Ready Blood Bank To Be Established For Emergencies

A drive will be held starting April 14 to establish a "walking blood bank" here in Hereford, according to a statement made by Deaf Smith County Hospital manager T. E. Seigler yesterday morning.

THE LAST DRIVE for this type of organization was made in 1951, when more than 1,000 joined.

A "walking blood bank," according to Dr. A. T. Mims, president of the hospital board, is the only practical way a community of this size can operate in procuring emergency blood donations.

"Cities the size of Amarillo," Mims told the hospital board at a recent meeting, "can have an active blood bank because the demand is so much greater than here. They can keep whole blood where we can depend only on donors because blood will not keep as long as we would have to store it at times."

To establish a "walking blood bank," blood donors register at the hospital, where their blood is typed and information is recorded for notification when a donation is needed.

The local Red Cross chapter is going to sponsor the drive this year. Workers will be at the hospital to take all applications and do blood typing on the spot.

Hospital manager Seigler requested that people come between the hours of 3 and 8 p.m. "Those who are working on the farms," he added, "or anyone else who can't come during the regular hours, can come anytime and we will take care of them, free of charge."

There is no charge for the blood typing. Blood donors who have already been typed, either here or elsewhere, can bring their cards to the hospital and no typing will be necessary, Seigler said. They will, however, be given new cards.

Airport Strip Damaged By Weather, Landings

Contractor Claims Not Accountable

Damage to Hereford's airport by adverse weather conditions, and partially by landing of airplanes, was reported to range between $10,000 and $15,000 at the regular meeting of the city commissioners Monday night, and a dispute arose between the commissioners and Odell Poteet of the Poteet Construction Co., builders of the airport, as to who is responsible to pay for the new work now required.

POTEET WAS INFORMED of runway and taxiway damage caused by snow by a letter written Feb. 6. After inspections Poteet met with the commissioners Monday evening to claim the most part of the damage was caused by airplanes landing on the field when the runway was wet, tearing into the oil-covered caliche.

The contractor told commissioners that, according to what he could find in the Civil Aeronautics Administration law book on specifications and contracts, he was released from accountability of the construction by a letter from the city consulting engineer Bill McMorries, of Amarillo, which was written Dec. 20.

THE LETTER, read by McMorries to the commissioners upon request, stated the percentages of work completion to that date, and that the contractor was to do no more work on the runway until May 1, as stated in the contract and directed by the CAA. The CAA regulations prohibit any construction surfacing of runways between Oct. 15 and May 1.

Work was halted after the caliche had been laid and rolled, and was coated with oil primer.

FIVE PORTIONS of the CAA book were quoted during the discussion.

Five-Year Moran Sentence Probated

Carmelo Santos (Shorty) Moran, 48, was sentenced to five years' adult probation Tuesday by 69th District Judge Harry Schultz. Moran had pleaded guilty to charges of fondling and indecent exposure.

A special hearing Tuesday also found Moran's children dependent and neglected. He is not to be allowed to see them without permission of County Welfare Officer Jewel Smith.

Moran entered his plea of guilty on Jan. 28 and sentence was made on recommendation of a court-appointed investigator. Moran, a Puerto Rican, was arrested and indicted on Jan. 2 by the grand jury. He had been in jail since that time in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Golf Course Land Dispute Discussed

Ownership of the eastern-most 35 feet of the Hereford golf course, between Austin Road and Tierra Blanca Creek, was again discussed by the city commissioners Monday night. A memo-graphed survey drawing and report of investigation in records books by county surveyor A. J.

Schroeter was introduced to the commissioners on the land claimed by R. P. Coneway.

THE PROPERTY in question is a track of land 70 feet wide that runs along the southeast side of the golf course, which at one time was dedicated as a street, Lee Ave. Coneway claims the east 35 feet of the property supposedly reverted to the original owner when he had the street closed by the county commissioners in 1948.

According to the statement on the form submitted by surveyor Schroeter Mar. 12, "Lee Avenue closed by order of Commissioners' Court on June 10, 1918, Volume 2, Page 477, Commissioners' Court Minutes, on application of C. S. Purcell, the then owner of the land E & W (east and west) of Lee Avenue."

Schroeter's drawing shows the center line of dedicated Lee Avenue cutting across a quarter of the number two tee-box and touching the east edge of number one green. Commissioners have previously stated movement of number one green would cost about $5,000 and $700 for the tee box.

Coneway and his son Paul appeared before the commissioners Mar. 3 to ask for a judgment on the matter. The pair are improving their property between the golf course and South Main to sell lots for a residential addition. One lot has already been sold and borders the golf course.

School Board Petitioned to Build in Northwest Hereford

Petitions bearing 480 signatures were presented to the Hereford Rural High School District Tuesday evening, requesting a new elementary school be constructed in the northwest part town.

"I DON'T THINK you could have a petition of any type here which would be met with any more acceptance than this one," Thomas told the board members. "We only had three to six in the northwest part of town refuse to sign," he continued, but discounted them as "just general opposers to anything."

Accompanying Thomas at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jones and Mrs. O. G. Hill Jr. The two ladies were given credit by Thomas as being the "hardest workers collecting the signatures."

Charged With DWI

Jose Garcia Arroyos, 24, is in county jail charged with driving while intoxicated, first offense. He was arrested Saturday night by city police. No bond has been set as yet.

69th District Court Has Busy Schedule

V. N. Redd, 50, of Lockney was found guilty of writing a worthless check by a 69th District Court jury Monday and was given a two-year suspended sentence and a suspended $500 fine. Redd was tried for writing a $372.66 worthless check to Pitman Grain Co. on May 20, 1957. On Tuesday C. R. Caperton, Lubbock contractor, pleaded guilty to writing worthless checks and was fined $100 and sentenced to two years' adult probation by District Judge Harry Schultz.

Harvel Watson, 45, of Hereford went to trial at 10 a.m. Wednesday on a charge of driving while (Continued On Page 2)

Cafe Theft is Reported Here

Burglars Tuesday night broke into the Keejo Cafe on W. Highway 60 and stole an adding machine. Witnesses at a near-by pool hall said they saw four men in a dark-colored car near the cafe.

Sheriff's deputy Bill McCarver said the men entered by raising a window and left by the back door. The cafe has been closed for some time, McCarver said.

Local USAR Unit Needs 10

Efforts are being made to reorganize a new U. S. Army Reserve unit in Hereford, according to Ernest Langley, a reserve major. Langley said 10 men are needed to form the unit. The organization would be headquarter company of an ordnance training battalion. Langley said there would be no attendance or summer camp requirements.

"Also there will be no pay. It will be strictly a method of getting retirement points," Langley said. He is to be commanding officer.

If the unit is formed, it will meet every Thursday night. Langley hopes to have it in operation within three weeks. Interested persons with prior active service have been asked to contact Langley.

Ticket Issued After Accident

Billy W. Emmons, 22, of Rt. 4 was given a ticket for failure to grant right-of-way after his car collided with one driven by Elmer V. Jones, 44, 708 S. Texas at the intersection of Plains and Centre at 7:04 a.m. Wednesday. Police estimated total damage at $100.

Schultz Announces Re-Election

Harry Schultz this week authorized the Brand to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of judge of the 69th Judicial District of Texas, subject to action by Democratic primary. Judge Schultz has been 69th District Judge since 1946. He is seeking his fourth four-year term. The District includes Deaf Smith, Ham, Moore, Sherman, Hartley and Oldham counties. Schultz is making his announcement, Schultz said, "I have greatly appreciated the opportunity of being you in this capacity, and hope that I have carried out my duty with such fairness and diligence as to show it. I earnestly ask your votes and support in coming primary election." The judge explains his policies in article on page one, section

Wrestlers Travel To Boys Ranch

The Hereford Athletic Club wrestling team will go to Boys Ranch Saturday afternoon for matches with the Ranchers. Coach Wayne Lawrence will take 11 boys on the trip.

Hereford grapplers who will compete Saturday are Dale Lindsey, 107 pounds; Dan Taylor, 115; Jimmie Bridges, 123; Bill Fitzgerald, 136; Jackie McNeese, 136; Jerry Brooks, 141; Monty Roe, 148; Leldon Womble, 148; and heavyweights Clifford Hill, Harvey Lindsey and Frank Day. The team entered an AAU meet at Amarillo last week but failed to win any titles in its first competition.

A FIRST IN COUNTY—For the first time, as far as inquiries have discovered, Sunday afternoon was the first time fertilizer has ever been sprayed by airplane, in Deaf Smith County. 200 acres of late wheat were sprayed with pellet form ammonium nitrate fertilizer on the Lyons Bros. farm, three miles east of the Ford school building. Two planes of the Val-Air Aerial

Service were used on the job. "We couldn't get in to do it with our machinery," said brothers Joe and Paul, "so we thought maybe this might be the answer. It's a little more expensive this way, but being able to get it done should offset the cost." (Staff Photo)

Cunningham joined Tom Robinson, Marcus Latham and Bert Boomer on the trip.

Most of the discussion on building centered around subjects of adding onto Stanton Junior High, building a new junior high on the school property in the northwest part of town, and whether a new building on the northwest property should house a combination of junior high and elementary students.

A blanket acceptance of all certified teachers recommended by administrators of each school was made by the board for the 1958-59 school year and all will be offered contracts.

SUPERINTENDENT CUNNINGHAM explained to the members that contracts could be offered only to the certified teachers this early in the year, and that those teaching with permits would have to wait until around August, at which time an application would have to be submitted to state on each of them, stating they were the best the board was able to hire under the circumstances.

Palo Duro Baptist Church, Cunningham reported, has asked to purchase two old rural school buildings located north of Dawn. It was, however, brought out that the district did not have the legal right to sell such property, according to a legal interpretation acquired in a similar instance about two years ago here.

Robinson, president of the board, asked that Cunningham write the state attorney general for another ruling on the matter.

Cunningham told the board a total of 1,921 visitors registered at the various local schools during Texas Public Schools Week, and added he believed the schools served about 2,500 visitors in all, counting those who failed to register.

The board was also told three new school buses are needed to be purchased for the next year. Bus superintendent Bob Wilson recommended to Cunningham that two should be 36-passenger and the third a 48. Two buses to be replaced were purchased in 1946. Cunningham told the board the agency estimated vehicle cost to be about the same as it has been during the past two years.

School secretary-treasurer Fred Baird reported budget spending was "not far off the budget schedule, if any. We're at the half-way mark as far as time goes — six months." Tax-collection looks pretty

The Central School P-TA organization meeting originally scheduled for Mar. 13, has been set for this afternoon, at 3:45 p.m., according to president Mrs. Travis Caraway.

Eugene "Squeaky" Roberson sings baritone for the nationally-known Barbershop quartet "Four Pesos," which will be headlined Saturday evening at the Civic Auditorium in Amarillo. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Roberson, 437 Ave. D. Roberson, a graduate of Hereford High, presently lives in El Paso.

Mrs. Dorothy Louise Barkley of Hereford was listed as a patient this week in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo.

More than 500 persons attended the 13th annual B&PW Club style show Monday night at the high school auditorium. Officials of the club said the show "was the most successful yet."

Deaf Smith County Parent-Teacher Assn. council will meet at 8 p.m. today in the high school library. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Chester Wiggin and Mrs. Glenn Ailred will conduct the program. An executive board meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Organizational meeting for the 1958 Pony League baseball season will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Friendship Room of the Hereford State Bank. New officers will be elected.

The two chapters of Future Homemakers of America at Hereford High School will observe National F.H.A. Week beginning Sunday. A variety of activities has been planned for the week.

Hereford Classroom Teachers Assn. is scheduled to meet at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Shirley School. Mrs. Mary Alexander, state president of Classroom Teachers Assn., will be the speaker. A reception honoring Mrs. Alexander will follow the meeting.

Hereford church attendance shows up even better than recently reported, due to discovery of an error in the First Baptist Church report which correctly reads: 1,046 resident members with average attendance of 594 (Sunday School). This brings the overall membership of the nine churches to 4,271 members with an average attendance of 3,308.

good," he continued, "about $30,000 are still out, but we usually have about $16,000 out anyway, so I don't look for much more tax money. We have two bills which will just about exhaust teaching supply finance for the year, but not much more will be needed."

City attorney Earnest Langley told the commissioners he had not made a "conclusive conclusion" on the matter, and the subject was tabled for further study.

The commissioners opened bids on five different subjects, a water well pump, four-wheel loader, swimming pool heater, storage tank and sale of two city trucks. Action was taken on all but the loader bids.

Three bids are being considered for a four-wheel rubber tire loader but are awaiting recommendations of engineer Bill McMorries, who is studying their specifications. Plains Machinery Co. is the lowest bid at $8,500, Texas Machinery Co. follows with $9,400 and Caprock Machinery Co. bid $9,440. All require trade-in of an old city loader.

Morrison Supply Co. of Amarillo was the lowest bidder on the swimming pool water heater, $1,437.78. Lewis Dodson Engineering Co., also of Amarillo, bid $1,875. Morrison's bid was accepted by the commission.

Big T Pump Company's bid of $1,332.83 was accepted by the commission to replace the old pump at the well south of the railroad tracks by the water tower. The bidding included furnishing new bowls which were originally installed in 1939, adding 20 feet of 10-inch column and adding 20 more feet of shafting.

WILBURN BROTHERS of Amarillo bid the lowest on a 2,000-gallon horizontal pressure storage tank to be installed by the well at the airport. Wilburn bid $754, while Clowe and Cowan bid $794. On the two used trucks the city had advertised for bids to sell, Gilbert Hooper's bid of $277.80 for a 1953 "stripped" Ford truck was accepted. Another person bid on both the Ford and a 1953 Reo, but the bid on the latter was not acceptable to the commissioners who said they preferred to keep it until market improved.

Bids will be opened Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. for construction of an additional wing of the city fire marshall's apartment, Bayne said.

A motion was passed by the commissioners to condemn property in the 300 block on Blevins for public use as a road. The city has maintained a thoroughfare from the 200 block to the 400 block, according to Bayne, although it has never actually been officially dedicated as a street.

E. B. Miles, 300 Blevins, reported refuses to sign dedication papers for the land with the city, forcing condemnation of the land for a road. Several residents, a required amount, along the "road" have signed a petition asking that it be opened officially.

The commissioners voted to canvass April 1 voting ballots in the evening following poll closing at 7 p.m. Included in the voting will be election of two city commissioners and a $100,000 street improvement bond issue.

Only one place on the commission has been contested. Incumbent Troy Moore will be running against Dr. H. A. Cavness for place three, and incumbent Dr. R. E. Wills is unopposed.

Manager Bayne told the commissioners he had told Southwestern Public Service Company officials to begin installation of new 2,000 aluminum lights along Park Ave. to replace the "inferior lights" presently lining the street.

Alteration of the original proposed lighting plan submitted by the company's engineers were made after refusal by the commission, with 18 lights being eliminated. One new light will be installed at each intersection, except in long blocks such as along the city park area.

Pottee told the commissioners "...90 per cent of the taxiway is all right, I believe. About 90 per cent of the runway (about 40,000 square yards) will have to be re-tilted, and there is about $3,200 worth of oil already down. Re-doing will cost between $10,000 to $15,000, and about $2,000 of that will just be for oil." When asked if he were covered by insurance, Pottee said he didn't know, but he would check and come back either the latter of this week or the first of next. "I don't want to hurt no Pottee announced, "but I want to get hart myself bad." The commissioners table subject until a special meeting day evening, when Dudley city manager, will return to trip to Dallas and has com the CAA office there while, er business in the city,

ONCE IN A THOUSAND—A goat owned by B. N. Gamez, right, three miles northeast of Hereford, gave birth to quadruplets Monday afternoon about 2 p.m. Both mother and kids are doing fine. Two of the youngsters are a copper-brown color and the other pair is black and white spot. Shown holding the newly-born quartet with Gamez is county agent Lefty Thomas, who said such an occurrence is more than a thousand-to-one shot. (Staff Photo)

Thinlads Entered In Three-Way Meet

A 24-man Hereford High School track squad will compete in a three-team meet with Friona and Muleshoe at Friona this afternoon. The meet will be Hereford's first competition of the season. Coach Joe Silveril said he is taking his entire squad "to see what we've got." The meet begins at 3 p.m. Saturday the Hereford team will go to Dalhart to compete in the annual XIT Relays. About 20 area high schools are expected to enter the Dalhart meet. Preliminaries will be held Saturday morning and the finals Saturday afternoon.

Miss Felizia Shows Slides At Meeting

Silvana Felizia, exchange student from Italy, showed slides and gave interesting descriptions of places and things in Italy in a program presented at a meeting of the Antiochian Circle of the Catholic Church Friday evening. Miss Felizia also told of amusing and unusual experiences encountered by a group of exchange students on their arrival in the United States. Following the program Mrs. Elmer Reinart, president, conducted a short business session when reports from the Parish Council Board meeting were heard. Miss Felizia was presented with a gift of appreciation for presenting her program and refreshments were served to Mesdames George Paetzold, Larry Gargany, Bill Paetzold, Jerome Friemel, Bob Morgan, Alvin Anderle, Clarence Betzen, Edward Dzulik Jr., Ted Higgins, Johnny Jeko, Wern Koelzer, Mark Koenig, Walter Paetzold, Leander Reinart, Elmer Reinart, Raymond Schlabs, Herman Schumacher, J. # the CHEVROLET STORY

MARCH 1911/1958 MARCH

the Classic Six, The First Chevy

CHEVROLET "Four-Ninety" Touring Car meets completely the national need for dependable and economical transportation.

The first cost is low. The upkeep is never a burden.

Electrically started. Electrically lighted. Demountable rims. Completely equipped.

This Chevrolet newspaper advertisement is believed to be the first ad published for Chevrolet.

Here is a description of the 1913 engine taken from advertising of that year:

"Gasoline is introduced directly into the cylinder head and exploded there. The full force of the explosion comes into direct contact with the piston head. For this reason Chevrolet power is maximum with minimum fuel."

Argonne Laboratory Worker Succeeds Despite Blindness

SUCCESS AGAINST ODDS: Dr. Bradley Burson, although nearly blind, heads a research team at Argonne National Laboratory. He is operating the device, he rigged to measure the decay rate of radio isotopes.

CHICAGO (AP) — The immediate world of Dr. Bradley Burson is a vast, gray blur peopled with vague shapes and shadows. He lives on the threshold of blindness.

But it is the physicist's world beyond this opaque haze that really matters to him. Stepping into it at the Argonne National Laboratory, things leap into focus, the fuzziness disappears, and even the abstract takes shape.

There, in a wing of the Physics Building, he heads a small group of researchers peering into the mysteries of radioactive decay, "Nuclear spectroscopy," they call it.

What they want to know is how stable isotopes — or forms of elements — react when bombarded with beta and gamma rays. What new radioactive elements are produced?

The answers have no immediate practical application, he admits. Their business is simply "to make knowledge."

Virtually blind for 25 years, Dr. Burson, a robust, restless man of 40, views both of his worlds matter-of-factly. Convinced he is unremarkable, he suggests that any opinion to the contrary stems from "the blind prejudice against blindness."

The physicist's condition results from a boyhood accident with a gun. A bullet entered his left temple, severing his optical nerve and producing what doctors called "disrupting coriditis"; he could discern objects only as blurry shapes; with difficulty, he could read large-size type.

"From the standpoint of doing things, I might as well be totally blind," he says.

The logical thing was to learn Braille, and this he soon accomplished. But his real concern was how to provide for his future security.

He first thought of teaching, and with this in mind he enrolled in Stamford University in Palo Alto, Calif., as a physics student. But he learned that California law prevented a blind person from teaching school, so he transferred to the University of Illinois, switched courses and won a law degree in 1942.

He never practiced law. Within two years he was back at Illinois working on his master's and doctor's physics, and it paid off with the job at Argonne.

Because the job involved knowing what went on in the lab as well as what theories lay behind it, he set about developing instruments he could handle unaided.

By increasing the sensitivity of one measuring device, and using two photoelectric cells to translate these measurements into light impulses strong enough to convey an impression to him, he found he could handle the device as well as anyone.

He also developed an indicator that would register the desired data by means of an interruption in tone signals — this to substitute for the ordinary visual calibrations.

Nowadays, when not at the lab, he is busy designing a new home for his family — a wife and three children — and with his role as board member-at-large of the National Federation of the Blind.

He calls the federation "the national organization representative of the blind" because it sits solely of blind members' officers. In this capacity, he has a committee which is studying what factors are involved in employability of blind persons.

"What the employer does understand, and what the person often fails to understand, is that the great majority of physical things, if properly delegated, aren't a problem, a man run a drill press or he? The only way to find out 'let him do it.'"

The interview at an end, Burson rose briskly and trotted down the bleak corridor to where he paused at the door. "You know, that 'blind piece' works both ways," he said with a grin. "People think either as that guy staggering the street carrying a cane or cordion — or as a mysterious genius who does weird and wonderful things."

New Hi-Fi Recordings Feature Spanish Music

AP Newsfeatures

It took a Frenchman to teach a Spaniard something about Spanish music.

From Claude Debussy, who has never lived in Spain, the great Spanish composer Manuel de Falla learned that a composer's job is not to capture and imitate the folk music of his country but to interpret it and embellish it with his own moods and feelings until something entirely new results.

Debussy had sown the way with "Iberia," one of his orchestral "Images," and in several piano preludes based upon Spanish themes.

Falla, steeped in the folk lore of his native land, outdid the master with his magnificent "Nights in the Gardens of Spain," a three-part series of symphonic impressions for piano and orchestra that have become a concert-hall favorite.

By turning away from his previous rigid adherence to folk melodies, Falla managed to capture the very soul of his country: the wild, exotic dances, the dreamy patios, the lingering phantoms of the Moorish past, the passionate influence of the Gypsies; the sensuous, throbbing Andalusian rhythms.

In a new recording especially engineered for hi-fi fans, for whom Spanish music has become a must, Altaufo Argenta conducts the National Orchestra of Spain in a moving, memorable rendition of Falla's masterpiece (London). On the other side of this long playing record is Rodrigo's "Guitar Concerto," featuring soloist Narciso Yepes. Both works were previously recorded by London with the same artists several years ago and have become best sellers throughout the world. The new recordings, made last May, should do even better.

Enrique Granados y Campina, who like Falla deserted a career as a concert pianist to win renown as a composer of Spanish music, is accorded a worthy hi-fi revival on a new Epic release, "Granados" featuring Spanish pianist Eduardo del Puerto.

In "Ducts With the Spanish Guitar," a first class Capitol album, guitarist Laurindo Almeida is joined alternately by a soprano and a flutist for a series of exciting Spanish folk tunes. The album features superb sound and delightful music.

The Roger Wagner Chorale makes the most of Spanish airs on this side of the world in "Songs of Latin America," another tuneful, memorable Capitol album of this

Community Progress Meeting Is Scheduled

By MRS. CARL WIMBERLEY

The community Night meeting will be held Friday at 7:30 p.m. at the Dawn school. A special program concerning the Community Rural Progress organization has been arranged by Mrs. Reece Stewart, program chairman.

Special guests will be Mrs. Argen Draper, home demonstration agent, and a resident of the Black Community. A film will be shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Sisco and children have moved into the Dawn community from Hereford. They are former Dawn residents. They were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Zed Stewart Sunday.

Revival services at the Dawn Church will begin Sunday, March 23, and end March 30. Weekday evening services will begin at 7:30 p.m.

E. A. Oberst of Canyon visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wimberley Sunday. Harry Axtell who has been here on business for the past several weeks, returned to his home in Durango, Colo.

The Sunbeams continued their mission study class Tuesday afternoon at the church. Sixteen members were present. Gilbert Estrada, Linda Stewart and Billy Neal were absent because of illness.

Mrs. Love of Wichita Falls was a recent visitor in the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tucek.

Among those who attended the P-TA meeting at High School in Hereford Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Genry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Beavers and Waltine and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberley.

Mrs. Bill McCabe of Borger is here visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. McCabe. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carthel at Black Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Payne and family of Hereford visited in the Zed Stewart home Sunday afternoon.

The home demonstration club will meet Friday with Mrs. Marion Russell.

Finis Wright of Amarillo called in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul McClung Monday.

A birthday party was given for Linda Stewart Sunday afternoon at her home. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oglesby and children of Canyon, Mrs. Zed Stewart and Mrs. J. B. Caraway and family and Mrs. Reece Stewart and daughter.

Mrs. Love of Wichita Falls was a recent visitor in the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tucek.

Among those who attended the P-TA meeting at High School in Hereford Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Genry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Beavers and Waltine and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberley.

H.D. Choral Club Holds Meeting

Mrs. John Jacobsen Sr. was hostess for the H. D. Choral Club when they met in her home Monday afternoon.

Present for this meeting were Mesdames R. L. Wilson, Taft McGee, Paul Hoff, W. A. Waters, Carlos Vaughn, Roy Manning, Bob Manning, Cliff Estes, John Jacobsen Jr. and the hostess, Mrs. Weis Bradley was a visitor.

The next meeting will be held in the basement of the Methodist Church on April 7.

LOCAL SUPERSTITION

ALLIANCE, Ohio — A local belief is that if President William McKinley had not given a scarlet carnation from his lapel to an assassin, he might have escaped an assassin's bullet moments later.

Tradition says McKinley considered the scarlet carnation to be his "good luck flower" after Dr. Levi Lamborn, Alliance politician and flower grower, began giving him one to wear each time the two debated in their 1876 race for Congress.

In 1904, a resolution introduced by Dr. Lamborn was adopted and the scarlet carnation became Ohio's state flower.

EGG FACTS

CHICAGO — Lent season spotlights the egg, and the National Egg Foundation says that during the season Americans will make a tremendous dent in the estimated 60 billion eggs that chickens lay this year in the United States.

In some cities white eggs cost more than brown eggs, but in Boston, where brown eggs are preferred, the situation is reversed.

All told, the 423 million hens last year earned a total of 2½ billion dollars for their five million owners. They outproduced the hens of any other nation, with two out of every five eggs laid in the world labeled "made in America."

7th Annual Northwest Texas Methodist WSCS Meet Underway

By MILDRED YOUNG

OPENING SESSION of the Northwest Texas Methodist Women's Society of Christ-Service annual meeting at the Methodist church here Tuesday afternoon featured the message of the organization's president, E. T. Pittard of Anson. Her topic was "Our Dreams — Written On Our Hearts."

Mrs. Pittard, who was recently elected the outstanding woman of the town, told the delegates and members of the 17th annual meeting that "From the beginning until now — whether by direct contact, vision or dreams — God bids us look above our humdrum activities to discover His purposes for our lives, the meaning of every effort, the strength for our dreams, no vision, we perish."

"We know that all great things have been and are dreamed, dreamed, poets, statesmen, artists, teachers and preachers have helped make a better world than we have known."

"We must remember that the world of the ideal and the real are one. When we cease to dream, we cease to improve our world. The dream may awaken us, the vision may lead us to leap with inspiration, but the test comes in service we render for the good of mankind. Our dreams urge us to seek something higher and better, they strengthen us and our work and help us attain unexpected successes."

TURNING TO a discussion of the work of Methodist women around the world, Mrs. Pittard declared, "We have a great aim. It is ever the same — that men shall see Christ as their Divine Savior."

We are a world-wide organization and, not only our actions, even our statements go all over the world.

Knowing there are women in other countries who share our aim and do all they can to bring about their realization, strengthens the magnitude and nature of our work.

Committees named to serve the conference include: time keepers, Mrs. Roy LeMond, Post; Mrs. M. G. Tarver, Memphis; Mrs. C. H. Beck, Perryton; Mrs. W. H. Pitman, Haskell; Mrs. H. S. Little, Hale Center; Mrs. A. A. Hackley, Hamilton; Mrs. C. O. Bragg, Anson; secretarial assistants, Mrs. J. P. Elms, Lubbock; Mrs. Clifford Beck, Perryton; courtesies, Mrs. Luther Kirk, Plainview; Mrs. H. H. Stephens, Big Spring; Mrs. Robert Wiseman, Dumas; and resolutions, Mrs. W. J. Bryant, Stamford; Mrs. B. Brandon, Lubbock; and Mrs. Walter Morrow, Abilene.

Delegates voted to pay one-half of the expenses for a youth delegate to the Woman's Division of Christian Service (national) Assembly to be held in St. Louis, Mo., in May. They also voted to send the conference vice president as the official representative and the secretary of promotion as the alternate delegate.

They named the conference director of youth work to the executive committee of the conference WSCS, named Mrs. E. E. White chairman of the nominating committee, and elected Mrs. Sam Seay, dean, Mrs. T. W. Swearingen, treasurer, and Mrs. Henry Cusick, registrar, of the Negro Leadership school held each year in Amarillo under conference sponsorship.

Featured speaker for the sessions is Mrs. E. U. Robinson of Gallatin, Tenn., chairman of spiritual life for the Woman's Division of Christian Service.

Mrs. Robinson spoke Tuesday night on "Our Lives Are Prayers." She stated that "Man's life is perpetuated only by losing it in another" and discussed daily life as a Christian, a Christian citizen, and a Christian world citizen. "The Christian," stated Mrs. Robinson, "takes his convictions and his commitments into his daily life to meet the frontiers of fear; race discrimination, hatred and jealousy." She emphasized the importance of following the scriptural suggestion "to do justly, to love mercy and to work humbly with God."

Mrs. Robinson said that unless the church lives as a mission in the world, it will cease to live. "You and I," she added, "are going to have to see ourselves in a new context and, that is difficult. We have nothing that is unique to offer other nations except the gospel of Jesus Christ. Our task is to do away with our present expressions of religion and let Jesus Christ have His way. Perhaps, the best thing we can do is to be islands of healing in this world in which we live. As we live, we live our conception of our Lord, Jesus Christ."

Mrs. Robinson devoted a major portion of her address Wednesday morning to the world mission of the church. Her subject was "Our Aims — Written within The Spirit of God." She stated that the call to missions was four-fold: (1) to the most talented and highly trained youth; (2) for the most sacrificial stewardship; (3) for the most earnest prayers; and (4) for the most ready cooperation with other denominations.

Mrs. Robinson stated that the local woman is the important woman in this whole world-wide organization of Methodist women around the world.

Leading the Wednesday morning meditation was Mary Lou Sattellan, a missionary to Mexico. She emphasized that "Before we can have our lives attuned to God, we must come to Him and have our souls unveiled by Him." She said that the first call is the come and the second is to go.

"Perhaps," said Miss Sattellan, "there are things that we do not understand, but we know that behind everything God has a purpose. We need to witness to what God has meant in our lives."

TELEPHONE TALK

by W. L. Leavy, Manager

TAX CHANGES

I've been reading a lot about Congress considering changes in various taxes to soften the recession. There is one tax that seems about due for some consideration.

I'm thinking of the excise or "luxury" tax that our customers have to pay on local and long distance telephone service. There are several reasons why this tax seems to me to be due for attention now:

There is no such tax on any other utility.

The tax was basically a war time measure to discourage the use of telephone service by civilians.

Discontinuance of the tax now would mean savings to some 2,500 Hereford families each month. It would thereby increase their purchasing power.

If you have an occasion to communicate with your representative, the matter might be worth some discussion.

NEED PRIVACY?

Have you ever wished you could have a little more privacy on some of your telephone calls? Well, there's an easy way to solve your problem. Put an extension phone in your bedroom or kitchen.

You'll have privacy on your calls and you'll find extension phones are convenient, too. No more running from one end of the house to the other to answer the phone, only to find the caller hangs up. You'll be surprised at the number of steps conveniently located phones can save you in a day.

And an added touch for the housewife with good tastes... a phone in color. We now have phones in nine bright colors plus black to blend or contrast with any colors in your home.

Extension phones are low cost, too. Here in Hereford an extension costs you only $1.00 a month plus a small, onetime installation charge. Just call the business office and pick your extension-telephone in color today.

ONE-THIRD OFF!

No, we're not having a sale "for a limited time only." It's an everyday offer to save you one-third of the cost when you call Long Distance station-to-station.

Long Distance charges for station-to-station calls are about one-third lower than for person-to-person service.

Here's a sample: A person-to-person call from Hereford to Lubbock costs 95c. It's only 55c when call station-to-station. You save 40c. It's like getting one call FREE for every two you pay for. So, why not plan now to make all your Long Distance calls station-to-station? You can dial most of them yourself.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Police Study Fingerprints In Class Here

THE FIRST fingerprint identification and classification school ever held in Hereford is going on this week at City Hall and it is being attended by all members of the city police department, two sheriff's deputies and four officials from Friona.

Instructing the class are Chief Henry Aycock and Capt. Morris Brown. Classes began Monday and will end Friday and are held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. each day.

The course includes basic fingerprint identification and classification, methods of taking prints and filing by the classification record system.

"Good criminal investigation demands a knowledge of fingerprinting," says Chief Aycock.

HE CITED the following example of the necessity of knowing fingerprinting:

"Say a man is wanted in another state on a felony charge. The FBI is notified and sent a copy of the man's prints. Texas is then notified and distributes copies to all agencies, including Hereford, in the state. The card is filed here by the type of fingerprints the man has.

"Then suppose the wanted man is picked up here on a routine drunk and photograph every person we arrest and then check our files. We also send copies to Austin and the FBI. By being able to identify prints by their classification we can identify the man even if he's changed his name or his face.

"Court accept that if two sets of fingerprints are exactly alike, the identification is positive. There are no two sets alike. Then we have the man for New York and they come get him. We get the same service on men we want."

CAPT. BROWN is a graduate of the San Antonio Police Academy and has worked on identification and fingerprinting for the Amarillo Police Dept. Aycock studied fingerprinting while he was at Amarillo.

Hereford police men attending the school are Sgt. Leon Atchley, Patrolmen Dale Wanderscheid, Rex Cowart, Jim Gillespie and Gene Taylor. Sheriff's deputies Bill McCarver and L. R. Cherryhomes are also enrolled as are the city secretary, city clerk, one patrolman and the secretary's teen-age son from Friona. Aycock did not have the Friona people's names.

This is the third police school to be held in Hereford since Aycock became chief in January, 1957. He has had two basic law enforcement schools in addition to the fingerprint course. Wanderscheid also has attended a criminal investigation school in Austin and Cowart is scheduled to attend a school on the handling of juveniles and juvenile delinquents. The school will be held in Lubbock later this month.

Camp Fire Girls Entertain Rotary Meeting Monday

Members of the Weetona Camp Fire Girls group entertained the Hereford Rotary Club at its weekly meeting in the Hotel Jim Hill Monday. This is National Camp Fire Girl Week.

The girls, directed by Mrs. Pete Guinn and Mrs. Don Martin, gave a program telling of the aims and purposes of Camp Fire work. They then sold Camp Fire candy to Rotarians.

In other business, the Rotary Club voted to accept 10 of 11 points of a program proposed by president-elect Francis Hardwick.

The club adopted the following program for 1958-59:

1. Campaign to get every dog in the county vaccinated for rabies;
2. Sponsor Fun Night on Halloween for children;
3. Organize the Rotary Anns as a women's auxiliary to the club;
4. Hold a social function every three months for Rotarians and Rotary Anns;
5. To work for the 1958 District Conference;
6. To charter a bus for all members to attend the governor's banquet;
7. Work for 200 per cent membership in the Rotary Foundation;
8. A four-way test program to carry Rotary beliefs into all businesses;
9. A small fine program with the money going to buy a CARE package each month;
10. Form an intra-city club council to prevent overlapping of club projects and work on combined projects.

Midland High Has No Science Woes

MIDLAND (AP)—Out here in this West Texas city where oil is king, students needn't be urged to study science. It's part of their daily lives. And their appetites for such subjects are whetted by the talk they hear around home from their fathers, perhaps a big brother and neighbors.

To give you an idea:

More students are signing up for science courses each year. In three years the increase has been 29 per cent in public schools.

Midland High School included eight new science rooms, some large science store rooms, new furnishings and a greenhouse in its 1957 expansion plans.

School authorities say science equipment in Midland High School ranks with the best schools and with many colleges.

THE SCHOOL system introduced informal science periods four years ago in elementary schools. Teachers now wish the students were as enthusiastic about other subjects as they are about science. "Ours is not a crash program," says high school Principal E. F. Bittick. "We've been emphasizing science the past three years in terms of staff and budget." Local scientists and other oil company employees respond eagerly, say school officials, when asked to talk or demonstrate on some science subject.

Rejected was a plan to sell chances on a new car to raise money for the 1959 Junior Livestock Show which the club sponsors.

Students pick up a great deal of geology and other scientific matters anyway in talk overheard between adults who are concerned with the oil industry.

ELI FELDMAN, science department chairman, is credited with building up the high school science courses.

In the three years before he arrived, for instance, appropriations for the chemistry class came to $25 worth of equipment. Department appropriations now are more than $5,000 a year, including supplies.

The new spirit also has attracted outstanding teachers. One of them, Henry W. Hooper, had more than 20 years experience in science teaching in Oklahoma. Another, Dr. Brush Elkin, worked at Los Alamos on atomic projects almost 10 years.

DELAYED PAYMENT
NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—University of Oklahoma students have borrowed more than a half million dollars from loan funds at the school and 98 per cent of the borrowers paid promptly.

But Emil Kraettli, the funds' administrator, said that there was one loan that took a little longer to get repaid.

"One former student paid in full from Africa — after a lapse of 30 years," he reported.

Unique Baby Shower Held

MRS. R. L. PINNELL

Rosa and Curtis Gullede of Dumas were guests of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Voyles, last Sunday.

Several from the local Church of Christ congregation joined in a singing Sunday afternoon with the Wildorado Church of Christ. Attending from here were Messers and Mesdames Ralph Perry, Jake Fortenberry, Oscar Bronniman, M. W. Blankenship and Mrs. T. N. Monk and Melba.

Sunday afternoon the Earl Brown family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brothers north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harris and son left Saturday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shuyler, at Woodward. They also visited her grandmother who has just returned from an Oklahoma City hospital.

Weekend visitors of the Jack Fincher family were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Amason and girls of Dumas. He is the son of Mrs. Fincher.

The Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Parks and children of Vega visited the Rev. and Mrs. Bill Lewis Sunday afternoon.

The local 4-H girls were honored at the morning service of the Baptist Church Sunday morning. It concluded a week honoring the national organization of 4-H clubs. The sponsors, Mrs. Clint Homfeld and Mrs. John Horton, sat with the girls. Four of the girls passed the collection plate at the service.

Coach Cullender was ill and away from school Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Irene Brown substituted in his place.

Mrs. Billy Brown visited her brother, Jerry Biddle, in an Amarillo hospital Sunday afternoon.

Gene Shelton was a dinner guest of the Joe Cullender family Saturday afternoon. Gene is now attending Amarillo College. He lived with the Cullender family last year.

Mrs. Nannie Fortenberry returned home Monday from a three week visit with her mother, Mrs. Etta Massengale, at Lockney.

The Oscar Bronniman family received news that their daughter, Lyla Fagan, is expected home from Germany any day now. Her trunks have already left there. She is reported to be improving satisfactorily but is not yet able to do her house work.

"If you want to make a payment, mail it to Lamm Jewelry, 307 Main."

Meanwhile, we have a few days of pretty weather coming up, and I am sure they will be appreciated. This is especially true of the spud farmers. The higher the prices go, the more these boys squirm - and who could blame them. However, it is still too early to think about rummage sales. Hold onto those overcoats. You'll need them again before April has come and gone. Besides, the gals will be trading them in on milk after the 1958 wheat harvest. This is going to be a banner year. Even Jay Boston will admit it before 1959 rolls around.

Francis Hardwick did an about face this week and started advertising for people to watch TV. This is the truth. If you don't believe it, turn to the back page and look at his theatre ad. He figures: "If you can't whip 'em, join 'em."

There is also considerable talk about the proposed Main Street Showcase, slated from 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday. The project includes enterprise, showmanship and modern merchandising. The fact that Hereford merchants are doing something, while other towns are still talking is a tribute to the community. It is also one of the reasons Hereford is growing, while many other areas are dropping population.

Which calls to mind the proposed $100,000 bond issue on which city voters will express themselves April 1. There has been very little talk about the proposal, which is also allied closely with the future of the community. Included in the plan is $48,000 for installation of adequate storm drainage on U. S. Highway 60 and, upon this measure, depends the spending of $250,000 to $300,000 by the Texas Highway Department to widen Highway 60 into a 4-lane road with islands on a plan similar to the same road through Friona. This will give Hereford two excellent, well improved highways through town, pending completion of Highway 51.

BOB LAMM closed the door to his jewelry shop last week and hung up the following self-explanatory sign, printed on a piece of wrapping paper:

"Business is slow. Gone to California!
"If you need parking meter money, see Helen next door;
"For information, see Dubs. He knows;
"For emergency watch repairs, see Cowan or Kester. (But it might pay you to wait until we return);
"For optometry, see Dr. Adams in his new building;

I hear that directors of the Lions Club voted this week to pass up a bid for the district convention in April, 1959, chiefly on grounds of inadequate housing to handle the influx of visitors. Hotels and mo-

New Residents Move to Area

By MRS. S. M. THWEATT

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. James are new residents in this community. Mr. and Mrs. R. Williams are also new residents of the community. Mrs. Williams is working the Friona Bank and Williams is in charge of the Friona Gin. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Coleman and children, Gary and Cinda, visited Mr. and Mrs. Tim Brooks of Morton Saturday. They also visited Jimmie Busby, a nephew of Mrs. Coleman. They returned home by way of Lubbock where they visited with other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt made a trip to Monahan to visit Mrs. Thweatt's brother, F. C. Hagan, last week. Miss Mattie Sue Hagan and Carl Hagan of Levelland went with the Thweatt famils, they feel, cannot begin to accommodate 250 delegates and take care of their regular run. When you stop to think of expansion along this line since 1946, however, there is probably no other local field which can compare with the increase in hotel and motel facilities. If the Shrine hospital materializes, our present facilities will not be a drop in the bucket.

Wednesday a lady called Dr. Roy Grubbs and inquired: "Are you the baby specialist?"

Doc momentarily reflected on the eight baby kittens he had delivered the night before after arriving home at 7 p.m., recalled his three sons and one daughter, plus the fact that his wife is expecting in May and, without hesitation, replied, "Yes, ma'am, I guess I am."

ily. The Thweatt family visited several points of interest while they were away.

Mrs. J. E. Rouse and the Elmer Northcutt family were in Amarillo Thursday of last week. The community has gotten a lot of good moisture from the recent snows and rain. The late wheat and barley are coming up and the old wheat is growing so fast that some of the ranchers are losing cattle from wheat poisoning.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown of Rhea community were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Coleman Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown were hosts to the Young People Sunday School Class Friday night with a party in their home. There were 14 members present.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt attended the "42" tournament at Westway Friday night. Walcott will have a P-TA meeting Friday night with the seventh and eighth grades giving the program. Everyone is invited to attend and give the school their support.

Mrs. N. A. Brown and Mrs. Billy Brown attended the sewing meeting in Hereford Tuesday. Mrs. Floyd Brown will go to the school and bring the course to the other members of the Messenger H. D. Club.

Mrs. Jack Buse is showing improvement from her accident. She has been able to attend some of the club meetings.

Mrs. C. W. King and daughter of Rosedale, N. M., had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brown Sunday afternoon. They visited O. B. Roberson in the Hereford Hospital. He is reported to be in serious condition and is not allowed to have very much company.

The board supervising Stanley Park in Vancouver, Canada, refused a gift of an elephant on the grounds that it would be "too cumbersome and troublesome."

HEREFORD IMPLEMENT COMPANY
March 20, 1958

Area Potato Growers,
Hereford, Texas

Gentlemen:

We are the distributor for Olson Roto-Beaters in this area.

As far as present extensive surveys have revealed, it is the sturdiest vine beater available today. With the contour flail equipment we have specified for local usage, we feel it is the smoothest running vine beater available and that it will give you the cheapest vine beating costs per acre.

A dependable, extra sturdy Olson vine beater will make it possible for you to clean the vines and weeds off of your potato rows in a hurry and expedite your potato harvest when you are ready to go.

An Olson Roto-Beater, with its trouble free operation, extra sturdy construction and row contoured steel flails will give you a cleaner harvest at a lower maintenance cost and will do your job under the most adverse conditions without requiring a lot of welding and chain trimming to keep it in the field.

Accept this as your cordial invitation to come into our display room where we have an Olson Roto-Beater to show you.

Incidentally, we will have, in Hereford, an adequate parts stock to keep your Olson Roto-Beater operating.

STAR THEATER

Stopover Tokyo The general reference of the unusual title is to the work of American agents whose lives are dedicated to protecting America. Today they may be on assignment in Europe, next week they may stopover in Japan and shortly after, be hard at work in North Africa. A more literal interpretation of the title occurs in the film when Robert Wagner, an American agent, supposedly, travelling to Korea, is required to stopover in Tokyo because he has lost his letter of entry into Korea. This, however, is all part of a well-calculated plan to get information on a gang of international spies, headed by Edmond O'Brien, who plan to assassinate the American High Commissioner in Tokyo. Joan Collins, as an airline employee, aids Wagner in his efforts to stop the attempted killing. Booked for Friday and Saturday.

Coming Attractions: Unknown Terror, John Howard, May Wynn and Mala Power; Devils Island, Helmut Dantine and Donna Martell; Copper Sky, Jeff Morrow and Coleen Gray.

congressman suggested an amendment to the effect that the money could also be used for loan purposes in distressed areas in this country. The proponents of the bill to increase the lending power of the Export-Import Bank vigorously opposed this amendment although they never could come up with any reason why distressed areas in this country should be discriminated against in favor of distressed areas in foreign countries. Of course, the highway program is a part of this over-all program but it will be several years before any anti-recession impact could be felt from expenditures made under the regular highway program.

The fact is that our present economic dilemma has been building up for several years. Warnings to this effect have gone unheeded by those who were in position to have guarded against it. We can thank our lucky stars that these powers have now awakened to the facts that should have been well known to them several years ago. We can hope and pray that proper action is taken to correct the situation promptly. We have the right to expect that inadvisable, inappropriate and impractical action will not be taken that could result in temporary relief and permanent detriment.

THE WHITE HOUSE TEA

Mrs. Rogers came home the other evening with a glowing account of how beautiful the White House was decorated inside and how lovely Mrs. Eisenhower looked. It seems that Mrs. Eisenhower interrupted her vacation to come back to Washington in order to entertain at a tea that had been scheduled for some time. The White House was decorated in appropriate Irish fashion. Mrs. Eisenhower, in keeping with the decorations, was attired in a green dress and received the guests in the Green Room. From the accounts that I heard, it was a lovely and impressive tea.

JUVENILE IMMUNITY CITED

A proposal to allow criminal court trials of teen-agers who commit serious crimes may come before the next Legislature.

Dr. James A. Turman, director of the Texas Youth Council, suggested a study in this area at the joint Austin meetings of the Attorney General's Law Enforcement Conference and Texas Law Enforcement Foundation.

Turman said he felt that in some cases "chronic and serious" juvenile offenders were being over-protected by the law at the expense of society. Under present law boys under 17 and girls under 18 cannot be tried in criminal court. One "serious offender," related Turman, told officers, "You can't touch me. I'm a juvenile."

Not so in Canada, said a visiting speaker from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Canada has no minimum age for sending offenders to the penitentiary, reported the Mountie, and "we are not troubled by many murders and rapes by youngsters."

HEALTH DRIVE ON

Governor Daniel has joined a young father from Baird, Texas, Eob Stanley, in urging Texans to participate in the fight against nephrosis and other critical kidney diseases which claim thousands of lives each year.

Stanley, who has lost two children, to nephrosis, visited Daniel recently and won his support in the campaign to organize additional chapters of the National Nephrosis Foundation in Texas. The Foundation now has chapters in El Paso and San Antonio, but victims of nephrosis, nephritis and allied kidney diseases are found in all parts of the state.

Governor Daniel designated March as Nephrosis Month and urged Texans to give financial support to research studies to determine the causes and seek cures for diseases of the kidney.

He was on his way to New York where he goes to negotiate the sale of state bonds. After concluding his mission he will visit in Hereford on his returning trip.

Last Friday evening at the High School auditorium the members of the Junior class entertained in a pleasant way the Seniors. The hall was decorated with pennants and the class colors, white and gold. The reception committee: Misses Louise Oberthier and Mary Bourne, Messrs. John Caylor and Walter Johnson, proved themselves equal to the demands of the occasion.

25 Years Ago

Hereford's 12-day bank holiday ended at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning when the First National and First State Banks opened for business, on authority from National and State officials. Lobbies of both institutions were crowded all morning long with smiling, cheerful citizens, eager to do business. While actual figures were not obtainable, it is safe to say that deposits exceeded withdrawals by a wide margin. Officials of both banks, naturally under a terrible strain during the holiday, were relaxed and smiling broadly.

feet into the ground.

The rockets are being built in the machine shop of the Tech physics department. About 25 working hours are required to make one, Myrick said.

The latest rocket had a steel fuselage more than an inch in diameter and about five feet in length. Nose cones for the rockets are designed and cast from aluminum by the students.

Myrick said the tail fins are not as important to good flight as the cone. The fins are made as small as they possibly can be and still give stable flight to the rockets.

The launching platform is a steel frame anchored by guy wires. Myrick emphasized that no rocket launchings of the type conducted by the Tech students should be undertaken without supervision of professional scientists.

Japanese Girl Finds New Life After Disaster at Hiroshima

AP Newsfeatures

Out of disaster has come hope and a new life for Toyoka Minowa, 23, a survivor of the atomic blast at Hiroshima — the blast that killed her father and brother and left her burned and maimed.

Today the Japanese girl, one of 25 brought to New York for corrective surgery, is happily studying fashion design at the Parsons School and working Saturdays as a seamstress for one of Fifth Avenue's most exclusive shops.

"America has been good to me," she says. "Now I must succeed to show my gratitude."

Most of the other Japanese girls brought to this country in 1955 for treatment have gone back home. But Toyoka, needing further surgery and possessed of a desire to become a fashion designer, stayed on to study and to work.

When she arrived in New York, the slight Japanese girl's face and neck were terribly scarred and her left arm useless. A dozen operations have restored the beauty of her face and given her use of the arm and hand. Today she is able to sew with expert skill and paint with an artist's touch.

At both the design school and the shop where she is employed, her work is rated excellent. Toyoka's fashion designs combine American simplicity with oriental artistry, according to shop executives, who have promised the girl that one day her fashions will be sold by this same shop.

The young designer specializes in sportswear, and already has turned a number of her sketches into finished garments for her American friends.

Toyoka lives with Dr. and Mrs. Richard Day of Forest Hills, Long Island, who arranged for her to enter the design school when they saw the quality of her work. She has two more years of study before completion of her course. Then she plans to return to Tokyo as a designer.

Toyoka's mother, Mrs. Fusako Minowa, taught her to sew when she was a little girl, and she has been at it ever since. She attended a dressmaking school in Hiroshima and a design school in Tokyo before coming to America. She looks forward to a reunion with her mother, her four sisters and two brothers, now established in a new home in Hiroshima.

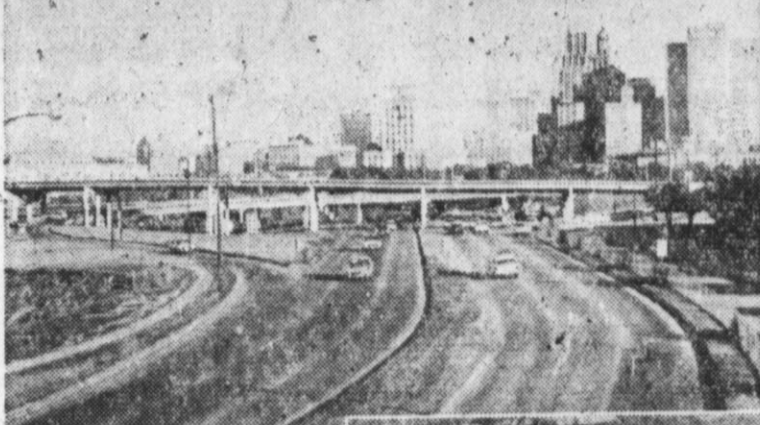

"When I go home I would like to help other Japanese girls and boys to come to America and learn how to do the work they want to do," she says. "I plan to save my money and send some of them, if I can."

DISAGREABLE SILENCE

COLUMBUS, Ohio — When Village Council in nearby Grove City observed 25 minutes of silence recently, it was not out of respect. Divided over a contract matter, councilmen refused to call it quits, although apparently no one had anything left to say.

The councilman who finally seconded a long-standing motion to adjourn handed in his resignation as he walked out the door.

BURGERVILLE

NEW YORK — Jack Lewis has put his hobby of running model railroads to work in business right in mid-town Manhattan — shuttling hamburgers to hungry customers of his restaurant.

The hamburgers come in from the kitchen on a string of flatcars, the locomotive's lights blink, the whistle hoots and the meat stops right in front of the customers. Lewis gets a lot of children in to watch, but he says plenty of more sophisticated people come in, too — writers from nearby radio studios, Rockettes from Radio City and people from the Museum of Modern Art.

EXECUTIVE CONFUSION

HARRISBURG, Pa. — A salesman in a southeastern Pennsylvania clothing store decided after eight weeks he had had enough of his job and quit.

The Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Board of Review agreed the salesman had a "compelling and necessitous reason" for quitting and awarded him weekly unemployment benefits.

Among other things, the board noted:

"The employer would issue an order to claimant, reprimand him for following it and then countermand it. The employer would then reprimand the claimant for following the countermand order."

TWO-INCH PROBLEM

MILWAUKEE — Milwaukee County's 350 million dollar expressway program is going to get past that two-inch obstacle after all.

That was the width of a 40-foot strip of land left over from the dim past when a couple of surveys didn't match. After considerable research, cogitation and legal advice, the county expressway commission voted to pay one dollar for the strip and hold the fund in escrow, just in case.

 Topic for Wednesday, March 19: "The King of Glory Amid His Enemies." Text: Matt. 27:12-14.
 Lest We Forget: The awful fact of sin is that it is always against God; and in particular against His Word and His grace which aims to save from sin. Sin is opposition to God. It shows itself when God comes into contact with sin and the sinner by means impenitent, unbelieving, hardening itself. Sin strikes against God in enmity; sin finally is stricken by God in judgment.
 A most cordial welcome to you.

DESpondent

— life savings are gone. Physical comfort for these two, during old age, went out with the trash can. Disillusionment reigns here. These harried, cross, impatient faces reveal the pang of personal loss. It would be well for this household, as well as yours, to realize how futile things of the world really are compared to the things of God. When crisis like this tear at your very soul, — when your nerves are worn from daily reversals, — when tragedy all but overwhelms you, — do you ever stop to experience the Comfort of Divine Presence? Try going to church for a cure. You'll take on a different outlook. Money, and lands, and oil wells will pass away but the things of God are Eternal.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a melting religious character. Statesmen today desire that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Does with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

ON THE HOUSE

By JOHN O.B. WALLACE

At the end of their search for a home, husband and wife are confronted by this question—can we afford it?
 The answer can be and often is, no. But how can you be sure it shouldn't be yes?
 There's no hard and fast rule-of-thumb answer; but generally speaking a family can afford a house costing from two and a half to three times the family's gross annual income.
 Still, this is not a rigid formula because some families have no difficulty in financing homes worth three or more times their gross annual income, while others have trouble managing payments on a house costing less than twice their gross annual income.

 Recent statistics of the federal housing authority, based on its experience with more than 3,400,000 government-insured loans, may help you to determine the house that's within reasonable range of your income.

trouble managing payments on a house costing less than twice their gross annual income.
 Recent statistics of the federal housing authority, based on its experience with more than 3,400,000 government-insured loans, may help you to determine the house that's within reasonable range of your income.

The figures, compiled from the prices American families actually are paying for their homes, indicate that families with incomes under $5,000 a year are successfully buying homes from two and a half to three and a half times their gross annual income.

On the other hand, those with higher incomes generally buy homes costing proportionately less.
 For example, the FHA figures show that families with an annual income of $3,000 are able to buy homes costing $9,000—three times their yearly income—while those with an annual income of $12,000 buy homes costing about $18,000, or only one and a half times their income.

Sound advice on home-financing factors comes from such experts as the savings and mortgage division of the American Bankers Assn. Some factors, these experts say, may modify the formula of multiplying gross annual income by two and a half or three to get the right house price.
 These factors include:
 The amount of savings available for the down payment; the size of the family and its expenses for food, clothing, medical care and other items, and what percentage of the cost of maintaining a house can be saved by family-done work.
 Once the right price has been determined, another question looms for the home buyer—what's the right mortgage for my particular needs and pocketbook?
 Your local banker can help you with this answer. He can give you valuable advice not only because of his wide experience in helping people with financial problems but also because of his knowledge of real estate values in his community.

In reaching a final decision on mortgage terms, experts of the American Bankers Assn. point out, there are two major points to keep in mind:
 1. Try and keep your interest costs down by borrowing as little as necessary instead of as much as you can. Although a big mortgage loan may look like a bargain, you're generally better off and will save more money in the long run if you make as large a down payment as possible.
 2. Bear in mind that the quicker you pay back the loan, the less will be your financing costs in the end. A shorter mortgage period means, of course, larger monthly payments.
 But if your earnings permit, the larger monthly payment will save you important money. For example, if you repay a $10,000 loan at 5 1/2 per cent in 15 years, instead of 25 years, the monthly payment would be $80.39 instead of $59.93. But the total amount saved by paying off the mortgage 10 years earlier is $3,508.80.
 A final word of advice: Don't make the mistake of buying a house that your family may outgrow and that you would have to sell at a sacrifice. Shop for a house that's big enough for your family or one that can be expanded as family needs increase.

 An increase in income later, of course, could permit you to buy a larger home. But protect the investment in the house you're buying now by making sure your family will be happy and comfortable in it at least for the foreseeable future.

Bible Words for Today

I JOHN 3:16—"By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren."

The dominating motive or impulse of life, what is it? "Self-preservation," many would answer unhesitatingly. We do not deny that it is a strong impulse, instinct, even. But it need not and it does not always take precedence over other impulses. Consider this declaration of Albert Schweitzer's: "In the world the infinite will-to-live reveals itself to us as the will-to-create—the will-to-love, which will through us remove the dilemma of the will-to-live." As we cultivate this higher will to love humanity into perfect relationships, we may be sure that we become increasingly Christ-like, God-like. The pages of history are aglow with the names of persons who counted not their lives dear unto themselves. The 11th chapter of the epistle to the Hebrews lists a number of them; and every biography worthy to be read adds another chapter of the valiant who motivated by divine love forgot themselves into immortality.

In any case, wouldn't YOU say one is enough?

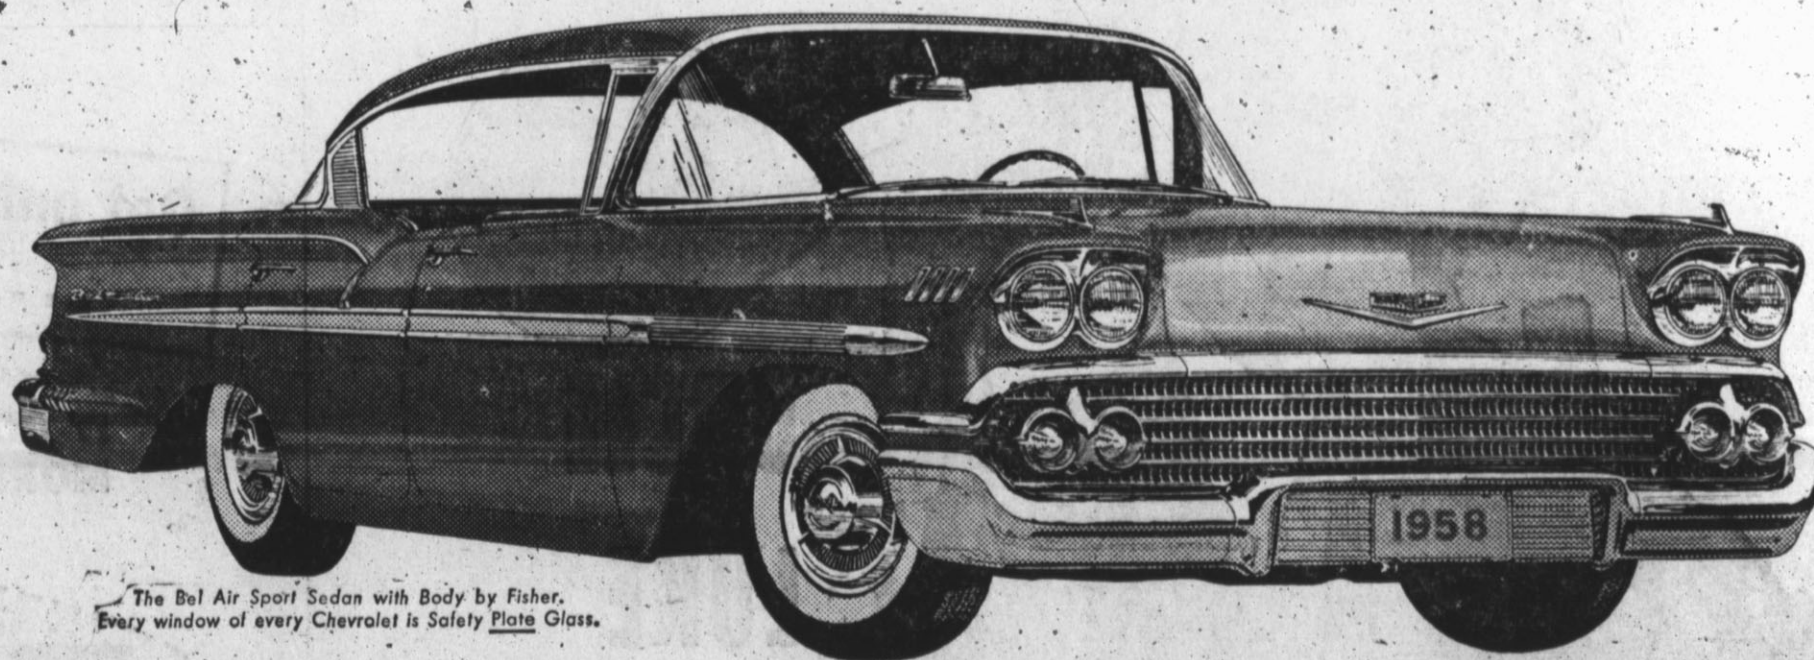

Do you carry three or four—or even more—insurance policies on your home, when just one may be enough? A single package insurance policy on your home and its contents can protect you against fire and other perils. And you can include protection on almost any risk you are likely to face as a home owner.
 We'll be glad to tell you about the advantages of a package policy. Should you choose one, we offer Stock Company Insurance, known for quality protection and full-time service. And remember: if you're not fully insured—it's not enough.

YOUNG MODERNS

Sir Galahad Had Nothing On Our Boys

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer
A recent column that questioned whether the modern boy is the gentleman his daddy was, has brought a barrage of replies — and are the ladies emphatic in their defense of the male!

"I am a shoe sales lady," writes one reader from Toledo, who says: "I wait on all ages, boys and girls every day. Believe me, the men are still gentlemen but most of the women have never been taught to be ladies."

She goes on to list her reasons: "Although men will take but a few minutes of my time, they never fail to thank me, whereas women think nothing of taking a half hour of my time, asking to try on every style in the store and perhaps one out of 10 will thank me for my time and some of them are very rude."

"I have never seen a woman hold the door for an elderly man or woman, or for another woman with a baby in her arms. Men and teen-age boys do this."

"I was a guest at a small gathering where two congressmen were guests of honor. Do you know that these ladies did not even stand up when they were introduced personally to each congressman?"

"Observe women drivers for yourself. They block side streets stopping for a red light, they block drives of fire stations."

"If a woman would give her bus seat to an elderly man or woman, or to another woman with baby, there would be 10 gentlemen on their feet to offer their seat to that lady."

"A woman must act like a lady before she is treated like a lady."

A Minneapolis lady who signs herself "Old-Fashioned" writes:

"I heard a sailor say, when asked if he was going to give up his seat to a lady. 'Why should I? They smoke, drink, work and earn money, so let 'em stand up!'"

"A few more old fashioned girls in our country would be wonderful, and maybe they'd earn the respect of men."

An Oakland lady writes in to complain that women are "disgusting shoppers." She adds:

"They squeeze every squeezable article in my store — tomatoes, oranges and melons. They toss the stuff around like it was free. We have to throw out perfectly good merchandise because

It has been made unsalable. Boys and men have a respect for these foods, but girls are impossible." A theater ticket cashier in Tennessee rises to the defense of the young men, too, saying:

"I sell movie tickets, and I can tell you right now that it's the boy who waits for the girl, who takes her time showing up. She has a nerve to saunter along 40 minutes late, acting as if she were on time. I don't know why these boys wait for these illbred girls."

A school teacher offers a final word:

"If you want to know why a boy doesn't offer to carry a girl's books, why don't you eavesdrop and find out what they talk about. Chances are you'll hear the girls using bad language, telling off-col-

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I remove water stains from furniture?

A. Use a tablespoonful of powdered pumice, mixed with enough linseed oil to make a thin paste. Rub on the spots until they disappear, then wipe off with a cloth dampened in polish.

Q. How can I make bay rum? A. Mix one dram oil of bay, eighteen ounces of alcohol, eighteen ounces of water. Then filter it through magnesia.

Q. How can I remove yellow spots from white enamel?

A. By rubbing with a flannel cloth that has been dipped in garden mold.

Q. How can I make black putty?

A. Place them in cold water and

A. Mix whiting and antimony sulphide (the latter finely powdered) with soluble glass. It is claimed that after hardening, this putty can be polished with a burnishing agate.

Q. How can I clean eiderdown? A. An eiderdown garment can be cleaned by rubbing it thoroughly with cornmeal, allowing it to stand for a few days, and then shaking thoroughly.

Q. How can I impart a different flavor to steak?

A. Squeeze the juice of a lemon over the steak and onions just before serving, and it will add a delicious flavor.

Q. How can I measure molasses and keep it from sticking to the measuring cup?

A. Grease the cup lightly before measuring molasses, or dip it full of flour and then empty it. Either method will enable every drop of molasses to come out of the cup without sticking.

Q. How can I make a substitute for a pastry board?

A. Try using a piece of clean white oilcloth. It is more easily cleaned than a board, and can be rolled up and put away in a clean place for the next time wanted.
