Crisis Center needing volunteers

By KAY PECK Staff Writer

New volunteers are being recruited by the Hereford Outreach Program of the Rape Crisis/Domestic Violence Center of Amarillo.

A 42-hour training course used to prepare volunteers working with the program is scheduled to begin on Oct. 19 at 7 p.m. in the Community Center. Training sessions will be held every Tuesday and Thursday evening (except on Halloween) through Nov. 21.

"Anybody who works as a volunteer for the program must go through the training," said Shelly Moss, outreach coordinator for the Hereford office.

Moss said special skills are needed to work with the program.

"They need to be able to handle emotionally strenuous situations," Moss said.

She also said that it is important for a volunteer to be emotionally supportive and empathetic.

are expected on opening day at Fair Park, a 227-acre site east of downtown Dallas. Overall attendance is projected at 3.3 million, said president Error W. McKoy, hired last year to put his 25 years of amusement park experience to work revitalizing the event.

DALLAS (AP) - A revamped

State Fair of Texas opens for a

24-day run today with laser

That would be far from a record, but would still be a 400,000 increase over last year.

The event that was to become the State Fair of Texas opened in 1886, and has been held every year since, except for some wartime years when Fair Park was used as temporary army encamp-

The fair has a storied history, sprinkled with visits by presidents and performers ranging from William Howard Taft and Woodrow Wilson to John Philip Sousa and Carrie Nation.

Several Dallas area school districts even take a holiday during the fair's Sept. 29-Oct. 22

But expansions and additions give should give the fair a more amusement park atmosphere, McKoy said. The popular automobile show has been doubled, a laser light show in Cotton Bowl stadium is more elaborate and nightly parade.

"It'll be the creme de la creme of state fairs, the Disney of state fairs," McKoy said.

Besides enlarging and upgrading the exhibits, McKov has expanded the advertising and promotion budget from less than $150,000 last year to almost $1

"The executive committee of the state fair board has encouraged me to promote aggressively and advertise aggressively," he

McKoy, who spent most of his career with Six Flags Corp., was hired in June 1988. He made few changes in last year's fair except to conduct a marketing survey. The survey sought to find out why people came to the fair, what they liked, where they came from and, once there, who decided what to do. Fairgoers also were asked to rank the fair against such parks as Six Flags Over Texas and Sea World in San Antonio, McKoy

While the fair held its own in cleanliness and food, "the area we did not score well in was the show area," McKoy said. "People told us they wanted more sit-down kind of shows." McKoy responded with the laser show and others; for example, the bird-of-prey show by the Dallas Zoo will take place in an amphitheater that hasn't been used in about 15 years.

The fair also has spent about $2 million sprucing up the cityowned Fair Park, which has been greets fairgoers as they enter criticized of late for its deteriora-

> "Pretty much we're taking everything back together,' McKoy said. "When fairgoers come to the property, I think they will see fairgrounds that will look as pretty and be as

Besides the typical fair fare, a revival of Broadway's "Gypsy," starring Tyne Daly of TV's lights have been added to the Cagney and Lacy and directed by Arthur Laurents, will take place in the Music Hall. Also, on two days, auditions will be held to find contestants for TV's Wheel of Fortune game show.

Good, bad, plaid roast Clements

DALLAS (AP) - The good, the bad and the plaid in multi-colors greeted Gov. Bill Clements at the Dallas Press Club Roast, where the motto was "Lame Ducks Don't Wear Plaid."

About 500 people, many sporting gaudy plaid jackets, scarves, and belts, gathered here Thursday night to poke fun at Texas' top executive's sartorial taste.

In a videotape, several state luminaries questioned the fashion habits of the Republican governor, who has said he will not seek reelection next year.

On the tape, U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas, talked about Clements' recent safari in Africa, saying Clements had to cut short his trip because "his jackets were scaring the lions."

U.S. Senator Phil Gramm, R-Texas, said, "I have been asked to say something funny about Bill Clements. I personally don't know anything funny about Bill Clements.

Guests at the roast then took turns skewering Clements, who sat on stage in a plaid chair and laughed at the remarks.

Corporate takeover specialist T. Boone Pickens, who was wearing a bright red plaid jacket, said Clements is an environmentalist and had toured an oil spill site shortly after taking office. Pickens recalled that Clements hoped for a hurricane to blow the spill out to sea.

"I'm glad Bill wasn't the spill," he said. Pickens presented to the Dallas Press Club a plaid stuffed jacket in a frame as the William P.

Clements Fashion Award. Throughout the event, First Lady Rita Clements modeled some of her husband's most memorable jackets, including one Clements wore in a photo of him next to President Gerald Ford that appeared on the front page of the New York Times.

Secretary of State George Bayoud recalled joining Clements in 1978 to campaign. "Some say Bill Clements is not a funny person ... Now you tell me, isn't he the funniest looking guy in Texas?"

Former U.S. House Speaker Jim Wright was the last roaster of the evening. He said people sometimes think of the governor as "Sweet Old Bill," but added, "Sometimes we just use the initials."

Wright closed by praising Clements' work for Texas, "No man can ever question Bill Clements' loyalty.'

Clements ended the evening with barbs at his roasters, but he said he values his relationship with the

Accused killer fails in bid to avoid facing murder charges in Florida the parents of a Florida murder victim want a quick trip to the electric chair for condemned killer Henry Lee Lucas, his defense attorney said it could be a year before Lucas is even extradited to Florida for trial.

Lucas, who has been linked to hundreds of slayings across the country, lost an attempt to block his extradition on more first-degree murder charges Thursday, but his attorney said he intends to appeal State District Judge Bill McAdams'

Attorney Rod Ponton said it could be six months to a year before Lucas sees Florida.

Florida authorities want to try Lucas, 53, on three first-degree murder charges for slayings in 1980 and 1981.

He is accused of the December 1980 shooting death of a gas station attendant, J.P. McDaniel, in Jackson County, Fla.; the February 1981 shooting death of Jerilyn Peoples at her home in Holmes County, Fla.; and the March 1981 strangulation and stabbing of Brenda Jo Burton at her home in Bonifay, Fla.

Ponton argued Thursday that the Florida warrant was invalid and that Lucas did not have an attorney present when he spoke to Florida investigators.

"He's got substantial defense to the charges," Ponton said. "We have work records ... that show he was 150 miles away the day before and the day after (the slayings)."

Court documents indicate Lucas, who was interviewed in July 1988 by investigators from the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, admitted involvement in all three

"Henry Lucas is the world's biggest liar and not the world's biggest serial killer," Ponton said, noting that of 295 murders Lucas to which has confessed, records show he was at none of them.

"Mr. Lucas had a real tough life attention to him were law enforce-HUNTSVILLE (AP) - Although ment people. This was his way of pleasing them," Ponton said. "You have to be crazy to confess to hundreds of murders you didn't commit."

> Among the handful of spectators in the courtroom were Harold and Ruby Murphy, of Graceville, Fla., Ms. Peoples' parents.

"We got him," Harold Murphy, 62, whispered to his wife as Mc-Adams gave his decision. "We know he'll get the electric chair in Florida. They definitely have enough evidence to convict him in Florida. I know what he's going to get when we get him back there and I'll be well satisfied.

The couple drove from Florida to Texas for their first look at Lucas.

"I've lived with this for eight years, seven months and 18 days, Murphy said. "I feel like he killed my daughter and I don't see why he's living."

Lucas faces death in Texas for the 1979 slaying of an unidentified female hitchhiker known only as "Orange Socks." In addition, he has six life terms, two 75-year sentences and one 60-year term for other Texas convictions. By his own count, he has been accused in 603

Lucas confessed to hundreds of killings and then recanted. He now acknowledges only one killing - the beating death of his mother in Tecumseh, Mich., in 1960.

The Florida warrant is based on statements from an occasional Lucas companion, Ottis Toole, now jailed for murder in Florida.

"Toole is the most certifiable crazy person I've ever seen on a videotape," Ponton said. "He has the body of a running back for the Houston Oilers and the mind of a 10-year-old. He's about 6-foot-4, likes to dress in women's clothes and burns down houses."

After the hearing, Murphy accused Ponton of trying to delay

The fire occurred Thursday in a basement air-handling unit and pumped enough smoke up air vents to fill the two-story-tall House chamber with a foul-smelling haze.

But firefighters, who arrived 90 seconds after the first call, cleared the building and extinguished the three-alarm fire within an hour.

Former Hereford resident, Joe Ella Cansler of Canyon, will be presented in recital at 3 p.m. Sunday at West Texas State University's Mary Moody Northern Hall. The public is invited to attend the event free of charge.

The recital is a W.T. Alumnus voice recital previewing a doctoral recital to be given in Himml Hall Oct. 21 at Texas Tech University in partial fulfillment of a P.H.D. of fine arts.

Cansler will be accompanied by Stanley Paller. Selections will include Handel, Mozart, Puccini, Ravel and Rinkker.

Sorority chapter holds fall rush rituals

Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority began Fall Rush, Thursday, Sept. 21, at the Ready Room with 12 members and eight guests standing for opening ritual. Each member introduced her guest and then everyone helped themselves to sandwichs, chips and vegetables with dips, cake and drinks. The room was decorated with hot air balloons adorned with hard candy and a chocolate sucker with this years theme, "Gifts From The Heart" written on them. All members and guests were ask to sign a large colored paper heart and then given a colorful heart shaped

Hints from Heloise

OILY SKIN

Dear Heloise: I have a problem with oily skin and have for years. As a teen-ager I was prone to slight acne. It's not as bad now that I am in my 20s, but it still bothers me. My forehead is always oily - I'm forever wiping it, my nose and chin. Any suggestions on how I can lessen it would be appreciated. - J. Andrews, Toledo, Ohio

The one thing to avoid with oily skin is a heavy or oil-base makeup. Use water-base or oil-free instead. When you look at the ingredients, water will be at the top of the list.

Wash often and use a detergent oap and lukewarm water, rinse horoughly and dry. About three times a week use wash-up puffs or a loofah. Follow with astrigent to remove remaining oil.

If it's impossible to wash your face often, blot it with tissues or a clean sponge to remove oil as it accumulates during the day. To freshen makeup, dust with pow-der. And don't forget your hair. If your skin is oily then your hair will be too, so wash it often. Keeping your scalp and skin clean is very important to minimize oily buil-

AIRLINE TRAVEL Dear Heloise: When traveling by plane, I found that the smoothest ride is in the seats in the middle compartment over the wing's forward part. The quietest ride is in the front section. When I'm taking a long trip, I ask for a seat next to the exit or at the bulkhead. There's much more leg

I used to smoke and always got a seat in the back. I never realized that other areas of the plane were so nice.
