TAX

not eliminate anything, and that the Treasury is considering how to reassert excise taxes, seemed certain to stir even more speculation about a possible administration bid for a manufacturers' tax.

Indications were that next year when all 435 House seats and one third of the 96 Senate seats are at stake in the congressional election—would not be the most favorable political climate for such a bid.

There is little if any difference between an excise tax—sometimes called a "luxury tax," as on jewelry or perfume—and a sales tax. While a retail tax would be applied on the goods when bought by the consumer, a manufacturers' tax would be collected on finished products as they come out of the factory.

Treasury and congressional staff specialists estimate a retail tax would raise annually about $5,700,000,000 and a 5 per cent manufacturers' tax about $3,760,000,000. Any increased sellers' markups, of course, would come out of consumers' pockets but would not go into the U. S. Treasury.

A Final Salute

The 3560th Aircraft Maintenance Squadron honors the official retirement of Major Wilbur Lage (left) at retreat ceremonies held at Webb Air Force Base Tuesday.

Authorities said Patterson was stabbed by a 24-year-old Big Spring woman. The woman was being held in the office of County Attorney Hartman Hooser pending completion of an investigation.

Doctors this morning said a lung may have been punctured. Extent of the injury had not been determined at noon. Patterson was not believed to be in a critical condition, however.

Kansas Sets Oil Shutdown

TOPEKA (AP)—A 10-day shutdown in Kansas oil production has been ordered by the state Corporation Commission because above-ground supplies of crude oil have become excessive.

The shutdown is effective at 11:59 p.m. Oct. 15 and will continue until 12:01 a.m. Oct. 26. It applies to the state's 5,877 prorated wells and most of the 24,069 unprorated wells. Only secondary recovery projects are excepted.

Conservation officials at Wichita said the shut down and cut in allowable will bring Kansas production down to an average of approximately 200,000 barrels a day for October.

Army Rejects Mothers To Korea Idea

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army has rejected as impractical a suggestion that the mothers of 23 Americans who refused to come home from Communist captivity be sent to Korea to plead with their sons.

An Army statement yesterday expressed regret but said the proposal is out of the question. Any face-to-face meeting between the 23 Americans and their mothers, it said, must await the end of the 120-day period during which "explainer teams" try to reason the men out of their voiced refusal to be repatriated.

Hundreds Of Colors

A. A. Cooper of the Nabors Paint Store shows A. O. Maynard, local painter, some of the hundreds of combinations of colors which are available at firm's new color bar. The charts show prospective customers at a glance just what shades are available and what shades can be developed from mixtures in stock.

Nabors Paint Store Adds New Art Shop

Oscar L. Nabors, owner of Nabors Paint Store at 1701 Gregg Street, has announced expansion of his business by the addition of an artist supply office.

The new office, located on 17th behind the main building, is known as the "Art Shop." Nabors will devote his entire efforts to the new line of goods.

A. A. Cooper, who has been in the paint business here for the past eight years, has taken over active management of the regular business.

Nabors stated that any type artist supplies can be found in the new section with the exception of ceramic and china paints, which he will have in the near future. Oils, pastels and water colors are all in stock.

Picture framing will be a major part of the new business. Frames of any size or shape are available, and an expert picture framer has been employed.

Some 2,000 colors are available in the regular line of paints, Cooper said. If the color desired is not readily available, it can be mixed. A new Martin-Senour color bar has been installed at the store for mixing colors.

Cooper pointed out that the bar is equipped with tools to mix more than 1,200 colors. A wheel with known colors is installed on the bar, and mixtures can be demonstrated to the spectator by interchanging button colors.

House and garden colors, which are used by most interior decorators, are featured at the store.

Approximately 200 patterns of wall paper are stocked at the store, and orders can be made direct from the various firms for designs not in stock. Mrs. Cooper has charge of the wall paper department.

Inlaid linoleum is also handled by the store as well as varnish and lacquer. Plaster wall tile is also featured.

Cooper said the store is dealer for home improvement loans from $60 to $2,500, with 36 months to pay. The store is open from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and phone is 4-8101.

Dependable Tires Are A 'Must' For Safe Driving

Whether your job demands a lot of travel by automobile or you are classified as a "Sunday motorist," it is always safe to have the vehicle outfitted with dependable tires and tubes.

Automobile driving, safety experts will tell you, is made more hazardous by inadequate casings that often blow out when vehicles are being driven at high speeds.

A favorite shopping place for persons seeking new tires is the Phillips Tire Company, located at Fourth and Johnson Streets in Big Spring.

Ted Phillips, owner and operator of the station bearing his name, is the local dealer for the famous US Royal make of tires.

That the tire is popular and much in demand the country over is reflected in its ever-increasing sales.

The popular Royal white-side-wall tire, the kind that doesn't scuff and soil even when it comes in contact with the curb, is also offered for sale by the Phillips concern.

Phillips also maintains a tire recapping service, where tires can be treated to give many thousands of extra miles of service.

Tailor-made seat covers of all dyes and grades are also stocked by the Phillips establishment. A limited supply of automotive accessories is also stocked by the Phillips company.

Barbecue Meals Tasty For Fall

There's nothing like a tasty meal of well-prepared barbecue to enhance the enjoyment of brisk autumn weather.

And the expressions "tasty" and "well-prepared" both are appropriate when reference is made to barbecue marketed here at the Ross Barbecue Stand, 904 East Third.

The Ross reputation for fine barbecue is well known in Big Spring, of course, and it has been earned by the quality of the product.

First of all, only the best grade of meat is used in barbecue prepared by Ross. Then, the preparation involves a prize recipe, and close, personal supervision to assure that the product is uniformly good, day in and day out.

Ross serves complete barbecue meals at the establishment, and barbecue sandwiches can be purchased to go, or for consumption on the premises. In addition, barbecue to go can be purchased in any quantity desired.

Substantial Senate Approval For Warren Appointment Seen

By JACK BELL. WASHINGTON (U)—Substantial Senate approval was forecast today for President Eisenhower's appointment of Gov. Earl Warren as chief justice of the United States.

Warren nomination informally and report to the full committee. Full committee approval of the nomination, perhaps even in advance of the Senate's reconvening in January, was suggested by the reception given announcement of the appointment.

Democrats joined with Republicans in praising the selection. Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic unsuccessful presidential nominee in 1952, said it was "an excellent appointment."

When the court opens its fall term here Monday, the big, smiling California Republican will don the chief justice's robes.

Barring an unforeseen special session of Congress, the Senate will not act at least until January, when the regular session begins. But a Senate Judiciary subcommittee, headed by Sen. Langer (R-ND), already is geared to consider the justice and the second to take office on a recess appointment. The first so appointed was John Rutledge, who had served on the original court and was named chief justice by George Washington in 1795—only to have the nomination later rejected by the Senate after representations that Rutledge was mentally ill.

Brownwood Pivot Man

Husky Bill Harlow, a 187-pound senior, may prove to be a thorn in the side of Big Spring when the Steers host Brownwood here Friday night. Harlow, a center, is one of the four returning lettermen with the Lions. He was a blocking back in 1952. He plays both ways.

HERE FRIDAY

Brownwood Will Lean On Speed

Their stock suddenly up after a convincing triumph over San Angelo last weekend, the Brownwood Lions move into Big Spring Friday night, set to make it four in a row for the year. The Lions, coached by Roland (Slim) Warren, have defeated Stephenville, Tivy High of Kerrville and Angelo, in that order, and, anyway one cares to look at it, will be favored to 'take' the Steers. Big Spring is still winless after two games.

SERIES NOTES

Allie's Hurt Back Well Kept Mystery

NEW YORK (AP)—If Allie Reynolds' aching back sidelines him for the remainder of the World Series, he may have lost his chance to break two series records. One is for the most victories, 7, and the other is for the most strikeouts, 61. Both marks are held by Red Ruffing, another Yankee great. Reynolds said his back started hurting in the third inning yesterday. He blamed it on an injury received last June in Philadelphia when a bus loaded with Yankee players was involved in an accident. Reynolds' injury was one of the best kept secrets of the year. It was not revealed until weeks later that the Chief suffered a strained back. Because of the increase in price of admission, the first game established a new financial record. The gross receipts of $465,267 and the net of $387,574.74 bettered the previous highs set at Cleveland, Oct. 10, 1948, by $6,288 fans. Yesterday's turnout numbered 68,374.

Dutch Leonard Is Handed Release By Chicago Cubs

By JERRY LISKA CHICAGO (AP)—Baseball's fountain of youth apparently has trickled to an end for Emil Dutch Leonard, the grand knuckleballer who averaged almost 10 victories per season for 20 major league years. The 43-year-old Leonard yesterday was released by the seventh-place Chicago Cubs, a bit of sentimental news virtually lost in the glare of World Series opening day. The Brooklyn Dodgers, the Washington Senators—especially the Philadelphia Phillies all got the best this fierce mound competitor could give. He goes to pasture with a lifetime big league record of 181 triumphs.

SW Teams Ease Off In Drills For Assignments This Week

By The Associated Press Southwest Conference footballers tapered off in their training Thursday for the weekend tussles with intersectional foes. Texas Christian and the University of Arkansas, set to open the conference grid Saturday afternoon in Fayetteville, Ark., both stressed attack in their preparations.

Texas, Georgia Tech, Rice Picked To Win On Saturday

NEW YORK (AP)—How can you think of future football games while dodging line drives and home run blasts from the World Series rivals? (Last week's figures: 31 winners in 40 games that reached a decision for an average of .775. Season's total: 80 correct, 17 incorrect for .746). The winners this weekend: Michigan State over Minnesota; The Spartans apparently aren't as strong as last year. Ohio State over California: The game you will see on your TV after you have finished the World Series contest. Duke over Tennessee: Duke always troubles Tennessee and this Tennessee team apparently troubles easy. Michigan over Tulane: Michigan made five touchdowns in 10 minutes against the University of Washington last week. Oklahoma over Pittsburgh: Those Oklahoma backs had their bath of fire against Notre Dame. Notre Dame over Purdue: A neighborhood spat has produced surprises. Rice over Cornell: Even if the Cowboys from Texas are without their ponies, they'll do plenty of riding. Southern California over Indiana: Aramis Dandoy, Southern Cal tailback shows no signs of running out of gas. Baylor over Miami: The Texas Bears crushed California, 26-0, in their opener two weeks ago and have been waiting for this one since. Penn over Penn State: One of those Civil Wars that could go either way but Penn State has the longer injury list with Tony Radon, quarterback, and end Jesse Arnette both limping. Maryland over Clemson: Maryland supposedly has backs stacked up. UCLA over Oregon: The Uclians have permitted their first a foe, Oregon State and Kansas, a single touchdown between them. Juniors Play Lamesa At 8

There'll be football tonight at Steer Stadium. At 8 p.m., the Big Spring Junior High School Yearlings take on the Lamesa Breezes in a return game. Last time out, the Breezes defeated the Yearlings by three touchdowns but the locals have come a long way since that time. Their offense still falls short of expectations, but the defense is much improved. Coach Dan Lewis, Roy Thurston and Darrell Flynt will be able to field a heavy team, though some of the youngsters have been out only a few days. Billy Johnson will probably direct the Yearling attack. He'll have assistance in the backfield from such hands as Meric Dean Harter and Lee Underwood, among others.

Dallas Claims Title With 4-2 Win Over Vols

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas had its first Dixie Series championships in seven years today. It also was the first time for the Texas League to win this post-season title in three years. Dallas whipped Nashville of the Southern Association, 4-2, last night to sew up the Dixie Series four games to two as the biggest crowd of the series—9,266—looked on. The Eagles rallied for three runs in the seventh to come from behind and blast Nashville out. Ben Taylor homered in the second to give Dallas a lead but Nashville got it back in the sixth on Alex Cosmidis' two-run homer. Then came that spurge in the seventh on two singles, a walk and an error. Wayne McLeland and Jose Santiago combined to limit Nashville to three hits. Dallas got to Pete Modica for seven. Santiago relieved McLeland in the eighth after the Dallas right-hander was removed for a pinch-hitter in the seventh. The six-game series drew 35,207 but all of this except something more than 9,000 was counted in Dallas. R. W. Burnett, owner of the Dallas club, said the league playoffs and Dixie Series made it possible for him to realize a profit for the season. He broke even only in the regular season. Burnett has owned the Dallas club since 1948 and has managed to make about $50,000 a year. But he said it would be a long time before he got the money back on his original investment—$1,500,000.

Flushed With Success, Dick Burnett Schedules Parley

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF DALLAS (AP)—It was a pretty high-priced box seat Dick Burnett bought but he said today, as he basked in the glory of a winning baseball club, that it had been worth it. Burnett is the old man who sank a million and a half in the Dallas club of the Texas League in 1948, fought and joined the chains, then went independent again as he battled for a winning club. It came last night as Dallas, straight away and playoff champion of the Texas League beat Nashville of the Southern Association, 4-2, to sew up the Dixie Series four games to two. Burnett tried everything. He formed his own chain of minor league clubs to develop ball players but that didn't work. He brought in a flock of veteran players who set home run records but couldn't run fast enough to win ball games. He hired Charley Grimm, the big league manager, at $80,000 a year. He formed a working agreement with Cleveland of the American League. But he couldn't win the pennant. Then he broke away and plunged doggedly back into the drive to cop a pennant on his own. And today, as he received congratulations for finally attaining his goal, he was busy preparing for a meeting of baseball leaders in Dallas Oct. 17-18 when he hopes

Ray, Port Arthur Meet In Feature

By The Associated Press A clash of Ray (Corpus Christi) with Port Arthur headlines the most important schedule of the season in Texas schoolboy football. It is one of 19 games in which undefeated teams battle in the four divisions that decide state champions. Ray, heralded power of the South, is undefeated and untied. Port Arthur, heir apparent to Baytown's throne in the bottom district of Class AAAA, has been tied but not beaten. The CLASS AA division has more games matching undefeated teams with Stamford and Ballinger taking the No. 1 spot. Stamford already has been stamped as the top contender for a finals in this division. In Class AAAA, other games sending unbeaten teams against each other are Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) vs Sunset at Dallas and Miller (Corpus Christi) vs Stephen F. Austin of Houston. In Class AAA, McAllen and Pharr-San Juan-Alamo battle at Pharr Friday night in a game that not only matches unbeaten, untied teams but counts in the conference race of District 8. Breckenridge, defending state champion of AAA, steps out of its class again, this time tackling Abilene of AAAA. Abilene is, undefeated but has been tied.

'Ambassador Of Good Will'

Good Music More Important Than Food To Austrians, Speaker Says

The Austrian people would rather hear good music than eat or have nice clothes, Renee von Bronneck of Vienna, Austria, told an audience at the Howard County Junior College auditorium Wednesday.

It is not unusual for a Viennese to limit himself to a piece of bread for dinner in order to buy a ticket to the opera, she said.

Frau von Bronneck spoke in Big Spring under the auspices of the 1905 Hyperion Club and the Modern Woman's Forum. She has been speaking before a number of women's clubs in West Texas as an "ambassador of good will" from Austria to the United States.

In Big Spring she was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Taylor. A tea in the home of Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow was held in her honor following the talk.

Frau von Bronneck brought life in Austria close to the audience with her descriptions of its scenic beauty, customs and the industrious nature of the people.

The speaker was a Tirolese costume, part of which had been handed down in her family for five generations.

Describing the customs of the country she said that what we include as part of our Christmas observance begins in Austria on Dec. 6, when St. Nicholas makes his rounds. He is accompanied by "Krampus," one of the devil's helpers, and the two of them hand out presents to the good children and punishment to the bad ones.

The actual celebration of Christmas on Dec. 25 is set aside as a purely religious observance, Frau von Bronneck said.

Contrasting the conveniences women in the United States have with life in Austria, the speaker reminded the audience that Austrian women have barely even heard of washing machines, refrigerators and freeing units.

The very process of shopping for food is a chore, she said, because shoppers must go from store to store to buy instead of finding everything in one place. And because there are so few automobiles they must carry all their bundles home.

"Like a mother I know Austria and Vienna," she said. "I know its laughter and its sadness. Austria has suffered great wounds. She needs friendship, especially the friendship of the United States."

Frau von Bronneck paid special tribute to the United States, Marshall Plan aid helped Austria build factories and power plants, she said, and the Economic Recovery Program helped private people rebuild their homes.

Frau von Bronneck expressed appreciation to Mrs. W. B. Little, her hostess in Texas, and to Congressman George Mahon, both of whom were instrumental in arranging her visit to the United States.

She was especially pleased when Mahon stepped down from the platform at a luncheon in his honor at the Settles Hotel Wednesday and greeted her with as "My good friend, Renee von Bronneck," she said later in an interview.

Receiving guests at the tea were Mrs. H. H. Rowe, president of the Modern Woman's Forum; Mrs. Bristow, president of the 1905 Hyperion Club; Frau von Bronneck and Mrs. Little.

Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Shine Phillips served. Assisting them were Mrs. James Little, Mrs. Robert Piner, Mrs. J. P. Dodge, Mrs. Fred Whitaker, Mrs. Harwood Keith, Mrs. Jordan Grooms.

The table was laid with a white Marghab linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of roses. Appointments were in silver and crystal.

Approximately 100 attended.

Cover and cook over low heat for 3 minutes longer. Stir well; pour into 6 by 10 inch oiled rectangular pan. Chill until firm; cut in 8 equal pieces. Arrange four of the pieces on a greased heat-proof platter. Thinly slice cheese; place on cereal squares. Top with remaining squares of cereal. Blend together soup and milk. Just One Way To Lose Weight: Eat Less

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Wanda Hendrix is one of the busiest girls in Hollywood, dividing her time between working in pictures, radio and television. When I lunched with Wanda recently at the Beverly Hills Club she had just come back from New York where, she confessed, she found life much more hectic than on the West Coast.

When the waiter placed a large slice of cold roast beef before Wanda she started to cut off every bit of fat.

"Are you dieting?" I asked.

"When you are as tiny as I am," Wanda said, "you have to be careful."

"What is your favorite way to reduce?"

Wanda's blue eyes twinkled as she asked: "Is there but one?"

"Meaning what?" I insisted.

"That you have to cut down on ing about reducing that makes dieting a problem.

"I think when you have to reduce you should take your mind off of all hunger signals," Wanda added.

"Don't feel sorry for yourself. Don't think about food any more than you have to, but instead concentrate on how much you are going to enjoy the compliments you will get when you have slimmed down your figure."

"You make it sound so easy," I commented.

"It's easy when you approach dieting the right way," Wanda explained. "So much of being able to go on a diet is psychological. Once your mind is right, and you find the right method for achieving the goal, there's nothing left

Atomic Energy Plant Picket Line Still Out

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP)—A rival Ironworkers union local, fearful of bloodshed, steered clear today of picket lines set up by a rebellious brother local at the strikebound Jopka, Ill., steam electric power plant.

Tyler Opens Its Rose Celebration

TYLER (AP)—The annual Texas Rose Festival opened today with pretty Sally Kay reigning as 1953 queen of the four-day celebration. Queen Sally, 18, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kay Jr. of Tyler. She is a student at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where she is majoring in primary education.

She was salutatorian of the 1952 graduating class of Tyler High School, where she was cheer leader in the Blue Brigade, a member of the A Cappella Choir and national honor society, and was chosen as ideal girl.

She is five feet, five inches tall, weighs 115 pounds and has brown hair and eyes. Her hobbies are horseback riding and photography. She plays the piano.

Queen Sally will succeed Miss Carol Ellison, 1952 queen, who is a student at Southern Methodist University.

Returning as a special royal guest for the 1953 festival is Mrs. Francis J. Donoghue of Houston, the former Miss Margaret Copeland of Palestine, who in 1933 was the first festival queen and who is returning to the nation's "Rose Capital" for the first time since then.

Forty-two beautiful girls will participate in the Festival of Fantasy, the coronation of her majesty, the Queen of Roses. They will ride on rose-covered floats in a two-mile-long street parade which will also feature 40 bands and march units headed by the colorful Tyler Junior College Apache Band and Apache Belles. Secretary of the Interior McKay will head the parade tomorrow.

A million rose blooms are massed in Tyler's new Garden Center Building overlooking the municipal rose garden where hundreds of varieties of roses are in full bloom.

Sight-seeing caravans will be conducted free to the fields where two-thirds of the nation's supply of field-grown rose bushes are produced.

Closing the four-day event will be the annual rose vesper service Sunday evening in the municipal auditorium. The service will be inter-denominational and will feature outstanding choral groups.

pickets of Local 595 of Paducah because "that would mean bloodshed." He added: "We'll let the law take care of that. If one life is lost, that would be too many."

The AFL Ironworkers' International created Local 758 to take jurisdiction of Jopka after Local 595 defied an order to end the strike, reportedly the 39th since construction of the atomic energy-related project began in 1951.

The Ironworkers' International, obviously attempting to woo members from Local 595 to Local 758, has charged that "racketeering" by Local 595 representatives is the real issue in the latest strike, now 16 days old.

The International asserted "the real issue is whether the Ironworkers' (Local 595) stewards and foremen will be permitted to operate illegal crap games, horse trade books, whisky rackets and other concessions on this job."

William Sanders, Local 595 business agent, swiftly replied, "Everybody knows those things are not going on."

Only last Sunday, a bomb, apparently hurled from a moving automobile, damaged Sanders' home. No one was injured.

Sanders asserted, "I don't scare easily. I'm going to fight this thing to the bitter end."

He said "The union of which I'm business agent will continue to represent those men at Jopka and stand up for their rights. None of our men will join a new local."

Armstrong predicted the striking ironworkers would be expelled from the union.

Reports have circulated that AFL strategy will be to stop its direct pressure to get Local 595 to call off the strike and let the local "spend its money and sweat it out."

The Ironworkers struck Sept. 15 when Bechtel Corp., contractor on the $95 million dollar project across the Ohio River from Paducah, refused to hire six of Local 595's men and insisted upon six of its own choice.

Thirty-three other ironworkers walked off the job and pickets were set up. Work was suspended after 10 other crafts on the job refused to cross the picket lines, despite orders from their officers to do so, and 2,000 men were idled.

The Ironworkers' International ordered Local 595 to end the walk-out on the ground it violated a no-strike pact with Bechtel. Sanders retorted that his union hadn't signed the agreement.

Charlie Chaplin Sells His Movie Studio In Hollywood

By GENE HANDSAKER
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Charlie Chaplin has sold the studio where he strutted to film fame as a tramp in the years before he became a controversial figure denied re-entry to the United States.

A real estate firm, Webb and Knapp, of New York City, has bought the nearly five-acre property for $650,000 cash. On part of its 300-foot frontage along Sunset boulevard a major supermarket will be built.

Negotiations are on for lease of the two sound stages for making TV films.

Chaplin built the studio in 1918 for $35,000. The first film he made there was "A Dog's Life," featuring a large mast, acquired for the role, which lived out the rest of its 10 years at the studio.

Other movies that followed on the site included "Shoulder Arms," "The Kid," "A Woman of Paris," "The Gold Rush," "The Circus," "City Lights," "Modern Times," "The Great Dictator," "Monsieur Verdoux" and, more recently, "Limelight."

When Chaplin acquired the property, it contained an orange grove and a white house. The house still stands.

The studio, built in the cottage style of Chaplin's native England, became a Hollywood showplace. The studio's single stage for silent films had a glass roof with cloth screens overhead to regulate sunlight. There was also an outdoor shooting area.

Webb and Knapp's executive vice president, Nicolas M. Salgo, said yesterday in New York that some of the studio's vacant lot will be developed for major retail shopping firms.

The 64-year-old comedian-producer said in London last April that he was giving up residence in the United States because "lies and vicious propaganda" handicapped his movie work.

He is living in Switzerland with his fourth wife, playwright Eugene O'Neill's daughter Oona, and their children.

Indians Use Liquor With Moderation

GALLUP, N. M. (AP)—Tribesmen of this area of Zuni pueblo and the vast Navajo reservation are using with moderation their newly won freedom to buy liquor.

Just last Monday, the State Canvassing Board certified New Mexico voters' approval Sept. 15 of an end to bans against selling liquor to Indians.

Bar operators of Gallup, which calls itself "the Indian capital," say the most popular drink during these warm Indian summer days is a cold glass of beer.

However, some tribesmen are ordering mixed drinks, and some are asking for wine, which, with beer, was the most popular among Indians.

Customers have been few. Said bartender Frank Gallegos: "I expected more. They were kind of shy about coming in, I guess. I saw some pull up outside and then walk back and forth a few times before coming in. Then they had a few beers and left."

"They were very considerate," said Mrs. Donna Petranovich. "They thank you when they leave and they've been good customers. They seem to be pricing the various drinks. One man put down 60 cents for a bottle of wine and was surprised when I told him it was only 50 cents."

A bar on the way to the Navajo reservation put up a big sign, "AN Indians Welcome." The bartender said, "Business was pretty good, but we're expecting more later on. Some drunk pretty expensive whisky, some were still on wine, and others asked for a good cold beer."

AIDED SECURITY

Sen. Wiley Says Probes Did Well

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) says the nation's security would be "infinitely more endangered" today if congressional investigators had not persistently sought out subversion and espionage.

"How many espionage agents, how many subversive government employees might still be engaged in their nefarious work had it not been for Senate and House committees courageously flushing these enemies out from the darkness so necessary to the enemies' success?" he asked.

Wiley's comments are contained in an introduction he has written for an internal security manual, a compilation of laws, executive orders and congressional probes.

The manual, a project of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which Wiley heads, has not yet been published but was made available to a reporter in proof form.

Wiley remarked that behind the simple listing of resolutions authorizing congressional probes into internal security matters lay "some of the most dramatic controversies in legislative history."

"Efforts toward establishment and continuation of these investigations have been the subject of some of the bitterest battles in the Senate and House, and in the forum of American public opinion," he said.

Wiley added that leading figures in the various investigations, notably the committee and subcommittee chairmen, often have been subjected "to personal attacks of unprecedented proportions."

"Particularly in the early days," he said, "they have had to fight for their political lives and for their committees' lives almost every inch of the way."

Wiley said it was fortunate for the country that the investigations have been "as relatively successful as history attests them to be," adding:

"It staggers the imagination to contemplate how infinitely more endangered our national security would have been if those hardy proponents of the investigations had faltered in their efforts to initiate and continue their inquiries."
