Come to the C. of C. Luncheon Meeting Monday!

COME TO LUNCHEON NEXT MONDAY; JOE POPE TO SPEAK; RARE TREAT HAS BEEN ARRANGED FOR HEREFORD'S OLD-TIMERS

A CHALLENGE! To all whose spirits are drooping; to all whose plans and outlook for the future are fringed with doubt; to all whose community faith and vision need strengthening.

COME TO THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEON NEXT MONDAY!

AN INVITATION!—To all not now members of the organization: A special message awaits you Monday—a message with a "punch" that will stir you.

COME TO THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEON LUNCHEON NEXT MONDAY.

A CALL TO ARMS!—To the members of Hereford's community dynamo—a special program is prepared and every loyal man is needed at this meeting.

COME TO THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEON NEXT MONDAY.

For Joe Pope will address you—Joe Pope, he of the dynamic energy, gloom chaser de luxe, story teller extraordinary. Joe Pope needs little introducing to Hereford folks. He has left too many laughs and too many strengthened resolutions on previous visits here to be easily forgotten.

Large bear tracks in the concrete foundations of Hereford's prosperity are constant reminders of his previous visits here. For while he convulses you with his humor, at the same time he leaves a message chuck full of horse sense and enlightenment.

Arrangements have been made with Mr. Pope, now located at Woodward, Oklahoma, to head a Community Jubilee for one hour next Monday, from twelve o'clock noon until one at the Hereford Hotel. Tell your wife she need not cook dinner for you on that day; negotiate a loan of "four bits" from some unsuspecting bank or trusting friends; take an hour's holiday from wearying business cares, and treat your face to a few laughs and your community conscience to a bath that won't hurt you one bit and will buck you up amazingly in the battle of 1927.

COME TO THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BANQUET NEXT MONDAY!

The Chamber of Commerce met last Monday noon at the Stockman's Cafe with Vice President G. A. F. Parker presiding. Mr. Parker made a few remarks and then read the following resolutions:

In appreciation of the successful and very profitable banquet given by our Chamber of Commerce last Tuesday evening, I move we extend a vote of thanks to all who labored to achieve that success, and especially to the following persons and societies:

1 To our honored president and secretary who had the general management of the whole affair.

2 To W. W. Flenegun, toastmaster.

3 To the committees on ticket sales and program.

4 To the speakers who brought us messages of information, inspiration and good-will. Especially would we thank Arthur P. Dugan, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce; Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the W. T. S. T. C. at Canyon, and James Z. George, manager of the Board of City Development of Amarillo.

5 To Miss Gladys Kilgore and the young ladies of the high school Glee Club.

6 And last, but not least, to the ladies of the Christian church who furnished us an abundance of good things to eat and served them in such an efficient and elegant manner.

7 That our secretary furnish copies of these resolutions to the parties named and to the press.

A motion was made and carried to accept the resolutions as read. Judge C. F. Kerr of Canyon and Dimmitt, five times county judge of Castro county, and former school teacher who taught all the students from three counties in a one room shack at Dimmitt, was a speaker at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday. Judge Kerr spoke on the development of education in the Panhandle and said that he was very optimistic over the future of this section.

E. W. Harrison, pioneer business man of Hereford, spoke on the 1927 outlook. He said that prospects were bright for a big wheat crop, and reported that the average was double that of a year ago. He urged local business men to get ready for a healthy growth in 1927, because development was certain.

Judge L. C. Peary announced that

Attendance At C. E. Society Has Big Growth

For the last two Sunday evenings there has been a phenomenal increase in attendance at the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor meetings. Last Sunday evening the attendance was 75, increasing from 40 to that number over the Sunday before.

The special feature was an indoor campfire program. Special electrical arrangements gave the room all the atmosphere of a camp fire. While the two small boys in Indian costumes added a realistic touch to the camp fire scene, while the program proceeded under the leadership of Miss Ethel Waters, refreshments were enjoyed by all those seated about the fire.

The five minute open discussion period brought forward in rapid fire fashion many interesting talks by endeavorers. Each speaker was allowed twenty seconds for his part in the open discussion. Not a moment's time was lost and speakers were on the floor when the discussion period closed, each speaker winning by his talk five points in the Coast-to-Coast automobile race.

At the close of the Endeavor hour the score stood: Ford 530 miles, Packard 515, White Steamer 480, Rolls-Royce 460 miles. Next Sunday evening it is expected that all cars will stop for a brief time in Chicago and pick up a number of passengers.

The program next Sunday will begin at 6 o'clock, under direction of Herman Gilbreath and will be different from preceding programs. Out of his large experience in Endeavor work Mr. Gilbreath is preparing to give an interesting program.

While somewhat original in nature these programs are entirely in keeping with Endeavor programs in churches of the large cities of the nation. In other words, this Endeavor effort represents the most modern development in young people's work.

L. E. House and Henry Ford, officials of the Mystery Oil Company, were here the first of the week.

High School Orchestra Billed to Play at Jumbo

Ralph Smith's thirty-four piece high school orchestra is scheduled to give a complete musical program in the auditorium of the new $15,000 school building which has just been completed in the Jumbo district in Castro county. The program will be given Friday evening, February 18. A number of Dimmitt and Hereford folks are planning to hear the program.

The Hereford high school orchestra was organized less than two years ago and has been giving five concerts for more than a year. Concerts have been given during that time in most every community in Deaf Smith county, at Dimmitt, and a number of other places in Castro county. The local orchestra has made several trips with the Hereford Chamber of Commerce during the past year and now has invitations for concerts at Friona, Borina and a number of other communities.

Hereford Men Sell 181 Males In New Mexico

One hundred and eighty-one range bulls were purchased this week by Captain Mureman, of Roswell, New Mexico. The bulls are being loaded today for shipment. The following are the breeders from whom the males were purchased: Henry Wilkinson, E. B. Black, Mrs. L. B. Brady, Doyle Rose, W. R. Elliston, Travis Dameron, Jones & Dameron and Joe Green. Mrs. Brady also sold eight males to Bourland brothers of Clarendon, Texas.

Hicks and Williams Buy Angus Herd

W. E. Hicks and Charlie Williams purchased 1400 head of Black Angus cattle from the old original Post herd last week. Mr. Hicks reached here the first of the week and said that they had leased several thousand acres of grazing land near Post, Texas, on which to winter their stock.

Lots On West Side to Be Auctioned Monday

The new local fashion in the sale of real estate by public auction, introduced last fall by the Christian Church, proved so popular and satisfactory that another lot sale is announced for Monday, February 7.

Twenty-three choice building sites owned by Carl Cockrell and situated close to the West Side, just across the Avenue, and a part of the present baseball park, will be offered at the buyer's own price. Auctioneer Ray Barber will be in charge. Detailed advertising is carried in this issue of The Brand.

New Implement Firm Enters Business Here

A new firm has been launched this week under the name of the Kerr Implement Company. A new company composed of George P. Garrison, C. F. Kerr and son, W. S. Kerr, of Dimmitt, organized last Tuesday, February 1, for the purpose of handling a complete line of shelf hardware, John Deere implements and Holt combines.

Mr. Garrison needs no introduction, having been connected for many years with the Garrison Brothers Hardware Company of this city. Mr. Kerr is one of Castro county's pioneers, having lived there for more than twenty-five years. He has interests both there and in Canyon and divides his time between these places. W. S. Kerr is connected with his father's interests and makes his home in Canyon. Both are well known here. Mr. Garrison will manage the store in Hereford.

Barrett Well Is Drilling at Two Hundred Feet

Much oil play is expected in the Hereford country in the spring of 1927, in the way of wildcat tests. Barrett's Hill No. 1 in the S. E. of N. W. quarter section 98, Block K, Deaf Smith county, which is being drilled by Vernon Dumas, is down 200 feet and two shifts are working day and night on this test. The derrick is up for the test on the G. C. Hartman place in the N. W. part of section 47, Block K, and actual work is scheduled to start soon on this test. It is being done by Harvey De-Grace, Judge John B. Sinton and local capitalists. One or two other blocks are being organized in other parts of the county.

The Gulf No. 1 in section 27 M 10 A, in Castro county and just southeast of Dimmitt is drilling at 900 feet. Two or three other locations have been made in Castro county and a number of tests are promised for that county within the next few months. It is reported that nine-tenths of the land in Castro county is now under lease and that sixty per cent of it is held by the big companies. A large part of Deaf Smith county has been leased within the last few weeks and parties Farmer, Randall and Oldham counties have already been secured, and one or more oil tests are assured for each of these counties.

Mystery Oil Well To Spud In Sunday

The Patterson Co., of Fort Worth is now drilling on Section 60, Bilk K-14, Randall county, about seven miles southwest of Umberger and about the same distance southeast of Dawn, only a few miles from the Deaf Smith-Randall county line. The drilling has been progressing without mishap for the past ten days. This well is located on what is known as the old McElroy Ranch.

The Mystery Oil Co. will spud in Crum well No. 1 next Sunday at 2 p. m., according to information received from President L. B. House of the Mystery Company, and A. M. Jones. All equipment is now on the ground, including a 1000 barrel tank of fuel oil, bunk houses and a full standard rig. Mr. Jones remarked that according to the latest geological survey, oil should be found at around a 1000 foot level. Quite a number of people are expected to witness the spudding.

Farm Sale Dates

W. S. Williams and son will hold a big dispersion sale on the Williams ranch, eleven miles north and three miles west of Hereford on Tuesday, February 15. The sale will consist of general farm machinery, Jersey cows, horses and mules, and about seventy head of Duroc Jersey bred gilts. These gilts will farrow in March. Mr. Williams said, and are from very high grade stock imported from the north and are exceptionally good for breeding purposes and the foundation stock.

Canyon Laundry Man Visits in Hereford

Prof. and Mrs. Frank Phillips and baby, of Canyon, were Hereford visitors Tuesday. Prof. Phillips is owner of the Canyon laundry and has recently opened an agency here, through the West Tailor Shop. Prof. Phillips states that he is well pleased with the success he has had and attributes it to The Brand advertising, as well as the quality of his work.

Local Hatchery Wins Award from New York

The Henderson Farms Hatchery reported another winning. This time at the Madison Square Garden Poultry Show held in New York City in January. Mr. Henderson displayed his yellow ribbon with a great deal of pride and said he also won a special prize given by the National White Leghorn Club of America. The winning was made on a pen of single comb White Leghorns.

A NATIONAL MEETING OF BOY SCOUTS

Next week is the big week for Boy Scouts all over this nation. From Maine to California, from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico millions of boys will be thinking about the same thing—Scouting in its various phases. For next week is Boy Scout Anniversary Week.

Sixteen years ago next week Boy-Scouting was organized in the United States. It had previously been organized in England by Sir Baden-Powell. Its chief advocate and organizer in America was Mr. Dan Beard, who is affectionately known as "Uncle Dan."

Last year the Hereford Council carried through a most excellent Anniversary program and it is contemplated that it shall be just as good this year. Following is the schedule of activities:

Sunday, February 6.
The Scout and His Church. Each scout will be expected to attend his own church services on Sunday (Continued on Page Four)

Wheat Prospects for This Section Good

Prospects for a big wheat crop in the Hereford country were never brighter than at this time. The average in this section is just about equal to that of a year ago and fall rains with better methods of farming, gave wheat such a start that it will go for several weeks without additional moisture. The roots have become thoroughly set in the ground and fixed to get what moisture that is available.

E. W. Harrison, local grain dealer, says that we cannot paint the picture too bright. He is urging local business men to get ready for a big development, on account of the crop which is expected here and says it will take an extra effort to move the crop which is now in prospect.

There are three reasons for the increased acreage in this section. First, several thousand acres of pasture land in Deaf Smith, Castro and Parmer counties were turned into farming land. Most of this was turned early in the spring and summer fallowed for wheat. This puts this soil land in excellent condition for wheat that was sown early last fall. Second, the bumper wheat crop which was raised over the entire Panhandle in 1926 with good prices for the entire crop, caused several farmers in this area to increase the wheat acreage. A number of the farmers cut down on other crops to make room for wheat. While others reduced their herds of cattle and broke out ranch land for the crop. Third, the low price of grain sorghums and cotton in Texas caused many farmers to turn to wheat as the money crop. Last year demonstrated that wheat on summer tilled soil would yield good returns, so many farmers made enough to pay for their land from the one crop. The wheat here is in such fine shape that stockmen find it unnecessary to feed cattle where they have a wheat pasture for grazing.

New Building At Jumbo Dedicated On Last Saturday

A fitting program, with J. A. Hill, president of the W. T. S. T. C. at Canyon, as the principal speaker, and a big dinner marked the formal opening of the $15,000 brick school building which has just been erected in the Jumbo district, fifteen miles southeast of this place. The dedication services were held last Saturday, January 29, and approximately 500 people were in attendance.

The new structure is modern in every way, with the latest equipment that could be bought for the present day school room. An electric lighting system has been installed in the basement and affords lighting for all community meetings which will be held in the new building.

The three teachers now employed in the Jumbo school are former students of the W. T. S. T. C. at Canyon. Cooper Woodburn is the principal.

Dr. Hill said the magnificent building was an evidence of the progress of Northwest Texas and showed that the people were interested in the future of the boys and girls of this section. "The building is important, but the selection of the right kind of teachers is far more important for the right training of the younger generation," he declared. He urged the people to employ only the best.

G. A. F. Parker spoke on the tax situation of Texas and said that the Panhandle was not getting her share of the tax money for education. He scored the present system of dishing out money to schools on the per capita basis, without even considering the number of students who actually attend school. "In some of our counties where Mexicans and negroes are counted, who seldom attend school, the white children often get three times as much money as do the children in the Panhandle of Texas," Mr. Parker declared. The Hereford banker said that the taxes should be paid according to the number who actually attend school and the actual length of the term should be considered. Out here we hold school nine months of the year, while in parts of Texas the average term is four or five months, yet those students get just as much from the state as we can get, and often they collect two or three times as much.

An excellent chicken dinner with all the trimmings was served by the ladies of the Jumbo community. Music was given by the Hereford high school orchestra, with Ralph Smith director. M. H. Avery, judge of Castro county, introduced Mr. Hill and gave a fitting tribute to the West Texas educator.

Plans for the county basketball meet were discussed and next Saturday, February 5, was selected as the date for the meet. It will be held at Dimmitt. Officers were elected for a County School Fair to be held in the spring, and plans were made for the fair. Judge Avery urged the teachers of the county to put over a bigger and better county school fair than was held last year.

Glee Club and Band To Attend Festival

Hereford is already making preparations for several local musical organizations, to enter the contests at the Panhandle Music Festival which will be held in Amarillo April 18-19-20. Miss Gladys Kilgore's high school girls' glee club, winners of last year, will again enter the contest. The junior glee club will probably enter for competition in the big Panhandle Festival.

Ralph Smith will enter his high school band in two classes. It will enter in its one year class and also in the fourth year class. The band consists of twenty-four pieces. The thirty-four piece high school orchestra will enter in two classes and Smith's students are planning to give others some keen competition. The band and orchestra will probably make a tour of Deaf Smith county before entering the annual festival at Amarillo.

CATHOLICS START NEW STRUCTURE

A new Catholic school building is to be erected on the lots just north of the Catholic church. Excavation began the latter part of last week for the basement. The new building will measure 40x80 feet and will be of brick veneer construction, making it semi-fireproof. Popular subscription will finance the new project. It will be one story for the present and the cost is estimated at $5,000. J. L. Cunningham, a contractor from Amarillo, will supervise the work.

Renfro Brothers Now Located on Main Street

Renfro Brothers, dealers in Hudson and Essex automobiles, are moving this week into their new quarters in the Guthrie building on North Main Street. They are expecting daily a car load of the new models of the Hudson-Essex line.

Will Erect New Tabernacle Here At Early Date

The Morton Sisters are on the final week of the "Full Gospel" revival started about three weeks ago. The Mortons are holding services each night and Sunday morning in the district court room at the court house. At a recent meeting a church was organized with the following officers: Elders, Ernest Rice, John Hull and Jack Hager; Deacons, Cary Copeland and Jack Miles. Rev. Ernest Rice will be pastor in charge.

The church is planning a new Full Gospel Tabernacle, one story, stucco building, 44x68 feet, which will be used for regular church and evangelistic services. Committees are now at work this week raising funds and completing plans for the new building. The regular services will continue in the district court room until the new building is completed. With reference to further services, there will be a special young people's meeting on Friday night.

Interesting Meeting Had by C. of C.

The committee was working on the railroad situation now, and hoped to have something definite to announce soon concerning the possibility of getting the Fort Worth & Denver to extend its branch from Dimmitt here.

A. O. Thompson said that the program for 1927, with a budget to cover the activities for the year would be presented for approval at next Monday's luncheon, and urged all business men to be present on that date.

E. L. Lancaster, of King county, was a guest of the luncheon. He said that he was studying seriously of locating in Hereford.

A. O. Thompson spoke on the budget for 1927 and said that the regular luncheon hour next Monday would be devoted to an open discussion on the plan with probably an out-of-town speaker to lead. Mr. Thompson said a program was being arranged and that a final report would be made.

Mayor Ireland said that an experimental station devoted to agriculture was to be established in the section of the Plains of north-west Texas and that we need to awake and make an effort to land this institution near Hereford. He also remarked about the shallow water for irrigation and the local advantages of our rich soil for dry farming. "We are in a position," said Mayor Ireland, "to offer the state ideal conditions for a station." A committee of four was selected to inquire further into the proposition. The committee consists of S. B. Holman, R. O. Dunlap, E. B. Ireland and C. W. Humble.

J. P. Collier of Adrian was introduced as one of the old timers. He was accompanied at the luncheon by Messrs. A. E. Hofus and Jack Helm of Dallas. Mr. Hofus owns a large tract of land on the north line of Deaf Smith county, having purchased this body of land last December for colonization purposes. He has sold a number of small tracts to homesteaders. Messrs. Hofus and Helm are now making their headquarters at Amarillo with J. H. Pitman of this city as local representative.

C. H. Dyas, the last speaker on the program, could not withhold the temptation to make a few remarks about the famous Kerr Rabbit Drive on April 1st, 1925.

The meeting adjourned to meet next Monday at the Hereford Hotel.

West-Way Items

The literary society met Friday night and a fine crowd attended. The main feature was a "Womanless Wedding." After business was attended to the rest of the program consisted of musical numbers and a little negro play. Judge Slaton and wife came out because they were invited and from now on we are going to expect them regularly as they have a standing invitation. Judge Slaton made an interesting talk which was enjoyed, especially by the women. The next meeting will be held four weeks from Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin were entertained in the Gleace Owen's home Sunday.

Luther Gore is threshing in this community.

Sunday school was held as usual. Miss Gladys Bryant came out from Hereford to teach her class. We had no sermon last Sunday.

Several are attending the services being held by the Morton Sisters in Hereford and report a fine meeting.

Mr. Walton seems to be going into the dairy business as this past week he purchased eleven Jersey cows and is still hunting for others. He has decided hogs and Jerseys make a fine combination.

Mrs. Herman Gray is still on the sick list but is at home from the hospital. We are hoping for a change for the better soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin are now staying in the Houser home in order that they may be closer to school.

Miss Agnes Moore was at home from Canyon Saturday night and attended Sunday school Sunday.

Several in our school have been vaccinated the past week.

Hereford Has High Class Musicians

No city in Texas with a population of 2,000 can boast of more musical talent and more musical organizations than the City of Hereford. In the heart of the cow country, Hereford has been famous for its fine Hereford cattle that have gone out to all parts of the country, but during the last few years the Deaf Smith county capital has been training her young people in the arts of music, so that today at least twenty-five per cent of the population of Hereford has seen service in one or more of the fourteen musical organizations of the city.

When the Hereford Chamber of Commerce attends a convention, makes a trade excursion, or goes for a good visit to one of the neighboring towns, the local body can call on any one of a dozen organizations to furnish jazz or classical music as the occasion demands. If a banquet is staged, visitors are promised musical talent that will compare favorably with the best that the larger places have to offer. When a program is to be given in any community in the Hereford country, with a few hours notice Hereford can send out a group of youngsters that can put on a program that would do justice to any of the larger cities.

If a lyceum course is given here, if a chautauqua is staged, or if a band of trained musicians come through, they must give the best that can be offered, if Hereford folks are to appreciate their programs. Those who are masters in the art of music often find that their appearance in Hereford are not so popular as might be expected in a town of this size, while the gifted artists find that their programs take just as well here as in the larger cities.

In the Panhandle Music Festival which is held each year at Amarillo, musical organizations of Hereford play a prominent part, and in the various contests local organizations usually carry away a large part of the honors. The Girls' Glee club of the Hereford high school has entered the contests at Amarillo three times, won first twice and a close second place on the other occasion. Last year the high school band, the junior glee club and the orchestra won their share of the honors. A number of individuals in Hereford entered the various contests and won high honors there.

Miss Gladys Kilgore, glee club director, and Ralph Smith, who is in charge of the band and orchestra, will enter their pupils in a number of recitals and programs before the Amarillo event and expect to give other contestants who enter the Panhandle Music Festival in April some warm competition.

It would be impossible to mention the individuals who sing or play, or even the ones who are identified with choirs in the leading churches of Hereford, but here is a list of the musical organizations now functioning in Hereford: A twenty piece merchants' band, a twenty-four piece high school band, a thirty-four piece high school orchestra, the high school girls' glee club with thirty members, the junior glee club with twenty members, a fourteen piece orchestra at the Baptist church, a six piece orchestra at the Presbyterian church, a six piece orchestra at the Methodist church, the Music Study Club, composed of twenty ladies who have exceptional talent, Hereford's original jazz orchestra, Able's Syncopators, Johnie's eight piece jazz orchestra, the Mutt and Jeff quartet, and the Hereford male quartet.

The Girl in the Mirror

By Elizabeth Jordan

With a gurgle or suppression, he turned his back toward them, and stood with sagging muscles and eyes fixed on the empty grate. His nerves snapped.

"For God's sake, Devos," he begged, "cut out the valve! Tell us not you got on your chest, and tell it quick!"

Laurie turned and once more met his eyes. Under the look Epstein's oblique eyes shifted.

"I'm going to," Laurie said quietly and still in those new, flat tones. "That's why I've brought you here. But—it's a hard job. You see—his voice again lost its steadiness—I've got to hurt you—all of you—most awfully. And—that's the hardest part of this business for me."

Doris, now staring up at him, told herself that she could not endure another moment of this tension. She dared not glance at either of the others, but she heard Epstein's heavy breathing and the creak of Rodney Bangs' chair as he suddenly changed his position.

"Well! well! Get it out! I suppose you done something. Got you done?" For the first time Laurie's eyes met those of Doris. The look was so charged with meaning that she sat up under it as if she had received a shock. Yet she was not sure she understood it. Did he want her to help him? She did not know. She only knew now that the thing she feared was here, and that if she did not speak out something in her head would snap.

"He killed Herbert Shaw," she almost whispered.

For a long moment there was utter silence in the room, through which the words just spoken seemed to scurry like living things, anxious to be out and away. Laurie, his eyes on the girl, showed no change in his position, though a spasmodic crossed his face. Epstein, putting up one fat hand, feebly beat the air with it as if trying to push back something that was approaching him, something intangible but terrible. Bangs alone seemed at last to have taken in the full meaning of the girl's announcement. As if it had galvanised him into movement, he sprang to his feet and, head down, charged the situation.

"What the devil is she talking about?" he cried out. "Laurie! What does she mean?"

"She told you," Laurie spoke as quietly as before, but without looking up.

"You mean—it's true?" Rodney still spoke in a loud, aggressive voice, as if trying to awake himself and the others from a nightmare.

"Take it in," muttered Laurie. "Pull yourselves up to it. I had to."

An uncontrollable shudder ran over him. As if his nerves had suddenly given way, he dropped his head on his bent arm. For another interval Bangs stood staring at him in a stupefaction through which a slow tremor ran.

"I—I can't take it in," he stammered at last.

A few Eggs cost a lot—
A lot of Eggs cost little

It doesn't cost those who are feeding their hens Purina Poultry Chows one single penny more to get eggs. It actually costs less! That's because it costs a lot to get a few eggs. Poor layers eat almost as much feed as heavy layers. The only kind of feed that really costs little is the feed that makes lots of extra eggs.

Give your hens Purina Poultry Chows, for you will be taking no chances. An egg record card, which we will furnish you free, will aid you to check up that Purina Chows make a lot more eggs at less cost.

George Burch of Dimmitt, is building up a herd of straight line bred Anxiety 4th Herefords that will rank among the best in this section. He now has fifty head of registered cows, but his twelve straight line bred females will form his foundation herd and two of these have been consigned to the Texas Hereford Breeders Consignment sale which will be held in Fort Worth March 9.

Mr. Burch plans to get a herd of twenty-five choice breeding cows and until this number is secured none of his line bred females are for sale. He says that twenty-five cows properly cared for will make more profit than a herd of fifty with ordinary attention. Those consigned to the Fort Worth sale are Diamond Randolph, by Super Anxiety and out of Capitola D. and Randolph Mischief, by Mischief 5th and out of Donna Mischief 2nd.

That's What We Always Wondered.

The teacher had been lecturing his class on the wisdom often displayed by animals and birds. He compared it with that of human beings, to the latter's disadvantage.

Having finished his discourse he invited his pupils to ask questions bearing on the subject.

One small boy held up his hand. "Well," said the teacher, "what is it you want to know?"

"I want to know, sir," was the reply, "what makes chickens know how big our egg-cups are?"
