Sights and Faces Seen

With the huge flocks of wild geese and cranes which are going north, Mrs. R. C. Valentine of the Wyche Community believes that Spring is definitely here.

Employees at The Brand office thoroughly agree, despite the erratic weather, for E. C. Eubanks Tuesday brought in a bouquet of Tulips, grown in his flower garden. The flowers are unusually attractive and are still providing an atmosphere of cheer in the office.

Meade Hall is also touched in the hold by Spring, or something. Last Thursday, just at press time he came marching in with six big jumbo frozen malts, which he divided among the force—without charge.

The main auditorium of the Presbyterian Church is literally glowing from a recent beauty treatment. The walls received a new facial and the liberal use of light tan paint has contributed to the new atmosphere. Pews have been repaired and a general uplifting of all church furniture harmonizes it with the rest of the room. Women of the church are responsible for the new effect, but the men are busy "thumbing their vests" over the improvements.

Members of the Hereford Lions Club Wednesday voted to assist in a community-wide drive to (Continued on Page 10)

HIKERS HELD IN THEFT OF ADRIAN AUTO LAST WEEK

Frank Dunn of the Adrian community will frankly admit that he's no detective—but is happy in the fact that he has his car back.

Last week Mr. Dunn was plowing in his field six miles west of Adrian on Highway 86, and left his car in the field near the road. He looked up, and to his amazement saw a man and woman get into the car and drive away. The one thing that he noticed was the fact that the woman wore white shoes.

VETERAN PRESBYTERIAN PREACHER HONORED BY ENTIRE COMMUNITY

Funeral services for Joab A. Hornbeak, 84, pioneer Presbyterian preacher of Texas, and resident of this community for the past 11 years, were held from the First Christian Church Thursday afternoon, March 30, at 2:30 o'clock. By special request of Rev. Hornbeak, the service was conducted by Rev. Fred S. Rogers of Plainview, a friend of long standing. Rev. R. E. Joiner of Jacksonville, a lifelong friend, was also here.

He was born April 24, 1854, in Bosque County, Texas, and in 1880 married Molly Smith Irbine in Terrell. At the time of his death he was 84 years, 11 months and 4 days of age.

From the standpoint of service in the Presbyterian Church, he held a record of 62 years—probably the longest service record of any preacher of that faith in Texas. Fifteen years of this time he spent as superintendent of Home Missions for the Presbyterian Church in Texas, an office which is now entitled National Missions.

TURKEY GOBBLER CHOKES SELF TO DEATH IN FIGHT

Through a case of mistaken identity, Mr. Edwards who lives on the Lettie Ellis place five miles north, on 25-Mile Avenue, lost a fine turkey gobbler. It happened like this:

Mr. Edwards' gobbler got into a fight with that of a neighbor. Each of the gobblers were on different sides of the fence and the Edwards gobbler in the course of the fight, swung his red "snout" through the wire. Seeing the big, fine snout on the other side, he immediately swallowed it—and did such a good job that he choked himself to death.

Moral: Don't go sticking your snout across the fence. In this case it cost Mr. Edwards the price of a new turkey gobbler.

RAY DICKSON, CAESAR HOHN AND DESKINS WELLS ARE HEARD

The meeting was held in the basement of the First Baptist Church and opened at 7:30 o'clock with music by the band. Elmer Dameron, master of ceremonies, presided over the gathering in a highly capable manner. Rev. James Alken, Jr., delivered the invocation, following which Judge A. J. Ray Dickson, superintendent of the Experiment Station at Spur, Texas, gave an address on water conservation and introduced Caesar (Dutch) Hohn, Soil Conservationist of the Extension Service, who made a brief talk on the importance of livestock. A report of achievements and projects sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce was given by D. H. Alexander, secretary, following which Deskins Wells, president of the Texas Press Association, spoke on farm problems current in West Texas.

Need Our Moisture
Pointing to the thousands of lakes and ponds which may be found over the Great Plains, Ray Dickson said that farmers of this area "need that moisture." By the use of pictures and maps he showed that the rainfall in this section is lighter than other areas, but that this territory also has fewer rivers and fewer means of drainage. He stated that if farmers will use terraces and contour farming, and will con- (Continued on Page 10)

Rev. Barnes extended an invitation for the public to attend the services and to join in the revival meeting.

Asa Atchley Is Buried Monday At Summerfield

COMMUNITY IS SHOCKED AT SUDDEN DEATH SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for Asa Ambrose Atchley, 24, were held from the Summerfield Baptist church Monday afternoon, March 24, with Rev. H. B. Naylor, pastor, in charge; he was assisted by Rev. Muriel Weathers of Groom, a former pastor, and Rev. Joe Wilson of Friona.

He was born Sept. 10, 1914, at Olney, Texas, and at an early age moved with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Atchley, to the Summerfield Community. At the time of his death he was 24 years, 6 months and 10 days of age. He joined the Baptist Church at the age of 12 and remained a faithful member.

He was married July 27, 1934, to Miss Hazel Oglesby, and they have one son, Asa Ralph. He was at all times held in high esteem in the Summerfield community, where he resided, and in this entire area, over which he had hundreds of friends. The large (Continued on Page 10)

'HOPPER FIGHT FROM APRIL 3-8 IN THIS COUNTY

Parker Hanna, district Extension Service agent, accompanied by a group of state and federal entomologists, Monday met with the county commissioners and discussed grasshopper infestation of the Hereford territory.

Plans were outlined for fighting grasshoppers at the meeting. Last year the county was infested by crop hoppers, but according to surveys this year the area will be infested with the migratory which came in last fall to various points, and laid eggs. Numerous beds of both kinds of hoppers have been discovered and it is expected that they will hatch the first part of April. Texas experts said the largest kill can be made shortly after the hoppers hatch. (Continued on Page 10)

DADS OF BOYS ASKED TO ATTEND MEETING AND AID IN PLANNING

To make definite plans for beginning a 4-H feeding program for boys in this community and to start on their 1939 program, all boys who have joined 4-H Clubs, or who are interested in joining, were urged to attend a meeting in the courthouse Saturday afternoon, April 1, at 2:30 o'clock.

"It is also important that each boy bring along his dad, if possible," said A. R. Bateman, county agent, who is organizing the 4-H program. In addition to the boys and their dads, cattlemen of this community have also been invited to attend the meeting and to assist in making plans for the boys.

Individual Plans
At the Saturday session, individual plans will be made for each of the boys, depending upon his facilities and interests in feeding. Some of the boys will feed calves, while others will feed sheep, hogs and chickens. Each of them will receive assistance from time to time from the agent's office, regarding the feeding and general welfare of their animals.

"It is not likely that any of our boys will produce a grand champion the first year," Bateman pointed out, "but they will learn things that may help them produce champions in future years—and at the same time will further an interest in livestock and secure valuable knowledge in feeding."

A large attendance was expected at the meeting, and all dads and cattlemen were especially urged to be on hand. Following the meeting, boys will take active steps toward beginning the 4-H program in this county.

By Jimmie Gilentine

Tommy Wilson is one of the most polite and most astute boys in this community. He is always thinking about something. Out at the marble tournament last week he walked up and asked, "Which can go to Summerfield and back in the shortest time, a man on a horse or a man on a bicycle?" I didn't know for certain, but said that I believed the man on the bicycle. This pleased Tommy very much because he happens to own a bicycle, and incidentally is a strong believer of the same opinion. Later, I went home and found out that he had asked my wife the same question. Incidentally, she favors the man on the horse, and considerable argument resulted.

It seems that C. C. Rockwell and John Pitman got into the same argument, with Rock favoring the bicycle and Pit strongly in favor of the horse. They finally threatened to pull the race and actually determine the answer, but finally backed out. I imagine both of them were glad.

Anyway, it's a question worthy of consideration. Out in this country, it might depend a lot on whether there was a strong wind or not. I guess John Douglas Pitman will be pretty sore at me for siding in with the bicycle theory, but that's what I believe. John Douglas has a fine horse and he sure is a strong believer in the man on the horse. I would like to see Rock and Pit run this race, but I know that they won't—so I suggest that Tommy and John Douglas run the race and settle the question. I will volunteer to act as official starter and will then drive to Summerfield, check them in and return to Hereford to check the winner. I suggest some Saturday, preferably April 7, if the wind is not blowing too much. I understand that it's eight miles to Summerfield. When they get back I will buy both boys as much ice cream as they can eat. Furthermore, I think some local merchants will want to give some prizes.

If you two boys are really interested, then come by the office at your earliest convenience and let's complete arrangements.

Several ladies are wanting to know if my offer on the bustles and bonnets still goes. The answer is "Yes." I think that April 1 will be the final date, however, because after that I think I am going to be busy judging bicycle-horse races. I notice that the "City Gals" have already played out on their shirts and big hats. A lot of the men are also fixing out on the whisker deal, but quite a few are still wearing them.

Have you seen Buffalo Lake? They have done wonders with the place. Bath houses, a beach, diving boards, a club house, a cafe cabins and a lot of other attractions are being constructed out there. Folks, drive out and look it over.

Last Sunday there must have been 500 people out looking at the lake, and most of them were from Amarillo. Buffalo lake is one of the best improved resorts in the Panhandle, and it sure looks like Amarillo is going to try to get in on the ground floor. Bill Borden has built a lot of boats for the lake—and a lot of them were for Amarillo people. I'll bet those Amarillo guys also have most of the cabins reserved. Personally, I couldn't afford a cabin, but it sure will burn me up if someone from Hereford don't get one that I can borrow sometime. Besides it burns me up to see those monkeys get all of the best of the lake has to offer—when most of the water will drain right out of Deaf Smith county. It ain't right, and I don't care what Tack, or Ross Rogers or Bob Underwood says.

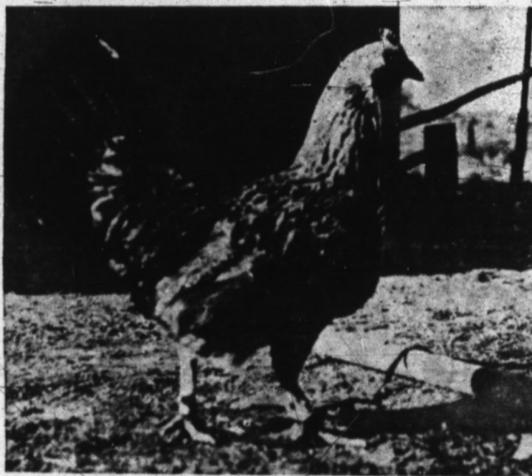

We wanted a lake down here at Hereford and Amarillo wouldn't let us have it. We didn't get the subsidies, but there is a dam site between here and Canyon—and it's one dam site closer to Hereford than Amarillo. Let's get on our feet and

Two-Ton Tony to Tread the Boards

Two-Ton Tony Galento, Orange, N. J., heavy weight contender, recently embarked on a theatrical career. Signing his contract in a New York theater, Tony got right into the spirit of the thing by serenading Linda Yale, a model. The serenade was brought to a close by M. Galento, left, who decided to put a stop to the nonsense.

Famed Hen, Aged 23, Dies of Old Age

Granny, 23-year-old hen, died of old age near Salisbury, N. C., recently. Property of Lawrence A. Taylor, Granny was the oldest hen in the world. She was widely known among poultry men and was frequently exhibited at shows. Until a year ago she laid an occasional egg.

take advantage of every opportunity it has to offer.

If you went to the Chamber of Commerce banquet Friday night, I am sure that you are glad. A lot of folks are proclaiming it as the best banquet of its type ever held here; anyway, it was one of the best. Ray Dickson of Spur and Caesar (Dutch) Hohn of College Station presented one of the most interesting, factual and cleverest pieces of public speaking that most of us ever witnessed. Deck Wells of Wellington also made a highly interesting and informative talk. Probably no other three men in Texas could have held their audience as did these three. It was "fast company" as far as speaking, elocution and stories go—but the thing that pleased me most was the manner in which Elmer Dameron held down the all-important post of toastmaster. He held his own with the guest speakers and with the technique of a master, made their task easier for them. Nowhere in Texas do I believe a man could have been found to better perform the task. He told one story on Major Schroetter that I think every one should hear.

Not long ago a newly married friend asked Major, "What do you call your mother-in-law?" "Well, I'll tell you, Major said, "for the first year, we just said, 'Hey, there!'—After that we called her grandma."

L. Baskin sure does write lots of letters. I guess he gets sort of lonesome, and not having anyone else to fuss with just takes it out on his typewriter. He is an old timer in the truest sense of the word, and he has the interests and welfare of this country at heart. A lot of us just go home and fuss at our wives when we get riled up about something, but Mr. Baskin has the nerve to tell the world—and what's more, he signs his name to his letters. I don't always agree with him, but I do admire him. He sent in two letters this week. One beaned an oil company for not showing Highway 60 to be paved. He is right but space will not permit printing both letters, and I believe you will be more interested in the one regarding Hereford.

This letter may hit some a finished product. The Jacobsen's employ 12 to 16 mechanics in their shop and often have to work a night shift. All this being true, Harry Danforth, Alton Fraser and the Jacobsen's are the most valuable men to our town and community. All of these men were present at the banquet but their names and presence were not even noted. Many of the old timers were there also—men and women who worked hard and long to lay the foundation for what we are enjoying here today—but their presence were not noted or mentioned, and many of these observed the absence of fried chicken, REAL BROWN cream gravy, family sized hot biscuit, corn bread and a goodly portion of old fashioned mashed potatoes, cone shaped, in a side dish with yellow butter dashed on top—gosh, it was good and cheap to make, too. How many remember the Chamber of Commerce Banquet of some 28 years ago, where everything on the table was home grown and home produced, and did you ever set down to a finer meal? Men waited the tables, the blues and reds, and over 300 attended. Those were the good old days and it is sad to note that so many who participated have gone from us. Now that everything imaginable is put up and sold in cans, and the fact that under irrigation, which we now have in great abundance, the finest and best flavored vegetables in the world can be produced here in almost unlimited abundance, why wouldn't this be a good time for the Chamber of Commerce to work up agitation for a canning factory. This can all be done by beginning low and then working up, with a nominal cost and many pointers can be had at Portales, where a very successful plant is in operation. Some men were here recently with $50,000 to invest in a modern close-in deluxe tourist and house trailer camp. Several acres of ground was required and when completed and beautified with trees, flowers, grass and shrubbery, would be something to be proud of. When they read over our city ordinances, however, they pronounced them more strict than the city of Chicago, so went on to look over more progressive and inviting locations. The reading over of our building ordinance and the ordinance prohibiting tourist camps within the city limits, as well as some other ordinances which we have, will cause the reader to wonder just how it all happened. Too bad that we do not have men of foresight, vision and progressive hard-hitting ideas at the head of affairs. Until we do this we will remain in the rut and there will be little if any progress.

NEW KIND OF TIRE SWEEPS WET ROADS SO DRY YOU CAN LIGHT A MATCH ON ITS TRACK

ACTS LIKE A BATTERY OF WINDSHIELD WIPERS... Sweeps the dangerous film of water from under your car—dries the road as you drive.

Just look at the row upon row of never-ending squeegee bars on this new Goodrich Life-Saver Tread. Then you'll understand why it acts like a battery of windshield wipers, sweeps the water right and left, forces it out through the deep grooves, making a track so dry that you can actually light a match on it. That's why a "Silvertown Stop" can easily be a lifesaver to you on slick, slippery roads.

And another exclusive Goodrich feature that's mighty important to your family's safety is the Golden Fly, only in Silvertowns. This famous invention resists the terrific blowout-causing heat generated inside all tires by today's high speeds. By resisting this internal heat, the Golden Fly protects you, and every one who rides with you, against dangerous high-speed blow-outs.

Take our tip. Unless you make your next tires Silvertowns you'll be cheating yourself and your family out of the greatest tire safety ever offered.

This week saw the arrival of several families, who are part of a crew which will conduct seismograph tests over this area. The tests will be conducted for the Gulf Company, and reports indicated that from 23 to 25 families will come here with the crew.

Due to nature of the tests, all findings from the survey will be kept in absolute secrecy. Rumors indicate that the tests will begin near the Black community and will extend north and east from that point. However, the public will learn little of the work and less of the findings of the crew.

The influx of 23 additional families this week again stressed a general housing shortage in this community as the new arrivals rushed over the entire community seeking houses and apartments, or rooms. Furnished apartments were, more greatly in demand than any other type of residence. Since little information is released by the company, it is not known how long the crew will operate in this territory. However, they remained in Lubbock longer than a year.

SOCIETY

HEREFORD BOY TO MARRY VIRGINIA GIRL

Invitations have been received here this week to the marriage of Miss Annette Wannamaker Griffin of Quantico, Virginia and Mr. William Louis Parker, son of Mrs. G. A. F. Parker of this city.

Announcement of the approaching wedding was made by Lt. Col. and Mrs. Raphael Griffin, parents of the bride-elect at a tea given by Mrs. Griffin at the Officers Club at Quantico.

Miss Griffin who is one of the most attractive members of the younger set of the Marine Corps, chose for the occasion a formal tea gown of peach moire taffeta, made with a square neckline and short puffed sleeves. The dress was trimmed with narrow aqua velvet ribbon and French flowers. She carried an old fashioned rosegay arrangement of rosebuds and sweet peas.

Announcement cards were heart-shaped with miniature wedding rings attached. Miss Griffin is a granddaughter of the late Robert Emmett Wannamaker of South Carolina.

Mr. Parker is a graduate of Hereford High School, N. M. M. I. and the University of Texas. He graduated from George Washington University with a degree in law. He is a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is now stationed at Shreveport, La.

Mrs. Edwin B. Parker an aunt in Washington, D. C. attended the announcement tea.

The wedding is to take place in Quantico, April 12.

WEDDING HERE SOUSLEY-DAVIDSON

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Laura Sousley of Champaign, Illinois, to Mr. J. C. Davidson of Friona. The wedding took place at the parsonage of the Presbyterian church Saturday evening, March 25, with the Rev. James Alken officiating. The couple were attended by Mrs. Tom Carroll, sister of the groom.

A Pioneer Preacher Passes

With the passing of Rev. J. A. Hornbeak, the Hereford community lost one of its best citizens, most learned men and a teacher of renown. Although Rev. Hornbeak came to this area only 11 years ago, he acquired friends with such rapidity that he was known and loved over the entire trade territory at the time of his death.

Texas, like this community, may well mourn the loss of Rev. Hornbeak. A native son of this state, he was born April 24, 1854, in Bosque County — and spent his entire life in serving the state. By faith, he was a Presbyterian, and at the time of his death held a record of 62 years continuous service in the church as a preacher and state official, a longer record of actual service in this field than any other living preacher. During his long career, Rev. Hornbeak served his church as State Secretary of Home Missions, and he was honored with the office of Moderator of the Synod, the highest office the church can confer in this state.

While these things were distinct achievements, and due recognition for the services of a great man and a devoted, faithful character, they are not the things which went to make him a great man in this community. He talked little about himself and never boasted, and few persons actually knew of the important offices he had held.

To the people of the Hereford territory, he was a kind old man; one who overflowed with the milk of human kindness, ever willing to direct his time and energy toward the assistance of his fellow man.

Although he was retired from active ministry during more recent years, nothing pleased Rev. Hornbeak more than to go into some community, where the church could afford no regular pastor, and deliver sermons from time to time. He realized and wanted no remuneration from these trips, for the service within itself was his reward. Regardless of creed, he was always willing and anxious to serve his fellow man — and during his residence here he probably preached before community churches more often than he appeared before his own church congregation in Hereford, where he was always a welcome guest in the pulpit.

Rev. Hornbeak devoted his life to his church. He is recorded as an important state leader on the records of the institution, and without doubt was a capable and learned man. However, the thing for which he shall be remembered longest was his love and service to his fellow man.

representative of a large sulphur concern. Lunch was served at the noon hour by Brumley & Son.

Cattleman who saw the demonstration were interested in the new dip, which is more easily handled, because of its wide temperature range, and which will not poison animals. It was estimated that the dip will cost around $8 per 1,000 gallons and a vat holding 2,700 gallons was recommended. The new dip is still in the experimental stage, as far as this climate is concerned, but cattlemen hope that it will prove more effective against certain types of lice. The cattle will again be dipped in 14 days — and technical results of the demonstration here will be compiled in bulletin form and published.

Soggy Potato Chips For Junior Picnic

Rain or Shine, Juniors have picnic.

"Let it rain. Who cares?" "Let's go to the football field." So the Junior Class went to the football field for a picnic last Friday. Softball was the main feature of entertainment, but along the sideline came "Leap Frog" and "Whip the Kaiser," and between the yard lines, "Wrestling" was playing an important part. Suddenly, from the time keeper, came the words, "Let's eat." Then, over the goal posts came sandwiches, potato salad, pickles, stuffed eggs, potato chips, cookies and lemonade. What a memorial day! The crowd roared, and the picnic ended with a bang!

ALL GIRLS ENJOY CONFERENCE PROGRAM

The climax of the Older Girls Conference came Sunday after a day and a half of association with other girls and inspirational talks and devotionals for those girls.

From the hour of arrival to the hour of departure, the girls from Sweetwater, Lubbock, Hereford, Amarillo, Olton and Plainview participated in an interesting program.

Friday, in the afternoon session at which the Conference officers presided, a welcoming address was given by the president of the Plainview Girls Hi-Y, which was followed by a sing-song and devotional service by the Lubbock High School. The climax of the session was an address by Mrs. Fred S. Rogers of Plainview on the subject "The Relation of Co-operation with Christian Living," which was in keeping with the Conference theme "Christian Education." In each session the climax was followed by discussion groups.

The evening session Friday consisted of an opening prayer, sing-song, address of welcome, devotional services by the local Hi-Y club and the principal address of the evening which was given by Miss Juanita Kinsey of Wichita Falls, Harding Junior College, on the subject, "Habitual Association Determines Character." In this subject the points were brought out, namely: that we are associated with four things: people, fine arts, nature, and thoughts; which may be summed up by saying that a girl is judged by the association she seeks.

Saturday morning Mrs. Mary W. Doak, Dean of Women at Texas Tech, spoke to the group of girls about "A Christian Girl and Her Leisure Time."

At a business session Saturday morning, the town for the Older Girls' Conference next year was decided upon. It will be chosen from the invitations from Hereford, Plainview, and Lubbock.

Nominations were made for next year's Conference officers which were elected that afternoon. Those elected were: President, Mary Earle Alexander, of Plainview; first Vice-President, Carlene Reed of Sweetwater; second Vice-President, Betty O'Mara of Lubbock; Secretary, Wanda Beth Williams of Sweetwater; Assistant Secretary, Sibyl Sorley of Olton; and Treasurer, (Continued on Page 52) serve the water which falls, that it will prove sufficient to grow crops in this section. Mr. Dickson also advocated the adaptation of livestock to the average farm on the Plains.

A high point in the program was reached with the introduction of "Dutch" Hohn, government conservationist, who started out with a "stuttering act"—and then branched into one of the most entertaining and educational talks of the evening, driving home many of the points outlined by Mr. Dickson.

Keep Youth On Farm
Deskins Wells, after comparing the problems of this area with those of his native Collingsworth County, declared, "Children are your best crop." He stressed the need of keeping the boys and girls of this community here in years to come, and declared "we are letting too many of our boys and girls leave the farm and seek homes in the large cities."

"But I can tell you now that these fine boys and girls must be able to make a decent living and know how to make it if we hope to keep the best of them in our agricultural communities," he said. "If it takes specific education to induce them to stay I am for it. If it takes radios and books and nice furniture; if it takes water in the sink—and flowers and trees around the house—then I'm for that. If it takes electricity in the farm home to keep them, I am for electricity. In fact I am for anything practical that will keep a larger percentage of the best of them where they are needed the most."

"I do know if we can get them to make their homes in our communities that we won't have to worry about absentee ownership, soil erosion, or the future prosperity of our country."

Serve Best At Home

He further pointed out that where it has been a custom to sell the juiciest peaches, the fattest calf, and the biggest turkey off the farm—that all these things might rightfully and advantageously serve on the farm table at home. "There are some things it is better never to sell," he said, and pointed out the comfort and pride that might result to the farm family and the farmer's children—who realized that the farm offered the best of its produce."

Elmer Dameron summed up the messages brought by the three speakers, and pointed to them as practical and worthwhile, following which the meeting closed.

city at Waxahachie. Dr. and Mrs. Hornbeak attended the funeral.

Rev. Hornbeak came here in April 1928, from Dallas, and although he resided here only 11 years, his friends were numerous. Despite the fact that he was retired from active ministry, he continued to preach when his health permitted, going into the smallest of communities with the willingness that he answered similar calls to appear at state-wide church meetings, or to receive recognition by large churches.

In addition to his service as a preacher and church leader, he was also one of the best readers in this section. When he was only 21 years of age, Rev. Hornbeak resolved to read one book each week—he followed this resolution until his latter years, when his health and failing eye-sight would no longer permit him to read or study extensively.

Despite his failing health during recent months, he has made an effort to visit in town as much as possible and kept in contact with the community until he was forced to remain in bed some two weeks ago. He died Tuesday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by three granddaughters, Mrs. J. D. Saunders of Slaton, Mrs. Marjorie Guillory of Shreveport, La., and Miss Kathleen Cronin of Houston; also one great-granddaughter, Beverly Kathleen Saunders, all here for the funeral service.

Pall bearers were Clay Ridgway, Will S. Kerr, E. S. Ireland, R. E. Cottingham, Bill Hutson and Jim Lipscomb.

Interment was made in West Park Cemetery.

crowd which attended the funeral and the many beautiful floral offerings testified to the high esteem with which he was held in the community.

Mr. Atchley was active in Summerfield civic life and took part in all school and community activities. Friday night, prior to his death, he officiated at a community basketball game—and so popular was he with boys of the community, that school was dismissed Monday in tribute to his friendship and cooperation.

Farmers were urged by the court to check their lands closely and be prepared to poison the hoppers shortly after they have hatched. A. R. Bateman, county agent, will meet with farmers and land owners at various designated places during the week, April 3 to April 8. Poison will be furnished free to farmers as long as the poison supply lasts, the amount is limited.

A central committee and community committee will be organized the first week in April. Community committees will be held responsible for reporting infested lands. Farmers are urged to co-operate in reporting these lands to their community committees.

into Adrian, and with Deputy Richardson started west on 66; after driving around 10 miles they found the car, abandoned and the gas tank empty. Taking the keys, they continued their search for the man and woman.

Soon they came to a man and woman on the road, and gave them a lift, asking if they had seen the woman who wore white shoes. The hikers said no, and the two men let them out, and returned to the car.

A few minutes later Sheriff Halliburton of Vega, who had heard of the incident came down the road and contacted the same man and woman, after questioning them, he returned them to Vega. A search disclosed the white shoes in a valise. They were both confined to the Vega jail. Mr. Dunn also received several valuable articles which the hikers had taken from the car when they abandoned it.
