Legislative branch now has 36,000 employees

By LARRY MARGASAK Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - The legislative branch of government, destined to shrink under Republican rule, is the size of a small city with 36,000 employees and a $2.4 billion budget.

'As all of you know, this is a very expansive operation up here," Rep. Jim Nussle of Iowa, the GOP transition leader, told a reporter as his team met with chiefs of House offices that Democrats have controlled for 40 years.

directly for lawmakers or committees. The House Republican "Contract With America" has pledged to eliminate some committees and to reduce current committee staff of some 2,200 by one-third. A Senate task force is considering whether to cut several hundred employees from its 1,700 committee staffers.

But these reductions would hardly up. dent the total legislative population of 36,000. That number has actually shrunk from nearly 38,000 three years ago and a record high of 38,600 in 1979.

The Republican spokesman for the House Energy and Commerce Committee, John Hambel, said GOP staffers at the panel "are trying to undertake an audit of space" because there are many offices they have never seen.

on many committees have been more stingy, in some cases awarding Republicans less than 20 percent of the staff.

House Energy and Commerce has 115 Democratic staffers and 26 Republicans, an 82-18 percentage ratio. If the committee was cut by a third - actual reductions have not been decided - the staffing would fall to 94. If the same ratio applied, there would be 77 Republicans and 17 Democrats.

In the House Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs Committee, there are 66 Democrats and 27 Republicans on budget, finance, staff, space - where staff, a more generous 71-29 ratio.

A one-third reduction would leave About half the employees work the staff at 62 - 44 Republicans and 18 Democrats if the percentage didn't change.

> The ratios do not reflect the party split among House members. The current House has 256 Democrats, 178 Republicans and one independent. In January, Republicans will have a 230-204-1 advantage if leads in a handful of undecided races hold

About 18,400 people are direct House and Senate employees - more than 34 for each member of Congress. These are workers in lawmakers' personal offices, committees, leadership staff, 1,100 Capitol Police officers and support staff such as payroll aides and computer programmers.

The figure also includes several hundred patronage jobs left on Capitol Hill including doorkeepers

We don't even know if a and elevator operators. Hundreds of comprehensive list (of committee former patronage jobs in the House, space) exists," Hambel said. "If it including the chamber's finance doesn't, we'll have to have it by the office and post office, are now part of a bipartisan Office of Non-Legislative and Financial Services. Close to 18,000 others work for the legislative branch of Congress, but are not on the direct House and Senate payrolls.

Center Festival of Trees got off to a Chevrolet Oldsmobile Inc. rousing start on Thursday as buyers plunked down more than $27,000 in donations to buy 27 decorated Christmas trees to help the center.

The annual gala and auction were highlights of the first day of the Festival, held in the Senior Citizens Center, 426 Ranger.

The Festival continues through Sunday with a variety of holiday activities.

Margie Daniels, executive director of the center, said the tree auction raised $27,295, which is more than $6,000 more than was raised at the 1993 auction $20,700 to the center, while the 1992 auction netted $15,660.

The amount raised at Thursday's auction far exceeds the total amount raised in 1990 at the first Festival of Trees.

Mrs. Daniels said the first festival netted a grand total of $17,000.

Proceeds from the tree sale go toward operations of the senior citizens center in the next year.

In addition to the tree sales, a Santa Claus and toys crafted by Mary Black and a tablecloth and napkins made by Lucy Martin also were sold.

Mrs. Daniels also noted that Homer's Memorial Fund, established in the memory of former center Last year's auction brought president Homer Garrison, has received $11,094.30 in donations.

The fund was established with four giving levels to honor Garrison, who was president when the present senior citizens center was built in 1985 and who died Dec. 18, 1983.

Bonior suggested Thursday he has lined up enough votes to win re-election in the Nov. 30 secret ballot. "His chances are slim," Bonior said of his opponent.

Democratic leadership should be broadened to include conservatives. "We need to add some new voices,"

Stenholm blamed the Democrats' stunning Election Day losses - costing Democrats control of the House for the first time since 1954 - on the party's drift from the mainstream.

There is a lot of things that are going on now that I think we will see a lot of support," Stenholm said. "But when we oppose, we better be on the side of the angels."

Bonior struck a less conciliatory tone, saying Democrats will fight the Republican agenda "when we think we are being stampeded and when we think we are being abused."

He also accused Gingrich of trying to cover up his own ethical problems by dismantling the House ethics committee.

Gingrich's spokesman, Tony Blankley, suggested Bonior launched the attack to cement his re-election to the whip job. "Mr. Bonior has Gephardt, D-Mo., is being challenged chosen this moment to step back into

Baby, it's cold out there

Hereford shivered a little Friday morning as the mercury dipped to 22 degrees, after a high reading Thursday of 57 degrees. Wind gusts Thursday were clocked at more than 65 miles per hour at Hereford's Municipal Airport. Mostly cloudy skies are forecast for Friday night and Saturday. The overnight low is expected to be 30 to 35 degrees. Cloudy skies and windy conditions may bring rain Saturday, a 20 percent chance, with the high 45 to 50 degrees before a drop into the upper 30s late in the day. West winds will blow at 20 to 30 mph, and gusty.

Top officers give dinner for Clinton in Hawaii By TOM RAUM

Associated Press Writer PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii (AP) -President Clinton used his vacation sojourn in Hawaii to emphasize his role as commander in chief, dining with the Pacific's top military brass and staying in a house once used by Dwight Eisenhower.

Clinton and his wife, Hillary, sat down with ten top generals and admirals - from commands stretching from Alaska to Japan - and their wives at a dinner at the naval base at the home of Adm. Richard Macke, commander of all Pacific forces.

President Bush visited Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1991 to participate in commemorating the 50th anniversary of the Japanese attack that brought the United States into World War II.

Clinton is the first U.S. president since World War II who did not serve in the armed services. Bush had been a Navy pilot during the war.

The Clintons, who on their last visit to Hawaii in 1993 stayed in a hotel, are staying at the Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station, on a bay on the other side of the island of Oahu from Honolulu.

The president and his wife are staying a private residence on the base known locally as the "Eisenhower House." Eisenhower stayed there once in the 1950s while he was president.

Getting back and forth from the Marine base at Kaneohe and the more populated part of the island near Honolulu requires Clinton's motorcade to negotiate a steep road through a mountain pass, with dramatic vistas on either side.

But the president's limousine - a large black Cadillac weighted down by heavy bullet-proof armor - was not designed for mountain driving.

On his afternoon trip on Thursday to Kaneohe from his golf outing to change for dinner, Clinton's laboring limo crawled slowly up the hill, smoke billowing from its tailpipe, slowing the president's motorcade to a crawl.

Tech coach Dykes worries about UH

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ AP Sports Writer

There's no use telling Texas Tech coach Spike Dykes not to worry about the Houston Cougars, Saturday's opponent in the Alamodome.

Don't bother mentioning that the Red Raiders are 28-point favorites or that the Cougars have won only one game and haven't come close in the rest.

logic that says, "On any given Saturday ....

Well, you know the story.

"They beat SMU and the next week, SMU tied A&M so it doesn't take too much to see that if you don't play your best, you'll get beat," Dykes said. "They've done a remarkable job of getting better this year.'

The Raiders have done a good job of coming back from a rugged early season schedule that included Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas A&M among their first four games. They were 1-3 over that span.

Now they've got a chance to go bowling.

Texas Tech (5-4, 3-2) has never played in the Cotton Bowl as a member of the Southwest Conference but the Raiders can reach the Jan. 2 classic with victories over Houston (1-8, 1-4) on Saturday and Texas Christian (6-3, 3-2) the following week.

The Horned Frogs could reach the title game if they beat No. 9 Texas A&M (9-0-1, 5-0-1) on Saturday and knock off the Red Raiders.

Rice (4-5, 3-3) which saw its title hopes evaporate in last week's 19-14 loss to Baylor, will play at Navy (2-7) and then close out the season against Houston, still hoping to get a 6-5 record and a possible bowl invitation.

Texas (6-4, 3-3) and Baylor (7-3, 4-2) have the week off to prepare for their Thanksgiving Day finale and Southern Methodist (1-9-1, 0-6-1) has completed its season.

Dykes doesn't complain about the Raiders tough early season schedule. He likes to play top teams.

"The best way to get good is to play good people," he said. "You get a lot of hickeys beside your name but you just educate people that it helps you get better week after week.

Tech also started the season with inexperienced players, including freshmen quarterbacks Zebbie Lethridge and Tony Darden competing for playing time. Lethridge won out and the Raiders got better. The tough schedule started to pay He'll stick by his own coaching off in last week's victory over Southwestern Louisiana.

"It's the first time we've played so cohesive with all those young players," Dykes said.

The Cougars got a spark when they defeated SMU and Jermaine Williams rushed for 215 yards but Houston hasn't won since and Williams has been slowed by a rib injury.

"It's been a tough season," Williams said. "We haven't gotten any wins after SMU but no one that I see is ready to wrap up the rest of the season.

TCU hasn't beaten the Aggies in 21 years, the longest losing streak on the Frogs record. And, it won't be easy breaking the string in College Station, where the Aggies have won 25 straight games since a 20-20 tie with Baylor in 1990.

You go back the last few years and not too many people go down there and win," TCU coach Pat Sullivan said. "They look no different from any A&M defensive team I've seen.

While TCU still has Cotton Bowl aspirations, the Aggies will be playing their final game despite their No. 9 national ranking and unbeaten record because they are on NCAA probation.

"It's a different schedule," A&M coach R.C. Slocum said. "We normally take a week off and come back to get ready for a bowl game. Now, we'll be starting our off-season program.

The Aggies will get a jump in recruiting, but it's a bad tradeoff for Slocum

"I'd rather be going to a bowl game and then catch up on recruiting," he said.

"Winning on the road is always tough, but especially so in this place," San Francisco coach Jim Brovelli said. "But if you do the right things, it doesn't matter where you play.

The game was the season opener for both teams, with San Francisco advancing to the quarterfinals against Memphis, a 70-66 winner over Southwestern Louisiana.

In tonight's games, with the winners advancing to the semifinals in New York, it's Canisius at George Washington; Ohio University at No. 14 Virginia and No. 18 Alabama at New Mexico State.

Paul and Duggan each scored 15 points and Wallace added 11. That combination helped the Dons overcome a career-high 23 points by New Mexico center Brian-Hayden.

Tarpley sparkles in return as Mavericks edge Kings

By The Associated Press

Roy Tarpley's absence from the NBA spanned four years, one serious knee injury and his third violation of the league's drug policy. With all that behind him, his return was sweet.

"I know people were wondering if Roy Tarpley could still play," said Tarpley, who was expelled from the league on Oct. 16, 1991, for drug violations and hadn't played in an NBA game since Nov. 9, 1990.

The Dallas Mavericks forward, who turns 30 later this month, certainly looked liked he could play, getting 16 points and nine rebounds Thursday night to spark Dallas to a 96-94 victory over the Sacramento Kings. "I think I showed that I can still play this game. This was better than I dreamed it could be," Tarpley said.

In other NBA games, it was Golden State 109, New York 100; New Jersey 111, Washington 103; Charlotte 99, the Los Angeles Clippers 83; Houston 106, Chicago 83; Dallas 96, Sacramento 94; Detroit 94, Denver 92; and Cleveland 81, Portland 80.

Tarpley scored four straight points for the Mavericks during a decisive fourth-quarter run and played 25 minutes in his first action after beginning the season on the injured

It's been a long road back for Tarpley, who went through drug rehabilitation early in his career. He sustained a season-ending knee injury five games into the 1990-91 season, then refused to take a drug test as required by the NBA's drug policy.

That gave him a third strike under the antidrug rules, and he was suspended for life in 1991. After playing overseas, Tarpley was reinstated during the offseason.

Dallas coach Dick Motta was pleased with what he saw from Tarpley, who got a warm ovation

"He's in a lot better shape than he was a week ago."

hit an 8-foot bank shot with 59 seconds remaining to snap a 94-94 tie and give Dallas its fourth victory. The Mavs didn't win their fourth game last season until Feb. 2, the 44th game of the season.

Jamal Mashburn led Dallas with 23 points. Mitch Richmond paced the Kings with 21 points, and Walt Williams added 16.

Warriors 109, Knicks 100

Chris Webber won't be back with Golden State, but the team continued to win, beating New York behind 27 points from Latrell Sprewell.

Tim Hardaway added 20 and Ricky Pierce 18 for Golden State, which traded Webber to the Washington Bullets earlier Thursday in exchange for Tom Gugliotta and three first-round draft picks.

Derek Harper had 21 points for the Knicks, who lost three of four games on a Western road trip.

Rockets 106, Bulls 83

Houston ran its season-opening winning streak to eight games, getting 29 points and 14 rebounds from Hakeem Olajuwon.

Olajuwon dominated the inside from start to finish, and Kenny Smith, who had 19 points, hit four of six 3-point shots, including two in a fourth-quarter run when the Rockets took command.

Scottie Pippen led the visiting Bulls with 15 points.

Nets 111, Bullets 103

Faced with the loss of Gugliotta, the team leader, Washington came out flat against New Jersey, which took full advantage of the distracted Bullets.

Kenny Anderson had 24 points and 13 assists and sparked an 8-0 burst that put the Nets ahead 103-96 with 3:08 to play at the Meadowlands.

Hornets 99, Clippers 83

With their season-opening seventh consecutive loss, Los Angeles equaled the worst start in club history. By losing their first seven games, Larry Johnson and Dell Curry had 19 points each to lead the Hornets.

Elmore Spencer's 12 points led the visiting Clippers.

Pistons 94, Nuggets 92 Terry Mills' 20-foot jumper at the buzzer won it for Detroit and snapped Denver's four-game winning streak.

The visiting Pistons blew an 11-point lead in the final period, but made all four of their free throws in the last three minutes to hang on.

Joe Dumars scored 21 points for Detroit.

Bryant Stith scored 22 points for the Nuggets, and Dikembe Mutombo had 14 points, 20 rebounds and five blocked shots.

Cavaliers 81, Trail Blazers 80 Mark Price hit five 3-pointers and scored 30 points to send Portland to its second straight home loss. The Blazers had three chances to take the lead after Terrell Brandon made one of two free throws to put Cleveland ahead 81-78 with 48 seconds left. But Clyde Drexler missed a potential game-tying free throw, and Clifford Robinson and Harvey Grant misfired on potential game-winners as time ran out.

Robinson scored 24 points and Drexler 17 for Portland.

deal is whether Houston general Mexico rally after another in the final manager Bob Watson includes 12-game winner Doug Drabek instead of left-hander Greg Swindell, whom Houston is offering, the newspaper said.

"People seem to think we're going to just give away Jose," Rangers general manager Doug Melvin said. "That's not going to happen. He's coming off a very good year. We're going to have to get something good in return.

Drabek, 32, has thrown more than 200 innings in each of the last six full seasons and last year finished third in the National League with a 2.84 ERA.

Swindell, 29, is considered a risk. He has gone 20-22 with a 4.25 ERA in two seasons with Houston, in part because of poor conditioning. The Astros have discussed him with other teams, including the New York Yankees.

Finley, 29, is a favorite of Melvin's from their years spent together in Baltimore. He is considered above-average defensively and last year hit .276 with 11 home runs in 94 games.

The Astros appear ready to hand rookie Brian Hunter the job in center field, but reportedly have an interest in Rangers' outfielder David Hulse.

Boston general manager Dan Duquette is being pushed by Kennedy to obtain Canseco, the Morning News reported. Kennedy managed Texas both seasons since Canseco joined the Rangers.

Baylor's Johnson faces indictment

WACO, Texas (AP) - Last year, Darrel Johnson saw junior college transfers Tyrone Davis, Jason Ervin, Jerome Lambert, Marcus Thompson and Shannon Brantley as the cornerstones of an up-and-coming Baylor basketball program. On Thursday, a federal grand jury returned indictments that allege Johnson, three former assistant coaches and four junior college officials broke the law to ensure the players would be eligible at Baylor.

The indictments on mail and wire fraud charges came one day after Johnson was fired as basketball coach by Baylor administrators who determined that his program had violated school and NCAA rules.

"I don't feel like I've done anything wrong," Johnson was quoted as saying in a copyright story in Friday's editions of the Waco Tribune-Herald.

Page 6--The Hereford Brand, Friday, November 18, 1994 Oregon Ducks can clinch 1st FRIDAY Rose Bowl berth since 1950s

By The Associated Press The last time the Oregon Ducks played in a Rose Bowl game was Jan. 1, 1958, only their third appearance ever at Pasadena. The last time they won was 1917.

So they don't have a tradition on the West Coast like, say, Southern Cal or UCLA.

But Saturday, they will have a chance to overshadow their more publicized Pac-10 colleagues if they beat longtime rival Oregon State in the biggest football game the Ducks have played in decades. A victory will send them to the Rose Bowl on Jan. 2 against Penn State.

"Sometimes you just sit back and go, 'Wow, this is unbelievable,' Oregon quarterback Danny O'Neill said. "This is what I've dreamed about since I got here."

The 12th-ranked Ducks, for a change, have control of their own fortunes in the Pac-10,- a league that has generally been the domain of Washington, Southern Cal and UCLA for most of its history.

The Trojans, ranked No. 13 this week, have made 27 Rose Bowl appearances. A 28th appearance is still possible should they beat UCLA while Oregon lost to Oregon State. The Bruins, who have been to the Rose Bowl 11 times, are out of the picture this season, along with Washington, which is on probation. The West Coast action will be part rivals as the 1994 college football season moves into the late stages.

One of Saturday's biggest games features Alabama against Auburn in a rivalry matching two unbeaten teams.

Elsewhere, it's Northwestern at No. 2 Penn State, No. 3 Florida at Vanderbilt, No. 5 Miami at Temple, Iowa State at No. 7 Colorado, No. 8 Florida State at No. 25 North Carolina State, Texas Christian at No. 9 Texas A&M, No. 10 Colorado State at Fresno State, Oklahoma State at No. 11 Kansas State, No. 16 Virginia at No. 14 Virginia Tech, No. 15 Michigan at No. 22 Ohio State, No. 17 Boston College at West Virginia. No. 18 Washington at No. 24 Washington State, No. 20 BYU at No. 21 Utah and North Carolina at No. 24

Duke. Oregon (8-3) has made a quick turnaround from a 1-2 start, including ugly losses to Hawaii and Utah. But the Ducks regrouped with a victory over Iowa and later came up with a 22-7 upset over Southern Cal - their first victory over the Trojans in Los Angeles since 1971.

Later, the Ducks impressed poll voters with a 34-10 win over Arizona State and a 55-21 rout of Stanford. "We got tired of scraping by and understood that if we want to be a great team, a Rose Bowl team, we've championship," Alabama got to have a Rose Bowl offense, not of a big weekend pitting longtime just a Rose Bowl defense," O'Neill said.

Saturday's game at Oregon State's stadium in Corvallis will be the 98th in the series, which began in 1894. Oregon leads the series 47-40-10 following a 15-12 loss to Oregon State last year.

Southern Cal holds a 34-22-7 edge over UCLA in their series. The Trojans are 7-2 overall and 6-1 in the Pac-10, same as Oregon. But the Ducks have the inside track on the Rose Bowl thanks to their victory over Southern Cal.

Meanwhile, Alabama and Auburn are preparing for their annual "Iron Bowl" game. Both enter the regular-season finale without a loss for only the second time since the series resumed in 1948. It first happened in 1971, when Alabama beat Auburn 31-7.

This year's game in Birmingham pits fourth-ranked Alabama (10-0) against No. 6 Auburn (9-0-1), which had its 20-game winning streak snapped last week by a 23-23 tie with Georgia.

The tie probably knocked probation-plagued Auburn out of the national title picture. But Alabama still has a chance to win the national title.

"As long as we stay undefeated, we have a chance to win the national quarterback Jay Barker said.

PREP Antonio Holmes (9-2).

Several top contenders hoping to block a Rockets repeat include last year's 5A Division II winner Lewisville (8-3), which plays Arlington Martin (8-1-2), and perennial power Odessa Permian (8-3), which faces El Paso Coronado (9-2).

The best battle by records pits 10-1 teams Beaumont West Brook and Deer Park.

- The best 5A Division II game pits No. 3 Tyler John Tyler (11-0) against No. 5 A&M Consolidated. Other top teams in action include No. 1 Austin Westlake (11-0) playing San Antonio Taft (7-4) and No. 2 Plano East (11-0) in a big Dallas-area match with Irving Nimitz (10-1).

More nice Metroplex matchups pit Dallas Carter (8-2-1) and Richardson

Lake Highlands (9-2), and No. 8 The Colony (9-0-1) against Arlington Lamar (10-1).

- Stephenville gets a tough test for its state-best 27-game winning streak. The No. 1 Yellow Jackets (11-0) put their 4A title defense on the line against Denison (10-1).

- Defending 1A champion Sudan, ranked second all season, gets a test from Eden (8-3).

US trade deficit up

WASHINGTON (AP) - America's trade deficit swelled to $10.13 billion in September as the country remained well on track to record its secondworst merchandise deficit in history this year.

The Commerce Department said the September deficit was 4.6 percent igher than a $9.68 billion August imbalance as the deficit with China swelled to an all-time high of $3.49 billion.

The volume of foreign oil imports shot up to a record even though America's overall foreign oil bill declined, reflecting a drop in the price.

The country also saw imports of high-technology products jump to an all-time high.

For the first nine months of this year, the United States is running an annual deficit in goods of $148.8 billion, the second worst showing on record. The all-time high was a $152 billion goods deficit set in 1987.

The trade deterioration is coming despite the fact that President Clinton has made trade promotion a key part his foreign policy. The president earlier this week attended the second annual summit of the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation forum, where he and 17 Asian leaders pledged to create a free trade zone in the Pacific by the year 2020.

The administration views the fast-growing Asian markets as a big prize to be won by American exporters. While the region represents great opportunities it also is the source of America's largest trade deficits.

For September, the Pacific Rim countries ran up $10.9 billion in goods deficits, led by a $5.37 billion deficit with Japan and the record $3.49 billion deficit with China.

Critics of the administration's APEC strategy contend that focusing on region-wide free trade could divert the United States from hard bargaining with Japan and China.

America's deficit with the 12-nation European Union narrowed slightly to $940 million in September.

U.S. goods exports edged down to $43.54 billion in September after setting a record high of $44.13 billion in August. Imports of goods was $58.14 billion, a slight drop from the $58.22 billion record set in August.

As usual, the United States ran a surplus in the other category of trade, services such as tourism and royalty payments. The surplus for September was up 1.4 percent to $4.48 billion.

On the goods side, imports of foreign cars dropped $1.18 billion to $9.88 billion but imports of foreign computer products including computer chips was up $456 million. In the overall area of advanced technology products, foreign imports climbed to a record $9.26 billion. U.S. exports of high-technology goods also rose to $10.59 billion, leaving the country with a smaller surplus in this key area of $1.33 billion.

Texas Catholics wonder: bishops, but no cardinal Houston parish asks Pope John Paul II to remedy situation

By STEVE BRUNSMAN The Houston Post

HOUSTON - Texas, with one of the largest Roman Catholic populations in the nation, has one archbishop and 13 bishops but no cardinal a personal adviser to the pope.

One Houston parish asked why, and then in September approved a resolution to request that Pope John Paul II consider Texas for a new red cardinal's hat when he made his recent round of personal appointments.

Among the nation's largest states, only California and New York have more registered Catholics than Texas. Both states have cardinals.

The pope appointed 30 new cardinals Oct. 30, including two Americans from Baltimore and Detroit.

A Texas cardinal wasn't really expected, but scholars and some Ky., would be on such lists, too.

Catholic officials say Rome will be forced to review cardinal appointments if the South and Southwest continue to pick up new Catholics based on population and Hispanic growth trends.

'The broad issue is the southern United States," said Richard Daly of the Texas Catholic Conference, an Austin public-policy group for the state's 14 Catholic dioceses.

"There never has been a cardinal in the South. I've never heard people say Texas should have a cardinal. I've heard plenty of people say it would be nice to have a cardinal in the South," Daly said.

Top prospects for cardinal seats in the South or Southwest would be historic faith seats, he said, such as New Orleans, San Antonio and Santa Fe, N.M. Because of Catholic growth in recent years, Miami and Louisville,

This September, the parish council at St. John Vianney Catholic Church in Houston approved an unusual resolution, asking the pope to consider appointing a Texas cardinal.

Daly said he could not ever recall another parish request like it.

Cardinals are usually chosen from the world's pool of archbishops. They are the closest advisers to the pope on the life of the church and meet in Rome as the College of Cardinals. Cardinals are chosen by the pope. Pope John Paul II has used the process to appoint 100 of a maximum 120 cardinals eligible to vote on succession after his death. The United States now has 12 cardinals, though two are retired and two more work in Rome.

The Houston resolution, while fully supporting Pope John Paul II, said Texas had "inclusive diversity," with Catholic immigrants from most parts of the world, including Europe, Latin America and Southeast Asia.

Texas today has almost 20 million people. It has almost 4 million Catholics, according to official registration by parish. Daly and other Catholic clergy estimate that up to 6 million people in Texas were baptized Catholic, however, making the Catholic population even bigger.

"It will be a long process but you have to start somewhere," said St. John parish council chairman Andy Nunmaker. "There are cardinals in Chicago and New York and Boston. Why don't we have a cardinal? We have a lot of Catholics, and Texas has a strong sense of personal identity and history."

Permanent deacon Dale Steffes offered the resolution a year ago. It gained full support from the council, Nunmaker said.

Scholars Thomas Reese of Washington, D.C., and Jim Anderson of Houston stressed that population is only one factor in cardinal appointments. History and world politics have played major roles. Political appointments also occur, Reese said.

The Baltimore Archdiocese, for example, has only 464,000 Cathelics but ranks as the oldest Catholic diocese in the country. Archbishop William Keeler, president of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, was appointed to a cardinal post as head of the Baltimore archdiocese.

But demographics fueled the first cardinal appointments in America, going to northeastern and midwestern states, said Reese, an expert on U.S. bishops and Vatican politics. Hispanic population growth might result in a new cardinal, but then a struggle might also occur.

"The church is slow in responding to demographic changes. The dioceses that get red hats are still largely based on history. The bottom line is if the South gets a red hat, someone else is going to lose unless they increase the cardinal numbers in the United States,' Reese said.

The United States has more cardinals than any nation except Italy. And Pope John Paul II has used many of his appointments in Eastern Europe and Africa, the scholars said. His late-October appointments include new cardinals for Vietnam, Cuba and Bosnia-Herzegovina.

Reese speculates a new pope from Latin America might be most likely to appoint a cardinal in the South. 'I wouldn't hold my breath on that, f I was you," he said. Anderson, an assistant professor of theology at the University of St. Thomas in Houston, said Hispanic population growth is probably vital. I think we can be hopeful that by 2025 or so there will be a cardinal in the South," Anderson said.

Auxiliary Bishop James Tamayo with the Galveston-Houston Diocese said that the appointment of a Hispanic cardinal would be a "joy and blessing," even if no campaign exists or is being planned.

'We'd welcome it. We won't push to say, 'Let it be,' or 'It should be.' for an appointment. We don't want to diminish the roles of the bishop or archbishop in the South or Southwest,' Tamayo said.

1 A Hispanic cardinal would be "a voice for those who have no voice,' and a leadership sign to civic or outside political groups, he said. America has 3 Hispanic bishops.

The Most Rev. Patrick Flores of San Antonio is one of only two Hispanic archbishops. The Galveston-Houston diocese now has 600,000 Hispanic Catholics, based on unofficial estimates.
