

Deaf Smith County Draftees Are In Lubbock Today To Be Inducted Into Armed Forces

AROUND TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. William (better known as Bill) Bell and daughter, Lois, left Wednesday morning for Childress to make their home. Mr. Bell has bought an interest in a grocery and market there. He has been in the market business here for a number of years and is well-known around town. The best wishes of their friends goes with them.

Ray Conaway has begun his duties at Packard Milling Co. where he is taking over the job of bookkeeper, formerly held by Frank Cogdell. Frank is now associated with C. W. Cogdell in the Cogdell Motor Co.

Ed Skypala, who was ill with the "flu" last week, occupied the time by building a one-tube short wave radio set which is enclosed in a yeast cake box. He says the set gives good reception and sure did help in passing the time away.

Mrs. Elaine Willoughby called this "wilted wench" to one side the other day and confided that she and Marcus Houser are having a contest to see which one can sell the most Valentine candy. It'll be some battle, we fancy.

The new house on Roosevelt, between Third and Fourth Streets, owned by J. B. McMinn family, is now occupied by the Walter Seeds.

Mrs. Francis McLeod, secretary at the Farm Security Administration office, spent last week end in Childress visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Weddington.

Methodists Plan Early Payment Of Benevolences

First quarterly conference of the new year was held at the First Methodist Church Sunday evening with Dr. W. C. House of Amarillo, district superintendent, in charge.

"We had the best attendance of officers since I have been here," Rev. Marvin B. Norwood, pastor, announced in praise of the meeting.

"Hereford is the third church in the Amarillo district up to now which has accepted in full the askings on benevolences," Rev. Norwood said. "The church plans to pay the benevolences in full by Easter."

Resignation of Mrs. Homer Brumley as superintendent of the Young People's Division was accepted, and Miss Irene Crawford appointed in her place. Mrs. R. F. Conaway resigned as superintendent of the Children's Division and the vacancy will be supplied by the Board of Christian Education until the next quarterly conference.

Finances of the church were reported in full, up to date.

Deaf Smith county's seven men who have been requested by the United States Army under the selective service program, reported to the local board this morning at 9:00 o'clock, H. G. Conkright, board member, announced today. From here they left for the Army Recruiting Office in Lubbock.

Deaf Smith county's "draftees," all volunteers, are J. B. Joiner, Ollie Lem Callaway, John Milton Anderson, George Ercei Brashers, Noel Sydney Higgins, Frank Thomas Newman and Henry Howard Williamson.

Because one or more of the men named may not be inducted at the induction station by the armed forces, the following named men may be required as replacements, Mr. Conkright said. They are:

Louis Laddie Dupnik and Eugene Victor Bolton. Both have volunteered. If either or both of these are required they will be notified five days before the date they are to report.

Hereford Postal Receipts Show Gain In 1940 Of $1,035.66 Above 1939

Hereford postal receipts for 1940 showed an increase of $1,035.66 over 1939, a healthy business sign, Postmaster James R. Lipscomb announced today.

Particularly indicative of good business was the fact that each quarter exceeded the previous quarter in amount of receipts, it was pointed out.

The 1940 total was $20,234.21 as compared with $19,198.55 in 1939. In addition, each quarter exceeded the same quarter of 1939.

QUARTERS 1940 1939 First $4,503.92 $4,265.13 Second 4,563.78 4,423.55 Third 5,161.47 5,059.96 Fourth 6,005.04 5,449.91

Money orders paid here also increased from $19,356.18 in 1939 to $22,735.44 in 1940, a sum of $3,379.26. On the other hand, money orders sent out of Hereford showed a decrease of $1,288.75 from $85,546.75 in 1939 to $84,258.00 in 1940.

Sale of Postal Savings Bonds also showed a decrease in 1940, chiefly from a regulation which forbade certain institutions from buying them. In 1939, $29,366.25 worth were sold as compared with $22,312.50 in 1940.

Rostal Savings also showed a decrease. Total issued and paid in 1939 was $390.52 in 1939 and in 1940 the total issued and paid was $382.34.

Baird Gives New Rulings In Poll Tax Exemptions

New regulations regarding poll tax exemptions were released this week by Fred W. Baird, deputy in the office of J. O. Newell, sheriff and tax assessor-collector, based upon information received from Geo. H. Sheppard, state comptroller.

Changes in the law make it necessary for persons becoming 21 years of age after January 31, this year, who are entitled to a free vote, to get their exemptions before January 31, 1941.

All who became 21 years of age after January 1, 1940, must also get exemption certificates before January 31, 1941. They are also entitled to certificates allowing them a free vote this year.

There has been no change in the law as regards persons over 60. They do not need certificates to get their free vote.

Regular poll tax payments must be made by January 31, Mr. Baird added.

Gets Promotion

JAMES P. WILLIAMS, who has been supervisor of the Farm Security Administration at its Hereford office for more than two years, has been transferred to the regional office at Amarillo.

Williams To Leave For Regional Job

James P. Williams, Deaf Smith County FSA Supervisor for the past two years, will leave at the end of this week to assume his duties in the Regional FSA Office at Amarillo as a supervisor of the Water Facilities program.

Mr. Williams has initiated a rehabilitation program in this county which has meant a great deal to many farmers in this area, as well as to the business men. At the time Williams came to Deaf Smith County, there were approximately fifteen farmers securing assistance through the standard loan program of the Farm Security Administration. Today this number has increased over 500 percent.

He is probably more responsible for the development of the potato industry in this county than any other individual. He sponsored the organization of the Hereford Potato Growers' Association and has made it possible for many farmers to enter into the potato production business with the aid of Farm Security Administration loans and with his knowledge and supervision of the growing of potato crops.

He was also instrumental in the organization of the Farmer-Deaf Smith County Medical Administration. This association makes it possible for the participants.

D. L. McDonald And A. B. Tarwater Are Invited To Speak

To discuss and carefully consider proposed legislation for the governing of ground water in this area, all farmers, business men and other persons interested in irrigation in the Hereford territory will meet in the district court room here Thursday afternoon, January 23, it was announced today. The meeting will begin at 1:30 p. m.

D. L. McDonald, prominent irrigation farmer, and A. B. Tarwater of Plainview, who formerly served in the state legislature, have been invited as guest speakers for the occasion along with several other men who fear unjust regulations and state taxes will be imposed on all water pumped for irrigation purposes.

The Hereford meeting was called following a recent meeting in Plainview at which the proposed bill was read. Some 40 persons from this community attended the Plainview meeting and reported the situation as "alarming." The meeting for January 23 was called at a joint meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors and irrigation farmers here this week. Wm. McGeehee, who was named chairman of the resolutions committee at Plainview, will act as chairman at the meeting here.

"The purpose of the meeting in Hereford is to check carefully into the proposed bill," said members of the group, "and to take steps toward protecting the rights of people who operate irrigation wells and of people who own land subject to irrigation.

If this country is to have regulations and penalties on irrigation water we feel that the people who live here should have more knowledge of the situation than some two or three men who have probably never even seen this section of the Panhandle Plains. Directly or indirectly every person in this entire territory is concerned with irrigation and every person should make a point to attend the meeting. Now is the time to act, rather than after the damage is done."

Financial Reorganization Bill Sponsored By WTCC Ready As State Legislature Convenes

The bill for state financial reorganization was ready for the 47th Legislature when the gavel fell Monday a pre-session conference on the bill's contents was held in Austin. Conferees were D. A. Bandoen, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce; Rep. Joe Humphrey, of Abilene; and Geo. C. Hester of Southwestern University, West Texas Chamber of Commerce—engaged collaborator with Bandoen on the widely discussed plan to equip the administrative department of the state government with a system of budgetary control and fiscal management designed to actually supervise spending and at the same time provide adequate information to the legislature as a basis for its policy making.

This involves creation of a governor's cabinet with advisory functions, a new department of finance and control, a complete centralized purchasing scheme, and a civil service system for employment of state personnel.

The bill covering the plan, to be jointly presented by the West Texas, East Texas and South Texas chambers of commerce, will bear the name of Rep. Humphrey, 116th district, who will introduce it in the lower house. It is expected to go before the two houses early in the session opening January 14, and to have behind it an immense weight of public opinion. The West Texas chamber has taken the plan to its own territory in 35 regional taxpayers' meetings attended by groups from 132 towns, and the Eltex and Sotex Chambers are now actively pushing it in their sections.

ENDORSEMENTS

A week after the close of the WTCC tours the organization had its portfolio endorsements of the plan from nearly 100 taxpayer groups (more were coming in every mail), as follows:

Chambers of Commerce and boards of city development: Iowa Park, Vernon, Breckenridge, Seminole, Pecos, Stephenville (senior and junior chambers) Gainesville, Del Rio, Cleburne, Coleman, Slaton, Snyder, Eastland, Decatur, Anson, Olney, Dalhart, Sweetwater, Charendon, Abilene and Childress. Lions Clubs: Abilene, Winters, Stephenville and Anson. Rotary: Seminole.

Other organizations: City of Balinger, Winters Booster Club, Winters Home, Demonstration club, 20th Century clubs (senior and junior) of Stephenville, Moran Luncheon Club, Austin League of women voters, and the tax committee of the Fort Worth chamber of Commerce.

In addition to official action by boards of directors, endorsements were voted at close of meetings by groups registered from 58 towns not included above. Chambers of Commerce in these towns are expected to make the endorsements official.

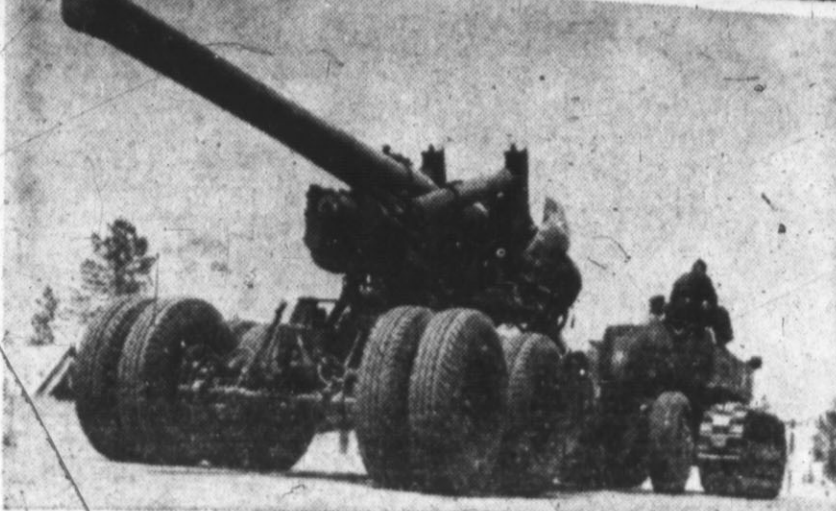

WORD FROM WOODRUFF

Co-author of a similar plan several years ago was Grady Woodruff, then state senator of the Decatur district. The Woodruff-Harry Graves bill was, in fact, much more comprehensive than that put forward by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. It aimed at complete reorganization of the state government, passed the house but died in the senate because Woodruff told WTCC leaders, it was too comprehensive in scope, involving too big a bite at one time. Woodruff has written the West Texas chamber—excerpts: "I have been interested in this program for a long time and it is the most important thing that could be done in Texas the next few years. I shall willingly do all I can to advance your program. My congratulations to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce upon this constructive undertaking."

The current bill recognizes the problem and danger of biting off too much at one time. The WTCC plan has been restricted to fiscal reorganization and budgetary control of state receipts and disbursements, not dealing with any questions as to the services of state government or as to revenues and taxation. The objective sought, said WTCC President J. S. Birdwell, "is solely that of securing better management over the services of government as now authorized and of performing these services with minimum of waste and duplication and maximum of good business management."

Machines Protect America

Machines play the leading role in modern defense. Shown above are machines for soil defense and national defense. The cannon is one of a number of U. S. guns capable of long-range destruction. The earth-moving equipment at top is of a type used by many farmers in building dams and reservoirs. In 1939 farmers moved more than 11 million cubic yards of earth in performing this conservation practice, equivalent to the volume of material going into Columbia river's huge Grand Coulee dam.

DOES FORD PAY GOOD WAGES?

HERE ARE SOME FACTS ABOUT Ford Labor. During the year ended November 30th, 1940, the Ford Payroll throughout the United States averaged 113,628 hourly wage earners, not including office employees, students, or executives. They were paid $185,105,639.12. On this basis, the average annual wage was $1,629.05.

According to the latest available government figures, the annual average wage of all workers in employment covered by old age insurance law was $841.00.

If the 45,000,000 workers of this country received the same average wage as Ford employees, they would have had additional wages of more than $35,000,000,000, thus increasing the national income about 50%. Think what such an increase would mean to the workers of this country and to the American farmer, whose prices are based on the national income.

Wage scales in the Ford Rouge plants are divided into three classifications:

Unskilled . . .
Minimum hiring wage . 75c per hour
Semi-skilled . . .
Minimum hiring wage . 80c per hour
Skilled . . .
Minimum hiring wage . 90c per hour
Higher wages are in consideration of ability and years of service.

Minimum wage scales for unskilled labor at the Rouge plant are the highest in the industry. Top wages for skilled labor compare favorably with, or are higher than, wages in other automobile plants.

Now some facts on Ford labor conditions: Not only are sanitation and other health conditions the best in the industry, but Ford also leads in safety devices for the protection of employees. Proof of this is found in the following comparison of compensation insurance costs:

The national average rate in automotive manufacturing plants as computed by the National Association of Underwriters is in excess of $1.50 premium on each $100 payroll. The Ford cost of workmen's compensation is less than 50c.

This indicates that the chance of injury in a Ford plant is much less than in the average automobile plant.

The Ford Motor Company has no age limit for labor, and in fact deliberately attempts to keep older workers working. The average age of Ford workers at the Rouge and nearby plants is 38.7.

A recent check-up shows that nearly one-half the workers at these Ford plants were 40 or over, falling into these age groups:

25,819	between 40 and 50
14,731	between 50 and 60
3,377	between 60 and 70
417	between 70 and 80
12	between 80 and 90

In addition to the so-called regular employees, the Ford Motor Company has hired, and now has on the payroll, at the same regular hourly wage, thousands of workers who are blind, crippled or otherwise incapacitated for normal productive work. They are not selected for their ability to build cars or to maintain the plant. They are on the payroll because of Henry Ford's belief that the responsibility of a large company to labor goes beyond the point at which the unfortunate worker can no longer produce profitably.

The above are facts. They are open to anyone who really wants to deal in facts. Anyone who wants to get a job . . . buy a car . . . or place a national defense contract on the basis of fair labor treatment must place Ford at the top of his eligible list.

Influenza And Pneumonia Cases Show Increase

Austin.—While influenza is prevalent, the citizens of Texas are warned that they should not be in too big a hurry to return to their work following a siege of this disease. Influenza of itself is seldom fatal, but complications, principally pneumonia, are the cause of death, asserts Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The number of cases of pneumonia reported last week was four times the usual incidence at this season of the year. The increase corresponds almost directly with the amount of influenza reported.

The termination of the acute symptoms of influenza does not indicate a complete recovery. Many persons believe this to be true and return to their daily routine, only to suffer a relapse. Others plod along in a weakened state, harbor a sub-acute cold, and by continuing to lower their resistance, invite prolonged trouble.

Past experiences indicate that the longer an epidemic persists, the more severe it becomes. The possibility of complications increases; therefore, early medical care in any suspected case of influenza is very important. Success in handling depends on early recognition, and its onset may be unrecognized by the patient. In general a sharp pain in the chest on breathing and coughing may mean that pneumonia has developed.

Proper medical care during attacks of influenza will prevent persons returning to work until it is safe to do so, and thus lessen the chances of having pneumonia.

Let's Cook Something

Do you remember how good the doughnuts smelled and tasted when you were a child hanging around the kitchen stove watching the delicious circles turn gold and brown? Doughnuts are still popular and quite wholesome if properly fried. Try one of these recipes and taste for yourself.

Use any fat that you like and a fat thermometer to determine the temperature is a big help for it is most important to have the fat very hot (but not hot enough to burn), and if the fat is not hot enough, the doughnuts will be soaked with grease. The temperature should range from 370 to 395.

Select a medium-sized deep-fat kettle which should be a little more than half full when the fat is melted. Just after the fat has melted add 1 tablespoon of vinegar, covering quickly so it will not bubble over. This will prevent the doughnuts from being greasy.

Potato doughnuts are an old favorite and this recipe used by Mrs. Lawrence Johnson of Summerfield for many years, is especially good.

POTATO DOUGHNUTS

- 1 cup mashed potatoes
- 1 tablespoon melted butter
- 2 eggs
- 2½ cups flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- ½ cup sweet milk
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream the butter and the sugar, add the well beaten eggs, nutmeg and vanilla. Add the potatoes and blend thoroughly. Add the flour, to which has been added the baking powder, alternately with the milk. Turn out on floured board and roll 1-2 inch thick. Cut with doughnut cutter and fry in deep fat 370 degrees F. (or very hot) until golden brown and done, turning once. Drain the doughnuts on absorbent paper and before entirely cold roll in granulated sugar.

Mrs. D. L. McDonald, formerly of Hereford, learned to cook from a German mother, and her pet recipes are the never-fail kind. Here is her doughnut recipe:

DOUGHNUTS

- 1 cup sugar
- butter size of an egg
- 1 cup sweet milk
- 3 eggs beaten separately
- 1 level teaspoon baking powder to each cup of flour used. (It will take about 5 cups including the amount left over to use in rolling the dough).
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- pinch of salt
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg

Cream the sugar and butter, add well beaten yolks of eggs, salt, vanilla and nutmeg. Now begin to use the flour, remembering to put 1 level teaspoon baking powder to each cup, alternating 3 cups of the flour mixture with the milk. Add stiffly beaten egg whites and fold in the remaining flour and baking powder leaving out about half a cup to use in rolling out the doughnuts. Proceed to fry the doughnuts in the same manner as described above.

Some people put a few cloves in the grease when frying the doughnuts. It makes them a little different but not any better.

TEXAS OUT-O-DOORS

PUBLIC SHOWING INTEREST

The year 1940 was marked by vastly increased co-operation and interest by the public in the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission's efforts to conserve wildlife of the state, the executive secretary of the Department said today in Austin.

"A better understanding of the aims of the Game Commission has brought about co-operation from persons in all walks of life," the executive secretary said. "It was only a few years ago that most persons turned a cold shoulder to all efforts of conservation groups to save the natural resources of the country. However, as the public begins to realize the need for saving the soil, forests and game and fish the co-operation has increased. It grew by leaps and bounds during 1940.

"Real sportsmanship has increased, surveys by our fish and game wardens and biologists disclose. The tendency to observe game and fish laws is increasing as sportsmen realize the need for such measures to protect our wildlife.

"Each month of 1940 found more schools falling step with the march of conservation forces. Whole country school systems are now teaching conservation and the Game Department is co-operating to the fullest extent of its limited funds. Civic clubs are growing more conservation minded, as is attested by the increasing demands upon the Department for speakers well versed in wildlife and the conservation methods needed to increase our supply of fish and game."

AND IT WASN'T A SARDINE
F. T. Head, Arkansas Pass boat builder went duck hunting recently but brought home a fish in a bottle! The fish went to its doom by attempting to ape sardines.

Mr. Head was wading shallow water on the Gulf coast when he noticed a commotion ahead of him. He found an eight-inch mullet had his head stuck in an empty mustard jar. Instead of backing out, the mullet tried to swim forward, pushing the mustard bottle in circles and scooping out a shallow hole in the bottom of the bay. Head, according to the Arkansas Pass Progress, opines the fish was either a mustard lover or its reverse gear was jammed.

Beware of Tularemia

Texas hunters were warned today to use extreme care in handling wild rabbits to avoid the dreaded disease tularemia, sometimes called rabbit fever. Hunters are urged to avoid cleaning rabbits when they have cuts, sores or scratches on their hands. Tularemia is to be found in the blood of rabbits and often times in squirrels. When the blood comes in contact with an opening on the human hand then there is frequently a transmission of the disease.

The greatest danger lies in skinning of the rabbits, the executive secretary said. Cooking well will kill the germs and if an infected rabbit escapes the hunters notice in handling no ill effects will be experienced from eating it, provided the meat is well cooked, i. e., until there are no pink or rare portions remaining even close to the bones.

A rabbit which gets up slowly in front of the hunter or dog is probably infected with tularemia. If an animal seems light it is probably well to discard it. Tiny white spots on the liver is an indication to rabbit has the disease.

However, by being careful in handling rabbits (use rubber gloves if possible) and by cooking the meat well, hunters and housewives need not fear tularemia.

GOBBLER DRIFTED 35 MILES

Another instance of wild turkeys drifting a considerable distance has been found by the State Game Department. A gobbler trapped in the Hill County last spring and released near Kerrville in April, was shot by Dr. Dalton Richardson of Austin near the close of the season on a ranch approximately 35 miles from where the gobbler has been banded and released nine months previously.

Turkeys will drift in search of food and cover if there is not sufficient of one or both on the area they inhabit.

THIS STORY TOPS 'EM ALL

A recent report in this column of a grandfather and grandson shooting so simultaneously that neither knew the other had flier brought an even better story from E. M. (Ted) Dealey, president of the Dallas Morning News. Whereas grandpa hit and grandson missed, Dealey and a hunting partner not only shot simultaneously, but each hit the same javelina at exactly the same spot. Best of all, it was getting along toward dark and was so dusky that it made for extremely hard shooting.

Mr. Dealey's story, which should top all yarns of its kind: "Recently we were on the way back to our car at about dusk when two javelinas jumped out of a live oak thicket, one of those fellows, a big boar which we estimated weighed 75 pounds, stopped in a little grassy gade about 15 yards the other side of the live oaks. I was ahead of my hunting partners, Donald Bennet and Raymond Foy, by about 25 yards.

"When the javelina stepped out into the grassy glade Bennet and I fired simultaneously. I didn't know he had shot and he didn't know I had fired. Each of us thought we had killed the boar. When we got him to camp and the Mexicans started skinning him out, we found there was only one bullet hole in his skin where the bullets had gone in. However, there were two bullet holes right through the carcass, approximately a half inch apart. You could have covered both of them with a silver dollar."

That from hunters who were standing 25 yards apart and shooting in near dusk.

Morris Easley, Mrs. Easley's son, will graduate from the high school department of the Academy this year.

Businesswomen Hear Talks On "Lasting Peace"

"How Shall America Contribute to a Lasting Peace" was the subject upon which three speakers addressed the Business and Professional Women's Club Monday evening at the court house. John Olson discussed the subject from an economic standpoint and G. M. Hudson spoke on the contributions that America has already made towards peace in the present war. Rev. H. M. Redford outlined causes of the war in Europe and explained America's part in the war and her attitude towards the nations at war. A short discussion led by the speakers was conducted after the program. The meeting was open to the

This proposed water bill is everyone in a quandary. A meeting has been called for 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, January 24, and efforts are being made to secure A. B. Tarwater of Plainview and D. L. McDonald of Amarillo and Hereford as speakers. It is imperative that every person interested in irrigation should attend this meeting and get an idea of the situation.

Some of the sponsors and promoters of the bill even figure that irrigation on the High Plains is going to cut off the water supply around Austin and other points. A bill might even be passed levying a tax on all water used for irrigation. You simply can't tell what a bunch of legislators are liable to do. Maybe you favor state control of irrigation water, in which event you should certainly be on hand to help shape the recommendations. Maybe you are against state control, in which event you could also be on hand. The object is that we should make some commendations and not leave it to those who in all probability have never in their lives seen the handling of the bill. When you are all of the business discussed, you'll get worked up just like the group who attended a recent meeting in Plainview. Be now to attend the Jan. 24th meeting. Come on out and express your views. Representation is the chief purpose of the caucus.

I have about decided the best way to write a column is to go home and forget about it. After leaving the Bull column out of the paper last week, it got more comment than in recent months. Mrs. Bentine came all the way from Vega to fuss about its absence.

Tom Alderson takes the "Dry Goods Journal," a national publication in which Arthur I. Boreman writes a collection of "inside dope." A notation points out that this gossip is gathered from "many, varied, reliable, non-political sources," and parts the column are indeed interesting. He says, in part: "...majority opinion expects to enter the war by mid-year, probable defeat of Hitler, collapse of Italy, probably attempt to invade England within four weeks.

...that minority opinion (and, much more often) expects invasion attempt in January or February, severe losses in England, possible elimination of Hitler, by all, probable temporary armistice within 90 days and our entry into the war in the Spring of 1941, but not before. This group expects a new, more violent leader to arise in Germany, and that by 1945 the seat of government in Great Britain will be in Canada and a three-way war between Fascists (including Germany, Asia (Russia and Japan) and the Democracies—the most devastating war in all history with final victory to the Democracies (United States and England) followed by reconstruction and many years of world peace and prosperity, beginning not later than 1950." He continues in another paragraph: "...that in Washington you no longer hear, 'If we enter the war—now it's always 'WHEN we enter the war.'" He also indicated tremendous raises in taxes, which are of course expected in the face of our huge spending program.

This viewpoint was decidedly interesting to me, probably because I had never contemplated the fall of Hitler except with collapse of the Nazi armed forces. However, when you stop to recall that Hitler has always led his people forward, not once in the face of defeat, it is entirely possible that one overwhelming defeat might see his downfall. Already, we understand that the people of Italy are turning with wrath against their leader, Mussolini. Certainly it didn't take long for Chamberlain's popularity to decline in England. Probably Hitler will go down faster than could any leader, once he is on the decline.

Anyway, it is always interesting to know what big business thinks about any war. Mr. Boreman also urges every merchant to lay away a great stock of merchandise as possible in view of future delays and scarcity as a result of a gigantic defense program of America. Few of us realize just how tremendous is the present program. Figures on the amounts being spent are almost incomprehensible. B. C. Forbes, editor of Nation's Business, points out that the spending program for the year, starting July 1 totals approximately $17,500,000,000—17,500 millions of dollars—and adds that when we put in a few dabs for Greece and China that the amount will likely be increased to $20,000,000,000. Mr. Forbes continues by breaking this amount down so that it may be better comprehended, he says: "To spend $20,000,000,000 in one year would mean spending almost: $55,000,000 every day, or $2,285,000 every hour or $38,000 every minute, or $635 every second.

With things like this in mind, it is easy to see why there is real danger of scarcity in all commodities. It is also likely that we can anticipate higher prices as the program continues, but we can all revel in the fact that the government is determined that no millionaires will be made during the present conflict.

Rev. H. M. Redford is no little upset over the fact that some boys have broken several panes from the windows of the First Christian Church. He is sure that the offenders just haven't stopped to think of the tremendous cost of tinted glass, and he hopes that the offense will be discontinued without further ado.

Learn the Facts

(Note: The following material is presented by the Hereford Division of the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer, Inc.)

Nearly all of us have at one time or another done a bit of worrying. We've worried whether our son's cold would make him lose a week from school, we've worried whether we could afford the coat we needed, we've worried whether our husband's employer would really like roast beef for dinner. In short, worry is common to all men and women.

The worries may be trivial and relatively unimportant matters, or they may concern the major adventures of living, the great dramas of birth and work and marriage and death. Sometimes we talk casually, light-hearted about our worries and at other times we keep them locked up in our minds.

It is unfortunately a fact that the serious worries, the worries about which we most need advice are usually the ones we keep to ourselves. One of us is that a hidden worry tends to grow and assume an exaggerated importance; worries flourish in the dark, secret passages of our brain. Worries which we share with our family, our religious advisor, or our physician at once lose their compelling and desperate quality.

One of our dearest passions is health. Any threat to it, imagined or real, causes worry. Too often we ignore this threat and go quietly about our daily lives. As we smile and chat with friends, there is ever present a fear; time passes and that fear becomes unreasonable, finally it is the most important force in our existence.

I am speaking to you today on behalf of an organization which asks that you bring your worries out into the open. The organization is the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer. Its purpose is expressed in the slogan, "Early Cancer is Curable. Fight It with Knowledge."

We want you to know that cancer is curable, if treated in time; we want you to realize that throughout the nation are competent physicians, equip-ed and ready to diagnose your condition and, if it is cancer, to give the treatment that is necessary. We want to replace fear with hope.

One important function of the Women's Field Army is to serve as an Information Bureau that will answer questions calmly and sensibly. Each year thousands of worried, frightened men and women write for advice to the Field Army and its parent, The American Society for the Control of Cancer. Here are typical questions:

"My father had cancer--will it automatically develop it?"
"An aunt of ours is suffering from cancer. Is it safe for the children to visit her?"
"Is it dangerous to use aluminum cooking vessels?"

The answers to these questions are simple. The American Society for the Control of Cancer declares that the man whose father had cancer need not fear, he will automatically develop it that he will automatically develop the disease. According to all surveys, he is no more likely to have cancer than a person in whose family the disease has not occurred. The answer to the second question is: the children may visit their aunt who is ill--cancer is not contagious. Finally, it is safe to use aluminum cooking vessels; they do not cause or contribute to the cause of cancer.

You see, here were three worried people. Fortunately they shared their worries instead of hiding them and allowing them to grow into frightening boogie men. May I urge all of you to inform yourself about cancer. Learning the facts on this subject is the best way to combat fear and worry.

You may secure more information and free booklets from the headquarters of the Texas Division of the Women's Field Army at Brownsville or from the American Society for the Control of Cancer, 350 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y.

Two proposed bills for water control have already been drawn up and will be presented to the state legislature at the session which opened Tuesday of this week. The particular one under discussion is based on New Mexico laws and would require permits to operate a well, permits to drill a well, would require a tax on irrigation farmers to pay for administration of the bill and in all likelihood would place a limit on amount of water each farmer could pump. It might even be so drastic as to forbid further drilling of irrigation wells.

duties, but also may be inconvenient and harmful to the patients.

Visiting hours are from 10 to 11 a. m. and from 3 to 5 p. m. Miss Schumann said that regular care of the patients--took at least until 9 o'clock each morning and that most patients needed sleep after noon.

Miss Schumann asked that unnecessary telephone calls, especially during emergencies, such as accidents, not be made, and also requested that persons not call when they see a large number of cars around the hospital and want to know what is happening. In cases of accidents or other emergencies, every nurse may be required for duty and having to answer the telephone could hamper treatment of the patients.

"We will be most grateful for the cooperation of the public in helping observe these rules and regulations," Miss Schumann concluded.

Discussions on proposed limitations have been carried in The Brand for the past three weeks and practically all persons in this area are familiar with the situation. In Other Camps

1. Thou shalt not kill--not even if a freshman sticks thee with pins, puts gum in thy hair and shoots thee with paper wads.
 2. Thou shalt not steal, creep or sneak out of classes though the opportunity offered be ever so good.
 3. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's pencils or his geometry grade.
 4. Honor thy teachers and heap coals of fire on his head by turning the right cheek if he slapped the left one and vice versa.
 5. Love thy neighbor but in some degree of quietness and discretion else thee lose thy seat in the study hall.
 6. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy class mates, may be. Neither shall thou be the hearer of false alarm.
 7. Thou shalt not use the name of thy mother in vain, on excuses for absence or report cards bearing embarrassing grades.
 8. Remember the Sabbath and keep it holy--let thought of study enter thy head.
 9. Thou shalt not adulterate thy proof of thy ignorance on test papers with proof of any one else's ignorance.
 10. Ye shall have no god before your note book on recitation days in journalism; the pages must be completely visible. A god before it would ruin thy chance of a grade.

After looking back on the accomplishments of 1940, the girls made plans for greater accomplishments in the new year, 1941. The meeting was closed with Mrs. Clark reading a New Year Prayer by Hovergal. Misses Jessie, Jean, and Jewel Clark, Pearl Pracher, Mary Lookingbill and Mrs. Clark attended the meeting.

Several from this community plan to attend the associational Training Union Conference in the Baptist Church at Hereford Monday afternoon and evening.

Silkwood, B. Silkwood, Emma J. Bogardus, Ray R. Bogardus, Albert H. Conaway, R. W. Frick, and Blanche Aylor, and the unknown heirs and legal representatives of either of them, who may be dead; and the Colorado, Hereford and Gulf Railroad Company, a defunct corporation, and the Southern Rock Island Plow Company, a defunct corporation, and the unknown stockholders of said defunct corporations, and The Massey-Harris Company, a corporation, and J. M. Murchison are defendants, and said petition alleging in substance that plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of the following described lands situated in Deaf Smith County, Texas, to-wit: All of Sections, numbers, 75, 85, 95, and 96, in block K-4, and all of sections 5 and 6, in Block K-7 and that he acquired and perfected his title thereto as to and against each and all of the defendants under the ten year statute of limitation and that he is now in possession thereof, and that he has had and held the continuous, peaceable, and adverse possession of said lands, cultivating, using and enjoying the same since July 29th, 1919, down to the present time, during which time said lands have been inclosed with fences, and at no time was there as much as 5000 acres embraced in one enclosure, and that no suit has been filed by the defendants or either of them against plaintiff questioning his right to the possession of said land.

That on June 26th, 1908, while J. D. Thompson was the owner of said lands, he gave the defendant, Colorado, Hereford and Gulf Railroad Company a railroad right-of-way deed across said sections 5 and 6, which is of record in book 3, at page 253, deed records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, 50 feet on each side of a center line to be thereafter located by a surveyor, which said deed provided that unless said right-of-way was located, a railroad bed graded and used, within 12 months, from June 26th, 1908, the said lands would revert back to and vest in grantor, and on March 8th, 1909, said Thompson conveyed all of each of said sections of land by deed recorded in book 26, at page 278, deed records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, to J. W. Aylor, now deceased, through and under whom plaintiff's title derived, and the said railroad company did not so use said right-of-way, but has long since abandoned the same.

That on June 15th, 1910, J. W. Aylor, who was then the owner of said six sections of land, executed to Mary L. Thompson a note for $25,000.00 of said date, due on or before March 8th, 1914, and at said time executed a deed of trust to J. L. Fuqua, as trustee, on said sections 96 and 6 which is recorded in book 16, at page 178 deed of trust records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, and on said date, executed to

J. D. Thompson 16 notes, all dated June 15th, 1910, for $1660.55 each, all due March 8th, 1914, and on said date executed and delivered to said Fuqua, as trustee, his 16 deeds of trust, each to secure one of the said $1660.55 notes, on portion of said sections 75, 95, 85, and 5, and that said deeds of trust are each of record in the deed of trust records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, in book 16 at pages 179, 191 to 198, both inclusive, and pages 191 to 198, both inclusive.

That thereafter all of said notes, together with the deed of trust liens securing them, were sold, assigned and transferred to the defendant, W. T. Kemper, and although they have all been paid, the said liens securing them have not been released, and constitute clouds on plaintiff's title, and that they are barred by both the four and ten year statute of limitation.

That the said Southern Rock Island Plow Company recovered judgement against W. S. Day for the sum of $1577.43, with interest thereon and cost of suit, and caused the same to be abstracted and filed and recorded, on January 17th, 1932, in the judgement records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, in book 3, at page 35, and the said defendant and stockholders are asserting and claiming that it fixes a lien on said sections 95 and 96, and clouds plaintiff's title, thereby, in that the said Day did not own any right, title, interest or estate in and to said lands, up on which a judgement lien could be affixed, and if it did, both the three and four year statutes of limitation has barred it.

Plaintiff seeks judgement against the above named defendants divesting them of all right, title, interest and estate in and to said six sections of land, and vesting said title and quieting the same in plaintiff; and for cancellation and annulment of said deeds of trust and record thereof and said right-of-way deed, and record thereof, and said abstract of judgment, and record thereof and removing the same as clouds on plaintiff's title to said land.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND SEAL OF SAID COURT, at Office in the City of Hereford, this the 30 day of December, 1940.

R. L. THOMPSON, Clerk of the District Court of Deaf Smith County, Texas.
By E. Womble, Deputy.

YOUR TELEPHONE STILL PIONEERS

AMERICA now has... twice as many telephones as in 1920... twice as many calls... faster, more dependable service

The past 20 years in telephone history are marked by constant progress. Bell System workers... 300,000 strong... still pioneer. Today, America has more than twice as many Bell telephones as 20 years ago. More than twice as many calls flash through the lines each day. Your service now is faster, clearer, more dependable. In the territory this company serves, for example, your local calls go through in only three-fourths the time it took just two decades ago... long distance calls in one-seventh the time. Coast-to-coast calls often are connected in one-twentieth the time and cost one-fifth as much. Today, America's telephone system is better armed to meet the fury of disasters. Storms that once silenced hundreds of telephones now disrupt service only slightly... and often not at all. Damage from major catastrophes is repaired in hours and days... instead of weeks and months. Today, America's telephone force is better than ever able to furnish fast, accurate, and dependable telephone service to the nation.
