

Crop Insurance Program For 1942 Shows No Major Changes

Around Town

Clara Wedel ought to see Frank Givan and Carl Gilliland trying to straighten out serial numbers, order numbers and key numbers to realize how much she will be appreciated when she gets back to work.

Chester Jacobs this week went to work for Ireland Motor Company. He has been employed at Halle Drug.

Connie McKinley is new fountain clerk at the Corner Drug, where he has taken the place formerly held by Billy Miller.

Dalby Motor Freight Lines of Amarillo will have a team in Hereford tomorrow night to play the Hereford All-Stars in softball. Admission will be ten cents.

And if anyone thought that the boy scouts would not find any old aluminum in Hereford, he ought to take a look at the trailer on the vacant lot by Kellogg's Store. The trailer is full and a good stack is piled on the ground.

Erwin Ward is the new doorman at the Star Theatre, and Aubrey Daniels is also working at the theatre while Joe Huckert is on his vacation.

Hereford fishermen who were at Conchas Dam last week were Dr. J. W. Hendrix, Lama Beavers, Milton Beavers, Ernest Medkief, Dubs, Pitman and Rufus Sewell. They had good luck, even discounting fishermen's tales.

William Waldo Hampton, Jr., who is in the U. S. Marine Corps, stationed at Bremington, Wash., will leave on August 14 for Alaska.

Much interest has been expressed in the buck raze being used to pick up wheat on the Kuper farm. Persons who have seen the raze say that it can do the work ordinarily done by men.

Over $100 Added To U. S. O. Fund During Week

Contributions amounting to $101.50 were made to the U. S. O. this week, bringing the total amount raised so far in the drive to $202.80. Since only part of the town has been actively canvassed, Harold Close, U. S. O. chairman, believes that the county will make its quota of $250. Persons and firms contributing this week were: Texas-New Mexico Utilities Co., $5; West Texas Gas Co., $5; Loerwald Bros., $5; Kemp Lbr. Co., $5; Mont Baker, $2; Deaf Smith Garden Club, $5; Richard Jowell, $1; The Vogue, $3; Plains Insurance, $2; Stambaugh Co., $3; Kellogg's, $5; (Continued on page 12)

Penalty Remission Offered On Payment Of Delinquent Taxes

A chance to pay delinquent taxes at from 25 to 50 per cent saving is now offered Texas citizens in accordance with a bill passed by the Texas Legislature. In announcing the bargain tax rates in Deaf Smith County, Tax Collector J. O. Newell explains that the new law allows property owners to pay all taxes delinquent prior to 1940 without any additional charge for penalty or interest. The law was passed as an inducement to bring old tax bills up to date and to clear long-delinquent accounts off of the tax collector's books.

Funeral Rites For Mrs. Turner Held Sunday

Funeral rites for Mrs. L. M. Turner, 44, who had lived in and near Hereford since 1923, were held Sunday afternoon at the Baptist Church, under the direction of Rev. W. E. Barnes. Mrs. Turner died at her home here Saturday morning following an illness of several months. Born at Franklin in Robinson County in 1893, Mrs. Turner was married to L. M. Turner at Haskell in 1909. For several years, the Turners lived in the Bippus Community before coming to Hereford. Mrs. Turner is survived by her husband, by one son, Henry A. Turner, and three daughters, Katherine, Lulia Virginia and Enmarie Turner, all of Hereford; five brothers, Tom Wright of Wichita Falls, John Wright of Shreveport, La., and Frank, Joe and Will Wright of Fort Worth, and by three sisters, Mrs. Rena Sumner and Mrs. Pauline Reid of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Lilliebell Walker of San Francisco. Speaker Predicts State Highways For This Section Predicting that State Highways will be built in this section, Johnnie Winters, president of Texas County Judges and Commissioners, Wednesday told members of the Hereford Lions Club that the $600,000 voted in bonds here will not be acted upon until another bill is passed by the legislature. "The highways may be built if a special session is called," he said, "and they may not be built for several years, but the bonds will be assumed some time." Delay in the program, Mr. Winters said is due to controversy between East and West Texas. He pointed out that East Texas already has State Highways and now wants lateral roads. Mr. Winters is a commissioner in Potter County and has been working with Deaf Smith officials in an effort to secure highways in this area.

Bateman Gives Facts On Potato Beetle

In response to requests of farmers for information about the Colorado potato beetle, which is reported to be causing damage to the Hereford potato crop on several farms, County Agent A. B. Bateman has prepared the following summary concerning the pest and methods suggested for its control: The adult beetle, says Mr. Bateman, is about three-eighths of an inch long, with alternating black and yellow stripes on the body. The larvae are soft-bodied and orange colored and about the same size as the adult. The beetle feeds on leaves, and the adult lays eggs of a yellow color under the leaves. The pest completely defoliates the potato plant. For control, Mr. Bateman suggests use of lead arsenate or of calcium arsenate—about five pounds to the acre—as a dust as soon as infestation occurs. Either of these remedies may be secured at local drug stores.

Weeds Should Be Left For Summer Fallowing

The county AAA committee recommends that weeds be left on summer fallowed land, explaining that they make an excellent natural vegetative cover. Leaving of the weeds until spring of 1942 will earn conservation payments for the farmer under the general compliance program.

That the 1942 crop insurance program will not be changed radically from the one in effect this year is the information received by local AAA employees who went Thursday to Amarillo to attend a district crop insurance meeting. T. P. McCollister, James Eiland and Mary Virginia Eberle of the local office attended the Amarillo meeting which featured an outline of the 1942 crop insurance program by E. R. Duke, state crop insurance supervisor.

Included in a few new regulations was the one denying government insurance to land which was seeded this year to oats, barley or rye. The reason for this regulation, says Mr. Duke, is obviously that such land would produce too much volunteer grain.

There is also a slight change in the way premiums will be paid: When the grower takes out insurance he may give a note, then when the premium is to be paid, the actual amount will be based on the price of wheat at the time the premium falls due. All notes will be due on July 10, 1942, after which a premium rate will be set. The closing date for securing insurance on the 1941 crop will be August 30, 1941; and farmers are warned that they must insure before wheat seed is needed.

Insurance Results—1941 T. P. McCollister, in reporting on results of the crop loan program for 1941, points out that out of 161 insurance policies for Deaf Smith County, there have been 106 claims submitted, for which a total of 94,766 bushels of wheat were paid in indemnity. Redford. Born at Valparaiso, Ind., in 1850, Mrs. Tice came to Deaf Smith County in 1908 from Iowa. For the past several years she had made her home with her son in Hereford. Survivors are two sons, J. L. Tice of Grants Pass, Ore., and C. E. Tice of Hereford; six grandchildren and several great grandchildren. Pallbearers were Guy Hamm, Glenn Greer, J. M. Murchison, J. B. County-Wide Picnic Has Varied Program

One Lunch Coming Up—by the Carload

"I'd like 125,000 pounds of potatoes, 25,000 bushels of wheat, 25,000 heads of lettuce, 25,000 cantaloupes, 25,000 ears of corn, and about 50,000 apples, oranges, and bananas. Wrap them up and I'll take them with me—for a light lunch." That, plus a few hundred other items, is a sample of the shopping list the Army's Chicago quartermaster corps fills every day to feed Army contingents in the Chicago area. The Chicago marketing center receives more than $2,000,000 a month for food. Photos show Army officers on a buying tour of the Chicago produce market.

H. M. Thomas Injured When Machinery Falls

H. M. Thomas, farmer and stockman, who has extensive business interests in the Bippus community, was injured painfully Saturday, when part of the heavy machinery in an irrigation pump fell on him, injuring muscles in his back and causing what doctors thought might be a cracked vertebrae. He was brought to Hereford from his farm north of town, where the accident occurred; and he has been placed in a cast. Thomas will have to remain in the cast for five or six weeks, but his condition is not considered critical. Two daughters, Mrs. B. F. Kane and Mrs. Lyle Holmes, both of Shamrock, arrived this week to remain with their parents for several days.

Hearing On Budget Set For August 11th

Hearing on the Deaf Smith County budget has been set by the commissioner's court for August 11 at 10 o'clock. All persons interested in the explanation and discussion of the budget are invited to be present in the commissioner's courtroom on that day. Allowances are being made for improvements on the courthouse and park grounds.

Napoleon once said "An army marches on its stomach," which during recent weeks means that most Texas armies have been traveling on Hereford potatoes. Reports from growers over this area state that potatoes produced in this area have been shipped to training camps at Mineral Wells, Brownwood, Abilene, El Paso, San Antonio, and other points. Army specifications are rigid, requiring the best quality, according to reports, but repeat orders have been coming in after different camps used Hereford grown potatoes. Yields this season were reported to be averaging under those of last year, due to unusual rainfall in this area, with 100 to 125 sacks of No. 1 spuds to the acre. The price on No. 1's was this week around $1.15 on Cobblers and $1.25 on Red Triumphs, which are the general varieties now being harvested. Similar conditions were reported over the remainder of the Texas Panhandle potato acreage. Hereford is listed with around 7,500 acres, while the remainder of the entire Panhandle has an acreage of from 2,500 to 3,000 acres. Growers anticipated better results from the fall crop, most of which is now up and doing exceedingly well. A new field office of Priorities Director Stettinius has been opened in Dallas. There are now 10 in the United States.

Clara Wedel In Hiway Accident

Miss Clara Wedel, clerk at the selective service office, was injured painfully Wednesday afternoon, when she was hit on the head by a piece of lumber which was extending from the back of a truck. Miss Wedel was walking south on the pavement on 25 mile Ave., having just crossed over from third street. A truck, driven by a Mr. Hahn of Friona, passed her going north; and she evidently turned to look at it and a board extending from the back of the truck bed struck her forehead, cutting partly over her scalp and sharply to the right and knocking her, unconscious, into the mudhole by the side of the road. The driver of the truck heard the injured woman scream, stopped and got her to the hospital, where she is reported this morning to be resting comfortably.

School Next Week For Workers On Land Measuring

A school for performance reporters and chairmen who will work in the annual land measuring of the general compliance program will be held on August 4 and 5 at the courthouse, it was announced today by James Eiland, AAA secretary. The school will start at 9 o'clock each morning. The school will be under the direction of J. R. Cochran, district performance supervisor, who will take up such subjects as classification of crops and the results of certain soil building and depleting practices. At the end of the two day school an examination will be given for all persons who want jobs as performance reporters and chain men, and grades made on the examination will be the principal basis upon which jobs are awarded. All workers in the land measuring program will be hired by the local AAA Committee. There will be no pay for attending the performance program school, but it is urged that all persons desiring work on the program attend both days, as information will be important not only in passing the examination but in the proper execution of the work.

Deaf Smith County's 24 registrants in the second selective service registration have now received their order numbers, after a key number was received at the local office to determine the order in which the younger men will be called. Names of the new registrants have been put in the same file with those of the men who registered in October, with the letter "S" before their number to signify second registration. In explaining the classification system, Frank Givan, member of the local board, pointed out that the first number for the new men, "S-46" will be called after "46" on the draft list. Names of men, together with their order numbers, follow: S-46 — Erman Earl Campbell S-79 — Harold Reece Stewart S-112 — Lawrence Leeroy Wagner S-145 — Owen Ray Neel S-178 — Stanford Merrill Barrett S-211 — Buford Benjamin Qualls S-244 — Paul Robert Barnes S-277 — Louis Hugh Brady S-310 — Billy Beene S-343 — Earl Van Stagner S-376 — Clyde Huntington Whitaker S-409 — Earl Kenneth Oldham S-442 — Earnest Eugene Shaw S-475 — Adam Ernest Schliehagen S-508 — Charles Eddie Crowell S-541 — Thomas Deyo Owen S-574 — Charles William Bowman S-607 — Howard Houston Gore S-640 — James Louie Campbell S-673 — Leo Creath Rogers S-706 — Richard Lynn Rhoads S-739 — James Wallace LaCour S-772 — Frederick Roger Baumann S-805 — William David Taylor, Jr.

Judge James W. Witherspoon will be on the bench, and District Attorney John B. Honts of Dalhart will handle the state's prosecution in the criminal cases, of which there is not expected to be a large number. The grand jury panel includes the following names: Glenn Boardman, J. G. Weir, C. T. Guseman, G. W. Brumley, J. Alton Miller, Oscar Easley, E. S. Ireland, W. Jesse Stanford, H. E. Miller, J. R. Overstreet, J. G. Fortenberry, T. E. Rohrbach, C. H. Minimum Requirements For Social Security Benefits Explained

The old-age survivors insurance system provides for monthly payments to an insured worker and certain members of his family when he retires after reaching the age of 65, and to certain members of his family in case of his death, according to a statement by Dewey Reed, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Board. "The length of time a man has worked in jobs covered by this system and the wages he has received must be sufficient to meet certain minimum requirements. To use the language of the law—he must have had sufficient 'quarters of coverage.' A quarter of coverage is a calendar quarter (three-month period beginning January, April, July or October) in which the worker was paid wages of $50 or more in covered employment."

It was further explained that a worker who is 65 years old or older can claim old-age retirement benefits if he is fully insured. In general, he is fully insured if he has enough of coverage to equal half the calendar quarters between December 31, 1936, and the quarter in which he attains age 65. But he must in any case have at least 6 quarters of coverage.

BULL

By Jimmie Gillentine

Do you ever wonder what they used to put in the daily papers, newsreels and magazines before the war started? Any time you pick up a daily paper you can bet that it will be 40 per cent war news; the newsreel this past week-end was 100 per cent war news, and the magazines are running around 15 per cent war news and war features. Sometimes I wonder what happened to the things people used to find interesting enough to buy papers.

John McLean came by to say "Thanks" for the fine cooperation given the Boy Scouts in collecting old aluminum. Those to help in collecting the utensils were sure surprised, because most people had the aluminum stacked on their front porches—and several went so far as to bring it to town and put it in the trailer on Main Street. If you haven't made your contribution and wish to do so, call John McLean and he will send someone out to collect it. Be sure and do this before Saturday, however, as it will be hauled to Amarillo around noon on that date.

The wheat crop may have turned into a flop, but no one need get cold this winter. There is too much Lambs-quarters. Even those who do not appreciate the greens as a table delicacy need have qualms about cutting it down and using it for fire wood—and it's plenty large enough in some places.

Mr. Presley, who lives out Summerfield way, came in the other day and bought a bunch of cow bells. He said the weeds are so high that he can't find his cows, even after he gets close to them. The sunflowers are very high this year, and all of the different types of weeds are making it very uncomfortable for hay fever victims. If you want to get one of these sufferers up in the air, just tell them you think hay fever is imagination. Eva Pitman and Mrs. A. R. Bateman sure got me told. They don't get angry, they get plain mad. One time we ran an article telling how the regular drinking of goat's milk might eliminate hay fever. Most folks said they would rather have hay fever. If you know how to cure this disease, please let us know. The best thing I can think of is to just blow your nose once in a while, and grin whether you feel in the mood or not.

A lot of folks have been commenting upon how nice the streets look since they were swept down. It sure did help. However, it's human never to be satisfied; Mrs. M. L. Steele just came by fussing about the condition of our alleys. Anyway, we are all due to congratulate the city. This has been a tough year on the city, since people have used very little water to keep their lawns and gardens.

Defense Bond QUIZ

Q. What is the reason for buying a Defense Bond?
 A. To keep America free. To show faith and pride in your country; to warn foreign dictators that the United States is the strongest country in the world.
 Q. But if I do not have enough money to buy a Defense Bond, what can I do?
 A. Buy Defense Postal Stamps, on sale almost everywhere. Your post office, bank, department store or druggist has them, or can get them for you at 10 cents upward. Save enough Stamps to exchange for a Defense Bond.

Agriculture To Be Represented In OPM Defense Commodities Group

Agriculture has been assured of representation in those of the recently created OPM defense commodity groups with "commodities produced by agriculture or necessary to the production of agriculture." These groups will consist of Government officials working with the defense industry advisory committees now being set up.

The assurance came from Sidney Hillman associate director general, who also wrote for William S. Knudsen, director general, OPM, in an exchange of letters with M. Clifford Townsend, director, Office of Agricultural Defense Relations, United States Department of Agriculture.

In requesting representation for agriculture, Director Townsend outlined to OPM officials agriculture's basic part in the defense program:

"American agriculture," his letter said, "is responsible for the production of adequate supplies of foods and fibers for domestic and military use, and for the needs of nations resisting aggression. Thus, we are directly concerned in the production of such commodities as food, fiber, drugs, rubber, fats, and oils. In discharging this responsibility, agriculture is an important user of a wide range of metals, chemicals, and other supplies, and has a substantial interest in the advisory committees dealing with these commodities. American agriculture, as an important employer of labor, is interested in the Office of Production Management and maintains a liaison contact with the Labor Division. Interested agencies to be notified."

In reply, Mr. Hillman wrote: "In order efficiently to organize and centralize the formation and operation of defense industry advisory committees, the Office of Production Management has created a bureau of clearance with Sidney J. Weinberg as chief, which will be in charge of notifying each Government agency of each meeting held by any of such committees, in which the Government agency might have an interest. As OPM wishes to cooperate with you in every way possible, I have spoken to Mr. Weinberg, who advised me that he received a copy of your letter to Mr. Knudsen and that he has directed the Bureau to notify you whenever any meeting of defense industry advisory committee are to be held."

The first bale of the 1941 cotton crop in the nation was brought in from the farm of Arcadio Salinas in Starr County, Texas. County Agricultural Agent Charles King said the 85-acre Salinas farm had not made a crop in four years. He attributed this year's early yield to heavy rains in the last six months.

TEXAS OUT-O-DOORS

FISH COST ONLY HALF CENT

Austin.—Fourteen years ago the cost of every fingerling fish distributed from the hatcheries of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission was 47 cents. This year the cost of each fish raised will be approximately a half cent, it was announced by the executive secretary of the commission after he had examined reports from the hatchery division of the department.

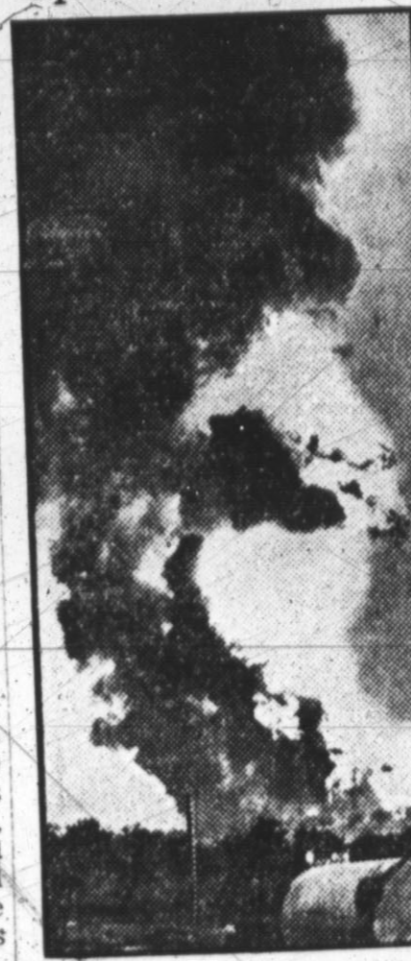

Improved methods of fertilization, feeding and handling of fish have made it possible for the Texas department to cut the cost of fish and it is going down each year. In 1939 the cost of fish was one and a half cents. Last year there was a sharp drop in production cost to 9 mills and with the hatcheries expecting to plant at least 12,000,000 fish in the lakes and streams of the state the cost will be 5 1/2 mills. That will make the cost of fish distributed this season approximately one-ninth of that fourteen years ago.

Anglers benefit by the additional number of fish planted. Unless methods had been devised to raise more fish with the hatchery space and personnel available, more fish could be planted due to the limited amount of money the department has available for fish production.

STRANGE FRIENDSHIP

The mountains of West Texas about six miles from Van Horn are the scene of rather strange friendship. A seven-point deer and a young ewe bighorn mountain sheep have been seen together several times. Not long ago a biologist of the game department came upon the strange pair bedded down together under a bluff on the side of Beach Mountains. They sprang up together and the buck bounded off up the mountain, closely followed by the sheep.

SANCTUARIES SERVE PURPOSE

Fish sanctuaries established by the Texas game department on some lakes and streams do not always meet the approval of the public, but they serve their purpose, that of protecting fish in their favorite spawning areas and ultimately give the anglers much more sport than if the sanctuaries were not set up by the department.

Sanctuaries are established upon order of the game department and the board of county commissioners in the various counties when it is believed that by not allowing fishing or seining in a specific area that many more fish will be produced in a lake or stream.

The sanctuaries are abandoned when they have served their purpose, as is attested by the recent action of taking off the sanctuaries from several areas in Roy Inks Lake, one of the four lakes formed by dams on the Colorado River above Austin. FIND 4 TIMBER WOLF PUPS

Despite efforts of several state departments, including the game department, to eradicate timber wolves, there are still a few of the huge beasts in Texas. Four were dug out of a den near Crockett, in East Texas, recently, after the mother had been caught in a trap. Two of them were killed by dogs, but the other pair are now in the zoo at Beaumont.

And here is another note which attests to the fact that Texas still has a variety of wild-life, although some of it is not desirable. A game warden in the Panhandle reported recently that he had killed nine huge rattlesnakes within a period of six weeks. The largest was 6 feet, 2 inches in length and had a circumference of twelve inches. Four other rattlers each measured more than five feet in length.

TEXAS BIRD IN EAST

Chachalacas, native to the United States only in Texas, strangely enough are thriving on the Blackbeard Island, national wildlife refuge off the coast of Georgia, according to a report received by the Texas game department from the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. They were introduced on that island and upon Sapelo, nearby, about fifteen years ago. At least twenty-five are known to be on Blackbeard Island.

Texas Auto Fatalities Show Increase in 1941

Austin.—With 140 traffic deaths reported for June, State Police statisticians today announced a seven per cent increase in Texas fatalities for the first six months of 1941.

In the first half of 1940 there were 787 deaths; this year the toll for that period rose to 843, an increase of 56.

Worst record was made by towns of under 2,500 population, where fatalities jumped 29 per cent, from 38 to 49.

Highway deaths increased from 429 to 514, a gain of 85 or 20 per cent.

Thirty two fewer persons were killed on county roads, where the toll was reduced from 138 to 106, a drop of 32, or 23 per cent.

Cities recorded a bare reduction of four per cent with a saving of eight lives, their toll dropping from 182 to 174.

Military personnel was involved—either as drivers, passengers or pedestrians—in 19 per cent of all the fatal collisions, said Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., State Police director.

Dallas, co-winner with Kansas City last year for the nation's top safety award, took fourth place in the rating of cities of more than 100,000 population. Fort Worth and Houston showed a decrease of one death each; San Antonio remained on par with last year's record, and Dallas recorded an increase of one death.

Americans Have Wrong Idea Of Mexican Fiesta

Dallas. — Americans have the wrong idea about the great Mexican national custom of the siesta, Emilio Azcarra, president and general manager of radio station XEW, Mexico City, said as he visited here recently.

"Most Americans think of that as the typical spirit of mianana expressed in a lazy afternoon of sleeping. They also think we don't do things down in Mexico," he said in an interview.

"But look, I do things. You do things. When we both get to the cemetery, one has done as much as the other. The main difference is I'll have some rest and you'll get there ten years ahead of me."

All that is necessary properly to take a siesta "is to sit in an easy chair in a cool place, put your feet on a desk or something, close your eyes, and relax for 20 minutes," he counseled.

Research into the subject of siesta by Azcarra have led him to the conclusion that a great many Americans in America have adopted the siesta habit on the sly. "Especially," he smiled, "those over 40 who take the advice of their doctors."

Azcarra is in the United States on a combination vacation trip and visit to the Mayo Clinic where he and Mrs. Azcarra took her mother for treatment. They plan to fly back to the Latin-American capital soon.

Between Mexico and the United States, Azcarra thinks, relations are just about as good as they could possibly be.

"Mexican citizens," he commented, "are liberty lovers, just like Americans who want only forty acres and a mule. They are solidly behind the government and President Manuel Avila Camacho in the present program of preparedness."

Well-equipped already, he is of the opinion that the Mexican army is becoming constantly more so and is mechanizing itself as fast as possible.

"The Mexican army," he said, "is the finest in the western hemisphere outside of the United States. It was made in action and its men have been promoted for merit. They have had fifteen years or more of fighting and they're experts at it. They can take it."

"Planes and tanks could not overcome our army at all. The country is rough. While the roads are excellent, there are few of them and we could defend the mountains forever. Actually the frontier we have most worry about is that we share with the United States. We can take care of the rest."

"Since there are so few Germans in Mexico," Azcarra declared, "there is no reason to worry about the Nazi menace from that direction. They are 100 per cent German, all right, but there are only 3,500 of them. You have more than that in each of a large number of American cities."

CHDA NOTES

By Sodie Lee Oliver

Sixteen women, representing six clubs, attended the regular council meeting held in the county courtroom on July 26.

The county chairman presented plans for the county wide picnic to be held in Hereford on Saturday, August 2, and a final meeting of the picnic committee was scheduled for July 30 at 3 o'clock.

A report was made on the progress of fruit trees planted by Mrs. Clyde Coonauger at her home in Hereford. She furnished heavily fruited branches of the Hansen Bush Cherry and the hybrid cherry plum Opata as evidence of the prolific qualities of recommended varieties for this area. The Sapa cherry-plum was equally prolific.

Another exhibit of interest to council members was the Gold Star won in 1940 by Nancy Olson of the Wyche 4-H Club.

Announcement was made that surplus iris plants of two or more varieties are available at the ranch home of Mrs. Sayde Kirby. Mrs. Kirby has made two new plantings but has a large number of surplus plants to be given to other gardeners.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames Ira Ott, Louie Olson, W. B. Harris, George Reeves, Lauren Laullin, Zerrell Thomas, Glenn Hetzler, C. D. Kelton, W. A. Springer, J. E. Springer, Alden Hawks, John Kropff, Oiso Olson, J. G. Fortenberry, M. C. Kaul, and Misses Norma Hetzler and Sadie Lee Oliver. Clubs represented were Simms, Frio, North Hereford, Wyche, and Westway.

At an election meeting held after the Home Demonstration Council adjourned on July 26, delegates and alternates were elected to attend the State meeting of the Home Demonstration Administration, which will be held in Beaumont the first week in September.

Delegates elected were Mrs. Ira Ott, chairman; alternate, Mrs. W. B. Harris, Wyche club president; Mrs. Lauren Luallin, vice-chairman of council; alternate, Mrs. Glenn Hetzler, Simms club president; Mrs. John Kropff, president of North Hereford club; alternate, Mrs. Alden Hawks, president of Frio club.

The Westway Home Demonstration Club will be the guest of the Bippus club at the Com-

Prod. Credit Loans Hit High Total

The 36 production credit associations of Texas have hit an all-time high in loans to farmers and stockmen during the first six months of 1941, according to figures released this week by the Amarillo Production Credit Association.

Reflecting credit demands for seasonal operations and expanded farm production to meet national defense requirements, Texans this year have borrowed $23,957,630, a gain of 47 per cent over last year's half total of $16,442,627. Loans during the period reached a total of 9,377, which shows a gain of 2,991 members.

The Amarillo Association has made 152 loans to stockmen and farmers for $1,056,486.24 in the period from January 1 through June 30, 1941, as compared with 127 loans for $514,271.49 during the same period in 1940.

The latest methods of canning both under pressure and in hot water bath will be given in a demonstration by the county home demonstration agent. Such demonstrations are open to the public.

Alexander Is Chairman C. of C. Membership Drive

D. H. Alexander is chairman of a Chamber of Commerce committee appointed this week to raise $5,500 in membership fees by September 30, 1942, according to an announcement made by W. E. Dameron, president of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce. Others on the committee are George Brumley and N. E. Gass. The membership drive is the climax of recent Chamber of Commerce publicity, setting forth the advantages of an active Chamber of Commerce in the period of farming and industrial change which is now going on in Hereford; and in view of the need for an increased budget to take care of new duties and to carry on existing work, the committee feels that there should be no difficulty in getting the increased membership desired. Payments to the Chamber of Commerce now are about $185 a month, with no member paying more than $5, and with many businesses and individuals who have a direct interest in the industrial and agricultural growth of the territory not holding membership. The new budget would call for payments to total around $400 a month.

Peaches May Be Dried for Safe Preservation

College Station.—With peach growers, consumers, grocers, and governmental agencies intent on distribution and consumption of Texas bumper peach crop, homemakers will likely turn their attention to drying as a safe, economical means of preservation. Grace I. Neely specialist in food preservation for the A. and M. College Extension Service, says in one of her publications that most foods, if stored in a cool, dry place, will remain in a good edible condition for a year or more. There are two methods which may be followed in drying peaches—drying in the sun or in a ventilated glassed-in box. The latter provides a higher temperature and can be made a protection from the rain, while there is little control of temperature in the sun drying method. As a rule, the specialist says, sliced peaches dry in three to eight hours; halved fruits in eight to 24 hours; and whole fruit in 18 to 36 hours. Often some pieces will dry before the rest, and in this case the thoroughly dried products should be removed and the remainder left in the dryer to complete the process. Fruit thoroughly dried has a "rubbery" texture. When fruit is taken from the drying trays it should be "conditioned"—that is, it should be placed in deep containers and stirred each day for 8 to 10 days. Then before it is stored, the product should be heated for 30 minutes at a temperature from 150 to 180 degrees. All containers for storing dried foods should be sealed or closed tight, the specialist says. Further information about home-drying of foods can be obtained from county home demonstration agents.

Bell County Farmer's Co-operative Success

College Station.—A success story generally is associated with the home town boy who makes good in the big city, but a group of Bell County farmers have proved that a success story also may be written far from the bright lights.

According to C. E. Bowles, of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, this group who live in the vicinity of Belton, banded together 12 years ago and set up a little cooperative

Dr. J. A. Hill, born near Moody and president of West Texas State College, Canyon, since 1918, will be the principal speaker at the Memorial Service Sunday night, Aug. 3, prefacing the Sixth Annual XIT Ranch Reunion in Dalhart Aug. 4-5. The Memorial Service, in the Central Methodist church, is to pay a tribute to all the sons and daughters of the Old West, living or dead, who contributed to its glory.

to buy some of their supplies and market some of their produce. From a small beginning this undertaking has grown into a husky business which is serving its members well.

Reasoning that if cooperation worked successfully in buying supplies it should work as well in other fields, these farmers in 1935 set up another cooperative and bought a cotton gin. After tasting success in their two enterprises they decided in 1939 to add another service, a cotton warehouse. Now a part of the storage payments on loan cotton go to the members as a saving.

Early in 1940, some of the Belton cooperators got interested in frozen food lockers. But it was a big undertaking. They had to be sure before going into debt $12,000 or more. At times it looked discouraging.

"I've lived 50 years without a freezer locker," said one man, "and I reckon I can make it for 20 more."

County extension agents and Farm Security supervisors were called in. Educational meetings were held, motion pictures shown and committees drove many miles to obtain information. Finally, 200 families agreed to rent lockers and the directors of the cooperative gin arranged to finance the plant with the aid of the Houston Bank for Cooperatives. Today some 300 families are enjoying the benefits of modern frozen food storage.

Income from locker rentals and processing charges above actual cost of operation is used to repay borrowed money. Since the locker system is cooperatively owned, Bowles says, the members will have to pay for it but once.

"Each new service, each added saving increases the buying power of the members," Bowles observes, "and this, in turn, means better business for merchants and others who serve them."

Joe Huckert left last Saturday for Los Angeles, Calif., where he will spend his vacation with E. E. Maxfield. He will be gone for ten days.

FELICITY, Ohio—Last spring Councilman Don Kennedy heaved some old potatoes into a trash can already containing tin cans, rope, paper, and other rubbish.

Achievements of Hereford Chamber of Commerce Listed by President As Membership Campaign Gets Started

HEREFORD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE—NEWS VIEWS

By W. E. DAMERON

Article 2 of the Constitution and By-laws of Hereford Chamber of Commerce reads as follows:

Article 2. Object

Section 1. "The Hereford chamber of Commerce is organized for the purpose of advancing the COMMERCIAL, INDUSTRIAL, CIVIC and GENERAL interests of the City of Hereford and developing of Deaf Smith County as a whole."

Section 2. "This chamber in its activities shall be nonpartisan, nonsectional and non-sectarian."

The board of directors believe 100 per cent in the declaration of purpose of this organization. We dedicate our efforts to "advancing the commercial, industrial, civic and general interest of the City of Hereford and developing of Deaf Smith County as a whole."

Neither will this organization be used to benefit any clique, crowd, or particular section of the county, but the efforts of this organization will be directed for the benefit of the WHOLE. We are not posing as a group of reformers; we are just interested citizens with a duty to perform, but we will not hesitate to point out and condemn attitudes and conditions, or anything else, standing in the way of, and preventing, this organization's accomplishing the purpose for which it was organized.

We still hear sometimes, not often for it exposes the gross ignorance, or prejudice, perhaps both, of the persons saying it that the "Chamber of Commerce has never done anything." Assuming there may be a few well meaning citizens who really believe that, because of lack of information, and who are not using that as an excuse for not joining the Chamber of Commerce, we are glad to point out a few, not all, of the major accomplishments of the local Chamber of Commerce.

HIGHWAYS: Highway 60 was paved through the active efforts of this organization. Highway 51 was designated as a State highway only after this organization had conducted a fight for its designation covering many years. Every Chamber of Commerce in the country was constantly before the State Highway Commission seeking pavement of their present highways and asking for additional designations. Had not our organization stayed on the job we would not, of course have been considered.

HEREFORD CREAMERY: The Hereford Creamery was built through the active efforts of this organization. The campaign was both planned and conducted by the local Chamber of Commerce, first by pointing out the need for the creamery and then in raising the funds for its erection.

TELEGRAPH—TELEPHONE: Through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce Hereford was given an uptown telegraph office. Through the same source the Bell Telephone Company was induced to give Hereford a modern telephone system, erecting a modern building in which to house their equipment, a distinct asset to the appearance of Hereford.

POST OFFICE: In 1937 the Hereford Chamber of Commerce filed an exhaustive brief with the Post Office Department setting forth the need of a post office building for Hereford. In 1938 Mr. H. V. Hennen, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, personally appeared before the Locating Board of the Post Office Department in Washington, D. C., and urged action on the application and brief filed the year before by the Chamber of Commerce. Hereford was placed in line for the building, which soon followed.

And yet the "Chamber of Commerce has never done anything."

A. The plan was formed by Mr. Hennen, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; and backed by the organization he accomplished what many people thought could not be done. Through the Chamber of Commerce this electric service has been extended to more than 800 consumers. Approximately $450,000 has been spent on these lines and the service covers about 450 miles. This concern, REA, borrowed and reloaned at a low rate of interest $66,000 to the rural consumers for use in purchasing modern equipment with which to utilize the current. And yet the "Hereford Chamber of Commerce has never done anything."

EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN:

It is a well known fact that for many years most of the world thought, and some persons still think, that all we could raise out here was prairie dogs, jack rabbits, rattle snakes and pole cats. The Chamber of Commerce has conducted an educational campaign and has pretty well established the fact that we can and do grow a great variety of feeds and foods needed the world over. This educational campaign has had for its purpose not only to show that a great variety of feeds and foods can be grown here, but that this country presents unusual opportunities for lands, richness of the soil, water and sunshine. Thousands of dollars have been spent through the years with outstanding exhibits at the major and minor fairs; and thousands of people have been convinced we are rapidly "coming into our own" as an agricultural and stock raising section of Texas. Literally thousands upon thousands of leaflets, pamphlets and descriptive literature describing our unusual opportunities have been sent to every corner of the United States. Through the years thousands of letters have been written in answer to people seeking information about this country. Who are these strangers on our streets every day? Where did they come from? How did they happen to hear of Hereford?

And yet the "Chamber of Commerce has never done anything."

FREIGHT RATES: In August 1938, D. H. Alexander, Secretary of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, inaugurated a campaign to abolish rate differentials in West Texas. In plain words we were being discriminated against in freight rates. We had been placed in a rate zone by reason of which we were paying freight rates from 10 to 20 per cent more than that paid by most of Texas. Mr. Alexander enlisted the support of almost every Chamber of Commerce in West Texas; people with influence were interested in the campaign, and finally the West Texas Chamber of Commerce got on the job, and through the efforts of all these agencies the injustice to West Texas was removed. In October 1939 the Texas Railway Commission entered an order abolishing differentials. In November, 1939, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce published a long story in their official publication, "West Texas Today" setting forth the great victory for West Texas. The following extract is taken from that story: "October 16th—date of the Commission's order—abolishing differentials—is a date to be marked down in the history of West Texas, marking the removal of a great burden from the banks of West Texas, producers, consumers and shippers. It means a saving of from 10 to 20 per cent in freight rates on most commodities to and from the differential territory. It means that rates for West Texas are now on a parity with rates in the rest of Texas. It means that this area is free of a burden in extra freight rate charges which its producers, consumers and shippers have borne for more than 50 years. It means that the total savings to them in only one year will amount to thousands of dollars."

If the Hereford Chamber of Commerce had done nothing else during all the years of its existence this service alone would be worth all it has cost the community during that time; and yet the "Chamber of Commerce has never done anything."

mentioned accomplishments, except the fight for freight rate reductions, which is perhaps the most far-reaching of them all, are visible to the eye. The unseen service rendered by the local chamber, in our judgment, is even more valuable to the community. Receiving visitors, answering letters of inquiry, maintaining contacts of value to the community, and in fact doing those many things no one will take the time to do or is prepared to do. What other organization is prepared to fight or does fight for the commercial, industrial and business rights of the community? What other organization presents our claims before the many government agencies having to do with community advancement? This is an age when we get only what we go after. Competition is keen. Even government benefits, such as roads, buildings, etc., are not handed out equally and uniformly. They are obtained, if at all, by an organized effort representing a united citizenship. None of these agencies have time to listen to the individual, but when the community speaks through and organization they listen. An example of what we mean. Last week word reached us that the local labor employment office was to be closed. We wired the state director at Austin requesting that the office remain open until potato harvest was over, explaining that the growers at the time needed 100 additional men. Next day the district supervisor came to Hereford and after consulting with Chamber of Commerce officials agreed to maintain the local service through potato harvest. Do you suppose the office would have been re-opened in response to the request from some individual? "And the Chamber of Commerce has never done anything."

In organization there is strength, there is power, and great benefits, and yet just a few people pay the bill for the benefit of all. It isn't right folks, no it "ain't" right and we don't believe you think it is right either. That is the reason we believe you will join the Chamber of Commerce for we do not believe we have many in our community who are willing for a few people to pay for benefits received by all. On a pure basis of merit this organization is entitled to and should receive the support of every citizen of our community. There is much to be done, read our column next week, and we solicit the support of all our people to the end that even more and better things may be accomplished for our community.

"Let me tell you how I chose my second refrigerator!"

All refrigerators looked alike to the newlyweds. "Give us the low-down," they asked friends. "Why did you replace yours with the one that freezes with NO MOVING PARTS?"

1 "You never hear a thing..." said Bill Jones. "Just listen... silent, isn't it? And I can tell you, as one who's had experience, that's reason enough to buy a Servel. And no noise also means no wear, too!"

2 "Only a tiny gas flame..." Ted Walsh points out. "That's all it takes to do the work. Servel hasn't a single moving part in its freezing system. That's why you can depend on it to stay quiet, efficient and economical."

3 "My bills are lower..." said Mrs. Smith. "Food keeps much longer. And with no moving, wearing parts to run up the cost, Servel's operating cost will stay low always."

4 "And such conveniences..." You can store what you want, where you want it, keep it as you like it. You can have moist cold or dry cold, whichever you prefer. And there are lots of other features you'll love!"

See FRASER at Commercial Oil Company

5 "Make yours a Servel!" That was every body's advice, and—since the newlyweds took it—it's their tip to you. Why not run down to your Servel dealer's right now... and see the beautiful new 1940 models they have on the floor. You will be delighted at the spacious roominess, the glistening finish inside and out, the new conveniences. But best of all... you'll want the gas refrigerator for your home because its freezing system has no moving parts!

Hereford Boy Among Marines Who Have Occupied Iceland

Mrs. Vera Smith, together with a great many other mothers of men in the U. S. Marine Corps, has discovered what it is like to go six weeks without hearing from her son. And it was not a matter of forgetfulness on son Jack's part.

He was one of the U. S. Marines who was sent to Iceland when the government occupied the island with the consent of Icelandic authorities; and since most of the marines were transferred from west coast stations, it was necessary to keep their long journey a secret until the occupation was actually accomplished.

Jack left San Diego on May 28, went through the Panama Canal and to the base at Charleston, S. C. He wrote his mother on July 18, not giving the date of his arrival; and with most names of the places touched on the trip to Iceland, and on the island itself deleted by the censor.

Iceland is a volcanic island, according to Jack's letter; and the vegetation is sparse. In winter, there are three hours of daylight, and the marines can expect to spend most of their time in huts. That Icelandic natives are much more courteous than Americans and have evidently given the American armed forces a pleasant welcome is the impression made by Smith's letter.

Yellowstone Park Is World Wonderland Of Beauty

SIGHTS WORTH SEEING

Scenic wonders of Europe seem insignificant by comparison with Yellowstone's breath-taking beauty. Yellowstone river gorge is impressive in its magnitude.

BY WINIFRED CLARK

YELLOWSTONE National Park has rightly been called the "Wonderland" of the world. Dramatically beautiful, the Yellowstone region so impressed the Indians that they called it "Burning Mountains" and regarded it as the home of might, vengeful spirits.

Its streams are noted for their bountifulness of trout. The park is one and one-half times the area of the state of Delaware.

Yellowstone covers one of the most scenic areas in the Rockies. Its most popular attractions include Mammoth Hot Springs, whose great rainbow-lined terraces have been sculptured by the water which cascades down their brilliantly colored sides.

Yellowstone is not only the first and oldest of our national parks, but it is the largest and most famous as well. It contains some 3000 geysers and hot springs, mountains, forests, glaciers, rivers, waterfalls, canyons, petrified trees, streams and lakes.

A great variety of wild animals and birds inhabit the park.

Let's Cook Something

A thoroughly chilled fruit cup, a crisp, colorful salad, a refreshing frozen dessert—these are the touches that make summer meals appealing no matter how hot the day. They are appreciated equally by the family and by the guest who shares your hospitality.

Many of Hereford's "good cooks" are among the younger women who delight in trying out new recipes and adapting them to their own use. Here is just such a recipe tried and tested by Mrs. J. C. McCracken and it never fails to occasion second helpings, especially if there are any men around. It's new and different.

Vegetable Salad

- 1 can tomato soup
- 1 tablespoon gelatin
- 1-2 cup cold water
- 1 small bunch green onions
- 1-2 green pepper
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 3 packages cream cheese
- 1 cup salad dressing
- 3 celery hearts
- 1-2 teaspoons salt
- 2 tablespoons sugar

Put gelatin in the water and let stand. Mix soup and cheese in small pan and heat well. Add gelatin to soup and cheese mixture while warm. Add salt, pepper, sugar and vinegar and set aside to cool. When cold add the finely chopped vegetables. Add the salad dressing and place in refrigerator to congeal.

Club Women Are Urged To Cooperate With Federation's Nutrition Program

Clubwomen all over the state have been cooperating with Mrs. Julius Waring Walker of Plainview, president of the state federation, who asked clubwomen, early in her administration, to introduce into their own and other homes the following "Food Standard" to be used as a check list to make all housewives conscious of the essentials of diet, according to Mrs. F. M. Kester, chairman of the American Home Department of the Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs.

NATIONAL DEFENSE

There are many ways in which the clubwomen can serve in helping solve the great national problem of malnutrition. It is not so much a problem of economic status as it is of education in proper diets and nutritional values of foods. It is possible for a person to consume large amounts of food and still be undernourished.

Program committees have been urged to keep in mind the problem of helping educate the people as a whole in the importance of health in national defense, and to include health programs in the 1941-42 club season." Mrs. Kester said:

STANDARD FOR TEXAS

The "Texas Food Standard" for a safe diet, calls for, daily: One pint to one quart milk, more for children.

- One egg
- One serving of meat, poultry, fish or cheese.
- One serving Irish or sweet potatoes.
- One serving green or yellow vegetables.
- One serving other vegetables.
- One serving of citrus, tomatoes, raw cabbage, strawberries or melons.
- One serving of fruit.
- One serving whole grain products.
- Other cereals and bread as desired.
- Butter, or margarine with vitamins added.
- Some sweets, and six or eight glasses of water.

NEW OIL WINS Certified Death-Test IN "LAND AFIRE"

5-Quart crankcase fill—none added—lasted
13,398 miles, outlasting 5 rivals by 74% to 161%... Certified

Big new oil Economy forecast for your car

"LAND AFIRE," the redmen named red-hot Death Valley. It's slain men by drying them up. But only after 13,398 miles at 57 miles an hour—in a car with crankcase under lock—could Death Valley heat dry up a 5-quart fill of new

CONOCO Nth MOTOR OIL—
Outlasted five other Brands in Fair Test!

Conoco Nth actually outlasted one big brand by 8,268 miles. Yet all 6 brands tested had exactly the same chance... in identical new stock cars. No oil could be added to the strict 5-quart fill locked in each car. And all were to run till wrecked. So it ended up in the death of 6 cars, with the 5 "also rans" averaging not even half the mileage delivered by new Conoco Nth oil... Certified.

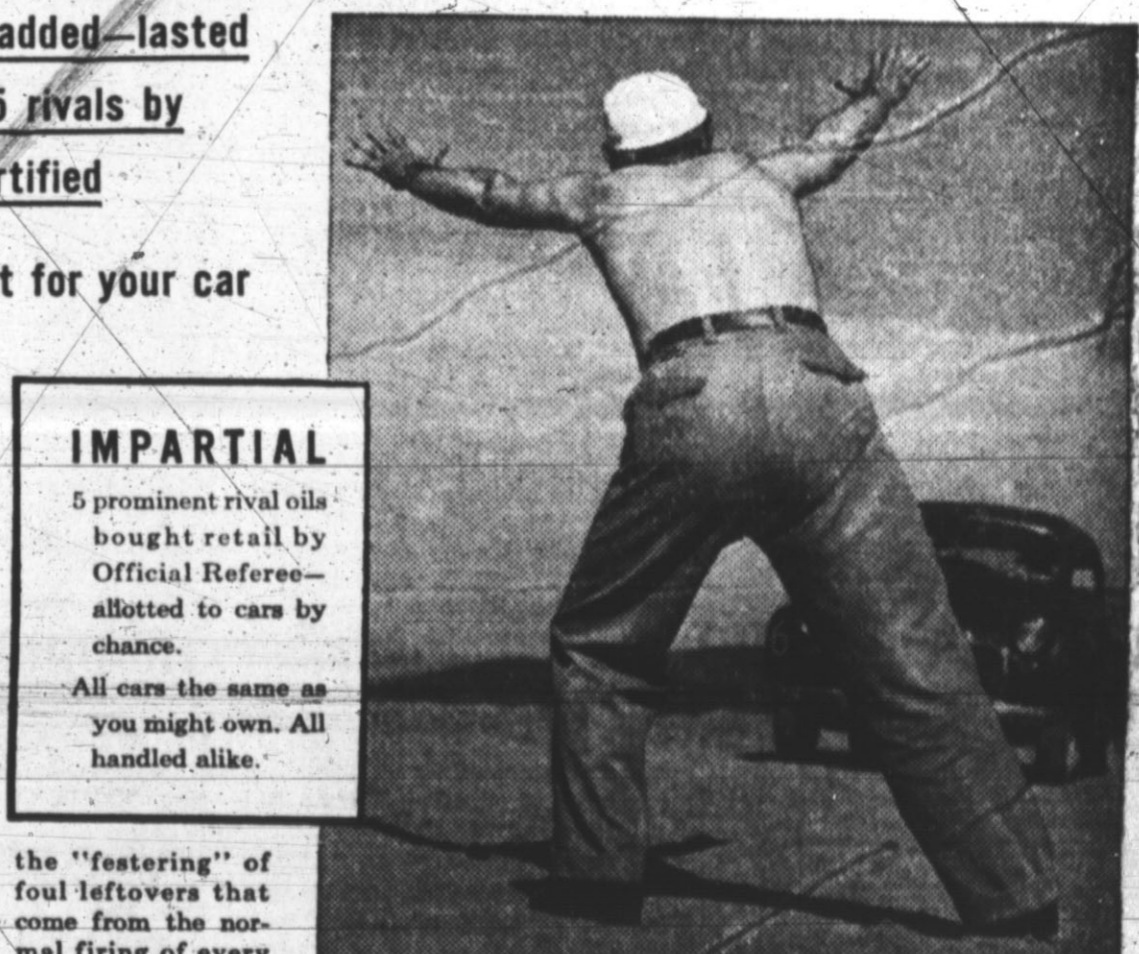

Why such a difference?
Conoco Nth is preserved by a life-giving new synthetic—man-made under Conoco Patent 2,216,132. You know that vitamin synthetics, for instance, are making up for Nature's life-givers sacrificed in some modern food processing. Similarly, the latest refining methods steal some of Nature's best life-givers from motor oils. But more than making that up today, in Conoco Nth oil, is a new synthetic—Thialhene inhibitor. It inhibits—checks the "festering" of foul leftovers that come from the normal firing of every car engine. Check this "festering" and you can check quick spoilage and loss of oil, as Conoco Nth oil proved for you in Death Valley.

You'll never Death-Test your Conoco Nth oil nor repeat other proving-ground tortures. You'll still drain and refill as recommended. But get the great Summer protection of Conoco Nth—and get the full meaning of this certified test every time the gauge-stick says, "Nope, no quart to add yet!" That's your own economy test! Change at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station to new Conoco Nth oil. Continental Oil Co.—Pioneers in Bettering America's oil with Synthetics

CERTIFIED I hereby certify that the Death Valley Test and related work were thoroughly and fairly conducted. Engine Destruction occurred in each case at the mileage stated.

All cars the same as you might own. All handled alike.

AND CONOCO Nth OIL OIL-PLATES YOUR ENGINE!

Long the keystone of Conoco success, OIL-PLATING comes from another great Conoco synthetic... man-made under the famed Germ Processed oil patent. Magnet-like action bonds OIL-PLATING to engine parts. It can't all quickly drain down—not while you're using Conoco Nth oil. So OIL-PLATING is on guard against wear in advance!... and helps mileage, as it did in Death Valley. An OIL-PLATED engine is one more economy you get from a change to popular-priced new Conoco Nth oil.

Rains For First Seven Months Of 1941 Already Above Yearly Average

A few years ago, the prophets of doom were bewailing the drought and man's general brainlessness in trying to turn the "Great American Desert" into cultivated acreage. And the winds blew, and the rains did not fall, and if people on the high plains had not been peculiarly tough minded they might have gone back to an "easier" country. But they stayed on, and in 1941, they have seen the beginning of the wettest year in the history of the plains—at least, since recordings of rainfall were first taken in 1892.

With a rainfall which totals 20.5 inches for the first seven months of 1941, Hereford stands a chance of recording the wettest year since weather observations have been taken here—that is if the moisture continues throughout the remaining months of 1941 in mathematical proportion to the months just passed.

Since rainfall has been officially recorded in this territory, the wettest year was 1928, with rain fall of 32.34 inches, followed closely by 1905 with 32.32 inches. Rainfall over a 47 year period here has averaged 18.33 inches annually, which makes 1941 already 2.17 inches ahead of the average, with rainfall for the months through July of this year nearly twice the total moisture received in 1940.

Rainfall by months for 1941 is as follows: January, .03; February, .28; March, 2.12; April, 1.73; May, 8.05; June, 4.69; July, 3.80. Over a 45 year period, averages for these months are, January, .50; February, .75; March, .90; April, 1.65; May, 2.77; June, 2.79; July, 2.87.

May and June show the heaviest monthly rainfall over the period during which records have been kept, with 9.14 inches recorded for May 1902 and 9.76 for June, 1923. Moisture totalling 8.05 inches fell here in May, 1941, which is 5.28 inches more than the average May rainfall.

Precipitation for January and February of 1941 was lower than the average for those months, but for March through July, monthly rainfall in all instances has run higher than the average.

According to the long-time figures, August is the wettest month for this section, with an average rainfall of 3.17 inches; and if 1941 continues to turn under old records, the fall this year will be well over four inches.

Defense Savings Bonds To Be Given At Star

Manager Speck Lunsford announced this week that the Star Theatre will give away defense savings bonds with a maturity value of $50 at the "Reason's" program on Friday night this week; and that hereafter the defense securities will be regular weekly prizes.

The plan of giving defense bonds in theatre drawings has been endorsed by the defense securities staff, and is said already to be meeting with wide success in other cities.

Autumn Retail Sales Will Hit A New High

Austin—Forecast of autumn retail sales zooming to the highest peak in the history of this state was made this week by a University of Texas statistician in surveying flourishing Texas business.

While Texas business reveals less spectacular gains than in the country at large, the coming months hold a bright prospect for Texans, Dr. F. A. Buechel, associate director of the University's Bureau of Business Research, predicted.

He warned, however, of rising costs of living, following curtailed production of certain types of consumer goods.

Wide margins of gains for June over June last year were cited in almost all the bureau's indexes of Texas business—the combined index made up of six major business factors climbing to 114.9 or 16.5 points above June, 1940.

Employment—up 11.9 per cent over June, 1940.

Payrolls—up 26.6 per cent.

Department store sales—up 19.7 per cent.

Electric power consumption—up 9.5 per cent.

Postal receipts—up 13.9 per cent.

Lumber production—up 10.4 per cent; shipments—up 15.8 per cent; unfilled orders at the end of the month—up 180.9 per cent.

Building permits—up 46 per cent.

Commercial failures—down 16.7 per cent in number, down 44.5 per cent in liabilities.

Only discordant notes in the picture were the declines in the number of new firms incorporating under state law and in the purchases of saving bonds. Charters dropped from 97 in June, 1940, to only 48 last month, with a slump from $1,960,000 to $951,000 in aggregate capital invested, while money invested in savings bonds in 29 of the state's largest cities declined 19.3 per cent from June, 1940.

First Sit-Down Striker Was Texas Cowhand

Austin—The first "sit-down" striker in Texas labor history was not a factory worker but a cowhand!

This fact was discovered by a University of Texas economist, Dr. Ruth Allen, in digging into the history of organized labor in this state.

"The cowboy's life was not all romantic," Dr. Allen points out, citing working conditions which in the '80's provoked the first strike. The wranglers had been working 80 hours a week for an average wage of $50, so they just sat down in the bunkhouse and stayed there until their grievances were adjusted.

Dr. Allen is now completing for publication the first history of Texas organized labor ever compiled. It describes the famous State Capitol boycott of granite-cutters, outstanding strikes of longshoremen, and walkouts in the Texas lumber industry.

Of the firms contributing, Texas-New Mexico Utilities, West Texas Gas, Loerwald Bros., Kemp Lbr. Co., The Vogue, Plains Insurance, Stambaugh, Kelloggs, Halle Drug, Texas Mkt., Allen Powelson, Knox Barber Shop, Charm-Aid, Clarence Strange, Furr Food, Western Auto, City Domino Parlor, Streu Hardware and the First National Bank have 100 per cent employee representation.
