

WPA Strikers Are Being Fired For Ignoring Jobs

AFL Fights For Restoration Of Prevailing Wage; Scale In South To Be Hiked, Administrator Says

By The Associated Press
While the AFL high command speeded its drive today to restore the prevailing wage rate to the new relief act, thousands of WPA strikers received dismissal notices for ignoring their jobs for five days.

William Green, AFL president, called a strategy meeting in Washington to carry out demands on congress and the president sanctioned yesterday by federation union.

The WPA gave out no totals on the number of workers dismissed. The strikers protesting the requirement all WPA employees work 150 hours a month were ignored by WPA Commissioner F. C. Harrington as he conferred in Chicago with state administrators.

Harrington said wages in the north and west would be reduced Sept. 1, while those in the south would be increased. The law provides differences in WPA rates in various sections shall be no greater than differences in the cost of living, but that the present national average—$32.20 a month—shall not be changed.

The fire of the AFL was directed, however, at the 130-hour provision. Heretofore, skilled workers on WPA rolls have received the same hourly rate as similar craftsmen in private employment. This meant, in many cases, that a 130-hour work month for the same monthly wage would effect a decrease in the hourly rate.

A resolution to petition congress for revision of the law was adopted without dissent yesterday after the AFL leaders had listened to speeches proposing extension of strikes if congress adjourned without changing the relief measure.

Green denounced the order of Harrington dismissing those away from their jobs five days.

The order was being carried out in many states, however. In Minnesota, where two men were bludgeoned with a knife in a disturbance at a WPA project, officials issued 2,300 discharge notices—the first of an estimated 10,000 there. Five men were jailed after police stopped the fight near the University of Minnesota campus.

Some cities reported strikers returning to work.

SOASH MERGER WITH ACKERLY TO BE PUT TO VOTE JULY 29

The Soash district, or rather what remains of it, will vote July 29 on whether to attach itself to the Ackerly Independent school district.

Last week the Divide district, or what was the southern part of Soash, voted to join the Knott Independent school district.

The Ackerly district is composed of territory in Howard, Martin, Dawson and Borden counties and is seeking to add territory from Martin and Howard county this year.

CEMETERY CLEAN-UP

Persons who reside in the general vicinity of the Salem church were reminded Thursday by community leaders of plans to clean up the Salem cemetery Monday. All were asked to report at the church Monday at 8 a. m. and assist in cleaning the burial grounds of weeds and refuse.

The cemetery has been in use for approximately two score years.

Adjournment By Aug. 5?

WASHINGTON, July 13 (AP)—With a big question mark hanging over neutrality legislation, congress concentrated today on the administration's pending and social security bills amid serious talk of adjournment by Aug. 5.

Advocates of postponing neutrality debate declared not even a special message from President Roosevelt would revive the proposal to repeal the arms embargo, side-tracked in the senate foreign relations committee.

Republican Leader McNary of Oregon thought congress would adjourn by Aug. 4 or 5.

Representative Rayburn of Texas, the house democratic leader, agreed.

All said, however, that should the neutrality issue come before the senate, the session would be prolonged by weeks.

Another phase of international relations was taken up by a strategy committee of the senate's isolationist bloc, which sought to solidify opposition against a proposal by Senator Pittman (D-Nev) to let the president curb the export of war materials to Japan.

Senator Borah (R-Idaho) said the group also would lift reports the administration plans a determined attempt to reverse the 12 to 11 vote by which the foreign relations committee postponed consideration of neutrality legislation until the next session of congress.

There were indications the administration's next move might be a proposal that the committee approve a neutrality bill with the understanding it would not be acted on now but would remain on the calendar for early consideration next session.

221 Warrants Issued After Mine Battle

Union Chiefs Named; Harlan Quieter As Troops Arrive

HARLAN, Ky., July 13 (AP)—Warrants were issued today against 221 persons—including the president and secretary of the United Mine Workers (CIO) in the Harlan coal field—as the aftermath of a "pitched battle" between pickets and national guardsmen in which a miner was killed and six other men, including two troopers, either shot or beaten.

Troops Reinforced
The union leaders accused were William Turnblazer of Jellico, Tenn., district 19 U. M. W. president, and George Tittler of Harlan, who was arrested.

HARLAN, Ky., July 13 (AP)—Bonds totaling $235,000 were set today for 230 union miners—including a $10,000 bond for the district secretary of the United Mine Workers (CIO)—arrested after a "pitched battle" between pickets and national guardsmen.

Turnblazer was not in Harlan. He announced Tuesday he had been called to Washington to testify before a senate committee.

The warrants charged "harassment and confederating to intimidate," a charge which County Attorney Bert Howard said carried a one to five year penalty on conviction.

Harlan quieted down, meanwhile, with the arrival of 500 national guard reinforcements to augment 300 troops on duty in the county for nearly two months.

Troopers' bullets yesterday wounded a miner and his mother. See MINE BATTLE, Pg. 6, Cl. 5

CORRIGAN IN SANTONE FOR HIS WEDDING

SAN ANTONIO, July 13 (AP)—Douglas (Wrong Way) Corrigan landed his airplane at Stinson field at 12:45 o'clock this afternoon, ready for his marriage here Monday afternoon to Miss Elizabeth Marvin, following one of the most difficult flights of his career, from Los Angeles.

The flyer was delayed two nights en route by bad weather, during which he had more difficulty than in his flight from New York to Los Angeles by way of Ireland.

There had been some concern expressed for his safety here during the morning as no word was heard from him between the time he took off from Dryden at 7:10 a. m. until his plane was sighted over Uvalde at 11:45 a. m.

THREE EXECUTIVE ASSISTANTS TO THE PRESIDENT SELECTED

WASHINGTON, July 13 (AP)—President Roosevelt's initial selections for newly authorized assistants to a "passion for selection" brought into the limelight today one of the authors of the new deal's spending theories, a civil service expert, and a White House handyman.

The first three named by the president to the new $10,000-a-year jobs created by the reorganization program were Laughlin Currie, 57, economist of the Federal Reserve board; William H. McKeynoide, 57, administrative assistant to the secretary of the treasury, and James H. Rowe, Jr., 30, assistant to Brig. General Edwin M. Watson of the White House secretariat.

Three more assistants will be selected later.

The Currie appointment brings directly to the White House for the first time one of the new dealers who, though seldom mentioned in print, have advanced many economic and monetary ideas of the Roosevelt administration. His ideas and work always have been publicly sponsored by Chairman Marriner S. Eccles of the Federal Reserve board, who shared similar views.

McKeynoide, a native of Kansas, has worked continuously for the government since 1906, climbing without political aid from a stenographer in the postoffice department to a White House desk.

Jury Delays Questioning Of Leche

Former Louisiana Governor On Hand To Testify

BATON ROUGE, La., July 13 (AP)—Former Governor Richard W. Leche returned to the state capital today in response to a grand jury summons to testify about Louisiana State university affairs, but was dismissed for the day before he entered the grand jury room.

Called Back Friday
Leche, who limped heavily but was in good spirits when he entered the courthouse, went into immediate conference with District Judge Charles A. Holcombe, and a few minutes later left the courthouse.

He was dismissed as a witness along with all the other highly placed state officials and university board supervisors came as a surprise to jury attendants.

All were asked to return tomorrow. The jury then announced it would proceed with immediate examination of nine laborers and former laborers at the state university, some of whom have filed affidavits charging irregularly in WPA activities in the university.

They were Ernest Beeden, Lynch Bryant, B. H. Batta, Jack McKnight, R. C. Force, Sam Boudreaux, Walter Cheney, and a man named Southwick.

No explanation was given for the jury's change of plans.

Before coming to the courthouse Leche visited the capital and met with Governor Earl K. Long, who succeeded him in the executive's chair when he resigned two and a half weeks ago.

Leche said his arthritis, which he said led him to resign, was still troubling him and that his hip was bothering him.

"I'm so full of germs," he said jokingly, "that it might even be dangerous for you to shake hands with me."

The former governor was unaccompanied when he reached the courthouse and posed amiably and at length for photographers.

"Wait a minute, boys," he said. "I'll pose for you, and I'll descend the courthouse steps, leaning on a cane."

Leche headed the list of 19 men well known in politics who were summoned yesterday, including all the university supervisors except Attorney General David M. Ellison. The jury had gone into a huddle yesterday with the state university's indicted former president being issuing the summons.

SUSPENDED IN CHUTE FIVE HOURS

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rathbone flash a smile for the photographer as he took this picture of them during the five hours they were suspended 125 feet in the air on a parachute ride at the New York World's Fair. When a friend, Jerome Zerbe, society photographer, went up in another parachute to talk to Rathbone, he shouted, "Why don't you take our picture?" Zerbe descended, came back up and took this picture. The Rathbones were lowered, uninjured.

Links Bridges With 'Reds'

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13 (AP)—Testimony Harry Bridges "could have been" hidden behind stage curtains during a meeting of the Communist party at New York in 1938, was given today at the CIO labor leader's deportation hearing by John L. Lech of Los Angeles, former organizer of the Communist party.

Lech previously testified Bridges, Australian-born, had been elected to the communist central committee at the meeting in the Manhattan opera house.

"Back of the curtains on the stage were assembled representatives of the Communist party from Mexico, Spain, France, the Soviet Union and so on," Lech said.

"They did not mingle with, and were not visible to, the general delegation out in the auditorium. Bridges could have been back of that curtain."

Bridges was served with a $100,000 libel complaint just before the hearing opened. In the Oregon-Washington council of the lumber and sawmill workers of America, AFL, sought $50,000 general and $50,000 punitive damages from Bridges, John L. Lewis, head of the CIO, and other officials and their wives.

The complaint charged a publication in the "Timber Worker," organ of the CIO group of lumber workers, sought "to destroy, defame and disrupt the Oregon-Washington council."

State headquarters of the Communist party here issued a statement today saying Lech had been expelled from the Communist party at Los Angeles in 1936 on "suspicion of being a police spy x x x and under suspicion of being a provocateur for attempting to provoke a general maritime strike in San Pedro."

Sub Lifted Off Ocean Floor

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., July 13 (AP)—The most difficult step in one of the toughest salvage jobs in U. S. history was completed today when the submarine Squalus and its cargo of 26 bodies were lifted from the ocean floor in a cradle of ponderous pontoons.

Delay was experienced in raising the entire 290-foot length of the craft to the first level—85 feet off the muddy bottom—because of the weight of the water-filled stern.

More than an hour after the bow pontoons started to rise, the tip of the stern still hung on or close to the sea floor, and the Squalus rested at an angle.

A burst of air bubbles—showing that the pontoons were rising—was sighted alongside the salvage ship Falcon at 9:05 a. m.

The water was literally churned as the bubbles broke first from above the bow of the submarine, and two minutes later bubbles began to rise from the stern.

The full length of the bow first was raised free of the ocean floor and the men manning their air hoses worked carefully on the stern pontoons, lifting first on one side and then on the other.

SAIGON, French Indo-China July 13 (AP)—Salvage vessels have failed in the first attempt to raise the French submarine Phenix which sank June 15 in the China sea off the Cam Ranh naval base with 77 men aboard. Operations have been temporarily suspended.

Approximately An Inch In City As All Parts Of County Report Moisture; Downpours Are Widespread

Slow, soaking general rain fell in this area today for the first time in nearly six months to revive crop and range prospects and put a new face on business hopes.

Starting at about 3 a. m. with a series of spasmodic drizzles, the downpour continued at varying degrees well into the afternoon. The U. S. department of commerce weather bureau at the airport showed .72 inch at noon and the U. S. Experiment Farm estimated the fall at that point at between three-quarters and an inch. At 5 p. m. the amount probably exceeded an inch.

All of Howard county had good seasoning, some of the more favored sections enough to insure crop production. Other drought stricken communities reported plenty for planting purposes. Still, the rain continued.

Even the parched Lomax community had approximately an inch of moisture at noon. The intermittent showers and drizzle were still covering the driest of the county areas and more than enough moisture on which to plant was reported.

Elbow, almost as acutely affected by drought as Lomax, had similar rains and the creek there was running a small amount of water. To the south, Garden City reported .90 of an inch early Thursday morning and it was estimated that an additional three-quarters of an inch had fallen slowly to noon. The rain was still falling, and wind velocity was mounting noticeably. Reports from over the county indicated similar drenching precipitation and ranchers smiled at prospects of grass for cattle and sheep.

From every corner of hard-hit Martin county, reports of beneficial rain poured into Stanton. The total at the county seat was estimated at 1.35 inches and the figure appeared to hold good over the county. Particularly blessed by moisture were Lenoah, Tarsan and Flower Grove, in the heart of Martin county's northern farm belt.

East of Big Spring the precipitation appeared to be slightly heavier and Coahoma found itself in the midst of a soaked area. Well over an inch was estimated in all directions from the town. Several miles to the southwest, work was suspended on the two Big Spring dams as slow rain today at Big Spring on the Powell creek earthen structure and packed the clay loam going into the Moss Creek dam. Only a slight amount of water was being impounded since the rain was falling so slowly.

From a point about eight miles north of Coahoma the precipitation to noon was reported somewhat heavy. See WEATHER, Pg. 6, Cl. 5

TIENTSIN BLOCKADE EASED SOMEWHAT

TIENTSIN, July 13 (AP)—Japanese blockading the British and French concessions relaxed their restrictions today on the British area's milk supply, permitting entrance of a nearly normal amount.

Instead of searching the bottles "for bombs" as in the past, the Japanese merely counted them. The blockade was started July 14. The British escort vessel Sandwich was scheduled to arrive today as part of a British naval move in connection with the British-Japanese friction in China.

SUNDAY SHUTDOWNS LIFTED TO SUPPLY COSDEN DEMAND

AUSTIN, July 13 (AP)—Railroad commission officials said today the commission had issued a special order lifting weekend oil shutdowns for Iatan, East Howard, Bryson and Howard-Glascock fields during July.

Officials explained the order was issued to permit the fields to supply the Cosden refinery with enough crude to fulfill a contract and supply market demand.

Dixie Blissard Is Planning To Return To Casa Manana

Dixie Blissard, Big Spring girl who created a mild furor at Fort Worth when she temporarily dropped out of Casa Manana rehearsals and show officials discovered she was married, planned today to return to the show, friends reported. She could not be reached by The Herald.

Whether she planned to go back as Miss Blissard or as Mrs. Charles Bussey could not be learned immediately. Learning that she was married, Casa Manana officials said Wednesday that they would require either the written consent of her husband or a divorce petition before she could re-enter the cast.

She won the right to enter the Casa Manana sweetheart contest at Big Spring representative last week when she was selected from a group of local beauties. Her entry here and at Fort Worth was as Miss Blissard. According to reports from Fort Worth, she left there in company with Bussey.

POSED AS MAN

A minor traffic violation in Pasadena, Calif., disclosed that James W. Phipps (above), 46-year-old chauffeur, was in reality a woman, who masqueraded as a man for 23 years and twice has married women, Samuel Bailey, vice squad officer, said. She is shown in jail, held on a suspicion of false impersonation charge.

Britain Needs A Huge Loan For Defense

LONDON, July 13 (AP)—Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, told parliament tonight that a new public loan of about $50,000,000 pounds (about $133,000,000) probably would be necessary to meet Britain's mounting armament costs this year.

He spoke in a final debate on the budget which was passed on third reading and sent to the house of lords.

Earlier Prime Minister Chamberlain announced in the house of commons that 12,000 retired naval officers and naval reservists had been called up to take part in autumn fleet maneuvers.

He also announced warships now in reserve would take part in combined fleet and air exercises.

Informed quarters regarded it as significant that the maneuvers would be in progress at the time of the Nazi party congress which opens Sept. 2 at Nuernberg. Many European observers have picked that as a danger period.

In Berlin, the statement was made in informed quarters that Britain's action represented "nothing impressive for Germany." One German source said "we, too, are exercising our reserves."

Britain's move marks the first time since the Czecho-Slovak crisis of last September that naval reservists have been called up.

Counties Could Trim Rates 17 Cents By Using Funds Remitted By State

(Herald Austin Bureau)
AUSTIN, July 13 — What will West Texas counties do with the money which the state has donated by remission of half the collections from the 35-cent property tax?

Gov. O'Daniel's approval of the tax remission bill will put approximately $750,000 annually in the coffers of 50 West Texas counties for the next five years.

The counties may use the additional revenue for soil and water conservation, relief to the needy, or any other constitutional purpose. But if West Texas counties followed the advice of Gov. O'Daniel, they would take advantage of the donations to cut their local tax rates 17 1/2 cents on each $100 valuation.

"Such a reduction in each county tax rate would be possible if the county budgets were not increased to provide for expenditures of the revenue coming from the state. The governor pointed out the great opportunity for local tax reduction in announcing he had signed the remission bill.

If the home folks in each county will now cooperate with their county judges and county commissioners in reducing county expenditures so that county tax rates can be reduced in an amount equal to this tax remission, a great forward step in tax reduction will have been accomplished," he said.

NEW PENSION LAW EXPECTED TO GET FEDERAL APPROVAL

AUSTIN, July 13 (AP)—Texas pension officials awaited word from Washington approving or disapproving their plan of operation under the new somewhat liberalized law, marked time today while field men sweated under the load of 25,000 new applications.

Director W. A. Little of the old age assistance administration said he had received information from a social security board official the plan, on which hangs in a large measure the success or failure of the state pension system, was "reasonably sure of approval."

Field inspectors interviewed prospective pensioners under a set of rules promulgated under the new law which called for a new approach.

Instead of checking the ability of children or other relatives to aid the needy aged, the inspectors attempted to ascertain the applicant's need on a basis of whether he came within eligibility qualifications on other regulations.

New to inspectors and applicants were rules providing a pensioner could not own more than $1,500 personal property if married or $1,000 if single, was allowed to possess a homestead and $1,000 paid-up insurance and other specifications not considered under the old law.

County budgets are now being drafted all over the state. Some-time next month the county tax rates will be set. Commissioners courts can depend on retaining half the collections from the general revenue property tax, and it is within their power to slash the local tax rate accordingly.

In other words Tom Green county, if it saw fit, could cut its tax rate next year from 37 cents to 40 cents; Taylor county could slash its rate from 85 cents to 48 cents; Howard county, from 50 to 33 cents; Runnels county, from 55 to 38; Fisher county, from 75 to 58; Midland, from 85 to 68; and so on down the line.

A county like Val Verde, now with a record low rate of 28 cents per $100 valuation, could almost wipe out its levy and still carry on at the same standard.

The general property owner, however, is by no means assured of lower taxes for next year. In fact, he is almost certain to have to pay more taxes next year. How much more will depend upon whether or not he can convince his commissioners court to set a lower county rate for 1939.

The rub is in the state tax law. See TAX RATES, Pg. 6, Cl. 5

One unidentified lad was reported drowned here when he slipped into swollen Buffalo Bayou while trying to walk across the stream on a wet water main.

Scores of suburban and rural homes were flooded by the overflowing Sims and Brays bayous. Many lowland residents vacated their homes last night. Engineers said property damage probably would be small.

Highways around Alameda, Webster, Angleton, Alvin, Freeport, Goose Creek and Richmond were reported under water but traffic moved slowly forward.

Flood Threat Diminishes In So. Texas

HOUSTON, July 13 (AP)—The sun broke through the clouds today as river sand bayous rapidly carried away surplus water dumped on South Texas prairies by four days of hard rains.

Showers were predicted along the coast by the U. S. weather bureau here but no heavy rains were in prospect.

The four major rivers in the area—the Brazos, Trinity, Neches and Sabine—were far below flood stage and observers said there seemed little likelihood of floods even in the lower reaches of the streams.

Bayous in the Houston vicinity were falling rapidly. Residents who evacuated their homes yesterday were able to return today and found small damage caused by water that spread over streets and highways.

M'NUTT TAKES OFFICE

WASHINGTON, July 13 (AP)—Striking, silver-haired Paul V. McNutt took over the new office of federal security administrator today amid increasing speculation over the bearing it may have on his chances for obtaining the 1940 democratic presidential nomination.

He was sworn in at the office of Surgeon General Thomas Parran, head of the public health service, one of the bureau's whose functions will be his task to coordinate.

IOOF Officers Are Installed

N. Brenner, veteran member of the Odd Fellow order, was installed Wednesday evening as chief patriarch of the Big Spring I. O. O. F. encampment No. 151.

Other officers inducted to their new posts were M. L. Hayworth, senior warden, A. C. Wilkerson, high priest, and J. C. Robinson, junior warden.

The installation services were in charge of Condie R. Hester, grand patriarch, A. L. Honeycutt, grand high priest, W. R. Francis, grand scribe, all state encampment officials from Fort Worth, and M. M. Madison, Sweetwater, grand master of the grand lodge of Texas.

In addition to leading in the ceremonies the grand officers conferred with local Odd Fellows on plans for the grand encampment department council and the state L. A. P. M. meeting scheduled here for Oct. 8, 9, and 10.

Some New Ways Of Fixing Frosty Iced Tea

Plantation tea—originated in the South, where summer really is warm—is frosty iced tea, with a slice of lemon and a generous sprig of mint.

AP Feature Service Writer The clink of ice in tall, frosty glasses seems to chase temperatures down several notches on a scorching day.

Tea mixed with fruit juices and ginger also give a refreshing lift to many a cooler. But the tea needs to be much stronger than that usually served. Put three rounded tablespoons of tea into a hot teapot, add five cups of boiling water, cover tightly and let it steep five minutes—no longer or the tea may become bitter.

Then pour it over broken ice and fruit juices, or let it cool and mix it into some favorite fizz later.

transform a plain "ade" into a thrilling thirst-quencher.

SPARKLING JULEP—Mix 2-3 cup crushed mint with 2 cups hot tea, 1 cup pineapple juice, 1-2 cup lemon juice and 1-2 cup of orange juice. Add 1 cup of granulated sugar and 2 cups of water. Cover and simmer 10 minutes. Cool and strain. Chill. When ready to serve pour in 3 pints of ginger ale. Pour into tall glasses 1-2 filled with crushed ice. Garnish with fresh mint leaves and tiny pieces of orange.

Novel fruit sticks flavor and add bulk to any summer ade. String thin pieces of fresh or canned pineapple, seeded red cherries, slices of lemon and oranges and quarters of apricots onto glass sippers. Use them to stir the beverage, then nibble the fruit at will. The sticks should be chilled for at least 30 minutes.

FROST BITE—A drink with a subtle flavor that is deliciously satisfying. Boil for 2 minutes, 2 cups of water, add 1 teaspoon of cinnamon, 1-1/2 teaspoon of cloves, 1-4 teaspoon salt and 1 cup of raspberry juice. Chill until serving time and then mix in 2-3 cup of lemon juice, 1-2 cup of orange juice and 1-2 cup chopped maraschino cherries. Pour into glasses 1-2 full of chopped ice. Garnish with small wedges of lime dipped in confectioner's sugar.

MINTADE—Another summer quencher that can be made hours ahead of time. Boil together, for 5 minutes, 1-2 cup chopped mint, 2 cups of granulated sugar and 4 cups of water. Cool and strain and blend in a cup each of grapefruit juice, lemon juice and loganberry juice. Cover and store in the refrigerator and when desired for serving pour into a pitcher 1-3 full of broken ice.

Music School To Give Sermon In Song Sunday

A sermon in song will be given at 11 o'clock Sunday morning by the Music School of the East 4th Street Baptist church. The sermon is to be "A Fruitful Christian Life."

The Music School which is under the direction of J. Q. Woodard of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary of Fort Worth has held classes every evening at the church for the past week and will continue through Friday.

Class periods are divided into two parts with a study of rudiments of music held during the first half and singing occupying the last half.

The school has had an average attendance of 36 persons during the session and Wednesday evening presented a program during prayer meeting, "The Life of Fannie Crosby." Woodard told the story of the blind composer's life and the choir sang groups of her songs.

Mrs. Billy Robbins Entertained Lucky Dozen Club

Mrs. Billy Robbins entertained the Lucky Dozen club Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Eula Pond and included as guests, Mrs. Leonard Skiles and Mrs. Otto Peters, Jr.

Crocheting, embroidery, and visiting were diversions of the afternoon and the hostess was presented with a gift. A salad course was served.

Attending were Mrs. Dick Hatch, Jr., Mrs. Graydon Goodman, Mrs. Happy Hatch, Mrs. Doyle Vaughn, Mrs. Ted Phillips, and Mrs. Milton Reeves. Mrs. Vaughn is to be the next hostess.

TO WEST COAST

H. F. Rallsback, who is finishing a term's work in summer school at Texas Tech, plans to leave soon for a visit to the West Coast where he will attend the exposition at San Francisco. He and Mrs. Rallsback will double back through Yellowstone National Park, Grand Canyon and Boulder dam, and then cap the trip with some trout fishing in New Mexico and Colorado mountains. Rallsback is superintendent of the Garner (Knott) school.

DELINQUENT TAX BILL HELD INVALID

AUSTIN, July 13 (AP)—County commissioners' courts which banked on a new law for expediting delinquent tax collections learned today the measure was void and unconstitutional in the opinion of Attorney General Gerald C. Mann.

In an opinion requested by Comptroller George H. Sheppard, Mann said the act, authorizing commissioners to reopen and reduce property assessments, violated the constitution in several respects.

Property owners who paid taxes were given no recourse for reopening an original assessment. Mann pointed out the constitution prescribes equal and uniform taxation and that all taxpayers shall be treated alike.

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel approved the measure last May and although the attorney general's ruling is not binding it might encourage an early legal test of the statute.

In everyone's life there is some age or some years that are looked back on as a golden era and people like to reminisce about them as long as anyone will listen.

The very young usually wish desperately to be older and more sophisticated and try by devout means to achieve a more mature look. The middle-aged usually try to push back the years and try to ignore that second chin and rocking chair feeling.

Just to find out what age some people considered ideal the following question was asked: "What age would you like to be, if you could choose?"

MRS. J. I. PRICHARD, housewife: "I believe that the ages between 16 and 20 would be more desirable. At that time of my life I had my parents, had fewer responsibilities and more fun."

WINNIE DELL RHOTON, employed at cleaning company: "If I could go back and choose, I think that I had rather be 25 and already have a good college education. For the circumstances of the present day, there would be more advantages to being that age."

FLOYD BOMAE, manager of bowling alley: "Sweet sixteen would be my choice if I could go back. You have more fun and fewer responsibilities then."

LEE HANSON, haberdasher: "Twenty to thirty years would be more fun. I don't know why, but I believe that kids at that age are more happy."

MRS. E. L. DEASON, housewife: "I'd like to be 25 years old again. I've learned a lot of things since I was that age and I'd change things up a bit. When you are 25 you are nearly mature but haven't had all the experience that you have to get in later life."

MATT HARRINGTON, member of chamber of commerce staff: "I'm satisfied with my age right now. Age doesn't make much difference, I'll still be happy with my age 10 years from now."

SLEEP IN COOL COMFORT ON HOTTEST NIGHTS

Children don't notice the heat when they are busy playing. But when nap time comes in the afternoon or bedtime in the evening, hot weather may prevent the restful sleep they need after a hard day's play.

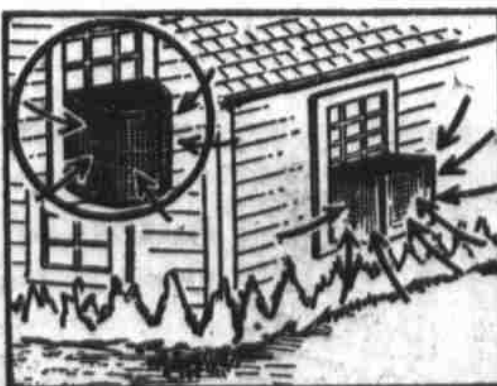

A cooling system provides coolness for both children and parents. Plenty of cool air is brought into the room. Baby's bed, even in the corner, gets a cooling breeze as gentle and refreshing as night winds on a hilltop.

Plan Now to Have Summer Comfort in Your Home

Call a local dealer who installs cooling systems and let him tell you how easily you can have summer comfort in your home. The cost is moderate and the summer comfort you will enjoy year after year will make it one of the finest investments you have ever made.

How Evaporative Cooling Works

This cut-away illustration shows how an evaporative cooling system is installed in a window. Hot, outside air is drawn through a box that contains damp material, such as excelsior. Evaporation of the moisture in the material takes heat out of the air and adds a small amount of moisture to provide comfort coolness in the room.

EMISSION SEEN AS A STEP TOWARD ABANDONMENT OF TATE'S PROPERTY TAX

State Auditor Bureau
ESTIN, July 13—To the West as Chamber of Commerce and its advocates of abolition of the property tax Gov. W. Lee Estlin this week marked up a five score by signing into law a general remission bill giving to counties one-half of their actions from the state general issue property levy.

By the single stroke of his pen, governor wrote into law the far-reaching change in the form of property taxation since ad valorem tax was first levied the days of the republic.

The amount of money involved—approximately $4,500,000 a year—is important, but the real significance the remission bill is that it points way for a quick abandonment of the property tax field by the government.

For more than one hundred years, basis of the state's tax system has been the property tax. For decades after the state drew bulk of its revenue from the property tax—a tax on land, livestock, buildings, intangibles such as bonds, and money, and personal property such as watches, furs, and furniture.

Until 1924—fifteen years ago—state drew at least 50 per cent its tax revenue from the property tax. However, the mounting needs of the people for more and more services of government such as highways, broader educational facilities, and a social security program forced the state government to invade other fields in search of additional revenues.

By 1938 the property tax had declined in importance in state affairs, and two forms of taxes—the gasoline and gross receipts taxes on such items as oil, basis of the state's tax system. It was the backbone of the tax system.

GREGIAN—"It's Greek to me" is a logical comment on this classical-style hairdress, seen at a race track in Paris.

When Gov. O'Daniel signed the remission bill, he pointed out that this was probably the beginning of the end of the property tax as a source of state revenue. Now that one-half of the tax is given back to the counties, a precedent has been set and it will be difficult for future legislatures to refuse to give the other one-half back.

With the approval of the remission bill the state went one-half the distance to abolishing the property tax as a source of state revenue, and few doubt that the rest of the distance will be covered by a legislature in the near future.

As the property tax is abandoned as the basis of the state's tax system, the state must turn its eyes to sales and income taxes as the chief sources of revenue for the central government. It will increase the drive for both a state income tax and a general sales tax, and the decision between these two forms of taxation will furnish many a merry battle in coming sessions of the legislature.

KILLS ONE, WOUNDS THREE, MAN LATER SHOT BY PURSUERS

POCATELLO, Idaho, July 13 (AP)—An embittered husband, who killed one man and wounded three others because he was denied a visit with his wife, was himself near death today, a bullet deep in his chest to mark the climax of a six-hour manhunt that last night stirred this southern Idaho city.

Chief of Detectives Guy Nelson named the slayer as Britt Hargraves, Jr., 30, Hargraves, Nelson said, shot and killed F. F. (Bob) Hunter, 45, town marshal of suburban Alameda, when Hunter was called by George Bailey, Hargraves' father-in-law, to prevent the younger man from forcibly entering the Bailey home.

Wounded in the same blast of gunfire which felled Hunter was R. B. Bistline, Pocatello automobile dealer, who had driven the marshal to Bailey's home.

Then began a sensational pursuit which ended when Nelson and city officer G. G. Evans trapped Hargraves in a dormitory under construction at the University of Idaho, southern branch. In the furious exchange of gunfire which followed both the fugitive and his pursuers were wounded the latter not seriously.

DENVER, July 13 (AP)—Rocky mountain forest rangers, wearied by a week of fighting fires in tinder-dry timberlands, watched closely for possible new outbreaks today as cloudy weather brought the added danger of lightning to the sun-dried mountain country.

Lightning, cause of many forest fires, was blamed for the death of Ervin Voegele, 21, one of the thousands of Civilian Conservation Corps workers called out on fire fighting duty during the past week.

Voegle, patrolling one of the fire lines with which a 2,000-acre blaze in the Black Hills of South Dakota was brought under control, was struck by a bolt late yesterday.

W. H. Strugell of Clarkston, Wash., was the only other fire fighter reported killed in line of duty. A snag fell on him Tuesday night while he helped check a fire in the Clearwater National Forest in northern Idaho. It was one of 26 fires set by lightning that night.

Half of the 1,100 men who brought a 1,500-acre fire in the Roosevelt National Forest of northern Colorado under control were released yesterday.

SHARP WATCH KEPT FOR FOREST FIRES

CLEVELAND, July 13 (AP)—Fred P. Soukup, attorney for Frank Dolezal, indicated today the brawny bricklayer, accused of hacking up the body of Mrs. Florence Polillo in the third of Cleveland's - bizarre "torso murders," would deny the slaying when the case goes before the grand jury late this month.

Sheriff Martin L. O'Donnell, whose office swore out the warrant charging Dolezal with first-degree murder, has declared he holds two confessions signed by the suspect.

Soukup said Dolezal denied killing Mrs. Polillo or any of the other 11 headless dead.

"He denies the Polillo killing," Soukup said. "He denies he is the torso murderer. He says he was in a daze when he made the confession. I know a lot about how the confession was obtained, but I'm not prepared to say anything yet."

Soukup said that at his request Dr. L. J. Sternick examined Dolezal and did not find any evidence of injuries on the suspect, but "he did find Dolezal is subnormal mentally."

JODIE MAREK GAINS 15TH HILL TRIUMPH AS BARONS WIN, 6-4

The Sports Parade

By HANK HART

Headed toward a new league pitching record is Jodie Marek, Tony Rego's ace who Wednesday evening chalked up his 15th pitching triumph at the expense of the Amarillo Gold Sox.

Easily the outstanding pitcher of the year, Jodie has won a third more games to date than any other twirler, his steadily nearing Red Hay's loop record of 21 wins.

With almost two months of the season remaining there is no reason to believe but that the Temple lad can ring up as many as 25 victories.

Marek's pitching success has confounded his critics, many of whom claim he boasts only a prayer while working. But Jodie must have something. He's beaten Lubbock on three occasions, has scored victories over every other team in the league. Too, he maintains just about the best earned run average in the entire circuit.

The former griddler combines an average fast ball with plenty of deception and an iciness that many times grates on the nerves of the opposition. Too, his curve is working better than at any time previously.

Marek confidently expects to be a far better pitcher two years from now than he is today and for a reason. Football (he played it six or seven years) caused his throwing arm to tighten up. It is not as loose as he would like but he expects to be able to work far easier by 1941.

Marek any day should tie Clarence Trantham's 1938 mark in games won. It was "Levi," remember, who with 16 victories emerged as the Barons' leading twirler last semester.

Deadline for voting for the southern team in the league's July 25th all star game is July 18. Fans will be afforded the opportunity of choosing four pitchers instead of three as originally planned.

No player is more assured of a berth on the team than Big Spring's Bobby Decker, an all-star second sacker last year who has been playing good ball throughout the season. Robin has no real competition. Lubbock is using a reformed outfielder, Matt Zorko, at the keystone and neither Jodie Tate at Lamesa nor Sammy Hale at Midland have found the men they want.

Bobby should poll more votes than any other member of either the north or south squad.

IS NEAL RABE, THE AMARILLO SKIPPER, ON HIS WAY OUT?

One of the Barons' more enthusiastic rooters is Tommy Myles, an Ackerly boy who regularly travels from his home 23 miles north of town to watch the locals play their home schedule. Myles has missed very few games during the past two seasons.

Dave Davenport, a veteran right-hander who played with Rego at Ogden, Utah, back in 1921 and who hasn't seen the little skipper since, has been a recent visitor in town, hopes to remain over until the team returns to town to renew old acquaintances.

Davenport was with Cincinnati and the St. Louis Browns. In '17 he beat the magnificent Chicago White Sox on three different occasions.

Stasey Drives In 3 Runs; Bob Decker Shines

Trantham Or Conover To Take Hill Tonight

AMARILLO, July 13 — Jodie Marek racked up his 15th pitching triumph of the season here Wednesday evening as the Big Spring Barons defeated the Amarillo Gold Sox, 6-4, to remain atop the standings in WT-NM league play.

Experiencing but one bad frame, Marek gave up but nine safe blows and rode to his victory when his mates rallied for runs in the seventh and ninth heats.

Pat Stasey's double and single accounted for three of the Big Springers' runs.

Bobby Decker paced the Barons 11 hit assault with a double and two singles.

Conway went the route for the Gold Sox, surviving a shaky first round in which the invaders tallied two runs.

Either Clarence Trantham or Dick Conover were scheduled to go to the rubber for the Regemen in tonight's battle. Bus Dorman was to throw for the Sox.

Herr To Take Station Team To Angelo

Dago Herr, whose McGehee Super Service softballers have become the prime favorites in the second half Mundy league race, takes his charges to San Angelo Saturday evening where they will tangle with the strong Maurice Shoppe team in an exhibition fracas.

The Maurice team, as in years past, is one of the strongest teams in this sector.

Herr said he expected to strengthen his lineup considerably for the battle.

Red Denham, reliable right-hander, will probably toe the slab for the locals.

The Stationmen defeated a strong Stanton team in Stanton last weekend, 6-1.

Rain Is Expected To Send Scores Soaring In Junior Tournament

88 Should Be Enough To Get In Title Flight

First Round Play To Get Underway Friday Morning

Overnight showers that called for spasmodical morning encores and soaked the course was expected to send scores soaring as the qualifying round in the second annual West Texas Junior golf tournament got underway at the Mundy course this morning.

It had originally been predicted that 88 strokes would be required to rate the title flight but it was the general opinion around the club house today that an 88 or better would make a player eligible.

A well paced 77 won medalist honors for Harry Sindorf, Midland, last year. That figure was not expected to be bettered this time although the field was very prominent.

The wet course will naturally favor the long and high hitters. The rough can be expected to be very tough.

Most of the youngsters were to wait until afternoon to tee off in the hope that the rain would abate.

Billy Martin, Lubbock diminutive ace, ruled as slight favorite to gain the laurels after a good practice round Wednesday. He may have trouble from another Lubbock youth, Melvin Best, who made the trip here with him and who has been shooting good golf.

Jack Johnson, the defending champion, experienced plenty of trouble with his game Wednesday. The general opinion was that the San Angelo youth was going to have his hands full if he is going to hold onto the crown.

Jim Brigham, local hope, worked on his wood game Wednesday and most of the shots were ringing true. He is putting reliably. Brigham went into the semifinals last year.

Pro Harold Akey will give the pairings tonight. First round play will get underway tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. The second round will be played Friday afternoon with semifinal and final matches scheduled Saturday.

Denham Tames Chevy, 5 To 4

Bill Kendall scored a run in the ninth inning that enabled McGehee Super Service to defeat Lone Star Chevrolet, 5-4, Wednesday evening in a Mundy softball league clash at the city park, pulling the prize upset of the season.

The Mechanics, who had not been beaten in league play and had gained the first half championship, could get only one hit off the offerings of Red Denham, star McGehee right-hander, scoring their four runs in the fifth inning on two walks, a brace of errors and a bingle by Grovelly Malones.

The Stationmen collected nine assorted blows off Malones, scoring three times in the first and another in the fourth.

Williams singled to drive in Kendall in the ninth. The blow came after two men had been retired.

Heuvel and Kendall paced the mace attack of the victors' with two hits each.

In the evening's first game Big Spring Motor defeated the Foran Buffs in a practice game, 12-1. The Bisons, playing without several regulars, could gather but two hits off Johnny Daylong, Ford twirler.

First game: Ford.....039-12 6 0 Foran.....100-1 2 2 Daylong and Woods; Parker and S. Moody.

Second game: Lone Star.....000 040 000-4 2 1 McGehee.....300 100 001-5 9 3 Malone and Busby; Denham and Hessemann.

FIGHTING FOX SURPRISES IN RICH HANDICAP

BOSTON, July 13 (AP)—Branded as strictly a sprinter because of his disappointing 1938 Kentucky Derby effort, William Woodward's four-year-old Fighting Fox today ranked among the turf's outstanding routes as the result of his victory over Pompoon and 10 other rivals in the $50,000 Massachusetts Handicap.

That four-year-old bay son of Gallahad 3rd, with Jimmy Stout riding under orders to get him out front and keep him there, led from start to finish in yesterday's mile and an eighth test on the sloppy Suffolk Downs track.

when he meets Amando Sanchez of the Philippines in a North American zone match. Easy victors over Mexico's cup team, the Aussies expect little more opposition from the little brown boys from the islands.

school purposes. It is now seven cents on each $100 valuation. But because of a deficit in the available school fund, the automatic tax board probably will have to raise it to the maximum 35 cents for next year. If it is not raised, then the state will not be able to pay $22 per capita to the schools. The board of education has not yet agreed on the per capita apportionment for next year, but you can bet that it will not be below $22.

Here, then, is how the picture stands:

The present state property tax rate is 49 cents on each $100 valuation. The rate includes 35 cents for general revenue purposes, seven cents for schools, and 7 cents for Confederate pensions.

The new state property tax rate will probably be 77 cents on each $100 valuation. It will include 35 cents for general revenue purposes, 35 cents for schools, and seven cents for Confederate pensions.

HUGE KILLER SHARK TO BE SEEN HERE

The killer shark, one of the most vicious and deadly of all deep sea terrors is one of the many species of marine life with the Mammoth Hippodrome Show Train, coming to Big Spring for a one day engagement, Sunday, July 16th. Possessing two rows of razor-sharp teeth and the most powerful jaws of any known fish, the killer shark kills for nothing more than the joy of killing, and his pleasure is to attack a full grown whale and tear out the unfortunate victim's tongue which the shark greatly relishes.

MARKETS

Wall Street

NEW YORK, July 13 (AP)—A few profit takers ganged up on the stock market today, after prices had bounded upward in the morning, but about all they could do was to moderately reduce top marks running to more than 3 points.

Heavy overnight buying orders brought a turnover of 60,000 shares in the forenoon, best for the period since April 11. Following mid-day, however, some traders inclined to cash in and dealings dwindled appreciably.

Brokers could find no specific news items to account for the market change of heart yesterday and today, but it was suggested the cumulative effect of brightening business reports coupled with a lull in foreign war threats may have had something to do with the reversal of sentiment.

Work To Rescue 15 On Crippled Barge

SAN DIEGO, Calif., July 13 (AP)—Coast guardsmen, police, deputy sheriff and firemen joined forces today to rescue 15 persons aboard the fishing barge Glen Mayne, as it was being pounded to pieces in the surf near Carlsbad, 35 miles north of here.

A coast guard plane piloted by Lieutenant E. W. Sinton took off from the local base and sped to the scene.

Several persons jumped overboard and were saved by swimmers. Firemen from nearby Oceanside, equipped with an inhalator, worked over the exhausted victims.

The Glen Mayne, formerly a two-masted cod fisherman from the Grand Banks, had dragged its anchor and was carried helplessly into the surf.

POST $1,000 BOND

Bond of $1,000 was posted Thursday by J. N. Bruton, named in a complaint with swindling. The charge grew out of litigation between the defendant and an insurance company, an outgrowth of which George Thomas, attorney, complained had resulted in the defendant had obtained money under false pretenses.

Mine Battle

In a street disturbance following the picket-guardsmen clash at a nearby mine.

Capt. John Hanberry of Hopkville, guard officer, and two miners wounded in the encounter were reported in a serious condition. The dead man was Dock Caldwell, 31, of Wilson-Barger.

Major Staples termed the situation here "extremely critical" as upward of 500 troop reinforcements, including machine gun and tank units, moved in to augment the 300 guardsmen who have been on duty here for nearly two months.

Jno. L. Lewis Appeals For Govt. Intervention

WASHINGTON, July 13 (AP)—John L. Lewis appealed to Attorney General Murphy today for federal intervention in the Harlan county (Kentucky) mine dispute where union miners and the Kentucky national guard clashed yesterday in a bloody gun battle.

Lewis, head of the C. I. O. and president of the United Mine Workers, declared in a letter to Murphy that Governor A. B. Chandler was "violating his oath and prostituting the power of his state" by using the national guard as he had.

While he did not make a direct appeal for White House action Lewis also said in his letter "the President can act if he is so disposed."

He declared Mr. Roosevelt had "ample powers to protect the lives and liberties" of citizens and that "Kentucky and Harlan county, after all, are within the United States."

At the capitol the fatal shooting of the miner, Dock Caldwell, prompted Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich) to issue a statement asserting that "the major share of the responsibility" for the affair devolved upon Lewis.

Caldwell lost his life, Hoffman charged, "because he attempted to follow the decree of John L. Lewis that no one in Harlan county should work until he had joined the United Mine Workers of America."

More tragic and far-reaching in its effect was the association of Charles Dickens and Ellen Ternan and their resultant son (who died in infancy) than that of Nelson and Lady Hamilton and their daughter," wrote Miss Storey.

(The reference to the romance, one of the most famous in history, of Lord Nelson, Britain's greatest naval hero, victor of the battle of Trafalgar, with Lady Hamilton, wife of Sir William Hamilton, which led to the separation of Nelson and his wife, Nelson was killed at Trafalgar, Oct. 21, 1805.)

She recorded Mrs. Perugini insisted that "the whole truth" be told after her death, saying:

"This affair brought out all that was worst—all that was weakest—in him. He did not care a damn what happened to any of us. Nothing could surpass the misery and unhappiness of our home."

Weather

lighter, but Vincent came in for refreshing drizzles.

The heretofore washed areas along the north county line had slow rains which extended to Gall in Borden county where the total was figured at half an inch. Farms and ranches were helped immeasurably, said Gall sources.

Ackerly, touched by many showers this spring and early summer, freshened under the slow rain which started at about 5 a. m. and continued steadily until noon. Reports received there indicated beneficial moisture to at least 15 miles into Dawson county, westward across Martin county, and south to Knot in Howard county.

The Moore, Highway, and Fairview communities, affected in varying degrees by spotted drought conditions, all had around an inch of moisture.

Center Point and R-Bar, already boasting best cotton crop prospects in years, received about the same amount as Big Spring.

All over the territory, the precipitation was soaking into the generally dry terrain and just enough water ran off to replenish stock tanks.

Slow, soaking rain also had drenched a wide area in the western part of south-central Texas, ranging from sizeable showers to the 6.6 inches peppering Rock Springs.

San Angelo reported 1.41 inches and still raining in a general fall that extended from Fort Stockton, west of here, to Del Rio on the

First Meeting Held For 'Knot Hole Gang'

Kiwanis club members Wednesday night gathered in 32 boys, all under 17 years of age, for the first meeting of the Kiwanis sponsored group to be known as the "Knot Hole Gang."

The boys, with one guest each, will attend their first ball game as an organization next Saturday night. Next meeting date, at which time rules and regulations will be read, has been set for Wednesday, July 19. By that date the club hopes to have a house or vacant building secured that can be equipped with various games, a boxing arena, etc.

Evangelist A. Hugh Clark, now conducting a revival here at the Church of Christ, addressed the noon meeting of the club Thursday.

He was introduced by Earl Mansur, program chairman.

Guests were Melvin Wise, Daney Conley, Miss Juanita Cook, J. D. Hall, Jr., and Monroe Mansur.

Dickens' Affair With Young Actress Told In Book

LONDON, July 13 (AP)—A new book today quoted one of Charles Dickens' daughters as saying he was "a very wicked man" who, at 46, became the lover of an 18-year-old actress.

The volume, entitled "Dickens and Daughter," was written by Miss Gladys Storey, longtime friend of the late Mrs. Kate Perugini, one of the author's eleven children. Purportedly it is based on the daughter's memories of her famous father.

"More tragic and far-reaching in its effect was the association of Charles Dickens and Ellen Ternan and their resultant son (who died in infancy) than that of Nelson and Lady Hamilton and their daughter," wrote Miss Storey.

(The reference to the romance, one of the most famous in history, of Lord Nelson, Britain's greatest naval hero, victor of the battle of Trafalgar, with Lady Hamilton, wife of Sir William Hamilton, which led to the separation of Nelson and his wife, Nelson was killed at Trafalgar, Oct. 21, 1805.)

She recorded Mrs. Perugini insisted that "the whole truth" be told after her death, saying:

"This affair brought out all that was worst—all that was weakest—in him. He did not care a damn what happened to any of us. Nothing could surpass the misery and unhappiness of our home."

Federal Pension Of $30 Rejected

WASHINGTON, July 13 (AP)—The senate rejected today on voice vote a proposal to give the needy aged a federal pension of $30 a month.

The federal outlays would have been in addition to any state payments.

The proposal, offered by Senator Bilbo (D-Miss) during consideration of amendments to the social security act, was opposed by Chairman Harrison (D-Miss) of the senate finance committee.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. H. D. Rhodes of Monahans was admitted to the Big Spring hospital Thursday morning for medical treatment.

REPORT PROGRESS TOWARD SETTLING AUTO STRIKE

DETROIT, July 13 (AP)—Progress toward settling a strike of 8,700 skilled employes of General Motors was reported today as representatives of the corporation and the CIO United Automobile Workers resumed negotiations.

James F. Dewey, federal labor conciliator, said conversations between the two groups, which met here late yesterday for the first time since the strike began July 5, had been "satisfactory."

At the Fisher body plant in Pontiac, where 130 state police were on duty after skirmishes in which several persons were hurt early this week, NAW-CIO leaders had called for "all available pickets" to assemble this morning.

Approximately 500 pickets and onlookers had gathered at the gates of the plant when the whistles blew for work at 7 a. m. (EST), but no attempt was made to prevent nonstrikers from entering.

The state police remained out of sight, local police maintaining order.

Yesterday the troopers refused to allow more than ten pickets at any plant entrance.

My Purse Was Returned

WATER SAFETY HINTS

BY Bob Primm

There appeared in this column a few weeks ago the phrase "if you need help, call the lifeguard." This, however, does not mean to be calling for help just to exercise the lungs. To some the call for help may be quite funny. To the lifeguard it has an entirely different meaning.

The splendid manner in which the local swimmers have been conducting themselves during the summer is to be commended. Even during the July Fourth rush, when the pool was crowded no one experienced any danger. The co-operation of the people in helping to improve safety conditions is helping to enlighten the task of the pool's workers very much.

There will be a course in life saving given some time in the near future. Get your applications for enrollment in early.

Honor Awards To 17 Scouts

Seventeen members of Big Spring Boy Scout troops were given awards for advancement in a year of Honor session conducted by W. C. Blankenship, chairman of the activity, before the Lions club Wednesday.

Before the presentation of the awards, Blankenship read a brief address by J. Edgar Hoover, U. S. department of justice head, in which scouts of the nation, numbering 1,280,000, were reminded that the force of crime outnumbered them four to one. A strong appeal was made to the lads to oust corrupt politics and "to clean up America."

A tenderfoot award went to Ernest Salgado, second class badges were given Arthur Hernandez, David Mendoza, Frank Salazar, Manuel Xanes, Jimmy Velvin, Jesse Allison, Bill Hull and Bobby Sisson. Merit badges were earned by Robert McPherson, Jesse Hernandez, Preacher Xanes, Jesse Mendoza, Ralph Gomez and John R. Hutto. Star awards went to Howard Smith, C. A. Smith, and John R. Hutto.

Hutto, scoutmaster of troop No. 7, is working toward an Eagle award. Ralph Gomez, one of his boys, has advanced as fast as organization rules will permit. Dr. D. F. McConnell assisted Blankenship in presentation of certificates.

Burke Summers presided in the absence of the president, Dr. J. E. Hogan, who is club delegate to the international convention. A new bulletin made its appearance at the club.

Visitors included Roy Cornelison, Dr. D. F. McConnell, Wesley Deas, and Jack Hodges. Dick Trout, Lubbock, was a visiting Lion and I. W. Sherwood, transfer from McAllen, was introduced.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By EDDIE BRIEZE
NEW YORK, July 13 (AP)—Bing Crosby will put up the potatoes if the national football league gives Los Angeles a franchise. Tony Galento has nibbles from the Atlantic City steel pier and one of the shows at the world's fair. More than half the clubs in the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues are operating under the arcs.

Indignation dept:
The Superior (Wis.) Evening Telegram held its presses an hour after the all-star game trying to find out why Gabby Hartnett didn't use Native Son Morrie Aronovich. Bill Stewart, sports editor, wires: "Home town indignation high. Fans blame Hartnett for loss of game." The Cubs open in Philly today and what'll you bet Hartnett doesn't go into town via the back door. Football opponents at Tulsa U. may be interested to learn it has just snagged a 198-pound guard from Smackover, Ark.

One minute interview:
Max Baer: "You ask what I think of Lou Nova? I don't think Lou is as good as he thinks he is, yet, and I hope he keeps learning before he fights Joe Louis."

Experts expert:
Springfield Union: "Have they got another miracle team in Boston?" Boston Herald: "Sox conquest of the Yankees saved baseball from hardening of the arteries." St. Louis Post-Dispatch: "Our Browns are still setting the pace in the American League, but it's in the wrong direction. That old one about our fair city—first in shoes, first in booze and last in the American League—still holds."

Today's guest star:
George Barton, Minneapolis Tribune: "At the Cooperstown all star game, Mike Kelly of Minneapolis was coaching at third. Joe Hauser was at bat. 'This heat's getting me, Kelly said, starting for the dugout.' 'Well, till I hit a homer for you, Mike,' directed Hauser. And bingo, he did it on the next pitch."

Junior Barons Lose 14-12 Go With Giants

The Giants smacked the Junior Barons in a Kiwanis Knot Hole league baseball game at Baron park, Wednesday morning, 14-12.

The eight inning fracas was getting ugly. Wolf, Merrick and Teague counted for the Giants in that round.

The Barons chalked up eight runs on one hit, five bases on balls and a Giant error in the second inning to take a long lead but the Giants struck in earnest in the third, scoring two times, then came back with six more in the fourth.

Teague limited the Giants to three singles but had plenty of trouble with his control. Moore, Barnes and Morrow accounted for the hits.

Of the 11 blows the Giants garnered off R. Smith, Baron right-hander, first Sacker J. B. Harrell had a triple and three singles as the pace setter.

Score by innings:
Giants ..... 102 603 08-14 11 4
Junior Barons ..... 081 010 02-12 8 1
Teague and Davis; Smith and Morrow.

METZ LEADS P. RUNYAN

NEW YORK, July 13 (AP)—Dick Metz, handsome Lake Forest, Ill., contender, toured the Pomonok country club course in 66, six under par and one shot off the competitive course record, to finish the morning 15 holes 4 up on defending champion Paul Runyan in their 36-hole quarter-final match in the national P. G. A. golf championship today.

Byron Nelson, reigning open champion, tied the medal play course record of 65 set by Johnny Farrell in a qualifying round for the 1937 U. S. Open to go to lunch 7 up on Emerick Kocis of Orion, Mich. Horton Smith won two holes on the back nine and halved the other seven to be 1 up on E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, his protégé and assistant to Horton's brother, Ren Smith, at Oak Park, Ill.

FOUR BLIND DATES

By Edwin Rutt

would be unavailing. Conscious of the loud note struck by his under pants he stepped from behind the screen somewhat sheepishly.

"I want my trousers," he said in a pettish voice.

"Now, now," said Mrs. Dipsang. "What did I tell you?"

The Chiseler, in a casual manner, inched nearer.

"Tell me, Mrs. Dipsang," he said, with apparent irrelevance, "about how many servants would a house like this have?"

"Well now, let's see," Mrs. Dipsang computed on her fingers.

"There's Mr. Matherton, he's the butler, Ansel Marcel, the chef. Then there's Higginson..."

She broke off abruptly, emitting a subdued cry. The Chiseler, hands stretching for her throat, was bearing down upon her like a ferocious species of whickered grampus in red-and-white underwear.

But the outstretched hands didn't quite make it. With unexpected agility Mrs. Dipsang was out of his chair. Still clutching the trousers, she ducked under the Chiseler's arms and slid around behind the chair.

"See here," she panted breathlessly. "You go straight back and sit down. Or I'll scream. I really will. You oughtn't to be running around in your underpants, anyhow. Tien't decent."

But the Chiseler had made up his mind. He glowered at Mrs. Dipsang over the back of the chair. Then he made a sweeping lunge around it.

It was the wrong move. It had the effect of driving Mrs. Dipsang to desperate measures. She glanced wildly at his grasping fingers and backed against the wall. She was somewhat terrified. The gentleman's mania had suddenly taken a violent form but for all that, she didn't intend to lose him. He was a gift from the gods and it was her job to take charge of him and nurse him back to sanity. But she couldn't do it if he were to repossess himself of his trousers and depart. And, at this point, there was but one way of preventing him from doing precisely that.

With a quick movement of her right hand, she flung the trousers out of the window.

LOCAL SAND BELT TEAM TAKES LEAD; MEETS LAMESA SUNDAY

Boasting a big lead in Sand Belt circuit standings, the Big Spring team goes to Lamesa Sunday where they meet an aggregation that, in winning one of two scheduled matches this season, have scored 36 points in league competition.

The local shot artists, victors two weeks ago over the strong Odessa entry, have scored 110 points in winning three of four matches this season. They loom as strong favorites to succeed Odessa as the league's champions.

The circuit's other match Sunday will pit the Odessans against Colorado in Odessa. Last Sunday the two teams tied, 20-20, in Colorado in a duel originally scheduled to be played three weeks ago.

Big Spring	3	0	1	110
Colorado	1	1	0	50
Odessa	0	1	1	36
Stanton	0	2	0	0
