Nazi Communications Unharmful, Allen Finds

(Editor's Note: The following is the first dispatch from Larry Allen, Pulitzer prize-winning Associated Press war correspondent, now free after 20 months in Italian and German prison camps. Allen won the Pulitzer prize in 1943 for his stories with the British Mediterranean fleet. He was captured when he accompanied a British commando raid on Tobruk in Libya on Sept. 13, 1942.)

By LARRY ALLEN
ABOARD THE GRIPSHOLM AT BARCELONA, May 18 (AP)—Nazi Germany, apparently expecting the Allies to smash through the Atlantic wall defenses, is concentrating on completion of a second great system of fortifications deep in France, and has told her soldiers that the line must be held "until the last man."

communications still is largely intact despite heavy Allied bombings. Her great railroad terminals in all sections of the country and through the eastern part of France constantly are crowded with thousands of troops moving between the western and eastern fronts.

I have just come out of Germany into the clear air of freedom after eight months as a prisoner of war in concentration camps, cellars, and dungeons of the greater reich — this after spending a year in Italian prisoner camps — and enroute I saw in detail how smoothly and efficiently the German communications system is working.

In all the heavily-bombed cities there is considerable destruction of factory areas and residential districts, but all the way from the Polish corridor to Marseille I didn't see a single railroad station destroyed or even seriously damaged.

I passed through Poznan, Gorlitz, Dresden, Munich, Stuttgart, Karlsruhe, and other points, and at some of them I was told that as many as 52 passenger trains roll through the stations every 24 hours.

(A large part of Allen's route was across southern and eastern Germany where Allied bombings have not been as severe as in other parts. The remainder of the route to France was across the upper Rhineland where quick repairs may have been made.)

(The main targets of Allied bombings in the eastern German cities which Allen mentions have been factories rather than railroads. Chief Allied blows against communications have been in northwestern Germany.)

The German communications system, if anything, appeared to be better organized now than when I saw it eight months ago. However, I didn't see the Berlin area.

One of the reich's greatest terminals for the movement of troops to the eastern front is the city of Poznan. It has been raided several times by American bombers and aircraft factories have been destroyed — but there was not a pane of glass out of the railroad station or a single line of track blown up.

Gustav Line Ceases To Exist, Cassino Is Taken

Yank Troops Seize Formia, Both Ends Of Line Toppled

By NOLAN NORGAARD
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, May 18 (AP)—The British Eighth army has captured the fortress ruins of Cassino and the battered benedictine monastery, and American troops 25 miles to the southwest have seized the coastal hinge city of Formia, the Allied command announced today.

"The Gustav Line now has ceased to exist," the announcement declared.

The double victory toppled strongpoints at both ends of the fiercely-fought Nazi line in Italy. British troops slammed into Cassino — which had withstood siege since January — while Poles seized Monastery Hill. A substantial portion of the elite German first parachute division — the Green Devils — was wiped out in the two strongholds, a special announcement declared.

Both Cassino and the dominating height of Monastery Hill were captured this morning. Other important objectives have been seized by American troops pushing westward on the Fifth army front, headquarters said, but these were not identified immediately.

The German defenders of Cassino were encircled by tactics which avoided heavy casualties that would have resulted from frontal assaults such as were beaten back two months ago.

American troops struck within two miles of Itri — Apennian way road junction commanding the only retreat route for the Nazis in the Formia and important Gaeta areas. Itri is four miles northwest of Formia.

French forces in the center won Esperia, outpost of the Hitler line, and French artillery from heights began shelling the road branching inland from Itri to Hitler line defenses in the Liri valley.

The hitherto-impregnable Cassino was doomed yesterday when the Eighth army sliced across highway 6 two miles west of the battered town, cutting the enemy's retreat route.

Lynn Hoenesling, Associated Press war correspondent, said British big guns opened up against the ancient monastery yesterday with one of the heaviest bombardments ever seen in the Mediterranean theater.

Tanks supported the British troops in a stab north from the Pignataro area to highway 6. While the British were striking a mile and a half across the Liri valley to reach the vital route, immediately northwest of Cassino Polish troops were capturing hills 593 and 599.

Hill 593 has been the northern hinge of both of the enemy's two major defensive fortifications — the Gustav and the Hitler lines — and the Germans have been counter-attacking violently to regain it.

American troops on the Fifth army's left wing near the Tyrrhenian sea coast slashed into the lofty Aurunci mountain mass, forming the southern end of the Hitler line, and capturing 4,500-foot Monte Rusizzo, three miles

Yank Bombers Hit At Balkans

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, NAPLES, May 18 (AP) — U. S. heavy bombers struck into the Balkans today, bombing Ploesti in Romania, and Belgrade and Nisi in Yugoslavia.

Ploesti, the Romanian oil center, was last bombed May 5. Today's attack was by Flying Fortresses and Liberators escorted by Lightnings, Thunderbolts and Mustangs which helped fight off a number of enemy aircraft.

The rail yards at Belgrade and Nisi were targets, with the air crews reporting good results. Weather prevented observation of the results at Ploesti, however.

(The United Nations radio at Algiers said today's attacks were made by 500 to 750 heavy bombers and with fighter escort made up a force of probably 1,500 planes.)

Bankers Score Ward Seizure

DALLAS, May 18 (AP)—M. C. Ulmer, president of the First National bank at Midland, was elected president of the Texas Bankers association here today at the closing session of the 60th annual convention.

DALLAS, May 18 (AP)—The Texas Bankers association today, without mentioning the Montgomery Ward Co. incident, passed a resolution condemning as "a serious mistake in national policy the seizure by military force of a private business concern not engaged in war work without prior sanction by any constitutionally constituted court."

Such action, the resolution said, has done more to shake the confidence of the people in the security in life and property than "anything else that has transpired since the government was founded."

The bankers expressed their belief that the Office of Price Administration should allow an increase in the price of petroleum from the "abnormally low" 1941 level in order to meet increased costs for that industry.

They pledged their support to the nation's military forces, reasserted their faith in the federal constitution, and called for a return to the American spirit of free enterprise, as soon as war conditions permit, to stop "the undeniable trend toward national socialism."

Deputy Collectors Are Making Tax Audits

Audits of several 1941 income tax reports made by residents of Big Spring vicinity are being completed here by H. W. Axe of Odessa and A. J. Berggren of Dallas, deputy collectors of internal revenue.

They went to Knott, Ackerly and Lamesa Wednesday to investigate tax returns. Only a few of the 1941 returns remained to be investigated. The collectors already had investigated some 1943 delinquencies in Big Spring.

They will leave Thursday and likely will return June 5, to continue investigations here. Most of the returns being checked this week are by persons in communities outside of Big Spring.

Dies Predicts CIO To Become US Red Party

Retiring Solon Says His Investigations "Most Important"

JASPER, May 18 (AP)—Rep. Martin Dies (D-Tex.), chairman of the house committee investigating un-American activities, said here today that "it will become obvious to the people that the Congress of Industrial Organizations will become the communist party of America."

In a telephone interview, Dies, who recently withdrew from the race for the democratic nomination for congressman from this East Texas district, was asked what place in history his committee would take.

"It will go down in history as one of the most important investigations ever conducted by congress," Dies said. "The hundreds of reports compiled by the committee will form the foundation of future inquiries and future prosecutions. During our investigations there was so much controversy, there was so much explosiveness, so much bitterness, so much dynamite that the American people were divided into two groups—one, those who opposed us and would give no credit, and the other, the strong partisan group."

"Actually the committee was two or three years ahead of its time. Postwar conditions, the growing importance of Russia, the dictatorship of Stalin, and the fact that the CIO is in the hands of the communist group, when Russia makes her change, it will be obvious to the people that the CIO will be the communist party of America. When Russia changes, the CIO will fall."

"All that and the growing racial antagonisms and the processes of reaction now setting in, will not only justify the committee, but will cause people to go back and read our reports."

Dies, who said ill health and a desire to resume private practice of law prompted him to announce his forthcoming retirement from congress, is resting here on his 1,000-acre farm, with Mrs. Dies and the youngest of their three sons. He said he was having "considerable trouble" with his throat.

Arnold Defends Women As Pilots

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—Stoutly defending the women's ferrying pilot program (Wasp), General Henry H. Arnold said today that women should be retained at plane ferrying jobs to save manpower.

Many of the approximately 12,000 male civilian instructors or army pilots, some with considerable flying experience, have protested against the emphasis on the Wasp, but Arnold in testimony before an investigating house civil service committee said every opportunity was being given for army flying commissions.

Chairman Ranspach (D-Ga) said the chief of the army air forces told the committee's executive session that 500 to 600 women are already ferrying planes in Wasp jobs, a similar number is in training.

Henry Missed Guess, But He's Regretful

DETROIT, May 18 (AP)—Henry Ford, who said in a copyrighted interview with the Atlanta Constitution on March 19 that he believed the war would be over in two months, said today:

"I had information at that time that led me to believe the war would or could be over within two months. I am sorry, as a lot of other people must be, that it is not over."

He made no further comment.

Nip Column Surprised, Airdrome Is Captured

By SPENCER MOOSA
CHUNGKING, May 18 (AP)—Smashing attacks by American and Chinese airmen against, mile-long columns of Japanese infantry and cavalry southwest of Loyang in Honan province were announced by the Chinese high command today, and Chinese dispatches said the enemy spearhead threatened the isolation of the city had been blunted. More than 200 Japanese trucks, armored cars and tanks were destroyed 40 miles south of Loyang in one attack, the announcement said.

A Chinese platoon north and south of the Burma road west of the Sadween river in southwest

Yunnan province was developing with the Chinese seizing strategic Hpinay Pass (15 miles east of Lungling on the Burma road which runs to the north) and capturing Chiaoou, an important supply point on the Shweli river 33 miles above Tengchung, important Japanese base north of the Burma road.

Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters said American fighter bombers had subjected targets in the Mengta area to continual daylight pounding and that P-40 warhawks gave direct aid to the thrust by 20,000 Chinese troops who are smashing forward in a westward drive aimed at a junction with Stilwell's ground forces in northern Burma.

Far to the northeast in Honan province, Chinese field dispatches said a Japanese spearhead thrusting westward from Loyang below the Lunghai railroad had been halted, and then forced to give ground.

SOUTHEAST ASIA HEADQUARTERS, Kandy, Ceylon, May 18 (AP)—In a surprise attack climaxing a spectacular forced march over rugged terrain, American and Chinese forces yesterday captured the Myitkyina airdrome and now are besieging Myitkyina City, major Japanese base in northern Burma, Allied headquarters announced today.

Capture of Myitkyina is essential to the success of Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's drive to link the new Ledo highway with the old Burma road, thus opening a direct overland supply route to China. It appeared likely that Myitkyina would fall into his hands before the coming monsoon season bogs down major operations.

Brig. Gen. Frank D. Merrill's jungle-wise American Marauders played an important role in the capture of Myitkyina airdrome, a feat which probably will take its place in history as an epic of the war in the Asiatic theater.

Myitkyina is one of the two main Japanese bases in northern Burma and one of the immediate major objectives of Stilwell's offensive.

Mogung, the enemy's other principal base in northern Burma, situated about 40 miles west and slightly south of Myitkyina, is menaced by a second Stilwell column moving down from the north along the Mogung valley.

Board Votes Bonus To Local Teachers

Teachers in the Big Spring school system were voted salary bonuses up to $54 for their year's work as the result of a prolonged board session Wednesday evening.

At the same time the board left the way open for distribution of any surplus accumulation from June to the end of the fiscal year, Aug. 31 by saying in a resolution addressed to teachers that the matter would be reopened in August.

The bonus payment, based on the rate of $6 per month for every teacher in good standing finishing out the teaching session but not to exceed $54 to any one individual, was calculated to exhaust most of a current surplus figured from $4,500 to $5,000. It is possible, however, that more funds will be accumulated between the end of school and the end of the fiscal year.

By its action, the board indicated that if more surplus funds accrue during the summer as hoped, it will be applied in part to bolstering the regular salary level next school year.

In re-electing teachers (subject to assignment) and not setting salaries pending a "determination of the state apportionment and action by the board of equalization in setting property values," the board clearly anticipated that more stringent means than distribution on a small surplus would be employed in an effort to raise the general level of teacher salaries in Big Spring.

The board session involved such detailed discussion of financial problems of the instructional staff that it lasted until almost midnight. It was the consensus of board members that the physical properties of the plant be operated as economically as possible so as to leave the maximum amount to be applied on salaries.

Summer school teachers elected by the board are Reta Debenport, Mrs. Lynette McElhannon, Mrs. M. W. Paulsen and Letha Emerson. Wayne Matthews and Lorena Huggins were named as extra or alternate teachers.

Re-elected as teachers for the 1944-45 session were:

High school—J. Askew Coffey, Mrs. Hazel Pearce, Letha Emerson, Mrs. Lavada Brownrigg, Mrs. Mary Bumpass, Dannie W. Conley, Agnes Currie, Reta R. Debenport, John L. Dibrell, Jr., Mrs. Thurman Gentry, Eugenia Ann Gou, Marth. Ann Harding, Mrs. Myrtle L. Hatfield, Lorena Huggins, Mrs. A. C. Kloven, Martha Macomber, Wayne E. Matthews, Mrs. D. L. McAdams, L. ## Russian, Poland Differences May Be Righted

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—Russia and Poland appeared today to have made a small but hopeful start on patching up their differences.

As a result responsible diplomatic quarters here are more optimistic about closing this breach in the United Nations than at any time in the past three months.

The immediate cause of this optimism was a resolution of the Polish national council in London yesterday asking that the position of successor to the president be separated from that of commander in chief of the armed forces.

Should President Wladyslaw Raczewicz heed this advice he would have simply to appoint someone other than General Kazimierz Sosnkowski, the commander in chief, as his successor.

The Russians have objected vigorously to Sosnkowski because of his alleged anti-Soviet record and probably would be more willing to do business with a Polish government in which he had no part, even though he remained as commander in chief.

Other governmental changes are expected to be recommended by the council. These changes may result in creating a regime of men generally more acceptable to Moscow.

On the Russian side, diplomats here attach some importance to the Moscow visit of Father Orlemanski, the American Catholic priest of Polish ancestry, and Prof. Oskar Lange, University of Chicago economist.

One interpretation placed on the activities of these two is that Orlemanski was chosen by the Russians to convey to the world word of a desire to get on peacefully with the Catholic church, especially in Poland.

Lange, according to this view, possibly was selected to express Moscow's ideas about a friendly compromise with Poland on the political level.

900 Repatriates Await Gripsholm

BARCELONA, Spain, May 18 (AP)—Nine hundred Americans and Britons, exchanged for a similar number of Germans, waited today for the Gripsholm to unload about 1,600 Red Cross mail parcels for American prisoners of war in the reich before beginning their journey home.

The diplomatic exchange ship is expected to remain here until Friday to complete the unloading. The parcels will go by rail to Germany.

The exchange of the Americans and Britons, who had been held in prisoner-of-war camps and brought here aboard the Gadicca for the German prisoners and civilians, was completed yesterday evening except for 23 German civilians who were interned in Barcelona until an agreement was reached about them.

The Gripsholm arrived from the United States with 90 German civilians to be exchanged on an equal basis for Allied civilians, but the Germans sent only 57 Allied civilians.

The Gadicca was scheduled to sail today, taking the Germans to Marseille.

In Washington the state department said the Gripsholm, on her return journey, would stop at a port in North Africa and a port in the United Kingdom and was expected to arrive in New York about June 10.

Although only 18 American soldiers were expected on the Gadicca, 60 arrived. Among the American civilians exchanged was Larry Allen, Pulitzer prize-winning Associated Press war correspondent who survived the sinkings of two British warships and spent 20 months in Italian and German prisoner-of-war camps.

Casualties Heavy As Japs Strafe Prison

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Australia, May 18 (AP)—A Roman Catholic bishop and 59 other missionaries were killed outright or died later of injuries, when Allied planes strafed a Japanese prison ship off the New Guinea coast, it was asserted here today by a Dutch priest, Father Willem Van Baar, superior in Australia of the Society of the Divine Word. His report was quoted in an official Netherlands and Netherlands Indies news agency bulletin.

High-Ranking Officials Request "Work or Fight" Legal Action

Nelson said there was a "desperate" manpower situation in the foundry industry, and Forrestal backed the measure as a "statutory affirmation of the obligations of citizens at home to back up the men on the fighting front."

The trio, Undersecretary of War Patterson, Acting Navy Secretary Chairman Nelson, testified before the senate military committee in behalf of a bill to subject men 18-45 to induction into military or work units if they left farm or essential industry jobs without draft board permission.

Patterson, referring specifically to the foremen's strike, told the committee that "any strike in wartime on war production is inconceivable, whatever the merit."

Baptists Hold Up Race Action

ATLANTA, May 18 (AP)—The Southern Baptist Convention withheld action today on a committee recommendation for joint support of the American Baptist Theological Seminary for Negroes at Nashville, Tenn., by the Northern and Southern Baptist Conventions.

Dr. E. P. Aldredge of Nashville, chairman of the seminary commission, opposed the plan, saying the school now had a new president and was planning building program with funds made available by the Southern Baptist Convention. He argued that this would be delayed if any other group joined the program.

Dr. Aldredge argued further that during the commission's study of the school, the northern convention had shown scant interest.

Dr. Ryland Knight, pastor of Atlanta's Ponce De Leon First Baptist church, withdrew the recommendation which he had offered, then the convention accepted remaining provisions of the report which included an enlarged program for Southern Baptist colleges.

The convention earlier applauded an address by Dr. Ralph Waldo Riley, new negro president of the Nashville school, who said the races could "walk together in the word of God."

Repair Of Chairs Is Colorado HD Project

COLORADO CITY, May 17. — The current project for all Mitchell county Home Demonstration clubs is the repairing of chairs under direction of the HD agent, Mrs. Mildred Odom. Chair frames are being strengthened and bottoms of chairs redone in all meetings this month.

In a meeting Tuesday, in the Baumann community 28 chairs were refinished by Baumann members who wove new seats for old kitchen and porch chairs. Unable to obtain raffle or other material used, the members are using twine customarily used to bind wool for market.

"Some very attractive work has resulted," the HD agent said. One club member at Loraine, Mrs. Percy Bond, supplemented four breakfast room chairs with four others which she painted red. With their wool-twine seats, woven by Mrs. Bond, the chairs added a note of color when matching chairs could not be purchased.

German Prisoners Are Still At Large

DALLAS, May 18 (AP)—Still at large today were two German prisoners of war whose escape from a work detail near Thackerville, Okla., was announced yesterday by the Dallas office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

From the prisoner of war camp at Camp Howze, near Gainesville, the men were identified as Walter Franke, 20, and Rudi Kurowaki, 21.

In sea battles, it used to be the custom to treat men with minor wounds before those seriously hurt so they could return quickly to their posts.

Floating Dream For The Mississippi River

By EDWARD S. KITCH
AF Features

ST. LOUIS—Should the dream of Walter J. Knight, a St. Louis engineer and boat designer, come true, the tired businessman of the future may board a sumptuous magic carpet, cruise for seven days without touching land and still have all the comforts of home at his command.

Knight designed a special, streamlined river steamer that would make even Mark Twain gasp at how the Mississippi River had gone modern. The tourist steamers, patterned after ocean liners, will ply the inland waterways of the nation providing pleasure cruises for millions.

Plans had been developed before Pearl Harbor by the Mississippi Motor Ships Syndicate to construct two tourist ships at a cost of more than $1,500,000 each. The project will be resumed as soon as necessary materials become available.

STREAMLINER—Artist's conception of the new river liners.

The tourist ships will be 284 feet long and 56 wide powered by diesel or steam-turbine electric engines, constructed completely of steel, and decorated in soft pastel shades. They will have swimming pools, gymnasiums, ship-to-shore communication service, air-conditioning and fullview windows, so passengers can observe river scenery as they glide along quietly at 15 miles per hour. A huge ball-room will be provided about 200 passengers.

The operating syndicate has ed. Each ship will accommodate proposed that ships operate from St. Louis, Minneapolis, Pittsburgh, and New Orleans.

Walter J. Knight thinks this project will bring about a returned interest in the inland rivers and give Americans a new form of relaxation.

Handlebar Hank Is Coming Home

HOUSTON, May 17 (AP)—Handlebar Hank Hooker, the Marine sergeant, credited with killing 26 and one-half Japs, is coming home to Tomball, Tex., and Tomball is in a dither.

Sgt. H. W. Hooker, hero of the little southeast Texas town, will return in a few days but minus his magnificent handlebar moustache which his buddies say turned white after six months of action on Guadalcanal and Tarawa. The sharpshooting Texan is recuperating in California from wounds received at Tarawa.

The sergeant, holder of two Silver Stars, is officially credited with dispatching 17 Japs, but his comrades testify that he got another nine and one-half. The half Jap credit came about when he and a buddy fired simultaneously at an enemy sniper.

Sergeant Hooker, a former school bus driver, was wounded when he crawled out of a foxhole and saw a Jap attempting to stab a fellow Marine. Handlebar Hank grabbed the bayonet with a bare hand and hit the Nipponese in the face.

Today Tomball formulated reception plans that will assure Hank a warm welcome.

Paula Lena Paulos Gets Jail Sentence

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 17 (AP)—A year and a day in prison was ordered in federal court here for Paula Lena Paulos, 27, who was charged with sending a threatening letter to a sailor at whose wife two shots were fired here in 1943.

Miss Paulos pleaded nolo contendere to the charge that she sent an unsigned letter to Brian Wyatt, stationed at a Norman, Okla., base, containing a threat to kill his wife, Genevieve, and a threat against his relatives if he did not get a divorce.

Wearing a pink summer dress with white roses in her hair, the defendant stood calmly as her attorney detailed her life, of which 13 years was spent working for the Salvation Army prior to her resignation last September. When sentence was passed, she clutched a handkerchief tightly, rushed to her sister nearby and both left sobbing.

Miss Paulos was arraigned last January at Wichita Falls, Tex., after the letter was traced there. Kenneth Lozan, special FBI agent here, said a shot was fired last Oct. 13 at Mrs. Wyatt through her bedroom window, narrowly missing her as she bent over.

A second shot passed harmlessly through her coat on Nov. 22 as she left her home.

Another Jap, however, shot the sergeant in the neck and a chunk of mortar projectile hit him in the shoulder.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 2 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Texas Cattleman Dies Suddenly

AMARILLO, May 18 (AP)—A heart attack has been fatal to Hugh Exum, 68, prominent West Texas cattleman and state republican figure. Exum died yesterday in Garden City, Kan.

Exum, a native of Lampasas, was republican candidate for lieutenant governor in 1932, but declined the GOP gubernatorial nomination in 1938. He had been chairman of the republican state executive committee for eight years.

(At Dallas, Committee Secretary John W. Philip announced yesterday that Mrs. Carl G. Straube of Houston, vice chairman of the committee, will serve as chairman until a new GOP head is elected at the state convention at Houston Monday.)

Exum was president and general manager of the Tri-County Gas company and the Pin-Ker Oil and Production company, both with offices in Holcomb, Kan. He also had extensive ranch holdings in West Texas and New Mexico.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

"NO MORE TROUBLE WITH CONSTIPATION!"

Says Long-Time Sufferer Who Tried Laxative Cereal!

If you, too, are disappointed with pills and purgatives, be sure to read this uncollected letter!

"For several years I was afflicted with chronic constipation. I tried various remedies, but got only temporary relief. Several months ago, I started eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN each morning, drinking water freely through the day. I have never had the slightest trouble with constipation. My gratitude to KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN."—Mrs. E. M. Bishop, 11 E. Division Street, Chicago, Ill.

Scientists say KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN can really "get at" a common cause of constipation—lack of sufficient "cellulose" elements in the diet—because it is one of Nature's most effective sources of these elements! They work by helping the friendly colonic flora fluff up and prepare the colonic wastes for easy, natural elimination. KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is not a purgative. Doesn't "sweep you out!" It's a gentle-acting, "regulating" food.

If you have constipation of this type, eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN or several ALL-BRAN muffins regularly. Drink plenty of water. See if you, too, don't cheer his welcome relief! Insist on genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

sign workers behind her war machine. Therefore, all bomb damage is quickly cleaned up and war production factories are going at top speed. Tens of thousands of Poles, Italians, Czechs and other Allied prisoners are forced to work at bayonet point to keep all transport moving.

Sabotage in Germany is virtually non-existent. The only Polish resistance is underground.

But when the Allies strike at France I believe there will be a great uprising.

The Nazis in occupied France now are battling a widespread wave of terrorism. Thousands of pro-Allied French are organized into powerful bands, and in woods and forests of northern France are hidden scores of field guns.

All France is waiting for the big moment.

Although the German war machine is moving along smoothly all is not well within the reich.

Evans der fuerher got a head-scratcher from the Berlin bombings and moved with the entire German high command and most of the ministries into the mountains near Salsburg.

The morale of the German people under heavy bombing is holding up well—but they are tired and sick of war.

Hitler and his ferrets have the German people terrorized.

Nobody can enter a railroad station, restaurant or other public place without being quickly called upon by gestapo agents to produce identification.

The German people are not getting what they want to eat but they are getting enough. Stores and meat markets are filled with foodstuffs, but the quantities sold are small and all rationed.

Forrestal Is Oked By Senate

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—James V. Forrestal, seaman second class in World War I, financier before World War II, and under-secretary of the navy since 1940, today is officially the number one naval man.

President Roosevelt had nominated him following Knox's death and yesterday the senate confirmed the nomination.

The fourth to hold that portfolio during the tenure of Mr. Roosevelt in the White House, Forrestal held his first news conference yesterday. He marked it with the announcement that a destroyer will be named for his predecessor, and that the outer Pacific defenses of Japan will have been beaten down to the level of a "line of defense in name only."

American sea forces, he said, have penetrated 1,500 miles within the enemy defense perimeter extending from the North Pacific Kuriles through the mid-Pacific eastern Marshalls to the Bismarck archipelago.

Big Spring Area In Survey Test

The Big Spring area is one of three in this section of the state where a survey, which includes experiments on systems of intensified recruitment, is underway. Others are San Angelo and Brownwood.

The survey is designed to put all available manpower into critical war industries and is being worked through the US Employment Service, said H. A. Clark, manager.

Martin A. Simmons of the USES at Baton Rouge, La. and Doyle G. Hayes of the Albuquerque, N. M. branch comprise a team to conduct the survey in this area by watching results of the Consolidated Steel hiring drive here.

Gene Land, representing Consolidated, will make field trips to Lamesa on Friday and to Snyder on Saturday to determine whether recruitment in outlying towns, as well as central office, is profitable. Consolidated is seeking to hire men for its Orange, Texas, plant which turns out vital barge craft. Workers with clerical ability, skilled and semi-skilled talents are being sought. Women over 18 may apply.

Only those not engaged in essential work may make application, it was pointed out by USES.

Gustav

north of the coastal city of Formia.

An official announcement said the Allies were battering against the Hitler line at many points after driving through the first enemy defense — the Gustav line.

In the central sector, French forces captured Esparia, an outpost of the Hitler line and farther south other units of Gen. Alphonse Juin's troops captured Monte Lago and Monte Marino. From the latter elevations, French artillery began shelling the only communication route linking the Hitler line defenses in the Liri valley with German defenses on the coast.

An official source said that prisoners had revealed that the Hitler line had been under construction for the last three months by the Todt organization, builders of the German Atlantic wall and Siegfried line.

From aerial photographs it is estimated that the stretch extending across the Liri valley has more than 200 large bunkers and about 70 pillboxes, and minor concrete works, the staff officer said.

A continuous line of wire and about 13 miles of anti-tank ditches join up the natural obstacles provided by deep water courses which intersect the plain.

Hoping to slow down the American drive which already is jeopardizing the whole enemy grip on the vital Gaeta point beyond Formia, the Germans have destroyed every bridge in both the coastal and secondary roads in that sector.

Backing up the ground troops with 2,500 sorties, mostly over the battle area, the Allied air forces yesterday blocked the main highway from Rome to the fighting front, smashed additional ports where enemy supplies were being landed, and pounded the German artillery and infantry virtually from dawn to dusk.

Fifteen Allied planes failed to return. Only one enemy plane was observed during the day.

Midland Man Among Those Rescued After Truk Carrier Raid

U. S. SUBMARINE BASE, Pearl Harbor, May 18 (AP)—The navy has revealed the dramatic tale of 22 rescues by the submarine Tang, during the April 29th and 30th carrier plane assault against Truk.

Lieut. Commander Richard Hetherington O'Kane, skipper of the submarine, broke a silence of eight months and told a press conference how the submarine completed the rescues.

Among the 22 rescued was Lt. (jg) J. G. Cole of Midland, Texas, who had been in the water for an hour. Cole was ill for two days but recovered.

Survey Asked On Snyder Highway

AUSTIN, May 18 (AP)—Designation of state highway 36 as a "constant living memorial" to Texas' 36th Division was under consideration today by the state highway commission.

Mrs. Jud Collier, state chairman of the roadside development program, Walter R. Humphrey, editor of the Temple Telegram, and Pvt. Wallace Watson of Winters who was wounded at Salerno, appeared before the commission in behalf of the project.

Mrs. Walter Prescott Webb, president of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas requested that the old Spanish road or El Camino Real, be designated as a "memorial highway to the sons and daughter of the Republic of Texas."

The commission also took under advisement a large number of requests by counties and cities, including:

Howard and Scurry: Asked for survey and authorization for a post war construction project — Big Spring to Snyder, state highway 350. Presented by J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce, Big Spring.

Loving and Winkler: Construction of a 25-mile highway from Mentone to highway 115 in Winkler county.

Andrews: Sought designation and construction of a road 16 miles west of Andrews to New Mexico state line. Chas. W. Roberts, county judge, Andrews county, and a drilling contractor from the newly developing oil fields there, advised this area has a proven capacity of 600 wells. There are now 53 rigs and 64 wells. All supplies have to be shipped by rail from Eunice, New Mexico or from Odessa. They seek a paved road for trucking, preferably to tie the wells in with the Odessa delivery point.

Gaines and Andrews: Requested designation, Seminole southwest to Fullerton oil field. Presented by A. J. Roach, Gaines county judge. Their problem is similar to Andrews county, with the addition that the county of Gaines wants to tie into the field.

Winn Rites Set 10 A. M. Friday

Funeral will be held at 10 a. m. Friday in the Eberly-Curry chapel for Frank Winn, 80, former Big Spring resident who succumbed Tuesday at his home in Fort Worth.

Masons will be in charge of services at the gravesite.

Mr. Winn came to Big Spring from Ohio as a young man 55 years ago as a Western Union lineman serving T.&P. facilities. He served in that capacity until 15 years ago when he transferred to Fort Worth and continued in service until he suffered a stroke in 1937. A second stroke two weeks ago resulted in his death.

In all his years here, Mr. Winn was active in Methodist church affairs and always was a member of its choir.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Frank Winn, Ft. Worth, one daughter, Mrs. Owen M. Jones, Fort Worth; and one step-son, Frank M. Ross, Fort Worth. Among other survivors to be here for rites are Mrs. Jack Stewart, Fort Worth, and Mrs. George Carard, Garden City, Kans., granddaughters, and Sgt. David M. Ross, Hattiesburg, Miss., a grandson, Owen M. Jones and Mrs. Frank Ross, both of Fort Worth.

Rites will be in charge of the Rev. H. Clyde Smith, First Methodist pastor.

Mrs. Dean Lewis of Dallas is visiting her brother and family, M. K. House, enroute of Arizona to visit with friends.

Body Of Wealthy Indian Girl Found

YONKERS, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—The Hudson river's turgid waters today had yielded the body of Valma Matthal, wealthy 22-year-old Indian student missing from Columbia University nearly two months, but circumstances of her death remained cloaked in mystery.

Acting Westchester County Medical Examiner Edwin M. Huntington said the dark-eyed Bombay, India, girl, who disappeared from a Riverside Drive dormitory during a pre-dawn snowstorm March 20 had died by drowning.

He did not attempt to explain, however, how she got in the water.

The medical examiner said no bruises or marks of violence were found on her body and remarked that it would be impossible to detect any traces of poison in a body which had been in the river so long.

Miss Matthal's body was found last night by a boatman, floating in midstream here about seven miles up the river from Columbia University.

FDR Signs Third Lend-Lease Plan

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP) — The biggest swap the world has known continues—to win a war. President Roosevelt has signed the third extension of the lend-lease act.

"Through lend-lease and reverse lend-lease," he said, "the material resources and supplies of the United Nations have been pooled for their most effective use against our common enemies. 'This unity x x x will bring complete and final victory.'"

Lend-lease, by the president's approval is extended to June 30, 1945. Since its inception, $21,000,000,000 has gone into the fight against the axis.

Eight Hellcats Bag Twenty-One Zeros

ABOARD A CARRIER IN THE CENTRAL PACIFIC, May 12 (Delayed) (AP) — A seared Japanese body, dangling from its parachute, and a headless Japanese pilot whose dead hands kept his Zero in level flight—only these were left momentarily in the sky after eight Hellcat pilots of this carrier downed 21 of the foe to establish one of the finest combat records of the war.

None of the eight ever had hit a Zero before. Only three had even seen Zeros previously.

Lt. (jg) Harry Carr McClaugherty, 25, of Narrows, W. Va., and Lt. (jg) Ralph A. Schuize, 23, of Waco, Texas, each nabbed one. They accounted for two probabilities.

Passenger car tires made of synthetic rubber are rated by Goodyear tire officials as about 96 per cent as good as those made from natural rubber.

Gerald Anderson Wounded In Action

Mr. and Mrs. Ches Anderson have received word that their son, Lt. (jg) Gerald Dixon, USNR, has been wounded while in action.

No details were given since Commander A. C. Jacobs, head of the casualties and allotments section, pointed out in a letter to the parents that there is such a great volume of communications for essential fleet operations that all other dispatches must necessarily be brief.

The letter, however, said that Lt. (jg) Anderson had "received minor injuries in the performance of his duty in the service of his country." Past experience, it was added, indicated that details were seldom forwarded if progress is favorable.

Lt. (jg) Anderson, a graduate of Big Spring high school and of McMurry college, is a fighter pilot assigned to a navy aircraft carrier and has been in the Southwest Pacific area.

Preachers May Play With Ark. Cagers

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., May 18 (AP) — The University of Arkansas Razorbacks, which had one of the best basketball ministers in the country on its 1943-1944 cage team, may have three preachers on its squad next winter. Coach Eugene Lambert said today.

Bill (Preacher) Flynt, ordained Baptist minister who made last season's all southwest conference team, will be back for the term starting June 7. He is scheduled for graduation in June, 1945.

In addition, Lambert said Jody Copeland, now enrolled in Henderson State Teachers College at Arkadelphia, Ark., and his brother, Ordice, of Newark, Ark., were expected to enroll here.

Both are crack basketball players and minister of the Church of Christ.

Mike Schumchuk and Charles Jolliff, both members of the 1943-44 Arkansas team, were accepted for induction in the army last week. They will be assigned to limited service, Lambert said, and under present regulations may play next winter.

Coffee - Flight Companion of Airline Pilots

... and on American Airlines it's Admiration Coffee

The Southwest's Favorite!

For generations Admiration's non-pervading aroma, delicate, lingering flavor, and wholesome, satisfying goodness have retained the loyalty of thousands. Daughters have inherited the habit from mothers. Buy a pound today. Compare it with your old brand. You'll immediately join the fine old family tradition.

In midflight pilots like passengers on American Airlines frequently enjoy the delightful pick-up of a cup of Admiration coffee. Typical of many, Chief Pilot A. Beall Fitzgerald, ace pilot and trans-oceanic flyer, finds that Admiration postpones fatigue, brightens up the senses, and adds much to the enjoyment of each trip. He never refuses a cup when offered—and often calls for one when it isn't!

During off hours one of Captain Fitzgerald's hobbies is to relax with his baby daughter. Another is to relax and talk shop with his five brothers, all flyers—for he's a member of the Famous Flying Fitzgerald Family. Of course it's a safe bet there's a steaming cup of rich-flavored Admiration close at hand as he pursues his hobbies. It's a habit all American Airline pilots soon form—and enjoy.

Dodgers' Schultz Looks Like Another Greenberg

By FRANK ECK
AP Features Sports Writer

BROOKLYN — When the Dodgers sold Joe Medwick to the Giants last July and then traded Dolf Camilli, the bleacher fans at Ebbets Field dropped their cowbells and began yelling for Branch Rickey's scalp. They did everything but accuse the Mahatma of breaking up dem Bums.

But that wasn't Branch's intention at all. His idea was to bring on likely looking youngsters. They call it the youth movement along the banks of the Gowanus. Today Rickey's foresight is beginning to pay dividends.

He obtained Howie (Stretch) Schultz, a long drink of water — 6 foot 6 1/2 to be exact — from St. Paul. Schultz is making some optimistic promises to make fans forget Camilli. Coach John (Red) Corriden really goes out on a limb.

"Schultz looks like he might be another Hank Greenberg," says Corriden. "Why the boy is growing all the time. You can't make a mistake when he's at the plate because he's really Howie Schultz, Dodgers' first baseman, in action putting wood to that horsehide.

Schultz was the talk of the Eastern section of the National League the first two weeks of the season. He belted four home runs in 11 games. Last year he hit only one round tripper in 45 games with the Dodgers.

The 21-year-old blond giant has only three seasons of organized ball under his belt and he ball hawk and certainly is more graceful than was Greenberg when Hank broke in with Hartford, Conn., in the Eastern League some 14 years ago.

Howie looks lackadaisical on the field but there's not much that escapes his huge mitts, and that brings up another point. Schultz is one of the reasons Leo Durocher can afford to alternate Frenchy Bordagary, Gil English and Bobby Bragan on third, and play a new Keystone combination of Bill Hart and Luis Olmo, converted outfielder.

Invariably does a day pass but that Schultz doesn't save the Dodger infield at least one error. He grabs the low ones as well as the high ones.

When the guy spoke of the long arm of the law he must have been looking at Schultz because Howie really can stretch.

His skyscraper stature kept him out of military service. When the current season closes Schultz will return to Hamline University to continue a course in business administration. He expects to get his sheepskin in February.

Pensive Pros And Cons Are Discussions

NEW YORK, May 18 (AP)—There's an argument going the rounds of racing circles over the relative merits of Pensive, the Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner, and Twilight Tear, a filly with a record of six straight victories, but Ben Jones will have no part of it.

Missouri Ben is the one man who could settle the argument since he's the trainer of the two ace three-year olds from Warren Wright's Calumet Farm, but if he knows which is the better he's not saying. His answer to the question after Twilight Tear cake-walked home in the Acorn Stakes at Belmont Park was:

"If somebody wants to arrange a match race between the pair, winner take all, I'll gladly see that both of them get to the post."

The debate started after Pensive's surprise victory in the derby.

Backers of Twilight Tear added fuel to the discussion when she easily won the Pimlico Oaks, but supporters of Pensive answered that after their horse came from behind to take the Preakness. New Yorkers got their first glimpse of the filly yesterday as a three-year old and they left Belmont wondering if Twilight Tear is not the better of the two since she traveled the mile in 1:37 and easily hung it on nine others of her sex and age.

There is little to choose between their won and lost records. Pensive has been out of the money only once in 14 trips to the post since he came to the races last year. Twilight has raced 13 times and never finished farther back than third.

stretchers and bedpans.

The other passengers were a foreign oil executive, and two old sailors now with the War Shipping Administration.

We were puzzled in boarding the vessel by the disappointed look the crew gave us.

"Where's the rest of the passengers?" one sailor asked. His face fell when he was told there were no more.

Later the steward explained: "We told the crew we were taking over some WACS," he smiled, "and gave them a big lecture on how they were to behave. They were all excited because they thought they were going to have a cargo of soldiers in skirts."

The chief engineer didn't get in on the joke until late. He showed up for dinner in a spruce uniform and with shoes neatly shined. Everybody in the dining salon laughed. The engineer took one look at the passenger table, grinned sheepishly and then went back to his room and changed into old clothes.

WACS never saw that uniform again the rest of the voyage.

Sox Pitcher Evens Score With Yanks In Shut Out Tilt

By JACK HANB
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

It took Orval Grove a year to get even but the Chicago Sox righthander today has squared his debt with the New York Yankees, who broke his nine-game win streak and ruined his no-hit bid in 1943.

Grove became the first pitcher to shut out the New Yorkers when he blanked them 4-0 with five hits yesterday.

Last July, Grove had a no-hitter with two out in the ninth when Joe Gordon's double spoiled it, and a few weeks later the World Champs ruined his attempt for a tenth straight victory.

Washington muffed a chance to go into a virtual tie for the American lead by bowing before Cleveland Vern Kennedy's four hit effort, 4-2. Jeff Heath with a double and two singles, and Orie Hockett with a triple and a pair of singles, sent Roger Wolff down for his first loss.

Buddy Hall's boot with the bases loaded cost Philadelphia's Athletics a 2-1 decision to Detroit much to the dismay of 28,535 Quaker city fans who were trying to root the A's home for their seventh straight.

Boston split two with the St. Louis Browns, winning 5-1, behind Tex Hughson's four-hit hurling but losing after a wild scramble in the finale, 12-8. Joe Cronin of the Red Sox became a bench manager again, yielding first base to George Metkovich and appearing only as a pinch-hitter. By the split and Detroit's night win, the Sox plunged into the cellar.

Brooklyn might be last in the National if the Chicago Cubs weren't putting up such a strong defense, for the Dodgers tumbled into seventh position after bowing to Pittsburgh, 8-5. The Brooks, having a poor road trip, came up with four runs in the sixth to grab the lead but the Pirates rallied with four in their half for an 8-5 margin before rain forced them to call it a night. Tommy O'Brien's triple with the bases loaded was the game-winning poke.

The Braves continued to get top flight pitching as Red Barrett rocked the St. Louis Cardinals back on their heels with five blows for a 5-1 edge.

Bucky Walters turned from pitching to hitting and as a pinch batsman cracked a double that gave Cincinnati a 6-5 triumph over the Phils in a see-saw game called a moment after the hit in the eighth inning because of rain.

Joe Medwick and Danny Gardella paced the New York Giants attack on five Chicago tossers for a 10-6 margin in a free-hitting game.

THE CLUBHOUSE

By FRITZ HOWELL

NEW YORK—The Jacobs Beach boxing boys were whiling away their time talking about the next heavyweight champion.

Large Lew Diamond, honest brakeman and mayor of the sidewalk seaside, spoke up. And when Large Lew speaks, everyone listens.

Everyone, that is, except Dumb Dan Morgan and Jimmy Johnston, the big town's two top talkers, who listen to none but talk to all.

"The next champion," Large Lew claims, "will come from the armed services, just as after the last war. He will be some clean-living kid like Gene Tunney."

"Gene was one in a million. He had ideals, and a goal. He saw the fight game as a stepping stone to something bigger, and he used it to climb the ladder. He knew he was going to be champion long before he beat Dempsey, because he told me so."

"Back in 1922, four years before he won the title, Tunney was fighting one of my boys, Ray Newman, down at Charlie Schwab's birthday party in Ebbensburg, Pa."

"Billy Gibson, who had bought Tunney's contract from Frank (Doc) Bagley, and I was playing pinocle. Tunney was in the next room, reading a 'bug' book. 'Gene stuck his head in the door and asked: 'What was the first bug originated in this world?' 'Well, he surprised me so much I played the right card and was picking up the dough when Tunney asked: 'Well, what was the second bug, then?' 'Gibson, irked at losing, said: 'Aw, go take that bug for a walk.' 'That gave me a chance to get out with the winnings, so I asked Gene if he'd like a stroll. As we walked down the street, Tunney turned and said: 'Lew, I like to do everything everyone else does, but I have plans of my own. I'm going to be the next heavyweight champion, because I'm going to beat Dempsey. I'm going to defend the title twice, then retire and marry in two society.' 'Years later, when Gene was training for Dempsey at Stroudsburg, Pa., I took my three red-haired kids down to see him. Gene came over and patted their heads, then turned to me and said: 'How's my condition, Lew?' 'Only a miracle can keep you from winning. You are in great shape, Gene,' I answered. 'Well, as you know, Gene won the fight, beat Dempsey in the return match, and then stopped Tom Heaney. After he retired, I was making matches in Scranton, Pa., and Commissioner Larry Farrell asked for a benefit show in Sayre, Pa. 'Make it a good one,' Farrell said, 'for Tunney will be there. Tunney called me over to his seat during the program, introduced me to his wife, and said: 'Polly, meet Lew Diamond, the only man I ever told what I planned to do.' 'Tunney is the man who put the heavyweight crown on a pedestal. He came out of the ranks of the fighting Marines to win it, and there never has been a breath of bad publicity connected with him. 'Gene wasn't popular with some of the newspapermen. He refused to allow parties or noise at his training camps, and when he was through with his workouts he went off by himself. He was there to train for a fight, and he wouldn't let anything, or anyone, interfere with it. 'He's the kind of guy the youth of America can look up to. As a youth he didn't drink or smoke, and he lived cleanly. He has never changed. He is a fine naval officer. Most people don't know the real Tunney, but take it from me, he's a great guy. 'I hope the next champ on coming out of the service, will be just a little bit like him."

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLETON, JR.
NEW YORK, May 18 (AP)—Overseas sports roundup:

PERSIAN GULF COMMAND: Sgt. Allen Lacombe, the No. 1 boxing promoter from Cairo to Teheran, types this report: "Boxing in the P.G.C. has been pretty good in the last month or so. I took 22 boys on tour of the command. The camps we appeared in did not have boxing teams before we went there, but as soon as we left all of the camps started to organize teams. . . . There is only one place that we can fight during the summer and that is Teheran. It is nice and cool up in the mountains where the camps are, so once a month I have to put on 12 fights up there, matching boys all over the command. The only rough part about it is that we fellows stationed down in the southern part of Iran have to travel almost 850 miles to fight? The change of climate is murder; you can hardly breathe when you get up in them mountains. And you have to travel fourth class or ride in box cars all the way, eating C rations, but the boys do not seem to mind it very much. In fact they raise a hell if you cannot get them a meal every time you go up there. When this war is over and all the boys turn pro and we have to ride the rods from town to town, up and down the kerosene circuit, we will be used to it."

NEW GUINEA: Recently received copies of the "Cockatoo," which describes itself as "the leading and most widely read morning newspaper in New Guinea," include complete resumes of major league baseball performances as well as racing results at "Fresh Meadows," a track where toy horses are raced with the aid of dice. . . . And an accompanying letter from Editor T/S Clifford Garding says: "In our particular, but not peculiar, situation, we are unable to participate in athletics because the jungle is hardly the place for diamonds, courts, courses and athletic fields. The sea is our playground and water sports are the main diversion."

Amateur Tourney Set For Essex Falls

ESSEX FALLS, N. J., May 18 (AP)—A one-day amateur golf tournament at the Essex Falls country club June 4 will launch the summer golf campaign for many of the leading pros who will bid for more than a quarter of a million dollars in prize money in various competitions throughout the country.

Already lined up to compete are Craig Wood, Byron Nelson, Jug McSpaden, Sgt. Vic Ghezzi, Willie Goggin, Ed Dudley and Leo Diegel.

Class AA Schools Set New Coach Rules

AUSTIN, May 18 (AP)—Class AA Texas high schools in football and basketball competition will retain for next year a rule that coaches in these sports must be full time employees of their respective school systems.

Administrators in this group of schools voted 50 to 33 to retain the rules, said Roy Bedichek, director of the interscholastic league in announcing results of a mail referendum.

Class A and B schools have voted for employment of part time coaches as a concession to war time manpower.

Bill McKechnie, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, batted .321 in 156 games with Minneapolis in 1921, his last season as a player. It was his best batting mark in organized ball.

ENGLAND: From a Canadian newspaper comes information that a Canadian army cricket team will play an American team on the famed cricket grounds at Lords, July 20. . . . The match already has led to speculation in London papers as to whether the game will help Canadians and Americans forget the more raucous game of baseball when they return home. . . . From this distance, it seems more likely that staid Londoners never will forget the Canadian-American game.

NORTH AFRICA: Chief Warrant Officer Frank Hartley reports as follows to his old paper, the Louisville Times, on racing in North Africa: "It's confusing enough to buy a ticket which reads 20 francs, but which sells for 60 francs, or $1.20. It's even worse inside. . . . If you're lucky, you can find through the use of sign language and GI French that favorites aren't posted and there aren't, as a result, any opening odds. . . . So long as the race is going on, you can imagine that you're back in the states, because usually the races are good and it's just as difficult to see the backstretch as it is 'at home.'"

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

New Version of an Old American Tradition

We were sitting on Ed Carey's porch, enjoying a friendly glass of beer, when a squadron of fighter planes goes over—in tight formation—swift and trim and powerful.

"There," says Ed proudly, "goes an American tradition."

"What do you mean, tradition?" Eben Crowell says. "America's a hundred sixty years old—flying's the newest thing there is."

"But those planes," says Ed, "they're the best in the world—the best made and the best flown. That's what I mean by an American tradition: making things, doing things, just a little better, whether it's an airplane or a railroad or a glass of fine American beer like this."

And from where I sit, Ed has put his finger on what makes America great—and what keeps her great. The urge to do things just a little better—from the planes we make to the glass of beer that we enjoy. Things to be proud of—all of them!

Willie Pep Eyes Non-Title Bout

CHICAGO, May 18 (AP)—Willie Pep, who claims the world's featherweight boxing crown (and owns it in New York), isn't over-looking his 10-round non-title bout with Frankie Rubino of Brooklyn tomorrow night, but he has his sights fixed on a proposed match with Sal Bartolo, some time in June.

Bartolo is the national boxing association's 126-pound king, but Pep scored a clean-cut decision over him in defense of his title in Boston last June 8. Then Willie entered the navy, and the N. B. A. turned over the title to Sal. Now Pep is out of the navy, on a medical discharge, but Bartolo still is the N. B. A.'s champion.

Willie's title will not be at stake Friday, for Stocky, dynamo-fisted Rubino will weigh in at 133 pounds—seven over the limit.

"This is my second war, Mrs. Smith..."

"SO I KNOW HOW RATIONING AND PRICE CEILINGS GIVE FOLKS A FAIR SHARE OF FOOD AT FAIR PRICES"

"Sure, we grouse about ration points and ceiling prices just the way you do, Mrs. Smith. They're a nuisance! But believe me, they're a darn good nuisance! I know—because I remember the last war.

"Lots of food prices went up almost twice as much as they have in this war. And selfish folks stuffed themselves while others just got the leavings.

"This time, with rationing, everybody gets just what he has points for—and that's that."

"Another thing, Mrs. Smith—if it weren't for ceiling prices, you'd be paying through the nose for food, and black markets would be shoving me right out of business.

"Lots of soldiers' wives come in here to cash their allotment checks and buy their groceries. I want to help see that food prices don't shoot right past their fifty bucks a month."

Mix Flavoring As Fats Being Creamed

Recent mixing and baking tests have shown that most homemakers need to change their order of procedure in making cakes and cookies. Vanilla and other extracts will give a more even and lasting flavor if they are added to the fat when it is being creamed. Ordinarily recipes direct that the vanilla be added last to a batter.

Wichita Falls Bus Drivers Resume Work

WICHITA FALLS, May 18 (AP)—About 75 bus drivers, who took a voluntary holiday yesterday in protest against the employer company's alleged violation of a contract signed with the drivers union last February, had city buses back in operation today.

Resumption of service after a 15-hour interlude, came last night following conferences between union officials and the management.

Spoilage And How It May Be Prevented

By RHEBA MERLE BOYLES, Co. Home Demonstration Agent

Most home canners have seen swelled cans or know about the danger of poisoning from botulism, but there are other types of spoilage which they should know about and guard against.

This type of spoilage can be prevented by canning these foods immediately after gathering them, by making sure the food is clean, by processing under pressure the proper length of time and by cooling it quickly and storing it in a cool place.

An unusual type of spoilage sometimes happens with beets when they turn black in color. While this change does not necessarily indicate that the food is poisonous, it becomes most unappetizing.

Occasionally canned greens, especially spinach, will have a bad odor, a slimy texture, and a cloudy liquid. Thorough washing is necessary to help prevent this, because greens grow close to the soil and may be more heavily contaminated with bacteria than taller vegetables.

Mosquito And Fly Control Are Urged

COLLEGE STATION, May 18 (AP)—Two dangerous public enemies, the house fly and the mosquito, are abroad.

They spread disease and annoy persons and should be destroyed wherever found. According to Mrs. Bernice Claytor of the A. and M. College Extension Service, families should not delay in protecting their homes from these harmful pests.

As the first line of defense, screens should be guarded carefully against damage and deterioration. Mrs. Claytor, who is the specialist in home improvement, advises seeing to it that all frames fit doors and windows tightly.

It's a good idea, the specialist says, to put a strong spring on screen doors so they'll close quickly, have them well equipped with hooks and latches, and the lower portion protected with a guard.

Many of these suggestions apply to controlling mosquitoes, especially the use and care of screens and use of sprays if the insects slip through the guard. Oil of citronella is effective.

Angles To Press Freedom

There are various distinctions which should be made in discussions concerning the "freedom of the press," and the so called "Readers Digest" incident is a case in point.

Information developed in a congressional inquiry apparently seeks, by innuendo at least, to show some sinister suppression of a projected article concerning the Federal Communications Commission. Testimony of one witness was to the effect that Chairman Fly of the FCC not only refused to give information but attempted to cast the shadow of doubt over information already gathered by a writer, and going a step further, promised a good libel suit against the publishers of the magazine if the story were published.

This threat, presumably, is taken as a challenge to the freedom of the press.

We beg to take issue. What the writer ran up against is no more than the situation which daily confronts thousands of reporters, big and small, the length and breadth of our land every week. Threats of reprisals or of libel suits are common fare for those who seek to gather news and present completely and impartially. It goes without saying that if material is libelous, it is, in most states at least, without proper truth or foundation and therefore is not worthy of publication in a reputable journal. On the other hand, if a writer has gathered sound facts and has presented them without malice, all libel threats are meaningless and any publication worth its salt will use the story regardless of the silly threats from any source whatever.

On the other hand, if government tries to influence the publication of or the withholding of any story for any reason other than security of troops either by direct threat or by subtle indirection such as cutting of paper allotments, undue efforts to find something amiss in efforts to conform with regulations, etc., then an open and unmistakable challenge has been made against the freedom of the press.

In the case of the Readers' Digest incident, seemingly no such threat was made. It appears that it was a case of utter lack of backbone on the part of a publication which has come to enjoy a wide following because the public has confidence in its impartiality and good judgment. It won't take many incidents of this sort to destroy the public's faith in a publication which has no more personal interest in protecting its freedom from petty threats.

Democratic Revolt Is Silenced

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON — Observers here are confident that the big vote Sen. Claude Pepper of Florida and Sen. Lister Hill of Alabama piled up against their anti-Administration opponents has just about silenced for good, so far as the November elections are concerned, any threat of a southern Democratic revolt.

From all reports, the issue in both states was pretty clearcut. It was New Deal against anti-New Deal. No two members of the upper chamber are more loyal to the Administration than Pepper and Hill. Time after time, they have carried the ball for Administration policies, on occasion when it was damaging to their own interests.

The bulk of argument against them in the primary campaigns was that they were "rubber stamps" for the New Deal. Had they been upset by any sizable majority, that threat of a third party in the south if President Roosevelt is renominated would have been something for the President and the rest of the Democratic party to cope with.

It is true that Sen. Harry P. Byrd (D-Va.) did pick up five convention delegates in Florida, without campaigning personally, but this wasn't greeted with any surprise here, especially in view of the fact that Florida's voting population has presumably changed greatly during the war years. Neither was it considered significant as a trend away from the President.

More important, in fact, is that not even the candidates opposing Hill and Pepper made any direct attack on the President in person. That's a good old southern custom — attacking the Administration but not the chief executive and head of the Democratic party.

Few contests in the south will be more bitterly fought than those against the two senators. Observers here who had studied the situation were frankly dubious that Hill or Pepper could win without a run-off election and many predicted that they couldn't even then. Unauthenticated reports reached here that large sums of money were thrown into the campaigns against them and in each case they had formidable foes: Senator Hill is James A. Simpson, Birmingham attorney; and Senator Pepper principally in Ollie Edmunds, of Jacksonville, who ran far ahead of Pepper's field of three other opponents. Both were experienced campaigners and popular with the voters.

It is believed here that the votes in the two states clearly bore out the prediction of Wendell L. Willkie last summer that President Roosevelt would go into the convention and the election with the solid south wrapped up and tucked away in his hip pocket. The Florida and Alabama elections were the first serious tests of that conclusion.

Frank republican political observers here, however, expressed no disheartenment over the results. They considered the large votes run up by opposition to the incumbents as a very vigorous protest against the New Deal and one that will be decisive in states unencumbered by the one-party system.

The ballot originated in Rome, was introduced into France by Catherine de' Medici, and didn't arrive in England until the 18th century.

The world's most perfect volcanic cone is in New Mexico.

The War Today

by DeWitt Mackenzie
Associated Press War Analyst

Yesterday was kindly to the Allied cause in widely separated theatres: The German evacuation of the powerful mountain stronghold of Cassino in Italy, the spectacular capture of strategic Myitkyina airdrome from the Japanese in northern Burma and, last but perhaps most important, the cessation of the Detroit foreman's strike on our homefront.

The forced withdrawal of the Hitlerites from Cassino—which is part of a general retreat from the Gustav Line—represents a solid victory for Allied arms in one of the war's toughest spots. Cassino, strongest defense in the Gustav Line, had stood off since January amidst bloody fighting.

The Nazis are falling back on the Adolf Hitler line, which is the next and most formidable obstacle between the Allies and Rome. There the enemy will try to make a stand, and a great battle may be expected.

The capture of Myitkyina airdrome is a great stroke. It was achieved by American and Chinese forces which now are besieging the city itself.

Meanwhile our General (Uncle Joe) Stilwell is driving down from the northwest on Myitkyina with his American and Chinese troops. We are racing against time to evict the Japanese from northern Burma before the monsoon rains descend shortly.

One is almost glad that we had the Detroit foreman's strike, because it has given us a splendid example of how quickly the sturdy American workman can subordinate what he regards as his own best interests when he learns that his cessation of labor is jeopardizing the war effort.

The strike was called off almost immediately after General H. H. Arnold had made it known that it represented "one of the most serious setbacks the air-force has had since its inception"—a setback so grave that it might even affect invasion operations.

The war situation in the central Pacific may appear on the surface to be calm but if we knew the unreasoning plans of the enemy it would be called the lull before the storm.—Tokyo broadcast.

And Nothing Can Be Done About It

Movie Careers Are All Alike

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD—Humphrey Bogart, in an attack of philosophy induced by a lull in shooting, had it all figured out: every Hollywood career is more or less alike.

So he proved it: "This lucky lady," he indicated blonde Lauren Bacall, who plays opposite him in "To Have and Have Not" and is a choice newcomer, "has a career which parallels my own—roughly speaking."

Miss Bacall suggested that "Roughly Speaking" is the name of a movie in which neither Bogart nor Bacall appear. "Can't we keep shop talk out of this?" she asked.

"Impossible," said Bogart, "impossible." "The first rule you should learn in Hollywood is to talk about three things: yourself, motion pictures, and you."

"I see," said Miss Bacall, "as if I was saying, 'Bogey went on, 'her career is roughly parallel to my own, just as my career, in pictures, has been roughly parallel with that of Bette Davis or Greta Garbo.'"

"Interesting, if true," Miss Bacall said. "True enough. You were once a model and your face has appeared on magazine covers. So was I and so has mine. I may not be as pretty as you now, but I was a beautiful baby. My mother thought so and she painted my picture for the magazines. See how nearly our beginnings were alike?"

Lauren saw—a little. "Then you went to a private school. So did I. Awful, aren't they? Then you went on the stage. So did I. Your plays folded fairly soon. So did my first plays. So far alike, don't you think? This is your first trip to Hollywood. I came out and went back and came out again three times. You have something to look forward to. After you get here and get your contract you sat around doing nothing, waiting for the breaks. So did I. I sat around until they finally put me on a horse in a western and then I didn't sit around anywhere for several days."

Lauren giggled prettily. "I can ride a horse. See—we're different."

"Some thing in the long run," he said. "You can ride a horse so they put you on a boat. I can sail a boat so they put me on a horse. Every Hollywood career is more or less alike. Everybody comes out here, is put to doing something he or she never has done before, suffers disappointments and then finds success, such as it is. Yes, in a way—a very different way—you are very much like another Bogart."

Then he studied the Bacall face and figure, turned to a mirror. "A very different Bogart, I'll admit," he said.

The invention of the Cross, or the Feast of the Finding of the Holy Cross, is still commemorated on May 3 by the Roman Catholic church in commemoration of the finding of the true cross by Helena.

The story is that Helena, while visiting the scene of the crucifixion, was guided to a particular spot by an aged Jew. An evacuation was made and at a considerable depth three crosses were discovered laying side by side. Near by was also the inscription in Hebrew, Latin and Greek that had been placed above the head of Jesus when he was crucified.

According to the legend, the identity of the true cross was determined, upon the suggestion of Bishop Macarius of Jerusalem, by having sick persons touch the three crosses. One of the crosses was found to impart miraculous cures to those who touched it.

The Church of the Holy Sepulchre was built over the excavation and in it was deposited the greater part of the true cross. The remainder of this cross was sent to Byzantium, capital of the East. Later this sacred relic was taken to Rome and placed in the Church of Santa Croce in Gerusalemme, which was built especially to receive it. In the twelfth century the authenticity of this relic was attested in a bull issued by Pope Alexander III.

The invention of the Cross, or the Feast of the Finding of the Holy Cross, is still commemorated on May 3 by the Roman Catholic church in commemoration of the finding of the true cross by Helena.

Today And Tomorrow EXPLODING SOME FABLES

By WALTER LIPPMANN

There are current in this country many popular fables, quite contrary to the historic record, about how the last war ended. They are very serious obstacles to clear thinking about an effective settlement of this one. One of these fables is that the victorious Allies disarmed and demilitarized Germany and that then, somehow, because the French were unreasonable, or the reparations demanded were too big, or the United States did not join the League, Hitler managed to restore German military power and to renew the war twenty years later on a scale greater than the Kaiser ever dreamed of. I listen to say that I shared all these illusions at the time and that it is by no means easy even now to find out what really happened. A good history of the last war has yet to be written.

But, starting as it may seem, the truth is that while Germany was partially disarmed after the armistice of 1918 she was not demilitarized. It was only because of the insistence of General Pershing and General Bliss that President Wilson, who had British support, modified his view that the German Army be allowed to evacuate the occupied territory and retire intact behind the frontiers of the Reich.

The terms adopted were those of Marshal Foch, and they were a compromise between Wilson's view and that of Pershing and Bliss: The industrial regions up to the Rhine were to be occupied and Germany was to deliver about one-third of her cannon, half her machine guns and about two-thirds of her planes.

We know now from the publication of Wilson's papers that Wilson did not wish to disarm Germany altogether. His disciples always identify Wilson's name with opposition to the doctrine of the balance of power, which indeed Wilson did denounce. But, as the Ray Stannard Baker letters show, his reason for not wishing to disarm Germany completely, as Pershing and Bliss demanded, was that "too much success or security on the part of the Allies will make a genuine peace settlement exceedingly difficult if not impossible."

Wilson's desire to preserve the German Army as a means of balancing the power of France was almost certainly shared by Lloyd George. Moreover, both Britain and France had their own reason, which Wilson may or may not have shared wholeheartedly, for wishing to preserve the German military power. This was in order to deal with Bolshevism Russia, with which they were then waging an undeclared war on several fronts.

Thus the armistice imposed on Germany in November, 1918, which called for the immediate retirement of the German armies from occupied territory, contained this exception (Article XII): "All German troops at present in territories which before the war formed part of Russia"—this meant the Baltic states and Finland—"must likewise return to within the frontiers of Germany as above defined AS SOON AS THE ALLIES SHALL THINK THE MOMENT SUITABLE, HAVING REGARD TO THE INTERNAL SITUATION OF THESE TERRITORIES."

This German army was commanded by General Von Der Goltz. It operated in Finland and in the Baltic region under Allied authority until September, 1919, for ten months after the supposed disarmament of Germany. When they were supposed to disband and disappear, General Von Der Goltz arranged to have his officers cease to be "German" and to continue operating as a "Russian army."

In other words the Allies did not even attempt to destroy German militarism. What they did was to take away part of the German Army's obsolescent weapons, and to demobilize it partially. But the core of the army, which was the caste of the professional officers and non-coms, was left undisturbed. It was they who created the present German army, and prepared the plans of mobilization and the strategy for this war.

As a result of investigations made by the German Reichstag in the early days of the German republic, we have reasonably reliable official data on this crucial point. During the first world war the German army had an aggregate of 45,822 active officers of which 11,337 were killed. Half of all these officers were professionals, the rest what we should call reserve officers. The higher the rank the greater, of course, was the proportion of professionals. In the army which the treaty allowed the republic to maintain there, were 4,000 army and 1,500 naval officers. These 5,500 officers were almost entirely drawn from the professionals. Moreover, many others belonged to what was known as the Black Reichswehr, and continued to work more or less secretly with their professional colleagues. Then, too, a large number of demobilized professional officers were enrolled in the police. It is reliably estimated that out of some 23,000 professional officers left in 1918, 8,000 to 10,000 continued in military activities.

It is also interesting to note that at the end of the 1920's, in the years just before Hitler, more than 80 per cent of the officers corps were drawn from old military families or from families connected with the higher civil service in the monarchical regime. Less than 5 per cent were drawn from the middle and lower classes.

This history and these facts remind us that we must not confuse the task of DISARMING the present German army with the task of DEMILITARIZING Germany. We might do well to paste them in our hats.

A Congressman Is A Human Being

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE
WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—A little primer on how to get along with congressmen, prepared for the benefit of businessmen, says very firmly that a congressman "is a human being."

Called "Know Your Congressman," it is printed by the National Association of Manufacturers. The 9-page document sternly warns:

"Cut out demagoguery before a (congressional) committee. That is congress' own specialty and encroachment in this sphere is resented."

No congressman can disagree with this information for businessmen dealing with the lawmakers: "Don't get smart; don't get off the subject; don't assume a superior attitude; don't get huffy; don't talk unless you know what you're talking about."

He thought for a while. He said there was a definition but he couldn't remember it exactly.

Approximately, he said, it meant "the right of business to compete in a free market with government as an umpire."

There are some passages, repeated in one way or another, which indicate the document is not pro-new deal. For instance, more information about business because:

Lack of it makes the job "doubly difficult for industry's representatives in Washington to combat the various new deal planners' schemes for making over the American way of life."

The NAM starts off its lesson in congressional relations by drawing an example between the apparent simplicity of American life at the time Thomas Jefferson became president and now.

After taking his oath of office, the NAM says, Jefferson rode back on Pennsylvania avenue and:

Mexican Pineapple Is Boon To Co-Ops

COLLEGE STATION, Bay 18—Shipments of Mexican-grown pineapples, bought cooperatively by Texas home demonstration club women, are finding a welcome reception.

One of the early reports reaching the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service headquarters tells of the success of a pineapple venture made by the marketing committee of the Lipscomb County Home Demonstration Council. Within four days after preliminary arrangements had been made with the importer, the order for 400 dozen pineapple was complete. In all, 315 families placed orders. Wanda Kimbrell, Lipscomb county home demonstration agent, has advised the Extension home industries specialist, Myrtle Murray.

The pineapple arrived three days later. To replace those which were smashed or spoiled, the importer shipped an additional eight dozen, but only 23 were damaged in transit. One member of the marketing committee utilized the bruised fruit that same day.

Many of the pineapple weighed five to six pounds, and none weighed under three. The purchasers also were well pleased with their pineapple, which were of the sugarloaf variety. So successful was the deal, that a later canvass indicated an additional 300 dozen might be ordered to meet the needs of families who did not order on the first shipment.

Among other council marketing committees now considering cooperative purchase of pineapple are those of Seury, Mitchell, Runnels, according to press dispatches and reports from county home demonstration agents.

Not only can fruit salad be a totally different composition every time you make it, it can also be used for any one of the courses in a meal. First it can be served instead of a fruit cup at the beginning of luncheon or dinner.

Next fruit salad can be the main course at luncheon, for a party, for just the family, or for a picnic. Few people think of it for the latter use, but try it some time and see if it doesn't make a tremendous hit. Prepare a mixture of grapes, halved and pitted, orange sections, dark red cherries, cantaloupe in season, strawberries, raspberries, blueberries, apple chunks—all other fruit you find in the market. Not all of these at once, naturally, but three or four or five. Take these to the picnic in a chilled jar or thermos jug, well mixed with mayonnaise and a dash of salad herbs. Serve on lettuce, accompanied by date-nut sandwiches spread with cream cheese.

Finally, fruit salad makes a fine dessert. It can be served on lettuce with mayonnaise or whipped cream (if you can make it). Or it can be served "as is" with a custard sauce. In the accompanying photograph, you will see such a fruit salad prepared in a gelatin mold. It has a particularly practical aspect for the family of two. It's made from quick-frozen fruits. Half a package is plenty for two people at one meal. If you then leave the rest of the fruit for another meal it tends to darken and become unattractive looking. So why not put the second half of the package into a jellied mold at once and

Softball League Softball Games Played At Park

Two fast moving games in the Big Spring Bombardier School

enisted men's softball league, played Wednesday evening under city park lights, were settled by one-run margins.

Maintenance and Supply took the Wildcats, 4-3, and in the closing tilt, Station Guards eked out a 1-0 win over Ordance.

Total hits for MS stood at eight and the Wildcats connected for only three. Batteries for MS were Bredemeyer and Campbell and for the Wildcats Pinoso and Bristow. Riley led hitting with two runs batted in.

It took nine innings for the Guards to nose out Ordance. So lightly contested was the tilt that only two hits went to each team. Heider, twirling for Ordance, struck out 14 Guard batters. Harrell, on the other hand, whiffed eight Ordance swingers.

The enlisted men's league plays under the city park lights each Wednesday and Friday evenings and the public is invited to attend.
