CITY PROPOSES TO LEASE AIRPORT

BIG SPRING COUPLE HAS NARROW ESCAPE IN FLOOD

Dr And Mrs Amos R. Wood Tell Of Havoc

Dr. and Mrs. Amos R. Wood, who returned to Big Spring Thursday afternoon from Long Beach, Calif., had a narrow escape with their lives on account of the recent cloudburst in southern California. Last Sunday they were on their way to Long Beach from Berkeley and Yosemite, hurrying through rain to make a New Year's Eve party at the home of Dr. Wood's sister. A few miles below Bakerfield they stopped at a filling station and were warned that the new cut-off on the ridge route into Los Angeles was dangerous, that boulders were being washed down across the highway by the storm, but they did not realize what was ahead, so they went on. Not long afterward they were met by a state highway patrolman who informed them that the side of the mountain had caved in and covered the highway. By that much they missed spending the night out in the flood, if not losing their lives.

The money obtained from the sale of health seals is used to fight tuberculosis. The Howard County Tubercular Association did splendid work among the tubercular in Big Spring and Howard county the past year. They set up milk, other nourishing food, medical supplies, and helped in many ways in homes where there were underfed or sick children, where the father or mother were suffering from tuberculosis. This good work can go on this year, since a ready response was received from the seal sale.

At present, the association is taking care of 8 children, who either have tuberculosis, or the father or mother has this dreaded disease. They will investigate any tubercular case that is reported to them, and when the case is found worthy of their assistance, they will help them to cure or fight tuberculosis. This is the purpose of the organization.

Anyone who knows of a worthy case, where there is tuberculosis in the home, and that needs help, may report same to Mrs. J. C. Douglass. The investigating committee of the Howard County Tubercular Association will visit the home, and see what they will do for the patient, and little children there, who are subject to taking the disease. Often times, an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and if these children can be saved from taking tuberculosis, it gives them a better chance in life, when they reach manhood and womanhood.

If you have not already bought seals, do so. Mail your money in today. A final check up will be made before the end of this month, and a meeting will be held to see what plans can be made to carry on a beneficial program during 1934. Each red-blooded citizen will want to feel that he has a part in helping to wage this fight against tuberculosis. Your seal money does this noble work.

Night Police Chief Slain In Amarillo

Frank Crutchfield, White Deer, Held For Killing In Amarillo Hotel

AMARILLO (AP)—Preston Burnham, night chief of Amarillo police department, was shot to death early Friday when he, accompanied by a fellow officer, attempted to make an arrest at a local hotel.

Frank Crutchfield, of White Deer, was lodged in jail where several witnesses identified him as the slayer.

Burnham, and Patrolman George Hayden, went to the hotel in response to a call from a bellhop, who said a "drunk" was giving some trouble.

Burnham was shot five times when he attempted to question Crutchfield.

The officer had no time to draw his gun, it was said. Hotel attendants said Crutchfield had been terrorizing the hotel by brandishing his gun.

The sheriff said Crutchfield was at one time held under a bank robbery indictment.

Blacher Dies Of Injuries

MIDLAND — Death Thursday thwarted the dream of Irvin Blacher, 35, to return to the United States of Soviet Russia and direct a program of industrial agriculture.

The death of Blacher, brother of Eddie Blacher, Midland drug store proprietor, makes the total from Monday night's auto-truck collision two—and two other victims, Miss Esther Warron of New York City and Mrs. Sarah Caplan, Midland remain in serious condition even if their conditions warrant hope for recovery.

Interment services will be read in Fort Worth Friday. Survivors are the brother here; a sister, Mrs. Joe Weinstein, Tulsa, mother of Eddie Weinstein, who was instantly killed in the collision Monday; a sister, Mrs. Sara Caplan, who is being treated for injuries at a Midland hospital, and three other sisters who live in Russia.

Liquor Tax Passes House, Morgenthau To Seek Back Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The president and congress, working so far in a spirit of team play, concentrate today on developing a plan for permanent domestic adjustment, which has shoved aside international problems.

Indications came from the White House that President Roosevelt was giving renewed consideration to his bimetallic monetary program. Leaders of silver bloc in the senate were predicting optimistically Friday the new administration would move to aid the cause of silver.

At the capitol, democratic leaders in the house held hope that that chamber might pass on the senate before nightfall the administration's $470,000,000 liquor tax bill.

The treasury moved Friday for a quick start toward credit borrowings that during the next six months will total ten billion. Secretary Morgenthau also announced an intensive back tax drive will be started soon in an effort to collect part of $800,000,000 owed the government.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Friday approved a tax of 32 per gallon on distilled spirits, estimated to produce $5,000,000 revenue during the first fall post-reepeal year.

It had previously rejected a proposal for $4 per gallon.

The administration is firming plans to decrease liquor prices.

Tubercular Association Nets Approximately $325 In Year's Christmas Health Seal Sale

Suits Filed Against Bank Stockholders

The Howard County Tubercular Association is well pleased with the outcome of the Annual Christmas Seal Sale, conducted from Thanksgiving to Christmas day. Dr. Lee O. Rogers is chairman of the association, and Mrs. J. C. Douglass is treasurer, and these officers with a corps of enthusiastic helpers succeeded in getting approximately $325.00 in this year's drive. The mail sale was conducted by Mrs. H. B. Reagan, and the sale of seals in the schools was conducted by Supt. W. C. Blankenship and Mrs. C. L. Wasson. Money continues to be raised, and anyone who has not yet bought their seals, are requested to mail the money in to Mrs. Reagan, or to leave the money or seals at Cunningham and Phillips Drug Stores, or at the Douglass Hotel.

The money obtained from the sale of health seals is used to fight tuberculosis. The Howard County Tubercular Association did splendid work among the tubercular in Big Spring and Howard county the past year. They set up milk, other nourishing food, medical supplies, and helped in many ways in homes where there were underfed or sick children, where the father or mother were suffering from tuberculosis. ### Oklahoma Not To Receive Further Federal Grants

WASHINGTON (AP)—In face of a virtual shutdown of direct relief activities in Oklahoma due to lack of funds, Harry Hopkins, federal relief director, said Friday no further grant of federal funds in that state was contemplated.

Hopkins expressed gratification at reports from Texas that state Thursday negotiated sale of $1,148,000 worth of state relief bonds.

Stethoscope

Operating through the new National Emergency Council, the Roosevelt administration has high hopes of laying a stethoscope on the whole country to register every little pulsation of public opinion.

A preliminary experiment is now in process to ascertain whether the necessary organization can be set up and how it will record the mood of the people.

The big problem lies collaring men and women who are not themselves in politics, and who can be relied upon for unbiased reports—critical or otherwise.

A cross-section of states representative of the various regions is being used for laboratory tests.

Men have been button-holed in each of these states after careful investigation of their abilities as observers.

Each has been asked for a report on how the voting masses really view the various elements of the recovery program. Constructive criticism especially was urged.

If such an organization can be widened out to ring in all 48 states administration leaders anticipate inevitable results.

They will be able to gauge constantly how the people are reacting to each angle of the New Deal.

PROTECT THE REPUTATION OF YOUR SCHOOL
What is the use of earning a reputation for your school if you do not intend to protect and keep it? A reputation is not of any value unless we can keep it. A school should not be contented merely to stay behind all the time. Every school should try to make a reputation for itself. The students can help in doing this and they can help in losing it, also. If a group of athletes, representing some school, go on a trip to another school and show good behavior and sportsmanship, they are making a reputation for their school. But on the other hand, if they show poor qualities of sportsmanship and behavior, they are destroying their school's reputation. Most of the time the students are the cause of the losing of their school's reputation. The word "reputation" means a great deal to any school, hence every student should do his part towards protecting it.

Progress Of Recovery Program Told Congress By President Roosevelt

Vice President Garner And Speaker Rainey Preside Over Joint Session Of 73rd Meeting

PRESIDENT APPEARS PERSONALLY
Concedes National Recovery Act May Need Revision, But Hailed It As Being Permanent

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress convened in regular session Wednesday to hear from the lips of President Roosevelt about progress of his recovery program, and his ideas for the future.

Vice President Garner and Speaker Rainey sat together in presiding over the first joint session of congress to be addressed personally by a president since the Coolidge administration.

At the forefront both presidential and congressional attention was along varied legislative program, dealing principally with the budget, and its huge federal outlays for recovery.

The president called upon congress for a rigid continuation of the recovery campaign on the path of "reform of old methods." He reported to congress the progress in domestic recovery and proposed "stringent preventive or regulatory measures" for income tax evaders, negligent bank officials, and speculators.

International monetary stabilization could not be established at this time, the president said.

The president reserved specific legislative recommendations for later date.

He conceded the National Recovery Administration may need revision from time to time, but he hailed it as permanent.

In his message, Roosevelt spoke of federal credit as being "fortified" by economics. He termed the farm acreage reduction procedure as "succeeding."

He did not deal with the civil works plan specifically, but the president said his policy would be seeking to "move rapidly as possible from a direct relief to public supported work, from that to rapid restoration of private employment."

The president spoke somewhat pessimistically of world affairs.

He repeated the American offer to cooperate for reduction of armament and lowering of "trade barriers." He warned, however, that the United States would not take part in the "political arrangements in Europe."

He hinted at a new plan on war debts, saying he would report later regarding debts which have been defaulted by most nations.

His most determined words were reserved for unnamed tax dodgers and persons "guilty of unethical or criminal" financial practices.

Mr. Roosevelt called upon the government to suppress organized crime, mentioning "banditry, cold-blooded shooting, lynching and kidnaping."

He described the gold monetary program as designed at strengthening the financial structure.

Car Damaged In Striking Curbing

Front and back left wheels on the new sedan belonging to Forrest Marchbanks were demolished, and fenders and left side of body damaged when the car struck the curbing on south side of Fourth street, at Main Wednesday afternoon about 5 o'clock. Mr. Marchbanks, who was driving the car, in company with V. O. Brown of Vincent, said he swerved his car going south at the intersection to avoid hitting a car driven by a lady who was going west. In doing so the car struck the curb. Mr. Marchbanks was uninjured. Mr. Brown suffered a slight abrasion of the face.

Interscholastic League Fees Are Due January 15th

Interscholastic league fees must be paid on or before January 15. Mrs. Pauline C. Brigham reminded Thursday.

Unless schools in this county mail in their fees on or before the 15th of this month, they will not be eligible to enter county interscholastic contests, she said.

Several schools have not yet paid their fees, she disclosed.

Blacher, Injured In Midland Crash, Still Unconscious

MIDLAND—Miss Esther Warren and Mrs. Sara Caplan, seriously injured in a collision between a truck and automobile near here Monday night, were given a fair chance to recover by physicians Wednesday. Irvin Blacher, also seriously injured in the same wreck, remained unconscious, and little hope was held for his recovery.

Drivers of the truck, Clyde Walker and H. M. Holley, of El Paso, were continuing to improve, and will be able to be up and about in a few days, it was reported.

Funeral arrangements for Ed-die Weinstein, killed in the accident, were not known here this afternoon. Relatives from Tulsa, Okla., arrived early Wednesday.

Mrs. J. B. Schermerhorn of Minnesota, is visiting her son, Robert Schermerhorn, for several days. She was accompanied here by her friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Robinson of Minneapolis, who made the trip by automobile.

Marriages Jump From Motors to Marriages

From motors to marriages may or may not be a logical jump but at any rate marriages were on the increase during the year. In 1933 there were 163 couples who obtained licenses as compared to 116 for 1932. Of particular interest is the fact that 96 couples obtained licenses in the last four months after the two day intention declaration restriction was removed. Already in 1934 more licenses have been issued than in all of January of 1933. Better models and smoother

Bright Lights Blind Drivers; Five Injured

Party Returning From Big Spring Meets Truck In Head-On Collision

THREE MAY DIE

(Special To Herald)

MIDLAND—One was killed three may die, one believed to be seriously injured and a sixth severely cut and bruised in a head-on collision between a truck, traveling east and an automobile, going west, Monday night about 8:30 p. m. eleven miles east of here.

Eddie Weinstein, Tulsa and Fort Worth attorney, was instantly killed, Miss Esther Warren, 28, New York City, who has been visiting friends here during the holidays, may not live; Irvin Blacher, 35, is in a serious condition; and Mrs. Sara Caplan, 23, wife of the late Hymie Caplan, Midland dry goods merchant, gravely injured, although of the three surviving the wreck, she is probably the least injured.

Two truck drivers from El Paso, Clyde Walker and H. M. Holley, were treated at a Midland hospital after the accident. It is feared Walker may have internal injuries. They were taken to a local hotel after receiving medical treatment of their injuries.

Weinstein was crushed by the light sedan in which he and Miss Warren, Irvin Blacher and Mrs. Sara Caplan were returning from Big Spring, where they had gone for Mrs. Caplan, who had been visiting friends there. He was instantly killed.

The collision was said to have been caused by blinding lights from both the car and truck, making it difficult for either of the drivers to see clearly. Fenders locked and the force of the collision almost totally demolished the sedan, while the truck was also badly damaged.

Passing motorists picked up the injured, and took them to a Midland hospital for treatment.

Two Dallas physicians, Dr. Ozra Wood and Dr. Fred Terry Rogers, skull specialist and plastic surgeon, respectively, were notified of the accident, and flew here by private plane chartered in Dallas. They encountered bad weather west of Fort Worth, and were delayed in arriving until about 2:30 Tuesday afternoon.

Amounts Up To $2500 For Each Customer Are Insured Under New Act

All three Big Spring banks, the First National, State National and West Texas National, have qualified under regulations governing the temporary deposit insurance fund, which went into effect January 1. Money on deposit in the three local institutions will be insured up to a total of $2500 for each customer under the insurance fund, which was set up under the banking act of 1933, passed by the United States congress at the special session called by President Roosevelt last spring.

This new deposit insurance regulation necessitates no change in the method of handling deposits and no application on the part of any depositor, it was stated.

All deposits in the local banks in amounts up to $2500 are insured until July 1, 1934, when, according to the provisions of the Banking Act of 1933, permanent insurance in larger amounts is provided for certain qualifying banks.

Walter J. Cummings, Washington, D. C. chairman of the Deposit Insurance Corporation, has estimated that the temporary guarantee fund, effective January 1 will completely guarantee 97 per cent of the bank accounts of the nation.

He termed the insurance-of deposits up to $2500, which started January 1 "the most constructive plan ever devised for the protection of bank deposits."

Farmers in these regions are being encouraged to cultivate to the limit by exempting them from delivering grain quotas to the government for ten years. Compulsory delivery of meat, milk, butter and potatoes is reduced one-half in the East and Maritime Provinces. There will be a 20 per cent increase in prices paid collective fishermen.

This means that Russia intends to build up a large and well-nourished Soviet population at her Far Eastern frontiers.

That in turn means she is getting ready for war with Japan.

DR. AND MRS. (Continued From Page 1)

by train into Los Angeles via the Seaside route will reveal the Newhall tunnel and the steep grades on that highway. The tunnel was six feet under water and most of the water was mud. The water-mark itself revealed the terrible strength of the flood.

Along with thousands of other motorists they spent much of New Year's day on a long wait for the clearing of the tunnel.

Many of the cars contained people who were driving to see the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena and the football game in the Rose Bowl.

Speaking of the game, Dr. Wood said he heard that the Bowl was so filled with water that the fire department had to pump it out before the game could be held. The usual Tournament of Roses parade was held in Pasadena that day in spite of rain, but report had it that about 75 per cent of the women and children supposed to be on the floats were kept at home by the bad weather.

After leaving the tunnel Dr. Wood reported that signs of the flood became evident at every turn, for they were then entering the real flood area. At one spot where on their way up they had passed a filling station and several small stores, they saw only the cement posts that had supported the station. All the houses had been washed away and wrecks of cars were strewn in every direction.

In Burbank and Glendale the real force of the flood became evident. They saw one of the big Southern Pacific electric suburban trains lying on its side in a "flood control" ditch that had not been able to control its waters. In both towns the water had run off, leaving the stores filled with mud and debris and some with roofs collapsed.

Los Angeles and Long Beach did not suffer any from the flood. A few bridges were washed out but most of them had been condemned. The force of the water went down the Anaheim way to San Pedro. It took Dr. and Mrs. Wood all day to travel the 79 miles from Sausalito to Long Beach which they returned in the evening.

In contrast with the memory of this, Dr. Wood said he would carry with him the picture of Hollywood Boulevard lighted for Christmas as they saw it one evening after attending the Egyptian theater. On the light standards down the entire length of the boulevard were Christmas trees strung with hundreds of colored lights. Colored lights were fastened across the street. Every person in whose yard grew a suitable tree had decorated the tree with lights. There were pictures of Mother Hubbard rhymes and the three little pigs as Walt Disney had cartooned them fastened to the light standards of the boulevard, each picture with a small spotlight. It was a veritable fairland, probably the brightest, most attractive street in the world, during Christmas, he said.

Dr. and Mrs. Wood visited his two sisters in Long Beach. I. F. Whittney and Mrs. Bertha McAdams, the latter being the one who visited here during the past year. He and his wife also went to Berkeley to see his mother, Mrs. Harry A. Woods, and his sister, Mrs. Marion Zuckerman. On their return to Texas they drove by San Diego and over the border, leaving San Diego Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 and arriving in Big Spring Thursday afternoon at the same hour.

They met two other cars of motorists from Texas, a couple from Midland, who had not been in the five years, would not have the responsibility of operation since through subleasing to other concerns, the operation of properties would revert to the leasee.

It was stated the committee was not in position to state the individual attitude of each bondholder toward effecting a lease of the airport property, each would have to be consulted regarding the action taken at the meeting, and their sanction obtained. The purpose tonight was to get the city to lease the property on some kind of proposition to enable expediting of the application for the federal grant.

Proposal Offered
In reporting later to the committee, the commission, through its chairman, made this statement: "The commission, upon recommendation of Commissioner Nail and seconded by Commissioner Jones unanimously decided to make the following proposal for leasing of the airport: "For a consideration of $1 per year for five years plus net revenues."

Committee Accepts
The chamber of commerce committee then retired to consider the city's offer and reported within fifteen minutes the following: "On motion of Clyde Thomas and seconded by Joe Kuykendall, 'The aviation committee of the chamber of commerce accepts the proposition of the City of Big Spring for a five-year lease of the Big Spring Airport for $1 per acre, plus net revenues per year, provided the city agrees to sign the application for federal grant and subject to sanction of the Big Spring Airport bondholders.'"

The motion was carried, with the following vote: Aye, Clyde Thomas, Carl Blomsheld, Joe Kuykendall, Nave, T. S. Currie, R. Reagan.

City To Make Application
The city manager was instructed to go ahead and make out application to the government for the grant and to have same ready in the hands of the federal engineer by Saturday morning, January 6.

Legal Phases Discussed
Legal phases of a lease between the city and the airport corporation were discussed at length. It was advanced that in order for a lease to be promulgated eliminating any chance of a foreclosure by the bondholders on the airport corporation that the bondholders would have to sign a waiver for five years to prevent this possibility. The airport bonds are three year documents and matured, July 1, 1933. There was $1800 interest due on this maturity date.

The airport at present is under lease to the American Airways, expiring on July 1, 1934. The lease on this date will have run two years for a consideration of $900 per year.

Improvements Listed
The application provides the following improvements to be made:
Construction of two hard-surfaced runways, 100x3000 feet.
Fencing of the entire aviation field.
Leveling and filling the field.

House Of David Basketball Five Play Steers Saturday Night

The House of David sends its flashy basketball team to Big Spring Saturday night to meet the Steers at the high school gymnasium. The game will start at 7:45 p. m., and admission has been set at the nominal prices for such a game of 25 and 50 cents.

Few teams in the country offer fans as varied an interesting combination as the bearded basketballers from the House of David. Their eccentricities are always accompanied by real ability, to offer a combination of entertainment that is well worth seeing.

Spectators at the game may expect to see clever ball handling, trick shooting and passing, as well as all-round good play.

Coach Brown has a staunch cake combination and will offer plenty of opposition to keep the game close and interesting, he believes.

Fans every attend the game without fear of disappointment and the stands should be well filled when the whistle sounds at 7:45.

COUNTY'S RELIEF BOARD GROWS FROM SMALL START TO IMPORTANT CIVIC ASSET

From a small beginning in the Wander Inn, the Howard County Board of Relief and Employment has grown from a staff composed of two men, H. Homer McNew and J. T. Johnson to an administrative staff of nine with 25 more workers on a thirty-hour-week basis. The location was changed from the Wander Inn to its present site, the old Fisher building.

People who do think charity work in small towns can be carried on sufficiently by the goodwill of women's societies should pay a visit to the headquarters of the Howard County Board of Relief and Employment and see what a lot of systematized planning is required to help get people back on their feet, in such a way as to stay there.

To show the work being accomplished, Director McNew said that last week 573 people were put to work, mainly through the CWA with a payroll of approximately $5000 and that 150 more would be added to that number this week. About 20 work projects are being operated, including work on the highways.

In addition to this, the headquarters are the distributors for 14 West Texas counties for surplus governmental commodities, such as corn, wheat, pork, beans, butter, etc. Last week, for instance, they unloaded two carloads of wheat and one of corn.

The Federal Transient Bureau is also operated here, which includes feeding and housing of state and federal transients not eligible for state or CWA relief.

This FTB is planned to take care of all needy cases, and housewives are urged to discontinue giving to transients.

In addition to Mr. McNew and Mr. Johnson, those on the regular staff are Miss Gladys Smith in charge of the accounting; Miss Florence Henderson, stenography and secretary; Tom Rossos, relief officer; Bobby Malone, case worker; Mrs. J. E. Deibridge, dietitian; Mrs. Ruby Scott, social service welfare; C. T. Tucker, assistant manager National Re-employment Bureau.

The other 25 are employed in the filing department, bookkeeping, accounting, home visiting. Thorough investigation of all cases is made, and the family history is kept, showing the eligibility to relief and what form of relief. These files are open for inspection and auditing by the state.

So far, the board has operated on the money allotted the county by the federal government with not one nickel from the state. State money is being held up until bonds are sold and the funds made ready for distribution. The board operates not under governmental authority, as some seem to think, but under the Texas Relief Commission and Texas Civil Works Commission.

Lunches for needy school children aggregating 274 children are also being held up, pending the arrival of state aid. Mrs. Deibridge, dietitian, said that all cards were made, menus prepared and everything was ready to start as soon as the money came in.

Epiphany To Be Observed At St. Mary's Candle Lighting Service At Episcopal Church Saturday Evening

Saint Mary's Church will observe the Epiphany Saturday night, January 6th with a candle-lighting service.

This service will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. There will be at first only two lighted candles on the altar; all the rest of the church will be in darkness. As the spread of the Light of the World increases the candles of the Holy Church, the Ministry, the Apostles and finally of the nations and individuals are lighted. The end of the service is marked by each one present going from the church with a lighted candle to spread the Light of the Gospel to all men everywhere.

Visitors and members are welcome at all services in Saint Mary's Church.

American Airways Plane Moves 10 Feet 8 Inches At Each Turn Of Propeller

FORT WORTH—How far does a speeding airplane travel at each turn of the propeller? On a recent flight here from El Paso, Paul Vance piloted an American Airways express plane between the two cities in two hours and 20 minutes, for an average of 286 miles an hour.

Statistics immediately got busy and found that Vance's plane, on this flight, moved forward approximately 10 feet 8 inches on every revolution of the propeller. Cruising at an engine speed of 1000 r. p. m., Vance covered approximately 20,000 feet, or 25 miles, per minute, it was estimated.

Pity The Man Who Cannot Play Gets Prison Term

By JOHN CARLYLE

The other day a man I have known for forty years died. I think he wanted to die. His old age was a burden to him. Accustomed since he was 15 years old to going at a definite time to a definite amount of work, he at last was forced to retire because of a slight eye trouble. His retirement was a horror to him; he had never learned how to play. He seemed absolutely unable to mingle with other men in their hours of recreation.

He regarded golf, tennis, fishing, swimming, living outdoors as pastime too foolish and frivolous for anyone to indulge in. He could not amuse himself by talking to other men out of working hours. Always since he grew up he had been a boss, accustomed to tell others what to do, and to find fault with them if they did not do it in the way he believed it should be done. He was just and fair with the people who worked under him, but he was horrified if one of them was half an hour late to the job, or if somebody else suddenly thinking of a funny story, would drop his work and run over to tell it to a man at a neighboring desk before he forgot it.

Now and then this unhappy man would be told by his doctor that he ought to take some recreation in order to avoid a breakdown. Twice he went away, once to the seashore, once to the mountains. At both places he spent most of his time sending telegrams or letters to his office force, giving them directions about what they were doing or criticizing work they had done in his absence. His wife said his family did all they could to persuade him to take a few months off and go to Europe. He could well afford it, but he could not bear to think of what would happen in the office if he left it for even a day. All the men under him admired his ability, and admitted his fairness with them. Not one of them really liked him or understood him. Here was a man who, one would think, would have been dear to the heart of the author of Pope's "Rasselas."

But Benjamin Franklin had abundance of fun in his character, and industrious as he was when he was on the job, he knew how to relax and amuse himself.

Work is necessary to man's happiness.

So is play.

If you do not love both of them, be careful.

When your working days are over, if you are unable to turn to play, your declining years will be sorrowed and you will lose a great deal of happiness that should be yours by right.

To Centralize Rural School Library Units

Mrs. J. E. Brigham, County Superintendent, Engaged In Task

Task of centralizing the libraries of Howard county rural schools into one library is being undertaken by the county superintendent, Mrs. J. E. Brigham.

Each school is contributing its stock of books to the central library and the state department of education has promised appropriations to make possible purchase of additional books.

Instead of possessing meager library facilities, each school will have access to a larger, more complete library under the new arrangement, said Mrs. Brigham.

The library will be located in the office of the county superintendent in the courthouse.

Principals of the schools may check out whatever books are needed in their schools for a period of three or four weeks.

The state department of education has announced that it will extend appropriations of $5 per room for state aid schools, or a total of $170. It also announced it would match appropriations of $10 per room in three schools not receiving state aid, namely Morris, Hartwell, and Chalk. Forsan and Coahoma, accredited schools, must maintain their own individual libraries.

Mrs. Brigham urged that principals of various schools turn in their stock of books for classification in order that the library may be ready by January 15.

Jess Slaughter To Make Race For Sheriff's Office

Jess Slaughter, who has rounded out more than thirty-five years in the county, authorized The Herald to announce his candidacy for reelection as sheriff of the county Monday morning.

In committing his name as a candidate for the post which he now fills, Slaughter issued the following statement:

"My record as your sheriff is and always has been an open book and it is with this firm conviction that that record justifies your confidence that I once more announce my candidacy.

"Experience in the office qualifies me better, I believe, than any other one thing to serve you efficiently.

"Since I first assumed the duties of the office I have honestly striven to impartially but firmly fulfill the trust with which I was honored.

"My office has at all times been open to every resident and it has been the policy of myself and deputies to show all the courtesy and cooperation due them.

"In choosing my deputies I have tried to get the best, both of whom are honest, upright and efficient and have resided in the county more than twenty years.

"I would be ungrateful if I did not express my sincere appreciation of the confidence heretofore reposed in me.

"And in doing so I pledge my very best efforts toward serving you as holder of this important office in the greatest degree of which I am capable."

Administration Leaders To Try For Short Session As Congress Returns To Heavy Legislative Program

Senator Harrison (left), chairman of the finance committee; Representative Doughton (right), chairman of the ways and means committee and speaker Rainey (standing at rostrum, background), will be among the leaders in the coming session of congress.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Congress returns to its labors at noon on January 3 faced with prospects of a heavy legislative session, but with administration leaders determined to bring about adjournment as speedily as possible.

One-third of the senate and the entire house will be up for reelection later in the year. That fact is counted upon by both the President and his leaders on capitol hill to hasten the day of their departure from Washington.

As quickly as possible, after Vice President Garner's gavel falls in the Senate and Speaker Rainey's in the house at high noon on Wednesday, machinery will be set in motion for levying a liquor tax.

Veterans in Fight

Leadership in this move rests on the shoulders of two congressional veterans. Senator Harrison of Missouri, chairman of the finance committee, will direct the fight in the senate. Representative Doughton of North Carolina, chairman of ways and means, will be the guiding force in the house.

Budgetary matters will occupy the attention of both houses almost from the start. The various elements of this fight can't be defined clearly in advance. The President's budget message must be awaited.

As chairman of the two committees, however, which handle such legislation, Harrison and Doughton naturally will take the lead.

One the republican side of the aisle will be found David Reed of Pennsylvania, ranking republican on the finance committee. Couzens of Michigan probably will figure prominently in these debates, as will "Young Bob" La Follette.

In the house supporting Chairman Doughton, perhaps Hill of Washington and McCormick of Massachusetts will figure as prominently as any. Treadway of Massachusetts and Bacharach of New Jersey will bear the brunt for the republicans.

Monetary Policy Debates

In connection with the whole question of the budget there is certain to be canvassed thoroughly the fields of "sound money," inflation and the administration's gold policy, which at the end of the year are subjects of public debate.

In the senate Thomas of Oklahoma is likely to continue the crusade for inflation he has pushed so vigorously. Advocates of remonetization of silver already claim a victory in the President's new silver purchase and coinage policy, announced late in December.

In the house, with the blessing and support of Speaker Rainey, a large bloc of western representatives are prepared for a struggle.

Diametrically opposed to both of these groups stands the senate's "giant of finance," Carter Glass of Virginia. Stubborn opposition may also be expected from the conservative republican group in both senate and house.

Sandwiched between monetary debates probably will come attacks from various quarters on the administration's recovery program.

200 More Cotton Options Mailed From This County

Twenty Dollars Per Bale And Share In Profits Of Government Pool Due Participants In Plow Up Campaign Of Past Season

Two hundred additional cotton options went to Washington from Howard county Saturday night, 95 per cent of them with the stipulation that they be included in the government pool.

Of 424 options returned to County Agent O. E. Griffin, only 23 have remained outside the pool.

Sixty-one of an original 566 options on government cotton due farmers of this county for participation in the plow-up campaign of last summer have not been delivered.

Entrance into the government pool nets the farmer $20 per bale on his option a share in whatever profits may occur thereafter.

However, it also means that the farmer will participate in the 1934-35 acreage reduction campaign to be launched January 5.

Should a farmer enter the pool and then refuse to contract with the government on the acreage reduction plan, he would be returned his original option and allowed to sell his cotton for market price.

Griffin, who has been holding explanatory meetings over the county, estimated about 95 per cent of the farmers had been in attendance where he had appeared. The percentage coincides with that of farmers holding options and favoring pooling.

The explanatory meetings are being delayed until after a conference of county agents and committees on Monday Thursday relative to the program.

After that meeting, Griffin said he would resume the community gatherings and outline the plan to farmers.

The sign-up campaign will begin January 8 and indications are that Howard county farmers will be practically unanimous in contracting.

Extension Course To Be Offered

Texas Tech Professor To Be In Charge; Begins January 12

Enrollment in an extension course to be offered here by Texas Tech college beginning January 12 with Professor A. B. Cunningham in charge is under the necessary twenty-one.

Hope was expressed Thursday that a sufficient number would enter before the first class period to make possible the class.

The course to be offered deals with the American novel and six of a list of novels must be read during the course. Mrs. Pauline C. Brigham, county superintendent, is in charge of enrollment, said.

Credit for the course will be acceptable toward a degree and will also count as summer's work, now required of every teacher, who does not hold a degree or of every teacher in state aid schools, with less than two years college credit.

Another course being suggested by interested parties is one in the history of education. Should as many as twenty-one indicate their enrollment in such a class, it would be formed, Mrs. Brigham said. The course is required for a teaching certificate, she said. She suggested that interested persons inquire of her for additional information.

Six of the following novels may be read in the novel course: Madame Bovary; Flaubert; French in Chancery; Galsworthy; John de la Roche; Hans Frost; Walpole; Balaard; Hergesheimer; Hudson River Bracketed; Wharton; Vagabonds; Hamann; The Green Mirror; Waelpol; The Little French Girl; Sedgwick; Hangman's House; Byrne; A Good Woman; Bromfield; Notre-Dame de Paris; Hugo; Green Mansions; Hudson; Ann Veronica; Wells, Diana of the Crossways; Meredith; Una Vic; Maupassant; The Scarlet Letter; Hawthorne; The Red and the Black; Stendhal; Jud the Obscure; Hardy; Up Stream; Lewishon; Lord Jim; Conrad; and Tono Bungay; Wells.

Girl Companion Of Underhill Dies Of Wounds

SHAWNEE, Okla. (AP)—Eva Mae Nichols, Seminole beauty parlor operator, died of a bullet wound in the stomach suffered in the gunfight which led to the capture of her friend, Wilbur Underhill, notorious southwestern desperado.

Underhill, wounded five times in the exchange with federal, county and city officers who surrounded his bungalow hideout here before dawn yesterday, clung to life.

Physicians, however, said they expected him to die momentarily.

"I counted each bullet as it struck me," he said.

The fugitive killer and bank robber told his 37-year-old bride, Hazel Hudson Underhill, "I don't think I can live." She was held in the Shawnee jail for questioning. Also held was Raymond Roe, wounded in the right shoulder by the officers' fusillade.

Mrs. Nichols and Roe went in a darkened room of the bungalow when the shooting began after Underhill fired at the officers when they demanded his surrender.

Underhill has been convicted of two murders and identified definitely with several bank robberies. He has escaped from the McAlester Okla., prison and the Kansas state penitentiary, the last break being with 10 other convicts Memorial day.

Grocery Code Is Approved

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Roosevelt approved a code to govern the vast retail food and grocery trade, composed of 450,000 stores in every city and town, and then completed the NRA's organization of the country's entire retail trade.

It was the 182nd code of fair competition to be approved by the chief executive, and the first of those originally consigned to the farm administration and then returned to NRA when the agricultural unit disagreed.

With its signature by the president, NRA closed down until after New Year's leaving nearly 50 other codes at the White House ready for the chief's signature when he gives time to study them. Two hundred and fifty more were being prepared after hearings, and 750 additional hearings are scheduled for the first part of next month.

The grocery code will take effect January 6.

The code generally prohibited the one governing general retail trade and its twin ruling over stores. "Loss leaders" the articles offered below cost to bring in customers, were prohibited. To be excepted, perishable, damaged or specially cheapened goods may be sold at less than their delivered cost, plus an allowance for store labor.

Previously approved labor provisions were continued in the new code, including a maximum 48-hour week and 10-hour day, with one day off in seven; minimum wages ranging from $10 to $15 a week on the basis of population. Each store must stay open at least 24 hours a week unless it was operated on short time before last June.

Desert Murder Jury Is Called

EL PASO, (UP)—Judge W. D. Howe called a special Culberson county grand jury at Van Horn for Thursday to hear evidence in the slaying of Mrs. Irene Diebolt, attractive Cleveland, O. widow whose nude body was found on the desert Nov. 7.

Arthur C. Wilson, Cleveland chemist, is charged with the slaying in a complaint filed in Peace Justice James Neill's court, Van Horn.

The results of an investigation by Sheriff A. A. Anderson, Van Horn, and Sheriff Chris P. Fox, El Paso, will be presented to the special grand jury Thursday. District Attorney Roy Jackson said.

Grand jury action was sought by district officials to avoid delay in completing the case. The regular term Culberson county grand jury does not meet until April.

Mrs. Diebolt's body, stripped of clothing except for silk hose and a piece of chemise, was discovered by John Craven, ranch boss.

The complaint against Wilson was filed after an electric iron bearing traces of blood, an overcoat, storage receipt and torn papers were found in a Pecos tourist camp.

Mrs. Diebolt's blood-stained and partially burned clothing was discovered under a cement bridge near Barlow.

Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson has offered a $200 reward for Wilson's arrest. He was last reported in New York City.

DEDICATION OF HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM AT GARDEN CITY CELEBRATED MONDAY NIGHT

State Education Department Official Praises Progressiveness Of Community In Principal Address

By SAM ASHBURN (San Angelo Standard Correspondent) GARDEN CITY—Residents of Glasscock county celebrated the New Year Monday night by the dedication of their new 72x100 school gymnasium, built for cash out of surplus funds of the county unit school system.

The induction of the gymnasium as a part of the community life in this 40-year-old town, was occasioned by the appearance of A. B. Bullock of the state department of education in an address lauding the community, its progressive school board and its faculty of nine teachers.

Women of the county spread a basket lunch in front of the gymnasium at 5 o'clock before the ceremonies begun with Mrs. T. R. Long, who has lived here since the town was founded one of the women bringing a basket.

Two Bands On Program Appearing on the program were two bands, one from Foran and the local band of 25 pieces. The Foran band opened the program with a concert, following by invocation by J. H. Milken, principal of the elementary school; the Garden City band gave a march and an overture, an orchestra played under the direction of Mavis Montgomery.

Naturally such an event must be accompanied by a horse race. They had it a quarter mile spurt on the flat near the church. The winner was J. A. Conquard's horse came in to win, while Steve Calvery, Jr., was second and Judge Harrell third.

Mr. Currie has two sons in the business here now, Steve and Bill, whose handsome steam heated homes sit by the side of the Sterling City-Garden City road in the Lacy Draw country. No handsome ranch homes are to be found anywhere for this county can boast of living well and in fine homes. They have them everywhere on the ranches.

Mr. Currie says there once were many sheep men in this section, but the Cleveland administration put them out, but they are coming back now. Jim Currie had two wagons which he used in trailing sheep in the open range days clear across the Pecos.

County Tax Assessor Presents A. K. Wyong, tax assessor, here Friday night. He recalled that the Christie place near town once made a bale of cotton to the acre and sold

Big Spring got the business. The Houston ranch has seen the passage of thousands of livestock on the way to shipping points, and Claude Houston tells the boys to come right through, that he is glad for them to pass through him. A cowman said here today that once there were as many as 19 people camped on the place one night.

There is no doctor in this town, hasn't been one for ten or twelve years. Neither are there vacant stores, when the boom came in 1923 Garden City thumbed its nose at overbuilding. To be sure big things were happening in the county, oil was found, and today long streaks of smoke indicate the presence of the fields.

An evidence of the connection of the different parts of the United States today was the appearance of Joe Gibson of McCarney on the streets here. Gibson had hauled from Phoenix, Arizona, his trucks, bringing in two loads a week. Soon he will haul from Los Angeles, California and peddle the fruit in this section.
