been visiting here in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hilton Higgins, was given Tuesday morning by Mrs. S. S. Dodson at her home on Center Street.

Popular topics of conversation centered around the three daughters of the Barnards. And of special interest were pictures of the new—and only—grandson born on July 15 to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hannon of Brawley, Calif. Mrs. Hannon was the former Sue Barnard. There are two little girls in the family—Debbie and Lisa, who are enjoying young Michael Dennis. Denise, the youngest of the Barnard girls, is now Mrs. Allyn Bagshaw. She and her husband live in La Jolla, Calif. where she teaches first grade in the schools and he is employed by the Security National Bank, Kay and her husband, Glen Brown, have three daughters, Becky, Cynthia, and Glenda and live in Tucson where Glenn works for a well drilling company. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Brown who live on K street. Kay is presently attending the University of Arizona in Tucson.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hightower of Tyler were guests last week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Easley. They are friends of "many years standing" of the Easleys.

Jay Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson Jr., is spending five weeks at Sky Valley Ranch in Buena Vista, Colo. This is a summer camp for boys.

Mrs. J. C. McCracken was honored on her birthday Tuesday with a dinner held at the home of her son, Jack in Bovina. Those present included the honor guest, her husband, J. C. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCracken, Michael and Jay.

Week end guests in the Merlin Kaul home included her cousin, Roy Foley and wife and Roy's daughter, Loretta, and husband, Carl Duncan; the twins, Laura and Mike and little brother Donald all of Altadena, Calif. The Duncans were en route to Tennessee to see his relatives and the Foleys are making a tour into Arkansas and Tennessee and other states to pick up antiques.

Mrs. Minnie Roberson and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weaver and family went to Abilene last week where they attended the graduation exercises at Hendricks Memorial Hospital.

The Weavers' daughter, Mrs. Janelle Weaver Clark, was a graduate and Mrs. Roberson's granddaughter, Sue Roberson, also was graduated. Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Roberson of Amarillo. Her mother was the former Mary Posey, daughter of the late E. B. Posey Sr., and Mrs. Posey here. Sue and Janelle were friends throughout their training at Hendricks.

Another Hereford girl—a schoolmate at Hereford High School with Janelle—was Gail Miller, who was also graduated. Gail's sister Lucy Beth is a registered nurse at the Friona Hospital, and her mother is now a teacher in the Friona schools. Her father is the late Norman Miller. Miss Sue Roberson was a guest of her grandmother last week end and went to Lubbock Wednesday where she hopes to find placement.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Solomon, Suzanne, Craig, and Mike, went to Hamlin last week end where they were guests in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. John Ferguson. They attended church services at the McCauley Community Methodist Church and also at the Faith Methodist Church in Hamlin on Sunday morning. The Rev. Ferguson is pastor of both churches. He was formerly pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church here. Miss Sherrill Solomon, who had spent a week in the Ferguson home returned to Hereford with her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat McCullough and sons, Clay and Don, of Odessa were visiting friends and relatives here last week. They were special guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCracken, and his parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Ralph McCullough. However, being at Grandmothers wasn't much fun on this trip for the McCullough boys for both were no sooner here than they "came down" with the mumps. And to make matters worse, the McCracken grandparents had not had the mumps, so the boys had to be isolated "up stairs" for a few days and forego some of the usual joys which come along with their trips here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parsons enjoyed having all their children home last Saturday. Present was Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd (Continued on page 6)

Many Cattlemen Protest Trend Toward Supports

Cattlemen associations over the country are up in arms over the USDA proposals that would use tax dollars to subsidize newcomers into an already crowded beef cattle business, labeling the proposal as unfair to the traditional and bona fide cattle producer.

We think the cattlemen are just as right as rain.

They have proved that they can stay in business without government aid, and this

New Generation Is 'Digging In'

In these days of record unemployment, along with "help shortages" on every front we are often reminded of the plight of the Ancient Mariner who moaned, "Water, Water, Everywhere But Not One Drop to Drink."

The dilemma, without doubt, presents the United States with a problem far greater than even the questions of integration and Communism. We have seen it grow and develop since the so-called "depression" of the 1930's -- and must pretty well designate it to the generation following those people who honestly could not find jobs, regardless of ability and attitude. Various people have attributed the condition to numerous things: socialistic trends, welfare benefits -- even to prosperity; others are quick to point fingers in the direction of schools, churches and homes. Meanwhile, no one seems to have a practical solution to the ever-present question. Energetic, conscientious, capable workers today remain as scarce as the proverbial "hen's teeth", and we get these reports from every facet of industry and business across the nation.

There is one bright spot in the picture, however, and we are beginning to note it in many places. This bright spot is the oncoming generation. College students and high school students who take jobs during vacation periods are gaining more and more praise for their industry and for their attitude. We can hope, at least, that this new generation of youngsters is emerging with a completely different outlook from that of the last generation. Not only are most of them willing to work, but they apply themselves to assigned tasks -- and are willing to do the job better.

Some observers tell us that this is due to self-discipline, learned many places. Others tell us that it took a generation or so, to accept and adapt to the many benefits civilization now affords, including parents as well as youngsters. Whatever the reason may be, we like the results, for in this direction lies the future of the world's greatest and most highly developed civilization.

Unquestionably, it provides a gratifying surprise, when noted from a general observation, and we can think of no greater individual accomplishment for parents than that of watching their children build and develop a better way of life than they were able to produce as they passed along the way.

seems to be a sore point to the government planners who just can't stand it.

The USDA has advanced a plan to encourage grazing of acres diverted from grain and crop production under government subsidy and control programs. This entails the payment of an annual sum to those who take cropland out of production.

Approximately 40 million acres were taken from production under the program, with the average rate of payment averaging $14 per acre per year. The proposal would cut the rate of payment in half, plus the grazing privileges.

As it is now, these soil bank acres cannot be grazed. Another USDA agency helped the landowner pay the cost of preparing the seedbed, also to buy the seed and fertilizer to cover that land with a soil conserving grass.

Now the government wants to permit the landowner to graze the grass which the taxpayer helped pay for, besides paying half the fee which the landowner now receives for having taken the land out of production.

The cattlemen groups also object to the USDA proposal to make these land retirement payments in a lump sum, stating that the government would in effect be putting up the capital for a newcomer to the cattle business to buy stock for newly diverted land.

What this would amount to would be the government paying a new cattle producer to use his own land.

Cattlemen have no objection at all to competition from those who want to raise their own capital and get into the cattle business. Many have tried it, a lot have failed, many have been successful. All thus far have operated under the free enterprise system and a free market, with no guarantee from anybody that the cattle put out on pasture will be worth more or the same at market time than when first bought.

The cattlemen as he is usually thought of, the rancher requires a lot of land, a lot of capital and a lot of knowledge gained through experience.

Just this year the cattlemen who invested heavily in feeder stock found themselves "plugged by a drop in the market price of finished cattle. Those who have been in the business for a long time expected a drop in price because prices always go up and down in a free market.

The cattlemen as he is usually thought of, the rancher with lots of pasture land who has his capital invested in mother cows and harvests a calf crop every year, usually has the most stable operation.

The speculators who buy steers and gamble on wheat pasture in the fall know that there is no guarantee that there will be either pasture or good market price for the animals. They have to take a chance.

The cattle industry is marked by men of independent spirit and their type of thinking spills over into other areas in the land where cattlemen live. That is why the West often fails to understand the socialistic thinking of the East.

Cattlemen are waging a strong fight to stay out from under the government umbrella of economic "protection." We hope they never get under the same government control as other segments of our economy. OCHILTREE COUNTY HEARLD, PERRYTON, TEXAS

Bug Troubles

Man's efforts to combat insects and weather elements have been long and often fruitless. Now that it appears we are beginning to make headway, it also dawned on us that our methods -- like the atomic bomb -- may well backfire and create more trouble than our two original enemies.

This week we picked up the Olton Enterprise to read that an irate farmer took a pot-shot at an aviator who was spraying insecticide on a neighbor's crop. We laid down this paper and grasped the Gruber Independent to note with interest that fly-bitten residents of that area are screaming to high heaven because the city will not spray. Needless to say, we prefer the Gruber system to that of the farmer and his shotgun, though we are bound to admit that this weapon is said to have been quite effective in certain circles of matrimonial society.

Deaf Smith County has been most fortunate in the fields of insecticide application, and this is all the more remarkable when you stop to consider the tons of material which have been dumped on the crops in the territory.

Application of insecticides in a comparatively new development and, needless to say, provides many peculiarities for the farming community. Folks are learning to "live and let live" in this area, as in many others. The more we see of it, the more we believe the paraphrase of Mr. Lincoln's famous remark would be: "You can't please all of the people, all of the time."

'Ghost Ordering' Hurts Mail Order Businesses

Bill Thompson, manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce said today that reputable firms are being plagued by the so-called "ghost-ordering" of goods by consumers who have no intention of paying for them.

This fraudulent practice applies a reverse twist to a long-standing merchandising evil -- the shipping of goods through the mails to consumers who didn't order them and don't want them.

For years housewives and professional people have been the targets of a wide variety of unorderd merchandise, including ties, handkerchiefs, books, fountain pens and other items.

Accompanying the unsolicited goods is a request from the shipper to remit the asking price or return the merchandise. In the case of charities, an appeal is made for a donation. In the "ghost-ordering" gambit it's the business firm, not the consumer, with cause for complaint.

According to the National Better Business Bureau with which the local Chamber is affiliated through membership the scheme works this way:

Legitimate mail-order firms do not ship without an order but many do solicit orders and provide order cards for would-be buyers.

Some larcenous consumers who are well aware of their rights and obligations with regard to unorderd goods attempt to misuse this knowledge to obtain merchandise without payment.

They return order cards sent to them by legitimate mail-order firms -- with or without signatures -- and then return all follow-up accounting statements with the comment that no order was ever placed.

Playing the role of the aggrieved recipient of unsolicited merchandise, they assert that the goods will be surrendered to any messenger who calls for them, noting that if the merchandise is not called for within a specified time, storage charges will be made.

The scheme is simple enough but it has serious drawbacks. Notes the local Chamber of Commerce: The "messenger" who responds to the invitation to pick-up "ghost-orderd" goods may instead pick-up the perpetrator on fraud charges.

Louis J. Doyle, general counsel of the Post Office Department, has advised that a provision of the U. S. Code provides a maximum fine of $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than 5 years or both for any person found guilty of ordering goods through the mails with no intention of paying for them.

This provision of the law is vigorously enforced in the Federal courts by the Department of Justice, in cooperation with the Post Office Department.

Carnival Theme Carried Out For Garden Party

The lawn party was given by Miss Anna Garrison on last Thursday evening was the most unique and cleverly arranged party of the season. By the use of many electric lights, the appearance was quite festive, rather suggestive of a carnival on a small scale. To the right of the entrance was a red tent that was presided over by a fortune teller. Next there were improvised bargain counters, lemonade stands and the wild west show. The boys when they entered were given a large cardboard dollar which was punched by each of the booths for each favor. The first girl to receive her dollar's worth, Miss Vern Pratt was given a bouquet of roses and the boy who spent the least, Charlie Bennett, received a card with the word "Miser" on it.

25 YEARS AGO

The finest wheat that has been brought to Hereford in many a day arrived last Saturday from the farm of George J. Larson, twenty-two miles northwest of Hereford. This winter wheat, of the pure Kaured variety, tested out sixty-four pounds to the bushel and a generous sample of it was brought in to the First State Bank and Trust Company by Mr. Larson for display in the Deaf Smith County Booth at the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo this fall. Local wheat men believe it will make someone hustle to beat it for the blue ribbon. Mr. Larson and his two brothers are all wheat raisers. That is, they summer till their land and make wheat every year. This particular wheat, in a 25-acre patch, made thirty bushels to the acre. They have a large acreage of wheat besides this plot. The Larson boys have about 3,000 bushels of this fine seed wheat which their neighbors are taking eagerly at $1.00 per bushel and it will not be long until they will be cleaned out of the seed. The more seed of this kind that can be scattered about in this country, the sooner the grade and the yield of the crop for the district will be raised.

Recent Rains Put Smiles All Over

The rain came and, for once everybody seems quite happy.

Pastures are green and lush, grain sorghums are coming along in a beautiful way and things generally are: "Fine, Thank You". Even the old timers are rejoicing a bit over that recent moisture -- chiefly because reaction has been parallel to those days of yore.

In this semi-arid country, we are blessed with irrigation, which we developed profitably into an ultimate degree of agricultural diversification. Consequently, when it does rain someone usually suffers significant loss. This time, however, the losses were definitely at a minimum and even many of those who faced them are lauding the rainfall as beneficial and timely.

All in all, we would say they couldn't have been better. They mean money in the bank for the farmer and, consequently, for business people of all walks. Even the bankers were grinning big and wide -- which is something hard to beat.

TAX SEIZURES PENDING

Randall County will proceed against persons owing personal property taxes in the near future. This announcement came Monday from Bill Money, tax assessor-collector, at the regular meeting of Randall County Commissioners Court. Randall County district attorney Truitt Hull said summary seizure and sale of property on which personal taxes are delinquent is lawful. Such property may be legally seized and sold when the tax assessor appears on the premises, announces the tax levy and formally announces intent to seize the property. Hull said the property may then be impounded by the county sheriff and held for sale to satisfy outstanding personal property taxes.

BUILDING TOPS $1 MILLION

Building permits for the city cracked the $1 million mark in July as new construction continued at a record-breaking clip. The July total of $247,675 was the highest single month of the year, and it pushed the 1963 total up to $1,004,600. Giving the healthy building figures a big boost in July was a permit to Littlefield Schools for remodeling and building a new field house. This alone accounted for $130,000.

PANTEX EMPLOYE POLICY UNCHANGED

A change in administration of the multi-million dollar Pantex Ordnance Plant in west Carson County will be accomplished without major changes in the employe organization, plant officials announced. The statement followed the Army announcement that the plant had been transferred from the U. S. Army Ordnance Corps to the Atomic Energy Commission. The approval was given by the House Armed Services Subcommittee. The Atomic Energy Commission will assume control of all contract work at the plant on Oct. 1. No changes in the number of plant employe or the plant payroll is expected due to the change.

U. S. 84 WIDENING CONTRACT AWARDED

Contract has been awarded for the construction of the first four-lane highway in Parmer County. It was announced in Austin this week. The road to be constructed is 10.21 miles on U. S. Highway 70-84 from Farwell southeast to the county line. This highway is generally considered not only the worst in the county, but possibly the poorest federally-designated highway in the district. Low bidder on the project was James C. Kerr Construction Co. of Lubbock with a bid of $829,996. Two additional lanes will be constructed and the two existing lanes will be rebuilt.

WATER SYSTEM FALL SHORT

Although Perryton's existing water facilities are more than adequate to supply the city's demands, they fall short of meeting state safety standards, city manager J. B. Whigham Jr. said Thursday. State Fire Insurance Commission standards require 130 gallons of underground capacity per capita, 55 gallons overhead storage and certain minimum standards of pumping and line capacity. All these standards are designed to provide the community with a high safety factor against fires. If all the requirements are met, the water system should be capable of fighting a sustained fire for ten hours immediately after peak hours of water consumption plus continued normal pumping.

BULLET HITS CROP DUSTING PLANE

A former Korean war combat pilot, now turned crop duster, was back in the shooting near Olton on Friday when a bullet ripped through the wing of his plane at low altitude as he banked while spraying a cucumber field. THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's Note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Blindweed farm must need a rain, letter this week indicates.

According to an article I ran across in a newspaper which a dry August wind blew across my front screen door and which I pulled off as fast as I could because it was stopping what breeze there was, a scientist claims that rain-making is now within the reach of man but before he goes any further we've got to have a sort of Rain Commission to decide where and when a rain should be produced, for legal protection.

Regardless of how dry it is in any given spot, he said, some farmer can always be found who doesn't want it to rain at this particular moment. He's still got a crop he's gathering and next week would be a better time.

Therefore, he claims, we need a National Rain Commission to decide when the majority need a rain, then turn it on, regardless.

This seems to me to be just another example of needless government spending. There's no need to set up a government bureau. I can handle this job on my own. It's a job for private enterprise.

If the government will stick to drought relief and turn all the rain over to me, and let me make a nominal charge, I will contract to make it rain everywhere. The secret is to take in enough area. It's volume that counts.

My charge would be one cent per acre for every acre that gets as much as one inch, and where's the farmer needing a rain who wouldn't pay a penny an acre for an inch?

I might not be able to please everybody, even a President can't do that, but I doubt if a week would go by when I didn't produce rain somewhere in the United States. Oh, I know there'd be soreheads in drought areas complaining I was neglecting them, but sooner or later in any area where it has rained before, I could make it rain again. This is a big country and no man could be expected to get around to everybody every week. It's like tax relief, it takes time.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

Decrease In Rate Schedule Is Made

Southwestern Public Service Company has taken another step in its rate simplification and equalization program which will mean lower costs for residential service for nearly 20,000 customers in 47 communities on the North Plains. It has been announced by Cliff Milnar, parish division manager.
Communities to receive the lower rate schedule in the Hereford area are Adrian, Bushland, Wildorado, and Vega.
Milnar said the average residential customer in the communities where the new rates will be in effect will realize a savings of 62 cents a month on his electric service bill.
The new rates, scheduled to go into effect for all residential service billed after October 1st, are 6 cents for each of the first 50 kilowatt-hours used monthly, 4 cents for each of the next 50, and 2 cents for all additional kilowatt-hours used monthly.
The present rate schedule in the 47 communities is 6.6 cents for each of the first 50 kilowatt-hours, 3.8 cents for each of the next 50, and 2.2 cents for all additional.
Increased use by residential customers, making it possible for Southwestern Public Service Company to install larger and more efficient generating units, was cited by Milnar as a primary factor in the company's ability to keep electric rates low, in the face of increasing cost for supplies and equipment.

 Parsons and sons Neill and Mac and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Evans and Kirk of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Don Parsons and LeAnn of Dimmitt, Doris Parsons and Miss Tuula Lehti of Salo, Finland. On Sunday the group went to Claude to attend the Stephenson Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCain and sons Mike and Kenny of Gainesville were guests last week in the home of her mother Mrs. Willie Shreve, and her sister Mrs. Bill Phipps on Star St. They also called on Mrs. Bess Werner while here. Mrs. McCain is the former Nellie Jo Shreve. She works for the Welfare Department in Gainesville and her husband is manager of the theaters there. The family was en route to Colorado on a vacation trip.

Members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stephenson of Claude held a dinner in honor of their 60th wedding anniversary at the Fairview School house 8 miles west of Claude last Sunday. Many relatives and friends from Claude and the surrounding area were either present for the dinner or called at the Stephenson home in Claude after all had adjourned there after dinner. "Open House" was not possible as Mrs. Stephenson hasn't been too well.

All five of the children of the couple were present with their families with the exception of two granddaughters—one in Japan and Karen who works in Kerrville and one great grandchild who is in Japan with his mother.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. George Russell and A. J. of Lamar, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bishop, Keith and Allen of Farmington, N. M.;

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Everett, Keith and Brad of Albuquerque, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stephenson of Claude; their son, Joe Henry, his wife, and sons, Gary and Randy of Washburn; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parsons; Doris Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Parsons, Neill and Mac; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Evans and Kirk, of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Don Parsons and LeAnn of Dimmitt, and Tuula Lehti, who is making her home with the Parsons; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stephenson and Janice of Claude; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones, Kenneth, Terry, Ricky Bob, and David of Claude.

The Fairview Community where the dinner was held is mostly made of Stephenson families. It has been in the news as a state winner of the Neighborhood Progress Contest and has also won a second place. Many of those present for the occasion are former residents of the community.

Jo Jo is a pet crow who lives at the Henry Solomon home out on Harrison Highway and belongs to Sherrill, Mike, Suzanne, and Craig Solomon. Henry brought him and two brothers home one day from the farm where he took them from a nest which had been fastened with wire, string, etc. to the suction rod on the windmill. He says their "cradle really did rock when they turned the windmill on.

Jo Jo is the only one of the birds that survived the captivity, since being turned out of the cage where the nest had been placed. When some one of the family goes out and cries "caw, caw" there is immediate flapping of wings and down he comes on an arm or on a head.

He eats most anything that he is fed—lettuce, hamburger, worms (which he loves), drinks water out of a coke bottle, and roosts on the front porch instead of in his nest.

He would come into the house if he could and has almost succeeded as attested by the screen door. Jo says he pulls her hair if he lights on her head and, Susie, the dog doesn't like for him to light on her back—she's a short haired dog. Jo Jo is now 8 weeks old and the children have had him since he was not fully feathered.

He sometimes visits at the windows of the neighbors the Johnsons and McDougals but his favorite pal is a raven which belongs to the Joe Lyons. Mr. Raven sometimes comes to visit him and sometimes they take a jaunt around the neighborhood together. The raven was also found in the country on the Lyons farm.

The Troyce Carmichael family was rudely awakened Saturday night when lightning hit the TV antenna on their house and followed it down into the house. All electric wires were burned out including those of the telephone and metal decor damaged. Luckily fire did not result and no one was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill, Sr., went to Healdton, Okla. last Saturday where they attended the wedding of their niece, Lawanna Lookingbill, to Mr. Philip Alexander Hamilton at the First Methodist Church. She has been employed with Pan American Air Lines. Her husband is a dental student at Baylor University.

Lowman Lookingbill, brother of Lawanna, came from New York City to attend the wedding. He is also employed by Pan American. He came on to Hereford with the L. H. Lookingbills to visit friends and relatives here, and has returned to Healdton to visit again with his father before returning to New York.

Also coming to Hereford with the Lookingbills was their granddaughter, Sandy Winkler and her friend, Peggy Parsons, of Baton Rouge, La. who will visit in the home of their grandparents until school starts.

DURING JULY

Eleven Accidents Occur In County

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 11 accidents on rural highways in Deaf Smith County during the month of July, according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, highway patrol supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for three persons injured and an estimated property damage of $3,040.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county from January through July, 1963, shows a total of 47 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were no persons killed and ten injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $18,005.00.

"There are many good jobs open in the Texas Highway Patrol for young men between 21 and 35 who would like to help prevent the tragic crashes and collisions that occur on the streets and highways," Sergeant Wells said.

With the starting of school in the next week or so the Sergeant reminds all motorists of the state law regulating traffic in regard to school buses.

"The driver of a vehicle upon a highway outside the limits of any incorporated city or town upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which is stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus.

"The driver may proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding 10 miles per hour, with due caution for the safety of such children." "During the first six months of this year, Texas had one person killed and 110 injured in accidents involving school buses," the Sergeant said. "This is tragic and useless. School buses are plainly marked and motorists know that they carry a priceless cargo - human lives."

Commenting on the upcoming Labor Day week-end facing Texas motorists, the veteran patrol supervisor said that many Texas families will take advantage of this last long summer week-end to take trips prior to the opening of school. As a result, traffic will be heavy and the possibilities of traffic crashes will be increased.

"Because this holiday is so much a family affair, more people will be occupying cars. Thus, any traffic accident might result in several casualties. This has been evidenced several times on Texas highways in recent weeks. During the 72 hour Labor Day week-end last year 24 crashes claimed the lives of 32 persons."
