

AROUND ATown

Sights and Faces Seen

Speaking of typographical errors, we nominate the one in H. T. Weidel's sale ad in The Brand this week for a place in the Hall of Editorial Nightmares. An item in the miscellaneous group reads "For sale: 100 feet of barbed wire." Mr. Weidel thought it was funny—and we sincerely hope Mrs. Weidel will think the same.

Odd what folks will do when they are thirsty.

Tuesday night, near the hour of midnight, the City Marshal received a long-distance call from Cleveland, Ohio. The caller wanted to discuss water. Would the night officer inform him immediately who in Hereford could ship him tank cars of drinking water in order that he might bottle and distribute the fluid from "The Town Without A Toothache?"

The officer simply referred him to the local Chamber of Commerce with a terse remark: "If the guy is going to sell our water to Cleveland, why doesn't he open a well in Hereford?"

Ruth Houser, retiring sweetheart of the Hereford Lions Club, was presented with a coffee service at the meeting Wednesday.

Attracting considerable comment is a potato, grown in such fashion as to offer the appearance of an animal. It could be a dog, a lion or even a cow. Anyway, all the girls think it's cute. It was grown by C. M. Carpenter and left at The Brand office on display.

All persons who received forms in regard to the proposed feeder air line through Hereford are asked to fill out and return them to the Chamber of Commerce. Information from the forms will be used in a brief which must be filed within the next few days.

Pat Flynn, Roving Reporter Talks About This County

Lt. Paul Foster Down in Germany

Lt. Paul Foster, bombardier on a Flying Fortress, has been missing in action over Germany since August 6, according to official notice received by his father, Paul Foster of Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Easley, aunt and uncle of the missing boy, were notified Sunday by the father. Paul had completed 20 out of his 30 scheduled missions. No further details were released.

Paul, who is 23 years of age, grew up here and attended the Hereford schools, where he achieved a record as an athlete, serving as co-captain of the football team in his senior year. After completing his high school work, he attended Georgia Military College and Georgia Tech in Atlanta.

Lt. Foster received his commission at Victorville, Calif., last September and left for overseas duty last April.

County Votes In One Place

Reminding voters that only one polling place will be maintained in the entire county for the Second primary, Sat. Aug. 26, C. C. Acker, county chairman, today said that all precincts will vote at the courthouse in Hereford. B. E. Brumley and J. C. Ricketts have been named as judges.

Only two state offices remain to be filled in the primary:

For Attorney General—Grover Sells of Hopkins County and Jesse E. Martin of Tarrant County; For Associate Justice of Supreme Court: Richard Critz of Williamson County and Gordon Simpson of Smith County.

All county races were determined in the first primary, leaving the selection of County Chairman, Democratic Executive Committee as the only office of local interest.

A light vote is anticipated in the Saturday election.

Spray Formula Is Given by Agent

Pointing out that this is the proper time to spray or paint trees to prevent borers, A. R. Bateman, county agent, said that inspections are at this season imbedding themselves especially in fruit trees.

He offers the following formula as one of the best white-washers in this area and suggests that several neighbors mix the formula together:

Hydrated lime, 50 lbs. common table salt, six lbs.; molasses, one pint; ground alum, three ounces; hot water, 10 gallons. Alum and salt should be dissolved in water and added to molasses.

Bateman also reported on having attended a budding demonstration in Hansford County, where he reports outstanding orchards of cherry and plum trees. The demonstration was conducted by Jas. Rosborough, special demonstrator. Attempts will be made to secure seed adapted to this area to be planted by 4-H Club members to be budded next spring to plum or cherry stock, and invited interested persons to contact his office.

Onias Carroll Back On City Water Job

That Onias Carroll has again resumed the position of Water and Sewer Superintendent with the City of Hereford was today announced by E. S. Ireland, mayor.

Mr. Carroll held this position for a number of years, resigning around 18 months ago to accept a place with the Prisoner of War Camp near here.

Editor's Note: The following article was written by Pat Flynn at special request of The Brand. As staff writer for the Amarillo News-Globe, Flynn regularly covers 60 counties of the Panhandle area, along with border counties in New Mexico and Oklahoma. He visited Hereford this week and was amazed at the diversification found in the irrigated farms and ranches in this territory.)

By Pat Flynn

Some sage once said a "Prophecy is lost in his own country." Such holds true in Hereford. The approximate 1,000,000 acres of Deaf Smith County, of which 85 per cent is tillable, offers natural health sources to a vitamin-conscious nation. Whether it is the vast store of shallow water, the mineral contents of the soil or a combination of these elements, it is a known fact something from this region, and this region alone, contributed toward better teeth, bone structure and health.

When the nation first learned of the health qualities of Deaf Smith vegetables, water and grain through publicity in the Readers Digest and Colliers magazine, anxious parents sought every conceivable item Deaf Smith county raised. More than 1,000 letters are in the Hereford Chamber of Commerce office from people asking information, many wanting everything from local grass to bottles of water. Practically every state in the Union is represented in these requests. There are orders from South Africa, Mexico, Canada, Europe and Australia. Hereford, Texas and Deaf Smith county are well known.

Rural Schools To Open on Sept. 4

Despite the fact that several of the five rural schools in this county are still short teachers and bus drivers, they are scheduled to open Monday, Sept. 4, according to Judge Fred Baird, who said that all places are expected to be filled at that time by the local boards.

The schools include Summerfield, Dawn, Westway, Walcott and Daniel, all of which are two-teacher schools with the exception of Daniel which is a one-teacher school.

20 Acres Onions Bring in $11,200

With a yield of 300 sacks of onions to the acre, Owen Finlan reported what he considers "a fair yield" on 20 acres of early onions. Mr. Finlan's crop ran approximately 6,000 sacks, which at the present price of $1.70 a sack grossed $11,200 on the 20 acres.

Good onion crops are also reported by Dudley Green and Archie Scott, who are farming approximately 20 acres of onions with Leon Coffin.

City Food Formal Opening Weekend

Setting the formal opening of the City Food Store for Friday and Saturday of this week, J. W. Thomas, manager, today said that specials will be offered this week end and invited the public to visit the store, which has been repainted, rearranged and re-stocked.

"We would have held the opening sooner, but we wanted to remodel and improve our stock first," Mr. Thomas said. "We feel that we now have a nice store and are anxious for you to visit us."

Mr. Thomas and W. A. Pierce purchased the McLain Grocery here several weeks ago and changed the name to City Food Store. They have since purchased a store in Clovis, which is being operated by Mr. Pierce.

Grain Sorghum Crop to Boost Farm Income

With one of the largest row crop acreages in the history of this territory well on its way to maturity, it was estimated this week that a yield of four and one half to six million bushels was probable, despite heavy damage as a result of drought and hot weather.

More than 200,000 acres have been planted to row crops, according to figures released through the county agent's office. This does not include acreage in other counties, which will likely be hauled through Hereford, due to location of the town. Harvesting of the present row crop was expected to get underway around September 15 in some fields, due to hot weather.

Following a four and one-half million bushel wheat crop and a $1,500,000 potato crop, the 1944 row crop is expected to boost the income for this territory to a new all-time high.

Estimates on an average grain sorghum yield varied from 20 to 30 bushels per acre, while some farmers estimated 50 and 60 bushel yields. If the entire crop were marketed, it would return approximately $4,250,000 to producers, figured on a yield of five million bushels at the loan value of 85 cents per bushel.

Farmer-stockmen have retained a large percentage of the crop for feed in past years and some of the crop this year will also be kept by the producers. However, there are more grain sorghums than in the past and more of the 1944 crop will be marketed than in ordinary years.

Two Auctions For Next Week

Two auction sales of unusual interest were today announced for next week.

The H. T. Weidel sale, set for Tuesday, Aug. 29, will feature an array of Shorthorn cattle, including consignments by I. L. Larson and Tilden Slagle along with those of Mr. Weidel. The sale also includes horses and mules, farm machinery, 12 tons of alfalfa hay, and numerous miscellaneous items. Mr. Weidel said that he is holding the sale due to the fact that he has sold his place and must dispose of his entire holdings. The sale starts at 12:30 o'clock.

G. C. Hartman has scheduled his sale for Thursday, Aug. 31, starting at 1 o'clock. Mr. Hartman has also sold his place and will include in the sale several head of cows, calves, hogs, horses and mules, a long list of farm machinery, 50 hens, household goods and numerous miscellaneous items including 100 cans of home-canned fruits and jellies, which will not require points.

Copies of both sale bills will be found in this issue of The Brand; Brumley and Otten will serve as auctioneers and E. C. Eubanks as clerk.

Judge Kerr Honor Speaker at Hale Center Reunion

Judge C. F. Kerr, West Texas Pioneer and resident of this community for many years, was principal speaker at the twelfth annual reunion of Hale Center's old school mates August 15.

Judge Kerr, 85, now a resident of Canyon, was listed as a teacher in the first schools of Hale Center, Hale City and Center Plains. Among other things he recalled that he received a salary of $15 per month for his services about 45 years ago.

The gathering was held in the city park at Hale Center and was attended by Judge and Mrs. Kerr and his two daughters, Mrs. Bob Birchfield and Mrs. Clay Ridgeway.

Anyway, The Prisoners Should Like It!

Here's the best story of the week, which incidentally "tops" all other vacation stories.

A group of Hereford people left a few days ago to do some fishing and resting in Colorado. Being conscious of gasoline conservation, they headed for Monument Lake, just out of Trinidad, Colo.

Imagine their surprise when they arrived to find barb wire strung around the cabins, which had been turned over to German prisoners of war from a nearby prison camp. Natives reported that the prisoners were awarded vacation periods in the special "lake compound" as reward for good conduct.

The group from here finally located some inferior accommodations and finished their stay. All of the Hereford gang is still a little sore about the deal, but as one of them, a World War I veteran, puts it:

"It certainly should put a stop to prison breaks until next fall. After all, no one is gonna want to escape until after his vacation."

Grand Jury Still To Be Heard Here

Following a grand jury session Monday in connection with the September term of District Court, no verdicts were returned, due to the fact that Judge John-H. Aldredge of Farwell was ill and unable to be present.

Jurors pointed out that no results of the Monday session will be returned until Judge Aldredge returns to the bench, the tentative date having been set for today, depending upon recovery of the judge.

Army Lists Pat Stagner as Dead

That official notification of the death of Pfc. Pat Stagner has been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stagner, was announced this week.

Pat Stagner has been listed as missing in action since the fall of the Philippine Islands and the death notice was issued as a ruling, due to expiration of time rather than to actual evidence, a policy set by the government in such cases where no word is received for a sufficient period.

He went overseas in 1941 as a radio operator in the 20th Air Forces and was stationed in Manila up to the fall of the Philippines. No definite word of his whereabouts has since been released. Pat grew up in this vicinity, attending school here and at Dimmitt, and played one year on the Hereford football and basketball teams.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by four brothers: Owen of Hereford; J. P. Warrant Office in the army; Fred of San Francisco; Capt. Earl of the U. S. Air Corps. Four sisters: Mrs. G. P. Owen of Hereford, Mrs. Earl Clark of Booker, Miss Della Stagner of Adrian, and Mrs. Wayne Lawrence of Hereford.

Franklins Buy News Stand Here

Purchase of the Hereford News Stand by Mr. and Mrs. Homer Franklin was this week announced by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sowell, who have operated the business here for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin come to Hereford from Stinnett, where Mr. Franklin has served as superintendent of schools for four and one-half years; he was also superintendent at Meadow, Texas, for eight years and has been in the teaching profession for the past 18 years. They have two children. The Franklin family was active in community and civic affairs in Stinnett, Mr. Franklin being a charter member of the Stinnett Kiwanis club.

The Franklins said they will continue to feature the same lines which the news stand has offered in the past and invited the public to visit them in their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Sowell will continue to assist the Franklins for a few days, following which no definite plans have been announced.

Eight Escaped Prisoners Are Back in Camp

With all but one of the nine escaped Italian prisoners of war back in the Prison Camp at Hereford, officials today said they believed steps had been taken to prevent further break-through the same source.

"We do not think the prisoners are getting outside assistance in this community," they declared.

The last two prisoners were caught by Lt. Mann and Capt. Duff within 100 yards of the fence around the camp Wednesday night. Prisoners as reported to have been escaping through the compound fence.

Three of the escaped men were taken by Amarillo officials last week, after being out 3 hours. They were in Amarillo at the time of their capture.

Three more were taken by Friona, after being out three days, and one still remains free. Four of the group were officers and five were enlisted men. Some of them had secured civilian clothes and they all carried maps showing routes into Oklahoma.

According to the report there are 36,630 cattle in the county, 9,378 sheep and 6,434 hogs.

Following up the livestock and agriculture resources, principal industries are all connected with food production. Modern grain elevators have a storage capacity of three-million bushels, making Hereford a storage center for a wide territory. With eight modern potato processing plants the town is rapidly becoming the principal potato market of the southwest and local mills produce flour and breakfast cereals which are sold throughout the state and in New Mexico.

Mrs. Boyd's Father Dies in Abilene

Word was received here Monday that Rev. C. B. Meador, father of Mrs. M. L. Boyd, had passed away Monday afternoon. Mrs. Boyd had been at her father's bedside for several days.

Rev. Meador, 78, retired Methodist Minister, was living in Abilene at the time of his death. He had been ill for several months. He had held many pastorates in the Northwest Texas Conference and during Rev. M. M. Beavers first pastorate here he conducted a revival meeting in the local Methodist Church.

Funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church in Abilene yesterday afternoon.

Besides his widow and daughter he leaves two sons, Bruce Meador of Abilene and Major Clark Meador, somewhere in France.

Sexton Garage Is Bought by Laymans

Purchase of the Sexton Garage by C. L. and D. L. Layman was announced this week and the new owners took over the business last Saturday.

D. L. Layman has been operating a farm at Claude for the past few years and C. L. has been employed as a mechanic at the Boyd Battery Shop.

Mr. Sexton said that he has no definite plans at the present time.

Teacher List Issued; School Opens Sept. 4

With an enrollment of 66 seniors, 70 Juniors, — sophomores and a throng of freshmen being enrolled today, Knox Kinard, superintendent, estimated between 340 and 350 high school students in Hereford this year. The enrollment for last term was 331, but Mr. Kinard said that it usually increased throughout the year. No estimate was possible on the grade school enrollment, but an increase was considered probable in view of the fact that additional first grade and second grade rooms have been added.

High School text books will be issued Friday, Sept. 1, and both schools will open on Monday, Sept. 4.

A complete list of teachers was also released this week showing only three new faces on the high school staff:

Beene, five years commercial arts; Miss Jean Cox, two years, world history and girls' physical education; Miss Irene Crawford, English and speech; Miss Kathryn Davies, four years, homemaking; Miss Kathryn Easter, three years, history and government; Miss Pauline Hancock, three years, laboratory science, chemistry.

BULL

Homer Fox, who is really a sensitive soul, came down the other morning with a long face and a worried look in his eyes. "I didn't sleep a wink last night," he sighed. "It's those Cowboy Ballads. I always figured that cowboys were care-free, happy-go-lucky fellows who lived the ideal life. I have always admired them and maybe if they didn't have to ride horses, fool around with cattle or go to round-ups, I might have been one. I admire them so much I even have a pair of boots—and now I suddenly realize that I have been wrong all of the time. These cowboy songs prove they are sad, lonely guys who always get a raw deal. One of the songs tells about a fellow's girl who is dead, another don't have any idea where in heck his wife is—and there's always that feller who was going home when the work was done last fall but never does. I thought these old boys loved the Plains they roamed, but the one in song says not to bury him on the lone prairie. It's awful when you think about it."

Harold Close is another fellow who is decidedly unhappy. He observed his forty-first birthday last week and got to figuring that he spent 15 of the 41 years in bed. He figures the 15 years was just time wasted and that he has actually lived only 26 years. I have seen a lot of people who figure their age that way, but Harold is the first one to openly admit it.

Now that enthusiasm for first aid has passed, there's a story R. C. McGilvary, local gas company manager, swears is the truth. However, he says he won't tell the ladies' name. Here's the story:

An officious lady was driving home from her first aid class when she saw a man lying flat on his face in the middle of a street. She yelled to her husband to stop the car. "I'll practice what I learned in class today," she screamed, enthusiastically landing her full 165 pounds astride the prone figure and frantically pumping his arms violently. The man finally found his voice and said, "Hey, lady, I don't know what you're trying to do, but I'm trying to locate a leak in this gas main."

Seriously, though, we need to hand some bouquets to the Chamber of Commerce boys, some of whom will be retiring. Last week they presented some Post-war ideas in The Brand and later mailed out copies to every boxholder in this territory. There isn't any use kidding ourselves about these Post-War problems—and thinking about them now is really a definite part of our duty on the home front. Furthermore, most communities are sitting idle and waiting until the last minute. As evidence, here is an article (in part) from the Memphis, Texas, Democrat:

"There are definite problems to be met and definite responsibilities to assume in all aspects of our community life—civic, economic, social and moral. All of us are well aware of this. We know that the matter of jobs and homes and business opportunities for our men and women from the battle fronts and training camps will present a major problem. We know that the factors of an intangible nature such as disillusionment, delinquency, broken homes and lost faith will tax the resources and energies of our social and welfare organizations, our churches and our civic groups."

"What we would like to remind the public, especially our city, county and school officials, our chamber of commerce and our civic clubs and all individuals who are in position to help, is that plans are not self-originating, nor are they self-operating. There must be leadership and there must be a willingness to accept the responsibilities of hard work and financial obligations."

"We do not doubt that Hall County has the leadership although it may be more latent than active right now, and as we said at the out set we do not question the loyalty and sincerity of Hall County people."

"The question is: Are we ready or are we going to get ready to meet the challenge of inescapable postwar problems? If so, when?"

The point is that Hereford's Chamber of Commerce is trying now to stir up enthusiasm. They are on the job and if all of us were pushing like they are pushing—we would be on the road to getting somewhere. It will cost money? Sure. But I like the army's idea that money cannot replace a lost life. Neither can it replace lost happiness and contentment. It is duty to ourselves, our community and our nation.

If you wonder what the GI's do when they have a little time to themselves, here are some jokes they think up for camp papers over the country:

"Why" asked the GI of his girl, "do you have so many boy friends?"
She smiled at him sweetly and said, "I give up."

Mother: "You know darling, Ruth is sixteen years old now, so today I had a frank talk with her about the facts of life."
Father: "Well, did you learn anything?"

Once a little boy asked his father for a nickel to buy an ice-cream cone, but his father re-

Double Wedding Ceremony is Held

In an impressive double ceremony Miss Nova Wyly became the bride of Odell Purdy and Miss Glenna Jack became the bride of Arlon Miller on Saturday August 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jack, parents of Miss Glenna Jack.

Minister Orin Martin of the Petersburg Church of Christ read the ceremony and vocal music was given by Mrs. Orin Martin who sang "I Love You Truly." Miss Jo Crisler of Lubbock lighted the candles at the improvised altar which was banked with white gladioli and fern.

The brides, who are cousins, wore similar street length dresses made with sweetheart neckline. Both carried white Bibles topped with a single gardenia. For something old and borrowed Mrs. Purdy wore a locket belonging to a friend and Mrs. Miller wore the cameo locket worn by her mother at her wedding.

Both brides cut the tiered wedding cake at the reception which followed the ceremony. Mrs. L. D. Chiles, sister of Mrs.

Miller, and Mrs. W. H. Evans, sister of Mrs. Purdy, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Verol Miller of Floydada and Miss Della Purdy of Borger served the cake. Miss Bonnie Faye Cogburn of Lubbock was in charge of the register.

The two couples left immediately after the ceremony for trips through New Mexico and Colorado. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be at home in Floydada where he operates a farm. Mr. and Mrs. Purdy plan to teach at Clarene near Levelland.

Mrs. Purdy is the daughter of Mrs. Alta Wyly and Mr. Purdy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Purdy of Flomont. Mr. Miller's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller of Floydada.

Both brides have majored in home economics at Texas Technological College Lubbock for the past three years. They resided at Casa Linda Dormitory where Mrs. Purdy was social director for the summer term. Mrs. Miller was a member of the Junior Council and Lus Leales Club.

Tires Wear Out twice as fast at 90°

WHEN YOU SUFFER with the heat, remember that your tires really sizzle on the road . . . because road-surfaces are usually 25° hotter than air temperatures.

This frying-pan heat saps the strength of rubber . . . produces doubled wear as the thermometer rises from 60° to 90° . . . and multiplies tire-failure by twenty per cent.

Obviously, you and every other patriotic driver, want to get every bit of precious mileage remaining in your present set of tires. That is why we bring you these authoritative suggestions:

Avoid hot-road driving as much as you can . . . Drive at slower speeds . . . Don't over-inflate tires, but avoid under-inflation as you would a plague . . . And don't neglect to have your tires cross-switched every 3,000 miles.

Your Phillips 66 Service Man is anxious and waiting to help you. Give him the opportunity, at least once a week, to check air pressures . . . to inspect for nail holes, cuts, and bruises . . . to examine tires so he can warn you when re-capping is advisable.

This is only part of the Tire-Saving and Car-Saving Service pledged to you at every Phillips 66 Service Station, to help you "Care For Your Car For Your Country."

In the Nation's interest and in your own, be watchful and intelligent about making your car and your tires last longer and go farther. Drive in for help at the Orange and Black 66 Shield, the sign of famous Phillips 66 Gasoline and Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

THIS WEEK... AT THE USO

The theme song of the soldiers who were guests of the Wyche community at their picnic last Sat. night is "Why don't they do this more often." They are still talking about the table 50 feet long loaded with chicken, meat loaf, ham, pie, cake, salads and what have you. Jim Liebegott got special privileges and is still raving about the wonderful home-made ice cream. A little bird told us that most of the boys can do the "O'Grady Drill" without a mistake but the girls and Walter Enloe need more training.

All those extra toots on the tooter by Bugler Hosszu last Friday morning were in honor of the arrival of little Edward Francis Hosszu, weight 8 lbs. Steve went around all day with the biggest smile on his face. We expect him to take a furlough one of these days just to teach little Edward how to blow his horn.

To the donor of the furlough ticket to Denver (a home town boy who we hope reads this column) go the thanks of Sgt. Duane Howard, Peterson Field, Colo. He was here visiting his father and just happened to come into the USO and see the notice. He was very appreciative and would like the donor to know it.

Monday night seventy five people enjoyed the "Bingo-Watermelon party on the Coneyway lawn. The money for the prizes was given by the Lions Club and it was well spent. There was everything from dishes, flower pots, and cigarettes to combs and ear screws.

Bill Phipps is especially attractive in large ear bobs. He said it helped to keep the watermelon out of his ears. Lois Alvey won the grand prize in the last minute of play. Thanks to Ray Coneway and the Lions.

Miss Elizabeth Rowe, director of the Clovis USO, spent Sunday afternoon in Hereford. We always enjoy having her come. The boys who went to Camp McCain, Miss. are moving this week, by truck, to Camp Polk, La., according to letters received this week. We had letters from Bob Tremallo, Dick Minervini, Leo Stormwind, Lorraine Hunter, and cards from Rigby, Courtney and Dodd. A letter from Sgt. Nicosia tells of his work in the General Hospital in Denver. He took 17 examinations after one month of schooling and passed with an average of 98! Congratulations "Nicky!"

Stormy says he is getting "strong back and a weak mind" down there in Mississippi. Every once in a while he finds himself saluting himself. The only time he can find time to write letters is between "chow" and salt tablets. And his feet are killing him!

Don't forget the dance—Monday night at the Club House—Leave USO—8:30. Everybody out!

News of the Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion District

Cecil Guseman has just about eliminated the serious water problem on his large ranch in the northwest part of the county.

Since becoming a district cooperator in 1941 about 25 dams and stock tanks have been constructed. Some of these tanks have been dug in the center of old lakebeds which serve as drainage for a number of acres surrounding the pond. These dams and tanks will also result in proper use of his range.

Construction work was done with Soil Conservation Service equipment on loan to the Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion District.

R. R. Lindsey, a Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion District cooperator, is a strong believer in alfalfa as a money crop in Deaf Smith County. He states he has 60 acres of alfalfa and has received two cuttings to date.

The first cutting averaged one and one-fourth tons per acre and the second one and one-half tons per acre. The second cutting was the best quality of hay.

Mr. Lindsey is looking forward to prospects of getting another good cutting of hay the latter part of August.

Less assistance this week has been given cooperators by the Soil Conservation Service tech-in Fort Worth.

Pat Flynn, staff reporter for the Amarillo News-Globe also spoke briefly regarding possibilities of this country.

nicians in improved methods of irrigation and water application, which indicates local farmers are "catching up" in irrigation of feed crops. The following cooperators received assistance this week: W. H. Lindsey, R. R. Lindsey, A. D. Gughenelm, Elmer Jones, C. E. Thomas and C. R. Hughes.

The Rev. J. E. McClurkin, former pastor of the First Baptist Church, stole a march upon local preachers Tuesday night and collected a marriage fee in an entirely unexpected fashion. Jerry E. Mallin and Miss Elizabeth Webb of Canyon, accompanied by some friends, drove over here with intent to commit matrimony, but were unable to stir up a preacher for the occasion. The Rev. Meet In France
Sgt. John Schneider writes from France that he sees Leo Mellman and Wilson Gyles every day. They eat in the same mess and Sgt. Schneider says it is really good to see them, as he has become separated from all the other Hereford boys. Schneider enclosed some souvenirs for his parents—French money, an addressed envelope taken from a German prisoner and also some other German stationery, and a ribbon which he says was used to tie flowers on the first jeep that entered one French town. The French girls, he says, always throw flowers to the American troops.

T-Sgt. W. A. Medlin, Jr., returned Sunday to his post in Ontario, Calif., after spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Medlin.

Graduates at Diesel School

Parker of Hereford graduated recently from Naval Training School at the University of Illinois and is now eligible to qualify for the petty officer rate of motor machinist's mate third class. Karatroopers Fought 33 Days
(Editor's Note: The following information came in an official army press release from Headquarters of the 82nd Airborne Division in France.)
Pvt. Joe E. Burleson is a member of a parachute regiment of the 82nd Airborne Division which was in action for 33 days without relief and without replacements during the initial stages of the Normandy landing.

The paratroopers of this regiment were dropped in several groups on D-Day and at first these groups fell in with other units of their division after accomplishing initial missions of cutting enemy communications and interfering with the German ground assault forces until the landings were accomplished. It was not until four days after D-Day that the regiment again assembled as a tactical unit.

After being pulled together as a unit, the regiment jumped off for the attack on Beuzeville la Bastille. After crossing the Douve, it swept on through the Cretteville-Baupie sector. During this drive many enemy tanks were encountered and many were knocked out. Trucks moved the regiment to Pont-le-Abbe for the general attack toward St. Sauveur. The regiment followed another of the division, driving the enemy west, north and south.

Participating in the drive on Pretot, a squad encountered a Mark IV tank 600 yards north of the town and succeeded in knocking it out with a hand-thrown British grenade. The regiment took up a defensive position at Vindefontaine before joining in the drive toward La Haye de Puits. Heavy fighting was experienced in the Bois de Limors and one element which actually took "Hill 95" sustained heavy casualties.

The hard training, incomparable self-reliance and bravado of all of the men added another chapter to the history of the 82nd Division.

Member of "Long Rangers"
(The following information was contained in an official press release from a Southwest Pacific Air Base.)
Pfc. John E. Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fox of Hereford is helping to provide the technical skills that keep in action the heavy bombers of the 13th AAF in the Southwest Pacific.

Pfc. Fox, a line mechanic, is assigned to a B-24 Liberator Squadron, which is now striking from advanced bases in the campaign to smash the last enemy outpost guarding the Philippines. B-24 bombers in the Hereford man's group have fought from Guadalcanal to the Southwest Pacific in two major campaigns to smash Japanese airpower at the important bases of Truk, Yap and Rabaul.

Fox entered service June 25, 1943 and left the States in January 1944. He has been decorated with the Asiatic-Pacific campaign ribbon with two battle stars.

Arrive in England
Hereford boys who have recently arrived in England are Lt. R. L. Dowell, Jr., and Lt. Grant A. Fuller, Jr., both of whom will take part in the air war against Germany. Lieutenant Dowell is a fighter pilot and Lieutenant Fuller is co-pilot of a B-17 Flying Fortress.

At Maxwell Field, Ala.
Aviation Cadet Marvin C. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garland E. Harris of Hereford, is now enrolled as an aviation cadet in the pre-flight school at Maxwell Field, Ala.

Here the cadets are receiving nine weeks of intensive military, physical and academic training.

Botsford Promoted
(The following information came in a press release from an Army Base, somewhere in Newfoundland.)

Irvin W. Botsford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Botsford, has been promoted to technician fourth grade at a Signal Corps unit somewhere in Newfoundland.

Prior to volunteering for military service in February, 1942, Botsford worked as an electrician's apprentice for Glenn Witherspoon. He received his basic training at Camp Crowder, Mo., before being sent to Newfoundland.

T-4 Botsford is qualified as a marksman with the rifle and sharpshooter with the carbine. He has one brother in the service, a corporal on duty in Italy.

Go ahead—that's your privilege—thinking I'm just plain hipped on everlastingly keeping this engine's insides OIL-PLATED with Conoco Nth oil. Maybe there is and maybe there isn't sixty other ways that would have kept engine acids from raising Ned with this pre-Pearl Harbor limousine. But one thing I know is this: it's still running swell on nothing but Conoco Nth motor oil. You needn't be a scientist to know that acids from every explosion are forever trying to spoil an engine. Looks like the proper idea is to try blockading those acids by getting your engine OIL-PLATED. I learned there's a modern synthetic in Conoco Nth oil that reminds you of magnetism, because it makes inside surfaces attract a shield of OIL-PLATING. Acids can't so easily tear right into this. Then your OIL-PLATED engine has an extra chance to last you. When new cars arrive, hurry! ### Brief Describes

On a population report based on OPA registrations, the population of Deaf Smith County this year is 6,000 as compared with 6,056 in 1940; actually, however, considering the large number of men from this county now in the armed services, the population has shown no decline but an increase of perhaps a thousand over the ten year period.

Concerning mail data, the report brings out that three pounds of air mail are received in Hereford daily and approximately five pounds dispatched, but this amount could probably be increased at least 50 per cent if local air service were available; and local civic groups, with the cooperation of county and city governments are going forward with plans to acquire suitable and ample grounds to accommodate passenger, freight and express cargo planes.

mine what foods or water contributed the most to better health. All agreed Hereford and vicinity had that certain something beneficial to the human race. But Pearl Harbor and priority restrictions curtailed experiments; retarded actual distribution of these health-giving items.

Yet Hereford is unconsciously falling by keeping this untold wealth to humanity a secret.

When this war is won Hereford may well expect the greatest boom in its history; wealth from sources hard to fathom by the citizen accustomed to all of this by close association. It tends to indicate outside capital, outside people and outside labor will exploit Deaf Smith county and Hereford and also reap the fortunes in store. That is unless the citizens of this city awaken to the potentialities of nature's warehouse of health.

Citizens of Hereford should organize a vigilance committee now to safeguard the American public against infringement of a treasured possession. Hereford citizens should publicize to the world constantly the assets they may boast; to seek the highest-type manufacturer, the distributor and wholesale concerns who will invest money in Hereford, use only Deaf Smith products. The committee should certify each and every package bearing the name Deaf Smith or Hereford. They should jealously safeguard its contents, know and testify the product therein was actually grown, packaged and handled in this county; they should punish any offender. Thus will America know it is buying the true product, whatever it may be.

Citizens should investigate the employment of a publicist to work with city and county officials, chamber of commerce and interested farmers. Funds for such a man could well be raised through a bond issue of the city or county, or both. State aid should be sought to advertise the mineral wealth of food from Texas and state aid should be given in its exploitation. Such a program would be cheap to the citizen, much cheaper to those now financing spasmodic publicity of a few items.

Hereford should launch a campaign for an eight-point program immediately, publicize each point for the duration, labor for their completeness after victory at war. The eight-point program follows:

1. Seek a baby food factory. Bone and tooth structure begin at birth. Parents want the best for their child.
2. Seek a cereal factory. Hereford will not have to eliminate certain contents of grains as other health resorts must do.
3. Distribution of bottled water through a company headquarters in Hereford. Crystals are merely a sub-division of such a plant.
4. Secure airport and aviation facilities of sufficient size to make this a terminal point for proposed feeder lines. This would encourage frozen foods as another industry assuring quick delivery all over the nation.
5. Caning factories should be sought to market all products.

6. Seek dehydrators. Authorities recognize postwar shipping will consist mainly of dehydrated foods.

7. Seek juice extraction plants. One of the major markets today is for canned carrot, tomato and other juices.

8. Encourage smaller, diversified farms. Cooperate with growers and manufacturers and thus enlarge payrolls on an annual basis, receive new business, increased population, but above all increased values on business and property. Hotels, hospitals, health resorts and nutrition camps will follow.

An ounce of foresighted courage on the part of Hereford today will pay dividends for generations to come. No county in America has more to offer nature is its capital. It only remains to be wisely invested by those believing in the future. The world will beat a path to Hereford if and when Hereford shows the route of such path through wise publicity and advertising.

When Ponce deLeon first saw the low white sand dunes and the surf rolling in upon the mainland, he named it Florida after Pascua Florida, the Easter Sunday in 1613 on which he landed there.

When a man says his salary goes to five figures, he probably means the wife and four kids.
