Quayle pitches GOP ticket at Clovis

By CHIP BROWN
Associated Press Writer
CLOVIS (AP) - Vice President Dan Quayle was comparing Democratic presidential nominee Bill Clinton to former president Jimmy Carter when he realized many in the audience didn't remember Carter.

"Bill Clinton says America is the mockery of the world. Do you want someone running all over the country saying America is the mockery of the world? Or do you want someone as president who united the world and kicked Hussein out of Kuwait?"
-Rhetorical question asked Monday by Dan Quayle.

During a speech to Clovis High School students Monday, the vice president said Clinton would lead the country back to high inflation experienced under Carter.

"Just remember the way it was the last time we had a Democratic president and a Democratic Congress, remember that?" Quayle said before realizing most of the audience was in diapers when Carter took the White House in 1976.

"Some of you don't. Some of you are too young to remember," he said. George Bush won New Mexico for the Republicans in 1988, but recent polls suggest the state is up for grabs this year.

"It's going to be a tight race, a tough race here," said Hoyt Pattison, Bush-Quayle '92 chairman for Curry County. "I hope this visit will help make those electoral votes be for Bush and Quayle."

"Certainly if you look at the nationwide polls, the margins the Republicans enjoyed have been cut," said state Sen. Stuart Ingle, R-Portales, one of about 200 supporters on hand to greet Air Force Two as it arrived at Cannon Air Force Base here. "But I would imagine, with the help of this visit, eastern and southeastern New Mexico will vote Republican in November."

Quayle spent 2 1/2 hours Monday greeting people at Cannon and promising to keep national security strong. The area depends on the base for 30 percent of its mostly agriculture-based economy.

"We are going to continue to invest in national security and preserve peace in the world," Quayle told about 4,000 people, mostly students, who crammed the gymnasium at Clovis High.

"Bill Clinton says America is the mockery of the world. Do you want someone running all over the country saying America is the mockery of the world? Or do you want someone as president who united the world and kicked Saddam Hussein out of Kuwait?"

Quayle accused Clinton of wanting to raise taxes across the board and told the high school students "this election is about your future."

He pushed for term limits in Congress, a balanced budget amendment and said "times are difficult and challenging, but America is not as bad off as we are being told."

Many students in the gym held Bush-Quayle signs while some displayed Clinton-Gore placards.

Robin Mooy, a senior at Clovis High School, wore a T-shirt saying "Pro Change, Pro Choice, Pro Clinton."

"I disagree with the Republican Party platform, especially the social issues," Miss Mooy said. "I think amongst the young people the Republicans won't do so well here."

Jennifer Garcia, also a Clovis High senior, said she was simply excited to be away from her studies for a couple hours.

"It's pretty neat to be getting out of class to see the vice president," she said.

Quayle dropped into Zeke's, a Mexican restaurant next door to a cattle feed yard, and visited with farmers before heading to a private fund-raiser and then on to the high school rally.

The vice president told the growers to "hang with" Bush. He said exports, focusing on the North American Free Trade Agreement, were the answer to depressed farm prices.

Quayle also defended his recent squabbles with Hollywood, calling on the television and movie industries to focus more on family values.

Perot sets Thursday deadline

DALLAS (AP) - Billionaire business executive Ross Perot today promised that if he relaunches his presidential race he will go all out to win and be on hand for a debate proposed for Sunday in San Diego.

But he also said he told his volunteers after meeting with them Monday that "my feelings are not going to be hurt if you decide to support the Democrats or the Republicans or if you decide to break up and support both."

Perot said on NBC's "Today" show that he told the volunteers: "Let's not get carried off on our group, on our real or imagined candidate or whatever - let's just decide what's right and do it."

Perot renewed his promise to decide by Thursday whether to get back into the presidential race. He said aides told him that a 1-800 number installed in his offices to get input from the American people got half a million calls overnight. But he did not say what most callers wanted him to do.

As for the proposed San Diego debate, Perot said that he would be on hand if it takes place because "if you're in the game, you have to play the game."

"But I may not have to face that issue, we'll wait and see," he said. He promised to relaunch his campaign if his supporters decide that is what they want and acknowledged that his volunteers were disappointed when he got out.

"Certainly they were disappointed," he said. "But these are grown people, these are tough people they don't wander around emotion driven... my only concern is that they vote... whatever you do vote, don't sit at home, don't sit it out."

Despite unprecedented meetings Monday with top representatives of President Bush and Bill Clinton, many coordinators of Perot's state petition drives said they still wanted their man to re-enter the race he abandoned in July.

The Bush and Clinton delegations tried to sell the Perot faithful on their proposals to fix the economy in the hopes that the Dallas billionaire would stay out of the race and his supporters would vote Republican or Democratic.

Perot has complained that Bush and Clinton have failed to address the nation's massive budget deficit and threatened to rejoin the presidential battle if his supporters weren't satisfied after the Dallas meetings.

After listening to the Bush and Clinton envoys, Perot said there was a "lot of commonality" between his ideas and Clinton's and a "great deal of overlap" between his program and Bush's.

Bush campaign chairman Robert Teeter said he, for one, saw a lot of differences between the Bush and Clinton plans. "It is incredible to say that Governor Clinton's programs are closer to this group than ours are," Teeter said.

As for the Clinton camp, "There are differences and we discussed them in frank terms. But overall I think both sides come away realizing we have far more in common than different," Clinton economics adviser Gene Sperling said.

State hopes new game scores big with Texans

AUSTIN (AP) - State officials hope to strike paydirt with "Touchdown" - the newest scratch-card game in the Texas lottery.

"Football season is here at last, and our new Texas lottery Touchdown game is going to give players a new opportunity to win by outscoring their opponents," State Lottery Director Nora Linares said Monday.

In the game, players scratch the latex covering off spots marked "Your Score" and "Their Score." If "Your Score" is higher than "Their Score," the player wins the dollar amount under the "Prize" box. There are two games on each $1 ticket.

Prizes range from $1 to $500. With nearly 20 million of the 100 million tickets being a winner, the game offers about a 1 in 5 chance of winning.

That's the highest odds of winning money in any of the five scratch-card games, although the vast majority of "Touchdown" winners - 15.6 million tickets - are $1 winners.

Officials introduced the game at a news conference in the north end zone of Memorial Stadium on the University of Texas campus.

The game will be touted by two new television commercials, GSD&M, which is handling the advertising campaign, said in background material that the game was "designed to appeal to men, and-or sports enthusiasts."

But Ms. Linares disagreed, saying, "I don't like stereotyping at all. I'm a football fan, and every woman I know watches football. We're here to please anybody that likes the game of football."

She also dismissed a question about the appropriateness of holding a news conference on gambling at a college football stadium.

"We just think this is fun to play. We know that people are excited about football in Texas," she said.

Ms. Linares said computerized number games are still scheduled to start in November.

Student Council taking donations for hurricane victims

Erin Bullard, left, and Jill Robinson, members of the Hereford High School Student Council, point to one of the many posters at HHS encouraging students to donate to a fund for victims of Hurricane Andrew. Students have contributed over $150, which will be given to the Deaf Smith County Chapter of the American Red Cross to directly aid storm victims.

County approves policy changes

Deaf Smith County Commissioners discussed and approved changes in the county personnel policies during a regular meeting Monday.

In other business, the court approved several amendments to the health insurance plan, authorized Sheriff Joe Brown to advertise for bids on two vehicles, okayed line item adjustments in the budget, and appointed three members to the Mental Health/Mental Retardation advisory board.

Commissioners reviewed county personnel policies and tentatively approved changes recommended by a consulting firm. The changes will be implemented when proper wording is approved for a final draft.

County Judge Tom Simons explained that several amendments were necessary on the health coverage plan in order to comply with governmental mandates. The court approved the changes.

The judge announced that Dalma Stribling, Marsha Winget and Janie Aguilon were appointed to the MHMR advisory board. Aguilon accepted a re-appointment.

Adjustments in the current budget are made at the end of each year to balance out the over and under amounts budgeted for each item. County Auditor Alex Schroeter presented a list which was approved by the commissioners.

McDaniel wins Brand contest

Lewis McDaniel missed just three games to claim first place in last week's Hereford Brand Football contest.

McDaniel will receive $25 in Hereford Bucks for his first-place finish.

Brian Heinrich of Midland was second, based on his total score on the tiebreaker after missing four games. He will receive $15 in Hereford Bucks.

Placing third, receiving $10 in Hereford Bucks, is Glenda Hansen of Hereford. She missed four games, as did Elvis Davis, but Hansen was closer on the Frenship-Hereford tiebreaker.

Missing five games were Brenda Busby and Gladys Cavness; there were 13 persons who missed six games.

This week's contest games appear in today's Brand. Contestants are asked to pick the winner in 25 high school, college and pro games each week and pick the winner and guess the score in the tiebreaker game. Prizes are paid in Hereford Bucks, which may be spent like cash at any business in Deaf Smith County.

Any contest picking the winner in the 25 games and the correct team on the tiebreaker will receive $500 in Hereford Bucks.

Persons placing first, second or third are eligible for the grand prize game at the conclusion of the contest, with $100 going to that contest's winner.

United Way Profile

Lola Faye Veazey is executive director of the Salvation Army in Deaf Smith County. Salvation Army's primary purpose is immediate assistance in times of need, to people in personal or financial trouble. Help is available to local residents and stranded transients.

"In Deaf Smith County, the Army is composed of a seven-member board who all volunteer their services without any overhead expenses," said Veazey, who is also a volunteer. "Those we help have hope for better days. Keeping that hope alive is as important as the financial aid that is given."

Salvation Army hopes to receive at least $4,000 from United Way of Deaf Smith County this year.

Hereford and Vicinity YMCA serves about 3,000 persons a year in some YMCA activity. Weldon Knabe is the executive director in charge, helping lead sports and fitness programs and many other activities.

Programs include sports, meeting areas and youth programs. A major objective of the Hereford YMCA is to provide value-oriented programs for youth, encouraging them to develop respect for themselves and others.

"The YMCA gives residents, both individuals and families, a center where they can relax, have fun and keep fit," said Knabe. "It especially gives young people a place to go that instills positive values."

The YMCA hopes to receive $12,500 from UWDSC this year, if you Take Time To Care.

Bluebonnet kids learn about leather work

J.J. Mooney, standing at left, of Tandy Leather of Amarillo, works with sixth graders at Bluebonnet school recently. The students learned how to tool leather, worked on an art project, watched a movie and walked to lunch at Sirloin Stockade, which has adopted Bluebonnet this year.

Congress, administration facing one last big showdown

WASHINGTON (AP) - Congress faces its final veto confrontations of the year with President Bush, a tax bill and spending decisions for the coming year as it rushes to adjourn a month before the election.

Lawmakers eager to go home and campaign for re-election have set Monday as their deadline to wrap up the session, although no one will be surprised if they're still here the next day.

"I'm still determined to complete action by the close of business Monday night," Senate Majority Leader George Mitchell, D-Maine, said.

Looming in the House on Wednesday is a vote to override Bush's veto of a bill that would require large employers to guarantee most workers up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave for the birth or adoption of a child or to care for a sick relative.

Bush has made every one of his vetoes stick. The Senate voted last week to override him on family leave, the first time it has done so in his presidency. Supporters face a far tougher time in the House mustering the needed two-thirds majority.

Hospital Notes

PATIENTS IN THE HOSPITAL

Infant boy Burrus, Julie Burrus, Guadalupe Dominguez, Linna Drager, Norma Gripp, Adrian Hernandez, Eva Veronica Loera, Infant girl Loera, David Martinez, Raquel Martinez, Sarah Payne, Debra Provence, Troy Schuder and Rachel M. Ueckert.

Due to a mixup, it appeared in Sunday's Senior Scene that memorials were given in the name of Mary Kocan to the Hereford Senior Citizens Association.

In fact, Ms. Kocan should have been one of the persons listed as giving a memorial gift in the memory of Dolly Dawson. Also giving in Mrs. Dawson's memory were Rosalee and Jelly McGowen, Della Stagner, Helen Spinks and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jacobson.

The Brand deeply regrets the error.

News digest

SAN FRANCISCO - In a throwback to the Bakke case, a Bush administration civil rights office has found racial discrimination against whites at the prestigious law school at the University of California at Berkeley.

WASHINGTON - A major international drug bust is providing new evidence of extensive ties between the old-world style Italian Mafia and rapidly expanding Colombian drug cartels, U.S. law enforcement officials say.

DALLAS - Ross Perot has given leaders of his upstart presidential movement until Thursday to decide whether he should mount an "all out" campaign for the White House. Despite personal appeals from top surrogates of President Bush and Bill Clinton, many of the Perot backers said they were eager for the Dallas billionaire to give it a try.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. - As an arsonist's flames devoured the mansion of millionaire developer Constantine Pappadopolous, firefighters spotted his friend's Mercedes in the driveway. Inside they found the keys, a wallet, personal papers, checkbook, bank card and clothing - along with nearly two dozen empty lacquer-thinner cans. What they haven't found in the month since the fire is any trace of George Orfanos, a painting contractor who owned the vehicle.

BAIDOA, Somalia - Last week, Salat Ali Omar was one of thousands of gunmen terrorizing this famine-struck town crowded with starving refugees scavenging for food. Today, he is training to be a police officer.

Book review presented to Cultural E.H. Club

Audine Dettman gave a book review on The Relic by Evelyn Anthony when members of the Cultural Extension Homemakers Club met Sept. 25 at the Hereford Senior Citizens Center.

During the business meeting with President Perry Keyes presiding, Fannie Townsend read the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved and Byrdie Fellers gave the financial report. Also, following Keyes' reading of communications, members decided to donate to the United Way Fund.

Members were reminded that the deadline to turn in recipes for the Oct. 21 Sweet Tea is Oct. 7.

Naomi Hare and Daisy Steele thanked the club for the get-well cards.

Jewel Hargrave gave a report on programs for the club and Vernis Parsons reported for the cheer committee. Since the last meeting, seven birthday cards and four get-well cards had been sent.

Townsend reported that there are currently 100 Deaf Smith County 4-H members. Also, Hargrave mentioned that she had attended the recent 4-H banquet, and she also reported on Nell and George Pope.

Concerning the upcoming club auction, it was decided that each club member put a floor on the items brought. Members were asked not to bring more than three items for the sale.

It was voted by members to accept amendments to the by-laws recommended by the committee.

Edna Marnell voiced a prayer and Hare led the pledges to the United States and Texas flags. The opening exercise was given by Wilma Goettsch who read the poem, "Come Little Leaves." Roll call was answered to "Have you read a good book lately?"

Members present were Goettsch, S.T. Walton, Jewel Rogers, Fellers, Hare, Hargrave, Carrie Mae Doak, Townsend, Marnell, Keyes, Parsons and Steele.

Dr. Atkins honored

Dr. I.M. Atkins was named "Man of the Year" during the recent Kiwanis Golden K Installation Banquet held at the Hereford Senior Citizens Center. The honoree, who has been actively involved in the Kiwanis organization for over 55 years, was presented a plaque by Cecil Oglesby, at left.

Dr. I.M. Atkins was named "Man of the Year" and presented with a plaque during the Kiwanis Golden K Installation Banquet held Sept. 22 at Hereford Senior Citizens Center. The honoree has been actively involved in Kiwanis for over 55 years.

Incoming Lt. Governor Chuck Parr of Division 33 installed officers and board members. New officers are Al Daniels, president; Jack Kirksey, first vice president; Shirley Garrison, second vice president; Jerry Jackson, secretary; and Cecil Boyer, treasurer. Directors serving one-year terms include J.W. Witherspoon, Ed Wilson and Calvin Edwards; two-year terms, Dick Barrett, Clarence Betzen and Fritz Christman; and three-year terms, Ella Oglesby, Mildred Garrison and Joe Rogers.

Also, Ross Wade was inducted as a new member and a memorial service was held for Will Walker who died this year.

Among the 68 people who attended the banquet were members of the Amarillo Golden K and the Hi Plains Kiwanis Clubs. Also, present were members of Hereford's Whiteface Breakfast Club and the Hereford Noon Kiwanis Club.

Members of the Golden K Kiwanis Club are Dr. Atkins, Richard M.

NEW YORK (AP) — Bo may know dramatics, too. Bo Jackson, whose baseball career has been put on hold by injuries, is dabbling in acting.

The 29-year-old athlete plays a security guard in an upcoming episode of "Ghostwriter," a public television series for children.

He said in People magazine's latest issue that his kids, Garrett, 6, Nicholas, 4, and Morgan, 2, "don't see me as Daddy" when they see him on television. "They say, 'Mom, there's Bo Jackson!'" he said.

Jackson, who is recovering from hip surgery, plays for the Chicago White Sox. He retired from football with the Los Angeles Raiders.

The story of George Washington and the cherry tree was invented by writer, clergyman and bookseller Mason Locke Weems.

Egg whites can be frozen for up to a year.

Hints from Heloise

Dear Heloise: I just read about the family that tapes movies, then puts the title and other pertinent information on a small sheet of paper and attaches it to the box the tape came in.

I think I have a more timely and efficient, not to mention informative, method.

We receive the weekly TV listings and cut all the information we need (title, stars, length of show, etc.) out of it and tape it to the box. I've done this for years and it works great. I've found it's a foolproof way of knowing what is on the cassette. — Lyn Trissell, Piqua, Ohio

FAST FACTS

Other uses for carpet remnants:

- Cut pieces to place under plants.
- Use on the floorboard of the car.
- Place in kitchen cabinets, under pots and pans.
- Use under furniture to protect wood or tile floors.
- Wrap around a piece of wood to make a scratching post for your cat.

MORE SPACE

Dear Heloise: Years ago I was short of kitchen cupboard space, so I bought a peg board, painted it the color of the wall and hung it in an appropriate space. It was a winner! I could put anything I wanted on it and rearrange it when necessary. — Min Van Noort, Piedmont, S.D.

Dear Heloise: In markets, more and more varieties of fruits and vegetables are appearing that have small labels which must be peeled or cut off before eating. I don't mind tags on bananas or avocados which must be peeled, but things like tomatoes I like to wash and use with the peel on. — Phyllis Fox, Reno, Nev.

Dear Heloise: I like the poster idea you had, listing police, fire and poison control center phone numbers.

Having worked for 14 years in a dispatch center that dispatches police, fire and rescue units, I have seen firsthand how an emergency situation can affect people.

Please add your address to your list of emergency phone numbers.

Include the city, for multi-jurisdictional agencies that may have the same street names. People panic and forget their address. Emergency operators always need your address and phone number, especially where they don't have the 911 system that gives the emergency agency this information.

Thank you for telling parents that the emergency number is 9-one-one and not 9-eleven — you wouldn't believe how many people have said, "There is no eleven on my phone." — Phyllis Crawley, Boynton Beach, Fla.

Thanks so much for sending in your suggestions! Being prepared for an emergency can save lives, maybe even your own! — Heloise

35 MM FILM CANISTERS
Dear Heloise: I like to take a salad to work for lunch, but finding a way to take dressing without a mess was always a problem.

Then I thought of washing out the canister that 35 mm film comes in and using that. It holds just the right amount and is small enough just to put in my covered bowl with the salad, and I don't worry about a spill. I just toss it back in to take home again. — Millie Kirkwood, Plano, Texas

Although this sounds like a good idea, we checked with a leading film manufacturer, and they don't recommend using the canisters for any food items.

You might want to take your salad dressing in a small yogurt container or a self-sealing plastic bag or reuse one of the small fast-food sauce containers. — Heloise

CRUISE TIP

Dear Heloise: Regarding your column on cruises: My husband and I have taken six cruises and have never been seasick. However, most all cruise ships have seasick medications for free for those who feel they need it. — Edythe Graham, Lincoln, Neb.

RECYCLING OVEN MITTS

Dear Heloise: Don't throw out old badly soiled oven mitts. They can be used as safety covers for sharp objects when transporting them.

My husband used one to cover a sharp drill and another to cover the slicing knife in the picnic box. — R. S., Barrington, N. H.

Concentration

Hereford's Emily Fuston prepares to hit the tennis ball hard. Fuston won her singles match, contributing to the Herd's 16-2 win over Randall Saturday in Hereford.

Spikers bow to Demonettes

The Lady Whitefaces volleyball team came out hot against Dumas Saturday in Whiteface Gym. They won the first game 15-10, but then saw Dumas take the next two games 15-2, 15-11, and take the match.

The match was the District 1-4A opener for the league rivals. Hereford is now 10-8 overall, while Dumas improves to 16-4.

The first game was tied at 5-5, then Hereford got a lead and kept it. A Jill Robinson kill ended a long volley, giving Hereford the lead. A few minutes later three straight kills by Robyn Watts gave Hereford a 11-5 lead. Dumas drew back to 11-8, and the scoring went slowly back and forth for the rest of the game until a Kara Sandoval ace ended it.

Dumas took a 6-2 lead and didn't take long to finish the second game. The third game took much longer to finish. Hereford never led, as Herd rallies served only to tie the game. Jessica Evers, who had serving problems earlier, served a pair of aces to tie at 3-3, but a pair of Hereford hitting errors gave the momentum and lead back to the Demonettes.

Watts, who normally platoons with Evers, was forced to serve when they reached their substitution limit and came through with four aces; two to tie the game at 7-7, and two to get Hereford back to within 13-11.

However, immediately after Hereford got within four points of the win, Dumas' Laura Tatum had a stuff block and a kill to give Dumas the match.

Several of the Lady Whitefaces' matches have gone like this--win the Boys' golf team wins at Borger

The Hereford High School boys' golf team won a triangular match in Borger, while the Hereford girls were second in Amarillo.

The boys, playing at Borger's Huber Golf Course, totaled 322 to beat Borger's junior varsity at 329 and Tascosa at 344. Individually, Cory Newton led Hereford with a 78, followed by: Clay Cantrell, 79; Sabino Grijalva, 82; Jayson Mines, 83; and Tim Burkhalter, 93.

The girls, playing at Southwest Golf Course in Amarillo, totaled 363. They trailed Borger's 338 and tied Tascosa. Cecelia Albracht shot 86 to lead the Hereford girls, followed by: Brook Weatherly, 89; Kelly Kelso, 94; Jami Bell, 94; and JoJo Loyal, 96.

Both teams are off this weekend. The girls will host a tournament Oct. 10 at Pitman Municipal Golf course in Hereford. The boys play at Pampa Oct. 10, then host a tournament at Pitman on Oct. 17.

HJH spikers win three of four

Hereford Junior High volleyball teams won three of four matches against Borger Monday at HJH.

The eighth grade A team won 15-8, 15-8, and the eighth grade B team won 15-13, 15-0. Jessie Salazar served for 12 points in the B team's first game.

The seventh grade A team won 15-0, 15-7 as Julie Rampley served for 10 points. Only the seventh grade B team fell, but it was a thriller: 15-11, 10-15, 16-14.

The junior high spikers also played well in a tournament in Borger. The seventh grade A team won, while the eighth grade A team finished second. Here are the results for each team, from first match to last. There was a time limit, so some games did not go to 15 points.

Seventh grade A: Beat Perryton, 15-8, 15-7; beat Dumas, 15-3, 7-13, 15-7; beat Borger, 15-2, 15-5; and beat Pampa, 11-8, 15-10 in finals.

Eighth grade A: Beat Perryton, 15-5, 15-2; beat Dumas A, 8-15, 15-8, 15-1; beat Dumas B, 1-15, 15-7, 15-6; lost to Pampa 9-15, 15-10, 15-5 in finals.

Eighth grade B: Lost to Pampa A, 15-1, 15-8; beat Borger White, 15-10, 15-6; beat Borger Black, 15-12, 9-15, 15-11; and lost to Borger A, 15-9, 15-3, in consolation finals.

Seventh grade B: Lost to Pampa, 15-4, 15-7; beat Borger Red, 15-9, 15-3; and lost to Borger White, 15-4, 15-8.

Top performers for the eighth grade A team were Rachel Bezner, who served for 16 points with seven aces against Dumas B, and Danielle Cornelius who had nine kills against Pampa A in the finals.

Frosh spikers beat Sandies

Hereford's ninth grade A team came from behind to beat the team from Amarillo High Monday at Whiteface Gym. Hereford trailed 9-4 in the first game and came back to win 15-11. Hereford trailed 12-9 in the second game and came back to win 17-15.

In the opening match Monday, Hereford's B team lost to the Sandies, 15-5, 15-11.

Both of Hereford's freshmen teams won Saturday as they hosted ninth-graders from Yucca Junior High in Clovis, N.M.

The A team won 15-3, 15-3. They were led by Brittney Binder, who served for 10 points in the first game.

The B team won 15-3, 13-15, 15-10 Saturday. Amy Andrews served for 13 points and Lyndsi Ames served for 12.

Cross country teams 9th in Amarillo

Hereford's cross country teams both finished ninth in the 4A-5A division of the Amarillo Cross Country Meet held Saturday in Amarillo.

Both boys and girls finished behind four of their rivals from District 1-4A, as well as several 5A teams.

"We showed a lot of improvement in the girls' races," coach Martha Emerson said, "but we still have to improve much more to be a contender for the top two team places at district."

Randall won the girls' race with 60 points, followed by: Borger, 67; Amarillo High, 110; Coronado, 118; Palo Duro, 131; Caprock, 132; Tascosa, 144; Pampa, 161; and Hereford, 185.

Borger won the boys' race with 93 points, followed by: Amarillo High, 97; Caprock, 108; Plainview, 111; Coronado, 126; Monterey, 131; Pampa, 135; Randall, 149; Hereford, 194; Tascosa, 210; and Dumas 302.

"Jack Borden ran his best race of the season, so hopefully he will continue to improve," Emerson said.

Borden finished 13th, finishing the three-mile course in 17:58. Pedro Dominguez was 30th in 18:55; Aurelio San Miguel was 34th in 18:59; Ismael Arroyos was 50th in 19:41; and Mario Pena was 70th in 23:23.

Among the girls, who run two miles, Nora Herrera was 33rd in 13:44; Ricka Williams was 35th in 13:55; Melissa Lucio was 42nd in 14:10; Belinda Murillo was 46th in 14:19; Karon Harder was 51st in 14:30; and Michelle Garza was 52nd in 14:31.

Both teams run in Dumas at 10 a.m. Saturday.

In junior varsity competition,

Bethany Townsend finished second to lead the girls' JV to a fourth place finish. Townsend was second to Harmony Wilkerson of Sanford-Fritch, the girl Townsend beat at Hereford the week before.

Townsend's time was 13:20. The other JV girls: Linda Martinez was 11th in 14:18; Cady Auckerman was 42nd in 15:08; Beverly Celaya was 58th in 15:31; and Vanessa Garcia was 72nd in 16:02.

Hereford didn't have enough runners for a boys' JV team, but Miguel Carrillo finished fourth in the JV race with a time of 19:06. The other JV girls: Lee Mungia was 31st in 20:25; Adolfo San Miguel was 35th in 20:32; and Justin Criner was 54th (no time given).

City golf tourney still open

Entries are still being accepted in the City Golf Championship Tournament, with match play scheduled for both men and women on Saturday and Sunday, it was announced today by Dave Kaesheimer, Pitman Municipal Golf Course pro.

This is the first year for a match-play format, and the first year for both men and women champions to be decided at the same time.

The first match will be played this week, prior to the Saturday-Sunday rounds, and it will be a 9-hole match. Those who have already entered can call the pro shop for pairings. The first-round matches will determine championship brackets and consolation brackets.

The second round matches will be played Saturday and the final round on Sunday.

Entry fee is $40, which does not include green fees or cart rental.

Hubbard, Hagar take VFW golf tournament

Paul Hubbard and Ken Hagar shot a 63 scramble score on Saturday and closed with a low-ball 65 on Sunday to capture the championship of the VFW Benefit Golf Tournament at Pitman Municipal Golf Course.

Bill Glenn and Terry Widick of Amarillo were four shots back in second place with a 67-65 and 132 total, while Dave Kaesheimer and Rick Hopping were third with a 65-68--133.

A total of 34 teams entered the tourney, which is planned to be an annual benefit event. Proceeds this year will be donated to the Crown of Texas Hospice in Hereford.

There were four flights in the tourney. Ron Traylor and Mike Yell of Vega won the second flight on a scorecard playoff after tying with Norm Andress and Mike McCormick of Amarillo with 144 totals. Traylor and Yell had 72-72 rounds while Andress and McCormick shot 70-74. John Sherrod and Speedy Nieman were third with rounds of 70 and 75.

Bob Sims and Bill Davis carded 72-76--148 to win the third flight by three shots. B.J. Weaver and Larry Boggs were second with a 74-77--151, and Shorty Roark and Emory Brownlow were third with 72-79--151.

N.D. Kelso and Wendel Burdine breezed to the fourth-flight title with a low-ball 73 on Sunday and a 151 total. Pat McKean and Davenport took second on a scorecard playoff with a 159 total, the same score as third-place finishers Max Moss and Pat McGinty.

Chiefs leave Raiders 0-4

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) - This hole the Los Angeles Raiders find themselves in may not only be deep, it may be bottomless.

To a man, the Raiders say they can climb out. But there is a long way to go after the Kansas City Chiefs defeated Los Angeles 27-7 Monday in a game that was a must-win one for the Raiders even this early in the season.

"We're just not playing well and it's my job to get them to play well," Raiders coach Art Shell said.

Kansas City beat Los Angeles for the sixth time in a row; and the Raiders have lost eight straight dating back to last year.

Athletics watch Twins lose

By BEN WALKER
AP Baseball Writer

Long before Chili Davis struck out to officially end Minnesota's last hope at repeating as World Series champions, the Twins knew the season was lost.

The idle Oakland Athletics clinched the AL West on Monday night when Minnesota was beaten by Chicago 9-4.

The Twins, who led the majors with a 60-38 record on July 26, went quietly. They fell out of first place on Aug. 5 and steadily fell out of contention after that. Only about 3,000 fans were left at the Metrodome when the game ended.

In other games, California downed Kansas City 6-5 in 11 innings, Baltimore beat Boston 7-3 and Cleveland defeated New York 6-4.

Wakefield earns playoff start

By The Associated Press

Tim Wakefield has the one thing Greg Mathews is worried about - job security.

Wakefield earned his spot in Pittsburgh's playoff-bound rotation, winning Monday night for the seventh time in eight decisions since being called up from the minor leagues in July.

Mathews, a 30-year-old left-hander, is wondering if he'll be in any rotation next season, even after winning for the first time in four years.

"I don't know if this was my last opportunity to get a win. I don't know if I'll have a job next year," said Mathews, who went 7 1-3 innings in the second game as Philadelphia swept a doubleheader from the New York Mets, winning both 7-6, the first in 10 innings.

St. Louis beat Montreal 4-1 in the only other game scheduled.

Chili cook-off Saturday

The public is invited to attend the Second Annual Castro County Summerfield Chili Cook-off scheduled at 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 3, at Summerfield.

Registration fees for those planning to participate are: $15 for chili division; $15, brisket; $5, beans; and $30 for all three divisions. The deadline to sign up is 10 a.m. Oct. 3.

Featured during the festivities will be a live band, a concession and arts and crafts. Also, a variety of prizes will be given away during drawings.

All proceeds from the cook-off will be used for community projects.

For additional information, contact Bobbie Purcell at 357-2330.

Sweet Bea discussed at meeting

Members of North Hereford Extension Club discussed the Sweet Bea when the group met Sept. 23 at the Hereford Senior Citizens Center.

The bea is scheduled Oct. 21 at the Hereford Community Center. Cost is $5 per person.

Marcella Hoffman presented a reading on the various philosophies. She also won the penny ante.

Martha Lueb served as hostess and Edith Higgins was the presiding officer.

New officers installed

The 1992-93 officers for the Golden K Kiwanis Club were installed during the Kiwanis Golden K Installation Banquet held Sept. 22. Serving terms are, from left, Al Daniels, president; Jack Kirksey, first vice president; Shirley Garrison, second vice president; Jerry Jackson, secretary; and Cecil Boyer, treasurer.

ATLANTA (AP) - Dominique Wilkins' honeymoon will have to wait.

The Atlanta Hawks basketball star married 22-year-old Georgia State University student Nicole Berry on Saturday night. They're postponing a honeymoon because Wilkins, 32, has to report to training camp soon.

The couple wed in front of about 150 people at a hotel, drawing laughs when each hesitated a little before saying, "I do."

Wilkins answered, "Uh, well ... I do."

The reception, attended by heavyweight boxing champion Evander Holyfield, featured a 6-foot wedding cake.

Wilkins' four sisters, who objected to the couple's courtship of just six months, did not attend. At the last moment, Wilkins' mother, Gertrude Baker, came down the aisle. She, too, had threatened not to come.

RADNOR, Pa. (AP) - In the 1970s there was "The Bob Newhart Show." In the '80s, there was "Newhart."

So about the only names left for Bob Newhart's latest series were "The," "Show" and "Bob," the comedian said in the latest TV Guide.

"This one had to be 'Bob,'" he said.

La Madre Mia Study Club met Thursday evening, Sept. 24, in the home of Lucy Rogers. Several club members' husbands were in attendance as guests.

Lucy and Ken Rogers conducted a tour of their ostrich facilities during which Lucy presented a very interesting and informative program. She explained to the group some of the procedures involved in the caring for and the hatching of the ostrich eggs and in caring for and raising the chicks.

Refreshments of ostrich sausage and venison sausage were served by the hostess and co-hostess, Mary Herring.

During the brief business meeting with President Nicky Walser presiding, the club's home tour co-chairmen, Merle Clark and Susan Robbins, told the group about the plans concerning the forthcoming Christmas Home Tour.

Those in attendance were Ruth Black, Merle Clark, Linda Cumpton, Mary Herring, Betty Lady, Glenda Marcum, Gladys Merritt, Betty Owen, Nancy Paetzold, Susan Robbins, Lucy Rogers, Tricia Sims, Mysedia Smith, Georgia Sparks, Betty Taylor, Marline Watson and Mary Beth White.

Husbands present were Dean Herring, G.C. Merritt, Bub Sparks, Herschel Black and Ken Rogers.

New legislation could save lives

AUSTIN (AP) - Two state legislators are proposing minimum standards for breast cancer testing, saying current examinations are causing preventable deaths.
"There is no need for 2,300 families in the state of Texas to have to deal with a lost mother, wife, sister or daughter," state Rep. Brian McCall, R-Plano, said Wednesday, citing past figures. "It's a highly curable disease if detected early enough."

McCall and Rep. Peggy Hamric, R-Houston, said they'll file a bill in the regular legislative session beginning in January on standards for mammography, an X-ray method of detecting breast tumors before they can be seen or felt.
"Being a woman in that high-risk, over-50 age group that are susceptible to having breast cancer, this is something that I welcome not only as someone who's introduced the bill, but as someone who will benefit," Ms. Hamric said.
She said a friend's life recently was saved through a mammogram and early detection of breast cancer.
Their measure would require mammography facilities to meet standards set by the American College of Radiology for safety and accuracy.
Only 158 of the 548 mammography facilities are accredited by the college, according to information attributed to the Texas Cancer Data Center as of Aug. 5 and college data.
The machines would have to be operated by technologists certified by the Texas Department of Health under the legislation. Mammograms would have to be interpreted by physicians who meet American College of Radiology certification, training and education requirements.
The Health Department would evaluate compliance. Facilities that do not meet standards could be fined or have their licenses revoked.
Dr. Gerald Dodd, chairman of the Diagnostic Radiology Department at the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston, said the proposed legislation is important to make certain that women who undergo mammograms get "a competent, thorough procedure."
The examination is difficult to perform because it involves finding minute differences in the density of soft tissue, he said.
Dodd said there is "no question" that women have died who have undergone mammograms in which cancer has not been detected. He said, "That's becoming a very common source of malpractice suits."
Patrick McDonough, executive director of the Dallas-based Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, called the proposed measure "long overdue."
"Legislation like this legislation will save thousands of lives," he said.
The Civil War was at a virtual end on April 9, 1865, as Confederate Gen. Robert E. Lee surrendered his army to Union Gen. Ulysses S. Grant at Appomattox Court House in Virginia.

Ann Landers

Arts festival planned in Silverton Oct. 10-11

New Arrivals

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This is an open letter to all people, male and female, young and old, black and white. I want to tell you all about the horrible realities of prison life. Let me give you some examples:

A prisoner in the cell across from mine hanged himself with his belt. Not knowing how to do it properly, he dangled there for 20 minutes before he died. I screamed for a guard to come and take him down, but by the time the guard arrived, it was too late. There was no show of compassion or respect for this poor guy. The guard didn't even cover him up when he carried him out.

I was stabbed in the arm with a plastic knife because I had a watch that an inmate wanted and I wouldn't give it to him. I didn't go to the prison hospital to get stitched up because if I had, I would have been punished for fighting and so would the guy who did it.

Homosexuality is rampant here. I estimate at least 100 homosexuals out of 750 inmates. The risk of AIDS is very real.

Tattoos are a status symbol, and getting tattooed is a way to combat boredom. The substance for tattooing is ordinary ink. The tattoo gun is made from the motor of a tape player and a guitar string sharpened to a very fine point -- painful, dangerously unhealthy and permanent.

I am not your average prisoner. I'm a 38-year-old white male, with two college degrees and a membership in Mensa. My job here in prison is to be a teacher's aide. I have serious medical problems, and in all probability, I will die in prison.

How I wish I could relieve the last 10 years of my life, but there's no point in looking back. I challenge anyone and everyone who is reading this to stay out of trouble. Take my word for it, crime does not pay. Stay straight and respect the law. I don't want you for a cellmate.--Too Late For Me in Virginia

DEAR TOO LATE: Yours is certainly a letter from a bona fide authority. No one could have made the point better. I appreciate your efforts to help others and thank you for writing.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm a secretary in St. Louis who has something to say that would make every secretary's life a whole lot easier. Please let me use your column as the messenger.

Example: Miss J.Q. Public calls the ABC Company and asks to speak with Mr. Jones is not in. Please give me your number so he can return the call," she usually replies, "He has my number."

When Mr. Jones returns, the secretary must clear her computer to look up Miss Public's number or go find it in the Rolodex. This is exasperating, because it takes the caller no longer to GIVE the number than it does to say, "He has it."

If only a small percentage of the people who do this recognize themselves in your column and mend their ways, it will make a lot of secretaries very happy.--Me is Missouri

DEAR YOU: Here's your letter, plus an added suggestion from Yours Truly in Illinois. The same approach should be applied to social telephone calls as well. All message takers would appreciate this courtesy.

Gem of the Day: Memory is what tells a man his wedding anniversary was yesterday.

Forget to save some of your favorite Ann Landers columns? "Nuggets and Doozies" is the answer. Send a self-addressed, long, business-size envelope and a check or money order for $5 (this includes postage and handling) to: Nuggets, c/o Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562.

The Third Annual Texas Caprock Arts Festival will be held in Silverton, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 10-11. The show will be open from 7-10 p.m. Saturday and from 1-5 p.m. Sunday.

Awards will be presented at 9 p.m. Saturday. An elegant dinner buffet will be served Saturday at 6 p.m. Reservations for the buffet should be made by Monday, Oct. 5.

Tickets are available for $10 each from Briscoe County Activity Association members or you may call 823-2486, 847-2217 or after 4 p.m. 823-2352 for reservations.

The Texas Caprock Arts Festival is sponsored by the Briscoe County Activity Association. It will be held in the Briscoe County Show Barn which is six blocks south and two blocks east of the courthouse. Works in oils, water media, pastels, drawings, photography and sculpture will be displayed by artists from throughout the panhandle and surrounding area.

Otho Stubbs from Turkey will be present with some of his works as well as his new book "Otho R. Stubbs A Lasting Legacy." A number of the exhibited works including those of special guest artist, Larry Hilburn, will be for sale. There will also be a silent auction of works donated by Larry Hilburn, Betty Graham, Junis Hutsell, Otho Stubbs, Louise Vaughan and J. Christopher White.

Larry Hilburn of Hollis, Oklahoma has juried the entries and will judge the show. He will also exhibit a number of his works as special guest artist. Mr. Hilburn has a B.A. from Southwestern State, a Masters from West Texas State and was a Fulbright Scholar in Paris, France. For 25 years, he maintained a studio in Taos, N.M. where his works are still available through galleries in Santa Fe and Taos. His art has become established internationally with collectors living in every state and over 25 foreign countries. Hilburn has taught throughout the Texas Panhandle and hopes to see many of his former students at the Arts Festival.

Dwight and Patti Webb are the parents of a son, William Dutton, born Friday, Sept. 18, 1992, at St. Paul Medical Center in Dallas. He weighed 8 lbs. 6 oz.

Dutton was welcomed by a sister, Ashley Webb.

Grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Hendon of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Cloys Webb of Perryton.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) -- Country stars such as Garth Brooks, Lynn Anderson, Clint Black and Johnny Cash are recording a song to help raise money for victims of eye diseases.

Other stars who will be heard on "Forgotten Eyes" include Roy Rogers, Asleep at the Wheel, Pat Boone, Lee Greenwood, T.G. Sheppard and Ricky Van Shelton, the fund-raising group RP International said Friday.

Women's Division to meet Thursday night at hospital

Members of the Women's Division are invited to attend the organization's quarterly meeting at 7 p.m. Thursday in the dining room of Deaf Smith General Hospital.

The scheduled speaker is Elizabeth Fowler, hospital administrative assistant and ValuCare coordinator. She will be talking about the changes that have been made at the hospital as well as informing the women about future hospital plans. She will also give the Women's Division members a tour of the recently redecorated hospital facilities.

Because seating arrangements are limited, reservations need to be made no later than 5 p.m. Wednesday by calling the Chamber of Commerce office, 364-3333. A $2 charge will cover the cost of the dessert, coffee and tea to be served by the hospital kitchen staff.

During the business meeting, four committees will be honored and presented with certificates of participation by Rita Bell, Women's Division president. They include beauty spot of the month committee with Sonya Torbert serving as chairman; Town 'n' Country Jubilee, Dec Hamilton; style show, Janet Brigrance; and blood drive, Mildred Fuhrmann.

Also, officers will be elected. Peggie Fox has been nominated for president elect and the two board members nominated are Sonya Torbert and Lacy Mueggenborg.
