Less than half the Deaf Smith Red Cross disaster fund quota of $310 has been met, according to Mrs. Dyalthisa Brady, Red Cross executive secretary. In spite of the lagging contributions here, there will be no campaign to raise the fund allotted for this county. The local chapter is counting entirely on donations.

The county commissioners met Monday for their semi-monthly business meeting.

A Goodwill Tour advertising the "Will Rogers Memorial Round-up" to be held in Muleshoe on August 30 and 31 will arrive in Hereford on August 28. The tour will stop in Hereford at 2 p.m. and will put on a street show for about 20 minutes.

Mayor W. E. Dameron of Hereford has been invited by Everett Colborn and Gene Autry, producers and owners of the Dublin Rodeo, to attend the Pre-Madison Square Garden Rodeo at Dublin, Texas as their guest. This year the rodeo at Dublin will be on August 29, 30, 31 and September 1.

The "fall round-up" of college students, carried annually in The Hereford Brand, is now being compiled. All those planning to attend school for the first time or to return to school, are asked to write a card or phone Mrs. John McLean, Brand Society Editor, phone 181, or 243 W. Fifth Street, so names may be included in the list of returning students. Writing or calling the society editor is the best way to MAKE SURE that all names are included in this back-to-college roundup.

Labor is here now waiting to get into the dormitory, which will be finished next week. Besides the sleeping quarters, there is a large community kitchen, a dining room, and two big toilets and shower rooms. The dormitory will be "modern and sanitary in every respect", Paetzold said. The dormitory will house lettuce crews of Charlie Huston.

Rodgers Chairman Of Research Group

David Rodgers of Dawn was named chairman of the newly-formed Deaf Smith County Research Foundation at a meeting of its board of directors Tuesday night in Hotel Jim Hill.

Wayne Ewars was selected to be vice-chairman of the committee. Other officers are Mrs. Reed Williams, treasurer and reporter, and Tom McFarland, secretary.

The group agreed that the first 96 samples of Deaf Smith county foods, grains, and soil will be taken this week. Tom McFarland, C of C secretary-manager, and County Agent Hugh Clearman, will take the samples.

All 96 of the samples will be sent to the laboratory in Houston for a spectrographic analysis by Saturday.

Taking of the samples and raising funds to continue the work was termed the "Number One Project" of the year by the committee members at Tuesday night's meeting.

The board would like to get all persons in the area interested in the project to find out what the answer to the "Deaf Smith County question" is, in a chemistry sense.

It was the thinking of the board that anyone interested in the county at all would like to find out why we have an unusually low amount of tooth decay, according to McFarland, who reported the proceedings of the first meeting.

The committee felt also that if these tests prove what they think, a premium price can be demanded for all produce of the area, regardless of what it is, due to the unusual health conditions.

Members of the committee present Tuesday also pointed out that there were three principal reasons for making the research project: 1—Aid to humanity; 2—For the commercial value of the findings; and 3—The findings should be the determining factor in obtaining the Shrine hospital in Hereford.

"This project," says McFarland, "may well provide the answer to the lasting question, 'What is it that Deaf Smith

Amnesia Victim Is Identified Here

A 23-year-old woman who was admitted to the Deaf Smith County hospital as an amnesia victim has been identified.

She is Mrs. W. E. Harp of Stillwater, Okla., the mother of four children. Her husband arrived from Stillwater Wednesday and established her identity. They left Hereford for Stillwater Wednesday afternoon by bus.

Mrs. Harp was admitted to the hospital here late Tuesday afternoon after she was brought there by Sheriff J. C. Reese and County Attorney Tom Howard.

Harp had broadcast an appeal for his wife, the mother of four children, which was heard by local police officers. They in turn contacted Harp in Stillwater and he came to Hereford.

Mrs. Harp couldn't tell local hospital authorities or police officers about her plight. All she could remember was being awakened on a bus by the driver, who told her she had bought a ticket from Amarillo to Hereford.

Hospital authorities were convinced of the genuineness of Mrs. Harp's attack of amnesia. Dr. R.

R. Wills, county health officer, failed to confirm Mrs. Harp as a victim of amnesia.

Harp told authorities here that his wife left Stillwater Monday afternoon, leaving a note as to where her husband would find the family automobile.

Mrs. Harp arrived in Hereford at 3 a.m. Tuesday morning and walked around until 1 p.m. She then went to the Hereford Clinic, from where she was sent to the hospital.

Mrs. Harp has a sister in Hereford, but the sister is not at home at the present time.

Rites Held Monday For Drowning Victim

Paul Eugene Lance, 22-year-old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lance Sr. of Summerfield, drowned Saturday night, Aug. 11, at Buffalo lake.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist church in Summerfield.

Burial was in West Park cemetery under the direction of Gilliland Funeral home.

Lance and a cousin, Richard Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark of Hereford, had been pleasure-riding when the boat motor stalled. As Clark was attempting to start the motor, he heard a splash and turned to find Lance had fallen from the boat. Clark started the motor and reported the accident.

The body was found Sunday morning about 4:45 after an all-night search by more than 100 persons.

At the time of the accident the boy's parents were in Dallas at the bedside of their 10-year-old son, Jerry Don Lance, who has been unconscious since suffering a brain injury in a fall from a tree at the family farm home July 17.

Survivors other than his parents and brother, Jerry Don, include: two other brothers, Earl Lance Jr., and C. J. Lance, Summerfield; and three sisters, Mrs. Weldon Webb, Lubbock; Mrs. Reece Dawson and Ann Lance, Summerfield.

Ray Mc Culloughs Finally Find Deep-Sea Thriller

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McCullough got the greatest thrill of their careers as deep-sea fishermen during a recent angling sortie in Pacific waters off California when they caught five albacore between them.

Each albacore, commonly called "Chicken of the Sea", weighs in at about 13 pounds.

The McCulloughs recently returned from their California vacation and brought back the evidence with them, just to make sure.

On the particular day they reeled in the albacore, they were on chartered fishing boat with 24 other fishermen. They had to go 55 miles out into the blue waters of the Pacific to make their run at albacore fishing.

There were 45 fish caught during the trip. McCullough caught three and his wife caught the two.

The fishing boat left Pierpoint Landing in Long Beach at 3:30 in the morning. About daybreak, they started trolling, using a jig line to locate the fish with. When they made contact, the boat was stopped and threw out bait (anchovies).

The first fish in the party was caught at 11 a.m. The 45 were caught between the hours of 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

It's fun catching albacore, McCullough said. You can see them for 15 feet down in the water. When you set the hook in them, they take off for about 50-150 yards.

Mrs. McCullough caught two of the five brought back to Hereford, but there were two more that got away because she tried to stop them on the run instead of playing them out.

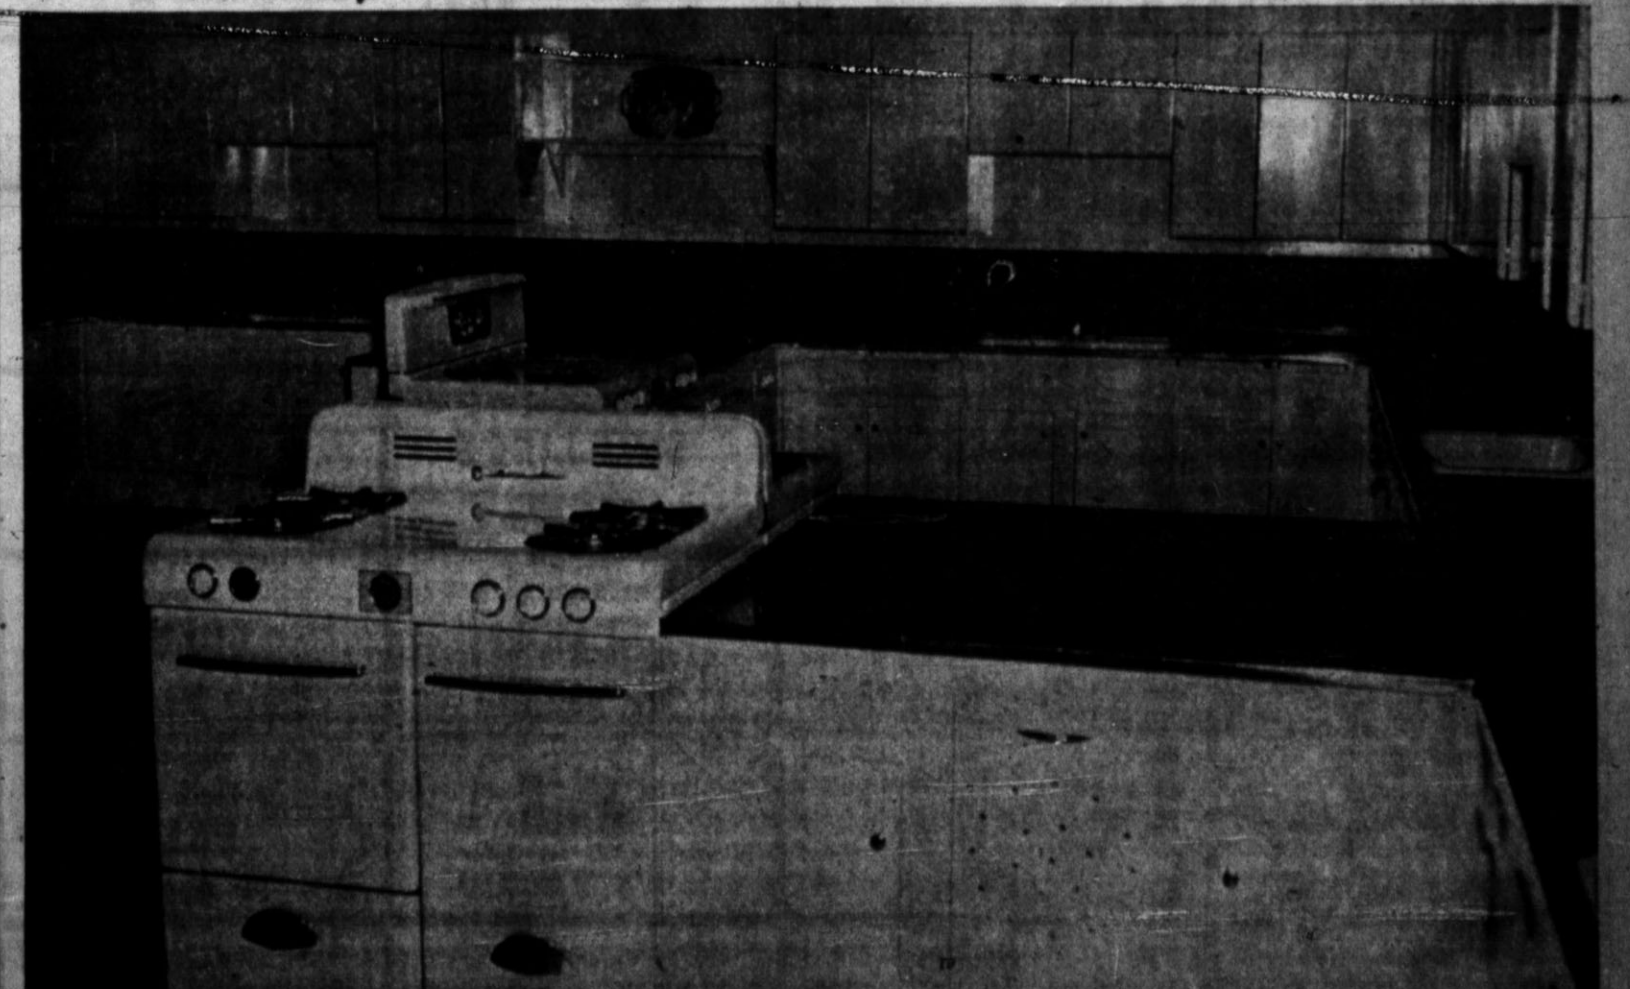

This is the first time the Mc-

Culloughs have been fortunate enough to run into albacore on four previous deep-sea fishing trips.

The albacore is the best grade of Tuna, McCullough said.

HERE'S THE PROOF! Mr. and Mrs. Ray McCullough exhibit four of the five albacore (Chicken of the Sea) which they caught on a recent deep-sea fishing trip off the California coast. McCullough caught three out of five and Mrs. McCullough caught two of the 13-pounders.

County To Get Funds From State Gas Tax

Deaf Smith county will receive approximately $26,615.07 as its share of the surplus in the County and Road District Highway Fund (gas tax) at the close of this fiscal year (August 31), according to information contained in a letter received this week by County Judge L. H. Foster.
 The funds will be available for use in the construction and improvement of county lateral roads.

As provided for in the law distributing the funds, an order signed by the Commissioners' Court was signed and sent to the board in Austin requesting these funds and stating in the order the purpose for which they will be used.

A later change was made by the Bureau of the Census in the total figure to be released to Deaf Smith county, but that total will be affected only slightly.
 Last year's share for Deaf Smith county was approximately $25,000. The entire amount of money given the county from this gas tax fund has been spent in road-construction.

NFIP Sends Epidemic Team, Polio Equipment to Texas

AUSTIN—Two epidemiologists were dispatched to Fort Worth at the request of local health officials last week to study the polio outbreak in Tarrant County. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis flew in its assistant director of research, Dr. Henry Kumm of New York, and Dr. Herbert Wenner, professor of pediatrics, University of Kansas.

Meanwhile valley counties continue to receive large epidemic aid grants from the March of Dimes organization which sent $42,100 to Texas for local patient care expenses during the week ending August 4.

Receiving funds, largely for previous years' patients, were Hidalgo County, $19,000; Cameron, $7,900; Kennedy and Kleberg, $8,500; and Jim Wells, $2,000. Gillespie and Medina, in south-central Texas, received $1,600 and $3,100 respectively. The total sent during the year to Texas county chapters, after their own March of Dimes funds were depleted, reached $283,775.

By August 3rd, rural Sagerton (a community of several hundred near Abilene) had chalked up its seventh case for the year.

On the equipment front, too, National Foundation resources were tapped with three respirators going to Texas hospitals during the week. Ben Tankersley, NFIP northwest Texas representative wired for suction machines and hot packs for the Plainview Clinic where 21 patients were being treated, three in iron lungs.

With Red Cross cooperation, the National Foundation rounded out its service to Texas patients by recruiting six polio nurses, fulfilling its pledge of assistance to polio victims in fighting the epidemic disease.

COLLEGE STATION — "Are You Write-Minded" will be the theme for one of six workshops to be held during the 25th Anniversary convention of the Texas Home Demonstration association, College Station, August 29, 30, 31.
According to Bonnie Cox, organization specialist for the Texas A. & M. College Extension service, the delegates from the 2200 clubs in Texas will study writing, reporting, and the use of appropriate pictures for their official publication, "The Messenger." Mrs. G. W. Ferguson, Bell County, is editor and will head the workshop.
A panel of speakers will present information on writing, reporting, and photograph, and then the delegates will meet in a "buzz session" in groups of six to discuss the Messenger and their responsibility to it. This type of session gives each member an opportunity to speak and take part in the program, says Miss Cox. Speakers will include: Sallie Hill, Birmingham, Ala., home editor of Progressive Farmer magazine; Murry Cox, Radio Farm Director, WFAA, Dallas; and Iris Davenport, Nashville, Tenn., home editor of Southern Agriculturist-Farm and Ranch magazine.

Other workshops will be conducted during the convention for delegates on recreation, 4-H, legislation, education and marketing. A special session will be held for county chairmen of the Texas Home Demonstration association.

Art Patrons Amazed By Eight-Year-Old

(Editor's Note: The following feature story appeared in the July 29 issue of the Daily Times Herald at Dallas. Vin Scheihagen, the youth featured in the article, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Scheihagen of Hereford. Vin's father A. E. Scheihagen is a pilot for Pioneer Airlines. The story was written by Bob Brock. Daily Times Herald staff writer.)

By Bob Brock

A paraphrase, if you please: "From the pallets and paint boxes of youngsters often come jewels."

And many of these "gems" in the rough, now, occupy wall space at the Betty McLean Gallery as part of the current exhibit of Paintings by Children for Children. Displayed are paintings by children in the Dallas public schools, from the classes of Miss Maurine Cantey and from the Dickson-Reeder school in Fort Worth.

Although the children are strictly nonprofessionals, there is something unamateurish about their work, which smack of freshness and great fun in this creative field. Many of the works have been purchased, which gives the young artists a definite boost.

What of the children who anonymously display their works?

For an example, we took Vin Scheihagen, 8, a pupil of Miss Maurine Cantey, who instructs a special class of youngsters from seven and one half to 11 at her studio-home, 6202 Lake Hurst.

Vin's an average youngster who started in an after-school art class last November. Vin, who will be a fourth grader at the Sudie L. Wilson school, had had no special art instruction, but he did enjoy fooling around with a pencil and sketchbook. In Miss Cantey's class he caught on extremely fast and with his tempera, "The Clown" now in the Betty McLean display, he took first prize in class competition.

Just about completed is a series of pencil sketches of his mother and father, grandmother and grandfather, and a younger sister. So intent is he on the subject, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Scheihagen 4506 Cherokee Trail, marvel over the time he got up at 5:30 a.m. to finish the sketches of his grandparents, when they were about to leave after a visit.

Although his present works

Asking Early Registration of DE Students

show a realistic approach, Vin has delved into surrealism and cubism, "just for the fun of it". Possessing keen and critical eye, Vin can sum up a picture and the artists' thought with amazing clarity. Almost uncanny is his knack for identifying an artist by his style.

His sister, Sandra, 6, and a second grader, is content to be a model, Mr. and Mrs. Scheihagen report. She's shown no artistic leanings, but her precocity extends to being able to read just about anything she picks up.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Henneman visited in Farwell over the weekend with Mrs. Henneman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Dial.

A call was issued this week by S. N. Henry for junior and senior students at Hereford high school to enroll as soon as possible in the school's distributive education program if they plan to take DE this year.

At the present time, the field is "wide open" Henry said. Placings will be made on a first-come first-served basis. Almost all types of business places will be available for students this year. All interested in getting early placements are asked to contact Henry at his home, phone 1582, or through the superintendent's office at the school.

The list of merchants seeking students on a part-time basis is larger than last year, Henry said. He is seeking increased enrollment in the class to compensate for that boost.

DE class enrollment last year was 16 students. Henry is shooting for a class of 20 or more this year. Henry attended a vocational education school at Kerrville this summer, which was sponsored by the state department of vocational education. He plans to make a great many changes in his classroom preparation for the distributive education work.

Besides the educational training through the distributive education program, the students have a chance to earn a modest amount of spending money, Henry said.

He asked for emphasis on the early registration of students wishing to participate in the program.

County Appoints Board to Study Road Opening

The Commissioners' Court Monday appointed a three-man board of view—comprised of Glen Weir, C. R. Smith, and Dave Alexander—to study and recommend equitable damages to allow the county clear a road adjacent to Section 45 in Block K-8.

The Court Monday approved the opening of a six-mile road in K-8 east of Section 63, 64, and 65 and north of Section 57, and west of Section 44 and 45.

Property owners of Sections 56, 57, and 58 agreed to give more of their land so a first-class 80-foot county road could be opened. Land to the west of them was held in an estate so they freed the roadway by giving more of their land.

Property owners whose property is being studied by the board of view are Fred H. Kerr and Margaret L. Barrett.

CARD OF THANKS
With grateful hearts and sincere appreciation, we thank you wonderful people for your many acts of kindness, which helps to make our sorrow bearable. Again in all sincerity thank you.

Rev. Franklin Swanner was in Hereford Sunday to fill the pulpit at the Baptist church for Rev. Cagle.

Call Grand Jury Saturday at 10

The grand jury has been summoned for 10 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 18. They will investigate the recent wave of farm burglaries and also one second offense of driving while-intoxicated.

Names of the 16 men notified to report for possible grand jury duty are: C. L. Bogle, G. E. Benson, Jay Boston, J. C. McCracken, James S. Stocks, L. J. Strauss, T. E. Rohrbach, E. A. Goettsch, W. H. Blevins, Phillips Miller, Glenn Hetzler, Fred Saltzman, Arthur Brock, V. E. Dodson, Jimmie Allred, and Hugh Bookout.

Sheriff J. C. Reese said more loot had come in to his office from Dallas in connection with the farm burglaries here. The list of burglaries substantiated by loot now totals 17 or 18, he said.

Included in the loot returned from Dallas by the wife of one of the men being held in county jail in connection with the burglaries is:

Two watches—one man's and one ladies', string of pearls, pocket knife, several bracelets, necklaces, ear screws, lockets, key chains, rings, class ring, army ring, and other miscellaneous jewelry.

Two Charges Are Filed After Fight At Labor Camp

Persons who have missed items from their homes are asked to come to the sheriff's office to identify their belongings.

Two charges were filed in county court on August 13 as a result of an altercation Sunday morning at the Mexican labor camp. Authorities were called to the camp when Jesus Morin and Paul Hernandez were fighting. Morin was armed with an ice pick with a seven-inch blade and a four-inch handle and Hernandez was armed with a sharp, pointed stick. Sheriff J. C. Reese said Morin was injured slightly in the exchange.

A charge of carrying a concealed weapon was filed on Monday against Morin and a charge of aggravated assault was filed on Hernandez.

HEREFORD FURNITURE COMPANY
Corner Main and Fourth Streets
Hereford, Texas

Dear Friends, Customers and Neighbors:
Just three years ago we moved to Hereford and opened our furniture store in the present location. We decided on Hereford because we liked the town, the progressive people, and the manner in which you lived--and because we felt that the community deserved, and would support a Quality Furniture Store which featured Nationally Advertised Lines--at Reasonable Prices.

Since that time you have been wonderful to us--and we mean wonderful in every respect. Your patronage has been exceptional. Your co-operation has been outstanding and, best of all, you have accepted us into your community. We enjoy living with and working with people like you find in Hereford.

In return, we have tried to be good citizens. Our stock includes many famous names, such as PHILCO REFRIGERATORS, RADIOS AND OTHER APPLIANCES.

So, when our Third Anniversary rolled around this week we talked things over. We wanted to say "THANK YOU"--and we decided the best and most convincing way was to say it with this big Anniversary Sale--a sale which will SAVE YOU MONEY ON LITERALLY HUNDREDS OF HOME FURNISHINGS AND APPLIANCES. Visit us and see for yourself. Those on this page are only a few of the many, many bargains we have to offer.

Again, please accept our appreciation for all you have done for us and please feel free to call upon us when we can be of service.

The Hereford Brand SPORTS

Hereford, Texas, Thursday, August 16, 1951 Section Two

DIGGIN' DIVOTS By Jim Terry

The local links were crowded over the week-end with 15 rounds of golf, a new record, being played over Saturday and Sunday.

The next three months will give us the best golfing weather of the year.

Congratulations to Frank Latimer who won the third flight trophy at the Rioduso tournament last week. Congrats also to Joe Kerr, who was runner-up in the fifth flight at the Plainview invitational.

The Jaycees had tough luck at the Berger Bi-Regional tourney last Saturday, losing the trophy to Amarillo by only one stroke. Those representing the Hereford team were Stan Barrett with a 78, Dr. J. W. Barnett with a 96, Bill Howard who carded a 78, Ray Hardy, 84, and Jim Terry, 71.

Many Lions and Kiwanians have been practicing up for their duel in the near future. It is understood that the Jaycees plan to challenge the winners.

Winners of the ball sweepstakes last week-end were Earl Brock of Dimmitt, 84-15-69; Bob Lindsey, 85-13-72; John Renner, Friona, 84-11-73; J. M. Posey, 80-7-73; Wright Williams, Friona, 83-9-74; Dr. J. Channer, 80-6-74.

Other scores were Bill Curtis 88-10-78; Wayne Phillips, 82-6-76; Henry Lewis, 98-10-88; O. F. Lange, 86-10-76; F. Latimer, 94-8-86; and Ray Hardy, 88-13-75.

Semi-annual fees are now due at the pro shop. Ladies, remember! Thursday is Ladies' Day. Golfingly Yours, Jim T.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sears accompanied by their nephews, Joe Frank and Bob Huckert, left Tuesday for a 10 day vacation at Dove Creek, Colo.

Sgt. Robert Bicknell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bicknell of Hereford, is on maneuvers in North Carolina. He expects to return to his base at Memphis, Tenn. sometime in September.

Angling Film Scheduled for Service Clubs

A special showing of a two-reel sports film, "Fishing for Fun," will be shown to all service clubs in Hereford during the coming week.

The picture, presented by General Motors, will star Ben Hardesty, U. S. professional all-around bait and fly-casting champion.

Showing of the film will be sponsored by Bruce Woodell, sales manager of Kinsey Motors. The movie is strictly non-commercial and contains no advertising, Woodell said.

"Fishing for Fun" presents a comprehensive exhibition in the art of fishing and casting, encouraging participation in the sport, and emphasizing the thrill every fisherman seeks. The film is narrated by Ted Husting. Hardesty is a man who, is Husing's words, "drops 'em in a tea cup as far away as you can see it."

Hardesty gives a display of angling for trout, bass, bonefish, sailfish, and tarpon.

The Lions club saw the film Wednesday, with a Thursday showing scheduled for the Kiwanis club. Rotary will see the film Friday and the Jaycees will view it on August 21.

Toastmasters Tell How "Life Can Be Interesting"

Toastmaster for the Monday night meeting of the Hereford Toastmasters club was Francis Hardwick. Elmer Patterson served as topic master.

Ben Childers made a speech on "Life Can Be Interesting" and Dr. M. C. Adams served as special evaluator for the speech.

Bruce Miller was general evaluator for the topic discussion. Taking part in the topic discussion were Leo Forrest, Curtis

Expiration of Hunting, Fishing Permits August 31

AUSTIN—Fishing and hunting licenses for the fiscal year beginning September 1 will be in the hands of Texas agents the last week in August, according to the chief clerk of the Game, Fish & Oyster Commission.

He said 1650 persons in practically every community in Texas will help distribute the licenses.

Approximately 315,000 individual resident sport fishing licenses and roughly 310,000 individual resident hunting licenses will have been issued to Texans for the current fiscal year ending August 31.

The chief clerk visions a small increase in the sale of both hunting and fishing licenses for the next year.

All of the 36 licenses issued by the Game, Fish & Oyster Commission must be renewed for the new fiscal year, advised the chief clerk.

The fees range from 50 cents for a duplicate individual fishing license, replacing the original, to $200 for a wholesale fish and oyster dealer permit.

One important change to sportsmen is the new combined $2.15 resident hunting license which is good for both big game and small game, barring antelope which requires a special $5 permit. All persons over 17 years of age hunting beyond their home county must have a hunting license.

The resident license for sports fishing in fresh water costs $1.65. It must be used by all persons over 17 years of age when fishing beyond their home counties or adjoining counties. Licenses must be possessed even then if artificial bait is used in Softball Fans Get Two Thrillers Mon.

Hereford softball fans were given two thrillers in league play Monday night as both games in the double-header went down to the wire and were decided by only one point.

In the opener, Summerfield came bouncing back to win a tight 16-15 verdict over Magnolia. C & R-Jiggs pounded out a 14-13 decision over second-place Dawn in a nine-inning affair.

By virtue of their win over Dawn, the C & R-Jiggs team pulled itself within a half game of second place. Their 8-6 record is overshadowed only slightly by Dawn's 8-5 mark.

Summerfield traded places in the standing with Magnolia after their win, dropping the Oilers to fifth slot.

C & R-Jiggs garnered their 14 runs on as many hits while Dawn pushed across 13 tallies with the aid of 12 hits.

Magnolia pounded out 11 bingles to chase across 15 runs and Summerfield got their winning 16 runs on 15 hits.

Drennan and Hardy formed the battery for C & R-Jiggs and W. Lemon and Marvin May shared mound duties for Dawn while E. Lemon handled the backstopping chores.

In the Summerfield-Magnolia tussle, Joe Streunn took the hill for the winners with Baize behind the bat. Magnolia used Bars and Malicoat on the mound with Laing catching.

Thursday night's schedule calls for Magnolia and the Knights of Columbus in the opener and Dawn and Hereford Hardware meeting in the nightcap.

LONG THOUGHTS

Who can measure the length of a thought! Especially the thought of a child! A good thought is like the acorn, which becomes the Live Oak tree, which may live for a thousand years. Some thoughts are much longer than that. Aristotle urged upon men the 'golden mean,' and many business men today are following him; he lived three hundred years before the beginning of our era. The decalogue, or Ten Commandments, are long thoughts about how women and men should live. Perhaps the thoughts stirring in this child's mind have been dropped there by a parent or by a teacher or by a neighbor. Isn't it rather wonderful that you and I can start a train of thinking and of living, in a child, that may go on forever? How long is "forever?" That is how long some thoughts are.

Can you remember a word spoken to you in the long ago? Some of us treasure what seemed a chance thought passed to us by a careful teacher many years ago. When the soil is right and a mind is eager to know, seeds are precious. Have you learned a lesson that you count of great value? Do you wish that someone had passed it to you when you were young? Then why not do for some other child what you wish had been done for you? Would you not like to live forever in the esteem of another? Perhaps the child is our opportunity for some worthwhile immortality. Help her leave for posterity some long thoughts. What a pity that a good thought or a bit of wisdom we have garnered through many years should die with us! It does not need to die. The child near you is the good soil into which you may drop the good seed thought. "A sower went forth to sow." Every woman and every man is a sower. Is the seed good that we sow? What will the harvest be, for the thoughts we are putting into the minds of retentive childhood? Your thoughts and mine may become inspiring or discouraging thoughts to these precious persons that we love. Is it important then that we think straight, clean, sweet, kind, loving thoughts? These should be long thoughts. Attend your church regularly.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding their lives. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

CONG. WALTER ROGERS SAYS

House Gives Russians Answer in 56 Billion Defense Appropriation

DEFENSE APPROPRIATIONS: The House of Representatives served notice on Stalin that the United States of America is ready, able and willing to spend whatever is necessary to meet the threats of Communism. It passed a record 56 billion dollar appropriation for defense purposes. This bill was steered through the house under the able leadership of Congressman George Mahon, of the Lubbock district, who is chairman of the subcommittee on Military Appropriations. This subcommittee made an extended study of the defense needs and their findings were ably presented to the house by Congressman Mahon. One amendment to the bill will be of particular interest to reservists. This amendment barred the use of funds to pay certain inactive or volunteer reservists after November 30 who have served 12 months.

EXPANSION OF AIR FORCE: Stalin was given further notice of our intentions by the bill induced by Rep. Carl Vinson of Georgia, chairman of the Armed Services committee. This bill calls for an expansion of the Air Force to 163 groups, Sen. Lodge of Massachusetts has advocated an expansion to 150 groups. It seems to be the consensus of opinion that the Air Force should be expanded but that we will probably stop it at somewhere around 130 groups. I have continually advocated this expansion and have consulted with high Air Force officials on numerous occasions concerning it. There are a number of unused fields in our section that could be utilized for this program with a relatively small overall cost to the government. The Panhandle furnishes excellent weather for this purpose and is looked upon favorably by the Air Force. The one great fear of Stalin is a strong Air Force in Western Europe. We can never hope to match the Russians and their satellites man for man in ground forces. Our superiority must rest in our superior weapons and our ability to use them. These superior weapons have been developed by constant and vigilant research, and in this field we are ahead of the Communist-dominated countries and we must stay ahead of them.

ROCKET TESTS: The recent tests at White Sands, N. M., resulted in major step in the research program. The Viking No. 7 Rocket soared 135 miles and came down about 41 miles north of where it was launched. I was furnished with a dramatic story of this incident by a close friend of mine who is high in the Army official family. The flight of the rocket was traced by radar and the rocket was under control of ground forces at all times. Had it veered from its course or gotten out of control, it could have been exploded in the atmosphere. This flight carried our researchers 21 miles higher than the previous single stage rocket record. It attained a speed of 4100 miles an hour, more than a mile a second—a speed that would carry you to the moon in less than 60 hours. This was the seventh in a series of 10 rockets scheduled to be fired. Number eight is under construction now.

ARMY SPENDING: My office has received a number of communications concerning bulletins and editorials criticizing Army purchases. These matters have been investigated at length by Congressional committees and the Army has been called upon for explanations. Space will not permit me to include the entire statement of the Army officials on this matter, but I will try to include others in subsequent news letters. Here is the Army's answer to one of the charges: Charge: "The Army has purchased 68 million can openers since the start of the Korean campaign one year ago. There are about 1.5 million men in the Army." Army's answer: "Both of these statements are true but placed together without further explanation they give a completely false impression. This figure can be found on page 113 of the printed testimony where it lies in the middle of a statement of Major General Fieldman, The Quartermaster General, which for some reason the bulletin's editors didn't see fit to mention. His statement reads: This is a small expendable can opener for the use of combat soldiers in the field. One such can opener is issued with each ration in combat and is packed with the following combat rations: Assault ration, C-ration and 5-in-one ration. Since the beginning of the Korean incident, a total of 68 million such can openers have been purchased at a cost of less than 2 cents each. During the same period, directives have been issued by the Quartermaster General for over 73 million C-rations. Actually, in the whole of Fiscal Year 1951 some 125 million operational rations were purchased by the Army, so even more of these expendable can openers had to be purchased. These can openers are about one inch long and one is provided to open the six food cans in each C-ration. More recently the openers have been issued on the basis of one for every two C-rations. If each can had its own key opener, the procurement costs would be greater.

Several of these can openers were displayed in the debate on the 56 billion dollar defense appropriations bill and were passed out to members for examination. It was pointed out that the cost of this opener plus the can to be opened is less than the cost of the can that is opened by a key, such as those used for certain processed meats and other foods daily purchased by civilians. In addition, it was argued that by using the new type can and the new opener a substantial part of the fluid content is saved; whereas in the use of the key type can much of this fluid is lost. Regardless of the outcome of the argument, it proves that a constant sharp eye is being focused on government expenditures.

VISIT TO NEARBY ANGUS FARMS: Last Saturday afternoon C. L. Sloan, Lewis Foxhall and Olton Pate, of Hall county, and Jack Tippen and Walter Bates, of Cottle county, and myself visited the Angus farms of Colonel Larry McPhail and Mr. Jerome Gebhart. We saw some fine black cattle, some fine horses, some fine grass and some wonderful farm facilities located within a few miles of Washing-

August 19-25 is Rural Electrification Week

The week of August 19-25 has been set aside by Governor Allan Shivers as Rural Electrification Week in Texas.

The Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative in Hereford is joining with 76 other cooperatives in Texas to observe this event.

Starting in September, 1938, the local cooperative first had 50 miles of line electrified and served 128 patrons. Since that time, 1593 miles of line have been built. Today, the cooperative serves 2125 members.

The Rural Electrification Administration was set up as an agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in 1935 and established by executive order. It was authorized to make loans at two per cent interest over a 25-year period.

Local farmers and ranchers like H. V. Hennen of Hereford, G. T. Watkins of Farwell, and Joe Warren of Nazareth started the work of signing up members in the local area. After they had signed up 128 members, the applied to the REA for a loan to build 50 miles of line.

On May 15, 1937, the loan was granted and work was soon underway on the Deaf Smith County Electric Co-op.

To date, the Deaf Smith County Electric Co-op has borrowed $2,650,978.57 from the government and $249,488.09 has been paid back in interest and on the principal. Kilowatt hours consumption for rural farm homes per month per member has increased from 165 kwh in 1950 to 192 kwh in 1951. "This increased consumption means not only that farmers of this area find electric power essential, but that lines must be made heavier and that facilities must be made constantly better," commented Leo Eerest, manager of the local cooperative.

AN EDUCATIONAL program to fight diseases of small grains is being conducted this fall in Texas by agricultural leaders. The objective of the campaign is to reduce the annual losses which small grain producers suffer because of seed borne diseases and from planting seed that is mixed with weeds or other undesirable plants. Proper seed treatment with a seed disinfectant can reduce the effects of seed borne diseases. The Texas Agricultural Extension service is taking an active part in the campaign and your local county agent can supply information on how best to do the seed treating job. In view of the great need for the continued high production of all grain crops and the shortage of manpower on the farms of the state, it is highly important that all known steps be taken that can mean larger yields with the least amount of labor. Planting cleaned and treated seed will help. The leaders shown examining the poster for the campaign are left to right: Dr. I. M. Atkins, agronomist, Denton Experiment station; Dr. G. M. Watkins, head of the Department of Plant Pathology, Texas A. & M. college and E. A. Miller, agronomist, Texas Agricultural Extension service.

Texas Bugologists Are Studying Animal Called Whip-Scorpion

AUSTIN — A black, scorpion-like animal strange to most of Texas was brought from Alpine to the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission headquarters for inspection by biologists and bugologists. It is known as a whip scorpion. Its habitat is the semi-arid sections of the Southwest and is found along the Mexican border of Texas westward from Del Rio. The arthropod is vicious appearing but, according to the Director of Publications of the Game, Fish & Oyster Commission it has no venom and the only danger to humans would be from a bite becoming infected. This animal, also known in Texas as a vinegaroon, has many odd gadgets. Its low slung body is about two and one-fourth inches long. It has two folded pinners in front, eight legs and a tail two inches long. The antennae-like tail, normally extending upward at an angle, apparently picks up sound. The many-jointed antennae has whorls of hair at the joints, possibly for insulation. Its long, jointed legs are very sensitive to touch. The Director of Departmental Publications, who has the specimen in a large jar, reports that it is a voracious eater. It has been fed grasshoppers, crickets, cockroaches, and flies. The vinegaroon is strictly a dry area dweller and has no apparent use for water. It seems to get the little liquid it needs from its victims.

Letter To The Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

At the funeral service for Ina Gregg Seed in the First Christian church at Hereford Sunday, I noted that Roy Ford quoted, "You can't stop the music."

I do not know in what connection it was mentioned for my thoughts ran off on a tangent immediately.

No, you can't stop the music, I thought. All the lovely strains that Ina's fingers brought from instruments are echoing in hearts, some near today, some far away. All the tunes brought out by her pupils still live on in their souls, still find ear in some unseen corner. The sound of gentle tones, always saying kindly words or encouraging, helpful, phrases, cannot die.

The soft foot falls going about doing good will be heard on and on. That radio program may hush the music for a moment, but it is impossible to "stop the music." Anyway, you can't stop the music of Ina Gregg Seed's life. —Laura V. Hamner, county superintendent of public instruction, Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson and Lynn and Ethel Womble returned Monday from a vacation trip to Colorado.

Lisle Woodford and sons Tom and Bill returned Monday from Winchester, Ky., where they visited his mother for 10 days. Mrs. H. G. Conkwright also accompanied them on the trip.

Mrs. Malzie Dye of Plainview visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dye and son on Sunday.

Section Three

By JIMMIE GILLETIN

The primary object of Los Alamos, N. M., is to conduct nuclear research experiments and develop atomic energy. A bomb developed on this tiny mountain top led directly to the ending of World War II. Things which transpire on the "Hill" already have and, in the future, will probably continue to shape the history of the world.

Despite this apparent fact, however, there transpires at Los Alamos a condition which could have even greater significance in the way we live as citizens of the United States of America. The condition is of a social and economic nature -- and could easily precede the ultimate outcome of the socialistic trend seen in this long with each individual employee entering the fenced grounds. Security limits the operation of business in Los Alamos.

Most business firms operating on the "Hill" are without competition, and the few who do have competition are so crowded that they do not worry over the fact. Business firms are let on bids, based upon a percentage of their gross income. Prices are determined by Atomic Energy Commission in that they cannot exceed those of surrounding communities. Quite a few residents of the community were upset when AEC turned thumbs down on a cut-rate drug store, but patronage of the store is still country since 1932.

To say Los Alamos is an example of pure socialism would be incorrect. To blame anyone for the situation as it exists, especially the government, would be unjust. However, life in Los Alamos, I believe, is nearer to pure socialism than can be found anywhere else in the nation, and probably in the world. Furthermore, it is successful—thanks to government grants and to outside assistance. The condition of socialistic trends is a necessity due to the fact that each business must be carefully processed, a flourishing. A. E. C. always seems to have the final say on any subject. Service is not the best in the world, but it is surprisingly good. Rumors float about that many of the firms are losing money, a fact which few residents accept as true.

Housing is strictly a socialistic application. The government constructed nice homes, apartment house and dormitories. The living quarters of an employee (A. E. C., Univ. of California, or ZIA) is determined by three factors: the salary which he makes, his seniority, and the requirements of his family. At Los Alamos an individual salary more or less determines the individual station in life and a janitor, regardless of outside income, would not rate even with, or above, a scientist in the question of housing. Areas and zones seem to also indicate general classifications.

Race, creed and color seem to make little difference in Los Alamos. Spanish-Americans share dormitories and apartment houses with equal freedom of other residents. They share and live on a par in all places as part of the community, even to social activities and "dating". This situation naturally recalled conditions in Hereford along this line -- and provided a definition of what the government means when it refers to race discrimination.

Rental prices are generally about like you find here: single dormitory room, $25 to $35 a month; kitchenette apartment, $41; studio apartment, $47; 1 bedroom house, $31.80 to $44.35; 2 bedroom house, $49.95 to $87; 4 bedroom apartment, $86 to $106. A 1 bedroom apartment runs $40 to $50, and a 2 bedroom apartment, $51 to $67.45. The houses are built by government and are rented along the same principal as F. H. A.; rents are scheduled to amortize the loans -- but the land and homes will continue to belong to the government.

In addition to the above plan, tenants are expected to keep their property in good shape. If a tenant fails to mow his lawn and trim his shrubbery, ZIA will come in and do the job for him -- and the charge will be levied along with his rent.

Cleanliness appears at every turn. Sanitation is near perfect. You have to follow these principles if you live in Los Alamos.

Government, although always under jurisdiction of Atomic Energy Commission, is operated much like that in Deaf Smith County. In 1949, the area was carved from adjoining counties to create Los Alamos County, N. M. They maintain sheriff, school officials, justices of the peace and other offices found in New Mexico. The officials are paid one dollar a year and perform their county duties in addition to their regular jobs. Elections are held at the scheduled intervals maintained over counties and cities of the state.

I could not help but grin at the idea of a sheriff, surrounded day and night by hundreds of F. B. I. men and federal officers. One dollar a year seemed about right on his salary.

This situation allows participation in the New Mexico school system. The "Hill" schools get state money on a per-capita attendance basis, but government funds are necessary to subsidize the schools -- since land and housing is federal property, thus creating an acute shortage of tax collection for Los Alamos County.

The Los Alamos Herald is a six-page semi-weekly newspaper, appearing each Tuesday and Friday. Just what this socialistic operation of stores would mean to the newspaper business was interesting to me. The edition I secured contained advertising chiefly from Santa Fe and Albuquerque. There were only two ads from the "Hill" -- one from a social club and the other from the theatre. Local news was stressed in all editions, including a society page and editorial page. Operation of the radio station appeared along the same line. I was assured that the editorial policy was "free", but I noticed that the information office kept bound files on the paper -- and naturally wondered if the careful observation might not tend to influence opinion, especially around time for contract renewals.

When a new citizen moves into Los Alamos he invariably asks three questions: "How are the schools?" "What kind of medical and hospital facilities do you have?" "How About Housing Conditions?" and "How Much Does It Cost?"

Los Alamos is strong on medicine. They now have an 84-bed hospital and a number of clinics. In addition, they have a gigantic new hospital building under construction. Where they were short on stores as compared with Hereford, they seem by the same comparison over-supplied with doctors. The community has 14 physicians, including specialists: nine dentists, one radiologist and one pathologist. A visiting nurse service is also provided for the community. This set-up, although accredited by the American Medical Association, is another semi-socialistic program in view of the fact that the Los Alamos Medical Center is a non-profit organization. Fees and rates are cited by the government: Clinic visits cost $3 to $5; hospital room rates run from $8 to $12 a day. Two medical, surgical and hospitalization plans are provided to employees through payroll deduction.

Los Alamos Schools are likewise well operated and generally ahead of school systems in most towns of comparable size. The rule of 25 students per class is maintained in the primary grades, and 30 students per teacher in upper grades. The town has seven superior government-socialism.

ZIA draws $90,000 a year from the government for operating the city. For this amount, they collect all rents, maintain public properties, public laws, landscaping, etc. They handle water, gas, electricity, garbage disposal and transportation. As previously stated, the city is kept clean and sanitary -- and when the individual falls down ZIA steps in and makes the adjustment, passing the cost charge on to the tenant. This subsidization of ZIA by the government, according to interviews, is necessary -- and replaces ordinary city taxes.

Whether professional, specialized city administration will ever replace present day commission form government for towns like Hereford is problematical. However, no town I have seen begins to compare with the maintenance provided through contracting of city operation to ZIA. This private enterprise feature, required for a socialistic operation, could be a most important development from Los Alamos, even to the point of providing a new service field for the nation.

ZIA puts new washers on water taps, screws in light bulbs and does thousands of chores for the community. It would be a boon to the average housewife and, above all, it makes you a good citizen regardless of details and personal characteristics. No clean-up campaign is ever needed in Los Alamos.

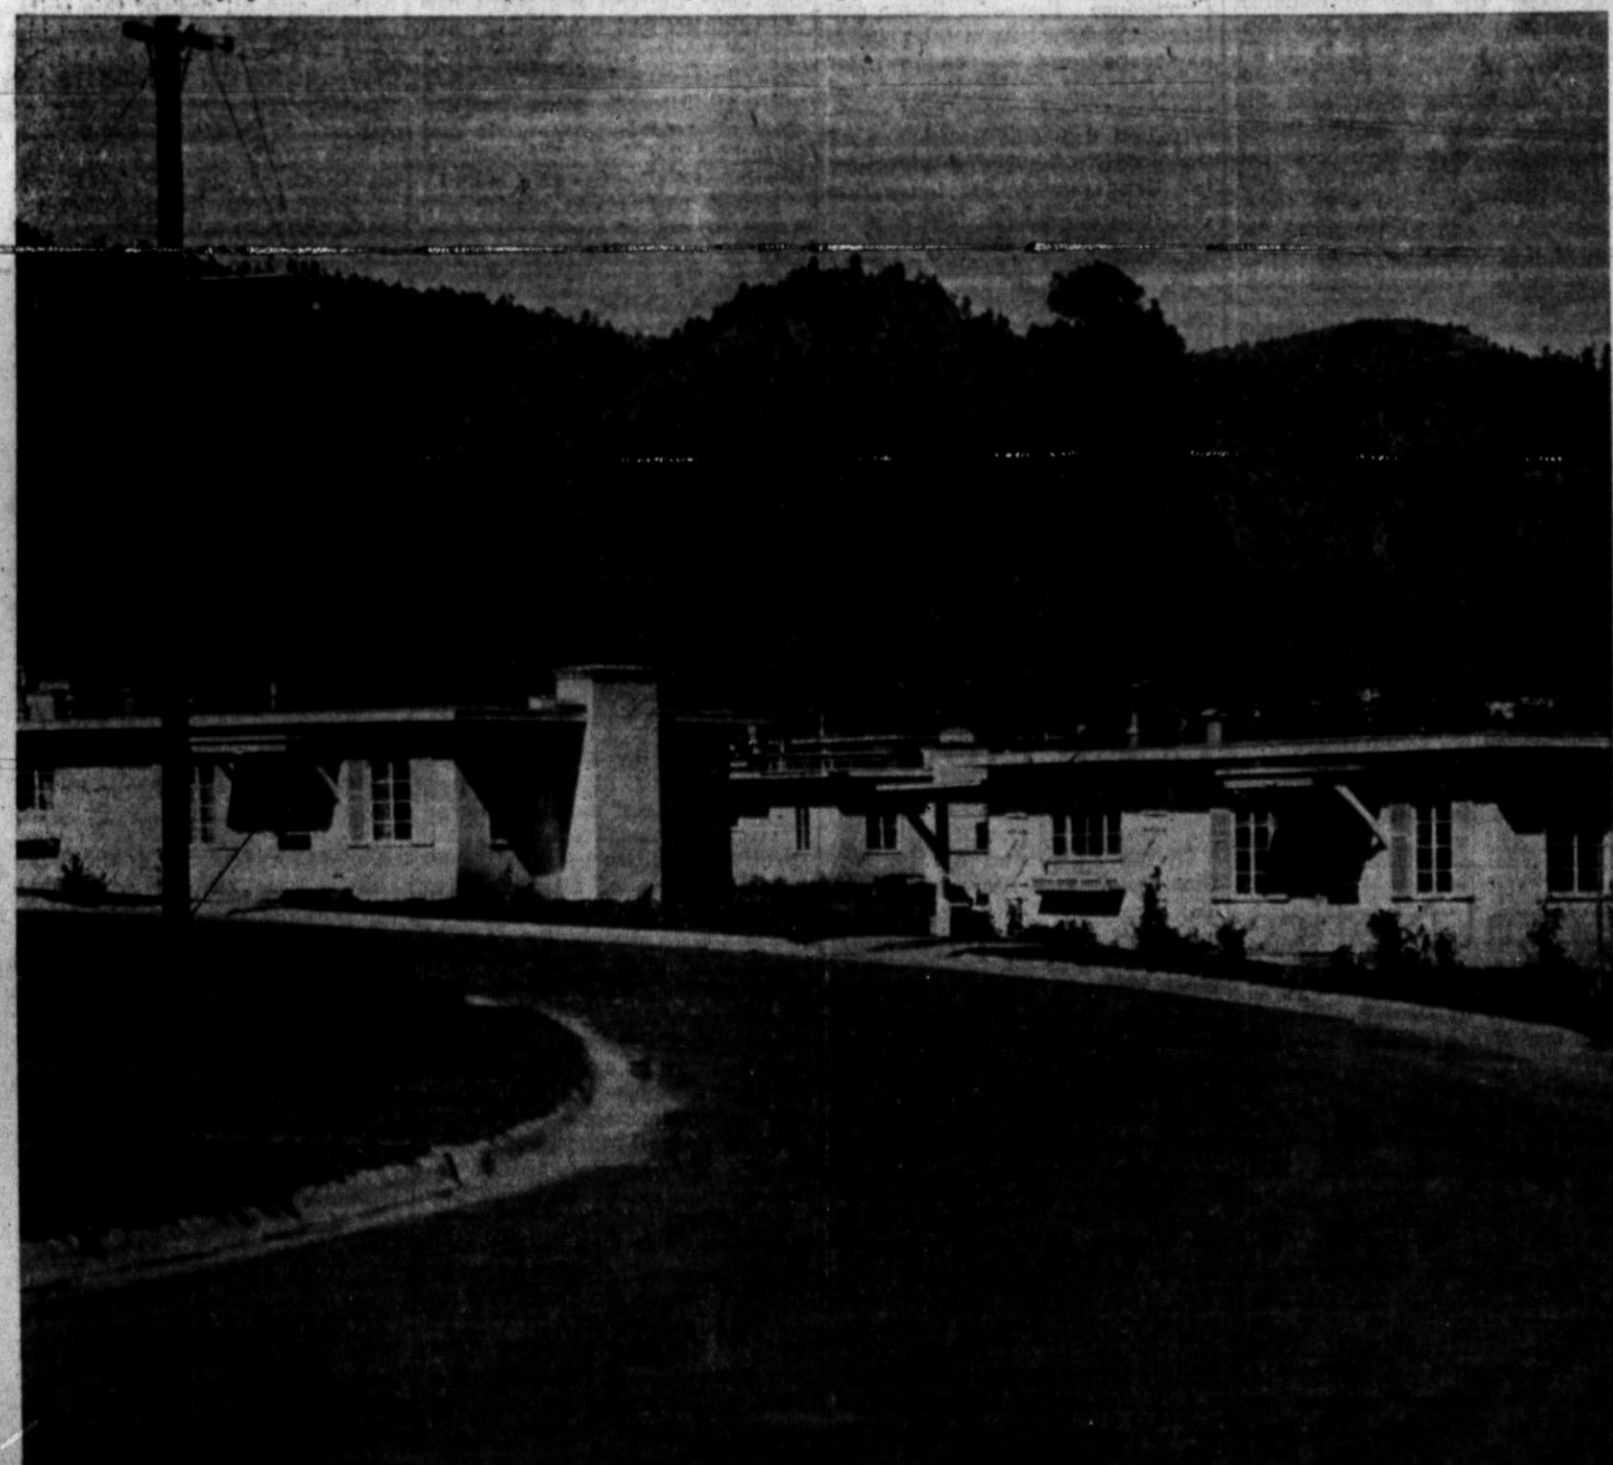

When it comes to recreation, Los Alamos is tops. In addition to modern libraries, tennis courts, superior golf links, riding academies, trap shooting, skiing, fishing, ice skating and sightseeing, the community has developed social life to a fine point. More and sanitation -- I am sure the result would be the same. Anyway, that's how things are at Los Alamos, "birthplace of the atom bomb", "the town without a cemetery", "experimental point of community living" -- and possibly the most important place on the face of the earth today.

HOUSES OF LATEST modern design serves Los Alamos, running as large as three and four bedrooms. All streets are paved, lawns are immaculate. Architecture varies in zones and walls of house are pre-fabricated in sections before being hauled into the community.

Attendance at Palo Duro in July Was 20,000

More than 20,000 persons attended Palo Duro Canyon State park in July, 1951 with more than 1100 cars being from out of state and foreign countries. Oklahoma led the list with 243 cars, New Mexico had 102 cars, Illinois 72 and these three leaders were followed by Kansas, Louisiana, California, Missouri, Ohio, Michigan, Mississippi and neighboring Colorado. More than 4,200 Texas cars entered the park. Attendance since the start of the tourist season has been far ahead of a year ago. The week of July 4 saw more than 7,000 visitors at the park and the attendance in August is increasing to an average of more than 4,000 each week.

The attendance last year was 110,000 and park officials believe it will go above 150,000 this year. All facilities at the Canyon are open the year around.

The streets of Hereford were deserted all day Wednesday while all the people were in Dimmitt for their annual picnic. The Brand representative declares that the picnic of 1906 was fully equal to the picnic held any other year in Dimmitt.

W. G. Ross, telephone proprietor, is the new champion peach grower. He picked one this week that measured 10 1/2 inches in circumference and weighing nine ounces. He sold this peach to George Wright of the Wright Land company for $1.

Most people think that it is unusual when an acre of wheat averages 20 bushels but in the Panhandle wheat averages that so often that there is nothing unusual about it. W. B. Arnold averaged 28 3/4 bushels per acre this year and J. Kibbe averaged 22 1/2 bushels per acre.

On Saturday morning, J. R. Ransom drove the first stake to locate the Panhandle Short Line railroad. The stake was driven just at the back of the Hereford Lumber company's property and the proposed line crosses the creek just west of the steam laundry.

The new steam laundry is putting in $5000 worth of new equipment.

25 Years Ago
Dimmitt put over her annual picnic Saturday, Aug. 14, in a neat style. People from five or six counties were present for the big free barbeque at noon, the baseball game, and the rodeo.

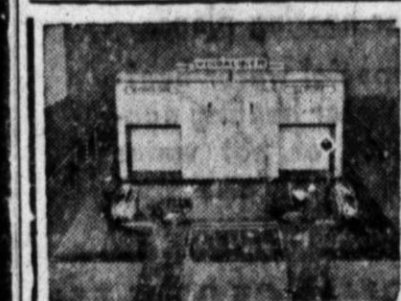

Deaf Smith county has just paid off the last of the old court house and jail bonds. Three more payments are due on the new courthouse.

More than one inch of rain fell over Deaf Smith county during the last four days.

At the noon luncheon of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce each man was urged to bring a man with him to help increase the attendance of the luncheon meetings of the group. G. A. F. Parker gave a report on the meeting at Plainview.

The fences around the football field have been rebuilt and entrances have been made on the west side of the field. Two tennis courts have just been completed and are in first class shape for the opening of school September 6.

Total yield of the 1926 potato crop is expected to pass that of 1925 by nearly 20,000,000 bushels.

They Like it a Million!

Last week Buick set a proud record. The millionth Dynaflo Drive* was delivered to a happy owner.

That's a new peak in popularity for modern drives which take you from a standing start to any cruising speed desired with a smooth, unfaltering swoop of power.

"The biggest advance since the self-starter" is what the motor-wise press called this Buick development back in 1948 - and now a million owners can tell you how right that proved to be. Here, they found, was a basically different way of delivering power.

It was the first drive to get completely away from any gears which function in a series of fixed stages - the first to apply supercharging principles that did new tricks with spinning oil.

And how folks loved it! They loved the freedom from strain in traffic. And the new "sweetness" of ride which every passenger could enjoy.

They loved the command it gives them of every traffic situation - and the relaxation it contributes to a long day's drive.

They loved its extra safety in slippery going, and the improved control in mud and snow.

As they had a chance to pile up experience, they loved the unexpected savings of rear tire wear and reduced strain on all driving parts, from engine to differential.

And finally - they loved what it does for the value of a Buick, as reflected in the extra dollars that Dynaflo* adds to the resale price of a car.

Have you sampled this driving sensation?

There's no time like the present for discovering the thrills that more than a million Buick owners already know.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Buicks.

County Agent Gives Safety Hints On Handling Anhydrous Ammonia

The increasing use of anhydrous ammonia as a fertilizer and the shortage of certain critical materials, especially steel, needed for the proper handling of the liquid fertilizer should be of concern to those using the material. According to County Agent Hugh Clearman, a recent tragic accident in a neighboring state has spotlighted the need for all who handle anhydrous ammonia to exercise care in doing so and also to make sure that safe and suitable storage and hauling equipment is being used.

Here are a few suggestions from Clearman that, if followed, might prevent such an accident happening in Deaf Smith County. He points out that only steel valves and fittings should be used on containers or the equipment used to distribute the an-hydrous ammonia. The ammonia attacks copper, brass and galvanized iron. Containers should not be parked or placed near inhabited buildings for if a pressure relief valve opens, a dangerous concentration of ammonia may be blown into the house or other buildings.

The possibility of a tractor or trailer tank reaching pop-off pressure can be materially reduced, he says by parking or placing the storage tank under a shade. Containers should never be filled to more than 85 percent of the capacity of the container. Every possible precaution, he

IN DAIRYING, TOO

COLLEGE STATION. — If there's any doubt how Texans feel about Jersey cattle, the figures relayed by the American says should be taken by those who transport the material and transportation equipment should be provided with all known safety devices in addition to being kept in first-class shape.

He points out that a five-gallon can of water should be provided on each trailer tank and for the bulk storage tank, a barrel of water should be provided. Those who handle the material at bulk stations should be provided with an approved gas mask and rubber gloves and they should always be worn when containers are being filled. But in case of skin burns, Clearman says the affected area should be washed immediately with water and then treated as an ordinary burn. If pickup trucks are used to pull a loaded trailer tank, speed should be held to 20 miles an hour because of the braking capacity of the pickup.

He urges farmers and others to continually be on the alert for the hazards that go with using this comparatively new source of nitrogen and points out that after all most accidents on the farm can be traced to a failure on some one's part to observe the rules of safety. Handling, storing and applying this material is no exception. However, he adds if the proper equipment and handling methods are used the material is no more dangerous than other farm operations.

Jersey Cattle Club for the year ending on March 1, 1951 should clear up the picture.

According to A. & M. Meekma, associate extension dairy husbandman of Texas A. & M. college, Texas Jersey breeders ranked at the top or very near there in at least eight different categories. The yield the nation in total registrations with a total of 6,400 head or almost 10 percent of the nation's total of 70,110 head. Jim Wells county ranked second in the nation in the number of registrations with 869 and Hopkins county seventh with 423 head registered last year.

Texas ranked first in the total number of transfers by states and also in the total number of new buyers of registered Jersey cattle. Johnson county ranked third in the nation in the number of new buyers with a total of 59.

In the matter of herd and individual animal classifications, Texas topped the nation with 1,212 cows classified and ranked fifth in the number of herds classified with 58.

In the section dealing with the Club's Herd Improvement Registry, Texas ranked third in the number of cows on test and fifth in the number of herds on HIR test.

One Texas cow, Volunteer Winsome Victory, owned by J. Chester Eliff, Victory Jersey farm, Tulia, was one of seven in the nation to become a member of the club's register of Merit Thousand Pound club during the year. Victory, as she is known to her bovine friends, at five years and one month of age produced 18,362 pounds of milk and 1,174 of butterfat in 365 days on a twice-a-day milking schedule.

She holds the type classification of "Excellent," the highest of the breed; also the distinction of being the highest living butterfat producer of the breed among cows with the "Excellent" classification. Meekma adds that only three other states provided new members for the Thousand Pound club during the past year.
