UWDSC: positive report

The United Way of Deaf Smith County has reached 15 per cent of its goal, according to reports made at the first report meeting of the fall campaign held Tuesday at the Caison House.

"This is great after just 12 days," said UWDSC President Lewis McDowell at the meeting. "We're ahead of last year at this time." The UWDSC has a goal of $150,000 to benefit 12 member agencies.

Several groups and businesses have already made their contributions to the UWDSC drive, which will continue through October. Many have exceeded their contributions made in 1990, including:

-Southwestern Public Service, where employees have given $3,500;

-Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative, whose employees have pledged $2,100;

-Arrowhead Mills, where employee gifts so far have totaled $3,183, over $1,000 more than last year, and a substantial corporate gift higher than in 1990.

Something to Believe In--United Way of Deaf Smith County

--White Implement is 100 percent and its pledges are higher than last year.

Kyla McDowell, UWDSC executive director said pledge cards will be turned in this week at Frito-Lay, and the contribution there is also expected to be larger than last year's.

McDowell said several challenges have been mounted this year, including a contest between employees of the City of Hereford and Deaf Smith County. A special challenge has also been made to employees of area feedlots by Lloyd Olson of Cattle Town.

"We've always had great participation by the feedlots, but not always from a lot of the feedlot employees," McDowell said. "We hope Lloyd's challenge will spur them on."

Deaf Smith General Hospital employees will receive their pledge cards this week and will also be hearing a special program, said Division Chairman Susan Hennessey. Any group or business wishing to have a special United Way program, including a video presentation, may call the UWDSC office at 364-5220.

Most division chairmen said their cards have been distributed, but others will be distributing the rest of their cards this week. A pledge card will appear in the Sunday Brand this week.

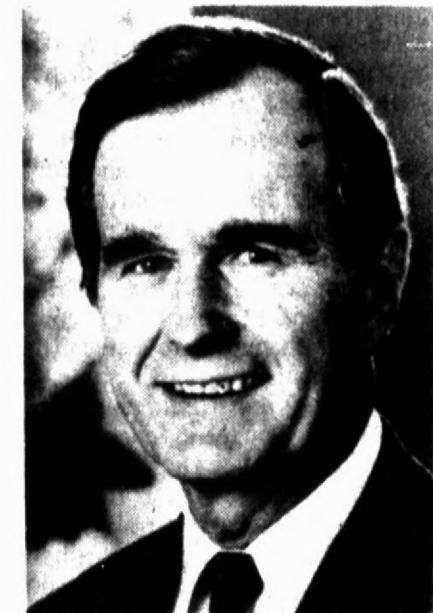

Agencies benefiting from the UWDSC campaign will be the Red Cross, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Boy Scouts, High Plains Epilepsy, Girl Scouts, Family Services, Children's Rehabilitation Center, Salvation Army, Rape Crisis/Domestic Violence, Senior Citizens, YMCA and Camp Fire.

We've got the beat

Percussionists with the Hereford High School Mighty Maroon Band keep up the beat during a recent halftime presentation. The band is hoping for a little drier halftime this week as they continue to prepare for their contest show, featuring the music of Andrew Lloyd Webber.

Patriots returning to Saudi bases

BUSH
...checking options

WASHINGTON (AP) - Six months after the end of the Persian Gulf War, the United States is sending forces back to Saudi Arabia - nearly 100 Patriot anti-missile missiles and more than 1,300 soldiers to operate them.

Pentagon sources said Tuesday the Army troops and their weapons would begin leaving for the gulf today from an air base in Germany to bolster the kingdom's defenses.

The move came as President Bush warned Iraq to stop harassing United Nations inspection teams. Iraqi troops Tuesday for the second straight day detained 44 U.N. inspectors searching for evidence of Iraq's nuclear weapons program and the U.N. Security Council demanded their release.

Bush condemned Baghdad's "unacceptable behavior," warning

Iraqi President Saddam Hussein that he "ought not miscalculate" how the United States will respond.

Last week, Bush said he was ready to send U.S. warplanes and combat helicopters to protect flights of U.N. inspectors in Iraq if Saddam remained defiant.

On Tuesday, Bush and Secretary of State James A. Baker III kept up intensive contacts with allies at the United Nations and elsewhere as part of what appeared to be a last effort to resolve the impasse in Baghdad through diplomacy.

Bush talked by telephone with French President Francois Mitterrand and said afterward they were united in their determination that Saddam "not make a mockery out of the U.N."

"There's a lot of consultations going on," said Bush.

Iraq still possesses 'several hundred' Scud missiles, like the ones used in the Gulf War.

But the movement of the Patriots appeared to signal U.S. determination to once again safeguard Saudi Arabia should an air war or other hostilities resume against a recalcitrant Baghdad. The Patriots played a spectacular role in foiling Iraqi Scud missile attacks during the Gulf War.

The Pentagon sources, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said the deployment of the missiles was worked out in discussions between U.S. and Saudi military officials.

The Saudis requested the weapons as tensions heated in the gulf region because of Saddam's refusal to cooperate with U.N. inspectors searching for nuclear, chemical and biological warfare weapons and facilities.

White House spokesman Marlin Fitzwater has said Iraq still possesses "several hundred" Scud missiles of the type used against Saudi Arabia during the Gulf War."

On Pentagon official said the U.S. contingent will be made of two Patriot missile battalions. Each battalion will have 48 missiles and will be accompanied by 690 soldiers.

The official said the Patriot forces are based at Ramstein Air Base in Germany and they would leave over a period of days and that a formal announcement was expected "once the deployment starts."

AIDS panel: no national leadership

WASHINGTON (AP) - The National Commission on AIDS warned today that a growing indifference to the AIDS epidemic and continued lack of national leadership is making a bad situation worse.

In its first comprehensive report, the 2-year-old commission listed more than two dozen recommendations, topped by development of a national AIDS plan to identify priorities and resources needed to fight the disease and health care coverage for all Americans.

"Our nation's leaders have not done well," the report said. "In the past decade, the White House has rarely broken its silence on the topic of AIDS. Congress has shown leadership in developing critical legislation, but has often failed to provide adequate funding for AIDS programs."

"Articulate leadership guiding Americans toward a proper response to AIDS has been notably absent," the report said.

The commission's primary recommendation was that universal health care coverage be provided for all people living in the United States. However, the panel said that was a long-term goal and that more immediate steps need to be taken.

These steps should build on existing programs, such as Medicaid, Medicare and the Ryan White Comprehensive AIDS Resources Emergency Act, which provides money for areas hard-hit by the epidemic, the panel said.

The commission, whose members were appointed by Congress and the White House to advise national leaders on AIDS policy, often has been critical of the federal efforts to address the crisis.

In previous, shorter reports it has warned against complacency in the face of AIDS and has urged President Bush and Congress to ensure that the needs of people with the AIDS-causing human immunodeficiency virus, or HIV, are met.

The message in this report is essentially the same.

"It's to say: Mr. President, get out there in a leadership position and indicate that we have a steadily mounting crisis on our hands and that we need to roll up our sleeves and hit it directly," said Dr. David E. Rogers, vice chairman of the commission.

New investigation launched at WTSU

CANYON (AP) - Not only has the state auditor refused to rescind a critical report of West Texas State University, he has broadened the investigation into the school, authorities say.

The report released in April touched on federal and state student loan funds, endowments and scholarships. That audit is now the object of a grand jury investigation, prosecutors confirmed Tuesday.

Randy Sherrod, criminal district attorney of Randall County, said last month that possible charges could include the commingling of designated funds and misapplication of fiduciary funds. Designated funds are monies a university receives to be used for a specific purpose.

Auditors found WTSU failed since 1987 to raise matching funds for a $1.5 million endowment from energy czar T. Boone Pickens, former chairman of the university's board of regents, and Mesa Limited Partnership.

Pickens demanded that State Auditor Lawrence Alwin withdraw his report. Alwin refused.

WT President Barry Thompson said Tuesday that the auditors are examining the school's auxiliary accounts, but he said he could not comment about the current audit until it is complete.

"I hope this puts the long investigation and audit at an end upon the completion of this final part of the audit so we can get on with the positive business of the university," Thompson said.

'Scarlett' hits the stores today

ATLANTA (AP) - Employees at a bookstore in the hometown of "Gone With The Wind" author Margaret Mitchell donned antebellum costumes early today to greet customers who snapped up the first copies of the sequel.

About 300 people lined up outside one store for copies of "Scarlett: The Sequel to Margaret Mitchell's 'Gone With the Wind.'" Some 900,000 copies of the sequel, written by Alexandra Ripley, were shipped to stores for today's nationwide release.

"I just have to see what happens to Scarlett," said Kenneth Nix, who drove three hours from Dublin, Ga., and waited five hours for a B. Dalton Bookseller to open at midnight.

Costumed store managers served pecan tarts and mint julep punch. The store planned to stay open until its 1,000 copies are sold or until customers stopped coming.

It gave away paperback copies of "Gone With The Wind" and sold the hardback version for $3, the price when it was published in 1936. "Scarlett" lists for $24.95.

Cathy Hart headed to the cash register with four copies of "Scarlett," and four of "Gone With the Wind."

"It's part of my heritage, the continuing saga of Scarlett, Rhett and Atlanta," she said.

Mitchell's epic story of the romance between Scarlett O'Hara and Rhett Butler has sold more copies than any book except the Bible. It won the Pulitzer Prize.

The sequel runs 823 pages, about 200 less than the original. Ripley was chosen by Mitchell's estate and her style follows Mitchell's closely, with much of the action taking place from Scarlett's point of view.

Ripley keeps Scarlett moving: from Melanie's funeral in Georgia, to an attempted reconciliation with Rhett in Charleston, to a journey to Ireland and the start of a new life.

Does Scarlett find a way to get him back? You won't find out until the last few pages.

Debate raged over the appropriateness of a sequel by anyone other than Mitchell, who died in a 1949 car accident. Several Atlanta authors have denounced the sequel.

"When bad reviews start coming in, I could say they won't bother me, that's a lie; they will bother me," Ripley said Tuesday. "I'm just hoping to get more good reviews than bad reviews."

Ripley keeps Scarlett moving: from Melanie's funeral in Georgia, to an attempted reconciliation with Rhett in Charleston, to a journey to Ireland and the start of a new life.

Does she get Rhett back?

Read the book.

"The consensus I've heard from customers is they're interested in deciding for themselves," said Jim Enright, publicity coordinator for Borders Book Shop in Atlanta.

In Charleston, S.C., Rhett's hometown, Chapter Two bookstore placed its largest order ever: 1,200 copies, saleswoman Kelly Koester said.

In Seattle, people started reserving the book two months ago and 150 copies were on hold, said Dawn Martin, assistant manager at a Waldenbooks.

Atlanta's Oxford Book Store had 1,500 advance orders for the book, a figure boosted by Ripley's scheduled book-signing Sunday, said sales manager K.C. Culbert.

Ripley, 57, who has written three historical romance novels, says a sequel to her sequel is possible. But she doesn't want to write it.

Three persons arrested Tuesday

Hereford police arrested a man, 31, on a warrant for bail jumping and failure to appear on Tuesday.

Reports included an assault on U.S. Highway 60 east, where one person hit another at a club; a neighbor filed charges against a man over his barking dog in the 300 block of Sunset; burglary of a building, with $150 worth of goods taken, in the 200 block of Sixth; burglary of a business, with $85 taken, in the 900 block of First; forgery and passing in the 600 block of McKinley; and domestic violence assault in the 400 block of Ave. H.

Police issued one citations Tuesday.

Sheriff's deputies arrested two persons Tuesday, including Fred Gonzales, 17, who was charged with five additional counts of burglary of a building; and a man, 29, on a warrant for theft over $20 and under $200.

Deputies are investigating a case of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, where a man hit his wife in a dispute south of the city; a stolen flatbed trailer; and a vehicle parked along the right-of-way in the San Jose area was towed away.

Hereford volunteer firefighters responded to a barn fire a little after 10 p.m. Tuesday four miles west and a half-mile south of Hereford. A small barn was destroyed in the fire.

Lions Club sale is Saturday

The Hereford Lions Club will hold its annual benefit garage sale Saturday from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the old service station at the corner of U.S. Highway 385 and Park Ave.

A variety of goods will be for sale. All proceeds will benefit projects of the Hereford Lions Club.

The extended forecast for Friday through Sunday: mostly clear. Lows around 50. Highs in the mid 70s.

This morning's low at KPAN was 42 after a high Tuesday of 70.

News Digest

World/National

UNITED NATIONS - Iraq gives written permission for U.N. overflights, but troops in Baghdad still surround international monitors videotaping documents said to show Saddam Hussein is developing nuclear weapons.

WASHINGTON - Six months after the end of the Persian Gulf War, the United States is sending forces back to Saudi Arabia - at least 100 Patriot anti-missile missiles and more than 1,300 soldiers to operate them.

WASHINGTON - President Bush could have a chance as early as next week to veto Democratic legislation providing up to 20 weeks of benefits for the long-term unemployed.

WASHINGTON - The National Commission on AIDS warned today that a growing indifference to the AIDS epidemic and continued lack of national leadership is making a bad situation worse.

DAMASCUS, Syria - Jack Mann, sadly fragile and aged after 28 months as a captive, leaves for England today after his release from the dungeons of Beirut. The head of a group close to the kidnappers says Israel must make the next move to keep up the momentum in a step-by-step exchange.

ALGIERS, Algeria - In another step toward U.S.-brokered Middle East peace talks, PLO leaders have reluctantly endorsed such a conference and are urging the Palestinian National Congress to go along. But hard-liners are urging Chairman Yasser Arafat to reconsider.

DEER LODGE, Mont. - Inmates rampaging through a state prison ignored trapped guards huddled in a shower room, intent instead on finding and killing jailhouse informants housed in protective custody.

ATLANTA - Employees at a bookstore in the hometown of "Gone With The Wind" author Margaret Mitchell donned antebellum costumes early today to greet customers who stayed up until the wee hours to grab the first copies of the sequel.

Texas

AUSTIN - A lower court's action to declare the state's redistricting plan unconstitutional was halted by the Texas Supreme Court. The move by the state's high court on Tuesday followed a request by Texas Attorney General Dan Morales to stop an upcoming trial on the redistricting measures before State District Judge Mario Ramirez of Edinburg.

GRAPEVINE - An archaeological expedition to find Noah's Ark turned into a chilly three-week ordeal after Marvin Wilson was kidnapped by Kurdish rebels. "I wouldn't recommend this kind of vacation," Wilson said Tuesday after his arrival at Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport. The 49-year-old Garland man was among five Westerners freed Friday in Turkey. He was welcomed at the airport by a dozen family members and co-workers carrying a banner.

BROWNSVILLE - An electronics company exposed pregnant employees to hazardous chemicals - a negligent practice that led to birth defects and even death among their children, a lawsuit says. Many women who worked at the Mallory Capacitor Co. plant in Matamoros, Mexico, during the 1960s and '70s experienced miscarriages and stillbirths, according to the suit filed Monday.

AUSTIN - A lawyer for most of the counties that sued the state over jail overcrowding says she is reviewing a settlement proposal offered by Attorney General Dan Morales. Morales' proposal was unanimously approved Tuesday by Harris County commissioners.

WASHINGTON - A House subcommittee chairman says it's unlikely the panel will approve legislation by Kansas lawmakers to lift airline restrictions on an airport near downtown Dallas. Rep. James Oberstar, D-Minn., said Tuesday the proposal wouldn't pass the House Public Works and Transportation subcommittee on aviation "unless an overwhelming case is made and it hasn't been made yet."

HOUSTON - Outspoken community activist the Rev. Jew Don Boney will face Garnet Coleman, the son of a political power broker, in a runoff election to select a successor to the late state Rep. Larry Evans.

SAN ANTONIO - For the first time, a federally-funded AIDS study center won't be located at a university. The National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases is providing a three-year, $1.8 million grant to the Southwest Foundation for Biomedical Research in San Antonio.

FORT WORTH - A man who murdered and mutilated a female roommate then mailed a photograph of the body to True Confessions magazine was sentenced to life in prison. Lawrence Barfield, 40, was sentenced in the dismemberment and slaying of Veronica Stone, 21, with whom he shared an apartment in suburban Grapevine.

AUSTIN - A 38 percent increase in the number of violent offenders committed to the state's juvenile corrections agency has put a "significant strain" on the system, officials said. Violent offenders sent to the Texas Youth Commission increased from 313 in fiscal year 1990 to 431 in 1991, executive director Ron Jackson said Tuesday.

AUSTIN - A Brenham State School official who received a pay hike in violation of state law will lose that raise, but will be allowed to keep the money she has received since the raise took effect nearly two years ago, officials said.

EL PASO - A man killed in his home apparently put up a fight before he and his mother were stabbed numerous times, but police said the assailant likely did not break into the home.

Kiwanis Club honors two

Bartley Dowell, center, and Chris Leonard, right, were honored recently as Kiwanians of the Month by the Hereford Noon Kiwanis. President Paul Hamilton, left, presented them with caps honoring them for their service to the club throughout the year. Dowell is the club's secretary, and Leonard is treasurer.

Drug charge against juror may be cause for new trial

HOUSTON (AP) - Lawyers for Wanda Holloway, who was convicted of trying to hire a hitman to secure a cheerleading spot for her daughter, say one of the jurors on the case should have been disqualified because of a pending drug charge.

Defense attorneys Troy McKinney and Stan Schneider on Tuesday filed for a new trial for Mrs. Holloway, based in part on the qualifications of juror Daniel Enriquez, 30.

"This is a very unusual circumstance and not only the prosecutors, but the judge and we did not notice this," McKinney said.

Enriquez pleaded guilty to cocaine possession in 1988 and was serving a deferred adjudication sentence that required community service and probation time.

Texas law prohibits convicted

Spellers pointing to April 11

AMARILLO - For the 44th year, the Amarillo Globe-News will sponsor the National Spelling Bee for students in grades eight and below.

Joining the newspaper in this educational program is West Texas State University, and serving as bee coordinator is Gene Parker, office of career planning and placement. The area assigned the two sponsors covers 37 counties in the Texas Panhandle, parts of New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Bee director in Deaf Smith County is O.G. Nieman, publisher of The Hereford Brand. He has served since 1985.

Rules established by the national sponsors, the Scripps Howard Newspapers, state that no student in a grade higher than the eighth or older than 16 by end of the current school term may compete. The bee is open to any student in a public, private or parochial school. Directors in each county are responsible for scheduling their own county eliminations.

There are two levels of competition: The Junior Bee is for students in the fifth and lower grades; the Senior Bee is open to students primarily in grades six through eight.

Each county's junior and senior winners will be guests of the sponsors on April 11, 1992 - the date of the Regional Bee on the campus of WTSU. The winner in that competition will represent the sponsors in the National Bee in Washington, D.C., beginning on May 25, 1992.

Any interested student or teacher should contact the director of additional information, or contact Jeane Bartlett, Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, Box 2091, Amarillo.

In most counties, students use the booklet prepared by the national sponsors, "Words of Champions." This booklet is available from Mrs. Bartlett for only 50 cents each and may be ordered by contacting her at the newspaper, Box 2091, Amarillo 79166.

"The suggestion has been made by at least one staff member that perhaps we got 'out-lawyered.' I am not willing to concede that until I talk to the prosecutors," Holmes said.

State District Judge George Godwin scheduled a hearing for Nov. 7 on the motion for a new trial for the Channelview homemaker.

"There were things we needed to come out that Judge Godwin would not let come out, so the jury could not see what was coming," Mrs. Holloway said Tuesday.

Godwin did not allow two women to testify that they, too, were approached by Terry Lynn Harper, Mrs. Holloway's former brother-in-law, about finding a hitman for her.

Harper, the state's star witness, secretly recorded six conversations he had with Mrs. Holloway last January. He testified that she wanted him to find someone to kill Mrs. Heath in hopes that Amber Heath would be so distraught that she would drop out of the spring competitions.

Defense attorneys maintain that Harper and his brother, Mrs. Holloway's ex-husband Tony Harper, conspired to frame Mrs. Holloway to gain custody of the couple's two children, Shanna, now 14, and Shane, now 18.

Meanwhile Tuesday, Mrs. Heath, her husband and daughter appeared on "The Maury Povich Show" with a former drum major for the Channelview High School Falcons. Nancie Carter said she beat out Shane Harper as drum major last year but felt pressured to allow Shane to be more of a co-drum major than just her assistant. She claims her mother told her after Mrs. Holloway's conviction that prosecutors knew

Mrs. Holloway also had sought to have her killed.

Miss Carter testified during the punishment phase of the trial, but prosecutors did not present further evidence of the second alleged murder-for-hire scheme.

All of the principals in the case have since appeared on such television shows as "Inside Edition," "The Phil Donahue Show," and "The Maury Povich Show." In addition, the story is featured on this week's "People" magazine cover. Felons and those with pending criminal indictments from serving on juries.

Schneider said Enriquez answered truthfully a 12-page jurors' questionnaire that asked whether the prospective juror or any member of his family was involved in a criminal case. Enriquez answered "yes" to that question, but didn't volunteer any other information. Also asked if he did any volunteer work, Enriquez answered, "Community service as a condition of probation," according to Schneider.

"I think we need a new trial and this is just one reason," McKinney said. "There also was considerable evidence that the jury was not allowed to hear."

Mrs. Holloway was convicted Sept. 3 of trying to hire a hitman to kill Verna Heath, whose daughter was competing with Mrs. Holloway's daughter for a spot on the high school cheerleading squad. Sentenced to 15 years in prison and fined $10,000, Mrs. Holloway is on $75,000 bond pending her appeal.

"I think it's dumb to try cases over again, whether it's on some technicality or otherwise," said Harris County District Attorney John B. Holmes.

Prison settlement proposal studied

AUSTIN (AP) - A lawyer for most of the counties that sued the state over jail overcrowding says she is reviewing a settlement proposal offered by Attorney General Dan Morales.

"I have hopes that it will be settled," Ann Clarke Snell said of the litigation.

Morales' proposal was unanimously approved Tuesday by Harris County commissioners, said Kevin Mauzy, deputy Harris County clerk. Officials there balked at previous offers to settle jail-crowding litigation.

Ms. Snell represents 11 of the other 13 counties involved in lawsuits against the state because their jails are holding thousands of prison-bound inmates.

She said the settlement proposal contained some changes to a plan that all the counties except Harris approved in June, although Morales said the changes were minor.

Morales said the proposal follows policy of a recent state law meant to end the litigation. He did not immediately sign the proposal on behalf of the state, but sent it for approval to Gov. Ann Richards, Lt.

Gov. Bob Bullock and House Speaker Gib Lewis.

In a letter to Morales, Richards said she supported Morales' efforts to settle the lawsuits.

She said the settlement differed from one considered in June in that it provides more money to counties for handling state inmates, and follows the state law by including the construction of substance abuse facilities.

Travis County commissioners voted for a settlement proposal that they were told reflected the one released to reporters by Morales, said James Collins, director of the civil division of the Travis County attorney's office.

Collins said county commissioners were unable to obtain the proposal from Morales' office before their scheduled meeting Tuesday.

The other counties involved include Bexar, Collin, Dallas, El Paso, Galveston, Hidalgo, Hunt, Lubbock, Montgomery, Nueces, Tarrant and Victoria.

The deadline for signing a settlement is Sunday.

Court delays action

AUSTIN (AP) - A lower court's action to declare the state's redistricting plans unconstitutional was halted by the Texas Supreme Court.

The move by the state's high court on Tuesday followed a request by Texas Attorney General Dan Morales to stop an upcoming trial on the redistricting measures before State District Judge Mario Ramirez of Edinburg.

Last month, Ramirez issued a preliminary court order that the proposed boundaries for congressional, legislative and State Board of Education districts were unconstitutional.

Ramirez said the redistricting plans violated minority voting rights because they relied on the 1990 federal census, which missed about 500,000 Texans, most of whom are minorities.

Ramirez gave the state until Sept. 30 to submit new plans to the court based on adjusted census figures that would compensate for the undercount.

A trial was set to start Oct. 1.

But the Supreme Court stopped any action on the case until it has acted on Morales' appeal of Ramirez' temporary court order.

"Nothing further will happen in regard to that particular lawsuit until the Supreme Court has made a decision in regard to our appeal of the court's temporary injunction," said Ron Dusek, a spokesman for Morales.

In his appeal to the Supreme Court, Morales said that Ramirez did not give the state any standards to use in correcting the undercount of minorities.

In addition, Morales said that according to expert testimony, a state adjustment of the numbers could take months, cost millions of dollars, and result in a count that is possibly less accurate than the official federal numbers.

Meanwhile, candidates for the 1992 elections must file for office between Dec. 3 and Jan. 2 of next year, he noted.

Morales predicted "electoral chaos" if the Supreme Court didn't rule quickly. The high court gave no indication on when it would issue a decision on the appeal.

Lawmakers draw new districts every 10 years to take into account population changes as reflected in the federal census.

The state's redistricting plans also are being challenged in federal court.

The U.S. Justice Department has not yet ruled on whether the plans comply with the federal Voting Rights Act. Justice Department pre-clearance is necessary to ensure the plans do not dilute minority votes.

Morales last week asked a federal court in Washington to allow the state's redistricting plans to take effect for 1992.

Spikers fall to Sandies

The Lady Whitefaces suffered their second volleyball loss of the year Tuesday, losing to Amarillo High in Amarillo 15-12, 7-15, 11-15.

Hereford's record is now 15-2. The loss snaps a string of 12 consecutive matches won by the Herd.

After splitting the first two games Tuesday, the Lady Whitefaces found themselves in a 12-4 hole in the third game, coach Brenda Reeh said. They made a good run to come back, Reeh said, but Amarillo High is a tough team to come back on.

"I think the key to the match was how well Amarillo blocked us," Reeh said. "They blocked us so well that we seldom got more than a couple of kills in a row. Thus we never captured the momentum for very long.

"Defensively, we didn't execute very well at all. Our blocking was terribly inconsistent, and that put lots of pressure on our backcourt. Amarillo did a great job of hitting our line and then throwing in tips to our empty spots."

Shantel Cornelius led the Herd with 15 kills, followed by Brek Binder with nine and Kyanne Lindley and Lori Sanders with four each.

From the serving line, Binder had seven points, including two aces. Kara Sandoval also had seven points, and Teresa added six, including an ace.

Angie Jowell also came off the bench and played well, Reeh said.

The Hereford junior varsity also lost Tuesday to Amarillo High, 1-15, 15-12, 5-15. Michelle Brock led the JV with seven service points.

Hereford starts District 1-4A play Saturday against defending state champion Dumas, there at 2 p.m. Dumas has lost only two matches this season, and both were to Hereford.

Looking for running room

Hereford's Joseph Martinez (77) looks for someone to block to clear the way for Bobby Suarez (22) in the eighth grade Maroon "B" game Tuesday in Hereford. The Herd won 6-0.

NCAA investigating Hogs

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) - Arkansas coach Nolan Richardson says he doesn't mind that NCAA investigators are looking into the university's recruitment of two junior college transfers.

Investigators have talked to sources in Memphis, Tenn., and Levelland, Texas, about the transfer of Corey Beck and Dwight Stewart from South Plains College in Levelland to Arkansas, the Arkansas Democrat reported Sunday.

UA Athletic Director Frank Broyles said Tuesday the school has not been contacted by NCAA officials about the two players.

"I welcome any inquiry about our program or any of the young men we have on our campus," Richardson said Monday in a prepared statement. "We have nothing to hide. In fact, I would be in favor of the NCAA checking all schools from time to time."

The 6-foot-2 Beck and the 6-foot-9 Stewart led Memphis Fairley High School to a 32-2 record when they were seniors in 1989-90.

Broyles said previously that the NCAA contacts schools only if it finds evidence of wrongdoing and that the UA has not been contacted.

"When somebody turns you in, they (the NCAA) go and check it out," Broyles said. "If they don't find anything there, they don't call you. If they do, they call you."

He said he was confident that Arkansas had done nothing improper.

"We're very careful in everything we do. When you're successful, people are going to watch you more closely," he said.

Neither player qualified for an NCAA Division I school after Beck signed a letter of intent with Arkansas and Stewart signed with Washington State. So they enrolled at South Plains and after one year there transferred to Arkansas.

Beck and Stewart must pass 24 hours of college credit this academic year before they will be eligible for athletic aid next season. They can't practice with the team this year, but would have three years of eligibility beginning with the 1992-93 season.

if they meet academic requirements.

Fairley coach Sylvester Ford said Monday that an NCAA investigator talked to him about two weeks ago. Ford said the investigator asked him about the players and why they left South Plains.

"I told him I didn't know," Ford said. "Then he asked me something about when they were going to Fairley, how they were recruited. That's about it."

South Plains basketball coach Ron Mayberry said previously that he'd been questioned by NCAA investigators about the players and their transfers to Arkansas.

"They (Arkansas) have been turned in by somebody. I don't know who. They wouldn't tell me. But it's been more than one (person)" Mayberry said.

Fairley athletic director Ike White said an NCAA investigator interviewed him and that the NCAA is trying to find out why Beck and Stewart left South Plains. "I think the coach there was a little upset about it," he said.

Jones quick to apologize

IRVING, Texas (AP) - Jerry Jones was legendary for his public relations pratfalls when he became the new owner of the Dallas Cowboys.

His handling of Tom Landry's firing drew fire. He then boastfully predicted the Cowboys would win more games in a third of a season than Landry did his last year with the team. That was the season Dallas defeated only Washington.

Then Jones dropped another PR bomb by calling his cheerleaders "the pick of the litter."

It took almost two years for Jones to extract his foot from his mouth.

So, Jones became concerned Tuesday when he thought his football coach was getting too testy when pressed about the lack of production by his wide receivers, in particular Alexander Wright, who has only caught three passes for 41 yards in four games.

"Why don't you (the media) just turn in the lineup cards so we'll know who to play?" Jimmy Johnson said in a half-kidding manner.

Johnson laughed about it but Jones was so concerned he issued an off-hand apology, saying: "I understand Jimmy was a little testy today. When you play the Giants you get testy. But I just want to let you know that the policy of the Dallas Cowboys is you can ask any question any way you want to. That's part of the ballgame. I've been used to that happening to me since the day I got here."

The Cowboys (2-2) play the New York Giants (2-2) in a game Johnson sees as a barometer of how far the franchise has progressed since he and Jones took over three years ago.

"Without question a victory over the Giants would put us ahead of schedule of what people might have expected," Johnson said. "We do have a better football team than what we've had the last two years. There are days when we have setbacks but there is a confidence that what we are doing is on schedule. Deep down the players have confidence that we are doing the right thing."

Johnson said nobody can stuff a team on the line of scrimmage like the Giants.

"Everything is upbeat now because of our (17-9) victory over Phoenix but we have a tremendous challenge in playing the Super Bowl champions," said Johnson, who has yet to beat the Giants. "They are the most physical team in the NFL. Their offensive line gets on somebody and just stays with 'em. Their backs run hard."

"On defense, they don't blitz much but still get a lot of pressure on the quarterback. If you try to run they just engulf the ball carrier."

The Cowboys will be testing the Giants' defense with the leading rusher in the NFL, Emmitt Smith, who gained 182 yards against the Cardinals last week.

Smith has 450 yards on 79 carries to 388 yards on 68 carries by Thurman Thomas of Buffalo.

"Teams will start to concentrate on Emmitt and it will help our offense and we'll be able to open it for Troy (Aikman) and the wide receivers," Johnson said. "In the past we've had some decent games against the Giants."

A's eliminated; Twins, Jays closer to titles

By The Associated Press

The Oakland Athletics are out, the Minnesota Twins are nearly in and the Toronto Blue Jays are a step closer.

With their 5-4 loss to Kansas City on Tuesday night, the Athletics' three-year reign as AL champions officially ended. With 11 games left, Oakland dropped 12 games behind AL West-leading Minnesota, which beat second-place Chicago 9-2.

The victory over the White Sox reduced the Twins' magic number for clinching the division to three. Minnesota can clinch a share of the division title tonight, when they again host the White Sox.

Meanwhile, the Blue Jays increased their AL East lead to two games with a 3-0, 10-inning win over the California Angels. The second-place Boston Red Sox had their game rained against Baltimore and will play a doubleheader tonight.

Royals 5, Athletics 4

Oakland was the first team to win three straight AL pennants since the 1976-78 New York Yankees. The Twins, in 1987, were the last team other than the Athletics to win the AL title.

Danny Tartabull hit his 30th homer for the Royals and Kevin Appier (12-9) allowed eight hits and one run in six innings. Tartabull's first-inning homer off Joe Slauski (4-7), following singles by Brian McRae and Kurt Stillwell, gave the Royals a 3-0 lead that they never lost.

"It's tough to give it up; I mean, it's all over," Athletics manager

Tony La Russa said.

Twins 9, White Sox 2

Scott Erickson had a no-hitter until Dan Pasqua homered in the seventh inning as the Twins moved closer to the AL West championship.

Kent Hrbek capped a four-run second inning with a two-run homer off Jack McDowell (17-10). That was more than enough for Erickson (19-7). He finished with a one-hitter over seven innings.

Mark Guthrie completed the one-hitter with two innings of relief.

Blue Jays 3, Angels 0

Pat Borders hit a three-run homer off Jim Abbott in the 10th inning.

Borders' one-out homer decided what had been a fine display of pitching by Abbott (17-10). Toronto starter Todd Stottlemyre and Blue Jays reliever David Wells (15-10), who worked the final 2 2-3 innings.

Abbott gave up four hits over 10 innings and struck out a career-high 13 with one walk. Stottlemyre gave up five hits, walked two and struck out three before Wells came on in relief with one out and one on in the eighth.

Wells allowed one hit, struck out two, and also picked Luis Polonia off first immediately after coming in the game.

Tigers 7, Indians 2

The Tigers kept their meager pennant hopes alive and Scott Aldred earned his third major league win.

The Tigers broke the game open with four runs off rookie Charles Nagy (10-13) in the first and Mickey Tettleton hit a two-run homer in the fifth.

Aldred (2-3) allowed nine hits in 8 1-3 innings, including Albert Belle's 28th homer in the ninth, before he was literally knocked out of the game by a line drive off the bat of Carlos Martinez. The ball skipped into center field and Martinez wound up with a double. Jerry Don Gleaton came in to get the last two outs.

Brewers 5, Yankees 4

Cal Eldred won his major league debut and Robin Yount tied Babe Ruth for 27th place on the all-time hit list.

Cardinals 4, Expos 3

Catcher Gilberto Reyes,

center

fielder Marquis Grissom, shortstop Tom Foley and pitcher Chris Haney (3-6) made errors that led to four unearned runs for St. Louis.

Omar Olivares (10-6) gave up seven hits in seven innings and Lee

Smith finished for his league-leading 43rd save.

Grissom stole three bases, passing suspended Otis Nixon of Atlanta for the major-league lead with 73.

Pirates 10, Mets 8

Howard Johnson broke his own

NL record for home runs by a switch-hitter with his 37th. Daryl

Boston added a grand slam for the Mets, but Pittsburgh got 17 hits.

Frank Viola remained winless in nine starts since Aug. 8. Bob

Patterson (4-2) pitched two scoreless innings.

Phillies 4, Cubs 2

Andy Ashby (1-4) won for the first time in six major-league starts, allowing three hits in seven innings.

Mitch Williams finished with one-hit relief for his 29th save.

Mike Bielecki (13-11) lost, allowing four runs and six hits in five innings.

Eldred went 5 1-3 innings, allowing seven hits and three runs. Eric Plunk (2-5) was the loser.

Milwaukee led 4-0 by the third inning with the help of Paul Molitor's double and Yount's 2,000th career single. Yount is the 37th player in major league history to have 2,000 singles and the hit was his 2,873rd, tying him with Ruth.

Rangers 8, Mariners 7

Brian Downing singled in Gary Pettis from second base with two outs in the ninth inning.

Pettis singled with one out and moved to second on pinch-hitter Jack Daugherty's infield out off Mike Jackson (7-7). After Jackson hit pinch-hitter Rob Maurer, Downing singled.

Jeff Russell (6-4) got the victory by pitching the ninth after blowing his 10th save in 38 opportunities in the eighth, when the Mariners tied the score by scoring four runs.

Goldthwaite's Graves excels both ways

By MIKE DRAGO

Associated Press Writer
In an era of football specialists, Cody Graves still does it all for the Goldthwaite Eagles.

The 5-9, 160-pound senior, who starts and stars at running back and defensive back, carried nine times for 188 yards and touchdowns of 24, 28, 24, 11 and 97 yards during a 63-0 crushing of Winters Friday night.

If that wasn't enough, Graves intercepted two passes, returning one 96 yards for a touchdown, and returned a punt 50 yards to set up another score. The effort earned him mention in The Associated Press Schoolboy Honor Roll.

"I don't know if we've ever had anyone score six (touchdowns)," said coach Gary Proffitt, who's in his 12th year at Goldthwaite. "He just had a good game and made some things happen."

It's not the first time Graves has made things happen for the Eagles. In addition to averaging over 100 rushing yards, he has two interceptions in each of Goldthwaite's three games. Last year he ran for 504 yards and Goldthwaite finished at 10-2-1.

"He's a very determined type athlete," Proffitt said. "He works hard outside our regular routine and he's a real sharp young man. He's not one of our captains, but I still feel like he provides a great deal of leadership."

Michael Ross of Carrizo Springs also stars on both sides of the ball.

During last week's 41-13 victory over Hondo, Ross scored on touch-down runs of 6 and 3 yards in addition to returning a punt 68 yards for a score. On defense, the 5-9, 175-pound junior intercepted two passes and made six solo tackles.

"He started for us last year and he's really come along," said Carrizo Springs coach Don Tate. "We feel like Michael's going to be a blue-chip player."

In other outstanding individual performances:

- Houston Lamar's Kweli Thompson ran for 222 yards and touchdowns of 2 and 28 yards in a 33-21 victory over Houston Washington.

- Clinton Baker of Eden carried 20 times for 222 yards and scored on a 2-yard run and a 39-yard pass in a 34-28 victory over Rocksprings.

- Waco running back Jay Johnson carried 33 times for 205 yards and a touchdown in a 30-19 victory over Marshall.

- Jamie Smitherman of Sabine completed 17 of 22 passes for 379 yards and touchdowns of 6, 23, 21 and 75 yards in a 46-20 victory over Hawkins. Sabine receiver Josh Teague caught nine passes for 179 yards and three touchdowns.

- Pampa tailback Sammy Laury carried 18 times for 213 yards and two touchdowns in a 35-20 victory over Dodge City, Kan.

- Junior Gomez of Stratford rushed for 239 yards and two touchdowns in a 35-7 victory over Gruver. Gomez also kicked three extra points and scored on a two-point conversion run.

- Spearman's Tim Dooley carried 25 times for 225 yards and touchdowns of 36 and 83 yards in a 49-0 victory over White Deer.

- Chris Smith of Paducah ran for 233 yards on 22 carries and scored two touchdowns, including an 85-yard kickoff return, in a 13-8 victory over Quanah.

- Adam Stanley of Vidor passed for 266 yards and two touchdowns in a 28-24 upset victory over No. 6 West Orange-Stark.

- Efrain Ponca of El Paso Bowie scored on touchdown runs of 38 and 86 yards in a 22-13 victory over Las Cruces, N.M. Ponca carried 20 times for 230 yards.

- Fred Coleman of Tyler Lee caught seven passes for 181 yards and three touchdowns in a 31-30 loss to Richardson Lake Highlands.

- Derrick Blakemore of Alton carried 28 times for 260 yards and touchdowns of 23, 1, 9 and 45 yards in a 32-0 victory over San Augustine.

- Charles Thomas of Elkhart carried 30 times for 257 yards and three scores in a 32-14 victory over Shellyville.

- Albany's Johnnie Hudman rushed for 214 yards and four touchdowns on 13 carries in a 49-0 victory over Knox City. Hudman's scores were for 62, 37, 6 and 28 yards.

- Glenn Winship of San Antonio Alamo Heights completed 22 of 30 passes for 356 yards and three touchdowns in a 41-22 victory over Pleasanton. Winship also ran for scores of 5 and 9 yards.

- Detron Smith of Richardson Lake Highlands carried 21 times for 231 yards and three touchdowns in a 31-30 victory over Tyler Lee.

- Cornerback Donnie Bell of South Garland made nine tackles and intercepted three passes, including one he returned for a 31-yard score, in a 49-7 victory over Richardson Pearce.

- Corpus Christi Calallen quarterback Cody Danaher carried 19 times for 206 yards and two touchdowns in a 46-7 victory over Kingsville. He also passed for 145 yards and two scores.

- John Cortez of Corpus Christi Carroll booted field goals of 27, 26 and 51 yards in a 52-16 victory over Victoria Strom.

Collins, Joe honored by SWC

DALLAS (AP) - Texas Christian's fall workouts have drawn an unusual number of railbirds to watch the undefeated Horned Frogs practice.

And a lot of them are professional scouts.

They don't come to see Jim Wacker's "triple-shoot" offense. They come to watch defensive end Roosevelt Collins.

"The pros have been drooling over Roosevelt since he was a sophomore," said sports information director Glen Stone. "They believe he'll be a tremendous play maker."

Collins will never make a play bigger than the one he did in TCU's 24-21 victory over Oklahoma State.

Collins earned The Associated Press Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week award for his tackle on the two-foot line as the game ended.

Collins had six tackles and three quarterback pressures against the history in the 47-21 victory.

"Now J.J. is becoming the complete quarterback," Teaff said. "He can read defenses and he's got a great passing arm."

The sophomore from Arlington Lamar eventually became the starter for Baylor last year and took the Bears to two victories before he broke a hand. He completed 43 of 73 passes for 714 yards before that happened.

In high school, he took Lamar to a 28-6 record as a starter.

But he never had a passing night like he did against Missouri.

"This was his best game ever in passing," Teaff said. "He just gets better and better every week."

Joe said he is starting to get the hang of the Chuck Reedy offense.

"There are a lot of ways we can attack a defense," Joe said. "If they gang up to shut down the run then we can hurt them deep."

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Please print this response to "Class of '73" who felt inadequate when he compared his success to that of his college classmates.

My husband is probably one of the guys he admires. We have moved six times in 10 years, always for a better paying, more prestigious job. Each move requires establishing new friendships and becoming part of the community. I dream of staying in one place long enough for my children to develop ongoing relationships, but I know it will never happen.

We drive the BMW that "Class of '73" admires as a status symbol. Actually, we have two. Sounds wonderful? Not really. What I wouldn't give for a husband who is satisfied with his job, his salary and the city we live in. My husband's lucky that I am committed to keeping our family life strong and loving. Some days I feel like throwing in the towel. I envy your wife, Mr. "Class of '73." —K.B., Anytown, U.S.A.

DEAR ANYTOWN: What a poignant letter. A great many readers

Social Security gets new number

"The Social Security Administration (SSA) will change its toll-free telephone number as of October 1, 1991," Jim Talbot, Social Security manager in Amarillo said today. The new number is 1-800-SSA-1213.

"We are giving early notice so that people will not be taken by surprise when they call," Talbot said. "We want people to be on the lookout for it and note the change before they have to use it," he said.

The SSA number change resulted from Congressional legislation that requires Federal Government agencies to convert to a new telecommunications system called "FTS 2000." Since the new system is managed by a different service carrier than the agencies had used in the past, SSA had to change its toll-free number.

Talbot said that since its nationwide implementation 2 years ago, the 800 number service has become a popular option for people who have Social Security business. Callers find that their requests can be handled easily, conveniently, and expeditiously by phone. In many instances, their business can be completed at the time of the initial call. Recent studies show that more than two-thirds of the 800-number callers prefer using the telephone over having to visit a Social Security office in person.

SSA also offers a telephone response unit that uses an automatic script to speed the processing of certain routine requests. Using a pushbutton telephone, you can request an application for a Social Security number; obtain a request form for a Personal earnings and Benefit Estimate Statement; request written verification of the amount of your Social Security benefit or Supplemental Security Income payment; order publications; and listen to general information about the Social Security programs.

With the assistance of a teleservice representative at the 800 number, you can change a mailing address, make an appointment to apply for benefits, also were moved and eager to tell their stories. Read on:

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I could identify with "Class of '73." I've worked for the same company for more than 30 years. I drive an 11-year-old car and have lived in the same house since 1970. I also have three daughters who are in high school and college.

It was my daughters who helped me appreciate the good life we have. They feel lucky to have grown up in the same house and to have the same friends they've known all their lives. One daughter worried when I bought a lottery ticket. She told her mother, "Wouldn't it be awful if Dad won?" I like the way we live and I'd hate it if we suddenly became rich." I stopped buying lottery tickets.

Our daughters are better educated than their parents. They do not smoke, drink or do drugs. They are good students and fine human beings. Take a look at the children of some of those fast-track successes. Can the same be said of them?—Content in Maine

From Richmond, Va.: This is for

"Class of '73": Unfortunately, society rewards people who get rich, not the ones who choose to concentrate on family life. Our priorities and values leave much to be desired.

Long Island: I was a big shot in high school and everyone was sure I was headed for fame, power and riches. Well, here I am, 31 years old, not driving a BMW but a school bus. And how do I feel? Terrific! I love what I do and wouldn't trade places with anybody.

Schaumburg, Ill.: My advice to people who think the fast track is the way to go: Forget it. I chose that route and it hasn't made me or my family happy. The more money I make, the more we spend. It's a vicious circle. I'm saddled with a huge mortgage and we do a lot of meaningless stuff to keep up appearances. If I had it to do over again, I'd do it differently.

Goodwill, Okla.: I'm a professor at a small state college. Some of my former classmates are executives at big companies like Dow Chemical, but I wouldn't trade places. I've had the pleasure of seeing some of the little fish in this small pond become whales and it's great. I drive a 4-year-old Nissan and a 50-year-old Packard and feel pretty darned good about who I am.—James W. Hill

Gilliland in cast of ALT musical

The Amarillo Little Theatre begins its 64th season with the Tony Award-winning Musical "Big River." Included in the cast is Amy Gilliland of Hereford.

"Big River" "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," written by Roger Miller (King of the Road) and William Hauptman, received seven Tony Awards in 1985 including "Best Musical of the Year," "Best Musical Book," and "Best Musical Score."

"Big River," one of Broadway's most recent releases, brings Mark Twain's classic characters, key themes and essence to the stage in a highly entertaining tuneful package.

"Big River" is not merely a tale of Huck's adolescent adventures. This story of the spirit of the American wilderness captures its audience in bringing Twain's novel to life through the evolving respect, admiration and love between Huck and his companion in flight, the runaway slave Jim.

Cast members for "Big River" include Andy Meadows as Huck, Sylvania Jeffery as Jim, Tim Crump Jr. as Tom Sawyer, Don Shipman as the Duke and Carl Cox as the King.

The show is scheduled for Sept. 26, 27 and 28 at 8 p.m. and Sept. 29 at 2:30 p.m. Also Oct. 3, 4, and 5 at 8 p.m. and Oct. 6 at 2:30 p.m.

The motto In God We Trust first appeared on U.S. coin in 1864.

The word "bicycle" is a combination of a Latin and a Greek root: bis is Latin for twice and kylē is Greek for circle.

Snacks fun, good to eat

By The Associated Press

When kids come home from school, they're hungry for a snack. Here are two treats that are easy to make and fun to eat: Tuna and Cheese Sailboats and Choco Yogo Cones.

Tuna and Cheese Sailboats

One 6 1/2-ounce can chunk light tuna, packed in water

1-3rd cup plain, low-fat yogurt

1/4 cup chopped celery

Pinch ground black pepper

2 pre-sliced hot dog buns

4 slices American cheese

Open can of tuna; drain off water.

Place tuna in a bowl; break into small pieces with a fork. Add yogurt, celery and pepper; mix well.

Break each hot dog bun apart into two separate halves. Make boats by carefully pulling out some of the bread from the middle of each half, leaving a 1/4-inch thick shell.

Fill the boats with the tuna salad.

Diagonally cut two of the cheese slices into halves to form four triangle sails. Stick cheese sails into the tuna salad, or use large wooden toothpicks or coffee stirrers as the masts for the cheese sails, and stick them into the tuna salad. Cut the remaining two slices of cheese into smaller pieces (any shape) to decorate the boats. Makes 4 boats.

Choco Yogo Pudding Cones

One 3.4-ounce box instant chocolate pudding mix

1 cup low-fat milk

One 8-ounce container low-fat banana yogurt

6 flat bottom ice cream cones

1 small banana

Colored sprinkles

Combine pudding mix and milk in a medium bowl. Stir until smooth.

Stir in the yogurt until well blended. Wait 5 minutes. Fill each cone halfway with pudding. Cut the banana in slices; put six aside for decoration. Place a few banana slices on the pudding in each cone. Spoon the rest of the pudding over the bananas. Top each cone with a banana slice and colored sprinkles, if desired. Fill the cones just before you're ready to eat them. Any pudding that's not used should be kept in the refrigerator. Makes 6 cones.

New Arrivals

Jim and Amy Douthitt of Indianapolis, Ind. are the parents of a son, James Griffin Douthitt. The boy weighed 8 lbs., 3 oz.

Proud grandparents are A.T. Griffin of Canyon; Rosie Griffin of Dallas, both are former Hereford residents and Bob and Jean Douthitt of Tulsa, Okla.

CLASSIFIED ADS

Classified advertising rates are based on 15 cents a word for first insertion ($3.00 minimum), and 11 cents for second publication and thereafter. Rates below are based on consecutive issues, no copy change, straight word ads.

TIMES	RATE	MIN
1 day per word	.15	3.00
2 days per word	.28	5.20
3 days per word	.37	7.40
4 days per word	.49	9.50
5 days per word	.59	11.00

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Classified display rates apply to all other ads not set in solid-word lines-those with captions, bold or larger type, special paragraphing; all capital letters. Rates are $4.15 per column inch; $3.45 an inch for consecutive additional insertions.

LEGALS

Ad rates for legal notices are same as for classified display.

ERRORS

Every effort is made to avoid errors in word ads and legal notices. Advertisers should call attention to any errors immediately after the first insertion. We will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. In case of errors by the publishers, an additional insertion will be published.

HOMELAND AND APPLES ARE BACK IN SCHOOL

Homeland is proud to announce the return of our "Apples for the Students" program. This year's program will run thru March 14, 1992.

Homeland started the "Apples for the Students" program in October of 1988 and has been committed to education since that time. We are pleased to announce that $4.1 Million in equipment and software has been placed in your schools by Homeland Stores.

MORE THAN COMPUTERS

This year, in addition to computer equipment and software, there will be some great new products available. Such products as: Magnavox Televisions, Magnavox VCR's, Magnavox Camcorders, Wilson Sporting Goods (Basketballs, Baseball Equipment, Soccer Balls and Much More), plus Compton's and Britannica encyclopedias.

START SAVING THE GREEN RECEIPTS NOW!

If your school has not participated and you have questions, please contact Anita Young at (405) 557-5553 or simply drop a note in the mail to her at P.O. Box 25008, Oklahoma City, OK 73125. She will be happy to assist you.
