Pioneer Cattleman's Funeral Rites Today

W. R. (Bob) HIGGINS

Funeral services for W. R. (Bob) Higgins, 77, early settler and widely known cattleman, will be held at 2 p. m. today from the First Baptist Church in Hereford. Rev. Howard Soot, pastor, will officiate at the services.

Mr. Higgins died in the Deaf Smith County hospital Tuesday, Aug. 7, at 8 p. m., following an illness of two years' duration. He had been confined to the hospital since March 18, 1956.

"Bob", as Mr. Higgins was known over the entire area by young and old, was born Aug. 8, 1879, at Old Fort, Tenn. At the age of eight, he came to Texas with his family, and settled in Wilbarger County, near Vernon.

Moved West
"We came by train, livery buggy and 'ankle express'," Bob often told friends in recounting his early day experiences. In the fall of 1898 Bob decided to again "go West" and, this time, landed in Deaf Smith County.

"A small grocery store, a tent restaurant and a water tank," was Bob's general description of Hereford when he arrived "before the railroad" and, as Bob always insisted, "15 years before the moon."

During those first years, he worked for his uncle, Billy Higgins, for Jack Killough and for Andrew J. Lipscomb as a ranch hand. Later, he went to work for the three-million-acre XIT Ranch, Escabada Division, as a full-fledged cowhand.

Before The Feuces
"We had great times," Bob always said regarding these years. "We drove cattle all over the Panhandle—and there wasn't a wire fence for 300 miles in any direction." He also recalled as the most hectic of pioneer hardships, the sweeping prairie fires, especially the one in 1906, which roared in from New Mexico, burning a strip over 125 miles long and 50 miles wide.

On Aug. 15, 1907, he married Miss Mary Ada Wood at Quitman, Wood County, and brought his bride to Deaf Smith County. They settled on his ranch 10 miles northwest of Hereford and made their home there until 1943, when they moved into town. Until 1943, Mr. Higgins was proud of the fact that he was the only pioneer living on the land on which he originally filed.

By this time his two sections, one purchased for $16, had grown to 14 sections, and he had become widely known as a cattleman and outstanding breeder of purebred Hereford cattle.

Injected Humor
During these years, Mr. Higgins contributed much to the growth and expansion of Hereford and to Deaf Smith County, always taking an active part in community affairs. He was most widely known, however, as a practical joker—and never missed an opportunity to inject humor into a situation.

"When Bob got there, things always picked up!" Such was the opinion of his friends and neighbors, who saw that Bob Higgins contributed to the morale of this area than any other man, especially during periods of drought, depression, and other difficult times. This quality Bob continued down through the years, making him one of the most widely known and best loved of the old timers who continued to reside in the area and to attend the Pioneer Reunions from year to year.

Survivors

Around Town

If you are going away to school this fall for the first time or returning to the college of your choice, call or write the woman's editor, Mrs. John McLean, 243 W. Fifth St. (phone 181) so that your name may be included in an article now being prepared for the Hereford Brand. Please give your name, the name of your parents, your choice of school and how classified.

The next meeting for the High School Board of trustees will be on Aug. 14 in the high school building. Items on the school board agenda will be: Formal adoption of the budget for 1956-57; opening of bids for milk for school lunch rooms and for gasoline delivery for bus transportation.

Students who plan to enroll in Hereford High School for the term of 1956-57 who did not arrange a schedule last year, are asked to go by the principal's office now and see about a schedule.

Parking meter business is booming in Hereford! Mrs. Melvina Harris, Hereford's new meter maid, completed two ticket books and began her third on her first day of work Monday. She is now wearing a neat blue and white home-tailored uniform while on duty, because her tailor-made uniform has not arrived from Amarillo.

Second Primary's Ballots To Carry Just Eight Names

Absentee balloting in the Democratic party run-off election began in the county on Tuesday. The absentee ballots are being distributed by the County Clerk's office.

Ballot printing was delayed two days for the state committee to clear the way for the state's two top offices. Ben Ramsey will be the only candidate on the ballot for the Lieutenant-Governor's post. A. M. Alken, Jr., who won a run-off position with Ramsey in July primary voting, withdrew from the race.

For the governor's office, Price Daniel and Ralph Yarborough will appear on the ballot. In the attorney-general's race, Will Wilson and Tom Moore will be listed.

Two county run-offs were necessary both for precinct commissioners. For Precinct 1, incumbent Commissioner M. T. (Marion) Rutter will oppose Charles R. Sowell. J. T. Gunn, incumbent, and Charles R. Hoover will be seeking the commissioner's position in Precinct 3.

Ballots were received in the county clerk's office on Tuesday morning. County Clerk Ralph Smith said that Aug. 21 is the deadline for absentee voting. Mailed ballots must be in the county clerk's office by noon, Aug. 23.

TO ATTEND CELEBRATION
Mrs. J. E. Cockrell left Friday for Louisville, Ky., where she attended Golden Wedding Anniversary celebrations held by her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Apton. Mrs. Cockrell plans to make an extended visit with relatives in Kentucky.

BUMPER YIELD—If he'd had any better onions Bill Kendall would have had to rent land to hold the sacks," said one amazed oldtimer as he surveyed this field five miles west of Hereford on the Harrison Highway. The yield was about 1,300 sacks per acre—near record harvest for this area. The onion "season" this year has stretched out longer than usual with some fields still to be cut. ## VACCINATE! Limit Off Salk Shots

The lid is off on polio vaccinations. Dr. R. R. Wills reported this week that there are now no restrictions on vaccine since the federal allocation of Salk vaccine has ended. More-than-adequate supplies make the change-over possible.

"It's a distinct advantage, and every person of any age and race should get his polio shots," said Dr. Wills, county health officer.

There were two polio cases in Hereford during 1955.

THIRD WOMAN ATTACKED HERE; BEATS OFF COLORED ASSAILANT

City police and the sheriff's department are seeking a colored man who reportedly attacked an 18-year-old Latin-American girl shortly before 11 p. m. Tuesday at the Gault Apartments on New York St.

Police said the girl reported she was awakened by a man attempting to smother her with a pillow. After a brief struggle she managed to scream for help.

Two other girls came to her aid as the assailant fled. The girl did not require medical attention. Descriptions of the man given by the three girls varied, police said.

This was the third occasion since mid-June on which women reported to officers that they were attacked in their bedrooms by a colored man. Law enforcement officials are still seeking the assailants in the first two cases.

Postal Receipts Continue Climb Over 1955 Total

Hereford postal receipts for the month of July totaled $6,615.28, according to Jim Lipscomb, postmaster. This brings the total receipts for the year to a booming $39,940.92 with an increase of $1,262.63 over the same seven-month period of 1955.

June receipts this year were $7,544.80, and the July receipts decreased $928.52 over the month of June.

The July receipts increased $849.68 over the same month of 1955, when receipts totaled $5,766.60.

June has the highest monthly receipts in 1956, with $7,544.80, and July is placed second. May is next with a total of $5,346.25 and next in place is the month of April with receipts totaling $5,246.35.

It would be impossible to use $2.75-an-hour workmen and equally impractical to run the job over to inexperienced 75-cent labor. Dealt Off
"I'll talk to my banker, and try to start in the morning," said Cates, when questioned regarding the work. He also declined several offers to buy studding, steel doors and other materials.

"Nothing will be sold until it has been completely torn down and moved to Dimmitt," he said. Cates also told one would-be wrecker that he planned to demolish the building board by board, not by sections.

Otto Massey, Marion Rutter and Donald Hicks represented the Commissioners Court at the sale, and appeared to show only passive interest in the price brought by the barn. The figure brought the county's return close to its full-insured price of $15,000, however. The

Slate More Action On Airport Project

The plow of progress slipped back into the furrow here Wednesday morning when more than 30 community leaders told the airport committee to continue its planning work.

After Dr. H. A. (Hap) Cavness reported on action undertaken to date which has been pointed toward utilization of a $139,500 allocation from the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the actual needs of the community were discussed at length.

Before the meeting closed, Cavness, Bill Dameron and Darrell Blanton received what amounted to a vote of confidence and advice to map out a definite proposal as to the cost of an airport that would qualify for a part of the CAA funds and be expanded as its usage increases.

Next Meeting
Cavness indicated that a meeting of the 45-day-old committee with civic group presidents and a CAA official will be scheduled for late August after more groundwork on the project is accomplished.

Four members of the county Commissioners Court, Judge Homer Henslee, Marion T. Rutter, Otto Massey and J. T. Gunn attended the meeting. The City Commission was represented by Dr. R. R. Wills, Troy Moore and City Manager Dudley Bayne.

"Not Too Big"
Carl McCaslin echoed a frequently expressed opinion in answering a request for opinions on the airport issue: "I don't think we should start too big."

J. A. Pitman put in a strong plug for building an airport here as a means for future progress, but recalled "that back in the 'Thirties' Deaf Smith County was the only county in this area that wouldn't take WPA money. Then we were

CITY COMMISSION

The city fathers took a hard look Monday night at reports that there has been dancing in town on the past two Sunday nights. The result: New City Ordinance No. 460. It prohibits public dances on Sunday within the city limits or within 5,000 feet of the city on Sunday.

A penalty by fine for conviction was set at not less than $20 nor more than $50 for any person violating the ordinance.

City Attorney Earnest Langley said Wednesday that he believes the no dancing decree legal and enforceable. It is backed up by an 1871 state law.

The dances in question, staged for Latin-Americans, drew many complaints from Hereford citizens. The members of the City Commission received their share, as did the police department. The discovery that no local ordinance prohibited Sunday dancing was one that surprised the Dads.

W. H. Baburn, 32, of Clovis, driver of the car which collided with that driven by Montello, was released from the hospital Sunday night after treatment for severe bruises and head lacerations.

Highway patrolman reported that at 5:50 p. m. the Montello car approached in the opposite lane and suddenly made a left turn which ended in the near-head-on crash of the two vehicles.

Graveside rites for Mr. Rodriguez were to be conducted at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Dimmitt cemetery with Father Raymond Gilliland of Hereford officiating. Gilliland's Funeral Home of Hereford was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Rodriguez was born July 17, 1926 in Bastrop County and moved to the Dimmitt area in 1954. He was employed on the A. J. Kemp farm.

Survivors include his wife, An-drea, of Dimmitt; three sons, two daughters; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rodriguez of Dimmitt; five brothers and four sisters.

Permits issued during the past month by the City of Hereford for July climbed to a record high for any single month this year. Six permits were given out, totaling $109,500.

The total was a marked increase over that of July, 1955, when $94,000 was the total. But the year's total is well below that of 1955, when 216 construction permits were granted for a total of $2,028,287 property valuation during the 12-month period.

Permits issued during the past month by the City of Hereford for July climbed to a record high for any single month this year. Six permits were given out, totaling $109,500.

Jim Hill Estate Ups Grant; But $7,500 Required

The proposed $111,000 hospital wing remained in a deadlock this morning, according to Wayne Thomas, president of the Deaf Smith Hospital Board, while sponsors continued a whirlwind, three-day drive to raise $7,500 by noon Friday, August 10, in an effort to save the project.

"We are so near—yet so far," was the manner in which Thomas summed up the dilemma.

To condense the situation into a few words, the hospital board found themselves with a total of $103,500 in cash and pledges as compared with a contractor's bid of $106,000, plus architect's fees and incidentals which ran the total cost to $111,000.

Situation Improved
Bad as the situation was, however, it showed an improvement over that of Tuesday morning, when it was reviewed at a joint meeting of the hospital board, Commissioners Court and a representative of the J. E. Hill Estate.

After understanding the complete details, trustees of the Hill Estate held a special meeting and increased their donation from $50,000 to a maximum of $57,500—which covered their half of the additional building costs. This left the hospital board in the position of needing another $7,500 within three days, at which time the bidders could void construction offers.

In addition, the group is faced with the problem of meeting terms of the Hill Estate offer by starting construction prior to September 1, 1956.

Previous Grant
Originally estimated at $100,000, the wing was designed and money raised in conjunction with a $50,000 grant made by the Hill Estate, which called for matching local funds without the issuance of warrants of bonds which might create additional taxes.

Both sides fulfilled their obligation, but when the bids were opened, the lowest read at $123,000—an excess of $23,000 beyond available moneys.

"Extras" Eliminated
At a joint meeting between the boards and architect, the group shaved off all extras, including: two patient rooms, terrazzo floor borders, piped-in oxygen, acoustical ceilings, window louvers and other practical deletions. The final result was a net cost of $111,000 including fees. The groups met again Tuesday to consider further cuts, which went as high as five more patient rooms—and stiffed themselves short by some $3,000 and approximately 25 percent of their original floor space.

It was at this point that the Hill Estate trustees acted to make available the additional $7,500 in matching funds.

The original plan called for 15 patient rooms, a solarium and a chapel. As things now stand, the plans call for 13 patient rooms, a solarium and a chapel—and the structure has been shorn of all extras, according to board members.

Hit False Economy
Scores of possible plans were reviewed at the joint meeting of the Commissioners Court and the hospital board. All persons involved, including Owen Bybee, representative of the Hill Estate, expressed opinions that elimination of the seven rooms would be false economy.

"It is just up to the people," said Thomas. "They have a chance to get a $111,000 hospital addition for another $7,500—and not a cent in future taxes—unless they say no."

Will anyone? We will appreciate it if any interested persons will contact some member of the hospital board, or call T. E. Seigler, hospital manager, with additional contributions. Everyone has been wonderful. We hate to come back and ask again. However, it does look like a wonderful bargain for everyone concerned."

If the hospital board faced a difficult situation, they found a parallel in the Commissioners Court. Deaf Smith County stood to gain a $111,000 turnkey job on hospital expansions which they have pronounced to be inevitable—but terms of the agreement specify that no warrants or bonds be issued to cover cost of the new structure, which left their hands tied.

BULL BARN HISTORY

Landmark Sold For Just $700; Began, Ended Auction Center

The old Bull Barn, historic landmark of Hereford, was sold today to the economy of this area than possibly any other single building sold under the hammer of the State Auction Co. at the round figure of $700 at 10:30 a. m. Monday morning. The building was purchased by Derox Cates, Dimmitt carpenter, who said that it will be completely demolished and moved to Dimmitt, where he plans to use the materials to construct houses.

Cates will have 30 days to dismantle and remove the structure, according to terms of the auction. His successful $700 bid followed a 20-minute round of sluggish bidding and came when he raised a $675 offer made by Ralph Hastings of Hereford. Pete Engle opened bidding on the structure at $100, and bidding advanced slowly in jumps of $50 and $25 a round. Around 25 people attended the sale, but only three or four made bids. As to whether an offer acquired a "bonanza in lumber" or "latched onto a lemon" was strictly a matter of opinion, according to spectators who viewed the sale. The structure included approximately 16,000 square feet of floor space, and was mostly lumber. Valuable Lumber

Early day construction featured heavy dimension materials instead of modern day steel trusses—and retail prices on many of the beams would run more than $3 a linear foot.

Demolition of the building, however, was the big problem which kept eating away at the minds of bidders and spectators. This fact, coupled with high labor costs, led many observers to estimate that it would "cost a fortune" to raze the old barn. They speculated that it

The structure, which soon also came to be used as headquarters for scores of community gatherings, the Hereford Breeders approached the Commissioners Court regarding their problems, and they turned the building over to Deaf Smith County on October 26, 1925. Since that time it has been owned and operated by the county.

Saw High Sales
Because of its primary purpose as a focal point for selling purebred cattle—along with the phenomenal prices of $10,000 and up occasionally paid for bulls—citizens of the area soon dubbed the sales pavilion as the "Bull Barn". During its 33-year history, the old barn has attracted practically all of the big names in the cattle business. In its early days, too, it was regarded as one of the finest cattle auction pavilions in the United States.

In this respect, the "Bull Barn" became synonymous with the town of Hereford. In its heyday, the barn was often the scene of some of the nation's foremost purebred cattle sales as interest in the breed grew, and mixed Herefords replaced the once familiar Texas Longhorns on the ranges of Texas and New Mexico.

Some of the earlier breeders in this area were L. R. Brady, who imported the first Hereford cattle to this community; G. R. "Rat" Jowell, the man who motivated the industry in this area; Dameron and Jones, for many years sponsors of world-famous linebred Herefords—and scores of others.

Aided Economy

To all of these early breeders, the "Bull Barn" was a merchandise mart where they displayed the nation's finest cattle. To the community, it became a central point of economy, because proceeds from the big sales provided a great portion of the money which circulated from business house to business house, then from hand to hand in the area.

Even during the "depression", the sale of purebred range bulls helped residents of the area meet their bills and make mortgage payments.

Hereford, in fact, became so widely known as the home of fine cattle that it was generally conceded to be the "Hub of the Hereford Empire", a slogan later adopted by Amarillo (long before the days of the Golden Spread).

Entertainment Center
While the old "Bull Barn" provided a sound economy for the community, it also doubled in the role of furnishing entertainment and providing quarters which served as a sort of community auditorium.

The late Alex Thompson recalled as late as 1955 how the old timers of this section used to gather in the pavilion to enjoy the World Series.

"There were no radios or TV," said Alex; "all we had were telegraph reports. We would gather in the Bull Barn, erect a big blackboard with a sketch of the playing field—and would diagram out the plays as the reports came in by runner."

Alex said the reports were a little late, but folks would sit enthralled as the plays were charted, and, when the occasion was right, the place would literally ring with shouts.

Times Change

By the mid-30's, low cattle prices had sent the interest in purebred cattle surging downward. Things began to pick up between 1936 and 1940, however, during which time appeared the last of the region's big purebred Hereford sales. These were sponsored by Ed East, D. L. McDonald, Elmer Dameron and Alton Fraser. G. R. Jowell, the one man who most merited the title of "Hereford's Mr. Hereford", was still on hand and, as in the past, sparkplugged the events. Some people thought that "Happy Days Were Here, Again."

However, World War II loomed on the horizon and people began talking about potatoes, onions and carrots instead of purebred cattle. From this point on, the old Bull Barn continued to decline in use so far as its original purpose and intent were concerned.

Renewed Interest

After the war came the annual Junior Livestock Show, covering an area of four counties and, once again, the Bull Barn hit the spotlight. Crowds thronged the pavilion the schools within their respective zones.

In case the new Alkman elementary school is not completed by registration time, a plan will be worked out for students in that zone to enroll in Shirley School, Cunningham said.

Junior high enrollment will take place on Aug. 31. Two dates, Aug. 31 and Sept. 1, have been set for Hereford High School registration. More instructions on school registration will be released later.

FAVORABLE RATES

ALBANY, N. Y. —Telephone companies in Greenwich and Salamanca, N. Y., have one customer apiece.

Richard H. Balch, public service commissioner, explains that users who originally established their own companies have retained company identity ever since. The rates are more favorable for them than if they buy service from a big company.

lon, auctioneers cried their chants and, from time to time, sharp bidding would leave the throngs hushed and silent.

It was about this time that Deaf Smith County realized that it was growing in assets as well as population. The Commissioners Court, faced with necessity of erecting a storage point for road equipment, solved the problem by using property already on hand, namely, the Bull Barn. The Hereford Lions Club also went into the wrestling promotion business on Saturday nights and, as ever in the past, they found the answer in the dilapidated old Bull Barn.

Hotel Jim Hill was built with a huge new ball room and, consequently, the old sales pavilion found itself replaced as a point of entertainment as well as the hub of Hereford economy. During recent years, in fact, the annual livestock show and the weekly wrestling matches, along with daily services as a machinery depot, provided the only uses for which the building appeared practical.

Fire Damages

Ten, possibly from the lighted cigarette of a careless smoker, the building burst into flames. Some people jokingly said it was a shame that Hereford has such an efficient fire department; others wondered if the county would now do something about a new cattle barn and a few old timers, maybe, wiped a tear or so from their eyes as they viewed the remains—and recalled what the building had meant to them as they reared their children on a new frontier two decades ago.

Ring Down Curtain

The County Dads thought it over, however, and they checked with citizens from all walks of life. The story was always the same: the usefulness of the Bull Barn had become a thing of the past.

Insurance settlements were made and on Monday morning, according to schedule, the barn was sold.

The voice of the auctioneer rang out for the last time within the halls of the old pavilion. He pleaded, threatened, then cajoled prospective buyers—and his final bid was $700.

The hammer rang down. Silence echoed through the arena. The history of the Bull Barn came to a close. Public auction, the basic reason for its very existence, had turned into a Frankenstein to write its finish.

Museum Traces Circus History

SARASOTA, Fla. —Visitors to the Ringling Museums now may see exhibits tracing development of the circus from its earliest days to the present.

Two buildings once used for storage by the late John Ringling, circus king who died nearly 20 years ago, have been reopened as the Museum of the Circus.

They were first used as display rooms several years ago but now have been redecorated and rearranged to house hundreds of circus historical pieces.

One contains old circus wagons, including a restored steam calliope; circus trappings and a layout in miniature of a modern circus grounds.

Bill posters of one of the earliest circuses in this country—the North American circus—are on display, as are early costumes, woodcuts, prints, lithographs and etchings.

These trace the origin and development of circuses from the days of strolling entertainers to the present. One poster advertises the circus founded by Philip Astley in London in 1770.

Astley is generally regarded as the father of the modern circus. He constructed an amphitheatre in London and later built one in Paris, showing his acts on a single stage.

Astley, sponsored by Mairre Antoinette, enjoyed such tremendous popularity in Paris that the French government issued an edict limiting Astley's show people to performances on horses.

Astley went back to London where he designed a stage mounted on the backs of horses so his tumblers, jugglers and others could carry on their acts.

The second building contains a museum of freaks and magic. Human freaks long have played an important role in the entertainment field and to this day form one of the biggest attractions on the circus midway.

A huge oil painting which is a composite of all known human and animal freaks dominates the freak museum.

Implements of the magician, including chains, locks and handcuffs used by the late Harry Houdini in performing his escapes, are on display on the museum of magic.

The circus museum buildings are on the grounds of the John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art and the palatial Ringling home, both now owned by the state and open to the public as museums.

Minor Damages Result From Two Accidents

Two recent minor automobile accidents have caused an estimated total of $225 in damages, according to the Hereford Police Department.

In an automobile mishap on Tuesday morning, Woodrow Wilson Ireland, driving a 1956 Dodge station wagon, was involved in a collision at the intersection of Avenue B and Park Avenue with a 1955 Chevrolet driven by Ronald Bridges.

Ireland was charged with driving in a manner likely to endanger lives and property. He pleaded guilty and paid a $100 fine. Damages to the Ireland vehicle were estimated at $100. No damage was reported to Bridge's car.

Richard Wayne Caster, driving a 1953 Dodge, was hit Tuesday afternoon by a 1947 Ford driven by David Alfred Fowler in the 700 block on Main St. Caster was going north on Main when the Fowler vehicle pulled out from a parallel position, both cars running together.

David Alfred Fowler was given a ticket for failure to grant right of way. Damages to the Caster car were estimated at $100. Estimated damages to the Fowler vehicle were $25.

No injuries were reported in either accident.

MOLD AND WEEVILS

CHARLESTON, S. C. —Charleston Evening Post reporter Basil Hall complains about his home telephone number being similar to that of a bread company that gives the correct time when you dial it.

He says that with annoying frequency his phone is rung by callers trying to learn whether it's time for them to get out of bed. He says that one morning about 5 a.m. his phone rang persistently enough to rouse him from a deep sleep. He muttered something into the phone and met with dead silence on the other end.

"That's pretty maddening you say," says.

"Blank Bread is encrusted with mold and is fairly alive with weevils. The time is 3:17."

JAPANESE EXPORT MOVIES

TOKYO —The Japanese movie industry exported 1,050 feature films and 385 newsreels during 1955. Kyodo News Service announced. The overseas profit was $796,507, up 37 percent over 1954.

The United States, Formosa and Okinawa were the largest buyers.

BALTIMORE —Perhaps because younger cities have grown up and surpassed it in population and production, many Baltimoreans take a special interest and pride that the port here still is second in the nation for handling foreign tonnage.

Shipping is such an interesting subject, in fact, that Edward W. Heath and Frank T. Siejack are $50 the poorer for it.

Police broke up a fight between the two seamen—one armed with a knife, the other wielding a beer bottle—and both were later fined $50 in Central Police Court.

The trouble started, said Heath, in a discussion of the state of Baltimore shipping.

INNOCENT BUT JAILED

LOVINGTON, N. M. —Two Lovington oil field workers were recently charged with assault and pleaded innocent before Justice John W. Wrenoc.

But one of the accused men ended up in jail anyway—after pleading guilty to stealing cigarettes while being booked on the assault charge.

The cigarettes had been left on the counter for use of the other prisoners, sheriff's officers said.

In 1950 about half of U.S. spending units (families and single people) had incomes under $3,000 a year compared with half under $4,600 a year in 1955.

Household Tips

Weight watching? You can have your cake and eat it, too, if you'll counterbalance that piece of dessert with an hour's brisk walk.

Embellish those scrambled eggs you are planning to serve for lunch with cooked green asparagus (canned or frozen), anchovies, canned stewed tomatoes, creamed tuna or buttery-crisp croissants.

Fill canned peach halves with mince-meat and heat in the oven. Serve with roast loin of pork when you're having company.

Heat sauerkraut (canned) with a little brown sugar and caraway seed. Serve with frankfurters.

Good dessert: bake an angelfood cake, using a packaged mix. Slice and serve with a standard lemon pudding sauce and dollops of whipped cream. Membrane-free sections of orange, added to the lemon sauce, will make the dessert extra good.

Cook a package of frozen mixed vegetables and drain. Add the liquid you drain from the vegetables to milk and make a medium white sauce. Mix the vegetables, the white sauce and diced cooked ham or chicken; or replace the meat with flaked salmon or tuna. Spoon into a shallow baking dish, cover with tiny cubes of bread mixed with butter and reheat in a moderate or hot oven. Good supper dish!

Some cooks like to add a little finely diced or grated onion to bulk sausage that is shaped into patties and fried.

Mix a cup of finely crushed graham-cracker crumbs with a third cup of butter; pat evenly over bottom and sides of an eight-inch pie plate. Chill, then add a filling of whipped cream (sweetened) and sliced bananas.

You can flatten small balls of cookie dough by pressing them with a floured fork in two directions to make a crisscross pattern.

Pour boiling water over slices of beef liver and let stand for about five minutes; flavor is improved this way.

Strawberry rhubarb, with its tender pink stalks, needs no peeling.

If you want party-style raw-vegetable appetizers to look and taste their best, serve them on a bed of crushed ice in a crystal bowl or on a glass serving plate.

Beef that is to be pot-roasted should be a cut that weighs at least four pounds.

Put enough fat in your skillet, when you are frying fish, to have it about one-eighth inch deep.

Want steamed vegetables to taste their best? Douse them with a couple of tablespoons of butter when they have finished cooking.

When you use margarine for pastry, it is usually not necessary to add much salt.

Softball Twin - Bill Scheduled Tonight

The Hereford Softball League will close the curtain on its regular season play tonight with a double action affair. A double-header will be unveiled, the first game beginning at 8 p. m.

Piggly Wiggly will meet Rocky's Service Station in the initial contest of the evening. The Piggly Wiggly nine will be battling for third place in the tilt with Rocky's. If Rocky's wins, then the Service Station team will have sole possession of third place in the final standings. By winning, Piggly Wiggly would pull even with Rocky's in the standings.

In the event Piggly Wiggly defeats Rocky's, then the managers of the two clubs will flip a coin to decide third and fourth places for the post-season playoffs.

Junior Golfers Slated to Begin Qualifying Today

Qualifying rounds in the Hereford Junior City Golf Tournament will begin today at 9 A. M. at the Hereford Golf Course. Charles Seed is the defending junior champion.

Much play in all flights will be held Friday and Saturday, beginning at 8:30 a.m. Pairings will be made at 6 P. M. today. Entry fee for the tourney is $1.

Four players will be placed in each flight according to their qualifying scores.

Trophies will be awarded to winners and runners-up of each flight. The following business firms are donating the trophies:

Hereford Parts and Supply, Troy Moore's, Farmers' Drive-in, Pitman Grain Co., Pioneer Gas Co., Lone Star Insurance Agency, Don Little's B. F. Goodrich Store, Hereford Golf Club, and Bud Posey Golf Shop.

The second game of the night will pit the Knights or Columbus against a strong, improved Summerfield team. After losing two games in early season action, Summerfield recovered and tied the Knights for first place in the regular season standings. The regular season championship will be at stake when these two teams clash.

A handsome, gold trophy will be presented to the winner of the last game by Wendell Burdine, president of the softball league.

Little League Mothers Prep For Game

"Oh, aches and pains"—with this general statement the Little League mothers continued their roles of feminine softball players this week. Approximately 30 mothers have been participating in the daily workouts in preparation for the "big game."

Action was fast and furious at practice sessions in the Little League Mothers Camp on Monday and Tuesday. The mothers are really taking the game to heart.

Same Limping
Although some of the ladies were limping around, one mother declared, "We really have some professional talent on our team. Just watch our first baseman perform. She's great!"

Taking time out from their household chores, the mothers have been holding prep games each afternoon this week on the Ave. I baseball diamonds.

Save Walking
"I wish I could play with both teams," remarked one mother. "Then I wouldn't have to walk in and to the field between innings." A feminine teammate agreed, "It sure would save a lot of walking."

Another lady softball star commented, "If we don't hurry up and play the big game, we'll be too beat up and worn out to ever take the field."

Male Instructors
Duane Baize, Buck Hale and Bartley Dowell have been giving the mothers batting and fielding instructions. But from the looks of November at one of the four golf clubs. The site will be determined by bids. The club making the highest bid will receive the tourney. Only players who are members of the association will be eligible to play in the tournament.

Prizes will be given at each course when the matches are played away. Play will be medal play on a handicap basis. Handicaps will be set by the association. The handicap chairman will keep a record of all handicaps.

At the end of the season, the club with lowest aggregate score for the year will be awarded a large trophy to be retained by the winning club for one year.

Dates and places for the matches are:
Sept. 9 - Hereford
Sept. 23 - Portales
Oct. 7 - Clovis
Oct. 21 - Muleshoe
Hereford golfers attending the meeting were Joe Butler, Dale Tinnin, Bob Lindsey and Bud Posey.

The all-star football game will climax the twenty-fourth annual Texas High School Coaches School which got underway on Monday. Approximately 2000 Texas coaches registered at the grid clinic for the opening day.

Giants Trip Yankees, 8-7 To Snap Five-Game Streak

Victors Come From Behind To Knot Count and Triumph

Rising high and mighty, the miraculous Giants crashed the Yankee victory barrier, 8-7, on Tuesday night in a thrilling, spine-tingling game that will long be remembered. The cellar-dwellers had won but one tilt in second half play until their stunning triumph over the Bombers.

Ken Loerwald took the starting assignment on the Giant pitching mound and hurled all the way to halt the Yankees five-game winning streak. The tense moment of the contest came in the bottom of the sixth inning.

With one runner on second base, the score tied 7-7, two outs and two strikes on batter Dwight McGee, the Giant third baseman punched a single by Yankee second baseman John Buck to score Tommy Powell with the winning tally.

Play Resume
In the top of the first inning, the Bombers jumped into a 5-0 lead before Drew Kershens struck out with Jay Boynton on second base. Loerwald got off to a shaky start on the Giant hill, giving up three hits and two walks in the initial frame. The Giant hurler allowed the Bombers only one hit the rest of the game.

The Giants refused to play dead. They fought back in the bottom of the first to chalk up three markers and cut the Yankee lead to 5-3. Drew Kershens was the starting Bomber moundsman; Ronnie Duncan, Mike Kelly and Dwight McGee scored the Giant runs in the first frame.

Loerwald recovered his tossing poise in the second, sending the Yankees down scoreless. In the lower half of the second, the Giants recorded two hits but failed to tally. With two away and the sacks jammed, McGee grounded out to first base to end the Giant second-inning threat.

Bombers Score Again
The Bombers increased their lead to 7-3 in the top of the third frame. Butch Hoff and Van Smith walked. Then the next two Bomber batsmen struck out. Drew Kershens reached first safely on a Giant fielding misplay, Hoff and Smith racing home with two scores. Bouncing out to first base, Buck made the third Bomber out.

The Giants were not to be denied. They came back in the lower half of the third to score a trio of tallies, chopping the Yankee lead to Gaining strength as he went along Loerwald set the Bombers down one-two-three in the top of the fourth. The improved Giants tied the score in the bottom of the fourth, 7-7. After David Dowell doubled, Larry Hair banged a resounding single to center field to score Dowell with the tying run.

Threatening in the top of the fifth, the Bombers' victory hopes flickered and went out. The Yanks got two runners on base but Loerwald pitched as never before. He sensed the danger of the situation and recorded three straight strikeouts.

Top Wrestlers Will Battle On Saturday--Dory Funk Returns

A long-time favorite of Hereford wrestling fans will return here on Saturday night after a lengthy absence. Dory Funk has come home from vacationing in the wilds of Canada.

There's a good possibility that Funk might be wearing the world's heavyweight championship crown when he invades the open-air arena at Whiteface Stadium. He will wrestle Whipper Billy Watson in Amarillo tonight for the heavyweight title.

Three other top grappling artists who will accompany Funk to Hereford for Saturday night's wrestling festivities are, Ricki Starr, Farmer Jones and Tommy Phelps.

First Event
Ricki Starr will tangle with Dory Funk in the first event on Saturday night, a one-fall 20-minute limit affair. A student of ballet, Starr has built up an outstanding reputation in Panhandle wrestling circles in the past few weeks. Ricki will have more than his share of grappling trouble when he takes on delectable Dory.

Funk has won the Southwestern states junior heavyweight belt four times, a mark equalled only by Wayne Martin of Tulsa.

Farmer Jones Back
In the second event on the card, the terrible "pig-sticker" Farmer Jones will encounter "pig-sticker" Farmer Jones. A renowned veteran of wrestling warfare, Jones gained the full approval of fans last week-end with his "country tactics."

DORY FUNK

The main event of the evening will be a tag-team match featuring Farmer Jones and Dory Funk against Tommy Phelps and Ricki Starr.

Previous Results
In last Saturday's event, Farmer Jones won a one-fall decision over Hans Schnabel. Filling in for Shoulers Newman on the slate, Babe Zaharias took a second one-fall defeat from Frankie Murdoch in the second event.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By GIL CARLYLE

Football coaches usually are a bit shy when asked about their prospects for an upcoming grid season. Especially high school mentors. They just plain don't like to make predictions, no matter how good or bad their football personnel may be.

John Hickman, coach of the Levelland Lobos, is one of the exceptions. He went out on the limb in a press interview in Lubbock at the Texas High School Coaches School. Hickman rates his own Lobos, Phillips and Dumas as the top three teams in District 1-AAA.

Hereford and Littlefield must be the two bottom teams in the mind of Hickman. There are only five schools, Hereford, Dumas, Phillips, Levelland and Littlefield, in District 1-AAA this year.

The reason Hickman believes his Lobos should fare so well is because Levelland is the only District 1-AAA team that played in the same class last year. Of course, Hickman has due respect for Phillips.

It's good to hear a coach speak up about his prospects. Year after year, Chasty Walker of Phillips throws out the crying towel about this time. But all the while, poor ole Chasty has the finest football material for a school of its size in the state. His football players are usually stacked about five-deep at every position.

As to how the District 1-AAA teams will end up this season, it remains to be seen. But there will be some rugged competition seen in this district before the grid campaign ends.

One of the coaches who didn't commit himself at Lubbock might just come with the District 1-AAA championship. What do you think?

Dodgers Edge Cards 12-11

Battling furiously and desperately, the surprising Dodgers edged out a 12-11 victory over the shaky Cardinals on Monday night. The Bums fought gallantly, leading 12-10 going into the last of the fifth, the Dodgers saw their lead dwindle to 12-11 before the Redbird rally was choked-off with the tying and winning runs on base.

During the free-scoring affair, the lead changed hands three times and the teams was knotted on two occasions. A total of 23 bases on balls were issued in the game.

The Dodgers roared ahead in the first frame, scoring four runs. Barry Gabbert, Charles Calloway, Dennis Riekman and Judon Fambrough each tallied a marker after reaching base safely on walks.

Issues Phases
Dial Combs started on the Cardinal pitching mound but had trouble locating the plate. Combs gave up six walks before being relieved by Jackie Nichols in the first with two away. Nichols shut off the Dodger scoring faucet with the bases loaded, striking out catcher Barry Gabbert to retire the side.

Bouncing back in the bottom of the first, the Cardinals pushed across four runs to tie the count at 4-4. The first three Redbirds up, John Willoughby, Jimmy Bridges and Joe Mack Hale, walked. Then Tommy Coffman unloaded a fizzling one-bagger, scoring Willoughby and Bridges. Hale was urged out at third on the same play. Reaching first safely on a dodger misplay, Royce Turner took second as Coffman scored on a Bum overthrow. Turner scored from third on a passed ball. With two away, Bill Nelson ground-ded out to first, ending the Redbird scoring escapade.

Wrestling Show Carded At Dumas

Harold Wester, Hereford wrestling promoter, will travel to Dumas on Sunday to help officiate in one of the largest wrestling shows ever presented.

According to Wester, every wrestler in the Panhandle has volunteered to take part in a gigantic grappling event at the Dumas football stadium, beginning at 2 p. m.

Proceeds from the afternoon extravaganza will go into a fund to aid the survivors of those men who died in the recent Dumas oil tank blast.

BUT A MEMORY

SAN FRANCISCO (U)—A spidery legged timber trestle, the world's over which sleek streamliners cross Great Salt Lake in Utah will be but a memory by 1960. The Southern Pacific Railroad is replacing it with a rock and gravel fill 12.5 miles long.

A land-locked flotilla of tugboats, dredges and barges, just part of 15 million dollars worth of specialized equipment needed for the job, is being assembled. A construction camp for 600 men has been set up.

The trestle originally was 23 miles long but some parts had been replaced with solid fills.

Norway has a merchant fleet of seven million gross tons.

The Lady Has a Dream Job: Every-Day Shopping Spree

DETROIT (AP) — Here's a woman with a job like a dream come true — four million dollars a year to spend and her husband doesn't say a word about it.

That's because the money dispensed by attractive Eileen Lane O'Reilly belongs to the Ford Motor Co. Mrs. O'Reilly is the only woman buyer in the huge auto firm's construction purchasing department.

She buys construction materials and labor, often seeing a new building through from the architect's blueprint to the final foot of fencing around the completed plant.

Mrs. O'Reilly believes women make good purchasing agents "because, by nature, they're rather cold blooded about money. There is nothing as relentless as a woman on the trail of a bargain."

It's still not an easy field for a woman to crack. Mrs. O'Reilly learned her job in years of typing purchasing orders, contracts and other correspondence as a stenographer in Ford's plant engineering department.

Her 26 years experience qualified her to be named assistant to the head of the purchasing engineering department. She worked up to a buyer's post — one of five in the division — with the aid of night school college courses.

Mrs. O'Reilly wouldn't trade her job for anything. "Sure, if you slip up when you are spending someone else's money, it can cost them thousands and you your job," she says. "But that's what keeps you on your toes."

Although she keeps the accounts at home, her husband of less than a year, Leo F. (Mike) O'Reilly, a power engineer at Ford, does the grocery shopping.

"I don't mind going myself," says Mrs. O'Reilly, "but Mike is fascinated with supermarkets so I just turn him loose."

WHOLESALE CLASSROOMS

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Mass production of classrooms at a low cost and rapid pace is the only way to meet the demand posed by a constantly soaring birth rate, says Charles J. Leonard. He has organized a firm and thinks he can build mass produced classrooms at $11.87 a square foot compared to from $14.95 to $20.90 for conventional building costs.

His firm builds school rooms from masonry - surfaced panels. Most of the rooms are 30 feet by 32 feet but can be made larger because of standardized components. Almost any number can be hooked together in a variety of plans.

Ease Baby's Way to Big Bathtub

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

You can wean baby from his small bathtub to the kingsize one by using a little ingenuity.

Ease him into the idea. Don't thrust him into the enormous expanse of porcelain and expect him to respond mirthfully. Some babies will take anything in stride. But most little tots are cautious and suspicious of strange new things, especially at the age where they are forced to accept various changes.

It's a good idea to give some thought to your own youngster's reactions to other things whenever you try something new with him.

1. Does he normally freeze up when encountering a new idea?

2. Is he afraid of water now or does he take to his soap and water face washings and little bath or wash basin easily?

3. Is he fussy about heat or cold? Some babies resent the bath because Mom always makes it just a little too warm or a little too cold. This calls for a test program.

Some children are frightened by water running into the tub, others fear water fouling out the drain will suck them down with it. Until you know whether baby is one of these types, fill the tub before he goes into the bath, emptying it after he leaves the room.

If he has an awful fear of the tub and cries when you put him in it, try putting about a half inch of water in the tub and upping it as he gradually becomes used to the idea. Pediatricians favor that idea or the one where his little tub is put in the big bathtub until he gets used to his surroundings.

It's a good idea for Mom to be relaxed when she bathes baby. Little people are quick to sense tension and are likely to get the idea that a bath is a dreaded chore. If she starts out making it fun, the idea should catch on.

Little water toys will help him enjoy his tubbing. There are plastic ducks, boats and turtles to be had that will help make the daily bath an experience to look forward to.

After the bath, wrap baby in a nice big towel. It'll give him a warm cozy feeling. Dry him thoroughly and give his skin a gentle patting all over with baby lotion. The creamy white lotion has a nice fragrance and a soothing effect that Mom will enjoy on her own hands.

If baby's bath is studied until the right formula for his enjoyment is found, pretty soon you'll have difficulty getting him out of the tub — and sometimes this can be almost as big a problem as getting him into it.

A baby who insists on staying in the tub may always be eased out by letting the water drain out while baby is still in it. He'll soon know that when the water is "all gone" the bath is over.

GET MOVING

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — To a Rio de Janeiro bus driver, the most important thing is the time it takes arriving from one point to another.

A minor traffic accident between two cars on a main thoroughfare had resulted in a glugfest between the two principals. Traffic was held up while the pair battled in one lane and the disabled cars blocked another.

A bus driver, obviously enjoying the fight, shouted:

"Hit him again! Hit him again! Hit him on the sidewalk and let's get traffic moving!"

HEAVY LOAD

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — A man who admitted stealing a large tow truck from a motor company here offered this excuse to Police Chief Verne Starmer:

"I was carrying a heavy load, so I guess I got something big to haul it."

It worked — Dan Myers, owner of the truck, declined to prosecute.

KITCHEN FOWL

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The situation in a downtown department store kitchen got so fouled up recently that it took three fire engines, two trucks, a rescue squad and two battalion chiefs to pull it out.

Delicatessen manager John Lehman was singeing chickens over a gas burner when a sprinkler above his head warmed up enough to let go.

That turned on the store fire alarm, the merchant's police alarm and brought out the high-powered help, which didn't have much to crow about after all.

Blanched Nuts

Nuts are blanched by immersing them in boiling water for two minutes, then in cold water. Drain and remove skins, then spread thinly in pans and put into a warm oven to dry for a few hours. The crispness of the nuts will depend upon their dryness.

Boiling Eggs

Four minutes will boil an egg thoroughly if you like the white set and the yolk heated in the center. Five minutes makes the white firm and sets the yolk. Ten minutes boils the egg hard.

Good For Nerves

Just before going to bed, try drinking a bowl of hot milk, to which has been added a little butter, salt, and pepper.

Torn Sheets

Avoid repeated accidents caused by sheets catching in the corners of wire springs and being torn.

Cover the corners of the springs with adhesive tape, binding in each direction for about two or three inches.

Care of Clothes

Clothes will last much longer and remain a far better color if they are always laundered before becoming very badly soiled. This is especially true of colored materials.

Table Oilcloth

Spread a few layers of newspaper under the kitchen table-oilcloth and it will give much longer life to the cloth.

OFFICIALS WARN

Careless Use Of Insecticides Can Bring Sickness Or Death

Local doctors have joined with the State Health authorities in warning against careless use of insecticide compounds around homes and gardens, and suggestions have been issued for the use of the various garden spray products.

"They are all very dangerous and can be fatal," reports Dr. R. T. Willis, County health officer. "The only insecticide which isn't dangerous is DDT."

Readily Available

Now they are available in small packages or bottles which frequently reach the general public. Persons who insist on using either of the two powerful formations are urged to handle them as professionals do.

"It is necessary to know what the insecticides are, what they can do, antidotes, and WHERE they are," says Dr. Willis.

Asthmatic Condition

Many of the products are very dangerous to adults and children alike. Parathion, according to Willis, is accumulative in its effect and causes an asthmatic type condition when carelessly and wrongly used.

This new garden spray, parathion, and also tetraethyl pyrophosphate, come from a group known as "organic phosphate" insecticides. They were originally designed for professional use only, by workmen thoroughly familiar with the dangers associated with them.

Use Precautions

Unless a man has the equipment and technical knowhow, he'd better steer clear of organic phosphate insecticides. And he would do well to read the precautions on the label of any insect poison.

regardless of the ingredients.

As further insurance against the "tremendous agents for good" when properly used, the State health department suggests keeping the insecticide out of reach of pets, and especially children. Keep it in the original container, covered and with the warning label attached.

Never give insecticides to a neighbor in an unmarked container. Write a warning in bold letters and personally attach it to the neighbor's bottle or can.

Beauty at Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. I have very narrow shoulders and a large head. Can I disguise these features by wearing my hair short, full, and fluffy?

A. Decidedly not. This would make you look more top-heavy than ever and emphasize the narrowness of your shoulders. You must dress your hair smoothly, and usually a diagonal part at the side provides a needed illusion of face length. Since, nine times out of ten, the neck is short, the hair should be kept off the nape of the neck by a high effect or similar treatment. It should not be allowed to show behind and below the ears from a front view.

Q. What should one do before applying powder to an oily type of skin?

A. After washing the face in warm water, rinsing in cold, gently pat on the following lotion and allow to dry: Witch hazel four ounces, boric acid one teaspoonful, orange flower water two ounces, simple tincture of benzoin 10 drops. Shake well, and apply with a clean pad of absorbent cotton.

Q. What is a good emergency treatment for a dry, sunburned face?

A. Anoint the skin generously with some thick cow's cream.

Q. Please tell me how I can reach my facial freckles.

A. Pure lemon juice is helpful. Apply it to the freckled areas with a small brush, allow to remain for 15 or 20 minutes each day, then wash off with a good mild soap and warm water. Because lemon juice has a tendency to be drying, apply a little lubricating cream (night cream) after washing, and allow that to remain on for an equal period of time.

Q. What is a beneficial treatment for dry and brittle hair?

A. Give the dry scalp frequent massages, making sure to move the scalp about with the fingers.

Rub a little warm olive oil into the scalp at least twice weekly. Increase your brushings — at least twice daily — and more often if you have the time.

Q. How can I remove crayon stains from a non-washable dress?

A. By use of some carbon tetrachloride or other cleaning fluid.

Q. How can I minimize the appearance of a short, thick neck?

A. By using a darker foundation makeup base on the neck that the one you use on the entire face area.

Q. What is a good exercise for reconditioning the mid-section after pregnancy?

A. Lie on back, arms outstretched above head. Keeping head and shoulders flat on floor, raise left leg straight up until you can touch it with the right hand. Breathe out as leg and arm are lowered to original position. Breathe in as you raise right leg and touch it with left hand. Alternate leg-touches in rhythmic count as long as you can.

Q. What is a good treatment for dry and callused feet?

A. Nightly massages with olive oil. Wear some short hose to bed to protect your linens, and in the morning, after a warm foot bath, rub the feet lightly with some pumice.

Q. I've been told that face powder has a tendency to clog one's pores and cause blackheads. Is this true?

A. It most certainly is NOT true! Actually, face powder helps to absorb excess oil secretion, and also protects the skin from dirt, dust, and weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roberson and daughters Joyce and June of Amarillo were guests of his aunt, Mrs. J. F. Ward Sunday.

Secretaries Are Gun Girls

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—When it comes to shooting, look out for the girls.

Ten secretaries employed at a big gun factory here have formed their own rifle team, and are threatening the records of men and women shooters alike.

The girls, members of the Winchester All-Secretary Rifle Team, have been shooting only a few months, but recently won their first match by defeating the local Notre Dame Academy team. They shoot against both men and women in competition, and will challenge any similar team in the country.

Mrs. Nina Burgar-la, captain of the team, explains her interest in the sport:

"Always having been afraid of guns and being the mother of three who love to go shooting, I was most anxious to learn in order to help teach my boys the correct and fine points of target shooting. Competition, I find, is not only exciting and inspiring, but very good for my ego."

Mrs. Peggy Hoener, one of the team's crack shots:

"No one was more surprised that I to find out how enthusiastic I could get about rifle shooting. After two practice sessions I found I was really caught up in a thrilling new sport."

The secretary team reflects a general trend toward feminine participation in a sport long considered exclusive to men. All over the country women are winning shooting honors.

Mrs. Viola Pollum, a shop keeper from Brookville, Pa., last year won the National Small Bore 22 Caliber Rifle Championship at Camp Perry, Ohio—the first woman ever to win the title. She beat the best boys in the nation, male and female.

Helen Thomas, 15, of Los Angeles, won the 1955 Grand American Trap Shooting Tournament at Vandalia, Ohio.

Mrs. Carol Mandel, of Chicago beat an entire field of men last fall to become the first woman to win the 20-gauge Open Championship in the National Skeet Championship. And Cpl. Pauline Gauthier of the Canadian WACS defeated all men in the Montreal Regiment Rifle Meet, scoring 275 out of 300 points. Another crack shot is Miss Ruth Smith of Los Angeles, who is California's state champion in every event she entered—shotgun, rifle and pistol. Mrs. Evelyn Primm, also of Los Angeles, is so good at shotgun marksmanship that she is the only woman in the nation who uses a 26-yard handicap in competition shooting against men who fire at a target only 16 yards away from them.

Girls of the local All-Secretary Team practice every Monday night at the Winchester Club House, shooting at targets 50 feet away with 22 caliber single shot rifles. They practice shooting from prone, standing and sitting positions. All are enthusiastic over the sport. Typical of the team attitude is that of Mrs. Eileen L. Sondak, who says:

"I am convinced that shooting is a sport where women as well as men can excel."

Only Child Needs Normal Play With Other Children

By Dorothy V. Whipple M. D. AP Newsfeatures

LET'S FACE A FACT. An only child misses something in life. He misses the give and take that children give each other. He misses the solidarity of "the children" against the grown-ups in the age-old struggle of the generations.

Perhaps most of all he misses the experience of sharing. The most important thing in the life of any child is his parents. When there are several children they have to share their parents' attention. The only child holds the undisputed center of his parents' interest. He doesn't learn what it feels like to take turns.

Then also the only child is apt to live in a world of grown-ups. He is likely to skip over the whimsy and the make-believe of childhood and accept as his own the tastes and interests of adults which may be really much too mature for him. He is pushed into a maturity he is not ready for.

When Ted was a little boy of five his favorite picture book was a collection of Rembrandt paintings—much to his mother's pleasure. She recounted with obvious pride how Ted never cared for Mother Goose but "studied" (and that's the word she used) the paintings of the Masters.

Ted has always been the very apple of his mother's eye, and he knows it and basks in the glare of his private spotlight. He has just grown up hearing his name mentioned in grown-up talk. When he was sick he was aware of the deep concern of all the adults around.

Now Ted is 14 and there are plenty of troubles at school. So long as he is class president, leader or chairman all is well. But Ted has great difficulty in being a member of a team where he needs to submerge himself for the good of the group. Ted cannot take even the kindest criticism and defeat puts him into a rebellious depression in which he blames someone else for his own failure. Ted has no realistic view of himself. He sees himself as his mother saw him—the perfect center of a small world.

But only children don't have to turn out this way. If you have an only child (and you cannot do anything about it) accept the fact that your child needs other children and try to provide them for him. Don't try to be his sole companion.

If you possibly can, live where neighbors with children are close and encourage the youngsters to play together. Invite the other youngsters in as much as you can. Send your child to nursery school just as early as the school will take him. And when you go on trips or vacations take a playmate along. This is never quite the same as work. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dawson, 201 Ross. She is a member of the Happy Homes 4-H Club, whose leader is Mrs. Ira Ott.

4-H Dress Revue

Magic Of Needle And Thread

The annual Deaf Smith County 4-H Dress Revue was staged here Monday afternoon in the high school auditorium with the creations of 60 young seamstresses being displayed for the enjoyment and approval of an audience of 200.

Smiling Pat Dawson, 16, was acclaimed the county dress revue winner, as she modeled a torso style dress of lavender-hue. The beautifully tailored nylon and wool blend material of the dress was accented by a single clip worn at the shoulder. The effect of a matching bandbox style hat was enhanced by two pert feathers.

Four girls took purple ribbons in three divisions after the judges decided Audni Miller, 11, and Linda Tooley, 10, had proven equally skilled in creating school dresses. Linda and Audni are Dawn community neighbors and both are members of the Argen Draper 4-H Club. Also standing at the head of her division was Kathy Kromer, 10, of the Caprock Club, whose princess style dress of blue chambray belied the fact that it was only the second dress ever tailored by the Adrian girl.

Merry Kay Pruitt, 13, was radiant as the third division winner in a dress she made of red sailcloth trimmed in red polka dots on a white collar. A member of the Walcott 4-H Club, Merry Kay scored 124 points of a possible 125 on her creation, "Just about as near perfect as you can get," declared Mrs. Argen Draper, home demonstration agent.

Theme of the dress show was "There's Magic in the Right Know How."

Musical prelude numbers for the program were given by Nancy Parsons and Maxie Wiseman.

Narrators for the show were Mrs. Wayne Higgins, Janet Higgins and Linda Higgins.

In Division A, which was for girls in their first year of 4-H, Kathy Kromer's victory was scored in competition with 23 other entrants.

Linda and Audni were competing in Division B for girls 11 years old and under, with five other youngsters.

Twenty girls entered Division C, for girls under 14, in which Merry Kay Pruitt showed her near-perfect creation.

Pat Dawson, modeling her torso dress, in Division E, for girls 14 and older who have been in 4-H work three years or more, added a second county champion crown to her trophy case. Earlier this year she was acclaimed County Baking Queen. Five girls entered this division.

The top entries will be shown again during the district dress revue on Aug. 17 in Amarillo at the Flame Room in the new Pioneer Natural Gas building.

Blue ribbon winners were: Nancy Browning, Kathleen Kromer, Carolyn Brooks, Cynthia Kromer, Wynona Roberts, Audni Miller, Linda Tooley, Kathryn Burrus, Royce Lee Pruitt, Kay Pruitt, Peggy Browning, Jaquita Miller, Carlynn Williams, Pat Dawson, Lynda Hewitt, Sandra Green, Kay Bishop, Suzanne Higgins, Nancy Parsons, Dorothea Lee Stewart, Janell Weaver, Gail Bishop, Gail Miller and Janet Higgins.

Red ribbon winners were: Tanelda Williams, Mildred Wester, Maxie Wiseman, Cecelia Burrus, Coralie Fortenberry, Glenda Fuhrmann, Betty Sue Lockhart, Sharon Bezner, Polly Monroe, Kay Albracht, Barbara Pulliam, Alyce McClain, Beverly Barrett, Barbara Barrett, Linda Lemons, Janis Higgins, Gloria Bell, Shari Jo Carmichael, Becky Jackson and Linda Higgins.

Try Sparkling New Dessert: Flans

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

FLANS, eaten with relish in France and England, have always intrigued us. But we never tried to make this dessert because flan rings, in which the pastry for the sweet is usually baked, are hard to come by. Recently a friend showed us how to achieve a flan with an ordinary round layer-cake pan.

The pastry for our flan is delightful—crisp, tender and short. It's a rich golden color, too, due to the new yellow shortening that is used in its making. A layer of strawberries is placed over the baked pastry, then a layer of Vanilla Cream is added and last a meringue. For a garnish, sliced bananas are tip-tilted around its edge. The bananas hide a surprise—they give no hint of the luscious springtime strawberries hidden in the filling's creamy depths.

MERINGUE CREAM FLAN

Ingredients: 1½ cups sifted flour, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup new golden yellow shortening, 3 to 4 tablespoons water, halved small fresh strawberries, Vanilla Cream, 4 egg whites, ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar, 1/8 teaspoon salt, ½ cup sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 large banana.

Method: Sift together the flour and salt into a mixing bowl. Cut in shortening with a pastry blender until mixture looks like coarse cornmeal. Sprinkle water over, 1 tablespoon at a time, and mix lightly with a fork until all flour is moistened. Gather dough into a ball and roll out on a lightly floured pastry cloth with a stocknet-covered rolling pin into a circle about 10 inches in diameter. (Do not roll too thin; there should be few pastry scraps left after trimming.) Place a round layer-cake pan (8 by 1½ inches) upside down on a baking sheet. Transfer the rolled pastry to the outside of the cake pan and gently press it around the pan, making small tucks at even intervals if necessary. Trim off overhanging pastry with a sharp knife, cutting against the baking sheet. Prick bottom and sides of pastry at about 1 inch intervals with a fork. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven about 16 to 18 minutes or until pastry is a golden color. Cool. Place flat serving dish on top of pastry; invert; carefully lift out pan. Arrange two layers of strawberries in bottom of pastry pan and pour warm Vanilla Cream over them. Allow to set until Vanilla Cream is cold. Beat egg whites with cream of tartar and salt until frothy. Gradually and thoroughly beat in sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time; continue to beat until meringue is glossy and will hold stiff straight peaks when beater is slowly withdrawn. Beat in vanilla. Pile meringue lightly over filling, making sure it touches edges of pastry; with the back of a tablespoon, swirl the meringue into graceful peaks. Place in a hot (425 degrees oven until peaks are lightly browned—1 to 6 minutes. Just before serving, peel banana and run tines of a fork lengthwise down it; slice thin. Press fluted banana slices between meringue and pastry edge.

Hamburgers A La Italiane Provide New Taste Treat

One of the most popular summer pastimes is cooking outdoors. And one of the most popular dishes is hamburgers. Plain old everyday hamburgers, hamburgers dressed up with slices of cheese, spoonfuls of spiced chili, or plenty of pickle relish.

Just drive around Hereford some evening. In almost every neighborhood some family will be outside, cooking hamburgers at their fireplace or portable grill.

And now, Cecily Brownstone, associated press food editor, has devised a new taste treat for those who like anything cooked outdoors—so long as it's hamburger.

Her inspiration for the hamburger came from the Italian way of serving roasted sweet red peppers and anchovies together. If you are partial to these two foods, do try this recipe.

OUR OWN HAMBURGERS

Ingredients: 1 pound ground beef chuck, 4 whole canned pimientos (drained), 8 caper-rolled anchovies (drained), salt, pepper.

Method: Make 8 flat matching-size patties of the beef; each one should be about 4 inches in diameter. Place a pimiento in the center of 4 of the patties; tuck 2 anchovies into each pimiento. Cover with 4 remaining patties and seal edges well with fingers so hamburgers look plump and are about 3 inches in diameter. Grill over charcoal or in a little butter in a skillet to desired doneness. Sprinkle both sides of hamburgers with salt and pepper during cooking.

Note: There are usually 4 to 5 pimientos in a 4-ounce can and about 12 caper-rolled anchovies in a 2-ounce can.

We like these hamburgers served with well-buttered toast but otherwise unembellished. But if you are planning to cook and serve them outdoors, you may wish to offer them with hamburger rolls, slices of tomato and onion and

How Can I?

Q. How can I stiffen a rug that persists in wrinkling?

A. Try the following treatment: Dissolve 1 part of common glue in 10 parts of warm water. Hang the rug over a pole and paint the wrong side of it with a paint brush dipped in the solution. Use the solution sparingly, or it may soak through and show on the surface. This treatment should be done in the yard where the rug will dry quickly.

Q. How can I clean colored felt hats?

A. By adding enough cleaning fluid to a teacup of flour to make a paste. Rub it on with a brush and let it dry. Then brush off with a stiff brush.

Q. How can I dye white kid gloves tan?

A. Dip them in saffron water until the desired shade is obtained.

Q. How can I remedy mayonnaise that has separated and become clotted?

A. Try adding the white of an egg, putting it in slowly, half a teaspoonful at a time, until the mixture is again smooth. Usually the separation will be overcome.

Q. What can I use instead of a trowel when digging into small flower pots?

A. A metal shoe horn can be used to better advantage than a trowel when digging into small flower pots. It has much the same shape as a trowel and will make less dirt in a small space.

Q. How can I impart a brilliant polish to articles of cut glass?

A. Add a little turpentine to the water when cleaning them. Use about one tablespoonful to two quarts of water.

Q. How can I shrink dress goods properly?

A. Place the goods folded in a tub of cold water, to which a few handfuls of salt have been added.

VANILLA CREAM

Ingredients: 3 tablespoons flour, 3 tablespoons cornstarch, ½ teaspoon salt, 2/3 cup sugar, 3 cups milk, 4 egg yolks, 1 tablespoon of vanilla.

Method: Stir flour, cornstarch, salt and sugar together thoroughly in a saucepan. Add milk gradually, stirring until smooth after each addition. Cook and stir over low heat until thickened and boiling. Remove from heat. Beat egg yolks slightly; gradually and vigorously stir a little of the hot filling into the yolks; stir back into mixture in saucepan. Cook and stir constantly over low heat for 2 minutes. Stir in vanilla; cover tightly and cool. Use as directed in Meringue Cream Flan recipe.

After a few hours, hang on the line without unfolding. The weight of the salt prevents wrinkles from drying it, and also sets the color.

Q. How can I prevent the juice of fruit pies from oozing out?

A. Try covering the bottom-layer of the pie crust with cracker crumbs.

The City Grew, But He Saved His Home

HE LOST HIS FARM—Bill Stricker, with 67-store shopping center in the background, mows what lawn he has left after the city of Detroit surrounded his farm and he finally had to sell it.

DETROIT (AP)—Bill Stricker, 86, I wanted was to save my home." bucked head-on against progress and he still believes, "There's no place like home."

For 81 years Stricker had lived on a 38-acre farm on the fringes of Detroit. As the years passed he could see smart suburban homes rising up along his carefully planted wheat fields.

The situation finally came to a head. When J. L. Hudson Co., Detroit's biggest department store, told Stricker they wanted to buy his land, he said, "No."

Real estate speculators had already bought 37 acres of it, knowing that Hudson's planned to build their Eastland shopping center on the site.

"A lot of folks got the wrong idea when I refused to sell Hudson's last acre back in 1950," Stricker says. "They accused me of trying to delay the project when all

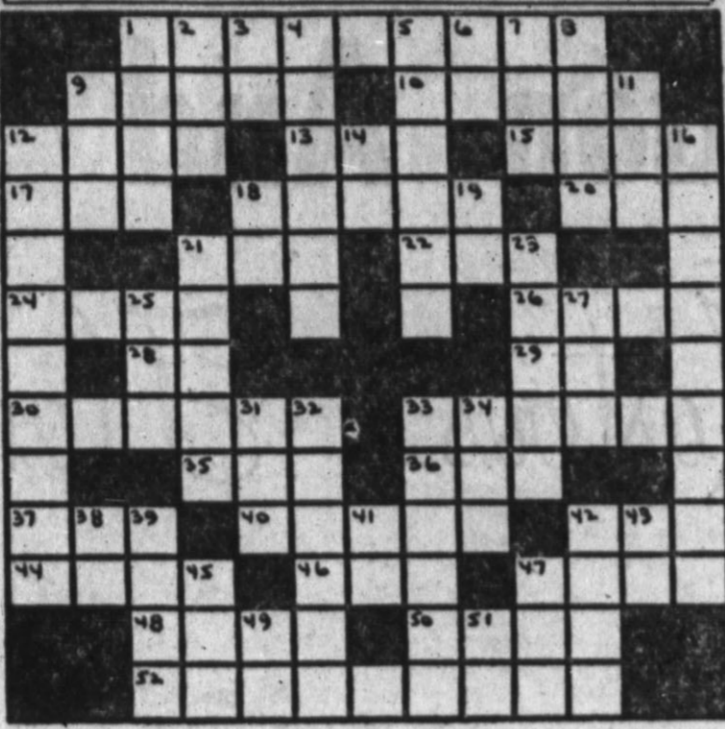

"Money," Stricker says, "never was as important to me as staying in my home. Hudson people tried to do business with me dozens of times, but none of them understood my feelings until Foster Winter, a Hudson executive came along."

Winter got Stricker to agree to sell the land with an understanding that he could have a lifetime lease.

So now Stricker lives at peace with the world on his acre plot, while his wife Bertha, 77, takes care of the neat eight room frame home, and practically in the backyard, the 67 store shopping center is rising where Stricker used to tend his crops.

The United States produces 80 percent of the world's natural gas.

Caddy Carts Move On to Mail Routes

NEW WAY TO CARRY MAIL—This is the newest device, an adapted golf caddy cart, to be developed by the Post Office to ease the strain on their carriers.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Looks like caddy carts, load-lifters for the weekend golfer, may add a few years to the working career of some postmen.

Four of the push-or-pull type carts are now in use at the St. Louis post office by mailmen with a physical disability, such as a bad back.

"It looks like they will be all right," says Raymond Scott, superintendent of delivery and collection here.

The rubber-wheeled carts, with places for two mail pouches, take the load off the postman's back and shoulder, and Scott says: "If we can get a few more years out of a good man with the cart we feel it is advisable."

Some routes, such as those with high terraces, don't lend themselves to the use of the carts, Scott says. But if a postman who needs

Household Tips

Add diced ham to a cheese sauce and serve over green asparagus stalks arranged on buttered toast. Nice for a ladies' lunch!

Cream a quarter cup of butter or margarine with an equal amount of strained honey and use as a spread for toast.

Go Italian! Add thinly sliced zucchini squash (cooked first in a little butter) to an omelet.

Kitchen arithmetic: a tall can of evaporated milk holds 1 2/3 cups.

A bit of ham or chicken left over? Dice fine and add it to the filling for stuffed eggs.

Pretty garnish for individual servings of fish fillets: criss-cross the strips of pimiento and place capers between the strips.

When you splurge on a porterhouse steak, have the meat man grind the tail meat because it is less tender than the rest of the steak.

A hot water bath prevents custard from overbaking at edges.

Give that pie-crust mix extra flavor! Add grated orange and lemon rind to it, and use orange juice when you are mixing it instead of the water called for.

M. E. Norton Is Speed Artist Specializing in Mural Painting

Dallas, Aug. 2 (AP)—M. E. Norton, who specializes in painting murals, is what you would call a speed artist.

"Marvin turns out about 110 linear feet of mural work each day," said Meyer H. Ablon, his partner in a team that has completed murals in numerous Dallas area commercial buildings and homes.

He has received as much as $900 per day for his services.

"There are much better artists than I am, but they don't seem to be able to work at my speed," said Norton.

Scares People to Watch
"It scares a lot of people to watch me," he continued. "One woman watched me for 10 minutes and then had to leave while I did a mural in her home. She thought sure she'd have to have the whole wall painted over after I was through."

As Norton talked he painted a mural on the wall of a supermarket. With free strokes he filled in large sections of canvas with an apple tree against a background of Washington orchards and farmland. He did no preliminary sketching.

"I just know what I'm going to paint, and then paint it," he explained. "If I ever doubt, it won't come out right."

One of Norton's best known murals is the "Story of Oklahoma," which hangs in the offices of the Phillips Petroleum Co. at Tulsa, Okla. He completed it in 18 days, filling it with the story of Oklahoma from Indian times to the modern era of oil refineries.

22 Acres of Canvas
Norton, who is originally from Claremore, Okla., painted movie sets in Hollywood before turning to mural painting. He estimated he has filled acres of canvas during his 22 years as an artist.

About a year ago he and Ablon began specializing in murals to adorn supermarket walls. The murals are not only for decoration, but they are designed to stimulate customers to buy the products in and take the Savings!

TAKE YOUR CHOICE

Choose cabinet or upright . . . either way you'll save on food costs. You may want the upright model to match your refrigerator. Or, the cabinet model may fit better in garage or pantry space. Whichever you choose you'll save on quantity purchases when prices are low. Too, you can freeze many of the vegetables you'll grow in this summer's garden, even corn-on-the-cob. And, don't forget . . . a freezer is a time saver in the home. Order your choice this week.

SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

Freeze strawberries, cherries, vegetables in quantity when the market is right for price. You can when you have your own home freezer. You save first on the cost and second on time saved. Sudden company becomes a delight because it's no burden to go to the freezer and in minutes prepare delectable servings to your guests. You can do it with your own home freezer.

In The Master's Hands

It makes a difference whose hands the violin is in if you want smooth rhythm and sweetness of tone. Yehudi Menuhin with his Stradivarius can lift every music lover to the very portals of Heaven. Yes, it makes a difference whose hands the bat is in if you want a home run. Better give it to Ted Williams and wait a minute for your greatest sporting thrill. YOUR LIFE IS LIKE THAT. It was meant to produce the finest. Six days a week the fingers of the world play upon it. It becomes tired. It produces flats and horrible discords. MAYBE IT'S TIME TO REST,—TO GO TO CHURCH,—TO WORSHIP GOD. If you expect to count, it makes a difference whose hands your life is in. WHY NOT LET JESUS TAKE HIS RIGHTFUL PLACE IN THE CONTROL ROOM OF YOUR LIFE? He'll strike the deeper chords, the richer melodies, when you give your life into the Master's Hands.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today desire that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Summer Suits Fool The Eye

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

THIS SUMMER'S FABRICS fool the eye. What you think is a wool suit turns out to be cotton. What you think is silk may be a nylon blend. What appears to be tweed may well be linen. And what looks like linen probably will be anything from dacron to wool.

High in the popularity poll for summer wear are new cotton suits, as carefully tailored and highly styled as the gems of the spring and fall collections, but having cotton's special assets of coolness, easy cleanability and comfort — to say nothing of thrifty prices.

Arthur Jablow has turned out a group of cotton summer suits that are well-bred enough for a board of directors' meeting, look for all the world like wool, and come in the newest silhouettes of 1956.

There is, for instance, a gray sub-weave cotton tweed suit with slim skirt and flattering fitted jacket with a black velvet yoke and a couple of rhinestone buttons that could go to lunch with assurance at the Colony or Twenty-One.

There is a gray checked cotton tweed with slightly longer fitted jacket, a crisp collar line, slim skirt and an air of confidence.

And there's a distinguished suit in his new demidetached silhouette with semifitted jacket and back in-crest, that is done in a light-weight fabric blending rayon, mohair and wool. It has the easy, unaccented look of some of the newest Parisian styles, would be perfect for town or travel wear practically the year around.

There's news and excitement in SUMMER TAILLEUR—Demi-detached silhouette in a suave town or travel suit of mohair, rayon and wool blend, with casual cut, all-year-round comfort.

the fabrics you'll be seeing in the summer's favorite fashions, so if you haven't brushed up on recent developments in the textile world, go out and have a look. You'll be happily surprised.

CERTIFIED CHECKS — Cotton tweed in a gray-and-charcoal check makes this well-bred summer suit with trim lines, cool charm

Household Scrapbook

Pie Crusts
When making pie crusts that are to be filled with fruit, moisten the edges with a little milk and press down tight. Two or three small pieces of macaroni should then be inserted in the center of the pie. The juice of the fruit will bubble in the macaroni sticks and not saturate the crust.

Lemon Juice
Rub lemon juice into the bread board. It will whiten the wood beautifully and will absorb all grease and dirt from the board.

Paint Brushes
The paint brush should be washed thoroughly in benzine or turpentine and shaken dry—not whipped—when it is desired to change from one color to another, or from one varnish to another.

Beauty At Home

Q. How can I exercise for a firmer, lovelier bustline?
A. Sit cross-legged on floor, slumped forward a bit, with arms crossed so that right hand rests near left knee, left hand near the right knee. Now swing arms up and out swiftly as far as you can. In this wide spread, the hands should be well above your head, and arms so far back that your shoulder blades are telling you a-bout it. Return to original position, and keep repeating swings in a rhythmic fashion.

Q. How can I counteract the appearance of a nose that is too wide and flat-looking?
A. Blend some darker-than-skin-tone foundation along the sides of the nose, and a lighter shade down the center.

Q. How can I remove some tartar from my teeth?
A. Lemon juice and pumice stone, rubbed over the teeth with some cotton wound around an orange stick, often proves effective.

Dr. Riddle Gave 40 Pints of Blood

Tyler, Tex. Aug. 2 (AP)—Dr. Don Riddle, Tyler veterinarian has given more than five times his body capacity in blood.

He has given five gallons—or 40 pints of blood, a record of which to be proud.

The modest talking man of five feet and eight inches, weighing about 145, gives blood for a good reason.

When he entered the Navy in 1943, Dr. Riddle gave his first pint of blood. "He and a bunch of boys got together and gave blood."

When he went overseas he saw the medic using the blood and learned the real value of it and after getting out of the service started giving blood regularly.

First Pint in 1953
Dr. Riddle gave his first pint of blood to the Lamar County Medical society blood bank in 1953. And Stanley Parks, technical director of the Blood Bank, was amazed when he kept coming back.

Several times Parks has had to send Dr. Riddle away without taking his donation, because he came back too soon or it wasn't needed especially at that time.

Dr. Riddle has a common type blood and has given blood for emergencies. Even though a person should give blood but about once every two months, he has given some more than that in case of emergencies. "When it is an emergency, I can always depend on Dr. Riddle," Parks said.

It's A Habit Now
After giving his 15th pint of blood, Dr. Riddle said, "Giving blood is just a habit with me now." He has also given three or four pints to the local Red Cross.

Parks explained that it takes only about four minutes to give a pint of blood.

Dr. Riddle has gained weight since giving his first pint of blood to the Lamar County Blood Bank, but still as he says, is not considered to be in the "heavyweight class."

Although Dr. Riddle gives blood for friends, and emergencies, he also keeps some on deposit in case he ever needs it for himself.

Nothing takes to the road like a Chevy!

Once in a blue moon a car like this comes along—a design so advanced in performance, so beautifully balanced and so road-worthy that it stands-out-above every other car on the highway.

It has a solid, sure-footed way of going that makes driving safer and more pleasant on any road. And you feel a very special sense of security in its rapid-fire responsiveness to your touch on the wheel, brakes and accelerator.

You can see that the '56 Chevy is a stand-out for style. But until you have driven one you're missing the best part of the news—the fact that Chevrolet is the smoothest, solidest, most wedded-to-the-road automobile you ever bossed. Try it and see.

You get more car when you buy it... more dollars when you sell it! Chevy has the highest resale value of the leading low-priced models!

How Can I?

Q. How can I test the quality of coffee?

A. By putting a spoonful in a glass of cold water and adding a few drops of lemon juice. If the coffee is pure it will remain on top of the water; if not, the water will become discolored.

Q. What can be done to a worn shoe lining?

A. If the shoe lining has worn in places, which of course wears out the stocking very quickly, paste strips of adhesive tape over the worn places.

Q. How can I make a chicken, or turkey, white, juicy and tender?

A. After cleaning the fowl, rub the inside and outside thoroughly with a lemon before putting in the dressing. This makes the meat white, juicy and tender. Adding a tablespoonful of vinegar to the water when boiling also helps to make it tender.

Q. How can I prevent moths from getting into garments?

A. By sprinkling the contents of closets and drawers with white cloths. Many consider this better than camphor or cedar.

Q. How can I prevent the shrinking of woollens when laundering?

A. Hang woollens on the line dripping wet and they will not be so liable to shrink as if wrung out before drying.

Q. How can I prevent tearing the hem of curtains with the rod?

A. Do not starch the hem when laundering sash curtains; the rod can then be put in without tearing. Put an old glove finger or a thimble over the end of the rod and the curtain will go on smoothly.

POOLS AND CREEKS ONLY—Most of the water remaining in Garza-Little Elm reservoir, which at the start of the year covered several thousand acres, now can be found only in small pools and in the channel leading from Lake

Dallas. A large lake is located to the left of the channel above, but high land has cut off its exit through the channel and out of the gates into the Dallas water system. (AP Wirephoto)

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago

Hereford has been designated as one of the special privileged post offices where a postal savings bank will be established. Postmaster C. Smith received word yesterday that the inspector would call soon to arrange for the opening of the bank which will be on the 18th of September. These postal banks are bringing out of the hiding places thousands of dollars and no doubt will prove popular with the people.

J. F. Joss, who moved from Hereford two years ago to California, but who still owns considerable property in Deaf Smith County, was here this week and relates an interesting story of his 90 acre alfalfa farm which he recently owned in the Golden State. Joss says our soil is far richer and better for alfalfa than the land he owns near Pomona, Calif. and the water is shallow.

At a meeting of the school board last Saturday the age of free tuition was raised to include pupils up to 21 years. Unders from 6 to 7 will be admitted at $1.00 per month. Thus, all pupils from seven to 21, both ages included, will be permitted to attend the Hereford schools free of charge.

press time this week shows that farm produce prices here are steadily advancing, one of the most encouraging announcements made for several months. Wheat is bringing $2.25 this morning in Hereford, and with an apparent tendency to keep climbing. No great jump to a higher level is expected, but the constant rise during the past week has given more encouragement than has been felt this season.

Cream prices are also making the up-grade in good order. Cream stations report a price of $20 a pound for butterfat from No. 1 sour cream, and $17 for No. 2.

The noon Santa Fe passenger train was held over in Hereford Wednesday by a minor freight wreck several miles east of town. A fast freight train coming in from the west behind the passenger train was likewise delayed, as was the east bound freight here.

NEED MATH TEACHERS

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—College-trained mathematicians are increasingly in demand, but short on supply, a Michigan State University mathematician reports.

Dr. J. S. Frame, chairman of a national employment registration committee sponsored by three mathematical societies, offers 4 reasons for the shortage: The inherent difficulty of mathematics; the need for better guidance in high schools, as to job opportunities; an apparent de-emphasis of mathematics in many high schools and a shortage of well-qualified high school math teachers.

NEW BRAND OF THIEF

BRYAN, Tex. (AP)—A new technique of car stealing—or borrowing—was broken up with the arrest of Samuel Lee Versey on charges of auto theft.

Versey was accused of taking a car each night for more than a month from a local motor company's used-car lot and returning the vehicle just before dawn each day.

He was arrested when an employee of the firm recognized one of the cars as it sped down the street with Versey at the wheel.

The Hereford Brand, Hereford, Texas, Thursday, August 9, 1956

The United States population is growing at the rate of about 2,624,000 people a year.
