FIRE INSPECTOR BEN F. SMITH HERE MONDAY

He Reports Hereford as Having Improved One Hundred Per Cent in Past Year

Deputy Fire Marshal Ben F. Smith, of the Lockney Beacon, was making his regular business rounds in Hereford Monday. Mr. Smith had many good things to say about Hereford, and its sure enough transformation since his last visit here one year ago. He commended very highly, the cooperative work of the mayor, the business men, the Civic Club and the citizens generally, that has brought about the very desirable changes so manifest all over the city. In the business district, only one trash pile was reported and the general condition is improved, said Mr. Smith, 100 per cent.

Mr. Smith made the Brand office a pleasant fraternal call while in the city.

Death of Mrs. Norvell

Friends who for weeks have been hoping for an improvement in the condition of Mrs. W. D. Norvell, were grieved Thursday to learn that this brave and patient sufferer had passed away.

Mrs. Norvell has been an invalid for more than a year, the family moving here from Memphis in the hope of benefiting her health. After coming here she became some better and for a time was able to be up and about the house. For several weeks, however, she has been confined to her bed, apparently growing worse, so that her friends were apprehensive that the end was near. During her illness she has been at the home of her father, Mr. J. D. Curtisinger, where her death occurred.

Mrs. Norvell, who was formerly Miss Emma Curtisinger, was raised in Hereford and spent the greater part of her life here. She moved with her father's family to Memphis several years ago and while living there was married to Mr. W. D. Norvell, who, with his six-months old baby daughter, survives her. She was a member of the Baptist Church and a practical every-day Christian. A distinctly home-loving woman, her family and close friends appreciated her true worth, best.

Funeral services were conducted on Friday at the First Baptist church, Rev. J. E. McClurkin officiating, and interment was made in the city cemetery.

The little babe left so early without a mother's care, the sorrowing husband and other relatives have the sympathy of all.

Cost of Paper Led to Search for Wood

Madison, Wis.—Owing to the growing scarcity in Wisconsin of wood suitable for making paper pulp, the Forest Products Laboratory at Madison, Wis., has just completed a study into the methods of barking, chipping, screening and baling of chips. Laboratory tests show that certain western woods are admirably adapted for the manufacture into pulp, and negotiations are now under way between paper companies in Wisconsin and western railroads with a view to securing freight rates on trainload shipments of chips to Wisconsin.

It is estimated that some of these western woods can be cut into chips which, when dried and baled, can be delivered to the mills in Wisconsin at a very small advance over the cost of chips made from local timbers. Since there is a market for more than 200,000 cords of wood annually in Wisconsin, an attempt to utilize western species appears worthy of consideration in order to hold the supply of wood from our American paper mills on American soil.—Christian Science Monitor.

New Machine

The Hereford Bakery has installed a fine new automatic corn popper and peanut roaster and has been kept busy serving samples of the palatable product of this up-to-date machine, to the many patrons of this popular confectionery.

Married

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ogle arrived yesterday from Cordell, Okla., where they were recently married. The bride was formerly Miss Fannie Simpson, of the Farrott community. She and her mother had been visiting at Cordell some time.

Mrs. P. Estes returned to her home at Waxahachie, Wednesday evening, after a pleasant visit at the home of her brother, Mr. J. H. Copeland.

Ozark Trails Convention

Oklahoma City, Nov. 12—Advocates of good roads are confidently expecting the Ozark Trails Convention which meets in this city November 21-22 to inaugurate a period of good road building in Oklahoma that will eventually place this state in the list of those known as good roads states. Wherever these conventions have been held a desire for better roads has followed—a desire that has been backed up by action.

In the twenty-seven years of its existence, the people of this state have been so busy establishing themselves that state development, including road building, has been left largely to take care of itself. From following Indian trails and cow paths in the early days to the time when farmers of the new state laid out and made possible roads on section lines, this important branch of state building was pretty much a hazardous business. During the last few years, many sections of the state have begun to follow systematic methods in their road building, but not until automobile travel became such a factor in business of the state and communities has real road building taken on a state-wide significance.

At this time three routes from north-east to southwest paralleling each other, are in competition in an effort to secure the official mark of the Ozark Trail which will be a link in a trans-continental high way. This mark is keenly sought for the heavy automobile travel and its consequent prosperous results. Each of these three routes are scenes of activity, and it is said by those in position to know, that more than 1000 miles of very excellent roadway is bound to be the result. The routes that lose the official mark will win good roads. Much of the work on the roads between Oklahoma City and Amarillo is completed and ready for the inspectors. Before June, however, when the inspectors go over these routes, the enterprising road builders, assert, these roads will each be boulevards.

Church Directory

The First Baptist Church has just issued a neat directory, giving a list of its officers, and members, its church covenant and articles of faith. It is a most attractive booklet and will doubtless, serve well, the purpose for which it is intended, that of increasing the membership in the work of the church and in each other to the end that the Master's work may grow and bring forth fruit for the kingdom.

Move To Hereford

Mr. and Mrs. John Estes and two daughters have moved here from Cress. They have purchased the J. I. Walker property where they are now located. Mr. and Mrs. Estes are the parents of Mrs. Carl Gilliland and of Clifford Estes of the law firm of Gilliland & Estes.

Ozark Trail

The Ozark Trail is one of the things that Hereford people should spare no effort in securing. An organization has been effected to push the matter and all seem determined to do what is necessary.

This Trail will be the High Way for much of the travel from the north-east toward the south and west. It will take many people through this section and be the means of advertising the country as nothing will. Let all hands push.

Near Zero Weather

Following a slight snow of Sunday night, the mercury slipped down to a point Monday night as low as any point reached last winter. The temperature was as low as two degrees above zero and some reports gave zero weather. However, bright sunshine followed and the Panhandle, as usual, is basking in fine weather.

Young Man Injured

Dee Crawford met with what might easily have been a fatal accident on Thursday while working on the new elevator building. A heavy piece of timber fell, striking him on the head, rendering him unconscious and inflicting some severe scalp wounds. At present the young man is doing well, but will be unable to work for two weeks or longer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnett and daughter, Gladys, returned Wednesday from Roswell, where they went with the families of J. W. Barnett and B. T. Fancis, a short time ago. They helped these relatives, v-v-w-z 207td-foes, ed to get these relatives settled in their new home and report them well pleased with Roswell and the outlook for the future.

Kansas City, Missouri

Boys, the safest, surest place in all this world, is home. There, the love that is akin to that of God Himself, is centered in you and in the worthy manhood toward which it directs you. The alluring life of big things whose call is so persistent and for whose opening you wait with such impatience, will be bigger, better, truer for every hour of home love and care and guidance it receives.

Don't, as you value your future happiness and usefulness, value highly this greatest blessing which can come into your young life—the environment of a Christian home. See in it opportunity for preparation to fill worthily that place of honor and usefulness to which you aspire. The restraints of the home are but cords of love which, if not broken will keep your bark anchored in a safe and sure haven.

New Cashier at Western

The Western National Bank of this city, has elected to the office of cashier of that well-known institution, Mr. C. C. Chenoweth of Amarillo, who assumed his duties on the 10th inst. Mr. Chenoweth, while a new man in this particular bank, is by no means new to the banking business nor to the banking interests of President G. A. F. Parker. Years ago, when Mr. Parker and others organized the National Bank of Commerce at Amarillo, Mr. Chenoweth was retained as cashier. Later, after having sold the business of that institution and having organized the Guaranty State Bank at Amarillo, Mr. Parker, again secured the services of Mr. Chenoweth. His coming here is a direct recognition of his efficiency, proven during these years of faithful, capable service, and the bank feels that in its new cashier, it is materially strengthened and that its opportunities for the best service to its patrons have been augmented in no small degree.

Mr. Chenoweth is a man of pleasant address, affable, and courteous, and will doubtless win new friends for the Western National Bank. His family, consisting of a wife and two children, will arrive shortly to become permanent residents of Hereford.

A Sad Accident

The children of Ben Smith, who live between this place and Silverton, were returning from the Rock Creek school Monday morning, when a sad and terrible accident occurred. The little nine-year-old boy, Holland, was sitting in the back part of the truck with his lower limbs hanging out. By some means his foot was caught in the wheel, and he was pulled out of the back and whirled around the wheel three times before the horses could be stopped. He was immediately taken to the house of Bud Pyatt, the nearest neighbor, where medical aid was at once summoned.

His leg was amputated and every thing possible was done for his relief, but the end was near. The little fellow only lived a few hours. He was buried in the Silverton cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Smith at this place extend to them their deepest sympathy in this sad hour. Tulsa Herald.

The Band

Notwithstanding the cold weather, and the fact that the Civic Club is, at present, unable to further finance the organization, Director West is still meeting regularly with this band boys for practice. Some new music is being prepared and plans for a band concert, interspersed with other good features, are being effected. People have learned something of what a good band is worth to Hereford and citizens generally are anxious to cooperate for its support. It is needless to say the concert will be well patronized.

New Family in Hereford

Frank Burleson, of Sapulpa, Okla., joined his family here Sunday and will be located here permanently. He is an all-around automobile man and mechanic and will be engaged in that business in Hereford.

Friena News

Mr. and Mrs. Davis, of Oklahoma, are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. G. L. Livings and family, this week.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational Church, held a chicken dinner and bazaar in the dining room of the church on election day. The modest little sum of $58 was netted as a result of their efforts.

Several car loads of cake were unloaded here last week by the various cattle owners of this locality. The Santa Fe Grain Co. also received several loads of cake and salt.

J. C. Wain spent a part of last week in Friena assisting in the drilling of the large well being sunk for the Texaco, Tire & Garage Co.

Several parties from Iowa, are visiting Friena this week, they being men who own land in this locality and are here looking after their interests. They express themselves as well pleased with the country and its prospects.

The Boys' and Girls' basket ball teams of the Friena school won the laurels from the boys and girls of Bovina school in two well played and hotly contested games played here on the 4th inst. A return game is scheduled for Bovina next Saturday.

A contract has been let to a Mr. Simmons, of Farwell, for the placing of new gutters on the school building and adding an extension to the chimneys; they being at present so short as to cause the smoke to enter the rooms at times. The gutters, now on the building has been inadequate for carrying off the water during heavy rains, thus allowing it to run down the sides of the building, causing damage to the foundation.

Our Christian Endeavor will hold a social in the church dining room Friday night to which every body is invited. Debating, guessing contests and refreshments will furnish the entertainment for the evening.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church have announced a turkey dinner at the Friena Hotel on Thanksgiving Day, to which all are invited.

The Santa Fe Grain Co. is preparing to begin excavating for a basement under the new warehouse which they contemplate placing on their property near the elevator in the near future. This will be a very desirable addition to the town, as there is at present no place where any large quantity of fruits or vegetables can be stored safe from frost during the winter.

The counting of the votes here on the night of election revealed the fact that Max Brownlee had received one vote for County Attorney and J. W. White, one each for Justice of the Peace and Constable.

The concert given by the choir of the Congregational church last Saturday night was well attended, considering the severity of the weather, and all present express themselves as well pleased with the entire program. The piano solo rendered by Mrs. Reeves

Wyatt To Hereford

Methodism and all other isms in Hereford have been eagerly expectant since Sunday, awaiting the news from the Annual Conference which was convened at Stamford, and whose appointments were announced Sunday night.

The fact that a change in the local pastorate was inevitable, gave a double interest to the conference reports as all were eager to know to what church Rev. Henson should be assigned, as well as to whom the work here should be given.

The appointment of Rev. Geo. B. Wyatt, to this charge is received with general expressions of approval. He is said to be one of the very strong preachers of the conference and a most excellent pastor. He comes here from Stamford.

Rev. Henson has been assigned to Memphis. He has been here four years, and is leaving his Church in good condition spiritually and financially. During his pastorate, the young people of the church have been reached as never before and the Epworth League is one of the strongest, if not the very strongest young people's society in town. Mr. and Mrs. Henson will leave many warm friends in Hereford who will wish them abundant success in their new field.

Rev. E. E. Robinson remains as presiding elder of the Amarillo district. F. M. Neat is also retained as conference evangelist.

Light Vote Here

In the election last week Wilson received 356 votes in this county and Hughes 77, with a few for the prohibition candidate.

The vote on governor was Ferguson 318, Creager 84.

The highest vote for any candidate was 428, Mr. Wyatt for Treasurer and Mr. Miller for Assessor each received this number.

School Dismissed

The high school and seventh grade are taking an enforced vacation this week while the new heating plant is being adjusted.

The school board has marshalled every agency at its command to rush the work so that the school may suffer as little interruption as possible.

Those familiar with the heating system used in the building are confident of its success and assure the patrons of the school that a proper adjustment is all that is needed. While every one except the boys and girls regrets this unfortunate break in the school work the only thing to be done now is to wait patiently and let the work be done thoroughly, so that no further delay of the kind will be necessary.

We wish to announce the election of a new Cashier—Mr. C. C. Chenoweth—an experienced banker, formerly of our suburban town of Amarillo.

Mr. Chenoweth is a fine looking man—come in and get acquainted.

Makes Good Raising Hogs

A. G. Kenyon is the proprietor of the irrigated farm formerly owned by Frank Wilson and Mr. Love, and it joins the townsites on the east. It is a three hundred and twenty acre tract, and is one of the most attractive places in the shallow water belt. He has eighty acres in alfalfa, and some two hundred acres in forage crops, corn, kafir and maize. In March, 1915 he bought twenty head of brood sows, Durocs and Hampshires, from this start he has produced hogs as follows: Has shipped eighty-six, has sold to local buyers, seven, and will ship Friday of this week ninety-nine head. Thus far he has received $1055.00 net for his increase and will have fifty-five left for December shipment. He paid for these brood sows $448.00. He has also, two registered boars, one of which weighs at nine months old, three hundred and fifty pounds, and has the measurements of a nine hundred pound hog at three years of age. Mr. Kenyon will dispose of all his Hampshires and in future specialize in Durocs. He will have sixteen Duroc sows left, thirteen of which are gilts and they will weigh two hundred and twenty-five pounds at this time. He says there is more and faster money in hogs than in anything he can produce. That he has never had a sick hog nor lost one since he came to the Portales Valley. Portales Valley News.

Government Will Auction Land

The Secretary of the Interior has authorized the sale at public auction at the United States Land Office at Las Cruces, New Mexico, on November 22, 1916, of the property known as "Ojo Caliente Reservation" situated in Socorro county, New Mexico. It comprises five sections of land on which were situated the buildings of the former Hot Springs reservation.

There are 3,200 acres to be sold, and the lands are reported to be valuable for grazing purposes. They contain about 20 springs, and there is considerable running water on the reservation. The city of Monticello claims certain rights by appropriations of the waters from the springs. The land is to be sold in one body to the highest bidder. He will be required to make a deposit at the time of sale equal to 20 per cent of the amount of his bid, and increase said deposit to 40 per cent within ten days thereafter, the balance to be paid in two equal annual installments.

Person desiring further information may secure the same by addressing the Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office, Las Cruces, or the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington.

$20,000 In Fifteen Years

J. W. Bragg sold his 300 acre farm, one mile north of Memphis Monday to Seth Thompson for $14,000. He gives possession the first of January. The buyer lives near Brice in this county, and is anxious to get close to a good school. Mr. Bragg has not yet decided where he will go but he will perhaps go west to Floyd or Motley county to look over the country. He came to Hall county just fifteen years ago from Denton county with $400, which was all he had in the world. Now he has his present crop and a goodly lot of stock around him, besides having educated his family. He will easily clear out from here with $20,000 in January. That is by no means had. One can say what they will about him, but they must all yield the palm that he is a good farmer.—Hall County Herald.

Jones County Ribbon Cane

J. T. Chittum had a sample of his ribbon cane on exhibition in Anson last Friday, which he had grown on his fine farm six miles south of town, and informed our representative that he would save most of this year's crop for planting another year. However, Mr. Chittum made up enough of the juice to prove that real ribbon cane, with the genuine flavor of real syrup could be successfully grown here, and invited our Rouser and family to come out and have a "bit" with him. The joints of the cane were not as long as those grown in Southeast Texas, but were very well matured and of the genuine reddish color.—Anson Western Enterprise.

The Plains' 1916 Thanksgiving

(Mildred J. Cheney in Southwest Plainsman.)

Paradoxical as it may seem, the year 1916 which has been one of the driest ever experienced in this section, has at the same time been one of the most prosperous. There is more money in our country than ever before and people from all points of the compass are coming here to see what foundation there is for all this hue and cry of prosperity in the Southwest.

That is all, we of the Plains, want them to do. Just come and convince themselves that the absurd tales concerning this region that pass current as facts in other states, are simply fabrications which are readily refuted by the actual conditions which may be seen everywhere.

Our list of blessings to acknowledge will be a long one this year, though along last July, many of the farmers were not expecting to have any Thanksgiving. To begin with, the wheat crop was cut very short by the lack of snow during the winter and rain in the spring. But what was harvested was of the finest quality ever raised in this country, much of it testing as high as 65 pounds. Then the price has gone up steadily ever since harvest, which has largely compensated for the loss in quantity. Many of the wheat fields were plowed up and planted to the sorghums and these doughty champions of drought-resistance, came out gloriously where not planted too late. With no rain in July, it was figured that even the kafir and maize was a "gone goshin" but—along came some fine rains in August that brought them out amazingly and not only assured the farmers plenty of feed but a surplus to sell. Here again, there was an advance in price, the brewers having discovered that kafir really made better alcohol than corn. In consequence, kafir and maize brought more than twice what it sold for a year ago.

Then there was the cotton crop. It was cut down by the dry weather but proved its value as a drought resistant crop, by waiting as patiently for rain as the sorghums do and when the rain did come the way that the bolls came out was nothing short of marvelous. And cotton is cotton when it brings 20 cents with seed at $40— and plenty of chance for its going higher.

Then there is the broomcorn raiser. Never before have the broomcorn producers received such prices for their product as they did this fall. This crop surprised many by the drought resistant qualities which it displayed, coming through the exceedingly dry season with a good yield of excellent quality brush.

The same is true of the bean crop in New Mexico. Though cut somewhat short by lack of moisture, it yielded much better than expected and has brought a good price while alfalfa is selling at twice what it brought a year ago.

Even the peanut farmer who has often been spoken of derisively as "small potatoes" has made a good thing out of his crop this season, goobers having advanced along with the other farm products.

The common Irish "spud" has sprouted wings at every eye and is soaring with the aristocracy of table delicacies. Even cabbages have gone sky-rocketing so that a regular boiled dinner is becoming a hazy remembrance except to the man on the farm who can—and does—produce these succulent vegetables on his own place.

Every town in this section is vying for more rent houses to take care of the many people who are coming in all the time and want to rent while they "look around" and every farm that is rented has a dozen possible tenants. Many more could be rented if they were provided with buildings and the tenants would be able to "try out" the country, if they so desired before purchasing. Many have done that in the past, struck a dry year and moved away only to come back and wish they had never left. There is something about the vast reaches of the Plains country that gets hold of a man and brings him back to it, if once he has experienced its influence.

There has been more building in both town and country, this year, than has ever been seen in a similar period in its previous history. Business buildings have multiplied in every town and residences have spread over the outlying suburbs and vacant lots. This work has given employment to an army of carpenters, many of whom are themselves new residents brought here by the demand for more workmen.

A large number of the Plains towns have invested in public improvements of various kinds: Electric light plants, water works, paving, sewers, school buildings, parks, and other enterprises calculated to make them better and pleasanter places to live.

So it will be with thankful hearts that the inhabitants of this splendid section of Uncle Sam's domain, will sit down to their Thanksgiving dinner. Even though the turkey may represent the outlay of considerably more coin than usual, the householder has received more than usual for what he had had to sell and that evens things up. We are not inclined to grumble about high prices if they are so distributed.

The Woman and the Hog
The relative value of a woman and a hog was illustrated in Wisconsin recently. A woman wrote to the governor that she had a big family to support and was suffering with tuberculosis and desired state aid. At about the same time a letter was received from a man who desired aid for a hog which showed symptoms of cholera. The governor sent word to the woman that no appropriation had been made for tuberculosis victims, and at the

Feeding Tests on Range Steers

The following shows the result of an experiment conducted at the New Mexico Experiment Station at State College and now published in bulletin form:

In this experiment a comparison was made of the feeding values of barley, Indian corn and kafir corn, each being supplemented with cottonseed meal.

A comparison was also made of the values of corn stover and kafir corn stover for replacing a definite portion of a roughage-ration of alfalfa.

Another object of the experiment was to determine the effect of substituting a comparatively cheap roughage for a part of the high priced alfalfa hay; on the gains, the cost of the gains and the quality of the product.

Inquiries are frequently made as to the values of barley and kafir corn as compared with corn, for stock feeding. Tests have been run at other Stations and a general idea of their comparative values has been determined; but whether this would apply to feeding operations in New Mexico under entirely different conditions, where alfalfa is and will likely continue to be the chief roughage, is a question that can only be answered by actual trial.

If New Mexico is to become important as a feeding center, if even only a portion of the large number of range cattle that are raised here are to be fed out at home, then such crops as barley, kafir, and alfalfa will have to be depended upon largely as the general feeds.

The business of fattening steers may become profitable through furnishing a market for home-grown feed crops, concentrating the bulky farm products into minimum space for shipment, and leaving their fertilizing value on the farm.

At this time, when feeding stuffs and cattle are both high in price and there is a very small margin between the prices of feeders and finished cattle, great care will need to be taken in the choice of the feeds, the management, and the selecting of steers for feeding, if the feeder is to make a profit.

In order to get some information that could be used as a guide for farmers in regard to steer feeding in New Mexico, this experiment as well as others were undertaken.

Twenty-five high grade yearling steers were secured from a range in the vicinity of Las Cruces, and delivered to the Station in December, 1908. They were good representative range animals, 20 being high grade Herefords and 5 grade Shorthorns. One Shorthorn and 4 Hereford steers were put in each lot. The steers were fed on roughage—oat hay and alfalfa hay—until January 8, when the experiment started.

The various lots were fed as follows: Lot 1. Alfalfa hay, 20 lbs. per day; Ground barley, 8 lbs. per day; Cottonseed meal, 2 lbs. per day.

Lot 2. Alfalfa hay, 20 lbs. per day; ground corn, 8 lbs. per day; cottonseed meal, 2 lbs. per day.

Lot 3. Alfalfa hay, 20 lbs. per day; ground kafir, 8 lbs. per day; cottonseed meal, 2 lbs. per day.

Lot 4. Alfalfa hay, 10 lbs. per day; shredded corn stover, 10 lbs. per day; ground kafir, 8 lbs. per day; cottonseed meal, 2 lbs. per day.

Lot 5. Alfalfa hay, 10 lbs. per day; shredded kafir corn stover, 10 lbs. per day; ground kafir, 8 lbs. per day; cottonseed meal, 2 lbs. per day.

Each lot was started on 5 pounds grain per head per day and the quantity was gradually increased as the fattening period advanced. All lots received the same allowance each day. They had all the roughage they would clean up. Lots IV and V received corn stover and kafir stover, respectively, as one-half their roughage allowance. The grain was fed in two feeds per day.

The feeds used in the experiments reported in this bulletin are estimated at the following prices: Indian corn, kafir corn and barley, $30.00 per ton; cottonseed meal $35.00 per ton; choice alfalfa hay $10.00 per ton; corn stover and kafir corn stover, both shredded, at $6.00 per ton. With the exception of the cottonseed meal, these feeds were either raised on the Station farm or purchased from local farmers. These prices closely approximate the prices at which the different feeds could have been secured during the past three years, if purchased at a favorable time of the year. During the feeding season just past, for the first time milo maize and kafir were delivered at the railroad stations in this Valley at $20.00 per ton. Should this price continue, it will have a favorable effect on the stock feeding problems of this part of the State.

Bloating.—Considerable trouble was experienced from bloating at various times. This did not occur until after the steers had been on feed for about seven weeks. Only certain ones seemed to be affected and it usually came on in the morning after they had been watered and as soon as they began to eat their grain feed. By taking the bloated ones out of the lot and exercising them vigorously for a few minutes, they would become all right and it was never necessary to use the trocar to relieve any of them.

1. It required 103.4 pounds of ground barley to produce as much gain as 100 pounds of ground corn; showing barley to be 3.3 per cent below corn in feeding value.

2. It required 107 pounds of ground kafir corn to produce as much gain as 100 pounds of ground corn, indicating that kafir corn is about 6.6 per cent below corn in feeding value.

3. It required 103.5 lbs. of ground kafir corn to produce as much gain as 100 pounds of ground barley, indicating that kafir corn is about 3.4 per cent below barley, in feeding value.

4. The above results in which the grains alone were considered, show corn to be superior to either of the other grains as a concentrate, but this is largely overcome for barley, and partially so for kafir, by the larger quantity of alfalfa hay used by the corn fed lot than by either of the other two.

5. Considering the last three lots, replacing about one-half the alfalfa hay with corn stover resulted favorably increasing the gains 2.3 per cent and producing them at sixty-five cents per hundred pounds less. The substitution of kafir stover reduced the gains 7.4 per cent and made them cost fifty-seven cents per hundredweight more.

6. The substitution of corn stover for a part of the alfalfa hay increased the feeding value of the ration, while the substitution of the kafir stover decreased it, and it required 12 per cent less of the corn stover for 100 pounds of gain.

7. The results of this experiment show that a farmer may grow for feeding purposes whichever of the grain crops tested yield the best in his locality, and are best suited to the climate conditions. Corn, barley, and kafir are very similar in composition, barley and kafir each carrying 1.5 per cent more digestible crude protein than corn, the barley 3 per cent less digestible fat, and the kafir 2.3 per cent less. Hence their nutritive values differ but little. Corn is the most palatable of the three, and kafir the least. The percentages of digestible matter in barley and kafir are practically the same—about 80 per cent; while in corn it is about 5 per cent higher. They all give good results when fed with some leguminous hay, such as alfalfa or cowpeas; but with a carbohydrate roughage such as timothy hay, corn and kafir stover, they should be supplemented with a protein rich concentrate, such as cottonseed meal. All of the non-saccharine, sorghums, including kafir, milo, and feterita, are practically equal in feeding value.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS!
ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Doesn't Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and vomiting. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver-Tone on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful at night and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine, entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Slip a few Prince Albert smokes into your system!

You've heard many an earful about the Prince Albert patented process that cuts out bite and parch and lets you smoke your fill without a comeback! Stake your bank roll that it proves out every hour of the day. Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

There's sport smoking a pipe or rolling your own, but you know that you've got to have the right tobacco! We tell you Prince Albert will bang the doors wide open for you to come in on a good time firing up every little so often, without a regret! You'll feel like your smoke past has been wasted and will be sorry you cannot back up for a fresh start.

You swing on this say-so like it was a tip to a thousand-dollar bill! It's worth that in happiness and contentment to you, to every man who knows what can be gotten out of a chummy jimmy pipe or a makin's cigarette with Prince Albert for "packing!"

That means that the United States Government has granted a patent on the process by which Prince Albert is made. And by which tongue bite and throat parch are cut out! Every where tobacco is sold you'll find Prince Albert awaiting you in tippy red bags, in tidy red tins, in handsome printed and half-gilded tinners and in that clever crystal-glass humidor, with sponge-moistener top, that keeps the tobacco in such fine condition—always!

Overland
Model 75 B

31½ Horsepower

Speedy and Easy Riding

There's little comfort in most low priced cars. You can't use their speeds. They jostle you—they ride roughly—they don't hold the road.

The $635 Overland is different. It is not only the speediest of low priced cars—

But you can use the full speed of its powerful motor when you need it.

It has long 42-inch, easy riding, shock absorbing cantilever rear springs. In addition the 75 B Overland is a longer car—104-inch wheelbase. And it has 4-inch tires.

Its smoothness and ease of riding at any speed would do justice to a much larger and heavier car.

Come in and let us demonstrate. That's the best kind of proof.

THE OLD RHYME TO-DATE

Hear the children gayly shout,
Half past nine and the heating plant is out of commission.

Hughes can console himself with the knowledge that he carried the Ford School House precinct in Deaf Smith County, Texas, by a majority of one.

Land on the Panhandle at anything under ten dollars per acre is a good investment for a man with money enough to buy it and improve it. It will pay interest on the investment and at the same time increase in value.

Early and long continued snows here this winter will be hard on cattle with the high price and scarcity of feed, but it will be a good thing for the large acreage of wheat sown here. With the present price of wheat if the Panhandle can have a bumper crop next year, the farmers' pockets will be bulging with money.

POULTRY SHOW

The poultry show, to be held Dec. 9th, is one of the best things being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. It is proof conclusive that these men have the right idea of the proper basis for substantial growth and business prosperity. That is the mutual interest of the town and the country.

Don't fail to go and vote for the hospital next Saturday. Nothing is needed more here than a good hospital where the sick of both town and country can be cared for. It is of even greater value to the people in the surrounding country than to the people of Hereford. When one is injured or ill of some malady that needs careful nursing he has a place that provides such in a good hospital. You may not need it now but you can't tell when you will.

The Lord made the earth and all the good things therein in six days and pronounced it good. After he took a rest and viewed with approbation all things made, he decided to make from a lot of refuse matter he had on hand something entirely different by way of contrast. So he made the street loafer. He made quite a lot of them so that they might be everywhere a terrible reminder of the low estate to which man may fall if he isn't always on the lookout for the toboggan that catches his feet when his head is asleep. He made most of them young men and put a cigarette in their mouths. He endowed them with an ambition to have a dollar-a-day job that requires no thinking, no training, no skill, when employed at all. Where they could get their pay every Saturday night to pay last week's bills when they take the trouble to pay them.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The change of name from "Young Men's Business League" to "Chamber of Commerce" is significant. It is not a change made simply for a change, nor yet for its greater pretentiousness. It is expressive of just that position which the organization hopes to occupy with reference to the business interests of Hereford. Through the avenues which this organization hopes to open, business will be brought into the town and through these same channels be diffused throughout the surrounding country, thus establishing right commercial relations between the country business man—for the farmer is a business man—and his brother business man in town. By establishing such commercial relations this organization will prove its right to be called a "Chamber of Commerce."

NOW FOR BUSINESS

Now that the election is over and the people have decided to retain Wilson as president for four more years the general policies of the government are fairly well known. It is safe to predict that the President will devote his best thought to the grave duties before him.

It is the duty of all good citizens, regardless of party affiliations, to give sympathetic and loyal support, with-holding harsh adverse criticism till the final results of his course are attained. Every good citizen will pray that peace may be maintained so far as possible without compromise with injustice. Before the second term is well begun let us hope that the cruel war of Europe will in some way be brought to an end without the partition of any of the nations engaged. May some plan be worked out—to maintain a lasting peace. In this darkest hour when the civilization of Europe seems to be on trial for its life let every good citizen of this especially blessed land of ours do well the duty that lies next to him subordinating self to the higher good of all.

THE COMMON FELLOW

One of the most neglected of human beings is the common every day man, who plays the game of life on the square, always letting the other fellow by his side, have his full share of the rewards of life. The common man, who plays the game square, goes forth each day to do the work that lies nearest to his hand. He whistles and sings whether the sun shines or clouds obscure the sky. He it is who pays the world's bills and does the world's work. He receives less notice than the windy street orator, because he makes less noise. He works in the so-called lowly sphere, where God intended most men should walk, takes life's burdens by the hardest and roughest corners, and asks nor receives loud applause, content with the reward that a just and uneventful life gives in the next world. You will see many of these so-called fellows at the first table, set with a golden service, while many of the noisy statesmen and reformers will be doing service in the kitchen, carving the fowl for the guest.

All hail the common fellow, who pays his debts, does today's work without noise or hope of a great reward, but just because its duty!

THE EMBARGO ON WHEAT

The question of an embargo on wheat is being agitated by the milling interests and flour dealers and bakers of the east and west. Now why put an embargo on wheat more than other things? It is time the farmer is getting exorbitant prices for wheat—but it is not often the farmer gets more than is coming to him.

Why not put an embargo on paper? Paper prices are soaring to unheard of prices, and yet we are told that the cost of production has not increased, and the paper manufacturers are putting the increase into their jeans. This holdup is made possible by the demand created by the war. Why not an embargo on paper? The same is true of shoes and dry goods. Why not an embargo on shoes and leather goods and dry goods? The item of flour is a small one, comparatively, in most families.

It is only when the farmer begins to get his, that a howl comes. There is only one time that the effete east loves the farmer, that is at election time. If raising wheat is so profitable, why can't some of the labor and capital invested in other things be turned to raising wheat. There are millions of acres of wheat land in the Texas Panhandle awaiting labor and capital. Let wheat go to three dollars if it will, but let's put an embargo on shoes, clothing and money now being sent to the warring nations, and stop the war.

No, this would interfere with the making of millionaires in the east at a rate never before known in the world's history.

SHOULD GET SETTLERS

There should be some systematic effort made to get new settlers here next spring. Settlers of the real home building type. The one thing needed above all else to make this a great and prosperous country is more people who will build homes in the country, open roads, set out trees, build school houses and churches and give real country community life. There should be some real systematic method of advertising this country adapted by the Chamber of Commerce.

If the people of the east really knew what we have here and the opportunities offered, many of them would come here; especially if they were assured of fair treatment in the matter of buying homes. This matter of advertising the country and bringing settlers should not be left exclusively to the real estate dealer who usually is not so much interested in getting permanent settlers for the country as he is interested in getting a good large portion of the settler's money for watered land values. More frequently than not the land man leaves the settler with a bad taste in his mouth—a feeling that he has been wronged by the community that invited him to become a citizen. And usually he is right about it. This is not true of all land men by any means. There are those who are doing a fair legitimate business charging a fair percent commission for bringing buyer and seller together. All such are doing their full part in development work.

However, a better way and the only business like way is for the advertising to be done by the commercial interests of the community that expects to reap its rewards indirectly from the general development brought about by a satisfied and contented citizenship. Along with the advertising should be provided some place where those having land they are willing to sell at actual present cash values, could list it free of charge. These prices and descriptions should be open to prospective settlers with such advice and assistance as can be given free of charge. Only those expecting to settle on the land should be entitled to these privileges. Then the new comer would know he was getting actual values for his money. The speculator could be turned over to the land man to be dealt with as he may.

Before such a plan can be put in operation we must awake to the fact that we would all be better off if we had five times as many settlers if they were of the right kind, and were brought here under conditions that would give them a fair chance to succeed.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COLUMN

Name Has Been Changed

Owing to commercial conditions prevailing in Deaf Smith County and the city of Hereford, it was deemed advisable to change the name of "The Young Men's Business League" to the Chamber of Commerce, and in future the Commercial Club will be known as "Chamber of Commerce."

Important Appointments

The Southern Commercial Congress which convenes in Norfolk, Virginia, December 11-14, 1916, has called for an appointment of TEN prominent delegates from Hereford. The Chamber of Commerce, through its President, J. Frank Potts, has commissioned the following delegates: B. F. Guthrie, A. P. Murchison, Hon. Jno. P. Slaton, I. H. Lahm, Eli Dunlap, L. Baskin, V. F. Nell, Wm. O'Brien, B. S. Arnold and W. S. Higgins.

Ozark Trail Encouragement

The Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of a letter from J. L. Pope who has been appointed "Promoter-Manager" Ozark Trail for Texas Territory, which in part states:

Gentlemen: "Roughly speaking, my territory will cover all portions of Northeast Texas now taking an interest in the Ozark Trail: From Amarillo to the Oklahoma line via Shamrock and from Amarillo to Oklahoma line via Wellington and from Amarillo to New Mexico line via Hereford or from Amarillo to Tucumcari. I wish to express a desire to cooperate with you in any and every way possible in making for Northwest Texas a superior system of hard surfaced highways."

The Ozark Trail is what we need and what we must have at any expense. The Chamber of Commerce of Hereford is out to secure it and you must get in line.

Program for the Annual Poultry Show at Hereford, December 9th

Entrance for exhibition is open to all regardless of location, and no entrance fee will be charged.

All exhibits must be placed and ready for the show by TEN o'clock a. m., December 9th, and will not be removed until after the show. Fowls showing signs of disease will be excluded from the show.

Birds shown in one class will not be allowed to be shown in any other class or switched from one class to another.

Each exhibit must be placed in a suitable cage or coop furnished by the exhibitor, to show the birds to best advantage.

All exhibits will be entered in the name of the owner, but judging will be made against the number on the coop instead of owner's name.

The judge will have the right to classify or arrange all exhibits to best interest, and will judge according to rules adopted by the American Poultry Association.

Exhibitors showing any attempt to defraud in any way will be barred from the contest, and will be required to withdraw his exhibits. Express charges on all fowls must be prepaid or they will not be received.

Rose comb birds cannot be shown with single comb birds; they must be shown in different classes.

The prizes will be the regulation colors of ribbons and will comprise: first, second and third prizes on awards.

Exhibits will include: Chickens, Bantams, Guineas, Ducks, Geese, Turkeys and Pigeons of all breeds.

Chickens and Bantams will be shown in singles, Pairs, Pens and Flocks. A single is a cock or hen twelve months old or over, and cockerels or Pullets under twelve months. Pairs are one male and one female of same variety. Pens are one male and four females of same variety. Flocks are one male and eight females of same variety.

Geese, Ducks, Guineas and Pigeons will be shown in pairs and not otherwise.

Turkeys will be shown as singles, Old Toms and Hens; Young Toms and Pullets.

Judging will be done by a competent judge, who will not be interested in exhibits.

Committee in charge of Poultry Show: P. C. Long, R. H. Barnett and L. Baskin.

To make this show a success and beneficial, The Chamber of Commerce urges every person in this or any other county to bring in their exhibits, and attend the Annual Poultry Show, The Farmer-Stockman and Bankers' Congress and the Ladies' Bazaar.

will leave nothing undone to make this annual Congress one of great benefit and instruction.

We Have Been Asked

Suppose we are successful in getting the Ozark Trail through Hereford, what will we do with the people when they stop over. The question is a little perplexing at this time, we admit, but something will have to be done. We have several good places to stop, at the present time, but space in our good hotels and boarding houses is very much limited and people have gone through here lately, who would have stopped over night had our hotels had the room for them.

A fifty-room hotel is not placing it too high, as we believe Hereford could conveniently support such an institution and bring to the investor good interest on the investment. We have good hotel men here already, who we believe would be glad to rent a more roomy hotel, and pay any reasonable rent and make it worth the visitors while to stop, stay and come to Hereford. Let us talk about it, for without more room in our present hotels, we will be losing ground when we attempt to hold the visitors over as they come through at the rate of two or three hundred a day on the fine Ozark Trail, from St. Louis to San Francisco.

How About the Hereford Band?

The Chamber of Commerce is in possession of a letter from Band Master, W. F. West, stating that at the present time, the Civic League will be compelled to drop their donations, for the support of the band. Mr. West states that his band is well equipped and in position to give the people of Hereford first class music.

A local band is a credit to any community and is worthy of the cause, and when our summer months come on, concerts on our court house lawn would be appreciated by the citizens.

At the present time the financial condition of the Chamber of Commerce is such that it will be impossible to lend assistance from its funds toward this worthy cause and we call attention of the citizens to this matter as to whether they are willing to continue assistance to the local band.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

The sudden change from sunny Autumn to real Arctic weather has given popularity to the honey affairs where a few friends meet informally and enjoy the grateful warmth and cheery light of the open grate with music, simple amusements, and congenial companionship. One such delightful evening was spent in the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Collins, Tuesday, the guests enjoying the music from the sweet-toned new piano and its accompanying melody of gay young voices. Light refreshments were an added pleasure.

A pleasant meeting of the Bay View Club on last Thursday continued the study of German Art with Mrs. Arnold directing the afternoon's study. Mrs. Stephens being hostess to the Club.

The history of Germany as it affected the art of the period was given by Miss Garretson.

The happy method by which Miss Garretson aroused minor detail and centralized the basic facts gave her article a strength and lucidness that was very marked.

The Gospel "According to Art," by Mrs. Donald, was intensely interesting and beautifully given, as was "German Painting of Today," by Mrs. Potts.

A delicious social course served by the hostess was the feature of an enjoyable social hour following the program.

Mrs. C. G. Witherspoon of Waxahatchie, was honor guest at a beautiful 12 o'clock dinner given Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stewart, of South Hereford. This was another of those delightful "cooperative" dinners which are becoming so justly popular. The bountiful supply of delicious cookery was served as befitted so royal a banquet, the table appointments furnishing the note of exquisite daintiness so rare and so delightful.

Three turkeys supplied the piece de resistance for the turkey course, the rest of the menu being equally elaborate.

Enjoying the occasion were Mrs. Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Moran, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wilson, Roscoe Davidson and family, R. L. Wilson and family, Ray W. M. Baker and family, L. Fertach and family, Anderson Witherspoon and family, Hugh Witherspoon and family, Vern Witherspoon and family, Rem Witherspoon and family, Mr. Charlie Lacy, W. A. Stewart and family.

The U. D. C. held a business meeting at the court house Friday afternoon. Their cook book is now ready for the printer and plans are being rapidly matured for their holiday bazaar, which promises to be something much more elaborate than last year.

On Tuesday evening, with a simple wedding service performed at the home of Dr. G. A. Faris, the officiating minister, Miss Annie Clark became the bride of Mr. David W. Stafford. The young couple was accompanied by Judge Clark, the bride's brother, who, together with Mrs. Faris, witnessed the ceremony. The bride has grown to womanhood in Hereford, has attended the public schools until recently, and is a very worthy young woman with a circle of warm friends.

The groom has lived here only for the past few months and has been employed in the Stockmen's Cafe. He is said to be a very excellent young man.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford expect very shortly to go to San Leon, near Houston where Mr. Stafford has recently purchased a home.

Protective Device Invented

As a result of investigations of the explosion in threshing machines conducted by the Bureau of Chemistry and the Office of Public Roads and Rural Engineering, a fire extinguisher has been developed for installation on the machines. This device operates automatically when explosions or fires occur, spraying the interior of the machine with liquid. Tests at Arlington, Va., showed the device to operate satisfactorily in every case, and recent field tests with smutty grain in eastern Washington and northern Idaho, carried out by specialists of the Office of Public Roads and Rural Engineering, have been equally successful. In these field tests with threshing machines, explosions or fires occurred in the course of threshing operations, and in every case were promptly extinguished by the automatic device before any damage was done to the machines. Even frayed sucking in the interior of one of the machines was not scorched.

The automatic fire extinguisher designed by the Department will be patented for the benefit of the public. Working drawings from which the device may be built have been prepared by the Department and may be obtained by interested grain growers, threshing owners, and operators on application to the Office of Public Roads and Rural Engineering of the Department.

A Successful Truck Farmer

Mike Britling, whose sole possessions in the way of farming land consists of less than one-half an acre, has grown and marketed this year, up to the present time, $215 worth of vegetables, besides having all he needs for family use and is putting up a goodly supply for his family's needs this winter. Mr. Britling's truck farm consists of four city lots that are 25x100 feet less the ground that his large residence and out buildings cover. He raises successfully every thing that will grow in this latitude, including the finest celery, and cauliflower. His sales from tomatoes, alone, this year, have netted him more than $75, and he is still marketing this fruit, which has the local reputation of being the very finest grown in the country.

Mr. Britling is a German, and while the Fuderland is still very dear to him, he thinks that this country cannot be equaled for opportunities in the way of stock raising, farming, and trucking. Farwell Tribune.

Wouldn't Take $65 per Acre

Mr. C. Doyle left the latter part of last week for West Point, Ind., after looking over his land holdings and greeting his friends.

He is a real booster for this country and is proud of his holdings here. He refused sixty-five dollars per acre for a track of his land while here. He knows it will go to a hundred and then some. Rail Ranner.

PROGRAM
"MR. BOB"

Star Theater, Thursday Evening, November 23rd, 8 O'clock P. M.

Auspices of Mothers' Club

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Philip Royson Caldwell Hicks
Robert Brown—Clerk of Benson & Brown Jack Mounts
Jenkins—Miss Rebecca's butler Dudley Farmer
Miss Rebecca Luke—A maiden lady Dot Owen
Kathrine Rogers—Her niece Zola Williams
Marion Bryant—Kathrine's friend Marie Burns
Patty—Miss Rebecca's maid Effie Lee Gulnn

SYNOPSIS

ACT I—Miss Beekle secretly plans to build a home for destitute cats, and is expecting Mr. Brown, the architect. Kathrine plans to play a joke on Phillip, who thinks that "Bob", Kathrine's chum, is a man. "Bob" arrives, Mr. Brown, clerk for law firm of Benson & Benson, arrives. His identity, and the nature of his errand is misunderstood by all. "But you see I came down"—is the extent of explanation allowed him.

ACT II—Patty still intensely interested in the drama, urges Jenkins to study Shakespeare. Jenkins objects. Marion plans to sail Phillip's boat. Mr. Phillip tries to compel Mr. Brown to propose to Kathrine. Marion wins the boat race. Mr. Brown tells why he "came down." All mysteries cleared.

HUSBAND RESCUED

DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Benediction.

Leader—Lois Carlyle.

The meeting at the Baptist Church will continue through this week, and while we have had very disagreeable weather our congregations have been very good, and we trust good has been done. This week we are trying to reach the unsaved, we therefore appeal to all of God's people to awake and try to get your unsaved friends to church. If we believe that Christ has power to save now, let us show our faith by our works. I want to ask that you pray for the preacher, and then pray for your unsaved friends, and be sure to invite them to hear the word of God. May the Lord bless every Christian in our town, and may He use us to His glory in my prayer.

Your pastor,
J. E. McClurkin.

Mrs. Terry King, Corresponding Secretary of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, for Texas, will be here Sunday and will speak at the morning service at the Christian Church. Special music will be rendered by the choir. The pastor will preach at night.

This service will be held in observance of C. W. B. M. Day, and members are especially urged to be present. Visitors are cordially invited.

More Members

To make the Chamber of Commerce a success, we must have the support of the people both in the city and county. We need your influence to carry our efforts; we need your money to pay for all necessary undertakings; we need your cooperation to back up everything to improve the county; without all these we cannot accomplish much. Send in your name at once and claim membership with us. We want ONE THOUSAND MEMBERS by January 1st. The people are here and will come in if they will only stop to think what can be done by cooperation.

No Fair Meeting

There was no meeting Tuesday night of the fair association as previously stated by the Brand in last week's issue. The president was out of the city. We regret this, as several of our country people were in to hear what is going on, and to learn what they shall expect in preparing for a great fair next year. We must be careful about these meetings, and keep the interest moving. We have the goods in this county and we must prepare a way to show them to the public.

Get Together Meeting and Banquet By Chamber of Commerce
On the evening of November 28th at some convenient place the Chamber of Commerce will hold a general get-together meeting and banquet. It is proposed by the Chamber of Commerce to have a first class program for this occasion and fine results received from this source of getting together. We want every person to get in on the banquet and add to the benefits by favoring us with your presence at the meet. A committee will call on you in near future.

Profits From A Small Investment

Two years ago L. J. Hensley purchased twenty four yearling heifers, three calves and a yearling bull. From this purchase he has sold $500 worth of stock at different times, and today delivered $1020.00 worth and has four cows and nine calves left. This means that he has just about doubled his money on this deal. The same can be said of nearly every one who has bought cattle and taken care of them.—Stratford Star.

Farms More Than Pay Out

Floyd county farmers who bought land on time have been paying off their notes in advance the past sixty days. Some are paying as far as two to five years in advance, while one farmer paid notes off twelve years ahead. Many Floyd county farms are more than paying for themselves with this year's crop.—Floyd County Hesperian.

A Mr. Burns of Kansas was in this week and purchased a bunch of 530 white faced steers from E. S. Collins.—Stanton Reporter.

Thanksgiving Sale

Beginning November 19th and lasts until November 29th.

We will have on sale at half price, for cash, all our trimmed hats and untrimmed shapes. This includes every hat in the store. New shapes, best materials, and hats that have style. A large stock to select from. Come before they are all picked over. Also, we can make any of the hats used this season and have best of materials, and guarantee all our work.

GO TO THE RESCUE

Don't Wait 'till It's Too Late—Follow the Example of a Hereford Citizen

Rescue the Aching Back
If it keeps on aching, trouble may come.

Often it indicates kidney weakness. If you neglect the kidneys' warning, look out for urinary disorders.

This Hereford citizen will show you how to go to the rescue.

Mrs. W. S. Berry, Fifth St. Hereford, says: "At times my back got weak and ached steadily. Then the kidney secretions passed too frequently. I also had dizzy spells and black spots floated before my eyes. Every time I have been this way, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Burns Drug Store with the best of results. They have always given relief."
Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Berry uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Props. Buffalo, N. Y.

How Appendicitis Can Be Prevented

Hereford people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL almost relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-ka has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. Betts-Clark, Druggists.

Lax-Fos, A Mild, Effective Laxative & Liver Tonic Does Not Grip or Disturb the Stomach.

In addition to other properties, Lax-Fos contains Cascara in acceptable form, a stimulating Laxative and Tonic. Lax-Fos acts effectively and does not grip, nor disturb stomach. At the same time, it aids digestion, arouses the liver and secretions and restores the healthy functions. 50c.

Lee, Clarence and Archie Conklin motored to Canyon Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. John Ely.

Mrs. J. E. Edwards spent Tuesday night and Wednesday with Mrs. Ernest Betts.

Chas. McNeerney and family and Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hooper visited with Mrs. K. McNeerney and F. W. Curtis, Sunday.

The weather has moderated after one of the most severe cold spells ever experienced here this early in the fall. The steet put a stop to stacking and much butchering was done.

Parrott

Mrs. George Bacus and children visited a few days last week with her parents here.

Jacob Wagner expects to start his threshing machine this week.

James Boydston and family visited Friday night and Saturday in Hereford.

Charlton Neely well if we would go into details and explain all about it, we would have to ask for a column on the editorial page and Charlton fears they people might be suspicious—suffice to say he nearly froze Monday night.

The unexpected cold wave has not been received very optimistically with the most of us.

Mr. James Boydston has sold his ranch here to a man by name or Hunter, from East Texas. Mr. Hunter will move his family here at once and Mr. Boydston will move to Hereford for the winter.

Mr. Ewers will begin work the first of December for H. F. Neely.

Roy Wagner, J. W. Hanlan and Emerson Hacker went to Portales, N. M., Saturday morning, returning Sunday evening in the storm.

Martin Simpson went to Hereford Tuesday to meet his mother and sister Fannie and her husband who came from Oklahoma where they had been visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Neely spent a couple of days last week in Amarillo. Floyd Hacker helped Jake Boydston last Tuesday, to move Mr. Waldrip's cattle from the Boydston ranch to the home ranch near Dimmitt.

Mark Cowarsi of Dimmitt has purchased the Classy section of grass in our neighborhood and will put cattle on it.

Hazel Hacker visited over Sunday here with home folks.

Mrs. J. W. Hanlan spent the day Tuesday with Mrs. B. F. Neely.

Orle Renfro is preparing to ship, to Kansas City, the calves he sold to William Guthrie.

Frank Metcalf, Charlton and Ned Neely returned from Kansas City last Thursday. Alfred Grant went from there up into Missouri to visit a couple of weeks with his parents.

Friena News

In this issue of the Brand appears the first installment of the "Friena News" which is to be a regular feature of the paper. Through the services of a live correspondent in this thriving little city Brand readers are now to be supplied with the news of the doings of their friends just across the line in Parmer County.

The people of this community are among the most progressive and wide awake of any in the country. They have good schools and churches. Their social and club life is of the best. They are in the midst of a productive country where valuable stock farms and grazing lands give them commercial importance. In every way the people represented by the Friena correspondent are among the wealthiest and best and the Brand is glad to welcome them to its news columns.

Announcement

To the People of Deaf Smith County:
I desire to thank the voters who gave me their support for the office to which I was elected. In assuming the duties of my office, I shall endeavor to be faithful and to give the very best service of which I am capable in a strictly fair and impartial manner. Whether a man did or did not support me in the election will have no bearing on my conduct.

Soliciting your cooperation and assistance. I am,

Faithfully yours,

IN MEMORIAM

Bertha Witherspoon Williams. Dedicated To Her Mother

The weeks have come and gone. To the bereaved their leaden flight has been as months since the message came to her birth place that beautiful winsome Bertha Witherspoon had been claimed by the Angel whose presence we are never allowed to forget. We did not believe the death Angel could be so relentless as to claim the happy girl and joyous bride before the bridal rose had scarcely withered. Bertha was our own, born and reared

LET US BE YOUR NIGHT WATCHMAN

Did you ever consider what a protection a single incandescent lamp burning on your front veranda at night would be? Or that burglars, intruders, and loafers would shun it as the burned child shuns fire? Or that friends, guests, and visitors would joyously greet it as a bright reflection on your hospitality? Or how much distinctiveness it would give to your house and your block? Well, think it over. Then write, call, or phone, and let us tell you how small a sum per year will command this large service.
