Rodeo Tonight Will Open Pioneer Day Celebration

THREE GENERATIONS—Ed Schroeter, class of 1957, marks three generations of one family to graduate from Hereford High. His mother, Mrs. A. J. Schroeter was graduated in 1926 and his grandmother, Mrs. A. O. Thompson, was a member of the first class to graduate in 1906. Another daughter of Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. W. T. Carmichael, was graduated in 1929, and two of Ed's brothers, Alec and Paul, also have been graduated at H.H.S. (Paul Schroeter Photo)

Old Timers Will Meet; Giveaway, Parade Slated

Hereford's three-day pioneer celebration opens at 8 p.m. today with the first performance of the Riders Club rodeo and gets into full swing Friday with Pioneer Day, a parade and another night of rodeo.

The annual affair will wind up Saturday with a $1,000 in merchandise giveaway by local merchants in the afternoon and the rodeo finals that night.

In contrast to last year's celebration, the events are evenly spaced over the three days to avoid conflict.

CENTRAL attraction will be Pioneer Day when the old timers gather here. Registration begins at 9 a.m. in the lobby of the Jim Hill Hotel. About 300 pioneers are expected.

At 10 a.m. the annual meeting of the Mid-Plains Pioneer Assn. will be held in the hotel ballroom. Mayor Ray Godwin will welcome the senior citizens to Hereford and Vern Witherspoon will give the response.

J. C. Allred, president of the group will conduct a business session which will include recognition and introduction of pioneers, a memorial service and election of new officers.

A basket lunch will be spread on the courthouse lawn and the afternoon will be spent visiting. The county chamber of commerce, co-sponsor of Pioneer Day with the pioneer group, is providing refreshments throughout the day. If the weather is bad, the lunch will be in the hotel ballroom.

A NEW FEATURE has been added to this year's affair with a display of pioneer relics and museum pieces. The Texas Historical Survey committee, headed by Mrs. Corinne Neely, will have the display from 1 to 5 p.m. in Wayne Wallace building on E. 3rd across from the hotel. "We are going to show relics that have never been on display here before," Mrs. Neely said.

The parade is scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m. and will include at least seven riders clubs and sheriff's posses as well as floats sponsored by local merchants.

Included in the procession will be the local riders club, Hale and Fisher County posses, Hutchinson

GOOD WHEAT PROSPECTS—In a field of lush wheat owned by Clarence Saulcy, left, his Westway community neighbor, Ken Rudd, last week was estimating how high the grain will be by harvest time. Saulcy's field of Kiowa is one of the more advanced fields of grain in the area. It had 360 pounds of nitrogen and 100 pounds of phosphate fertilizer per acre applied before planting—the field was cross-seeded with 90 pounds of grain per acre—and three irrigations during the winter to bring it to its present stage. (Staff Photo)

Rev. Lester Jones Resigning Post Here on June 15

The Rev. Lester Jones, pastor of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Hereford since June 1955 this week announced his resignation, effective June 15 at which time he will become pastor of St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Plainview.

During the two years he has been in Hereford, the Rev. Jones has been active in community affairs, along with expanding the local church. He is currently president of the Optimist Club, active in V. F. W. and in the toastmaster's Club.

Resulting from a deep interest in youth and organized recreation, the Rev. Jones helped sponsor Hereford's first boxing team in several years in 1957, and was one of the original organizers of the A. A. U. program which is currently offering a wide range of athletic training for youngsters in the community.

St. Thomas Church, meanwhile, has expanded to 56 members, organized an active Sunday School program and has constructed a new, modern

Penalty for Excess Wheat Announced

A PENALTY of $1.12 per bushel for excess wheat has been announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, according to Faust Collier, manager of the county ASC office.

The penalty equals 45 per cent of parity and is effective for 1957 allotments, Collier said. It applies to the normal yield for the individual farm times the number of acres in excess of the farm's allotment.

The farmer with excess must pay the penalty before he can receive a marketing card, Collier said, and added that all wheat grown on a farm with excess must go on the open market without parity support after the penalty is paid.

Carnivals Out of Jurisdiction, Say Commissioners

FACED with a recommendation of the Chamber of Commerce Merchants Assn. that Deaf Smith County place a ban on carnivals operating in the county, members of the Commissioners Court Monday reviewed the situation at their regular meeting and generally decided that the question was "out of our jurisdiction."

The group moved to support re-allocation of Highway 51 as "State Highway 851" with telegrams to the Highway Commission, and discussed improvements at the new Bull Barn, south of town.

The carnival question was presented by Bill Lenderman, C-O manager, at the request of his committee, consuming considerable time Monday morning. The commissioners checked the question with District Attorney Ed Line and, pointing out that the court would have no right to limit operations meeting requirements of Texas laws on private property, took no action on the proposal. They also discussed existing agreements with service organizations of such enterprises as being part of agreements in the transfer of property with the county at times past.

"If there is sufficient complaint to create a bad situation, it is our opinion that people will cease attending these affairs, and that the" (Continued On Page 2)

W. C. Flack Bound to Grand Jury

Bond for W. C. Flack, 70, of Hereford, charged with statutory rape, was set at $1,000 in preliminary hearing Tuesday in justice of the peace court. Flack was bound over to the grand jury for further action.

He posted the bond Wednesday morning. The grand jury meets June 6.

IN JAIL BOND ISSUE

Around Town

Hereford's fire siren is being re-wired for temporary use as a tornado warning, Earl Phillips, fire chief, said Wednesday. The siren, in case of fire, will sound "up and down" on an oscillating frequency as in the past. In case it is used as a tornado alert, it will hit a high pitch and remain there. Phillips said the measure was offered on a temporary basis until some more adequate plan might be worked out, since it is often impossible to hear the present siren in all areas of town.

Carrots, a crop which came into its own here last year, will expand from 3,400 acres in 1956 to some- (Continued On Page 2)

A Ballot Is Mighty Costly

The privilege of freedom at the polls is a great American heritage and, sometimes, it can be an expensive one.

The recent Deaf Smith County jail bond election, for instance, was handled at a cost of approximately $1.42 for each of the 396 ballots cast, according to estimates of the Commissioners Court in its regular meeting Monday, when total cost of the election was figured at $550.

Election judges, especially in a small turn out, are the most expensive portion of the procedure. In the jail bond election, judges cost $360.50 — almost $1 for each ballot cast. Smaller boxes ran the average cost up.

Bippus, with seven votes, led the cost list to the tune of around $3 for each vote cast, based solely on election judge pay; Garcia voters cast their ballots for $2.50 for each vote, not including supplies, publications fees, or administrative costs. And all the rest of the small boxes were pretty well in line, depending upon the number of votes.

VOLUNTEER EFFORT TO BUY TORNADO SIREN BOGS DOWN

Hereford's volunteer effort to purchase a tornado warning siren on a donation basis sagged to have bogged down before it ever got started. A total of $54.50 had been contributed at noon Wednesday by 17 families.

Cost of a special siren appeared to be indefinite, following a preliminary survey. Clay Angelo, ground observer leader, said that the new tornado siren, installed recently in Pampa, was purchased at a cost of a little more than $7,500 — and could be heard for a radius of more than five miles in the Pampa area. He also pointed out that the price on sirens ranged from $1,500 upward, depending on features involved in the apparatus.

Also to be considered in the plan was the possibility of organizing a county civil defense corps, (Continued On Page 2)

Remodeled Furr Food To Re-Open

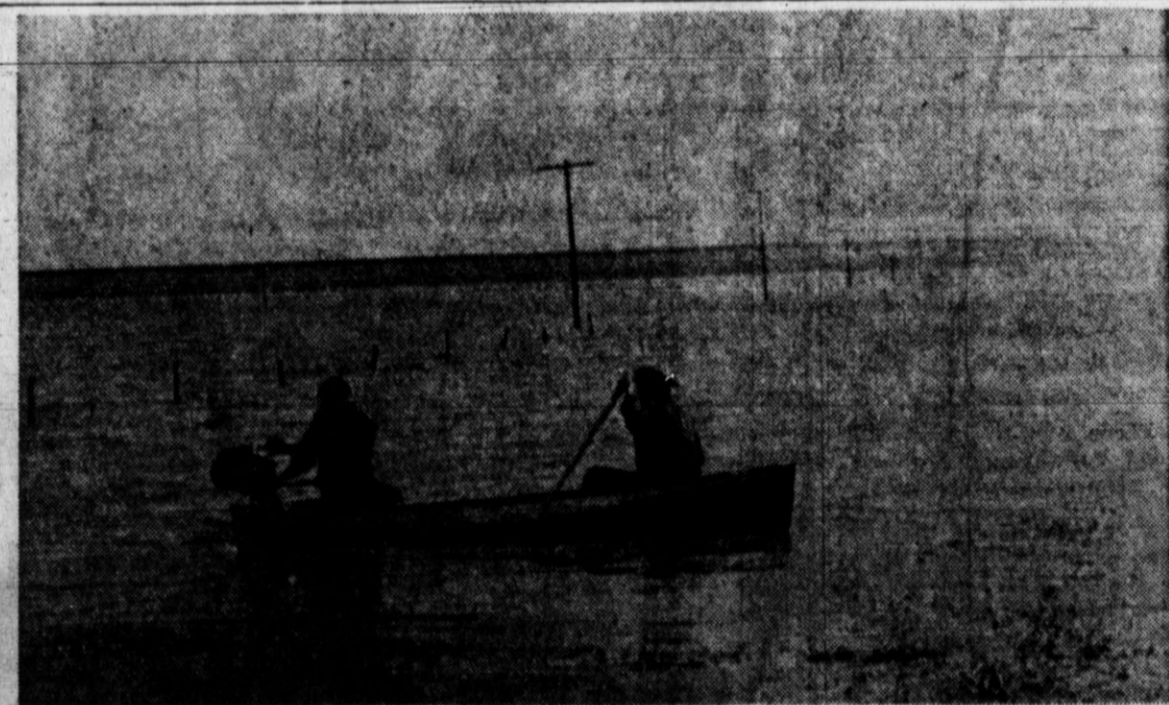

Furr Food will re-open Friday morning, following a complete remodeling and face lifting program, according to Bill Shore, manager, who said today that the Hereford store will give customers $1,500 worth of free groceries in connection with the two-day opening.

"In addition, we will give double Frontier Stamps all day Friday and all day Saturday on purchases of $2.50 or more," Shore said, "and will sponsor clowns and a western band Friday and Saturday nights in connection with the opening. Free Cokes will also be given in the store both days."

The remodeling, in addition to general face lifting, includes new counter markets and the addition of a new drug and cosmetic department. Frozen foods have also been expanded from 50 feet of freezers to 70 feet and the line of frozen merchandise will be increased. (Continued On Page 2)

The majority of Hereford business houses will be closed today in observance of Memorial Day. All members of the Hereford Retail Merchants Assn. will be closed.

Swimming Pool Opens June 1

The Hereford municipal swimming pool will open at 2 p.m. Saturday, providing another activity for Hereford residents, particularly the younger set just out of school.

Charles Bell, high school band director will manage the pool this summer. He and Cuby Kitchens, chief lifeguard, have been putting a new coat of aqua paint on the pool in preparation for the opening. The pool will be open seven days a week from 2 to 6 p.m. It will close in September.

Bill Kester will assist Kitchens as a life guard.

THREE RED Cross swimming instructors will begin free classes about June 10. Barbara Damron and Irene Witherspoon will teach beginners and intermediates and J. B. Wills will give lifeguard classes. Certificates will be issued to those completing the courses. Mrs. J. A. McWhorter is chairman of the Red Cross water safety committee and will be working with the instructors. Definite times and schedules of the swimming classes will be announced later. The Hereford Athletic Club will work in conjunction with the Red Cross on swimming instruction.

sponsoring agencies will drop them," said Judge H. E. Henslee following the morning session of the group.

THE COMMISSIONERS discussed at length plans for paving the parking area (some 22,000 square yards, adjacent to the new Bull Barn; they also met with President Earnest Langley and D. C. Martin of the Lions Club to consider plans for construction of new concession stands and additional rest rooms in the building.

The improvements, to be located in the west portion of the building, will be approximately 40 feet long and 20 feet in depth. Half of the area, 20 feet by 20 feet, will house additional rest rooms, which commissioners indicated, that is necessary for large gatherings.

"It is our objective to clear the kitchens now existing for use of clubs, home demonstration groups and other similar activities," said Henslee. The individual commissioners discussed the improvements and indicated that the kitchens will be fully equipped as soon as the area is cleared.

The commissioners also heard a Home Demonstration report for Precinct 3, headed by Mrs. N. A. Brown and including a delegation of members for that area.

set the pay of judges at $8 for a 10-hour day, plus $1 per hour overtime, and allows the presiding judge an extra $2 for going after and returning the equipment and supplies.

The commissioners reviewed the figures, approved payments, but indicated a desire to cut down on the number of judges required in handling small, single-question elections to the legal minimum of two judges on small boxes.

"I can't see why it takes four judges two hours overtime to handle and tabulate seven to 12 votes," remarked one commissioner — and the other three nodded their heads, apparently in approval.

through which the federal government might cooperate 50-50 on the purchase of approved warning equipment.

"All contributions turned in at The Brand office or mailed to KPAN will be returned in case sufficient funds are not raised through the drive," said Publisher Jimmie Gillettine, and Station Manager Clint Formby.

In case interest in the drive should increase to the point where purchase of the equipment became feasible, a committee of five men will be appointed to make thorough investigations as to type of equipment needed, probable cost, location and operation, they said. However, according to present indications, it is not likely that such steps will be necessary.

Peewee League Sets Exhibitions

The four teams in the recently organized Peewee Baseball League will stage an exhibition double-header beginning at 6 p. m. today at the high school.

The Braves will meet with the Indians and the Tigers and the White Sox will play the nightcap. Winner will play winner and loser tangles with loser of these games Saturday night in the Little League park. First game begins at 6 p. m.

According to the Rev. V. W. Marcontell, the games are being played to see if the teams are evenly balanced.

"We want to keep the ability balanced and give every boy a chance to play in every game," the Rev. Marcontell said.

He added that the teams' T-shirts are due in about Friday. He said the team rosters were still open and any boy wishing to play should contact the coaches.

Players were divided into age groups Monday and players chosen for each team roster. Ages of the players range from 8 to 12 years.

Complete rosters and the league schedule will appear in The Sunday Brand. League play will begin about June 13.

Girls Schedule Summer Projects

Approximately 90 girls and 60 mothers attended the mother-daughter planning meeting Monday morning in the high school study hall. The purpose of the meeting was to allow the girls and their mothers to go over together plans for the girls' home projects in homemaking for the summer.

Each girl had filled out previously a plan for her summer project, including at least three areas of homemaking. She will spend the time required for approximately a semester's school work in that subject and will earn one-half credit for her work. Projects include sewing, cooking, home management, gardening, food preservation, making home accessories, and community work.

A Dutch luncheon will be held on June 14 at 10 a. m. for the girls and their mothers. At that time each girl will be expected to give an oral report of her progress in the summer's work. Most of the work will be completed by June 26, when each girl will participate in an achievement day program.

At Monday's meeting Mrs. J. J. Durham and Mrs. Joel Hodges, homemaking teachers, explained the projects and planned with the girls and their mothers a home visit during June. At the conclusion of the meeting cookies and punch made by the girls were served to those attending.

A car driven by Carol Kent, 124 Star, was in a collision at 8:20 a.m. Saturday with an auto driven by Mrs. Guadalupe Tapat, 33, at the intersection of Wolf and Blevins. Damage was estimated at $400.

Golf Match Play Opens Today at Municipal Course

The first club team golf matches of the year will be held at the municipal course today and Sunday. Play will be according to regular pro-amateur matches with 18 holes being played today and 18 holes Sunday.

Entry deadline for the matches is noon today. Pairings will be drawn at 8 a.m. today for early entrants, according to pro Bud Posey.

Players will be drawn for foursomes with an A-class player (72-80) as team captain. The other three will include a B player (81-88), a C player (89 and up) and a lady player.

Each player will receive full handicaps up to and including 18 strokes, Posey said. Play will consist of low ball only in the foursome, including the handicaps.

Entry fee will be three dollars, not including green fees. Merchandise prizes will be given to the four low teams in the vent.

Posey asked all players wishing to enter to call him at 1584 or come by the pro shop at the course.

studies at Wayland. Dr. Harold A. Haswell, executive coordinator of Texas Baptist Colleges, was named speaker for the summer Commencement exercises slated for Aug. 4.

REALISM ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky. — Patrons of an Elizabethtown theatre got a dubious treat recently while one of those "creature" movies

Boiled Beef Dinner Still Tops

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Make that meat-and-potatoes man in your family happy and cook him a boiled beef dinner. You may have to make a date with a piece of meat at your market before you do so—but it's worth the trouble. Not all shops carry fresh beef brisket, so talk to your meatman and "engage" this cut ahead of time.

Although this dish is called "boiled," actually it's simmered. This means the water in which the meat is cooked is kept below the boiling point; when bubbles that rise stay just under the surface of the liquid, you know your heat is right.

Boiled beef dinners were popular with our grandmothers; one reason they remain popular is that they have a down-to-earth goodness. And an added inducement—there's only one pot to wash after them.

A fine grade of beef brisket will be streaked with layers of fat, and usually briskets are boneless. A whole brisket is a big wedge-shaped affair that is a couple of inches thick at one end and twice as thick at the other. You probably will want to buy a piece of brisket weighing about three pounds.

Old-fashioned cooks sometimes over-cooked the vegetables that go into the boiled beef dinner. Nowadays we add the vegetables toward the end of the cooking time. Potatoes and carrots first, later wedges of green cabbage. If you have big old-fashioned soup plates you can serve meat, vegetables and broth together in them. Or you can serve the broth in cups or bowls and the meat and vegetables on plates.

To go with the slices of boiled meat, have horseradish or mustard on hand.

Cooks have strong opinions on whether or not turnips should be part of a boiled beef dinner. Some hold that the pronounced flavor of the turnip obscures the flavor of the meat and other vegetables. Others say that turnips are as much a partner to the meat and other vegetables as tomatoes are to lettuce!

BOILED BEEF DINNER
Ingredients: 2 to 4 pounds fresh beef brisket, ½ cup chopped celery, a few celery tops, 1 to 3 teaspoons salt, ¼ to ½ teaspoon pepper, 1 bay leaf, 3 to 6 whole cloves, 6 medium-sized potatoes (pared), 6 medium-sized carrots (pared), 1 small head green cabbage (cut into serving-size wedge shaped pieces).
Method: Put beef brisket in a kettle and cover with water. Add chopped celery, celery tops, salt, pepper, bay leaf and cloves. Cover and bring rapidly to simmering point; lower heat and simmer until tender when a fork is inserted in center—about 2½ to 3 hrs. About 30 minutes before beef is done, add whole pared potatoes and carrots; about 15 minutes later add cabbage wedges. Strain broth; slice meat. Serve broth in bowls or cups or use as stock for a soup.

Farmers and cowboys have less eye trouble than people who work in offices. The eyes have less strain when looking at distant objects.

Long Time Ago

45 YEARS AGO

Miss Jane Gregg entertained about 30 of her boy and girl friends last Tuesday night at her home in the suburbs of Hereford. "Moonlight forty-two" and other games were enjoyed on the lawn. After the games, refreshments were served.

The first alfalfa in the Hereford country this year, and, in fact, the first to be raised by irrigation, is being cut this week on the McDonald farm north of town.

The yield will run from one-half to three-fourths of a ton.

25 YEARS AGO

Tom Sullins was displaying at the intersection of Main and Third St., a 4½ pound bass taken from the Tierra Blanca. He had a smaller one weighing 2½ pounds he said he caught first.

The work of gathering up dull safety razor blades to be re-sharpened and sold to raise money for the relief and treatment of crippled children, being conducted by Khiva Shrine Temple of Amarillo, is being carried forward by Hereford Shriners.

All kinds and types of safety razor blades are wanted, and folks wishing for a place of disposal for their used blades are asked to bring or send them to Frank Gyles at his Piggly Wiggly Grocery.

J. H. (Cyclone) Davis of Sulphur Springs, candidate for congressman-at-large, will be in Hereford to address an audience in the interest of his candidacy on Wednesday, June 15.

A horse and automobile collided recently near Knoxville, Tenn. The car was completely demolished. The horse's jaw had a slight fracture, nothing serious.

Antonian Circle Concludes Year

The Antonian Circle held its final session of the current year Friday in St. Anthony's School Hall. Mrs. Raymond Schlabs, president, conducted the business session.

Plans were made to stage an old-fashioned style show on June 23, with an admittance fee of 25 cents to all persons over 12. The general public is invited to attend.

Appointed on the year book committee were Mesdames Joe Huckert, Leo Ohlig, Herman Schumacher, and Alfred Reinart serving. New officers elected were Mrs. Elmer Reinart, president; Mrs.

Joe Huckert, vice-president; Mrs. E. N. Reinart, recording secretary; Mrs. John Warren, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Clarence Betzen, treasurer and Mrs. A. C. Stengel, parliamentarian and reporter.

Refreshments were served during the social hour to Father Michael Sugrue S. A., and Mesdames Ted Higgins, John Warren, Herman Schumacher, Leo Ohlig, Alfred Reinart, J. W. Stengel, E. N. Reinart, Joe Huckert, Leander Reinart, George Turrentine, Elmer Reinart, Raymond Schlabs, Edward Dziuk Jr., S. L. Loerwald, W. J. Schumacher, Johnny Jesko and Wern Koelzer. Mesdames Lester Wagner and S. A. Fangman served as hostesses.

'One-Man Army' Is Now Sheriff

By FRANK PITMAN

GOLDEN, Colo., (U)—Uncle Sam's "One-man army of Batavia," Art Wermuth, has slowed down.

He's working only 14 hours a day as sheriff of Jefferson County, a booming suburban area in the Denver.

"I love being sheriff," says the stocky 202-pounder with crew-cut hair. He's credited with single-handedly killing 116 enemy Japanese in the Philippines during World War II.

Wermuth, 41-year-old Republican, was appointed last January to the sheriff's job after a predecessor got into income tax trouble.

If things develop like he hopes, Wermuth will seek re-election. Wermuth's postwar career has been just as exciting as his time in Army service. During the war he won the Distinguished Service Cross, Silver Star, Bronze Star, five Purple Hearts and put in three years and four months in a Japanese war prisoner camp.

Since August 1945 he's been an impresario of a flying circus, a drug salesman, service station operator, city marshal of Wichita, Kan., and an oil engineer in Venezuela.

After the South American venture—ended by his wife's illness—Wermuth settled at her home town of Lakewood, Colo., a Denver suburb. He prospered as an insurance salesman, built a home at Evergreen and acquired a 108-acre ranch at Conifer, Colo.

As sheriff of Jefferson County, Wermuth has a staff of 38 and jurisdiction over 12,000 square miles and 98,000 persons.

forcement pose no problem for Wermuth, who candidly—not boastfully—says "I'm not afraid of anything."

His big goal, he says, is to straighten out juveniles who get into trouble.

Wermuth and his wife, Patricia, a former parachute jumper in his flying circus, adopted an 8-year-old boy last year and have applied for the adoption of a girl about the same age.

"Kids are great, I love 'em," he says.

Spring news for the younger set as well as their big sisters is black and white. Cecil Beaton started it all with his dramatic black and white costume designs for the Asot scene in the Broadway hit, "My Fair Lady."

High style dress designers took the cue, and fashion has been full of black and white ever since. Now little girls are following the lead in some of the daintiest and smartest black and white dresses to come along in many a moon.

There is, for instance, the white shirtwaist dress with crisp full skirt and shirt top trimmed with vertical ruffles of black lace, with a black velvet tie and belt for a final filigree.

King-size black and beige polka dots on white polished cotton make another effective style for the pig-tail set, especially when used in a dress which teams with a beige duster.

With all these new black and white fashions, of course, smart girls wear black patent leather shoes and white gloves.

Gladys Hates School

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.
AP News Features

The bombshell fell at dinner. "Want to know something?" announced Gladys. "I'm not going back to school. I'm through with this idiotic education."

"Well," said Dad, "that's a bit startling. What are you planning to do?"

"I'm going to get a job — in fact I've already got one. I'm going to earn some money and have a few things that are worth having. What earthly good is it ever going to do me to know geometry or chemistry? I hate school and there isn't any sense in it any-how."

Gladys' parents were stunned. They knew she was an average student and they suspected that something other than dislike of geometry and chemistry was back of this rebellion.

They didn't say, "No, you can't leave school." But they did say, "Let's talk this over a little." What they discovered jolted them out of their complacent feeling that they'd been good parents and were free of "those adolescent problems" they'd heard their friends moan about.

Gladys was 15 and had this fall entered senior high school. The family lived in a middle class suburb of a small city and Gladys' school mates were from families in more or less the same economic position as hers, with the exception of one small clique whose families were in a higher income bracket.

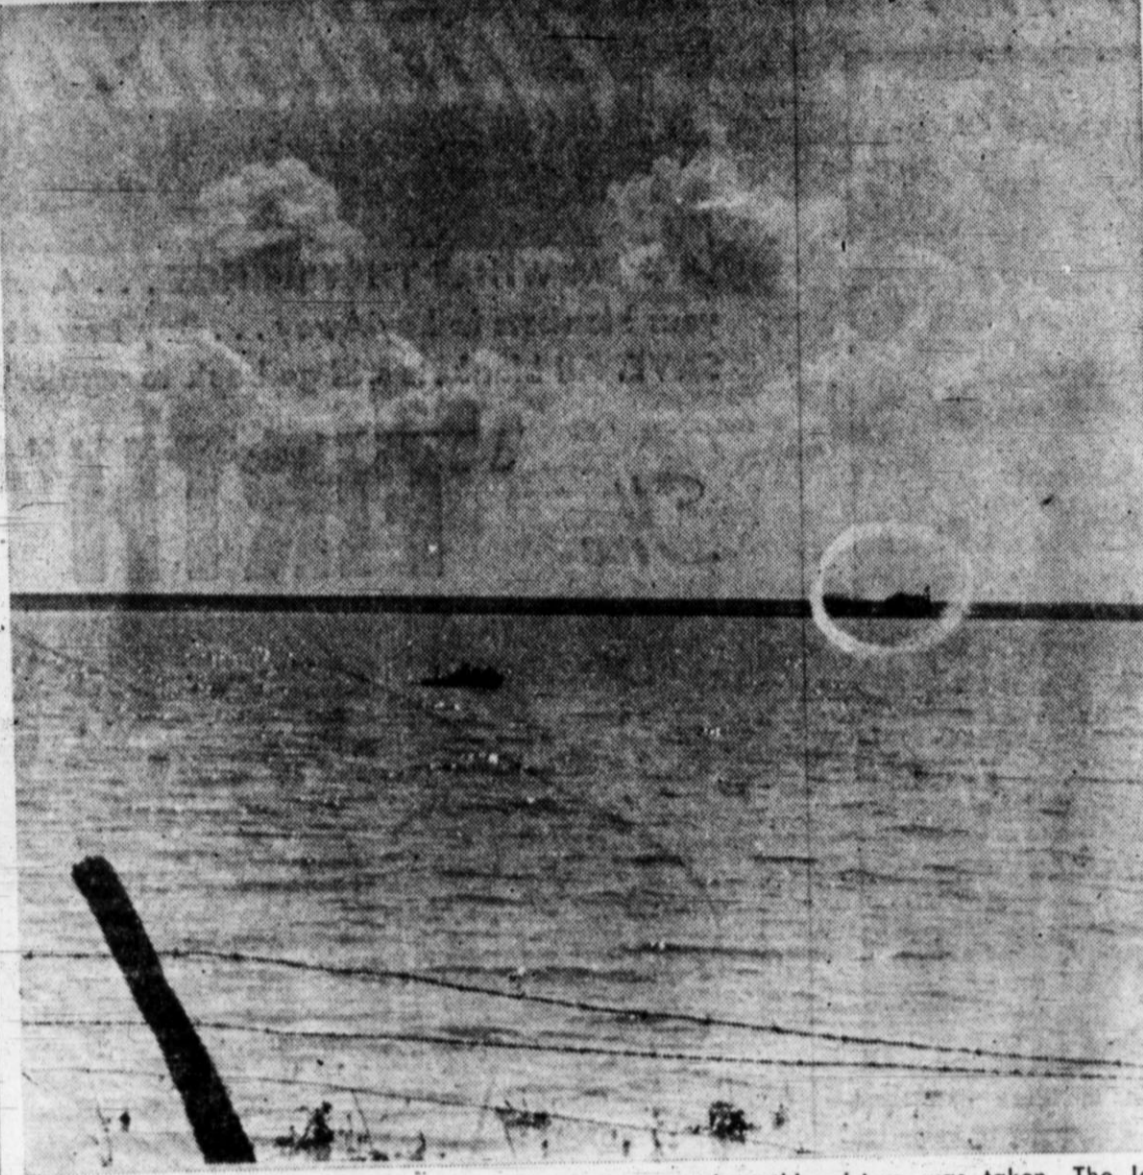

Gladys was on the fringe of this group, she ached to belong to it. She'd gone home with Mary after school last week and spent the afternoon in envious admiration of Mary's wardrobe. Mary's brother Steve came in and Gladys thought he was the handsomest, smartest boy she'd ever seen. Steve had taken her home in his dad's convertible and asked her to go to the movies with him Saturday night. She'd accepted before she thought that she had no clothes that could come up to what he would expect her to wear.

Gladys' completely unrealistic idea was that she was going to work and get enough money to keep up with Steve and Mary. As the talk with her parents went on even Gladys began to see that her plan wouldn't really solve her dilemma.

"We can afford to get you one new dress to wear on your date," said Dad, "but there is no way I know of jacking up my income to match Jack Ashwood's and I'm afraid that your earnings in that dress shop would only be a drop in the bucket. Of course it would be nice to have a big fat income, but you know, Gladys, we have a pretty good life in this family. I am very well satisfied with my wife and daughters."

"You know what?" said Mother. "There's something I have wanted to do ever since you children grew up enough to be out from under my feet. I've wanted to go take a course in dress-making. Suppose, Gladys, you and I do it together. We're plenty smart enough to make our clothes and have a lot more than we have now without spending any more money."

And so the immediate problem was solved. Gladys felt much better toward her parents for their warm, loving discussion of her problem. She felt she could hold her own with her richer friends because she was a respected and loved person at home.

The Hallmark of Circulation Value

In the same way that STERLING on silver signifies a standard of known value, so is the A.B.C. emblem a symbol of integrity for the circulation of newspapers and periodicals. It means that circulation so identified is measured according to the rules and standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATION.

The A.B.C. is a cooperative and non-profit association of 3,450 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Organized in 1914, these buyers and sellers of advertising brought order out of advertising chaos by setting up standards for paid circulation and establishing rules and methods for measuring, auditing and reporting circulations.

Therefore, the work of the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is proud to be a member, provides you with a direct and valuable service. You can buy advertising as you would make any other sound business investment — on the basis of well known standards, known values.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of our circulation records. The results of this exacting audit show: How much circulation we have; where our circulation goes; how it was obtained; and many other FACTS that you need in order to know just what you get for your advertising dollars. This audited information is published by the Bureau in easy-to-read A.B.C. reports which are available to our advertisers on request. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

A.B.C. REPORTS — FACTS AS A BASIC MEASURE OF ADVERTISING VALUE

By JIMMIE GILLENTE

The tornado scare is almost a week old now, but still provides the topic of conversation when more than two people get together for coffee.

THE WARNING-SYSTEM drive, contrary to what many people expected, is definitely lagging. In fact, it seems to be making no headway at all. Several people have suggested this is due to lack of information, which is probably a justified criticism, since the drive was more or less spontaneous and had no definite planning. Here is the way I see it. We take in what folks wish to donate then, if the amount is anywhere like that needed, we appoint a five-man board to thoroughly investigate the needs, costs, possibilities and empower the group to go ahead and make necessary arrangements. Clint Formby called and agreed that this is the best plan. Anyway, we are keeping the names and if it flops 100 percent, the money will be returned to all donors.

Still others feel that any warning system of this type (and they all agree to a pertinent need for one) should be purchased, installed and operated by the City of Hereford. Maybe this is right; since everyone benefits, tax paid sponsorship might be the best answer.

Clay Angelo tells me that the new siren at Pampa cost a little bit more than $7,500, and that it can be heard within a radius of five miles. He figures there are cheaper sirens but, like everyone else, Clay recommends getting one that will do the job in a thorough manner. There is also the possibility of federal aid by working in conjunction with civil defense and the ground observer corps. Regardless of all the conversation, Hereford is a fairly helpless community in this regard — and something should be done.

AFTERMATH of the tornado fright has brought forth several interesting sidelights. Mrs. Carl McCaslin has been getting a bunch of static because she and the Negro maid crawled under the floor of their home at 409 East Fifth. Carl says it was really a funny sight, following the all clear signal, when he came around the corner and saw those two heads stick out of the little window where you crawl in through the foundation.

Mrs. J. T. McIver, an old timer when it comes to racing for the cellar, had the best idea. She grabbed the coffee pot, a box of crackers and her pills. "If you're going to the dugout," says too much benefit from the recent four-inch downpour. Most of it ran off, Carl figures. However, they did have another nice shower Monday night — and things are looking up.

I saw a big floral horseshoe, maybe four feet high, in front of the door of Cecil Guseman's office the other day. Did one of his nags run first in the Kentucky Derby or something? I don't know what, but it sure looked like a big deal to me.

These super markets are really spreading out. Gaylord Newell's Piggly Wiggly remodeled a few weeks back and Manager Bill Shore will open Furr Food with a completely remodeled store Friday morning. Neil Cooper is also getting ready to do something about opening his new store at Park and McKinley. Hereford is fast becoming a town of super-super markets.

VACATION TIP — Francis Hardwick tells me that each day two or three tourists get tired of fighting the summer heat and take off a couple of hours to visit the theatre. This is especially true in July and August, he says; after resting a couple of hours in air conditioned comfort, they get into their cars and head on their merry way. A big sack of popcorn is another way to keep the kids in line. They get the stuff all over the car — but you don't have to stop as often as when they drink soda pop. Another good deal is a paper carton filled with chipped ice, it soothes the kids and they drink the ice water along as it melts. However, it doesn't make a lot of difference. You will have to make a bunch of extra stops, regardless of what you do.

ARGEN-DRAPER says her husband, Tom, sometimes gets her in the worst situations. For instance, Argen was selling poppies last Saturday and gave Tom quite a sales talk on why he should support the drive financially. "Will you pay as much for your poppy as I pay for mine?" asked Tom; Argen smelled a rat, but couldn't gracefully do much but agree, whereupon Tom walked over, gave her $25 and took his poppy. Argen had to do the same!

"Sometimes," says Argen, "I could kill that man!" What's more, sometimes I believe she really means it. Anyway, they wound up with two of the most expensive poppies seen around here in a long time.

Even the Texas folks are making fun of Texans these days. J. T. Guinn got quite a kick in telling about the East Texas farmer who had to swim out to his mail box to get his drouth relief check.

Another story concerns the wealthy Texan who was driving along in his Cadillac, looked up and saw a sign which read, "Drink Canada Dry."

"Track," murmured the big fellow, "I ain't even drunk Texas dry — yet!"

Little, if any, excitement appears to stem from the double-barrel rodeo and Pioneer Day festivities slated for the weekend. Last year Vern Witherspoon's mouth was watering to smack his lips over vinegar pie, and the Rider's Club was going all out for another of those history making parades. Maybe things will pick up during the next few days.

School is out, but I still see a lot of dads mowing the lawns. This is another result of those changing times I have been talking about. At least, it has changed a lot since I was a kid.

CARL PERRIN says folks out in the "great northwest" didn't get

Summer Activities Vary for Grads and Students

By MARSHA COCKRELL

Hereford's brand new high school graduates and college students plan a variety of activities for the summer, including attending summer school, working, joining the armed services and making trips to foreign countries.

Sue Sparks will leave June 2 to attend an electronics - radio - television institute in Omaha, Neb. She will train to be a teletype operator and receptionist in the 12-weeks institute and plans to work in Amarillo next fall.

Barbara Damron left Tuesday for a two-week aquatic school at Palestine. She is being sponsored by the Red Cross. After attending the school she will work at the swimming pool in Hereford.

Jane Newsom is excited about her trip to Europe this summer. She will leave Amarillo by plane for New York June 12, and will arrive in Frankfurt, Germany, on June 14. She will spend most of the summer with Helga Thome, who was an exchange student at Hereford High School last year.

Jane and Helga will attend an opera and a ball at the University of Heidelberg, and will make a tour of seven countries — Holland, Austria, Belgium, Switzerland, France, Monaco and Germany.

Jane also will go to Sweden to visit Elisabeth Brummer, this year's exchange student at Hereford High. Then after spending two more weeks with the Thomes, she will arrive back home Sept. 1.

Many high school graduates will do farm work this summer. Some of them are Lynn Boomer, who plans to work in New Mexico, John David Bryant, Joe Andrews, Larry Boston, Larry Walterscheid and Bob Veigel.

Pat Ferguson and Ronald Zimmerman are going to sign up with the Army, while Bill Callaway, Jerry Malone and Burke Inman plan to join the Marines.

Nancy and Kee Crawford plan to go to summer school at McMurry College. Nancy is a senior and Kee is a sophomore. They are both music majors.

Johnny McIver and Buddy Godfrey will attend Texas Tech's summer session and work in Lubbock.

YOUR RED CROSS ON THE JOB

By CORINNE J. NEELY

DISASTER operations continue throughout Texas and even in our own community. So far our own county has been fortunate in escaping damage other than a bad scare last Friday. But our neighbor of Farmer County was not so lucky.

As soon as we heard of their loss we sent a survey team of S. O. Wilson, of our regular committee and he was accompanied by Bill Linderman as an assistant. They did a fine job and were commended on their survey by Boone Gyles working with disaster from Waco. Seven families interviewed escaped injury other than property loss which most claimed they were insured to cover, and did not need Red Cross help. One family who was a renter lost most of their furniture have placed a claim to be processed.

Funds collected by the chapter through volunteer contributions for the Silverton Disaster have been sent to the Red Cross for use there. Offer of clothing and food were not needed they said but funds definitely were, to complete the job.

The Olton Disaster occurred the same day of the Black-Friona-tornado, has on the job there, representing this area Robert Blackburn, who is, to notify this chapter what we can do to aid other than funds. Of course funds are always needed and can be used in any disaster area and can be given through this office by those who wish to do so, but we will not at this time, unless notice given, make a drive.

However, to date in TEXAS, 1,688 families have applied for Red-Cross aid following floods and tornadoes. Of the above figure 800 families have already received this aid. Red Cross anticipates 1,200 more families to be asking for assistance. Disaster operations have already taken place in 47 counties in Texas (and more added since this figure was compiled). All this at a cost estimate, without more disasters, of $750,000.00.

From July 1, 1956 until April 30th this year the National Chapter has spent on disasters for the whole country $6,416,115.00.

A human interest story to come out of the Silverton Disaster, a local Spanish-American couple offered and were eager to adopt children left parentless through the storm, but the chapter was told that relatives were taking it to court to obtain them.

Youth Breaks Arm in Fall

By MRS. T. L. COLLINS

Roy Lee Steward broke his right arm at the elbow in his home Saturday when he slipped on a round can. He was taken to Deaf Smith County Hospital, where he remained until Monday.

Nancy Tyler was taken to Amarillo Monday. A specialist there checked her eyes and ears.

Betty Buse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Buse, became the bride of Wayne Lady of Hereford Tuesday evening, May 21 in the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Herschel Burrus came home from the hospital late Wednesday afternoon.

Eighth Grade graduation exercises for Walcott's 13 graduates was held in the school auditorium Wednesday, May 22, at 8 p.m. A good number of parents and friends were present. Mrs. J. F. Ward from Hereford sent lovely spring flowers.

The program included a presentation by Mrs. A. L. Shelton; invocation; Melvin Henderson's welcome; Merry Kay Pruitt, Salutatorian; class will, J. V. Perrin Jr., presentation of class gift (an American flag); Lee Myers; class prophecy; Ann Swinney; valedictory; Barbara Neinst; address; Bill Stanford; presentation of diplomas; Thomas L. Collins; benediction. Mrs. T. L. Collins.

Stanford, assistant superintendent of Hereford High School, urged each boy and girl to realize the new demands that high school will make of them, to be the best in the field of endeavor that each will choose. Members of the class are Barbara Neinst, Merry Kay Pruitt, J. V. Perrin Jr., Lee Myers, A. W. Shugart, Wayland and Ray Northcutt, Mary Kerr, Kelly Newman, Ann Swinney, Cecilia Burrus, Jerry Williams and Bobby Tice. The graduates wore royal blue gowns and caps with white tassels and pink carnations.

Their mothers served homemade cookies and punch in their classroom as a conclusion to the evening while visiting and picture-taking were done.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stanford and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Henslee from Hereford.

Mrs. John Ramond and daughter Mrs. Leonard Clayton from Roswell, N. M., friends of the Roy Pruitt family came Wednesday evening and left about noon on Thursday.

School closed Friday. It is a day long to be remembered. Buses ran an hour early so the high school students could start their semester tests. Thus children arrived at school although it rained.

Soon the yard was full of water, some hail, such thunder and lightning. It was very dark, but we had electricity and were thankful. Joe Rader, custodian, was kept busy getting water swept out of their house and the barn. We got four inches of rain. Water ran over highways and into

Choral Club Closes Year

Pauline Wilson says it's just a rumor that someone in every foreign restaurant speaks English; however she says they did all right in getting to Europe. One interesting thing about the trip is the highly organized railroad industry. Every 15 minutes a train can be boarded for any point in Europe. The trains are always on time. The station is never announced and the train is never announced. They were given the advice that they would really have to hurry to catch the trains.

The H. D. Choral Club met last Monday for a tea in the home of Mrs. Buren Sowell. This was the last meeting until September. The Chorus recesses in the summer. The tea table was decorated with spring flowers and arrangements of iris and roses were throughout the house.

Mrs. Roy Lee Wilson, Chairman of the Chorus, made the flower arrangements. The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Wilson and a short talk was made by Mrs. C. W. Parker, Director of the Chorus. Guests included: Mrs. J. B. Caraway, Mrs. Ray Stewart, Mrs. Lloyd Althart, Mrs. Paul Rudd, and Mrs. Phillip Miller. Members present were mesdames Taft Mc-

Ge, T. J. Parsons, Clay Ridgeway, Tom Draper, John Jacobsen, Sr. and W. A. Waters.

A Dress Revue will be held at the rock clubhouse June 17 at 3 p.m. This is the achievement event for those who have completed the Basic Dress Making Course. The women will model garments they have made and also the children will model garments which their mother has made. There will be some exhibits on hints and improved dress making.

Jessie Hershey is working at the Sewing Circle. Jessie is quite a saleslady and I am going to have to quit visiting her as she is making me want a new sewing machine. Don't forget that the H. D. Gift Shop is located at the Sewing Circle and there are a lot of very attractive and reasonably priced gifts.

I was glad to see the new screen door at the Elizabeth Womble-office. Most of our neighbors in the Court House complain about the screen door that we have. Maybe it does slam, but we at the office have listened to it so long that it doesn't bother us. Or possibly our nerves are better than some other folks'.

Vacation days will soon be over for Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cockrell, who are on a trip to the Northwest. They have visited in Oregon and Washington and will come back through California and come home through the Southern route. They promised to call Loyce Sullivan in Fresno, Calif., and remind them that we are expecting them in Hereford for a long visit. Wanda Pitts reminds me that the Cockrells made a trip into Canada.

A very amused grandmother was talking about her youngest grandson. She asked what the vaccination was for and he replied that it was for Little Pox, the population sign at Elda, N. M., has "Village Limits" rather than city limits.

Home Demonstration clubs met in June, and have two very interesting programs. The program is on "Fly Control, Mosquito Control and Safe Water Supply." 4-H club girls will give a program to the women's clubs.

Household Scrapbook

Wall Paper Paste
To make wall paper paste, dissolve a few cents worth of glue by soaking for 24 hours in cold water. Boil 4 gallons of water; then stir in 1 quart of flour which has been mixed into a smooth paste with cold water. Now add the glue water. This much should paper one large room.

Paint Stains
To remove paint stains, first while washing the article, rub the part which is stained. Have turpentine ready and place it quickly on the article as you begin to rub again.

Waxed Floors
If wax is not available and the floor is to be used for dancing use powdered borax as a substitute.

Mahogany Stain
To make a mahogany stain, mix 1 quart boiled linseed oil, 1 qt. turpentine, 1 pt. whiting, 1 tablespoon burnt sienna, 1/2 tablespoon yellow ochre, 1/2 tablespoon Bismarck brown.

Faster Defrosting
The defrosting process in your refrigerator can be speeded up considerably if you remove the ice from the trays, fill them with boiling water, and place them back in the freezing compartment.

Laundering Silks
A little salt added to the water when laundering silken garments will set the color.

Lettuce Leaf
If a large lettuce leaf is put into the soup, it will insure a greaseless broth. Put in the leaf when the soup is about ready to be taken from the stove, and remove it before you serve. You will find that nearly all the excess grease will collect on the lettuce leaf.

Pine Cushion
When a room has a musty or unpleasant odor, place a pine cushion on a warm radiator, and it will soon produce a delightful odor.

Mending Lace Curtains
To mend fine lace curtains, starch a piece of mesh as near like the curtain as possible. Cut the starched patch one inch larger each way than the place to be mended, and with a warm iron press it over the hole. If done carefully, it will be difficult to detect the patches.

Subjects Vary for H. D. Clubs

Weather, Rain Cause for Talk

By MRS. S. N. THWEATT

Weather and moisture were the talk around the community the last few days. Friday, rain was very heavy in places while in some it was too light to measure.

Elmer Northcutt reported three and a half inches; N. A. Brown, two inches; Floyd Brown .70; Bob Northcutt, four and a half; Boot Leg Corner only received a light shower.

It will be days before some of the fields can be plowed. There was some hail around the Brown's but not enough to hurt the wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Howard attended a funeral in Portales N. M., Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Coleman, children Gary and Cinda and Mrs. Ruth Coleman made a business trip to Amarillo Wednesday. They visited Mrs. Coleman's daughter, Mrs. D. E. Coldiron.

Mrs. Bruce Coleman gave the last dressmaking demonstration Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. E. Rouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown and Tommy were in Hereford Friday. They said it was very exciting when the warning was given to take cover from the storm approaching.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Brown attended church at Rosedale, N. M., Sunday. After church they visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Potts. After lunch they all drove over and saw where the storm hit in New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown, Barbara, David, Dennis and Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Pulliam visited Mrs. Brown's sister and family. (Continued On Page 2)

Mrs. Homfeld Receives Award

Mrs. C. F. Homfeld of the Bippus Home Demonstration Club received a certificate and a check for $25 Monday as her award for being the county's 1957 Home Demonstration Club Woman of the Year.

Jimmie Gillettine, publisher of The Brand, made the presentation to Mrs. Homfeld at the county H. D. council's monthly meeting in the county court room. The Brand sponsors the award every year.

Mrs. Homfeld won the award from a field of nine nominees. Each H. D. club selects a contestant and an out of county board of judges chooses the winner.

Mrs. Homfeld was chosen on a basis of club work and community service.

She and her family live on a farm 54 miles northwest of Hereford. Their oldest boy, Kenneth, 21, works on a farm near Amarillo. Lloyd, 17, Glenda, 13, and Jerry, 11, all live at home.

Mrs. Homfeld has been president of her club several times and has served as secretary, council delegate and reporter as well as on various committees.

She also is active in community and church work. The announcement of her winning the award was made April 25.

Previous winners of the honor were Miss Roberta Campbell, 1956; Mrs. Carl DeHart, 1955; Mrs. T. J. Parsons, 1954; Mrs. Ira Ott, 1953; Mrs. C. P. Norton, 1952.

Research Group Tells Solons Car Safety Belts Effective

NEW YORK.—Representatives of the Cornell University Committee on Transportation Safety Research have told a Congressional committee investigating traffic accidents that a university study of automobile accidents has proved that automobile seat safety belts save lives and reduce the frequency—and the severity—of injuries to drivers and passengers involved in accidents.

John O. Moore, director of the Injury Research division, said that research on the design and installation of auto seat belts has been carried on for more than 10 years in a series of projects at the Cornell Aeronautical Laboratory, under the direction of Edward B. Dye, head of the lab's Safety Design Research Department.

Moore said that for the past two years the ACIR group has checked the effectiveness of seat belts by investigation of actual traffic accidents. "From more than 5,000 case histories of injury-producing accidents," Mr. Moore said, "we have reached conclusions which should remove all doubt of the effectiveness of safety belts in minimizing injuries in automobile accidents. In actual use, properly designed and installed seat belts will increase a car occupant's chances of escaping injury in an accident by nearly 60 per cent."

ONE OF the obvious reasons for the success of safety belts, Moore said, is the protection they afford by keeping passengers inside a car in accidents in which car doors fly open. Study has shown that front doors open in 50 per cent of all accidents involving cars manufactured prior to 1956, and passenger ejection is the second most important cause of injury in automobile accidents. Similarly, it is one that is almost completely eliminated by the use of properly engineered and installed safety belts. Even in non-ejection accidents, safety belts tend to lessen the frequency and severity of injuries by "packaging" the driver and passengers.

The Cornell announcement comes at a time when claims and counter-claims about the value of safety belts are being made by many widely varied groups and individuals. Such claims, Mr. Moore said, are usually based on isolated cases or on "test" crashes in which, by use of dummies, an effort is made to judge the injury-producing potential of accidents. The reliability of these methods, he pointed out, contrasts markedly with Cornell's investigation of actual accident cases, in which basic data is provided by specially organized and trained teams of police and highway patrol officers, who investigate the accidents. Beauty At Home

Q. Just how do I go about giving myself an egg facial?

A. First apply the whipped yolk of egg over face and throat, and let dry. Then apply the whipped white of egg over the yolk, and let remain for about a half-hour. Then remove with warm water, and follow with an application of light cold cream.

Q. How should the little squint-lines and other fine creases around the eyes be powdered?

A. Spread these creases gently apart with the fingers and pat the powder well into them. These small lines, if left unevenly covered, will be intensified.

Q. What can I do about dandruff on my scalp?

A. When dandruff begins to appear, you must increase the frequency of your shampoos. Apply the shampoo with a brush. In between shampoos, treatments with tonic or antiseptic lotion are good. Increased and thorough brushings are in order, letting the bristles of the brush get right down to the scalp.

Q. Is it wise always to make a test curl before giving oneself a home permanent?

A. Always! Take a piece of hair on the back of the head where the strand will not show if there is any discoloration, such as sometimes occurs on overbleached or improperly tinted hair or when there are systemic conditions such as extreme acidity. This test curl is important, too, for determining whether or not the timing is right for the amount of curl you wish.

Q. What are the best beauty masks for oily skins?

A. Mud or clay packs, consisting most frequently of fuller's earth, mixed to a smooth paste with witch hazel. Use about two tablespoons of the clay. Equal parts of witch hazel and peroxide can be used if bleaching is desired.

Q. Is there an exercise especially good for reducing overly-fleshy calves of legs?

A. One good one consists of sitting on floor, weight of body supported by the hands on the floor behind your hips. Pull knees up to chest and then slide right and left legs, alternately, down to the floor with a thud.

Q. Please suggest a quick and easy corrective treatment for dry hair.

A. Try adding a few drops of olive oil to your regular liquid soap shampoo.

Q. What is the proper way to sharpen an eyebrow pencil?

A. Since eyebrow pencils soften easily at room temperature, it is best to harden them by allowing to remain in the refrigerator for a half-hour or so before sharpening. Then pare the wax part of the pencil with a single-edged razor blade, shaping it almost flat to resemble a chisel. For best results, your pencil should be sharpened every third or fourth time it is used.

Q. How can I counteract the appearance of a long, thin neck with my makeup?

A. Use a foundation base on the neck that is lighter in color than the one used on the facial area.

Q. Please suggest a way in which I can coax more gloss and sheen in my dull-looking hair.

A. Try adding the beaten white of an egg to your regular liquid soap shampoo.

1. Go to a store, buy envelopes, paper and pencil.

4. Put it in an envelope; lick and seal envelope.
5. Find a mail box and mail the letter.

With GOD

... there is no limit to His reach. But with man, ah, that is different. He reaches only as far as God permits. You may reach for the moon, or prestige, or gold but God determines the length of your reach. You don't have to reach for heavenly bodies to impress God. Why not let your moral law bind you to perform social duties that build better communities? Help build some churches, or schools, or help those less fortunate than you. If you really want to extend your reach try praying with a troubled neighbor, or furnish transportation to church for those who have none. Make no mistake, He will lengthen your reach if you'll do a little work for Him.

Lest we forget: "Our Lord Jesus Christ is true God, begotten of the Father from eternity; but He is also true man, born of the Virgin Mary. He is like unto other men, except that He is holy God and true man in one person—the God-man. As such He is our Savior. The Son of God did not only become man, He also humbled Himself, suffering and dying, dying on the cross. Christ, our Lord, has done all this to be Jesus, the Savior of all men; to be Christ, the promised Messiah. He has done all this for us that He might become our Lord.
 A most cordial welcome to you.

Hot Rolls Rise to Occassion

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Some rainy afternoon, when you have to spend time indoors, roll up your sleeves and do some yeast baking. If you've never used yeast and feel a little timid, ask a more experienced neighbor to come over and lend a hand. Kneading and shaping may be done successfully by following written directions, but it is always helpful to see how an experienced baker handles the dough.

The following recipe for rolls includes mashed potatoes because they contribute to the light and airy texture. This dough has an advantage: it may be made ahead, refrigerated and used as needed.

SWEET MOUNTAIN ROLLS

Ingredients: 1 cup milk, 1 cup hot mashed potatoes, 1/2 cup shortening, 1/4 cup sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 cup warm (near 105 degrees) water, 1 package active dry yeast, 2 eggs, 5 to 6 cups sifted flour, red jam.

Method: Scald milk; stir in hot mashed potatoes, shortening, sugar and salt; let stand until lukewarm. Measure water into a large mixing bowl; sprinkle in yeast, stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm potato-milk mixture. Beat eggs thoroughly for a few minutes and add with 1 1/2 cups flour; beat well. Cover and let stand in a warm place until full of bubbles, about 1 hour. Stir in enough of the remaining 4 1/2 to 5 cups flour (and any extra needed) to make a fairly stiff dough. Turn out on a lightly floured surface; knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased mixing bowl; grease top of dough; cover and refrigerate. About 1 1/2 hours before serving, remove dough from the refrigerator and roll out to about 1/2-inch thick. Cut with biscuit cutter and place rounds of dough on greased cookie sheet or in shallow baking pan. Let rolls rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk—about 1 hour. Push thumb into the center of each round. Fill center with jam, using about 1 1/2 teaspoons for each. Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot.

HOW TO KNEAD

First step: Flatten dough slightly by pressing it, firmly, with the fingers of both hands, fold it over on itself toward you; use a rolling motion.

Second step: Push the ball of dough away from you with the part of your palm that is nearest your wrist; use both hands.

Third step: Grasp the dough with both hands and turn one-quarter way around on the board; repeat these three steps.

TESTING YEAST DOUGH

The time it takes yeast dough to double in bulk will vary with the temperature of the room, the amount of yeast used, the type of flour used and upon the other ingredients in the recipe. To test whether dough has doubled its original size, press two fingers deep into it; if the holes remain when fingers are withdrawn, the dough has probably doubled in bulk. When the shaped dough has stood in a warm place until it is puffy, press it gently with a finger tip. If a slight indentation remains, it is ready to bake.

OLD FASHIONED FAVORITE—Sweet mountain rolls are made with yeast and mashed potatoes.

Pause And Meditate

To be able to whirl in a vortex of happiness one must lubricate the machine that generates this energy. You ask, "Where will I find this lubricant?" — "At your finger tips always, and it's free!" — Gladys Miller.

IMPROVED WATER

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The government's department of water resources plans to spend $16,000,000 in 1957 on giving good drinking water to more of the population. Many, especially in small villages, now are forced to drink dirty and unhealthy water from tanks and rivers — and have to carry it long distances in some cases.

HOUD DOGS

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — A rock 'n' roll fan must have placed the following ad in the newspaper published by Douglas Aircraft Co. here: "Giveaway — Genuine Elvis Presley pups. They ain't nothin' but hound dogs. Female."

DOESN'T KNOW A GOOD THING

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Peggy Crawford, a drugstore saleslady, was somewhat puzzled by a customer who came in asking for a cure of laryngitis.

Noting the man's voice was clear and not at all hoarse, she asked: "Do you have laryngitis?"

"No," the man shook his head. "It's my wife. She hasn't been able to say a single word for several days."

Contrary to most husbands who would be happy with such a situation, this fellow insisted on a cure for his wife's ailment. "It's so quiet around the house I'm getting lonesome," he said.

CLOBBERED CABS

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A visiting motorist almost put the St. Helen's Cab Co. out of business.

He ran off the road and into a parking lot. The car struck the rear of a cab, jamming it into another, then veered to the right and hit the side of a third cab. It in turn struck a fourth cab.

The accident put four of the company's seven cabs out of commission and sent the visitor to jail on charges of drunken driving, public drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

LONESOME

FORT MADISON, Iowa (AP) — A man who served many years at the Fort Madison State Penitentiary got lonesome while on parole, so he returned for a visit.

ANNE: You should! I'm not trying to pry, but I'll bet it cost a king's ransom.
BETTY: Wouldn't you be surprised! It cost a lot less than we expected. And, Ed says it will cost less in the long run, too, because an Olds holds its value.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:
Are the Hereford people the calm type, or is it that they just don't believe a tornado could come to our city? I have never been in a tornado, but I have watched them and have seen destruction in their paths. As KPAN stayed on and kept its people in contact with the tornado Friday at noon, some folks weren't keeping up, and wondered what the rush was. Some folks trusted their houses. Some made sport of it. Others complained that they would like to eat lunch. It took some explaining to some folks that a storm was close to Hereford they looked as if they didn't believe it, and during the most exciting time when the storm was within five miles of us, a city postman went along the streets making his daily delivery.
I'm afraid should a sudden storm hit our town, we'd probably witness the worst destruction of any other place unless folks try to believe that storms can come to the high plains and act accordingly.
An Observer

Dear Editor:
On behalf of the people of Silverton, please allow me the privilege of expressing through your letters to the editor column, our profound appreciation to the wonderful people of your city and the surrounding communities who have so unselfishly aided this community following our tragic tornado.
Your generosity has been overwhelming and we give our heartfelt thanks to everyone who participated in our aid.
We trust that it will never become necessary that we return your kind acts because of such a calamity as has visited our community.
Our best wishes and our thanks to your people.
Sincerely,
Spencer Long
Mayor, City of Silverton

dents, and by the physicians who attend the accident victims. It has been recorded on punch cards, compiled and analyzed by experienced analysts and their findings have been thoroughly checked for accuracy.

Moore said that in evaluating the effectiveness of safety belts, ACIR analysts sifted through more than 5,000 file cases and established a control group and an experimental group in which accidents in both groups were kept as nearly identical as possible.

"The only difference," he said, "was that cars in the control group were not equipped with safety belts, while in the experimental group, safety belts were in use at the time of the accident."

THE TEN POINTS on which accidents in both groups had to agree were: type of accident; area of principal impact; direction of principal force; speed at impact; frequency of doors opening; number of cars per accident; make, weight, year of manufacture of the case car, and the seated area of car occupants.

With these accident factors identical ACIR staff members isolated 162 matched cases in which the only appreciable difference in the circumstances of a control case and its matching experimental case was the use of seat safety belts. It was then possible to compare the number of injuries and their severity in each of the two groups and thus determine the extent to which safety belts had lessened the anatomical and physiological damage caused by motor vehicle crashes.

Moore said that while this is the first real proof the nation has had of the degree of effectiveness of automobile safety belts, the knowledge comes as no surprise. It bears out similar studies undertaken several years ago by another Cornell Medical College research group investigating the protection afforded air travellers by safety belts in air

OILMEN HONOR THOMPSON—Lt. Gen. Ernest O. Thompson, left, member of the Texas Railroad Commission since 1932, receives a trophy in recognition of his public service in Galveston. craft. The findings of the air study group did much to foster and standardize the use of airplane safety belts. The ACIR project actually evolved from the air study and is charged with the task of discovering just what happens to the human body in automobile collisions.

Research under Mr. Dye at the Cornell Aeronautical Laboratory in Ithaca has been under way for the past ten years. In those laboratory studies, dummies were used to simulate the reactions of the human body in crashes with and without the seat belt; there have been structural tests of various belts and of various types of anchorage to the vehicle. These studies led to estimates, now known to have been conservative, that proper use of seat belts would reduce injury and death by as much as 50 per cent.

IN MAY of 1954, the Cornell University Committee for Transportation Safety Research, of which Dr. T. P. Wright, Cornell vice president, is chairman, adopted a resolution which recommended seat belts as effective devices or increasing passenger protection in automobiles.

Aside from its medical value, the data gathered by the ACIR group is providing factual information to people engaged in many areas of automobile design and of accident prevention work who formerly had to rely solely on conjecture. In this vein, Moore said that ACIR is now completing a study of what effect the safety "excess" included on most 1956 model cars have had on injury incidence and severity. The group hopes to announce the results of its study within the next few weeks, he said.

In the meantime, Moore cautioned motorists interested in installing safety belts on their cars to beware of many belts now flooding the market which are being produced primarily for their cheapness rather than for the protection they afford.
"To be effective," he said, "an automobile safety belt should meet the standards established by the Society of Automotive Engineers and must be properly installed. This requires secure anchoring to the basic structure of the car and should be performed by an experienced person. Finally, the best belt in the world is of no value unless it is used each time the car is put in motion. However, we are now sure that when these three conditions are met, a passenger's chances of escaping death or serious injury in an accident are vastly improved."

COLORFUL GUNS
CHICAGO (AP) — Shotgun gun stocks are taking on a new hue. William G. Krebs, representative of a Worcester, Mass., arms manufacturing firm, introduced a brilliant "hunter safety" red lacquered stock on a 410 shotgun at the National Sporting Goods Assn. Show. The stock also is furnished in green, blue, yellow, black and blond.
He says it is a new feature designed to develop hunter safety.
