

Farmers, Landowners, Vote Unanimous Opposition To Any State-Wide Water Control Bill

slight amount of moisture over this territory Wednesday morning bringing some encouragement to wheat farmers whose land had been blowing. However, effects of the rain will last long without more of it.

Mrs. J. B. Phillips said the day that she began taking the Brand in 1906, 35 years ago.

As if fighting against water control bills wasn't enough trouble, William McGeehee returned from the Water Meeting last Tuesday afternoon to find that someone had painted a "For" sign on his office window. However, it was all a mistake and the sign later appeared on the sign Mr. McGeehee recently had.

Mrs. Mattie K. Robinson left Monday for College Station where she was sent by the County Committee to assist in getting farm program payments through. She will be gone possibly a week. Of 1,000 applications have been sent in from Hereford and about 250 are yet to come. Cooperation of landowners and non-resident landowners who have not signed applications is needed.

Hereford Appliance Co. is showing the new 1941 model refrigerators and invite your inspection of the many improvements, added features and refinements given Frigidaire for 1941.

The Commissioners' Court is voting this will happen again at the Monday meeting Mrs. Virginia Gilliland, Sewing Room supervisor, served coffee to the county officials.

Girls you've missed your chance. An eligible bachelor has left town. None other than Hugh H. H. and despite subtle persuasion by Elizabeth Womble, Nancy Conkright and Faye H. he left as he came—single. However, choosing between the girls like these would be extremely difficult and Hugh H. never could make up his mind.

Now that Hugh is gone, Faye, Nancy and Elizabeth are beseeching Alex Bateman to be sure and get a young, good looking single man to take Hugh's place as Assistant County Agent here.

Potato Growers Elect Board of Directors Tuesday Night

Hereford Potato Growers' Association Inc. holding their first annual meeting Tuesday night elected a new board of directors. J. E. Andrews and S. O. Wilson to serve three years; John Paetold and G. W. Newsom to serve two years and W. N. Edges was elected to serve one year. The new board will probably elect officers this week. Glenn Boardman, president, said the highlights of the season's operations up to December 31. He recounted the organization of the association, told about the building, praised work of the Board of Directors and stated that "We came out on the back side of the ledger. We processed over 90,000 sacks of potatoes."

Emphatically voting "No", 400 farmers landowners and business men of this section Thursday of last week voiced unanimous opposition to any state-wide bill for ground water control, and nominated D. L. McDonald, without a dissenting vote, to be representative of the Hereford District at Austin, if a representative becomes necessary.

Jim Hill was made chairman of a finance committee to raise funds for trip to Austin if a state-wide bill was introduced in the legislature and there appeared to be a danger of its passing.

William McGeehee presided and opened the meeting by reading a copy of a proposed bill, which was drawn to be submitted at this session of the legislature. He introduced D. L. McDonald.

Speaking of the source of irrigation water, Mr. McDonald said, "One of the erroneous beliefs is that this water has a Rocky Mountain source, that the water comes down here through certain channels from the mountains and then we irrigate and drink. There aren't any facts to support that theory. Another theory is that it gets in here from the Canadian and Pecos Rivers. Statistics show that the beds of both rivers are as much as 200 or 300 feet below the sand bed of water here."

Stating that the water comes from rainfall, Mr. McDonald said, "The volume we now have has been ages and ages in accumulating. It has rained here for ages and will continue to do so. The fact that it doesn't come from the mountains and does come from rainfall isn't anything to be alarmed about. It will be here for years and years to come. It is, of course, not inexhaustible. No water supply is inexhaustible."

Mr. McDonald then gave well depths, water levels, drawdown and recovery figures to uphold his contention that "from all indications we have very little cause to fear the water's getting away from us."

Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Return Tuesday Night From Eastern Markets

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gillis returned Tuesday night from a 10-day trip to Ft. Worth and Dallas markets and announced that they bought Spring lines of coats, dresses, suits, millinery and accessories for the Fashion Dress Shoppe.

"Among the lines we bought are the new Torso Suits, Dressmaker Suits, sheer wools, silks, alpaca and Roma Crepes," Mrs. Gillis said. "We believe these are the finest lines we have ever purchased for showing in Hereford. We invite your inspection of the many exciting styles decreed for Spring wear."

Temporary manager, stated that "We have really made progress."

He also told of the extraordinary number of visitors who have gone through the warehouse and their amazement at size of the plant. Paul Corbett of Farm Security Administration, Amarillo, read the financial statement and stated that it was a "good record for the first year of operation."

N. R. Nelson, from FSA, Amarillo, praised the Constitution and by-laws of the association as being in full accord with the best modern practice and urged loyalty to the cooperative.

A discussion by members of problems of the Association followed. Members present numbered 19 and there were 10 visitors, including C. A. Brown, who raised potatoes at Texline last year; O. N. Spung, FSA regional business and finance manager, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Corbett, and Martin Stenehem, seedman of Minot, N. D.

Wind Erosion Control Plan Mapped Monday

In joint session Monday, the Commissioners' Court, County Agricultural Committee, and Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion Conservation District mapped out a cooperative plan to combat wind erosion. The above agencies want to cooperate with farmers, where possible, in their plans of erosion control. Farmers are urged to check their land and if it is found that their land is blowing or liable to blow, to put forth their best efforts toward controlling or preventing damage to their land, or land adjoining.

Under the Sherman County plan, as in effect in Deaf Smith County, no Soil Conservation payments can be made on blowing land; therefore, it is to the benefit of all farmers to protect their land.

Complaints have been filed with the Governing Body of the Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion District against farmers (Continued on page 12)

Emergency Crop And Seed Loans Now Available

Emergency crop and feed loans for 1941 are now available to farmers in Deaf Smith County, and applications for these loans are now being received at Hereford, Texas by Carl Hill, Field Supervisor of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration.

These loans will be made, as in the past, only to farmers whose cash requirements are small and who cannot obtain a loan from any other source, including production credit association, banks or other private concerns or individuals.

As in former years, the money loaned will be limited to the applicant's necessary cash needs in preparing and cultivating his 1941 crops or in purchasing or producing feed for his livestock.

Borrowers who obtain loans for the production of cash crops are required to give as security a first lien on the crop financed or, in the case of loans for the purchase or production of feed for livestock, a first lien on the livestock to be fed.

Care Of Insured Wheat Acreage Again Stressed

While damp weather yesterday has brought relief to wind-swept fields, nevertheless soil blowing may again become serious before the wheat is tall enough to hold the dirt and farmers with insured wheat will be faced with the problem of what to do, T. P. McCollister, wheat loan supervisor, pointed out this week.

Chiseling and strip listing may be resorted to without advance notification of the County Committee, he said, but if it becomes necessary to list the field solid to stop blowing, the farmer must first get approval of the committee before destroying the insured crop. Stating that an insurance contract should not interfere with control of wind erosion, Mr. McCollister said that complete destruction of an insured crop should be resorted to only as a last measure.

Simpson Declares England, Greece And China Are Fighting Battle For America

Declaring that England is fighting our battle, just as Greece and China are fighting in behalf of the United States, Major E. A. Simpson, Amarillo attorney, Wednesday addressed members and guests of the Hereford Lions Club.

In opening his talk, Major Simpson referred to the recent address of Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., before the Knife and Fork Club in Amarillo, and stated that some of the ideas which he would bring forth were in part from the Vanderbilt address. He defended Vanderbilt, who he said had crossed the Atlantic 144 times, had crossed the Pacific 88 times, had been across the United States 168 times, and had 14 times been around the world. Vanderbilt, he said, had interviewed Mussolini nine times, Hitler and his staff nine times, the Pope two times, and was the only American journalist to have interviewed Stalin in the Kremlin.

"Vanderbilt last interviewed Hitler and his staff 70 hours before the invasion of Poland," he said. "Goering did most of the talking—and told Vanderbilt that Germany would take Poland in 10 days." He said they further told Vanderbilt that they would next take France, entering through Holland and Norway, and that England would be next on the list, falling 90 days after the main German push was opened.

"Then what?" Vanderbilt was said to have asked, and the German staff told him "Your country, the United States, will be (Continued on Page 6)

Among scores of visitors who during the past week inspected the D. L. McDonald Herefords, housed in the sales pavilion here, were Prof. Ray Mowery and his judging class of Texas Tech, Lubbock. The group came here Tuesday for practice judging in two classes; they judged divisions including yearling heifers, senior heifer calves, yearling bulls and senior bull calves—and were high in praise of the cattle which have been consigned here prior to the McDonald Auction scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 6, beginning at 1 o'clock.

Mr. McDonald, who has been in the registered Hereford business in this area since 1921, said he was pleased to have had the group and that he personally appreciated the fine things which they said about the animals, including 21 sons and 15 daughters of Advance Domino Mischief.

Chicken Owners Asked To Keep Fowls At Home

Following numerous complaints, City Marshal Ed Curtsinger today warned chicken raisers in Hereford to keep their chickens in pens.

Pointing out that letting chickens run at large was a violation of a city ordinance, Mr. Curtsinger asked cooperation of the owners in keeping chickens in their own yards.

"If chicken owners will observe the law now, it will save a lot of unpleasantness," he said. "Hereford is well-known for the many beautiful flowers grown here. But no one can raise flowers if his neighbors' chickens scratch up the beds."

With convening of the Grand Jury at 10 o'clock Monday morning, the February term of 69th District Court in Hereford will officially open. The term is expected to run three weeks. Names of Grand Jurors and Petit Jurors have already been released by Robert L. Thompson, district clerk.

City Warns On Breaking Street Lights

Pointing out that breaking of city street lights or damaging other public property is a misdemeanor crime, punishable by a fine of not less than $5.00, no more than $200.00, city officials today warned against continued offenses.

"Since Christmas, when quite a few boys probably received B-B guns, numerous street lights have been broken," said City Marshal Ed Curtsinger. "Arrests and fines for such offenses are always embarrassing, but the situation has reached such proportions that action will be necessary. Replacements of lights is expensive—and we feel sure that persons who are damaging them have not stopped to think of the consequences."

Parents were asked to help by issuing warnings to boys who may be breaking the lights, thus avoiding any future trouble. City officers said that precautions have been taken to carefully watch the street lights in the future.

"The Calliopean Club" Is New Name Chosen By Study Group

The new name given to the Junior Bay View Club, at the meeting held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Jack Wayland, is "The Calliopean Club". The name is taken from the Greek word "Calliope" muse of literature and art. In Greek and Roman mythology, Calliope was the muse that presided over eloquence and heroic poetry.

Roll call featured Outstanding War Personalities and Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine opened the study program by giving a consideration of "The History of the Possessions of the United States." She began with Alaska the first large territory, other than those which later became states, to be purchased by the United States. She told of the long political struggle over the Philippine Islands and the promise of the United States for Philippine Independence in 1941, of Cuba, Hawaii and Samoa and their importance, and of Porto Rico and her glamorous history. The Caribbean Islands which lie so close to our shores, were mentioned and one of the most important, the Canal Zone. The speaker told of the beauty of the three tropical islands, The American Virgins, St. Thomas, St. John and St. Croix, and of their importance today as possible naval bases. "The last and least conspicuous of all United States possessions are the Howland and Jarvi Islands which lie almost directly on the Equator. The United States department of commerce took them over in 1935 and just how practical as air ports these islands will prove no one knows," she said.

Mrs. David Rodgers talked on "What the Possessions Mean to Our National Safety." She gave a word picture of the defense strategy of the United States Navy in the Pacific, describing the difficulties in defending the outlying possessions and quoted military authorities who advocate formidable defense. She gave statistics as to the amount of money appropriated for the defense measures being taken in Panama Canal Zone. In conclusion Mrs. Rodgers said "Military authorities agree that any power attacking the United States would require bases within air bombing range of important American cities and Uncle Sam is busy, seeing that no foreign power is allowed to establish a foothold in North America."

Those attending the meeting were Nancy Conkwright, Ruth Conkwright, Edna Daughette, Robbie Foster, Katherine Kirby, Lois McCaslin, Eloyse Pitman, Rhita Jean Sullivan, Mesdames W. L. Davis, Alton Fraser, J. T. Gilbreath Jr., Jim Kirby, W. C. Pitman, John Simms, Elizabeth Womble, David Rodgers and the hostess.

There is one in particular that I want to tell you about which draws its members from many states and many walks of life. For instance, one of the members is Madame Winifred Lucia Fisher, a voice teacher and choral director in Sacramento, California; a second member is Mr. Alonzo G. Oakley, the vice-president of an insurance company in New York; a third member is Mrs. Lora Valadon, of Providence, R. I., a vaudeville artist whom many of you have seen her do thrilling high wire bicycle act, the 'slide for life', in theatres throughout the country; then there is a very successful real estate broker in New York, Charles Griffith Moses; and one of the most important members is its President, Anna Palmer, M. D., of Milton, Mass.

This club has rich and poor, famous and unknown in its membership. Many of you may not have heard of it, yet it is very important that everyone in the country should know that it exists and understand what it means. I am not exaggerating when I say that the members are making a vital contribution to the health of our country. The name of this Cured Cancer Club of the American Society for the Control of Cancer.

Anyone may join who had proved cancer and been cured of it. Application blanks must be signed by a recognized physician who certifies that at least five years have elapsed between the conclusion of treatment and the application for membership. Those who belong to the club agree to be known publicly as cured cancer cases. According to the American Society for the Control of Cancer, there are tens of thousands of persons who are eligible for the membership, tens of thousands of persons who have been cured of cancer. The American College of Surgeons, one of the great medical organizations, recently announced that it had on record in its files the case histories of 36,087 persons who had had cancer and been cured of it by surgery, x-rays or radium, used individually or in combination. Experts agree that there are thousands more cases than those on record than those with the American College.

Just let us pause for a moment to consider the importance of the Cured Cancer Club. Those members are living examples of the truth that cancer in its early stages may be cured. By their example they show our country that the way to meet cancer is not with fear but with courage and knowledge.

Now you who are listening may not be eligible for membership in this unusual club, but it is essential for you to realize that you, too, can play a part in the fight to save lives from cancer. You can do so by learning what authorities say you should know for your own protection, by having the complete annual physical examination that is recommended for all men and women over thirty-five, and by enrolling in the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer, and helping spread its life-saving fact throughout your community.

As I said to begin with there are many kinds of clubs—political, bridge, college, actor's, eating, collectors, and social clubs—you probably all belong to one or another and thoroughly enjoy yourself. That is very good, but may I suggest that you do not forget the Cured Cancer Club of the American Society for the Control of Cancer and what it means. And if your own club would like to have a speaker of cancer control, get in touch with the headquarters of your Texas Division of the Women's Field Army at Brownsville or the American Society for the Control of Cancer, 350 Madison Avenue, New York City.

SHORTS

From Here, There and Everywhere

The Boy Scouts of America maintains that no boy can grow into the best kind of citizen without recognizing his obligation to God.

There are 328,797 American men who as volunteer leaders serve the youth of the nation through the Boy Scouts of America.

The Boy Scout Movement healthfully and sanely offsets the disadvantages which civilization has caused.

More than half of the 46,446 Boy Scout Troops in the nation are sponsored by churches of religious groups.

For 30 of its 31 years the Boy Scouts of America has been administered by Dr. James E. West, the Chief Scout Executive who took the post for only "six months."

The simple help-yourself experiences he receives enables the Boy Scout to meet emergencies which may develop later in his life.

Simpson

next." He said they told him that they would take the United States "from within and from within—but mostly from within."

At this point Major Simpson urged all present to read "Mein Kampf" Hitler's book, and said that they should get the unexpurgated edition.

He further pointed out that Hitler had so far carried out the contents of "Mein Kampf" in the exact manner in which he had predicted in his book.

Speaking from a military standpoint, Major Simpson declared that Hitler's greatest mistake, so far, was in the fact that he did not attempt to invade England at the time the English were evacuating their army from Dunkerque.

"Of course the German line of communications was scattered over a long line and mass attack would have been difficult—but in view of future developments, it seems that an attempted invasion of the British Isles would then have been exceedingly practical."

He pointed out that only two days following Vanderbilt's talk in Amarillo, W. C. Bullitt and Ruth Bryan Owens appeared before government committees and testified that they believed Hitler expected to attempt invasion of the United States if they defeated England.

Regarding invasion of this country, he said that many persons wanted to know how German forces might cross 3,000 miles of water when they faced difficulty in crossing the English Channel. In answer to this question, he pointed to the German controlled port of Dakar, Africa, which he said is the nearest African port to South America. He added that Germany and Italy have daily been operating air lines between Dakar and South America, making the flight in seven and one-half hours.

"The German government now has 13,500 regular German pilots in South America," he said reliable reports showed, "along with 2,700 planes and 50 air bases."

He also stated that Germany now has 50,000 trained troopers in Mexico, pointing out that they are equipped with light cannon and machine guns.

"In seven days," he predicted, "Germany can land 100,000 men in Columbia, S. A., by air, and equip them with light tanks."

Major Simpson next turned to the recent Russo-Nazi trade pact, through which Russia proposed to furnish grain, potatoes and petroleum to Germany—and quoted the president of Argentina as saying that he was happy, since much of the supplies would be purchased through that country.

Turning again to Mexico, he said that the newly elected president defeated Almanzan, who openly favored Germany, and pointed out that almost half of the Mexican population was pro-German.

Russia, he classed as a powerful factor in future international developments. Stalin was reported to have 23,500,000 armed soldiers, divided into three classes: first, the regular army of 7,000,000 men; second, the national guards, 9,000,000 men, and third the reserves, 7,500,000 men.

"Stalin's tactics may seem strange to us," he said, "but their use of armed forces in the war with Finland carried out exactly what Stalin told Vanderbilt. 'It is Stalin's policy to use his third (and weakest) class of soldiers first. By flinging the old men and poorly trained soldiers into the battle first, he wears down and softens the enemy, then when the time is right, a very few of the best soldiers can step in and transform the battle into victory. Finland surrendered when only three divisions of the first class army were sent onto the battle ground."

"What will Russia do?" he asked. "I predict that they will fight actively with Germany before the war ends. No, they do not like Hitler, but this is a war of Ideology. It is type of government vs. type of government—and both nations have the same basic ideals.

"Russia killed all of her capable leaders, but with 6,000 German officers, she can be transformed into an almost impregnable army. Germany and Russia have the same idea. Each plans to use the other so far as they can—and then to kill off the other. This is gangster tactics, just as Al Capone used. He got all possible benefits from a lieutenant, then 'took him for a ride.'"

"What is the effect of Italy's losses in Greece and Africa?" Major Simpson's opinion is that Hitler could have transformed the Italian campaign into an overwhelming victory for Mussolini. However, he points out that German military leaders ever strived to keep Italy out of actual conflict in order that Germany might buy supplies through Italy, just as she now buys them through Russia.

"When Hitler saw that he could no longer keep Mussolini out of the war, he decided that Il Duce should discover his weakness—just as he has done—and come crawling to him (Hitler) with the plea 'Save Me,' just as Mussolini did a few days back."

he said. "This places Germany in a position to 'Take All' when the time comes."

What of France? Petain was recalled by Major Simpson as the man who pinned the Croix de Guerre on him in the World War, and he moaned the plight of France and of their leaders as impossible.

"Yes, Weygand has 400,000 splendid, well equipped troops in Africa," he said, "but Germany controls the arms factories and munitions factories in France—and this is important." Declaring that the guns and munitions used by the French army could not be duplicated in the United States or England, Major Simpson said that after two or three major battles the French army would be without ammunition. He also said that the wives, sisters, mothers, fathers and sweethearts of these French soldiers are at the mercy of Nazi soldiers, who are stationed at homes in the French occupied territory.

What is our Situation?

"If Hitler should tomorrow call upon the rulers of the warring nations and offer peace, absolutely ceasing all battle and agreeing to be satisfied with the countries which he now dominates, what should we do?—If we accepted, the people of the United States would within three years be reduced to the class of serfs," he declared, pointing out "Hitler today controls 312,000,000 people, including many skilled craftsmen. These men would work for very little. How would this compare with our 40-hour week, and our high wage scale. For instance, Hitler could sell for $1.20 a pair of shoes which we produce at a cost of $4.00, and the world would buy from the cheapest source, quality being equal."

"We could compete only as vassals. "No. The war has to be fought to conclusion. Germany has 70,000,000 people, 45 per cent of whom believe in Hitler as we believe in God.

"England is fighting our battle, just as China and Greece are fighting our battle," he concluded, adding that in helping these countries we were only helping ourselves.

Following the talk, Major Simpson gave his personal opinion in answers to questions from among the audience.

Baptist Women's Organization Entertains With Japanese Tea

Members of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist church entertained with a Japanese Tea Wednesday afternoon at the church, honoring women who have become members of the church during the past year. Mrs. Nelson McRight was in charge of general arrangements and Mrs. O. G. Hill, mission study chairman, was in charge of the program.

The reception rooms of the church were arranged to represent a Japanese garden with hanging lanterns, shaded lights and profusions of flowers suggesting the Japanese motif. A rustic lattice covered with vines and flowers enclosed the garden.

Members of the house party were in Japanese costumes with flowers in their hair and carrying Japanese fans. Included in the group were Mesdames R. W. Roberson, Libburn Ray, Carl Mountz, O. G. Hill, John Simms, Louie LeGrand, A. L. Manjoet, Nelson McRight, J. A. Pitman and A. O. Thompson.

As Mrs. Simms played musical selections from "Miss Cherry Blossom" members of the house party entertained with a fan drill and then took their places on cushions in the garden where the remainder of the program was given. Mrs. Ray gave a prayer and Mrs. Manjoet gave an introduction to the new study book which deals with Japan, pointing out the opportunity of the church today in taking the gospel to Japan.

She presented a corsage made in the W. M. U. colors to Miss Jessie Morris, the only member of the organization who has met the Bible Study requirements for the past year. A Japanese trio was sung by Mrs. Mountz, Mrs. A. O. Thompson and Mrs. R. W. Roberson.

A sketch of the life of Kagawa was given by Mrs. Hill who also reviewed his book, "A Grain of Wheat." Mrs. McRight introduced the honor guests and an informal social hour was enjoyed.

The tea table carried out the Japanese theme in decorations. The centerpiece was a large incense burner surrounded with tiny colorful Japanese dolls. At one end of the table was the silver tea service over which Mrs. A. O. Thompson, Association president, presided, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Pitman, publicity chairman. At the other end of the table was a potted orchid carrying out the colors of the W. M. U. with tiny parasols forming a floral circle at its base. The Japanese theme reappeared in the refreshments. Individual cakes were topped with candy cherry blossoms and dainty little parasols were plate favors.

Let's Cook Something

Synonymous with the south are its Beaten Biscuits, Gumbo, Steamed-rice, and Ambrosia. And Creole Chicken is as national in the south as the Star Spangled Banner. Mrs. Ray Johnson who hails from Georgia has made this recipe for Creole Dinner famous in this part of the country. It has memories of generations of family dinners behind it, of true Southern hospitality that you are unable to forget, once you've enjoyed its sincerity. Try this recipe while you still need plenty of protein in your diet.

CREOLE DINNER

- 1 medium sized chicken
- 1 package noodles
- 1 cup sliced green olives
- 1-2 cup chopped pimientos
- 1 cup grated cheese
- Salt and pepper

Cover chicken with boiling water, season with salt and pepper, and cook until tender. Remove the chicken from stock and bring stock to boiling point (there should be five or six cups) and add a 5 oz. or 12 oz. package of noodles. The amount of noodles to be governed by number of servings desired. Cook noodles until tender, add 1 cup sliced green olives and 1-2 cup chopped pimientos. (1-2 cup toasted and chopped almonds may be added if desired). Pull chicken from the bones and add to the above mixture. Stir well and just before serving add the cup of grated cheese. Place in large casserole and serve hot. This may be cooked several hours or even the day before using. Just heat it well and add the cheese just before serving if you want to prepare it the day before. Serve with a crisp lettuce salad and ambrosia for dessert and you have a whole meal. In the South most every home has its "Ambrosia bowl" that the cooks know not to use for anything else. Mrs. Johnson who has made a recent visit in Louisiana, says that those she saw were big, brown crockery bowls and that they handed them down from one generation to another. In whatever kind of bowl you make it, its delicious served as a last course with Creole Dinner.

Nazis Make Slaves Of Conquered French People

Said to be one of the best "March of Times" ever produced, "Uncle Sam—The Non-Belligerent" brings to the people of this section a vivid conception of the battle lines between Democracy and the Nazi ideology. The film will be shown here February 5 and 6 at the Star Theatre.

In the dozen nations which Adolph Hitler's armies have conquered there are 85 million people, today reduced to vassalage and made to contribute to the building of the new and greater Nazi German State. Under a merciless military order, two million prisoners of war have been formed into labor battalions to reconstruct for Germany use the railroads, bridges, and other public works destroyed during the fighting. Watched over by military guards and pushed to the limit of their endurance, once-free European fathers and brothers now work side by side in slavery.

The new March of Time has scenes from uncensored German films, intended for showing in South America only. This film, intercepted and seized by British officials, was obtained from the Canadian Film Commissioner for exclusive use by the March of Time.

We asked 5,000 Dodge Buyers to wire what they like most about their New Dodge

Read their praise of Fluid Drive* and other Dodge Features

AFTER all, there was only one sure and convincing way to find out what owners like most about their 1941 Dodge...and that was to ask them! So that's exactly what we did.

And what a response we got! Hot off the wires...from all over America...came hundreds of enthusiastic telegrams!

O'Daniel Fights Paralysis

Governor O'Daniel smilingly gives to the March of Dimes in Austin, opening the campaign for the celebration of the President's birthday in the fight against infantile paralysis, January 30. Mrs. O'Daniel, Lt. Gov. Coke Stevenson, Speaker Homer Leonard and Austin's mayor, Tom Miller, joined the Governor in donating and opening the campaign. Gov. O'Daniel, honorary chairman of the state committee, has made several appeals over radio for Texas people to help in the crusade.

malt meal. How long the minnow had been in the crappie's stomach nobody knows. It has been named Jonah.

FOR NEW SHRIMP LAWS

Constructive suggestions for a closed season on shrimp in Texas' coastal waters were adopted at a meeting recently at Port Lavaca of more than thirty leaders of commercial fishermen and officials of fish plants. Legislation to help protect and preserve the shrimp will be introduced in the state legislature the group decided.

In order to protect shrimp during the spawning season and during the periods when they are growing to maturity, the group voted to urge passage of a bill prohibiting fishing for shrimp in the bays along the coast during the period between July 15 and Aug. 31 and Dec. 15 to March 1.

Other suggestions for laws intended to conserve the supply of shrimp made by state and federal biologists, included: Leaving the bays now closed to netting for shrimp closed; leaving the waters now open to shrimping as they are; no closed season in the Gulf proper and the repeal of the legal size limit, which is now five and one-half inches.

PROLONGS HUNTING SEASON
Dick Smith of Kerrville, Texas, isn't very happy about his deer activities. Smith went through forty-five days of the hunting season and came out with a bill of $15.75 for ammunition and a pair of blistered heels, but no deer. A week after the hunting season closed, Smith was driving his truck toward Kerrville when a spiked buck leaped over a fence and landed squarely against the right door of his truck. The buck fell dead with a broken neck. Damages to the car amounted to as much as the hunting season cost Smith and he couldn't legally keep the deer he killed. He turned it over to the game warden captain in Kerrville.

ROAD KILL CONTINUES HEAVY

The slaughter of game on Texas roads continues at an appalling rate. The most recent report received by the Game Department's executive secretary reveals that at least fifty-seven deer were killed by motorists in Gillespie County in 1940. The game warden at Fredericksburg also reports four wild turkeys killed during the same period.

DEPARTMENT IMPROVES FISHING

Cleaning up of a pair of badly polluted areas on the Texas Gulf coast by the Game Department has resulted in their being converted into two of the best angling spots on the coast, reports received here reveal.

Offats Bayou near Galveston was polluted by refuse from a packing plant. The Game Department's director of anti-pollution work forced the packing plant to install equipment to care for the refuse. As a result, fishermen have been making record catches in the bayou. Fishing has also been excellent at the Texas City slips since the oil pollution situation was cleared up there.

JONAH OF THE FISH WORLD

Jonah, who lived to tell about being swallowed by a whale, had nothing on this minnow, according to the Lufkin News. Three weeks after the minnow flipped out of the stomach of a crappie being dressed at the home of Joseph W. Rodes of San Antonio, the tiny fish is swimming about in a small tank and thriving on hunting was reported as good in north central Texas, but a shortage was reported in south central Texas. Good hunting was reported, however, from Tyler north and east to the Louisiana line.

Biologists of the Game Department are working with hundreds of Texas farmers and with other state and federal services in setting up fenced areas in which quail will have a sufficient supply of food and cover, which are vitally necessary for quail survival. Landowners are being urged to leave fence rows weedy and many of them are sowing seeds of plants which produce winter food for quail along fence rows and in gullies, land which cannot be used for other crops. The work has not been carried on sufficiently long to make quail hunting excellent in Texas, but game managers believe it is doing considerable good.

KILLED DEER WITH AX

Twelve-year-old Carthar Harris should receive some sort of medal for being the hero of the most unusual hunting incident in Texas since an Ozona minister killed a deer with a rock several years ago. Young Harris killed his deer the day before Christmas with an ax.

Young Harris was resing on his father's automobile, when he was surprised by a noise and saw a buck fall backward after running into a railroad fence right at the car. The youth grabbed an ax and felled the deer before it could get up off the ground.

The incident occurred near Blix Junction of the Angellina and Neches Railroad and Southern Pine Lumber Tram Line in Angellina County.

TWO COUNTIES ARE CLOSED

Fishermen are being warned by the Texas Game Department that the season has been closed in Kimble and Llano counties since January 1 and will remain so until May 1. The regular closed season for Texas is March and April, but special county laws close Kimble and Llano counties earlier.

Ten other Texas counties maintain a closed season a month longer than that for which the general law provides. In the following counties it is illegal to fish during March, April and May: Bandera, Kerr, Edwards, Real, Sutton, Mason, Menard, Blanco, Kendall and Gillespie.

Kimble County also protects catfish longer than any other county. In that county it is illegal to take catfish until July 1.

BOY GOT BUCKS IN HURRY

Cecil Boyd of Chireno (Nacogdoches County) got his hunting season over in a hurry, a report to the State Game Department reveals. The fifteen-year-old lad killed a nine and a ten-point buck within a few seconds of each other on the opening day of the season. And to make a better story of it, he killed both with a 22 caliber rifle, placing nine out of thirteen shots

Character development is the real objective of the Boy Scout Movement. Every step in the Scout program is but a means to this end.

Since 1910 more than 1,755,554 American men have been volunteer leaders in the Boy Scouts of America.

Scouting has been regarded as sufficiently important by 103 colleges and universities to justify their offering courses in Scouting for students with college credit.

In 1940, Gold Honor Medals went to 15 boys and certificates of Heroism were awarded to 21 Boy Scouts for saving the lives of others at great personal risk.

TEXAS OUT-OF-DOORS

BALLISTIC EXPERTS HELP WARDENS

At least four hunters paid fines for illegally shooting doe deer in the Hill Country of Texas during the season which just closed despite the fact no game warden saw the actual kills, it has been reported to the executive secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission here.

Bullets taken from does were sent the ballistic experts in the state department of public safety and were compared with bullets fired from guns of hunters wardens knew were in the vicinity of the illegal kills. The matching of bullets by scientific means proved the downfall of the quartet of hunters arrested in various sections of the Hill Country. Three of the game law violators

Tech To Offer Defense Courses

Lubbock. — Defense training courses in welding and machine tool operation begin February 3 at Texas Tech. Financed by federal funds and planned in cooperation with the State Department of Vocational Education, the courses are of a type usually taught in technical institutes, trade and opportunity schools, or vocational high schools, according to Dean O. V. Adams of the division of engineering.

Because of emergency shortage of skilled men in navy yards, aircraft factories, machine tool industries, and companies manufacturing national defense equipment, four-year colleges are cooperating in the training of additional men.

Boys between the ages of 17 and 24 years, who have graduated from high school, may register for either of the courses without charge, Dean Adams said. Eighteen weeks of 30 hours each will be required to complete either course, and those satisfactorily meeting requirements will be given certificates by the State Department of Vocational Education. Maximum enrollment in each class is 15 persons, over 50 applications have already been received.

An expert in electric and oxy-acetylene welding and one in machine tool operation will be employed to instruct the course. The work is of trade school level and is not intended for college students doing satisfactory work in college who are able to continue their college education, Dean Adams said.

Symbols of American Defense

Tractors and tanks symbolize modern American defense. Farmers operating the machinery at top are carving out terraces which defend their soil from erosion. Soldiers operating the U. S. army tank in lower picture are practicing maneuvers which strengthen the nation's armed defense. American farmers, carrying on soil protection work under the AAA Farm Program, last year built more than 67,000 miles of terraces, enough to reach more than two and a half times around the world.

Deaf Smith Youths May Take Aviation Mechanic Training

Youths of Deaf Smith County interested in obtaining work experience in aviation will have an opportunity to enter training at Duncan Field, San Antonio, when the second enrollment period for the National Youth Administration's Resident Center opens March 2, 1941, according to J. C. Kellam, State NYA Administrator. The deadline for making application for the project is February 6, 1941.

The NYA project, sponsored by the United States Army Air Corps, is set up on a six-month basis, and boys receive $30.00 monthly from which approximately $19.00 is deducted for meals, housing, laundry, medical attention, and miscellaneous items.

Youths assigned to the aviation mechanics unit will be given work experience and training in the repair, construction, and general maintenance of airplane engines. Shops are operating on a 44-hour per week basis and NYA youth follow the same routine as regular employees. In selecting youth for the airplane mechanics unit, preference will be given to boys between the ages of 18 and 20 1-2 years, inclusive, who have had a high school education or the equivalent, and who have had previous shop work experience. They are requested to have a keen interest in the work and desire to follow it as an occupation.

Youths interested in making application in Deaf Smith County should write immediately to the Division of Youth Personnel, National Youth Administration, P. O. Box 2369, Amarillo, Texas.

whose lands are blowing and no steps of control being taken. These complaints are being disposed of by the Governing Body with as much expediency as possible and it is anticipated that the District will do much emergency listing pursuant to the powers granted it under the law. The law provides that when the Body decides upon a plan of control for a certain piece of blowing land, where the owner refuses to treat it himself, they may enter upon the land and treat it for erosion, the expense for which is assessed against the land and becomes a lien thereon only subject to taxes.

The First National Bank was founded in Hereford in 1906, and was chartered in February of the same year, being outgrowth of the old Hereford National Bank, founded Sept. 29, 1900.

The Hedricks moved to Hereford from Amarillo, and since 1937 have made their home here.

ter of the entire world," he said, "and we still like to think that this country holds that distinction. It is indeed a pleasure to see our young men, and our colleges take an interest in the cattle which are being produced in this area." In support of Mr. McDonald's theory of the fine type of cattle raised here will be the fact that buyers from over the entire United States will be on hand next Thursday to place bids in the auction—for Straight bred Anxiety 4th Herefords are today the foundation stock for numerous outstanding herds over the entire nation.

"Naturally, I shall be pleased to see as many of the animals as possible remain in the Hereford territory," Mr. McDonald said, "for I believe there are some excellent animals which will help retain the enviable reputation which this country has gained down through the years."

Any interested persons were invited to visit the sales pavilion prior to the sale for inspection of the cattle.

Farmers, Land-

Stating that the area of the southern plains where this water comes from is 720,000,000 acres, Mr. McDonald said that only 4.6 per cent of the total area is now under irrigation and that if the entire shallowwater area were developed, only 15 per cent of the total would be under irrigation. From Pampa to Clovis, this whole area of water is all one body of water. "Occasionally you may find islands of clay, etc., and would not get a good well, but these areas are very small.

"This water is the same as coal, timber, and other resources. Why not use this resource? Don't waste it, but use it. . . . There aren't any figures so far that would bring us alarm now. When we find out what to do, we will do it ourselves and not go somewhere else to get someone else to decide it for us."

Mr. McDonald produced figures to show that the same quantity of water on potatoes would produce $250 worth per acre as compared with $37.50 for grain or $45 for roughage, and said he would like for the economic group to explain how growing less than one-half what you could in this area with the same water, would be conserving water.

After reading and commenting on excerpts from the pamphlet "If the Well Runs Dry," Mr. McDonald said "We should be permitted to develop this community as it should be developed without any orders until we get ready for it. And then we could take a group of people and take everyone's suggestions. This proposed plan with self-appointed dictators in opposition to the water users of this Texas Panhandle, isn't short of Russian Communism. The kind of regulation we don't want and we are not going to accept."

Mr. McGeehee related briefly some of his experiences with wells here. He said he didn't believe that there was anyone who could tell how many feet of saturated sand there was. Tests showed 37 1-2 per cent saturation, he said, or 37 1-2 feet of water in 100 feet of sand. "We don't know, no one can tell, the average of underground water sands, the depths, 200 feet of 400 feet or more—we are just scratching the surface of this water."

Dennis Zimmerman of Tullia spoke and branded the bill as a "method to put more people on the pay roll and tell the farmers what not to do."

bill, H. M. Bainer of Amarillo mentioned the representative of the State Board of Water Engineers who spoke at the Plainview meeting as "A Lawyer from East Texas who said this was his first visit to this part of the country—the plains. He got up there after dark and had not been around except in town. He was the man that had drafted a bill to protect the Panhandle. Might as well say that we are old fogies who don't know how to take care of our own resources. Don't cross the bridge until you get to it—is an old saying. I don't believe we have got to the bridge yet—I believe when we come to a point that we need legislation, that we have sense enough to get it for ourselves and not have to depend on someone from East Texas or Washington, D. C., to put it over for us."

Mr. Zimmerman read a copy of the resolutions adopted at the Plainview meeting January 6, and it was unanimously adopted.
