WINTER DISARMED

90-hour threat ended by OIL-PLATING your engine today

You can probably agree that these are certainly conservative figures...
- 4 or 5 months of nasty weather right ahead of you now
- 8 or 10 daily cold starts for your car
- 6 to 8 minutes per start, till your engine's near-warm

And yet even that can run up your engine's cold-weather "starting-stretch" to right around 90 hours!... The foulest 90 hours that Gangster Winter could fire at your engine—your battery. And don't ever hope to halt him with motor oils whose biggest brag is "fast flow." That's not enough—and it's not your money's worth, considering that "fast flow" is mighty slow Winter lubrication compared to OIL-PLATING.

OIL-PLATING in your engine will lubricate before any oil can circulate. That's because the minute you start up with patented Conoco-Germ Processed oil it makes OIL-PLATING "magnetize" to all inner engine surfaces, so that it cannot drain down again. It cannot retire to the crankcase as you park the car. Like any other good plating, OIL-PLATING stays right where it's plated by Germ Process action—all over the working parts. They've "got on" their OIL-PLATING all the while you're indoors. They never "take off" their OIL-PLATING. When you come out to start then, your OIL-PLATING can't be delayed even 90 seconds—or one-ninth of a second! And away you go. The battery hardly knows it was working. And it's a good long while before the gauge-stick calls for an added quart of Germ Processed oil. Your Mileage Merchant has your right Winter grade. Change today—to that Conoco station of his. ARMISTICE DAY

FOR TWENTY-ONE YEARS LEGIONNAIRES HAVE BEEN SERVING THEIR COUNTRY IN THE CRISES AND STRUGGLES OF PEACE AS THEY SERVED IT IN WAR!

This Armistice Day Page Sponsored By
HEREFORD POST 192
AMERICAN LEGION

The Following Business Firms and Citizens
PAY HONOR TO OUR DEPARTED COMRADES:

IT IS GOOD TO REMEMBER—That Armistice Day has grown to equal legal stature with other National holidays, through the post-war service of the Americans whose valor created the original Armistice. Their step is heavier, their shoulders not quite so straight, their numbers fewer, as they follow the flag down the Main Streets of America each succeeding Armistice Day. But they have "dedicated to the cause of world peace" all our Armistice Days—by their insistence on adequate national defense—their staunch opposition to foreign ideologies—their unswerving loyalty to the Stars and Stripes, to American democracy, and to the Constitution of the United States.

TWENTY-ONE YEARS AGO—Gongs sounded along the front line. And then silence. It was the Eleventh Hour, the Eleventh Day, the Eleventh Month and the end of the World War. In cities people were jubilant over the news, and danced in the streets and wept for joy. Along the front line it was different. Just a silence. Tired, haggard faced the men—fighting men—talked quietly to each other and wondered if it was really over. Then the message spread, officially, that shortly before 11 a. m. on that day the Allied battle chiefs had met with those of the German high command and signed the document that meant peace. That was the first Armistice day.

Whitfaces Ready For Game With Tulia Hornets; Coach McCollum Says Prospects Good

Confidentially Yours

There were plenty of boys and girls—"fell" for each other at the Junior Skating party. Clifford Estes had lost one of his shoes after the football practice last week, and it wasn't until yesterday that he found out that John Estes had been using it for a horn case. We found R. L. Dowell asleep in seventh period study hall last Tuesday. What's her name, R. L.?

The football boys are in high spirits and are eager to meet Tulia Hornets here Friday night. Ernie Schumacher says, "The team is in the best condition that they have ever been. Tulia has a good team and record, but we expect to give them a good game." Robert Petersen stated, "The boys still have confidence in themselves and are ready to go." Wesley Guthrie said, "We are going to make a better showing against Tulia than Dalhart."

Coach McCollum says, "Tulia has a good record, but we expect to give them a hard and close game." Mr. Knox Kinard wants all students to help show Tulia a good time and the best hospitality. Also if Tulia brings a special train, Mr. Kinard wants the Hereford people to cooperate with courtesy cars and anything that they might do to help the Tulia people around town.

The delicious refreshments consisted of doughnuts, punch, apples, and sticks of candy.

"Buddy" Goes To Goose Paradise After Mishap With Telephone Wire

Geese are the hobby of the Ramey family. Miss Declmae Ramey tells of her father's flock which consists of 17 wild, 10 tame 3 lesser white, and 5 half breeds, making a total of 35 geese. Mr. Edwin Ramey, who lives near Dimmitt, has a large dirt tank in which the geese swim and mate and, strange as it may seem the gander only mates once in a life time. If his mate dies, the gander does not mate again. Miss Ramey tells of a goose that the family had that would follow them wherever they would go. If the family went to town, the goose would fly along with the car and would wait with the car until the family was ready to return home. In fact, "Buddy" would even try to follow Miss Ramey to school. Much to the sorrow of the community the goose died following an accident which caused him to fly into a telephone wire while following the family to town. Another experience of Mr. Ramey's was the receiving of the leg bands from his geese that had been killed in Canada. The wild geese fly away at times and all of the geese leave home about nine o'clock every morning and return home at eleven o'clock for feeding. The geese eat some of the neighbor's feed, but the neighbors don't mind as the geese are the pride of the Dimmitt people. Miss Ramey extends a welcome to anyone who wishes to visit the geese and study them.

EDITORIAL

Two Thanksgivings
Someone has said, "If Europe had anything to be thankful for, we could lend them one of our Thanksgiving days." Some people may believe this, but, considering the conditions in other lands, it seems that not even two Thanksgiving days should be enough for the people of the United States of America. Americans should give thanks every day that their country is not embroiled in a horrible war, and that their sons are not sacrificing their lives "to make the world safe for democracy" again. The people could also use more Thanksgiving Days in which to be thankful that they have a president instead of a dictator to rule over them. If you will count your many blessings, you will soon discover that you have more than enough to fill up every day in the year.

Public Opinion

Billie Self—The Sheriff (further more she jumped from the car and ran.) Dorothy Banner—Raylan Evans dressed like a girl. Donald McCullough—Mr. Newell. Bernadine Phillips—No, Mother said I was the only spook. Bill Hall—Uh huh, the graveyard is all right after you get to know it. F. L. Lucas—Not much, but I sure did get wet.

Remember that anxious time 21 years ago? It seemed the war would never end, and then it did. To those "over there," it was hard to get used to the idea . . . living in peace once more was hard to do at first. Now, twenty-one years later, it all seems like an adventure . . . but not a very enjoyable one. Peace is Worthwhile! Let's all do our part in keeping it.

Hostess clubs were The Garden Club, Progressive Study Club and the Music Study Club. During the luncheon hour Miss Katherine Kirby entertained with readings.

Mrs. Ray Johnson, president of the county organization, presided of the business session. She offered a prize, to be given at the close of the club season, to the club having the highest number of points.

The principal speaker was Travis Dameron who gave an instructive discussion on "Legal Facts Women Should Know," dealing for the most part with laws having to do with women's rights.

A vocal solo was sung by Mrs. Carl Mountz with Mrs. C. H. Dyer accompanying. The next meeting of the County Federation will be held on December 8, and the executive board meeting will be held the previous Saturday.

Those attending were Helen Ann Pitman, Madelle Beavers, Marie Williams, Lois Bell, Joan Smith, Jo Ann Rosson, Betty Jo Carnahan, Mary Short, Jackie Wright and the honoree.

Baptist Women Hold All-Day Meeting

Members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church held an all-day meeting Wednesday, Nov. 1 at the church. The regular monthly business session began at 11 o'clock and was highlighted by members voting to organize a young married women's circle to work in co-operation with the general organization.

luncheon at noon. The afternoon program dealt with Missions in Nigeria, Africa, with Mrs. Ralph McCullough as leader. The program dealt almost entirely with the work of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Pool, leaders at the Baptist Seminary at Ogbamoh, in Nigeria. Parts on the program were taken by Mesdames Nelson McRight, Wiley Roberson, C. T. Guseman, Art Manjoet and Jack Roberson.

Ralph Connor And His Books Are Studied

The life and achievements of Ralph Connor (Charles W. Gordon), son of real Canadian pioneers, were discussed by Mrs. F. T. Roloson Thursday afternoon at the Bay View Club meeting held in the club rooms at the court house.

The differing spirits of the different environments in which Connor's books were written formed the theme of Mrs. Roloson's discourse. She said Connor, who was a Presbyterian missionary, was a well balanced man of clear vision, and that his literary career was of decided benefit to his country for he had seen the life he described and had experienced hard and lonely toil, assisting in the good influences which he traces among wild and often hopeless conditions.

In discussing Pioneer life as seen in Ralph Connor books, the speaker said the stories are mostly true, at least based on facts that might have resulted so. She listed the following books which portray the hearts of Canadian Pioneers, revealing an authentic history of the people; Black Rock, a tale of the Selkirk; Sky Pilot, a tale of Ottawa; The Prospector, a tale of the crow's nest, The Doctor, a tale of the Rockies and Postscript to Adventure, which contains part of the history of our time.

In conclusion Mrs. Roloson said "Ralph Connor was famous as an author but he was first and foremost a Christian minister who will continue to live in the lives of all who read his books."

"Our Lady of the Snows" an instructive geographical sketch of the physical features, population, industries and natural resources was given by Mrs. Travis Dameron. She explained some of the reasons for the great love that so many Canadians have for their country, and the deeply rooted belief that her children have in her future greatness.

Those present were Mesdames Bob Wilson, J. W. Spradley, D. H. Alexander, C. R. Barber, H. L. Broadwell, Colby Conkright, J. F. Slaton, F. T. Roloson, G. A. F. Parker, H. G. Conkright, John Olson, C. F. Moore, Clara McLean, J. W. Kirby, Paul Mathers, Knox Kinard, A. M. Jones, G. W. Heard, E. W. Harrison and T. M. Dameron.

There seems to be moisture in the air, this week, and we are hoping that it will develop into, either, a good rain or snow for the benefit of the wheat farmers, who are needing moisture badly on their crops.

Due to the increase in the number of grades going to Daniel school a new teacher, Miss Ora West, of Hereford has been added to the faculty.

Between The Goal Post

By FRED HARRELL

Annual Tussle

The annual tussle between Hereford and Tulla is stirring up a bit of interest, both here and in the Swisher county town. More than would be expected, come from Dumas. Tulla won over Dumas last week end as expected by a score of 28-0, which was not nearly what was expected since Dalhart beat Dumas 38-0 and Tulla beat Dalhart 25-6. That gives Hereford a better looking score board for the game tomorrow night than they could have had two weeks ago.

They Can Do It

They can do what? Beat Tulla? Well, there's a chance and that chance is what is causing the interest in the game. Any team which can show the flashes of power, the smooth and machine-like coordination of all the players that the Whiteface team has exhibited at times, no team to take for granted. If they need it a little inspiration and a good way to supply it could be for a bunch of yellers to come to Whiteface Field tomorrow night. It wouldn't be any great upset to beat the Trible Hornets.

The Line

Tulla's offense is based on power plays through the line, and far the Hereford line has been shown to be one of the best, if not the best, in the conference. For that reason, Tulla will probably have to take to the air, and when a team starts passing most anything can happen. To Hereford's advantage is the fact that the ball carriers have experienced little difficulty in slipping through holes opened in opposing lines by the Whiteface bunch. Since the Hereford passing attack isn't been nearly as successful as the ground attack, tomorrow night's game is likely to turn into a battle between the lines. I haven't seen Tulla's front wall in action, but I'll check the Whitefaces when it is a question of lines.

Look At The Line

It won't hurt to look that Whiteface line over again. The boys get too little credit for what they do. Not that the backfielders get too much praise. The thing is, both line and backfield are of equal importance. Neither can do much good without the other.

Scattering Open Holes

Against various times have appeared such players as Cliff Nes, center; Henry Ford, guard, back; Knox, tackle; Kenneth Penbee, guard; Knox Haggar, tackle; Ewel Fox and Jack Smith, ends. Also, have appeared Joe Lock, who plays guard, Danny Nes, end; and Lynwood Hain, guard; along with various other players. Those mentioned have been consistent service.

And The Backfield

One player in the backfield started slowly this season but has been gaining speed and momentum in the last few games. It is Leonard Johnson, and it looks like that lad doesn't ever slow when he is stopped, but keeps on driving. His specialty drives through the line. Another player who likes line rushes is Ernie Schumacher, quarterback. Wesley Guthrie appears to be better on the more open running plays, while Loerfeld and Petersen seem more adept at flipping passes than running with the ball. Joy Worley has been handicapped by injury nearly all season and will get his chance in the games to be played. Burleson is another player who is showing up well.

The Standings

Conference standings didn't change over the week end. Tulla still in the lead, Dalhart is second, Hereford third, and Canyon and Dumas are tied for the fourth honor of the cellar position. The only other conference game this week is the one between Dumas and Canyon, Canyon, which will see both teams fighting to get out of that place slot. Dalhart, by the way, beat Canyon 33-0, giving Hereford an edge over the Eagles when they play at Canyon, November 17, in the last game of the 1939 season.

"NOBODY'S HOME YET!"

"MOTOR WOULDN'T START"

"BET THEY'RE USING LOW-TEST GAS AGAIN"

Phillips 66

The kid's right! It's a safe bet that the gasoline in the tank is not "hot" enough when any engine—in good mechanical condition—begins giving starting trouble as the weather gets colder.

It's an even safer bet that Phillips 66 Poly Gas will give you extra fast starting even on coldest days... because this sensational gasoline is extra high test!

More, no other gasoline will so consistently give you such rapid starts, because no other gasoline so consistently leads all others in high test quality.

Best of all, Phillips 66 Poly Gas costs nothing extra, since Phillips is the WORLD'S LARGEST PRODUCER of natural high test gasoline.

Why not get a demonstration in your own car of the difference this lively motor fuel will make? Check how it does away with starting trouble. Note the faster warm-up. The improvement in power and pick-up. The gain in smoother running. Besides, mileage is increased by the sharp reduction in the need for wasteful chocking.

Yes sir, the way to find out how to run your car for less this winter is to stop for a trial tankful of self-demonstrating Phillips 66, at any Orange and Black 66 Shield.

HEREFORD

BULL

By Jimmie Gillentine

Dr. and Mrs. Q. S. Smith were here last week from St. Louis, looking after some property which they own near Ward. Dr. Smith is supervisor of the Methodist Churches in St. Louis, and during recent years has been a frequent visitor here. They went in to eat lunch, and while the remainder of the party ordered a noon meal, Mrs. Smith insisted on ordering a breakfast, which consisted of bacon and eggs.

Personally, I never realized that our bacon was unusual. In fact, until I heard her story, I thought it was about as bad as I ever saw. Now I eat my bacon with zest.

Miss Belle Harris tells this one on herself. She has a nice watch band in which she takes unusual pride. Recently the band, which is made of metal, unravelled on one side. Because she liked it so much, she sent the band to a nationally known jeweler in Dallas for repairs. It was returned and the jeweler declared it could not be fixed. In desperation she carried it to a local jeweler, who fixed the band and she says it is good as new. She didn't bring home the bacon as literally as did Mrs. Smith, but she is sure sold on hometown jewelers.

Not long ago a fellow in Ft. Worth sent to Hereford to have a batch of labels printed. He had some printed here this summer and liked them so well he was willing to pay the extra postage. This week we had a printing job from Earth, Texas. I guess almost every business man in town can point to some similar situation. It's a funny world, anyway you take it.

Elmer Dameron's auction was a decided success. We should all be proud of the things Mr. Dameron is doing for the community, and while I appreciated him before, I admire him even more since his recent sale. Mr. Dameron did no more than he should have done, but somehow it touched my heart when he paid tribute to our old friend, Rat Jowell. He gave credit to Mr. Jowell for any progress he has made as a Hereford breeder. The way he spoke I could tell that he was sincere, and as we in the pavilion bared our heads and stood in tribute to Rat Jowell, I was immensely proud that it had been my privilege to have known him.

Frank W. Farley of The Hereford Journal also recalled the passing of Mr. Jowell. These things I know would have made Rat very happy. Although he is gone his memory and the fruits of his labor will remain with us as long as there is one single Hereford on the Plains of Texas.

Mr. Miller worked for Mr. Oberthier until the latter sold the electric plant to Texas Utilities in 1925. Catholic Parish: Mesdames Ed and Gene Loerwald. Business district: Mesdames Knox Kinard, Glen Weir, George Muse, T. E. Siegler, S. P. Rosson, Tom Alderson and Miss Verna Culpepper.

Painted Rock gets its name from the Indian paintings to be seen there, Streu said. There are matates, used for grinding corn, to be found in the sandstone, and an abundance of arrowhead chippings. There is plenty of creek water, and wood.

Several of the boys have passed required tests in preparation for a Court of Honor to be held sometime in December. New uniforms have been purchased and about 80 percent of the troop is now uniformed.

Around Town

A striking window display for Armistice Day is the one in the show window of the Candy Kitchen. Made of colored candy, the display features an American flag, the words "November 11," and the figures "1918, 1939." We didn't know all that could be done with candy.

E. C. Eubanks has bought 150 head of Whitefaces in New Mexico, acting for the Western National Bank.
