JONES & DAMERON HERD HAS CAUSED ATTENTION TO FOCUS ON HEREFORD

BUYERS OF FINE BLOOD NOW LOOKING TO PANHANDLE OF TEXAS FOR IMPROVEMENT OF HERDS EVERYWHERE

RANK THIRD IN SALE AVERAGES

Hereford Journal Figures Give High Place to Local Concern. Second Annual Sale January 25 Will Offer Opportunity Rarely Found for Cattlemen

It has not been so very long ago when breeders of registered and high grade Hereford cattle of the Texas Panhandle went to Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Colorado for their blood when herd improvement was sought. Conditions have changed; the Texas Panhandle has been developing, and with these changing conditions and developments the Panhandle of Texas today boasts of the greatest herds of beef cattle in the world. Today not only is the Texas Panhandle supplying her own needs with the best blood the breed affords, but is supplying many other states as well. In the Jones & Dameron sale a year ago the records show that bulls and breeding cows were bought by breeders from Colorado, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas and other states and were shipped to the very communities where Hereford breeders from Texas once journeyed to secure their sires and breeding matrons.

The January 1st, 1922 issue of The American Hereford Journal, designated as Annual Show and Sale Review Number, discloses some interesting facts relative to the breeding and sale of registered Hereford cattle in the United States. During the twelve months period last year 157 public sales were held and, according to the records, Jones & Dameron, breeders of Anxiety 4th Herefords, of this city, hold fifth place on the high average obtained; they having sold 61 head for an average of $540.00, or total of $32,930.00. The average on these sales as compiled by the Journal include all sales, both the American Royal sale at Kansas City and the International at Chicago. A closer examination of the averages, however, show Jones & Dameron should rank third instead of the fifth place given them by several papers. Mousel Brothers of Cambridge, Nebraska, and Gandreault, Son of Brady, Nebraska, only, ranking above the local herd; and each of these breeders sold less than 61 head of cattle, leaving Jones & Dameron with the record on that number of cattle for 1921. On the top fifty head and with an average of $605.50, they rank above Senator Camden, of Versailles, Mo., who obtained an average of $590.00 and also surpassed E. M. Cassidy of Whiting, Iowa, who obtained an average of $595.00 on forty-two head. Eleven bulls in the Jones & Dameron offering sold for an average of $716.00, more than three times the average price of $215.00 in all other sales paid for bulls in 1921. Fifty females sold for an average price of $501.00, or nearly three times the average price of the females in all other sales last year. These figures show that the Jones & Dameron sale sold for about three times as much money as the average cattle in other sales sold for in 1921.

The second annual sale of Jones & Dameron is scheduled for Wednesday, January 25th, 1922, and is certain to be another record for Texas. This year has announced the sale consisting this year in every way surpasses offering of a year ago; and many content judges have pronounced it the best collection of breeding cattle ever assembled in the South or Southwest. The sale offering includes eight registered bulls and forty-two fancy females of the breeds best blood. The offering is now comfortably housed in the sale barn and is being finished by a capable crew of men. A unique feature of the 1922 sale will be visitation and inspection day. Jones & Dameron have designated the day prior to sale, Tuesday, January 24th, as inspection day when all Hereford and community are invited to visit the barns and inspect the sale cattle. The sale this year, as last, will be conducted by the world famous auctioneer, Col. Fred Reppert, and assistants from Decatur, Indiana.

City Drug Store Under New Owner And Management

The City Drug Store, formerly the Geo. E. Burns Drug Store, is now owned entirely by Dr. G. F. LeGrand, and Rex Tynes, pharmacist, who has been with the Corner Drug Store for the past year or two, is the new manager in charge. This change took effect Wednesday of this week. Mr. Burns sold his interests January 1 to Dr. LeGrand and W. B. Betty, but the trade was held in abeyance. Mr. Betty withdrew, and Dr. LeGrand is now the sole proprietor. It is understood that his sons, George and Louie, may help Mr. Tynes in the handling of the store. Rex Tynes has filled prescriptions in Hereford, off and on, for fifteen years and is too well known to need introduction.

DIMMITT MINSTRELS PLEASE AUDIENCE THURSDAY NIGHT

Dimmitt's Alabama Minstrels delighted a full house at the Star Theatre Thursday night and fully lived up to the reputation of being the best amateur minstrels in this portion of the country. They were sponsored here on this occasion for a return engagement by Hereford's Firemen, who worked hard to make the financial end of the effort a success, and made good. Thanks of the Firemen, the Minstrel troupe and the audience are due Brack Williams' orchestra, which furnished most excellent music throughout. Little Misses Ardele and Erle Marie Foster of Hereford contributed readings and songs which were much appreciated. The Minstrels themselves were splendid. The original program, described in detail in The Brand on their first appearance here several weeks ago, was carried out in the main, with several excellent additions. Our neighbors presented a clean, wholesome, entertaining evening's program that will not soon be forgotten and on which they are to be heartily congratulated.

SCHLENKER PATENT SECURED; OUTLINE GIVEN PUBLICITY

O. C. Schlenker and family of Bovina visited in Hereford last week. Mr. Schlenker, who formerly lived here, obtained a patent October 11 on his "Tire Carrier, Rim Shrinker and Expander" which he has been working on for a long time. The January number of the Scientific American carries a special illustration and description of this patent. Several local people are interested in this invention.

PRINCESS MARY AND HER BEAU

Three Physicians Consolidate For Group Practice

A combination of interests for medical and surgical group work has been formed by three Hereford physicians, Drs. G. F. LeGrand, W. A. Price and J. W. Hicks. The three will have their offices over the Corner Drug Store. The consolidation took effect this week.

All three physicians will continue their general practice, and the surgical work will be divided as the occasion demands. Dr. Price is a specialist in general surgery, while both Drs. LeGrand and Hicks are specialist surgeons in certain lines. The combination will enable the patient to secure any particular attention that is required.

The partnership embraces some ambitious plans for the future that mean much for Hereford. A scientific laboratory, in charge of a trained technician, for the testing of blood, etc., probably soon will materialize, and in time the new association should give Hereford a medical and surgical center second to none in this country. There are thousands of dollars leaving this territory annually for foreign treatment that should be kept at home, and the establishment of adequate quarters, skilled medical and surgical combinations, and laboratory equipment should go far toward securing this desired end.

ILLINOIS MAN HERE TO INSPECT LAND SOUTHEAST TOWN

D. F. Norton, of Timewell, Ill., arrived in Hereford Wednesday morning for a brief business visit. Mr. Norton is the owner of a half section of land southeast of Hereford and is here on an inspection trip.

The visitor stated that financial conditions in Illinois were about on a par with those here, but that bankers actually expected five percent money by spring! Of course, he added, the rate of interest in Illinois is always lower than in Texas. It has been a mild, dry winter up there, said Mr. Norton, with very little snow.

A SECOND LIGHT SNOW HELPS OUT JUST LITTLE BIT

Following the four-tenths of an inch of rain and snow which fell over the Plains country Monday night, another thin snow arrived Tuesday night. It was just enough to cover the ground and was soon gone after the sun came out Tuesday morning.

Since that time the weather has been bright and cold, with snappy nights and sunshiny days.

Farm Loan Bank Ass'n Declared In on Dividend

At the annual meeting of the Hereford National Farm Loan association, held in the county court room Tuesday, January 10, about forty members of the 108 enrolled were present. Chairman George L. Muse presided.

Directors for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Geo. L. Muse, C. C. Bowman, Anderson Witherspoon, W. E. Hicks and C. H. Dyer. These directors will elect a president and a secretary at another meeting within the next ten days.

Dividends were declared at the rate of six percent per annum for the first six months, January to July, 1921, and checks were mailed out immediately to each stockholder.

GUTHRIES RETURN FROM AN EXTENDED TRIP TO MISSOURI

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Guthrie and son, Keith, arrived home from Princeton, Missouri, Monday morning, after quite an extended visit with relatives and friends.

Christmas Day proved to be a merry one. Paul Guthrie, of Austin, Texas, and Bruce and Gwynne Guthrie, of Fairmont College, Wichita, Kansas, and all the relatives gathered for the day.

Mrs. Guthrie says that, owing to inclement weather, only relatives in Princeton were visited.

WILLIAM ALFORD PARSON, EX-SOLDIER, DIES HERE

William Alford Parson, aged 21, passed away at 11:40 p. m. Monday. Mr. Parson arrived here about thirty days ago from the U. S. Bartack located at Whipple, Ariz., and has been a patient sufferer of tuberculosis for several months under the care of Dr. Gabbert.

Mr. Parson has two sisters residing in Hereford, Mrs. Jno. Mooney and Miss Jessie Parson. He was a soldier in the late war. The body was shipped Wednesday morning to Grosbeck, Tex., accompanied by his sisters.

BRUNER HAS SOLD 17 CARS CATTLE TO COLORADO FIRM

Roy Bruner sold seventeen or more carloads of young stock cows Friday to Messrs. Len and C. F. Sherwin, of Sterling, Colo. The Sherwin brothers, it is understood, own a large ranch near Sterling and are purchasing these cows to stock their ranch.

BANQUET SET FOR TUESDAY NIGHT

Chamber of Commerce to Banquet Visitors and Surrounding Farmers at Christian Church. Auction Sale of Hogs at Sale Pavilion Wednesday p. m.

With only three days remaining before the opening of the Panhandle Swine Breeders Convention and Sale, as well as the Hereford Poultry Show, steering committees for both report "ready" with the exception of a few minor details. The Swine committee for the local Chamber of Commerce, consisting of E. W. Harrison, chairman, Leslie Neal and O. W. Brumley, have arrangements completed to handle the convention proper on Tuesday, at the Star Theatre, and the auction sale of hogs at the Sale Pavilion Wednesday afternoon. Secretary Earl Lewis of the Breeders association will arrive Monday to assist in clearing up all missing links. A good attendance of hog men from all over the Panhandle is anticipated, and many speakers of note are on the program, given below.

The feature will be the big banquet at the Christian church Tuesday night, by the Chamber of Commerce for the entertainment of the visitors and local farmers. The Hereford Band will furnish music for the occasion and a comprehensive program, not too long, but full of meat, is in preparation. It is especially desired that surrounding farmers come in for this banquet and hear the speakers discuss hogs and poultry.

The Poultry Show

Nearly 400 birds had been entered in the Hereford Poultry Show up to Friday. Wednesday night the committee went out to Progressive schoolhouse and talked chickens and hogs with the enterprising folks of that community.

Thursday morning Lee Biggs, N. C. Vogele, E. W. Kinney, Ollie Fox, Roy Stocking, J. D. Thompson, J. O. Jenkins, J. W. Houston and others labored hard to erect coops and get the Farmer building in shape to show the chickens. Seventy-nine coops are completed and more are being built, besides the turkey pens. It is hoped to have every detail completed by early Monday morning for the reception of the birds.

Leg bands will be supplied by the committee; birds should be brought in Monday; they will be received at the back door of the Farmer building; owners coops will be tagged, stacked and returned with the birds; birds will be released Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock to the owners; care will be given to feed and handle gently. Road Repair Work Started on Hill Near the Bridge

The very bad stretch of road on the hill south of the Main street bridge is at last being repaired. County Commissioner Bowman informed The Brand Wednesday that he was starting three teams to work on his stretch and would endeavor to put it in as good repair as possible. The white dirt is not being used in the repair work.

This hill has been a bugbear to everyone using it for months and the announcement that it is to be fixed up comes at a time that will be universally popular.

Methodist Missionary Society

The Methodist Missionary Society met Jan. 4th, 1922, at the church for the installation of Officers. The services were opened with song, "Break Thou the Bread of Life," which was followed with prayer by Mrs. J. F. Ward, who lead the devotional. She took her text from II Kings, Chapter II, reviewing the story of the Prophet Elijah and his pupil Elisha. She stressed the thought that Elijah's success was due to three things: 1. Letting God lead him; 2. Taking God with him; 3. Spending some time alone with God each day. An appeal was made to each member of the Society to be like Elisha, ready to take up the "mantle" and thus be better fitted for the Master's work in 1922.

Mrs. G. W. Heard was asked to conduct the installation services, and using the form laid down by the Council, she very impressively installed the following officers:

President, Mrs. J. Frank Potts; Vice-President, Mrs. J. F. Ward; Recording Secretary, Mrs. J. B. Jones; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Roy Stocking; Treasurer, Mrs. H. H. "The Shop Girl's Dream"

I dreamed that I went to Heaven,
'Twas a big department store,
With a wonderful stock of merchandise
And a boss that never got sore.
And customers there were plenty,
To buy from us all day;
We never had a parson yell,
"That's more than I want to pay."
None ever returned a purchase
No credit book we had;
They'd say how much they liked it,
To try to make us glad.
The size would always fit them
But for a trifle change;
Alterations were satisfactory,
Now wouldn't that sound strange?
We sold to every customer,
For each one wished to buy;
They liked the style and quality,
'Twas perfect in their eye.
They each had model husbands,
Who liked the queerest mole;
And never kicked at prices high;
They thought the values good.
They never tries our patience,
'Til we were tired down,
And then walk out: "I thank you,
But I believe I'll look around."
So I was sad when I wakened
And found that it was no more;

Now, wouldn't it just be Heaven
To work in such a store?

ANOTHER INFANT INDUSTRY NEEDS HELP

It is rather disturbing to note the possibility that the print paper "infant industry" may lose out in its effort to get a tariff that will shut out all print paper from foreign parts. It seems that there are Republicans as well as Democratic congressmen who are willing to let the paper spruce trees of Germany and Sweden and even Russia compete with our own rapidly disappearing spruce trees.

Of course, print paper manufacturing is no infant industry in America. And nobody claims it to be. Hence reference in the foregoing paragraph is to the infant industry of profiteering of which the American print paper manufacturers gave us such an excellent exhibition up to a year or so ago. Our spruce forests have been rapidly disappearing into the pulp vats of the said paper manufacturers until, towards the end of the war, it became apparent that there would be a shortage of paper. Thereupon, the prices of paper, which had sold from 2 to 3 cents a pound, was rapidly shoved up to 6 cent, 10 cents and even as high as 18 and 20 cents a pound.

Take it from us, the profiteering that was done in paper over two or three years was one of the most gorgeous things you ever saw in American business! Then Sweden and Norway and Germany began shipping paper to this country to sell for as low as 4 cents—and still cheaper, if necessary. That killed the paper profiteering industry for the time being.

Now, the silver-tongued profiteers are asking for a good stiff tariff to prevent the pulp paper from foreign spruce woods to come to this country. Such a tariff would enable them to advance prices again at will.

Why stop a gallant profiteer from soaking every man, woman and child who buys a paper?

WHY DEBS WAS PARDONED

A good many editorial writers are printing columns of analyses of Brother Daugherty's long statement of his reasons for recommending Debs' pardon. Being a lawyer, Brother Daugherty didn't give the real reason in bald, blunt English sentences, and the editorial writers, although they know the reason, prefer to beat about the bush also.

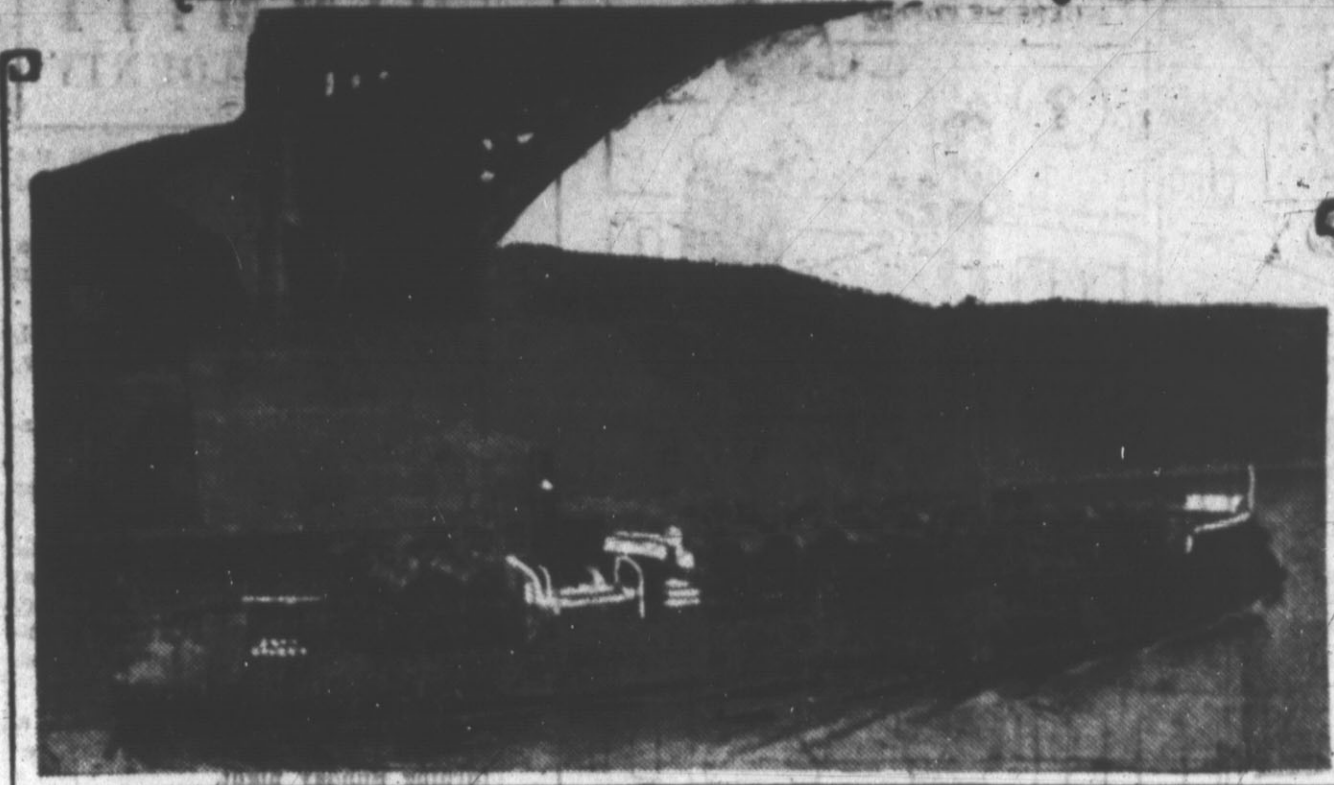

The real reason?
Precisely this: the American government preferred not to give the extremists a chance to make Debs a martyr.

Both Debs and his friends wanted him to remain in prison at least two or three years longer. You see, there are millions of foreigners in this country who are easy picking for smart American agitators and the latter were rapidly making the foreign brother—and sister—feel that Debs was very badly treated by "the rotten American government."

Then, too, there are lots of simple Americans who think little and who carry their hearts on their sleeves. These are willing to believe more in the fact that "Debs is SUCH a kindly man" than they were willing to believe in the law and the Constitution of the land.

Debs didn't get his fervent wish. Sad to say, they ousted him from jail before he could be thoroughly martyred. Inasmuch as a free, well-fed jailer doesn't produce large jobs of sympathy, we believe you'll find the good-natured Mr. Debs will be rather peeved for quite a while just because he couldn't continue to sleep under prison auspices.

HONEY PHILOSOPHY FOR 1922

Nothing is quite as interesting as human nature. If you have a large correspondence with men you never met, here's a formula by which you can tell how old your correspondents are: The young man knows everything; the middle-aged man suspects everything; the old man believes everything. This rule has exceptions, as every rule must have, but the exceptions are apt to be geniuses. Hence, if you don't want to be a commonplace young man, don't think you know everything; if you don't wish to be classed as a commonplace middle-aged man, don't be suspicious of everything; if you would be an out-of-the-ordinary old man, don't believe everything.

From the People

On a recent visit to the Jones & Dameron ranch, located about six miles east of Hereford, Texas, I was greatly surprised to see their fine herd of registered cattle, and the splendid equipment they have for breeding and taking care of this fine breed of cattle.

The ranch is ideally located, and is supplied with running water from the Tierra Blanca creek, which runs entirely thru the ranch. This herd of cattle contains some of the most famous Herefords in the United States, and when buyers congregate here on January 25th to attend the big auction sale of the Jones & Dameron cattle, they will meet with many surprises.

The sale will be held in the big new sales pavilion of the Hereford Breeders Association, which seats more than 1,000 people.

The home on this ranch deserves considerable comment. It is so complete and homelike in every respect that I was moved to investigate the meaning of it all. The secret came out when I learned that Mrs. W. E. Dameron had planned a complete overhauling of the house, and the wonderful taste she exercised in doing this was a revelation to me.

Dear Brand:

At the solicitation of your "fair reporter" I am attempting to write up a recent trip to Plainview and Lubbock.

I went over with the delegates to the railroad convention, Messrs. Harrison and McDonald, both princes of good fellows. Had a puncture or two on the road to Plainview. But Eske knows a thing or two and gets there ahead of time. I must admit I lost a few years growth and have some grey hairs from the excitement of bumps, but the top of the car held me firm, but left some carbuncles on the top of my cranium. But thanks to his skill we got in on time "with head erect and tall over the dashboard."

Then the banquet. Then the enthusiastic railroad meeting in the courthouse, that was taxed to seat the crowd. It seemed to me that every county in this part of the state was represented.

hand with old friends; "tought all our battles over again, and thrice we slew the state."

Now, Mr. Editor, if this gets into prints my next will be a regular oration or a something that will make State Press take notice.

This is all,
Uncle John Estes.

TWO TURKEYS ARE WORTH MORE THAN 5,000 LBS. MAIZE
 A very interesting comparison of the price of turkeys and maize heads was brought to light a few days ago, when turkeys were selling above 35c a pound and maize heads at $7.50 a ton.
 A woman from the country brought in two turkeys, which she sold for $17.50 cash. That day maize heads were selling around $7.50 a ton, hence she got as much for the two turkeys as a farmer would have gotten for nearly 5,000 pounds of maize heads.
 The turkeys were raised about the farm, and doubtless were not very much trouble, nor did the feed on which they were raised cost but a few cents. The farmer who raised the maize had to plow the land, plant the seed, cultivate the crop, cut the heads, and bring it to town—all of which is hard work. The woman had very little invested in the turkeys or in the house where her fowls roost; the farmer has thousands of dollars invested in the farm and the machinery with which he farms. The woman brought the turkeys to town in an automobile quickly and with little trouble; the average load of maize heads we are told weighs about 1800 pounds, hence the farmer had to haul the three big wagon loads of maize heads to town, taking him and his team maybe three days to do so, to get the same amount of money the woman did for the two turkeys.

 The raising of turkeys and chickens on the Plains is due to become a great industry, for there is more clear money in the poultry business than there is in row crops and wheat. The farmers are becoming more and more interested in poultry, and though nearly one hundred solid carloads of chickens, turkeys and eggs have been shipped out of Plainview this year, the industry is in its infancy, and in a few years we predict will amount to one thousand cars a year. A county in California, not nearly so well adapted to the growing of poultry, as is the Plains, last year shipped $16,000,000 worth.—Plainview News.

PLAINS EXHIBITS DESIRED FOR BIG FORT WORTH SHOW

DRUNK SAVES MEN FROM SURE ARREST

A lucky drunk which caused a gang of bootleggers and a deputy sheriff's posse to miss connections, after the latter had waited for the former all through a bitterly cold night, enabled the booze runners to escape the clutches of the law and get through with sixty quarts of contraband moonshine, occurred near Quitaque last Friday night.

It is related that last Friday Deputy Sheriff Christian of Turkey was tipped off that a party of Quitaque bootleggers would that night pass through with sixty quarts of whiskey.

Mr. Christian organized a posse of men, and went out and barricaded a bridge on the road over which the bootleggers would travel.

The officers waited all through the cold night, but the booze runners failed to appear. At daybreak, they decided that the tip was a "bum steer," and went home to thaw out.

Later it was learned that the bootleggers had gotten on a drunk and laid out on the prairie all night a few miles from the waiting posse. The next morning, after the officers had abandoned the watch, the bootleggers went on their way, unconscious of their narrow escape from arrest.—Hall Co. Herald.
