

Tariff Slash Agreements Are Sought

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—The United States announced its intention tonight of seeking specific tariff-reducing agreements with 18 key countries at a conference next spring.

In an apparent post-election move to reassure foreign countries of the administration's determination to keep its trade pledges, Undersecretary of State William L. Clayton announced the move at a news conference.

Clayton simultaneously expressed firm conviction that the Republicans formerly considered exponents of high tariffs, will support the Democratic administration's foreign program.

Fund Campaign Two-Thirds The Way To Goal

Howard county's Community Fund eased forward another notch Saturday after two and a half weeks of effort to approximately $21,500.

This was 67 per cent on the way to the $32,000 goal for financing the activities of the Salvation Army, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the YMCA, the USO and a small amount for China Relief.

The gain for the day was about $1,000, or three per cent, General Chairman Ira Thurman reported. Some reports began to come in from the residential section, and while they weren't heavy, Thurman pointed out that every bit helps.

The chairman contemplated a meeting of all division heads by Wednesday with a view of ascertaining just where the campaign stood. It is probable that this will be followed by a reorganization for a supreme effort to boost the campaign over the top.

Thurman announced that Boone Horne had accepted the chairmanship of the "mop-up brigade," replacing J. H. Greene, who is in a local hospital.

On the basis of the number of cards on which there have been no reports, Thurman was not apprehensive that the campaign would fall. On the contrary, he estimated that 150 to 200 contacts among the special gifts class had not yet been reported for contacts. Some of these were in the general business division, and Thurman felt there was yet a fertile field for contacts in this direction.

No reports have been received from the rural sections or from the schools.

Saturday brought reports from two other special gifts, $150 from Big Spring Hardware, $100 from Dr. M. H. Bennett.

Reviewing The Big Spring -Week-

Aside from the scores of special gift and general business prospects who have not been contacted or who have not yet given, there are enough people in Howard county who have not yet contributed one red cent to the Community Fund drive to put it over the top if they kicked in with so much as a dollar. And most people can do a lot better than that.

Our heart has mended somewhat since Friday night, but regardless of whether he was right or wrong, we still say a certain football official ought to be seriously considered in San Angelo when they go to hand out the most valuable citizen award for the year. No use weeping though, for we've yet to see a decision changed, once made.

Those who find a red ticket on their windshield occasionally will welcome word from the city hall that the hours of 9 a. m. to 10 a. m. has been set aside for traffic hearings. Heretofore, ticket holders had to await their turn and sometimes this meant stinking round for most of half a day.

In justice of Doc Caudle, we correct his prediction on the ear-said Nov. 19, but a typographical best date for the first freeze. He erred had it the 10th. If Doc's guess is right, Howard county farmers will realize a good late harvest crop.

Howard county put out $360 Thursday on a separate election for an amendment which should have been on the Tuesday ballot. The last legislature botched it up in its haste to adjourn, incorporating "first Thursday" in stead of "first Tuesday" in the referendum act. If Howard is an average county, then the error cost the taxpayers upwards of $100,000.

Junior College Invites Guests On Wednesday

Mahon To Speak Twice During 'Open House'

Wednesday will be a big day at the Howard County Junior College when open house will be observed.

This marks the first public function so far as the college is concerned since it opened under pressure on Sept. 30, and there was no opportunity for formal recognition of the event. The public is invited to visit from 2 p. m. until 10 p. m.

Rep. George Mahon, who has aided the institution's officials in securing use of the bombadier school hospital area for a home as well as obtaining considerable materials, will make two addresses during the day.

He will speak first at 10 a. m. at a general student's assembly and again at 12:30 p. m. at a joint meeting of the six service clubs of the city. R. T. Piner, board president, will preside.

E. C. Dodd, president of the college, said Saturday evening that he had 260 reservations for the joint luncheon at the college cafeteria at 12 noon.

Of 40 prospects, reservations have been received from 35 for a Howard County Schoolmasters club composed of men teachers in the county, said Dodd. Based on interest in such a unit, organization may be undertaken Wednesday at 6 p. m. at a dinner affair at the college.

Dodd has one acceptance from an out-of-county superintendent, V. Z. Rogers of Lamesa, to attend the Wednesday luncheon, and others are expected to be on hand. In addition, invitations have gone out to chambers of commerce in this section to be represented during the day.

At the morning assembly, a musical program will be presented by the Spanish and Music departments of the college. So far as possible, the regular class routine will continue through the afternoon to 10 p. m. when last evening school classes end. Dodd said that student guides will show visitors the college as nearly as possible on a normal operation basis.

Guides, under direction of Mickey Butts, Robert Miller, and Tip Anderson of the student council, are: Leatrice Ross, Billie Clanton, F. D. Gage, Betty Ray Nall, Millie Balch, Wilma Jo Taylor, Elaine Wisnack, Charles Loveless, Russel Logan, Bobbie June Bobb, W. E. Eubanks, Colleen Davidson, Duke Neel, Byron Jones, Jimmie Peden.

The act was extended for three years in July of 1945 but many Republican congressmen voted against it.

Clayton disclosed the State Department had deliberately withheld the tariff announcement until after the elections to avoid making it the target of partisan political attacks.

Youth Killed In Grade Crash

Billy Jo Eppler, 19, 701 E. 14th, was killed instantly shortly after 10 p. m. Saturday in a grade crossing crash at Coahoma.

He suffered head injuries when the car in which he was riding crashed into the side of a freight train at the depot at Coahoma.

The locomotive was well up the tracks past the station when the car struck the side of a box car. Billy Jo is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Eppler.

Among others in the crash and who were brought here for treatment were:

June Stamps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stamps, Coahoma. Sue Wise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wise, R-Bar.

There were two other boys injured whose names could not be learned immediately. They were brought to local hospitals and extent of injuries had not been determined shortly before midnight.

Sister Kenny Day

AUSTIN, Nov. 9. (AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson today proclaimed Nov. 23 as "Sister Kenney Day" in honor of Sister Elizabeth Kenney who five years ago brought to America from Australia new type of treatment for infantile paralysis.

Ms. Doris Hamrick of Colorado City, the mother, is taking the three to join their father, Lt. James Q. Hamrick, at Bad Kissingen, Germany.

The Hamrick's resided here during the war when he was stationed at Big Spring Bombarrier School. They made their home at Ellis Homes.

PULLMANS ON SIDINGS TO HELP HOUSE INAUGURATION CROWDS

AUSTIN, Nov. 9. (AP)—A "hotel on wheels" will be moved here Jan. 21 to help people from all over the state expected to attend the inauguration ceremonies of Beauford Jester as governor and Allan Shivers as lieutenant governor.

On inaugural night some 30 pullman cars will be parked on Austin sidings to lodge out of town visitors.

James P. Nash, chairman of the general committee, said visitors wanting to be sure of getting a place to stay in Austin should come in on one of the special charter cars.

Hugh Kendall, MKT agent here and vice-chairman of the transportation committee, said key men are being named in the major towns and cities of the state who will book space on the special sleepers for people in their towns.

Truman To Make A Statement Monday

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—Senator Wherry of Nebraska fired the Republicans' first post-election investigation at the Democrats today with announcement that he will go to Europe to scrutinize food shipment to Russia and other countries.

Wherry told a news conference he intends to find out whether part of 1,100,000,000 pounds of American meat he said was sent to Europe in the first six months of this year had been used to feed Russian and Yugoslav troops.

As he announced his inquiry, there were these other political developments:

1. The White House announced that President Truman will issue a general policy statement at his first post-election news conference Monday morning. Intimates reported he will pledge himself to place the nation's welfare above personal or party interest and express his hope particularly for continued bipartisan support on foreign policy.

2. Senator Fulbright (D-Ark), amplifying his suggestion that the President name a Republican secretary of state and then resign in his favor, predicted that if Democrats attempt to hold on to power "in the face of obvious disapproval of the people," the party would suffer a "disastrous" defeat in the 1948 presidential race.

3. Signs developed of a possible fight over the Senate majority leadership, paralleling a similar House contest, with Wherry's assertion that Minority Leader White of Maine must be considered if he wants the new post. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) previously has been talked of as the likely choice. But Wherry did not remove himself as a possible candidate.

Wherry left no doubt he thinks the people repudiated at the polls last Tuesday the New Deal philosophy he contends Mr. Truman followed in attempting to carry out the policies of the late President Roosevelt.

"I think the people voted to throw out the New Deal and the radicalism that went with it," the Nebraska senator declared.

Work Progressing On Extension

Work is progressing satisfactorily on the opening of an extension of W. 4th street to the highway. Two deep cuts and as many fills are shaping up under the direction of B. L. (Pancho) Nall, county commissioner in whose precinct the new road will be located. A four foot culvert is in place to care for drainage.

When completed, the road will permit diversion of travel to and from Ellis Homes, Settles Heights and Airport additions, the bombier school property and the airport.

The city is surveying all of Fourth street with the view of possibly widening and eventually improving it.

Aviation Staffs To Be Honored Thursday

Persons connected with the aviation industry in Big Spring will be honored at a buffet dinner Thursday at the Crawford at 7:30 p. m.

The affair is being given by the chamber of commerce through its aviation and goodwill committees. Staffs of the American, Continental and US Air lines as well as those of the weather bureau, CAA communication, control tower, and CAA West Texas district office, and two local flying schools are to be guests.

Attlee Blasts At Delays In UN Procedure

LONDON, Nov. 9. (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee declared tonight that "obstruction" and "propaganda attacks" have marked the proceeding of the United Nations and predicted that the UN would fall if it is used as a forum for "ideological differences."

His sharp criticism of the world peace organization was accompanied by an assertion that the key to European prosperity and peace lies in reaching a settlement on the future of Germany — a subject being considered by the Big Four foreign ministers in New York.

In a speech at the annual Lord Mayor's banquet, the prime minister upheld British action in India, Burma and elsewhere to "refute contentions that the British Commonwealth and empire is animated by imperialism."

He pledged also that Britain would work for "our ideals of peace and to lift the heavy burden of armaments from the people of the world," but added that "I emphasize that disarmament cannot be unilateral."

In apparent reference to Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov's proposal to the United Nations general assembly for world disarmament, Attlee commented:

"The lesson of the interwar period was that disarmament must march hand in hand with the establishment of a general system of security."

"I know that we have all felt disappointment in the way in which the organization is being used," said Attlee of the UN "instead of its proceedings being objective and businesslike there are propaganda attacks on flimsy pretexts x x x."

"It is clear that if the United Nations organization is to be used as a forum for debating ideological differences it will fall. x x x."

Hard-Coalers Ask Pay Boost

The nations hard coal miners put in their bid for pay boosts Saturday.

The Shenandoah, Pa., general mine board of the AFL United Mine Workers asked John L. Lewis to reopen the anthracite coal contract and demand a wage increase and shorter work week.

The request was made amid indications the government was seeking a dual-purpose formula for solving Lewis' demands for his 400,000 soft coal miners and for returning the bituminous mines to private ownership.

The showdown in the soft coal dispute will come Monday when the UMW chief meets with Secretary of Interior Krug to talk terms. Preliminary negotiations, seeking to avert a possible walkout of the soft coal miners, have been conducted by Lewis' aides and Capt. N. H. Collisson, federal coal mines administrator. Lewis has notified the government the current contract will be terminated Nov. 20. Lewis is believed to have asked the government for wage increases and shorter work week for his miners.

Sweeping Order Points To Early Windup Of OPA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—Price ceilings on everything except dwellings, sugar and rice were wiped away completely by President Truman tonight in one sweeping order which spelled the speedy end of OPA.

All government controls on wages and salaries, too, were abolished except in cases of government seizure, like the soft coal mines. Thus the wage stabilization board goes out of business.

While the OPA rent ceilings will be continued, Mr. Truman indicated that they may be increased—"It may be that some adjustment of rents will be required," he said. But housing expeditor Wilson Wyatt announced that the sales and rental ceilings on new homes built under the veterans emergency housing program will stay as is.

CEILINGS OFF THESE ITEMS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—The decontrol action of President Truman tonight removes price ceilings from:

- Building materials and lumber.
- All textiles and apparel.
- Consumer durable goods such as electric refrigerators, washing machines, etc.
- Household furniture.
- Heavy machinery and equipment not previously decontrolled.
- Farm machinery and equipment.
- Automobiles.
- Basic metals.
- Newsprint and other paper products.
- Tires and other rubber items.
- All chemicals and rugs.
- Coal and coke.
- Transportation.
- Laundry and dry cleaning and repair services.

The order was effective as of 12:01 a. m. (Eastern Standard Time) Sunday, but price law violations before that time still may be prosecuted and businessmen are required to keep their records for another year.

Mr. Truman acted four days after the election which saw Republicans capture control of the Senate and House in a campaign which swirled around the slogan "had enough" (of controls and short-ages). The action was in the works before election day, however, and was delayed only because of the extensive consultations necessary among the officials concerned.

Its principal impact was on these three agencies:

OPA—Price Administrator Paul Porter, now expected to resign shortly, announced that the much criticized agency "is proceeding immediately with liquidation" of its pricing functions.

WSB—Chairman W. Willard Wirtz announced that the Wage Stabilization Board's functions will be wound up and its offices closed as quickly as possible.

NHA—The National Housing Agency apparently faces some complications if construction wages and building material prices rise now that they are decontrolled. Mr. Truman said that "a change in the approach to some of the problems" will be necessary and asked Wyatt for a prompt report. Wyatt said that present priorities, allocations and subsidies will continue, along with the ceilings on new houses—$10,000 on the purchase price and $80 on the monthly rental.

Mr. Truman, in a statement which accompanied his action, declared that "the law of supply and demand operating in the market place will, from now on, serve the people better than would continued regulation of prices by the government."

In restoring the national economy to a control-free basis, Mr. Truman took one more poke at Congress.

"The real basis of our difficulty is the unwearable price control law which the Congress gave us to administer," he declared. "The plain truth is that, under this inadequate law, price control has lost the popular support needed to make it work."

The Office of Price Administration will be continued to supervise sugar rationing and the ceilings on sugar, rice and rent. But Price Administrator Paul Porter, who took over last June when Chester Bowles resigned, is expected to step out shortly.

Food Supplies May Be A Bit More Plentiful

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—The Agriculture Department said tonight that food supplies will be relatively large during the next few months with retail prices on the average materially higher than a year ago.

A review of the national food situation reported supplies of some foods—including chickens, eggs, butter and other fats, dried prunes and raisins, and milk—will be somewhat smaller during the next few months than in the latter part of 1945.

"However, larger quantities of some foods will be available," the department said. "Included in this group are cheese, evaporated milk, canned and frozen fruits, apples, citrus fruit, cranberries, grapes, canned and frozen vegetables, potatoes, dried milk, corn food products and canned fish."

Supplies of other foods—including meats—will be much the same as a year ago. The department said beef supplies will be larger this winter and that pork will be more plentiful than in recent months, although less than beef.

The department predicted the flow of meat into distribution channels from heavy current supplies will reduce prices from their current levels but they will continue above previous ceilings at least into early 1947.

Texas Lint Yield Lowest Since '89

AUSTIN, Nov. 9. (AP)—Texas' short cotton crop promised today to be even shorter.

The United States Department of Agriculture, which last month forecast a Texas output of 1,750,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight, today trimmed the figure 50,000 bales to a new forecast of only 1,700,000 bales, the lowest Texas production since 1889.

Harvested yield per acre this year is placed at 135 pounds, 31 pounds below the average and the poorest per acre yield in Texas since the drought year of 1936.

London On Guard Against Terrorism

LONDON, Nov. 9. (AP)—Scotland Yard announced tonight that special guards have been placed at government buildings in London as a precaution against Jewish "terrorists."

The action was taken, a Yard spokesman declared, as the result of information received in London. Guards have been posted both inside and outside some buildings.

CIO CONVENTION FACES SQUABBLE BETWEEN RIGHT AND LEFT WINGS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—But if they strike, there is likely to be support for severe labor legislation in the Republican-dominated Congress.

In addition to economic problems, the continuing argument over Communism is likely to burst onto the convention floor.

It could emerge if there is a movement for putting local and regional CIO councils under tighter control of the CIO national officers. Some of these local bodies have been accused of leftwing tendencies.

Another point of interest is the stream of rumors that Murray may decline re-election. Murray has neither confirmed nor denied the reports.

92-Ton Plane Makes Its Maiden Flight

BURBANK, Calif., Nov. 9. (AP)—The 92-ton Constitution, claimed by Lockheed Aircraft Co. to be the largest transport plane in the world, moved ponderously down a runway at Lockheed Air Terminal today and rose into the air in its maiden flight.

The 180-passenger air titanic, built by Lockheed to transport men and cargo for the Navy, had been under construction since 1942.

The Constitution is 11 tons heavier than the Army's C74 transport and has twin decks, one for passengers and the other for cargo. The craft has a wing span of 189 feet. A crew of five was aboard.

THE BELDEN POLL—

Texans Change Minds About Price Controls

By JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll

AUSTIN, Nov. 9.—Texans have been changing their minds about price controls. While last spring The Texas Poll found the great majority of this state in favor of retaining ceilings, sentiment today seems definitely to be going the other way.

About two-thirds of the people are satisfied with the removal of price control on meat, even though nearly half of them admit high prices have kept them from buying all the meat they want.

After the lifting of controls on animal products The Texas Poll asked a cross section of adults three questions on the subject. "Did you approve or disapprove of removing price controls on meat?" the interviewers asked. Sixty-four per cent approved, twenty-seven per cent disapproved, and nine per cent expressed no opinion.

The results of the two following questions show that while nearly two-thirds of the respondents think other people have been able to afford all the meat wanted, only half of the respondents say they themselves have been able to satisfy their wants.

"Do you think the increase in meat prices during the last few days has generally kept people from buying?"

Has kept people from buying 64%
Has not kept people from buying 30
No opinion 6

"Has the increase in meat prices kept you or your family from buying as much meat as you would like?"

Has kept from buying 49%
Has not kept from buying 47
No opinion 4

The findings on the three queries on price control were tabulated separately for men and women. Little difference between the two was found, except that eleven per cent more men than women approved the removal of government price tags from meat. This may be because it is women who usually do the family shopping and feel the pinch of higher prices more than men.

Last May the Poll found sixty per cent wanted to continue the OPA, the largest number of those people specifying "as long as necessary." Compare that measurement of opinion with the first question above and the following table:

At long last you slip behind the wheel of your very own Buick.

You look around a minute — straighten your tie — grin a little at the handsome picture you know you must be making.

You turn the key. Step on the starter-treadle. Feel those eight big Fireball cylinders take silken hold.

Easy as a breeze, you slip away in two agile tons of steady-going levelness — and right then and there a lot that was dark is clear.

You see why this car is the most wanted automobile in America today.

You see why this doubles the problem posed by industry-wide slowness of parts and material flow.

You see why Buick production men are gladly putting every waking hour into ceaseless battle against such log-jams, so that they can supply these sweethearts to the greatest possible number.

When better automobiles are built BUICK will build them

You see how quickly a wait can be forgotten — when there's something like this at the end of the wait.

What matters is that this is the best Buick yet.

It's available at OPA prices applying at delivery and — though we like to get trade-ins — with or without a car to trade.

Those things add up to the best deal these times afford anywhere.

CONTROLS

which rents are controlled is scheduled to expire June 30. Mr. Truman has indicated previously that he will ask its continuance, but the attitude of the Republican-controlled 80th Congress appeared uncertain.

Mr. Truman also said that the removal of ceilings on lumber and building materials will obviously necessitate a change in the approach to some of the problems in the housing program. He did not amplify, but he added that he has asked Housing Expeditor Wilson Wyatt "to report to me promptly in this regard."

Wyatt was reported to have urged that controls be retained on building materials lest the present price ceilings on new homes built under priorities of the Veterans Emergency Housing Program prove untenable. But Mr. Truman said that "price control on building materials alone, with no price control on products competing for the same raw materials, would drive these materials away from housing and defeat the objectives of the program."

Blizzard Continues In Mountain Areas

By The Associated Press

A week-long blizzard that claimed 13 lives in Colorado continued Saturday as pre-winter snow storms left a white blanket over California mountain resort towns and several northwest states.

Unseasonably mild weather, meanwhile, prevailed in the southeastern section of the nation. Elsewhere, the weather was normal. Rains in central Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Lumberman Sees Price Hike, Building Boom In Decontrol Wake

FORT WORTH, Nov. 9. (AP)—J. Cecil Green, president of the Fort Worth Lumbermen's Club, predicted tonight that lumber prices will advance on an average of $10 per 1,000 board feet, increasing the lumber cost on a typical five-room home approximately $300, with price ceilings off.

"But with price control off, lumber once again will go to dealers instead of being diverted to export and to railroad stocks, which made more money for lumber companies under OPA ceilings," he explained.

"In view of decontrol, we expect one of the biggest building booms in the history of the Southwest," Green said.

CONSTABLE FINED

DALLAS, Nov. 9. (AP)—Constable William Frazier, Terrell, Texas today chose a $250 fine instead of a six-months jail sentence on conviction of civil rights charges in Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson's court here.

No Signup Rush On Cotton Insurance

Some work is being done toward cotton insurance for 1947, but so far there has been no great rush to sign for the program.

This marks the third year for the current crop insurance program, and there are alterations in procedure and premium structure. Although only a limited number of Howard county producers took out crop insurance this year, around $150,000 has been paid out in losses, and liability may pass $175,000 by the time all claims have been reviewed.

Applications for 1947 cotton insurance may be accepted through Jan. 31, 1947, said M. Weaver, county AAA administrative assistant.

Final Returns On Elections Tabulated

Howard county polled approximately 1,100 votes in Tuesday's general election and less than 450 in the Thursday encore on a constitutional amendment, complete returns showed Saturday.

On the basis of totals which were entered by County Clerk Lee Porter, all four proposed constitutional amendments were favored in Howard county as they were in the state. No. 1 (to pay for buildings at John Tarleton college) carried 698 to 205; No. 2 (which would permit state and county retirement and death benefit program) was favored 549 to 333; No. 3 (which would freeze the gasoline and auto registration taxes as present levels) passed 651 to 197; and No. 4 (which would set up a $25,000,000 bond fund to purchase lands for Texas GI's under a loan program) passed by 237 to 180. The latter was voted upon Thursday in the lightest voting in Howard county in 25 years.

Tom Connally got 1,040 votes for US senator to 53 for Republican Murry Sells, top man on the GOP ticket. Beauford Jester, democratic gubernatorial candidate, polled 1,057 to 38 for Eugene Nolte, the GOP choice.

Cadets, Irish End Where They Started

Army Threats Never Pay Off In 0-0 Battle

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (AP)—Two mighty football elevens ripped and slashed and tore at each other on the turf of Yankee Stadium for 60 action-crammed minutes today, and when it was over the fighting Irish of Notre Dame were forced to settle for a scoreless tie and the distinction of having shattered Army's 25-game winning streak.

The first great post-war college classic, played before a capacity throng of more than 14,000 in perfect football weather, saw the redoubtable Black Knights from West Point threaten repeatedly after recovering Notre Dame fumbles and intercepting wayward Irish passes, but they could not score.

Touted as one of the most terrific teams ever to come out of South Bend, the burly Irish powered 84 yards down to Army's three-yard stripe in the second quarter in their only real offensive gesture. Only the one time field, though twice in the second did they carry the ball past mid-half they fell upon Army fumbles in Cadet territory and could do nothing with the opportunity.

Army's all-conquering team muffed its best scoring chance in opening period, when it was held for downs on the Notre Dame 15 after Gobie Bryant, right tackle, had recovered an Irish fumble on the 24.

It was a bruising, breathless struggle. Only two Army players, Felix (Doc) Blanchard and Glenn Davis, the two-time All-America backfield brilliants, went the route for the Cadets. The Irish, with a wealth of warning, prevented either from breaking away on one of the long, touchdown runs for which they have become famous.

Blanchard in 20 smashes at the Notre Dame defenses had a net gain of 80 yards. Davis showed a net of 33 yards for the 15 times he lugged the leather. The best either wrote into the records was a 21-yard sweep around his left side.

Notre Dame's big forwards end by Blanchard in the third pelted up an almost airtight defense. Tucker, the Cadets' noted fense against Army's vaunted running attack, and seldom could Arpasser, pierce the Irish secondary with his bullet pegs. Army, though thin in reserve strength, was equally successful in fighting off the Notre Dame steamroller when it was necessary to dig in.

The statistics if anything, gave Notre Dame a little the better of it, though the Irish scoring threats were fewer and it was Army which, time and again, had the ball in the Greenbacks' territory.

A British naval man discovered that orange and lemon juice were the most effective cures for scurvy, a dietary deficiency disease that plagued sailors.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Home town fans almost, but not quite, saw a repetition of the Steers' Brownfield performance in the San Angelo game, and not a few of the local gentry are willing to blame some of Friday night's misfortunes on an official who has popped up here frequently this season. There certainly is no sour grapes attitude toward the San Angelo team, however, because the Bobcats have definitely marked themselves as the most improved team in District 3-AA. But the occasional boos heard earlier in the season reached a healthy rumble several times Friday night. Post-game remarks here and there indicate that local fans are willing to overlook a few mistakes the men in white may make from time to time, but inconsistency cannot be tolerated.

A few notes on the game—Harold Headrick, Bobcat 195-pounder, turned in the best game at tackle we've seen on the local sod this year. . . . the Steer backfield looked to advantage in one respect, they didn't lose yardage on but five ground plays despite the hard-charging Bobcat forwards and the local boys didn't fumble a single time. . . . San Angelo had the best pass defense the Herd has encountered all season, intercepting three and permitting only four completions in 14 tries. . . . reticent teamwork on the part of the Herd was conspicuous at times. (Wacil McNair).

Tommy Hart had a few observations to make on the general sports picture before leaving immediately after the Steer-Bobcat game to double O the SMU-Aggie game in Dallas:

Blondy Chran, Benny Wilson and Tuffy McMillan—active in the scrapping game in these parts eight or ten years back—helped Pat O'Dowdy open his wrestling show here last week. . . . O'Dowdy was highly pleased with his opening night house and figures he'll pack the house with some of his future cards. . . . Chran retired from the ring in 1938, staging his last match in 1938 in Canada, and is now a local resident. . . . O'Dowdy, incidentally, lost out in the finals of the elimination matches for the United States Olympic team in 1932. . . . He turned professional shortly thereafter. . . . Dory Detton, the Amarillo wrestling czar, will probably be on hand for O'Dowdy show this week. . . . One of the spectators at last week's grappling show was Juan Garcia, the Latin-African baseball veteran who is getting about with the aid of a cane following an automobile accident last summer. . . . He was bed-ridden for several months. . . . Early season favorite in the Southwest Conference basketball was this year will be Texas university, where 11 lettermen will be scrapping for starting berths. . . . Bad news for SAA grip opponents of Midland high school. . . . Dunny Goode, the Bulldog's sterling back, will be eligible again in 1947.

Joe Langston, who told a gathering of baseball fans here Friday afternoon he thought he could wrangle a working agreement with Brooklyn if given the chance to field a professional baseball team here in 1947, pitched for the Abilene Blue Sox of the WT-NM league last season until he injured his hand. . . . Lou Baker and Dr. W. B. Hardy, two of the more rabid baseball fans, are optimistic over the possibility that the school and the city's fans can get together and build a baseball plant here. . . . A deal might be worked out where the school, which will field a team in the interscholastic league baseball program, supply the land and the fans raise the money for the stadium. . . . Oscar Raven, who set in on the Friday concave, is willing to put his shoulder to the wheel in the drive to get a club here. . . . He said Jackie Reid, the former Texas league tosser who's now in Boyd, Tex., would like to get back in the game and would jump at the chance to land somewhere in West Texas. . . . Raven and Reid played ball together for several years. . . . Bobby Feller's 1947 income is expected to exceed $175,000. . . . Even after taxes take a big chunk of that, Robin will realize quite a profit. . . . The astute Cleveland tosser's earnings even exceed that of the balmy days of Babe Ruth, whose top pay was something like 130 grand.

Art Brady Is Foe Of Dallas Entry On O'Dowdy Card

ART BRADY

Pat O'Dowdy will dish up his second regularly scheduled grappling card at the West Texas Livestock Auction Arena Wednesday night, and the week's billing finds one holdover from the initial card.

George Curtis, who stopped Leo Jensen, much to the delight of bleacher occupants at last Wednesday night's show, will be back, this time to do battle with George Bruckman of Chicago. Curtis hails from Vicksburg, Miss.

Art Brady, popular Californian, makes his first appearance on O'Dowdy's card in a joust with Johnny La Rue of Dallas.

Both matches are for two out of three falls, with a one hour time limit. Activity begins at 8 p.m.

Raiders Hit Late In Game, For 27-0 Win

LUBBOCK, Nov. 9. (AP)—Texas Tech's Red Raiders pushed over their last period touchdowns as they rolled to a 27-0 Border Conference triumph over New Mexico University before 8,000 fans here today.

The heavily-favored Raiders led 7-0 going in the closing stanza, but took advantage of three New Mexico offensive back-fires to win.

The Raiders' initial touchdown came in the second period, climaxing a 64-yard march. In the final stanza, New Mexico gained possession following a fumble on Tech's 23. Two plays failed to gain, then center Roland Nabors of Tech, the game's outstanding defensive star, intercepted on Roy Anderson's passes on the Tech 15. He returned it five yards, then lateraled to speedy Glen Lewis who raced 80 yards to a touchdown.

The Raiders scored again two plays later. Bryan Brock, New Mexico's leading offensive threat, swept left end to the 30, but fumbled. Bernie Winkler, big Tech tackle caught the ball in the air and ambled untouched to a touchdown.

Late in the final period, Tech marched 55 yards to New Mexico's one-yard line. Maxey McKnight crashed over tackle into the end zone, but fumbled and New Mexico recovered for a touchback, taking over on its own 20.

On the first play from that point Nabors sped into the flat to bat Hubert Hackett's pass into the air, intercept it and galloped 30 yards for Tech's fourth marker.

Coahoma Nipped By 2nd Half Rally

STERLING CITY, Nov. 9. — A run by Tweedle for what proved to be a valuable extra point kept the Sterling City and Coahoma six-man football teams from finishing in another deadlock here Friday night, as the Sterling lads triumphed 25-24.

The two teams tied, 13-13, in their 1946 season opener. Tweedle's run produced the only extra point in the game, which was an exhibition affair, and has no bearing on the District 10 standing. The fleet Sterling back also contributed two touchdowns for the home team, taking passes from King on each occasion.

Coahoma dominated play during most of the first half, leading 18-12 at intermission. Their offense was sparked by diminutive Wayne DeVaney, who scored all of their touchdowns. Davis and Brown also scored a touchdown each for Sterling City.

Hunters On Trek To New Mexico

The "fever" was running high among local nimrods by the end of the week, and some half a dozen departed for New Mexico points to get in a few licks before the Texas season opens. Bob Asbury headed a party of about 11 men bound for Albuquerque area, and Earl Hull was planning to leave for the neighbor state.

Floyd White and Harvey Wooten journeyed to Southwestern New Mexico, bent on seeking out deer in the section just east of Duncan, Ariz. Another party composed of Walker Bailey, Dutch McKinney, J. M. Crow and Melvin Loudamay left Friday for Deming and other points in New Mexico.

Aggies Steady In The Clutches To Whip SMU, 14-0

DALLAS, Nov. 9. (AP)—The rough, tough Texas Aggie were tight in the clinches today to halt repeated Southern Methodist thrusts and come out with a 14-0 victory that put them back in the big middle of the Southwest Conference football race.

The Cadets cashed in on a blocked punt for one touchdown and were aided by a hard south wind that did things with Methodist punts to hammer to the other, then threw up a defense the Mustangs couldn't puncture for the two quarters SMU was continually moving to the shadow of the Aggie goal line.

A crowd of 40,000 was treated to a one-sided offensive battle and if you read only the statistics you think Southern Methodist won. The Methodist made 18 first downs, the Aggies 5; they rolled up 318 yards rushing and passing to 120 for A. and M. One Southern Methodist rushed down to the A. and M. four yard line only to be stopped by the hard-hitting Aggies, another time the Mustangs reached the five but the alert A. and M. secondary grabbed in a pass. Still another time SMU got to the Aggie nine but lost the ball on a fumble and on two other occasions reached inside the Cadet 20-yard line but was stopped by the stonewall Aggie defense.

The Aggies scored the first time they got the ball. Norton Higgins crashed through to block Bill Richards' punt, with the ball alighting off out of bounds on the Methodist 27. Barney Welch, Tom Pickett and Ed Dusek blasted the line down to the eight. Dusek in four tries crunched over for the score. John Ballentine kicked the extra point.

Late in the first period SMU paraded from its 37 down to the A. and M. five but Welch intercepted Frank Payne's pass on the goal line and ran it out to the seven. With the wind to his back Stan Hollmig got off a tremendous kick that traveled from his nine to the Methodist 23. The Mustangs had to kick out and Buryl Baty ran back to the SMU 49. SMU braced and the Aggies had to kick, Bog Goode placing it outside on the SMU nine. Bill Moxley's punt into the wind carried only to the 27. Marion Flanagan took a pass for a three-yard loss then Baty lofted one over the goal line to Goode. However, A. and M. drew a penalty for illegal formation and it nullified the touchdown. Again Baty pitched over the goal line to Goode and again the score was taken away this time on a holding penalty. But two passes by Baty, one to Ed Hooker and the other to Charley Wright, got a first down on the Methodist 17. Dusek once more swung into action, sweeping right end for a first down on the five and circling left end for a touchdown. Ballentine again kicked the extra point.

Longhorns Late Digging In, But Overpower Bruins, 22-7

WACO, Nov. 9. (AP)—After fumbling through most of the first three quarters, the Texas Longhorns come from behind today and capitalized on two blocked punts to smash the stubborn Baylor Bears, 22-7, before 15,000 fans.

Baylor scored first and kept the play in Longhorn territory most of the first half. The lone Bear tally came in a 24 yard pass, Ray Hicks to George Sims, in the end zone. The play climaxed a 49 yard drive sparked by Fullback Jerry Mangum.

Texas came to life momentarily as the second quarter got under way when Wingback Jimmy Canady took a handoff from Fullback Bobby Layne and passed to End Mex Bumgardner for a 40 yard gain to the Baylor 41.

Layne then lanced a pass to Canady good for a touchdown, but failed to convert, and Baylor led 7-6 at the half.

Layne continued his man of the hour role when he kicked a field goal from the Baylor 16 yard line to send the Longhorns ahead, 9-7, in the last minute of the third period.

Then Jack Halfpenny, Texas' blocking back, charged through to block Bobby (Red) Griffin's punt and End Lewis Holder recovered for Texas on the Baylor 19.

Three plays later Texas rang up six more points on a 9 yard plunge by substitute Fullback Bill Cromer straight through center, and Randall Clay added the extra point. Texas 16, Baylor 7.

Texas fans settled back, but the scoring was not over. Holder ruffed through to smother Buddy Tinsley's attempted punt, grabbed the ball on the bounce on the Baylor 12 and sped across for the final Longhorn tally. Clay missed the try for point.

Assault Picks Up Another Big Purse

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (AP)—Robert Kleberg's Assault won the mile-and-three-sixteenths Westchester Handicap in 1:56 2/5 at Jamaica racetrack today and picked up $38,800 for his owner. Backers received $5.30 for $2.

Assault's capture of the last big stakes event of the New York turf season brought him to third place—past Seabiscuit—in the world money-winners' standing with a total of $441,445. He also added to his stature as the greatest single-season cleaner in all horse history with a 1946 mark of $424,195.

Six In Row For Georgia Tech

ATLANTA Ga., Nov. 9. (AP)—A 95-yard gallop by Co-Captain George Mathews snatched Georgia Tech from the brink of defeat today as the Jackets ran their victory streak to six straight with a 28-20 win over the Navy.

Ahead 20-14 with less than three minutes to play, the Middies who had come from behind early in the period, were down at the Tech line but the ball squirmed from his arms and Mathews latched on to it. He hauled it down the field, line nearly the length of the side with a half dozen team mates protecting him.

A minute later, with Navy trying desperate passes, Pat McHugh snagged Reeves Baysinger's toss and loped 61 yards to the six. Frank Broyles threw to George Brodnax for a clincher score.

LSU Stiffles Gilmer To Smash Alabama

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 9. (AP)—Louisiana State University used all its power to outplay Alabama in the early stages today and then withstood a final period rally led by the great Harry Gilmer to defeat the Crimson Tide 31 to 21 before an estimated 43,000.

The still powerful Alabama squad showed flashes of last year's brilliant playing which carried the tide to the Rose Bowl, but was stopped cold during most of the game by an alert and hard running Tiger team.

Bobcats Stifle Herd Title Hopes

Proving to the skeptical that their triumph over Midland a week earlier was no fluke, San Angelo's stubborn Bobcats snarled their way to a 7-6 edge over the Big Spring Steers Friday night, eliminating the Herd's slender chances at the District 3-AA title.

Although the Longhorns held a surprising advantage in statistics, San Angelo's "defense when it counted" spelled disaster for the locals, and if the blame were to be pinned on any one man, big Harold Headrick, 195-pound Bobcat tackle, probably would be nominated unanimously. He formed the nucleus of a forward wall that was virtually impregnable when the chips were down. Those Bobcat forwards not only queered many of the Steers' failures toward payoff terrain, but at times carried out their offensive assignments so effectively that their T formation attack rocked the Longhorns off their feet.

Nevertheless, big Gee Harris and Horace Rankin were number one and number two, respectively, in individual ground yardage, and but for a couple of untimely penalties their efforts might have paid off with victory.

The Herd moved to one of their most serious threats immediately after the opening kickoff. Bobo Hardy and Harris combined to get two quick first downs. Then, when John Dibrell's offensive machine had apparently bogged down, Rankin carried the ball on the first of two long jaunts that completely bewildered the Bobcats. On fourth down, the Longhorns assembled in punt formation, but Rankin, the short man, got the snap, darted into the Bobcats secondary and was away for 27 yards and a first down on the San Angelo nine in less time than it takes to tell. Hubert Wills, Bobcat center, stifled the threat a moment later when he intercepted one of Jackie Barron's tosses.

The San Angelo boys proceeded to huff and puff to the Steer 18 Brian Roberts and Donald Taff alternating as leather toters. Roberts almost got away for a tally when he ripped off 31 yards before being hauled in on the Steer 25. The Longhorns couldn't get started, and San Angelo resumed operations on their own 47 after Rankin booted out. Two penalties and a rurr by Roberts moved to the Big Spring 20, but the Bovines batted down two passes and Marv Wright and Larry Hall stopped Roberts for a loss of three.

Neither team was able to penetrate deeper than the 30 yard line during remainder of the half. Some of the best Steer defensive work came just before half-time, however, when Reed Collins jarred Roberts for a 10-yard setback, and the whole right side of the Steer line converged to charge him with

Area Baseball Hopefuls Meet In Sweetwater

Outcome of an area meeting in Sweetwater this afternoon probably will determine whether a new professional baseball league will be established in West Texas.

Scheduled to meet in Sweetwater at 2 p.m. are representatives of Coleman, Ballinger, San Angelo, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa and Sweetwater. The meeting was called by Howard Green, business manager of the Abilene club in the West-Texas-New Mexico league, for the purpose of organizing a new Class D circuit for the area.

Lou Baker, leader in sports activities here for a number of years, told a local group in special meeting Friday that he would attend the Sweetwater meeting, and on the basis of developments at the meeting, probably would seek territorial rights for Big Spring if franchises are assigned.

Meeting with local men Friday in Dr. W. B. Hardy's office were Joe Langston and Claude McAdams, both of Abilene, and Langston expressed interest in landing a franchise here in event major local problems can be eliminated.

Langston told the group that he believes Brooklyn would look with favor upon a proposition for establishing a concrete working agreement with a class D club here.

Most of the discussion centered on possibilities of construction of a park here suitable for professional play. Some local observers expressed belief that a plan could be worked out for construction of a park for joint use by pro team and the high school. A further investigation of this proposal was indicated.

Penn Stages Big Comeback

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (AP)—Heroes one week and bums the next, Pennsylvania's Quakers shook off the effects of one of the biggest upsets of the season with devastating authority today as they crushed the Columbia Lions, 41-6, in New York's forgotten football game.

Some 32,000 faithful followers of the Ivy League saw the Pennsylvania powerhouse completely overwhelm the helpless Lions with a four-touchdown scoring spree in the first half, then coast to victory with another marker in each of the last two periods.

The Quakers turned two intercepted passes into touchdowns, scored three others on sustained drives and went into the air for another as they took their spite out on the docile Lions for the 17-14 upset by Princeton which knocked them out of the all-victorious ranks a week ago.

Robert Lee Brings A Perfect Record To Stanton Field

STANTON, Nov. 9. — Coach Travis Green will prepare his Stanton Buffaloes for another rough encounter this week, with Robert Lee, scheduled to lay an unbeaten and untied record on the line here next Friday night.

The Buffaloes showed vast improvement in holding the strong Hermleigh Cardinals to a 0-0 tie in their last outing, but Robert Lee brings a more impressive record to the local gridiron.

Coached by M. G. Hannaford, superintendent, Robert Lee has rolled over Eldorado, 7-0; Loraine, 8-0; Miles, 97-0; Bronco, 13-6; Christoval, 40-0; Norton, 33-0; and Wingate, 75-6 in that order.

Hannaford formerly was associated with school systems at Ackerly, Lomax and Midway, and this is his first season at Robert Lee.

Robert Lee has fielded exceptionally strong teams for several years, however, winning the bi-district title for the past two seasons. Their only loss in 1945 was to Class A Coleman, 7-6.

Porkers Upset Rice, 7-0, To Take Conference Lead

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 9. (AP)—An inspired University of Arkansas football team turned a fourth-period pass interception into a touchdown to spill the favored Rice Owls 7-0 today, and soar into first place in the Southwest Conference championship race.

The Razorbacks can clinch at least a tie for the title by defeating Southern Methodist at Fayetteville next week.

It was big John Hoffman, appearing before a hometown crowd of 17,000, who provided the winning margin. Midway of the final heat he gathered in a Rice pass on the Owl 32 and stormed untouched across the goal line.

But the entire Arkansas team won the ball game. The Razorbacks outfought the baffled Owls all the way.

Rice's vaunted offense, which had subdued mighty Texas and other grid giants, was never able to solve or penetrate a peculiar defensive shift rigged up by Arkansas Coach John Barnhill. Every time the Owls came up to the line to run a play, the Porkers shifted to the left, to the right, backwards or in some other dizzy fashion and the Owl blocking assignments were bailed up completely.

Rice mustered a scoring threat on its only real offensive flurry of the game the first time they

Bobcats Take Over Third Place Slot In 3-AA Scramble

Only one Friday game was scheduled in District 3-AA, but it jostled the Big Spring Steers out of the third place position.

San Angelo's Bobcats, by virtue of their 7-6 triumph over the Herd, took over the number three spot, pushing the Longhorns into a three-way tie for fourth with Midland and Lamesa. Lamesa could move into a tie with San Angelo with a victory over Abilene's down-trodden Eagles Monday.

Eyes of the district, and the state as well, will be focused on Odessa's Fly Field Monday afternoon, where the unbeaten and untied Bronchos are to tangle with Sweetwater's unbeaten and untied Mustangs. Both have perfect records in district play, and the winner will be overwhelming favorite to cop the district title and become a contender for state-wide laurels.

Station KBST will broadcast the game.

Kansas Picks Sooners For Second Upset

LAWRENCE, Kas., Nov. 9. (AP)—The University of Kansas' light but spirited Jayhawkers pulled their second upset in a row today by defeating the powerful Oklahoma Sooners, 16-13, on reserve end Paul Turner's 40-yard field goal in the last two minutes of play.

While a crowd of some 15,000 rain-soaked fans looked on in amazement, Turner made the almost impossible kick from placement 15 yards from the sidelines. It cost the Oklahomans their first Big Six conference loss of the season.

Kansas turned a break into a touchdown in the first two minutes of play and was never behind.

Legal Notice
THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: MARGARETT PEDERSON
GREETING:
You are commanded to appear and answer the Defendant's Motion at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the said being Monday the 23rd day of December, A. D. 1946, at or before 10 o'clock A. M., before the Honorable District Court of Howard County, at the Court House in Big Spring, Texas.
Said Defendant's Motion was filed on the 3rd day of October, 1946.
The file number of said suit being No. 4778.
The names of the parties in said suit are:
MARGARETT PEDERSON, Plaintiff in the original suit, & VIOLA PEDERSON and L. S. PEDERSON, as new Plaintiffs in motion, as Plaintiffs, and M. O. PEDERSON, as Defendant.
The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit:
A motion by the Defendant, M. O. Pederson, to change the custody of the minor child, Don Eugene Pederson, which was awarded to the Plaintiff, Margaret Pederson, in the original cause; Defendant alleging residence in Howard County, State of Texas, that Margaret Pederson's residence is unknown and/or that she is secreting herself to prohibit the Plaintiff from seeing said minor child; that Don Eugene Pederson is a minor born to Margaret Pederson and M. O. Pederson; that on the 20th day of July, 1943, divorce was granted to Margaret Pederson, awarding the custody of said minor child to Margaret Pederson; that the said Margaret Pederson has violated the agreement between Plaintiff and Defendant in reference to custody of said minor child in that she has refused to permit the Defendant, M. O. Pederson, the right to see said child, and further violating the agreement that the said Margaret Pederson would leave said child in the custody of M. O. Pederson's mother and that the said Margaret Pederson did take the child out of Howard County for many months and secreted and prohibited the said M. O. Pederson from seeing said minor child. Further alleging that Margaret Pederson turned said child over to Viola Pederson and L. S. Pederson, and that said child is at the present time in the custody of Viola Pederson and L. S. Pederson, Big Spring, Texas; that the said Margaret Pederson and Viola Pederson connived together and will not permit M. O. Pederson to see said minor child at all reasonable hours; that the said Margaret Pederson and Viola Pederson are teaching said minor child to hate and despise its father, M. O. Pederson; that the said Margaret Pederson is not able financially to take care of said minor child and has no time to be with said child and is unable to furnish the said child the necessities of life or give the child the benefit of educational advantages. Alleging that Viola Pederson is not physically able to have the care of rearing and educating the child who is approximately five (5) years old; that Viola Pederson is in health, and does not have the capacity, ability, and temperament for rearing said child; that as a result of said child being farmed out to the said Viola Pederson and neglected by its mother, Margaret Pederson, the said child is now without proper care, attention and educational advantages. Further alleging that M. O. Pederson is financially able to furnish a good home and take care of said child; that M. O. Pederson is a married man and has a home and is making on an average of $400.00 per month, and he could and would, if the child was in his custody, give it the very best of care. Alleging that conditions have changed since the granting of the original judgment giving the custody of said child to the said Margaret Pederson; that she has moved from Big Spring, and is a great part of the time a transient person and has no permanent address and residence; that under such change of conditions M. O. Pederson asks the Court to change the custody of said minor child and says that it will be for the best interest and welfare of said child that the Court change the custody and grant the full custody of said minor child to M. O. Pederson. Praying the Court to change the former order and judgment as to the custody of said minor child and give the same to M. O. Pederson, and for such other orders, in law and in equity, that M. O. Pederson may show himself entitled to, and will ever pray.
Issued this 8th day of November, 1946.
Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Big Spring, Texas, this 8th day of November, A. D. 1946.
GEO. C. CHOATE, Clerk,
District Court, Howard County, Texas.

Boys' Pig Show Slated Friday

The annual Howard County Pig Show and the Sears Foundation Pig Show for 4-H club boys will be held Friday at the county warehouse in Northeast Big Spring Friday, County Agent Durward Lewter has announced.

In order to enter, boys must have their pigs at the warehouse by 6 p.m. Thursday, Lewter said.

The Pig Show, which usually is held with the county food show, is being held separately this year, since the food show was cancelled last week.

Top winner in the Sears event will receive a registered Jersey heifer, and the next four will be awarded 500 baby chicks each. Suitable prizes will be awarded for the county show.

James Grote of San Angelo will begin the judging at 9:30 a.m. Friday. About 30 entries are expected.

College Leaders To Meet Nov. 29

E. C. Dodd, president of the Howard County Junior College, has called a meeting of the heads of the seven "starting" junior colleges for Nov. 29 at Houston.

The date and place coincide with the annual meeting of the Texas State Teachers association.

Among matters to be considered is the possibility of concerted action to seek a special act in the legislature which would permit state aid payments to the junior colleges which are holding their first sessions this year. Dodd estimated this would mean around $6,500 to the Howard county college.

Hereafter, it is presumed that these colleges will be included in the general appropriations to junior colleges. Since they were not in existence during the last legislature, there were no state funds available to them.

Colleges invited to participate in

Soil Conservation Payments Tabulated

Work is well underway on compilation of payments to Howard county farm and ranch operators for conservation practices during 1946, M. Weaver, administrative assistant, said Saturday.

He estimated that there might be right at 700 applications. Total amount allotted to the county for conservation practices (largely terracing and tank building this year), is $88,444. Weaver estimated that $85,000 of this had been earned.

As soon as field representatives audit the first applications, they will be sent to the state office for payment.

The conference are Borger, Odessa, Wharton, Henderson county, Navarro county Tri-County (Uvalde, Real, and Zapata), and Howard county.

Mitchell Test Given A Shot

Tobe Foster No. 1 Womack, half a mile south of the Norman and Roche No. 1 Coleman, discovery for the Coleman ranch field in northwestern Mitchell county, was cleaning out Saturday following a "whot."

The test, which topped pay at 2,708 and bottomed at 2,780, was jarred with 470 quarts of nitroglycerin. It had 700 feet of oil in the hole before the shot and Saturday had about 1,500 feet of fluid. Location is in section 5 of the Cuthbert strip.

Doswell and Morgan No. 1 S. R. Coleman, section 8 Cuthbert strip and southwest of the discovery, was at 2,000 feet in lime. At least four additional tests are due to start in the area soon, including Norman and Roche No. 2 Coleman, which likely will be 587 feet north of the discovery in section 70-97, H and TC. Foster is slated to drill a pair and S. R. Beavers, who drilled the first well, is rigging up for his No. 1-A Coleman.

In extreme northwest Mitchell, J. B. Tubb No. 1 Chester L. Jones, three and a half miles east of Vincent production, and in C NE NE SE section 60-20, LaVaca, was last reported below 329 feet in red beds. The cable tool test is slated for 4,200 feet.

Operations were to start soon on Ray Albaugh No. 1 O. H. Morris, 4,000-foot rotary exploration in southwest Dawson, 330 feet out of the northeast corner of section 32-34-3n, T and P, four and a half miles north of Ackerly.

Ohio Oil company was active in leasing in Scurry county, paying a $3.50 per acre bonus for 18,000 acres in the northeast part of the county, centering around section 634-97, H and TC, from J. W. Neal and Hudnall and Helms interests. A $2 bonus was paid on a 6,500 acre block in south central Scurry on the China Grove community. Annual rental of 50 cents was set in both cases.

I. Weiner of Big Spring completed his University No. 1 in Taylor Link pool in Pecos county for 300 barrels flowing at 1,540 feet.

Land Office Gets Flood Of Inquiries On Vet Purchases

AUSTIN, Nov. 9. (AP)—Bascom Giles, commissioner of the General Land Office, said today that his office is being flooded with a fresh avalanche of letters from veterans asking details of land purchases under the constitutional amendment adopted at the polls Thursday.

"We are just as anxious as the veterans to get the program in full swing, but nothing official can be done until the 50th legislature, convening in January, enacts necessary enabling statutes outlining policy and procedure for the board to follow," Giles said.

Small Grain Is Promising

Howard county farmers may start realizing soon on a record amount of small grain acreage.

Reports from over the county indicate that many fields are almost ready for grazing. Almost without exception wheat, rye, speltz and abruzzi rye, along with a small amount of oats and barley, are up to good stands. A scattered few already have cattle in the fields.

While there is no accurate means of determining the amount of small grain, estimates from several observers place it in the neighborhood of 15,000 acres.

A good slow rain in the near future would really set the fields off for ideal winter grazing. Heavy growth on the greenery, based on solid stands, would furnish forage for a few thousand head of cattle during critical winter months. Too, the green feed would help ease the protein supplement shortage.

First Aid Series On Radio Will Be Concluded Tuesday

Last in a series of first aid programs over KBST will be presented at 7 p.m. Tuesday over KBST, O. J. Lamb, first aid chairman for the Howard-Glasscock chapter, said Saturday.

Highlights of previous programs, which featured Otto Peters, Sr., veteran first aid instructor, will be reviewed, and Lamb will cite instances where first aid has paid off as well as quote national figures in support of the program.

He is seeking to organize several classes in first aid, pointing out that the bulk of certificates earned during wartime have now expired. There are 10 instructors available for these classes, including Lamb, Sam McCombs, Neal Barnaby, Otto Peters, Marguerite Wood, Mrs. Lorena Roberts, Charles Romine of Big Spring and O. F. Griffith, C. C. Wilson and Frank Huneycutt of Forsan.

Father-Son Week Starts

Starting with observances in some local churches this morning, Father and Son week will get underway in Big Spring.

Some churches will make announcements about the week, sponsored by the YMCA, some will have special sermons and in at least one fathers and sons will be asked to sit together as a group.

Special days have been set apart, Monday being designated as citizenship day. Bill Dawes, executive secretary of the Y, suggested that this would be a good time for Dads to counsel with sons on the obligations of citizenship.

During the week, several organizations and institutions contemplate banquet affairs for fathers and sons. Two churches, the First Baptist and the Church of Christ, have indicated such affairs, and the First Methodist likely will have one on Nov. 18.

PROCLAMATION

WEREAS IT IS DESIRABLE To keep alive the very best American home life for the growing boy.

To get fathers to renew their interest and reconsecrate themselves to their paternal obligations.

To lead sons to deeper respect and appreciation for their fathers and for their home.

To lead both fathers and sons to recognize the Church and Sunday School as necessary to the finest development of their character and to cooperate in the work and support of the Church.

To acquaint fathers more intimately with simple principles of boy psychology.

AND TO create among the fathers and sons of the world a spirit of Christian Brotherhood, and establish a basis upon which to act toward all people and groups in a Christian manner.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED That the week beginning November 10 be observed in the City of Big Spring as Father and Son Week to the end that the above enumerated desirable Father and Son relationships be strengthened and our community benefitted thereby.

Given under my hand this 7th Day of November, 1946.

GEORGE W. DABNEY, Mayor of the City of Big Spring, Texas.

Local Livestock Markets Slump

A definite slump overtook local livestock markets during the past week, with only about 1,600 head of cattle and calves offered at regular auctions. Prices were virtually the same as those of the previous week, however. The trend in receipts has been downward for the past two weeks, dropping from more than 4,000 to 3,700 last week, and a more distinct decrease this week.

Building permit totals registered a slight gain over the previous week, reaching a total of $10,095. The week's activity pushed the November total up to $15,595, and the total for the year to $1,080,516.

Warranty deeds recorded in the County Clerk's office totaled $28,360, slightly off the pace. The new total for the year is $2,885,258. The county tax assessor-collector's office issued licenses for 13 new automobiles and three trucks during the week.

Let us not through greed and false values permit the destruction of all the beauty which has been wrought since first you created our world. Help us turn swords into ploughshares that all may have enough to eat. Help us turn atomic energy into life saving use that will lengthen man's span rather than blow him to dust. Let us hold in affection and respect all those made in your image, around the world — whatever their race, color or creed. Then we will not sadden you with more warring; then this Armistice date will truly signify peace at last—to last.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By LEATRICE ROSS

BSSH's annual bonfire preceding the Steer-San Angelo Bobcat game blazed to the altitudes Thursday night. Debris was stacked some 25 feet high and topped by a well-stuffed, gunny-sacked carcass. The entire pile was burning with such heat in less than five minutes that the snakedancing circle found it necessary to retreat almost off the school grounds. The crowd was large, the sparks blowing in all di-

Handicapped Vets Given Employment

Of 130 disabled veterans in the files of the local US Employment Service office, 75 responded to inquiries of availability and 23 were placed on jobs during the month of October, L. O. Connally, local USES office manager, announced Saturday.

"Although this seems a comparatively small percentage," Connally said, "it indicates that employers are beginning to realize the effectiveness of selective placement. The question of solving employment problems for handicapped workers is one that must be met by the wholehearted cooperation and concerted efforts of the USES, veterans organizations, employers and the public at large."

Andrews Field Adds Devonian

By JOHN E. BREWER

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 9.—The indicated addition of Devonian production in the Block 12 (Tubb) field in southwestern Andrews county was one of this week's principal West Texas oil developments.

Wildcat locations included one in Pecos county. A large block of minerals in Winkler and Loving counties and a smaller block in Loving and Ward counties were purchased by B. H. Grube, Midland independent operator. Ohio Oil Co. acquired 10-year, commercial oil and gas leases on two blocks in Scurry county.

Atlantic No. 1-E-12 University, southwestern Andrews county wildcat, swabbed and flowed an average of seven barrels of oil hourly plus an unreported amount of water through casing perforations at 8,454, at 8,490-8,540 and at 8,550-70 feet. The Devonian had been treated with 7,000 gallons of acid. Some believed the water was coming through a faulty cement job on casing.

The prospect is in the C NE NE 18-12-U, 2 1/4 miles west of Texaco No. 1-P University, opener of the Block 12 (Tubb) field. Humble No. 5 J. E. Parker promised a further spread of production from the McKee section of the Simpson, middle Ordovician, in the Martin multiple-pay field in southwestern Andrews. It recovered 7,400 feet of pipeline oil, which rose at a rate estimated at 60 barrels hourly, on a 55-minute drillstem test from 8,038-8,437 feet, and drilled ahead below 8,507 feet in lime and shale, slated to test the Ellenburger. Location is near the C SE SE 23-A41-psl.

Globe No. 1 Lockhart & Brown, Andrews wildcat drilling early in the week at 7,042 feet, may continue to 9,000 feet to explore the Devonian under an amended permit for which application was filed. It is in the C NE NE 30-A41-psl, 2 3/4 miles northeast of the Martin field.

First test in the Union (Clear Fork) pool in northwestern Andrews county to explore the Ellenburger, Shell No. 1-E W. F. Scarborough, near the C SW SW 11-A31-psl, encountered sulphur water on a drillstem test from 9,425-9,528 feet, but drilled ahead.

Samedan No. 1 TXL in western Ector county, bidding for a half mile east extension to the Wheeler multiple-pay field, largely in Winkler county, swabbed 3.65 barrels of fluid, mostly oil, hourly before acidizing with 5,000 gallons. It is in the C NW NW 27-45-1s-T&P.

American Republics No. 1 TXL, western Ector wildcat, entered the Simpson at 9,865 feet, 7,757 feet below sea level, and had passed 10,000 feet in lime and shale. It is in the C SW SE 7-45-1s-T&P, half mile south and quarter mile east of John W. Murchison No. 1 TXL, small Devonian discovery.

B. H. Grube of Midland acquired minerals under 560 acres in each of 19 sections in a solid block in central west Winkler and central east Loving county from W. L. Leeman of Carlsbad, N. M. The other 80 acres of minerals are owned by the W. F. Scarborough estate together with the fee, and it was understood Gruber obtained the right to execute oil and gas leases on the entire property, which lies in public school land blocks C-26, 28 and 73. Grube bought the fee rights and minerals are four sections in block 33, H&TC Ry. Co. survey, and in block 1, W&NW Ry. Co. survey, along the Pecos river in Loving and Ward counties.

H. T. Hale Named President Of Howard Co. Farm Bureau

H. T. Hale of Coahoma was elected president of the Howard County Farm Bureau at the annual county convention held in the district court room Thursday night.

Hale succeeds C. H. DeVaney, also of Coahoma.

J. D. Spears, Coahoma, and Richard Thomas of Knot were elected vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively. Named to the new board of directors were E. L. Roman, Knot; Donald Lay, Coahoma; Norvin Smith, Gayhill-Luther; A. A. McKenney, R-Bar-Center Point; Ellis Iden, Vealmoor; B. O. Brown, Vincent; Clarence Fryar, Fairview-Moore; A. J. Stallings, Lomax; and Jesse Overton, Elbow.

Other retiring officers are B. M. Newton, vice-president; O. R. Crow, secretary-treasurer; and P. E. Little, L. J. Davidson, J. D. Spears, D. F. Bigony and H. O. Phillips, directors.

The Bureau voted to contribute to expenses of delegates to the state convention, scheduled for Nov. 19-20 in San Antonio. Named as delegates were Roman, Thomas, Hale, Spears, and Crow, with Lay, Fryar, Willis Winters, Jr., and Clovis Phinney alternates. County Agent Durward Lewter also will make the trip with delegates.

The bureau voted a resolution of appreciation to Lewter for his work in subscribing orders for two car loads of atlasicide, which the bureau is distributing for use as Johnson Grass poison.

Other resolutions regarding the Farm Bureau program were passed as follows: That the state highway department lower the requirements for farm-to-market roads so that a road in West Texas can be built at a lower cost per mile; that any increase in the gasoline tax not be applied to non-highway users; that all agricultural and livestock insecticides be labeled to give exact contents of material; that the PMA (AAA) be continued through 1947, and the policies of this and all other agricultural service agencies be controlled by the farmers; that the state highway department be required to maintain fireguards along highways; that sheep and goat raisers be afforded a stabilization act for wool and mohair similar to guarantees to other major products; that the state set up adequate controls for all predatory animals and fowls, especially crows and ravens and in the meantime that county farm bureaus try to do something about it cooperatively on a local basis; that we support a larger program of research in uses and marketing methods of agricultural products; that the extension service employ at least one farm organization specialist and educate the local agents in this work; that all farm labor be included in the parity formula for farm products.

In a local move regarding the predatory animal and fowl resolution, the group requested that officers and directors ask the commissioners court to consider the possibility of eradicating crows and ravens in Howard county.

Impressive List Of Records Reviewed By Howard 4-H Boys

Announcements of additional awards at the end of the week gave Howard county 4-H club members an impressive season's record to review during the observance of 4-H club Achievement week.

County Agent Durward Lewter has been notified that Wayne White of Coahoma and Perry Walker of Center Point are to receive second place awards for contests they entered in the Southern region. White placed second in the Better Home Method contest and is due to receive an appropriate award from General Electric, while Walker won a second place medal for meat animal production in the Thomas E. Wilson contest.

Lloyd Robinson was announced a state winner in soil conservation and Ray Echols first in safety, Friday. They both are to receive savings bonds.

However, the county 4-H members all could reflect on many accomplishments for the season. Since last winter they have sold calves, steers and lambs for a total of $3,500 and copped $1,625 in prizes at major stock shows at the same time. A total of 103 boys shared in these receipts, and more will be added at the annual Howard county pig show next Friday.

Highlighting the prizes, was the first place for a car-load of 15 steers at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show last March. In addition, 21 club steers from the county and nine lambs placed in the money at shows in Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth, Abilene, San Angelo and Odessa. A Howard county entry was named reserve champion in the milk-fed class at Odessa last spring.

Another special recognition came to Perry Walker at the Dallas Fair when he was named from this district to receive a 4-H club award.

The Howard county group swept some honors at the district summer encampment, also. For the second successive year, the grass judging team won first place, and Howard county boys ranked third in rifle shooting.

Perry Walker, L. J. Davidson and Wayne White attended the annual summer 4-H Round-Up at College Station, and Howard county has been selected by Standard Oil company to send a representative to a 3-day tractor building school at A&M College on Dec. 11-12. Lewter will name the delegate soon.

Two well attended field days have been held, one in the spring and one in the fall, giving the club members a chance to gather with adults and pursue educational endeavor.

Howard county boys invaded the real sheep country last spring, and made a creditable showing by winning a first place at the annual Sonora wool show.

At present, the 4-H club members are ready to continue their activities during the winter. There are 77 calves, 37 lambs and 32 pigs on feed for the coming showing season. All county clubs combined lost only two members during the year, and several new feeders have been added to the program.

City Will Drill New Water Wells

The City of Big Spring plans to drill three additional water wells during the winter to supplement current supplies, City Manager B. J. McDonald announced Saturday.

The new wells are to be located near the Howard-Glasscock county line on the present pipeline to the O'Barr field where the city already receives a large percentage of its well supplies.

Tests already have been made at the new location, McDaniel said, and it is estimated that the three wells will furnish almost 500,000 gallons a day. Seven wells already are operated by the city in the O'Barr field.

Current daily consumption in the city has dropped to the normal winter rate, according to pumping figures for the first week of November. The November average to date is approximately 1,500,000 gallons a day.

Business Club To Join Others In College Session

Members of the ABC Club in their meeting Friday, voted to accept invitation to hold their weekly luncheon at Howard County Junior College on Wednesday of next week, instead of the usual Friday session. The luncheon will be a joint meeting of all local civic clubs in observation of the school's open house.

Preceding business meeting several vocal and piano numbers were presented by Lake View Independent school's colored quartet and their director, E. M. Watson.

Loy House, president, announced that reservations had been made for the annual district convention at Amarillo Saturday, November 15, and urged all members to attend.

Guests for the day included George Clayburn, Homer Williams, Harold Steck, Harland Choate, Bob Miller, Sweetwater, Ralph Gardner, Ahlens, and T. H. Kent.

Overseas veterans will be honored at an open house affair Monday at 1 p.m. in the Christensen-Tucker post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars home, 9th and Gollad.

The VFW auxiliary is planning the affair and announced that veterans would be served from 1 p.m. until the callers ceased coming.

In addition to the buffet luncheon, there will be games, music and various other recreation.

All men who saw service overseas are urged by the auxiliary to participate in the event.

Extra Election Cost County $380

Thursday's special election, which occurred separately from the general election because of a clerk's typographical error in the state capitol, cost Howard county property owners approximately $380 and Texans in general better than $100,000.

The proposal ordinarily would have gone on the regular ballot but the special vote was authorized due to a mixup in dates.

Election committees of all 15 precincts within the county had to be called out again. Each precinct booth was manned by a judge and three assistants. The salary of each worker amounted to $5. In addition, messengers of the outlying precincts were paid $2 for bringing the results to town.

Printing costs for the short ballot amounted to approximately $60, according to local estimates.

In metropolitan centers the expense, of course, was much greater. Several of the counties in the state saw fit to ignore the election entirely, however.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Benzetrone (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloot disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Sustain Innocent Hopes Of Peace

Monday we observe another Armistice Day amid dire predictions that soon it will be forgotten "because it doesn't mean much anymore," or that peace must inevitably flee out of grasp once more.

Perhaps, in our cold, fatalistic reasoning, this may come to pass, but we hope that somehow it may not.

There is something about Armistice Day that has never been duplicated even in the two days of armistice connected with World War II. The spontaneity of joy and thanksgiving which abounded in the first Armistice Day back in 1918 was not equaled in our more recent hours of success. Of course hearts were happy on V-E day and V-J day; we had our celebrations, too. But they did not have the ring of Armistice Day.

There was something different, and we believe that it was an innocent hope of peace which welled in hearts all over the world. Those ambitions for peace did not mature, and in time we were back in a war far more horrible and costly than the one before it. And as we emerged from the second hell, we had the gratitude of weary and disillusioned people. Our innocence was done to death.

To death? Let us hope not, for if this spark of genuine hope born in days of greater innocence to the multiplied selfishness and misery of the world is lost, then all is lost. Man must continue to hope—to work and pray that his hopes may someday be realized. We must hope and pray for eternal peace with the same ferventness as eternal life.

Lo, Children Are An Heritage

By FRANK GRIMES
Herald Special Writer

Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord and the fruit of the womb is his reward. As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth. Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.—Psalm 127:3-5.

At the lunch counter they fell to talking about large vs. small families, the grizzled gaffer and the young veteran. The young man said he had only one child, but he thought about three boys and two girls would be about right. If this housing situation ever eased up so they could settle down, he and his wife were going to finish building their family. Didn't think it was fair to the child to raise only one chick. It never seemed to turn out too well.

The oldest agreed. He was one of 12 children, he said, and while there were times when nobody knew where the next meal was coming from, and the older children handed down their castoff clothing to the younger and the oldest boy always had to use Dad's castoffs, they got along somehow and were a lot happier than a single child could ever be. The give and take of big-family democracy, he said, gave them all the right slant on life and responsibility one to another. If one kid got out of line a little, one of the others would put him in his place. There was the usual amount of fighting and stretching to be sure, but none of the twelve suffered any inferiority complex, or had to consult a psychiatrist in later life to have his psyche adjusted. In this family, he said, they did their own adjusting, and it worked pretty well. Nobody got rich, but they all managed to stay out of the penitentiary and make a pretty good living.

Of course it was sort of tough at times on Ma, but she never seemed to be aware of her down-trodden lot in life. Seemed to take joy in the kids, and in seeing them blossom into strong men and women. Maybe she was too busy to consider herself the victim of circumstances, or to reflect how cruelly unjust it was for an ambitious woman to be tied down by a bunch of squalling brats with running noses and eternally sore toes and scabby heads. The woman actually thought she was fulfilling a pretty important and rewarding career, just being a mother. If Ma ever heard of Margaret Sanger, she probably thought that lady was a poetess or something, instead of the instigator of the birth-control movement in this country.

The kids had to sleep three and four to the bed when company came, and eat at the second or third table, and walk three miles to school, and lustle firewood and draw water and slop the pigs and weed the vegetables (step lively, now) but they were healthy and happy. Their Old Man sometimes used his razor strop for purposes other than utilitarian, but strangely enough the kids did not grow up to hate him, but to love and respect him. This is utterly contrary to some modernistic views, of course, but that's the way it was. He was neither an ogre nor a pal, nor an exerciser of low animal instincts, nor a mere biological functionary, but a man with responsibilities, and a sense of them, and a pretty happy citizen whatever.

Maybe the age of big families is gone forever, and it seems such a pity; for with it will go a great many other things we prize most dearly. Our liberty and independence as a nation, perhaps. That is the way France and many another nation went. They had no one to "speak with the enemies in the gate." They found the production and raising of children too much a burden, so they perished.

If young people only knew it—it's a whole lot harder to raise one child than two, and almost as hard to raise two as five. Also, it is almost the only opportunity they have to enrich their own lives and leave their country wealthier than they found it. We can get along without atomic energy and vaults full of gold and precious ornaments, but we can't get along without a quiver full of arrows.

THE LITTLE SAVAGE

Foreign Husbands

NEW YORK. (AP)—Lady, if you went to the matrimonial market and fear you brought back a piece of talking hamburger instead of a man, don't be too hard on the poor greaseball.

You may feel with some justice that you made a bad bargain by American standards. Yet consider the masculine lumber that some of your sisters around the world have to put up with—and, lady, be so-laced.

Let's see what mama has to put up with abroad: British wives complain their husbands are sluggish, inattentive and center their social life around the dart board in their favorite saloon. "E don't live at 'ome—'E lives in 'is pub," they wail.

The Frenchman is buoyant as a bubble, loves his children, but is harder to get household money from than a pay telephone. He often has a wandering eye, too, and if he catches a few extra francs he spends them on another dame—the Woolworth casanova.

German frays are short-circuiting their ex-supremes by the thousands via the divorce courts. Fritz made a good soldier, but now he wants to loaf and brood and live off what mama can cadge by working for the Americans. Nix mit Fritz!

Life is never dull in Italy for women. Not unless you'd find it dull to do all the housework and half the farm work. One improvement: There isn't any more overtime trying to collect a Mussolini bambino bonus.

Let's see if Africa is any more of a married woman's paradise. Well, right off you can discount the Shekys you've heard so much about. They aren't so romantic on their home sands. They shut you up in a big white gown. You feel like a bedpillow and look like a walking frog. You have to peep out at life through peepholes in the fabric. The peepholes don't even have window wipers.

Would you rather marry into the exclusive tribal set in central Africa? No water bills, true, no clothes problem, no trouble keeping up with the Joneses. But could you give your heart to the kind of man who comes back dragging a dead lion when you simply asked for something to flavor the evening stew?

Suppose you'd yielded to a Moslem in India. You couldn't enter your canvas chateau with liquor on your breath after an afternoon out with the girls. Mohammed said "No" to cocktails before the WCTU endorsed water.

Japanese men hiss when they talk and sound like a paddleboat when they assault the soup course. In China, you become slave to your mother-in-law, and unless you rate as the number one wife you might as well be playing shortstop for the Athletics.

Well lady, that hamsprung, hen-badgered American dream boy you're saddled with may leave a lot to the imagination, but he's one romeo that lays it on the line on payday. And if you need a new thrill he'll stay home and mind the kid while you wait out in the movies and kick up your piteous over a flicker gigolo.

(What's that, dear? Yes, I'll be with you in a minute to help with the dishes.)

Santa Fe Seeking Air Route Permits

GALVESTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—The Santa Fe railroad will seek authority to operate air mail and air freight service along three of its routes, two of which would have Galveston as the southern terminus, offices of the railroad announced here yesterday.

Under the proposals now being filed with the Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington, one route would be between Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco, with a stop at Amarillo, Tex., others include stops at Houston, Temple, Fort Worth, Dallas, Brownwood, Santa Angelo, Sweetwater and Lubbock.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

GOP Senate Will Be Anti-Labor

WASHINGTON.— Now that the battle smoke of elections has subsided, what most people want to know is what kind of policies will the new Republican senators hand out to the people who sent them to Washington.

A quick survey indicates that the new Senate will lean anti-labor, has picked up a couple of isolationists, is definitely more conservative, and will bring no joy to southern senators on the race issue. In fact, one of the new Republicans, Senator Irving Lyles of New York, wrote the Fair Employment Practices Act put into law by Governor Dewey.

Here is a Merry-Go-Round view of the newcomers:

FLANDERS OF VERMONT— Will hardly have to unpack his bags on arriving in Washington. During the war, he worked hand-in-glove with a Democratic administration (on the War Production Board and the Economic Stabilization Board), is bald, 66 years old, a prosperous machine tool manufacturer, enjoys excellent labor relations, was backed by the CIO, has written various books on economics and labor problems, is president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. In all-round experience, he is probably the ablest of the new Republicans.

MARTIN OF PENNSYLVANIA— Began his political career as a portugee of Andrew Mellon, and his soldiering career in the Spanish-American War. He has been devoted to both ever since. For years he dominated the Pennsylvania National Guard, passed an A-1 soldiers' absentee ballot law, has worried some of his business friends by advocating a "liberal bonus" for veterans. Pontifical and stiff-mannered, Martin will vote to reduce taxes, especially in the higher bracket, is pledged—somewhat reluctantly—to vote for the FEPC. To carry the big Negro districts of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania he had to do his best to keep an audience spellbound, raised Cain with the OPA, the Wagner Act, poll taxes and lynching. He began as a messenger for Gianni's Bank of America, has worked his way up.

LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS— Along with Flanders of Vermont, young Lodge knows the government intimately. Reared by his isolationist grandfather, Lodge's great ambition as a boy was to be a senator. He was carefully charted every step of the way, first persuading the New York Herald Tribune to send him to Washington and obligingly rotate news assignments so he could know the entire capital picture. Later elected to the Senate, Lodge had a fair-minded, somewhat conservative voting record, kept his ear to the ground for political reactions, generally stayed away from his grandfather's isolation. Pampered by the brass hats, his recent meteoric war record is a matter of vigorous GI debate.

COOPER OF KENTUCKY— Though a Republican, Cooper is the cousin of staunch Democratic OPA Administrator Paul Porter, had the courage to tell the AFL that the Wagner Act must be revised, yet got the AFL to support him just the same. He proposes arbitration as the solution of labor disputes. . . . Porter didn't vote for his cousin, but was secretly pleased at his election.

DWORSHAK OF IDAHO— Is the most dyed-in-the-wool GOP isolationist elected to the Senate. In the House of Representatives he voted against most foreign policy bills, was glad to have the endorsement of Gerald L. K. Smith's America First party, permitted his mailing frank to be used by a Hitler propagandist. He will be no help to a nonpartisan foreign policy.

WILLIAMS OF DELAWARE— Is a feed merchant and big poultry farmer, hitherto unheard of in his state, elected by waving the flag and charging the Democrats with Communism. Forty-two years old and willing to try anything once, his speeches smack of the high-school graduation class, especially when it comes to foreign policy about which he obviously knows nothing.

CAIN OF WASHINGTON— Born in Tennessee 40 years ago, Cain once directed pageants and radio shows, knows how to keep an audience spellbound, raised Cain with the OPA, the Wagner Act, poll taxes and lynching. He began as a messenger for Gianni's Bank of America, has worked his way up.

KEM OF MISSOURI— Is a sworn enemy of Kansas City's Pendergast machine, and turned its opposition to his advantage. An oil corporation attorney for Socony and White Eagle, Kem will vote conservative, follow a nonpartisan foreign policy and try to outdo Truman as a craft investigator. Plans are already underway to put him on the old Truman Committee.

BALDWIN OF CONNECTICUT— Once was privately described by Herbert Hoover as the nation's outstanding governor. He turned down a $30,000 job with Connecticut Mutual to run for the Senate, is a staunch believer in international cooperation, can be chalked up as an enlightened conservative, trod on many toes, including those of Clare Luce, when he changed his mind and finally decided to run for the Senate.

JENNER OF INDIANA— Is a 38-year old air forces pilot, who got heavy backing from Indiana liquor interests, veers toward isolation, is "agin" government participation in almost anything except neopatriot aid to veterans.

MCCARTHY OF WISCONSIN— Is one year younger than Jenner, a Marine Corps veteran, worked his way up from grocer clerk, finally went through high school in one year, was elected Circuit Court judge. He will be a dynamic demander of such safe principles as government economy and a balanced budget.

IVES OF NEW YORK— Is a strange combination of a tough, experienced politician and a college executive. For 17 years he has led a stormy political career in the New York assembly, more recently holding down the simultaneous job of dean of the School of Industrial and Labor Relations at Cornell. A middle-of-the-roader, he is considered generally fair to labor, believes in international cooperation, and was first in disavowing America First's Gerald L. K. Smith.

Such wellknown figures as Thye of Minnesota and Bricker of Ohio need no further scrutiny at the moment except to note that when Bricker walks down the Senate aisle with his colleague Bob Taft to be sworn in as Junior Senator from Ohio, there begins one of the most cutthroat presidential races within the Republican party. Both determined to land in the White House, the rivalry between them may neutralize each. They will be the GOP personalities to watch during the coming session. of state and then resign. The secretary of state would then become president.

They made the suggestion for two reasons:
1. So there'd be a Republican president to get along with the new Republican Congress.
2. Because the law says that's how it would have to be done.

Under a law passed by Congress in 1888 the President—if he resigns and there's no vice president—must be succeeded by the secretary of state.

Right now a number of Republicans are being mentioned as possible presidential nominees of their party in the 1948 presidential elections.

They include New York's Governor Dewey, California's Governor Warren, Minnesota's former governor Stassen, Ohio's newly-elected Senator Bricker, Ohio's holdover senator, Taft, and Michigan's Senator Vandenberg.

Suppose Mr. Truman quietly called one of the group to the White House and said to him: "How would you like to be president if I quit?"

This probably would startle the daylights out of the Republican, and for some good reasons:

By becoming president now, that Republican would have the inside track on getting his party to run him for president in the 1948 elections. Once in the White House, he'd have a better chance of staying there.

Spanish padres in 17th Century New Mexico kept delicacies such as tobacco and chocolate under lock and key in the churches. Such items were distributed to Pueblo Indians in small quantities.

The oldest specimen of cultivated tobacco yet found in America was unearthed from a prehistoric Indian cliff dwelling in Frijoles Canyon in Bandelier National Monument, New Mexico.

No Ross Picture

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)— John Garfield tells me he was unable to make a film story of Barney Ross' life and is returning the rights to the former Marine and prize fighter after spending considerable money on it. Boxing circles may be jolted by John's next production, "Burning Journey." It tells of corruption in the fight game.

Republic has an interesting male chorus working on its Nelson Eddy production. It is composed of 40 ex-GIs from every theater of operations. Leader is former Maj. John Schwarzwald of Columbus, Ohio, who as head of counter-intelligence in northern German captured Himmler. "But I wasn't responsible for his chewing on the cyanide," he tells me. "That was after we handed him over."

Despite reports, Robert Taylor still has no picture assignment from MGM. If the studio doesn't hurry, he might cook up a film deal with wife Barbara Stanwyck.

Olivia De Havilland's deal with Paramount is not so concrete as you might be led to believe. They merely have an agreement for one picture a year, provided the right story and conditions present themselves. It's been over a year now and nothing has happened.

Musical Romance In Technicolor Offered At Ritz

A new Technicolor musical that has hit and best is "Three Little Girls In Blue," coming to the Ritz theatre today and Monday. Starring June Haver, George Montgomery, Vivian Blaine, Celeste Holm, Vera-Ellen and Frank Latimore, the story puts all emphasis on unusual entertainment.

The story's three little girls are the Misses Haver, Blaine and Vera-Ellen, as talented and lovely-looking a trio as has ever graced a single movie. When these three beauties decide to sell their chicken farm and go millionaire husband-hunting on the boardwalk at Atlantic City, the picture gets off to its fast-paced start.

George Montgomery and Frank Latimore pop up as very desirable targets for June who is spearheading the romantic campaign of the three sisters. But in love—as in war, even the best-laid campaign often meets setbacks; especially when a rambunctious Celeste Holm enters the fray, and from here on in, it's a mad and merry, catch-as-catch-can romantic mix-up that spells sheer delight right through to the film's surprise climax.

There is a generous supply of uncommonly good music in "Three Little Girls In Blue." June Haver and Vivian Blaine do wonderful things with "This Is Always" and "Somewhere In The Night." In her film debut, Celeste Holm, star of the Broadway hits "Oklahoma!" and "Bloomer Girl," gives her unusual treatment to the sophisticated "Always The Lady." Vera-Ellen sings "I Like Mike," and adds to the festivities with a truly spectacular dance routine. Other songs include "On The Boardwalk," "Three Little Girls In Blue," "A Farmer's Life Is A Merry Life" and "You Make Me Feel So Young."

Improvements Made On All R&R Theatres

An extensive program of remodeling and redecorating work is getting under way at the three downtown R&R theatres.

Work of removing the old loges from the Ritz theatre has been completed, and throughout the auditorium new, "Body Form" seats have been installed. Forty-two new seats have been replaced in the loge space.

Seats at the Ritz are being completely rebuilt and reupholstered, and are to be installed in the Lyric theatre. In addition, a new double-channel sound system has been stalled in the Lyric, and the stage has been graced with the addition of a plush red grand drop. All three showhouses—Ritz, Lyric and Queen—are to be carpeted throughout, and all interiors repainted. This work is to start soon, the R&R management said.

Seats are being installed in the new R&R Bie on the northside, and this theatre is expected to be ready for formal opening in a few weeks.

Tests show that powerful new insecticides help meat animals grow better, freeing them from annoyance so they have more time to graze.

LOVE TROUBLES—A little romantic complication—nothing that can't be remedied in satisfactory fashion—is depicted here in a scene from "Three Little Girls In Blue," the Technicolor musical comedy playing at the Ritz theatre today and Monday. George Montgomery, June Haver and Frank Latimore, shown here, share honors in the picture with Vivian Blaine, Vera-Ellen and Celeste Holm.

IN STAGE SHOW—Billye Gale (left) and Mary Leito, are featured performers in a stage presentation at the State theatre for three days, Sunday through Tuesday. Miss Gayle presents her all-girl band, the Hollywood cowgirls, with a varied program of novelty music. Miss Leito, a "rip-roaring" cowgirl, provides the high comedy for the show. The stage attraction is in addition to the screen program which features "The Prisoner Of Zenda," with Ronald Colman and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

AT THE LYRIC—Monty Woolley and Ginny Simms aren't exactly being chaperoned, but Alexis Smith and Cary Grant keep an eye on them, in this scene from "Night And Day." The picture, at the Lyric today and Monday, is based on the life of the famous composer, Cole Porter, with Cary Grant in the major role. Emphasized are production numbers featuring many of Porter's famous melodies.

Lillian Gish On Radio Tonight In Play, 'Kind Lady'

Lillian Gish will be starred in "Kind Lady," Edward Chodorov's play about a charming recluse whose impulsive kindness and generosity nearly cost her life, when The Theatre Guild on the Air is presented over KBST tonight at 9 o'clock.

Miss Gish will portray Miss Mary Herries, well-to-do resident of the Back Bay section of Boston, whose quiet life among a valuable collection of paintings is rudely shattered when she befriends a young man whom she finds standing coatless in the snow on Christmas Eve.

The man later calls with his wife who suddenly becomes so ill that Miss Herries has to allow her to remain in the house. After several weeks Miss Herries tries to persuade the couple to leave, only to find herself confined to her room and the "deserving" young man preparing to dispose of her paintings. An unexpected development climaxes the play.

College Assured Use Of Equipment

After weeks of effort, the Howard County Junior College was rewarded Friday with news that equipment previously obtained had been frozen for college use.

Word from the Washington office of Rep. George Mahon said Friday that the Southern division office of the US Engineers had earmarked stoves, mechanical refrigerators and cafeteria equipment for the college.

The college made use of the equipment when it opened on Sept. 30, but subsequently, the engineers notified that the freeze on the equipment was defective and that it would be withdrawn. During the past month, President E. C. Dodd had been active in seeking to clear up difficulties in order to retain use of the materials.

Lyric Feature Presents Life Of Cole Porter

"Night And Day," one of Warner Bros. gala Anniversary films currently being released in connection with the 20th Anniversary of Talking Pictures, plays today and Monday at the Lyric with a cast headed by Cary Grant and Alexis Smith.

The Technicolor musical, based on the career of Cole Porter, was produced by Arthur Schwartz, and directed by Michael Curtiz and features many famous stars of the screen, stage and radio, among them Monty Woolley, Ginny Simms, Jane Wymann, Eve Arden, Carlos Ramirez, Donald Woods and Mary Martin.

The film features a number of Porter's song hits which serve as the basis for a succession of stunning and startling production numbers including the beguiling "Begin the Beguine," "Just One of Those Things," "I've Got You Under My Skin," "I Get a Kick Out of You" and "Let's Fall in Love" which provide the setting for some extraordinarily lovely ballets executed by Milada Mladova and George Zoritch.

The film traces the career of composer Cole Porter from the time he decided to give up the study of law for song writing, through his World War I experiences and a too successful career which almost disrupted his marriage.

The screenplay was written by Charles Hoffman, Leo Townsend and William Bowers from an adaptation by Jack Moffitt. Ray Heindorf did the orchestral arrangements of the score of Porter hit tunes featured in the film.

GBS Declines Gagman Offer

LONDON, Nov. 9. (AP)—George Bernard Shaw, offered a job as a comedian's gagman, said today it was "utterly unlikely" he would take it.

Raymond Bennett, 300-pound music hall artist, who made the offer in a letter, got a reply by postcard from the 90-year-old playwright.

"I am a bit too old," Shaw wrote.

"I have to thank you for the proposal in your letter," his postcard ran. "I have been a known comedy author for over 50 years, yet you are the first variety comedian intelligent enough to see that I am rather good at monologue and back-chat, and to offer me a popular job."

"But I am a bit too old for it: And I am not at all sure that my name would help you; it would do just the opposite in many quarters, as I am blacklisted as a high-brow by the run of agents and bookers."

"However, I will bear you in mind, though I cannot promise you a date. I cannot help playing with the idea, though it is utterly unlikely that anything will come of it."

They Must Have Said The Wrong Things

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Nov. 9. (AP)—Fifteen members of the senior class at exclusive Beverly Hills High School will have to forego the senior prom, it was disclosed today, for ad-libbing lines into a senior class revue.

A conference of parents and school officials was scheduled today.

The punishment was announced by Vice-principal Harry M. Alter, who said some parents had protested parts of the revue were "suggestive" and "risque." He said the script was approved by a faculty committee but that some lines were changed after the dress rehearsal.

One out of three workers today is employed under the terms of union agreements.

For Our Own Needs—

Teachers Developing Basic Aims For Big Spring Schools

Quietly but earnestly, Big Spring teachers are seeking to shape a pattern of basic objectives for education in the community's public schools.

Already a series of meetings have been held by teachers and by supervisors with the view of re-examining educational philosophy to fit Big Spring in particular, yet to be in harmony with accepted, broad national educational ideals.

These philosophies are still in the formative stage, but when they take more definite shape and the school board has made its studies, Superintendent W. C. Blankenship hopes to have a representative number of lay leaders in the community to sit in on discussions and lend their counsel.

From this, the fundamental objectives of local schools may find argument. But this will not be the end of it, for, if they are accepted, efforts will be made to work the entire program from them.

In addition, the local philosophy will be tested with the evaluative criteria developed from studies of 200 outstanding schools. Experts from other schools, colleges and universities will be invited to make minute inspection of the local schools in action for evaluations against the standards.

Blankenship anticipates that the goals will be high, perhaps higher than can be attained immediately. Through understanding of the goals, however, and coordination of the work in high school and elementary schools, he is hopeful that steady progress can be made toward doing the job of education as Big Spring people want it done.
