As Miss Hereford 1982

Lisa Snyder Is Crowned

Lisa Snyder
Miss Hereford, 1982

BY O.G. NIEMAN
Editor-Publisher
Lisa Snyder was crowned Saturday night as Miss Hereford, 1982, before an enthusiastic audience of approximately 650 persons in the Hereford High School Auditorium.
Lisa, an 18-year-old honey-blond, May graduate of HHS, won the judges' nod over Gina Griffin and Stacie Rhodes, first and second runners-up, respectively. All three are 18 years of age and May graduates.

After evening-wear competition Saturday night, eight finalists were named to perform their talents at the pageant finale. The other five finalists from the field of 16 beauties were Dana Cab-biness, Amy Quillen, Kim Sims, Tonya Savage, and Cathie Weldon.
Miss Snyder, sponsored by Edwards Pharmacy, was the second runnerup in last year's contest. Her first honor will be to reign as queen of the Town & Country Jubilee this week. She received a $600 cash award, while the runners-up were presented cash awards of $300 and $200 respectively, and all three received silver platters.

Miss Rhodes was also selected as Miss Congeniality by a vote of the 16 candidates. Kim Sims was judged the talent contest winner with her piano performance from the first movement of Beethoven's Sonata pathati-que. Both were presented silver platters.

Dana Ulibarri, Miss Hereford of 1981, crowned the new queen and was accorded a warm, standing ovation after her farewell appearance and talk to the audience. She and DeeAnn Caison Trotter, Miss Hereford of 1977, performed a musical number early in the show.
Other Miss Herefords introduced at the pageant included Susie Hickman Hubbard (1974) of Amarillo and Sandy Caison Walden (1973) of Hereford.

John Dawson, program director and news anchorman for KGNC Radio of Amarillo, served as master of ceremonies for the second straight year. Theme of the pageant was "The Rainbow Connection", and the stage was appropriately decorated in a motif to emphasize that theme.

Street Denied, Park Approved For Fiestas Patrias Dance

The stiff $1,500 deposit now required for use of the Bull Barn prompted the San Jose Men's Organization to spurn the county property and ask the city for permission to use a downtown street for its annual Las Fiestas Patrias dance.

At the advice of city attorney Earnest Langley the commissioners refused blocking a street for the dance, but gave consent and blessings to hold the affair in Veteran's Park on Sept. 11.

Langley told commissioners and Father James O'Conner, who spoke for the dozen of his parishioners attending the meeting, that the Supreme Court had ruled that when a city closes a city street for a private function, the city is still liable for accidents, and cannot waive its responsibility.

Commissioners said the last time a dance was held in the street that city residents near downtown complained of the noise. The city has an ordinance prohibiting noise disturbance after 10 p.m.

Father O'Conner said the high deposit required by the county was a major reason he was approaching the city for a facility, noting that the $1,500 was "virtually impossible" for his group to raise. He added that he and his group had gone through so much with the county on the issue that he didn't "think I can trust them anymore."

The pastor also said the dance is traditionally held outdoors in Mexico and he preferred to do so here.

The city agreed to arrange for electricity at the main pavilion in the park, spray for mosquitos the day before, set up six portable restrooms and provide trash barrels. The dance hosts will be responsible for roping off the area and setting up caution roadblocks.

In other business the commission allowed a motion concerning a resolution promoting a state fuel tax to be used for road improvement to die of lack of a second.

Troy Waddell of Southwestern Public Service presented the first reading for the franchise renewal of Commissioners received a municipal credit report from Moody's Investors Service which outlined Hereford's financial and social status.

The next meeting is set for Sept. 20.
Mayor Bartley Dowell was absent and Wes Fisher served as Mayor Pro Tem.

Defiance, Support Given To Reagan's Demand

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan's demand for an end to bullheaded bickering over the $98.3 billion tax increase he supports is being greeted with defiance from conservatives in his own party and aloof support from Democrats.

In his nationally broadcast address Monday night, the president appealed to the public to tell their representatives "you understand that this legislation is a price worth paying for lower interest rates, economic recovery and more jobs."

"We are within sight of the safe port of economic recovery," Reagan said. "Do we make port or go around on the shoals of selfishness, partisanship and just plain bullheadedness?"

Noting that some legislators "of my own party object to this bill — and strongly," Reagan called for "an end to the bickering here in the capital" and passage of the compromise tax package which is expected to be up for a vote first in the full House on Thursday. Senate action will follow.

Reagan, keeping up the pressure for enactment of the legislation, was calling another group of GOP legislators to the White House today for more personal lobbying.

However, it was clear the conservative Republicans who helped Reagan push record tax and spending cuts through Congress last year were remaining firm in their opposition this year.

"He's going against the grain in the sense that the people don't want the tax increase," said Rep. Ed Bethune, an Arkansas Republican who remains opposed to the tax bill.

By White House estimates, more than half the House's 192 Republicans are now lined up against the tax boost.

Rep. Jack Kemp, R-N.Y., a leader of the conservative opposition, took note of some of the specific tax increase proposals in an interview before the president's speech:

"If you don't use your telephone and if you don't travel by air and if you don't smoke cigarettes and if you don't have any uninsured casualty losses and if you don't have any medical costs in the next couple of years and if you're not out of work trying to get a small business to hire you, I guess then it (the tax bill) won't hurt."

A nationally broadcast Democratic "response" following Reagan's address offered more support.

"I have come to the conclusion that despite our differences in the past this is one occasion when the president's position is right," said House Democratic Whip Thomas S. Foley of Washington. "He (Reagan) said that we need this revenue measure — and we do."

Day Care Center Finalizes Church Grounds Purchase

Representatives of Hereford Day Care, Inc. and the First Nazarene Church signed closing papers Monday morning, finalizing the sale of the church's old building to the day care center.

The property in question, a 6,300 square-foot building on a 298X155 foot tract of land at 16th and Blackfoot, will house the new Ruth Warner Memorial for the day care center. The purchase price was $120,781.79.

On hand representing the church at the ceremony at the law offices of Thomas & Burdett, was Mark Andrews. Day Care board president George Warner, Administrator Bettie Dickson, and board member Bill Harris were also on hand, as were attorneys Tom Burdett and Jerry Morgan.

According to Warner, the child care organization will move to its new location around Oct. 1. The day care center at Wesley United Methodist Church will be vacated, while the original center on Norton St. will remain open.

The purchase of the former church building will allow the day care organization to increase its capacity to 192 children with a license for 107 at the new center and for 85 at Norton. The Wesley branch was also licensed for 85 children.

Mrs. Dickson said that day care is "enrolling strong for fall," and that an infant room would be added at the new center such as the one at the Norton site. The Wesley branch did not have infant care capabilities. Plans also call for a section for children from 12-18 months old at the new site as well.
Warner expressed his appreciation to Wesley United Methodist Church on the occasion. "We are pleased at the opportunity to acquire the old Nazarene church," he said. "But, it would not be appropriate to discuss this without saying how very much Hereford Day Care appreciates the generosity and the kindnesses shown to us by the Methodist Church during our four year stay there. Not only has it helped day care as an organization, but it would have been impossible for us to have taken care of as many children as we did without the consideration by them."

"The Methodist church has let us use their facility as a community service," Mrs. Dickson added. "Not only has it served us, but the community as well."

Renovation work has already begun at the old church, with the kitchen area having been enlarged and commercial equipment installed. Other walls in the building will be removed to make larger rooms and the grounds will be divided into playgrounds.

The building was built in 1965 by the Nazarene congregation. An education building was added in 1976, and the church body moved into its new facility on Hickory St. last December.

Hereford Day Care, Inc. opened in 1970 at the Norton St. location. The Wesley Branch was added four years ago. Mrs. Dickson has served as director and administrator of the centers since 1972. She has been with the day care center since it opened, beginning as a cook in 1970.

The lady for whom the new center will be named was the wife of board president Warner. Mrs. Warner, who also served on the board for several years, died in 1975.

Cool Temperatures Greet City

Cooler temperatures and wet grass greeted Hereford residents today after a second night of showers in the area. The city recorded .78 of an inch Sunday night, and 11 of an inch more Monday night.

The Dawn area in the eastern edge of the county received torrential rains

Monday night, however, causing some flooding near that community, and a near halt of traffic on Hwy 60.

Reports of up to four inches of rain were received from the Dawn area, while .60 of an inch fell Monday night about five miles east of Hereford.

The forecast calls for a 30 percent chance of additional showers tonight and a 20 percent chance Wednesday.

Widely scattered showers are forecast along with thunderstorms mainly in the northern sections of the Panhandle.

Partly cloudy skies are forecast for Thursday-Saturday, with minor temperature changes day-to-day.

Intersection Crash Leaves Two Injured

Two persons were injured, one seriously, when the driver of a truck attempted to pass a vehicle at an intersection early Monday morning.

According to DPS trooper Skip Kendrick of Vega, a truck driven by Jesse Ray McClanahan of Littlefield struck two other vehicles at the intersection of FM 2943 and FM 1259 around 9:15 a.m. McClanahan was treated and released at Deaf Smith General Hospital following the accident, while Clarence Hall, 53, of Hereford, was transferred to St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo with a broken shoulder.

Trooper Kendrick said that the accident occurred after a northbound vehicle driven by John Paetzold of Hereford was stopped at the intersection to make a left turn onto FM 1259 (Austin Road).

McClanahan, also headed north on FM 2943, apparently could not stop his truck, and he attempted to pass the Paetzold vehicle. The truck, loaded with feed cubes, clipped the left rear side of the Paetzold vehicle, and then struck Hall's vehicle, which was headed south on FM 2943.

Neither Paetzold, or a passenger in the car, Theresa Kubacak, were injured in the accident.

McClanahan was issued a citation for passing in a no passing zone following the accident.

Clarence Hall of Hereford suffered a broken shoulder after this car he was driving was struck by a truck southeast of town Monday morning. The truck driver was also slightly injured, while the occupants of a third car involved in the accident escaped unharmed. (Brand Photo by Bob Nigh).

Rock-A-Thon Slated

A rocking chair marathon is scheduled tonight in the Chamber of Commerce parking lot. The "Rock-A-Thon" is being sponsored by the Deaf Smith-Castor Counties Legal Secretaries Association and will last from 7 p.m. to midnight, with one 15-minute break.

Money raised through the Rock-A-Thon will go to the scholarship fund, and the civic project fund, which is the Deaf Smith County

Children's Home this year. Each year the Legal Secretaries Association awards a scholarship to one Hereford High student and one Dimmitt High student who is planning to become a legal secretary.

Prizes will be awarded to the participant raising the most money, the one signing up the most sponsors, and the best decorated "rocker," which includes both the rocking chair and the participant.

Man And Woman

Charged With Rape of 10-Year-Old Mother

ANGLETON, Texas (AP) - A man and his wife have been charged with rape of the man's 10-year-old daughter, who earlier this summer gave birth to a baby girl.

Amado Morin, 41, and his wife, Maria Lucille Morin, 29, were charged with rape of a child and injury to a child. The man and woman are in Brazoria County Jail in lieu of $50,000 bond on each charge.

Officers investigated the case after the 10-year-old girl gave birth in July to a 4-pound, 8-ounce girl at Hermann Hospital in Houston.

The young mother, investigators found, was one of 12 children living with the Morins. The children were all from previous marriages. An official said the 10-year-old was the daughter of Morin.

Neighborhood Chairman Charged With Theft in Burglaries

HOUSTON (AP) - When residents in the fashionable Stonehenge subdivision left town, they called Jerry Wayne Matthias so he could order a security company to guard the vacant homes from burglars.

Matthias, who is security chairman for the Stonehenge civic association, was charged Sunday with theft in connection with burglaries of seven homes in the neighborhood.

Police said about $40,000 in stolen property, including jewelry, television sets and cameras, were recovered from Matthias' home.

Investigators charge that Matthias, 46, never called a security company to guard the vacant homes and, instead, contacted burglars, some of whom parked in Matthias' driveway and borrowed his tools.

Detective Dallas Bingley said Matthias sold "hundreds of thousands of dollars" in stolen property from his home and from a booth at a nearby flea market.

Police also filed theft charges against Kathryn Ann Shurber, 38, a friend of Matthias.

Firefighter Dies After Extensive Burns

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) - A firefighter critically injured when he was engulfed in a huge fireball in an Amarillo apartment building has died of complications related to his burns, a spokesman at Brooke Army Medical Center said.

Kenneth Caldwell, 29, died at 4 p.m. Monday as a result of his extensive second- and third-degree burns, said the spokesman, Capt. Paul Robertus.

Caldwell, who had been a firefighter less than two years, was flown to Brooke's burn center in San Antonio shortly after initial treatment at an Amarillo hospital after the July 18 blaze.

"I felt like we lost a real good, dedicated fireman," said Amarillo Fire Chief Curtis Richards. "He loved his job. He gave his life in exercising his duty in protecting other lives and property."

The fire apparently started in the basement of the 56-year-old, 24-unit Badger Apartments building, District Fire Chief Buddy Wilkerson said. Twenty-one residents were evacuated without injury, he said.

Caldwell went to the second floor to make sure everyone was out of the building, Wilkerson said. As he stood by the stairs, flames with explosive force swept over him, melting his protective clothing to his skin, he said.

"Everyone was real close at the fire station," said Lt. Jack Moore, a co-worker at Station 4, where Caldwell worked.

"Everyone liked Kenny. There's not going to be any way to replace him," Moore said. "We are all going to miss him."

West Texas - Widely scattered showers and thunderstorms through Wednesday mainly north and at night. Highs 87 Panhandle to 104 Big Bend. Lows 58 mountains to 66 Panhandle to 72 extreme south. Highs Wednesday 89 Panhandle to near 100 Big Bend.

Stacie Rhodes, second runnerup and Miss Congeniality; and Kim Sims, talent competition winner.

Taxes

who appeared with Foley, stopped short of an outright endorsement saying "we must live in the real world and the fact is that the administration's program is not working."

"We can't simply keep saying prosperity is just around the corner" because such statements are "like a fireman telling people in a burning building not to worry, it may rain next week," Boren said.

Reagan, trying to calm the fears of conservative Republicans, said the three-year $98.3 billion tax hike "absolutely does not represent any reversal of policy or philosophy on the part of this administration."

"Make no mistake about it," Reagan declared, "This is a compromise. I had to swallow hard to agree to any revenue increase."

But, he contended, "Much of this bill will make our tax system more fair for every American, especially those in lower-income brackets."

White House spokesman Larry Speakes said Monday the vote "is an important leadership question and all Republican members of Congress should realize that it is important to the president's program, important to the party and important to success in the fall elections."

Kemp disagreed. "The president is big enough to tolerate a debate over ideas," Kemp said. "And I would hope that those on his staff or beneath him would come to that conclusion ultimately, as well."

White House officials have said that gaining the 218 votes necessary to assure a House victory will require a coalition of perhaps 80 Republicans and the rest Democrats.

A House Democratic aide said that at least half the 192 Republicans would be "a necessity" for passage.

The vote is "going to have an impact on his future effectiveness as a president and as a leader of our party and I would hope the bill would pass with at least 100 Republican votes in the House," said Senate Finance Committee Chairman Bob Dole, R-Kan.

"The president sets our economic policy and I think particularly Republicans should try to find some way to support the president," Dole said.

Reagan mentioned the nation's recession only briefly, saying it was "bottoming out without resorting to quick fixes. Now, there won't be a sudden boom or upsurge."

Reagan said that about $32 billion of the extra revenue in the measure would be raised by collection of taxes owed but not being paid. "To all of you who are paying your tax, simple fairness says we should collect from those who are freeloading."

He said about $48 billion "represents closing off special interest loopholes, which have resulted in unintended tax advantages for some, not all, taxpayers - some who are financially well able to pay their share. This is also a matter of simple fairness."

"So more than 80 percent of the tax bill is not new tax at all, but is better collection and correcting of flaws in the system."

Reagan said about $19 billion amounts to actual new taxes "which is far outweighed by the tax cuts which will benefit individuals."

Rhodes. She attended Adrian school before coming to Hereford for her senior year. She played basketball and was a cheerleader at Adrian, and had been Lions Club sweetheart two years there.

Through her talent of ventriloquism, she presented her partner, "Lester", to the pageant audience.

The eight finalists were not known until Saturday night, and only those eight presented their talent performances to the audience. The other eight contestants in the pageant were Sheri Blevins, D'Nan Brannon, Teresa Phibbs, Wendy Reid, Elaine Reinart, Jenness Self, Tori Self, and Carol Zinser.

Fasten Your Lap Straps

In the land of the free and the home of the brave you are going to be strapped into your car whether you like it or not.

A federal court has so ordered.

Car makers must install restraints which automatically pin you in and they must do it by one year from right now. No more fooling around, the Federal Appeals Court says.

Not even the government may modify, revise or ignore this law so long as it is law. So automated seat belts will add another $50 or $100 to the price of a new car.

I have received and studied all of the arguments pro and con.

I know what the insurance companies say - that if everybody were strapped in it would save 10,000 lives a year and 2 1/2 billion dollars in medical costs.

That is reason enough for us to use seat belts.

Indeed, I have flown airplanes since the age of 14. I am rated to fly single and multi-engine land and sea aircraft. Never once have I taken off without wearing a proper shoulder harness.

I also brush my teeth regularly. But I don't want Uncle Sam standing over my shoulder telling me I have to! You think that is an absurd and unrealistic comparison? Hold the phone.

So there is no limit on how far Big Uncle Government will go - if we let him.

In the name of protecting us from ourselves it is conceivable that government may prohibit the use of blade razors which might cut you or electric razors which you might drop in the wash basin.

If government presumes to backstop all the dumb-dumbs, then certainly it will get around to prohibiting chain-saws.

If accident statistics are to be the criterion, motorcycles have to go!

I am not being facetious; a Congressional committee recently seriously entertained the ideal of legislation requiring you to sit at least 12 feet away from the TV set!

Let me say that Illinois has a law mandating safety seats in cars for small children - a giant step toward limitless government snooepervision.

Jackson Jimmy Ward reminds us that it's the lawmakers who need to be restrained. Already Congress, this session, has driven us to drink - then passes a higher tax on booze!

Clothing Projects Stress Quality

BY PENNY REINART
Assistant County Extension Agent

Whether clothing is home sewn or ready-made, quality and style are primary concerns of any consumer.

Boys and girls in the national 4-H clothing and fashion revue programs, conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, not only develop life-long sewing skills, but also learn the value of quality in terms of time, money and effort spent on a garment.

Pride in their own creations often leads home sewers to a dedication to quality that other people come to much later. 4-H'ers in the clothing program learn that good workmanship is in the hands of the creator of the garments.

The choice of pattern, fabric and notions are taken into consideration because the person constructing the garment has more control in achieving a quality look.

The program is sponsored by Coats & Clark Inc., with supplemental support from E.I. duPont de Nemours & Company, Inc.

In the fashion revue program supported by Simplicity Pattern Co. Inc., 4-H'ers learn that quality means choosing what is right for you - what you enjoy and what you are proud of.

They plan additions to their wardrobe in terms of fashion which span seasons and years. By adding a few items each year they can update a look, provide versatility to their existing wardrobe and adapt the wardrobe to new life styles.

To achieve a quality look, here are some pressing and finishing techniques used by 4-H'ers:

- Press seams flat to imbed stitches prior to pressing seam open or to one side.
- Always press on a well-padded board. Lift and lower iron on fabric, instead of gliding iron across surface of fabric.
- Use a soft press cloth on most fabrics except cotton.
- Press trouser creases before side and under leg seams are joined. -When changing hemline, remove creases by applying white vinegar diluted with water to creaseline and pressing. Repeat if necessary.

-To avoid puckering around a buttonhole, form a thread shank on sew-through buttons.

-Hand sew facing to bodice only at shoulder, armhole or center seams.

4-H members who excel in the clothing and fashion revue programs earn awards and incentives provided by the corporate supporters and arranged by National 4-H Council.

Coats & Clark and duPont provide four medals of honor on the county level and trips to National 4-H Congress in Chicago each fall. During Congress, six national winners receive $1,000 scholarships.

Simplicity provides top fashion revue participants in each county with medals and one 4-H'er in each state earns a trip to National 4-H Congress to model his or her ensemble in a gala fashion revue. Also, six outstanding 4-H'ers receive $21,000 educational scholarships during Congress.

The county Extension office has more information on these and other 4-H programs for interested youth between the ages of 9 and 19.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Former Hereford Boy Places First in Piano

Shelby Rogers, son of James and Faye Rogers, recently won first place in the Division 1 Piano Competition, World Baptist Youth Conference, at Arlington Baptist College. He performed "He the Pearly Gates Will Open." Shelby, a ninth grade student who practices three hours each day, attended Stanton Junior High School before moving to Arlington in December. He studied piano with Mrs. Joe Hacker and is now a student of Russell Tapp at Arlington Baptist College.

Seminar Scheduled

Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship will host a sex and marriage seminar Friday through Sunday at the Hereford High School cafeteria. The three session seminar will be led by Larry and Delta Meaux.

The Meaux were in a divorce court seven years ago when they turned to God for help and their marriage was healed. They now lead seminars and have made cassette tapes in order to share what they've found with others.

The seminar will deal with God's order of the home, how husband and a wife become one flesh, and what the Bible has to say about current issues.

The Friday evening session begins at 7:30 p.m. A buffet supper will be served for $3.75 on Saturday evening. The supper starts at 7 p.m. and the session at 7:45 p.m. The Sunday session will begin at 3 p.m.

Ann Landers
Nobody Else's Business

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I know you are acquainted with a lot of people, and the ones you don't know you can get to with very little effort. Please find out for sure whether or not Lena Horne has had a facelift. I have read three times that she has denied having had facial surgery, but I find it hard to believe. The woman just had her 65th birthday and looks the same as (maybe better than) she did 20 years ago. It doesn't seem possible that she hasn't had anything done. If you know her, will you ask her? -Want The Truth In Westport

DEAR WESTY: I wouldn't think of asking such a question. It is none of my business - and none of yours, either. If Lena Horne says she hasn't had a facelift, that's good enough for me. All I know is that she is a fabulous performer, incredibly hard-working and takes excellent care of herself.

DEAR PRETENDER: I called Dr. Irwin Rosen, a psychiatrist who is head of the out-patient clinic at the Menniger Foundation, for help with your questions. Dr. Rosen said that if you describe yourself - considerate, non-interfering, courteous and excellent company - and your children ignore you, there must be aspects of the relationship that need exploration. The word "Christian" in your letter suggests that your best source of help might be your minister. He or she probably knows you and your children quite well. A great many clergymen are trained these days in counseling. Go to him and discuss your problem and ask for his guidance. Perhaps he can help you discover where things went off the track. A definite breakdown in communications has occurred somewhere. Please keep me posted. I would like to hear from you again, telling me that that walls are crumbling and bridges are being built.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband and I were loving parents, overjoyed at each expectancy. We worked hard to give our children companionship, friendship with other children, recreation, education, a healthy, happy home environment, moral and spiritual guidance. I never would have believed that when they grew up and had families of their own I would be shut out of their lives. I live within 30 miles of them and we get together two or three times a year. I am well-educated, a Christian lady of humor and integrity fairly young in appearance, courteous and considerate of others. Again and again I have searched my heart and mind for the answer. I would be proud to have a mother like

Earnings Decline
DALLAS (AP) - Dresser Industries Inc. says its earnings for the third quarter of 1982 fell more than 80 percent from a year earlier, and the company says it also expects a decline in its earnings for the fourth quarter. Dresser, which supplies technology, products, and services to the energy industry, reported Monday that sales revenues in the quarter ending July 31 totaled $933 million, down 20 percent from the $1.17 billion reported in third quarter of 1981. Net earnings for the quarter dropped to $15.9 million, down from the $83.8 million earned a year earlier.

Earnings Decline
Earnings per share fell from $1.07 to 20 cents. For the nine months ending July 31, net earnings were $155.8 million, 30 percent below the $221.8 million reported a year earlier. Earnings per share fell from $2.83 per share to $1.98, the company reported. Dresser Board Chairman J.V. James said the poor sales and earnings figures reflect the "current worldwide recession" and the "sharp downturn in domestic drilling activity" that resulted in many deferred deliveries and order cancellations, said J.V. James.

Baseball Moguls May Dump Kuhn

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Club owners determined to foil the "Dump Bowie" movement feel they have gained the upper hand in a struggle over the baseball commissioner's job.

Ballard Smith, president of the San Diego Padres and a staunch supporter of Commissioner Bowie Kuhn, says he feels confident Kuhn will be re-elected Wednesday at the meeting of baseball's 26 owners.

"Anyone who sits down and looks at this logically must make that conclusion," Smith said Monday. "I just have not heard a convincing argument against him."

Smith, along with Los Angeles Dodgers President Peter O'Malley, has taken the lead in a move to save Kuhn's job.

Kuhn, who has weathered challenges to his 14-year reign, is facing a serious threat as three National League clubs call for his ouster.

Owners Nelson Doubleday of the New York Mets and John McMullen of the Houston Astros, and attorney Louis Sussman, acting for St. Louis owner August Busch, two weeks ago called for today's special meeting to try to find the fourth vote necessary to block Kuhn's re-election.

Rookie Oiler Kicker Has Come Long Way

SAN ANGELO, Texas (AP)

— For a guy who wore his shoulder pads backward, never owned a football, and never even stepped on a football field until a year ago, Florian Kempf has come a long way.

The Oilers' oldest rookie, amiably battling Toni Fritsch for the right to be the team's kicker, came a little further Thursday when he scored eight points in Houston's 22-20 victory over the New Orleans Saints.

"Even if I never play again, I can at least say I scored and played in three pro football games," Kempf, 26, said after Sunday's practice. "A lot of guys who kicked all through high school and college never got this kind of break, never got a chance."

On another level, he also went all the way home to Philadelphia.

"It was like kicking in my living room," Kempf said of the AstroDome. "It's the perfect place for kicking — artificial turf, no elements to bother you."

"But then, there aren't any excuses, either."

Kempf, a former pro soccer player and international affairs and German major at the University of Pennsylvania, didn't need any excuses. He hit two extra points and two field goals, including one three-pointer with seconds left in the first half.

"I knew it was an important kick since we were down 13-0 at one point (and 13-7 at the time)," Kempf said. "They (the Saints) even pulled a time out, but I just smiled at that."

"I had seen a lot of people do that before on television, and I had thought to myself that I'd always be prepared if somebody did that to me. I think it helped more than it hurt; I walked around and talked to my teammates in the huddle and lined the kick up right."

Television had been the source of all Kempf's football experience before the summer of 1981. He played soccer — on three city champions — at Philadelphia's Cardinal Dougherty High School, then played for a nationally ranked team at Penn.

After graduating in December 1978, Kempf joined the Philadelphia Fury of the North American Soccer League and wound up playing three years in the NASL. It was, well, an unsettling experience.

"I played for the Philadelphia Fury, which is now the Montreal Manic," he said. "That's the way it is with most American soccer teams; you're never sure where the team will be next."

"I decided my lifespan in soccer wasn't going to last much past 30, and the glamour of playing professional soccer had subsided. I didn't like training for six months out of the year to play in empty stadiums, either."

So he went to a Philadelphia Eagles tryout and put on football equipment for the first time.

"I put on the shoulder pads, and they were sort of pushing my chin up in the front," Kempf said as he shoved his chin into an unnatural position. "I kind of like to watch the ball when I kick it, so I wondered how I was going to do it."

"This photographer looks at me and says 'You've got your shoulder pads on backward. Haven't you ever worn them before?' I told him no."

"He walked off. I heard him saying, 'What in the hell are they doing here? They sure must be desperate.'"

The Eagles might have been, but Kempf wasn't. Though he didn't make the team, he did establish contacts and line up tryouts with the Baltimore Colts and New England Patriots. The Patriots kept him last year until the next-to-last cut — just long enough to get into two games.

"The first football game I ever played in my life was a year ago, August 10, in Anaheim against the Los Angeles Rams," he said. "That was the first time I'd ever walked out onto a field."

Although he couldn't beat out New England's John Smith, he did stay in contact with the Patriots until the Oilers picked him up on waivers and gave him his first taste of Texas.

"When I first heard about going to the Oilers, I figured San Angelo was a suburb of Houston or something. But it was 400 miles away and a 10-hour bus drive," Kempf said.

"As we got further and further out here, I began thinking 'What kind of place is this?' But it's really nice out here; the campus is beautiful and the people are really nice."

And they even have footballs, which is more than Kempf had when he began thinking seriously about pro football.

"I didn't even own a football; I had this rubber football. I used because we had a dog. I used to aim at trees to work out," he said.

Yankees Sweep Kansas City; Toronto Edges Cleveland

By TOM CANAVAN
Associated Press Writer

Kansas City started its doubleheader with Blue and Black although the Royals ended it black and blue, thanks to the New York Yankees.

Lee Mazzilli, Lou Piniella and Dave Winfield hit home runs and four Yankee pitchers held the potent Kansas City offense to 10 hits as New York swept Monday night's two-night doubleheader 2-0 and 4-3.

"We're just not scoring runs," said Royals Manager Dick Howser, who got four-hit pitching from Vida Blue in the opener, while Bud Black and Mike Armstrong gave New York nine hits in the nightcap.

"Our pitching was good enough, our defense was good enough, we just didn't hit enough," said Howser, whose team had a major league-leading .287 batting average prior to the twinbill. "We haven't hit well on this road trip except for one game against Detroit. It's tough to hit .290 all year."

The Yankees didn't rip the cover off the ball, but got superb starting performances from Dave Righetti and Rudy May, while Rich Gossage saved both games, his 24th and 25th of the season.

Both Righetti and May lasted 72-3 innings. Righetti gave up all four Royal hits in the opener, while May surrendered five hits and two runs in the second game, one coming on Don Slaught's home run.

In other American League games Monday night, Toronto nipped Cleveland 2-1, Chicago beat Texas 6-1, Detroit edged Seattle 3-1, California whipped Oakland 8-4, and Boston ripped Baltimore 9-4.

Mazzilli provided the winning margin in the opener following Willie Randolph's double in the sixth with his sixth home run of the season. In the nightcap, Piniella and Winfield staked New York to a 2-0 lead with solo homers, while Winfield's run-scoring triple and Graig Nettles' RBI single increased the margin to 4-0 in the seventh.

The two losses knocked Kansas City out of first place in the AL West, leaving the Royals one game behind the California Angels.

Angels 8, A's 4
Fred Lynn and Rob Wilfong hit homers and Tim Lincecum knocked in three runs as California moved back into first place in the AL West.

Lynn's 16th homer, a two-run shot in the sixth inning, put the Angels ahead 3-2.

Reid Nichols' fielder's choice grounder broke a seventh-inning tie and Carney Lansford capped a four-run eighth inning with a three-run homer as Boston downed Baltimore for the third time in four games.

The Red Sox picked up a half game on idle Milwaukee, moving to within four games of the first-place Brewers in the AL East.

Tom Burgmeier, 6-0, blanked the Orioles over the last 31-3 innings.

Baltimore wiped out a 3-0 Boston lead with four runs in the sixth on Gary Roenicke's three-run homer and John Lowenstein's solo shot.

Wilfong added a solo blast an inning later.

Geoff Zahn, 13-5, allowed eight hits over 71-3 innings to get the victory, while Dave Goltz earned his second save.

Joe Rudi hit his fourth homer of the season for the A's, who also got RBI singles from Tony Armas and Jeff Burroughs.

Oakland's Rickey Henderson was thrown out twice by Bob Boone in attempts to steal his 110th base.

The game had an incident in the sixth when Reggie Jackson asked home plate umpire Jerry Neudecker to check the ball thrown by A's pitcher Steve McCatty.

Oakland Manager Billy Martin retaliated by asking Neudecker to check Jackson's bat for possible corking in the barrel.

Seattle scored in the seventh on Rick Sweet's RBI single. Detroit added a run in bottom of the inning on Glenn Wilson's double.

Blue Jays 2, Indians 1
Jim Gott and Joey McLaughlin combined on a five-hitter and pinch-runner Al Woods scored the winning run while teammate Damaso Garcia was caught in a rundown as Toronto knocked Cleveland into the cellar in the AL East.

The Blue Jays have never been out of last place this late in a season during their six-year history.

With one out in the seventh and Woods on third following a single by Garcia, Cleveland starter Rick Waits, 1-12, picked off Garcia off first. After a slight hesitation, Woods broke from third and easily scored the winning run as shortstop Larry Milbourne tagged out Garcia.

Cleveland scored in the seventh on Alan Bannister's RBI grounder. Toronto took a 1-0 lead in the sixth on Leon Roberts' sacrifice fly.

Chet Lemon cracked a solo homer and scored another run and Jack Morris scattered eight hits as Detroit defeated Seattle.

Morris, 14-11, struck out three and walked one in notching his 12th complete game of the season.

Alan Trammell's RBI doubled gave the Tigers a 1-0 lead in the second and Lemon hit his 10th homer two innings later against Seattle's Floyd Bannister, 11-8.

Cougar Quarterback Wilson To Draw More Attention

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — University of Houston football Coach Bill Yeoman says quarterback Lionel Wilson can expect more attention from opposing defenses this season.

Wilson was a virtual unknown early last season when he trotted onto the field against Miami while starting quarterback Audrey McMillian was helped off with a season-ending shoulder separation.

For the rest of the season, the UH offense hinged on Wilson's health.

Wilson responded with three school records and led the Cougars to a 7-4-1 record and a bowl date and has gained mention on most teams' most-wanted list.

"He came in when no one expected anything and everything was a plus," Yeoman said. "But now some kids have probably been thinking about him over the summer. He probably will get braded a little bit more than a year ago and the pressure will be a little more substantial."

And if Wilson should suffer another injury, it won't be the crisis of a year ago, because McMillian has recovered and is primed to challenge for playing time once again.

"We've got more than one who can play," Yeoman said. "Lionel is very gifted and so is Audrey. Gerry Dickens had an excellent spring, so we should be a little more stable than we have been at quarterback."

Added to quarterback stability will be a fresh group of faster running backs. Dallas Wiggins and Ernie Wesley will return a speed threat to the UH backfield.

"We've got a little more speed than we've been used to and the young people coming in will help too," Yeoman said. "We are in hopes that that Wesley and Wiggins will give us more of the long running threat that we haven't had in two or three years."

The Cougars also will return speed at the receiver positions. Burner Lonell Phea is gone but David Roberson is his replacement and freshman Jeffrey Fields also provides an added deep threat.

"He (Roberson) has the same kind of speed as Lonell and maybe a little better change in direction," Yeoman said.

Offensive line coach Bill Willingham returns his offensive line intact from last season. Yeoman is expecting a superb final season for tackle Maceo Fifer.

"Maceo has had two good years and we feel it is time for him to have a great year," Yeoman said.

The Cougars must replace starters at both defensive end positions and fill a huge graduation loss for Terry Monroe at defensive tackle.

Greg Harmon and Victor Mitchell will plug the defensive end gaps and Simon Fletcher has moved from defensive end to play in Monroe's tackle spot. Greg McGallion at nose guard and DeWayne Calloway at the other tackle, lend experience to the defensive line.

The Cougars will be solid one deep in the secondary with Reggie Vonner and Butch LaCroix returning as the cornerbacks and Calvin Easo, possibly the best athlete on the team, returning at free safety. James Brown will replace graduated Donnie Love at strong safety.

Panama
The Panama Canal is a lock and lake waterway, crossing the Isthmus of Panama from the Caribbean Sea in a southeasterly direction to the Bay of Panama in the Pacific Ocean. It is 50 miles long from deep water to deep water, at least 500 feet wide at the bottom of excavated channels and 110 feet wide in lock chambers. The depth is not less than 40 feet.

UT Loses Suit On TV Contracts

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — A state judge has upheld the NCAA's right to negotiate contracts for television coverage of college football games, but an assistant state attorney general calls the ruling "the first round."

District Judge Herman Jones said Monday he ruled against the University of Texas' suit against the NCAA.

Jones granted the NCAA's request for an order dismissing UT's lawsuit. Lawyers said Jones decided that, as a matter of law, UT is obligated to comply with NCAA rules on telecasts.

The university filed the suit Sept. 8 claiming that it owned the property rights and should be able to negotiate television contracts for UT football games on its own.

Assistant Texas Attorney General Jerry Cain, who helped present the school's case, said a decision on whether to appeal the ruling would not be made until the written ruling was studied.

But Cain added that Monday's ruling was "the first round" of the case.

UT Athletic Director DeLoss Dodds declined comment on the judge's ruling and said he did not know if UT would appeal the decision.

The suit was an outgrowth of the attempt by the 61-members of the College Football Association to gain a separate contract after the NCAA signed a four-year, $263.5 million contract for college football broadcast rights with ABC and CBS.

The University of Georgia and Oklahoma University filed a federal lawsuit against the NCAA similar to the Texas suit. U.S. District Judge Juan Burciaga in Oklahoma City heard the case in June, but has yet to make a ruling.

Jim George, an Austin attorney representing the NCAA, said, "The only thing I was surprised by was that the court decided so quickly. I thought we were right and they didn't have a valid argument."

Chisox Pound Rangers, 6-1

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — The surging Chicago White Sox found Arlington Stadium a friendly place to start a 10-game road swing Monday night.

They pounded out 11 hits, including Harold Baines' two-run homer, to bounce the sagging Texas Rangers, 6-1.

The victory, coupled with Kansas City's doubleheader loss to New York, moved the White Sox to within a game and a half of the Royals, who led the American League Western Division before the night's play began.

Chicago Manager Tony LaRussa said "I feel a lot better about beating Texas than I do about Kansas City losing. I'll think about Kansas City on Thursday (when Chicago meets the Royals)."

He added, "When we get to Sept. 1, that's when I want to look at the standings. Starting then, we play in our own division. If we don't make it, it will be nobody's fault but our own."

It was Chicago's 15th victory in the last 18 games. Richard Dotson coasted to his seventh victory in 18 decisions, allowing 10 hits in eight and one-third innings. Dennis Lamp mopped up in relief.

Rick Honeycutt, now 5-14, was the victim of Baines' two-run homer in the fourth inning and sacrifice fly in the sixth, all the offense the White Sox needed.

Texas' only run came in the fourth on a single, a fielder's choice, a passed ball and Bill Stein's single.

LaRussa said he no longer had to platoon Baines. "The first two years I mixed him in there occasionally," LaRussa said. "When he came into spring training I told him it was my intention to play him every day. ... He's not going to become the player he can be unless he plays every day. He's helped us in every department."

The left-handed Baines said, "I'm playing against lefties and righties. LaRussa said he would give me a chance to hit lefties. We had a lot of good right-handed hitters and that's why I was platooned."

Three weeks ago, he added, "I was in a slump. I was swinging at too many balls with men on base. I'm just trying to be more disciplined. Fortunately, I'm getting the hits in key situations."

As far as the team is concerned, Baines said "We've been getting the key hits and the pitchers have been going eight or nine (innings) for us."

In the second game of the series tonight, Texas' Dave Schmidt (3-4) goes against Chicago's Jerry Koonsman (5-5).

Cowboys Release Pair of Rookies

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys released two free agent rookies Monday to reduce the National Football League club's roster to 83 players, including 34 rookies, the team announced.

Linebacker Al Strandberg of Moorhead State University in Minnesota and punter Jeff Pierce of Georgia Tech were placed on waivers, the team said.

The Cowboys and all NFL teams must cut their rosters to 70 players by next Tuesday.

Rookies and veterans resumed two-a-day practices at training camp Monday in preparation for the Cowboys' nationally televised preseason game Saturday against the Chargers in San Diego.

Backup middle linebacker Danny Spradlin missed both practices Monday because of dehydration suffered in Saturday night's preseason game in Dallas against the Buffalo Bills. The Bills won the game, 14-10.

did you know?

The steam-driven turbine rotor at Tolk Station, our new coal-fired plant near Muleshoe, Texas, whirls at such great speed that if it were placed on the highway, it would travel the 125 miles from Lubbock to Amarillo in about 6 minutes. Other interesting facts about the power plant, which began generating electricity in July: At the speed the main steam — which drives the turbine — travels through the pipes, it could finish the Boston Marathon (26 miles) in about 12 minutes. At maximum output the turbine produces about 728,000 horsepower. It can provide power for 5,430,000 hundred-watt light bulbs.

Jim Mattheus, Generation Design & Construction Group Manager, Amarillo.

The primary fuel for Tolk Station is a low-sulphur, high-heat-value coal from the Black Thunder Mine near Gillette, Wyoming. Southwestern Public Service made the decision to buy this coal because the low-sulphur rating means we can comply with certain requirements of the Clean Air Act without installing extremely complex and extremely expensive pollution-control devices.

Leo Austin, Supervising Engineer, Roswell.

We'll turn things upside down to benefit our customers. Here's an example: We use a "rotary dumper" system to unload the railroad cars which carry coal to Tolk. The cars are unloaded one by one. Each is attached to a large wheel that literally turns the car upside down, pouring out the coal. The system allows us to use lighter weight coal cars. So our freight cost is lower, and so is the fuel cost adjustment our customers pay.

Jack Logan, Operations Superintendent, Muleshoe.

Chili Cook-Off Adds To Jubilee Entertainment

Fun and festivities will go hand in hand with the first Jubilee Chili Cook-off slated Saturday at the baseball field in Veterans Park. Showmanship teams will provide entertainment beginning at 2 p.m.

General admission to the cook-off and showmanship performance is $1 for adults, with children under 12 admitted free. Proceeds will go to the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center.

The cook-off is being conducted under Chili Appreciation Society International (CASI) rules, with points awarded toward the World Championship Chili Cook-off, Arriba Terlingua-82.

Local cooks are not required to be members of CASI in order to participate

In this cook-off, however, entry fee for participants is $15.

Cooks may start making their chili on site Saturday morning. Chili must be made from scratch and must be cooked outside. No fillers may be added. Head cooks must be 19 years of age or older. A cook's meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m., just before the showmanship begins.

Local judges, as well as five members of CASI, will judge the chili on red color, consistency, aroma, taste, and aftertaste. Showmanship will be judged on theme, costume, booth setup, action, and audience appeal.

Ten chili trophies and three showmanship trophies will be awarded.

For more information, call 364-5252.

One of the workers behind the scenes in the Miss Hereford Pageant Saturday night was Carolyn Hays, who the photographer caught in the act of picking up props. Keith Ann Gearn was pageant director, and Shirley Wilson was chairman of the steering committee.

Swim-A-Cross Scheduled Friday

The water safety committee of the Deaf Smith County Chapter of the American Red Cross is sponsoring a SWIM-A-CROSS Friday, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, at the City Pool.

Swimmers wanting to participate are asked to find sponsors to sponsor them for a specific number of laps, not to exceed 100 laps. Those unable to swim Friday morning may swim Thursday evening at the Elks Lodge Pool.

The Hereford Texas Credit Union is donating a $25 savings account to the person swimming the most laps and

THOUGHTS

The Bible's shortest chapter has only two verses. It is almost at the exact middle of the Bible.

"Jonah" is one who brings ill luck or misfortune. "...Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us... and the lot fell upon Jonah." — Jonah 1:7

"O, Praise the Lord, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people. For his merciful kindness is great towards us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord." — Psalm 117

Congratulatory Time
Among the well-wishers greeting Hereford High, is the daughter of Bud and Marcia Snyder. Her Saturday night was her mom, Marcia Snyder, left. Lisa, an 18-year-old May graduate of Hereford High, is the daughter of Bud and Marcia Snyder. Her parents are moving to McAllen and her father was unable to be here for the pageant.

Military Muster
Pvt. Steven L. Brashear, son of George E. and Annie Brashear of 143 Juniper, Hereford, has completed one station unit training (OSUT) at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga. OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training. The training includes weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapons infantryman and as an indirect-fire crewman. Soldiers were taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad. Brashear will now serve at Fort Bragg, N.C. Airman Douglas R. DeVol, son of Donald R. DeVol of Route 1, Hereford, and Mrs. Michael M. DeVol of 2336 Avenida de las Brisas, Santa Rosa, Calif., has graduated from the U.S. Air Force electronic warfare systems specialists course at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss. During the 25-week course the students studied development and application of electronic principles, followed by circuit analysis and logic analysis, circuit systems testing and shop practices. Graduates of the course earned credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force. DeVol will now serve at Beale Air Force Base, Calif.

At Wits End
BY ERMA BOMBECK
Am I supposed to get choked up over the fact that in a few more years there will be no reason for me to leave home?
It's coming. Computer terminals are being touted that will allow me to stay home and shop for clothes and groceries, send letters and watch church services.
I'll be able to prop my kids up in front of it and have them educated, have my ills diagnosed by a doctor who makes terminal calls, and make deposits and withdrawals at the bank.
I can plan my menus by it and bring any form of entertainment I want into my living room without ever leaving my chair.
I'll be crazy in a week.
Where is it written that women want to spend more time at home? No one has been listening. It has taken us 200 years to get out of the house and now they want to put us back there.
Oh, sure, talking chips are to be installed in our oven, range, refrigerator, dryer and dishwasher so we can establish some kind of rapport, but I did not come this far to sit around talking to my appliances. I already did that.
They're calling it the wave of women's future. Actually, it's our past. I knew women personally who, during a Chicago blizzard, used to get in their cars after dinner and have their cars towed just to get away from the kids.
Once, during a Super Bowl, I saw five women stage a Sara Lee orgy in a supermarket and have to be sedated with dart guns to restore order.
Technology doesn't know what it is bringing to pass. A computerized house will just make women squirrely and will turn me into a domestic derelict. I know me. In a couple of weeks, I'll forget to comb my hair. In a couple of months, I'll drag around all day in my nightgown. In a couple of years, I'll wear forget-me-nots in my hair and go around barefoot. It will only be a matter of time before I start nipping at the vanilla and developing serious feelings toward my word processor.
Experts hammer in on how much gas and energy we'll save by having everything at home. C'mon, I watch animal documentaries. Rats have no reason to lie. In experiments conducted with them, when they were jammed in an area with wall-to-wall rats every minute of the day they became irritable, violent toward one another and could not reproduce.
One out of three reasons for computerized living is just not enough.

GARAGE SALE

Here's a handy sign for your garage sale

And here are some helpful hints for holding a successful sale:

1. When you're rounding up those usable but no-longer-used items for your sale, be sure to check all the storage areas in your home—the basement, garage, attic, closets, seldom used cup-boards.
2. Sellable items include outgrown bicycles, lawn and patio furniture, small appliances, dishes, kitchen utensils, toys, golf clubs, and other sports equipment, lawn mowers, decorator items, books, records, musical instruments — your "extra" may be "extra-special" to someone else.
3. Visit a few garage sales before you hold your own. You'll get great ideas, and maybe pick up a treasure or two.
4. Once you've picked the date for your sale, call the Hereford Brand Classified Department and place your Garage Sale ad. Your ad will reach thousands of homes in Deaf Smith County. Minimum cash payment of $2.00 or 10 cents per word required.
5. When you're clearing out your garage, you'll probably discover that some of the items in there will have to stay there—even though you won't be selling them. Try to cover these "not-for-sale" or push them out of the way.
6. Use tables to display as many of the sale items as possible. Items on the floor of the garage, especially small items, may be overlooked by prospective buyers.
7. Make sure there is enough walking space through the garage, and that sale items are easy to reach.

8. PUT A PRICE TAG ON EVERYTHING. Prospective buyers will appreciate it, and you'll find it makes things easier for you.

9. Before your sale begins, be sure you have change and some sort of cash box on hand. Set up a "Check-out" table just outside the garage.

10. Be ready for a rush at opening time—garage sale shoppers like to come early, and with your ad in the Hereford Brand, you'll have plenty of shoppers.

(You may cut out and use the sign on this page. Just paste it on heavy cardboard and post it by your house.)

CALL THE HEREFORD BRAND Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5 p.m. Deadline for Sunday's Brand is 3 p.m. Friday. Deadline for all other publications is 3 p.m. the day prior.
