

Congratulations And Reminder

United Fund Board Names Drive Chief

A. Swartz has accepted the appointment as general campaign chairman for the United Fund. Dick Simpson, United Fund president, announced Saturday Swartz had been selected by the board and had agreed to lead the drive for funds this autumn.

"We consider that an excellent choice has been made," said Simpson, "and I am confident that Mr. Swartz will have the unqualified cooperation of everyone in building the organization for our fall solicitation."

Indo-China Fight Brews

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, April 2 (AP)—French Gen. Paul Ely worked feverishly today to avert a renewal of hostilities between the South Viet Nam government and the Binh Xuyen private army. As he negotiated there were reports a hostile force of the Hoa Hao religious sect was approaching the capital.

French military sources estimated, two battalions of the Hoa Hao private army were closing in. They are commanded by one armed Gen. Le Quang Vinh, known as "Bacut" who is Premier Ngo Dinh Diem's most implacable foe in the struggle for power.

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

The adage of March coming in like a lamb and going out like a lion proved true, especially with emphasis on the character of exit. Thursday's big blow qualified easily as the year's worst. It doesn't measure up to some we have had, notably in 1933, but brother it will do so far as we are concerned.

Flyer-Student Trade In Offing

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—In the hope of prodding the Chinese Communists into releasing 25 Americans, the United States today cleared the way for 76 Chinese students to go to Red China or wherever else they wish. Authorities assume all will want to go to Red China.

WEDNESDAY IS DEADLINE

Three Days Added For Baby Pictures

There will be three more days for mothers to have babies' pictures made in the $70 "Personality Baby" contest.

Proofs will be shown within a week, and all babies' pictures will appear in a special edition of The Herald. The registration fee of $1.50 is to defray production costs of this edition. There is no other charge, and no obligation.

Rookie Officer, Burglar Alarm Halt Break-In

A burglar alarm and a rookie policeman thwarted an attempt by three Negroes to break into Zale's Jewelry Store here Friday night. The policeman, J. C. Godwin, caught one of the Negroes in the store right after the alarm sounded.

The other two, who were outside the building, were able to flee. Faniel Washington was the Negro caught in the jewelry store by Patrolman Godwin. He was fronted by the young officer when trying to escape through the basement and surrendered meekly.

A warrant was issued for Smith's arrest. A charge of burglary was filed Saturday.

Next To Last TAD Is Monday

M. H. O'Daniel, Early Howard Pioneer, Dies

The long ranching career of Milton Henry O'Daniel, who once kept books in his head and never learned to countenance a sheep, came to an end here Saturday.

He died in a hospital here after an eight weeks illness. Mr. O'Daniel was 88 years of age.

Two years later he and Miss Alice Dunlap were married on Feb. 17, 1889 in Lyton Springs, and together they began making their home along the remote frontier which was just beginning to succumb to fences.

They ranched at Bronte, then in 1901 about 15 miles west of Gall in Borden County. Driving their cattle before wagons loaded with household goods, the family moved south-eastward to what later was the J. P. Anderson ranch in northeastern Howard County in 1902.

Ranching was a family enterprise, for when Mr. O'Daniel hit the trail, sons and daughters pitched in and made hands riding the herd or running the chuck wagon.

He possessed a sixth sense when it came to judging cattle, and he had an encyclopaedic mind. In his younger days, after he had sold out or was recouping his fortunes, he would put a thousand or two dollars in his pockets and start out. Picking up a yearling here and there when he could make a good buy, he would gradually increase his herd until he might be driving two or three hundred head. His drives to railroad at Coahoma and Iatan were colorful affairs. At times he had as many as 700 head on his spread and until later in life he made only mental notes of his transactions.

His scanty memory was reflected in the many stories he told about early days. Not many weeks ago he made a trip in south of Midland, and even though the landscape was now dotted with oil derricks, he could pinpoint where early ranchers lived and where certain incidents of his transactions.

School Voters Name McAdams, Dibrell Trustees

John L. Dibrell Jr., the only incumbent in the race, and Tom McAdams were elected to the board of trustees for the Big Spring Independent School District Saturday.

The two held comfortable leads over the other two candidates, Dr. Floyd Mays and A. McNary.

Stanton Re-Elects Present Trustees

STANTON — The two members of the present board seeking reelection were winners in voting for trustees of the Stanton Independent School District Saturday.

They were Ed Robinson and Elmer Mashburn. James Biggs, who set the pace, will be the third member who will be sworn in for three-year terms when the board meets Tuesday evening to canvass returns.

Results showed Robinson with 87 votes, Elmer Mashburn with 57 and Biggs with 71. Barely missing the top three rung was Ray Pickett with 55 votes. Clayton Reynolds polled 28.

Others on the ballot were Charles Read, incumbent, 24, W. R. Echols 48, and Fred Gibson 42. There was a total of 118 votes cast in the election. Votes will be canvassed at the next regular meeting and the members sworn in.

Quinn H. Reid, who will be a new member of the board, led the ticket with 55 votes, while the others elected were J. B. Spears with 44 and Warner Robinson with 34.

Others on the ballot were Charles Read, incumbent, 24, W. R. Echols 48, and Fred Gibson 42. There was a total of 118 votes cast in the election. Votes will be canvassed at the next regular meeting and the members sworn in.

Solon Seizes On Ike Aide's Critical Report

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—Armed with a critical new report by an Eisenhower appointee, Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) today appealed directly to President Eisenhower to cancel the Dixon-Yates electric power contract.

The report was issued by the General Accounting Office, headed by Comptroller General Joseph Campbell. The criticism was directed, not at the power contract, but at Esbasco Services, Inc., New York utility engineering company which has been proposed for the job of designing and supervising construction of the Dixon-Yates plant.

Campbell's report dealt with an AEC contract to get power from a private utility plant at Jopka, Ill., in which Esbasco Services had an important part until eliminated.

The comptroller general recommended against this, until a dispute over extra costs and fees on the Jopka plant is settled, or unless the government (AEC) is protected against higher costs and additional fees on the West Memphis plant.

Rape-Slayer Hunt Pressed

DETROIT, April 2 (AP)—The body of slain Barbara Gace was returned home today as police pressed an around-the-clock search for the 7-year-old schoolgirl's rapist-murderer.

While her sorrowing family prepared for Barbara's funeral Tuesday, a far-flung roundup was under way of all known sex offenders.

Police fastened out in efforts to locate the source of an Army blanket which was wrapped around the body. Teams of detectives checked supply houses and laundries.

Hun Refugees Given To Reds

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Four Hungarian refugees who fled across the Austrian border have been returned to Hungary after being turned in by an Austrian Communist, police reported today.

Two of the refugees were injured when a mine exploded as they were making their escape Thursday night. Communist border guards opened fire, but the group managed to reach the border village of Nickelsdorf in the Soviet Zone of Austria.

The refugees made their way to a private house and preparations were begun to transport them to the American zone. But Austrian police, under strict orders from the Russians to report all escapes, were informed by a Communist living in the village. The Russians immediately had the refugees picked up and turned them over to Hungarian authorities.

Girls Send Flowers To Scientist's Grave

BOLOGNA, Italy, April 2 (AP)—When Maria Luisa Lanzillo, 13, and her 9-year-old sister, Paola, heard of the death of Sir Alexander Fleming, the discoverer of penicillin, they sent 1,000 lire ($1.65) to London to buy violets for his grave.

"Our mother's life was saved by penicillin when she was very, very ill," Maria Luisa explained. Now the girls have a letter of thanks from Lady Fleming. The widow wrote that she was deeply touched by their kindness and "violets were among my husband's favorite flowers."

Soviet President To Attend Liberation Fete

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Marshal Klementi Y. Voroshilov, President of the Soviet Union, arrived here today. He heads a Soviet delegation to help commemorate on Monday the 10th anniversary of Hungary's liberation from the Nazis.

Voroshilov headed the Russian control commission in Hungary after the war.

Talent Trophy

Lee Lemon, Ackerly senior, holds the trophy he won Friday in the talent contest at the third annual HCJC Senior Day. Lee won the contest with a comedy skit. In addition to the trophy, he received a full scholarship, to HCJC and other awards. Forty Big Spring businessmen presented gifts to winners of the first six places in both beauty and talent contests during the program. The Senior Day activities attracted some 300 high school seniors from nine area high schools. Judging in both beauty and talent contests was by Col. Charles Young and staff from Webb Air Force Base.

AT HCJC SENIOR DAY

Beauty, Talent Winners Chosen

Nancy Pitman of Big Spring won the beauty crown and Lee Lemon of Ackerly captured the talent title Friday in contests at the third annual Senior Day at Howard County Junior College.

The beauty and talent contests were highlights of the event which attracted some 300 high school seniors from throughout the area. Announcement of the winners and the presentation of awards concluded the all-day program at an afternoon assembly in the auditorium.

Lemon won the talent contest with a comedy skit in which he filled the role of a "country hick" on a visit to town.

Both he and Miss Pitman received full scholarships to HCJC.

along with handsome 24-inch trophies, and gifts of merchandise provided by Big Spring businessmen.

Other winners in the contests also received trophies and gifts. The second and third place winners in each contest were presented with half scholarships, along with the other awards.

Runners-up in the beauty contest were Patty Gregory of Big Spring, second; Ann Rowe of Big Spring, third; Sue Rasberry of Ackerly, fourth; Linda Cathy of Stanton, fifth; and Shirley Ward of Big Spring, sixth.

Placing in the talent contest were Jane Reynolds of Big Spring, vocalist, second; Patty Gregory, vocalist, third; Frankie Brown, Big Spring, comedy skit, fourth; Howard Sheats, Big Spring, pianist, fifth; and Gordon Myrick, Derwood Myrick and Robert Rogers, Big Spring guitar trio, sixth.

The visiting students—from high schools in Big Spring, Coahoma, Meadow, Garden City, Ackerly, Knott, Fossan, Stanton, and Ira—were treated to a barbecue luncheon and also were conducted on tours of the campus. Coach Harold Davis presided at the contests and judging was by Col. Charles Young, Webb Air Force Base commander, and his staff. The Webb band presented two concerts—during registration Friday morning and at the barbecue. General chairman for the day's activities was George McAllister.

Gifts for the winners in the beauty and talent contests were provided by 40 Big Spring businesses.

Two Charged With Felonies

Forgery charges were filed in Justice Court Friday against Richard Dudley, 17.

Dist. Atty. Guilford Jones said his office is holding 17 forged checks involving the youth. Seven local business places have reported receiving the checks.

Dudley was charged in connection with a $10 check, payable to him and bearing the name of Alex Walker Jr. The instrument was dated March 14.

Also charged with a felony offense Friday was Johnnie Martin. Martin is charged with second offense driving while intoxicated. He was arrested last Tuesday.

Shoplifting Reported

Police picked up a man in the downtown area Saturday following reports of shop lifting at McCrory's Five and Ten Cent Store. The man had a woman's purse, lipstick and fingernail polish when arrested, police said, and he was booked on a charge of drunkenness.

Tradition Broken

CAIRO, Egypt, April 2 (AP)—A woman has broken a thousand years of tradition at the Al Azhar University, noted Moslem seat of learning. The first feminine speech within its walls was given by Begum Zein Hameid Allah, editor of the Pakistan newspaper Mirror. Students and professors applauded politely as she appealed for equal rights for Moslem women.

Senior Day Queen

Nancy Pitman, chosen as beauty queen at the annual Senior Day program at Howard County Junior College, receives a trophy from Mrs. Lynette Brooks, HCJC student from Big Spring. Mrs. Brooks, the former Lynette Blum, was the Senior Day beauty last year. Miss Pitman also received a scholarship and numerous gifts.

Big Diamond To Be Eyed

CARACAS, Venezuela, April 2 (AP)—A 690-carat diamond found in the southwestern Venezuela jungle will be brought to Caracas soon for examination by the Ministry of Mines.

Press reports today from Ciudad Bolivar said the stone appears to be of poor quality and may be worth only a couple of thousand dollars. First estimates valued the stone, ranking in size close behind the famed Jonker found in South Africa in 1934, as high as $600,000.

Charges Due Filing For Theft Of Tools

A man who will be charged with taking approximately $60 in tools from the car of Gene Campbell is now in city jail serving out a fine for drunkenness, it was reported Saturday.

Police arrested the man Friday after Campbell, 421 Hillside Dr., reported that wrenches, a hammer, files, and nuts and bolts were taken from his car. Theft was sometime Wednesday night, he said.

Officers made the arrest and recovered the tools after attempts had been made to sell the items. A theft charge will be lodged against the man when the drunkenness fine is served, said Capt. M. L. Kirby.

City Commission Places Will Be Filled Tuesday

Two posts on the Big Spring City Commission will be filled in an election here Tuesday.

Polling place will be the City Hall fire station, and votes can be cast between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Candidates are Willard Sullivan, Ward Hall, and G. W. Dabney.

The election judges will be Lawrence Robinson and W. R. Yates, veteran tabulators.

All Big Spring citizens who paid their poll taxes or obtained exemption certificates can vote. It is not necessary to own property, said City Secretary C. R. McClenney.

Thirty-six residents have already cast absentee ballots, but these early ballots will not be counted until the other votes are tabulated.

Dabney, who is now serving as mayor, and Sullivan, serving as commissioner, have announced for re-election. Hall's announcement as a candidate marked his entry into politics.

All have pledged to work in the interest of the people and for the prosperity of the city.

Hall is co-owner of Westex Wrecking Company and developer of the Hall Addition in East Big Spring. Dabney is ticket agent at T&P Railroad Company and has been on the commission for 10 years. Sullivan, also a veteran commissioner, is owner of the Settles Drug Store.

HCJC Expansion Program Outlined

Four new buildings and additions to four others are contemplated under a development program for Howard County Junior College, Dr. F. W. Malone, president of the trustees, said Saturday.

Petitions now are being circulated for a $600,000 bond election. In connection with this, some have inquired what funds would be used for, said Dr. Malone. He listed these items:

Double the size of the library; increase the size of the gymnasium; remodel part of the administration building; erect a building for the music department; build a plant for the practical arts; provide a shelter for the school bus; construct an experimental hot house.

Facilities are now inadequate for physical education needs, he said. It is planned to extend the gymnasium to the north, thus doubling the seating capacity. Dressing rooms would be provided beneath the stands for the boys, permitting remodeling of existing rooms (used alternately by boys and girls) so that it would be devoted to girls and would have individual compartments.

The music unit would have music rooms, practice and classrooms. Currently, dressing rooms in the auditorium are being used for practice purposes.

While the library has pulled up to volume requirements of the Southern Association of Colleges, space is beginning to become increasingly difficult. There is no room left for expansion and there is little room left for study and reading.

The present science building was constructed originally on a small scale because bids were so attractive at the time the over-all plan was let that trustees squeezed in the nucleus of a science unit. Now it is planned to double the size to meet demands.

The practical arts building would replace the wooden structures which were moved in in 1951 on a temporary basis. Construction would be semi-fireproof and would provide for woodwork, metal and welding shops as well as a complete agriculture department with agricultural repair shops.

Also contemplated is an experimental hot house which would be available for horticultural groups in the city as well as for agricultural purposes.

Some office and classroom remodeling would be undertaken in the administration building. Trustees also hope funds will be ample for paving driveways on the campus.

Dr. Malone said that when the needs were first laid out, the probable cost was pegged at $750,000. By holding to the bare essentials in design and by making changes and some eliminations, the total was pulled down to $600,000, the amount asked in the petitions which are due to be presented to the board Monday. An election may be called during April, he indicated.

British News Strike Takes On Siege Look

LONDON, April 2 (AP)—Britain's biggest newspaper strike took on the aspects today of becoming a long siege between Fleet Street press lords and Communist-led electricians.

A Royal Commission was named by the government to investigate the strike now going into its ninth day—but it only has powers to make recommendations.

Already the strike has cut deeply into the nation's economic life at the height of the busy Easter shopping season and has left millions of voters in a news blackout with a general election likely.

The dispute hinged on the wage demands of only 700 employees—the bulk of them members of the electrical trade union headed by Communist Walter Stevens. Striking with them are a handful of maintenance men.

More than 50,000 other employees—editorial down to newspaper vendors on the street—have been left idle by the walkout that shut down 13 national dailies and 11 Sunday newspapers with a circulation totaling upwards of 50 million.

Half U. S. Colleges Said Operating In Red

HARRIMAN, N.Y., April 2 (AP)—A business man's survey of American higher education turned up the finding today that "half the nation's colleges appear to be operating in the red."

The survey was conducted by the Council for Financial Aid to Education, a nonprofit organization established by business men to encourage greater financial support for colleges and universities from all sources.

The council does not itself solicit or distribute funds. Chairman of the council's board of directors is Irving S. Olds, former board chairman of U.S. Steel Corp., now in New York law practice.

The council sent questionnaires to approximately 800 colleges and universities and received usable replies from 733, representing about 60 per cent of the degree-granting schools in the country.

Results of the survey were reported here today at a meeting cosponsored by the council and the Columbia University Graduate School of Business.

Major reason for the schools' plight, the report said, is that the average cost of operations per student went up 50 per cent between 1948 and 1953, the latest year on which figures are available. Tuition and fees went up an average of only 21 per cent.

"It is clear," the report said, "that the nation's higher educational establishment needs fresh and powerful draughts of new capital if it is to do effective work."

The schools themselves estimate their needs over the next 10 years this way:

Of the 733 reporting, 545 said they will need more than three billion dollars for such nonbuilding purposes as research, faculty salaries and scholarships.

A group of 630 schools said they will need a little over 2½ billion for buildings.

Of those reporting, 650 schools said they already had about 2½ billion in endowments.

"In brief," the report commented, "despite the broadening base and increasing volume of support which they have received in the last five years from corporations, foundations and individuals, the nation's colleges, universities, and professional schools are not yet across the 50-yard line in their drive toward the goal of economic solidity."

World Honors Famed Fairy Story Writer

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—More than 70 nations on both sides of the Iron Curtain joined Denmark today in honoring Hans Christian Andersen on the 150th anniversary of his birth.

At Odense, birthplace of the beloved writer of fairy tales, King Frederik IX paid Denmark's tribute in a world-wide broadcast. As he spoke flags flew all over the nation, buildings were decorated with huge portraits, street cars and taxis sported gay pennants.

In Copenhagen, children watched a special Andersen program. Andersen, writer of tales which have delighted children for generations, is buried in Copenhagen. After ceremonies there this morning 5,000 children paraded through the city. Leading them was an actor, representing Andersen, who rode in an old coach.

Lowering Banks' Taxes Opposed

AUSTIN — A bill by Sen. Otis Lock of Lufkin, which would reduce the amount of county and city taxes paid by banks, has drawn quick fire from the Texas League of Municipalities.

The bill would put banks under the same formula for determining value of stock for tax purposes as that used for building and loan associations.

Opponents say the measure would cut the total local taxes paid by banks some $45 million.

Sen. Lock says this figure is too high — that banks don't pay as much as the opponents claim the cut would be. He estimates his measure would cut the local tax bill in about half.

Opponents point out that governments, city, county and state, are hard pressed for more revenue and that it would not be right to reduce the taxes of those most able to pay.

Sen. Lock says his primary purpose in the bill is not to save the banks some money, but to correct an antiquated tax system (set up in 1885) which has in effect put a "ceiling" on capital structures of Texas banks.

As it now stands, banks hesitate to expand their capital structure to give themselves correspondingly more lending power because to do so hurts them taxwise.

Encouraging an increase in lending power of Texas banks would help promote industrial expansion in Texas, Lock said.

Duo Charged In Shooting

AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—A father and his son were charged with assault with intent to murder a Bergstrom Air Force Base airman and were freed today on $5,000 bond each.

The accused men are Otto Ludwig, 64, and Raymond Ludwig, 39. The Ludwigs were charged with firing a shotgun in the face of Airman Henry Roach, 21, of Indianapolis Thursday night as he sat in a parked car with a girl student, 16, in a rural lane near their residence.

Sheriff T. O. Lang said the blast hit Roach near the base of his left eye and plowed a deep furrow across his face between forehead and upper lip. Roach lost both his eyes and his nose, Lang said.

A spokesman for Lackland Air Force Base Hospital said today "Roach is doing fine, but is still on the serious list." He has a 50-50 chance of living, the spokesman said.

THE SAME OLD LINE

By Bob Smith

The powers that be have ordained that we write a weekly fishing column — or, more properly, an outdoors column, since we shall occasionally include items on hunting. So be it.

We must ask our readers, however, to be patient for awhile, since we are strictly the Isaac Walton type of fisherman, knowing next to nothing about flies or casting. We'll learn, eventually.

It would be a big help to this column if fishermen and an occasional hunter would send in items of interest. Just address Fishing Editor, c/o Big Spring Herald.

A little item from Austin: the Game and Fish Commission's wildlife exhibit has passed the 1,500,000 attendance mark. The mobile exhibit includes specimens of Texas fish and animals, and has been shown all over the state. The show is slated for Dallas April 15-24, Denison April 2-11, and is available for fairs, sports shows, fat stock shows and the like in any part of the state.

Some game violators met double trouble last month. An Odessa man paid $200 for killing a deer out of season and another $175 for possession of deer out of season, plus substantial court costs. A Grand Prairie man who illegally shot a doe was fined a total of $300 on counts of killing and possessing, in addition to court costs. The assessment was $200 against another Grand Prairie man on similar charges. Warden caught a La Porte man hunting deer at night and found freshly shot ducks in his car. The total fine was $300 with court costs extra. A San Marcos man who successfully headlighted a doe paid $50 each on two charges plus the costs.

Winds last week produced the roughest water yet experienced on Lake J. B. Thomas. There were no estimates on height of the waves, but E. V. Spence, CRMWD manager, said action was violent enough to damage a metal boat housed by the district inside a boat-house.

Water at the lake, turned red two weeks ago by a surprise shower and runoff, is clearing rapidly and is due to be fairly clear again by this weekend.

The road to the lake or the shortcut at the Howard Mitchell County line is now open all the way. The mile from a dirt lateral in Mitchell, north to the CRMWD property, has been graded and is in good condition.

U. S. Preacher Appeals To Pope

ROME, April 2 (AP)—An American preacher has appealed to Pope Pius XII to intervene on behalf of the Church of Christ in its prolonged dispute with the Italian government.

M. J. Gray of Lincoln Park, Mich., a Church of Christ preacher, wrote to the Vatican. The church had had trouble with Italian authorities recently over the posting of a sign on its Rome building.

Its local leader, Clyde Paden of Lubbock and Brownfield, Tex., faces trial April 13 for posting another sign after police removed the original one.

Paden said Gray recently went to Washington to assist in presentation to the State Department of documents on the situation of the Church of Christ in Italy.

Slap Seen For Asia Ban Bid

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) and Knowland (R-Calif.) predicted today the Senate Foreign Relations Committee will slap down a proposal to ban American defense of the China coast islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

George, who heads the committee, said he is opposed to a proposal made by Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) to put Congress on record against use of U.S. forces to defend the Nationalist-held islands.

"I am opposed to Sen. Morse's resolution," George said. "We will take it up in committee in due course but I do not believe the committee will approve it."

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, said he believes the proposal will be voted down "overwhelmingly."

He noted that a somewhat similar proposal by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) had been rejected 20-8 by the combined Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committee in approving the "Defend Formosa" resolution subsequently passed by Congress.

Morse's proposal was offered Friday in the midst of a barrage of criticism by Democratic senators who classify themselves as liberals against President Eisenhower's handling of affairs in the Far East.

Knowland said his great fear is that the Chinese Communists might "misinterpret" the introduction of the Oregon senator's resolution as indicating lack of unity in this country on Formosa policies.

The Formosa resolution empowers Eisenhower to defend Formosa, the Pescadores and "related" positions. The administration has not committed itself definitely as to the defense of Quemoy and Matsu.

188 Communicable Infections Listed

There were 188 communicable disease cases reported to the Big Spring-Howard County Health Unit last week by local physicians. Influenza with 40 cases, led the disease list.

The diseases reported included measles, 25; pneumonia, 28; upper respiratory, 20; diarrhea, 16; mumps, 6; whooping cough, 3; tonsillitis, 15; strep throat, 8; gonorrhea, 3; syphilis, 1; pink eye, 1; and gastroenteritis, 10.

Hitler's Personal Car To Go On Exhibit Here Today

Adolph Hitler's personal armored car will be on exhibit at Second and Main this afternoon and Monday. The exhibit is sponsored by Howard County Post 355 of the American Legion. Admission is by donation.

Hitler's "Mercedes" automobile was built in the Mercedes-Benz plant at Stuttgart, Germany. The car weighs 10,000 pounds and is 20 feet long. The doors alone weigh 400 pounds each.

The car is built of one-half inch steel armor plate and the windows are one and one-fourth inch bullet-proof glass. The giant car has a cruising speed of 90 miles per hour and is equipped with a supercharger that enables it to exceed 135 miles per hour. The fuel tank holds 56 gallons of gas and the gas mileage is approximately four miles per gallon.

Teachers are invited to bring classes to the exhibit at any time from noon Sunday and from 10 a. m. Monday. Classes of school children accompanied by a teacher are not expected to make donations.

Close Race Is Seen In Texas

By The Associated Press

It's "play ball" for the Texas League Wednesday and the Class AA loop's new president looks for an even race over the 161-game route.

The same eight teams that have made up the league for years will be in it this year, although at one point earlier this season it looked like Beaumont might not make it. But the club ironed out its difficulties, and appears to be in good shape.

The opener Wednesday: Tulsa at Houston, Oklahoma City at San Antonio, Fort Worth at Beaumont and Dallas at Shreveport.

Dick Butler is the new league president, replacing John Reeves of Fort Worth. Butler formerly was head of the South Atlantic League.

Butler said a balanced race was in prospect.

He said all of the clubs want to field quick-moving teams to speed up games and give fans more fun.

Who'll win the pennant is anybody's guess.

Many clubs will have to see how much help they're going to get from their major league affiliates.

Dallas, for one though, is going through a complete rebuilding job. The Eagles won in 1953 and flopped to last in 1954.

Beaumont is injecting new player blood.

Houston and Fort Worth stand out early as potential contenders. The clubs this year will carry 19 players throughout. A playing manager will not count.

Flood Control Job

ATHENS, Greece, April 2 (AP)—Greece is undertaking a nine-million-dollar flood control and irrigation project she hopes will add 30,000 acres to her farm economy. Bids on the biggest phase, taming of the Evros River on the Greek-Turkish frontier, will be called for next Saturday. Turkey is cooperating.

Ancient Plays Set

ROME, April 2 (AP)—The words of Aristophanes, the Greek, and Plautus, the ancient Roman, will echo again this summer in the hollow halls of Pompeii and Ostia Antica. Plays by the two classic dramatists will be presented at amphitheaters of the two ruined cities from June 24 to July 17—to boost the tourist trade.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Reader Ayers Shivers Won't Get To Washington

Dear Editor: I have just read the article in your paper from the governor, regarding the tax on cigarettes. I have also noted in other articles where the honorable Governor is advocating more tax on gasoline, but you have never seen in any place where he has offered to put any tax on natural gas of which the most of it is going out of the state and the tax would have to be paid by the consumer who is out of the state. No, this would be stepping on some of the big boys' toes, and he can't afford that; he had rather put it on the working man that has to drive miles every day to his work. No, Governor, you have fooled the people your last time. We know what you have your eye on, but you are going to find that it is a long way to Washington, D. C. and you will never make it. If you will put your tax program to a vote you will find that it will go against you ten to one.

had happened. Mr. O'Daniel was an excellent spinner of stories. Mr. O'Daniel was most intimately acquainted with John (Eight John) Wallace, legendary Negro rancher in Mitchell County, for they had been reared together. When the slaves had been freed, John Wallace's mother came to live with the O'Daniels. Later their paths crossed when Mr. O'Daniel and Eight John both ranched in Mitchell County.

Perhaps the only activity outside of his ranch and home in which he freely indulged was the Baptist Church. When the First Baptist Church at Coahoma was built, he made the offer to match other contributions dollar for dollar.

Drought cut deeply into his reserves at time, but the historic break in 1917-18 left him worse than broke, he once said. However, he fought back and held on to his ranch. Nearly 20 years ago he was rewarded when the Snyder pool in eastern Howard County extended well into his ranch. Some suspected those wells gave him more pleasure than ranching ever had.

Mr. O'Daniel continued to be actively engaged in ranching, riding daily and directing operations until little less than 15 years ago. He went into semi-retirement and ultimately moved to Big Spring. After Mrs. Alice O'Daniel's death, he was married to Mrs. Mollie Hendricks of San Antonio, but she died soon afterwards. On June 7, 1947 he was married to Mrs. Lulla Belle Shepherd, whom the children affectionately called Aunt Belle.

She survives him as do two sons and three daughters, E. T. (Gene) O'Daniel and O. T. (Oscar) O'Daniel, Coahoma, Mrs. Udonia (A. C.) Bass and Mrs. Mary (J. E.) Brown, Big Spring, and Mrs. Leroy Echols, Coahoma. There also are 15 grandchildren who survive and 15 great-grandchildren; and Mrs. O'Daniel's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sumner of Delmeta. Pallbearers will be grandsons, including J. E. Brown Jr., Roger Brown, Ray Echols, Lowell Baird, Prentice Bass, Dale Puckett, Ray Freeman and O. D. O'Daniel.

Spring Clean-Up

The Furr Food Store got the jump on other Big Springers in the spring clean-up last week. The concern cleared the block it purchased at the Eleventh Place Shopping Center of all trash and the debris left after houses were removed. Holly Bird, manager of the local store, said construction of a super market on the block will not be started yet. Trees will be left standing on the property for the present.

Jess Talkin by Jess Blair

The big blow of last Thursday didn't pick up much soil close to Big Spring, as few of the fields were blowing severely. There was very little soil moving at Ackerly except the black dust that came whipping in from the higher Plains. There was a wide strip of country, however, in the triangle made by Sparenberg, Patricia and Flower Grove. This is an area where crops were short last year, and there was not much stubble to turn under. I saw several fields which started from the roadsides, then fanned out to cover twenty or thirty acres. There was no regular pattern. One field would have the furrows leveled with sand, while a neighbor's held like a carpet.

A lot of sand piles were visible around Flower Grove. In spite of an inch rain two weeks ago. Some of this came about because the rain had powdered the surface and allowed the wind to pick up the particles. Farmers who had knifed the furrows had less blowing. Farmers around Ackerly are beginning to plant. M. Y. Bowlin was planting maize just north of the village Saturday morning, while Ed Hall was getting ready to start Monday. They say they will either be forced to knife or re-plant, so why not put some seed in the ground and take a chance?

The big irrigation well recently brought in south of Klondike is not so big anymore. Frank Harris, the owner, had tested it 36 hours when first drilled, and it threw a full eight-inch stream of water which measured 930 gallons per minute. After some steady pumping, it is now running only about half this amount.

Ted Fields of the Elbow community has about used up his silage, on which he fed out more than 100 head of cattle during the winter. He has already sold a few head and expects to dispose of the others within the next two weeks. Fields says the only way to make money raising feed in this area is to put it into silage and feed to livestock. He has planned another big crop of cane and heari this year to fill those empty silos.

WINDY WINDY DAY YARNS: Stories about badgers digging holes in the air and the paint being blown off barns are now old stuff to most people. But we heard some new ones last Friday. A fellow traveling east on Highway 80 ran out of gas a few miles from here. He cut off the ignition and let the wind blow him into town; however, he was going so fast he ran three red lights before the car could be stopped. . . . Another man had his hat blown off and two miles away a farmer shot it down, thinking it was a flying saucer. . . . Then there was the big dishwasher a housewife let slip out of her hands and it started rolling across the pasture. When they found it over in Mitchell County, the man had been worn down to the size of a saucer. . . . This one, I promise, is the last: A farmer was driving down the road when a neighbor standing in the doorway yelled out, "Hi, Reginald!" Four miles farther on a woman heard the "Hi!" but it was thirty seconds later before the wind blew the little word along at a much faster rate.

places. Tuesday there are three seeking two places on the city commission ballot. Now that we've had practice, how about a much better turnout? Our new county agent is to be Jimmy Taylor, who is soon to be separated from Army duty. Prior to that he was agent for Reeves and Loving counties and had some experience also in Young County. County Agent Durward Levster continues on the job until April 15 before entering private business.

If we could sound the notes as well as our high school band, a spirited trumpet salute would be in order. The band won first division in sight reading, concert playing and marching. More than that — in every event that our soloists and ensembles competed, they won a first division.

Word from Patricia McCormick is to the effect that she is in tip-top condition once more and will leave Mexico City this weekend for Laredo. Her initial comeback flight is April 19 in Nuevo Laredo, and on April 17 she will be in Villa Acuna . . . and then home maybe for a few days. Working hard to sharpen her bullfighting technique, she fought 25 cows on one tiente.

Howard County Junior College's annual senior day drew more than 300 visitors Friday — less than anticipated. College officials figured bad weather cut the total, but those who did take part lived it up.

Approximately three score workers for Reef Fields Natural Gasoline Company got good news. A four per cent salary and wage hike was made retroactive to March 15, according to Charles Sweeney, manager.

The YMCA announced that James Monroe Hardy, known only as Bobo to most Big Springers, had been elected to the staff. Now serving with the Marines, he is expected to join the staff in mid-September. Too bad it isn't a month earlier; he could produce the water carnival he originated.

At this season of the year, we always like to remind that the traditional sunrise services at the City Park amphitheatre will be held next Sunday. It's a wonderful way to start a meaningful Easter.

Lamesan Dies While With Son At Track Meet

LAMESA — C. L. Schmidt, 39, prominent Lamesa resident, died Saturday afternoon of a heart attack sustained while watching a track meet at Texas Technological College in Lubbock. He fell to the ground while his son, who was about to enter relay competition, was standing at his side. He was taken to the Methodist Memorial Hospital but was pronounced dead on arrival. Funeral services will be held up pending the arrival of relatives, but will be held at the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Walter G. Horn officiating. His body is lying in state at Higginbotham Funeral Home in Lamesa.

Schmidt was born on Oct. 22, 1915, and has lived all his life in Dawson County. He is the son of the late Gus Schmidt, prominent Dawson County resident. He was a farmer and past president of the Lamesa Country Club. He was a member of the board of directors at the time of his death. He was also a member of the Lions Club and the First Presbyterian Church.

A well known amateur golfer, Schmidt was the 1953 city champion. He married the former Miss Louise Hunt of Lamesa in 1938, and they had two children, C. L. (Mike) Jr., 14, and Suzanne, 10. He was at Lubbock to see Mike compete in the track meet.

Schmidt graduated from Lamesa High School and worked at the Lamesa National Bank prior to entering the U. S. Navy, where he served more than a year. He is survived by his wife and children, his mother, Mrs. Gus Schmidt of Lamesa, and a brother, Durward Schmidt, Lamesa. At the time of Schmidt's death he was waiting for his son to enter relay competition. He had just seen Mike qualify in the preliminaries of the 50 and 75-yard dashes.

from three of five boxes indicated. Hoelscher had 39 votes and Calverly 34. No other name showed more than four votes. The Line and St. Lawrence boxes were still out but neither could altar the results.

Lloyd Hardy, president of the board, did not seek re-election, but he got three write-in votes. Jones is the new member of the board. Among those who received write-in votes were Joy Wilkerson, Bill Schafer, Walter Lowe, Clyde Reynolds, and George Hillger Jr. (4).

Wash, Storey Get Vote Of Confidence

FORSAN — C. V. Wash and H. H. Storey, incumbents, received a vote of confidence in their bids for re-election as Forsan trustees Saturday. They each polled 24 out of 25 votes cast. They will begin their new three-year term at the next board meeting.

Allred, Lloyd Win At Knott

KNOTT, (SC) — Donald Allred and Arnold Lloyd were re-elected to the board for the Knott Independent School District here Saturday. Allred received 17 votes and Lloyd 15. Write-in votes went to W. S. Shaw and Claude King, one each.

Gilmore Apparently Returned To Board

J. D. Gilmore apparently was returned as a member of the county board of trustees from Precinct No. 2. Incomplete returns Saturday showed him far out in front. He polled 53 votes at Coahoma and 18 at Forsan. L. W. Moore received six votes and Carl Bates and Fred Adams each got one.

Neill Wins Post At Center Point

CENTER POINT — Ralph Neill received 11 votes and was elected to a three-year term as a member of the Center Point board of trustees Saturday. Leonard Hanson, whose term is expiring, received two votes as did Olin Fryar. Harold Talbot received one write-in vote. Center Point is within School District No. 7.

Fine Is Assessed On Liquor Charge

A fine of $100 and costs were assessed in County Court Saturday against J. D. Gant of Lubbock, who pleaded guilty to charges of transporting liquor without a permit. Gant pleaded not guilty in the day, but decided to change his plea after Judge R. H. Weaver had set bond at $500. He was arrested Friday night by Police Sgt. Bill Cartwright at the intersection of North-east 12th and the Snyder Highway. Sgt. Cartwright said he stopped Gant's car after it failed to halt for a stop sign. Fines were levied Friday against two other persons, both of whom pleaded guilty to charges of defrauding with worthless check. Fined $15 each were Jeff Smith Jr. and Nathaniel W. Dugay. Both were accused of giving worthless checks to H. L. Smith.

Underwriting Firm Plans To Move Home Office Here

Offices of the United Industries Underwriters Corporation will be moved to Big Spring. It was announced Saturday following a stockholders meeting. The move will not be made immediately, said Dr. J. E. Hogan, who was elected chairman of the board. Several matters remain to be worked out before the transfer can be made at the present.

Stockholders also sanctioned a delay in activation of the United Industries Life Insurance Company pending a clarification of insurance statutes by the legislature. The company has been chartered, but it was felt that a sounder start can be made when it is ascertained what changes will be made in Texas insurance laws.

Meantime, proceeds from sale of stock on the order of $252,000 will be invested. Currently, plans are to invest in Oil Industries Life and Western Indemnity Life, two rapidly rising young companies. United Industries Underwriters also will invest in old line insurance stocks and other approved securities.

Another decision reached following the stockholders meeting is to organize a finance company under the parent organization. Details of this are still in the planning stage.

Among board members residing here are Leonard Coker, Jerry Currie, M. M. Edwards, Dr. M. H. Bennett, R. V. Middleton, Lorin S. McDowell, Dr. P. W. Malone, J. Homer McKinley, Dr. W. F. D. O'Brien, George O. Stone, Dr. Clyde E. Thomas.

Final Report Due Monday For C-C Membership Drive

Final report on the membership drive for the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce will be given during a special breakfast meeting Monday at 7:30 a.m. The meeting will be in the Settles Hotel Ballroom, and all drive workers are urged to be present with their new members.

The drive workers have been divided into 10 teams, and teams securing the most new members will be offered prizes. Matt Harrington and George Zachariah are drive co-chairmen.

C-C Directorate Has Varied Agenda

A good will dinner at Midway, the coming clean-up campaign, Fourth of July celebration, and the membership drive are expected to be considered in a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors Monday.

The meeting will be at noon in the Chamber conference room at the Perrin Building. The good will dinner at Midway is slated for Thursday at 7:30 p.m., said Chamber Manager J. H. Greene. The clean-up campaign has been set for the week of April 17. The membership drive will be completed Monday.

Discussions will probably be held on the Henry Ford Memorial Highway, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce meeting, the TCCM convention in June, and national cotton week, it was reported.

San Angelo Woman Injured When Car Overtakes Here

A San Angelo woman was not seriously injured when her Honda automobile turned over about four miles south of Big Spring on Highway 87 Friday afternoon. The woman told patrolmen that another car forced her off the road and she lost control of the car when it hit the road shoulder. Witnesses said she turned over three times.

She was carried to Malone & Hogan Hospital in a Nalley ambulance. Hospital attendants said her condition was satisfactory Saturday with no major injuries. The woman gave her name as Mrs. Boyd Smith to the ambulance driver and to the hospital. Highway patrolmen who investigated the mishap identified her from a driver's license as Allie McCullen Fowler.

A mishap at Third and Nolan streets about noon Saturday involved drivers Inez Head Thurman, 1300 E. 8th and Gustavo P. Ochotorena, 310 N. Scerrally. Friday at 1 p.m. Geraldine P. Hutchins, 610 1/2 Eleventh Place, and William John King, 315 Mesquite were driving cars which collided in the 400 block of Main.

A collision at Third and Benton streets at 4 p.m. involved drivers John Howard Garrison, 807 E. 13th, and Alfred Dwayne Brooks, Odessa. It was reported Friday by Thurber Tinkham, 1003 Sycamore, that he and the Rev. R. Gage Lloyd were driving cars which were in an accident at 8:45 p.m. Thursday in the 600 block of Eleventh Place.

A truck stalled on the west viaduct Thursday afternoon struck two parked cars owned by Morgan Ranson, 406 NW 2nd, and J. O. Murphy, 905 E. 12th. It had previously been reported that this was a three-way collision.

Pistol, Sprinkler Thefts Reported

A 38 caliber pistol was stolen from Stanley Hardware Store, 203 Runnels, sometime Saturday or Friday, it was reported to police by owner John Stanley. Bill Bonner, 105 Washington Blvd., told officers that a green water sprinkler was stolen from his yard sometime during the past week.

BSHS Wins Second

Big Spring High School actors tied with Midland for second place in the District 2-AA one-act play contest in Lubbock Saturday. Clara Freeman of Big Spring won the best actress award. Jon Cook of the Big Spring group won honorable mention for best actor.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

Judging by letters, many readers enjoy the series we had about early automobiles. Among the pioneers of the motor car industry, I spoke about Charles Duryea. Mrs. Clara Swanson has sent some additional material about him. Mr. Duryea was trying out his experiments in Peoria, Ill., a block from my home. Each evening during one summer we could hear the chug-chug on Moss Avenue. If we missed going up the bluff some evening, a neighbor would say next day, "Oh, Mr. Duryea made it go a little way last evening." He worked in the Ide Bicycle Works at the time. Later he went to the east, where a Mr. Stevens became interested in the automobile. "A humorous side to this is that the Peoria City Council considered stopping Mr. Duryea's trials because his car made so much noise. "When I read your column about Mr. Duryea, it made me feel that I was living over my early life in Peoria. I am sending the clipping to a sister who was a good friend of Rhea Duryea, a daughter in the inventor's family. During later years of his life, Charles Duryea lived in Philadelphia. It was from there that he wrote me the letters which I quoted. In another article, I spoke about Henry Ford having English ancestors on his father's side and Dutch ancestors on his mother's side. Mrs. W. J. Moore of North Battleford, Sask., has written saying that she knew Ford's "grandfather's people," and that they were "Irish for two generations." William Ford, father of Henry Ford the automobile pioneer, lived in Ireland, but he was of English ancestry. The William Ford home was near the city of Cork, in southern Ireland. The family moved to the United States 108 years ago, before the birth of Henry.

Starts Building Racer

Edward Lee Gipson, 13, was the first Soap Box Derby entrant to report to the shops building at Big Spring High School for expert counsel on racer construction. Louis Maseley, shops instructor at the high school, assists Edward with some measurements. Maseley will be on hand at the shops building for the next two Saturdays to assist racer builders. Next Saturday is the last day entrants may sign up for the 1955 Derby. Entries will be accepted any day this week at the Tidwell Chevrolet Company. Boys planning to enter should do so as promptly as possible, as the round of parties and hot dog and ice cream suppers for Derby entrants is to start soon, Loyd Wooten of Tidwell's said Saturday.

Military Pay Hike To Aid Many Of Webb's Personnel

The military pay raise which went into effect Friday will be worth several thousand dollars a year to officers and airmen stationed at Webb Air Force Base. The pay hike averages about 12 per cent for nearly 1,700,000 members of the armed forces, according to information from Washington. The only ones to benefit will be personnel with more than two years of service. There was no immediate estimate as to the extent of the raise for Webb airmen. However, there are about 2,170 military personnel at the base and their annual payroll aggregates about $7,000,000 annually. The pay raise is designed to encourage men to re-enlist in the armed forces on completion of their initial hitch.

Egypt Looks Longingly At Indian-Style Neutralism

CAIRO, Egypt, April 2 (AP)—Egypt's flirtation with neutralism in the East-West cold war may develop into a real love match this month. Prime Minister Gamal Abdel Nasser will fly to the African-Asian conference in Bandung, Indonesia, as a special guest in Indian Prime Minister Nehru's plane. Western diplomats in Cairo believe the young Egyptian military dictator will be a willing prospect for conversion to Nehru's concept of neutralism. They say this is due to Egypt's frustration over failure to block Western moves for defense of the Middle East. There were indications Red China would support the wooing of Nasser with offers to buy Egyptian cotton in exchange for recognition of the Communist regime. Nasser has a reputation as a realistic anti-Communist. But Nehru and Chou En-lai, Red China's Premier and foreign minister, could not pick a better time to exploit Egypt's differences with the West. Pious frustration describes Egypt's policy in the strategic oil-rich Middle East at present. Her anger at the new Turkish-Iraqi-British defense pact has already split the long-shaky Arab League. Egypt's military regime is furious at Iraq for becoming the first Arab state to line up openly in a defense pact with the West against Russia. The Egyptian press is accusing Turkey of trying to revive the old Ottoman power that once ruled all the Arab world. The United States and Britain are charged with trying to forge Middle East defense pacts which would force the Arab states eventually to recognize Israel.

Red Tape Inevitable

NEW DELHI, India, April 2 (AP)—Indians and Tibetans, who have been traveling across their mutual frontier for centuries without red tape, are going to have to start carrying permits May 1. Prime Minister Nehru announced arrangements for the permit system between India and the Himalayan kingdom now under Red Peiping rule.

Texas Traffic Toll Shows Slight Drop

By The Associated Press
Texas ended the first quarter with eight fewer dead than for the period last year. Figures for the first quarter in the state's big cities showed traffic deaths declined in the city areas of Fort Worth, Houston and Dallas. They increased in Corpus Christi and San Antonio and remained the same in Austin. Deputy police chief Charles Batchelor of Dallas said he believed there was a definite trend there in the reduction of accidents and injuries. He credited a stepped up traffic enforcement program started last year, especially a crackdown on speeders. Most cities are increasingly concerned about traffic safety and the need to educate drivers on safe driving habits and alertness behind the wheel. "Moon gazing" and "not paying attention while driving" was blamed by traffic Capt. Jack Jones of Dallas for a good many accidents. He also said that too many drivers "still can't get around to the idea that showing road courtesy is the only way to stay within the traffic laws—and prevent accidents."

Teen-Agers Held In Car Burglary

Two teen-age Latin-Americans were arrested Saturday by police as a result of a Friday night car burglary in which some clothing was stolen. City Detective Jack Schaffer stated that the clothing was found in the house at 403 NW 4th where the youths were arrested. They will be charged with burglary. Schaffer said. Items recovered included a man's suit coat and two women's toppers. They were taken from a car belonging to Jimmy Shoats, 508 N. 9th, Lamesa. Shortly after the burglary was reported, police apprehended three Latin-Americans in the 600 block of Lamesa Dr. They had fled officers when asked them to stop. The three youths were questioned and kept in jail Friday night but released Saturday. The two youths to be charged were apprehended about 1:15 p.m. Saturday.

MRS. KATIE SMITH

Mrs. Smith, 73, County Resident 41 Years, Dies

Mrs. Katie Pearl Smith, 73, who made her home in Howard County for more than two score years, died Saturday in a hospital following a relatively short illness. Mrs. Smith suffered a fractured leg about 10 days ago and her condition worsened steadily. Services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday in the Valley Chapel with the Rev. Clyde Nichols, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiating. Burial will be in the City Cemetery beside the graves of her husband, James Hugh Smith, who died in 1931, and a son. Mrs. Smith was a native of Georgia, having been born May 7, 1881. She and Mr. Smith came to Howard County 41 years ago and settled in the Moore community where he was a farmer. In 1931 the family moved to Big Spring, Mrs. Smith, who could not speak or hear, reared a large family and always remained a kindly woman with a delightful sense of humor. Once before she had suffered a fractured hip but recovered with characteristic determination. Members of the family will gather at the home of R. T. (Thad) Smith Sr., 408 Mesquite. There are five other sons surviving, including W. A. Smith, Hugh P. Smith, G. C. Smith, J. W. Smith of El Paso, and M. W. Smith of Bakersfield, Calif.; one daughter, Mrs. Ether Rogers, Olney. She also leaves 19 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Lizzie Davis of West. Pallbearers will be Hubert Clawson, Herman Wilkerson, G. C. Broughton Sr., Edgar Phillips, Clint Forrest, Floyd White, E. M. Newton.

Cool Front Moving In

By The Associated Press
A new Pacific front moving toward Texas is scheduled to bring slightly cooler weather and a possible dust storm to the state by Sunday. The new front was due to edge into far West Texas late Saturday night and spread over the state Sunday. Saturday's weather was marked by clear skies, temperatures in the 80's and high 70's, and patches of dust in two widely separated sections of the state. A stiff southwest wind that hit above 30 miles an hour in gusts kicked up dust locally in a wide area of West Texas. At mid-afternoon, Dalhart, Amarillo, Lubbock and El Paso reported visibility reduced by the blowing dust. The Weather Bureau said that Saturday's dust in West Texas was strictly local, unlike the five-state duststorm that rolled over Texas from the north Thursday and Friday. In far South Texas traces of that major dust storm still hung in the air. At Laredo the visibility was reduced to 4 miles. Earlier in the day Brownsville and Lufkin also reported some dust. No rainfall was reported in the state Saturday.

No other low-priced car even comes close to matching these important Chevrolet advantages . . .

If you're planning to buy a new car, the one you just can't afford to miss seeing is Chevrolet — for 19 straight years America's best-selling car. The Motoramic Chevrolet offers you so much more than the other low-priced cars that it's hardly fair to compare them. And even the high-priced cars don't have all the advantages that today's Chevrolet offers you.

The beauty's built-in—not bolted on!
And that makes a big difference—not only in how your car looks today, but in how it will look tomorrow, too. Chevrolet's good looks spring from fine, clean, uncluttered design. The beauty is inherent in the basic contours of metal and glass. There's no excessive bolted-on ornamentation to go out of style overnight.

The Body's by Fisher!
No other low-priced car has a Body by Fisher—but many of the high-priced cars do. That fact alone tells you there must be something extra special about the style, quality and construction of Body by Fisher. And there is! You can see it, feel it and even hear it when you slam the door.

Today's most modern engines!
That goes for Chevrolet's new V8 and two new sixes as well. For example, all Chevrolet engines bring you a modern 12-volt electrical system—double the voltage of other low-priced cars. This means quicker cold weather starting and a greater electrical reserve. Then Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" has the shortest piston stroke in the industry, and develops the highest power per pound of any V8 in the low-price field. It takes valve-in-head leadership like Chevrolet's to bring you engines like these!

A drive to suit your driving!
You can take your choice of three different drives—and every one's as modern as this minute. There's silky, peppery Powerglide (even better this year!), new Overdrive (both extra-cost options), and a new Synchron-Mesh transmission that's as smooth as they come.

All the power helpers you want!
Windows, seat, steering, brakes—all are available with built-in "muscles" to make driving as effortless as you wish. And you can even have air conditioning in your new Chevrolet. These things are extra-cost options, of course, but they more than repay you with extra pleasure.

Fun is "standard equipment"!
You find that out the first time you take the wheel of a new Chevrolet. Here, you discover, is a car that takes the curves like it's on rails, that steers like it's reading your mind. It seems simply to ignore bumps—and when you stop suddenly, there's no excessive lurching or diving, either. There has never been such a difference in low-priced cars as there is today—or so many good reasons why you should drive a new Chevrolet. Come in and take the key the first chance you get.

CHEVROLET SALES LEADERSHIP IS A VICTORY IN VALUE FOR YOU!

Isn't it logical that, since Chevrolet leads in sales year after year, Chevrolet must put more into a car than its competitors—more quality . . . more craftsmanship . . . more style . . . more things to make your driving easier and safer and more fun. You have to do that to be the leader and stay the leader like Chevrolet! Because Chevrolet builds the most cars and can build them better to sell for less—Chevrolet sales leadership is a victory in value for you!

Completions In Gain During First Quarter

There were 124 completions in the immediate seven county area during the first quarter of 1955, and the new wells had a combined initial potential of 16,526.96 barrels of oil.

Five of these completions were discoveries, according to records kept at The Herald. The number of abandonments during the three months totaled 37.

T&P figures for January through March represent a rise in every 1954, when there were 93 completions for 13,841.77 barrels. Abandonments then totaled only 17.

The first quarter of this year again saw Howard County leading the area, the total number of completions for the county being 57 and the potential being 7,691.77 barrels. During the first quarter of 1954 there were 89 completions for 22,714.20 barrels, and there were 27 failures.

Howard also led with the number of abandonments, the figure being 13.

Mitchell County experienced a sharp rise in oil activity during the first quarter of the year. There were 32 completions for combined potential of 3,039.80 barrels. The county had only one abandonment.

Borden County had 11 completions for 2,242.10 barrels. The great amount of wildcat activity there resulted in 10 abandonments, however.

Glasscock County received an addition of 10 new wells which were worth 1,543 barrels on potential tests. There were three abandonments. Dawson County had nine completions for 1,303.49 barrels. Three ventures were plugged.

Sterling County had five completions which potentialized for 706.5 barrels of oil. The county also had six projects plugged and abandoned. Martin County had one venture plugged, but there were no completions.

Sterling County led in the number of discovery wells. Two wildcats were completed, both from the Strawn. Fuller No. 1 W. R. D. was drilled for 353 barrels about 15 miles northeast of Sterling City, and Randall No. 1 Munn completed for potential of 228 barrels about eight miles northeast of Sterling City.

Howard County had only one discovery between January and June. It was Varel No. 1 Gular Trust, about four miles north of the Moore field. It was completed in the San Andres for 170.52 barrels of oil.

Borden and Dawson counties had the other two wildcats. Although No. 1 R. B. Adams was drilled for 442.84 barrels of Dean sand oil about 1 1/2 miles northeast of Ackerly in Dawson County, Tennessee Gas Transmission No. 1 Fambrough was plugged as a Pennsylvanian discovery in Borden County about 2 1/2 miles east of Ackerly. It made 56 barrels on potential.

A breakdown follows of completions by counties and fields:

BORDEN—Jo-Mill, seven for 1,889.5 barrels; Von Roeder, one for 65 barrels; Arthur (Spraberry), one for 176; Diamond M, one for 55.6;

DAWSON—Welch, five for 283.58 barrels; Spraberry Deep West, two for 405.92; Mungerville, one for 171.09;

GLASSCOCK—Spraberry Trend, five for 1,172.28 barrels; Howard-Glasscock field, five for 370.72;

HOWARD—Howard—Glasscock field, seven for 440.59; Luther Southside, five for 1,721.05; Snyder 19 for 2,453.82; Moore, 29 for 1,900.91; Oceanic, two for 547.13; In-tan-East Howard field, three for 427.75;

MITCHELL—Westbrook, 30 for 1,589.94; Sharon Ridge, five for 276.08; North Coleman Ranch field, six for 1,651.04; and McCabe (Pennsylvanian) one for 122.74;

STERLING—Parochial Bade, two for 125.80;

These figures show that the Snyder, Westbrook, and Moore fields were the most active during the quarter. A number of the projects which were plugged were field edgeers rather than wildcats, too. Of the 10 abandonments, only 22 were clearly listed as wildcats.

Technician

John Watts, author of several articles on internal coating of pipelines and president of the basin chapter of the National Association of Corrosion Engineers, has joined the staff of Internal Pipeline Maintenance in Odessa. Watts formerly was corrosion engineer for Humble. He will be technical representative for the concern which cleans and coats pipelines underground.

Cities, Firms Intervene In Gas Measures

By CHARLES HASLET
WASHINGTON, April 2 (U.S.)—Widespread interest has been aroused by a gas pipeline proposal before the Federal Power Commission (FPC) because of its possible effect on natural gas prices.

Several gas companies have intervened with objections that the project, if approved, would result in higher rates for millions of consumers in the Midwest and Southwest.

Chicago also has asked permission to intervene, its interest being the "lowest just and reasonable price" for the city's consumers.

The case involves an application of the Natural Gas Pipeline Co. of America for authority to build a 28 1/2 million dollar pipeline to tap new gas supplies in Jack and Wise counties, Tex.

The intervening companies contend the price the pipeline company proposes to pay could force them to pay more for their gas and thus boost prices to their customers.

The pipeline company, which supplies Chicago and other cities with gas from the Texas Panhandle and other Southwest areas, seeks to build a 350-mile line from its present system at Fritch, Tex., through Oklahoma to gas fields in Jack and Wise counties.

Company witnesses testified that 20-year contracts are proposed with producers in those fields under which the gas would be bought for 15 cents a thousand cubic feet. Initially, 73 million cubic feet would be purchased daily.

Intervening companies—Lone Star Gas, Oklahoma Natural Gas, Consolidated Gas Utilities of Tulsa and Uplam Gas of Mineral Wells, Tex.—say they are now paying 10 and 11 cents for gas in Texas and Oklahoma fields.

They say that if natural gas pays 15 cents to producers in Jack and Wise counties, automatic increases could result to them.

Accelerated Pace Of Drilling Continues In Permian Basin

Rotary drilling activity in the Permian Basin continues to top the 1954 pace. Reed Roller-Bill Company reported this week that 529 units were active on March 25, date of last survey.

This is 34 more rigs than on the same date last year and is only three shy of the 1955 record set on March 10.

Lea County, New Mexico, was top area with 87 rigs, and Andrews County came in second with 76. Counties with 20 or more units were Gaines, 37; Coke, 30; Ector, 29; Crane, 22; and Midland, 25.

Majority of the local counties held their own in the number of rigs operating, though there were decreases in Dawson, Glasscock and Mitchell.

Dawson slipped from 6 to 2 rigs between March 10-25, Glasscock dropped from five to four, and Mitchell decreased from seven to five.

Howard County had 12 rigs on both counts, Scurry maintained 14, and Borden kept 12. Sterling had an increase from three to five, and Midland jumped from 21 to 25.

Overall count according to count-thes, with previous tally in parentheses, follows:

Andrews, 76 (80); Borden, 12 (12); Cochran, 3 (3); Coke, 30 (30); Chaves, 17 (19); Crane, 22 (26); Crockett, 3 (2); Dawson, 2 (6); Ector, 29 (29); Eddy, 7 (4); Gaines, 37 (33); Garza, 10 (11); Glasscock, 4 (5); Hockley, 2 (5); Howard, 12 (12); Jeff Davis, 1 (1); Kent, 9 (6); Lea, 87 (80); Lubbock, 2 (0); Loving, 2 (0); Lynn, 1 (1); Midland, 25 (21); Mitchell, 5 (7); Nolan west, 12 (12); Pecos, 5 (5); Reagan, 10 (14); Reeves, 4 (3); Runnels southwest, 1 (2); Scurry, 14 (14); Schleicher, 5 (4); Sterling, 5 (3); Sutton, 2 (0); Tom Green, 9 (7); Terry, 15 (17); Upton, 11 (14); Val Verde, 2 (2); Ward, 7 (7); Winkler, 5 (10); Yoakum, 18 (14); and Spraberry, 12 (18).

Reef Discovery In Scurry To Complete

A Canyon reef discovery is due to be finalized in Central Scurry County early this week.

The new well will be D. E. Vasser and A. H. Howard No. 1 J. W. Voss, a wildcat about a mile and a half south of the closest Canyon reef production in the Kelly-Snyder area.

Vasser and Howard this weekend announced that pump was being installed prior to completion. The project has made 12 1/2 barrels of oil per hour on swabbing tests.

Completion will be from multiple perforations opposite the Canyon.

They are from 6,787 to 6,884, from 6,889 to 6,910 and from 6,915 to 6,917 feet.

These perforations were treated with 750 gallons of mud acid, 1,000 gallons of gel acid and 2,000 gallons of regular acid prior to swabbing tests.

The test which yielded 12 1/2 barrels of new oil per hour also yielded five per cent water.

Location is 3,096 from south and 1,980 from west lines, 187-97-H&T survey.

Vasser and Howard has spotted location for an offset to the No. 1 Voss. It will be their No. 1 Edd Millhollen, 735 from south and 1,980 from west lines, 188-97-H&T survey, about four miles southwest of Snyder.

Another project has been spotted in Scurry County by Robert S. Brennan and F. D. Hefren, both of Midland. It will be their No. 1 Hewett and Autrey, about four miles southwest of Ira.

Location is three-quarters of a mile southwest of the most north-west production in the North Coleman Ranch (Clear Fork) field. Drillsite is 990 from north and 330 from east lines, southwest quarter, 25-97-H&T survey.

Third Pay Flows In Ector Field

Continental Oil Company No. 2-C-21 Kiosk in the Goldsmith (Fusselman and Ellenburger) fields of Northwest Ector County has flowed from the Waddell sand to give the area its third pay.

The section at 9,140-9,292 feet was drilled tested for one and one-half hours. Gas surfaced in seven minutes, mud came to the top in 20 minutes and oil flowed out in 23 minutes.

It was flowed to pits to clean for two minutes and then turned to tanks for one hour. During that period the section flowed 38 barrels of oil. Gas volume was at the rate of 1,137,330 cubic feet per day.

The flow left in the drill pipe when the tool was closed was reversed out. There were no signs of formation water. The prospect was drilling ahead below 9,335 feet at last report.

The well is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 21, block 45, T-1-N, T&P survey and seven and one-half miles northwest of Goldsmith. It is to drill ahead until it explores the Ellenburger.

Edger Bores Ahead

Cosden Petroleum Corporation's No. 1-23 R. W. Foster, venture in the Parochial Bade field of Sterling County, had drilled below 2,070 feet Saturday. Projected drilling depth on this cable tool venture is 2,400 feet. Location is 10 miles southwest of Sterling City, and drillsite is 1,263 from south and 330 from west lines, 23-22-H&T survey.

Outposts Due In Fisher

Drilling is to be started immediately at an outpost and an offset to production in the recently opened Sweetwater (Canyon Sand) field in South Fisher County.

Southern Production Company of Fort Worth No. 1 Oscar C. Rossion will be the 6,000-foot outpost. It is 660 from south and 1,990 feet from east lines of section 12, block 22, T&P survey and four and one-half miles north of Sweetwater.

Sinclair Oil & Gas Company will drill the 5,400-foot offset as its No. 2 Susie Whitworth, 660 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 24, block 22, T&P survey. It is four miles north of Sweetwater.

Tests Under Way In Snyder Pool

Tests were under way today on two projects in the Snyder field—Cosden No. 1-27 Snyder and Lipkin & Devine No. 3 Snyder.

The Cosden project was at last reports getting some oil and water in the upper San Andres section, where it was plugged back to after a 90-foot section in the lower zone was sampled.

Location is 330 from north and 988 from east lines, southeast quarter, 27-30-1s, T&P survey.

The Lipkin and Devine try had been fractured Friday night with 6,000 gallons of acid and 1,200 gallons of sand. Test was to have been conducted today.

This project is in the "pocket" area of the Snyder field just south of production in the East Howard area. It has drillsite of 330 from north and west lines, southeast quarter, 20-30-1s, T&P survey, is drilling at 2,100 feet.

Mitchell Explorer To Resume Testing

Operations are to be continued this week at Ray Albaugh's No. 1 W. J. Schuster, wildcat in Southwest Mitchell County.

This venture yielded 550 feet of free 50-gravity oil on tests of the Fusselman while operator was drilling. Pipe was run, and the venture has been shuttled while Albaugh visited his mother in Pennsylvania. His mother was ill.

Perforations will be made at a level yet to be determined. The oil was found on test from 8,472 to 8,534 feet.

Location of the wildcat, just east of the Albaugh (Pennsylvanian) field, is C SW NW, 12-17-SPRR survey. It is about 13 miles northeast of Forsan.

Wilbanks & Rutter To Re-Final Well

Wilbanks & Rutter of Big Spring announced Saturday that their No. 1 Hill in Upton County will be re-completed in an upper Spraberry zone.

This project was plugged back to an unreported depth and perforated. The result was good shows of oil.

Another Wilbanks and Rutter project, the No. 5 Proctor, was drilling at 7,091 feet Saturday, near the Spraberry. It is in Reagan County.

Cosden Is Testing H-G Pool Prospect

Cosden Petroleum Corporation officials announced Saturday that tests on their No. 5-C Roberts in the Howard-Glasscock field are being conducted between 1,789 and 1,799 feet.

The project was plugged back to this zone following tests between 2,427 and 2,503 feet. Location, about two miles east of Forsan, is 330 from south and west lines, north half, southeast quarter, 129-29-W&NW survey.

In the Spraberry Trend area, Cosden's No. 3 Vivian B. Hanson is reportedly drilling at 6,910 feet. Location is 17 miles southwest of Garden City, site being 1,320 from south and east lines, 46-36-4s, T&P survey.

Moore Projects Making Progress

Two projects in the Moore field of Howard County were reportedly drilling ahead this weekend, and a third venture has been plugged and abandoned.

G. W. Guthrie No. 4-B Hewett, 2,312 from south and 330 from east lines, 25-34-1s, T&P survey, was making hole at 2,615 feet Saturday. This project is five miles southwest of Big Spring.

Duncan No. 1 Brindley, in the central area of the Moore field, was digging below 2,870 feet.

Duncan No. 6 Cowden, 330 from south and 997 from east lines, north half, 18-33-1s, T&P survey, has been plugged at depth of 3,208 feet. The shows were too light to justify running pipe and testing.

East Texas Pool Gets Producer

TYLER, Tex., April 2 (U.S.)—A new East Texas oil well in Henderson County was rated today as one of the largest completions of the year in the area.

Reef Discovery In Scurry To Complete

They are from 6,787 to 6,884, from 6,889 to 6,910 and from 6,915 to 6,917 feet.

Third Strike Reported In Texas Tideland Drilling

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON, April 2 (U.S.)—Another oil discovery, the third since Congress recognized state ownership, has been recorded for the Texas tidelands.

Offshore operations have boomed since President Eisenhower in 1953 signed the state ownership bill. A number of ambitious exploration programs, after months of planning, are just now starting.

Texas operations have been watched very closely. Gulf explorations prior to the ownership controversy had centered off Louisiana. Many claims were made during the long dispute that eventual Texas discoveries would be disappointing.

Pure Oil Co. reported its A-1 OCS Lease 119, a wildcat 13 miles southeast of Galveston, flowed 142 barrels of 37.8 gravity distillate on a 15-hour drillstem test. A second well is to be started within 10 days.

Standard Oil of Texas brought in the state's first offshore production last year and now is producing from three wells off Padre

Under State Title

Island, 30 miles southwest of Port Aransas.

Gulf Oil later made a completion 22 miles southeast of Corpus Christi but shut the well in pending further developments.

A dozen or more Texas dry holes has been drilled since the first state leases were sold in 1947 but discoveries also have included a gas-distillate well by Stanolind off Galveston Island.

A number of the 1954 oil company financial reports now being released give space to offshore operations.

Humble Oil reported two dry holes off the Texas coast but reported completion of 19 continental shelf wells, primarily in Louisiana at Grand Isle, at a cost of $8,800,000. The company also reported that a "major sulphur deposit" was proved at Grand Isle.

Gulf said an "extensive" program for exploration of underwater leases in the Gulf began in 1954. Gulf's first Texas test was a dry hole.

Continental holds interests in two offshore groups. The groups drilled 15 Louisiana exploratory

Tests last year. Most were drilled through several formations and the 11 successful tests led to 11 new oil reservoirs and 14 new gas reservoirs. Development wells completed totaled 17.

Tide Water is in one of the groups with Continental. Tide Water's annual report said: "The success of drilling offshore in the Gulf to date substantiates the industry's opinion that this is the largest prospective source of oil and gas reserves within the United States."

The Texas Co. began this month its first Texas tidelands test, three miles offshore.

"Present indications are that the continental shelf contains large petroleum reserves," Texaco said. "However, operational problems as well as heavy costs in offshore drilling will tend to retard development of these reserves."

Ira Cram, senior vice president of Continental, said the industry has spent over 650 million dollars the past 10 years for exploration, drilling and development programs in the Gulf. The return to date, Cram estimated, has been only 110 million.

BOOBY TRAP? Association Assails Process Tax Idea

AUSTIN — A spokesman for the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association has called the processing tax idea a "multi-billion dollar booby trap for Texas."

In a statement prepared for the House Revenue and Taxation Committee hearing, Andrew M. Howsley of Abilene, general counsel for the association, said he represents more than 90 per cent of Texas oil production and refining. Howsley argued that the bill was "unfair" and "unworkable" and failed "to bring new taxpayer groups in to support of our state government." He said it would increase the petroleum industry's tax payments by more than 100 per cent.

Howsley estimated the bill proposed by Rep. Jerry Sadler of Pecos would cost the industry $225 million — or more — in addition to its current payments of $173 million a year.

Calling it a fallacious "something-for-nothing" scheme, Howsley said the bill would harm the Texas refining industry in the face of competition with refining capacity located outside of Texas.

"With 73 per cent of the U. S. refining capacity and 85 per cent of the world's capacity located outside of Texas, I don't believe we are in the driver's seat when it comes to 'passing on' artificially-created price increases," Howsley said.

Howsley predicted industry efforts to offset the competitive handicap of the tax could result in an average 19 cent per barrel cut in Texas crude prices, costing the Texas economy some $190,000,000 a year.

Howsley said the Sadler bill would wipe out the state's natural gasoline plant industry. He contended if moving refining plants would not be feasible, switching of crude oil to other states could be done easily. Louisiana once levied a similar tax one-fortieth the amount of Sadler's bill and immediately repealed it. Howsley predicted the tax would mean a 10 to 12 per cent increase in costs for rural users of liquefied petroleum gases. One cent a gallon levy on fuel at the processing plant would mean about 10 per cent of the refinery sale price of a regular grade gasoline, he said.

Load Oil Returned In Testing Eastern Borden Explorer

Load oil was pumped out of formation between 5,796 and 5,846 feet Saturday at Magnolia's No. 1 Jesse York, wildcat about 13 miles east of Gall.

This zone was fractured with an unreported amount of acid, and testing was to continue through today. It was plugged back from barren Ellenburger at total depth of 8,310 feet.

Plugged back depth is now 5,860 feet. Recent tests in the zone have yielded new oil, and a test while drilling showed 240 feet of heavily oil-cut drilling mud between 5,690 and 5,730.

Location is 660 from south and east lines, 279-97-H&T survey.

Wrather No. 1-S T. J. Good, wildcat about two miles north, northeast of Vealmoor, was reportedly fishing for junk at total depth of 8,008 feet Saturday. This venture has drillsite of C NE NE, 8-32-3n, T&P survey.

Wrather No. 1-15 T. J. Good, an old wildcat which has been re-entered, is now drilling below 9,341 feet in shale. Location is 4 1/2 miles northeast of Vealmoor, C NW NE, 15-32-3n, T&P survey. It has been plugged at 8,011 feet, but new test will be in the Ellenburger around 10,100.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Spring football drills, originally set to begin at the local High School April 18, will instead start on April 25. Reason: All three of the Steers' quarterbacks are playing baseball and the diamond corps doesn't wind up activity until April 26. After the 21-day football drills end, Johnny Johnson, the basketball coach, plans to stage tryouts for a week or two. The gloom that enshrouded Sweetwater when it was learned that Dickie Allen, a sensational back who counted seven touchdowns in one game against the Big Spring Yearlings several years ago, had joined the Navy and passed up two years of schoolboy eligibility can only be compared to the veil of woe that enveloped Big Spring when Buddy Cosby left for the Army. Had Cosby been around last fall, the Steers would probably have won the AAA championship. Incidentally, Buddy, now at Texarkana, has qualified for a high school diploma and may go to college upon leaving the Army. He'd make some college a terrific linebacker. Woody Woodard, the SMU football mentor, has been visiting in this area for talks with both Frosty Robison of Big Spring and Colorado City's Arlis Parkhurst, a center. It's still a good bet that Frosty will wind up in the Dallas school. The Wahoo McDaniel who clubbed that home run for Midland against Big Spring here last week is the Bulldogs' football star of stars. When he rounded third base following that home run wallop, one of his teammates, waiting at the plate to offer congratulations, laughingly remarked: "Oh! Now, we'll never hear the last of this." Al Monchak, the former Longhorn League manager, apparently has lost his batting eye. He hit only 263 in 79 games for Portsmouth in the Piedmont League last year.

Keaton Hopes To Land John Curtis

John Curtis, HCJC's stellar sprinter, may eventually wind up in SMU. McAdoo Keaton, the Mustang track coach, has been making inquiries about him. Curtis has long specialized in the 220 but Keaton indicates John's race may be the quarter. A hard-luck athlete is HCJC's Cleonne Russell, the ex-sailor. Cleonne's foot was causing him considerable trouble recently and a trip to the doctor proved two bones were out of place. The damage was caused by the brutally hard track at Steer Stadium. Russell, who was approaching top form, may miss about a week of drills. Perhaps the fastest sprinter in Howard County is HCJC's Ronald Anderson, who has been outrunning some of the high school boys here. HCJC stands a good chance of getting a track near the school by 1956. When a half interest in the wrestling franchise at Lubbock changed hands recently, the consideration was, supposed to have been $8,500. Old age and injuries have hastened the retirement of Ray (Big Train) Clements, the grappler who was supposed to appear here last week. Clements reportedly is opening a drive-in at Tucumcari, N.M. Count Yogi, the trick goifer who showed here around last Thanksgiving Day, is booked to play Lamesa on April 30. Yogi will give them a show and an unending line of frenetic patter. When, oh when, will the powers that be decide to run races in meters or yards. Right now, records set in meters mean nothing to me. Rather than go into competition with pro baseball here this summer, George Dunn, the wrestler promoter, will probably run spot shows (when the club is out of town) here and in other places which do not have the sport regularly.

Subway Alumnus Lauds Irish Mentor

Carl Coleman, the local coach, is having trouble booking football games for the Lakeview (Negro) Rockets but hopes to line up a home-and-home series with five area schools. He now has scheduled two games for the Rockets with Odessa. Lakeview will play its home games when the Steers are out of town or are not scheduled. Kermit is spending an estimated $25,000 on additions to its football stadium. Bleachers will be added, along with a new press box, under-bleacher rest-room facilities and steel and wood stairways from the ground level to the green cop. Gus Ungo, the former Big Spring Bronco, hit 243 in 129 games for Knoxville in the Tri-State League last season. He had only 16 RBIs. Remember Chilli Bigham, the University of Texas ex who refused to sign with Pepper Martin here without a bonus. He went to bat 200 times for Quebec in the Provincial League after being sold by Corpus Christi in mid-season and hit .285. Jorge Lopez, another former Big Spring-er, clouted only .270 for Harlingen of the Big State League but drove in 127 tallies. He clubbed 27 home runs. And Wayne Crawford, the former Roswell catcher-outfielder, had a very good year with Hagerstown in the Piedmont League. Hit .331 and collected 90 RBIs. For the first time in a long while, the Big Spring Country Club has a waiting list of prospective members. Its membership is 150, which is all the directors thought wise to take. Pro-Amateur tournaments will be held at the course on June 18 and Aug. 18. When Notre Dame lost that early season football game to Purdue last fall, a subway alumni was heard to remark: "That just goes to show how smart Coach Terry Brennan is. He didn't want to ride along on Frank Leahy's winning streak. He wanted to start one of his own."

Augusta Lures Best Of Stars

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 2 (AP)—The Masters Golf Tournament comes of age next week. And the realization that this prestige-loaded competition is only 21 years old likely will come as a surprise to many who regard it as one of the two or three top events of American golf.

It was only 21 years ago, in April, 1934, that the then-new but already glamorous Augusta National Golf Club opened its gates to the public for the first time for a tournament designed to display golf and golfers at their best.

The 19th Masters, starting Thursday and ending Sunday (unless there's another playoff) can be expected to fulfill these conditions just as 18 previous tournaments have done.

The field is limited to the best of the current tournament players, professional and amateur, and the greatest of the old-timers. There are 16 ways to qualify for a Masters invitation, each requiring some outstanding golf achievement. And the list of 11 previous winners reads like a roster of those who have reached the pinnacle.

One great disappointment has been that Bob Jones, the man mainly responsible for the course and for the tournament, never was able to win. But Jones, incomparable as a host just as he was as a competitor, always is on hand to welcome visitors and to salute the winners.

Since the past winners organized themselves into the Masters Club in 1952, no new names have been added. Sam Snead and Jimmy Demaret, the only three-time winners, and two-time champion Ben Hogan have monopolized the title for the past six years.

As defender, it's Snead's turn to pick up the dinner check for the club, but Sam might be forgiven if he tried to pass it on to Billy Joe Patton. It was Patton, a clubbing, wise-cracking amateur, who stirred up feverish excitement through most of the 1954 tournament and actually made it possible for Snead to overtake Hogan on the finishing holes and then beat him in the playoff.

The veterans can expect plenty of competition this year from one of the finest crops of young golfers ever to turn up. A dozen players on this year's list never had been invited to the Masters before.

One of them is Mike Souchak, the husky former Duke football player who set a PGA 72-hole record of 257 at San Antonio this winter. Souchak was selected as one of two players who made the best showing on the winter circuit. The other will be named after the Wilmington, N.C., Open this week-end.

Ali Bey, Cummings Tangle Tuesday

The notorious Ali Bey, a compact, little man with a big temper and a flair for the dramatic, returns to the local wrestling arena Tuesday night to test the mettle of popular Bob Cummings.

All doesn't measure as high as the belt buckle of a lot of his opponents but that doesn't keep him from trying to 'spit in their eye,' as the saying goes.

The Terrible Turk is perhaps best remembered here for a tag match in which he drew Ace Abbott as a partner. There must have been bad blood between the two for Ali refused to help Abbott and Ace became so infuriated he turned on Bey and helped the opposition scramble him.

Bey would, no doubt, add to his stature by wearing elevated shoes. The trouble is, he wears no shoes

Bruins Improved, Says Matthews

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 2 (AP)—Personnel director Wild Matthews doesn't predict a pennant for the 1955 Chicago Cubs, but says "we can't help but be better."

He describes the present Cubs' players as "the team I've been working five years to organize." Many experts however predict the Cubs will fail to improve their seventh place finish the past two seasons. Matthews refuted this.

He cited outfielder Solly Drake now lost six weeks with an ankle injury, catcher Harry Chitt and second baseman Gene Baker as good examples of Bruin farm development.

at all into the ring. He walks around like he's aboard a boat in a heavy sea.

Zuma made a big hit in wrestling Cummings to a draw here last week.

This will be Cox's first appearance here and little is known about him. He hails from Denver, Colo.

The 15-minute preliminary sends Gene Detton of Amarillo against Larry Wright.

Detton is the brother of Dean Detton, the former World's Heavyweight champion, and Dory Detton, one of the 'big men' in Southwestern wrestling circles.

The show begins at 8:15 p.m. The scene of action is the Howard County Fair building.

Upturn In Attendance Is Expected In Big Leagues

By JACK HAND

DELAND, Fla., April 2 (AP)—Despite the ever-increasing inroads of major league radio and television, the head of the minor leagues expects an upturn in attendance this season.

George Trautman, president of the National Assn. of Professional Baseball Leagues (minors), sounded optimistic as he discussed the outlook for '55 at his winter quarters.

"We finished last year with 33 leagues and we're going to open with 33 leagues," said Trautman. "We lost the Western Assn. (Class C) and the Western International (A) but picked up two. The Western International was reorganized into the Northwest League (Class B) and we admitted the Mexican League (Class AA).

"We face the future with more confidence than we have in several years. Last season we drew 20 million as compared with about 22 million the year before. I think you will see an upturn this year."

"We'll survive, despite all those prophets of doom. We're a pretty live corpse. Instead of sending flowers to the funeral, you should pin a flower on our buttonholes."

Trautman is very much aware of the effects of big league radio and TV on his territory. But there's not much he can do about it.

"I've got a volume of correspondence as high as this room on my attempts to solve that radio-TV problem. I can't impose any restrictions on the big league teams. All I can do is suggest and pray that they will try to help."

Have the majors restricted their broadcasts and telecasts?

"No, to the contrary they have expanded in some instances," he replied. "I understand the Game of the Week TV show on Saturday afternoons has been expanded to cover more clubs. Naturally, I'd rather it was not on the air but, at least, they do restrict it to Saturday afternoons."

Trautman believes the new trend toward local ownership and working agreements with the majors is healthy. More and more big league teams are getting out of the ownership field in the minors to sign working agreements.

"The more local color we can get without discouraging our major league contacts, the better off we will be," he said. "There is a great opportunity in dual relationship between the local and major league groups."

Trautman thinks the new rules on working agreements for teams in Classes B, C and D will channel at least $500,000 into the minors.

Monti, Dickinson Colonial Entries

FORT WORTH, April 3 (AP)—Eric Monti, winner of last week's Miami Beach Open, and Gardner Dickinson Jr., a protégé of Ben Hogan, swelled the entry list for the $25,000 Colonial Golf Tournament to 38 today.

The tournament, limited to 48 players, will be held May 4-8. No further selections are due until after the Masters Tournament at Augusta.

Loes In Command As Royals Win

VERO BEACH, Fla., April 2 (AP)—Billy Loes, one of the starters on the Brooklyn Dodgers' pitching staff who was left behind for more work when the team headed North, pitched for Montreal today and was the winning pitcher in a 7-4 victory over Mobile.

Loes went five innings, allowed five hits and three runs. He struck out four and walked six. His arm was strong and loose and, except for his lack of control, he was satisfied with the outing. Loes rejoins the Dodgers at Washington Wednesday.

Colorado City Wins Relays At Kermit

KERMIT, April 2, (SC) — Colorado City won the fourth annual Permian Basin Relays here Saturday, scoring 34 points to upset a favored Andrews team. Andrews, defending champion in the meet, finished third behind Fort Stockton. Stockton counted 30 points, Andrews 25½ while Big Spring was fourth with 12.

discus throw, after winning first places for Big Spring the two previous weeks. Robison's best throws were in his practice heaves, when he cleared 140 feet consistently. Hawthorn of Colorado City won the discus throw and Windham of Colorado City the shot put. Jimmy Dorland gave Andrews its only first place in the 220.

Harold Hicks added to Forsan's aggregate by finishing second in the 440, back of Allison of Fort Stockton. Hicks' time was 52.1 and only one yard separated the first three men in that event. The meet served to condition the Big Spring team for the District Meet, which takes place next weekend in Odessa.

Forsan, helped by a first place finish in the high jump by Albert Oglesby, registered eight points. Hollis Gaiety ran the 100 in the fast time of 9.7. He represented Colorado City. He also anchored the winning mile relay team. Big Spring's only first place was won by Bobby Fuller, who finished the mile in 4:47.2. He finished about 15 yards ahead of the next man. Charles Clark and Roy Hughes, both of Big Spring, had a second place finish in the high jump, however. The two cleared the barrier at 5-feet-8, two inches under Oglesby's best leap. Big Spring's mile relay team made a surprising showing, finishing third in the good time of 3:38.4. Colorado City won it in the time of 3:31.3. The Steers wound up second in their heat. Running for Big Spring in that event were Milton Davis, Brick Johnson, Clyde McMahon and Richard Engle. Johnny Janak of Big Spring qualified in both the 100 and 220. He finished sixth in the century and fifth in the 220. Big Spring's sprint relay team finished fifth, although it covered the two furlongs in 4:54. Gene Odell, Janak, Johnson and Bennie Compton ran on that team. Dickie Milam of the Steers was fourth in the shot put with a toss of 43 feet 3¼ inches. Bob Jones qualified in that event but did not place. Frosty Robison failed to place in Forsan Girls Gain Right To Play In Region Meet FORSAN, April 2, (SC) — W. M. Romans' Forsan Buffaloes won the right to represent its district in Regional girls' volleyball play by winning the conference tournament here Friday night. The Buffs had previously gone through a single round-robin of play without a defeat. Forsan defeated Sterling City, 17-9, in the finals after turning back Coahoma, 27-21, in a body fought semi-final joust. The Buffs led Sterling at half time, 10-5, but Coahoma had the Bisons deadlocked at the intermission, 13-13. The first round play, Coahoma drubbed Knott, 48-15, after leading at half time, 26-9, and Garden City turned back Stanton 41-18, after gaining a 25-14 advantage at half time. In the finals, Mary Fairchild paced the Forsan club with six points. Patsy Shoults and Verna Strickland were at the net. Gaye Griffith had five points, with Fairchild and Nan Holladay up front. Blair scored five points for Sterling, with McCarty and Martin doing the net work. McCarty counted four times, with Dunn and Davis at the net. Forsan now has a record of 13 wins and two defeats. The Buffs will compete in Regional at Odessa on April 23.

Blue Sox Defeat Midland, 9 To 6 ABILENE, April 2 (SC) — The Abilene Blue Sox of the WT-NM League defeated Midland of the Loughorn League, 9-6, in an exhibition baseball game here Friday night. Jack McMahon, borrowed from Big Spring, came up with a hit and a run in four trips for the Indians. He also drove in a tally.

1-AAA Basketball Card To Be Drawn Executive directors of District 1-AAA will gather at the Caprock Hotel in Lubbock at 10 a.m. Wednesday to shape a basketball schedule for the 1955-56 season and discuss other matters. Big Spring will be represented by Supt. of Schools W. C. Blankenship and Coaches Carl Coleman and Johnny Johnson.

Softball Drills Set For Monday Manager Boyce Hale has announced that the Piggly-Wiggly softball team will stage workouts Monday and Tuesday, starting at 8:30 each day, on the City Park diamond. The grocers are scheduled to meet Webb AFB at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday at the park.

Points For Action The HCJC track and field team, which has been working out for the past several weeks under Coach George McKlister, will see its first action Thursday, April 14, at which time it will engage in a triangular meet with the Sul Ross varsity and Odessa JC.

Vote For G. W. DABNEY For CITY COMMISSIONER TUESDAY, APRIL 5

The City Commissioners are the governing body of the City of Big Spring. They are your board of directors. The people are the stockholders. . . . The commissioners select one of their group to serve as mayor.

You should be vitally concerned with the men whom you select to serve you as city commissioners.

The men you select should be men of integrity; men of vision; men who are progressive; men with no selfish interest to satisfy; men who will do the most good for the most people; men who are tolerant; men who will not discriminate against minority groups; men who can anticipate the needs of the city in advance and plan accordingly; men who will take all the people into their confidence and listen to the problems that they have.

I have served you 10 years. During that period our city has doubled in population. Many improvements have been made, including an adequate supply of good water. Many more improvements and expansions of service will have to be made. It will cost money; you just don't get something for nothing.

Two sub-fire stations are a must—one for the North Side and one for the east part of town, preferably near the junior college. Two swimming pools are needed on the North Side, and we have already waited too long to furnish these additions and improvements.

In voting for City Commissioners, vote for the men you think will serve the people best, and not just because you like them. . . . Vote for Big Spring; the town belongs to the people—not the candidates. But regardless of who you vote for, please VOTE.

Thanks to you, G. W. DABNEY (Pd. Pol. Adv.)

Santee Breaks U. S. Mile Mark

AUSTIN, Tex., April 2 (AP) — Wes Santee set a new American record for the mile at the Texas Relays today but lacked half a second of his great ambition—a 4-minute mile. His time was 4:00.5, an even one-tenth of a second better than his old American record.

A roaring 14,000 track fans did their best to give Santee the little extra kick for the flat 4 minutes. The track was fast but a slight wind was against him.

The great Kansas runner finished half a lap ahead of Henri Geller of Oklahoma A&M. Teammate Art Daisell paced Santee and Wes' first words after breaking the tape were: "Thanks, Dal." Unofficially Santee had 59.0 flat for the first quarter, 1:59.0 at the half, and 3:01.0 at the three-quarter mark. With 16 men entered in the special open event, known as the Jerry Thompson Mile, Santee was assigned the inside lane. There was one false start before the race got underway.

Santee moved from fourth to third on the back stretch of the opening lap, advanced into second spot on the next leg, and moved along about two or three yards behind Daisell until midway of the third quarter. Daisell, exhausted by his terrific pacing effort, dropped out as Santee opened up a wide gap.

As Santee headed into the last lap with the announcer giving his unofficial time, the fans began screaming encouragement, and the Texas Longhorn band began playing a fast number. "When Santee's official time was announced, the Kansas face was expressionless. "I'm so darned tired I can hardly walk," he told his coach, Bill Easton.

"If you got this close the first time you tried outdoors this season, you can't miss," Easton declared. "It will come." It was an obvious reference to the four-minute mile, achieved thus far only by Australia's John Landy and England's Roger Bannister. The world record, held by Landy, is 3:58.0.

He said he had figured his time would be "about 4:01 or 4:02." Santee said he probably would try again for the 4-minute mile at the Kansas Relays three weeks hence "if the weather's nice." The temperature of 80 degrees here today was to his liking, but he said the wind blew stronger than he had expected. A north wind of 4 miles per hour had been announced earlier.

Santee's was one of 12 Texas Relays records set during the 2-day meet. Despite this tremendous effort,

Airport Triumphs Over Central, 9-8

Airport squeezed in a run in the last half of the seventh to register its first win of the season Friday. Central Ward was the victim, 9-8. With the bases loaded, Wendall Parr laid down a bunt that squeezed Pennington in with the winning run. The game was close all the way with the lead changing four times. Hitting was evenly divided with Central having the heavier guns. Airport did most of its damages with bunts.

Aggies Win Third SW Game At Bears' Expense, 4-2

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., April 2 (AP) — The Texas Aggies spotted Baylor two unearned runs in the first inning, then bounced back to take a 4-2 decision and moved into sole possession of the Southwest Conference lead. It was the third conference win against no losses for the Aggies and gave southpaw senior Joe Hardgrove his second conference victory. Fred Gottlieb, Baylor righthander, absorbed his first defeat in conference play in going the distance for the Bears. The young junior chalked up four victories without a loss last year and had received credit for Baylor's win over Rice this season.

But today he was no match for Hardgrove. After giving up two hits and throwing wild to third base as the Bears scored two runs in the first, Hardgrove gave up only one hit the remainder of the way. He walked only two and struck out six. Jerry Dykeman, reached first on an error to lead off Baylor's half of the first. Tommy Anderson and

Fight World Hails New Welter King

BOSTON, April 2 (AP) — Tony DeMarco, who once quit boxing in disgust, is the newest darling of Boston fight fans as the 29th world welter-weight champion.

Festivities continued late today in the bustling North End neighborhood where the DeMarco, 23, lives following his upset 14th-round technical knockout over ex-Champ Johnny Saxton at Boston Garden last night. "It feels terrific to be champ, I'm just beginning to realize it," Tony said this morning after an all night celebration with friends at a downtown hotel.

The town was buzzing with talk of one of the finest welterweight title fights ever staged and warming up to the son of a crippled Italian shophemaker who last night made them forget a fallen idol—Tommy Collins.

It was two years earlier that Collins, who fired the imagination of the fans, served as a punching bag for Jimmy Carter in a lightweight title bout in the same ring and witnessed by a national television audience.

There was no TV last night but the disappointingly small turnout of 8,706 won't soon forget the compact, silent DeMarco mixing long rights with brutal left hooks to send Saxton partway through the ropes in the 14th round.

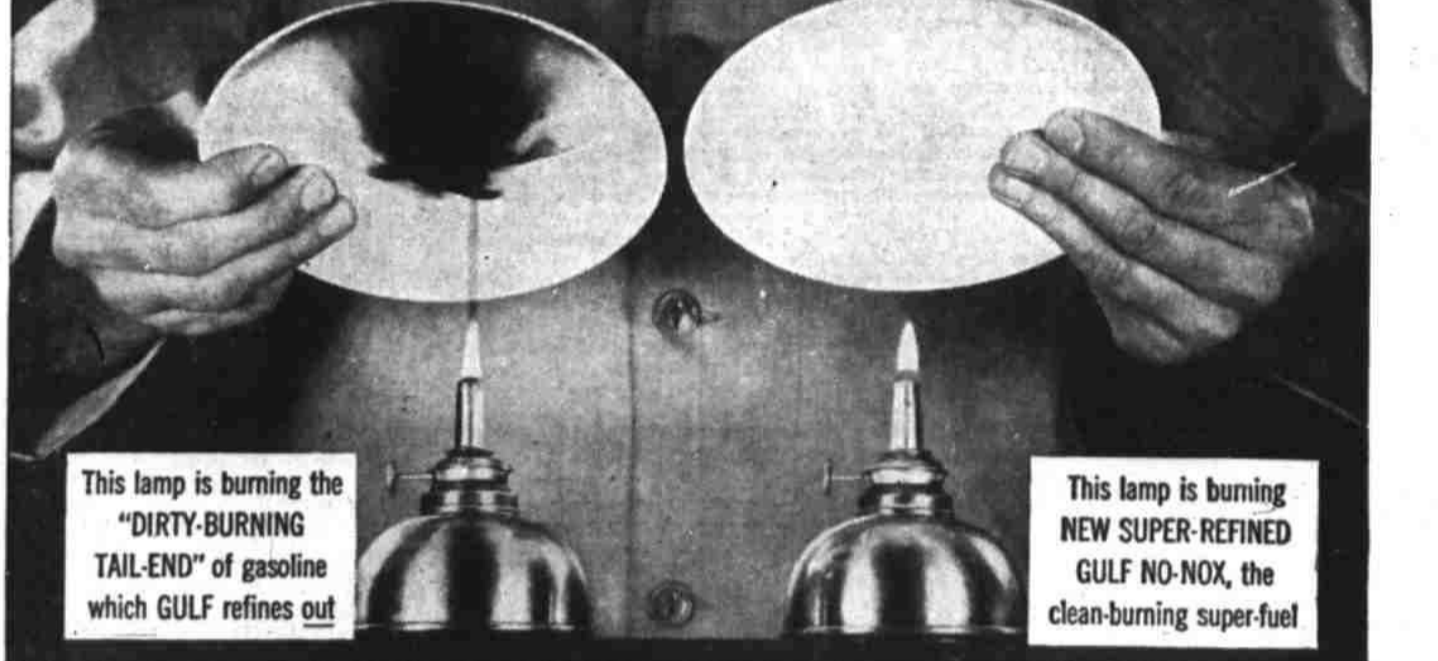

When the stunned New Yorker got up at nine Tony, a tired boy who never had fought over 10 rounds before, kept up his relentless barrage until Referee Mel Manning called a halt at 2:30.

They're calling Tony "Little Rocky" for the punch which makes him as effective as a welterweight as heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano from nearby Brockton is in his class.

Cops Play First Practice Game At 2:30 P. M. Today

Ray Sims May Toe The Slab

Cops' Probable Starter Today

The veteran Ray Sims (above) will probably toe the mound when the Big Spring Cosden Cops begin their exhibition schedule at Steer Park with the Hobbs Sports at 2:30 p.m. today. Sims formerly was with Odessa and more recently spent time with Corpus Christi of the Big State League and Plainview of the WT-NM League. He is a resident of Kountz, Texas.

Weather permitting, the Big Spring Cosden Cops make their first baseball start of 1955 at 2:30 p.m. today at Steer Park, at which time they tangle with Pat Stacey's Hobbs Sports.

In the main, Manager Pepper Martin will rely on experienced hurlers.

He plans to start Ray Sims, a 13-game winner for Corpus Christi of the Big State League last year. Mike Rainey, Kousse Hill and Aga Baca will follow Sims to the hill. Stacey is bringing his team up from San Angelo, where it completed a two-game series with the Colts last night.

The Sports will have a big advantage on the locals in that this will be their seventh game of the season.

Stacey's team will again be composed almost entirely of Cubans. Included on his roster are two names familiar to local fans—Bertie Baez and Manny Junco.

Baez was with the Big Springers most of last season while Junco patrolled the outfield for Stacey here several seasons back.

Today's game will give the rookies signed on here a chance to win their spurs in professional baseball.

Martin will go with the experienced Huck Doe behind the plate but he will divide time with J. C. Roberts, a first-year man.

Tony Martinez will be at first base and Jack Poppell, a two-year limited service performer, will be at second.

Rookies Joe Matrazzo and Jack McMahon will divide time at shortstop while Mario Salazar, a freshman, will be at third.

Martin is due to try Tom Costello, highly-regarded rookie, and Frank Billings, a limited service performer, on the picket line, along with Jim Zapp.

Martin said his chief concern at the moment was which limited service players to keep. When Luis Caballero arrives, he'll have seven in uniform and he plans to carry only five. Such would be necessary if he carries the full complement of five veterans.

The Cops face a busy week. They play Hobbs here Wednesday, Odessa here Thursday, Lubbock here Friday and Midland here Saturday. All are night games.

Next Sunday, they are scheduled to meet Hobbs in Hobbs. The Hobbs park is not yet ready but it may be playable by next weekend. Lights are not due to be installed there for some yet, however.

Chuck Comiskey On Card Board

CHICAGO, April 2 (AP)—Chuck Comiskey, vice president of the Chicago White Sox, today became a director of the Chicago Cardinals in a friendly tie-up between the baseball club and pro football organization which leases Comiskey Park.

"I will be on the Cards' board of directors in an advisory capacity, offering any suggestions that might be deemed valuable," said young Comiskey. "There actually is no technical tie-up between the Sox and Cardinals, who have made Comiskey Park their football home a number of years."

"Among other things, White Sox ticket outlets will be made available to the Cardinals. The Sox mailing lists will help boost the Cardinals, and vice versa. We are interested in making Comiskey Park a familiar spot for any sport, especially baseball and football."

Boxer's Condition Is Still Critical

TRENTON, N.J., April 2 (AP)—Bryan Thompson, youthful Philadelphia boxer, remained unconscious and in "critical" condition in St. Francis Hospital today.

The young middleweight was knocked out by Jerry Luende of New Haven, Conn., in the second round of a preliminary fight at the Trenton Arena Tuesday night.

Despite brain surgery Thursday to remove a brain clot, he has failed to regain consciousness.

WACO, April 2 (AP)—Duh King resigned today as director of sports publicity at Baylor. He said he would remain in Waco to operate a publicity office.

Steers Launch Conference Season In Angelo Tuesday

Winners in four of nine practice tilts played to date, the Big Spring High School Steers are poised to open their 1955 District 2-AA baseball season Tuesday, at which time they visit San Angelo.

The Longhorns will be going up against one of the conference favorites in the Comche City. The Bobcats are being picked to lead the way, along with Odessa.

Big Spring has beaten Snyder and Andrews twice each and lost three games to Snyder and two to Midland in exhibition games.

Though they have failed to play .500 ball, they've outscored the opposition, 63-42, and outhit the foe, 84-64.

They were held to one hit in one start and limited to two blows in another but, against Snyder, they

Maxwell Retains Stroke Lead In Azalea Open

By KEN ALYTA
WILMINGTON, N. C., April 2 (AP)—Billy Maxwell clung shakily to his one-stroke Azalea Open golf tournament lead after 54 holes today, despite a three-bogie finish.

The 25-year-old Odessa, Tex., professional, seven under par through 15 holes, finished with a four under 68 for a 201 total for three rounds and a stroke lead over Mike Souchak of Durham, N. C.

Souchak, who started the day in a second place tie with Bob Toski of Livingston, N. J., matched Maxwell's 68, but he had to come home in 33 to do it. His 202 left him one shot ahead of Toski who was in third place at 203 following a 69 today.

Jay Hebert of Woodmere, N. Y., whose 67 was the day's best score, was in fourth place at 205 and Doug Ford, Kiamasha Lake, N. Y., and Fred Haas, Claremont, Calif., shared fifth at 206.

Asked later by a fellow-professional if he tired or was pressing in the stretch, Maxwell replied: "Well you don't like to think you're choked" but it appears rather evident.

Still, Maxwell broke the 54-hole tournament record for the $12,500 event by a stroke. Toski had 202 for 54 holes in winning last year over the 6,795-yard Cape Fear Country Club course.

Maxwell, the 1951 National Amateur champion, had threatened to make a show of the field which included 13 of the year's top 16 money winners, as well as Toski, last year's champion.

With four holes to go Maxwell was five shots ahead of Souchak, with whom he played. Mike picked up a stroke a hole the rest of the way to get back into the thick of the fight for $2,200 top money.

There was no indication early in the round that Maxwell was to all but blow the lead. He was out in 32, making it 10 under par for three trips around the front side.

That performance left him four ahead of both Toski and Souchak who were out in 35.

Dodgers To Carry Baltimore Castoff

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 2 (AP)—Manager Walter Alton today indicated the Brooklyn Dodgers would carry Frank Kellert, Baltimore castoff, who "was a throw-in in the Erv Fallica deal with the Orioles."

Alton said he was practically set on his opening day lineup but wouldn't reveal the name of the third baseman or left fielder. However, he indicated Pee Wee Reese and Junior Gilliam would start at shortstop and second base, respectively, although the experiments with Chico Fernandez and Don Zimmer would probably continue.

Hannah To Angels

SAN ANTONIO, April 2 (AP)—Joe Hannah, a catcher, was assigned today to Los Angeles as the Chicago Cubs pared their squad to 35.

He broke loose for 17 blows in one game and collected ten in their last start against Andrews.

The opposition has yet to hit or score in double figures in any one game.

Thomas Little will probably hurl against San Angelo. Frosty Robinson could get the call, however.

The Steers meet Midland there April 12 and Odessa there April 18. They wind up the season with three home games in a row.

Bottlers Retain Lead In League

Seven-Up Bottling Company retained its one-game lead in Women's Bowling League standings the past week by defeating Jax Beer 2-1; the same margin by which second place Pinkie's trounced Dibrell's Sporting Goods, 2-1.

Seven-Up now has won 19 and lost 11. Pinkie's record is 18-12; followed by Dibrell's at 17-14; and Jax Beer, 6-24.

Pinkie's paced team scoring, with 657-1832; followed by Seven-Up, with 637-1795.

Olive Canble led individual point-getting, with 212-569. She bowls for Pinkie's.

Frances Glenn of Dibrell's boasted the second best single game, 197; while Jessie Pearl Watson had a 534 for the next best aggregate.

Dons And Uclans Invited To Meet

NEW YORK, April 2 (AP)—The University of San Francisco, newly crowned National Collegiate basketball champion, and UCLA, the only college team to beat the Dons during the past season, will be the guest teams in the fourth Eastern College Athletic Conference Holiday basketball festival next December.

ECAC Commissioner Asa S. Bushnell today announced the West Coast colleges had accepted invitations to the tournament in Madison Square Garden, Dec. 26, 28 and 30. Six ECAC member colleges will complete the field.

DALLAS, April 2 (AP)—Herb Score, the most talked about rookie of the spring, tossed four scoreless innings to run his streak to 13 today and got credit for the victory as the Cleveland Indians mowed down the New York Giants 7-4.

Pignatano Farmed To Fort Worth

VERO BEACH, Fla., April 2 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers today released four players to farm clubs on option.

Joe Pignatano, a catcher from Brooklyn, goes to Fort Worth in the Texas League. Herb Olson, a catcher, from San Diego, Calif., reports to Mobile in the Southern Assn. Charlie Thompson, a catcher, from Lewiston, Pa., and Chuck Templeton, southpaw pitcher from Wayne, Mich., go to St. Paul of the American Assn.

Cast Different But Baltimore Still In Rut

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 2 (AP)—The cast is almost entirely different and a new director has taken over, but the Baltimore Orioles are acting suspiciously like the seventh-place American League team of 1954.

The same old bugaboo—weak hitting in the clutch—is still with the Birds despite the wholesale trades and purchases made by Manager Paul Richards during the winter in an effort to bolster a powder-puff attack.

Cast Different But Baltimore Still In Rut

"We're not hitting in the clutch," Richards observed after Baltimore lost its fourth game in five starts to the Pittsburgh Pirates, last place finisher in the rival National League.

Lack of clutch hitting was the chief cause of Baltimore's 54-100 record last year. Some of the new players were expected to add punch to the lineup, working toward improvement on the '54 season.

So far this spring, outfielders Gene Woodling and Hoot Evers are pacing the club with eight runs batted in apiece. But Woodling, an ex-New York Yankee, is hitting only .226 in his cleanup spot. Evers, who played with three teams last season, leads the Orioles with a .483 average.

First baseman Gus Triandos, also obtained from the Yankees in the big 15-player trade, is next in line with seven RBIs.

So while the newcomers Richards picked up are showing the way, their output has not pleased Baltimore's leader.

The pitching staff, which will have to be top-notch to support such weak hitting, is headed by veterans Joe Coleman, Lou Krelow and sore-arm Duane Pillette, ex-Yankees' Jim McDonald, Harry Byrd and Bill Miller and rookie Bob Alexander from Portland, Baltimore has won 7 of 19 spring games.

Milwaukee Appears To Be Best Club

NEW YORK, April 2 (AP)—Impressions of a wandering baseball writer returned home after six weeks sejourning among the 13 major league camps in Florida:

BEST CLUB—Milwaukee Braves.

WORST CLUB—Kansas City Athletics.

MOST IMPROVED CLUB—St. Louis Cardinals.

MOST SURPRISING CLUB—Pittsburgh Pirates (won 12 of first 19 exhibitions).

BEST HITTER—National League: Joe Adcock, Braves; American League: Yogi Berra, Yankees.

BEST PITCHERS—National League: Don Newcombe, Dodgers and Harvey Haddix, Cardinals; American League: Frank Sullivan, Red Sox and Bob Grim, Yankees.

MOST IMPROVED HITTEES—National League: Henry Aaron, Braves; Rip Repulski, Cards and Stan Lopata, Phillies; American League: Bill Skovron, Yankees and Faye Throneberry, Red Sox.

MOST IMPROVED PITCHERS—National League: Newcombe, Dodgers and Dick Littlefield, Pirates; American League: Jim McDonald, Orioles; Camille Pasqual, Senators and Bob Miller, Tigers.

MOST IMPROVED (All-around)—National League: Don Zimmer, Dodgers; American League: Al Kaline, Tigers.

GREATEST SURPRISE—American League: Fine showing of pitcher Johnny Kucks, Yankees, after only one year at Norfolk, Va.; National: Walter Alton, Dodger Manager, getting kicked out of a game.

BEST PERFORMANCE—Jackie Robinson, Dodgers, rapped four straight hits, stole home, forced a balk and agitated the opposing pitchers into issuing seven bases on balls with his action on the basepaths.

TOP ROOKIE INFIELDER—Ken Boyer, Cardinals.

TOP ROOKIE OUTFIELDER—Elston Howard, Yankees.

TOP ROOKIE PITCHER—Jim Owens, Phillies with Roger Bowman, Pirates and Humerto Robinson, Braves, not far behind.

MOST OPTIMISTIC MGR.—Marty Marion once charged with being a "defeatist," insists his White Sox will beat out the Indians and Yankees for American League pennant.

BIGGEST HOAX—Three separate reports of Ted Williams' definite arrival in the Red Sox training camp (on each occasion the Boston slugger was fishing in the Islamorada Key off the Florida Coast).

Foes Are Named For Donkey Game

A team composed of employees of Cosden Petroleum Corporation and Cabot Carbon Company will meet the Officers' Club of Webb Air Force Base in Tuesday night's donkey baseball game at the Little League park at 8 o'clock.

Proceeds from the contest will go toward construction of a three-acre league park here. The site for the new park, located west of the Little League park on city-owned property, has been cleared off.

No admission fee will be charged for the game Tuesday but a free-will offering will be taken at the entrance.

IN BIG SPRING CHURCHES

Varied Holy Week Services Set Here

Special services for Holy Week have been planned at local Catholic, Episcopal, Lutheran and Methodist Churches.

At St. Thomas Catholic Church confessions will be heard Wednesday from 4 to 6 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday schedule will be Mass at 7 a.m., adoration all day, blessing of children at 4 p.m.,
Holy hour at 7:30 p.m.

On Good Friday, Mass of the

Presanctified will be at 7 a.m.
Bread for Mass of the Presanctified is to be consecrated Thursday.
Veneration and Way of the Cross will be from 2 to 3 p.m., Stations of the Cross and sermon at 7:30 p.m.

Holy Saturday schedule will include blessing of the new fire, paschal candle and baptismal water at 6 a.m.; and high Mass at 7:15 a.m.

Mass Thursday at Sacred Heart Church (Spanish-speaking) will be at 7:30 a.m. Adoration will continue all day and all night until Friday morning. Washing of the feet, a traditional Spanish ceremony, will be at 3 p.m. Holy Hour at 7 p.m.

T&P Credit Union Has New Quarters

Texas & Pacific Employees Credit Union moved into new and private quarters Friday.

The company provided space on the second floor of the freight terminal and renovated the rooms.
Les Snow, president, said this was the second time the company gave the credit unit a lift. Last March when the shift was made to machine accounting, the company provided space for the equipment.

Duke Baker, assistant treasurer, will be on duty and available at the new office from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m., Snow said.

On Good Friday, Mass of the
Seven Last Words at 7 p.m. Two processions will make the Stations of the Cross out-of-doors beginning church, the other from the church hall. Both will meet for the fourth station at the home of Eloisa Garcia, and continue together from there.

Blessing of the new fire, paschal candle and baptismal water will be Saturday at 7:30 a.m.

Services for Holy Week in St.
Mary's Episcopal Church will include a daily celebration of Holy Communion at 10 a.m. Monday through Thursday, and the traditional celebration of the Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m.

The services on Good Friday will be a recitation of the Litany and Penitential Office at 10 a.m. and the Three-Hours Devotion, from 12 noon to 3 p.m. The Rector, the Rev. William Boyd, will deliver a series of meditations on the Seven
Last Words during the three hours.

The service on Good Friday is divided into 20-minute parts, so that it may be convenient for many to attend at least a part of the period. All are free to come and go as it is convenient during the singing of a hymn.

A Good Friday service has been planned for St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Jesse Young, pastor of the Park Methodist Church will have services Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

At the First Methodist Church there will be special services each evening at 7:30. Holy Communion will be given Thursday. A prayer service beginning Friday at noon will continue until 3 p.m. A prayer vigil will begin at 3 p.m. and last until 10 a.m. Saturday.

Opens Revival

The Rev. Harold Glen Brown of Midland will begin a pre-Easter revival at the First Christian Church tonight at 7:30 p.m. He will speak every evening through Friday at the same hour. His Sunday topic will be "History's Greatest Miracle."

Reich Parties Fight Saar Pact

BONN, Germany (AP) — Members of three outlawed pro-German parties of the disputed Saar said today they will challenge the constitutionality of the French-German agreement to Europeanize their homeland.

The party members, now in "exile" in West Germany, said they will ask the West German Constitutional Court to rule on the pact's legality.

A similar ruling already has been asked of the court by the Socialist members of the Bundestag (Lower House of Parliament), supported by a few adherents of other factions.

The Saar agreement, one of the Paris treaties on German rearmament, would put the German-speaking Saarlanders under control of the seven-nation West European Union—until a final peace treaty is signed. Both France and West Germany have ratified the accord.

The coal-rich industrial valley,
German before World War II, is now autonomous politically but is tied economically to France. Germany has never relinquished her claims to the territory.

The West German Socialists have charged that the Saar agreement violates the constitution by agreeing to even temporary separation of Saarlanders from Germany.
They say the Saarlanders have a right to the protection of the Bonn constitution.

Austin College Reunion Slated
For April 30

SHERMAN — Austin College students from throughout the country will head for the Sherman campus April 30 for their annual
"Austin College Day" reunion.

Plans for a full day of activities, including the annual alumni luncheon, have been announced by W. B. Guerrant, Jr., Sherman, general chairman of arrangements.
Heading arrangements for attendance from the West Texas area is Thomas D. Murphy, Odessa, regional vice president of the Alumni and Ex-Students Association. The April 30 gathering will spotlight the anniversary reunions of four classes, those of 1890, 1945, 1895 and 1900 and earlier.

Face-Lifting Puts Glamour Into County Club Building

By ANN LEFEVER

Shades of old Aunt Samantha and her big black iron washpot! If one hasn't landed right in the middle of the Big Spring Country Club! Not that it is used for washing clothes now—far from it.

This one has had a bath of gold paint and, filled with dirt, is the container for a "peach tree" that will never be bothered by late frosts. It is placed in a recess made by the stairsteps in the foyer, which has been carpeted in Frosty-tone fabric. The untitled would call it a "pepper and salt mixture." The paper used here is the same as is used in the ballroom—a charcoal gray with shocking pink and white figures.

Named "Grand Ballo," the paper shows small figures in various scenes, and, judging by some of them—it is a grand ball. There is a Pierrot, and if his companion is Pierrette, she is in a much more elegant dress than usual. There is a balcony scene and a ballroom setting.

These are some of the deft touches that have gone into a complete renovation of the Country Club building. Extensive redecorating is just about finished, and first glimpse of the over-all effect was gotten by women of the club Friday at a luncheon given by the Ladies Golf Association.

The visitors had plenty of dazzling new decorative ideas to appreciate.

Behind the alcove for the orchestra, the wall is shocking pink with a tree made of plaster of Paris. Mrs. E. H. Boullion of Lucelle's and her helpers, who have gone all-out to provide glamour for the club, have sprinkled glitter over this and placed soft pink draperies at each side of the tree.

Matching draperies of cotton and rayon with a lures thread, are at the windows which are separated by brass sconces in intricate design. These hold black candles. Brass medallions decorate the wall above the fireplace, which has been completely remodeled and improved. A brass jardiniere at one side on the hearth holds gold-dipped leaves.

Opening into this, the sun-porch has been draped with fabric printed in green and cherry. This was also used to upholster the east door.

Just off the ballroom is the powder room, which has been changed to an orchid and purple glorified spot. Here, the wallpaper gives the effect of upholstered and tufted walls.

The pride and joy of the women of the club is the lounge made by placing a partition across the south end of the golf shop. Here, a gold and black wallpaper, named "Crossfire" is used in combination with another named "Between Five and Seven." It has a golden background, and as the name suggest, is decorated with fancy bottles and

See COUNTRY CLUB, Pg. 2, Col. 1

PICKIN' OUT A TUNE — is always fun! Mrs. R. V. Middleton, wife of the vice president of the Country Club, finds it easy with as good a listener as Mrs. J. Y. Robb, one of the hostesses for the Friday luncheon and against as lovely a background as the one behind the orchestra pit. The wall is painted shocking pink, and the white tree glitters and sparkles in the light.

Big Spring Daily Herald

Section II Big Spring, Texas, Sunday, April 3, 1955 Society

GREATEST IMPROVEMENT — almost everyone agrees, is the remodeling of the old fireplace in the Country Club ballroom. Mrs. Neil Hilliard, right, wife of the secretary-treasurer of the club, "just couldn't believe it" when she saw the change as she looked over the work with her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. N. Throop of Abilene.

Luncheon Hostesses

It was a task figuring out how many chickens would be needed to feed about 100 guests for the Ladies Golf Association luncheon which was given at the Country Club on Friday. Mrs. Ike Robb, left, and flowers. These are in pink and white.

Pale pink celanese nylon draperies cover the short windows in here. Small tables in black have chairs covered in black or pink. Especially eye-catching are the "ice-cream chairs" in pink. A black divan has pink cushions as do the occasional chairs. The carpet from the foyer is continued into this room.

Ashtrays that will delight the heart of all smokers are huge bowls on small metal stands and are large enough to be used for a fruit arrangement or even a chop plate. Conversational pieces include the three hanging candelabra, dirigible-shaped of black and gold metal, and named "Hickory, Dickory Dock, and the pink wicker bird cage — complete with pent-house.

Other interesting lighting arrangements are the imported hanging lights in the foyer which are made of brass and seashells. In the ballroom, the pierced cornice across the west wall controls the indirect lighting.

Also newly decorated are the men's game room, with draperies of green appliqued with card suits and cards, the golf shop and the women's locker room. Here, the decorations are of chartreuse and cherry with a plaid trim on the draperies and at the dressing table. Walls of the golf shop are in a deep sand tone with appropriate murals adorning the walls.

Done in harmonizing or contrasting colors, the club has been given such a face-lifting the correct word for it is glamorous.

Envoy's Wife Helps Husband With Book

By JANE FADS
WASHINGTON — Mrs. de Valle, Peruvian-born wife of the Honduras ambassador who has written books on the history of her own country, is now helping her husband with his forth-coming volume "Political Ideas of Central America During the 20th Century." This book which ought to be of great interest to historians will be published by the Fondo de Cultura Economica.

The story-go-round has it that Haitian President Paul Magloire's buffet dinner for 2,500 at the Pan-American Union here recently cost his government $6 a plate, not including the fire water! And to think I didn't even eat a nickel's worth.

Sen. S. L. Holland (D-Tx) good-naturedly helped Mrs. Harry Cain, wife of the former Washington Republican senator, when she momentarily forgot his name while introducing him to a luncheon group recently. "That will get you in Dutch," the Florida prompted.

Art Club Sponsors Exhibit

Twenty-five prize-winning pictures representing the work of outstanding Texas artists are included in the circuit exhibit opening today at the Servicemen's Center, 113 E. 2nd.

The Texas Fine Arts Association exhibit is being sponsored locally by Las Artistas Club.

Pictures were selected by a three-man jury: Lee Malone, director of the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston; Donald Weisman, chairman of the department of art, University of Texas, and James Valone, head of the department of art, Southwestern University, Georgetown.

Artists showing pictures include instructors at Abilene Christian College, Texas A&M, Baylor, Texas University, University of Houston and A&I College at Kingsville.

Sul Ross College, Texas Tech and the College of Mines at El Paso have also shown this exhibit.

The show is part of Las Artistas' efforts to bring fine arts programs to the community. Not yet a year old, the group of 30 members welcomes new members, both amateur and professional artists.

Mrs. Richard Patterson, exhibit chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. Buck Jones and Mrs. Richard O. Franz.

Mrs. Lois O'Barr Smith, secretary of the Center, and club members will welcome the public at the following times: Monday and

Country Club Women Have Spring Luncheon

From a table covered with a charcoal gray linen cloth, about 100 guests were served luncheon at the open meeting given Friday by members of the Ladies Golf Association of the Big Spring Country Club.

The cloth, made by Lucelle's especially for use in the newly decorated ballroom, was applied with arrangements of flowers and fruit in soft shades of pink, green and other harmonizing colors.

The table was decorated with a tall arrangement of pink carnations, greenery and grapes in harmonizing tones. Shocking pink candles were used in crystal holders on this table and also on small tables where guests were seated. Matching napkins were used on these tables with covers of pale pink.

Hostesses for the occasion, which was to show the new interior of the club, were Mrs. James Duncan, Mrs. Elmo Wasson, Mrs. J. Y. Robb, Mrs. Ike Robb, Mrs. Bill Neal and Mrs. Roy Townsend.

Following the luncheon, a business meeting was held with Mrs. Marvin Saunders in charge. The announcement was made that a Family Night supper will be given at the club on April 21. Reports of the various committees were heard. Mrs. Roscoe Cowper, reporting for the Ways and Means Committee, introduced a new project to members.

Games of bridge were the entertainment of the afternoon for members and their guests.

'Capt. Queeg' To Come To Municipal Stage

Much speculation exists that there really was a character like Captain Queeg or a destroyer-mine sweeper like the U. S. S. Caine, but Herman Wouk, author of "The Caine Mutiny" has always insisted they were fictional.

William Bendix, returning to the stage after an 11-year absence, portrays Queeg, the now-famous psychoneurotic Naval officer in Wouk's dramatization of the novel to be presented April 11 by the Big Spring Concert Association at the City Hall auditorium.

Robert Lowery will be seen as Lt. Barney Greenwald, the "sea lawyer," at the dramatic court martial.

Paul Gregory produced "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial" and Charles Laughton directed it. A cast of 18 appear in the National Touring Company attraction.

Charles Laughton was previously associated with the producer in such hits as "Don Juan in Hell" and "John Brown's Body," but unlike these productions, "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial" is a full-length play.

The play won the New York's Outer Circle Critics Award as best play of the year.

Children To Parade Easter Finery

Local children will show off their Easter finery in the Easter Parade of Children April 10 as they march around the court house square beginning at 4:30 p.m.

The parade is being sponsored by the Merchant's Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. All children 12 years and under are eligible, regardless of race, according to Edith Gay, Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Third and Fourth streets will be roped off for the event. It is not necessary for the children to register before hand. They will congregate at 4 p.m. on the east side of the court house.

Each child is asked to bring a balloon. They may bring wagons or doll buggies, galli decorated if desired, but pets will not be allowed. No prizes will be awarded.

Everything for Easter!

For The Easter Egg Group

Easter parading is by no means confined to adults... not when you can find so many, many smart little outfits as we are showing for both girls and boys, including Polly Parrot shoes in all the new pastel colors for Easter! Be sure and visit us tomorrow and see them all for yourself!

I Bet This Is The One You Need

Anita Gandy gives this piece of encouraging information to her mother as she draws in one of the hot canasta games the family likes to play. "Looking as wise as a tree full of owls," Steve looks over his daddy's cards to help him out with the competition. Sometimes he is satisfied to sit in his own little chair and watch and sometimes he isn't. This was one of the times that he wasn't!

Senior Scouts Plan June Encampment

Senior Girl Scouts of the West Texas Council have been making preparations for attending a Region IX patrol troop encampment in June.

Recently they held their second pre-camp training period at Camp Boothe Oaks near Sweetwater. They outlined the three-day menu to be used at the council camp and selected an emblem consisting of a green cactus against the black background of a pink and black flag.

Directors of the council also held a session which was highlighted by a session of the senior planning board. Stephany Stephens of Lamesa is head of this planning unit.

Marriage Of Former Coahoma Girl Told

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Springfield of Weatherford have announced the marriage of their daughter, Vonna, to Maxie Lee Massengale March 18 in Granbury. The bride is a former resident of Coahoma.

The Rev. Lewis A. Drummond, pastor of the Granbury Baptist Church, officiated at the ceremony in his home. Both the bride and bridegroom are students at Weatherford High School.

Miss Meador Joins Music Organization

Beverly Meador of Coahoma has been initiated into Beta Mu Kappa, national music organization, at Hardin-Simmons University.

H. Greeley's Advice Is Taken Seriously

The M. Z. Gandy family, newcomers at 1114 Main, are evidently believers in Horace Greeley's admonition about "going West." Former residents of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Gandy and Anita moved to Abilene, where he was district manager for the Oldsmobile factory. At Dallas he was for seven years with Oldsmobile-Cadillac.

This work entailed more traveling than they liked. Now that they have gone farther west, he has assumed duties as shop foreman at Shroyer Motor Company and is at home with his family much more. The group now includes 11-month-old Stevie, who was born in Abilene. He's quite a pat-a-cake artist, too!

Anita's interests are many and varied. She likes reading, shows, collecting knick-knacks and pictures, but her chief work now is being done with Pete, or Baby. That's a parakeet, whose name has not been definitely decided upon, and she is "finger taming" him at the present time.

Pete, alias Baby, (or vice versa) is too young now to talk, but the process of teaching him to perch on a finger requires time and patience. Later the language lessons will start.

The whole family enjoys Mr.

Gandy's hobby of hunting and they like card games. They are especially pleased with their moves out in this direction because of the climate.

Chairmen In Polio Work Announced

Names of volunteer workers in the use of the Salk polio vaccine have been announced by the general chairman, Mrs. W. N. Norred.

In case the vaccine is found to prevent crippling polio, it will be administered to eligible children as quickly and as efficiently as possible.

This will be done from 9 a. m. to 12 noon at the First Presbyterian Church. The date will be set later, in charge of the church arrangement is Mrs. Ann Steck, Mrs. Bledsoe O'Brien and Grover C. Cunningham Jr.

Recorders are Mrs. A. McNary, and Mrs. James T. Wilkerson. Hostesses are Mrs. Roy Sloan and Mrs. W. S. Goodlett Jr. Children's Aides will be under the direction of Mrs. Woodrow Dowling and Mrs. Walter Stroup. Aides will be used to go through the routine with each child whose mother is not present. Parents are asked to call for their children at the church.

Julia Ann Power Honored At Shower

Table decorations followed a pink and white color scheme for a tea honoring Julia Ann Power, bride-elect of Ronald Ray Davidson, in the home of Mrs. A. H. Bugg, 1111 N. San Antonio.

Frankie Brown presided at the register. Co-hostesses included Mrs. A. H. Bugg, Mrs. F. C. McDougal, Mrs. A. E. Ivey, Mrs. Dub Brown, Louise Thomas, Mrs. J. L. Swindell, Mrs. R. D. Cramer, Mrs. Ed Wood, Mrs. L. D. Hayworth, Petty and Mrs. Weldon Bryson.

Is the Rash of Measles Infectio'

Infectio'

No, the disease is apparently spread by direct contact with eye and nose secretions of infected patients, particularly before their skin has developed a rash. To avoid complications of a far more serious nature than measles, the patient must be kept quiet.

MRS. ARCH RATLIFF

Miss Currie, Mr. Ratliff Take Wedding Vows Friday

GARDEN CITY — In a formal ceremony Friday evening, Barbara Lu Currie, daughter of William J. Currie, became the bride of Arlis Ratliff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ratliff. Both families live in Garden City.

Wedding rites, with the Rev. R. L. Bowman of Westbrook officiating, took place in the Currie home before a fireplace banked with greenery and gardenias. White tapers in graduated heights completed the setting for the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Rube Ricker of Dallas, pianist, played the nuptial music and accompanied Sue Sawyer of Margaret, soloist, as she sang "You'll Never Walk Alone," "Because" and "The Tri-Delta Sweetheart Song."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an original model of white imported Nyl-Brode lace and nylon tulle over net and satin. Long sleeves of a fitted lace bodice ended in points over her hands and the portrait neckline was outlined with an applique of lace.

Crinolines were worn under the skirt, waltz-length, which was made of shirred lace with a wide ruffle of tulle, beginning at the hip-line. Her short veil of silk illusion was attached to a tiny hat of tulle edged with a pleated ruffle. This was held by a pale blue ribbon tied in the center back.

The bride's flowers were gardenias surrounding a white orchid with lilies of the valley, all arranged in a colonial bouquet, bearing light blue ribbon streamers.

Attendants were Mrs. Jerry Currie of Big Spring, matron of honor for her sister-in-law, and Dorise Stone, maid of honor, Diana Lu Currie, niece of the bride, was flower girl. All wore dresses styled in a colonial manner, of soft blue embroidery and silk organza over blue taffeta. Fashioned with a long torso, the frocks were all demitasse length. Head dresses were similar to that of the bride, and all carried colonial bouquets of gardenias. Pumps in a shade matching their dresses were worn. Jerry Currie was best man.

Following the wedding, a reception was held. The bridal couple received guests, assisted by their parents and the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Barbara Sowell of Colorado City.

The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and decorated with gardenias. Crystal serving appointments were used. Mrs. Jiggs Harfield of Pecos, sister of the bridegroom, served the three-tiered cake, which was topped by a small bride and groom. Punch was served by Mrs. Winston Prichard of Paris.

Mrs. Stephen Currie, aunt of the bride, greeted guests, and Mrs. James Currie, aunt of the bride, greeted guests, and Mrs. James Currie, a cousin, was at the register. Another cousin, Mrs. Jerry Lawhorn of Marfa, was a member of the houseparty.

When the couple left for a wedding trip, Mrs. Ratliff wore a navy suit with navy accessories and white gloves. Her corsage was a white orchid. Upon their return, they will be at home in Garden City where she is a teacher in the public schools. The bridegroom is a rancher in this section.

Both attended the Garden City schools, and the bride is a graduate of Texas Tech. She has been Tech Rodeo Queen and secretary of the Rodeo Association of that school. She was president of her sorority, Delta Delta Delta; a legislator of Knapp Hall, an executive of B. S. O., and Miss Texas Tech. She has been listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

For the wedding, Mrs. Sowell wore a lace dress of French blue, with a small pink straw hat. This was trimmed with a veil and tiny flowers. Her corsage was of gardenias. The mother of the bridegroom chose a lace dress of orchid with a matching hat. Her corsage was also gardenias.

Out-of-town guests other than those in the wedding party were Ida Belle Richards of Colorado City, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jordan of Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Whiteley of Gainesville, Mary Frances Wiese and Mary Jo Smith of Lorenzo, Joan McGee of Hereford, Jerry Denton of Childress, Dot Qualls of Del Rio and June Carpenter of Shreveport.

Attending from Big Spring were Mrs. T. S. Currie, Agnes and Temp Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Currie, Mr. and Mrs. John Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McComb, Mrs. Ruth Currie, Mrs. Bob Eberley and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Currie.

Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Currie, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Currie, her cousins, were hosts for a rehearsal dinner.

Guests were seated at small tables in the reception rooms. The buffet table, laid with a linen cloth, was centered with an arrangement of daffodils and tulips. White tapers in crystal holders were used in the decorations.

Members of the bridal party were guests as were the parents of the honored couple. Gifts were presented to their attendants by Miss Currie and Mr. Ratliff.

Chicken Pies Are As Good Cold As Hot

These chicken saucer pies are perfect lunch box fare for they are just as good cold as they are hot. Half a six-inch pie is enough for a school child, but the man of the house probably would like a whole one in his lunch box.

CHICKEN SAUCER PIES
1 package pie crust mix
1 egg white, slightly beaten
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
4 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
2 cups chicken bouillon or stock
2 tablespoons chopped chives
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Few drops tabasco sauce
3 cups finely diced cooked or canned chicken

Line individual pie pans with pastry; brush with egg white. Melt butter or margarine; blend in flour, salt and pepper. Add bouillon; stir over low heat until smooth and thickened. Add remaining ingredients. Fill pie pans. Brush inside of top crusts with egg white; cover pies; press edges together; prick with tine of fork. Bake in hot oven, 450 degrees F. 30 minutes. Yields 6 four-inch pies or 4 six-inch pies.

Martha Ann Johnson Wed To Jeff Hanna Jr.

MRS. JEFF A. HANNA JR.

In an 11 o'clock wedding ceremony Friday morning, Martha Ann Johnson daughter of Mrs. Monroe Johnson, 801 Scurry, became the bride of Jeff A. Hanna Jr. son of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hanna of Roscoe, former Big Spring residents. The Rev. Baker J. Turner Jr. officiated as vows were taken in the chapel of Grace Episcopal Church in New Orleans. Altar decorations of calla lilies and dogwood were used as a background for the informal, double ring rites.

Traditional wedding music was played, with "O. Perfect Love" as an organ solo during the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, E. H. Hatch. Her soft blue, light wool suit was fashioned with a scoop neck with a rolled collar. The jacket was trimmed with small covered buttons and this topped a straight skirt. Her tiny hat was of white silk organza and her gloves were white. Navy pumps and bag completed her costume. A prayer book, topped with an orchid, was carried by the bride. Her something old and borrowed was a handkerchief, which had been carried by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. B. O. Jones, in her own wedding. The same handkerchief had been carried by the mother of the bride for her wedding, also.

Attending her friend as a bridesmaid was Jo Ann Smith, who wore a princess-style dress of steel blue cotton shantung. Styled with a boat neckline and short sleeves, it was trimmed with tiny covered buttons down the front, going into a deep pleat in the skirt. The fitted bodice bore a large bow of the same material. Her pale blue straw hat held interest in the back with blue flower trim. She wore matching short gloves with gray metallic pumps and she carried a nosegay of roses. Attending as best man was Lawrence Hilton Carruth of Columbia.

Delta Kappa Gamma Has Brunch Saturday

Dolls dressed in Easter finery and on their way to a small church were used on the tables for the Saturday brunch given by the local chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary sorority for teachers. Members from Midland, Martin and Howard counties gathered at the Settles Hotel where music was furnished by Joyce Howard vocalist, accompanied by Mrs. Bill Grises.

Clyde Angel gave a review of "Snips and Smalls." Forty-six attended the meeting, including one guest besides the entertainers. The visitor was Velma Blagrove, local teacher.

COSDEN CHATTER

Cosdenites Are Visiting In Surrounding States

Glynn Jordan left Saturday for Fordyce, Ark. to visit a week with her family and to attend the L. E. Purdy family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Yates are spending the weekend in San Antonio attending the Automotive Show.

Eleanor Matheny and Mrs. Fred Stitzel visited in Dallas last Thursday and Friday.

A. Glenn was in Hobbs and Lovington, N. M. on company business last Tuesday.

Ed Reynolds is on the sick list. Mr. Cole of the Aber Company, Tulsa, was a visitor in the office Friday.

R. J. Echols left Thursday for service in the Army. A new employe in the maintenance department this week is Raymond Craig.

Mrs. Jo Hill was out of the office three days last week due to illness. R. L. Tollett returned to Big Spring Friday from an extended business trip which included stops in Chicago, New York, Washington, Houston, Bandera, and San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Douglas of Grandfield, Okla., visited here last weekend with their son and daughter-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. J. R. Douglas.

Middleton De Camp with the Tube-Turn Company in Midland, Gene Acuff of OTM Corporation and Glen Cannon of Bethlehem Supply Company, both of Odessa along with Ray Barnett of the Hudson Engineering Company, Houston, visited in the engineering department this week.

Returning Monday from vacations will be Claude Ramsey, L. D. Gilbert, J. F. Cannon, J. C. Arnold, J. Hobbs, J. C. Humphries; G. Leonard, Claude Fallon, E. G. Rainey, A. E. Reed, and Donald Webb. Loyd Arnold will leave Monday on a two-week vacation that will take him to Lufkin, Houston, Shreveport, La. and through several points in Arkansas on his return.

J. T. Baird and Rip Merrill will be on jury duty Monday. Donald McKinney and Otto Peters Jr. served on the jury last week.

Brownie Egg Hunt

An Easter Egg Hunt was given for members of Brownie Troop No. 4 Friday afternoon at St. Paul Presbyterian. Mrs. Harold McCombs is troop leader. During a business meeting gifts were presented to Mrs. McCombs and her daughter, Amy, as they are moving to another town. Fifteen members and two leaders were present.

HI--TALK

By PEGGY HOGAN

Wow! What a week! It seems everybody at BSHS has thrived on excitement all week long.

To begin with, the student council delegates to the state convention in Denton brought home the state presidency by topping their big competitor, Ray High School of Corpus Christi. Yet, with all the campaigning and politicking carried on by the delegates and their sponsors—Glenn Rogers, Tom Guin, Rodney Sheppard, Sue Boykin, Peggy Hogan, Mrs. Betty Lou Ratliff, and Mrs. Leo Rogers—the real victory belonged to you, the student body. It was the "kids back home" that did so much of the hard work in preparing our tremendous campaign and much of the credit belongs there. Yes, Big Spring High through her student council has reached her peak. We're at the top of Texas now and we must remember that our school is setting examples for other schools all over the state. I believe, though, that we're ready to carry the honor and the responsibility! Thanks to everybody who helped us win the election.

Another star in the crown of BSHS—the band brought home SWEEPSTAKES. Hilarious isn't the word for it. I've been told that when the big news was announced at the contest in Odessa last week, Mr. Rowe, the band director, suddenly found himself atop black and gold shoulders with band members crowded around—laughing and yelling. Congratulations Kids, Big Spring is surely proud of your fine work in glorifying your department of music and in bringing home another beautiful trophy.

The corridor walls of BSHS were transformed by colorful and eye-catching displays and posters this week as one of the hottest elections ever to happen here took place. In exercising its democratic principles, the student council held the most important election of the year—that of student body officers. Tom Guin won the spot for president of the group and president of the TASC. Gary Tidwell is first vice president, Sue Boykin, second vice president, Bette Anderson, recording secretary, and Sally Cowper is corresponding secretary. Congratulations to you—officers of the 1935-36 school year—and the best to you.

Hold on! There's still more honor for Big Spring High on the way. Nancy Pitman was crowned Miss Senior of 1935 at the third annual Senior Day held Friday at H.C.J.C. Big Spring really took the cake by placing four girls in the finals. Patty Gregory won second place, Anne Rowe third place, and Shirley Ward sixth place. In the talent division, Jan Reynolds won second place, Patty Gregory third place, Frankie Brown fourth place, Howard Sheets fifth place, and Derwood and Gordon Myrick, along with Robert Rogers teamed up for sixth place. School was dismissed early two days this week. One day because of a good old sandstorm and Friday because the Seniors were all away at H.C.J.C. Hummmmm! I think we could back a few more days like this one.

Three senior girls ended up their high school volleyball careers this weekend at the Plainview tournament. Marliou Staggs, Louis Burchett, and Carolyn Whitefield are the three girls who have played their last game for BSHS. To Coach Arab Phillips and all the girls, we say thanks for a wonderful season.

The April Fool edition of the Corral sold by the Spanish Club revealed the terrifying murder of our beloved principal Roy Worley, that school would be dismissed for the summer on April 8, that students would be required to chew gum from now on, that a snack bar and juke box will be installed in the library, that Dell McComb received an Oscar in Hollywood this year, that yearbooks will be free this year, and all sorts of ridiculous things. It was all in fun and afforded the Spanish Class a little extra money for that big trip to Monterey.

MARGARET MARTIN

College Orchestra visited us on Thursday, and a skit revised from "One Foot in Heaven" was presented to the sophomores and juniors on Friday.

Juniors, don't forget that Mr. Ezell will be here next week to order Senior rings. Check the bulletin board for a list of prices on different sizes and weights of rings. Also, a down payment will be necessary.

Last week while I was in Denton Nita Hedleston was guest editor on this column. Proper acknowledgment had not been made before this time.

Senior-of-the-Week is talented Margaret Martin. Margaret is very active in band work as she is editor of the band paper "The Downbeat" and was chosen as the outstanding girl musician in the band for this year. In the regional contest in Odessa last Saturday Margaret again made first division on her French horn and first in a brass sextet—making a total of fourteen medals she has won on her French horn. She is also active in the F.T.A., is a D. E. student, and a leader in the young peoples work at the First Christian Church. Margaret will attend WTSC next fall as a music major.

Dorcas Class Meeting

Mrs. M. A. Rainey was hostess Friday evening to members of the Dorcas Sunday School Class of East Fourth Baptist Church. It was their monthly meeting. Guesting games were played by the group and refreshments were served to 12 members and one guest.

San Antonio Man Leads Knott Revival

KNOTT—The Rev. F. E. Kirchner of San Antonio is doing the preaching at the revival meeting at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Clyde Arender is leading the singing and Mrs. Johnny Shurtles is playing the piano.

Services are being held daily at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Elbert Galloway is pastor.

Shortie Althart of Artesia, N.M., is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Althart.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burchill were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Woods and son of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Curry and children and Mrs. W. M. Hillburn of Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burchill and children and Mr. and Mrs. Landon Burchill and Vicki.

Mrs. Clarence Todd, 1498 Wood, who has been in Scott and White Hospital in Temple, has returned to her home.

Plans June Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Ory of Stanton are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Yvonne, to Ray Simpson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simpson of Stanton. The wedding is set for some time in June. Both are graduates of Stanton High School, and the bride-elect is employed in the personnel office at Webb Air Force Base. The prospective bridegroom is a senior student in Texas Tech.

Saundra Lou Murphy Weds In Home Rites

The home of the bride's parents was the scene of an exchange of wedding vows between Saundra Lou Murphy and Stanley Troxell Friday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murphy, 1214 E. 15th, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Troxell of Wooster, Ohio.

T. H. Tarbet, minister of the Benton St. Church of Christ read the informal ceremony. The room was decorated with candelabra flanked by fern and white carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of white tulle with a V-neckline, rhinestone trimmed collar, full skirt and cap sleeves. Her accessories were a white straw hat, pink shoes and gloves. She wore rhinestone necklace and earrings. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Peggy Ann Murphy, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, Jimmy Hopper was best man.

The bride attended Big Spring schools and the bridegroom attended Smithville High School in Ohio. He is stationed at Webb Air Force Base. The couple will make their home in Big Spring.

Daughter Is Born To Jim Bill Littles

Lt. and Mrs. Jim Bill Little of Fort Sill, Okla., are the parents of a baby girl, born March 25. Mrs. Little is the former Nancy Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whitney, Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Little.

Decorator Notes Use Of Leather

An increased interest in leather in home decorating, even to using it on doors and walls, was emphasized by Lucy Belle Boullion in a talk to the Woman's Forum meeting at Lucelle's, her studio, Friday evening. "What Is New Today In Furniture" was her topic. Even a very durable floor covering of leather has been developed, Mrs. Boullion said.

French Provincial is especially popular in this area, she continued. We are buying furniture that meets family needs, that will last and look good.

Woods are darker now than they have been, the decorator pointed out. Dining tables are tending to the round and oval. Draperies are more heavily decorated with tassels and other trimming reminiscent of grandmother's day.

Among the synthetic fabrics, Mrs. Boullion especially noted 100 per cent nylon floor coverings. Tests indicate that literally any kind of stain can be removed from them.

At a short business meeting, Mrs. Joe Pickle announced that Mrs. Clyde Angel will review "All My Darlings" at the next Wednesday Review Club April 13 at 3 p.m. at Howard County Junior College Auditorium.

Fourteen members attended. Mrs. Clarence Percy of Dallas was a guest.

HD Club Date Change

Date of the Lomax Home Demonstration Club meeting has been changed from the original date to April 12 in the home of Mrs. Wally Williams. Mrs. Doris Blizzard and Ralph Newman will give the program on "Annals and Penennials." Guests will be the members of the Elbow Home Demonstration Club.

EXTRA

Made For Personality Baby Contest — Monday — Tuesday — Wednesday

Due to bad weather, illness and other reasons, it was not convenient for all mothers to have their children's pictures made for the Barr Photocenter-Herald Baby Personality Contest at the specified time. So, the contest has been extended for three more days in order for all pictures to be made. If you missed having your child's picture taken, you may take him Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday to Barr Photocenter, 311 Runnels. This extra period is for children of all age groups. Any child from 3 months through 5 years is eligible. However, the contest does end Wednesday, April 6, so plan now to take your child in and have his picture made.

$370 IN

will be awarded to winning personality baby. Prizes will be awarded according to age group and all pictures will be run in The Herald's annual Baby Edition April 24.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Roberts, 1601 Scurry St., are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Catherine, to Lt. Edward Eugene Holley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holley of Arlington, Va. The wedding will take place on May 14 in the First Methodist Church. Miss Roberts attended Big Spring High School and was graduated from North Texas State College in 1954. Lt. Holley is a graduate of Texas A&M.

Hats Are Focusing Points For Easter Costumes This Year

Associated Press Women's Editor
This spring's handsome Easter suits team with the brightest crop of accessories that have marched in the big parade in many seasons.

Hats, shoes, gloves and handbags are making news of their own, providing those finishing touches that make the costume. Hats are more important this Easter, to provide the correct dramatic accent for the new pencil-slim suits. You'll be seeing more brims, more color, bigger hats and unusual silhouettes in the starting lineup. This year the hat is not an afterthought, but the focusing point of the costume.

Leathers also are making news, in new finishes, new colors, new designs in shoes, bags and gloves. The barefoot look emerges from evening to daytime styles this spring, with many of the newest street shoes consisting principally of a sole, a heel and a few airy straps of leather. Toe, heel or both are exposed in some of the current shoes designed for wear with suits.

There are wonderful new tawny tones in leathers planned for wear with the important blonde costume colors — and many shoes manage to have a tailored look even when most of the foot is exposed.

For Whipped Cream

Kitchen tip: add sugar and flavoring to heavy cream you are whipping after beating long enough so the cream has begun to thicken. Two or three tablespoons of confectioners' sugar is about right for PATTERN FRI MARCH 25 d one cup of cream.

Study Of Nursing Shortage Is Asked

By JANE EADS
WASHINGTON — Congresswoman Francis P. Bolton has asked Congress to sponsor a National Commission on Nursing Services to study the growing nursing shortage and seek out ways and means of providing adequate care for the nation's sick.

Look For Clarity, Grace In Glassware

When buying glassware, keep these shopping tips in mind: Check the glasses for clarity and luster and make sure they are free from bubbles, distortions or a cloudy or bluish tinge. The edges should be smooth and regular. Good blown glass should have a clear, rich musical tone when you tap it with your fingernail.

Class Plays Bible Games At Social

Members of the E. 4th Baptist Homemakers Club played Bible games when they had a social meeting Friday night in the home of Mrs. Rufus Davidson, class teacher. Mrs. W. A. Johnson gave the devotion from John 16. A prayer was offered for the success of the coming revival at the church. Eleven members attended. Guests were Mrs. F. D. Whitney, Mabel Dunagan and Mrs. Lillian Patton.

Lemon Pie Meringue

When you are making a meringue for a lemon pie, start beating in the sugar gradually as soon as the egg whites are frothy. If you add the sugar at this frothy stage, instead of waiting until the whites form stiff peaks, the sugar will dissolve well and help prevent the meringue from "weeping" when the pie comes from the oven.

Presbyterians Host El Paso District

"Forward With Christ" was the general topic for the meeting of the Presbyterial of the El Paso District held Friday at St. Paul Presbyterian Church. Theme for the day was "Personal Christian Faith."

Mrs. C. C. Galbraith, president of the Presbyterial, using the theme of the day, gave the inspirational talk for the workshop. Chairmen for the group were Mrs. A. P. Shirey and Mrs. Paul Laverty of Midland. Speaking on the Bible Program was Mrs. Johnny Johansen of Big Spring.

For the panel discussion during the workshop period, Mrs. Shirey acted as moderator. Others taking part in the discussion were Mrs. Laverty, Mrs. Johansen and Mrs. Clyde James of Midland, Presbyterial corresponding secretary.

The call to worship was given by Mrs. Frank Hood of Colorado City. The opening prayer was offered by the Rev. Otis Moore, pastor of the host church. Mrs. Elvis McCrary of the local First Presbyterian Church was presiding officer. Mrs. Leon Moffett of St. Paul Presbyterian Church registered 65 in attendance.

Greeting was extended by Mrs. Phil Smith of the hostess auxiliary, and the response was given by Mrs. Frank Lovelace of Coahoma. A skit including all the presidents in the district was given. Towns represented were Coahoma, Colorado City, Stanton, Midland, Lubbock and Big Spring.

Mrs. R. M. Lynn of Midland, speaking on "Birthday Objectives," showed a chart of a hand with the fingers representing objectives to be attained during the year. The invitation for the 1956 meeting was extended by members from Coahoma and was accepted by the group. Mrs. L. B. Edwards was at the piano for a sing-song.

For the covered dish luncheon, tables were decorated in an Easter motif. Place cards, painted by Mrs. Dalton Conway, were Easter lilies. Favors were Easter eggs on styrofoam bases and were made by Mrs. Moffett. Easter flowers and greenery were used down the centers of the luncheon tables.

To Be June Bride

Announcement is being made of the engagement of Virginia Carol Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Todd, 604 NW 11th, to Raymond Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Craig St., of Westchester, Pa. The wedding will be June 10 at the Trinity Baptist Church. The Rev. L. J. Power, pastor, will read the ceremony.

DRESS PARADE

At the Country Club luncheon Friday Mrs. George Peacock wore a gray suit with a black collar and tiny derby-style hat. It was worn to the back of her head. At the same table, Mrs. Shelby Read was in charcoal with a large black hat and heavy gold costume jewelry.

Mrs. Jim Zack was attired in a black and white print with white touches at the wide neckline and on the short sleeves. Her tiny black hat was trimmed with a bit of white and her accessories were black.

Mrs. Gus Barr's periwinkle blue two-piece frock was made with a Peter Pan collar, brilliant with shiny beads combined with pearls. Her sequin hat and rhinestone earrings added more sparkle to her costume.

Black and white was the color scheme chosen by Mrs. Ira Thurman when she attended the luncheon. Her tiny hat was made of flat white bows and her only ornaments were a rhinestone pin and earrings.

Mrs. Earl Reynolds topped her blonde hair with a golden-hued straw combined with brown velvet band and bows, and she wore a beige dress. Her accessories were brown.

Mrs. Jimmie Little's navy suit was touched with white, and her navy sailor used red and white in its trim. Another navy and white outfit was that worn by Mrs. Tommy Hutto. Her polka-dotted dress was made with fitted bodice, which was attached to a very full skirt. Her tiny hat was red and white.

Mrs. John Taylor's black dress was fashioned with a mandarin collar going into a V-neck. Her large black bonnet-style hat was trimmed with a rhinestone band and her jewelry was of rhinestones.

Wrens Announce Birth Of Daughter

Announcement has been received here of the birth of a daughter, in the Presbyterian Hospital at Fort Worth, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Wren.

The baby, weighing seven pound six ounces, has been named Leslee Kaye. Mother and daughter were reported "doing fine."

The Wrens reside in Oceanside, Calif., where he is stationed with the U. S. Marines. The paternal grandparents are the Bob Wrens of Big Spring, and the maternal grandparents are the L. Masons of Fort Worth.

Baptist Class Meets In Sorrell Home

STANTON — The Baptist Friendship Sunday School Class met Tuesday night for their monthly social in the home of Mrs. N. I. Sorrell. Mrs. Claude Nowlin was co-hostess. Mrs. Clyde White, gave the opening prayer and Mrs. Clark Hamilton brought the devotion.

Mrs. Nowlin, fellowship president, had charge of the entertainment. Refreshments were served to 13.

A recent visitor in the G. A. Bridges home was Mrs. Bridges' brother, V. E. Vest of Brownfield.

CAMPUS CHATTER

By FRANCES WALKER

Friday was Senior Day at HCJC — and what a day it was! Approximately 300 seniors from BSHS, Coahoma, Knott, Ira, Meadow, Vealmoor, Stanton, Forsan, Ackery, Westbrook, and other surrounding high schools paid a visit to the HCJC campus. All of the Jayhawkers were especially glad to see the big day arrive, for as Arlen White said in his welcoming address, it gave us a chance to brag on our school — and prove the brag to be so.

Nancy Pitman of Big Spring captured the "Miss Senior Day" title, and I doubt that there was anyone present who didn't agree with the judges choice. The judges were, by the way, headed by Col. C. M. Young of Webb Air Force Base.

Second and third places in the contest were also awarded to Big Spring contestants: Patty Gregory and Anne Rowe. Sue Rasberry of Ackery placed fourth; Linda Cathy of Stanton, fifth; and Shirley Ward of Big Spring, sixth.

Lee Lemon, Ackery, walked away with the talent contest first place trophy, with an entertaining reading "My Trip To The City." Jane Reynolds won second with a vocal solo. Jane also won an award in the talent contest on Senior Day, 1953. That was, of course, before entries were limited to seniors.

Patty Gregory took home two trophies, for in addition to winning second in the beauty contest, she won third in the talent competition. Frankie Brown of Big Spring won fourth with a reading about baseball, and Howard Sheets, Big Spring, won fifth. Howard gave a piano solo, "Deep Purple." Sixth place award went to a trio composed of Gordon Myrick, Bob Rogers, and Durwood Myrick in a western number.

First place winners in both contests were awarded full scholarships to HCJC, and all winners received lovely trophies. Awards were also presented by Big Spring merchants.

After registration had ended, the Webb AFB Band presented an entertaining concert in the auditorium. Refreshments were then served in the Student Union Building, and the seniors enjoyed a few games of ping pong and checkers before the contests began. At noon barbecue was served in the gym while the Webb band serenaded. The beauty finalists gave a return performance, and a program was given by the choir. Awards were then made by Dr. Hunt. Lynette Blum Brooks, last year's winner presented the "Miss Senior Day" trophy to Miss Pitman.

Much credit should be given to the faculty and student council of HCJC for their fine planning and to the many students who contributed both much time and great effort into the carrying out of those plans. Senior Day can undoubtedly be termed a great success.

I can say that I regret that Senior Day is over for only one reason: The college boys have decided to begin their beards for Ranch Week, beginning April 21. Plans for this event are well under way.

The Intramural Boys Basketball tournament began last Monday. Games are played each day from 12:10-12:30, and from 12:30-12:50. There is no charge, so if you would like to see some good games, you are welcome to attend these. I haven't any of this week's scores, but I believe Alhbart's Airdales, Flournoy's Foxes, and Phillips's Fidos were the victors.

Tuesday, Bell Telephone presented a program, "Highways for Our Voice," in a college assembly.

A special six page edition of El Nido was published Friday for Senior Day.

I do want to congratulate Ronald Anderson on being awarded the third annual Phillips Trophy for superior sportsmanship displayed during the past basketball season. Certainly no one is more deserving of such award. The presentation was made at a recent meeting of the American Business Club.

Baby Explorer Lands In Dryer

A bright season is predicted for the HCJC golf team. Last week Luke Thompson set a new course record for 18 holes in the Odessa golf match. The golf and baseball teams will journey to Berger Tuesday for a bout with Frank Phillips College.

HCJC students are certainly proud of the new record player that has been placed in the SUB. It has been the source of endless enjoyment, and has already proved itself useful for social events held there.

Though I am a sophomore, and soon will be leaving HCJC, I would like to urge everyone — students, faculty, and citizens — to support in every way possible, the coming bond issue for expansion of the college plant. Anyone who has ever spent much time on the campus knows how much need there is for this expansion.

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—Mrs. Rufus Sears has added the family clothes dryer to her list of hazards facing mothers.

She says her 5-year-old son, William, recently came up the basement stairs and calmly informed her "Mike crawled into the dryer and I locked him in."

Mrs. Sears raced down to the dryer and sure enough her 2-year-old son, Mike, was looking out of the dryer's glass door.

"He was laughing like the dickens," she says, "Thank heavens Bill didn't turn on the dryer."

Churches Add Recreation To Young Folks' Programs

By GLENN COOTES
A sweeping smack and... ping pong ball sailed over a checker player's head. A domino player scratched a furrowed brow trying to figure out the best play to make. Another youngster jumped out of the way as a puck on the shuffleboard barely missed his foot. Maybe churches were not like this in your day, but it is a part of almost all Big Spring church recreational programs now. The churches are filling a need of their young people by providing wholesome and well supervised recreational activities as a part of their spiritual training.

Youth Leader

Allen Adams, assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church, is the mainspring of the church's youth program. He conducts the Saturday night entertainment programs at the Methodist Youth Center and is instrumental in all church work with the Methodist youth. Adams hopes to help form a "church softball league" during the summer months. His interest and work with younger church members is typical of all the churches in Big Spring.

The churches are placing a lot of emphasis on a well balanced program of recreation and spiritual work. The Lutheran Church has an example of the combination which has been planned to keep the programs in proper balance.

The younger members meet periodically in the church's Education and Recreation Hall. There are ping pong tables, shuffleboard, a piano, and plenty of table games for their use. Also, selected lectures are provided to give them the necessary balance to their work. The hall will hold approximately 75 persons.

The church recently leased the lot at the corner of Ninth and Scurry for a playground. There is a volleyball court and baseball diamond there now. The church sponsors a family song fest on the second Sunday of each month. The purpose of this song program is to get the young people interested in recreational activities with their parents.

Bible and topic studies selected to teach a proper relationship of community life are a basic part of the program. Many of the Lutheran young people are members of the Walther League which has a membership of over 100,000 all over the world. The League was established in 1894 to encourage a recreational and educational service program among Lutherans.

St. Thomas Catholic Church has a game room for its members which will accommodate about 150 persons. There is a pool table, library, ping pong and other table games for the use of the members. The Turtle Club meets there each Thursday evening.

Bunco parties are regular features of the church recreation program and during the summer months, hay rides and wiener roasts are sponsored for the young members. The church, like many others, plans to have a baseball program this summer and is interested in a church league.

Many of the churches report that parents could help the youth recreation programs by cooperating with them. The youth are apparently interested in joining in church activities but the parents are more reluctant. If the parents would participate as well as the younger members, many recreation programs would be better attended and more popular, one representative remarked.

Webb AFB servicemen are active in local churches. Many of the younger servicemen form an integral part in several church recreation programs. The First Baptist Church, for example, prepares a dinner each Sunday for Webbmen who attend the church services. Members prepare the dinner and bring it to the church and all eat together.

These are just a few of the activities of a few of Big Spring's church programs. It is an example of the additional work the church does for the younger members of their congregations.

First Swimming Pools To Open Here Around May 1

Big Spring residents have at least a month to wait before they can go swimming in local pools, as it will be May 1 before any of them are opened. Those planning to swim in the pool at City Park will have to wait until about May 27, according to the present schedule. The pool opening on May 1 will be at Webb Air Force Base and at the Country Club. Both are practically ready, though they must be repainted before being filled with water.

Reason given for waiting until May 27 to open the municipal swimming pool is that it would interfere with school if opened before that time. Some students have been known to play "hooky" to take a swim, officials report. Two new swimming pools are being constructed in the area now. One is at Foran and the other is at Stanton. Both should be ready to go before the month is out, observers say.

Half Of First Graders Finally Win High School Diplomas

On a national average, only one of every two youngsters who enter the first grade will graduate from high school.

While there are so many factors involved that it is almost impossible to reach a solid conclusion, records would indicate that Big Spring schools are hitting about the average. If trends continue, they will steadily rise above the average for the next several years.

In the school year 1941-42, there were 343 youngsters in average membership in the first grade. This group (class of '54) numbered 167 in average daily attendance as seniors last year. This is barely under 50 per cent.

Actually, this was the first year that anything like an accurate appraisal might have been reached, for in 1942-43 Big Spring schools began the transition to a 12-grade system. This was accomplished by making the second that "extra" grade in that school year. For the next 12 years, as the new grade eased upward, this gummed the statistical works. Last year it was possible for the first time to follow the line all the way back to the start without hubbing that extra grade influence.

It is interesting to note that the rate of graduation is approximately paralleling the rate of increase in membership.

From 1937-38 to 1953-54, there was an increase of 45 per cent in school membership. High school graduates increased 41 1/2 per cent. This is better than it looks, for in that same period of time the number of first graders increased 73 per cent and most of that within the last half dozen years. That means that this increase, which weighted the over-all statistics in membership, actually has not had time to reach the high school level.

Thus, if this trend continues, the system will steadily pull away in excellent the 50 per cent holding power from the first to the 12th grade.

pects are that the senior class again will number in the neighborhood of 200, whereas the class of '56 numbered 322 when it entered school.

DO IT YOURSELF Beginner Can Make Headboard For Bed

By BILL BAKER

Your bedroom is certainly one of the most important rooms in your home. And, let's face it, it is probably the one room that receives the least amount of attention, as far as new furniture is concerned.

Many people, having purchased a bed or two and a dresser, leave the room only sparsely furnished. This shouldn't be the case. The bedroom offers many opportunities for beauty and convenience with the addition of new furniture.

"But I can't afford to buy anything new," I can hear you say. Well, you can afford to make something, and your only cost will be a few workshop hours in time and a few dollars for materials.

With the addition of a modern bed headboard, your room will take on a new realm of beauty. And with my pattern package No. 117, you'll be building this headboard without many problems.

Making the headboard is an easy do-it-yourself project. And it is an

Your Modern Bed Headboard pattern will be on the way to you when you send your name and address (clearly printed), together with only one dollar ($1) in check, cash or money order, to Bill Baker, Big Spring Herald, P. O. Box 1111, Los Angeles 53, Calif. Be sure to ask for pattern package No. 117 when placing your order.

Comfortable Headboard

You'll really relax when you add Bill Baker's do-it-yourself headboard to your bedroom's furnishings. That's Vera Miles, star of Allied Artists' "Wichita," showing you how it can be done. Easy to build unit features book, bedding storage.

ideal project for even the beginning woodworker. As with all patterns in this series, heavy paper pattern pieces in exact size are included in your package. Like a woman's dress pattern, all you have to do is trace the pattern, cut and assemble. You'll need no elaborate tools. I've designed the headboard to fit a single bed. Two, placed together, form a double bed unit. Each section, by the way, measures 40 inches long. The total unit is 42 inches from top to floor.

In my model I've used upholstered sections, which give that ultra-smart look. In your pattern you'll find all instructions necessary to do this easy job yourself.

Behind each padded section is a wide book shelf.

With the addition of a special hinge, the headboard pulls out, making it a perfect rest for reading or relaxing. For this feature an inexpensive hinge can easily be attached. Information on its availability is included in the pattern.

In case you don't want to add a hinged back, details are included for completion of the headboard without this accessory.

In addition to the book storage, the headboard also includes an ideal place to store extra pillows and blankets. Because the facing of the unit fits tightly, you'll never have the problem of extra bedding becoming dusty.

WASHINGTON—In at least two cabinet sessions the issue of the security program and its political impact has been threshed out, with some strong views expressed on both sides. There are those high in the Administration who believe that a review of the program by a high-level, non-partisan commission is essential if public confidence is to be restored in both the fairness and the effectiveness of a system that applies not merely to 2,300,000 government workers but in one form or another to millions in industry.

Business revival like spring, is bustin' out all over, as follows: Automobile companies producing cars at an 8,500,000-per-year rate, when the best estimate of sales is 6,500,000.

U. S. economic history. And corporate earnings are promising. Standard & Poor's Corp. figures that income of leading corporations will be up 10 per cent over 1954—and even that might be "conservative."

build inventories. No use taking chances on not having aluminum, copper, steel, and other commodities which might be rationed or in short supply. All this intensifies the industrial revival, but there are limits, too.

Bible Words for Today

GENESIS 5:24—"And Enoch walked with God"

Enoch is my Old Testament hero. There are not more than five or six sentences in the Bible recording the thrilling life of this great man. However, if only the five words quoted above described him, I would admire him. He was red-blooded. Only strong, virile men walk with God. And since a person becomes like what he thinks, loves and does, this Enoch was a thrilling personality.

Around The Rim Those Two Sisters: One Fickle, One Trustworthy

Can there be two sisters of common ancestry, who should outwardly be so alike and yet who in reality be so utterly different? One sweet and caressing and kind and delightful; the other hateful and fickle and mocking and hurtful?

I am merely passing by, and you misinterpreted my actions, my gestures and my glances.

Chit-Chat Distorts The Record

Though it is rather late to write about the publication of the Yalta papers, I conclude that I have been sunning myself in a pleasant California valley where time moves slowly. And there, reading in the papers that Mr. Dulles thinks Yalta will be discussed for ages, I felt unburied and that what I had to say could wait.

pole diplomats would be permitted to make secret agreements, unknown to their people, but binding upon them. At the other pole diplomacy would be so open that nothing could be said except in the presence of a television camera.

For this particular publication does something which is, I believe, radically new. It treats the informal conversation of public men, and an abbreviated and unverified version of it at that, as if it were part of the official diplomatic record.

But there is a third type of material which, unless there has been an agreement to make a stenographic record, is not a legitimate part of the official record. It consists of reports of what men said, believing they were speaking off the record. This material is normally reserved for personal diaries and memoirs, which do not have official authority behind them.

Mr. Dulles has been quoted as saying at a press conference in Ottawa that the Yalta papers were put in the normal course of procedure in accord with the State Department's policy of publishing periodically papers of historic interest. I wonder whether in his busy life Mr. Dulles has had the time to check the accuracy of that statement.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Democrats forge three major planks for their '56 platform: (1) less sneezing by Mamie; (2) no loitering on the church steps by Ike; (3) more squirrels at the White House.

One Sided Games

CARTHAGE, N. C. — A woman witness in Recorder's Court was charged with assault with a deadly weapon — a stove lid. Scene of the affray was a night spot, well known to police.

All presidents learn how to answer reporters' questions. But since his press conference went on TV, Ike is the first president who has to answer their questions.

LCB Agents File Nine Cases Here During February

Agents in the local Liquor Control Board office filed nine cases in February which resulted in fines and costs of $2,661.95. Throughout the state, 244 cases were filed and fines and costs totaled $25,956.60.

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

Many View Local Airport Activities

Approximately 200 people crowded Hamilton Field last Sunday, according to Barney Edens, manager of the field.

All the local planes were in the air during the day, he said, and numerous persons were out to take rides. The "shutter-bugs" were on hand, too, he added, snapping pictures of everything that moved.

The crowds are getting larger as flying weather improves, he said.

Three students at the field made their solo flights last week, Edens said. Frank McCleskey and J. D. Carter, members of the Big Four Flying Club, made their solo flights during the week.

McCleskey and Carter were the last two members of the club to solo. Harvey Hooser Jr. made his solo flight two weeks ago, and the other member of the club, Merritt Barnes, has his private flying license.

James Cauble was the other student who made a solo flight. He only recently bought his Taylorcraft and began lessons.

Bad flying weather during the week prevented many transient aircraft from landing here, Edens said. However, eight planes landed for refueling and rest stops.

Most notable of the transients, were two Steerman biplanes being ferried to Mexico from A. C. Cold, New York. They had been sold to a company down here and the aircraft landed here as the next to last stop before leaving the United States.

They planned to stop at Nogales, Ariz., before entering Mexico, Edens said.

Cosden Petroleum Corporation's two planes put in another busy week. Jack Gully piloted Jack Alexander and Bob Heine to College Station Wednesday in the Bonanza.

The Dove was on trips most of the week. Monday, Bill Edwards and Jack Gully flew it to the Purple Sage Ranch, then to San Antonio and on to Austin. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tollett, and Bernie Coughlin were passengers on the trip. The Millers and Mrs. Tollett stayed at the ranch. Tollett stopped off at San Antonio, and Coughlin went on to Austin. Tuesday, Mrs. Miller made the flight back to Big Spring.

Thursday, J. T. Wilkinson replaced Jack Gully as copilot and the Dove went to San Antonio, with Mrs. Miller aboard, to pick up the Tolletts and Miller. The group flew back to Midland. The sandstorm prevented it from landing here. The group drove to Big Spring from Midland.

W. D. "Pee Wee" Peters and Johnnie Fort were at Denver City and Brownfield last weekend trying to sell Peters' Ercoupe. A prospective buyer is making the financial arrangements now to complete the deal.

T. F. Stroup has been working on his plane this week, installing a two-way radio. He has a Cessna 140.

Twelve Webb AFB officers and men formed the "Blue Angels" flying club. The group bought an L2 at the field and have been working on it all week to get it in flying shape.

Purpose of the club is to give the men an opportunity to learn to fly economically and for those who can fly, they will be able to log solo hours. The members pitched in $50 each to purchase the aircraft and they have agreed to pay dues each month for upkeep. They hope to buy a better aircraft in the future.

Officers of the club are Walter Frazer, president; Paul Marshall, vice president; Bob Isham, treasurer; and Bill Schooling, secretary.

Three Are Running For Two Stanton Council Places

STANTON — Ballots in Stanton's city election will be cast at the City Hall next Tuesday, and all citizens who hold poll taxes may vote.

Three people have announced as candidates for the two posts being vacated. They are Bernard Houston, O. J. Jenkins and S. W. Wheeler, incumbent. The terms of Wheeler and Bob Davenport have expired, but Davenport chose not to run again.

English Couples Rush To Wed, Beat Tax Deadline

LONDON (AP)—They're queuing up to get married in Britain today. The tax man proved a better matchmaker than Cupid—even if not quite as romantic.

The rush to get married before the deadline to qualify for an exemption in the year's income tax is the biggest in years. Couples were being ushered in and out of registry offices in assembly-line style. Registrars at London's Caxton Hall said:

"There is a marriage about every 10 minutes."

The same was true elsewhere. The prize for marrying before Monday is an income tax exemption of 90 pounds—$252—that goes with having a wife.

Atlee, daughter of former Prime Minister Clement Atlee, marrying in Amersham registry office to John K. Harwood, an export buyer.

The big marrying rush was in metropolitan London. An official at the Islington registry office said:

"We have almost lost count of the numbers and are too busy to check now. This is the busiest marriage week we have ever had."

Lambeth reported more than 40 weddings on the books. Paddington Town Hall was crowded with people waiting to get married. Kensington reported "they are queuing to get married. As one wedding party goes out, there is another waiting to come in."

The "Kettles" At The Ritz

Percy Kilbride shows Marjorie Main and Lori Nelson the fine art of playing the ukulele in the film, "Ma and Pa Kettle at Waikiki," playing today through Tuesday at the Ritz.

COMEDY AT RITZ

Ma And Pa Kettle In A Fling At Waikiki

Ma and Pa Kettle meet their Hawaiian counterparts today on the screen at the Ritz in "Ma and Pa Kettle at Waikiki."

This is the seventh film in as many years which features the comedy team of Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride in the "Ma and Pa Kettle" roles. And it promises to be as good as the previous films have been.

Ma and Pa decide to visit Hawaii to help out a cousin of Pa's who is supposedly a canned fruit tycoon. However, the cousin is having a pretty hard time of it and hopes to borrow a million dollars from the Kettles when they arrive.

To complicate the matter, a shady promoter is trying to manipulate events so that he can take over the fabulous cannery factory. The Kettles have brought along their eldest daughter, played by Lori Nelson, who develops a romantic interest in the assistant manager of the factory, Byron Palmer.

Trying to create a new product at the factory, Pa accidentally causes an explosion. Ashamed of his action, he wanders off and is captured by the promoter's thugs. But Ma is looking for him and during the rescuing operations, they meet Ma and Pa Lotus, played by Hilo Hatti and Charlie Lung.

Strangely enough, the Lotuses have a brood of children very similar to the Kettles.

Exciting and humorous as most of the Kettle pictures, this one is sure to be a hit with the young in age and young at heart. Marjorie Main's rendition of a "hula-hula" girl and Kilbride's "hula" playing are real comic scenes.

Hilo Hatti has her biggest Hollywood role to date in this film. Star of the Harry Owens radio and television show for twelve years, the actress-singer plays mother to the Hawaiian version of the Kettle family.

The Ma and Pa Kettle comedy team originated in the film, "The Egg and I," over seven years ago. Prior to that, both Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride were both well established in the film capital, but not too well known. Most of their parts were supporting roles.

But this series of films has given them a following of moviegoers which has well established them as stars in their own right. This picture is a good example of their acting talents.

At The Lyric
Steve Corcoran assists Anne Baxter in this scene from "Carnival Story" playing today and Monday.

'Athena' To Play At Jet, Features Many Young Stars

"Athena" plays Tuesday and Wednesday at the Jet and stars Jane Powell, Debbie Reynolds, and Vic Damone.

Louis Calhern plays grandfather of seven girls and operates a Health Emporium to develop muscle men. Jane and Debbie are the oldest of the sisters who assist him and all of them believe that plenty of nature, vegetables, and yogurt make the best life. They also believe that the science of Numerology will help them select their prospective husbands.

The girls refuse to choose the proteges of their grandfather however, and Jane picks lawyer Edmund Purdom and Debbie sets her sights on singer Vic Damone. The excitement of the health culture family and the girls' difficulty in trapping a husband makes humorous film fare.

Also appearing in the film are Linda Christian, Virginia Gibson, Evelyn Varden, and Steve Reeves. Reeves as "Mr. America" of 1949 and "Mr. Universe" of 1950.

Oscar Nominee At Terrace As Robinson Crusoe

Dan O'Herlihy received a nomination for the 1954 "Best Actor" Academy Award for his portrayal of Robinson Crusoe in the film, "Adventures of Robinson Crusoe" which plays Tuesday and Wednesday at the Terrace.

The picture tells the adventurous story of a seaman who survives a shipwreck to live 18 years alone on a tropical island. Then one day he saves a local native from savage cannibals and names him Friday. The two men spend another ten years on the island until an opportunity arises to return to England.

James Fernandez plays Friday. The Pathcolor picture has only six other major actors which gives star O'Herlihy ample opportunity to show his acting ability.

The film should appeal to all age groups. To the children, because of the excitement and adventure; to the adults, because Crusoe's plight is the plight of all men, symbolically. The picture is a blend of moralizing and adventure, but the moralizing is never pompous and the adventure is never dull.

An ideal film for the entire family.

The "Creature"

John Bromfield meets the monster in this scene from "Revenge of the Creature" which plays at the State starting today through Tuesday.

Spencer Tracy Stars In 'Bad Day At Black Rock'

Spencer Tracy steps into a "Bad Day at Black Rock" Wednesday through Saturday at the Ritz. Tracy has come to the small town to deliver a medal to a Japanese farmer whose son had saved Tracy's life.

But the town is scared. The farmer has been cruelly murdered and almost everyone in town is implicated. The "boss" of the town, Robert Ryan, begins to plan the demise of Tracy for his "snooping around." But Tracy outwits and outmaneuvers each of his enemies in turn, some at the point of a gun, some with his fists, others with his brain, and one with his heart.

Suspenseful and dramatic, the movie unfolds scene after scene of quick and purposeful acting.

Also starring in the picture is Anne Francis, Dean Jagger, Walter Brennan, and John Ericson. Three of the stars are past Academy Award winners and one of them has won three of the "Oscars."

Walter Brennan is the only Hollywood actor to win three Academy Awards. He received an Oscar for his acting in "The Westerner," "Come and Get It," and "Kentucky."

Spencer Tracy received his awards for "Boys Town," and

"Captain Courageous." Dean Jagger received an award for his acting in "Twelve O'Clock High."

John Wayne Stars In 'Hondo' At State Theatre

John Wayne stars in the western adventure film "Hondo" Wednesday and Thursday at the State.

Taken from a best selling novel, the film is the story of a U. S. Cavalry dispatch rider, Wayne, who encounters a lone woman and her small son tending a ranch in the midst of an Apache uprising due to start any day. He asks them to accompany him to the safety of the nearby Army fort, but they refuse.

Later he is captured by the Indians and wins their respect because he refuses to cry out under torture. Geraldine Page and her son also win the respect of the Indians because of their bravery.

Hondo plans to take the pair with him to his ranch in California. However, the Indian chief which they had befriended dies and his successor plans to kill them. The climax of the movie is exciting as a full-scale Indian War develops on the screen.

The film is in Warner Color and also stars Ward Bond and Michael Pate.

History Discussed

The Great Books discussion group held their bi-weekly meeting at the Howard County Junior College Thursday evening. Topic of discussion was "History of the Persian Wars" by Herodotus.

'Dragnet' Tops State Program

Jack Webb and Ben Alexander "dum-da-dum-dum" another police case in "Dragnet" playing Friday and Saturday at the State.

The popular television program is increased to a full length movie starring many of the TV program's regular cast. The picture is in WarnerColor, which will give many viewers their first chance to see Dragnet in color.

The story is similar to the TV programs in that Webb and Alexander play their familiar roles. In this movie, they are after the murderer of a shotgun killing. They have an eye-witness to the crime, but he refuses to testify to the Grand Jury at the last minute.

Thus the two detectives, with an able assist from policeman Ann Robinson, begin their rounds of questioning persons who may know something about the killing. Tracking down the clues and leads allows the movie-goer the opportunity to help the stars decide who is the killer.

McComb Named Scout Round-Up Camping Chairman

Sam McComb, district camping and activities chairman, has been named general director of camping at the annual Big Spring Round-Up for the Buffalo Trail Council. Other officials for the biggest single event for boys in the council area each year are the Rev. Clyde Lindley, Millard, assistant director; Tom Nipp, Millard, director of Scouting events; A. B. Nall, Peens, director of Explorer events. Each will name his committee, judges, etc.

On the local arrangements committee are Sherman Smith, H. H. Reagan, Dr. Frank Dillon, D. M. McKinney.

Our Religious Faiths

What Is A Disciple Of Christ? (Part I Of Article X)

This is another of a series of interpretive articles on present-day religious activities of Christ, which are being published in the Herald by James E. Craig.

By JAMES E. CRAIG
Editor and Publisher of Fort Worth Christian Church, New York City
Who are the Disciples of Christ? The Disciples of Christ constitute the largest indigenous American religious group, with around 1,500,000 adult communicants and some 8,000 autonomous congregations. In point of origin, the beliefs of the Disciples are as American as the Declaration of Independence. In point of liberty of individual conscience, they are as American as the Bill of Rights.

Some will say that the Disciples of Christ are a great evangelical Protestant denomination. Others will say that they are not a denomination at all, but the pure New Testament Church of Christ. Still others will prefer to describe them as a brotherhood, or a communion. Perhaps the most favored word among Disciples themselves is movement — a movement back to the New Testament and forward under God to ultimate unity of all who call themselves Christians.

Of the total of 1,500,000 communicants, some 1,200,000 are members of congregations cooperating through the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, which is a voluntary fellowship of local churches in the United States and Canada and of their various missionary, benevolent and educational agencies. A "reporting convention" rather than a legislative body, it presents recommendations on every subject affecting the movement. These are advisory only, but, such is the convention's prestige, most of the recommendations are accepted by local congregations. Any Disciple may attend its meetings and vote. In this article, the word "Disciples" (unless otherwise specified) relates only to the congregations cooperating through the International Convention.

What are the tenets of their creed? The Disciples have no creed but Christ and no doctrines save those which are found in the New Testament or are reasonably to be inferred therefrom. The Disciples are God-centered, Christ-centered, Bible-centered, with no creedal formula — the answer of the Apostle Peter to a question from Jesus himself: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Open confession of this faith and acceptance of the Nazarene as Lord and Savior, and Baptism (by immersion) are all that may be demanded of a candidate for admission. The Disciples are inclined to regard formal creeds and historical sects as milestones on the highway of an evolving theology.

The Disciples believe in the priesthood of all believers; that is, that the believer can reach the Throne of Grace without any human intermediary. According to authorizations they find in the New Testament, they have evangelists, pastors, elders and deacons. But they look upon these officers only as useful instruments sanctioned by the Apostles. They doubt the right of any man to go directly to God by prayer, for guidance in all problems arising from the sciences. They place absolute trust in Divine mercy and good will. They nevertheless encourage pastoral consultation and advice.

How do the Disciples differ from other Protestants? Disciples have no catechism and no prescribed rituals. Disciples do not accept the doctrine of Apocalyptic succession. Hence, they have no archbishops or bishops or hierarchy of ecclesiastical authority. They interpret the New Testament words for "bishop" and "elder" as synonyms for a single lay office, elective by the congregation and in no sense authorized or regulated from above.

Disciples believe that confession of faith in Jesus as the Christ requires no added metaphysical doctrine. They regard conversion as a voluntary, rational act which does not require special revelation. In receiving a new member, they take the applicant's statement at face value. They employ no formula of interrogation.

Disciples believe that a Christian's right to Holy Communion is a matter for his own conscience. They admit to the Lord's Supper any baptized person, without regard to his sectarian affiliation.

Perhaps the most notable difference between Disciples and many other Protestant groups is the Disciples' emphasis upon individual liberty of opinion; upon each believer's right to interpret the Scriptures in his own way. Disciples base their whole appeal upon a simple outline of faith and a democratic system of church government. They have no sense of rivalry among the denominations. They hold that so long as a member accepts the simple faith, and the idea of democratic government in the church, he may believe what his mind dictates about many of the tenets of other Christian bodies.

Disciples observe with joy that the differences among Protestants are receiving less and less attention today, while the many things they have in common are receiving more and more. To Disciples, the rising trend toward mutual grounds of faith marks a steady advance toward ultimate church unity. And in this field, the Disciples were active in establishing the old Federal Churches; 200 are enrolled in the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A.; 14 Disciple leaders serve the World Council of Churches.

What do the Disciples believe about the Bible? The Disciples share the common Protestant belief that the Bible (except for the apocryphal books) is the Word of God, written by different persons at different times under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. They use the Old Testament for meditation and instruction, as a schoolmaster bringing the faithful to Christ.

Many Disciples believe, however, that the Old Testament represents two dispensations — one for the patriarchal age before Moses, the other for the age from Moses to the resurrection of Jesus. These accept the New Testament as a third and purely Christian dispensation, for the guidance of Christian churches and peoples.

In common with other Christian bodies, the Disciples have their fundamentalists and their liberals. The literalists or fundamentalists accept every work of the authorized version of the Bible as the infallible work of God. The liberals believe that newer translations, and the studies of inspired scholars, have thrown new light upon many passages of the Scriptures. There is nothing to prevent liberals and literalists from sitting down together around the table of the Lord's Supper, each responsible for his own beliefs and each serving God according to the dictates of his own conscience.

Do Disciples believe in the Holy Trinity? The Disciples have had little trouble in discarding most of the dogmas which sprang up between the first century and the 19th. Hence, speculation about the Holy Trinity has bothered them little or not at all. They baptize in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, as Christ commanded. They believe that the Holy Spirit is the comforter promised in the New Testament, but they do not worry over its constitution or the nature of its operations. They accept its guidance as constantly enlarging the horizons of Christian thoughts. They are not concerned about such matters as original sin and predestination.

They baptize only those adult enough to know what they are doing. They baptize by immersion believing it to have been the New Testament way — an act of obedience and surrender, a symbol of the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord Jesus.

NEXT SUNDAY — Do the Disciples of Christ believe in the Virgin Birth? What do they believe about sin and salvation? Do they believe in heaven and hell? What are their views on divorce and birth control? Are the Disciples of Christ, Christian Church and Churches of Christ all the same?

Advisory Group To Meet Today

Members of State Hospital Visitation Committee, which, in terms of two or three, has visited each mental hospital in the state during the last two months, will meet today in Austin to discuss results of their findings.

The state mental hospital visitations committee of the Texas Neuropsychiatric Association, under the leadership of Dr. Hamilton Ford, chairman, and Dr. Edgar S. Ewell, president of the Texas Neuropsychiatric Association, has visited each mental hospital in the state during the past month. This newly-designed project has been instituted at the request of the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools to give assistance and guidance in state psychiatric problems. Dr. James O. Bethia, executive director of the board, assisted.

In addition to the psychiatrists, two of whom are assigned to each hospital, the Academy of General Practitioners appointed seven members to visit the state hospitals from the point of view of general medical care of the patient and to serve as a third member of the team, which visits hospitals in its area.

Today's meeting will provide the opportunity for team members to discuss their finds and to prepare a consolidated report containing findings and recommendations of both a constructive and critical nature.

This report will be sent on April 15 to the executive committee of the Texas Neuropsychiatric Association for approval. It will be presented April 24 at the annual meeting of the Texas Neuropsychiatric Association in Fort Worth. After it is approved, it will be forwarded to each member of the board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools, to each member of the advisory committee to that board, to the board of directors of the Texas Mental Health Society, and to the Board of Health Committee of the Texas Medical Association.

by Harold R. Foster

Our Story: IN THE EARLY DAWN PRINCE VALIANT COMES STRIDING SWIFTLY DOWN THE PORTAGE. STRANGELY, THERE HAVE BEEN BUT FEW ENEMIES TO DELAY THE JOURNEY. AT THE TRAIL'S END HE HALTS AND A GREAT FEAR GRIPS HIS HEART..... THE SHIP ON WHICH HE LEFT ALETA AND THE TWINS IS NOT WHERE HE LEFT IT!

THE SHIP IS MOORED FURTHER DOWN-STREAM, ITS DECK LITTERED WITH DEAD! ON THE BANK THE GUARDS ARE BURYING THEIR FALLEN.....ALETA IS NOWHERE IN SIGHT!

"THE ANCHOR BROKE, THE SHIP DRIFTED ASHORE IN THE NIGHT, THEN THE PATZINAKS ATTACKED AND THE QUEEN WAS TAKEN AS SHE DEFENDED HER BABIES. WE HAVE TAKEN AN OATH TO FIND HER OR DIE!"

QUICKLY AND COLDLY VAL MAKES HIS PLAN AND GIVES HIS ORDERS. FOR HE KNOWS HE HAS ABOUT TEN MINUTES OF CLEAR THINKING BEFORE THE FULL SHOCK OF HIS TRAGEDY RENDERS HIM BERSERK.

FROM AMONG THEIR CAPTIVES, THEY FIND A GUIDE. "I AM A KAZAR, ENSLAVED BY THE PATZINAKS. FOR SIX LONG YEARS I HAVE WAITED FOR REVENGE. I WILL GUIDE YOU TO THE CITY OF THE KHAN."

SEVEN SCORE NORTHMEN SET GRIM FACES TO THE WEST AND FOLLOW THEIR GRIEF-MADDENED LEADER OVER THE VAST PLAINS TO A DEADLY RENDEZVOUS!

"QUEEN ALETA HAS ALREADY REACHED THE CITY OF THE KHAN. WHEN THESE GATES CLOSE BEHIND ME THE CITY IS DOOMED," SHE TELLS HER CAPTORS.

NEXT WEEK—The Khan's Bride.

I was just thinking...

... WE'RE A NATION of falsies.

American women wear false bosoms, false eyelashes, and false faces. American men have a false set of standards for beauty.

It seems to be an American habit, the artificial attitude. The French approach beauty from a different angle. They base it on the turn of a throat, the timbre of a voice, the charm of a smile.

American men were born with tape measures in their hands.

Maybe high-pressure, high-priced, high-bosomed Hollywood is the beauty Bible. Maybe the only real magic is mascara and the only indelible love is lipstick.

But maybe we need to go off the sex standard. I'm all in favor of sex except when it becomes the basis for everything but the price of popcorn.

Ewing Galloway

I'm a little bored with busts on book jackets, curves on calendars, and thighs in 3-D.

Homely people do fall in love. A lot of them marry, not necessarily for convenience but because they take the trouble to find something beautiful in each other. But the pace of progress these days is such that nobody has time to look for beauty unless it walks up and smacks him in the eye.

Cinderella wouldn't have a chance. What Prince Charming wants to follow a glass slipper from border to border when there's a shapely calf in every corner of the castle?

Everybody knows beauty is only skin deep, but few of us have learned to look under the epidermis. Real beauty is colorfast, wrinkle-resistant, and guaranteed to last a lifetime.

Not all the money in the world can buy it.

HINTS FOR THE HOUSE-HUNTER

If your family is moving from one city to another and the husband must go on ahead to rent or buy a house, here are a few hints that may prove helpful:

First, the husband and wife should agree beforehand what kind of house or apartment and the number of rooms they want. Once the husband is in the new city, the daily newspaper, the chamber of commerce, or the personnel division of his firm can acquaint him with desirable housing areas and prevailing costs or rentals in each of them.

If they are moving their furniture with them, the husband should know the exact sizes of all the rugs and large pieces of furniture as well as the electrical system required for any big appliances. When he goes to look at a house, he should be armed with a measuring tape and several sheets of graph paper for on-the-spot drawing of rooms, windows, doorways, and fitted furnishings. By following these suggestions, the husband can make an immediate decision on a house and be reunited with his family that much sooner.—A Landlord, Davenport, Iowa.

Don't Let Geriatrics Get You!

Geriatrics is a new word for the care and treatment of us "old folks." But those of us over 60 should see to it that we don't need care or treatment.

Long before we reach 60, we should make plans. Not plans to sit and rock and feel sorry for ourselves, but new plans—plans to do some of the things we've always wanted to do, but never found time for.

Two years ago I had to stop all my social-work activities when I had a serious heart attack. My doctor said I would have to lose 40 pounds. I knew I would have to do something to keep my mind busy while my body was idle. I had always wanted to write, but life had been such fun to live that I hadn't had time. Now I have lost that 40 pounds—and I've sold two stories and two articles to national magazines.

So let's not say we are old; let's say we are mature—and then prove that we are!—Moselle Ainsworth Kuehne, Austin, Tex.

Let's Leave the Skeletons Alone!

Have you ever heard someone remark that another person need not be so self-righteous because when that person was younger, he did such and such a thing, or perhaps a relative of his committed a social or moral error? Doesn't such malicious gossip make you shudder?

Is there a person on this earth who doesn't have some kind of skeleton in his closet? Let's learn to accept reformed individuals as they are today and forget their past. Remember, "There will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over 99 just who have no need of repentance."—I. J. G., Dubuque, Iowa.

Lesson from a Crippled Boy

Last summer a ten-year-old crippled boy visited friends in our apartment building. He was a lonely child but had learned to be content. While playing in the yard, he dug several six-inch holes in the ground near a tree. In the holes he placed one-pound coffee cans filled with water. Then he crawled some distance away to watch the birds, the squirrels, and the dogs come to drink.

We left the cans in the ground and discovered, to our surprise, that water in them doesn't freeze in Winter. So now, even in January we can watch the birds (a pair of cardinals this morning) and other animals drink there.

We're very grateful for this lesson we learned from a little crippled boy, and we're sure our furred and feathered friends are, too.—Mrs. R. D., Springfield, Ill.

This Town Rewards Good Driving

dents. This proves the need for a different approach to the problem.

Some years ago the city council of Florence, S. C., hit upon a positive rather than negative approach, and it was noticeably successful. You'd be driving along, and a patrolman would suddenly appear and stop your car. You'd rack your brain to think what you'd done wrong to rate the ticket he seemed to be writing. But instead of a violation ticket, he'd give you a pass to a show or a ticket to stop at a local bottling company for a free carton of cold drinks.

How come? Well, the idea was to reward good drivers as well as to punish bad ones. It helped make us more safety-conscious, and if tried in other cities, I believe it could do much to reduce our nation's appalling automobile death toll.—Mrs. Mabel R. Bridges, Florence, S. C.

While no one enjoys inclement weather very much, April showers are an exception. These pleasant rains that mark Winter's demise and Spring's arrival give promise of balmy days ahead and the renewal of nature's colorful handiwork. Youngsters whose outdoor activities may have been curtailed the past few months will be especially glad to go out romping these days. And if it's raining, well, "Let it rain!" they say. A paraplegic is gently lifted into an Army Air Forces transport plane for a quick trip to a large general hospital where he will get special care.

New Help for the Disabled

By Richard LaCoste

ANOTHER ADVANCE in man's constant effort to help his fellow-man is the Stryker frame, an ingenious device for air-lifting paraplegics and other seriously disabled patients to military hospitals. It has been used in hospitals for some years, but only recently did it find its way into the air.

With the Stryker frame, a patient can be turned easily and without discomfort to him. He is placed between two canvas-covered frames with steel spring cross-ties which are then attached to the Stryker frame. The actual turning is accomplished by releasing a pin in the middle of the "Y"-shaped device shown in the pictures on this page.

Nurse prepares to turn G. I. over to help stimulate his circulation.

A second canvas-covered frame is placed over the patient's body.

Arriving at the main hospital, patient is placed in ambulance.

THE SOUND of screeching wheels against the icy pavement cut through the quiet of the Winter night. A convertible spilled over and out of it fell the body of a boy. He was 16 years old, a high-school junior.

The other five passengers escaped injury, but they were dazed from shock and drink and their first encounter with death.

Every daily paper in the Chicago area gave the story front-page headlines. Here was another teen-age tragedy on the North Shore, a rarefied area famous for its overindulged children and plush surroundings. There was some speculation as to what a 16-year-old boy was doing out in the middle of the night, drinking and driving and ultimately dying.

That night in November, 1952, was not the first time that a Highland Park High School student had figured in newspaper headlines. And suddenly the kids themselves were sick of it and ashamed, too.

A few days after the tragic accident, a delegation of students called on their principal, A. E. Wolters. They wanted no more mudslinging and slander, they told him. They wanted to try and change things for the future.

The principal relayed their story to the PTA president, and a series of meetings followed. The meetings resulted in the formation of a Student Activities committee. Today, the teens are setting standards for themselves which could serve as a pattern for high-school behavior the country over.

The Student Activities committee is no run-of-the-mill high-school organization. It is, rather, a rare combination of adults and students working together to produce a set of ground rules for the entire community.

Boys and girls whom the students have elected as their leaders comprise the committee. Presidents of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes, the Student Council, the Girls' club and Boys' club are included, along with six fathers of students in the school.

One of the first things the committee accomplished was to put over the idea that drinking no longer was fashionable. The county, legally dry, is circled just to the south by a string of taverns where, in the past, barkeepers have been known to advise the bobby-soxers, "Go home, take off your jeans, and put on nylons, high heels, and dresses if you want to be served." Thus a teen-ager, looking perhaps five years older, could sit at the bar and sip something stronger than a coke. The Student Activities committee established a law-enforcement wing which contacts officials whenever there is a violation of this kind.

The service clubs in town were drafted to help put the plan in effect, and the social activities began to take on a completely different character. The Moose, Rotary, Exchange club, Recreation center, and American Legion began to sponsor dances at two-week intervals or when no other regular school functions were on the calendar. Service club members brought the refreshments and provided the halls on condition that the boys and girls come in beforehand to hang the decorations and afterward to clean up. The committee arranged for summer stock theaters in the area to offer cut-rate tickets to teen-agers.

Teen-agers find their

With their parents' cooperation, these students put a stop to party crashing.

When a tragic accident shocked them into action, the students of one school set a pattern of behavior for their contemporaries everywhere.

With the privilege of using the family car goes the responsibility of driving carefully and helping with the upkeep.

Since the Student Activities committee came into being, soft drinks have been the rule at house parties and outings.

One of the greatest plagues—party crashing—has virtually stopped. Today the Open Houses, a popular form of private entertaining in the community, are carefully chaperoned and attended by invitation only. They are held on nights when parents are at home to help, unlike past years when parents were expected to disappear while the youngsters took over. In the old days, it was not unusual for householders to find their home a shambles after such a party.

One resident who failed to stay home in the pre-Student Activities committee days, wrote the local weekly:

"We came home one night a little earlier than expected to find a group of boys seated around the dining-room table playing poker, with cigarettes dangling out of their mouths. Coke bottles were strewn about the floor in complete disregard for order. In the kitchen, one boy sat on a step stool before the open refrigerator, eating a rib roast which was to have been our Sunday dinner.

"In the recreation room we heard what sounded like music and dancing, but the door was closed and we were asked politely but firmly to please go upstairs."

Things are different now

Today's party-goer finds his host or hostess at the front door beside a parent who neatly weeds out the uninvited guests, then stays around unobtrusively to make sure that some degree of order prevails.

The Student Activities committee tolerates

no tattletale tactics. At its meetings, student misdemeanors are reported with total anonymity. Whatever action is indicated follows, minus painful publicity for the offender.

Today the high school, in the midst of a four-million-dollar construction program, has allocated space in the new structure for a club-type gathering place just for the students on the theory that there will be no need to seek out taverns if the youngsters have a suitable place to congregate and let off steam.

Evidence of widespread interest in the committee's activities comes in letters received by a former adult co-chairman. A DePauw University student who, as president of the Girls' club, was on the original board, wrote:

"I am enclosing a check for $100 which we had left over from our graduation party. We tried to think of something worthwhile to do with it and decided to give it to the Student Activities committee."

Another alumna, now attending Michigan State College, asked that minutes of the committee meetings be sent to her so she could keep up with the work in progress.

Highland Park's teen-agers are not bumping halos as they make their noisy way around town, but a new climate has grown up around their major problems. Success of the autonomous committee, and the support and understanding of the community, have combined to produce a new self-confidence in the adolescents. As one of the committee members put it:

"Everybody has problems, and teen-agers are no different in that regard than anyone else. We think we have found the most satisfactory way to solve ours."

by Evelyn Lauter

own solution

For all of their regular dances, the students make their own decorations.

The high-school students discovered that their parties were just as much fun and a lot more orderly when Mother and Dad stayed around as unobtrusive chaperones.

FAMILY WEEKLY QUIZ

Are You Mentally Alert?

by Charles and Jean Komaiko

SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL and Albert Einstein are outstanding examples of mental fitness in spite of advanced years. We can't all be famous statesmen or scientists, but there is a lesson to be learned from these mental giants. They remain interesting because they are interested in everything going on around them. Each of us can do the same, within the limits of our own abilities.

Are you mentally alert? To find out, try this quiz. If you fail on more than two (check with answers below) you'd better broaden your horizons!

Luscious White Cake

Base Recipe

Grease bottoms of two 9-in. round layer cake pans. Line each with waxed paper cut to fit pan bottom. Grease the waxed paper.

Sift together and set aside
3 cups sifted cake flour
3½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt

Cream together in a large bowl until butter is softened
2 teaspoons almond extract
Add gradually, creaming until fluffy after each addition 1½ cups sugar

Measure
1¼ cups milk

Beating only until smooth after each addition, alternately add dry ingredients in fourths, milk in thirds to creamed mixture. Finally beat only until batter is smooth (do not overbeat).

Beat until frothy
5 egg whites
Add gradually, beating well after each addition
½ cup sugar

Continue beating until rounded peaks are formed. Spread beaten egg whites over batter and gently fold together. Pour batter into the prepared pans.

Bake at 350°F 25 to 30 min., or until a cake tester or wooden pick comes out clean when inserted in center of cake, or until cake springs back when touched lightly at center.

Cool cake layers 10 min. in pans on cooling racks. After cooling, run spatula gently around sides of pan. Cover with cooling rack. Invert and remove pan. Immediately peel off waxed paper and turn cake right-side up. Repeat for the second layer. Cool completely.

Prepare

Seven-Minute Frosting

Tint to desired color by blending in, a drop at a time, until frosting is a delicate pink color

Red food coloring

Place one cake layer on a serving plate. Spread frosting over top of bottom layer. Cover with the second layer. Spread frosting on sides and top of cake. Swirl frosting with the back of a spoon to create a decorative effect (see photo).

To Decorate Cake—Blend together
1 tablespoon butter, softened
¼ teaspoon vanilla extract
Thoroughly blend in, in order
¾ cup sifted confectioners' sugar
1½ teaspoons worm cream
Remove ¼ cup of the frosting. Tint to desired color by blending in Green food coloring
(If less than one drop is needed, dip tip of a wooden pick in the food coloring, then into frosting.)

Tint remaining frosting to desired color by blending in

Red food coloring

Decorate cake as in photo with rosettes and leaves.

To make leaves, force the green frosting through pastry bag and a No. 66 leaf decorating tube.

One 9-in. layer cake

Easter Basket Cupcakes

For the layer cake pans, substitute 18 2¼-in. muffin pan wells; line with colored paper baking cups. Follow Base Recipe. Fill baking cups one-half full.

Bake at 400°F 18 to 20 min., or until cakes test done.

To complete cupcakes, prepare your favorite butter frosting.

Using a sharp knife, cut a cone shape out of top of each cupcake leaving a rim about ½ in. wide around top edge. Remove cone shapes and use for sampling. Spread butter frosting in the cavity of the cupcake. Fill cavity with multicolored jelly beans so that they extend slightly over edge. Swirl a small amount of butter frosting around edge of cupcake. Sprinkle frosting with moist, shredded coconut, cut into short lengths.

Egg Yolk Cookies

Prepare, peel, and cool
3 hard-cooked eggs

While eggs are cooking, put butter in bowl and cream together until butter is softened

½ cup butter
(grated through colored only; white is bitter)

Add gradually, creaming until fluffy after each addition

½ cup sugar

Add one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition

2 egg yolks

and

Set aside.

Cut the hard-cooked eggs into halves; remove egg yolks to a bowl. Mash with a fork and add

1 tablespoon milk

EASTER

Suggestions for Easter Dinner

It's Easter! Let's celebrate, entertain, pamper family and friends. The scent of Spring fills the air. A contagion of well-being awakens our spirits. So rise and shine. Start off this glorious day with an enticing breakfast and, of course, cups of steaming hot coffee. On to the climax—a dinner worthy of a wonderful occasion. Mmmm—catch that heaven-sent aroma of Baked Ham. What other delightful surprises are on the menu?

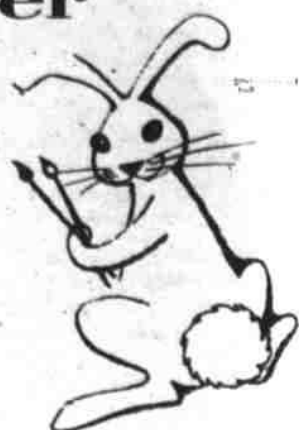

Yams or sweet potatoes are a must. To glaze 6 medium-size potatoes, melt  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup butter or margarine in a skillet; blend in $\frac{1}{2}$  cup firmly packed brown sugar and  $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon salt. Bring mixture to bubbling. Add the cooked and peeled potatoes. Cook over medium heat, turning potatoes several times, about 20 min., or until potatoes are well-glazed and thoroughly heated. Canned potatoes may be used. They save time and taste delicious.

Serve your favorite green vegetable well-seasoned and coated with browned butter. Or if you feel Easter dinner isn't complete without hard-cooked eggs, quarter the eggs and use them as a garnish for cooked spinach.

Tossed salad is always the choice of true connoisseurs. It is the accepted dinner salad. Use oil, vinegar, and seasonings as a dressing or sprinkle with your favorite French dressing and toss lightly.

To hasten the meal and lessen the work refrigerated ready-to-bake biscuits are ideal. They're quite perfect just plain with plenty of butter or margarine. Or, for a special treat, arrange biscuits close together on a baking sheet. Poke pecan halves and raisins into tops, and sprinkle with a mixture of equal amounts brown sugar and butter or margarine.

THIS RICH, COLORFUL BAKED HAM PLATTER AND THE COOL JEWEL-LIKE BRILLIANCE OF FLAVORSOME SHERBETS ARE VISUAL EXPRESSIONS OF EASTER JOY.

Baked Ham

Cherry-Pineapple Sauce is one of the most attractive toppings for ham. No wonder it's a favorite when you consider that not only is the flavor harmony perfection but so is the eye appeal. If you prefer something different, try the delightful contrast of Horse-radish Sauce or some of the glazes.

Base Recipe

Remove according to directions on can 3- to 4-lb. canned ham Put ham on a rack in a shallow roasting pan. Follow one of the suggestions below.

Clove-Studded Ham

Before baking, score surface of ham by making diagonal cuts to form a diamond pattern. Insert whole cloves in center of each diamond. Serve with Cherry-Pineapple Sauce or Horse-radish Sauce.

Cherry-Pineapple Sauce

Set out a double boiler.

Drain, reserving cherry liquid and pineapple sirup, contents of

- 1 No. 2 can pitted red sour cherries (2 cups, drained)
- 1 9-oz. can pineapple tidbits (about  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup, drained)

Set aside.

Mix together in the double boiler top

- 3 tablespoons firmly packed brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- $1\frac{1}{2}$  tablespoons cornstarch
- $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon cinnamon
- $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon salt

Add, stirring well

- 1 tablespoon cold water

Heat in a saucepan until very hot about  $\frac{3}{4}$  cup of the reserved cherry liquid,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup of the pineapple sirup, and Water (enough to make  $1\frac{1}{4}$  cups liquid)

Stirring constantly, gradually add the hot liquid to the cornstarch mixture. Stirring gently and constantly, bring cornstarch mixture rapidly to boiling over direct heat and cook for 3 min. Set over simmering water.

Remove from heat and blend in

- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- Few drops red food coloring

Stir in 1 cup of the drained cherries and  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup of the drained pineapple. Heat, keeping mixture moving with a spoon, just until the fruit is thoroughly heated.

Serve the sauce piping hot with Baked Ham.

About  $2\frac{1}{2}$  cups sauce

Note: Remaining fruit and sirup may be used in other food preparation.

Glazed Ham

Remove ham from oven 30 to 40 min. before time indicated for heating through, and spread generously with one of the following glazes. Return to oven and continue to bake for required time.

For Brown Sugar Glaze—Heat together in a saucepan, stirring until sugar is dissolved, 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar and  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup white corn sirup. If desired,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup of spiced fruit juice or ginger ale may be substituted for the corn sirup.

For Sweet-Sour Glaze—Mix together until smooth  $\frac{3}{4}$  cup firmly packed brown sugar,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon dry mustard, and 3 tablespoons cider vinegar.

For Jelly or Jam Glaze—Dilute 1 cup quince or elderberry jelly, jam, or orange marmalade with  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup very hot water.

Horse-radish Sauce

Set out a double boiler.

Prepare and keep hot

- $\frac{1}{2}$  cup quick meat broth (1 beef bouillon cube dissolved in  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup hot water)

Melt in the double boiler top

- 2 tablespoons butter

Blend in

- 1 tablespoon flour

Heat until mixture bubbles. Remove from heat and gradually add the quick meat broth, stirring constantly. Return to heat and bring rapidly to boiling, stirring constantly; cook 1 to 2 min. longer. Remove sauce from heat. Vigorously stir about 3 tablespoons of hot sauce into

- 1 egg, slightly beaten

Immediately blend into hot mixture in double boiler top. Stirring constantly, cook over simmering water about 5 min., or until mixture is thickened. Remove from heat. Stirring vigorously with a French whip, whisk beater, or fork, add to mixture in double boiler top in very small amounts.

- $\frac{1}{2}$  cup thick sour cream

Place over simmering water. Cook, stirring constantly, 3 to 5 min., or until heated thoroughly. (Do not overcook.) Remove from heat and blend in

- 3 tablespoons prepared horse-radish

- Few grains cayenne pepper

Serve immediately with Baked Ham.

$1\frac{1}{2}$  cups sauce

Mushroom Horns

Prepare and shape into 2 balls (do not roll out or bake)

Plain pastry for two-crust pie (your favorite recipe or a mix)

Wrap in waxed paper and set in refrigerator until ready to use.

Hard-cook, peel, cool, finely chop, and set aside
1 egg

Cook until tender

in
Drain and set aside.

For Filling—Prepare enough mushrooms and onion to yield

½ cup (¼ lb.) finely chopped mushrooms
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion

Melt in a small skillet
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Add mushrooms and onion; cook slowly, moving and turning with a spoon or fork, until mushrooms are tender and onion is transparent.

Using a slotted spoon, remove mushrooms and onion to a medium-size bowl. Toss lightly with the hard-cooked egg, cooked rice, and

1½ teaspoons finely chopped parsley

Mix together and add
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon paprika

Few grains cayenne pepper

Add and thoroughly blend in
3 tablespoons thick sour cream
Set aside.

To Complete Horns—Remove pastry from refrigerator. Using one ball at a time, put it on a lightly floured surface. Lightly flour rolling pin. Roll pastry from center to edge about ¼ in. thick. With a knife or spatula, loosen pastry from surface wherever sticking occurs; lift pastry slightly and sprinkle flour underneath.

From waxed paper, cut a round pattern 1½ in. in diameter. Using the waxed paper pattern and a sharp knife, or a lightly floured 1½ in. cookie cutter, cut out pastry rounds. Place ½ to ¾ teaspoon filling on center of each pastry round and moisten two thirds of outer edge of the rounds. Bring moistened edges together. Pinch, tapering to the end, to form a cornucopia. (Leave opposite end open.)

1 tablespoon cream

Bake at 400°F 10 to 15 min., or until lightly browned.

Style Honors for the Girl Graduate

Few events in a girl's life rival the importance of high-school graduation. It's the kind of occasion that demands a very special frock. The graduate's choice is cotton, whether organdy, dimity, or pique. As to color, dazzling white shaves popularity with subtle shades of yellow, pink, blue, and green. Styles most likely to succeed are full-skirted and designed with grown-up flattery and grace. And underneath all this frosting there's practicality, too, for these delightful dresses go partying for seasons after graduation.

Write Family Weekly, 179 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago 1, Ill., for information if styles shown are not available locally.

"What This Country Needs..."

LIKE COUNTLESS other Americans, I have often indulged in our national indoor pastime of sounding off with: "What this country needs..."

Just the other day I suddenly realized how important those four words are, not only to every American but also to every citizen of the world.

Back in 1776, Thomas Jefferson and his friends were saying: "What this country needs... is a Declaration of Independence." You know what happened then!

And Abraham Lincoln, at Gettysburg, was talking about "What this country needs..." only he said:

"Four score and seven years ago..."

Or take the field of more material things, if you like. It was Henry Ford who said: "What this country needs... is an automobile," and before long we were in the machine age. Then came Orville and Wilbur Wright, who said: "What this country needs... is an airplane," and soon we were in the air age. For every significant advance at least one person has said: "What this country needs..." and has then gone on to supply that need!

Whatever your political beliefs, if you are a true American you agree that "What this country needs..." is more people everywhere using that phrase, saying what they believe, getting it off their chests, men who dare to dream, to talk about their dreams, and to make those dreams come true!

What does this country need? What does the world need? Whether you're talking about a cure for polio or economic stability or permanent world peace... one thing is certain: We can't have any of them unless we have the freedom to say, in our homes, on street corners, over the radio and in the press, and in the highest halls of justice—

"What this country needs..."

Never a Lump

when you make Cream Sauce with BETTER-BLENDING Carnation

1. For 2 cups of cream sauce, blend 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 tablespoons butter in saucepan over low heat until smooth.

2. Gradually add 1½ cups (large can) undiluted Carnation to the butter-flour mixture. Stir until thickened and smooth; serve over vegetables.

Smoothest cream sauce you ever made! Quickest, too! That's because Carnation has special blending qualities not found in any other form of milk. And because it's double-rich—you need only half as much flour and shortening.

Junior Treasure Chest

Junior Journalists

Dear Miss Barrows:

I collect United States postage stamps. First of all I went to a book store and got a U.S. Stamp Album. Then mother gave me a start with all of her stamps. She collects First Day covers. Then I wrote to a stamp company and asked for a stamp catalogue. When it came I ordered some stamps. When they came I put them in my book with little stamp hinges. Stamp hinges are little square pieces of paper with glue on them.

I take duplicate stamps off envelopes and soak them in warm water; then I go to the dime store and get little envelopes. I sort them out and put each different kind of stamp in a different envelope. I arrange them in my file according to the year they were printed and issued.

Sincerely,

A Stunt to Try

Stand on a large magazine page with somebody else. You and your partner must have both feet on the page. Your feet can't touch the floor and you can't touch each other.

You say it sounds easy? Try it! See if you can do it before you read any further.

Here's how:

Just put the open magazine page in a doorway. Stand on half the page. Close the door. When someone stands on the other half of the page he will not touch you. You are on opposite sides of the door.

How to Make a Stuffed Toy - - OOGLETHORPE

Lots of children love to collect stuffed animals, and here is one named Ooglethorpe to add to your collection. Follow the directions carefully and make him yourself. He's a most appealing character and lots of fun to own.

You will need a heavy ribbed cotton stocking (we used a blue one), a few small scraps of felt or heavy wool cloth in white, black, and red; some coarse yarn for hair, a button for a nose, and a piece of ribbon for a necktie.

First, turn the stocking wrong-side out, cut the foot off at the ankle, stitch straight across the cut, and then turn it right-side out. You now have a tube which will make the body of the doll. Stuff about one-third of it with cotton batting, tie a string around the stocking tightly to make the neck, and continue stuffing the rest for a body. The body, of course, must be bigger than the head; when it looks about like the drawing, tuck in the ends of the stocking and sew flat. Using the patterns for feet, eyes, hands, and coat buttons that we have drawn, trace them onto the felt or wool, following directions as to the number to be cut very carefully. You will see four pieces are cut for feet. Sew two pieces together half way, stuff lightly, finish stitching all the way around, and attach to the body as in the picture. One hand is sewn to each side of the body, and the three buttons—the smallest at the top—are sewn down the front of the body.

Cut two white eye pieces, sew a black center on each of them to make the special expression Ooglethorpe has, arrange them on his face, and sew. Cut one red oval for his mouth and sew in place. The button is tacked on and you are now ready to do the eyebrows and eyelashes. Draw or embroider them, following the picture shown here.

Cut about twenty lengths of yarn, each five inches long, and sew to a piece of felt that will just fit on top of the head. Tack it in place to make Ooglethorpe's hair. Tie a ribbon around his neck to hide the string, and he is ready to play with or to put on display to delight your friends.

There's a Fortune Under the Sea!

A FABULOUS FORTUNE awaits recovery from beneath America's waters. The bottoms of coastlines, lakes, and rivers are dotted with ships which sank with precious cargo aboard.

No doubt some stories of sunken treasure are fictional, but the National Geographic Society says the underwater wealth runs into billions of dollars. Truly startling is the fact that about $600,000,000 of this treasure trove is on 70 ships "whose names and approximate locations have been reasonably well authenticated." So all it takes to claim part of the hoard is proper equipment, cunning, and a determination to fight the sea's reluctance to give up its treasure.

Practically every section of the waters surrounding the U.S. has its storehouse of submerged wealth. During World War II, Nazi submarines in the Atlantic and Caribbean sent millions of dollars' worth of ore, weapons, wire, and other equipment to the bottom. One of the richest of these sunken ships is the Alexander Macomb, which was torpedoed off the Maine coast with a fortune aboard in copper, brass, steel, and aluminum.

Most cargoes, however, went down in virtually-forgotten peacetime maritime disasters and have been awaiting salvage for generations. Take the Republic, for example. She sank off the Massachusetts coast in 1909 after a collision.

The man fortunate enough to find her will also find $3,000,000 in gold coins!

In 1780 a British frigate called the Husar sank in New York City's East River. Aboard was almost $5,000,000 in gold and silver intended as pay for Redcoats stationed on Rhode Island. So far, only a handful of the coins have been recovered although the Husar lies about 100 yards from shore.

Just about a mile off Lewes, Del., lies a Dutch vessel, the DeBraak, which went down in a storm in 1798. It is believed to hold $15,000,000.

In 1857 a hurricane whipped across Cape Hatteras, sinking the steamer Central America. Three million dollars in California gold is still aboard.

Florida's waters are said to be jammed with sunken treasure—some $165,000,000 worth. Almost half is on 14 Spanish galleons caught in a hurricane off Long Cay in 1715.

Somewhere off Palm Beach is the Santa Margarita, another galleon reportedly loaded with $7,000,000 in silver. And in the mouth of the Suwannee River is a schooner which had a cargo of $5,000,000 in gold when it sank in 1820.

In only 60 feet of water, in shifting sands, lies the hulk of the Santa Rosa, which went down in 1529 within sight of Key West while carrying $25,000,000 in Aztec gold from South America.

Turning into the Gulf of Mexico, a treasure of several millions is believed to lie in Texas' Lavaca River, where pirate Jean Lafitte fled from the Navy in 1820. Some remains of Lafitte's vessel, the Pride, have been found, but his booty still awaits discovery.

Among the treasure ships in the Pacific is the City of Chester, which sank after colliding with the Oceanic in 1838. Recently, divers began searching three miles off San Francisco for the Chester—and for the $30,000,000 in bullion it reputedly carried.

Another California prize is the Rio de Janeiro, which sank in 1901 in the Golden Gate. This wreck reportedly contains $11,000,000 in bullion.

There is even sunken treasure in the Great Lakes, a thousand miles or more from the sea. Not long ago, salvagers began combing Lake Huron for the schooner Bercliff, which sank with $250,000 worth of copper in 1870. The following year, the R. R. Coburn went to the bottom carrying $180,000 in copper and cash. And still another Lake Huron hoard is the $300,000 in bullion on the Lexington, which sank in 1846.

Lake Erie shelters the City of Detroit, which sank in 1873 with a $100,000 cargo of copper, and the Dean Richmond, which went down in 1893 with $190,000 in gold and zinc.

Only shifting sands and strong currents keep these millions from the eager hands of treasure hunters, yet only a fraction of America's sunken wealth has been recovered.

At Lower Matecumbe, Fla., for instance, $80,000 was salvaged from a wreck not long ago. Another $70,000 was recovered near Captain's Key. But these amounts are a tiny fraction of the huge hoard still locked inside Neptune's vaults.

Modern Daniel Boone

THE WROUGHT-IRON CRAFT, a fast-disappearing art form, is kept alive in a Burnsville, N. C., forge operated by Daniel Boone VI, a descendant of the great frontiersman.

Daniel welds all pieces by hand with the forge and hot coals—a method more prosaic smiths don't understand. But as he puts it, "A Boone has a tradition to maintain."

by Ruth W. Lee, Home-Furnishings Consultant

KITCHENS HAVE changed in many ways since Grandma's days, but probably one of the most notable improvements is modern lighting. It's one every homemaker should take advantage of, since good illumination of work surfaces lightens tasks, while adding to the attractiveness of the room. The contemporary kitchen pictured here has a special lighting feature well worth knowing about. An "egg-crate" fixture located above a peninsula unit provides soft, clear light for a work counter on one side and a plan desk on the other. In addition to being functional, it's decorative and supplies the plants with "growing light."

"Egg-crate" fixture nestled under hanging cabinets provides decorative lighting for work counter and plan desk. Separating the

Here's a close-up of built-in radio which divides plan desk from sink and work counter. It can be operated from either side.

On other side of plan desk is a work area including a sink, dishwasher, and counter. Birch cabinets and light unit are overhead.

Here's news for people who suffer needlessly from irregularity

You get much more than a fine-tasting dish for fitness and flavor when you eat All-Bran with milk. Kellogg's All-Bran, the original whole bran laxative cereal, is scientifically milled to bring you natural food bulk in its most effective form. Besides that, All-Bran and milk give 9 body-builders you need: phosphorus, iron, calcium, thiamine, riboflavin, niacin, vitamins A and D as well as high-quality protein. All-Bran is famous for its effective relief of constipation due to lack of dietary bulk. So get the original—the one and only, Kellogg's All-Bran. It really works. Double your money back if a daily dish of All-Bran and milk doesn't have you regular within 10 days. That's a promise from Kellogg's of Battle Creek, Michigan.

V. J. Shull, President

The Largest Exclusive Health and Accident Company In The World Provides Prompt Cash Payments For Covered Hospitalization, Surgery, Maternity, and Loss of Income!

WHEREVER you live, you get personal, fast neighborly service. With lifetime benefits for loss of income, 180 day coverage for hospital confinement, and other special coverages not offered in many other plans, we honestly believe this to be one of the most practical, low cost health and accident plans available today! You can have all or part of this plan to fit your needs, and the acceptance of any renewal premium is optional with the association.

Your policy clearly states conditions of coverage. For example: While you are under the care of your Doctor you are covered for most sickness, the cause of which originates after 30 days from policy date; sickness resulting in surgery after 90 days; t.b., hernia, female trouble, heart trouble after 6 months from policy date. Not covered for military service, war, hospital or surgery resulting from workmen's compensation cases.
