

Truman Plans Closer Bonds

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Diplomatic News Editor
WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—President Truman is expected to seek closer and more continuous diplomatic ties with Britain and Russia when he meets Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin at Berlin.

The objective will be to assure day-to-day handling of current European political problems which grew out of the war and for which quick solutions are considered vital to a workable peace.

At the heart of whatever proposal Mr. Truman makes along this line—probably to create an international commission—is the need to promote Big Three cooperation at a time when some forces are working to weaken it.

In some respects the stresses on this conference will be greater than those under which the late President Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin worked at Tehran and Yalta. The biggest difference is that the three allies no longer are bound by the compelling need to defeat a common enemy.

This time the real blue chips of international politics are bound to come into play more than ever before. Issues no longer can be resolved in broad statements of principle. They are concerned with specific questions of boundaries, political alignments and territorial controls.

The job at Potsdam will be mainly one of arranging the transitions from war to peace, broken down into four main categories:

1. Long range control of Germany.
2. Disposition of territories. There are more than 30 disputed boundaries in Europe, and Italian colonies must be disposed of.
3. Peace conference. Should the job of liquidating the war be accomplished in a series of small conferences or a single peace conference for Europe, before the end of the Japanese war?
4. Political and economic questions.

Taft Denounces Bretton Woods As 'Profligate'

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio), today denounced as "profligate lending" the international bank proposed under the Bretton Woods agreements and asked that senate consideration of the measure be postponed.

Majority Leader Barkley (Ky.) has insisted that the house-approved monetary pact be taken up Monday and pushed through ahead of the United Nations charter.

In a speech prepared for floor delivery, Taft concentrated his fire on the international bank half of the Bretton Woods proposals. They call for an $8,800,000,000 international fund to stabilize world currencies and the $9,100,000,000 bank to support loans for reconstruction and industrial development.

Taft described the bank as a "device for draining our savings out of the United States for the benefit of the rest of the world."

Suggesting that this government make direct loans of five or six billion dollars during the next few years to help war-torn countries back on their feet, the senator proposed that the pending legislation be tabled until such emergency rehabilitation measures can be taken.

Padilla Resigns As Foreign Secretary

MEXICO CITY, July 12 (AP)—Ezequiel Padilla, who headed Mexico's delegation to the San Francisco conference and later conferred with President Truman in Washington, last night resigned as foreign secretary.

Giving the news to a press conference, Padilla, who presided at the Chapultepec conference here, told reporters that he wished his supporters to cease conducting a presidential campaign in his favor.

Today his future was a big question in Mexico. "Destiny," he said, "will dictate my next move."

He declared that he had defended international steps "that have brought Mexico benefits and prestige."

Padilla said his resignation was immediate. He had held the post four years and seven months.

Undersecretary Manuel Tello will be acting secretary pending appointment of a successor. Gen. Francisco Nájera, ambassador to the United States, who is now in Mexico City, has been mentioned for the post.

Soviet Orders In Force Until 'Special Notice'

After Reds Give Up Announcement Made Part Of Berlin

BERLIN, July 12 (AP)—The inter-allied kommandantur of Berlin announced today that all existing Soviet regulations and orders would be continued in force "until special notice."

The announcement came a few hours after Red army authorities formally relinquished control of 12 of Berlin's 20 boroughs to American and British officials.

There was no observable change in the Russian pattern of rule.

U. S. detachments which had been waiting since midnight of July 4 took over authority in the American zone at 9 a. m. The British got started legally at noon. American truck convoys were being organized to feed 750,000 Berliners in the U. S. sector from western Germany and the British also assumed responsibility for 900,000 city dwellers.

Berlin's outward life went on undisturbed. Soviet-authorized schools were open. Communist party district headquarters were as active as ever, bucket brigades of civilians were still picking up rubble stone by stone, and "fraternization" cafes were ready for the mid-afternoon rush of Allied and German patrons.

In American-run boroughs military government officers frankly said they would "not change any previous important Soviet directive" unless the multi-allied command for Berlin so decided.

British officers also were expected to follow this general policy.

So, temporarily at least, the British and American governments in Berlin differed radically from those in western Germany.

American counter-intelligence officers are now screening Soviet-appointed German administrators and policemen for possible Nazis, but it was indicated that none have turned up yet.

Pullmans Taken Off Ten Runs In Texas

HOUSTON, July 11 (AP)—Curtailed of Pullman service for civilians on trips of 450 miles or less, effective at noon Sunday, will result in discontinuance of sleeping cars on 10 runs between Houston and other cities.

Nine of these discontinued operations will be on the Southern Pacific between Houston and New Orleans, Dallas, San Antonio, Austin, Shreveport and the Rio Grande Valley.

On the Missouri Pacific, only the Pullman service between Houston and New Orleans will be discontinued. Sleepers will continue to be operated to Brownsville and Corpus Christi, and on the three daily trains to and from St. Louis and Memphis.

No change will be made in Houston Pullman services from Houston to the Katy and Burlington-Rock Island lines.

Pullman operations through Big Spring, including runs from Toyah to Shreveport and El Paso to Longview, exceed the 450 mile minimum. G. W. Dabney, ticket clerk at the T and P depot, said Thursday. He added that no information had been received ordering the discontinuance of any pullman operations.

Chifley Elected Prime Minister

By RALPH MORTON
CANNBERRA, Australia, July 12 (AP)—A former locomotive engineer and son of a blacksmith became prime minister of Australia today when the labor party chose Joseph Benedict Chifley as its leader.

Chifley, who will be 60 in September, has been treasurer of the labor government and was the closest friend and confidante of the man he succeeds—the late John Curtin.

He won a commanding lead in caucus balloting over Deputy Prime Minister Forde and Norman John Oswald Makin, minister of navy and munitions. The labor party chose Forde as deputy leader.

The vacancy in the ministry created by Curtin's death was filled by election of Herbert Victor Johnson, president of the Australia Workers' union. It was learned authoritatively that present portfolios are not likely to be changed except to give Johnson a post.

Six-foot, pipe-smoking, ruddy Chifley is little known to the average Australian. However, he did impress the rank and file of all parties as a leader in recent months when he served as acting prime minister.

He acted when Curtin was ill and deputy Prime Minister Forde was attending the United Nations conference in San Francisco. It was during this period that Chifley's popularity grew in labor circles.

In an exclusive interview with the Associated Press just before his election was established, Chifley spoke feelingly of his plans for improving the standards of living of the "little man" of Australia.

Chifley speaks with a harsh Australian accent that worries his advisers because it doesn't favor him at the microphone. However, his folksy humor is bound to make him one of Australia's most popular prime ministers, political leaders declared.

Anders Protests Pole Recognition
LONDON, July 12 (AP)—Lt. Gen. Wladyslaw Anders, who was appointed by the Polish exile government in London last February as commander of all Polish land, sea and air forces abroad, issued an order of the day today protesting Allied recognition of the new Warsaw provisional government.

Anders' action followed by 24 hours a similar order of the day issued by Maj. Gen. Klemens Rudnicki, commander of the First Polish armored division in Germany, declaring his continued allegiance to President Wladyslaw Raczewicz of the exile regime.

The statement of Anders, who is now in Italy, was released through headquarters of the Polish forces in London. Describing recognition of the Warsaw government as a "heavy blow," Anders declared:

"The powers of the world trample over our constitution, over our rightful authorities. For the temporary sake of convenience they accept a fait accompli which was imposed upon Poland by foreign might."

Blockade Breaks Up Troop Convoys Heading To Japan

By LEIF ERICKSON

GUAM, July 12 (AP)—Japanese attempts to run two troop laden convoys of soldiers from Shanghai to bolster homeland defenses against an American invasion were apparently broken up by blockade.

U. S. naval aircraft, Rear Adm. John Dale Price reported today. One of the ships in the second convoy looked like the former Italian liner Contessa de Savoia, 28,000-ton pre-war luxury ship.

(Lloyds shipping register does not list a Contessa de Savoia. The Conte di Savoia was reported under German control at Venice, in Nov. 1943.)

Price said none of the combined attack by Fleet Air Wing One Mariners and Privateers and strafing Thunderbolt fighters, but none of the transports got across the Yellow Sea to Korea or through the Korean Straits to the Sea of Japan.

FEPC Deadlock Nearly Broken By Compromise

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—The Marathon congressional fight over the fair employment practice committee apparently was all over but the shouting today.

There were indications, though, there would be plenty of that before final action on a compromise worked out yesterday to jar loose the deadlocked $275,000,000 war agencies supply bill. It carries $230,000 for continuance of the agency on short financial rations.

The legislative skids were greased to shove the big bill through by nightfall and send it to the White House tomorrow. Not until it is signed into law will 16 home-front war agencies have money with which to operate.

Today's action to break the deadlock that gripped the bill more than a month ago will start in the house, with a vote on an appropriations committee recommendation to give FEPC the $250,000 voted by the senate.

The compromise allows the FEPC to use the $250,000 for its normal activities during the current fiscal year. Although it calls for liquidation of the agency, no time limit is set for liquidation.

That the senate would accept the compromise was predicted by the members of a senate-house conference committee who met late yesterday to discuss 32 other differences in the bill.

Car Tax Stamp Sale Eases To Trickle

British Flattops Near Sabang Area

GUAM, July 12 (AP)—Bombing and rocket-firing planes ripped southern Japan and its island approaches Wednesday in a fiery followup to the big carrier and land-based air assault on Honshu and a Japanese military commentator told his people that adequate defense of the homeland from invasion required the growing challenge be met.

(The Federal Communications Commission, meanwhile, recorded a Tokyo broadcast that a British carrier task force sent more than 200 planes from two flattops Wednesday morning against Sabang Island off the northern tip of Sumatra, 700 miles northwest of Singapore).

Suzuki Cabinet Criticized For Doing Nothing

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12 (AP)

As the constant blasting of Allied bombs tore at Japan's home soil today, a leading Nipponese journalist accused the Suzuki cabinet of doing nothing "while the empire is confronted by its most serious crisis." Radio Tokyo reported.

Eighty-two-year-old Ichiro (Soho) Tokutomi, dean of the Japanese press, exhorted the cabinet to do better than hold routine meetings in the premier's residence, said the enemy broadcast heard by the Federal Communications Commission.

Tokyo radio's broadcasts today brimmed over with fear for the future. They included:

Worry that Adm. William F. Halsey's 3rd fleet was still on the prowl and soon would launch another huge carrier plane attack.

Disclosure that Japanese civilian "deserters from the defense front" are attempting to flee bombed cities such as Yamaguchi in north central Honshu instead of "digging in."

Speculation that the British intend to land on Car Nicobar Island, 450 miles north of Sumatra, west of the Malay peninsula.

Order To Keep Prof. Off Texas Campus
AUSTIN, July 12 (AP)—An order restraining Dr. John Leo Abernethy, former assistant professor of chemistry at the University of Texas, from coming on the campus or exercising teaching duties has been signed by Judge Roy C. Archer of 126th district court.

The order is effective pending a hearing set for July 20 on an injunction application filed by the attorney general in behalf of the University of Texas.

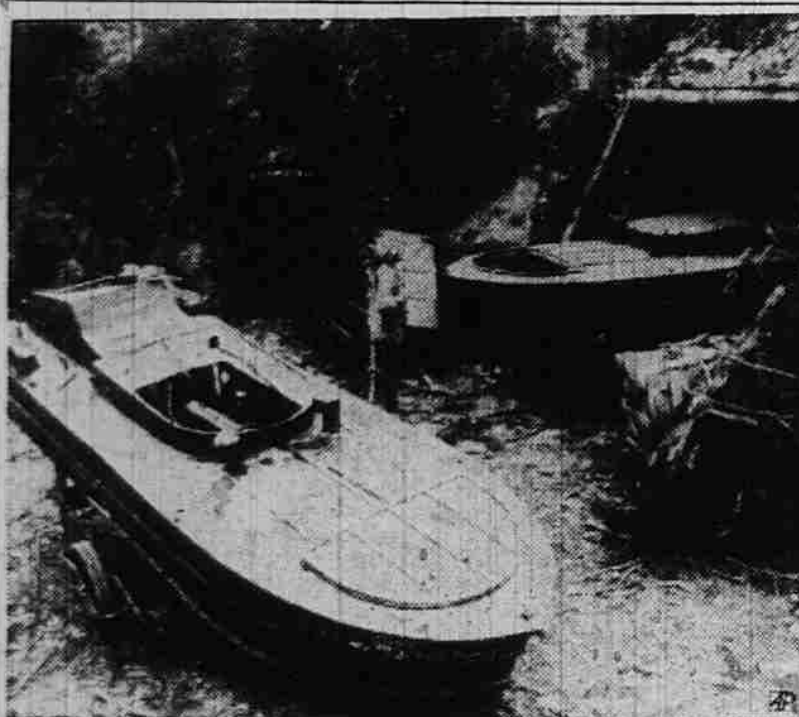

The petition, including an affidavit signed by acting President T. S. Painter of the university, stated Abernethy was employed in Sept. 1940, and that his employment terminated June 20 of this year. The petition alleged Abernethy refused to leave his post when his contract was terminated by President Painter under the authority of the board of regents.

C. T. Hunnicutt of Fluvanna told police that two week-end bags were stolen from his car parked in the 400 block of North Lancaster.

Working Aliens To Pay Income Taxes
Aliens who have engaged in a trade or business while in this country are not entitled to non-resident alien tax exemptions, according to W. A. Thomas, collector of internal revenue.

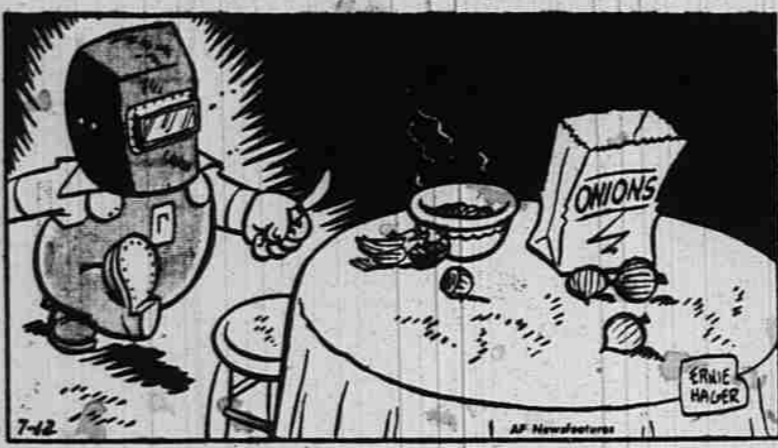

The non-resident exemption applies only in cases of the transient alien, one in the states only for a fixed period of time. All others, regardless of whether they intend to return ultimately to their native land, are subject to federal income tax provisions, Thomas pointed out. Aliens who desire to clarify status of any transactions which have not been reported in US income returns for years subsequent to Jan. 1, 1940, should contact H. W. Axe, Odessa, deputy collector for this district.

Cornelia Frazier To Attend Private Conservatory In Mexico City 8 Weeks

Miss Cornelia Frazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Frazier, will leave tonight for San Antonio where she will join Dr. and Mrs. Silvio Sciolti and nine other talented Texas pianists before going to Mexico City.

Dr. Sciolti of North Texas State Teachers College has chosen ten girls to be guests at his private conservatory for six weeks training in piano. Each pupil will practice four hours daily. Following the six weeks training, they will tour Old Mexico for two weeks.

Miss Frazier is a junior voice major at the University of Texas where she is president of University Musicians. She is a 1945 Blue Bonnet Belle nominee, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, Glamazons, University Glee club, Campus League of Women Voters, University Singers, Radio House, and a Cappella Choir. Miss Frazier was also in the cast of two operas. She graduated from Big Spring high school in 1942 and was a member of the High Heel Slipper club, Sub Deb club and high school band. Cornelia began studying music under her mother when she was six years old. She also attended North Texas State Teachers college in Denton two years where she studied under Dr. Sciolti.

Four more secretaries became associated with the chapter. They are Betty Williamson, Big Spring Glass company; Marie Bingham, Eberley-Curry Funeral Home; Midge Olive, Cathey Implement company; and Ruby Caldwell, Big Spring Herald.

Other members present were Kay Bell, Helen Butler, Margaret Burchell, Violet Butts, Elizabeth Canning, Jean Dement, Mary Jones, Gladys Mattingley and Weirine Pettigrew.

Stevenson Regrets Padilla's Leaving

AUSTIN, July 12 (AP) — Regret at the resignation of Ezequiel Padilla as Mexico's foreign minister was expressed today by Gov. Coke R. Stevenson.

"I've always had a high regard for him. He has a fine attitude toward Texas and the United States of America," the governor said at a press conference.

Three of America's most popular characters were unborn: Uncle Sam, Santa Claus and Charley McCarthy.

DOWNTOWN STROLLER

One of the most attractive mother-daughter combinations in town is MRS. O. M. WATERS and ANNA CLAIRE. They are both decidedly blondes and look very much alike in size and appearance.

Bumped into MR. and MRS. JACK STARKEY who are visiting in town following STARKEY's discharge after being overseas about two years. They plan to make their home in El Paso. By the way, JACK hadn't seen his baby daughter since she was five days old.

A steady two-some seen most everywhere is MELBA DEAN ANDERSON and DARREL DOUGLASS. They were sipping sodas the last time we noticed.

We have heard of two engagements which will probably be announced soon. Both couples are Big Springers and the young women already have their rings.

Society For Crippled Children To Plan For Expanded Program

COMMERCE, July 12—Directors of the Texas Society for Crippled Children will meet in Dallas July 21 to lay plans for a greatly expanded program including the establishment in Dallas of a convalescent home, according to Dr. Sam Whitely of Commerce, president of the society. The proposed home is to be in the vicinity of the new Southwestern Medical Foundation.

New Texas legislation providing special educational services for Texas' thousands of exceptional children has released the full facilities and resources of the Texas Society for Crippled Children to the locating, procuring of medical treatment and rehabilitation of the handicapped child, Dr. Whitely pointed out.

The bill, as drafted by the society and passed by the 49th legislature, provides that any child of educable mind, six to 17 years of age, whose physical handicaps are such that he can not be educated in regular school classes, be furnished transportation and education in special classes. Classes may be established in any community where there are five or more of these exceptional children. In districts where there is not a sufficient number for the organization of a special class, exceptional children may be transferred to a district where the special services are provided.

Flying Without Priority Difficult As Riding Train Without Pullman

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Travelers discouraged by the restrictions on pullman cars should think twice before trying to board airplanes without priorities.

An official of the air transport association of America said: "No one, unless he's crazy, would try to travel without a priority."

This same official scoffed at the idea that pullman car restrictions would add to the airlines' burdens. "Where would we put them?" he asked.

People without priorities are being "bumped" all over the country.

This is the way the official mentioned above told the story: Before Pearl Harbor the airlines in this country had 366 planes. Came Pearl Harbor. The armed forces needed planes in a hurry. They took from the commercial lines. The domestic planes dwindled to 165.

The army began turning transport planes back to the private lines in the spring of 1943. Now those lines have 374 but need more.

Before Pearl Harbor the commercial planes were in the air seven to eight hours out of 24.

Now they're in the air 12 to 14 hours, a figure beyond which they cannot fly with safety. Before Pearl Harbor they traveled about 1,100 miles a day. Now they're doing 1,800.

In April 1941, the domestic lines carried 308,644 passengers and traveled 114,748,987 passenger miles. In April of this year they carried 482,821 passengers and traveled 256,511,544 passenger miles.

ALLIES BRIDGE ATLANTIC WITH AIR-SEA RESCUE CHAIN SYSTEM

By JAMES F. KING

LONDON, July 12 (AP)—The Allies have bridged the Atlantic with the greatest air-sea rescue system ever devised in dispatching planes and men home from Europe. Many of the men and machines are headed straight for the Pacific.

The United States, Great Britain and Brazil have marked two direct paths across the ocean with chains of ships, stationed like beacons to guide planes along the way and help any which may be forced down.

Brig. Gen. Earl S. Hoag, commander of the European division of the United States Air Transport Command, described the mass movement of men and machines today as the "greatest aerial elevator of all times."

Of 4,157 Flying Fortresses, Liberators, two-engine bombers and transports starting across the Atlantic, only two have been lost without trace.

More than 60,000 troops have been flown home since April 20. The U. S. 8th, 9th and 12th air forces are moving en masse. Many bombers which survived rough raids over Germany are headed for Japan.

Although combat veterans, flying long water stretches usually is new to bomber pilots, they are given brief instructions in celestial navigation. Naval men say the ships have been important psychologically.

Much of the air-sea rescue system still is secret. The number of ships cannot be disclosed. The Brazilian cruiser Bahia sank last week while on air-sea rescue duty, presumably after hitting a floating mine.

Long range land planes such as the American Catalinas and British Sunderlands stand ready on both sides of the Atlantic and on islands in between to speed to the scene of any crash.

When they measure you for clothes in Kentucky they always ask if you want one or two hip pockets, and whether in pint or quart size.

"That's All, Brother"

As Bird Takes Ball

MISSION, July 12 (AP)—Sgt. Kirk Anderson of Moore Field played one round of golf in his life and he says "That's all Brother."

It was near Shillong, India, where he was flying cub planes on the China-Burma-India combat front.

On the fifth hole his ball dribbled into the rough. A large bird resembling a raven swooped down and picked it up, then fluttered away when the sergeant heaved his club at it.

Three holes later he met a five-year-old native lad who had Anderson's ball. The little fellow asked in sign language if he wished to buy it. Anderson emphatically replied — not in sign language — that he did not.

"I'm satisfied to bat a volley ball around," he says. "Not even one of these Texas buzzards can make off with that."

Veterans Eligible
For Farm Security

Service men of Howard county returning from military service will be eligible to apply for Farm Security Administration aid in establishing themselves on family-type farms.

In some cases, these loans may amount to full cost of land and improvements, according to James L. South, FSA supervisor. A limited number of such loans may be made in the county as the result of increased FSA appropriations.

Veterans will have same terms as other farmers. In other words, they must be unable to obtain adequate financing through other sources are eligible for FSA loans, which will be over a 40-year period and at three per cent interest.

Land will be appraised for its long-time earning capacity by a committee composed of L. H. Thomas, Ed. J. Carpenter, and Sam Buchanan. In many cases, South said, returning veterans may find it advisable to work a few years as tenants before becoming landowners. Loans would be available as tenants under the rural rehabilitation program.

School Bus Purchase
Authorized By Board

Purchase of a school bus for the Big Spring Independent School district, possibly the first bus ever owned by the district, was authorized at a meeting of the board of trustees Wednesday evening.

The vehicle, to serve the territory detached from Midway common school district and attached to the Big Spring Independent School district, will be for 42 or 45 passengers.

Employment of Merle J. Stewart to conduct the annual audit of school books was announced by the board. The audit will start after the close of business on Aug. 31.

Tentative agreement was effected on members for a board of equalization.

Marine Corps League
Presented Charter

The H. P. Earley post of the Marine Corps League, of Big Spring, reportedly was presented with a charter Wednesday night by Post Commandants Jack Hunter and Jimmie Braun.

Hunter is head of the James G. Simmons Post of Dallas and Braun of the Amos Gray Post of San Angelo.

The two men were members of the same amphibious tank crew and were in action in the Solomon Islands. Braun was the tank commander and J. Hunter was the radio operator and gunner.

Braun rescued Hunter from their burning tank after both of his legs were blown off as a result of a direct hit by a bomb. Both men are holders of the Silver Star, Purple Heart and presidential unit citation.

Aussies Advance Slowly On Oil
Fields; Yanks Mopup On Luzon

By SPENCER DAVIS

MANILA, July 12 (AP)—Australian Seventh infantry, and Dutch colonial troops advanced slowly today on Horneo's rich Sambodja oil fields despite the tough delaying action being fought by beached Japanese naval personnel in the steaming, rain-soaked equatorial forests.

Some six miles north of the Balikpapan town area, the Aussies, their path cleared by P-38 fighters of the 13th army airforce which sprayed a 12-mile area with jellied gasoline, breached the outer lines of the Japanese hinterland defense in an advance on "Smashed Stone" ridge.

On the central sector, other Aussies repulsed Japanese counterattacks three miles inland from the mouth of the Seping-gang Kelij river.

On the right flank, the Australians fighting along the single lane highway five and a half miles northeast of captured Makassar airfield received both naval and aerial bombardment support to smash Japanese artillery and mortar fire.

Although in its twilight, the mopup campaign is still active as the Yankees hunt down the close to 30,000 Japanese still holding out throughout the Philippines. On northern Luzon a pocket of from 12,000 to 14,000 Japanese are holding out in the rugged cordillera, Central and Sierra Madre mountains.

The Sixth infantry division reported the capture of an elaborate enemy stronghold in the Kiangnan sector which had withstood artillery, air and infantry heavy weapons assaults for days.

On investigation, the Red Star infantrymen of Maj. Gen. Charles Hurd found the position included 13 pillboxes, 22 interlocking entrenchments and caves as well as 53 other prepared positions. Some of the foxholes were four to 11 feet deep and tunneled back at the bottoms into the hillside. Fronting the position were five tank traps.

Producer Payments
Made By AAA Office

Dairy producer payments for the first 10 days of July, covering applications on April, May and June production, have been made by the AAA office in the amount of $6,448.30.

Mrs. Felton Smith, Sr., who handles the producer payments, said that 147 applications were involved. They showed 2,715 pounds of butter fat at 17 cents and 7,375 cwt. of whole milk at 70 cents cwt. during April and 5,111 pounds of butterfat at 10 cents and 15,122 cwt. of milk at 35 cents during May and June.

Howard county dairy producers were asked to bring their sale tickets for April, May and June to the AAA office as soon as possible. These tickets should contain date of sale, name of purchaser and name of producer.

Farmers Wait For Fields To Drain

Farmers of Howard and adjacent counties for the most part marked time Thursday waiting for fields to dry sufficiently for planting.

In certain areas, tractors already were humming. Some sand furrowing was being done. Consensus of those attending the livestock sale Wednesday, said County Agent Durward Lewter, was that it would be the first of next week before planting gets in full swing.

C. H. DeVaney, working a sand area, on his place near Coahoma, saw his tractor almost disappear from sight. Donald Lay, also northeast of Coahoma, had 40 acres under water in one field. There were field lakes around Center Point and Arthur Stallings had a sizeable pond in his field at Lomax.

League Leaders Show Most Mid-Season Gain

By JACK HAND

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Baseball swings into a fourth vital intersectional series today with the Chicago Cubs and Detroit Tigers, respective league leaders, showing largest gains over their 1944 mid-season standings.

A year ago both the Bruins and Bengals were mired deep in seventh place while today's won and lost records show Chicago one game ahead of the national pack and Detroit with a 4 1-2 length advantage in the American.

Both 1944 champions, the St. Louis Cardinals and Browns, are behind their '44 pace, the Cards 9 1-2 games off last year's pace and dropped from the lead to third. Luke Sewell's "Cinderella Gang" has had tougher sledding, dropping from first to sixth, six games behind their pennant-winning gain.

Detroit has been first since June 12 and comes east to open in Boston with a chance of building a solid lead by a repetition of their first successful road jaunt.

Charley Grimm was just beginning to right the Cubs a year ago after their disastrous early-season record when they dropped 11 of their 12 starts. Now Chicago has just returned from a sizzling eastern trip on which they won 13 of 16 and displaced Brooklyn in first place.

The Boston Braves, who were manhandled by the Bruins 24-2 and lost an entire series to Chicago at home, lead the invaders into Wrigley Field followed by New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia. The Dodgers open their drive to regain the lead in Cincinnati and third-place St. Louis, only 1 1-2 games off the pace, open a series of night engagements at Sportsman's park with the Giants.

Detroit comes to the Atlantic seaboard with Dizzy Trout and two lesser pitchers on the ailing list but with Hank Greenberg making his first swing around the circuit and Hal Newhouse burning up the loop at his 1944 pace.

More than one baseball expert returned from the west with the conviction that Washington represents the east's number one flag contender on its five-star pitching staff.

Ossie Bluege's Senators have proved stronger away from home than at Griffith Stadium and wound up their latest tour with 11 victories out of 15 games against the Tigers, Browns, White Sox and Indians. Chicago leads the parade into Washington tonight.

"Happy" To Sit Down To Meet Men Who Hired Him Ball Commissioner

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP) — A. B. "Happy" Chandler, baseball commissioner, sits down today to become better acquainted with the men who hired him.

Some of the big league club-owners never have met the man they selected as successor to the late Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis in the game's highest position.

By a characteristic Chandler stroke, the Kentucky senator will preside at a joint major league session in his first formal meeting with baseball's bigwigs.

On the agenda, officially or unofficially, are:

Signing of Chandler's seven-year, $50,000 a year contract.

Complaints by high schools and colleges against the signing of teen-age players.

Current transportation problems.

Transfer of the finances of the commissioner's office to Walter W. Mulberry, secretary-treasurer under Chandler.

Salaries to be paid Mulberry, Leslie M. O'Connor, special assistant to the commissioner, and office help.

A general outline of what the owners expect of Chandler and what he expects of them.

Gas Cut Expected For A-Card Holders

DALLAS, July 12 (AP) — H. F. Carmichael, district OPA director, said here that there is a possibility the value of A gasoline coupons may be reduced due to what he called over-issuance of gasoline to C card holders.

Carmichael declared yesterday that a spot check of 100 C card gasoline issuances would be made at each of the district's war price and rationing boards to determine whether or not such gasoline for preferred mileage is being seriously over-issued. Indications are, he said, that it is.

Seventh Greatest Loan In History

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP) — The $26,313,000,000 Seventh War Loan has gone down in history as the biggest financing operation of this or any other war.

There will be another bond drive this year, starting perhaps in November. But future drives are not likely to equal the one just ended.

Final figures were announced last night by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau.

Although sales of E-bonds fell $24,000,000 short of making the $4,000,000,000 quota, the American people reached 99.4 per cent of their goal in those low-cost securities.

New records were set in each category of the drive. Here are the statistics:

Total sales $26,313,000,000. Quota $14,000,000,000. Previous record $21,621,000,000 in the 6th War Loan.

COACH PROMOTED

SHERMAN, July 12 (AP) — N. J. Hogan, assistant coach at Sherman high school for the past two years, has been offered the position of head coach succeeding Truett L. Owen, who resigned to go to Arlington Heights high school (Fort Worth). Hogan, who served as head mentor while Owen was serving in the marine corps, said he was undecided whether he would accept the position.

HOUSTON SPORTS EARNING

HOUSTON, July 12 (AP) — Houston, high school sports earned $130,768.16 during the past year, according to the annual report of J. D. Oakes, director of extramural athletics.

Expenses were $93,828.23, leaving a profit of $26,939.93.

Football receipts were $75,214.37.

Venice, Italy, is farther north than Vladivostok, Siberia.

All-Star Team To Play In Tourney

Seventeen players were chosen in practices yesterday and today to comprise the Bombardier school's All-Star team for the Kwanza tournament Friday and Saturday at San Angelo.

Selected by S/Sgt. Walter T. Dever of the Guards, manager, and Sgt. John Barbour of Squadron C, playing captain, the team will leave by bus at 10 a. m. Friday and will be housed at Goodfellow Field Friday and Saturday night.

Cpl. Leon Bredemeyer of C-2 will head the pitching staff again, with S/Sgt. Earl W. Weaver of C-4 and S/Sgt. Arthur H. Valliere of C-5 as relief hurlers.

On the starting lineup will be Sgt. Sherman Johnson, Guards, catcher; Pfc. Sam Kennington, Guards, first base; T/Sgt. Al Capasso, C-1, second base; Barbour at third; Lt. Robert Raske, Transition, shortstop; Lt. William Smith, Transition, left field; Sgt. Harold Leeker, C-3, center field; F/O John Mulrooney, Transition, right field; and Pfc. George Lovett, C-2, short field.

Fielding relief will include Lts. Moses, Plesnick and Paul Radke of Transition, and Sgts. Woychese and DuVal of C-3.

The All-Stars will play their first game Friday afternoon against Avenger Field. Winner will play the winner of another preliminary that night, with the winner there to play in the championship game at 9:30 p. m. Saturday, while the loser will play in a semi-final at 8 p. m. Saturday to determine the third-place team.

Kiwanis is offering cash team prizes of $100, $80 and $40, and individual cash prizes for the low-hit game, and the best sport.

Transportation Ban To Restrict Racing

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP) — Racing will ask for a clarification of the government's reinstated ban on shipment of horses.

Harry A. Parr III of Baltimore, president of the thoroughbred racing associations, said last night he has an appointment today with Col. J. Monroe Johnson, director of defense transportation, who announced the prohibition.

Transportation of racing and show animals by railroad and common or contract truck carriers was forbidden, effective last night, until next July 1, unless modified or lifted in the meantime.

RAF VOTES CAST

TERRELL, July 12 (AP) — Votes of cadets and officers at the British Flying Training school here, cast in Great Britain's general election, have been forwarded to RAF headquarters in Washington, from where they will be sent to London to be counted with other British servicemen's ballots July 26.

Nelson To Meet Mike, Brother Of Man Who Defeated Him Once

DAYTON, O., July 12 (AP) — Mike Turnesa, 36-year-old golf star from White Plains, N. Y., goes into today's 36-hole second round matches of the 27th PGA championship hoping he can do as well as his kid brother, Sgt. Jim, did three years ago.

Mike has the chore of playing Byron Nelson, the Toledo umbrella transplanted from Texas — and that's considered the toughest chore a pro can face. Nelson, favorite for the title, has won 30 of his 38 matches in PGA play.

But three years ago, at Atlantic City, Sgt. Jim Turnesa handed Nelson one of his six defeats.

Nelson breezed into today's second round with a 4 and 3 win yesterday over Gene Sarazen, three-time winner of the tourney, while Mike registered a 5 and 4 verdict over Johnny Gibson of Wilmette, Ill.

Along with Nelson and Brother Mike, 14 other survivors of yesterday's setups and upsets were in there firing today — including Sgt. Jim Turnesa who blaster by Harcke of Bensenville, Ill., 9 and 7.

Teams To Cinch League Standings

Two Bombardier school teams will attempt to cinch second place positions in their respective softball leagues in games today at 7 and 8:15 p. m. in the city park.

Group 1, holding the "American" league's second place by a one-game margin over Squadron E, will take on the league's last-place team, C squadron's first platoon.

At 8:15 p. m., "National" league second-place C-5 will meet last-place Squadron A. C-5 holds its position by a one-game margin over C-3.

Championships in the two leagues will probably be determined in games next week, said Capt. George D. Allen, athletic director, with the playoffs between all three leagues, coming the following week. "International" league championship was won Tuesday by Squadron F, with C-2 taking second place to qualify for the playoffs.

More than 25,000 names are now on the "war criminal" books in London, which list identities of quislings and occupation offenders.

Athletic Ass'n To Sponsor Camp

Directors of the Big Spring Athletic Association have voted to finance a camp for high school athletes.

Dates and location for the camp have not been fixed, and these details probably will result in a conference between John Dibrell, athletic director, for the schools, and directors of the association. In all likelihood, it will be the latter part of August.

Dibrell currently is at Ingram but plans to return here after Aug. 10.

The association also went on record as favoring the sponsorship of Golden Globe district eliminations next winter and has started preliminary steps for designation as a district point.

Big Spring operated two seasons as a Golden Globe district tournament point prior to the war.

Six billion pounds of fish and shellfish will be needed this year to supply U. S. Servicemen, civilians and lend-lease.

GAMBLE SENTENCED

FORT WORTH, July 12 (AP) — Richard Gamble, 31-year-old negro, was under death sentence today for the bludgeoning slaying of Mrs. Lydia T. McBride, 56, whose body was found on the grounds of an elementary school here June 15. A district court jury convicted Gamble yesterday.

HIGHWAY BIDS ASKED

Funny-Face Party For Children's Summer Birthday Celebrations

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

Children have birthdays even in summer and this calls for celebration, of course. It should be very simple celebration, both for the saving of mother's heat-weary nerves and for the young whose tummies are likely to react unfavorably to fancy food in hot weather.

Here's a "Funny Face" party, involving soft drinks and simple sandwiches, with considerable of an air! It's all accomplished with cookie cutters. Here's how:

Funny - Face Sandwiches
Use plates in a solid color, if possible.

TO MAKE MOUTHS: Cut shapes from slices of white bread with crescent cookie cutter. Spread with softened butter or margarine and put together with a generous filling of current jelly. Place on lower rim of plate, some crescents turned up for jollity, some turned down, in what we hope is mock rage.

TO MAKE NOSES: Blend together equal quantities of raisins and peanutbutter. Spread thickly on slices of whole wheat bread. Put together to make large sandwiches. Cut off crusts; slice each sandwich diagonally in half, making triangles for two noses. Stand sandwich triangle upright on each plate, above mouth.

TO MAKE EYES: For each plate, cut four rounds from white bread, using a two-inch cookie - cutter. Spread two of the rounds with any available sandwich filling (cream cheese and chopped nuts, ground meat and mayonnaise, or chopped egg, watercress and mayonnaise). Top each with a second round of bread, then "ice" sides and top with cream cheese softened with milk (use 2 tablespoons milk to 1 package cheese). Place eyes on either side of nose at top of plate. Press stuffed olive in center of each.

These sandwich plates offer a nice afternoon snack for the children and will call forth gales of laughter the minute the guests see them, especially if you decorate the pop bottles thus:

Bogey - Man Bottles
The bogey - man bottles wear hats made of conical paper cups (perfect dunce caps.) If you can't buy the conical type of cup you can make the hats, but don't trust your own make to be liquid proof. Of course most children like best to drink from the bottle and can you think of any really important reason for stopping that fun?

Now for the bogey - man faces on the bottles. Draw outlines on white paper around crescent cookie cutter for mouth; around cookie cutter for eyes. For center of eyes (dark paper) and for small white noses, draw around a 25-cent piece. Paste dark center of eye on white circle, fold in half to give expression. Fold small circle for nose into pie shape. Noses for "crosspatch" bottles are made from a strip of paper, folded, at one end to stick out. Paste eyes, nose and mouth on well-chilled bottles of soft drinks, using just a small dab of paste so cutouts flare out from the bottle.

To have a nice, calm, happy party, and a further tip - if you want serve all the same kind of soft drink - it saves argument.

Simple for Mom, fun for the kids.

Fishing, Boating Zone Ban Lifted

AUSTIN, July 12 (AP) - A ban on fishing and boating in zones in front and back of dams of the Lower Colorado river Authority has been lifted, general manager Max Starke announced.

The ban was ordered three years ago at the outbreak of the war.

STOCK FARM SOLD
TERRELL, July 12 (AP) - A 1,400-acre stock farm, and plantation owned by Mrs. A. W. Ritter has been sold to J. W. Schneider of Georgetown, Tex. The farm is located six miles east of Terrell.

SON IN TOKYO

HILLSBORO, July 12 (AP) - Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Griffing of Milford have been advised by the war department that their son, John W., captured in the Philippines in 1942, has been moved to Tokyo. The family had the last direct word from him a year and a half ago.

Column About Birds And Bees

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

It says here in a memo from the boss that it's about time we got around to writing a column about the birds and the bees.

Take the gentleman from Hillsboro with bats in his barnyard. Wylie Lowrey found three almost-dead bats under a tree, carried them home and practically made pets of them.

He fed the mother bat milk by dipping his finger in a bottle and holding it in her mouth. Later she revived and drank from a container much as a kitten, Lowrey said.

He has released the now-healthy bats in his orchard, where at last reports they were flying around happily.

An often-repeated Texas tragedy has been the necessity of shooting a favorite horse when it broke a leg.

But in Amarillo when B. R. Barfield's registered brood mare broke a leg, Dr. L. M. Griffin, a veterinarian, applied braces and splints which enable Rosine Princess to hobble around.

The braces will be removed in a week or two.

Sadie, the sightseeing cow, once was strictly rustic. But when 800-pound Sadie was sold to a McKinney man and moved to town she went cosmopolitan. She must have heard a juke box playing "Don't Fence Me In."

She left her cowlot, sedately toured the town. First she visited the courthouse, climbing the south steps. Next she ambled into a gas company office.

But the highlight was her visit to the "five and ten." She even mounted the stairs to the stockroom, and wouldn't leave until Manager G. D. Ledbetter lassoed her in true Texas style. Once, however, he had to jump the partition to his office to get out of her way.

Sadie is home now, and with a higher fence she's more like Elsie, the contented cow. Anyway, she stays home.

Wichita Falls reports an international visitor—a peculiar insect which flew all the way from North Africa as a stowaway in a plane. It was two inches long, beady-eyed and unsocial.

It was turned over to the Hardin College for further investigation.

Then take fish. Anglers at Lake Texoma admit it's luck, not bait, that lands the big ones. A 10-year-old Oklahoma boy was lugging a string of sandbass while "experts" with expensive lures and reels went empty-handed.

The boy used, he said, a cane pole with crawfish for bait.

Okinawans Policing Island Wear Red Helmets, Yellow Arm Bands

OKINAWA, (AP)—Okinawans are now helping to police their island under American military government.

Those selected, often former mayors of villages, are given distinctive red helmet liners and yellow arm bands. They are assigned to aid the American military police.

"We hope eventually to have 25 to 50 of them in each of our 10 camps established for Okinawa civilians," said Lt. L. Edward Chlir of Chicago, Ill., army officer with the AMG public safety department.

AMG, whose problem of administering affairs of more than a quarter of a million natives is second only to the American job of turning the island into a huge military, naval and air base, has tary districts.

divided Okinawa into three military districts. Army and navy men are intermixed throughout the complex organization.

Interests of the natives also are kept in mind by such men as Navy Lt. Donald Blackburn, of Toledo, O. Blackburn's specialty is reuniting broken families through an inter-district exchange. He said: "We've had some very heart-rending scenes when parents who had given their children up for lost are joined with their families again. These scenes refute the general impression that Okinawans are emotionless and stoical, and immune to the horrors of war."

Army Capt. Arthur E. Messner of St. Louis, Mo., and Navy Lt. (jg) Arthur Barrows of New London, Conn., handle the districts' supply problems. Barrows has the unpleasant but important job of opening sealed-off Japanese caves and salvaging the stores therein. In one area he recovered six tons of provisions in excellently-fashioned self-sealing rubber sacks.

Here's New Wrinkle: Sweeter Invert Sugar

By RHEBA MERLE BOYLES
County Home Dem. Agent

Corn syrup may be substituted for part or all of the sugar used in home canning or freezing of fruits. Corn sugar may be used for the same purposes, but brown sugar or syrups, such as sorghum, which have a strong flavor are not desirable.

Honey may be used as a substitute for a small part of the sugar, but it affects the flavor of the fruit more than corn syrup. However, it is satisfactory for canning figs and for making fruit pickles. It is not recommended for use with frozen foods.

Never use saccharin in canning, for heat makes it bitter. Saccharin can only be used when the fruit is served, but a doctor should be consulted regarding its use for too much saccharin may be harmful.

In substituting corn syrup for part of the sugar in canning, use one cup of sugar and two cups of corn syrup to six cups of water. This makes a thin syrup which is desirable from a nutritional standpoint. If the syrup is used to replace all the sugar, the proportion should be one-half to three-fourths cups of syrup to one cup of water.

One syrup which is said to be excellent for use in canning is "invert sugar" which can be made at home and is sweeter than natural sugar or syrup. To make it, mix two cups of sugar and one of water. Add one-fourth teaspoon of tartaric acid, obtainable at any drug store. Cover this sugar, water and tartaric acid mixture and simmer gently for 30 minutes. Allow it to cool. The invert sugar made this way is nearly twice as sweet as plain syrup of the same weight. For a thin syrup, use one-fourth cup of invert sugar to one cup of water. This is also good for sweetening fruits, cereals, ice cream, and beverages.

Fort Worth Jaycees Set Softball Meet

FORT WORTH, July 12 (AP) — The Fort Worth junior chamber of commerce today accepted sponsorship of the southwest regional softball championship tournament, Sept. 1, 2 and 3.

It will bring to Fort Worth the amateur softball association's championship teams (men's and women's) from Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Kansas.

All games will be played at La Grange Field and profits will go to the American Cancer association.

Ehlers Wants Monks, Not Skirts, For Gifts

AUSTIN, July 12 (AP)—V. M. Ehlers, state sanitation engineer, wishes servicemen could send monkeys as souvenirs from the Pacific instead of grass skirts and trinkets.

His wish, he says, is based on the need for animals on which to conduct experiments in poliomyelitis. The animals available in the state department of health laboratory, rabbits, guinea pigs and rats, are not subject to this disease which is increasing so rapidly over the state.

Monkeys are prey to polio in much the same way humans are.

Under Strike Law Driver Draws Term

DALLAS, July 12 (AP) — John D'Arcy, 28, truck driver for a motor freight line, was found guilty and given a one-year suspended sentence by a jury in Dallas county's first prosecution under the O'Daniel anti-strike law.

D'Arcy was indicted in connection with an attack June 15 on J. R. Hamilton, another employee of the lines. Under similar indictment is J. T. Law, another truck driver, who, with D'Arcy and other employees, was on a walkout from the company when the attack on Hamilton occurred.

Try New Dishes As Well As Standbys For Food Values

Meal planning even in normal times is a difficult job, but with shortages of food, and the ever-present problem of ration points, even more ingenuity and ability are needed in planning meals today.

Not only is it harder to make meals appetizing, but it is also harder to keep them well-balanced. But when we consider the picture as a whole, we find it may not be as dark as we are inclined to believe. For instance, although we eat meat primarily because we like it, we also eat it because of certain food values.

As an example, we need protein, which builds and repairs our body tissues, and we need the iron and phosphorus which meat supplies. Meat also furnishes us with the vitamins, niacin, thiamine and riboflavin. So we must find other foods which will furnish us with these six essentials. We can get protein from eggs, fish, milk, poultry, cheese, dried beans and peas, peanuts and soybeans. Iron is supplied by leafy green vegetables and cereals, eggs, poultry, tables, by whole grain or enriched dried beans and peas, peanuts and soybeans. Phosphorus comes with the foods that supply protein. As for the vitamins, we can get a good part of what we need from whole-grain and enriched bread and enriched cereals.

Action To Lift Bar On Osteopaths Share In Allotment Funds

AUSTIN, July 12 (AP)—The third court of civil appeals dismissed litigation by which osteopathic and certain other physicians sought to participate in Texas in federal allotments for emergency care of wives and infants of enlisted men and aviation cadets.

The court said the rule which excluded them from participation was made by the children's bureau, a federal agency, and the state department of health was concerned with the plan only in the capacity of an agency of the federal government.

It added that state courts have no jurisdiction over the United States or its agencies charged with administration of the G.I. baby act which appropriated $42,800,000.

Brazilian Cruiser Hits Mine, Explodes

RECIFE, Brazil, July 12 (AP) — Four United States navy sound technicians were among the missing aboard the Brazilian cruiser Bahia, which went down a week ago today in a series of explosions near the middle of the South Atlantic.

The missing men of the U. S. navy are Emmette Peter Bale, William Joseph Estau, Andrew Jackson Pendleton and Frank Benjamin Sparks (home addresses unavailable).

The loss of the 3,150-ton cruiser was the greatest disaster in Brazilian naval history. Of its 366 officers and men, only 31 had been landed here. The ship, apparently victim of a floating mine, sank within three minutes after the first explosion.

"It's my time to put the motion before the house," said the chorus girl as she breezed onto the stage.

Travel Rationing Next?

The ban which goes on short-haul Pullman traffic this weekend may well be a harbinger of what is to come in the field of transportation because we have not heeded appeals to stay off public carriers unless it be absolutely necessary.

The next step may well be rationing of transportation. In simple language, that would mean you would need a permit as well as a ticket to travel, a rather inconvenient and unsatisfactory condition.

There are reports of many over-night runs abandoning sleepers under the new rule. This may or may not have been the objective which ODT hopes to realize by its new edict. Most everyone ought to agree that uniformed men should be given preference in travel; yet those in uniform are the first to argue that the new rule is arbitrary and in some respects foolish. One has raised the question of permitting him, a big healthy man, to ride the sleeper while some frail, old woman may be forced to sweat it out in a chair car or stand in its aisles.

Yet as unsatisfactory as the rule may prove to be, it is the shadow of a coming event unless civilians cease clogging trains, buses, planes for unnecessary trips. If more rules are imposed, it likely will be because we ask for it by refusal to cooperate; by our insistence that it is the other fellow who should travel only when necessary.

America's Good Friend

Australia lost a great man and America a great friend in the recent passing of John Curtin. Not many noticed when he slipped from the scene, yet his loss to the land down under is comparable to that of losing one of our top-flight statesmen or even the head of state.

America is indebted to this man for his stern, unwavering stand in the dark days of spreading Japanese aggression. A less positive leadership might have let the bars down just enough to permit the Jap to gain his foothold on the continent, which remained as the last bastion of the Yanks in the Pacific. Had it gone, our hopes of victory might well have gone with it.

Curtin recognized the bond between the Yanks and the Aussies and said in one of his memorable statements that "Australia looks to America without any pangs as to our traditional kinship to the British Empire. It wasn't a disavowal of ties, but

by Dewitt Mackenzie
AP Foreign News Analyst

The fierce aerial bombardment which Admiral (Bull) Halsey's carrier-based warplanes have administered to Japan has led the Tokyo radio commentators to speculate whether this is the curtain-raiser for invasion.

Well, it could be, but the signs are that (barring some unexpected development) the mikado's mother islands will undergo an awful softening up before we send our gallant troops up onto the beaches of Japan's serrated and strongly defended coast. Undoubtedly the little men of Nippon would like to see us strike now, before bombs have anesthetized their home-land.

However, the Allied command is under no enemy pressure in the Pacific and may be expected to proceed methodically in carrying out its program. That contemplates the blasting of Japan with continuous air raids until she is thoroughly off balance and numbed. Then we shall invade. That is, we shall invade unless the mikado's government is smart enough to surrender before then and so save the country useless death and destruction.

How long will it take to reduce the main islands to the point where we can carry out amphibious invasions without undue casualties? That's a matter of pure speculation, of course, but it's safe to say we can do it much more expeditiously than in the case of Germany. There are military experts who believe we could knock Japan out completely by bombing, but that remains to be demonstrated and can't be assumed at this juncture by any means.

Many observers have the feeling that the bombing of Japan may continue for several months as a preliminary to invasion—always making allowance for some fortuitous circumstance which would invite an earlier landing on the Japanese mainland. However, by October we should have a good idea of how things stand.

The recognition of a new and dynamic bond between two great young nations. That spirit persists to this day and has every indication of increasing.

Today And Tomorrow—

Power Of Security Delegate

By WALTER LIPPMANN

There seems to be some misunderstanding about the United States representative on the security council, and this has led to the notion that after the Senate has ratified the charter, the Congress will then need to define by statute his powers and duties. All this supposes that the charter calls for the establishment of a new high office—that of United States representative to the United Nations, who will then have some kind of independent power of his own. Obviously, if that were the case, it would then be necessary for Congress to define by statute the powers and duties of the individual who casts the vote of the United States.

But it is not the case, and to establish such a new independent office would be quite contrary to the plain intent of the charter. It would be contrary also to our own Constitution. And such an arrangement would be quite unworkable.

The charter says (v. 23, 3) that "each member of the security council shall have one representative." The "member" is then the United States of America, not the individual who represents it. It is the United States that has one vote, not its representative. Furthermore (v. 28), the charter contemplates specifically that the individual representative will not always be the same person: "The security council shall hold periodic meetings at which each of its members may, if it so desires, be represented by a member of the government or by some other specially designated representative."

I think I am right in saying that at Dumbarton Oaks and at San Francisco, it was always assumed that at important meetings of the council the representatives would be the ministers of foreign affairs—in our case the Secretary of State—and that at the most important meetings, the representatives would probably be the President himself and other heads of governments.

The misunderstanding, such as it is, is probably due to the fact that the charter (v. 28, 1) says that "the security council shall be so organized as to be able to function continuously." Each member shall for this purpose be represented at all times at the seat of the organization." This does call for a permanent officer at the headquarters of the organization for the "purpose" of enabling the security council "to function continuously." But the whole context makes it clear that this permanent official is, in effect, an ambassador dealing with routine operations, reporting through the State Department to the President, carrying out his instructions, but making no independent decisions of his own in matters of policy.

The charter does not even say that he shall be the representative in a meeting of the security council. He is only a representative "at the seat of the organization," and while he might be designated (by the President on the advice of the Secretary of State) to be the United States representative at a meeting, the intent, as I have already shown, is that when anything important is being considered the representative should be the Secretary of State, or some other "member of the government," or even the President himself.

In short, the United States representative has no powers and duties separate from the powers and duties of the President under the Constitution and the treaty of the charter, as ratified by the Senate. He is a diplomatic agent appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate, differing in no way from any other diplomatic officer.

To give him any independent powers would be to impair the President's authority to conduct the foreign relations of the United States, and even his authority as commander-in-chief. The notion that the United States representative is not in all respects the agent of the President, that he could be vested with the right by an independent judgment of his own to commit the United States, and even to use the armed forces of the United States, is fantastic.

The office should of course be given dignity, and rank equal with that of the British, Soviet, French, and Chinese permanent representative. But it should not be vested with any power of its own. Whatever new powers and obligations the ratification of the charter creates can be vested only in one place—in the President of the United States, subject to all the normal constitutional limitations.

And Nothing Can Be Done About It

Washington

More Talk About The Face-Lifting

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — Your Capital in wartime:

Even if Congress takes it first "extended" vacation since long before Pearl Harbor, and stays out of Washington for six or eight weeks, there isn't much chance that the nation's Capitol will get that $800,000 face-lifting authorized by the House and Senate nearly five long years ago.

Nevertheless, Capitol Architect David Lynn has dusted off the plans for refurbishing and remodeling the House and Senate chambers.

No housewife with a passion for rearranging the furniture gets more gleeful out of it than Architect Lynn does out of repairing and modernizing our venerable and often joint-creaking old Capitol building. Not that he would ever "modernize" any spot of historic importance.

What's on the Lynn griddle now is to tear out the horrible network of steel girders hastily erected in the House and Senate a few years ago to keep the snows from caving in the sagging roofs, and to replace those glass-domed ceilings with something that won't reflect every passing cloud on the floor.

There will be indirect lighting and an improvement in acoustics, so that the members can see each other at 20 paces without squinting and debate at the same dueling distance without having their verbal shafts lost in the rafters. There will be new, upholstered chairs for the gallery squatters; and new press and radio galleries; but the old banks of chairs for the 435 members of the house and the desks of the 96 senators "for historic reasons" will remain unchanged.

All in all, it will take five or six months to do the job and the time when Congress can stay out of Washington that long is as uncertain as the date of V-J day. The only reason for Lynn's optimism is that the Senate has given him the green light and appropriated the cash. The House public building and grounds committee indicated that it may do the same soon.

"Everybody talks about the weather, especially in the summer, winter, spring and fall; but very few people know that about 5,000 unpaid observers in the United States and possessions daily help U. S. Weatherman Francis W. Reichelderfer and his aides tell you what it's going to be like tomorrow."

These "cooperative observers," as the weather bureau calls them, take local observations with instruments supplied by the bureau, and send the information in to the nearest local weatherman. Some of them have been doing it gratis for decades.

So far as I know, on one ever even publicly thanked them, until Rep. Cleveland B. Bailey, democrat, Clarksburg, W. Va., came along to serve his first term in Congress. The other day Rep. Bailey introduced a bill to pay all these cooperative observers who have served 30 years or more, and reached 65 years of age. They would get $25 a month for the rest of their lives.

Hollywood—

Critic Says Oscar Stuff Lacking

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — An erudite critic of a local paper recently expounded on a subject which has been preying on my mind for some time. Said he: "Except for an occasional 'sleeper,' movies appear to be getting worse instead of better; technically slicker and more proficient than ever, they have less and less to say."

Recently I have been asking myself: With the year more than half gone, what achievements have been exhibited that might be worthy of an academy award?

The answer, few, if any. Of the prestige pictures, which are usually made with an eye to the Oscars, "Valley of Decision" was handsomely mounted but lacking a touch of greatness; "The Corn Is Green" didn't quite fit Bette Davis' talents; "Keys of the Kingdom" tried to compress too much into its running time; "The Clock" was beautifully done but suffered from a slim plot.

Only two of the more pretentious pictures were satisfying to this reviewer — "Without Love," because of a fine script by Donald Ogden Stewart, and "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," because of sensitive direction by Ella Kazan.

In other departments there have been a good melodrama, "Blood on the Sun," a pleasant musical, "Diamond Horseshoe," a successful farce, "A Royal Scandal," a noble experiment, "Picture of Dorian Gray," an excellent mystery, "Murder, My Sweet," and a good western, "Along Came Jones."

But can any compare to the great pictures of last year — "Going My Way," "Double Indemnity," "Fighting Lady," "Laura," and "Meet Me in St. Louis?"

The comparison is even more marked in the regular run of pictures, the high-priced potboilers which do little more for the moviegoer than kill time. A number of studios have given up B pictures, but their top budget films often end up with B quality. Or with 2 quality, as in the case of "Salome Where She Danced."

Such pictures make money. Nothing flops these days. But do they make friends? The movie industry is going to need a lot of friends in future years when the customer's admission price will not be plunked down so readily. And the soldiers can't be counted on for unflinching devotion. Even if they see a picture a night, they can't still tell a stinker.

is for an answer to the problem, the local critic suggests that the industry has always advanced by cries which have forced the studios to improve their methods. Hollywood had better start training more and better writers and directors or else begin praying for the revolution.

Spuds Spoil In Shipping Slip-Up

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — One of the worst wastes of food in months occurred recently in Norfolk, Va. It involved potatoes for Belgium.

Several weeks ago the army promised three shiploads of potatoes to Belgium, to replace potatoes which our troops had used in that country. Spuds are precious in Belgium, so the Belgians wanted them back. The war food administration agreed to provide the potatoes, and the war shipping administration was to provide the shipping. Everything was set.

War food, however, was able to get a sufficient quantity of spuds only by accepting potatoes of good quality but of high moisture content. These spoil more easily than those with lower moisture. The war shipping administration was warned of this difficulty, and told that good refrigeration was essential. Liberty ships with modern refrigeration units were to be provided.

Instead of the Liberty ships, however, war shipping sent three old British boats to Norfolk with completely inadequate refrigeration units.

The spuds were supposed to be loaded quickly and put under refrigeration at once, but the ship's master refused to permit the loading of more than 34 to 40 cars per day. In this he was correct, for too speedy loading would have overloaded the capacity of his inadequate refrigeration unit.

More than 350 carloads had been loaded on the first of the three boats when suddenly it was discovered that the ship was listing so badly that the refrigeration unit simply was not functioning. Finally it was decided to pull the potatoes off this boat, but not until many had gone bad that, as one shipping man put it, "they had to be pumped off."

In the end, the entire consignment of spuds was turned over for sale to civilians. But by this time so many had gone bad that only about half were eventually brought to the civilian market. The Belgians are still waiting for their potatoes.

Coal Prices Going Up?

It isn't being advertised, but data to justify a raise in the price of coal are now being prepared by solid fuels Administrator Jakes in an effort to stimulate production of a commodity which is so short that administration leaders are worried sick. Representatives John Flannagan of Virginia and Andy May of Kentucky called on President Truman last Friday to urge immediate action to increase the coal output.

They proposed: (1) Immediate increase in ceiling prices on coal; (2) immediate steps to release from the army approximately 10,000 coal miners who were piled up sufficient points to win their discharge; (3) A ban on further drafting of young miners; and (4) All possible speed in turning out badly-needed mining equipment. President Truman was highly sympathetic on all these points.

There are about 137,000 coal miners now in the armed forces. As a result, the work force in the mines has been curtailed, and mines which a few years ago rarely took men over 25 for work in the pits are now employing men as old as 47 for these jobs. The older men have done miracles, all things considered, and last year turned out more coal than ever before produced in a single year in this country. But even more is needed.

Note — Senator Kilgore of West Virginia has complained to the war department that whereas we have screened German miners from the German army in order to work in German coal mines, the war department has not been able to get any accurate list of coal miners in the U. S. army.

Capitol Chaff

Representative Albert Thomas of Texas strolled into the House Restaurant last week, studied the menu closely, then remarked to his companion: "Will you look at this! Here Clinton Anderson is Secretary of Agriculture for 24 hours already, and still there's no meat on this menu!"

Poultry dealers are chuckling about the personal study vacation plan of Dewey Terhohsen of the war food administration, who has claimed there is no serious poultry problem on the eastern shore of Maryland. Terhohsen has now driven to Bethany Beach, Del. on the eastern shore for his vacation — and also for an additional two weeks at government expense investigating the poultry situation along the eastern shore. He has been issued special gasoline for the trip.

Milton Eisenhower, brother of General Ike, has agreed to stay at the department of agriculture as advisor to Secretary Anderson for only nine weeks. He then returns to his post as president of Kansas State Agricultural College.

The war food staff has been holding meetings nearly every morning since Anderson took office. They decided to meet in Eisenhower's office last Thursday, but were quickly shunted out when they found Eisenhower in shirtsleeves surrounded by large charts showing how war food set-up is to be reorganized. Too many officials would have seen whether their heads were going to fall, so they weren't permitted to stay.

Members of the senate military affairs committee are still chuckling over the appearance of Virginia's red-faced senator Harry Byrd during the testimony of Barney Baruch before their committee recently. Byrd strolled in ostentatiously just before the hearing started, went to the senator's table and shook hands with the chairman, waited for several photographers to snap him and walked out. Newspaper pictures published next day gave the public the impression that Byrd dominated the entire hearing.

U. S. Ambassadors

One thing President Truman will keep a weather eye on during his European trip is the American diplomatic service. Not long before he sailed, he got an earful from his old colleagues on the former "Truman committee."

Six senators, just back from Europe, came to the White House to report to him personally. Truman seemed intensely interested what they had to say about American diplomats. U. S. Ambassador Jefferson Caffery in Paris and Ambassador Alexander Kirk in Rome came in for special criticism.

Kirk, scion of the Chicago soap family, was reported as knowing little of the British and renting three palaces in Rome, including, according to the senators, the former villa of Mussolini.

The senators reported that when they were in Paris they lunched with Ambassador Caffery, who told them that the DeGaulle government was very inefficient. Caffery also recounted how General DeGaulle had asked him what he thought of his cabinet, to which Caffery said he was forced to reply:

"I can't answer, because I don't know them."

President Truman's former colleagues also urged that the United States keep its balance between Russia and the British, and not be an anti-Russian tail on the British kite.

When the senators urged a house-cleaning regarding U. S. diplomats, Truman replied: "Give me time. I've only been in here two months. I agree with a great deal of what you say, but give me time to work things out." (Copyright, 1945, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Japs Dig In Along Sittang River Bend

CALCUTTA, July 12 (AP) — Despite a heavy rain the Japanese are digging in at several points in the Sittang river bend area in Burma between Nyaungkashie, 25 miles northeast of Pegu, and Myitkya, terminus of the Pegu-Sittang canal, a southeast Asia communique announced today. The Japanese have occupied Nyaungkashie, which was abandoned by the British two days ago. Enemy positions in the river bend area were bombed and strafed yesterday by Spitfires.

A lot of auto accidents would be eliminated if the man behind the wheel would quit hugging the wrong curves.

"Inside" Story Of City Campaign For Hospital Told At Lions Club

The "inside" story of Big Spring's successful campaign to win designation as site for the veterans hospital was unveiled in three parts before the Lions club Wednesday.

Marvin Miller, who made the original presentation of the brief prepared by the chamber of commerce, told how Gen. Frank T. Hines, veterans administrator, had been interested to the extent he called in the engineers and asked questions about Big Spring.

J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce manager, said that until Miller's presentation, Big Spring had not been able to get much information, but subsequently the VA began asking for data and promised inspection.

In his running narrative he told how all cities in the 19th congressional district at one time reportedly were eliminated from consideration, but that Big Spring was reinstated. Once more the community was apparently second in the running but reportedly won recommendation together with neighboring city and ultimately the favor of the hospital board.

Then a monkey wrench fell in the machinery and attacks on the Big Spring water supply and rail transportation facilities came near reversing the decision before action could be taken to refute them.

"No one is due the lion's share of credit for this accomplishment," said Greene, "but all who helped should share in the credit. I think our obligation to the veterans is just beginning. The city has a big job ahead in providing the site."

Greene lauded city officials for preparing the site brief, in developing an additional water field, and in otherwise aiding in the fight in every way possible.

B. J. McDaniel, city manager, declared that this "shows what we can do if we work together... our obligation is just starting, and we need your support."

Members were favored by a piano duet by Helen Duley and Lillian Hurt, who played a series from Victor Herbert, added "Tea for Two" and encored with "Doll Dance." Jack Smith, president, presided.

New Auto Sales Rules Parley

A new automotive services regulation and dealer authorization to sell used automobiles, used trucks, and used motorcycles at warranted prices will be explained and discussed in a trade meeting to be held at 8 p. m. in Big Spring Friday in the Settles hotel by members of the district OPA staff.

Requirements of the regulation which places a limit on the number of hours of labor for which auto repair shops may charge their customers will be explained. The regulation provides that 56 common repair jobs, ranging from minor brake adjustments to installation of crankshaft and bearings, will be listed and a definite ceiling on labor charges which can be made.

The other important thing to be discussed at the meeting is the used trucks and used motorcycles registration of sellers of used cars, who want to charge warranted prices after August 1. Each seller desiring to charge warranted prices will receive an application for an "Authorization to Sell at Warranted Prices" from the war price and rationing board. The application should be completed and mailed to the District OPA Office at once so that the dealer may receive his authorization by August.

All other authorizations to charge warranted prices, including special authorizations issued to dealers in the past, become null and void July 31, OPA said.

Large Crowd At Revival Opening

A large crowd heard Raymond Kelcy Wednesday evening as the Church of Christ opened its annual revival meeting.

J. D. Harvey, local minister, invited the public to hear Kelcy this evening on "Why I Believe the Bible."

Wednesday Kelcy spoke from Luke 8:4-8, "The parable of the Sower." He stressed responsibility of the sower, saying he keenly felt his responsibility as a speaker. The seed was the word of God and the crop would be Christians, said Kelcy. Of four types mentioned, only one type would be productive and only one condition of the heart would lead to salvation, namely an "honest and good heart," said the speaker.

"Sky Fire" Like Bomb Mystifies Villagers

MADRID, July 12 (AP) — While scientists, reporters and movie cameramen waited today in La Roya, Almeria province, for a glimpse of the recurring "sky fire" reported to have terrified villagers and scorched buildings, another mountain village announced a similar occurrence.

The mayor of Lechon, in southern Zaragoza province, wrote that during a storm on June 5 a whirling column of air struck the ground near the village "with a tremendous noise like a gigantic bomb bursting" while "flames more than 30 yards high leaped in the sky."

The Lechon phenomenon was witnessed by a nearby weather observatory which called it "a complete mystery."

Belgian Regent Flies To Confer With King

BRUSSELS, July 12 (AP) — Regent Prince Charles and high leaders in the Belgian government left by plane today for St. Wolfgang, Austria, where the question whether King Leopold will abdicate is being discussed. The government had denied yesterday that Prince Charles planned such a trip.

(A Brussels radio broadcast recorded in London said a bill proposing that a popular vote be held on the question of whether King Leopold should abdicate was presented today in the Belgian chamber of representatives.)

Stassen Returns To Pacific War Zones

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12 (AP) — Comdr. Harold E. Stassen, 38-year-old former governor of Minnesota, is en route today to the Pacific war zones to rejoin Admiral Halsey.

Stassen, Halsey's assistant chief of staff, was granted special leave to help shape the charter as a member of the American delegation at San Francisco.

ZHUKOV DECORATED

BERLIN, July 12 (AP) — Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov received Britain's high order, Grand Commander of the Bath, from Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery at military ceremonies in front of the Brandenburg Gate today.

London Voting In Delayed Election

LONDON, July 12 (AP) — Twenty-three members of the house of commons will be chosen today in delayed voting which may decide the balance of power in the next parliament, if the balloting elsewhere in England July 5 was as close as some observers believe.

Today's contests were postponed to avoid conflict with local holidays.

Counting of the soldier vote will delay announcement of results until July 26.
