TUESDAYS—TWICE-A-WEEK—FRIDAYS

2nd YEAR, NO. 12

HEREFORD, DEAF SMITH COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1922

SCHOOL FAIR DATES GIVEN AS APL. 7-8

SET SO THAT WINNERS MAY ATTEND THE DISTRICT MEET

AUCTION SALES

Merchants May Offer Some Articles Each Day to Help Cause

County Judge Megert and the County School Fair Committee of the Chamber of Commerce recently appointed to assist in making the Fair a success, held a meeting Monday night to discuss ways and means. The committee consists of C. O. Lee, chairman, E. W. Harrison and W. R. Stockman. Previous to the meeting, Judge Megert and Miss Griffith, superintendent of schools, had held a conference on the subject.

It was decided Monday night to hold the Fair and the County Interscholastic meet on Friday and Saturday, April 7-8. This is just a short time before the district interscholastic meet at Canyon to be held on April 21-22, and will enable the winners of the various contests in this county to go to the Canyon meet.

It was decided to try out a suggestion that an Auction Sale of merchandise be held on both days, merchants of Hereford to contribute each some standard article to be put up at auction. The idea is that this will aid in advertising the Fair, will draw a better crowd, and at the same time help the merchants too. The committee will canvass the merchants and see if the plan can be worked out.

Arrangements are to be made at once to construct frames for the school booths in the basement of the Courthouse where each school or grade can have its own display of school work. Last year's Fair demonstrated what can be done along this line and much interest and keen rivalry is now in evidence over the county in preparation for the contests.

The high school authorities have in charge the matter of the athletic contest, which will be staged these two days in determining what representatives will compete at Canyon. Taken all in all the Fair is coming along nicely and promises big things for April.

Concerning the Interscholastic League District Meet at Canyon, The Brand is in receipt of the following: "Judging from the number of inquiries being made at the office of the District Director General for the Interscholastic League, it appears that an unusually large number of schools are grooming their students for the County Contests which are to be held prior to the District Meet April 21-22.

"For the most part there has been improvement made in the preparation of pupils for the various county contests. When the League was first organized, the teachers never began their work with the children until a few weeks before the contests is becoming a regular part of the school work, and well worked out plans are made months in advance. This is a commendable feature and should be universally adopted among the schools."

Elections Called For School and City Officials

Official notice is given in this issue of The Brand of the coming election for city officials, to be held under the law on the first Tuesday in April, which falls on the fourth.

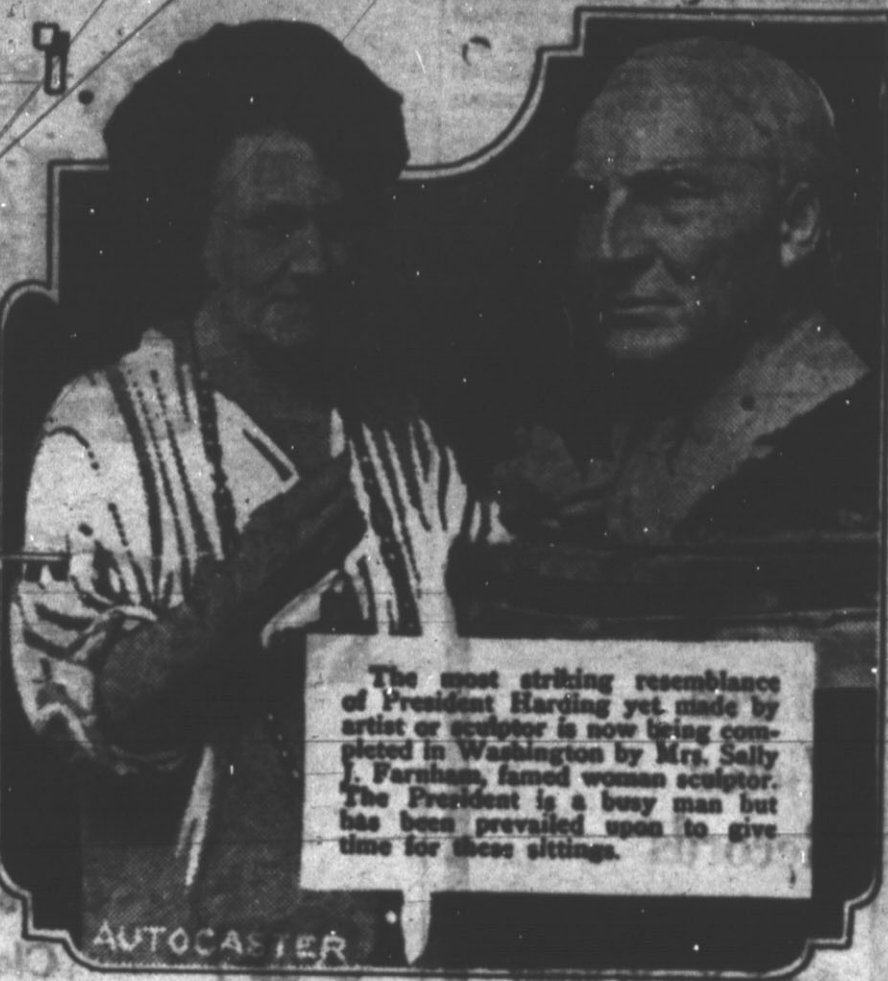

It is also understood that the election of school trustees for the Hereford Independent School district must be held on the following Saturday, April 8, and that official notice by publication will be printed next Tuesday.

EX-STUDENTS, U. OF T., CELEBRATE INDEPENDENCE DAY

The Ex-students association of the University of Texas, has established a precedent of holding local meetings of all ex-students of the institution on March 2 of each year, Texas Independence Day.

On Thursday night the Hereford meeting was held at the residence of Judge W. M. Russell, where a sumptuous dinner was served and the evening spent in school-day reminiscences. Present Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stocking, Travis Dameryn, and Prof. Blocker, ex-students, and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Benfro and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd London.

Best Harding Likeness by a Woman

The most striking resemblance of President Harding yet made by artist or sculptor is now being completed in Washington by Mrs. Sally J. Farnham, famed woman sculptor. The President is a busy man but has been prevailed upon to give time for these sittings.

Hog Rations are Figured Out by Normal Students

With the local interest in hogs as high as it is the fact that the Vocational Agricultural class of the Canyon Normal Training School is conducting some concrete experiments in feeding will be of interest here. The boys have to work out book rations and then take these and feed them to their hogs and determine the value of the rations. Frank E. Phillips, in charge of the class, tells The Brand that the January figures of the class indicate that kaffir fed to hogs with some kind of balancing rations, such as shorts, skim milk, or tankage, should produce enough meat to bring the kaffir up to the equal of seventy cents per bushel. The price of kaffir per bushel on the Canyon market is forty-five cents. Park Lewis, one of the members of this class who raises prize winning hogs, has been feeding and getting excellent results from the following ration when fed to shoats weighing from seventy-five to one hundred pounds, running on pasture:

One gallon skim milk, one pound wheat shorts and one pound of ground kaffir. Mr. Lewis has also found tankage and kaffir at the rate of one pound of tankage to nine of kaffir, a very satisfactory ration. He has sold $116.00 from one sow in the past year and has two pigs at the present time.

B. W. M. U.'S CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY OF MRS. W. I. VALENTINE

The Baptist W. M. U. assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Valentine Monday morning, the occasion being a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Valentine. The guests gathered early in the morning and spent the time in quilting. At noon a big dinner was served to the thirty-seven guests. The afternoon was spent in more quilting, a vocal solo by Mrs. Homer Wilkinson, a reading by Miss Mary Valentine, scripture lesson by Mrs. Estes, followed by prayer led by Mesdames Edgar Johnson and G. M. Suggs.

Another Promise Broken by That Weather Dopester

Another "promise" that was broken was extended by the Weather Man Wednesday morning. Following the snow of Monday and Tuesday it cleared Tuesday afternoon and appeared to be all over, but at night it thickened again and Wednesday morning large flakes were falling for a time and appearances were good for a real wet snow. However, it only lasted a few hours, and Wednesday afternoon the fall had dwindled to little or nothing. Thursday was warm and a lot of the frozen moisture melted. Friday was even warmer and sunshiny and the snow is practically all off the ground.

FIRST PRIEST NAMED TO DIPLOMATIC CORPS

President Harding's appointment of Rev. Jos. M. Deming of Marion, Ohio, as U. S. Consul to Tangiers, Morocco sets a precedent in diplomatic affairs. He is the first priest ever given a U. S. diplomatic position.

Frozen Pipes Cause Blow Up Guthrie Store

What might have been an extremely serious accident, but which amounted only to "property" damage occurred at the B. F. Guthrie home last Tuesday morning. Soon after a fire had been built in the kitchen range for breakfast a terrific explosion occurred, reducing the range to a mass of scrap iron and literally blowing all the windows out in the kitchen. Both Mrs. Guthrie and little son, Keith, were in the kitchen at the time, but miraculously escaped serious injury. The boy was hit in the back with a flying fragment but not hurt, while Mrs. Guthrie sustained a cut on her arm and a bad shock.

The accident was caused from the fact that the pipes leading from the stove to the hot water tank had frozen up during the night. The range was utterly destroyed and new windows had to be put in at once. The kitchen was ablaze after the explosion, but the flames were soon extinguished.

J. O. Newell Buys Fine Red Blood At Wheeler Sale

J. O. Newell and Fred Patton motored to Wheeler, Texas, last Friday to attend the D. L. Kutch & Son Duroc Hog sale. The sale began Monday morning and lasted the entire week. Three hundred hogs were sold, the average price being $111.00. Mr. Newell declares that it was the finest collection of Duroc hogs ever put on sale in the Panhandle. Mr. Newell bought two fine gilts. During the week several private sales and a donation sale were put over. It is understood that the receipts from the donation sale are to go toward building a large sale pavilion. A poultry show was held on Saturday.

The matter will be taken up at the meeting on Monday and proper committees appointed to attend to the matter. In the matter of tree planting it is understood that the city will advise that trees be planted only where the property owner is in position to water them this year, and that no effort will be made to urge the planting of trees on vacant lots.

Methodist Missionary Society

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said:
This is my own, my native land?"

Surely the most thoughtless would have felt a thrill of the patriotic pride that inspired the above lines, when last Wednesday we entered our Missionary room for our regular business and social meeting.

Artistic hands and loyal hearts had made lavish use of our National colors and flags. Master George Gordon Heard, dressed as George Washington, greeted each one at the door and assisted by little Miss Madeline Hughes, dressed as Martha Washington, held aloft a large silk American flag as the society sang "America," after which they were given seats of honor.

Mrs. Ward read a few verses of scripture, picturing the life of the great old man of God, Elijah, and she ably compared his life with other great men: the "Father of our country," and so on down the line to our own Bro. Hunt.

The "Evolution of the American Flag" was illustrated with six colored chalk posters, and in speaking of our flags, Mrs. Hawkins among other things, said: "As a nation, as a people we love our flag; love the principles for which it stands. We rejoice in the knowledge that it has never yet gone down in a final defeat, and in the confident belief that it never will. We love to know and we do know that this flag has never led our forces into battle save as a standard of right against wrong, oppression, tyranny, and for this reason we may believe without presumption, with the utmost reverence, that the 'Judge of all the earth' has been with us. It is a beautiful custom that the school children of our country on stated occasions shall raise the flag, salute it and sing our national songs and as teachers and parents we should teach them what real loyalty to our flag means. As mothers and fathers of this nation, we are praying and hoping there may never be another war and we should teach our children that they can show no higher loyalty to our flag, that there is no truer patriotism, than to give our country that type of citizenship which will justify 'all the nations of the earth in looking to America for their ideals.'"

The Society was then asked to stand and salute the flag we love, after which Miss Kathyleta Hawkins gave a little reading about "George Washington was a boy." Mrs. A. C. Thompson's violin

BEADED HEADPIECE

Crochet needles are flying all over the land these days as American women design many new and pleasing creations in sweaters, slip-overs and scarfs. But it was the versatile Lydia Lipkowsky, famous Russian prima donna who appeared opposite Caruso at the Metropolitan in New York, who gives us something new in this beautiful headpiece crocheted in beads. She has just been signed by Henry Savage to sing the revival of the famous Merry Widow.

Another diversion that afforded much merriment was the finding of enough letters which were concealed about the room to spell the name of Washington.

The hostesses, Mesdames J. H. Bowers, Walter Dunlap, J. B. Jones and H. B. Webb, then served refreshments of watermelon pickles, ginger cookies, tea and sandwiches, after which instead of bidding our hostesses goodbye in the usual way, each one gave a Colonial courtesy and stated one fact about Washington.

A REAL GOVERNMENT OPPOR-TUNITY

It is hoped the passing of Will H. Hays into the morie world will not slow up the government effort to develop air communication with the millions of the American people resident in our rural districts. There is something impressive but also perhaps pitiable in noting the curious thousands of fad followers in thickly populated cities "listening in" to great broadcasting stations sending out their educational discourses and ragtime concerts while the welfare of the nation awaits the rapid and widespread transmission of useful information to the farmer. Science has wrested this great new wonder from the hidden recesses of nature's storehouse, but it remains for the government to find a practical means for its intelligent and useful application. The sixty odd millions of people who live in the little towns of the country cannot afford two or three hundred dollars for patented wireless sets and yet the hope of the world lies in their contact with the scheme of things. Instantaneous world communication will put an end to destructive wars far sooner than all the disarmament that ever has been dreamed about, and the world will be enriched beyond our imagination through its agriculture when our farmers can sense each morning the needs and the pulse of all the people. A little pep-mixed with vision and a realization that money spent in this way is money spent for public good will soon put Texas in touch with Broadway, and it will put the tiller of the soil so close to the Wall Street coupon clipper that misunderstanding and manipulation will melt before the sun of mutual knowledge. The government can do no more helpful thing than follow with the greatest earnestness and speed the Hays plan of broadcasting information and in a way that will permit those who need it most to get it without unreasonable cost.

It is worth remembering that there are rules just as simple for making your battery last longer and serve more faithfully.
 Here are three rules in A B C form:
 1—Put in water regularly and keep up the charge.
 2—Clean in every two weeks for battery service.
 3—And when your present battery wears out, buy a Willard Threaded Rubber Battery—the only battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation between the plates.
 There is only one battery good enough for us to back by our unqualified recommendation—that's the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery. Come in—and we'll show you some records it has made right here.

FUNDAMENTALLY, credit is good or bad according as it is set to work in a productive way, or as it deserves merely to put off the day of reckoning. To make credit a constructive agency takes more than good lenders; it takes good borrowers. And the borrowers must come with sound business propositions.
 Whenever there is a difficult business or economic situation, the idea is usually entertained that more credit will solve the difficulty. In many cases, credit is a most important factor, but it is seldom, if ever, a determining factor unless there is something else to go along with it and make it effective. To continue to extend to a man who is operating inefficiently and at a loss, or who is behind the times and is not adjusting his methods to meet changing conditions, is merely to put him ultimately deeper than ever in the hole.

DIMMITT CASTRO COUNTY

C. J. Mapes, attended the Hereford Breeders Association in Amarillo the latter part of the week.

Mr. Buttolph, our telephone manager, made a business trip to Amarillo this week.

Messrs. Sam Wilkes and Solan Clements, of Plainview, Texas, were in Dimmitt Friday and Saturday.

Charles E. Saigling, of Plainview, Texas, was in Dimmitt Saturday looking after his ranch interests.

The big revival meeting began Sunday. There was a large attendance at both morning and evening services.

Dr. Miller went to Plainview Monday to take a patient to the Plainview Sanitarium.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooper is very ill with pneumonia and we hope he will soon recover.

Dick Newsom arrived last week for an extended visit with his mother. Mr. Newsom has been living in East Texas for the past six months.

Miss Sophie Litsch visited her sister, Miss Rosa Litsch in Hereford Sunday and attended services at the St. Anthony Church.

Miss Janelyn Burnam spent the week end with Mrs. R. A. Patton.

Dimmitt is having some real cold weather after all. Snow fell all day Monday.

Mrs. Mayes Miller entertained a few copies with a forty-two party Friday evening. About ten o'clock Mrs. Miller went into the kitchen to prepare refreshments for the crowd, when she heard some noise in the coal house. She immediately called a couple of the boys to see what the trouble was and they discovered a burglar. He had several large lumps of coal stacked outside, but after the boys went out he, for some reason ran away and left them (the coal). The boys chased him about two blocks and we believe had it not been that one of them fell in a mud hole, they would have caught him.

Mrs. Fred Galle is in the Plainview Sanitarium, undergoing an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Etta Brashears has been quite ill the past few days, but is able to be up again.

Mrs. Leonard O'Neil and baby have been sick the past few days with severe colds, but both are now improving, we are glad to state.

Will S. Kerr visited his mother in Canyon Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. A. C. Yokum

Mrs. A. C. Yokum died February 23rd, at her home fifteen miles southeast of Dimmitt. She took sick during the night on Friday, Feb. 22. Dr. Miller was called about seven o'clock and found her in very low condition. Hemorrhage of the brain was the cause of her death.

Mrs. Yokum is survived by her husband, A. C. Yokum, a daughter, Mrs. Bertha Thonton of Summerfield, Texas, and a son, L. Henry Moor, of Petersburg, Texas.

FRIONA

One of our citizens has come in contact with the school authorities for violating the compulsory education act in not sending his children to school. Professors Golden and Noble were called to Farwell Friday as witnesses in the case.

Quite a crowd gathered at the school house Saturday night to attend the picnic given by the Parent-Teachers Association. A literary program was rendered by the school, preceding the picnic. A goodly number of pies were presented and they all sold at a fair price; thus yielding a fair amount of funds which will be used for the various needs of the school.

Frank Woodward, who is one of the progressive farmers of the Friona country and secretary of the local Farm Bureau, has contrived at least one way of beating the high cost of living. Mr. Woodward had a number of dry cow hides hanging in his barn which he said would yield him barely a dollar apiece on the local market. He also found himself in need of a pair of blind bridles, which he found would cost him about five dollars per pair. This was out of all proportions to the price of the raw hides and he refused to pay the price. He went home and took one of the hides down and marked out a pattern of a blind bridle. He then cut it out all in one piece, with the hair still on it. He attached the bit with a slender thong of the hide and had as complete a bridle as can be found in any harness shop in the Panhandle. The hair side of the hide was turned out, which gives it both a nobby and novel appearance. Some of his neighbors thought it was a novelty style gotten out by some large harness factory. Mr. Woodward made a pair of the blind bridles and had enough of the hide left to make several more pairs. There is not one buckle used in the entire pair of blind bridles and the only cash expended by Mr. Woodward was the price of the bit. He has also a pair of belly bands, breast-strops and pole-strops made of the same material which he has been using all winter and which show little signs of wear. Mr. Woodward has also another use for these raw hides. He uses them for half-soiling his boys' shoes. For this purpose he scrapes the hair away with a knife and lays the hide on a solid surface and hammers it out perfectly smooth in order to get all the stretch out of it. It is then nailed to the shoe sole and he finds that one pair of these soles will wear out any pair of shoes.

If sufficient moisture is received in time, there will be a considerable acreage of spring wheat sowed here this year. Some of our farmers are becoming interested in the variety known as Kubanka durum. This variety has never been tried in this locality but has been grown with great success in other parts of the state. It has also been tried in the plains country for the past three years and one grower states that where his common variety yielded ten bushels per acre, his Kubanka yielded twenty-seven bushels. It is said to be the best drought resister known and therefore best adapted to the semi-arid regions of the plains. Neither is it affected by wet weather, being absolutely rust proof.

The rapidly growing interest in hog raising in this locality has caused some of the farmers to contemplate the growing of barley in order to afford an early grain feed for their hogs if weather conditions become such as to justify the planting of the crop.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hart and son, Vay, spent a part of last week visiting at their old home near Floydada. They returned the early part of this week.

A lighthouse, the flash of which can be seen for nearly 300 miles, has just been completed in Paris. It is intended for the new air station and has been under construction for two years. The beam of light thrown from groups of lamps has an intensity of 2,000,000 candlepower. The lighthouse will be set up on Mount Africa, in the east central part of France, as a guiding airplane on the great airways to south and east of Europe.
