County Considers Remodeling, Ball Park

By BOBBY TEMPLETON Brand News Editor

A budget amendment, road priorities, a county employe insurance plan, and courthouse remodeling were among the more important items of business at a day-long meeting of the Deaf Smith County Commissioners Court Monday at the

The commissioners, all present, considered these as part of a 17-item agenda which caused the county government to meet for almost seven hours.

BESIDES OTHER ROUTINE business, the court reviewed the tentative request from Chuck Cosper, representing Kids Inc., for about half of $26,000 to be used in funding an $88,000 baseball-softball park on 30 acres of land that the county already purchased for that purpose. Half of the total amount would be funded by contributions from local organizations and government entities and the other half will hopefully be financed through a federal grant from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

He presented an estimated list of expenses which would provide a four diamond park for about 1,100 participants presently in the program. The cost is $88,517 including a fence, $11,175; 26 poles, $6,357.50; quartz lights, $12,412.50; underground sprinklers, $7,272.59; consession stand and restrooms, $21,300; and wiring, about $30,000.

He said that if the county and city could possibly split about $26,000 of the cost, the remaining portion could be provided through civic club donations and other local sources. County Judge Sam Morgan and other commissioners expressed the feeling that the county's share of the baseball complex has taken care of through the land purchase and weren't expecting any further requests although Commissioner Bruce Coleman realistically thought that more requests for money would be forthcoming.

Cosper will approach the City Commission on the matter and the county commissioners will consider it further before

The commissioners passed a $900 budget amendment for county expenses this year to cover cost of jury meals.

TWO COURTHOUSE REMODELING items faced the commissioners. These consisted of required renovations for the county jail and a project by the state welfare department to remodel half of the fourth floor.

Herb Brasher, consulting engineer, told the court that six new prison cells for female and juvenile inmates were required along with a chapel, processing rooms and other equipment. He estimated the total cost at about $120,000 although he was fairly sure the cells would cost at least

Morgan explained that the county needed to proceed with the project before Jan. 1, 1977 to prevent the county from having to meet more costly and stringent federal standards for the jail. If the county complies with a contract for construction prior to the date, it is likely that only state standards will have to be met.

The welfare department is renovating half of the presently unused fourth floor, but an elevator extension to the top of the courthouse under current plans did not allow for access to the complete fourth floor from the elevator opening. The commissioners unanimously approved the a change in the plans compensate for the access so that the rest of the top floor could be used.

Larry Berry of the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Insurance firm, presented an alternative coverage proposal for the county workers. It provides essentially the same service although it is slightly more expensive and much more simplified.

Under the present plan, many county employes did not receive all possible benefits since they did not file forms for major medical coverage. The new plan simply covers 80 per cent of all hospital and doctor expenses in one payment up to a level of $500 when 100 per coverage goes into effect.

The cost of premiums would increase by 62 cents per employe per year. Berry said more coverage was provided for the money depending on the specific case filed. Some commissioners felt the current plan provided better benefits but that the new plan would probably benefit employes more. Action was delayed pending further study.

REPRESENTATIVES of the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation reset road priorities in the county according to wishes of the Commissioners Court. It only means that roads in the listing receive more traffic that others and doesn't necessarily mean a priority for road

Exorcism Leads To Death

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP)-Four persons charged with fatally beating a 3-year-old boy in an alleged attempt to exorcism are asking prospective jurors whether they believe in reincarnation. The four and a fifth defendant, all members of a religious household, have been found mentally competent to stand trial.

Four complained that psychiatrists who examined them were devils performing witchcraft. The defendants are Edward Leon Cunningham, 51, a pastor and "prophet of God;" his wife, Velma, 45; her daughter, Carolyn, 27; Lorraine Edwards, 20; and Debra Marie Weilbacher, 20, David's mother.

Oil Price Increase Asked

The major oil exporting nations appear sure to raise oil prices by at least 10 per cent at their ministerial meeting beginning Dec. 15 in the Persian Gulf sheikdom of Qatar.

Saudi Arabia, the largest oil exporter and the most powerful member of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries, has said it wants a "moderate" increase by the 13 members.

Federal Pay Raise Considered

WASHINGTON (AP)-Members of Congress, federal judges and Cabinet officials are among the 2,400 government employes who stand to get pay raises if President Ford recommends higher salaries before he leaves office.

To help Ford make that decision, the Commission on Executive, Legislative and Judicial Salaries today begins two days of hearings on what pay scales to recommend to the President.

Ford's decision will affect the salaries of President-elect Jimmy Carter's entire Cabinet and other top political appointees, as well as the federal judiciary and Congress itself. It will determine whether the pay for their jobs, already at minimum of $37,800-a-year, will be going up.

Flu Inoculations Rise

PITTSBURGH (AP)-Four weeks ago today, the swine flu vaccination program was suspended here and in several states because of reports that three elderly persons died after getting shots at a local clinic. But authorities concluded that the shots did not cause the deaths, and now people are coming in to this area's clinics for inoculations at a faster rate than elsewhere across the nation. "People are gradually getting over the bad publicity," said Shirley Gallagher, a public health nurse at the South Side Clinic, which figured in the deaths here. "Now they can come in and joke about it."

School Board Trustees Met This Evening

The Hereford School Board of Trustees was scheduled to meet at 4 p.m. today in the school district administration

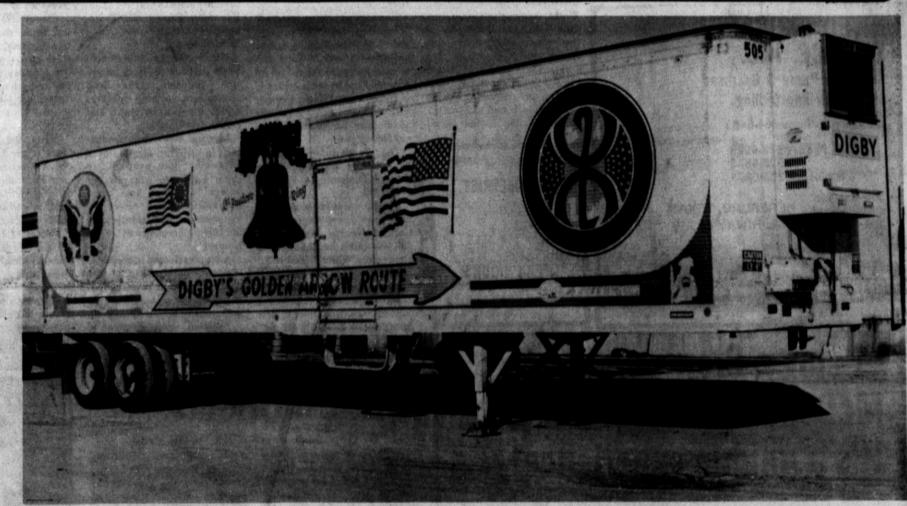

The government entity's agenda shows that the trustees considered a curriculum item concerning the Hereford High School Science Department, a report from Superintendent Harrell Holder on the governor's legislative recommendations for financing the minimum foundation program, the use of the Central School kitchen by the Community Action Agency, appointment of a textbook committée, and a policy for identifying bilingual students.

Also, the school board heard reports on enrollment, cafeteria, transportation, thetax office, auditor's report, the Classroom Teachers Association and the Texas State Teachers Association.

The trustees set a date for senior graduation, approved employment of teachers and the leave of absence of a teacher, and finally met in executive session concerning the lawsuit won by former teacher Wayne Woodward.

The trustees include David Hutchins,

Mrs. Sallie Strain, Jim Arney, President Jim Conkwright, James Gentry, Lynton Allred and Clark Andrews.

HEW Lists Doctors Making Over *100,000 Each Year

By The Associated Press
More than 30 doctors, three dentists and may organizations and pharmacies are included in a list issued by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare of Texans who were paid more than $100,000 in 1975 under the Medicaid

A Houston obstetrician that the HEW list said was paid $183,842 in 1975 said Monday night the payments were shared with seven other doctors and 37 other

"We've got a high volume of patients with low incomes so we get a lot of payments for Medicaid," said the obstetrician, Dr. John B. Coleman. He said he believes most, if not all, of the doctors on the list above partnerships.

"You would have to work awfully hard to get this kind of money from Medicaid by yourself." Coleman said. "As it is, I work 18 hours a day and sleep four hours.

Strauss To Quit As Demo Chairman

DALLAS (AP)-National Democratic Party Chairman Robert Strauss says he will leave the post he has held for the past four years on Jan. 21 but will continue to help Jimmy Carter with Cabinet selections and other appointments.

"There will be no formal resignation." Strauss said Monday. "There will be a meeting of the national committee and I will call for an election for which I won't be a candidate ' ation, Strauss said he expects to be one of six to eight individuals involved in a search for persons Carter will consider for his cabinet and other appointed posts.

Strauss said he would arrive in Washington D.C. today to begin helping with inaugural preparations.

The Stamford, Tex. native stressed the need for the candidates.

Carter, to my knowledge, hasn't Congress to consider re-defining portions of the campaign finances. While in Washington. he said he planned to speak to his friends in both the House and Senate about certain limitations of the law.

> Strauss suggested that perhaps the $1,000 campaign contribution limit is too small. He also hinted that Congress should reconsider raising the $22 million total campaign limitation placed on presidential

Rhodesian Blacks Would Lean To Soviets If Power Obtained

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)- Black Rhodesian leader Joshua Nkomo indicates that Rhodesia under black rule will look to the Soviet Union for friendship, support and aid rather than to the United States.
"The relationship between us and any other country would be governed by its attitude...during our period of armed struggle," said the 59-year-old elder statesman of black politics in Rhodesia during an interview Monday. And later he pointed out:

"We get our assistance, especially military assistance, from the Soviet Union. It's no secret. We have gone to them. They haven't come to us...We are working with them."

"Our relations with the United States would be the relations between two independent countries," he said.

Nkomo said he thinks neither Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger nor his successor has any role to play at the deadlocked Geneva conference on the transfer to power in Rhodesia from the white minority to the black majority.

Nkomo explained that as far as the black leaders are concerned, the Geneva negotiations are "basically" between them and the british, since the blacks refuse to recognize Prime Minister Ian Smith's declaration of independence from Britain 11 years ago and demand that Britain as the colonial power arrange the transfer of power to them.

Kissinger's African shuttle that produced the Geneva conference "has not involved the people of Zimbabwe the black name for Rhodesia as such but nvolved Smith and his helpers, the South Africans," Nkomo continued.

"If the Americans could through pressurizing the South Africans put pressure on Smith, that would not have a bearing on the affairs here but on the individuals on whom the Americans could bring pressure to bear. So when it comes to discussing the actual affairs of Zimbabwe, the United States has no more

Nkomo also showed no interest in the $2-billion foreign aid fund which Kissinger has proposed to compensate whites who leave Rhodesia and finance development of the country under black

"I don't know ... what that fund is," he said. "But if it is...to buy property from those who want to leave and that property will be owned by the trust fund, then no thank you. Our country being bought over by some fund, that we cannot have.

Marland, president of the College Entrance Examination Board, addressed the opening session Monday of the U.S. Education Commissioner's National Conference on Career

The meeting has drawn about 6,000 participants from education, industry, labor and government to hear speakers and view occupational and career development.

Marland said college graduates in liberal arts fields outnumber jobs available to them but "the liberalizing power of the arts and humanities were never so essential to the growth and intellectual development of our people."

A report released in conjunction with the opening of the conference said high school pupils appear to be unrealistic in their expectations for careers.

Ann Landers Be In Control

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a teenage girl with a serious problem. I am 16 and Bill is 17. 'We've gone together for two years. A friend of mine says I'm depriving Bill of a very important factor which he needs in order to mature. She says I should go to bed with him because he must have some sexual experience if he's going to "grow up." She also says if I deny him this he will seek it elsewhere and I will lose him.

My problem is one that concerns many young girls these days. Could you please print this letter and your answer? -- Searching For Right Answers

DEAR SEARCHING: Apparently you friend has the notion that sexual experience "grows people up." She is mistaken. Some of the most sexually active people are the LEAST grown up.

The ability to postpone gratification and be in control of one's passions is a sign of maturity. If your boyfriend drops you because you refuse to go to bed with him, you haven't lost much, honey.

DEAR ANN: I can't believe that I, a grown man with a wife and two children, am actually writing to Ann Landers. For years I've read your column for entertainment.

The problem is my mother.

Two years ago the company I work for transferred me from my home town to another city. Mother is a fine person and I wouldn't hurt her feelings for the world, but her visits have become more and more frequent, and of longer duration.

We cannot lead our own lives when she is here. She expectes to be included in everything we do. Often it creates a problem. Mother does not wait for an invitation. She selects her own arrival and departure dates. My wife has been a good sport on this and never complains.

What's the solution, Ann? Please don't advise me to tell her how we feel. I just couldn't. -- Loving But Overburdened Son

DEAR L. BUT O.: Your last sentence rules out the only logical solution. If you don't tell her how you feel, she'll never Printing this letter will not do the job. If she saw it she'd probably say to herself, "How nice that I don't have that problem. My son and his wife love to have me -- anytime."

Either you screw up your courage and level with Mama or resign to yourself to the fact that as long as she lives, she will call the tune while you and your wife dance to it.

At Wit's End ...

By ERMA'BOMBECK

I have found that whenever a man wants to strike back at a woman for her boredom with football, he will say, "You don't understand the game."

I understand the game. I also understand that football games last longer than some marria-

I understand that if I have to sit through four more months of announcing news bulletins during the commercial ("PA-PER TRAINING DOG 10 --MOM 0," "KIDS BEST SHOES RAINED OUT," MOTHER-IN-LAW DRAFT CHOICE SIGNS FOR WEEKEND") I'll go crazy.

There's only one way I know to fight back and that's on my turf. After watching four games in a row last Sunday, my husband groped his way out to the dinner table.

"Where's dinner?" he grum-

"Hi there, fans in the stands," I said speaking into a spatula. "We've got an exciting evening planned for you tonight, but first let's hear from our man in the freezer.

"This if Frank Sirloin here, and this is the big one we've been looking for. Erma Microwave is looking for her first winning streak in 5,356 tries and tonight it's Frozen Hamburger vs. Leftovers."

"Will you just put the food on the table?" he sighed.

"When we talked to Erma earlier, the game plan was to go outside, but since she moved pretty well inside, she's decided to go for a man-on-man situation. We'll ask her about how she expects to pick up any more yardage with the leftovers, but first we'll go to the bench where she'll fill us in on some of the injuries."

"That's cute," said my husband. "Now can we eat?"

'You may remember the string beans that received two incomplete passes at the last meal, and a package of buns that was lateraled and picked up by the dog in yesterday's luncheon scrimmage. Starting today will be the George Blanda of the team, Cottage Cheese, which may retire after today's encounter. There'll be more on injuries, but now we're getting a signal to go out on the field where 148 cheerleaders are spelling relief -- that's R-O-L-A-I-D-S."

"I get the drift," he grumbled. "The meal is getting

"Don't be ridiculous," I said, grabbing the plate out of his hand. "You've only had it passed under your nose once. Next time around is in slow motion, then instant replay, then stop action, now camera three so you can see it from the bottom...then later on the six o'clock news, and two hours from now, it will be shown again on Leftover Greats of the Century, but now...ooops, the casserole fell to the floor. Sorry, gang, the fumble was sloppy, but it's only the first in It could cost me the marriage,

Schnabel Quits Senate

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)-Charles Schnabel, serving a one-year probated sentence for official misconduct, said Monday he is quitting as secretary of the Senate, a $37,500 job he has held for 20 years.

He said he will leave the post when the Senate elects new officers on Jan. 10 or when he finds a new job. whichever comes first.

"That's the end of my term, and I do not seek re-election," Schnabel said.

His resignation followed weekend speculation that a majority of the Senate would not vote to continue him as Senate secreatary. Schnabel and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, who had sought Schnabel's ouster even before his troubles began with the law, held what amounted to a joint news conference Hobby's office. "Charles Schnabel has served the Texas Senate well and faithfully for 24 years. He has now decided to seek other opportunities to serve or elsewhere in state government. I wish him every success in whatever he undertakes,"

Hobby said. Schnabel, 44, said he hopes to find a job that involves "doing for others."

"I'd like to get involved in some kind of work where my basic disposition can be manifested," Schnabel said.

Schnabel said Comptroller Bob Bullock "Seems to be the repository of people in my situation but I don't anticipate going to work for the

The secretary of the Senate is in charge of virtually all phases of Senate administration, from payroll to personnel to overseeing the sergeant-at-arms.

Schnabel was convicted of official misconduct Sept. 16 after pleading guilty to assigning Senate secretaries as typists for the Texas Relays in Dist. Atty. Bob Smith then dropped five felony indictments against Schnabel, who was fined .$2,000 and given a one-year probated sentence.

Schnabel maintained that "I didn't receive a penny" from any of his alleged misdeeds, including the use of Senate employes on his ranch and salary kickbacks that he claims he spent on curtains and stereo phonograph for Senate offices.

Hobby said he had no canidate in mind for the Senate secretary and declared he did not know whether Schnabel had enough votes to keep the job if he wanted it.

"To occupy the position of secretary of the Senate...requires a board consensus," Hobby said, meaning more than a simple majority. Schnabel said when he was convicted that he wanted to stay on the job. "I don't know," he replied when asked what changed his mind. He said he had thought about resigning for three or four months.

announced similar price boosts late last month. Figuring out the percentage of increase gets complicated bad news next year: the 20-cent because the companies tried to sweeten the impact of the higher prices by increasing the size of their candy bars. A Nestle milk chocolate bar. for example, will grow from 1 1/8 to 11/4 ounces; a Hershey milk chocolate bar is going from 1.2 to 1.35 ounces. The Nestle bar is smaller- 11/4 is equal to

The smaller, cheaper nestle bar costs 13.3 cents per ounce; the larger, higher-price variety will cost 16 cents per ounce; the increase is 20 per cent. For Hershey, the per-ounce price increase works out to 19 per Nestle said the wholesale price increases will go into effect early in 1977, after stocks of the 15-cent chocolate is expected at the retail level next spring.

All the companies blamed higher costs for the increases, noting that cocoa beans which sold for 75 cents a pound a year go, now are going for close to $1.50. The firms said the chocolate increases would have come sooner if it had not been for the frop in the price of sugar which has declined about 90 per cent from 1974 levels.

Most of the world's cocoa beans are grown in Africa and the crop has been tight for the past two years. At the same time, the demand has been strong, causing the price increase.

Stephen Korsen of Nestle said there is no actual shortage of cocoa beans. He said however that the producing countries "are regulating the flow" of beans. Political upheavals in some cocoa-growing areas also have interrupted the supply, Korsen said.

The National Confectioners Association said it takes 65 pounds of cocoa beans to make 100 pounds of milk chocolate. The value of the beans in a 1 1/8 ounce bar last year was about three cents: the value of the beans in a 11/4-ounce bar at the current price of cocoa is about eight cents.

In some places, candy bars in vending machines already sell for 20 cents and, presumably, could go up to 25 cents after the new increases take effect. LUCKY

BREAKFAST railroad-style finds the Shulls in the galley of their railraod car-home

Richard B. Shull, who stars as the slightly defective Detective Alexander Holmes in ABC's new comedy series, "Holmes & Yoyo," has found something refreshingly old in mobile homes -- a railroad car built nearly fifty years ago by the Pullman Company.

"I have always been attracted to places and things with character acquired through the passage of time to time."

Three years ago, while driving through upstate New York in their 1941 Dodge, Richard and Marilyn visited the old Erie-Lackawanna Railroad yard where they spotted a private car which had been used by several whistlestopping presidential candidates. Eighty-five feet long and 10-and-one-half feet wide, the car was equipped with an AC generator and a large freezer. There was a stateroom, a bedroom, a galley, crew's quarters and, of course, an observation car, yet it had been out of service for years.

"No one wanted it," says Shull. "Isn't that remarkable? I was told that if I wished to own it, I need only find a site and it was mine. Of course I accepted." Shull found a site in Warwick, a dairy farming community 65 miles northwest of New York City. The site has been Shull's country home ever since. Eventually, the Shulls

Bengals Warm Up; Smash Rams

AP Sports Writer CINCINNATI (AP)- The Cincinnati Bengals, Paul Brown's last pet project, have come of age in the National Football League.

"We're at the point of maturity where we can play with anybody. In fact, man-for-man I thought we were the better team tonight," said fullback Boobie Clark, who helped the Bengals overcome a poor start as Cincinnati beat the Los Angeles Rams 20-12 in a nationally Conference Central Division. overcame their worst first half in years to knock off the powerful Rams in the battle between teams harboring Super Bowl aspirations. The Rams dropped to 6-2-1, but still lead the televised game. The Bengals, now 7-2 and National Conference West.

The victory kept Cincinnati on course for its crucial showdown Nov. 28 against rejuvenated Pittsburgh, which still is clingingto hopes of a third straight Super Bowl Title.

"Pittsburgh is not the only team with momentum going." said Clark, who celebrated his 26th birthday with two touchdowns in triggering a 20-point third-quarter that sank the Rams. "We're looking forward

Looking offensively inept in the first half, the Bengals regrouped, "Basically, we were stopping ourselves," said John-

"We had an emotional meeting at halftime," said veteran center Bob Johnson. 'Bill is more spark than we've had here. I think we felt fortunate we were only behind

Rams quarterback James Harris lost a fumble at the Los Angeles nine-yard line.

Clark bolted into the end zone untouched on Cincinnati's next play and rookie Chris Bahr's conversion kick put the Bengals ahead 7-6, overcoming field goals of 19 and 23 yards by the Rams' Tom Dempsey.

Six minutes later, after taking over near midfield, quarterback Ken Anderson dashed 25 yards to set up the second touchdown. Anderson, shaking off a 2-for-12 first half passing performance, connected on a 30-yard scoring pass to veteran tight end Bob Trumpy.

On the next series, Anderson marched the Bengals 47 yards, hitting Clark with a 17-yard touchdown pass.

The Rams, who outgained Cincinnati 173-57 yards in the first half, were frustrated by former teammate Coy Bacon, who led the Bengals' defensive

"It was a personal thing with him," said Los Angeles running back John Cappellitti, who topped all rushers with 86 yards in 20 carries.

Flag Teams Begin Championship Play

The Oilers, Packers, Bengals, and Saints all came away with wins Saturday as the YMCA Boys Flag football-league began its post-season championship tourney.

Eight teams saw action Saturday in the first round of the tourney, with the four losers closing out the season. The four winners will now go on to meet four teams in the second round which drew first round byes.

The single elimination tournament winds up the season for the 12 youth teams. The year will conclude Saturday, November 20 with the championship game to be played in the morning, and an awards program later that night.

Probably the biggest surprise in last Saturday's action came in the 24-13 win by the Bengals over the Chiefs. The Bengals owned a 2-2-1 mark going into the contest, while the Chiefs had forged a 4-1 mark.

The Oilers began the day Saturday by overcoming a 6-0 deficit to come back and down the Cardinals 12-6. The Packers defeated the Rams 33-12 in the second game before the Bengals pulled off their upset. The finale of the day was a jewel with the Saints nipping the Redskins by a 20-19 count. The lineup this Saturday has the Cowboys and Oilers playing at 10 a.m., the Packers meeting the Jets at 11:15, the Vikings tackling the Bengals at 1 p.m., and the Saints meeting the Dolphins at 2:15.

The Y men's league also wound up its round robin phase of the season Sunday. Action was highlighted by the clash between the league's two unbeaten powers, the Squirrels and Bad Company.

Both teams entered the fray with 4-0 marks, and the game was close as was expected. In the end it was Bad Company on top by a slim 21-19 margin.

In the other two games Sunday, the Longhorns downed the Bombers 19-13 and the Farmers beat the Turkeys 19-7.

Final round robin standings in the men's league have Bad Company on top with a 5-0 record. The Squirrels finished at 4-1. The Longhorns, 3-2; Farmers, 2-3; Turkeys, 1-4; and Bombers, 0-5, rounded out the league standings.

The men will begin their chase for the league championship next Sunday afternoon. The Farmers and Turkeys will fight it out at 2 p.m. to begin the day, and the Bombers and Longhorns will clash at 3 p.m.

A week later the Farmers-Turkeys winner will meet Bad Company and the Bombers-Longhorns winner will take ont the Squirrels in the semi finals.

Simons, Nieman Increase Margin

The Fearless Forecasters Panel had a rough time last week, with the panel as a whole being fooled on four occasions. Two of those were the result of ties between Idalou and Floydada 14-14 and Arkansas and Baylor 7-7.

The entire panel also came up short by picking Lockney in a 28-14 loss to Abernathy and in picking the slumping Houston Oilers in their 21-7 passing at the hands of Cleveland.

The only panel member to score a shutout over the rest of the guessers was BRAND sports editor Bob Nigh who was the sole picker to give the nod to the Houston Cougars, 30-0 winners over Texas.

After the dust had settled, however, nothing had changed much in the race for the title of 'Head Picker'. Leader Tom Simons and runner-up Speedy Nieman increased their respective margins over the other as the season winds down.

panelists by at least one guess. Simons and Nieman both registered 17-9 marks as they kept ahead of Nigh and Irene McKinster, both of whom had 16-10 marks. BRAND editor Bobby Templeton was one guess behind Nigh and McKinster with a 15-11 mark. On the year Simons holds the lead with a 179-81 record, two ahead of Nieman who stands at 177-83. McKinster resides in third place with a 171-89 mark. while Nigh is one pick back at 170-90. Templeton is fifth with a 162-98 standard.

Percentage-wise Simons' .688 leads the pack with Nieman close behind at .681. McKinster has been correct on .658 per cent on her choices, while Nigh and Templeton have hit on .654 and .623 per cent of their picks.

McKinster, Nigh, and Templeton have three more chances to close the gap on the leaders
