Heavy Rainstorms Deluge City

Heavy rainstorms moving across the Deaf Smith County area Friday deluged Hereford. Up to two inches of moisture was reported unofficially in some sections of the city.

Official moisture amount for the city was 1.70 inches with more than an inch and a half falling before noon.

As the heavy rains moved northeast of Hereford about noon, two or three funnel clouds dipped toward the ground south of the city.

However, the funnels did not reach the ground and no damage to buildings in rural areas was reported.

Rain began falling in the city as light sprinkles with the first heavy rain falling about 8:30 a.m. Following another period of light showers, a heavy rainstorm lasting approximately an hour and a half dumped almost an inch and a half of moisture on the city.

Due to the heavy downpour, the city's storm sewer system was unable to handle the runoff. Consequently, many intersections and several streets in the city were flooded.

Heaviest flooding in the city occurred at Dameron Park, at U.S. 385 at Grand Ave. and Morgan Street intersections along both streets and on Harrison Highway.

At Grand Ave. and U.S. 385 as well as the Morgan St. intersection, water was running curb deep. Along Morgan flooding occurred from the intersection to Northwest Elementary School.

The heavy downpour turned Dameron Park into a lake as runoff from the northern portion of the city flooded into the park and overflowed storm sewers.

Farming operations in the area were halted as fields were swamped by the rains.

Enrollment Hits 3131 With More Due On Sept. 3

As expected, public school enrollment soared above previous records as classes started Thursday. And school officials are looking for another sizable enrollment spurt on Tuesday after the Labor Day weekend.

Enrollment as of Thursday was 3,131, up 222 from the 2,909 that were on hand the first day of the 1962-63 term. And it was 37 more than the peak enrollment of 3,094 reached in mid-November of last year.

Last year, enrollment rose by 113 in the two days after Labor Day, so school officials are confident that public school enrollment will be above 3,200 at the end of the first full week and probably will crest above 3,300 in late October or November.

Elementary school enrollment after the first day was 1,833, an increase of 131 over the 1,702 for the same period last year. Junior high is down and senior high is up because of the move of the ninth grade from junior to senior high school.

Junior high enrollment was 480 on Thursday, down from 687 last year. The high school had 818 students, compared with 472 last year. For the two schools, enrollment is 1,298, compared with 1,159 last year, a gain of 139.

As of Thursday, Alkman Elementary School had 397 students, Northwest Elementary reported 552, Central Elementary had 398 and Shirley Elementary had 486.

Classes at Hereford's two Catholic schools will add several hundred more on Tuesday. St. Anthony's Parochial School is expecting about 270, while St. Joseph's Mission School will have about 250.

Public school facilities have been increased during the past several months in anticipation of the added enrollment. Northwest Elementary has been enlarged (Continued on page 3)

Vandals Smash Farm Equipment

Four tractors on three Deaf Smith County farms were heavily damaged Tuesday night as headlights were beat out, tires punctured and slashed, and diesel fuel tanks drained, according to Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Office.

As a result of the damage to farm equipment, commented a sheriff's deputy, a $100 reward is being offered by a group of interested farmers for information leading to arrest and conviction of persons responsible for the damage. He stated that damages to the four tractors and loss of fuel as overhead storage tanks were (Continued on page 9)

Football Team Introduced In Brand Photos

Pictures of the 29 Hereford High School varsity football players start appearing in this issue of the Brand. The remainder of the photos will be in the Brand on Thursday, Sept. 5.

None of the players have lettered previously. Seniors Eugene Green and Jim Haney already have earned two letters. Other lettermen include Neal Laeth, J. Carter, John Kovacs, Eddie Johnson, Jim Higgins, Frank Cain and Bonnie Duncan. The others are up from the B team of from junior high school.

Opening game of the season is slated here Friday, Sept. 6 at 8 p.m. vs. the Whitefaces from the Luba Hornets. The Herd will play six home games this year during a 10-game slate.

Coach Jack Meredith invites the public to attend workouts each afternoon at 4 p.m. north of Northwest Elementary School.

Around Town

BY H. A. TUCK

Welcome indeed were the rains but they just didn't get spread around quite enough. Folks in the north and northwest part of the county got some respectable amounts, but nothing like we received in Hereford. But it should be welcome as a pre-watering for winter wheat.

Brand bookkeeper Aitha McIver says the popular little Pocket Books arrived too late to be enclosed with the statements. Any of you folks who want yours are asked to drop by the Brand office and pick up one. Reminds me of when I was working in Duran, a lumber company manager was transferred and wrote us to see if he could subscribe to the Pocket Book — seems he had kept every issue since they had been started there.

Lions Present $7500 Check As Pledge To King's Manor

Hereford Lions Club made the largest single donation by a civic group to King's Manor as a check was presented in behalf of the club for $7500 to Hereford Area Foundation. The check was for the amount Lions Club had pledged to the building of the home. Making the presentation Wednesday for the civic organization was Jesse Stamford with Earnest Langley accepting in behalf of the area foundation and King's Manor. In accepting the check Langley stated that he could not think of anything giving more pleasure to the community and ourselves. Lions Club members as the $7500 donation to this community project.

"I don't know of anything outside of the city's churches that will benefit the community more," he commented. Langley, in accepting, stated that it was special pleasure to receive the $7500 in behalf of the Hereford Area Foundation.

He pointed out that the money would be funneled through to King's Manor as the funds were needed for new construction.

"This check represents the largest contribution to King's Manor with the exception of those founders who built and furnished rooms at the golden agers home," he pointed out to Lions Club members.

The area foundation Board of Trustees member commented that the home is a long time project. It will not just be a home for 25 people, he added, but for 150 persons.

"We have good reason to be proud of King's Manor," stated Langley. "Three years ago members of all denominations got together to pledge and raise $100,000 as a show of good will to the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church.

It is hoped, he added, that the home here will eventually represent an investment of $1 (Continued on page 3)

Farm Bureau's Policy Committee To Meet Monday

A meeting of the policy development committee of Deaf Smith County Farm Bureau will meet in the Farm Bureau office on Monday at 8 p.m., according to Denzil Pulliam, president.

The meeting, commented Pulliam, will be open to all members of the Farm Bureau and all are urged to attend. Any member wishing to submit a resolution to the committee for consideration and will not be able to attend, may submit it from the floor at the county convention, Pulliam added.

Farm Bureau County Convention is to be held at the Bull Barn on Saturday, Sept. 14. It will begin with a barbecue at 6:30 p.m., followed by a business session.

Farmers Union Head Doubts Wheat Plan Will Pass Soon

Prospects for a new wheat program are doubtful, Texas Farmers Union president Jay Naman said here Thursday night. He spoke to about 25 persons in the Hereford Community Center during a meeting of the Deaf Smith County Farmers Union.

"Confusion in Congress now may precipitate something that will make it difficult to get any farm legislation during this session," he said.

"I'm told that we may now have a House that is hostile to any farm program. The senate might be a better place to originate any farm legislation during this session. And if we get any wheat legislation, it may have

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE PLAN

50 Mexican Peasants Will Visit

Fifty leaders of Mexican peasant communities will visit Deaf Smith County agriculture here this month. They will arrive in mid-afternoon Sunday, Sept. 22, and remain until the next afternoon.

In a meeting of 14 persons here Friday, the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce decided to sponsor the project, part of a two-week program of goodwill.

The tour is being sponsored by the Mexico Good Neighbor Project of Lubbock, which recently sent a group to Mexico in a people-to-people program.

Dr. Walter O. Parr, executive director of the project, was on hand Friday to explain the aims and purposes of the tour. He said that the tour, including some 50 leaders of Mexican peasant communities in northern and northeastern Mexico, would assemble at Piedras Negras on Sept. 11.

Overnight stops will include Sonora, Lamesa, San Angelo, Lubbock, Spur, Plainview, Tulsa, Amarillo, Hereford, Muleshoe, Lubbock again, Carlsbad, Pecos and Alpine.

The group will be shown native grasses, range management, sheep and goat production, water conservation and irrigation practices, cotton production, vegetables, sugar beets, grain sorghum, poultry and egg production, dairy farms, dryland farming and river irrigation practices. They also will visit a county fair, see Boys Ranch, tour an Air Force Base, look at experiment station work and four Carlsbad Caverns.

They will tour by chartered bus. "The purpose of this tour," Dr. Parr said, "is to make an initial experiment to determine if these peasant leaders can benefit from showing them practical ways of improving their own crops, how to use water for maximum benefit of crops, how U. S. farmers operate under a system of free enterprise and that the American people are truly interested in helping them to help themselves.

Intense efforts are being made by Russia, Red China, Castro's Cuba and other nations to influence the Mexican peasants toward collective farming. Anti-Americanism, socialism and communism, as opposed to free enterprise, democracy and private ownership of property. We wish to give them a chance to see how America has become so productive through freedom under the democratic American way of life. "We are convinced," he declared, "that West Texas and New Mexico are so similar in climate and geographical conditions to Northern Mexico that we think this tour would be especially valuable to these peasant leaders. By giving them a personal observation of how American know-how has transformed the desert areas into blooming agricultural oases, we want to inspire these visitors to carry back to their own communities new hope and new techniques for a better standard of living.

"This project can easily become one of the most important ever attempted on a people-to-people basis between the U. S. and Mexico. If our first tour is successful, we hope to organize more tours to bring several hundred such peasant leaders in the near future. We are very hopeful that news coverage from this event will generate intensely favorable pro-American good will in Mexico and throughout Latin-America. This is a people-to-people tour. While we have the blessings of the American and Mexican governments, we are staging this program without government funds or assistance of any kind. If we are to be successful, we must have the fullest support of every community to be visited," he concluded.

Dr. Parr pointed out that he would like 20 or more persons in Hereford to buy permanent memberships in the project at $25 each. Sustaining memberships are less than the permanent memberships. Persons wishing additional information may contact Bill Thompson at the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce office.

A SMALL BOY PLAYS in a rain-filled gutter following the heavy rains which deluged Hereford on Friday. Run off from the rains overflowed the city's storm sewer system and, as water ran curb deep, many intersections and streets were flooded. Officially 1.70 inches of rainfall was reported, but unofficial reports of two inches and more were reported by city residents. (Staff Photo)

Fishing Trip For Youngstebs Drowns 215 Worms

A fishing expedition to Buffalo Lake in the back of a red pickup brought an exciting end to summer vacation for a large group of boys and girls from the neighborhood of 500 Avenue J. Each one caught at least one fish to make the trip a complete success. Randy Carter, 6, was the champion.

In preparation for the trip, which was made Tuesday afternoon, the boys and girls dug 215 worms. Leaving shortly after noon, they took their fishing gear and spent the afternoon trying their luck. Then they built a fire and roasted weiners for hot dogs and marshmallows.

Those who made the trip were Kelly, Karen, and Keith Kitchens, David and Nelda Kay Norton, Terry and Bruce Battey, Glen Nelson, Billy Joe and Johnny Wall, Robbie and Larry Lomas, Tommy and Terry Tuck, Alton Lamm, and Tony, Terry and Randy Carter. Mrs. Glen Nelson, Mrs. H. A. Tuck, and Mrs. Ralph Battey accompanied the group.

million and will be "one of the finest places in town."
Langley then reviewed past projects of the Lions Club pointing out its work in construction of the Bull Barn, children's wing of Deaf Smith County Hospital, purchasing of Dameron Park playground equipment and special equipment for the hospital.
He also noted that among Lions Club projects have been glasses for underprivileged children, a monthly contribution to Boys' Ranch, and active participation in the American Field Service exchange student program.
Lions Club each year sponsors an exchange student and assists Future Homemakers of America in sponsoring a second student.

"This check to King's Manor," said Langley, "represents another and a large step, made serving others. As a member of the Board of Trustees of Hereford Area Foundation, I express our appreciation for this magnificent gift."
Following acceptance of the check, the Rev. Don Davidson, director of King's Manor, reviewed operation of the home.
"At King's Manor there is as much fun and foolishness as at any house in Hereford," commented the Rev. Davidson. "It is not a nursing home - a place for older adults to go and die."
In commenting on the operation of the home, he pointed out that in all areas of operation the budget had not "missed the mark". He declared that the budget was "not 30 cents off for any item."
"Climate at the home," he continued, "is very good. Facilities, however, are not all they are intended to be and will grow when we have the money on hand."

He commented that bids will be taken again in October for the nursing care unit. If bids are accepted, the unit will be open by June 1.
A second building of 14 units also will be added later, he concluded.
The Rev. Davidson was introduced by Ed Line, program chairman for August.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
I want to congratulate you on the excellent paper you publish. The Hereford Brand and the Sunday Brand are tops in my opinion.

I certainly appreciate the fine way you reported the activities of the Deaf Smith County Farm Bureau this past year. On Sept. 14, the Deaf Smith County Farm Bureau will hold its annual county convention. Let this be your invitation to be present to enjoy the barbecue and see how Farm Bureau policies are developed.

Farm Bureau is one of the largest grass root organizations among farmers in this country. There have been many false rumors spread around lately that Farm Bureau policy starts at the top and is sent down to the members. This is not true. One of the sad things I see in Farm Bureau, and for that matter, in many organizations is the lack of participation by the members of that organization. Farm Bureau has policy-developing meetings, county conventions, state conventions to formulate and make policies for the organization. Too many members say they are too busy to attend, or they say, "Let George do it." If George comes up with some idea or policy they don't like, they start grumbling and complaining, cursing George and the whole organization. There is not an organization that depends upon democratic process to formulate and express the views and opinions of its members that can function without active participation by a majority of its members. Farm Bureau is no exception to this rule.

When the members of the Deaf Smith County Farm Bureau realize that all the policies of Farm Bureau, whether county, state or national, have their origin in the county organization and reach the state and national levels through democratic process, I believe they will be more interested in taking an active part in policy-developing meetings and county and state conventions.

No doubt many members wonder how much value there is to expressing their ideas and opinions, then formulating them into Farm Bureau policies. In the Regular Session of the 58th Legislature in Austin, Texas:

Farm Bureau supported 17 bills that passed;

Farm Bureau opposed 19 bills that failed to pass;

Farm Bureau opposed 2 bills that passed.

Farm Bureau opposed 2 bills that were amended so that they no longer came under Farm Bureau policy;

Farm Bureau supported 1 bill that was vetoed.

I believe this will give a good idea of the strength Farm Bureau has in the State of Texas.

Sincerely yours,
Denzil Pulliam,
President, Deaf Smith County Farm Bureau

Open Entries For 12th Invitation Meet Sept. 6-8

Entries now are being accepted for the 12th annual Hereford Invitational Amateur Golf Tournament, which will be held Sept. 6-8 at the John Pitman Municipal Golf Course.

Deadline for entering the event will be 6 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 5. Golfers will be assigned flights according to their handicaps with no qualifying rounds. Host pro Bud Posey said there would be 16 players in each flight.

The turney will open at 7:30 p.m. Thursday with a reception and dinner for players and their wives at the Jim Hill Hotel ballroom.

There will be shotgun starts at 8:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday. Friday will be devoted to first round play. On Saturday, the tournament will include second round action and consolation flights.

On Sunday, there will be semi-final and final matches in all flights, plus consolation action. Championship flight finalists will play 36 holes of medal play.

John McCleskey, tournament chairman, announced that more than 100 players are expected to enter the tourney.

The championship title is up for grabs since 1962 tourney champion Roland Adams of Lubbock has turned professional and is no longer eligible.

Local favorites will include Keith Jorde, Bob Lindsey and H. B. Thomas. Jorde won the City Golf championship this summer and was second last weekend at the Muleshoe Invitational.

Winner of each flight will receive a set of irons, the flight runners-up will get sets of woods and consolation winners will be given golf bags.

HERE And THERE

with Mrs. Merita Kaul. Becoming a National Life Master—the goal of every bridge player—is the hope of Mrs. Francis (Wilma) Hill sometime in the spring of '64.

Recently when Wilma was in Los Angeles, Cal., she participated in the National Bridge Tournament at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles. Her partner was Lester Dewy of Amarillo. The pair played 21 times, placed 14 times, had eight first places and the rest in 2nd and 3rd places. For these wins, they will have the privilege of choosing what she wants when her catalog arrives.

Wilma says that 300 points must be won in order to be a Life Master, 50 of which must be made in National or Regional Tournaments. She has now something over 250 points and by next spring, after five years of playing, she hopes to win the coveted national award.

Cy Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Moore of South Main Street, celebrated his 12th birthday Thursday night with a supper party at the home of his parents. The party table which was placed on the back porch was laid with a tablecloth and held a centerpiece which featured the dog "Snoopy" of Peanuts Comic fame. The birthday cake also held a place of honor, on the table and it was served with ice cream for dessert.

Those present included the honor guest, Cy Moore, Wayne Winget, Russell Phillips, Bill Benefield, John Stagner, Danny Boyer, Douglas Greeson, Robert Messick, John Frank Martin, Dicky Aven, Oren Davis, Orvis Southward, Julia London, Jean Ann Gore, Becky Owens, Lou Ann Kendall, Mary Robinson, Barbara Jolly, Kay Golden, Becky Bell, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Moore, and his sister, Sandra.

Miss Gladly Setliff, a teacher in Northwest School, is president this year of the local unit of the Texas State Teachers Association. Just before school started, she was designated to be present at the President's Conference of the organization which was being held in Dallas. However, she had promised to take her mother, Mrs. B. S. Setliff of Enoch, Okla., to attend the wedding of a relative at Atoka, Okla. She called Robert Thompson, one of her officers for this year to go in her place. Robert went and reported a good meeting except that tragedy struck at the last session. Rowland Loyd, State Director of Research for Texas, was delivering the speech for the meeting when he collapsed with a heart attack and died before he was gotten to the hospital.

The family of the late C. L. Ragsdale, former resident of Hereford, held its annual family reunion this year on Aug. 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie R. Fulkerson in Roswell, N. M. The get-together started on Saturday and continued until Sunday afternoon.

Surviving children include Mrs. Fulkerson (Grace), Mrs. Matude Meade of Oklahoma City, Okla., who was unable to be present because of illness in her family, Mrs. Lillie Harmon of Hollis, Okla., Mrs. Nettie Boyd of Hereford, Floyd Ragsdale of Hollis, Okla., and Mrs. Ivy Duncan of Pampa. A sister, Mrs. P. H. Luck (Mag) passed away in January, 1960.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ragsdale went to Roswell on Saturday to be present for the affair but he became very ill and was rushed back to his home at Hollis, Okla., on Sunday. He underwent surgery this week.

Others present for the reunion included Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adams and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boyd, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd of Hereford, Mrs. W. D. West and children of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Glenn, Linda Kay and Brian of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. John Harmon of Hollis, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Duncan of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Luck and children of Tucumcari, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Jason Luck and Mary of Roswell, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Luck and son of Roswell, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Billy Luek of Roswell, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Fulkerson and children, also of Roswell, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Fulkerson and children of Farmington, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Srader and children of Lordsburg, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Vaughn. Ronnie is in the Air Force and is leaving immediately for England where he will be stationed.

Francis Boyd, who is employed at Time Plan Insurance Company in Amarillo, is spending two weeks at Camp Polk in Louisiana where he is receiving training with the Army Reserve. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morrison and Judith went to Bonham last week end where they visited their son Raymond and family. En route home they stopped at Chillicothe where they visited with Mrs. Elva Reynolds and her family. They report very hot weather in Bonham and that area.

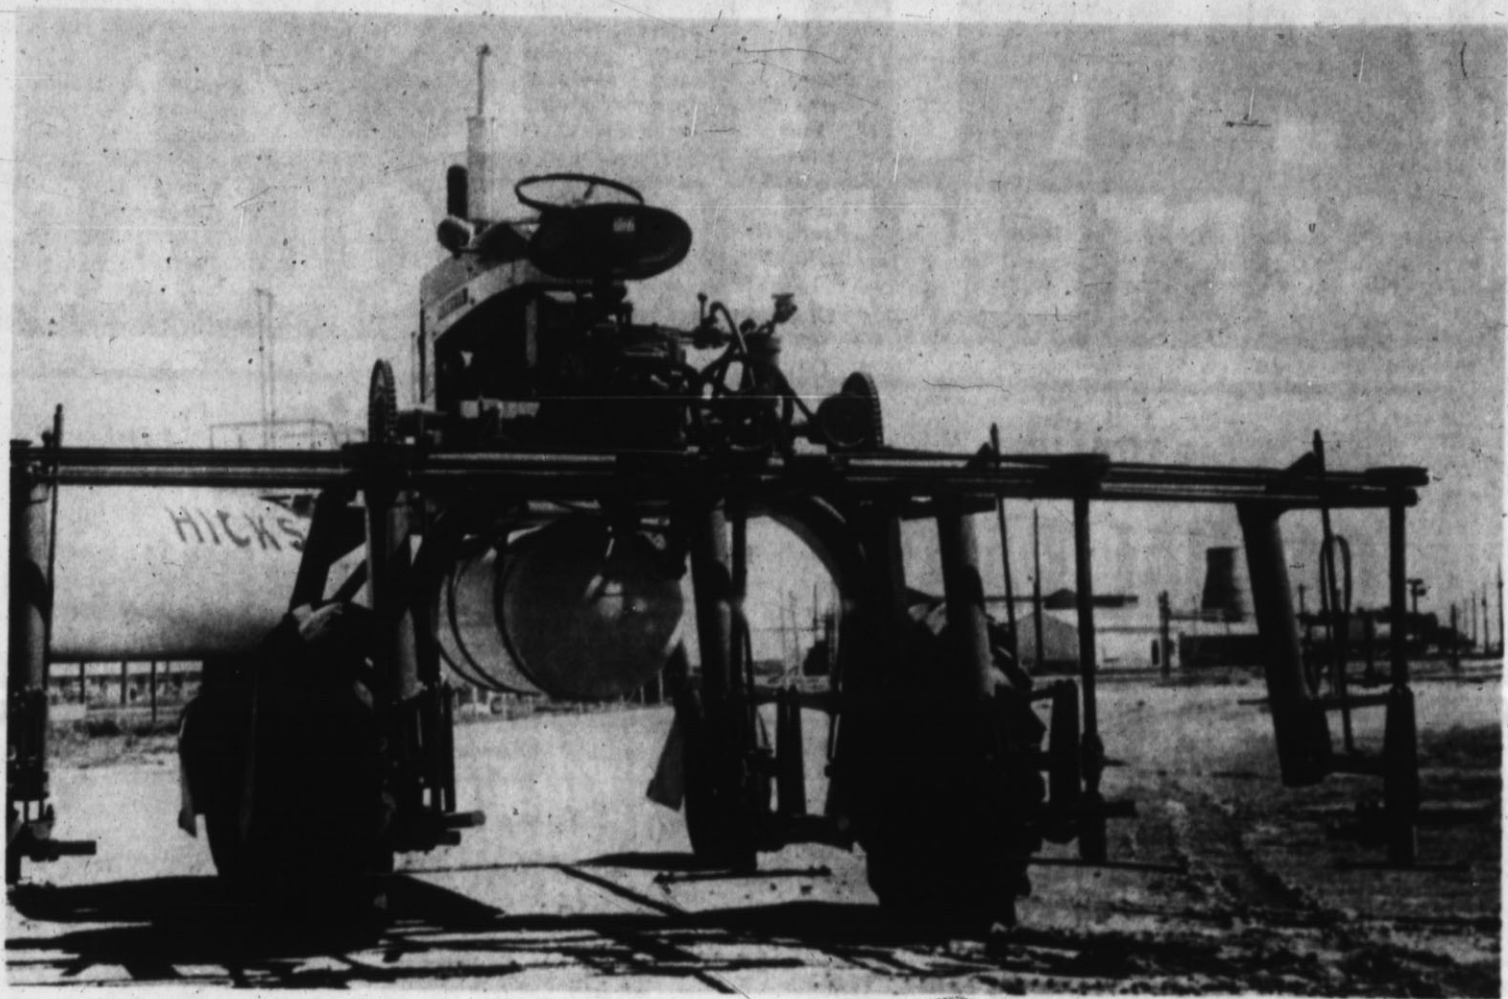

The Rev. and Mrs. Russell Wingert, Ann and Andrew have returned home after a trip which took them across the United States from south to north. They visited in New Orleans, La., with Mrs. Wingert's mother, Mrs. S. J. Peters, and in Chicago, Ill., with the Edward Wingert family. The 1963 Hereford Whitefaces should have had a good workout at Clovis Saturday night, their first scrimmage of the year against an outside team. The Wildcats are rated in the top three or four in New Mexico and promise to be darkhorse contenders for state honors in the Land of Enchantment. A film of the scrimmage will be shown at 8 p.m. Monday, Sept. 2, during the Whiteface Booster Club meeting in the Hereford Community Center. This is really a fine show and includes some outstanding rodeo thrills, plus a lot of fun and entertainment. But from experience, I caution you that you should get there early to get a good seat in the covered bleachers.

In case you are wondering why we haven't run a feature story on him yet: the last-minute change for an exchange student from Chile, rather than one from Italy, has caused a late arrival. The Earl Plankis, who will be host family, now tell us that the boy is to leave Chile on Tuesday, Sept. 3, and will arrive in Hereford the latter part of the week.

With Monday being Labor Day, all stores in Hereford as well as city, county, and state offices and Hereford public schools will be closed. Since the holiday falls on the first Monday of the month, Dollar Day has also been postponed until Tuesday. Also moved to Tuesday as a result of the holiday is the regular meeting of Hereford City Commission. It will be held beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the City Manager's office.

And now it becomes necessary to conclude my last column. Since I am going to stay in Hereford, it isn't nearly so painful as it would have been otherwise. As I started to work in a newspaper office when I was 11 and a skinny, blond-headed little kid (yes I did have hair then!), little did I think that it was the beginning of 33 years of news work that would encompass colleges, newspapers, radio, television, Army public relations and many others. Not for a moment have I regretted my work—mainly because I was dealing with people, those wonderful, baffling, irresistible creatures. In my new job, I will be dealing with even more people and, at long last, will

The damaged tractors were discovered on the C. P. Urban-czyk, Doug Nix, and Joe Rein-auer farms.

According to the Sheriff's Office the greatest damage was discovered on the Nix farm as Nix, according to a deputy sheriff, estimated his loss at between $800 and $1,000.

Following the investigation, no thefts were reported to have occurred on the farms as the tractors were being smashed.

He pointed out that such losses were the result of malicious mischief and wanton destruction of property without reason.
Reward for information was posted by farmers as county law enforcement officers investigated damages to the farm equipment.

Persons having information concerning the incident are asked to contact Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Office.
Officers investigating also discovered that a horse pastured on one of the farms had been ridden by the vandals and was latter turned loose.

The horse was found a short distance from its pasture and returned to the owner.

Naman discussed the bill sponsored by Senator Harold Cooley that would aid domestic Mexican cotton imports through a payment is a "choice plan" attached to this bill, along with a sliding scale price support for cotton.
"I think now that there will be a concentrated effort in Congress next spring to pass out some type of legislation with cotton and wheat tied together," he stated.

The speaker also discussed the importance of strengthening the Junior Farmers Union program and made suggestions on outside help which would aid such a program.
The audience was told by Naman that he had seen a "great" restlessness among wheat growers who are disenchanted with the lack of a wheat program." He said many of them were returning to Farmers Union membership in an effort to get some type of wheat program through Congress.

He explained this is an important time for Farmers Union groups to make a strong push for additional membership and interest in the Farmers Union program.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Tyler of Waco, received a certificate and check from Ray Simpson on behalf of the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative. Miss Tyler was winner of a recent essay contest on the BEA program.

Louis Woodford, chairman, Andrew McCathern and Bill Gentry comprise the nominating committee. The resolutions committee includes Robert Strain, chairman, Leo Witkowski and Charles Hoover.
Election of officers and adoption of county resolutions will form the business session of the next county Farmers Union meeting, Boston announced.

Here And There...

Tom Roe and his son Hugh K. of Ardmore, Okla., were visitors here the first of the week in the home of his mother, Mrs. J. A. Roe. They also visited Mrs. Vina Edmonson and Mr. and Mrs. James Edmonson.

Robert Boyd went to Hollis, Okla., Wednesday and brought Mrs. Boyd back to Hereford on Thursday after she had spent several days there in the home of her sister, Mrs. John Harmon. She helped care for her brother Floyd who has been in the hospital.

Mrs. E. E. Bishop, Mrs. Gerald Hamby, and Mrs. C. A. Saucy went to Muleshoe Tuesday where they visited Mrs. Bishop's father, Will Buchanan, who is ill in the hospital and also her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Evert Luckadoo.

The O'dell children — Larry, Mona, Mike and Ross — have returned with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy O'dell, to their home in Wichita Falls after spending most of the summer here in the home of their grandmother, Mrs. C. A. Saucy.

Mrs. Claude Ola Brown reports that her daughter Colline (Mrs. Al Kinsey) and Mr. Kinsey have been in Houston this summer where they have both been in school. Colline has been attending the University of Houston where she is working on her Master's degree in education and her husband has been attending the Shell Oil Company School. Colline teaches third grade in Elk City, Okla., and he is also located there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kertz of Hartsville, Ohio, are visiting here in the home of their daughter, Mrs. O. Wertenberger. They returned home with the Wertenbergers when they visited in Ohio recently. Mrs. Wertenberger attended a reunion of a group of college friends at Wooster, Ohio. The group included ten women who had gone to college together, married, raised their families and then had gone back to teaching.

Erin Wertenberger will be teaching in the speech department at West Texas University this fall and working toward her Master's degree in speech. Brother Dave is in Germany working with the Security Department of the Army.

A "canning party" one day this week at the W. W. Thomas home in Westway resulted in the canning of the equivalent of 169 pints of black eyed peas.

Shelling of the peas started the night before and the last can came out of the cooker about 11:30 that night. Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. G. C. Merritt Sr. did most of the canning while Mrs. Bill Combs, Mrs. Benton Bolin and Mrs. G. C. Merritt Jr. did most of the shelling. Needless to say that these families like black-eyed peas.

This Reporter wished to thank those who have called in or sent news this summer for this column. With the opening of school, a number of 6 and 7 year olds at Alkman School will be demanding my time and attention. Thus this column will be replaced during the school year by one which will be written by Mrs. T. J. (Buak) Parsons Helen will welcome your all cards, or letters giving her an account of your family doings, or any item of interest to our community.

By Dale Stevens
This time next week our house will be way too big, so big we'll just rattle around in it and moan about how lonesome we are. David will be home only rarely-school and football, you know-and Mick will be away at college. But just now it seems that we have stumbled over baseball shoes, golf shoes, tennis shoes, cowboy boots, work strewn newspapers, fishing all of them HUGE, picked up gear, guns, and wet bathing suits, and put away the weiner cooker and hot dog makings, and stepped in spilled lemonade just one more time than we can stand. We keep telling ourselves, "In just one more year they'll both be gone and we're really going to miss all this noise and confusion." But instead of crying at the thought right now, we mostly grit our teeth and say, "If we can only survive till then!"

Next they'll start telling us that Alice was hallucinating and that if she had been under the care of a psychiatrist, she would have been a normal, well-adjusted child, happy in her own world instead of wandering through that looking glass. Some people attempted to besmirch the character of Tarzan, and now Robin Hood is under attack again.

Did you know that Eddie Fisher will make about 14 times as much from Cleopatra as Richard Burton if the movie just breaks even? According to Readers Digest, it's true.

In the latest Paris fashion shows, hemlines edged down a little, and the general trend was toward a feminine, even frilly look, with only a few boots and vests. The big news here for most of us is that the "hem edged down a little" Too many of us older types remember when they dropped hems practically to the floor almost overnight. This is too hard on budgets, even if it does boost the clothing industry.

Mr. Sims points out the simple control on the electric air purifier which automatically rejects pollen, dust and other irritants, giving the Sims family clean, fresh air throughout the home.

"Allergy had been a problem with our family before we had our all-electric home, but we've noticed a marked improvement in the three years we've lived here," says Mr. Sims. "We've taken full advantage of our electric heat pump and the electric air purifier to maintain dust-free air inside our home," continues Mr. Sims.

Mrs. Sims finds her electric kitchen to be the favorite part of her home because of the ease with which she can prepare the family meals.

Ten Folks At The County Budget Hearing Is Better

The fact that only 10 persons turned out for the Deaf Smith County budget hearing comes as no shock and, in our opinion, in affairs, rather than a decline. This is especially true if you stop to consider that a few years back not even one person turned out for such meetings.

All in all, it seems to us that the country is in excellent financial position, which is another solid reason for the small turnout. This is due in part at least to recent tax equalization programs, along with sensible operation in various departments. Few counties can boast such statements as that which Deaf Smith shows, including a balance of $307,550.76 estimated at the close of 1964. Emphasizing this situation is the fact that Deaf Smith County has pursued a progressive policy during recent years, including a modernized courthouse building, several county barns in strategic locations, and good to better maintenance of roads.

Looking over the budget is interesting in view of the fact that it points up some of the more expensive county operations. Leading the list is the county hospital operating fund, self supporting at $325,149.13 in 1962, at $309,991.00 in 1963, and estimated to drop to slightly over $312,000 next year. Roads come second in cost to the tax payers. This figure is set at $220,160.00 in the budget against $231,889.19 in 1962 and $192,360.00 in 1963. Most of the other funds are expected to rock along pretty well in the same pattern, except jail interest and sinking, which is scheduled to drop from $30,390 this year to $24,790 in 1964; an even brighter picture appears on right of ways, scheduled to fall from $15,625 to $3,900.

In these days of spiraling costs and inflation, it seems to us that the county budget picture once again proves beyond any doubt that the best and most economical government is one which is nearest and best supervised by the people. Much the same is true of school and city budgets, when compared with some federal spending which many people classify as outrageous. Meanwhile, we are proud of the county. It seems to us that they have done a good job, and that they are entitled to a pat on the back.

Washington March Was Expensive, But Orderly

Well-publicized, the Negroes' "March for Freedom and Jobs" took place Wednesday in Washington, D. C., and to a lesser extent in some state capitols.

What are the immediate results? Perhaps the most impressive thing was the orderly march that could easily have turned into a bloody, deadly riot and civil disobedience that would have made Little Rock and Atlanta look like a meeting of the Thursday afternoon literary guild. The march planners had taken great pains to insure that no incidents marred their peaceful protest in the shadow of Congress and the White House.

The marchers, with their white allies, probably made their point to the millions of watchers and readers. But we seriously doubt that they changed the minds of any of the strong Southern integrationists in Congress. It is a foregone conclusion that the President's civil-rights legislation will not have much difficulty in passage.

But what of long-range results? The Negroes gradually are assuming their places as Americans, with equality based on behavior and ability rather than race. But this is a gradual process and one that is not apt to be changed by a march of 200,000 or even 20 million. The business and industrial leaders will continue to make their own decisions.

This has been a summer of racial conflict and some of the gains made by the Negroes have been offset by strident demands and pressures from the federal government. But schools are gradually being integrated and from this one step will gradually come racial equality. However, once again, this must be a gradual process.

On the other hand, was the effort directed to the "March" really worthwhile? It is our feeling that the Negro leaders would have advanced their course better by taking the money which was spent for the big day in Washington and investing it in job training for unskilled adults and for scholarships for the younger people.

A commentator Wednesday night said that it would cost the Federal District (that is, the taxpayers of America) several hundred thousand dollars — and perhaps as much as one million dollars — to clean up after the "march". That million, although a trifling sum to the Federal government, would have trained a lot of illiterate cotton-choppers in Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama. The transportation, food and shelter costs borne by the marchers would have more than equalled the Federal District's outlay. It could have trained a lot of adults and sent a lot of children to college.

But the march was dramatic and we predict that others will follow during the fall and then again next summer, when the Negro leaders will intensify their efforts. We just wish that the investment could be made in other activities.

Colleges Might Be Crying' Wolf

Folklore dramatically points out that "yelling wolf" is one of the worst pitfalls faced by mankind. The idea, of course, is based on the fact that man who uses the priority needlessly may well find himself without assistance when a real emergency arises.

More specifically, it seems to us that the American colleges and universities may be falling into the old trap. We keep reading and hearing about crowded conditions in these schools of higher learning but seldom, if ever, do we hear of a student who is shoved out the doors — provided he meets entrance requirements, and has the necessary cash.

Frankly, we are inclined to believe that all of the "crowded college" propaganda is true — if projected into future years. However well worded are the messages, most people are inclined to apply them to the present, rather than the future, and therein lies the hazard. What will happen when the condition actually comes into existence? They have the right idea, but, somehow, they are not getting it across to the public in its full import.

Meanwhile, teaching salaries are improving in most schools. Building expansion is going at a rapid clip on most campuses, and apparently every effort is being made to take care of future students. Higher training is more important today than ever before. Efforts for its preservation and expansion are commendable, but we do wish the message might be clarified and presented in a manner for more accurate interpretation by the general public.

Bigger Hereford

School days have suddenly gotten here and, for a while at least, Hereford students can look forward to the opening of school with ample room and modern facilities. In many ways the condition stands as a tribute to community foresight.

For instance, many of us can recall delegating classes to churches because of insufficient space. Needless to say, we were cutting off our nose to spite our face" in this instance, since we came back the same year and voted bonds to expand school facilities. Schools are an essential in this modern age and, so long as the community grows, we will not doubt be plagued with expansion demands and problems in our schools. Furthermore, we are already beginning to face some of these same problems in the form of city and county growth and, in the future, will no doubt run into more of them.

These things are inevitable and, tough as they appear at times, they still represent a situation which few of us would trade for a "downhill community," where it is impossible to rent a building, difficult

Congressional Criticism Of Speech Is Challenged

Finding himself still being attacked as well as defended on the floors of both Houses of Congress eight days after a speech at the National Press Club in which he said it was immoral to buy or sell votes with public funds, Edwin P. Neilan, President of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, struck back in a letter to Senate Majority Leader Mansfield (D-Mont.).

Neilan characterized himself as a "country banker" who is new on the Washington scene and is shocked by its cynicism.

He demanded to know: "By what dispensation from the moral order does Washington abide, that a man is held up to scorn for upholding a simple virtue; for declaring it is dishonest to take something from others without recompense and put it to purely selfish use?"

Contrasting what he called our own political pay-off scandal with the Profumo affair in Great Britain, he inquired: "Is it better for the hapless citizen to be robbed than scandalized?" Included in Mr. Neilan's criticism were some local chambers of commerce "who think the country owes their communities a better living in the form of federal projects that have little or no benefits for all the rest of the country."

The letter follows: "Dear Senator Mansfield: The derogatory remarks you and certain others have been making about me on the floors of the two Houses of Congress for more than a week leave me strangely puzzled.

"Put it down, if you like, to the naivete of a country banker lately come to Washington, but I was shocked to find Members of Congress shocked by my assertion in a speech at the National Press Club last week that it is immoral to buy and sell votes with public funds.

"By what dispensation from the moral order does Washington abide, that a man is held up to scorn for upholding a simple virtue; for declaring it is dishonest to take something from others without recompense and put it to purely selfish use?"

"By whose right does any lawmaker lay prior claim on the public treasury in behalf of his own political ambitions or his constituents' self-interests? Where does he find justification for logrolling, pork barrelling and other forms of political pay-off?"

"I am told that those practices are so old, and so generally indulged in, that they are seldom any longer challenged as unethical, much less immoral, yet I can think of older and even more persistent vices which are not so honored anywhere in civilized society.

"My effort to extend a moral concept to relations between the citizen and his government seems to have rippled some cynical surface here in our nation's capital.

"Why? "Where is the virtue in spending billions of dollars of all the people's money on purely local projects, especially when that spending, through more debt and inflation, increases the costs of goods and services required by every citizen and de-

Advise Farmers To Grow Peanuts For Goob Profit

With an enormous increase in the acreage devoted to peanut growing there is a serious shortage in the supply and increase in price. Moreover, advices from Spain report a shortage in that country, heretofore the source of supply when the American crop was short. Spanish peanuts are selling at 10½ cents a pound in some parts of the country, an increase of 4 cents per pound. Virginia peanuts are selling 1½ cents higher in New York than a year ago. Local wholesalers report no great change in selling price here, but do confirm the reports of shortage. Possibility of an oversupply is said to be exceedingly remote. Therefore, plant peanuts, for not only will you have a profitable and readily marketable crop, but the peanut has fine feed value and the plant is additionally of great value in restoring fertility to wornout soils.

10 YEARS AGO

Transactions were completed this week by the Hereford State Bank for purchase of the lot at the intersection of Sampson and Third Streets. The corner location, 100 feet by 150 feet, was purchased from Dr. L. B. Barnett for the purpose of building a future home for the bank. It is located diagonally across from Jim Hill Hotel and faces the courthouse on the north. "We do not expect to build immediately," said J. R. Allison, president, "but a new building is in our planning and when we do build it is our hope to construct one of the most modern banking plants in the area. We hope the time will not be too far in the future." The bank as organized here in 1947 and now lists total assets of more than $3 million. Majority interest in the bank is now owned by Mr. Allison, due to recent purchase of stocks. Officers and directors, however, showed no change. Officers include Mr. Allison as president; W. M. Decker and Roy Phillips, vice president; Cliff Estes and Doris Lindsey, assistant cashiers. Directors are W. N. Hodges, G. W. Brumley, O. G. Hill Jr., Mr. Allison and Mr. Decker.

to sell a house and still harder to locate a job. It is also much better to know that our children are attending the best schools our trustees know how to provide, rather than entering a system which merely survives.

Hereford is growing, and no doubt about that. How much will it grow, no one knows.

Many people will settle for 20,000 to 25,000; others say 50,000. Growth attracts additional interest and growth. So far, our expansion has been steady, practical and systematic. It leaves no room for future ghost towns and decaying structures. Let us hope that it continues to follow the same trend in years to come.

HENSON NAMED COMPTROLLER

Virgil Henson has been named comptroller of West Texas State University and Joe Hooper has been elevated to the post of business manager. These changes in administrative structure of the institution were authorized at a recent meeting of the board of regents, according to Dr. James P. Cornette, WT president. The changes become effective on Sept. 1 Cornette said. Henson's title has been that of business manager and Hooper has been serving as his assistant. There will be little immediate change at the business office. The office of comptroller and the business office will be separated physically when a new school administration building is completed in 1966.

$1 MILLION VEGETABLE CROP SEEN

With a bumper Irish potato crop already stashed away and with a promising tomato crop just about ready for harvest, the Muleshoe vegetable industry probably will gross around $1 million this year, experts say, to bring vegetable growing on Bailey County's rich acres into the agricultural spotlight as never before. Acreage as compared with cotton and grain sorghum, is small, but for vegetable growing it's a different story; several hundred acres are being devoted to potatoes, tomatoes, cucumbers and melons.

HOUSING BIDS CONSIDERED HIGH

Only four bids were received Tuesday for a contract to build a low rent housing project in Olton were considered too high. Bids on the project, which calls for 20 low-rent housing units to be built here, were tabled for further review. Housing authority secretary, Melvin McReynolds, said the Olton Housing Authority board would hold the bids for further advisement. Total development costs of $276,000 has been budgeted by the Public Housing Administration, financiers of the project. Bids on the project were declared too high above the estimated budget.

MOSQUITO SPRAYING SCHEDULE UPPED

The whir of the Littlefield city mosquito sprayer has been heard more frequently these past few days and will be heard — and smelled — each night over the city as a whole for the next few weeks, city officials said Saturday. Through the summer, the mosquito sprayer has operated two or three nights a week in control work for the insects. The schedule was stepped up to every night on Thursday after three cases of mosquito-carried encephalitis were reported here.

AREA IS 'FLY-BOMBED'

There are literally thousands of flies buzzing around this area of West Texas this week, but they probably will do little harm and no damage. They are screwworm flies, made sterile by radiation techniques an old-time rancher never dreamed possible. The flies are part of a 100,000 "shipment" of sterile male flies deliberately dropped over Parmer and Bailey counties from an airplane buzzing around at 4500 feet. In this area, 200,000 more flies will be dropped. The sterile fly program has been so successful that only 13 cases of screwworm infestation were reported in all of Texas last week. One of these, however, came from Parmer County. This week a screwworm case was reported in Bailey County.

THE BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's Note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Bindweed farm takes a wide-angle view of the test ban treaty this week.

Dear editor:

Although Congress hasn't asked me for my opinion on the test ban treaty and I don't think I could get away from this Bindweed farm at the moment anyway to testify — it's not that I have anything to do here, but when it comes to not doing anything, this is the place to have it happen, not in Washington — I have decided to go ahead and state my views.

I did this after reading about the experts who have been testifying. The way I see it is, when one group of scientists with all the facts says it's wise to sign the treaty, and another group with the same amount of facts says it isn't, this opens the door to anybody.

What I mean is, if the same set of facts can lead to two exactly opposite views, facts aren't as important as people claim and this allows me in, as I have about as few facts as anybody and half the time those I have are misplaced. I don't know what this does to the old and respected saying that a man isn't entitled to an opinion till he has the facts. If facts are going to lead to confusion, a man might as well take the short cut and be confused without them.

But to get down to my opinion. I'm not sure of this, but it may be that nuclear scientists want to keep on testing bombs for the same reason some kids want to keep on testing firecrackers. A firecracker is to shoot, a bomb is to explode. Everybody knows that.

On the other hand, the testers claim they need to keep on testing to figure out a missile that'll destroy another missile before it lands. When you look at it that way, and try to picture his job of shooting down 1,000 missiles flying at us from Russia at 15,000 miles an hour in the middle of the night during a snow storm, you begin to see you're getting more facts than a man can handle.

I therefore, want to go on record as being for the test ban treaty if it's safe, and against it if it's not, although safety is a word the scientists have just about nuclearized out of the dictionary. In other words, to make myself clear, I'm in favor of the ban on one hand, and opposed to it on the other hand, recognizing that the facts may be that both my hands are tied anyway, probably behind my back.

Yours Faithfully,
J. A.

Miss Vigna, James Bradley Wed In Cathedral Ceremony

Scared Heart Cathedral, Amarillo, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Phyllis Vigna and James Howard Bradley Jr. on Friday evening, Aug. 30. The Reverend Father M. J. Matthiesen read the double ring ceremony.

Mr and Mrs. Louis Vigna of Amarillo are the parents of the bride. A graduate of Amarillo High School, she attended Amarillo College one year and is a senior at the University of Texas. Her major is radio and television, and she is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha social sorority and Alpha Epsilon Rho, an honorary fraternity in radio and television. She was voted best dressed coed on campus for 1963 and was one of the ten most beautiful girls on campus in 1963.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. James Howard Bradley Sr. of Hereford. A graduate of Hereford High School and the University of Texas, he will enter Law School at the University this fall. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta social fraternity and Beta Gamma Sigma honorary fraternity. He holds a BBA degree in finance.

Urns of white spider chrysanthemums and gladioli were placed on the main altar and two side altars for the ceremony. Lemon leaves and glad-loli tied with white satin bows marked the aisle pews.

Traditional Rossini wedding marches were played by Mrs. Robert Goodnow, organist. She also accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker as they sang "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "On This Day O Beautiful Mother," by Lambillotte, and "Panis Angelicus," by Lambillotte.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of candlelight imported silk alpaca. Fashioned by Triss in a contemporary air, the gown featured a demifitted overblouse with a high scooped neckline and imported Alencon lace on the bodice and sleeves. The simple chapel train fell gracefully from the sheath skirt.

The bouffant veil of French illusion was designed in a double pouf effect and was attached to milliner's bow. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis dotted with miniature yellow roses.

Mrs. J. G. Gross of Austin was matron of honor and Miss Dorothy Thompson of Amarillo was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Hall of Beaumont, Miss Priscilla Hester of Houston, Miss Martha Brannon of Houston, Miss Sharon Matthews of Dallas, Miss Tracy Lewis of Amarillo, and Miss Barry Beck of Amarillo.

They wore identical dresses of willow green peau de soie satin. Their headpieces were milliner's bows, perched forward, with bouffant wisps of willow green illusion. Bouquets of tiny yellow roses and English ivy trailed to the hemlines of their floor-length dresses.

J. Robert Bradley was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Paul Constantine of Waco, M. J. Hinton of Austin, Donnie Renfro of Hereford, Eddie Reeves of Amarillo, Bob Venable of Amarillo, Paul Fields of Amarillo, and Willis Latham of Amarillo.

A nephew of the groom, J. Bradley of Hereford, was the ring bearer. Guests were seated by Matt Barry of Austin and John Blackburn of Amarillo.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Bradley wore a dress of pink chiffon with matching accessories. A pink Cymbidium orchid was pinned to her bag. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Vigna, wore a dress of mauve chiffon with a matching velvet turban and shoes. Pink orchids were pinned to her bag.

Guests were received at Tascosa Country Club after the ceremony. Silver appointments and arrangements of white roses and spider chrysanthemums were used at the bride's table. Wedding bells of satin topped the six-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with the bride's chosen colors of green, gold, and white. A centerpiece of smilax and miniature chrysanthemums was placed on the champagne table.

Those assisting with the reception were Miss Janet Jones,

Miss Dana Boston, Miss Lynn Blackburn, and Miss Claire Childers, all of Amarillo, Miss Carolyn Matthews, Mrs. Wade Douglas, Mrs. E. D. Matthews, and Mrs. Wheeler Sears; all of Dallas, Mrs. J. Robert Bradley of Hereford, Mrs. M. J. Hinton of Austin, and Mrs. William Sansing of Houston.

For the wedding trip to the Hawaiian Islands the bride wore a suit of Craberry Flax and a corsage of gardenias. After Sept. 19 Mr. and Mrs. Bradley will live in Austin at the Braeburn Apartments.

Miss Lawana Lookingbill and Philip Alexander Hamilton were married in the First Methodist Church of Headton, Okla., on Saturday afternoon, Aug. 10. Vows were read by the Rev. Jim Phares, pastor, and music was provided by Miss Eleanor Eden and Robert Hughes.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson Lookingbill of Loco, Okla. They are former residents of Hereford. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Sr. of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel A. Hamilton of Wichita Falls are the parents of the bridegroom. He is an alumnus of Baylor University and is a member of Zeta Phi Phi dental fraternity.

Mr. Lookingbill gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal gown, an original creation fashioned of silk peau de soie in diamond white, with accents of imported reembrodered Alencon lace. The molded bodice extended to form brief sleeves and featured a rounded neckline. A wide band of Alencon edged the waistline with natural lace scallops, creating an empire effect. The sheath skirt was accented above the hemline with two wide bands of Alencon lace. A chapel train unfolded from tiny back pleats.

Her bouffant veil of English silk illusion fell in tiers touched with the Alencon lace from a dainty pillbox of silk peau de soie. It was caught through a loop of Alencon at the back of the coil, creating a butterfly effect. She carried a cascade of white feathered chrysanthemums centered with a white Cattleya orchid.

Miss Sandra Betres of New York City was the maid of honor. Other attendants were the sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Lee Applegate of Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. Bobby Shelton of Hereford, and Miss Betty Lookingbill of Dallas.

Best man was Bob Hanse of Mt. Prospect, Ill. Groomsmen were Lee Applegate of Los Angeles, Cal., Larry Holley of Dallas, and Don Hamm of Dallas. Ezekiel Grogan and W. C. Roper, both of Dallas, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony and a reception at the church, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left for a wedding trip to New Orleans. They will live in Dallas, where he will continue his studies at Baylor University School of Dentistry.

Criticism...

(Continued from Page 4) prives in a particular way the millions of elderly, the disabled and others living on pensions and other fixed incomes?

"I said at the National Press Club that I find it hard to rank ballot bribery higher in the moral scale than the association of politicians, party girls and spies in Great Britain. If anyone thinks the contrast is harsh, I ask him to consider the implications a little more carefully. Is it better for the hapless citizen to be robbed than scandalized?"

"I also said—and will you deny it—that the voter who supports a candidate for no other reason than that he promises bigger federal handouts, or who importunes his Members of Congress for pay-offs after the election, is just as guilty as a bribing politician. I question in like manner the activities of certain local chambers of commerce—and there are a few—who think the county owes their communities a better living in the form of federal projects that have little or no benefits at all for the rest of the country.

"If I appear to be moralizing unduly, it is because of the encouraging response I have received to my Press Club Speech: letters and telegrams from all parts of the country; from people in many walks of life who seem to know quite a lot about what is going on here, and who don't seem to appreciate it. Many of them have begged me to "keep it up" and I propose to do so.

FORT WASHAKIE, Wyo. (AP) - Palefaces' drinking too much firewater may force closing of Ray Lake to residents outside the Wind River Indian Reservation.

Maurice Fishencord, chief of the Indian police, said drinking white men had littered the lake with so many floating beer cans it is a hazard to water skiing Indians.
Chief industries of India are textiles, chemicals and steel.

He said if the white men can't hold their liquor any better, the Indians will have to close the lake to non-Indians.
