Cande Robbins (24) puts up a short shot during the Lady Whitefaces 44-40 win over Palo Duro on Saturday. Robbins led Hereford with 13 points in the contest.

Lady Whitefaces bounce Palo Duro n home opener

The Hereford Lady Whitefaces continued their successful start to the 1989-90 basketball season Saturday with a 44-40 win in their home opener over the Palo Duro Lady Dons at Whiteface Gym.

In the junior varsity contest, the Lady Whiteface JV opened its schedule by overpowering Palo Duro, 58-22.

Cande Robbins and Shantel Cornelius both scored in double figures for Hereford with Robbins leading with 13 points while Cornclius had 10. Stacy White added nine and Donna Grotegut 8 as the Herd spent most of the game in its half-court offense.

Hereford opened up a three-point lead after the first quarter at 11-8 as Robbins popped for six points and Grotegut added four. Palo Duro's Regina Thomas scored six of her game-high 18 points in the period to keep the Lady Dons close. Hereford, which never trailed in the game, added five points to its lead in the second quarter with all the scoring coming from Cornelius, who had six points in the quarter, and Robbins with Palo Duro closed the gap in the third quarter as Desiree Wallace hit for six of her 14 points. The Lady Dons never trailed by more than eight points in the game, and closed the margin to four late in the quarter. Hereford spread the points around with Brienna Townsend, Chandra Brown, White and Cornelius each getting a basket.

The Lady Dons threatened to take the lead with five minutes left in the game. Palo Duro had closed to within a point at 35-34 and had the ball, but a turnover and a three-pointer by White put the Herd back up by four. White finished the quarter with seven of Hereford's 14 points while the Lady Dons could only match with 14 of their

Hereford shot only 39 percent for the game, but grabbed 20 defensive rebounds and seven steals to hold off Palo Duro. Brown led the rebounding with nine while Robbins had eight.

"I was really pleased with the way we ran our half-court offense," Coach Dickie Faught said. "We never could get the fast break going - PD was just too quick - and everything we got was from the offense.

Faught added that the Herd played well in the game despite the low shooting percentage.

"We were taking pretty good shots," he said, "we just weren't getting them to fall. The girls did a good job of working the ball to get the open shot." Lady Whiteface JV 58, PD 22

Hereford scored the first eight points to jump out to a 19-2 first quarter lead and never let Palo Duro get any closer.

Jennifer Hicks scored 16 points, including 14 in the second half, to lead all scorers while Brek Binder had 12 in the win. Jennifer Bullard added nine points and Melinda Holmes six.

Palo Duro matched Hereford's nine second quarter points, but turnovers helped the Herd outscore the Lady Dons 30-11 in the second half as Hicks and Binder combined for 20 points.

Oilers taking streak, hurts to Kansas City

Oilers will take a three-game winning streak and an elite injury list on the road to Kansas City Sunday.
The Oilers started Sunday's 23-7 victory over the Los Angeles Raiders with two starters on the sidelines and finished with three more injured starters, center George Yarno, linebacker Robert Lyles and wide receiver Ernest Givins.

Givins returned to the game despite an ankle injury but Yarno and Lyles left gaps in the Oilers lineup that may affect Sunday's starting lineup.

Yarno started a chain reaction when he left in the second quarter with a knee injury, forcing starting left guard Bruce Matthews to move to center and backup tackle Don Maggs to replace Matthews.

"We'll probably have to make a few moves to put us together, we ran out of players in a hurry," Oilers coach Jerry Glanville said.

Lyles, who calls defensive signals, left the game in the second quarter with a knee injury and backup linebacker Scott Kozak suffered a concussion. Lyles was replaced by Eric

Eugene Seale further depleted the Oilers linebacking crew when he was ejected for fighting on the opening Oiler coach Jerry Glanville plans to shift part of Lyles' responsibilities to linebacker John Grimsley. Grimsley likely will get the call, Glanville said, instead of other starters Al Smith and Johnny Meads.

"Meads is an excellent football player but he doesn't like to do the other things," Glanville said. "I've had a lot of players like him. They want to play but they don't want to tell everybody else what to do.

> Houston's three-game winning streak is its longest regular season streak since the 1985 season before Glanville took over as head coach. But Glanville isn't enamored with streaks.

> The Oilers (7-4) beat the Los Angeles Raiders 23-7 Sunday, their third straight victory for the first time in regular season since 1985.

'You don't get a gold star for winning three in a row," Glanville said. "You add up the wins at the end of the season and hope you have enough."

Quarterback Warren Moon sees the streak as a building block.

"The streak is nice but we need to pad it on the road," Moon said. 'We've got to take the momentum on the road.

The Oilers' streak came in the Astrodome against Detroit, Cincinnati and the Raiders. They play the next two weeks at Kansas City and Pittsburgh.

"It was our best game of the year on both sides of the ball," linebacker Grimsley said. "It was important to win three in a row and get that behind

The Oilers moved within one-half game of Cleveland in the AFC Central Division after the Browns were tied 10-10 by Kansas City.

'We had breakdowns on Monday (a 26-24 victory over Cincinnati), but it was great blocking and me getting rid of the ball quickly that stopped the sacking today," quarterback Warren Moon said.

Houston's defense intercepted Steve Beuerlein three times and recovered two fumbles, setting up two field goals and a touchdown.

Cornerback Steve Brown got his fifth interception of the season.

'It's not important for personal statistics, but because I'm helping to get the ball back for our offense and hopefully contributing to a win,"

Kubiak leads Broncos win

WASHINGTON (AP) - Just when quarterback Gary Kubiak figured he was destined to spend the season on the bench, he ended up being John Elway for a night.

Kubiak, inserted as the starter He threw two short touchdown passes in the first half, then played ballcontrol in the final 30 minutes to lead the Denver Broncos to a 14-10 victory over the Washington Redskins.

The triumph all but wrapped up the AFC West title for the Broncos (9-2), who own a four-game lead over the Los Angeles Raiders with five games left. Denver, San Francisco and the New York Giants share the best record in the NFL.

Kubiak, who has made a career out of backing up Elway, had thrown only two passes this season prior to Monday night. He learned four hours before the game that he was about to get his second start in the last five years because Elway was sick with a stomach virus.

"It's kind of ironic," Kubiak said. "I told my wife last week ... I think it may be one of those years where John plays every game. But as long as we win, it's OK."

Kubiak got off to a rough start, Monday night in place of an ailing fumbling on the third play from Elway, played the role magnificently. scrimmage to set up the Redskins' lone touchdown, an 8-yard run by Jamie Morris. But Kubiak rebounded to lead the Broncos to victory in much the same fashion Elway has done this season - by throwing short, conservative passes and frequently handing off to Bobby Humphrey, who finished with 110 yards in 31 carries.

Kubiak completed 13 of 27 passes for 123 yards, including a 1-yard TD pass to Melvin Bratton and a 5-yard scoring strike to Ricky Nattiel. Kubiak also had 16 rushing yards, punted twice and guided the Broncos in a 14play drive that enabled them to hold the ball for the final 6:45.

"I wasn't concerned about the job Gary would do because Gary is a great quarterback," Denver coach Dan Reeves said. "I was just worried about going into the game with just one quarterback."

"There's so many people who did great job," Reeves said. "Our defense really played super. You know, turnovers set up the 10 points they had."

In addition to Morris' touchdown, the Redskins got a 32-yard field goal from Chip Lohmiller after a Kubiak pass was intercepted by Washington cornerback A.J. Johnson. The kick made the score 14-10 midway through the third quarter, but Washington couldn't get past its own 39 the rest of The Denver defense allowed only 223 yards, and safety Dennis Smith twice made key plays by stripping Morris of the football. The first fumble set up the Broncos' first touchdown and the second stopped a potential Washington scoring drive.

"We had two big turnovers which hurt us badly," Redskins coach Joe Gibbs said. "A lot of tough things have been happening to us.

Washington (5-6) again had trouble moving the football behind its injurybattered offensive line. The Redskins led the NFL in total offense three weeks ago, but they've only scored two touchdowns in their last three

The Broncos took a 14-7 lead with 8:15 left in the first half when Kubiak culminated a 79-yard, 18-play drive with a scoring pass to Nattiel, who broke free in the back of the end zone.

The march, which lasted 8:15, was prolonged when defensive tackle Tracy Rocker was called for a 15-yard facemask penalty after stopping Sammy Winder in the backfield on a third-down play at the Redskin 35.

Kubiak salvaged the drive with an 18-yard completion to tight end Orson Mobley on a third-and-11 play. Three plays later, Kubiak hooked up with Nattiel with what turned out to be the winning score.

The first winner of the NCAA postseason basketball tournament was Oregon in 1939.

Martin w miss Thursday

IRVING (AP) - Things have gone from bad to sad for the Dallas Cowboys.

As if getting beat by a "Hail Mary" pass wasn't painful enough, the Cowboys learned Monday that they will be without Kelvin Martin, their leading wide receiver, in Thursday's game against the Philadelphia Eagles.

Martin will be out for the season with a torn interior cruciate in his left knee, team officials said.

Martin caught 7 passes for 82 yards before he was injured in Sunday's 17-14 loss to the Miami Dolphins.

"Kelvin was our key receiver," said Dallas coach Jimmy Johnson. "Losing him will really hurt our passing game. He can make some big plays for you."

Johnson said James Dixon and Derrick Sheppard will probably start at wide receiver although "Sheppard has an ankle bothering him."

Cornell Burbage and Bernard Ford will be backups and Johnson said the Cowboys could active Scott Ankrom off the reserve squad for insurance.
"We're going to be a little thin at the position," Johnson said.
Johnson said the 10th loss of the season was particularly painful because it came primarily on Dan Marino's 48-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass to end the first half.

"Take away the 'Hail Mary' pass and we did a good job against them," Johnson said. "Instead of going ahead 14-3 at halftime it took a lot out of us.

"I like our effort and our attitude. We're getting ourselves in position to win games. I really can't ask much more from them. You'd like to be winning these kind of ballgames but we are getting close. I'd be willing to take these players to training camp next year. About a fourth of these players weren't in camp in July. We've come a long ways."

The 1-10 Cowboys host the 7-4 Eagles at 3 p.m., and the traditional Thanksgiving Day game in Texas Stadium will be a first for Johnson and his new staff.

"I like the idea of playing on Thanksgiving," Johnson said. "It gives the team a lot of national exposure. Of course, it's a short workweck but at least we don't have to travel.'

Under Tom Landry, the Cowboys had lost their last three Thanksgiving Day games.

Hints from Heloise

HOT OVEN

Dear Heloise: As the mother of a very active toddler, I was always worried that he would open the door and get burned when the oven was hot from baking.

My hint to solve this problem is for anyone who has a self-cleaning oven. Simply bake as usual, but while the oven is hot, engage the cleaning lock on the door. Then your toddler won't be able to open the oven door and get burned. - Mrs. Richard Sauter, Flower Mound, Texas

PERMED HAIR

Dear Heloise: I recently decided to try a different hairstyle, so I got a permanent. Well, it turned out too wavy. Is there anything that I can do at home to remedy this?

The permanent was quite expensive and I don't really have the money in my budget to pay for another visit to the salon. - H.I., Topeka, Kan. It is usually best to speak with the people at the salon where you had your hair done. Many of them have a guarantee on permanents and will remedy any problem you have.

A hair salon in our area shared the following tips. Use a hair dryer when drying your hair and it will straighten it out somewhat. They also suggested using a hair conditioner after each shampoo. Also, using mousse or gel to help control your hair will help the curl relax after four to six weeks. Hope these hints are helpful and that your problem becomes manageable. — Heloise

Here's some travel tips

With the winter holidays just around the corner, it's again time to start making plans to see family and friends. If you're pregnant, this can be a very special time to visit with those who are close to you and who share in the excitement of your pregnancy.

But expecting couples often wonder if traveling is safe while a woman is pregnant. You might find this is a good year to invite family and friends your way, but if a trip is more convenient, you probably won't need to change your plans. For most women, traveling during pregnancy is quite safe, provided some extra precautions and comfort measures are taken.

When planning your trip, choose the mode of transportation with which you are most comfortable. If you plan to fly, request an aisle seat, so you are able to get up easily and move around. Also, take advantage of the advance boarding offered by most airlines for people who need a little extra time getting on and getting settled. When flying, it is a good idea to eat lightly to avoid airsickness. Be wary of airplane meals, which are often quite heavy and salty. You might want to request a special low salt or vegetarian meal in advance and take bland crackers to snack on.

If you are planning a car trip, allow time for frequent stops to get out and stretch, since sitting for a long time can be uncomfortable and can cause swollen legs. Also, try to keep each day's drive short, five or six hours, since full day drives can be very wearing. You probably will feel best in loose clothing and comfortable shoes. You also may want to take along pillows to put behind the small of your back and a small box to prop your feet up.

Remember to always wear a seatbelt while in the car.

I ran off 25 copies for my friends and in December of 1988 the Xerox factor kicked in. At least 150 copies were made by folks who still had copies from the first year. I'm surprised it got this far, but I'm sure it's only a matter of time before someone sends it to you and says it was written by their Uncle Harvey.

If you think your billions of readers will like it as much as my two dozen did, you are welcome to it, Ann. Thanks for being everybody's level-headed best friend. --Ken Nottingham, Editor, The Janitor Jet (Anderson, Ind.)
