Sharp Says City Has No Serious Juvenile Problem

Sheriff Lowell Sharp Wednesday told Hereford Lions he didn't think Hereford had a "serious juvenile problem."

Sharp said there had been one or two fights on the school grounds but as far as he knew, other than some cases of mischievous vandalism, that was all the situation amounted to.

Sharp denied any knowledge of "dope" being used by students. He said that there undoubtedly had been some marijuana in Hereford since so many migrant farm workers had been here, however.

Waterworks Bond Election Is Set For January 14 By City

Ground Storage, New Wells Are Needed, Engineer Says

A $450,000 revenue bond issue to improve and extend Hereford's waterworks and sewer system has been called by the City Commission.

Actually there will be three separate issues on the ballot. Proposition number one will be the refunding issue.

When the outstanding bonds were approved by voters in 1947, state law prohibited issuance of any more revenue bonds until those were retired.

Proposition number two calls for the issuance of $385,000 in revenue bonds for the "purpose of constructing improvements and extensions to the City's waterworks system."

The third proposition involves the issuance of $65,000 in revenue bonds for the "purpose of constructing improvements and extensions to the City's sanitary sewer system."

In announcing the bond issue City Commissioners said, "This is a revenue bond issue and not a tax bond issue. It will not increase anyone's taxes."

The resolution passed by the Commission says in part that, "... the holder or holders of such bonds shall never have the right to demand payment thereof out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

Commissioners called the bond election after recent conferences with their consulting engineer, M. R. Smith Jr., and a number of bond men.

Need for the improvements were pointed out in the report Smith gave the Commission. He said that present requirements during the peak season total seven million gallons a day, or 4650 gallons a minute.

The D. R. Grimes had a recent family get-together in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wall. Those present were Mrs. Irene Sellars and son, David Monroe, C. P. Grimes of Circle, Montana, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dufur of Westway community, Junior Hyde and their daughter, Patsy, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wall and sons, Billy Joe and John.

Sharp Says City Has No Serious Juvenile Problem

Sheriff Lowell Sharp Wednesday told Hereford Lions he didn't think Hereford had a "serious juvenile problem."

Citing recent "news stories and gossip," Sheriff Sharp said that things were about the way they were "when we were growing up, only then they didn't call it juvenile delinquency."

Sharp said there had been one or two fights on the school grounds but as far as he knew, other than some cases of mischievous vandalism, that was all the situation amounted to.

He said a number of teenagers were roaming the streets late at night, but were not breaking any laws. Asked if he thought a curfew would help the situation he said, "It would help us some."

The Sheriff said the only way he knew to curb juvenile trouble was for parents to pay more attention to their children.

"Too many parents get mad at us because we don't keep a better eye on their children," he declared.

Sharp denied any knowledge of "dope" being used by students. He said that there undoubtedly had been some marijuana in Hereford since so many migrant farm workers had been here, however.

James H. Brooks Is Buried Here Tuesday Afternoon

Funeral services for Mr. James Henry Brooks, 73, were held Tuesday at the First Methodist Church with the Rev. Don Davidson of Levelland and Rev. S. M. Dunnam of Hereford officiating.

Mr. Brooks died Saturday at the Plainview hospital in Plainview. He was born July 30, 1882 at Tule, Miss. Mr. Brooks married Ida Dobbins May 12, 1908 at Clyde and moved to Deaf Smith County in 1925 from Lockney, Tex. He was a retired barber.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Ida Brooks of Hereford; two daughters, Mrs. Yondell Dyer of Dimmitt and Mrs. Lyndell West of San Rafael, Calif.

Gilliland Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

New Thomas Food Store To Open

Thomas Food Store will open in their newly completed building on Thursday, J. W. Thomas, owner, announced this week.

Featuring 6100 square feet of floor space, the modern new building, located at the corner of Twenty-five Mile Avenue and Park Avenue, was just completed last week.

Thomas also announced that his son, Harold Thomas, will be an associate of the store.

"We plan to feature personalized service," Thomas said. The store is equipped throughout with self-service fixtures.

Station are a new pump building, a 750 g.p.m. booster pump and a 2100 g.p.m. booster pump.

Smith drew up a long-range plan for the City, stating that studies of "available well sites indicate that well fields can be developed for the C Street and McKinley Street pumping stations within the present city limits or areas adjacent to the city limits."

In his long range report the engineer recommended 17 new well sites. Commissioners decided to go ahead with improvements at present — providing the bond issues are approved — as outlined for Smith for the next five years.

The engineer's report showed that at present the average daily consumption the year round is 1,200,000 gallons. However, during the peak season, requirements climb to 7,000,000 gallons a day.

Smith told the Commission that to have a safe water supply they must be able to meet those peak demands. He estimated that the peak daily need by 1960 would climb to 9,300,000 gallons; by 1970 to 11,600,000 gallons and by 1975 to 13,500,000 gallons daily.

The city at present has five wells. Those wells, plus the four proposed wells that are earmarked pending on the election, would give the city a supply of about 7,800,000 gallons a day. That figure is based on Smith's 600 gallons per minute.

The engineer recommended that the fifth well be drilled in 1967.

Smith's report stated that storage is the City's number one problem. He recommended the ground storage as the best for the City's needs.

"Based on the State Fire Insurance Commission requirements," the report said, "the present elevated storage is about 25 percent deficient; however, this is not a serious condition when a ample ground storage is provided. Since we have provided ample ground storage and will have a reserve booster capacity, we recommend that the installation of additional elevated storage be deferred until 1960, at which time we recommend the installation of an elevated tank having the capacity of approximately 250,000 gallons in the

Funeral Services Are Held Here Tuesday For Gerald Witherspoon

Funeral services were held here Tuesday at the First Baptist Church for Gerald W. Witherspoon, 20, who died Christmas Day in Lubbock of a "self inflicted" gunshot wound.

Conducting the service were Rev. Russell Wingert, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Howard Scott, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Witherspoon's death was ruled a suicide by Lubbock Justice of the Peace George McCleskey. According to the JP, the Texas Tech student first fatally wounded I. C. Enochs Jr., 30, and then turned the gun on himself. Both Witherspoon and Enochs had been dating Mrs. Barbara Carpenter Keene who was a witness to the shooting.

Witherspoon was born April 8, 1935. He was a 1954 graduate of Hereford High School and a sophomore at Texas Tech.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Witherspoon of Hereford; one sister, Irene Witherspoon of Hereford; and his grandmother, Mrs. Carl Gilliland of Hereford.

Palbearers were Richard Tucker, Kit C. Sanderson, Farris Brock, Tate Graham, Charles Whitehead and Smiley Derrickson.

Burial was in West Park Cemetery under the direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

By JIMMIE GILLENTE

The Hereford police had the Christmas spirit Saturday in a big way. Around 10 o'clock they were searching diligently for five people who got tickets for parking violations early that morning. Their sole object was to get back the tickets. They decided to give no parking tickets on Christmas Eve, but forgot to tell the old boy who checked the meters—and five tickets were passed out before he got the word. Anyway, it was a nice gesture, and was probably appreciated more by the five early birds than by the rest of us.

The Christmas spirit also invaded the Kiplinger outfit, which usually restricts any printing of their forecasts. They came out with a letter on population and said, "print any or all of it." What's more, some of it makes fairly good sense. Take babies, for instance. They say "The baby boom is continuing. . . it stays on the high plateau of past 9 years, promises to run on and on. Birth rate hovers around 25 new babies for each 1000 population."

"As for marriages, they run along about as usual in the picture." The time is coming though when the JP and the parson will see a great boom in the marriage business. . . in 1960. . . by those from the birth wave of the 40's. And then all through the 60's, another all-time high baby boom.

Also of interest is the fact that the gal who is unmarried, but interested, should go to the rural areas, where there are 152 single men for every 100 single women. The national average, incidentally, is 109 for every 100 women of marriage age. This gives the country lass quite an edge over her city sister.

Final conclusion of the deal, according to Kiplinger, is more houses, more business, more schools, and more appliances. Yes, even more taxes.

Kiplinger failed to mention it, but the whole trend is toward a tremendous capital increase in real estate values. Did you ever stop to think that the rabbit trend on American population figures indicates an ultimate shortage of land similar to that of Japan, China, England and other foreign countries. Russia and the Americas are the strongest world powers today—and practically the only ones with available land of practical and usable conditions.

Another prediction (mine, not Kiplinger's) is that the United States will become a nation of small corporations. Businesses like

We have in Hereford, for instance, are costing so much in stocks, fixtures and equipment, that it will soon be impossible to continue with large scale individual ownership. Consequently, small corporations will begin to dot the courthouse records, chiefly as a means of providing necessary finances to purchase the businesses. Anyone with a farm, a home or a business should think twice before he sells. They will be harder and harder to replace. Taxes also eat sharply into the profits.

About 1956. Many people are a little bit blue. They figure that business will be down. Locally, however, I think it will be very much like 1954. . . it will be down in the first quarter, then will make a strong come back. A lot of the slump, in fact, will be due to psychology of the people, especially the business element. The last six months will probably be a lulu. That was the year I said, "More in '54. . . Wait and See." The same old boys who held back until the last six months are holding back now. They are jittery. I figure we will follow the same pattern. You just can't beat the combination of "More Marriages" and "More Babies." It always creates lots of business. . . even for the farmer, who supplies the food.

In fact, all of this points toward a heyday for the American farmer. My opinion, not Kiplinger's! All of these people must eat—and the farmer is the food supplier. Farm population was 30% million in 1940, but is only 22 million now. In 1930 one-third of the population was farmers, now they are around seventh. Improved machinery and government regulations have resulted in the situation, but it can't continue forever. With the next zoom in population (the 60's) we can also expect to see the farmer in a most enviable position. Food is an absolute necessity—and he will be the white haired boy.

Along the same line comes announcement of the City Bond issue to increase water facilities. The issue, they say, will provide sufficient water supply for 40,000 people—and will take care of current connections. Future expansion however, would possibly create a need for additional distribution equipment. Anyway, they say it is a must. The City has done an excellent job of absorbing costs of expansion through general and operating funds. Now, the time has come. We must have improved pumping and storage facilities—or start digging our own wells and putting up windmills. In other words, we either pass the bonds, or we run out of water next spring and summer. It's as simple as that. I think every other kid in Hereford got a Pogo stick for Christmas. You see them everywhere you go. Some of them are pretty fair, too. John Gilliland was demonstrating the other day. He can bounce around without using his hands—sometimes, even with just one foot on the gadget. It is also safe to guess that most of the old bald-headed boys you see limping around "did it" on Junior's Pogo stick. The cussed things seem to have a knack for throwing the oldsters.

Anyway, if you haven't got a Pogo stick around the place, you practically don't count anymore—and you're plenty lucky.

In 1949, Mole Hill, W. Va., changed its name to Mountain.

northwest part of the City."

Asked by a reporter if the passage of the bond issue would necessitate an increase in water rates, Commissioners said no. They pointed out that bond men have told them that the bonds would be "very desirable" since the City's yearly water revenue totals more than three times the amount of the bonds, when only two times the amount is required.

"We will not put ourselves in the position of saying that there will not ever be an increase in water rates, however," the City fathers said. "We all know that some of our present rates in the higher usage brackets are too low. In some cases the City is selling wa-

Mail Will Bring Income Tax Forms In Near Future

Deaf Smith County citizens will start getting an expected, but unappreciated "present" this week. H. B. Hamill, head of the area Internal Revenue office, announced Wednesday that the 1955 income tax forms and instructions to individual taxpayers started going in the mail Dec. 27. He urged taxpayers to postpone their inquiries regarding the forms until after Jan. 10.

"Taxpayers receiving tax blanks and instructions by mail should not misplace or discard them, but should save them for use in filing their tax returns, since the supply of instruction pamphlets is limited," he added.

"A study of the new tax forms shows a few changes which make the return easier to complete. A new tax table for married taxpayers filing jointly eliminates the complicated computation on the return for figuring tax on split incomes.

"Farmers who file and pay estimated taxes by the Jan. 15 deadline may also obtain the forms they require at district and local ofices. The post office will have a supply of tax forms for local residents."

Walcott News

By MRS. T. L. COLLINS

Mrs. Roy Pruitt has been in the Deaf Smith County Hospital for several days for observation.

Children and teachers of Walcott School had a special treat for assembly Wednesday morning. Mrs. Carl Perrin gave the story, "The Anniversary." Then two Christmas songs were sung by the group. Mrs. Perrin then presented a humorous interpretation of "The Night Before Christmas." In conclusion the flag pledge and the Lord's Prayer were given in union.

In the cafeteria Tuesday all of Walcott's enrollment were enjoying turkey, dressing and all the trimmings which had been prepared by Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Woods. Thanks to the P-TA for the turkey.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Woods and Doll were surprised and pleased when children and teachers presented them with small gifts and canned food Wednesday after the lunch.

Loose Ends Follow Christmas Holidays

By ROBERTA CAMPBELL

As for any other celebration, here are always loose ends to be picked up after Christmas at a newspaper office.

Pictures of late parties and reports of programs that fail to make the deadline of copy writers who are shoving the hands of the clock a little as they close up their typewriters until after Dec. 25.

Such are the pictures of a Home Demonstration Club meeting for the installation of officers and a practice session of the H. D. Choral Club with a gift exchange afterward.

Most typical of the holiday hangover, however, is the continuance for several days of heavy mail deliveries to be made by the rural carriers.

This year the men who make the rounds over the five rural routes and the Star Route from the local post office were fortunate to have two days in which to get their second wind, but according to past experience they can expect to be taking off any extra pounds put on by feasting by that long race with a belated package for the mail box.

Carriers who load up the back seat of their cars and make the rounds six days a week are: Howard Armstrong, Route 1; E. W. Young, Route 2; E. Ramey, Route 3; A. Petersen, Route 4; Owen Stagner, Route 5 and Jesse Ford who is carrier on the Star Route.

A parcel delivered late loses some of the spirit that would have gone with an earlier postmark and although news carried over from a special edition isn't exactly dead news it's pulse is getting pretty weak.

There has to be something in the paper following a holiday so maybe it is just as well that the printers have not followed the merchants by setting up a reminder "Only (so many) More Copy Days Until Christmas."

LOYALLY CROCKETT
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Some youngsters may switch from the Davy Crockett cap to the Mickey Mouse headgear but not Laurel McCracken.

The 5-year-old came home from Sunday School with a promotion certificate. Her Mom and Dad noted that her religious studies had been conducted for a whole year under the alias of — Laurel McCrackett.

PAPER PROSPECT
ESCANABA, Mich. (AP)—Editor Daily Press reported to Michigan's Upper Peninsula Development Bureau that Upper Peninsula forests now have a wood surplus "that invited conversion of paper industries." Worth based his report on a survey.

Most birds move their wings in unison, but the swift beats its wings alternately.

It is estimated there is a traffic accident every three seconds, on the average in the United States.

Japan has 3,750 motion picture theaters.

"NOR SLEET, NOR SNOW nor gloom of night may not stop the postman," but late postmarks add an extra burden to the heavy mail deliveries made by the rural carriers of the county. On an average the mail sacks don't begin to shrink much until a week or so after Christmas. Carrier shown is Owen Stagner, who is making his round on Route 5. (Staff Photo)

Our thanks to Doyle Johnson and Bill Johnson for the nice FFA calendar they brought to the office. If it is one of those pretty pictures of FFA members in their bright blue jackets. It is published courtesy of the Hereford Implement Company. Rayland Evans has been so very cooperative in all phases of youth work in this area. It is impossible to tell how much benefit business men can be in the promotion of agricultural teaching. This is only one example of Rayland's exhibit of willingness to help. FFA work can not be done by a few people; it has to be the combined efforts of all persons interested in teaching youth the good way of life.

Jess Robinson is doing a good job in teaching agriculture. We hear many fine reports on his work with the boys. He and his wife are very pleasant people and certainly an asset to the community. Jess will want to know how nice and polite and courteous Bill and Doyle were when they came into the office. They insist they aren't kin but friends.

We regret seeing Pat and Loyce Sullivan move. Loyce has been a good agent and so easy to work with. She has been popular with the 4-H girls and their leaders and the people she has worked with have been fortunate in having her instruction in being good citizens and in learning better homemaking practices. Those two things are our purpose in 4-H and Home Demonstration work.

You will be glad to learn that Corinne Stinson from Farwell and Charlotte Tompkins from Panhandle are going to College Station as specialists. They are both Home Management Specialists, but Miss Tompkins will work with home interiors and Miss Stinson will work with the Farm and Home Development program.

The club yearbooks will be to the Club Presidents by Jan 1, or at least before the first club meeting. Too, the agent will meet both the women's and girl's clubs in January if the meetings can be worked in. As the 4-H Clubs meet after school, the agent will probably leave the Home Demonstration Club early and then go to the 4-H Club. The new assistant agent will meet the clubs in February. Part of the girls' yearbook is complete and it will probably be complete by February the first or schedule.

Westway H.D. Party Is Held

Mrs. C. A. Sauley was hostess for the annual Westway Home Demonstration Club Christmas party. There was a short business session before the festivities began. The club voted to disband the sale at the livestock barn south east of Hereford.

Members decided to visit Girltown on Jan. 19. Mrs. Sauley welcomed all guests and then turned the program over to the recreation committee. Mr. Joe Wagoner read the devotion. Mrs. Paul Rudd gave a Christmas story. Mrs. B. B. Northcutt played the piano for the group singing and Mrs. R. L. Wilson lead the songs.

The title of the program was Christmas in other lands. A candle service preceded the installation of officers. Mrs. P. J. Sowell lighted a candle for "Our Demonstrator, Argen Draper." Mrs. Paul Rudd for the presiding officers; Mrs. Joe Wagoner for the incoming officers; and Mrs. C. A. Sauley for the whole club. Mrs. George Turrentine, the present vice-president, installed the following officers for 1956: Mr. C. A. Sauley, president; Mrs. B. J. Northcutt, vice president; Mr. (Continued on Page 3)

Great wind-up to a great year -

Buick Builds 800,000

Highest peak of all time points to Buick as the buy of the year!

LATEST BULLETIN: Buick's total new car production for the United States and Canada in 1955 is crowding 800,000 at the time this goes to press.

Every time you traveled America's roads and streets and highways this year, you saw Buick history being made.

You saw more new Buicks than ever before — because more new Buicks were bought and registered in 1955 than in any previous year since car-building began.

You saw big, beautiful new Buicks in ever-increasing numbers because this year Buick outsold, by far, every other car in the land except the two most well-known smaller cars.

And if you had taken a look behind the scenes, you would have witnessed new Buicks being built at the rate of over three cars per minute to meet the public demand.

As Buick dealers, we recognized this mounting demand from the first —and nurtured it to the fullest benefit of the public.

For, with our growing volume, we were able to offer bigger trade-in allowances — and we did. So more and more people, attracted to the great new Buicks, found it easier and easier to buy them.

Today, the demand continues upward. With the much-wanted 1956 Buick — introduced last month, and now in full production — this calendar year closes with Buick building toward an all-time high of 800,000 Buicks. The New Year starts like a million.

So MAYBE you ought to look into Buick for 1956.

Maybe you ought to look into that stunning new sweep-ahead styling that's winning such raves. Maybe you ought to try the wholly new sweetness of Buick's superb ride — and the precise sureness of handling that goes with it.

Maybe you ought to sample the lofty new horsepower that come from Buick's big new 323-cubic-inch V8 engines — and the brilliant new response of an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* that brings you double-action take-off and a big boost in gas mileage.

Above all, maybe you ought to come in and see for yourself the bedrock value packed into every new Buick — and how much more sheer automobile your money buys here than the same money buys elsewhere.

Drop in first chance you get. We'll show you what solid worth Buick builds into cars to win such soaring success — and how favorable a trade-in allowance we can offer you with such tremendous volume to back us up.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

And now comes the '56

Best Buick yet

Buick builds cars in every price range, including the very lowest. And typical of Buick value in every price class is this buy:

(Staff Photo)

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago

Sunday and Monday were observed as a double holiday. All the churches had some special service partaking of the Christmas spirit on Sunday, and as the banks and post office observed Monday as a legal holiday, that day, too, was observed. Little business was transacted. The round of parties and social functions has continued all the week.

Beginning early after the New Year, The Brand will commence the preparatory work of publishing a Special Edition. In order to give ample time to put out a creditable number, it is now thought that the issue cannot come from the press before April 1. Our reason: The Brand believes that the Hereford country has a near bright future, and it proposes to let others know of our opportunities and advantages in no uncertain terms. Hence the Special Edition.

25 Years Ago

Several records were hung up when the railroad hearing which was concluded at Lubbock last Thursday before Examiner Davis for the Interstate Commerce Commission, in which the Texas & Pacific Railroad, joined by the entire territory between Big Spring and Vega, contested for the right to build a 332 mile railroad, and opposing railway systems, together with a few individuals, asked for a denial of the evasion of the Panhandle by the great Missouri Pacific lines. More people were affected, more mileage involved, a greater number of interests concerned, larger territory brought in than have ever been presented before the commission in its history. Also, there was more testimony put on record than in any previous railroad case.

Plans have been formulated by the American Legion post of Hereford to build a home here, and unless financial difficulties interfere construction of the club house will start some time in the early part of the new year, according to a legion committee which has the matter under advisement. Material and labor are comparatively cheap now, and the post considers a club house can be built at this time cheaper than at a later date. All legionnaires and ex-service men have contributed or will contribute to the fund and quite a number of outside donations have been received. There are others also who will help. The committee wishes to emphasize that there will be no public campaign to raise the $5000 to $7000 which will be needed. Some have offered to make loans to the post, and there are probably others who wish to aid in that matter. If they do, the financial committee is in a receptive mood. The local legion has always taken an active part in the community welfare and it is thought that, with a home here it may become a stronger unit and be in better position to render effective civic service. The 1940 membership totaled 131.

office at midnight March 3 and another was not sworn in until March 5.

At The Movies

With a great big splash of charm fascination and pure entertainment Walt Disney's "Lady and the Tramp" will show Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Star.

Starting from the opening scene a whole wonderful world of dogs cavorts merrily, musically and magically to the delight of all who observe them. There's "Lady," a society-bred cocker spaniel who provides the ingenue interest. There's "Tramp," the soldier of fortune from the wrong side of the tracks who handles the heroines in a manner worthy of Rin-Tin-Tin. And there are others: "Jack," "Trusty," "Boris," "Toughy," "Bull," "Pedro" and "Duchsie," all new additions to the Disney album of animated personalities. And here's a special mention for "Peg," the ex-show dog who almost stops the show with her torchy delivery of the hit ballad "He's A Tramp."

Six desperate convicts go over the wall and trace a bloody trail of violence and fury across several state lines in an explosive manhunt that provides the gripping drama of "Crashout," which will show Saturday night and Sunday matinee at the Texas.

Vividly enacted by a strong cast the story of the six convicts, their fears, conflicts and their women, moves at a breathtaking pace that keeps the audience in suspense from start to finish.

William Bendix is at his dramatic best as the hard and resourceful criminal who plans the break and keeps an iron-handed leadership over the convict band despite several gun-shot wounds sustained in the escape. Arthur Kennedy skillfully plays a killer with a conscience, whose intelligence makes him a formidable rival for leadership. Luther Adler is colorfully cast as a con with an eye for women, and others are William Talman, a cold-blooded menace; Gene Evans, animal-like inmate; and Marshall Thompson, a scared kid who is over his depth in criminal company.

Feminine roles are ably handled by Beverly Michaels, a farm girl with a past of her own who attempts to defy the fugitives, and Gloria Talbot, a girl on the train who is touched by Thompson's appealing personality.

The Texas new play policy is a Mexican picture every Tuesday night and an American movie on Saturday and Sunday.

And as surely as we live this hour, He expects us to use it honorably. Resolve to attend church more often.

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association AUSTIN — Purchasers of insurance policies from U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co., are advised to buy other coverage, for their own safety.

That's the recommendation of Garland Smith, chairman of the Texas Board of Insurance Commissioners. District Judge Charles O. Betts has appointed State Liquidator J. D. Wheeler, as temporary receiver, to take over operation of the multi-million dollar Waco firm which the insurance commissioners have declared insolvent.

U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co., closed last week at Judge Betts' order, has sold fidelity, surety, guaranty, fire, auto, general liability and all forms of casualty insurance except workmen's compensation. Attorney General John Ben Shepherd filed the suit against the firm. Action was necessary to prevent future loss to depositors and other creditors, said the insurance board.

U. S. Automotive Service and Arkansas Fire and Marine Insurance Co., alleged subsidiaries, also were covered by Judge Betts' order. Offices of the firm are located at Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Ft. Worth, Hillsboro, Houston, Lubbock, Sherman, San Antonio, Tyler and Waco. J. B. Alderdice, chief of the safety responsibility division of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said that the department would accept, in lieu of cash security, any automobile liability insurance policy issued by the company up to the date when and if the company finally is placed in receivership.

"However," said Alderdice, "if a suit is filed and judgment obtained against the holder of such a policy, as the result of a motor vehicle accident, and the judgment is not satisfied by either the company or the policy holder, it will be necessary for the department to suspend the driver's license and vehicle registration until the judgment has been satisfied and a proof of financial responsibility for the future is furnished."

More Land Suits Six suits seeking recovery of $288,489 on loans made under the veterans land program were filed in Austin last week by Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepherd. The land is located in Dimmitt, Zavala and Uvalde counties. Suits pertained to block deals made with 42 veterans, mostly Latin-Americans. Ten south Texas land promoters were listed as defendants. This makes a total of 30 such civil suits brought by the state. Total recovery sought is $2,945,381. Total recovered to date, in five suits, is $381,032.

cia. This shifted the balance of power to a commissioners court that sides with the state on where and how Parr shall be tried for recovery of about $1,000,000. Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepherd termed the ruling "a heartening and far-reaching victory."

Texas Leads in Dope Texas leads all other states in illegal narcotics traffic. So says Charles F. Herring of Austin. He stated that pushers find it easy to obtain dope in Mexico-Texas border towns. Herring is a former U. S. District Attorney. He testified at the hearings in San Antonio, before U. S. Senator Price Daniel's subcommittee on dope traffic.

Both the Texas Department of Public Safety and federal units along the border are "seriously undermanned," said Herring. He recommended more men and equipment. ... much stiffer laws. SHORT SPORTS Charles M. Rogers of Amarillo has been reappointed a member of the Teacher Retirement Board of Trustees by Gov. Allan Shivers. Only 15,000 of the state's 38,000 employers have taken steps to comply with the state's new unemployment compensation law which takes effect Jan. 1. The new law includes employers of four or more persons. Previously only employers of eight or more had to pay unemployment taxes.

Bids totaling $6,886,390.57 on 155 miles of road construction were tabulated last week by the State Highway Commission. Contracts let thus far on the Dallas-Ft. Worth toll road will total $13,524,321 after awards are made this week for six bridges. Low bid submitted to the Texas Turnpike Authority was by Harry Newton, Inc., of Graham, for $2,196,273.

Lack of moisture, recurrent freezes and strong dusty winds are slowly strangling wheat prospects in the Plains Country, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Six Texas hospital construction projects have been qualified to receive more than $1,000,000 in federal aid. Approved by the State Board of Health were: Donley County Hospital at Clarendon, Texas; Kansas Hospital, Llano County Hospital at Llano, Joint City-County Public Health Center at Ft. Worth and Wichita General Hospital at Wichita Falls.

Col.-Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety predicts violent death for 204 Texans during the Christmas-New Year's holiday. He estimated 112 traffic deaths, 39 murders and suicides and 53 other accidental deaths. Last year's traffic prediction and final count was 108.

Bright factors in the Texas Employment Commission's annual report to the governor: (1) Unemployment hit a new low in August. (2) Workers covered by unemployment compensation increased 5.1 percent. (3) Earnings of production workers increased, to average $75.42 weekly.

Infestation of pink bollworms is worse this year than last, says State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White. He warns farmers to plow up fields of cotton stalks.

MARRIAGE MAST CLOSED LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Sam Kirby, director of the Arkansas Publicity and Propaganda Bureau, received information in this state.

... told newsmen about it and the story got around over the country. Now he's being swamped with letters from far and near from women who want a place on the list of husband seekers—and a few from men who want the women's names. A woman in Los Angeles wrote: "I have one now but I really could use a new one. . . He's over 50 and I'm 23. . . I can't cook good, but I'm good in other things." A girl in Oklahoma City described herself as "pretty if not in a bright light."

Kirby is answering none because his job is to publicize the state's natural resources and "that doesn't include matrimony."
