

County okays weed district

By SAM WALLER
 Brand Staff Writer

Deaf Smith County Commissioners on Monday voted unanimously to declare a county-wide noxious weed district after canvassing the votes of the Aug. 5 election.

The election, which drew 209 voters, was held despite legal action questioning the district's constitutionality. The measure passed by a 126-83 margin.

The commissioners accepted the election results in accordance with state law, issuing orders to validate the vote and create the district.

The election drew 38 absentee ballots, with 19 being cast for and 19 against the measure. In election day balloting, Precinct 1 returned 37 votes for and 25 against, Precinct 2 passed the district by a 15-10 margin and Precinct 4 passed the issue by a 47-16 count.

Precinct 3 was the only one not to approve the district, voting 13 against to 8 for.

Commissioners will now appoint a four-member board to staggered terms of one or two years to administer the district. District voters will elect board members after the original terms expire.

The board must be in place in time for an April 4 meeting.

The election was challenged just before Aug. 5 by Jim McMorris, who claimed that it was unconstitutional to not allow persons to vote in the election if they owned land in the county but lived in the Hereford city limits.

The original court challenge was turned down by an Amarillo state district judge, but McMorris has indicated he will continue the challenge in higher courts.

In other business, commissioners voted to raise the license plate fee by $5 per vehicle. County Judge Tom Simons told the court the state now allows counties to charge up to $10 per vehicle more than the state's basic fee. Deaf Smith County had been charging the previous limit of $5 more. Simons said the measure could raise the county as much as $100,000 per year.

Commissioners also agreed to advertise for bids for fuel and a new pickup for Precinct 4. Bids for the pickup will be opened at the Aug. 28 meeting while fuel bids will be opened at the Sept. 11 meeting.

Other agenda items of Monday's meeting included granting permission to cross county roads with water lines in Precincts 2 and 3, discussion of a life insurance plan for county employees, vacancies on the San Jose Water District Board, report on the Juvenile Board and report from Cameron Gulley on the progress of the Deaf Smith County War Dead Memorial.

On the Juvenile Board, Simons said the new budget provided for a full-time Intensive Supervision Personnel. The position would be funded by a $30,000 grant from the state Simons said. The reasoning behind the move was that each juvenile sent to Texas Youth Corrections costs the state about $33,000 per year. Deaf Smith sends about five juveniles to TYC each year, Simons said.

Infant enticement

Jubilee a big success

Organizers feel that the just-completed 1989 Town and Country Jubilee was one of the best-ever in Hereford.

A huge crowd turned out on Saturday for the annual Jubilee Parade, then ventured to Dameron Park for one of the best Jubilee Junctions ever.

The crowd lined Park Avenue and Main Street for the parade, which featured a number of floats and other attractions that delighted the crowd.

Walcott School's float was judged the best overall in the parade. The float featured many Walcott students, and huge crayons, pencils and other school-related items.

Other results included:
 Agribusiness: 1. Goodin Fuels.
 Commercial: 1. Hereford State Bank; 2. Beef Pro; 3. First National Bank.
 Religious: 1. Nazarene Church; 2. Country Road Church of God; 3. First Christian church of dimmitt.

Service Clubs: 1. Golden K Kiwanis; 2. Panhandle Community Services; 3. (tie) Pilot Club and Deaf Smith County 4-H.
 Open Division: 1. Hereford Senior Center; 2. Walcott School; 3. Deaf Smith County.
 Best Theme: Senior Citizens.
 Food, games, music and various events were enjoyed by a large crowd at Jubilee Junction in Dameron Park. One of the most popular attractions was a Diaper Derby, where crawling infants were cajoled, bribed, and whatever-else-it-took to crawl from one end of a mat to another.

Also enjoyed were a quilt show and an arts show at the Hereford Community Center, and the annual All-Girl Rodeo.

"This was one of the best crowds we've ever had to participate in all of the activities," said Mike Carr, executive vice president of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce. "We also want to express our thanks to everyone who worked on all of the events to make the Jubilee a success."

Drugs are biggest problem
 Teenagers and adults alike feel that drug abuse is the No. 1 problem facing the United States today, according to a Gallup poll released Monday at the White House.
 One adult in four and one teenager in three feel drug abuse is the greatest problem. Six years ago, in a similar poll, unemployment most bothered adults; drug abuse did not register.
 George Gallup said that people are so disturbed that 75% of all teenagers and almost 50% of all adults are so disturbed by the problem they would volunteer to help in drug prevention programs, education and treatment.

Man arrested on drug charge

A Hereford man was arrested Monday night at a house in the 900 block of 16th Street on a warrant for the sale of cocaine from his home in the 400 block of Paloma Lane in Hereford.

Pedro Ramirez, 30, is in Deaf Smith County Jail in lieu of $100,000 bond. Ramirez was arraigned by Deaf Smith County Justice of the Peace Johnnie Turrentine.

Ramirez was free on bond, at the time of his arrest Monday, on charges of possession of cocaine and possession of marijuana in conjunction with a January 1989 raid on the same Paloma Lane residence.

After receiving information that cocaine was being sold from the home and after obtaining a search warrant, police went to the home last Saturday. Police found about three grams of cocaine, worth about $300, and drug paraphernalia. Ramirez was not at the home at the time of the arrest.

After three days of searching for Ramirez, officer received a tip that Ramirez was at the home on 16th Street.

Powers death ruled accident

The Aug. 8 death of Sherry Dawn Powers, 33, of Hereford, has been ruled accidental by a Lubbock justice of the peace.

Mrs. Powers was badly burned in a fire on the morning of Aug. 8 on a fire just south of Easter in Castro County.

The ruling was made Monday by Judge L.J. Blalock. According to the Castro County Sheriff's Office, there was no indication of foul play and no gasoline or flammable liquid was found at the site of the fire, and abandoned structure on a farm.

The state fire marshal's office is continuing an investigation into the fire.

Mrs. Powers had left her job at the Deaf Smith County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office in Hereford the morning of Aug. 8 and said she was going to run some errands.

At about 10:30 a.m., Mrs. Powers badly-burned body was discovered by a farmer. She was taken to Plains Memorial Hospital, then was taken by helicopter to a Lubbock hospital where she died at about 3:30 p.m. from her injuries.

Castro County investigators are still trying to discover why Mrs. Powers had been inside the structure.

Amarilloans dominate Black 10-K

Chad McLaughlin led an Amarillo blitz Saturday at the Greg Black Memorial 10-K, winning the race and the 14-19 age group in 34:35. McLaughlin was followed by Randall High track teammates Chad Criss and Michael Armstrong in the division as Amarillo residents won five of the six mens age group titles. Jason Eades of Hereford took the 13 and under division with a time of 56:57.

Rosa Valverde of Canyon was the overall winner in the womens 10-K, completing the course in 44:05. Barbara Townsend of Hereford won the 40-49 division with a 55:28 clocking.

In the two-mile run, David Cervantez of Lubbock beat the field by nearly a minute in 11:06 in the mens division. Richard Rose of Hereford edged Juan Martinez of Hereford by two seconds for second place, recording a 12:05. Rosie Vargas of Amarillo won the womens division in 14:48.

Bears maul Miami

MIAMI (AP) - The three contending quarterbacks for the Chicago Bears' starting job received passing grades from Coach Mike Ditka in their first test.

Mike Tomczak threw for two touchdowns, and Jim McMahon and Jim Harbaugh each directed a long touchdown drive as the Bears beat the Miami Dolphins 28-20 Monday night in the exhibition opener for both teams.

"All three played well," Ditka said. "This makes my decision easier because no matter which one I make, I know it will be the right one. I've felt good about the quarterback situation all along, and nothing has changed."

Tomczak had the best statistics, completing seven of eight passes for 122 yards. He threw scoring passes of 11 yards to Neal Anderson and 28 yards to Dennis Gentry.

"You'd like to go eight for eight, but I felt very comfortable," Tomczak said. "I'm happy with the way the whole team played."

Chicago built a 21-0 lead when the starters for both teams were in the game. The Bears' domination left Miami coach Don Shula shaking his head.

"It was about as bad as it could get in that first half," he said. "I was really disappointed that we didn't play better. They took our defense apart."

The Dolphins looked good at times offensively. Dan Marino directed their first two possessions and completed five of seven passes for 62 yards. Backup Cliff Stoudt hit 10 of 14 for 177 yards

Kings' Berry commits suicide

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) - The apparent suicide of Sacramento Kings forward Ricky Berry left his stunned teammates and friends wondering why.

Kings official Greg Van Dusen, taking over during a news conference when Coach Jerry Reynolds was overcome by emotion, said Reynolds "had no indication that Ricky was in any way considering something of this nature."

"We had no indication that he had any form of depression or anything like that. He had excellent relations with the coaching staff, his teammates and the entire organization," said Van Dusen, vice president of the Kings' sports arena.

Investigators said Monday that the 24-year-old forward, the Kings' top draft pick last year, shot himself in the head and died at his suburban home following an argument with his wife.

Van Dusen, reading from Reynolds' prepared notes, said Berry "had great security as a King and in fact held tremendous promise as a potential superstar. Ricky had all the tools physically and he was a very determined player."

During the news conference, Reynolds began with, "Really, the only thing I've got to say is, my prayers," but was unable to continue and left the room.

Kings spokeswoman Julie Fie said Berry was active in community affairs, including charity camps to teach disadvantaged children about basketball.

Other players phoning the Kings' office about the news were shocked, Fie said. "Nobody wants to believe it," she added.

Friends and acquaintances said Berry had appeared happy.

Valerie Berry found her husband's body at 9:45 a.m. PDT Monday in the family room of their new house in an upper middle-class neighborhood, Ed Close, a spokesman for the Sacramento County sheriff's department, said. The gun and a note were found at the scene.

Berry had argued with his wife on Sunday and she spent the night elsewhere, sheriff's Sgt. Jim Whitwell said.

The Berrys had lived in the house about three weeks and were still settling into the neighborhood of large custom-built, single-story houses, surrounded by neat yards and curving streets.

Berry's father, Bill, who coached his son in college and is now a Kings scout, and Bill Russell, Kings vice president and former coach, arrived at the player's home shortly before the body was removed by the coroner's office. Bill Berry received word of the suicide while meeting with Kings officials.

"We are profoundly shocked and saddened at the tragic ending of the life of Ricky Berry," Kings managing general partner Gregg Lukenbill said.

Berry, the career scoring leader at San Jose State, was chosen by the Kings as the 18th selection overall in the 1988 NBA draft. He averaged 11 points on 45 percent shooting last season in 64 games, including 21 starts.

Berry set the San Jose State scoring record despite playing only three years. He was the first player in the school's history to average more than 20 points a game, 20.2 as a junior.

He had two years left on his contract with the Kings.

'Pokes not planning to throw deep

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) - Dallas Cowboys rookie quarterbacks Troy Aikman and Steve Walsh rarely threw deep in Sunday's 20-3 preseason victory at San Diego, a trend that could continue all season, Cowboys coach Jimmy Johnson said Monday.

"Some of the things we're going to do with our young quarterbacks will be somewhat conservative at times," Johnson said. "We feel like it's better to go that route and win that be spectacular and take a chance on a bunch of sacks."

"The bottom line is to win, not throw deep passes."

Aikman started the game and played the first half, completing 8 of 11 passes for 67 yards and one touchdown. His longest completion was 13 yards and he never tried a deep pass attempt.

Walsh played the third quarter and completed just 2 of 8 passes for 22 yards. He tried one deep pass, an incomplection.

Johnson said that after reviewing tapes of the Cowboys' victory, he was pleased with the effort of his two quarterbacks.

"I think we were able to see how they are going to respond to pressure-style defense," Johnson said. "San Diego kept after us for three quarters-plus. I thought are quarterbacks kept their poise and did a good job in handling the blitz."

Johnson said he would stick with his play of rotating the quarterbacks. Walsh will get the starting nod and play the first half this Saturday at the Los Angeles Raiders. Aikman will play the third quarter and third-stringer Babe Laufenberg will play the fourth quarter.

"We've got to evaluate players over a period of time, not just in one quarter or a few plays," Johnson said.

Johnson said he thinks the victory, his first since taking over for Tom Landry as the Cowboys coach, will have a positive effect on his team.

"Obviously this is a better situation than had we not won," Johnson said. "The players feel good and the working very hard. They have a great attitude but the more you win, the better your attitude is going to be."

Johnson did say he was disappointed with the penalty problems that bothered his second-team offensive line. He also mentioned tackling problems by his defense. The Chargers outgained the Cowboys 347-206 in total offensive yardage.

"Realistically, when we look at the tapes, we've got some shortcomings," Johnson said. "That's obvious to anybody who has seen the Cowboys play. There are a lot of areas we need improvement in. But I was pleased with our effort."

The Cowboys reported no major injury problems and are hopeful that starting defensive tackle Danny Noonan will be able to play in Saturday's game. Noonan sat out the Chargers game with a groin injury.

The Cowboys also reported that ticket sales are ahead of last year's pace. About 13,800 tickets are left for the Cowboys' only preseason home game against Houston Sept. 2; at this time last year the Cowboys had 18,600 tickets available. For their first three regular-season home games, the Cowboys are 12,000 tickets ahead of last year's pace.

Cardinals take two from Atlanta

ST. LOUIS (AP) - The St. Louis Cardinals, after losing four of five games over the weekend to the New York Mets, could have died, but didn't.

"We have a lot of competitors here," Milt Thompson said after St. Louis swept the Atlanta Braves 7-4 and 5-2 in a doubleheader Monday night.

In bouncing back, the Cardinals used Joe Magrane's pitching in the opener and capitalized on key stolen bases by Vince Coleman and Jose Oquendo to set the tone in the nightcap.

St. Louis, which has 45 games left, moved to within 5 1/2 games of the idle Chicago Cubs in the National League East.

The Cardinals trail Chicago by five games on the loss side and are two back on the loss side of both second-place Montreal and third-place New York. Montreal was beaten 6-1 by Pittsburgh in the only other NL game on Monday.

Oquendo and Coleman each singled twice, walked, stole a base and scored twice in the second game after Magrane, 15-7, won the opener to make it 10 wins in his last 11 decisions.

Ricky Horton, a fill-in starter, pitched 4 2-3 innings of the nightcap. John Costello, 2-2, followed with four hitless innings and Ken Dayley finished for his 10th save.

Magrane pitched a six-hitter for eight innings and also contributed an RBI single during a six-run St. Louis rally in the third inning off John Smoltz, 11-11, who lost his fifth consecutive decision.

Thompson had three singles and three RBIs to back Magrane, delivering a two-run single to highlight the Cardinals' big inning.

Horton, making his second start in four nights, had better luck this time turning the ball over to Costello than he did last Thursday.

"I owed Rick one," said Costello, who blew a 3-0 lead for his teammate in a 6-4 loss to the Mets.

Leading 3-2 in the second game, the Cardinals scored two insurance runs in the sixth when Braves second baseman Ed Romero threw wildly after fielding a prospective double-play grounder.

Pirates 6, Expos 1
Doug Drabek pitched a six-hitter and drove in two runs with a single as Pittsburgh beat Montreal at Olympic Stadium, sending the Expos to their ninth loss in 11 games.

Dennis Martinez, 12-3, lost his second straight start after winning 11 consecutive decisions.

With one out in the first, Jay Bell singled and scored on Bobby Bonilla's double. Glenn Wilson then blooped a single into shallow center field which bounced over the head of Dave Martinez. The center fielder was charged with an error as Bonilla scored and Wilson ended up on third.

Jays drop BoSox, 4-2

By The Associated Press
Winning in Fenway Park is easy for the Toronto Blue Jays - even for Mauro "Goose" Gozzo.

Toronto won its 13th straight game in Boston as Gozzo won his second consecutive major-league start and Rance Mulliniks hit a two-run homer, leading the Blue Jays over the Red Sox 4-2 Monday night.

Gozzo, 2-0, who shut out Texas for eight innings in his major-league debut last Wednesday, allowed seven hits and two runs, one unearned, in five innings. Davis Wells pitched two innings and Tom Henke finished for his 11th save.

"I was originally drafted by the New York Mets (in 1984) and I came here for every game in the 1986 World Series," Gozzo said. "It was exciting pitching here."

The Mets traded Gozzo along with pitcher Rick Anderson and catcher Ed Hearn to Kansas City on March 27, 1987, for pitcher David Cone and catcher Chris Jelic.

Gozzo never got a shot with the Royals, but he's come up big twice for the Blue Jays since Jimmy Key went on the disabled list.

Elsewhere in the AL, it was Baltimore 4, Detroit 1 in 10 innings; Milwaukee 5, New York 4; Chicago

4, Kansas City 3, and Minnesota 6, California 3.

Orioles 4, Tigers 1
Craig Worthington's three-run homer in the 10th inning lifted Baltimore past Detroit at Tiger Stadium.

Jack Morris, 2-10, allowed five hits in 10 innings, but two were home runs.

Dave Schmidt, 9-12, won his first decision since moving from the starting rotation to the bullpen on Aug. 7. Gregg Olson got the last three outs for his 18th save.

Brewers 5, Yankees 4

Gus Polidor, batting .194, singled in B.J. Surhoff with the winning run as Milwaukee rallied for three runs in the ninth inning off reliever Dave Righetti.

The Brewers were trailing 4-2 when Glenn Braggs opened the Brewers' ninth off Righetti, 2-4, with a double. Braggs went to third on Robin Yount's fly to right and scored on Greg Brock's infield out to make it 4-3.

White Sox 4, Royals 3

Dan Pasqua's home run and Lance Johnson's run-scoring single in the sixth inning rallied Chicago.

Pasqua hit a 420-foot homer to tie the score 3-3 off Luis Aquino, 6-7.

Twins 6, Angels 3

Allan Anderson won his 14th game and fifth straight start.

Al Newman had three hits, drove in a run and scored once for the Twins.

Rain delays city golf

James Salinas took a four-stroke lead in his bid for a ninth city golf title in 11 years after Saturday's first round of the Hereford Mens Golf Championship before rain washed out Sunday's conclusion. The final round will be played this Saturday at Pitman Municipal Golf Course.

Head Pro Brent Warner decided to postpone Sunday's round after about two inches of moisture inundated the course.

"It was real soggy (Sunday) morning," Warner said of the conditions, "so we'll just pick up where we left off."

Salinas shot a four-under-par 67 for the first round to lead Paul Lovan. Lovan carded the only other par score for the day with a 71.

Salinas birdied three of the last four holes after completing the front nine at one under with a birdie at No. 7. Lovan had three birdies on Nos. 2, 7 and 11, but gave each stroke right back when he bogeyed Nos. 3, 9 and 12.

In the first flight, Lewis McDaniel and George Ochs tied at 79. Ochs had birdies at No. 7 and No. 14, but erased them with three double bogeys on the back nine. McDaniel played the first eight holes of the back side in one over before a double bogey on No. 18 dropped him back into the tie.

Carlos Mendez leads the second flight with an 83, overcoming a triple bogey on the par-three sixth hole with seven pars and a birdie. Gary Ruckman finished the day in second with an 86.

In net scoring, Lovan led Salinas and Bobby Valdez by two strokes in the championship flight, 65-67. Three other golfers were tied at 69 after subtracting their handicaps from their score.

Bill Allen leads McDaniel by five strokes in the first flight net, 62-67. Mendez netted a 64 in the second flight to lead a trio at 67.

Haney at horseshoes

After receiving some coaching from Mike Carr (right background), Hereford Coach Danny Haney prepares to let it fly in the Hereford YMCA's horseshoe pit at Jubilee Junction at Dameron Park. Also playing in Saturday's game were Weldon Knabe and Waldo Baxter. Results were not available at press time; it is believed that the game (the first team to 21 points wins) was still underway Tuesday.

Staff mourns Leland, condolences pour in WASHINGTON (AP) - Rep. Mickey Leland and his congressional companions died trying to "heal the world" when their plane, en route to an Ethiopian refugee camp, crashed and broke apart in a remote mountain, friends say.

"This mission was a mission of mercy. It was the best our country had to offer. It showed our compassion, our generosity, our interest in seeing that there are no more hungry people, the children would not die of hunger. So why these?" said Robert Mallett, an aide to Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas.

Mallett and three other congressional staff members praised Leland and the Capitol Hill aides who had been on the plane during a memorial service Monday in the stately caucus room of the Russell Senate Office Building.

Sponsored by the Senate Black Legislative Staff Caucus, the service mourned Leland, D-Texas, and Patrice Y. Johnson, Leland's chief of staff; Joyce Williams, a staff member with Rep. Ron Dellums, D-Calif., for 10 years; and Hugh A. Johnson Jr., a staff member of the House Select Committee on Hunger.

Their charred plane was found Sunday, its broken pieces scattered in a remote mountain ravine 100 miles from its destination near the Sudan border.

"We ask God, why these. They're our best," Mallett said. "You're living will not be in vain. Because we're going to see that homelessness is no more. That ... in the words of the old Negro spiritual, 'we ain't going to study war no more.' We're going to see that there are no more hungry children in Ethiopia, anywhere in the world.

"In that way, we will know that in your dying, you have challenged us to live," Mallett said.

On the crimson-carpeted platform behind him, four white candles for each of the four dead flickered in their silver candlesticks. Velvet drapes covered the arched windows, as mourners wiped away tears or hid their crying eyes in their hands.

"We gather today with heavy hearts as we join with his staff, his family, and Senate staff in this great, immeasurable loss," prayed Senate Chaplain Richard C. Halverson. "We remember the hungry and the homeless for whom he laid down his life."

Leland, the founder and chairman of the hunger committee, was leading a 16-member delegation of Americans and Ethiopians to the refugee camp when the twin-engine plane vanished shortly after take off from Addis Ababa last Monday. There were no survivors.

It was his second trip to the region since March to focus attention on the need for hunger relief for hundreds of thousands of Sudanese, who have been forced from their homes by the country's long-running civil war.

It is now rainy season in the Horn of Africa, and bad weather Monday forced rescuers to postpone retrieval of the remains until Tuesday.

"We ask God in our anger ... why now?" Mallett said. "I suppose the answer lies somewhere in thinking about the condition of the world. They went about doing good, to heal the world."

House Speaker Tom Foley said, "There will be a determination on the part members of the House to work for those goals that Mickey Leland sought to achieve, the alleviation of hunger and suffering here and in Africa and elsewhere in the world."

Foley said Leland's willingness to return to Africa time after time, despite unstable political conditions and that travel there is dangerous, was a "testament to his determination individually to follow through on commitments and values that were very, very close to him."

"And I think other members will also be willing to assume those risks and I don't think this will change," said Foley, D-Wash.

Letters, telegrams and phone calls of condolence continued to pour into Leland's office Monday, as staff members from other congressional offices pitched in to help.

"We have been receiving a lot of inquiries as to where to send telegrams and cards, and we're referring them to this office and the district office," said Clara Pinzana.

Ms. Pinzana, who is press secretary to Rep. Greg Laughlin, D-Texas, has been helping out in Leland's office since last Monday.

Monday's callers included the offices of Texas Gov. Bill Clements and Washington Mayor Marion Berry, Ms. Pinzana said.

Leland's staff, Ms. Pinzana said, "They're doing really well. They have burned the candle at both ends, but you wouldn't know it."

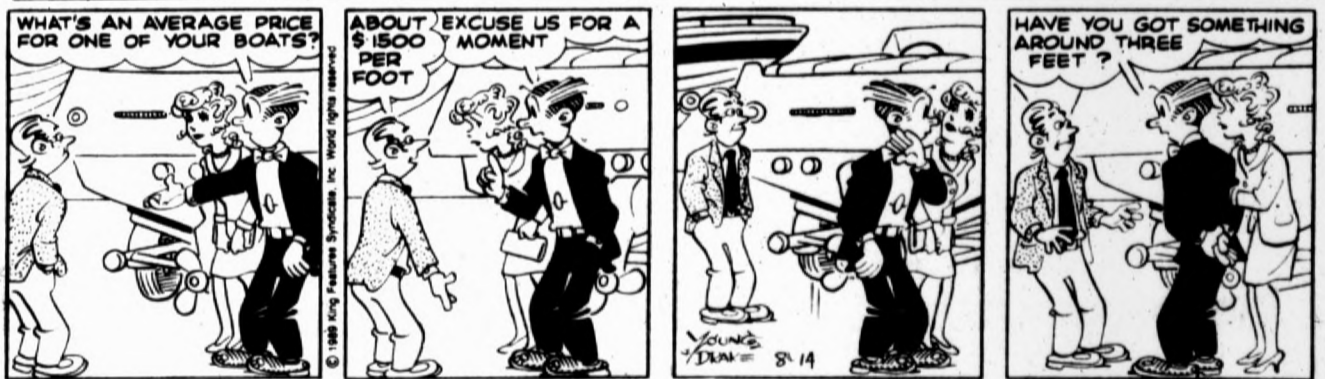

On the average, a person takes in about 16,000 gallons of water during his or her life.

Pickens postpones decision

AMARILLO (AP) - Oilman and corporate raider T. Boone Pickens Jr. has decided to postpone until the end of the month his decision whether to run for governor.

Pickens, head of Mesa Limited Partnership of Amarillo, is planning to move to Dallas and for the past several months has been considering running in the Republican gubernatorial primary next March.

The oilman, who recently gained notoriety with his abortive effort as the largest shareholder to get on the board of directors of a Japanese automobile headlight maker, had said earlier this year that he planned to make a decision on the gubernatorial race by Aug. 15.

But Pickens would like a little more time and now plans to announce his intentions probably early next month, his secretary, Sally Buford, said Monday. Pickens was out of town Monday and unavailable for comment.

Pickens said earlier this summer he would weigh several factors before deciding whether to throw his hat into the ring: responsibility to unitholders in his Mesa Limited Partnership, responsibility to members of his nationwide shareholders' rights group and his 20 percent stake in Koito, the Japanese headlight company.

If he jumps into the battle, he would face at least three Republican opponents, all of them relatively strong. Kent Hance, a former "Boll Weevil" Democratic congressman, was expected to announce his candidacy Tuesday.

Hance lost the GOP gubernatorial primary in 1986 to eventual winner Bill Clements. Clements resurrected Hance's moribund political career by appointing him in 1987 to the Railroad Commission.

The two candidates who have previously announced are Clayton Williams, an oil, ranching and long-distance telephone entrepreneur from Midland, and Jack Rains, founder of 3D International engineering and design firm and former secretary of state.

Consumer Groups Storm Local Grocery Stores!

Stores point finger at newspaper

Today saw one of the largest consumer responses of the week to offers made by local grocery stores for discounted prices. Across the city, shoppers were redeeming coupons cut from the local paper in record numbers.

"We know any offer we make will be highlighted most by the newspaper," commented a grocery store spokesman. "Our goal is simply to inform the consumers that these discounts are available. We are confident they will respond if they see it in the paper." His statement was backed by recent Consumer Data Service reports that indicated grocery store ads triple volume on discounted items and double volume on regularly priced items. It also revealed grocery ads are read by well over 70% of newspaper readers.

Grocery store representatives unanimously agreed that newspaper advertising was the only way to get immediate consumer response. One grocer remarked, "Most people read the paper, and a bunch of those readers clip our coupons. It's that simple." His comments reflect the well-known Manufacturer's Coupon Center report which stated that over 80% of all families use coupons.

"When consumers want more for their money, they always go to the newspaper," a grocery official said. When pressed by reporters for the best offer he could make to the consumers he replied, "Look in the paper, it's all right there. Green leaf lettuce, two heads for 79¢... with a coupon of course."

Grocer claims local newspaper "totally responsible" for consumer rush

"We make great offers in our newspaper ads every week, and we always get great response."

Batenhorst honored by bridal shower

Ronda Batenhorst, bride-elect of Terry Lindsey of Memphis, was feted with a bridal shower Saturday in the Antonian Room of St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

The honoree greeted guests, as did her mother, Lillian Batenhorst, and her grandmothers, Bertha Drager and Clara Batenhorst. Also welcoming guests were Barbara Lindsey, mother of the prospective groom, and his grandmother, Thelma Simpson.

Refreshments included cake, nuts, mints, punch and coffee. The serving table was topped with a teal cloth enhanced by a white crocheted overlay.

Teal and white silk floral arrangements centered the table. A three-tiered white wedding cake adorned with teal flowers was featured and was topped with two white lovebirds.

A set of Corning Ware casserole dishes was presented to Miss Batenhorst by the hostesses.

Hostesses included Margaret Hammer, Karen Payne, Denise Marnell, Poppy Head, Alva Lee Peeler, Margie Bone, Darla Stengel, Vonita Drager, Sandi Blevins, Anne Washington, Patti Jesko, Barbara Edwards, Margie Scoggins, Cookie Reyes, and Louise Vogler.

The couple has set Sept. 30 as their wedding date.

Honored with shower

Abundant Life

BY BOB WEAR
Ease the Pressure

The living experience generates a certain amount of pressure and it seems to be generally agreed that some degree of pressure is helpful in motivating us to live life at its best. With all of this, however, according to all we read and hear concerning human well being, we are hurting from too much pressure. We are also being told that it is important for us to find ways to ease some of this pressure.

Is all of the pressure necessary? Is it helpful? Is it adding to the joy and the effectiveness of living? According to all available information, from all sources, the answer is "no." Therefore, we should try to find some ways to "ease some of the pressure", and do so without losing anything worthwhile. Many people seem to be troubled and anxious about many things and this condition is one source of much of the unproductive pressure which affects their lives.

Much of the pressure is generated by the unjustified desire to excel, to out-do others, and many times there is no reason for even trying to do this, no purpose to be served. Of course, it is right for us to honestly do our best, but we are not going to do our best in the heavy atmosphere of present day pressures. When we have done our best, it is very important to our well being that we be happy with ourselves, and what we have done.

Many of us are never the best in what we do even when we do our best. Even so, we are filling our place in the system, or the group, filling our needs, meeting our obligations and making our best contribution to the community. It is wise and right to be happy with this and not permit the harassment of meaningless pressures, of one kind or another, to enter our world.

Real happiness, and this means life at its best, is found in participating the best we can, and not in out-doing everybody else.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am writing about the woman who uses her "fortress of fat" to keep people at a distance. When I read that letter I was stunned. It was as if I had written it.

Last year I would have agreed with every word she wrote, but I was more fortunate than she. I found a psychologist who is helping me redirect my life.

One of the first things she said was, "We are not going to focus on your weight problem, because it is merely the symptom of your real problem." That made more sense to me than anything I had ever heard.

I discovered some basic problems in my life that I never knew existed and we went right to work on them. The one major issue that I had never dealt with was the fact that I am an adult child of an alcoholic. I had always thought I was just a little weird.

My psychologist had me start going to meetings of the Adult Children of Alcoholics organization, where I discovered a whole new world of people who were familiar with the pains, frustrations and heartaches that I had suffered in my life. Suddenly I realized that I wasn't weird at all.

I hope that woman will check into an ACA group and see if there is help for her. I found peace and serenity at ACA, and now I feel very good about myself.--C.K., Omaha, Neb.

DEAR OMAHA: I'm glad you wrote. The organization that did so much for you is one I recommend. Check your phone book under Al-Anon and ask about Adult Children of Alcoholics meetings in your area. If none is available contact the National Association for Children of Alcoholics. The address is 31582 Coast Highway, Suite B, South Laguna, Calif. 92677.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I would like to use your column to warn male readers who are going through mid-life crisis to get counseling before they wreck their lives and lose everything of value.

I have just come through a severe emotional crisis called "male menopause." During this illness, my need to feel manly led me into a scandalous affair with a woman who offered to fulfill all my sexual fantasies. She was common and cheap and, had I been in my right mind, I would never have had anything to do with her.

For 30 years of my life I was a good husband, father, friend and role model to my employees. Then I became an adulterer, a liar, a cheat and a heavy drinker. I lost my self-respect and the trust of my family. I thank God every day that I didn't lose my wife.

If any man reading this thinks having an affair will solve his problems, take it from me, it will only lead to misery and the loss of everything valuable and decent in life.--Vancouver

DEAR VAN: If it is true that confession is good for the soul, you should feel a lot better after having written.

You said you became an adulterer, a liar, a cheat and a heavy drinker. I'd bet my bottom dollar that you became a heavy drinker first.

Star Break
Gem of the Day: If a man was a hero someplace else, he'd probably still be there.

Gary Puckett to entertain at Amarillo Tri State Fair

The 1989 Amarillo Tri State Fair, scheduled for Sept. 18-23, has extended its format of free coliseum entertainment to encompass five nights. The first night of the fair, Monday, Sept. 18, will feature Gary Puckett.

Gary Puckett reminds his fans that Paul McCartney, Kenny Rogers and Tina Turner are all over 40, and they are still on top of the popular music industry. That's where Puckett, 42, would like to be again. Puckett and his band, the Union Gap, hit its peak in 1968 when it sold more records than any other group, including the Beatles. The youthful look, style and approach is still the same, but now that he is back, there are a few subtle changes.

The signature voice which garnered six consecutive gold records and major hits, such as "Young Girl", "Woman, Woman", "Over You", "This Girl is a Woman Now", and "Lady Willpower" for the Union Gap, is better than ever. There is also a maturity and credibility in Puckett that he attributes to the experience of working in the music industry during the past two decades.

The Gary Puckett concert is co-sponsored by Pizza Hut and KLS Radio. Two shows will be presented by Puckett at 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. Tickets are free and may be obtained from the show sponsors after Sept. 4. Ticket holders will be admitted to the coliseum free of charge, but will be required to pay regular gate admission to the fairgrounds.

For additional information about tickets, you may contact the sponsors or the Tri State Fair office 806/376-7767.
