Charges Expected in Nun's Slaying

'Faces, Dons Play Nov. 21

The advantage of being home team for the bi-district game against Palo Duro went to the Hereford Whitefaces Monday morning as Hereford head coach Don Cumpton met with Ken Oze of the Dons.

The game, to be played Nov. 21 at 2 p.m. will be at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium in Canyon. The neutral site and the date were both agreed to by the coaches.

In winning the flip, Hereford will be the designated home team and will wear maroon jerseys. Hereford fans will be sitting on the home side of the field.

Advance tickets will be on sale this Friday at Troy's Sweet Shop. Prices will be $3 for adults with student tickets costing $1.50. The student tickets will be for sale at the high school. Tickets bought at the gate will be one price of $4 with no distinction between adult and student.

HISD spokesman Larry Wartes said that the tickets would not be reserved seats, but he felt that all the seats would be good, since the stadium would not be filled.

NRC May Sanction Diablo Canyon Plant

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Nuclear Regulatory Commission agreed Monday to discuss possible enforcement actions against the troubled Diablo Canyon power plant, but it held off ordering specific studies expected before the California nuclear facility can be licensed to generate power.

After a meeting with the commission staff, NRC Chairman Nuzzio J. Palladino indicated he had no basic arguments with a proposal by the commission staff for independent studies but said he wanted "clarifications" on the proposed studies to be completed prior to full licensing.

Palladino also asked for suggestions from his fellow commissioners on how to insure the independence of such studies, a point raised by California Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr., who has intervened to block opening of the Diablo Canyon plant.

Harold Denton, the chief NRC staff official, said he believed it would be late in the year before Diablo Canyon could resume the loading of nuclear fuel halted in September when design errors were discovered in the plant after it had already been licensed to test its atomic reactor.

An NRC staff official also said at the meeting that the staff's inspection procedures for discovering such design errors is "one of the weaker parts of our inspection program."

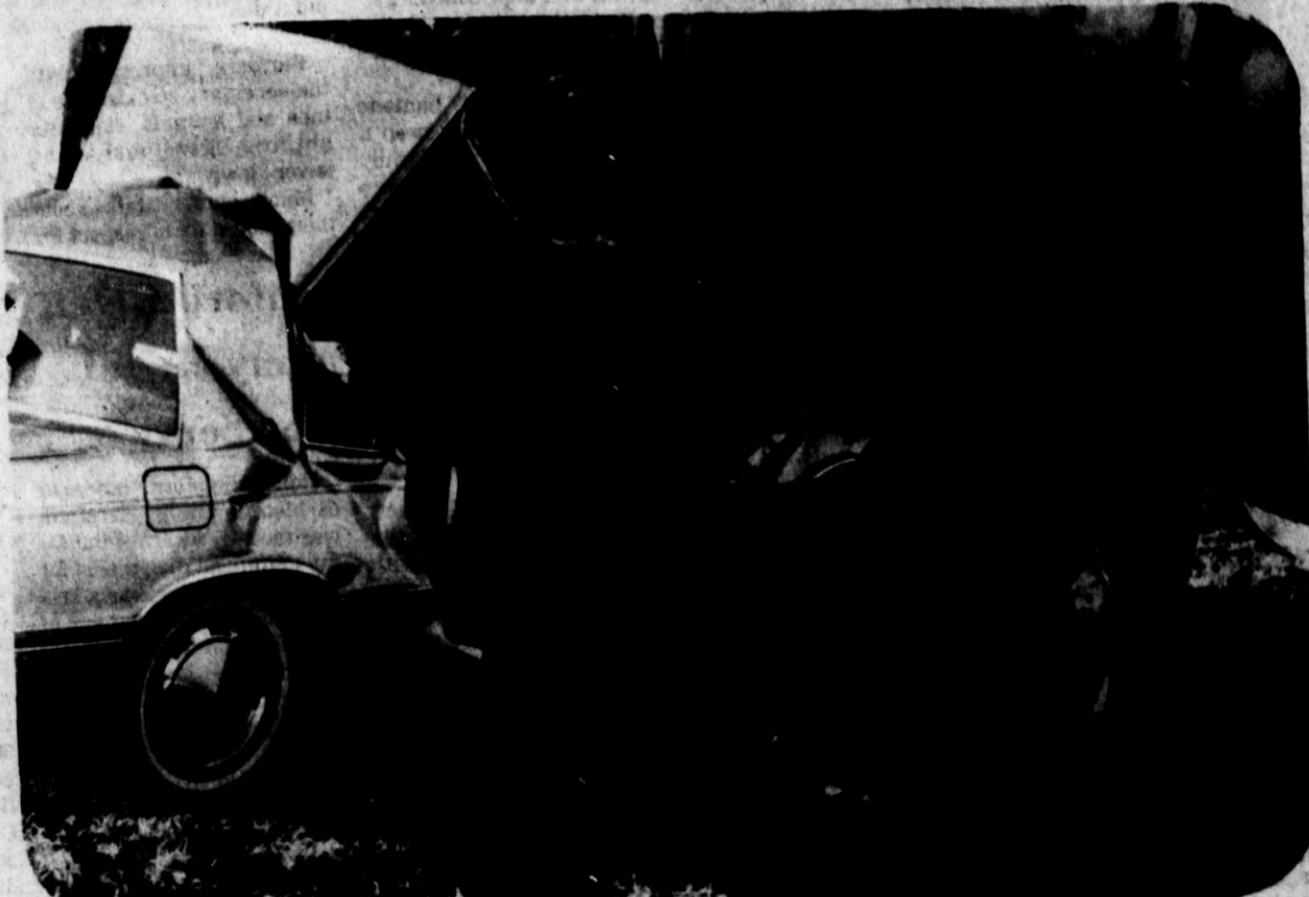

The Diablo Canyon plant, located near San Luis Obispo on the Pacific Coast, has become the nation's most controversial nuclear facility since an earthquake fault was discovered near it in the mid-1970s while the plant was under construction.

The design errors found recently were in changes made to shore up the plant against possible earthquake damage. Pacific Gas & Electric Co., the plant's operator, has said the errors resulted from incorrect information given a consultant working on quake-related design in 1977.

Palladino said the NRC and its staff would discuss possible enforcement actions because of the design errors, but no date was set for such a meeting.

Enforcement actions can range from letters of censure to license revocation, but chief NRC spokesman Joseph Fouchard noted that the most

Early Morning Mishap

Russell Carver, 33, of Canyon, is in "very critical" condition at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo with major multiple head injuries after his car ran underneath a west-bound beet truck early today just east of the Hereford Airport. Carver was unconscious when rescue units pulled him from the car. He was taken to Deaf Smith General Hospital then transferred to Amarillo. Darrel Matthews, DPS officer investigating the accident, said there were no skid marks at the scene and apparently Carver did not see the truck. Victor Delacerda, of Hereford, was driving the truck.

Capital murder charges were expected to be filed today against a 17-year-old Amarillo man in the Halloween Day slaying of a 76-year-old nun. Johnny Garrett was arrested yesterday at his home in North Amarillo.

Garrett was expected to be charged in the rape-slaying of Sister Tadea Bens, who was found dead in her room at St. Francis Convent Oct. 31. Amarillo police said Garrett offered no resistance when confronted by officers.

Danny Hill, 47th District Attorney, said the complaint to be filed today will allege that Garrett committed the murder while in the course of another felony, either burglary or rape.

"We think we can prove either burglary or rape," he said.

Hill said he was recommending that bail be denied for Garrett since he will be charged with a capital offense. Conviction of capital murder carries a mandatory punishment of either life imprisonment or death by injection, depending on how a jury answers questions it is required by state laws to consider.

The district attorney said that fingerprints linking Garrett to the crime are in police hands, but he would not elaborate on other possible evidence, some of which may have been obtained from Garrett's home.

"We still have a lot of evidence to run tests on," Hill said. Hill declined to comment on whether Garrett has a criminal record or whether he had made a confession to the crime.

However, the suspect was being questioned by police detectives late last night, and according to reports it was believed he had made a statement concerning the rape and slaying.

Hill praised the efforts of the Potter County Sheriff's Department and the Amarillo Police Department in obtaining evidence to arrest Garrett.

"The whole investigation was a concerted effort of the sheriff's office and police department," Hill said.

Brady Wit Keeps Ceremonies Light

WASHINGTON (AP) - Press secretary James B. Brady returned to the White House as a wheelchair Monday, but his inconquerable wit was intact as he helped President Reagan open the refurbished White House press room.

"You know, of course, this press room is still built over a swimming pool," Reagan said. "Now, it isn't true, however, that the floor has been 'ringed'."

"Yes it is," quipped Brady. The president and a roomful of reporters erupted in laughter - perhaps not a little relieved to hear Brady sounding so much like his old self in his first official appearance since being shot March 30.

The press secretary, whose left side is partially paralyzed as a result of the bullet that shattered in his brain during the attack on Reagan, appeared remarkably like his old self.

But the impish grin that once seemed permanently affixed to his face has been replaced by an odd melancholy look that belies his actual good cheer.

And although Brady chooses his words carefully, they come out in a voice that starts as a monotone, then rises toward the end of his sentences - as if he is unable to continue without laughing or crying.

Doctors have said controlling the range of his emotional expression is one of the many things Brady is relearning.

Textbook Committee Will Be Selected

Appointment of a textbook committee and balloting for the Appraisal District Board are included on the agenda for the Hereford Independent School District Board.

The meeting is at 8 p.m. today in the administration building.

The board will also discuss continuation of Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance, appointment of a director of business and review a school policy update. Routine staff, organizational and communications reports will be given.

County Hears Progress Report On Job Study

By BOB NIGH
MANAGING EDITOR

Deaf Smith county commissioners Monday received the first of several progress reports from George Louder of Amarillo concerning the Job Classification Study being performed by Louder for the county. Louder made his report to the county fathers during their regular session at the courthouse.

Louder told the court that he is 70 percent complete in receiving returned questionnaires he mailed to county employees recently. He added that he has visited personally with "about 80 percent" of the county's employees, and expects to deliver a classification plan to the commissioners at their Nov. 23 meeting.

Louder's evaluation will result in about 35-40 job descriptions, and will include 12-15 classes of employees according to education, experience, and compensation.

"The process is progressing well within schedule," Louder told the court. "And, I must say that the cooperation and reception to us by the county employees has been just great."

The study being done by Louder was contracted by the county to help determine whether there may be some overlapping of duties by various county employees.

In other action Monday the court canvassed the results of the Nov. 3 constitutional amendment election. The election, during which just over 1,400 voters cast ballots, cost the county $2,844.72 to conduct.

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Executive Vice President Mike Carr appeared before the court to render a progress report on the recently established Panhandle Regional Housing Corporation (PRHC) and to make two requests on behalf of the chamber.

Carr said the PRHC, formed in August, has had some legal problems with single-family housing plans, but that multi-family units are progressing well. He reported that a $24 million bond issue for the Panhandle is in the making, and that $217,000 in commitment fees have been submitted by various contractors.

Carr said that contractors intending to use the program must put up one percent of the project's cost to ensure their participation.

Carr submitted a report to the court outlining the projects currently being planned for area towns and cities.

Towns which have projects underway include Perryton, Dalhart, Amarillo, Wheeler, Canadian, Booker, Canyon, Dumas, Borger, Pampa, and Shamrock.

"There are currently no projects planned for Hereford, but we hope to see some by February or March," Carr concluded.

The commissioners approved (See COUNTY, Page 2)

Banks Adopt Lower Prime

NEW YORK (AP) - The banking industry adopted a 17 percent prime rate yesterday, down one-half percentage point from a week ago and the lowest level since March, as a weakening economy cut into demand for loans.

With the cost of banks' funds plummeting and amid widespread predictions that the economy will not begin recovering until 1982, most economists forecast further declines in the prime rate.

The latest round in cuts started Thursday by Chemical Bank in New York, the nation's sixth largest commercial bank. The move spread to large Chicago banks Friday and yesterday swept across the nation, including Bank of America in San Francisco, the nation's largest bank; No. 2 Citibank of New York; No. 3 Chase Manhattan Bank of New York; No. 4 Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. of New York; and No. 5 Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York.

The prime rate reached a record 21.5 percent in December 1980, fell steadily to 17 percent in March, then climbed to 20.5 percent in July - staying there until beginning its latest decline in mid-September.

The prime rate is the base upon which banks compute interest charges on short-term loans to their best-risk customers. Major corporations often borrow at interest rates below the prime on short-term loans, while small businesses often are charged more than the prime rate. Although it is not directly tied to consumer loans, the prime rate is an indicator of interest-rate trends.

With the economy slowing and manufacturers cutting production as inventories of unsold goods mount, business demand for short-term funds has declined.

The Federal Reserve Board reported Friday that business loans on the books of (See RATE, Page 2)

Saudis Claim Israeli Planes Invade Airspace

RIYADH, Saudi Arabia (AP) - Saudi Arabia claimed Monday that Israeli warplanes invaded Saudi airspace over the kingdom's northwest regions and were driven back by Saudi jet fighters.

Israel refused comment. The location of the purported violation, about 100 miles from the kingdom's Red Sea coast, is in the vicinity of the Tabuk military air base.

In Washington, President Reagan was informed about 8:30 a.m. CST of reports that Israeli jets had entered Saudi airspace and left "on their own accord," Deputy White House press secretary Larry Speakes said. Speakes would not comment further.

The incident comes at a time of increased tension in the Mideast over Saudi defense. On Oct. 28 the U.S. Congress, over the vehement protests of Israel, approved an $8.5 billion arms package to the oil-rich kingdom, which provides 20 percent of American imported oil. Israel regards possession of sophisticated arms by a hardline Arab nation as a threat to the security of the Jewish state. Another point of contention by the Israelis is a Mideast peace plan put forward by Saudi Prince Fahd, calling for establishment of a Palestinian state on land now occupied by Israel, governed by the Palestine Liberation Organization, with East Jerusalem as the capital. ### Layman Wins Grid Contest

Jim Layman of 336 Avenue J took sole possession of first place in last week's Hereford Brand Football Contest mission only five games including the three tie games. He earns the $25 top prize.

The next closest bid came from eight other entrants who missed seven games. The tie-breaker scores gave the nod to Billy Stephens of 105 Aspen, with a guess of 48 points and to Mildred Knox of 133 Avenue B, with a guess of 44 points. Stephens gets $15 while Knox takes the $10 prize. Close behind with lower guesses on the tiebreaker were Bobbie Nunley, Gary Rahlfs, Paul Hamilton, Danny Boyer, Natividad Torres and Raymond Hill, all who missed seven games.

Those missing eight games included Pat Goforth, Veronica Garcia, Jeff Morris, L.V. Watts, Peggy Fitzgerald, Tim Heddins, Greta Phommavong and Maggie Morrow.

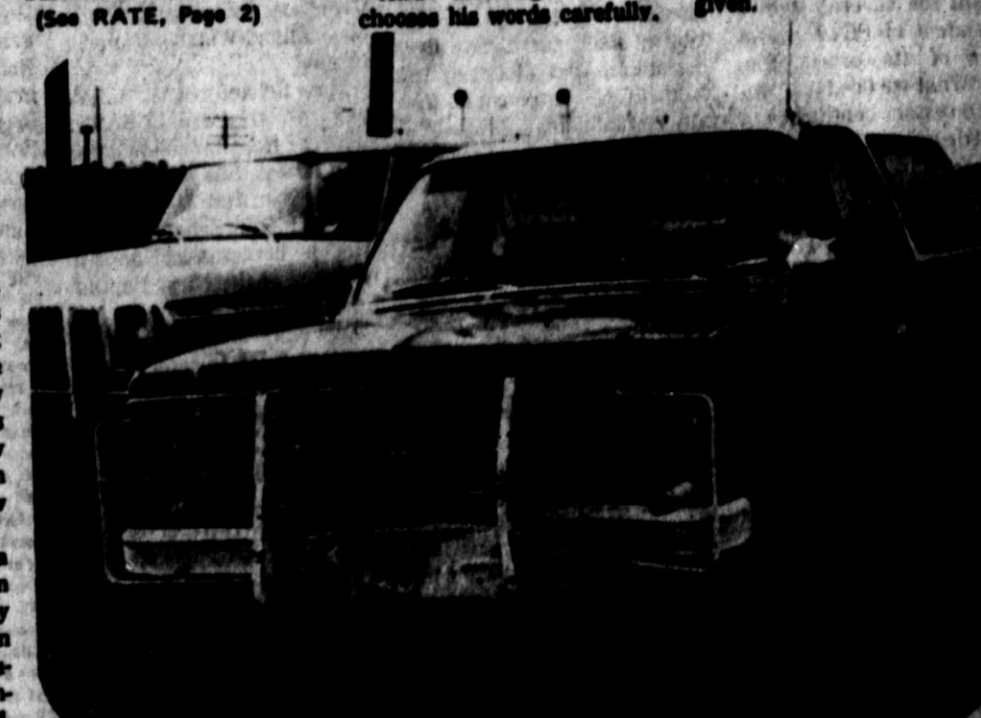

A new contest is in today's issue. Get your entry in before 5 p.m. Friday. Mail to box 673, Hereford or bring entry by our new offices now located at 313 N. Lee.

Taking A Look At 'Humane' Endeavors

I'm seeing a mousetrap advertised which promises "no mess, clean and safe..." What it is is a kind of mouse flypaper.

The hapless mouse enters this baited box and his feet get stuck in some sticky substance and he struggles there for however long until he starves or otherwise dies... Frequently after having, in desperation, sought to chew off his own imprisoned legs.

Rodent control has always been a human priority so it's not that dies—but how.

The support of humane societies has always been a priority charity in our family but we are taking a more careful look these days at where our contributions go.

Some individuals and organizations heretofore committed to helping stray or abandoned pets and challenging cruelty to any animals have since become enamored with "protecting endangered species," whales or cranes or tigers or wolves.

This elite corps of conservationists dilutes the "humane" objective with their pleas:

"Don't kill alligators because they are rare." This juxtaposition of issues focuses more concern on "what" gets killed than on "how" it gets killed.

And thus are siphoned off precious dollars which should better be going to preventing suffering.

The "fur coat issue" should not be concerned with "how rare" the animal but with how it is harvested.

Some 500 species of birds, fish or mammals become extinct every year, without human intervention.

So persons and organizations anxious about the humane treatment of an animal should not be concerned with how many of its relatives survive—but "how did it die."

Farmers, impressed with the necessary co-existence of men and animals, slaughter nothing frivolously—and never slowly.

Many hunters talk about their mutuality of respect for wildlife. That's always sounded to me like phony-balance—else they would take on big game hand-to-hand, instead of with huge guns with scope sights. But even a hunter seeks a "clean kill."

Leghold trappers are something else again. In no way can they claim any motive nobler than money.

Philosophy Professor Martin Benjamin of Michigan State University says, "Life for a modern animal is awful."

He champions a "non-human-rights movement called 'animal consciousness'." He seeks to make humans aware of the feelings, desires and intelligence of animals.

With senses often keener than our own, all animals suffer.

If it is a less-than-pretty animal, we care less. As to the argument that nature in the raw is cruel; of course it is! Animals can indeed be cruel to one another—but we are supposed to be something more than they!

Dickensian compassion rescued children from sweat shops.

Lincolnan empathy rescued slaves from being "things."

Civilization weeps while it awaits one more emancipation.

gest financier. The incident also comes as the foreign ministers of Persian Gulf Arab states convened here in Riyadh to discuss whether to establish diplomatic ties with the Soviet Union. Another item on the agenda was Fahd's peace plan.

There was no Saudi description of the number of type of planes involved in the Monday incident. Both Israel and Saudi Arabia use American-built aircraft. The Saudis fly F-5Es and the Israelis have the more advanced F-15s and F-16s—aircraft which Saudi Arabia is due to receive.

The location of the reported violation is hundreds of miles from Saudi Arabia's Persian Gulf oil fields and about 130 miles from Israel's southern-most border.

them. Many of the reporters wore tiny teddy bear pins or buttons proclaiming: "The Bear Is Back." Brady is known to his family and friends, including the president, as "Bear."

After upstaging the president with his retort about the press room really having a trap door, Brady sat quietly as Reagan set the tone for the ribbon-cutting ceremony.

"First, let me welcome all you orphans home," the president said. "Y'know, we kind of missed you. It's been quiet over here, kind of like when the kids go back to school."

There were more jokes about equipping the redecorated facilities with a sound system that can drown out questions with "instant helicopter noise" and new china for the snack bar.

"As happy as we are about reopening today, we're even more elated by the presence of a man who truly belongs in this room, a man whose courage has been an inspiration to all of us," the president added. "And I'm proud that Jim Brady is my press secretary."

Sheriff's Reserve Officers were the focal point of discussion by the court on Workmen's Compensation

Coverage for volunteer personnel. The coverage was authorized by the state legislature during the last session, and is open to Texas counties on an individual basis.

Some questions as to whether such volunteer employees are already covered through regular county coverage were raised, and the court decided to probe the question further before making a decision.

The issue mainly involved some 16 Sheriff's Reserve Officers, who perform duties under the guidance of Sheriff Travis McPherson. The ap-common such action was a fine.

During the meeting, Robert Engelken, the NRC regional director with jurisdiction over California, noted that the NRC's design review was "rather limited compared with our inspection of construction."

"That is a gap that exists in our program," he said. "It's been one of the weaker parts of our inspection program."

Denton, after outlining a proposal for several studies independent of PG&E's own review of its procedures, said: "What we need is a program to restore confidence in the adequacy of their design."

The proposal calls for the studies to be done by a consultant hired by PG&E with NRC approval. A letter from Byron S. Georgiou, legal affairs secretary to Brown, called for an audit "by outside experts who are independent of PG&E." It said the experts should not be unilaterally hired by the company but should be acceptable to all parties involved.

Palladino and several of the other commissioners expressed concern about ensuring an independent study but also said the NRC had responsibility itself for hiring any consultant and also had to hold PG&E responsible for any work done."

"I don't think we can relinquish this responsibility," Commissioner Peter Bradford said.

the nation's large banks fell $840 million in the week ended Oct. 28 after a decline of $36 million the previous week.

"With the economy apparently showing more weakness, particularly in plans for capital spending by business, rates will move down more," said Richard Peterson, chief economist at Chicago's Continental Illinois National Bank & Trust Co.

Long-term interest rates are also falling, and more companies have started to convert short-term loans into long-term borrowing, taking pressure off demand for bank loans, Peterson said. "I don't think this is the last prime rate decline we will see," said Jeffrey Leeds, an economist at Chemical Bank. He said the slowing economy has reduced demand for money, leading to a decline in the cost of funds for banks.

While the nation's 20 largest banks have adopted a 17 percent prime, some smaller banks have cut the rate even further. United Missouri Bankshares, a group of 21 Missouri Banks, said yesterday it was reducing its prime to 16.75 percent from 17.5 percent.

Ann Landers

Another Side Of Valium

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Having terrified thousands, if not millions, of regular Valium users, do you now have the decency to print another patient's side of the story? I refer to the lady who called herself a zombie because she had been taking 5 milligrams daily for 17 years. I came out of World War II a nervous wreck. I went broke paying bills to psychiatrists who tried to talk me out of acute anxiety and depressions. No help there. So I started to drink. My wife was about to leave me when a doctor suggested a new and successful drug called Valium. My whole life changed. I quit drinking and was able to relax and handle the pressure of my job and family. The children are grown now and my life is good. None of this would have happened had it not been for Valium, which I still take under the watchful eye of my doctor.

It is unfair for a person as influential as you to print just one side of the story. I am sure you would not recommend taking insulin away from a diabetic. Well, Valium is just as vital to me.—No Name In Canada

DEAR CANADA: I consulted with Dr. Daniel Freedman, chairman of psychiatry at the University of Chicago Medical School and a pioneer in the field of drug use for mental illness.

Dr. Freedman said the woman who described herself as a zombie after 17 years of daily doses of 5 milligrams of Valium may not have given us a complete picture because (a) 5 milligrams would not produce oversedation; (b) she may have been drinking along with the drug; (c) she may have other psychiatric disorders along with acute anxiety.

The key phrase in your letter was "under the watchful eye of my doctor." Valium is generally prescribed as a short-term drug to relieve anxiety. This means weeks or months—not years and years. If your doctor has kept you on it for this protracted period of time, you must be a most unusual case. Dr. Freedman hopes there were periodic reassessments.

For those who are hooked and want to get off, write to Valium Anonymous, Box 404, Altoona, Iowa 50009. This group was founded in 1978 by Leland Ahern, and new chapters are springing up all over the country. They report phenomenal successes.

DEAR ANN: Tell the guy who felt sorry for "the ugliest girl in the class of '55" not to waste his time.

When I was in high school I was ugly, too. In fact, I never had a date, but from age 17 on things changed.

When I returned for my 20th class reunion, nobody recognized me. The "ugly duckling" had turned into quite a swan.

The high school beauties bore little resemblance to their former selves. Most of them were overweight and frowny. They didn't know how to dress, and time had done them no good.

As for the former football and basketball heroes, they were mostly bald, fat and out of shape.

The Hereford Brand—Tuesday, November 10, 1981—Page 3

So, tell the jerk I have a message for him: "Eat your heart out, Fatsol!"—Angie Dickinson's Double In New England

DEAR ANGIE'S DOUBLE: Time ripens some fruit and rots others. There's a lot to be said for staying in shape. How nice that you did.

To open a coconut, tap around its middle with a hammer and when you reach the starting point give it an extra hard tap.

4-H's, Leaders Must Manage Time

By ROBBY VANN
County Extension Agent
Time management is essential to all busy 4-H's and 4-H leaders. To be satisfied with the way you use your time, you must control it, points out Robby Vann, county 4-H program leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Here are some tips to help 4-H's and adult leaders make better use of their time:

—Decide which things you feel you must do daily and make a list.

—Don't plan every hour of every day. Leave some time for interruptions and unexpected events that will surely occur.

—Put the most important things first on your daily list. Don't feel guilty if you don't get everything done by the end of the day.

—Consider what other demands will require your time.

—Be prepared to give some activities to achieve your goals. —Consider the day productive and successful if the top priority jobs have been done each day. Don't demand too much of yourself.

—Count the things you did get done. Try to see positive accomplishment, even in the interruptions.

—Remember to plan for fun and relaxation. If you're not enjoying your time, you may need to take more time to see how you're spending your days.

Ask yourself if this is what you really want to do with your life. A close look at how you're using your time can be a real "eye-opener." If you find you never have time to do things you feel are important and that you would enjoy, time management can get you started, says Robby Vann.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Good Timers Plan Anniversary Dance

Good Timers Square Dance Club danced Friday evening to the calling of Audrey Brown of Amarillo. Guests from Amarillo, Dimmitt, and Walcott danced with club members. Also dancing with the club were those currently taking lessons.

Good Timers will be celebrating their first anniversary Saturday, Nov. 14.

with a dance at the Community Center. Roy Johnson of Amarillo will be the caller, and Leonard and Arlene Marchbanks will cue rounds.

Club members finalized plans for the anniversary dance with a short business meeting Friday evening. Local dancers are invited to attend this special dance.

American Legion To Host Pancake Supper

Wednesday Nov. 11 will be Veterans Day all over the United States. It was first celebrated and established immediately following World War I to honor the dead of the U.S., Great Britain, and France.

Initially observed as Armistice Day, it served to honor the war dead of both World Wars I and II after 1945. Following the Korean War, Nov. 11 was renamed Veterans Day to honor the dead of all wars.

The Hereford Post of the American Legion will celebrate the holiday by hosting a pancake supper in the American Legion Hall Nov. 11, beginning at 7 p.m.

This is a family celebration and all veterans are invited to bring the family and come for a dinner and fellowship with other veterans. A short program will begin about 8 p.m.

At Wits End

BY ERMA BOMBECK

After years of scientific research, marketing and testing, it has finally been revealed that children can open child-proof caps on medicine bottles faster than adults.

In a significant number of cases, it was confirmed that the child-proof caps could not be opened at all by adults and caused headaches for which there is no known cure.

The message to me is quite clear. "Child-proof" is a fantasy word that was invented to give mothers hope...like "wrinkle-free" and "one-size-fits-all." They're catchy, but they don't mean anything.

The way I figured it out, it's God's way of propagating the species. We need kids. We cannot function in this world without them. As long as there are hermetically sealed combs in packages, children will always be with us.

To them, there is no place in this world that is "out of reach" and no package made that cannot be ripped open by them in 35 seconds.

They can take the bell out of a ball when they are three months, find the end of the toilet tissue roll at six months, and scale the top of the refrigerator by age one.

By age three they can operate a lipstick tube, by age four they can find the beginning of the thread that is pasted under the label, and by five can disconnect the TV and install video games.

The way the world is going, I don't think it's too unrealistic to consider rent-a-kids for people with arthritis who ever want to get sliced bacon out of a package in their lifetime. Or how about a woman with long fingernails who has never been able to use a shopping cart because they are all welded together and can only be separated by a pre-schooler? Women climbing the corporate ladder would do well to rent a kid to take along on business trips if only to open the bag of airline smoked almonds.

Sometimes I feel package manufacturers don't know children at all. If you want to keep children out of something, what do you do? You put a cute little duck on the side of the package and the words, "vitamin enriched." Then the mother puts the bottle or jar within reach of the child with the lid off and says, "There is not a day goes by that I don't want you to have one of these. Help yourself."

Trust me, the bottle will never be touched.

Girls Finish Seventh

Harriers Gain Personal Bests At Regional Meet

Improvement is the key to any endeavor in sports, and cross country coach Martha Emerson saw plenty of that last Saturday as the girls' team and Fernando Carrasco ran in the Region I Cross Country meet in Lubbock.

The girls, in their first regional appearance ever, finished a respectable seventh, with Dana Cabbiness the top runner with a time of 12:52.

"Our girls did really well," Emerson said. "The top four, (Cabbiness, Kellie Howell, Olga Alaniz and Yolanda Alaniz) ran a personal best for the Lubbock course."

Howell, who finished with a time of 13:03 was the only senior in the top four. Yolanda and Cabbiness are sophomores, with Olga and Allyson Thomas, juniors.

"Last year the best time on this course was a 13:25 by Kellie," Emerson said. "This year we had four people improve on that time. Even though we didn't send anybody to state, I am happy with the way the girls ran. We just need to work harder and use the spring track season to our advantage."

Carrasco, who had the awesome task of running without teammates to help pace him, finished in 40th with a time of 16:57.

"After the race, Fernando told me that he ran too hard at the first of the race and didn't have anything left at the end," Emerson said. "But I told him that he did the right thing, because he had to stay with the front guys if he wanted to advance."

The winning time for the boys was a 14:54 by Bobby Aguirre of El Paso Riverside. This time was nearly a minute faster than Carrasco had ever run.

Team totals had three El Paso teams earn the trip to "Turtles can tell more about the road than hares."

Top Teams Survive In YMCA Football Playoff

With the first round of playoffs finished, the top teams are still in the running for champions in the two divisions in the YMCA sponsored flag football league.

In the NFL division, which consists of teams made up of third and fourth graders, the only two games played had the Bears swamp the Cowboys, 16-6, and the Lions edge the Rams, 6-0. The other two teams in the finals are the Packers and the Cardinals, who had received byes in the first round of action.

The next round, to be contested next Saturday, will have the Packers going against the Bears, while the Cardinals face the Lions.

With the Chargers and the Oilers of the AFL group having the best records, both kept their title hopes alive with big wins over their opponents.

The Chargers, who are undefeated for the year, blasted the Colts, 24-0, while the Oilers did only slightly less against the Jets, as they won 22-0.

The other two games had the Steelers outlast the Raiders, 14-12 and the Browns squeak past the Dolphins, 6-0. In this game, the Browns won in the overtime period, with the touchdown coming with less than two minutes remaining in the extra period.

Next week, the Chargers will go against the Steelers, while the Browns face the Oilers. This matchup will give the Oilers a chance to redeem themselves for their only defeat of the year.

Games will begin at 8:30 in the morning, November 14.

Cowboys Deck Bills With 3rd Period Romp

DALLAS (AP) - Danny White brought the Dallas Cowboys from behind last night, for a 27-14 NFL win over the Buffalo Bills. But this time he didn't wait until the fourth quarter.

Buffalo led 14-7 at the half, but White found Tony Dorsett for a swing pass and the star running back found 73 yards of open space to race for the tying touchdown on the first scrimmage play of the second half.

The fireworks of the second half had yet to subside for the Cowboys as the defense got the ball back after Everson Walls picked off a pass from Bill's quarterback Joe Ferguson. The second interception of the night led the Cowboys to their second score of the half as they used a flea-flicker that went from White to Dorsett, back to White who then threw a 37 yard strike to Tony Hill, who had outraced the Bill secondary.

Dallas' next score came in the third quarter also as kicker Raphael Steptin booted his first of two three pointers to give the Cowboys a 24-14 lead.

Dorsett rushed for 117 yards, to push him over the 1,000 yard mark for the fifth consecutive season. With the 117 yards, Dorsett overtakes George Rogers of New Orleans for the rushing lead.

The win ups the Cowboys record to 8-2 and in a tie with Philadelphia for the lead in the NFC East.

year we had four people improve on that time. Even though we didn't send anybody to state, I am happy

All Alone

Dana Cabbiness of the Hereford cross country team seems to be all alone in the regional cross country meet last Saturday. Cabbiness, who finished the course in a personal best of 12:52, crossed the line with a 31st place finish. She led the HHS squad to a seventh place ranking.

Basketball Scrimmage Leaves Coach Excited

By MARC HERRING
Staff Writer

Steve Welch, Gary Long, John Keating, Dwayne McNaney and Kyle Schuder were all of the unknown Saturday at 2 p.m. Coach Bobby Decker had not seen any of the above-mentioned play under game circumstances and they were the hope of the 1981 edition of Whiteface basketball.

At 5:30 Saturday, a lot of those questions were answered after the Herd had gone through six, eight minute quarters with a big, talented Canyon Eagle team. "I was impressed with our kids," Coach Decker said. "Canyon is a real good team, tall and they know how to put the ball in the basket and our guys stayed right with them."

Canyon, the Class 4A state runnerup last year, had an average starting height of over 6-5, with their shortest being 6-1. On the other hand, Hereford's tallest is 6-2, with only two others breaking the 6-0 barrier.

"At first, I didn't think that we could run a man-to-man defense against them because we just didn't match up very well," Decker said. "But the guys just really went after them and it turned out to be our most effective defense."

Coach Decker said that none of the five that started had any varsity experience, but that they have been working hard and are learning to play together.

"With the fact that the most any of these guys had played was on the junior varsity and sophomore teams, they handled themselves pretty well," Decker said.

Decker went on to say that the biggest surprise of the afternoon was Steve Welch, a 6-1 post. Previous experience included playing time last year on the sophomore team.

"Steve really surprised me," Coach Decker said. "He was going against a guy that had several inches on him and he denied him the ball most of the time. He also had several outstanding defensive plays, including some blocked shots that helped us a lot."

Others areas of strength that pleased the coaching staff was the use of the 1-2-1 zone press. Decker said that they got some turnovers from the press and that the guys played it pretty well.

Decker, who said that he went into the scrimmage a bit apprehensive, was very pleased the way the guys were fired up for the match.

"I wasn't sure how the afternoon would go, so I didn't want to be too excited one way or the other, but after the kids played so well the last half of the first quarter, I was really getting fired up myself," Decker said.

For the quarters, the team shot 36 percent, which was one of the areas that the coaches felt needed to be improved. Other areas that will be the focus in practice included offensive rebounding, the zone defense, stopping the other team's big man from getting the ball and to work on ball control.

"If we can improve our shooting and ball control," Decker said, "we can stay in just about any game. Add on to that, and improve our offensive rebounding, we could be really tough."

Long led the team in scoring for the afternoon's work with 13 points, but balanced scoring was a bright point that pleased Coach Decker. Keating had 11 and Welch had 10.

Along with the starting five, the coaches got a chance to look at some of the other players, and Coach Decker was not displeased with their will be delayed until the football team finishes its season. Players that will be included from last year are Alan Wartes, Wayne High, Don Delozier and Mike Mason. Decker also expects varsity help from Brian Taylor and Charles McDowell, both juniors.

matchup with no varsity experience, proved themselves to be a tough team as they stayed even with the Class 4A state runnerups. (Brand Photo by Marc Herring)

Pitt, Clemson Hang On To Top Spots

Pitt, Clemson, Southern California and Georgia held onto the top four spots in The Associated Press college football poll Monday and the University of Hawaii, a relative newcomer to Division I, made the major college rankings for the first time ever.

Pitt, one of four unbeaten teams among the 137 in Division I, received 53 of 68 first-place votes and 1,343 of a possible 1,360 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and sportscasters. The Panthers boosted their record to 8-0 by trouncing Rutgers 47-3.

Clemson also remained unbeaten - the Tigers are 9-0 for the first time in 33 years - by edging North Carolina 10-8, a setback that dropped the Tar Heels from eighth place to 13th. Clemson received seven first-place votes and 1,272 points.

Southern Cal, which defeated California 21-3, received the other eight first-place ballots and 1,232 points. Last week, Pitt led Clemson and USC in first-place votes 49-9-7 and 1,283-1,201-1,178 in points with 65 of the 68 voters participating.

Georgia's defending national champions defeated Florida 26-21 and received 1,129 points to remain in fourth place. However, Texas was held to a 14-14 tie by Houston and slipped from fifth to 10th.

That cleared the way for Penn State and Alabama, which meet this Saturday in State College, Pa., to move up one position each to fifth and sixth place, respectively. Penn State defeated North Carolina State 22-15 and received 1,043 points, while Alabama had a week off. The Crimson Tide totaled 935 points.

Nebraska jumped from 11th to seventh with 793 points following a 54-7 rout of Oklahoma State and Southern Methodist, a 33-12 winner over Rice, climbed from 10th to eighth with 791 points.

La Plata And Stanton Finish This Week

Season ending matchups between cross town rivals Stanton and La Plata begin today with the seventh grade teams set to face each other at 4 p.m. at Whiteface Stadium.

In other grades, the eighth grade will go against one another at 3:30 on Thursday with the freshmen to follow at 5 p.m. One other game that day will have the junior varsity host the Monterey Palamians at 7:30.
