Light Rain Falls Here Monday

More than a half inch of rain fell here Monday night, just as the good effects of March's 15-inch snow were about spent. The rain fell quickly from clouds which arose in the west and were whipped by winds from the east. It followed a light shower last Saturday afternoon. About dark Tuesday another shower fell.

Threatening skies which lasted from late Sunday through Wednesday promised a big rain, and although other parts of the Panhandle enjoyed heavy downfall, it failed to materialize here.

Ira Wilkinson Dies Monday At Elida

Ira N. Wilkinson, age 71 years, died last Monday, April 16, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Kibbe, who live 18 miles west of Elida, New Mexico. The remains were brought to Hereford Tuesday morning by the E. B. Black Company.

Funeral services were held at the Black Funeral Parlors Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. E. R. McWilliams of the First Christian Church officiating. Interment followed immediately at West Park Cemetery, where the I. O. O. F. lodge was in charge.

Mr. Wilkinson is survived by a brother, George C. Wilkinson, of Wichita, Kansas, and two half-sisters, Mrs. Berdie Whitehead and Mrs. Nellie Whitehead, both of New Sharon, Iowa.

The deceased came to Hereford with the R. J. Kibbe family from New Sharon about 41 years ago and settled north of town near the present Kibbe home. He engaged in freight and cattle business then, and afterward engaged in farming up to the time of his death. He became a member of the First Christian church here in August, 1907, and has been a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge for about 26 years.

Mr. Wilkinson became ill about a year and a half ago, and last November his illness took a turn for the worse. He moved to New Mexico about 30 days ago where he made his home with Dr. and Mrs. Kibbe.

Hereford Lions Will Go To District Meet

June zone meeting of Lions Clubs will be held in Hereford, according to R. E. Perkins, who attended the zone meeting last week in Borger.

Ralph Smith will captain the Lion baseball team in the city league this year. He was elected at yesterday's meeting.

Crop Loan Deadline April 30 In Castro

Farmers living in Castro county are warned by John E. Andrews, field supervisor, that the deadline for applying for production loans is April 30. Applications must be made at the county agent's office in Dimmitt.

Maximum emergency production loans are $250. If a loan up to $150 is sought, application may be made direct to the agent. If it exceeds that amount, a letter of rejection must be obtained from the Production Loan Association.

Eight CCC Applicants Are Sent to Amarillo

Four recruits and four alternates were sent to Amarillo Tuesday for examination as applicants in the Civilian Conservation Corps. In the group were Miles M. Funk, Lester Showalter, Travis Caraway, William Sanders, John Woodson, Earl Spencer, Ernest Stocker and Paul Bagwell. Four of the group will be accepted.

State Designation Is Sought For Avenue

Prospects of Deaf Smith county's having Highway 33 paved were considerably enhanced Tuesday with the announcement from Washington that the relief administration and Texas Highway Department had reached an agreement on expenditure of the $8,900,000 special road fund that has been "lost" since last September.

The money will be used for labor and will be spent only upon state highways and not on county and lateral roads. This will solve the problem of improving Highway 33, a project which was approved by the department in February but has not been started because the local relief office was unable to furnish labor.

"In order for Deaf Smith county to get its full share of this drought relief fund," Jim Lipscomb, relief chairman of the county said, "we must get to work and have final designation as a state highway given to 25-Mile Avenue."

"This road has been tentatively designated as State Highway 143, but official and final designation has never been given. In order to get any of this money for the road we must have it designated as a state highway."

Lipscomb and his relief committee have called on the county commissioners as well as all citizens to communicate with the State Highway Department asking to let her have the road designated. W. W. Chilton, county relief administrator and a former highway worker, is aiding in asking for the designation.

"Unless we can get this done, Deaf Smith county will be left holding the bag as usual," Lipscomb added. "It is a public duty to do everything we can to obtain this work. No county is suffering more from drought than we are, and it will only be fair for us to obtain as much of this fund as possible."

The Avenue is approximately 90 miles long, running from north to south across the county. It goes to Vega on the north and Dimmitt on the south. Work on the road would provide relief labor in sections of the county that have never had the work and which, in the opinion of the relief officials, are in worse need than any others.

Final tabulation revealed that 250 hog producers had agreed to sign up and that 21 had turned it down. Reduction of 14,697 pigs will be effected. Twenty-six corn growers with 261.8 acres reduction have entered the agreement.

Commissioners Inspect Asphalt at Santa Rosa

County Judge C. W. Humble and Commissioners W. M. Stewart, J. B. Phillips, Jack Ross and J. T. Quinn were in Santa Rosa, New Mexico, last week inspecting the rock asphalt quarries near there. The county will purchase topping for a mile of Harrison Highway between Hereford and the cemetery.

Plant Cedar Trees At Central School

Five red cedar trees were planted on Central school grounds Saturday by District No. 1 winners of last year's Home Beautiful contest, sponsored by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce.

District No. 1, West Hereford from Main Street west, and the cash prize of $15 was spent for the trees planted, according to Earl W. Wilson, district manager. Mr. Wilson stated that the Central school children are very proud of the new trees and are taking an active interest in the care and protection of them.

Dillehay Renamed School Head For Twelfth Consecutive Year

C. H. Dillehay, superintendent of Hereford schools, has been awarded a contract to continue as head of the system for the twelfth consecutive year. This spring, more than 50 youngsters who started in the first grade the year Mr. Dillehay arrived in Hereford will complete their public school work.

Four teachers who were serving in the system when he came are still here. They are Misses Tallie Bell, Frances Fullington, Mary Brady and Ella Alkman.

Today all the teachers in the high school and five in the grades have college degrees. Twelve years ago there was only one in the entire system who held a degree. The school is now a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary schools. Current enrollment is 890 compared with 18 a dozen years ago and the high school has 28 units of affiliation compared with 20 then.

Mr. Dillehay came here from Olney where he spent three years. He held a Bachelor of Arts degree from Baylor University and Master

Fire Prevention Well Taught Here

"Fire prevention is taught well in Hereford schools and fire drills are efficiently conducted," declared Miss Olga Juniger last Monday. Miss Juniger is educational supervisor of the State Fire Insurance Commission. She was here on a tour of inspection, checking the teaching of fire prevention.

Hereford's fire insurance key rate recognizes teaching of fire prevention in the schools, a three per cent reduction having been made because of it.

of Arts from Brown University. He taught four summers at the state teachers college in Denton before coming to Hereford and has taught the same number in the college at Canyon since. He attended the University of Colorado one summer and the University of Southern California another. He will be at the University of Texas this summer. He is a life member of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Both of Mr. Dillehay's children, Doris Elaine and Virginia Ann, were born in Hereford.

The physical plant of the Hereford schools compares favorably with any of similar size in the state. The present modern high school building and athletic plant were built since Mr. Dillehay came. The vocational agriculture department has been added and vocational qualifications gained for the home economics department.

About 55 pupils will be graduated this spring as compared with 24 the first spring Mr. Dillehay was in Hereford.

BY HOMER FOX

Boy, Howdy! On Tuesday, May the first, the Hereford City Baseball League will open—the schedule has not been worked out yet, but will be in the next week's paper—the same old clubs, Midgets, Odd Fellows, Firemen and Lions. The boys are all in good shape and each manager says his club has a clutch. Won't it be fun, and don't your ears sorter ache to go out and listen to that crying, aching, griping and cheering again, and at the same time see a little good ball playing and a lot of rotten ball playing, and enough of allis to fill the book of knowledge?

Each club came out of spring training without a single injury as far as we can find out. The Lions have been taking their weekly workout at the Presbyterian church on Wednesdays, and if some of these birds can throw a baseball like they chuck a hot roll or biscuit, they should have some pretty fair pitchers.

The Odd Fellows made their headquarters at the I. O. O. F. hall and riding goats or helping the other fellow ride has been their main hard work, which should put them way ahead of the rest in riding the umpire, and that will win ball games when nothing else will, but Ted says they will win in a walk.

The Fireboys stayed at home and trained at the City Hall fighting fires and playing dominoes. They should at least have the art of putting out down Pat. Corbett, leading hitter of the City League last year, and star outfielder for the Firemen, says the natives have never seen the wood laid to the old apple like he is going to do it this year, and he guarantees that when he hits one over the creek that he won't stop at third base.

The Midgets are still in training at the old school house and are all in the best of condition. May be hurt a little this summer by losing a few of the boys, but they

Corner Stone Holds City History

"Dealers in general merchandise, ranch and trade supplies," says the letterhead of the Hereford Mercantile Company, found in the corner stone of the Western National Bank when it was opened last Thursday. Some of the north wall of the building is being removed to permit construction of the Rice Building on the lot just north of the bank building.

The corner stone was laid May 2, 1902, and the building was erected by Smith-Walker Company for a bank which afterwards became the Western National. In the sealed box found in the corner stone were found the names of the contractors, W. W. Bales and C. A. Swinburn; also the letter head of the Hereford Manufacturing Company of which T. R.

Reagan, self-styled practical tinner and plumber, was manager.

The Hereford Mercantile was being operated by A. J. Lipscomb, W. H. Patton, George A. Stambaugh and J. M. Garner. Mr. Lipscomb's birth date, 1866, was given; he is living at Mineral Wells now and is the father of Jim Lipscomb. Mr. Stambaugh, father of George V. Stambaugh, was born April 1, 1865, and J. M. Garner in 1847.

Rat Jowell and G. A. F. Parker witnessed the laying and the opening of the corner stone. The structure was Hereford's first of brick. The Hereford National Bank was operating in a frame building on the corner where the First National now stands.

Another enterprising firm of the city, according to a card, was the Hereford House, near the depot, newly equipped, furnished, transient business a specialty. It was established February 1, 1902, and stood just north of the Phillips Filling Station on South Main. It burned in 1910 when it was known as the Tygart Hotel.

The names of C. L. Davis, old-time land agent; Adley Patton, born November 3, 1876; T. A. Cox of the Hereford Livery and Feed Stable; Sam H. Morris, later cashier of the Western National Bank; and Marcus Jacobsgaard were also in the box.

And some of the old timers maintain a quart of very yellow "Old Crow" was sealed in the corner stone. But it did not come to light.

THE WHEAT PROSPECT

Texas' 1934 wheat crop has been forecast at 23,018,000 bushels, compared with last year's 13,022,000 bushels. This forecast is based on the estimated seeded acreage less probable abandonments from usual causes and makes no allowance for reduction of acreage which producers may make in order to comply with present or future government reduction programs. Since the government control program is a quite definite influence, the estimate is probably too high.

With the ten-year average, 1922-1931, as 79 per cent of normal, this year's crop as of April 1 has been forecast at 62 per cent. Last year's production was 59. "The crop," says a Department of Agriculture report, "started under adverse conditions. Soils were dry at planting time, and there was a deficiency of moisture in most areas throughout the winter months."

The price of wheat plummeted Monday, getting below 60 cents for the first time in many months. Come reports from the world wheat conference at Rome that there will be a big surplus and carry-over from this year's crop. Farmers who are in the wheat reduction, however, feel much safer than they did a year ago, knowing that their Uncle Samuel will pay an allotment to make up the difference between the actual and a fair price for their product.

NO NEED FOR EXHAUSTION

"Did it ever occur to you," asked Representative Olan Van Zandt at the gas hearing in Amarillo, "that the legislature may get tired of washing the dirty linen of the oil and gas industry?"

"I hope not," answered John J. Sheerin, president of the Shamrock Oil and Gas Company. "It is the state's biggest industry, and I pity the people if the legislature loses interest. The Texas legislature has saved the industry in this state and the nation during the past year."

The people—it may be pointed out in a statement which probably will meet with general approval—do not expect their legislators to become tired of anything. The people do not elect their legislators for the purpose of having them become tired. Legislators don't work hard enough to become tired of anything in connection with their duties.

The oil industry in Texas is the "state's biggest," as Sheerin pointed out, and if it has any linen, dirty or otherwise, to be washed by the legislature, the people, particularly of the Panhandle and of other oil-producing sections, expect the legislators to do the washing. To transact business of that kind is the duty of the legislators.—Borger Herald.

A LONG TIME AGO IN HEREFORD

(From The Hereford Brand, April 17, 1903.)

Citizens of Texas had agreed to furnish $100,000 to defray expenses of a State exhibit at the World's Fair to be held in St. Louis, and Hereford folks were not backward in contributing more than their share.

F. B. Fuller and Snyder & Johnson were preparing to begin the erection of two brick business blocks just north of the Herron & Norman building, then under construction.

The editor "understood" that parties with plenty of finances had heard of the incorporated City of Hereford and were desirous of installing an electric light and ice manufacturing plant.

W. R. Evans of Hereford and Miss Flossie Johnson of Arlington had been married in the bride's home the previous Monday.

The Hereford baseball team, backed by about 125 enthusiastic roofers, had chartered a special train to Amarillo, where a hot game was played, ending 7 to 6 in favor of Amarillo.

Irving Jennings, J. P. Snyder, D. F. Johnson, Conner Jowell, T. J. Stephens, F. L. Vanderburgh, Thomas Blake, C. S. Garrison, C. C. Ferguson, L. F. Alby and W. R.

Evants were charter members of a newly organized social club, and had for their object the entertainment of visiting strangers in Hereford.

(From The Hereford Brand, April 18, 1913.)

Editor Currie of the Country Gentleman, had been a visitor in Hereford, with a view of inspecting at first hand the irrigation possibilities of this region. He pronounced Hereford on the right tract and predicted a bright future for the county.

The commissioners had sold the city's fire hose, chemical wagon and team, retaining a hand-drawn hose reel. A reward of $5.00 was offered to the first team or automobile hooking on to the hose cart and dragging the vehicle to the scene of any future fire.

Cliff Estes, recently of Tulsa, was a law student in the office of Carl Gilliland.

The E. B. Black Company had a force of workmen busy remodeling their furniture store on Main Street.

C. R. Smith was home from a trip to Chicago.

F. H. Oberthier had been down in Louisiana, and the editor surmised he had probably been there to purchase a sawmill to erect on his two-section ranch in this county.

"New Fords are being driven by Dr. LeGrand and C. E. McLean. They are both little beauties, being five passenger, 15 h. p."

Lois Garrison, Nell Wilson, Edgar Webb, Earl Lust, Jim Lipscomb, Mary Blacet, Cotta Sisk, Jewel Buser, Jennie Wyche, Alma Nortop, Clara Lambert were to graduate from Hereford High. The school was offering a prize of $5 to the young lady in the class whose graduating outfit was most appropriate and least expensive.

Baseball season opened that week with Canyon Normal licking the locals 3 to 2.

What Panhandle Papers Say

We would like to enter this bright saying of a child in competition with other bright sayings which put fond parents into spasms of delight: A man who had lived most of his life in New Mexico and who was in the habit of speaking Spanish was talking to a little girl and unconsciously called her "muchacha." She answered him quickly, "I'm not a muchacha; I'm a Christian Scientist." —Chas. Newton, Floyd County Republican.

Carrol Logan is also an ardent pipe smoker and borrower of tobacco, but Carrol says he can't enjoy smoking any more because if he smokes his own tobacco he can't enjoy the smoke on account of the cost, and if he smokes borrowed tobacco he cannot enjoy it because he fills his pipe so full that it won't draw. —Jan. Gillentine, Wellington Leader.

You folks who have been reading in the daily papers about the building and loan associations convention held this week probably feel as we do about these tender-hearted gentlemen when you read of their criticism of the Home Owners Loan Corporation administration. They are yapping their heads off because the government appraisers of homes are not seeing to it that every home on which a loan is applied for is not appraised at an amount equal to the amount the building and loan associations hold against the property, so that they can get every penny of what is coming to them—which includes an extortionate rate of interest and Lord knows how many penalties for doing this or not doing that. At the same time, they are making sure that investors in their associations don't get a chance to draw out the money they have invested in these associations; and as we see it, their principal concern is to make sure that their highly-paid officials don't have to get out and dig like the rest of us.—SX, Hale Center American.

Musings of the moment: Water leaks in New York City mains cause a loss of 200 million gallons daily. If we had all that water we wouldn't need a rain. . . . North Carolina has an unwritten law that governors must come alternately from different sections of the state. Texas has too many written laws and not enough unwritten ones of that type. . . . Roosevelt may have "ten principal enemies," but many a man has 20 enemies and he himself is all of them.—Olin Hinkle, Pampa News.

But as to Brisbane: I have read his expressed views since the first issue on a Sunday, July 4, 1900, of The Chicago American. Some times with approval, sometimes with disapproval and often with supreme disgust. One can quote from him in support of any subject under the sun from foolishness to wisdom and from vulgarity to virtue. I think in the main his writings have been highly beneficial, but I regret to say that I think of late years his work is on the decline. Whenever the public gets pretty well fed up on him as they do periodically, it is made to creep out surreptitiously (?) in the press that "Brisbane is the highest paid newspaper writer in the world." That "Brisbane receives $250,000 per year!!!" Then our money-perverted public taste rushes again to know what the hell he has to say. His thinking seems to have congealed into just three or four channels: i. e. his platitudinous endorsement of "mother"; his vote getting appeal to "women as the all virtuous element in public life"; his everlasting unceasing eulogy of every flatulent Jew; and his corresponding opposite disparagement of every worthy Negro.—Letter to Curry County Times, Clovis, New Mexico.

From convention headquarters office in San Angelo in charge of Convention Manager Maury Hopkins of the regional chamber, hundreds of letters have already gone out to chambers of commerce, WTCC directors, school superintendents, committee chairmen and others, aimed to fully acquaint the cities and towns on how they may participate in the convention first, to the advantage of the individual town, and second to the advantage of the region as a whole.

Every town has been asked to do six things: send an organized delegation to the convention; conduct a poster exhibit contest in the public schools, the winning poster to be sent to San Angelo for display and for entry in the All-West Texas Poster Exhibit Contest; report upon beautification activities; select a young lady to represent the town in Rainbow Roundup, the big revue and show at the convention; nominate directors to represent the towns on the official board next year subject to election at the convention, and to select a contestant for the My Home Town Speaking Contest.

West Texas Chamber of Commerce directors in every town, and the local chambers of commerce are the chief sources of contact. Summerfield Club Will Present Comedy Friday

Listen to Leon, a farce, will be presented by the Junior Study club of Summerfield Friday evening at 8:15 at the Summerfield auditorium. Admission of 10 and 15 cents will be charged. The production is directed by Miss Oleta Bowling, former W. T. S. T. C. dramatic student. Herb Sindt's orchestra will furnish music.

The irresponsible Leon is played by Miss Ruby Thompson. Giuseppe, his valet, is done by Leatrus Clark. Archie, Leon's worried friend, is portrayed by Eva Gresson. Oleta Bowling is the fine old Colonel Bryan, Leon's uncle. Anne Cushman, played by Ruth Edelman, and Carolyn Jamison, Colonel Bryan's ward, enacted by Mary Lee Curry, are a pair of personable young ladies. Nellie, the meek little hunchback of men, is done by Christeen Atchley. Maude Noland as Babe, Nellie's pal, rounds out the cast.

The story is built around Leon's penchant for living. "After all," he asks, "why tell the truth when a lie is so much more interesting?" He points out to his valet that if he lies himself into trouble, then he can lie out of it as easily. Giuseppe is willing to back him up in the lies if he can just remember which ones to back.

Complications arise when Leon falls in love with Carolyn but has her name confused with that of Anne.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

April is usually the month in which cities and towns put on clean-up and fix-up campaigns. They realize that it is to their self interest in a practical way for these activities increase the value of property and provide a better background for homes. In reality the idea is a part of the will to have a better home.

Since this is a community affair it suggests a thought as to just who is going to undertake the responsibility. You have heard people say they ought to clean up their yard and they would have an attractive place. In other words, there is one great big mythical character known as "They" who is supposed to initiate everything, good or bad. So says the Better Homes and Gardens magazine.

When people speak of "They" when driving by your homes whom do they mean? We are "They" and all of our own responsibility we should undertake to clean up the yard or help clean it up as our part of this mythical character. Let's do this and perhaps our parents will let us plant a garden of our own. You know there is a merit badge, Garden Flower Finder, which is awarded after certain requirements have been met. Why don't some of you Second Class Scouts get busy and get this badge at the court of awards next month? If you are interested in this see the lieutenant and we will make some work sheets and begin on this as a troop project.

At the troop meeting Wednesday two new Tenderfoots, Nellie Pauline Spradley and Mary Virginia Whitehead, were invested with Tenderfoot pins. We welcome these girls into the troop and wish them success.

Girls, think about what you would like to do on a hike and where you would like to go, because spring has sprung, and now is the time to get into old clothes and do some hiking and camping. We might be able to have a hike Saturday week if the standstomps will allow us to. Think it over.

The Whiteface Troop of Girl Scouts will conduct a bake sale in the Furr Food Store Saturday, April 28. Proceeds from this sale will be used to purchase troop equipment.

Miss Ella Broadwell will be invested at the next troop meeting as second lieutenant of the troop. Miss Broadwell has worked with girl scouts in Canyon.

We'll be seeing you at the bake sale Saturday, April 28, from 8 to 5 at the Furr Food Store.

The Eastern Star Chapter will have a called meeting on Tuesday night, April 24, at 8:30 o'clock for the purpose of conferring a degree on a candidate. All members are requested to be present and visitors are cordially invited to attend.

Hints On Snake Bites Given by State Doctor

Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer, urges every one to be careful when in the country to prevent snake bite. In Texas the chief offender is the rattlesnake; and, contrary to common belief, it does not always rattle before it strikes.

About 75 per cent of all bites occur on the lower extremities and could be prevented, to a large extent, by wearing high top boots or leggins. About 20 per cent occur on the hands and arms. Care should be exercised in not putting the hands in invisible places when climbing rocks, and to look before picking up anything that may be obscured by vegetation; brush or rocks.

If one is bitten, prompt action is necessary and a physician should be obtained as soon as possible. No time should be lost in removing the poison by suction; this can be done by mouth or a suction cup. First a tourniquet should be applied above the wound, so as to increase congestion and assist in washing out the poison. A cross cut incision with a sharp, clean knife or razor blade should be made over each fang mark, or preferably to connect the two fang punctures. These cuts should be at least a quarter of an inch deep and at least that long. Suction should be applied for at least a half hour. The tourniquet should be released every 10 or 15 minutes for a minute at a time.

If bitten by a snake do not run or get overheated; do not take alcoholic stimulants; do not use potash permanganate (which is now known to be of no value as an antidote) to cauterize the wound, and do not depend on home remedies.

Hark to the Mandoline, by Parker, was the contest number. As an elective selection the group sang Bells of St. Mary's, by Adams. Mrs. Ardelle George of Dawn directed, while Mrs. G. A. F. Parker played the piano accompaniment.

At the morning contests the group wore morning ensembles of white skirts and pastel organdie blouses. Pastel evening dresses with corsages of sweet peas given by the Pioneer and Bay Cleft clubs were worn at the evening program.

will still be plenty good to put the big pants on any of these other outfits, and we don't expect to throw off a single time in order to let these Lions win this year, like we did last year.

Golfers Lick Friona.

Sixteen golf bugs snaked off to Friona Sunday to battle the boys down there and brought the hide home to the tune of 9 to 7. This was just a little work out for the local boys before starting in the Wheat Belt League, which opens for Hereford next Sunday on the local grounds with Dimmitt. The League this year will consist of five clubs, Hereford, Dimmitt, Farwell, Friona and Muleshoe, and it looks like Friona will have to be watched. The boys have a Pro now and you certainly can see that he is doing good. Their ground is in A-1 shape and the boys are rearing to go and they are as fine a bunch as you will find any place.

The gang that made the trip Sunday were John Pitman, Jim Clark, J. M. Posey, Ab Posey, Bud Posey, C. C. Acker, Ted Young, Bob Renfro, Doug Fox, Allred, Herb Sindt, M. E. Garrett, A. M. Henry, A. Foster, L. H. Foster, Jeff Gilbreath, Urlin Streu, Bob Wilson and H. K. ox.

A rain cloud came up on the last round and some of the matches had to be called off—these old boys from Hereford hadn't seen anything like that in so long that they got so excited some of them were hitting with the wrong end of their sticks and had to quit. Course this was the older ones, as a lot of the young ones didn't even know what it was and they were the ones that finished. We didn't get any of the scores and who won, and we might have left someone out that was there, and you flatheads that slipped off from your wife and she didn't know where you were—well don't blame us if you get your head peeled.

4th Liberty Loan Bonds Are Called

Fourth Liberty Loan bonds are being called by the U. S. Treasury and will be redeemed at a premium. This is the second call, the first was for April 15. This second call for partial redemption is dated October 15, 1934. Interest on bonds sought ceases on the dates of calls.

The First National Bank is co-operating in the call and holders of the bonds may take them there for handling. Bonds in the October 15 call are the Fourth Liberty Loan 4 1/2% bonds bearing serial numbers ending in 8 or 2, such serial numbers in the case of permanent coupon bonds being prefixed by the letter H or B.

Bonds included in the April call are of the same issue and may be redeemed now at a premium. They are bonds bearing serial numbers, the final digit of which is 9, 0 or 1, and in the case of the permanent coupon bonds preceded by the letters J, K or A.

The First National Bank received the following telegram from the Secretary of the Treasury last week.

"Would greatly appreciate your cooperation in reaching individual holders of called Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds. Please use your good efforts not only in contacting your own customers but as a public service offer your facilities to your community. Great many holders of bonds in small denominations doubtless unaware advantage of exchange into new issue now selling at substantial premium."

HENRY MORGANTHAU, Jr.

Bonds included in the second call for redemption on October 15 are not to be presented for collection before September 15. Holders of bonds in the April 15 call may present them now, however. It is requested in a bulletin from the Treasury Department that bonds be presented to Federal Reserve Banks or branches rather than direct to the department.

School Heads Approve New Teacher Standard

New requirements of higher standards for teachers in the four-year high school systems as approved by superintendents throughout the state, according to a report released this week by Dr. Lewis B. Cooper, director of research of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Data shows that 91 out of every 100 superintendents approved the action of the committee on classified and accredited high schools in requiring high standards of teachers. Teachers who do not meet the new requirements now will have periods of three years in which to make a minimum of 18 semester-hours credit in some standard college. No teacher will have to be eliminated from any school system on account of this ruling, providing progress is made toward the objective.

These regulations are reported by many superintendents from all sections of the state to be the most advanced step the profession has ever taken, and will be beneficial to both the teachers and the children of Texas.

Water and House Repairs Most Needed On Farm, Survey Shows

Water, conveniently located and in plentiful quantity, is the most pressing need of farm homes in Texas according to the findings of the rural housing survey which included Deaf Smith county, recently conducted in the state by the Extension Service. Curiously enough the next greatest need may be roofs that will keep water out of the houses.

The reports from the 25 areas in each of which approximately 2500 homes were visited by enumerators with a schedule of points to be surveyed are nearly all in but have not yet been completely tabulated; however, the supervisor of the survey in each area with the schedules a brief summary of high points in that area and practically all of these summaries stress the need for more and better water supplies for rural families. Several counties reported that many of the homes visited were supplied only with open cistern tanks.

Improved out-door toilets are a great need, too, it was found, with new or repaired screens in the homes in great demand also. The need of paint was so great as to be almost universal and the proportion of homes not in need of some repair was so small as to be negligible. All supervisors reported practically the same thing in regard to the small amount of money that has been spent for repairs in the past three years. Several of them stressed the fact that if substantial repairs are not made soon many farm houses will have to be replaced instead of repaired.

All characters played the parts to perfection.

A party was given in the Sky-pala home Saturday night. Cake and lemonade were served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Burges and family spent Sunday in the J. D. Morgan home at Wyche.

NEWS OF HEREFORD HIGH SCHOOL

CALENDAR

The following calendar of extra-curricular activities pending in Hereford High school is not complete. No tentative activities or engagements are listed here.

Tuesday, April 24—Cal Coppock will talk.

Friday Evening, April 27—Senior Play in high school auditorium.

Friday Evening, May 4—Glee Club Operetta in high school auditorium.

Tuesday Morning, May 8—Rev. Griffin speaks.

Friday Morning, May 11—Oratorical contest.

TRAINING CAMP

Coach Tom McCollum has made known to a few of last year's squad that he probably will hold a training camp for next year's football squad about a week or ten days before the opening of school next fall. The camp would be staged some place near that has a swimming pool and plenty of small mountains for hikes. There would be about one hour of real football practice a day, one hour of skull practice, and the remainder of the day for swimming, hikes and anything else of this nature there is to do. The boys who attend the camp would furnish most of the food which would make the cost low. The chief food will be steak, which coach says will help make the boys tough and mean.

GOOD WORK

Wayne Evans, president of the Junior class this year and probably the most gifted student in music of HHS at present, will be honored by a trip to Des Moines, Iowa, to attend the National Music Contest to be held there May 30-31 and June 1. Wayne will go at the same time that Herbert Boardman goes to enter the contest, but he will not accompany Herbert in his solo.

During the music festival at Amarillo, Wayne played fourteen accompaniments and a solo of his own. He took second place in his own solo and accompanied many that took first place. In order to be able to accomplish this, Wayne had to practice every afternoon from two to six o'clock for about three months, to say nothing of the number of times he attended band and orchestra practice in the mornings. In appreciation of his willing and sacrificial work in preparation for the contest at Amarillo, Mr. Smith is taking Wayne to Des Moines in order that he may profit by attending the national contest. It is no more than right that the whole school should join the Junior class in being proud of Wayne and in wishing him a pleasant and profitable trip.

CURIOS FACTS

(Keeping Up With the School)

Someone has been teaching Sallie Gilbreath to do acrobatics. Does she know anyone who can do a handspring?

Kermit Wilson has quite a commanding air. In senior class meeting he said, "Will everyone be quiet over there, please, except the ones that are talking."

Texas Tech seems to be popular. Viviane D uses at least 30 cents for stamps a week and gets in return letters from addresses such as Rufus Ryan and Charles Lawrence.

Two of our young ladies, both seniors, have gone in for dancing in a big way. This is a secret so don't tell anyone. For information go to the post office.

About five people had red noses last week. Miss Westbrook was one culprit.

A certain red book has been taking its rounds in Hereford High. Ask Mr. Hudson why he has not been able to concentrate on physics. Mr. Wilson is also an authority.

SPRING IS HERE

Spring is here. How do we know? Well, in the first place, all the girls are running around with short hair, sleeveless dresses and without hose. The boys are beginning to comb their hair and to discard certain articles of clothing. The teachers are seen to smile once in a while and the green and red marks on the board just outside the office door are accumulating with convincing rapidity.

And another thing that assures us that spring is actually here is the amount of fly-catching going on in the study halls and classes. It is almost uncanny the way some of the darling students of Hereford High school jerk their heads in an attempt to catch flies right in the middle of class. And they do it with their eyes closed, too.

A substantial correspondence system has been apparent all year. Lately, however, the records show a decided increase in the number of notes per hour. Statistics also show that these notes have been exchanged in increasing numbers by persons not of the same sex. Anybody's guess as to what they contain is as good as that of anybody else.

May it also be said that certain persons report having seen glimpses of greenery through the fog of dust and sand. It is rumored that a few birds have tried to sing, but they become choked and quit. The fact that the wind is blowing, however, is only further proof that spring is here.

One other unmistakable sign that spring is here is the fact that the library is always jammed with people hunting references. The reference books in the library are never used unless term themes are due in a short time.

HAVE YOU NOTICED?

Did you ever stop in the study hall and look at a certain person's desk and just see whose name or initials you could find? It's interesting. Try it if you never have. It's certainly easy to tell just who so-and-so's current passion is by doing a little observing.

A certain person noticed on one desk, the initials B J and W. W. Now, we wonder just who that could be. On this same desk we found P G and M E I and E J and G. N. Goodness, that reminds us of last year.

Of course anyone could tell instantly what N C and T C stood for when they're found on the S H desks.

You Sophs have probably noticed the initials A D Mc and B T on some of the desks. If you have not, you are not very observant.

There's another Soph who is always seen with a Senior. Their initials are E H and L T. Can you guess who?

In the Junior section you might run across E H and A C of course, we all know who this is. Also you might find L W and R J. Here's a hint, R J stands for Ralph Jennings.

H P S and H B are sometimes seen. You might add E A N to this because Herbert seems to be quite popular with the females.

All you sub-Freshmen have noticed M J M and K W D on your desks. C F might be added to M J's list, too. We just about forgot the most lover-like couple in the school, K W and F H.

Have you ever heard this saying, "Fool's names and fool's faces are always seen in public places?"

BAND TRIP

The HHS band will leave June 6 on its annual trip. This year the band will go to a Boy Scout camp near Las Vegas, New Mexico, to spend about a week. As this is an annual affair, only the oldest members will be taken because of insufficient transportation facilities and because the younger members will have many years in which to go on the trips. The trip would be made a week sooner, but Mr. Smith, the director, and Herbert Boardman will go to Des Moines, Iowa, where Herbert will enter the National High School Band Contests the week following the close of school. EH

BIG ATTRACTION

Did you know that HHS Glee club was going to give an operetta May 4? They are, and what an operetta. It has two acts and the title is The Sunbonnet Girl. The characters are as follows:

Susan Clifton, the Sunbonnet Girl, which has been misinterpreted by the cruel Scroggs, Leona Tiefert; Mrs. Minerva Scroggs, Abijah Scroggs' better half, Jean Morgan; Abijah Scroggs, Minerva's henpecked husband, Marvin Thomas; Carolina Scroggs, daughter of the Scroggs; conceited and half-witted, Billy Valentine; Isora McSpavin, the admirable constable, Earl Trimble; Reuben McSpavin, the constable's conceited and half-witted son, Jim Kirby; Miranda, daughter of Hiram and Mrs. Meadows, Bettye Jones; Mrs. Meadows, president of the local music club, Beatrice Lawrence; Hiram Meadows, a farmer, Basil McKinley; Luella Lampton, a village maiden, Elizabeth Higgins; Mrs. Coleman, a

HAVE YOU HEARD?

Richard Baker wants it generally understood that he is on the market for dates. He offers a date for Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, and a good time to be had by all. Come on, girls, you had better get your bid in quick, as you don't know this Baker.

Spike Harris has certainly changed his way of doing things around this school lately. We wonder!

They tell me that Ireland has interests in the business district again. You might include Leona Tiefert and Effyie Whitsett in the group, too.

Everybody is wondering why Sallie Gilbreath and Wilbur Womble went to Canyon Saturday. Well, if you're still wondering you might see who went for the Music Festival.

We wonder if Francys Higgins' face was really as red as her dress when Kermit's name was mentioned at the banquet, or if it just looked like it. Also have you heard whether Kermit is still "Kermie-Vermie" or what. No one seems to know.

They say L. W., Effyie, Virginia, Bobby, Roger and Bunky really had a good time Sunday.

Did you know that Ruth Smith is a man-hater? Well, if you don't believe it, just ask her.

Lola Cox and George Smith are certainly seen together a lot. Palmer Norton also haunts the Cox house but it's Lola's sister this time.

John Williams and Earl Trimble are hoping for bigger and better Hi-Y conferences with more beautiful girls. By the way, have you seen Earl get frustrated.

We wonder who Velma Smith's latest flame is.

Doris Lady seems to have interests in the Senior section.

Catherine, do we hear right about your going with an ex-Junior from Clavis.

Hugh, who is your big interest in the Soph. class. Fess up. ES

CAGE LETTERMEN

Coach Tom McCollum announced that the boys who won a letter in basketball this season are L. B. Russell, Richard Baker, R. A. Daniel, J. D. Clayton, Walter Seed (captain), Wilbur Womble and J. W. Cochrill. These are the boys who fought their way to more victories than losses this season but who will not receive sweaters because the cagers were not supported by the fans of Hereford as they deserved to be. Phillips 66
World's Largest Producer of Natural HIGH TEST Gasoline

GRAVITY

66.5°

YOU naturally expect Phillips 66 to be higher test than other motor fuels, when you know that Phillips is the world's largest producer of natural high test gasoline.

Just look at the gravity (or high test) figures, at the right. They prove that your expectation is 100 per cent correct.

Then ask yourself why Phillips publishes these figures month after month, while others do not. Obviously the reason is that Phillips figures are higher, that Phillips welcomes any and all comparisons based on fact.

For tired engines, this greater gasoline is a real Spring tonic... scientifically matched to the weather by the Phillips pioneer principle of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY. Every gallon is high test, and every high test particle puts new snap and power back of each inch of piston travel. Liven up acceleration. Adds mileage, too!

Since you don't have to pay a penny extra for it, how can you possibly lose by trying a tankful PHILLIPS with PHILLIPS the very next time you see the Orange and Black 66 shield.
