Due to Hot Mayoral Race

By JERI CURTIS

Staff Writer The Hereford High School Band won its 24th consecutive "one" rating at regional competition Saturday in Canyon. "I thought the kids performed about as well as they have all year," Randy Vaughn, director, said. "Of course our big goal is to do well at the contest. Personally, I thought the contest was a little bit easy, but I was very proud of the kids."

The band received rave reviews from the three judges, themselves directors of high school bands.

O.T. Ryan, Plainview, wrote on his judging sheet, "A great performance...congratulations to a super band and directors...I really enjoyed it..great flags...fine to watch."

Leslie Ross, Mission, said, "Nice job on the show in all facets...I am again very impressed with the full sound that is filled with vitality..congratulations to all of you."

Clyde Wilson, Midland, wrote, "Only minor flaws mar this truly fine performance..congratulations."

Although the band received top ratings in all categories, the chance to go to state has been dimmed by a bureaucratic hangup. Vaughn said he found out Saturday that if a school

Redistricting Board To Make Decisions

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) -Texas lawmakers will get a clearer glimpse of their future today when the Legislative Redistricting Board starts making decisions on new boundarylines for House and Senate districts.

The five-member board has two Senate plans and two House plans to consider. After a two-hour Monday session at which Comptroller Bob Bullock and Speaker Bill Clayton laid out House plans, the board decided to wait until today to start voting.

Bullock, Clayton, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong and Attorney General Mark White have until Wednesday to complete the job.

Clayton upset some of his fellow Democrats with the House plan he proposed. Rep. Carlyle Smith, D-Grand Prairie, said the Clayton plan urban hurts white, Democrats.

"It appears he is on the same program he was on for congressional redistricting," Smith said, referring to Clayton's support of a congressional redistricting plan that favored Republicans. "I understand what has happened. I just don't understand

The board got the House redistricting task when a judge said the plan approved by the 1981 Legislature cut across too many county lines.

Clayton's House plan would eight districts that would include two incumbents. Bullock's House plan has nine pairs. Both plans probably would add three minority representatives to the House.

Clayton proposed only one pair involving a Republican Jerry Cockerham of Monahans would have to run against Big Spring Democrat

Several of those pairs include House members who probably won't run again. Clayton has said he would not seek another term. Adkisson is considering a race for the state senate. Semos might run for the Dallas County

Bullock's plan, which Smith said is more positive for Democrats, includes nine pairs, including Clayton-Laney and Willis-Webber.

Here are the other seven pairs in the Bullock plan (all are Democrats unless otherwise noted):

London and Smith Gilley. Greenville; Jerry Clark of Buna and Larry Browder of Coldspring; Tim Von Dohlen of Goliad and Robert Saunders of LaGrange; Don Rains of San Marcos and Terral Smith, R-Austin; Gary Thompson and Walter Grubbs, both of Abilene; Wolens and Lanell Cofer, both of Dallas; and Alan Schoolcraft and Jim Nowlin, both Republicans from San Antonio

Stocking Fund Plans Finalized

The Christmas Stocking Fund committee held an organizational meeting Monday afternoon to make plans for the second year of Christmas sharing with less fortunate people in the community.

The volunteer organization was started last year, and citizens contributed almost $5,000 to the fund to help make Christmas brighter for needy families in the community.

The Brand receives the contributions and publishes a list of the gifts, with names listed unless donors wish to remain anonymous.

The CSF committee Monday named Ben Childers as secretary-treasurer. Other members will remain anonymous. Plans for the fund drive will be announced in mid-November.

"I want to vote with the president ... I think it's a test of leadership," Dole said in an interview on ABC's "Good Morning America."

"I still haven't made up my mind, but I think I'm going to vote for the sale," he said. Dole noted that the planes would not be delivered for four years, giving the president "plenty of time to pull the plug if something goes awry in the Mideast." He also said the arms sale "has gotten to the level of presidential leadership ... I think it means a great deal with the death of (Egyptian President Anwar) Sadat, with the trouble in Iran, the trouble in Lebanon, for the world to know we support our president's foreign policy."

Following Dole's remarks, the current Associated Press tally shows 53 senators against the sale.

City Buys Insurance

The Hereford City Commission, after delaying the decision for a week, awarded the city employee insurance bid to Blue Cross of Texas yesterday in a special session of the city fathers.

City Manager Dudley Bayne said that of the six insurance bids, the one from Blue Cross was lower than that of any company represented locally.

Rates for the Blue Cross insurance were listed as $42.70 for the employee's insurance, $81.43 for employee and children, $110.06 for employee and spouse, and $124.31 for employee and family. The city will pay for the employee's insurance.

Other bids submitted in clude those from Atkins Insurance, New York Life, Pan American Life, Contin Life Insurance, and Republic National Life.

Protests Won't Remove Missiles

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) - Anti-nuclear demonstrations by more than 850,000 West Europeans are not going to change NATO's decision to deploy American nuclear missiles in Europe, a senior U.S. representative at the alliance's headquarters reports.

The official, who asked not to be named, said the protests expressed the opinion of "a fairly substantial number of Europeans."

But he said that would force "no change of attitude" by the members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization toward the planned deployment of medium-range American nuclear missiles in Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands, West Germany and Italy to counter Soviet missiles already in place and targeted on Western Europe.. However, the Belgian and Dutch governments have not agreed to accept the missiles on their territory, and British officials foresaw that growing Dutch opposition to the deployment might force modification of the plans.

The Dutch Labor Party, a member of the outgoing coalition government, adopted a resolution over the weekend opposing the missile deployment. "If the Dutch do not finally accept the missiles, we will obviously have to revise the deployment," said a British source in London who asked not to be identified.

U.S. officials have said if Belgium or the Netherlands rejects the missiles, other locations would have to be found for them or the number to be deployed would have to be reduced.

According to NATO figures, the Soviet Union has deployed 750 SS-20 warheads targeted on Western Europe. To balance this, the Western alliance agreed two years ago to deploy 572 cruise and Pershing II missiles in Western Europe beginning in 1983.

Two Arrested In Manager's Death

DALLAS (AP) - Authorities say "luck and good police work" resulted in the Houston arrests of two suspects in connection with the slaying of a Dallas city executive who also served as a volunteer police chaplain.

Warrants for two Louisiana men were issued in Dallas Monday after their arrest in Houston for minor traffic offenses.

Municipal Court Judge R.L. Middleton issued the warrants for Sherman Lyons, 18, of New Orleans, and Robert Wayne Paulus, 19, of Metairie, La. The warrants seek the return of the two men to face capital murder charges. Middleton set bond at $15,000 each.

J.C. Bristo, 57, was found shot to death in his apartment Sunday after a newspaper carrier discovered the door ajar.

His 1979 Oldsmobile station wagon was missing and police said robbery may have been a motive.

Dallas police spokesman Bob Shaw said the two men were arrested Monday by Houston authorities as a result of "luck and good police work."

Bristo had been shot once in the forehead, investigators said. He last was seen by co-workers Friday afternoon. A Dallas County medical examiner's spokesman said Bristo appeared to have been dead since Friday night.

He had been manager of Redbird Airport since 1977 and a city employee for 12 years, said Ken Kenvin, assistant director of the city's aviation department.

Bristo was a former Church of Christ minister and for 11 years had served as a volunteer chaplain for the Dallas Police Department's northwest division.

Lawmakers Praise Longtime Senator

PARIS, Texas (AP) - A.M. Aikin Jr., Texas' longest serving legislator, was eulogized as a friend, a gentleman and a leader by lawmakers who flocked to his Northeast Texas hometown to pay their last respects.

Aikin died Saturday at age 75. Funeral services were held Monday at the First United Methodist Church, where friends and family gathered to remember the soft-spoken former legislator.

A memorial service for Aikin was scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Thursday in the Senate chamber.

"So many times I heard him stand on the Senate floor and say, 'I want you to meet one of the best friends I ever had." said U.S. Rep. Jack Hightower, who joined former state Sen. A.R. "Babe" Schwartz in eulogizing Aikin.

"He said it and he meant it," Hightower said, adding that many people, in turn, could call Aikin "the best friend I ever had.'

Texas Agricultural Commissioner Reagan Brown remembered the former dean emeritus of the Texas Senate as "one of the kindest gentlemen I have ever known."

Closing Arguments

Heard In Ector Trial

MIDLAND, Texas (AP) - A federal judge says he will hand down a decision this week in a 10-year-old desegregation suit filed against the Ector County School District.

Testimony in the trial ended Monday and attorneys for both sides presented their final arguments.

The suit, filed in 1970 by the Justice Department and a citizen's group, contends the Odessa school system has discriminated against black and hispanic students by maintaining segregated schools in violation of the 14th Amendment.

Attorneys for the school district deny the allegations and say the system operates on the "neighborhood school" concept.

Visiting U.S. District Judge Fred

Shannon of San Antonio said he will consider the evidence today and may hand down a decision by Wednesday.

The major issue in the trial has been whether Odessa's segregated schools are the result of discriminatory acts by the school district, said Joseph Rich, a Justice Department attorney.

A school board member testified Monday that parents want equal education while maintaining neighborhood schools.

TI Says Pay Cuts

Caused By Strike Loss

HOUSTON (AP) - Revenue losses caused by the air controllers strike have led Texas International Airlines to cut salaries of about 600 management employees by 5 to 15 percent, officials said.

The move, effective Nov. 15 and scheduled to continue at least through March 31, will be followed by other "programs to offset general economic problems in reduced service levels caused by the air traffic controllers' strike," officials said in a press release distributed Monday.

The work week will also be lengthened from 40 to 48 hours for those employees, the company said.

"Any time you take such steps as these, there are some people who recognize them as legitimate and some who do not," said spokesman Bruce Hicks. He declined further comment.

The airline's earnings report for the third quarter of 1981 is due in a week. Texas International's parent company, Texas Air Corp., won President Reagan's approval to take over Continental Airlines Oct. 12 after a bitter battle between the companies.

The purchase required the president's sanction because international routes were involved.

The bid which was accepted by the court from E&C Interiors Consruction, Inc. of Amarillo, was later rejected when the company changed hands and was unable to honor the bid. The court then decided to re-advertise for bids, and called for District Judge Wes Gulley to find an architect to provide specs for the job.

Ensign's firm was secured by Judge Gulley for that purpose.

The architect told the commissioners that the extra measures were entirely optional, but that he felt they needed to be done in order to alleviate the problems experienced in the court room.

The commissioners questioned the need for a new lighting system, citing its high cost. Ensign pointed out that the proposed new system would increase lighting in the area of the judge's bench and jury box while decreasing it in the spectator area.

He also added that the new lighting, which would be recessed fixtures, would be less of a fire hazard.

After discussing the merits of the other additional work, the court agreed to advertise for the jobs as per the specifications presented by Ensign, and to open the bids at the court's meeting on Nov. 23.

While apparently making progress toward settling problems with the district court room, the county fathers are still in limbo over needed improvements to the county jail as required by the state.

Butcher said a survey showed that 26 stations were needed to comply with jail standards requirements for the jail, and that another station would be needed when the recreation area was built.

Ann Landers Get Help At Once

DEAR ANN LANDERS: As I write this my little boy is lying on the couch under an icebag. His face is as red as a beet and the skin is broken in a few places where I slapped him. When he gets stubborn or has a tantrum, I become so angry I can't control myself. I have hit like this several times before, even though I know it is wrong.

I read your column every day and have read your advice to look in the phone book under child abuse. I looked and there is nothing in this town. (Population 3,000).

When this boy was born four years ago, I really didn't want him but my husband was crazy about children and insisted that I have a family. I have always hated this kid, which is a terrible thing for a mother to admit, but it is true. His daddy died two years ago and, thank God, I don't have any others. I am a rotten motner.

Many times I have thought of giving up the boy for adoption. I know there are many couples who would love to have him. He is very smart for his age and darlinglooking. But just when I get ready to put my hand on the phone, I tell myself, "Don't do it. Keep him and learn to be a good mother."

I live 1,500 miles away from my own family. I have a good job and work 50 hours a week. Please tell me what to do.-Telling It Like It Is In Kansas

DEAR TELLING IT: My heart aches for that little boy on the couch. And for you, too. I know the guilt must be killing you. You MUST get help at once. Call Parents Anonymous immediately. They may be able to give you a local number to contact in your area. The toll-free number, in every state except California, is 800-421-0353. Another alternative: Write to the National Center on Child Abuse and Neglect, P.O. Box 1182, Washington, D.C. 20013, for information and help. I see by your enelope that you are not too far from Topeka, Kans. If there is no Parents Anonymous group in Manhattan, Kans., try Topeka and Kansas City. Good luck.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My beautiful, brilliant son, Jerome, waited until he was 37 to get married. He took out so many beauties, and for a wife he picked a very plain girl who has a Ph.D. in economics but doesn't know enough to hangup a dishrag. It's always in the corner of the sink.

She has such a high opinion of herself she thinks she can hold down a job and keep house and cook, too. On Sundays she likes to make supper. Her steaks are either bleeding or burned black. The vegetables are mushy. Her homemade bread is so bad I wouldn't touch it again. Once it pulled out my lower dentures. This Ph.D. doesn't have a needle in the house. Yesterday at my nephew's bar mitzvah Jerome come with a cuff pinned together. No button.

When I saw it I almost had a hart attack. He is such a good person, he said, "It's not important, Mama, she's a wonderful girl." (I ask you, is that a saint?)

Should I have a talk with my daughter-in-law and offer to teach her a few things?-Only His Mother

DEAR MOTHER: Obviously Jerome is happy with his life, so I suggest that you keep quiet. Your offer to help may be interpreted as criticism or maybe even butting in. Some husbands don't care where the washrag is, and missing buttons don't bother them either. Be happy that Jerome is happy. And, as my wonderful Jewish grandmother used to say, "Don't

4-H'ers Study Energy

By PENNY REINART Assistant County Extension Agent

Energy consevation is a major objective of Americans as they look at energy sources to fuel their comfortable home life.

Participants in the national 4-H automotive, electric energy and petroleum power programs are studying and applying successful concepts for wise and cost-effective use of energy. 4-H is the youth program of the Extension Service.

In automotive, supported by The Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., 4-H members learn ways of improving fuel mileage through safe driving habits and automotive maintenance.

The 4-H petroleum program, sponsored by Amoco Foundation, Inc., encourages young people to learn energy conservation techniques in powering farm machinery, lawn, garden and recreational equipment. They also gain knowledge of various fuels, their safe storage and

In electric energy programs, supported by Westinghouse Electric Corp., 4-H members experiment with efficient ways of using electric energy and promote energy conservation in their communities. Tours of electric power plants also help increase their awareness of heave energy demands in their communities.

Project activities range cars and provide power for a from preparing energyefficient and nutritious meals to making simple solar > devices. Many boys and girls, nine to 19, in these programs have helped their families make significant dollar savings in energy use.

Incentives provided by Firestone, Westinghouse and Amoco are available to outstanding 4-H'ers in each program. All three companies provide medals of honor to four county participants and an expense-paid trip for one 4-H'ers in the electric energy and petroleum power programs and eight in the automotive program receive $1,000

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

I don't know about you, but I find a great deal of comfort in knowing there is a wife and mother on the Supreme Court of this land.

It gives us that edge and we need it the way things are progressing. I suspect it will be only a matter of years before this judicial body is faced with a monumental decision regarding the American family: Does a bedroom occupied by a child give the child ownership and jurisdiction for the rest of his life? Or does it legally belong to the parents to make available at their terms?

It's a question that has been argued between mother and child for as long as I can remember..usually with a door locked between them.

With the coming and going these days of grown children, parents are confused. When do you take a bedroom off the market and convert it to something else? Are there house rules on who occupies the bedroom and how many and what. heir marriage status is? Who enforces health standards? Is a locked door a right or a challenge?

Knowing how slowly the wheels of justice move, I would like to introduce the 28th amendment to the Constitution: the Bedroom Rights Amendment (BRA).

I only hope this is written obscurely enough to be taken seriously: "THE LAW SHALL DECLARE THAT AS LONG AS PARENTS OCCUPY A DOMICILE, THE BEDROOM IS A PART OF THAT DOMICILE AND THE RULES ACCORD-ED THE ROOM ARE WITHIN THE JURISDICTION OF THE PARENTS.

If a parent grants rights to live in said bedroom then the bedroomee must sign the following document of consent: Anything that dies in the room must be buried before the

Newcomer Gets Involved With Hereford CowBelles

Elaine Mies, the 1979 State CowBelle of the Year, is the Brand's featured newcomer of the week. She and her family reside at 1919 Plains.

Elaine's husband, Bill, is employed by Friona Industries in general management of the feedyard division. He is responsible for commodity hedging and the lean beef program.

The couple have two children. Betsy, a fourth grader at St. Anthony's Catholic School, is 9-yearsold. Patrick, who is 5-and-ahalf, attends kindergarten at the school.

"We enjoy doing things as a family," Elaine said. "Our latest project is learning how to play Backgammon." The family enjoys riding bicycles and swimming.

"My husband and I enjoy playing bridge and Bill likes to play golf," the newcomer said. Their children are involved in gymnastics. They all enjoy reading.

We like living in a small town like Hereford. We grew up in small towns. We think the people here are very friendly and it's a good place to raise our children," she from the University of Illinois and she received a BS degree in education, the couple married and moved to Bozeman, Mont. While there, he earned his master's degree in animal science at Montana State University while she taught the seventh grade. She taught her two favorite subjects-English and history.

In 1967, the couple moved to Columbia, Mo., where he attended the University of Missouri and obtained his PHD in animal science. While there, Elaine taught civics at the junior high school.

In the 1970's the Mies' brought two Texans into world. While Bill was working with Dowell Chemical in Lake Jackson, Tx. as a research nutritionist, their two children were born in Houston. Then in 1976, the family moved to Amarillo, where Bill was director of Texas Tech Research Feedlot at PanTex.

While living in Amarillo, Elaine was named the 1979 Texas CowBelle of the Year. She was nominated by the Golden Spread CowBelles. At the time of the nomination, she was serving as beef education chairman of the Amarillo unit.

Elaine had developed a slide story about CowBelles and a puppet presentation which she thinks helped win her the award. She said she had great cooperation from tee on the project, which made it much easier for her. She also had a box of biproducts from beef that she used in the puppet presenta-

A CowBelle since 1977, Elaine says she is very impressed with the Hereford CowBelles. "It is a fun, enthusiastic group," she commented. At a recent meeting, she was appointed as a delegate to the State CowBelle convention to be held in November.

In the Mies home is a beautiful doll encased in a glass box. She said it was given to Bill when he made a trip to Japan as a feedlot consultant for the United States Feed Grains Council. He first went in 1979 and then returned in 1980 on a special invitation from Japanese officials. On the trip, he wore his Western hat and boots and the Japanese he was in contact with said they really liked that.

While visiting with Elaine, it is obvious that she enjoys doing cross stitching crewell samplers, as she has several in her home. One says, "Only Robinson Crusoe Could Have Everything Done by Friday." She said the kit was given to her by two friends "because they knew me so well and the

Municipal League Supports Propositions

By MACK SISK Associated Press Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) - Delegates planned to end the 69th Texas Municipal League Convention today by officially endorsing two constitutional amendments appearing on the Nov. 3 Texas

The TML's resolutions committee was to present for a vote measures backing Proposition 1, designed to stimulate investment in urban areas through a tax incentive plan, and Proposition 4. which would establish a dedicated fund for water projects from state budget surpluses.

Austin Mayor Carole Keeton McClellan, outgoing president of the organization, and Lubbock Mayor Pro Tem Alan Henry of Lubbock, president-elect, joined 99 other Texas mayors Monday in endorsing the water fund as critical to maintaing healthy water and sewerage facilities in Texas towns and

San Antonio Mayor Henry Cisneros and 19 other mayors were to appear at a news conference today to speak in behalf of the urban investment amendment prior to the afternoon vote on resolutions.

Mrs. McClellan termed "absolute nonsense" a statement by the Texas State Teachers Association in Austin earlier Monday that passage of the water fund could set education back 100 years in Texas.

"And I say that as a former teacher. If education had not had the same kind of dedicated funds (as sought in the water amendment), it would not be where it is today in Texas," she said.

TSTA President Brunham Robinson said in Austin that Proposition 4 would authorize the spending of an amount of money that could equal $350 a year for every man, woman and child in Texas for the next 25 years."

But Mrs. McClellan said it would save localities money by allowing them to sell bonds at lower rates of interest, and that the could legislature "interrrupt" the flow of state funds at any time another priority arises.

The way to raise taxes, the surest way to do it is not to plan now - put it off as long as possible," Mrs. McClellan said. "A few vocal figures are sticking their oars in the water issue and talking a lot of nonsense."

Sen. Lloyd M. Bentsen Jr., D-Texas, who spoke to the opening general session Monday, pledged to the Texas city officials that he would fight efforts by Frostbelt states to deny Sunbelt states their fair share of a shrinking federal

"...When you're slicing up a smaller pie, it becomes important to see that it is fairly divided," Bentsen said. "We must make an extra effort to end the petty, grasping regionalism that has become a part of life in Washington these days." Bentsen said Frostbelt states of the Northeast and Midwest have banded together in a coalition, with a paid staff, to try and win a greater share of federal expenditures for their aras by changing to their advantage the formulas for allocating federal funds.

In the past, there has been a controversy as to whether a soft tissue injury (sprains, strains, muscle pulls or bruises) should be treated with heat or cold treatments. The generally excepted opinion today, is that cold treatments (ice packs) are the best methods of treatment. Ice packs retard the pain and swelling associated with soft tissue injuries, while heat aggravates these symptoms.

District Meet Looms For Whiteface Harriers

By MARC HERRING Staff Writer

All the marbles, the works, or however a person wants to say it, is up for grabs this coming weekend as the has a good chance to win the Hereford Cross Country team prepares for the district meet at Lubbock.

The team, led in the girls' division by Dana Cabbiness,

Whiteface Spikers To Face Monterey

The Hereford Whiteface volleyball team, on the verge of winning the second half title, will host the Monterey Plainswomen this afternoon at the high school gym at

The spikers, who are 2-0 in second half play, and a game up on first half winners, Coronado, need victories in their last two games to force the Mustangs into a playoff for the district title.

The last game of the season will have the Herd traveling to Plainview to go against the Bulldogs.

Hollinger Wins First In Brand Football Contest

Five entries in the Hereford Brand Weekly Football Contest made bids for the money last week by missing only five games in the field. The top spot and $25 goes to Gerry Hollinger of 804 Columbia by picking closest to the tiebreaker total score. Second prize of $15 was captured by Joani Kalka, edging out George Loerwald by one point on the total score of the tie-breaker. Loerwald takes the $10 third prize. Honorable mention goes to Allen Brown and Wendell Burdine who also missed five games, but had larger than needed total scores on the tie-breaker.

Each of the three top entries missed the Tascosa-Pampa, So. Carolina-No. Carolina, Cincinnati-New Orleans, and San Diego-Chicago games. Hollinger missed the New England-Washington games, Kalka missed the Kansas City-Oakland game while Loerwald missed the Los Angeles-six games were Ben Bryant, Tonya Redwine, Keith Kalka, Jennifer Johnson, Jim Marsh, Dempsey Alexander, Vernon Kosub, John Jennings, Larry Wartes, Darrel

distict, although the Coronado Mustangs look better on paper. For the boys, George Arroyos and Fernando Carrasco lead a team that, if healthy, can win the race as

In the last meet tuneup for the district competition, Cabbiness won her division at the Tulia Invitational Meet with a new personal best of 12:15 for the two mile course. Yolanda Alaniz showed a new look for this meet as she was the second Hereford runner to cross the finish line with a time of 12:49.

Other Whiteface runners included Kellie Howell with a time of 12:56, Olga Alaniz with a clocking of 13:21, Linda Sermino in 13:38, Allyson Thomas with a time of 14:11 and Michelle Osborn with a time of 14:44.

Molly Keating continued to burn up the course in the junior varsity division, as she raced to a first place finish in 12:56, almost a minute ahead of the second place finisher.

Overall the varsity girls won the division with a team total of 40 points, with Tulia second and Plainview third.

The boys, who have had injury problems all year and still are a bit hobbled, finished second with a team total of 72. Boys Ranch finished first with a total of 51.

Carrasco turned in the best time of the Hereford harriers as he crossed the line at 16:06. good enough for fourth place. A surprise finish for the Herd was Edward Flores in sixth with a time of 16:10.

Coach Martha Emerson

said that Flores ran the best race of the year, and he is really fired up for district. Other finishers for the Whitefaces were Eliseo Rameriz with a time of 17:02. Cesar Valdez in 17:09, George Arroyos with a time of 17:10. Chris Kahlich with a clocking of 17:47 and Kyle Schuder with a time of 17:56.

Arroyos, who all year has been a front runner for the Whitefaces, has been fighting a thigh injury all week and stopped in the middle of the course Saturday to unwrap the troublesome leg, which cost him at least :40 seconds on his time.

Coach Emerson, who feels that everyone is ready for the district meet, says that as long as the injury bug avoids them this week, the chances are good for the teams to win a trip to regional.

"We have to take advantage of the good weather that has ben forecast for the week," Emerson said. "George is feeling a lot better about his leg and Kellie has just about cured her blister which has slowed her in practice for the last couple of weeks."

The girls team can also expect Deborah Rogers to run in the district meet. Rogers, who sat out last week's meet to rest a strained knee, is a needed force for the girls if they hope to take the title from the Mustangs.

In the girls' division, the Coronado Mustangs overall strength gives them a team edge, although Cabbiness has beaten everyone in the district and Howell has about

Coach Emerson stated that for the team to win, the top five runners need to finish in the top 15 of the competition to have a chance to win the team title.

For the boys, Arroyos and Carrasco are numbers two and three in the district with Tom Cavazos of Coronado the runner with the best time. Monterey has a strong team that runs together, a strategy good for the team title, while Coronado will tend to string out their runners. Emerson said that if Arroyos is healthy and running as good as he can, and Flores, Valdez and Rameriz continue their improvement, the boys stand a good chance to win the meet.

"This week is going to have to be a good one for us," Emerson said. "The boys are looking real good so far and they have the right attitude to pull it off. The meet takes more than just raw talent. We have to have the runners as hard as they can and if necessary to run on guts

"We have the leadership and the entire team has to work together if we want to keep running after next

Leauing the Pack

Kellie Howell, the senior captain for the Hereford Whiteface girls cross country team, sets the pace in the Lubbock Invitational two weeks ago. Howell, who will run in her third district meet next weekend, will once again be counted on to run well if the Herd hopes to take the district title.

Dodgers Need One To Take World Series

By HAL BOCK AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) - Looking like a bloodied but unbowed patriot right out of a Revolutionary War portrait, owner George Steinbrenner leads the New York Yankees into tonight's sixth game of the 1981 World Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Will Team Turmoil rally around its battered and bandaged boss, who says he was injured defending their honor in a hotel brawl?

Or will the Dodgers, baseball's huggingest team, nail down their first world championship in 16 years?

Stay tuned for the next exciting chapter in this thrilling soap opera. It arrives tonight with Tommy John trying to keep the Yankees alive against the Dodgers' Burt Hooton.

Steinbrenner promises tgat his team will rebound in a topsy turvy World Series that has had a little bit of everything so far.

"We'll win it in New York," he stormed after the Yankees had dropped three straight games in California to slip perilously near the brink of elimination.

When two men got into a heated debate with Steinbrenner following Sunday's 2-1 loss, one thing led to another and the Yankee owner emerged with a cast on his hand. It's a good thing he wasn't scheduled to be in the lineup tonight. He'd have trouble holding a bat.

But outfielder Jerry Mumphrey, benched for the fourth and fifth games after getting just two hits in 10 at-bats earlier, will get that chance. Yankee Manager Bob Lemon was expected to restore Mumphrey to the lineup and return him to center field.

The Dodgers hoped to have third baseman Ron Cey in their starting lineup. Cey suffered a slight concussion when he was hit in the helmet by one of Goose Gossage's 94-mile per hour fastballs in the eighth inning Sunday. He was x-rayed and stayed in Los Angeles overnight before flying to New York Monday to join his teammates.

Dodger Manager Tommy Lasorda said he would use Cey as long as the third baseman had no dizziness or aftereffects of the beaning.

Hooton and John were the starters in Game Two of the Series won by the Yankees

3-0. Hooton has not worked since and will have five days of rest for tonight's assignment. John volunteered to go to the Yankee bullpen Saturday and pitched two innings in an 8-7 Dodger victory that deadlocked the Series at 2-2. To nail it down, the Dodgers must break a sixgame losing streak in Yankee Stadium. Los Angeles has not won a game in New York since the second game of the 1977 World Series. Hooton was the winning pitcher in that one and the Dodgers hope he can repeat that tonight. If he can, it will comfrom the 1978 Series when Los Angeles won the first two games at home only to lose the next three in New York and Game Six and the Series in Los Angeles. Since the present 2-3-2

Series scheduling system was zuela. adopted in 1924, no team has captured the championship by gaining all four required victories at home and none on the road. If the Yankees are to take the crown, they will become the first club to achieve it that way.

If the Dodgers fail tonight, they would turn to rookie sensation Fernando Valenzuela for Game Seven. Valenzuela Game Three, triggering the Los Angeles recovery. The Yankees would use Dave Righetti, also a rookie, who was knocked out early in Game Three against Valen-Both teams had scheduled canceled by rain Monday. And tonight's forecast was bleak with showers predicted. This already is the latest World series in history because of the player strike and the extended playoff schedule.

Top Ranked Teams Survive The Weekend With Wins

plete a perfect turnaround

By The Associated Press

Penn State is only the second team in seven weeks not to fumble away the No.1 spot in The Associated Press college football poll, while intrastate rival Pittsburgh has held on again for the second

The Nittany Lions avoided the upset jinx that had knocked Michigan, Notre Dame, Southern California and Texas off the top perch over a six-week period. Only Southern Cal was voted No.1 for two straight weeks until Penn State did it in the poll released Monday.

Clemson climbed into third place, but its Atlantic Coast Conference rival, North Carolina, slipped from third to ninth after suffering its first defeat of the season, 31-13 to South Carolina. Penn State defeated West Virginia 30-7 and received 45 first-place votes and 1,259 of a possible 1,280 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

Pitt turned back Syracuse 23-10 and received the other 19 first-place ballots and 1,235 points. Last week, Penn State led Pitt 1,2831/2-1,2771/2 in total points and 361/2-261/2 in firstplace votes.

Clemson jumped from fourth place to third with 1,105 points following a 17-7 victory over North Carolina State and Southern Cal rose from fifth to fourth with 1,079 points following a 14-7 triumph over Notre Dame.

Georgia's defending national champions moved up from seventh to fifth with 990 points after blanking Kentucky 21-0 and Texas, which skidded from No.1 to No.10 a week ago, skipped back to sixth with 893 points after a 9-7 decision over previously unbeaten Methodist.

Iowa, last week's No.6 team, also fell out of the Top Ten, slipping to 16th after losing to Minnesota 12-10.

Mississippi State went up from ninth to seventh with 796 points for a 21-17 victory over Auburn, Alabama jumped from 11th to eighth with 730 points for a 31-7 triumph over Rutgers, North Carolina was ninth with 630 points and Arizona State cracked the Top Ten for the first time this season, climbing from 17th to 10th thanks to a 62-36 victory over Stanford.

Steelers Rally To Whip Houston Oilers, 26

By BRUCE LOWITT AP Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) -Nobody seems to know who the real Pittsburgh Steelers are - least of all the Steelers

"I hope these are the real Steelers 'cause we sure didn't play like ouselves last week," linebacker Jack Ham said after Pittsburgh rebounded from a 34-7 pounding in Cincinnati eight days earlier to beat the Houston Oilers 26-13 Monday night.

The victory put the Steelers, 5-3, back into a firstplace tie with the Bengals in the American Conference Central Division. The loss dropped the Oilers a game back into a tie with Cleveland.

"I don't know who the real Steelers are, but I'd like to think we're getting back to where we used to be," said quarterback Terry Bradshaw. He threw two touchdown passes, a 46-yard bomb to Jim Smith in the first quarter and a game-winning 6-yarder to John Stallworth to break a 13-13 tie with 3:41 to

"A game like this does a world of good for your confidence," added Bradshaw. The Steelers beat the Oilers the way they've always beaten them, by virtually shutting down Earl Campbell. The National Football League's three-time rushing champion, whose best game against Pittsburgh was a mere 109 yards two years ago, was held to just 56 on 23 carries over Three Rivers Stadium's rain-soaked artificial turf. He also fumbled four times, losing two of them, to kill a pair of scoring threats.

Quarterback Ken Stabler intimated he wasn't pleased that the Oilers relied so heavily on Campbell. "The I-Formation works if Earl's getting 150-175 yards," he said. "When they're stopping the run, that makes it tough. We've been successful with it at times and at times, we haven't been. I think maybe we hung our hat on the run a little too much — but that's hindsight and I'm not gonna second-guess myself."

The Steelers dominated the first half, building a 13-3 lead on David Trout's two 19-yard field goals and Smith's catch while Toni Fritsch kicked a 34-yard field goal for the Oilers following Vernon Perry's interception deep in Pittsburgh territory.

It was still a 10-point spread heading into the fourth period when the Oilers suddenly struck for a touchdown on a 52-yard pass player from Stabler to Dave Casper.

Casper caught the ball at the Pittsburgh 30, was enveloped by linebackers Jack Ham and Jack Lambert, then was jettisoned free when safety J.T. Thomas barreled into the trio.

On Houston's next posses-sion, the Steelers forced a fourth-and-three at the Oller 35. But punter Cliff Parsley's 31-yard pass to Adger Armstrong revived the Oilers.

"Gamble?" said Steelers Coach Chuck Noll. "When they work, I don't think you can call them gambles." Four plays later, with 5:43 to go, Fritsch tied it with a 44-yard field goal.

But on Pittsburgh's first lay from scrimmage, Franplay from scrimmage, Fran-co Harris broke loose through the left side for 35 of his 34 yards, running out of bounds at the Houston 34. And when linebacker Ted Washin was flagged for a late hit, the penalty put the ball at the 19. Three plays later, offsetting penalties wiped out a 14-yard pass to Smith in the end zone. But Bradshaw, on tercepted Stabler and fo plays after that, at the tr minute warning, Harris ed in from the one.

Manassa Mauler Strikes For The Pride of New York

By WILL GRIMSLEY AP Special Correspondent

Leave it to George - he had no intention of allowing his New York Yankees to leave Los Angeles with their tails between their legs. He took matters into his own

By his own account, he punched out an unofficial decision over two hecklers when they began saying bad things about the Yankees in an elevator in the Los Angeles headquarters hotel Sunday night.

It was the only victory in the Yankees' "lost weekend" in the City of the Angels.

Call him Goerge M. Steinbrenner III, "M" for

"Manassa Mauler," undisputed light-heavyweight champion of frustrated club owners

Hold the line, George, promoter Don King calling.

Somewhere today, roaming the streeets of L.A., is a guy with a few front teeth missing and a friend who might be suffering bruises.

That is, if George is giving it to us straight. And we have to take his word for it. There were no other eyewitnesses. The culprits, according to George, took off like frightened rodents.

The hotel manager could add no details. The L.A. police said nothing was reported to them. An angry Steinbrenner, it seems, takes no prisoners.

The controversial Yankee boss, a stickler for rigid ethics codes, showed more relish than embarrassment when he called a late-evening press conference in Los Angeles to show a left hand in a cast, possibly fractured, a bruised right hand, a cut lip and a bump on the head from a whack with a beer bottle.

Meanwhile, the baseball world buzzed with mild amusement over the irony of the incident.

It was two years ago almost to the day that the then Yankee Manager Billy Martin, similarly taunted beyond his endurance, belted a marshmallow salesman in a Bloomington, Minn. hotel lob-

Although Billy insisted that he was provoked into the act, George proceeded to fire him, saying, "I can't put up with this kind of stuff any more."

The Yankee boss insisted that his players must avoid the very appearance of evil. He virtually invoked the Biblical "turn the cheek"

Billy the Kid, wherever he is fishing, must surely have an interesting reaction.

Reggie Jackson, hearing the news, said, "Now George knows how I feel." Reggie was punched by teammate Graig Nettles during an argument at the victory narty in Steinbrenner, 51, is a husky man with an athletic background. Sitting in his box at Dodger Stadium last weekend, watching his highly-paid hirelings lose three games with poor hitting, sloppy fielding and burlesque baserunning, he was a powder keg just waiting to be lit.

Are you missing out on co-op advertising funds that are available to you? Did you know that co-op advertising help from many of your manufacturers and suppliers can pay anywhere from half to all of your advertising costs? Every year manufacturers and suppliers make millions of dollars available to retailers, yet a good part of that help is lost because many retailers are not even aware of the fact that this money is available to them. Our advertising staff has been especially trained to help you locate hidden co-op opportunities. They will help you prepare your ads, supply you with attractive, attention compelling art, write your copy and put it all together in an eye-catching layout. Our staff can produce results for you, and best of all, the co-op available to you can pay as much as 100% of the costs. Don't let co-op money slip through your fingers. It is really your money and if you don't use it, you'll lose it and all the potential sales that it can produce. Call your local newspaper advertising representative now and take advantage of the hard-hitting results this paper can generate. If you're not already advertising and using valuable co-op dollars, we'll show you how co-op can stretch your promotional budget and, at times, pay the entire bill.

Wife Portrays Daniel As Bizarre, Tyrannical

By MIKE COCHRAN Associated Press Writer

LIBERTY, Texas (AP) -The wife of former Texas House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. says her slain husband was a sexually bizarre tyrant whom she loved, feared and probably killed.

She portrayed him as a hard-drinking, smoking, self-centered, occasionally loving enigma who once forced her to have an

The former Dairy Queen waitress took the witness stand Monday and tearfully told of the events surrounding the Jan. 19 shooting.

"Did you pull the trigger and shoot him, Vickie?" asked defense attorney Jack Zimmermann.

'No," she sobbed, then added: "I don't remember."

Mrs. Daniel returned today for what loomed as a decidedly more hostile crossexamination by Liberty County district attorney Carroll Wilborn.

The state contends the blonde defendant "knowingly and intentionally" shot Daniel. 39, her second husband, during a fierce dispute over their pending divorce.

Not so, said Mrs. Daniel, 34, her face alternately ashen and crimson as she recounted the marital pressures and pitfalls of life in the fast political

She said Daniel abused her verbally, physically and sexually and it got worse after he was an upset loser in a 1978 race for. Texas Attorney General.

She said her husband, the son of former Texas Gov. Price Daniel Sr., returned home the night of Jan. 19 with divorce financial papers he wanted signed.

Angered by the refusal, and a spilled drink, Vickie recalled, Price Jr. "slapped me, grabbed me and pushed me

Kimberly Moore, then 12, her daughter by an earlier marriage, shoved him off, Mrs. Daniel testified.

She said she ordered Daniel to leave their ranch-style home and when he later demanded to know where his marijuana stash was, she replied: " ... I flushed it down the commode."

She said he descended the steps from an attic stairwell and "kicked me in the head." She said he told her, "I'll kill

She said he beat her and she retreated to a back door, which was locked.

"I reached into the closet and got the gun," she said.

She said she could not see her husband at the time but returned to the stairwell and saw him again in the attic.

"Get out of here!" she recalled telling him. "Please

She said Daniel saw the gun, a .22-caliber rifle, and, "He said he was going to stick it up my ass."

"Did you tell him you were going to use the gun?" asked Zimmermann.

"I think I did ... he kind of

She said she fired a warning shot. "He started coming down real fast. He said he was going to kill me," she sobbed.

She said she backed away, closed her eyes and expected him to hit her.

"He was mad ... his face was all wrinkled," she said.

While she could not remember firing the fatal shot, she said, she did recall "a funny sound like when you shoot a bullet through the

"You don't remember pulling the trigger?" Zimmermann asked. "No."

"Are you sure you pulled the trigger?"

"No." When she opened her eyes, she said, she saw Daniel walking through the kitchen. "Did you know, Vickie Daniel, if you had shot Price Daniel at that time?" Zimmermann asked. Later, as she saw him lying in a pool of blood, she remembered becoming almost hysterical and physically ill. "I told him to get up," she

Unaware he was dead, she testified, she struggled with emergency medical aides who arrived at the house in response to her telephone call to an operator. Why did she fight the aides? "Because I wanted to get up ... and help Price," she However, she said Daniel's attitude toward her changed following the birth of the couple's son, Franklin, and their sex life then became "abnormal."

"He never treated me again like he treated me before we got married," she

Mrs. Daniel once asked if she could return to school but her husband told her "I'd always be stupid," she testified.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Eddie Medrano told DeAnda that the FBI agent who interviewed Garcia had lost his notes of the conversation.

"Well, that's too bad," the judge said. Turning to Garcia, he said, "This ordeal is over for you."

The judge also dismissed a 12-count indictment accusing Wicks and food services director Michael McCarthy of claiming too much reimbursement for meals served during a summer program.

The school district worked out an arrangment in 1972 or 1973 with the Golden Jersey Creamery of Edinburg to purchase ice cream and other dairy products instead of milk, witnesses have testified. False milk invoices allegedly were made up to try to prove milk actually had been delivered for each meal when in fact it had not. Government funds received for the fake milk deliveries were used to pay for the other dairy items.

School children, cafeteria workers, principals and teachers testified Monday that milk always was given to the children, whether they wanted it or not.

good-naturedly.

By FRED ROTHENBERG AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) - ABCwill have the nation's attention tonight for the sixth game of the World Series. For at least three hours, ABC again will give viewers a mixture of baseball, commercials and promotionals. Some thoughts on how the multipitch experience has gone so

Don't you hate the way Howard Cosell must have the last word on everything. Although he's provocative and less obtrusive than in previous Series, baseball is not Cosell's sport. He doesn't know the game's intricacies, so he offers history. His playby-play from the 1947 World Series made it sound like it was actually happening on Sunday. Is that telling it like

Don't you love sportscaster Al Michaels? As the song says, he's talking baseball. Tonight Keith Jackson returns to do play-by-play, so there'll be more giggles, cliches and trumped-up melodrama in the booth.

Don't you hate drawn-out pre-game shows and introductions? The National Football League dispenses with the national anthem and player announcements before airtime. But it could have been worse in the Series. If Montreal made it, there'd have been an extra anthem.

Don't you love those "Baseball Fever" promotionals? Sometimes they're better than the games.

Don't you hate manager Tommy Lasorda's cursing whenever something bad happens to his Dodgers? Is that called grace under pressure?

Don't you love Reggie Jackson home runs? Putting aside whether you like the Yankees, no one hits a more picture-perfect homer.

Don't you hate the way ABC tried to prevent dialswitching by not giving any , pro football scores until the fifth inning Sunday? But there were plugs for ABC's Monday night game. On Saturday there were plenty of college football scores. That's ABC's game, and it wasn't competing with the Series.

Don't you love commentator Jim Palmer? He's perceptive, telling us that Dodger shortstop Bill Russell should be closer to the hole because Dave Goltz was pitching right-handed batters inside. Nobody misses ABC's regular season commentator Don Drysdale.

Don't you hate the extra 30 seconds of commercials compared to normal prime time - between innings? That means more time for annoying ads, like McDonald's "Uhyeeeees" and Chevy Citation's Everyman. And more time for ABC's promo-

Don't you love it when ABC has a replay from a different angle? But where was ABC on Yankee third baseman Graig Nettles' great catch in Game 1? NBC still does baseball better.

Don't you hate it when they try to make heroes out of baseball players? They talk about courage and guts. What's so courageous and gutty about playing a little boys' game?
