ALLIED HEADQUAR-TERS, ALGIERS, Jan. 21 (AP)-French troops, crossing the Rapido river in difficult mountain fighting, have captured the foot of Mt. Il Lago, north of Cassino, and are threatening to outflank the Germans' "Gustav Line" of defense in Italy, Allied headquarters announced oday. 0 British-forces of the Fifth army, supported by the fire of cruisers and destroyers, smashed forward along the Appian Way, capturing Minturne, 76 miles from Rome, and taking 300 prisoners. They are assaulting the twin Nazi defensive villages of Castelforte and Ventosa on the slopes of 1,000-foot Mt. Santi Cosma e Damiano, six 'miles inland from the Tyrrhenian. In weather which German prisoners described as "worse than Leningrad." American patrols of Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's Fifth army slashed across the river below Cassino in probing expeditions and retired. Eighth army patrols likewise were active in weather that was growing colder.

Although the French push from captured Sant' Elia, north of Cassino, if continued would allow them to take Cassino from the rear, German prisoners said there was another German line of fortia fications called the "Adolf Hitler line," six miles behind the Gustav belt which the Allies are now attacking.

For the first time in many weeks cruisers and destroyers of the British navy engaged in heavy action against Nazi shore defenses along the western end of the line, throwing several hundred rounds of steel ahead of the Fifth arm yattack last Tuesday and Wednesday. The heaviest shelling was concentrated on the Appian Way where near the village of Terracina.

Minturno was taken by the British after "hard fighting," the appeared today to lie in its success communique said. The Germans already had announced evacuation of the town.

The British attack on Castelforte and Ventosa was in a sector approximately two miles beyond the Garigliano and about six miles in-It was around Castelforte that the Germans apparently had built their most formidable defenses in the coastal sector. To Coop Up 250,000 Germans Around City Is Reds' Present Goal

MOSCOW, Jan. 21 (A)-The Red army's great surge to the south from Leningrad has virtually freed Russia's Baltic

Locked in port for two years or more, the Baltic fleet is now free to operate in the Bay of Kronstadt and possibly beyond.

LONDON, Jan. 21 (49)-Russia's northern armies, engaged in two tremendous drives which in six days have lifted the two-year siege of Leningrad captured the ancient bastion of Novgorod and slain 40,000 Germans, rolled on today in an effort to complete the entrapment of upwards of 250,000 other Germans remaining in the Leningrad sector.

Dispatches from Moscow indl cated the Germans were facing one of their worst disasters since Stalingrad and the Moscow radio declared jubilantly:

"The Germans have been driven far away from Leningrad. German forces are bleeding profusely. They are panic-stricken under the threatening tentacle of a mighty Soviet army of retribution."

Capture of Novgorod, 100 miles southeast of Leningrad, by troops of Gen. K. A. Meretskov's army opened the road to Lake Peipus and southern Estonia. The city had been in German hands since August, 1941.

Other Red army forces operating in the Leningrad sector under Gen. Leonid A. Govorov were reported to have encircled large units of enemy troops caught in the 50-square-mile Streina corridor, running north from the Krasnoye Selo sector. to the Gulf of Finland.

Govorov's armies, these dispatches indicated, were shaping a trap for approximately 250,000 Germans fighting southeast of Leningrad. The daylight assault was the first heavy attack since the Big American raid on the Pas De Calais area Jan. 14.

The Great Berlin raid, the first since the night of Jan. 2 on that objective, sent huge fires raging through the capital where three-fourths of the important facilities already are believed to have been destroyed. It proved to be another illustration of the RAF's remarkable buliseye bombardments through clouds.

The cluods blocked the defenders searchlights, and blanketed a good portion of their fighters.

But Swedish reports said reinforced German antiaircraft batteries put up an unprecedented barrage and the RAF suffered the second highest loss of the Berlin campaign. The British Press Association said it was understood the raiding force was the biggest yet sent against the German capital, although the bomb tonnage was not as great as the 2,300 long tons (2,578 U. S. tons) which were dropped on Nov, 22. C. this basis about 700 bomb-

FORT DAVIS, Jan. 21 (P)-Confirmation that one of Saturn's nine satellites, Titan, is surround ed by a dense atmosp It will be built around Clark an important factor in a theory of Dr. Gerald P. Kuiper, McDonald

Observatory astronomer, who confirmed the discovery yesterday, said Titan, the only satellite found to have an atmosphere, is covered by methane and possibly ammonia Methane remains gaseous at ery low temperature and fahrenheit thermometer around Titan, Dr. Kuiper said, would read bout 300 degrees below zero. The conclusion is that Titan, unlike the earth and other planets, has never been hot.

The 38-year old Holland-born astronomer used the spectrograph in his survey of the satellites.

In Boston, where Kuiper's findings were reported to the Harvard College observatory, it was explained that light emanating from Titan as it revolved about Saturn. which is nearly 800 million miles farther away from the sun than the earth, yielded the information on the chemical nature of the gases surrounding Titan. Harvard scientists said the discovery lent weight to the theory that Saturn could have formed, or thrown off, the satellite.

Titan is a little bigger than our moon, weighs about twice as much as the moon and about one-fortleth as much as the earth.

Countess Ciano Is In Switzerland

BERN, Switzerland, Jan. 21 (49) Countess Edda Ciano, daughter of Benito Mussolini and widow of the former Italian foreign minister, is strict police watch along with her three children, it was officially announced today.

The countess took refuge in Switzerland Jan. 9, the day after the trial of Count Ciano on charges of treason was started at Verona. She was placed in in-ternment immediately. Her children arrived three days later when it was announced that Ciano had been executed for voting with 18 members of the fascist grand council to oust Mussolini from the dictatorship last July.

The Swiss announced that Dino Alfieri, former Italian ambassador to Germany and also condemned to death in absentia at the Verona trials, had crossed into Switzerland last October.

Because of the death sentence against him, the Swiss revoked for the time being an order that he leave Switzerland as soon as his health is restored. He was placed in a hospital immediately upon his arrival in Switzerland and is now at a clinic.

at the 21st annual meeting.

The more than 150 parents ers who attended the banquet affair in the evening went away with an admonition by Chaplain James L. Paterson of the Big Spring Bombardier School, to have a deeper appreclation for youth, to help in-stead of tell, and to "give our time to produce the results to make America what it ought to be." The key to making a bet-ter world is to make better boys, he declared.

Installed for his 15th term was Charles Paxton, Sweetwater, who has been in scouting for a score of years and who has headed this council almost since he moved within its bounds. Pexton in turn installed the various vice-presidents, including B. Reagan, a Big Spring scouter of 30 years service. The president also introduced members of the executive board.

Advancement reports by O. D. Albright, chairman, showed 5,100 badges earned during 1943, nearly 1,500 more that the previous year Bill Mosher, chairman, reported cub-scout-leader membership and units had grown to 3,787 in the council, a 500 gain. From Guy Brenneman, chairman, came news that 10,436 scouts days in camp were recorded, 3,500 more in any previous years, T. P. Johnson, finance chairman, reported $21,022 raised for all causes in the council, an increase of $5,000 Under Ben Meck leadership training jumped to 508, or 100 above the previous peak. Dr. C. A. Rosebrough reported a new record of 768 health examinations record-

In addition to all this, the scouts had a record of several hundred tons of scrap metal; cans, paper, books, etc. and distribution of a great supply of posters making model planes, etc.

At the banquet, the Silver Beaver award, highest within the gift of the council to any man contributing outstanding service to boys, was presented by Lt. Col. Paul W. Dewell, executive officer of the Big Spring Bombardier School, to Dr. W. B. Hardy, Big Spring, Emmet W. Beauchamp, Peces, and M. H. Smelser, Odessa.

In an impromptu talk before the Lions club week, Lieut. Auerbach, acting special services er for the Big Spring Bombardier School, paid community a mighty fine tribute—and in so

One can appreciate the things which he said because there was no special occasion to demand an exchange of admiration. He was called upon to speak on the spur of a moment, and in effect this is what he said: You have been very friendly. You have made us feel like this is our second home town. Many of us prefer being here to any other station in West Texas.

He admitted that there may have been minor stries in which soldiers were involved, and we are equally sure that some civilians have not always been as considerate of our friends in the military as they should have been. But the officer was infinitely correct in asserting that there has never en any ocacsion for a major difference between school and the town.

If Big Spring has been friendly to the officers and men at the Big Spring Bombardier School (and we sincerely hope it has), this quality has not been a conscious one, but the result of an inate desire to make old friends out of new comers, to accept a man for what he is rather from where he came from or what he was. It is because people here warm to these soldiers as they would want others to do to their sons, brothers and husbands.

Any good feelings which may have been engendered in the past simply stand as a challenge for more unselfish cooperation and friendliness .1 the future. No matter if we have been generally core dial to our new friends, it is not as much as we should or could be. We need to resolve that henceforth we will do more to deserve the friendship of

And, for goodness sakes, let's stop referring to everybody north of the Red River as a "yankee." It's a remarkable tribute to the patience of these fellows that they can smile in the face of this threadbare, and to use a popular phrase—corny—

WASHINGTON, - History will | Carriers. now (if anybody ever bothers to look it up) that Congress still was talking last session 13 days after members locked up the place and went home for Christmas.

It sounds a little spooky. But like a detective thriller, i's all worked ou in the back of the book — the word - brimming Appendix to the Congressional Rec-

The first session of the 78th Congress adjourned in mid-afteron on Dec. 21. But the memhers hadn't had their last saynot by 65,520 words. The debate lives on in the Appendix.

On the final day of the session House Majority Leader McCormack (D-Mass.) obtained unanimous consent for members to excix of the Record on any subject pending at the time of the recess. Consequently, the last day's debate ended 39 pages and 117 columns later, on Jan. 3, nearly two weeks after the halls of Coness were closed for the session. During the interval of comparative quiet an Capitol Hill 20 members had their say on just about everything.

Glance at the Appendix that grew on that last short day of Congress and you'll get the idea. Rep. Ramey (R-Ohio) starts off with a floor speech entitled "New Congress Should Take Up Most Serious Problems First." Then comes the extension of appropriately sub-titled remarks. For example: , Rep. Angelf (R-Ore.); "Oregon Helps Feed The World; Rep. J. Leroy Johnson (R*Calif.); Personal Impressions Gained on Trip to Central and South America with A Sub-committee of the Committee on Military Affairs";

There was absolutely no feed available for the ewes. There was plenty of feed available across the river in Mexico, cottonseed cake and meal. We took it up with OPA. The ceiling price of the OPA was $50 a ton. The duty was $4 or $5 a ton. We took it up with the OPA and asked them to let ranchers go into Mexico and buy feed and pay the duty. Miss McCarthy had read an article about Sister Kenny and her work with infantile paralysis, and it put her on a trail that led her to a telephone booth in a Minneapolis hotel one cold, grey Oc-filming her life." Sister Kenny's reply wasted no precious telegraph time. "Stay where you are," she wired.

But Miss McCarthy is Irish. You can't stop and Irish dame when she sets her mind to anything," she relates.. "I went to Minneapolis. I changed a $5 bill into nickels and started calling sister.'

She had no luck at first. "Sister will not talk to you," said the Kenny secretary firmly and hung

Another nickel went into the slot. "She says go back to Hollywood," said the secretary. But more nickels followed, and the nineteenth did the trick. Sister Kenny weakened. And two hours later Mary McCarthy had Sister Renny's permission to draft a, screenplay of her life. How? "I told her four Irish jokes and
