Editor's Note: The following is the second of a two-part series on domestic violence, with an emphasis on such acts and how they are dealt with in Deaf Smith County.

Sometimes, jealousy is the cause. In many cases, there an inherent desire to establish control. Often, a husband beats his wife simply because he knows she will not resist and, even if she did, he could easily overpower her aggression.

in Hereford. There were 18 reported offenses of husbands assaulting wives in August, according to Caydon Brush, chief of the Hereford Police Department. There is no way of knowing, though, how many such incidents were not reported to the local police. "Just from what national statistics say, there's only about 50 percent of this type of offenses reported, and maybe even less," Brush commented last week. "That includes major felonies like гаре."

Ted Langgood, a sergeant with the HPD, claimed about 75 percent of the calls local police respond to concern domestic disturbances. Not all of those are wife beatings, of course, but a substantial number of them do involve verbal wars or minor physical scrapes between wife beatings, Brush believed, because people "are more apt to get together, con-gregate, party and get drunk. That often leads to one thing or another," and often ends in a violent act, he said.

So far this year, according to Brush, there have been 73 local wife beatings reported to police. All but 20 of them have occurred during the last four months.

There are many reasons why wives choose not to inform police they have been beaten. Time magazine, in its Sept. 5 issue, offered one explanation for silence.

"Often a battered woman has grown up with violence and accepts it as a pitiful form of caring, or at least as something inevitable in a relationship," Time staffer Jane O'Reilly wrote. "She may feel desperately that the world is a dangerous place and that she needs a protector, even a man who beats her."

Brush, who guessed about 10 percent of women who report beatings actually file charges, felt fear is another factor. "Most of the wives. I think, believe that if they pur-sue it," he said, "and their husband is fined, most of them feel he'll react to that with more physical abuse." Usually, Langgood said, a battering husband will have struck his wife many times before "she just gets fed up with it" and notifies the police.

Despite the majority of local reports originating from poverty-level households. neither Brush nor Langgood was willing to say wife beatings do not occur with equal frequency in wealthy homes. "They don't want their names brought out," Langgood said about middleto upper-class citizens, "since they have a reputation to protect."

"A lot of prominent people don't like a police car to be parked in front of their se," Brush said. Langgood claimed there have been several occasions when peo-ple, fearing what their neighbors might think, have requested policemen move their squad cars to across the street. Reasons for beatings, as stated earlier, sometimes involve jealousy. "A lot of times," Brush said, "a man

Another provocation is a wife asking the family's breadwinning husband for grocery or kid money, Brush said. According to Langgood, the man will often figure she wants to spend the money on her boyfriend, whether or not one actually exists.

"Of course, a lot of (wife beatings) stem from intoxication," the police chief said. and his wife are running "A man will get drunk and around on each other." come home, get mad at his "Most generally," Lang-

The Hereford Post Office will soon get a much-needed "face-lift," it was announced Monday by Postmaster Nolan Grady.

The U.S. Postal Deparatment has let a bid to High Plains Builders, Amarillo, for replacing windows, cleaning the exterior stone, and interior and exterior painting. The successful bid was in the amount of $31,545.

Grady said the work - along with a landscaping project planned next spring, should increase the appearance of the building "tremendously." He estimated it has been six years or more since the building had a paint job.

"The company has already measured our windows, and they hope to install the new ones the latter part of October," said Grady.

He added that the post office has received approval for a landscape program and for roof repairs. Both will come under separate contracts.

"If it appears our grass is dying, that's good," noted Grady. "We are intentionally trying to kill the grass and start over next spring.

Body of missing motorcyclist found

BERTRAM, Texas (AP) - The body of a 67-year-old motorcyclist who disappeared during a Central Texas tour in June was found hidden in brush beside a road where he probably collided with a deer, authorities said.

Betram Police Chief Zukie Bonnet discovered the body, identified as that of Charles T. Hudson, 67, of Lake Buchanan, when he checked Monday on a wrecked 1981 BMW motorcycle along State Highway 29.

A Betram man found the motorcycle while picking up cans along the road, Bonnet said.

A Bertram couple reported to police last June that they saw a westbound motorcyclist strike a deer immediately after their eastbound car dodged the animal as it ran across the highway, said Department of Public Safety trooper John Ferguson.

They turned back but could find no trace of the motorcyclist, Ferguson said. Subsequent searches of the area also failed, he said.

The motorcycle and the body "were not far off the road, maybe 20 yards from the edge of the pavement," Ferguson said.

"But you wouldn't have been able to see it from 10 feet away because of the tall Johnson grass and other growth being so thick," he said. "I guess since it's getting dry now, it's not so heavy and that's how come they found it now."

Hudson took up motorcycling when he was forced to give up flying in 1964 because of a heart attack. At the time he disappeared, he was on heart medication, but took at least one ride a week, leaving maps of areas where he might ride with his wife.

"He rode for the pure enjoyment of it, like some people fish," Hudson's wife, Rubye, said just after he disappeared. "He was always glad to go and he was always glad to get back. He'd tell me all about the trip."

American jet brakes to avoid plane

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - An American Airlines jet en route to Dallas from Washington aborted a takeoff when another jet was inadver-tantly given permission to cross the runway at Nashville Metropolitan Airport, officials said.

Airport, officials said. . One of the passengers was Rep. Carroll Hubbard Jr., D-Ky., who had been scheduled to fly to South Korea on the Korean Air Lines jumbo jet that was shot down by the Soviet Union on Sept. 1, The Dallas Morning News quoted another passenger as saying.

American Flight 271 was building speed for its takeoff Monday night when a Republic Airlines jet in-advertently was given permission by the control tower to cross the runway on its way to the terminal, passengers said

The American pilot braked sharply and aborted the takeoff, said Lowell Duncan, a vice president of communications for American. He said it was unclear how close the two planes came to each other.

No injuries were reported among the 64 passengers and crew of seven aboard the Boeing 727, Duncan said.

The aircraft went back to the terminal for about 40 minutes so its brakes could cool and then proceeded to DallasFort Worth Airport, arriving about 11:29 p.m., officials said.

Republic Airlines officials said to-day that they could not comment on the incident.

Wells Fargo robbed

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) -An armored car guard pulled a gun on another guard and a manager at a Wells Fargo office, bound them and injected them with a drug before escaping with between $5 million and $8 million, police said today.

Two armored car drivers had backed their vehicle into a bay at a Wells Fargo office in West Hartford about 9 p.m. Monday, Capt. Oliver Pelton said today.

One of the guards took a pistol and held it to a manager's head, threatening to shoot him, said police Chief Francis Reynolds.

The manager and other guard told police they were bound, had coats thrown over their heads and were injected with a drug that made one of them drowsy, Pelton said. He did not specify what the drug was. Reynolds said the two were able to hear a pushcart going back and forth while they sat bound. They were able to free themselves about 11 p.m. and called police, Reynolds said. The suspect was identified by police today as Victor Gerena of Hartford. Police said he had worked for Wells

Fargo since May 1982. Reynolds said another person may have been involved in the robbery, but he would not elaborate. No arrests have been made.

Police reported the loss as at least $5 million in cash and negotiable securities. But Wells Fargo officials told police the loss could be as high as $8 million.

TEXARKANA, Texas (AP) - Billy Cannon, a former Louisiana State University football hero, has begun serving a five-year sentence in federal prison for plotting a $6 million counterfeiting operation.

U.S. marshals said because Cannon cooperated with authorities, he was allowed to travel unescorted to the prison.

Cannon, 46, received the maximum punishment after pleading guilty to charges he masterminded a scheme to print and distribute $6 million in counterfeit $100 bills - which the government called one of the largest fake money schemes in U.S. history. He will have to serve almost two years before becoming eligible for parole. Cannon won the Heisman Trophy at LSU in 1958. After a pro football career, returned to Baton Rouge to become a dentist.

He will return to Baton Rouge to testify at the Oct. 11 trial of four codefendants who have pleaded innocent. Cannon also could be called to testify in the cases of two codefendants who asked that their sentences be reduced.

In essence, a carefully scrutinized week of nightly newscasts was evaluated at Vanderbilt University.

Stories relating to Presi-dent Reagan and-or his administration were aired 26 times on CBS, 17 times on NCB and 16 times on ABC. Negative reports about the President outnumbered positive reports on CBS by seven-to-one.

The author of the report concluded that "CBS enhances the conflict between Americans and their government--sometimes strains to do so." Even when our Labor Department confirmed that 365,000 new jobs were created last month, the CBS reporter felt compelled to add, "Un-fortunately for many workers holding these jobs long-range prospects are not good." Since this stinging indict-ment was published by TV Guide, CBS has seemed somewhat more careful.

But CBS staffers, off the record, will concede that news on that network is knowingly-they do not say "purposely"-tilted against Reagan.

Michael Groetsch, director of probation for the New Orleans Municipal Court, was quoted by Time as having stated a husband "drinks to beat, he doesn't beat because he drinks."

"There is a very interesting analogy between a male battere and a two- or three-yearold child," Groetsch also reportedly said. "His tantrums are very similar to those of a two-year-old. Like a narcissistic child, the batterer bites when he's throwing a tantrum. I have seen many women come in with teeth marks all over their arms and legs."

A need to prove male dominance is another ator. The traditional male role, according to St. Louis expert Craig Norberg, requires men to be stoic. It requires men to not need in-timacy, to be in control, to be the 'big wheel,' and when there is a problem to 'give 'em hell.' beatings in Hereford do not involve weapons. Batterers usually employ their hands and fists, he said, adding, "It's surprising how many husbands kick their wives." A female's abdomen is a common target, the chief explained, since it is less likely to show bruises than are other parts of the body.

There have been several pregnant women who have been beaten in Hereford. Last month, according to Lang-good, one was in her seventh or eighth month of pregnancy when her spouse hit her in the stomach. Luckily, there did not appear to have been any damage done.

What the two officers agreed was a "typical" wife beating occurred late last month. Following is the statement given by the women to police "My husband and his aunt ame to the door and wer going to leave. I stood in the doorway and told them that he was not going anywhere with his aunt. He then shoved me and I shoved him back. Then they left, but a little

The investigating officer, according to the police report, found the women had "a small amount of swelling in her nose and face area, and there was some blood on her nose.'

A law enacted Sept. 1 makes marital rape a punishable crime for the first time in the state's history, according to Roland Saul, district attorney for Deaf Smith County. The law applies when either a couple is separated or divorce is pending. Otherwise, the crime's label is reduced to "sexual assault."

"Our legislators have historically tried to protect the family unit," Saul said, "and this law is in some way supposed to help that." Police magazine, in a 1978 issue, claimed 40 percent of all police injuries and 20 percent of all police deaths occur on handlings of family disputes. Brush said no serious injuries have been suffered by local policemen when they have responded to reports of wife beatings. The chief, who said wife

St. Louis signal caller

Little-known Hart staying around

By BRUCE LOWITT AP Sports Writer

m Hart's name is sprinklthroughout the National Football League record books, usually in the com-pany of Johnny Unitas and Fran Tarkenton, two other quarterbacks accorded deification by their legions of coast-to-coast fans.

But outside St. Louis, Hart is little more than another name on a roster, this despite 18 seasons in this business, more than 5,000 passes, more than 2,500 completions, more than 30,000 yards ...

"I don't put myself in their category," Hart said, "even though the numbers are there. It's obvious you need to win championships to get the national recognition, the exposure, and we've not done that. Or if you don't do that, then you've got to be at least a little controversial, and I'm not that. I don't lament my situation at all. It's been a fun time."

It wasn't fun Sunday. The Dallas Cowboys were in his face all day. Five sacks. Four interceptions. A 10-0 lead vanished before halftime and became a 34-17 loss. The locker room was a tomb. "It's times like this that I wonder why I'm still around," Hart said, slouching at his locker. "This isn't any fun. No, let me temper that. It's fun out there. This atmosphere in here, it stinks."

Even getting buried in his own backfield has its enjoyable moments, he said. "You don't necessarily look at it that way at the time, but when you look back it later

He paused. "It's fun. It's fun to get knocked down every once in a while. I'd just as soon the ball be gone when I'm hit. That's the fun of it, when you throw the ball and get knocked down and the guy looks at you and wonders where the ball is and you kind of smile and say, 'Gone,' and you hear him mutter an expletive. That's when you get a little smile on your face and say, 'This is fun.' "But right now it's tough to look any farther than this game. All the other things the numbers - they're all kind of hollow at this point. All I can do is shrug my shoulders when someone asks me about the records and say, 'That's great,' but it doesn't do much to ease my soul right now. "When you come in here and go through the gloom of another loss, you wonder if it's all worth it." It sounded as though he was thinking about calling it quits. Was he? "Now that sounds like one of those things where if I say 'no' you won't believe me and if I say 'yes' it's admitting it," he replied. "I won't say that that hasn't happen-It's been a while since Hart and the Cardinals were flying high. That was in the mid-1970s, when Don Corvell was the coach. But he became disenchanted with the midwest and with the front-office meddling and guit after the 1977 season.

Since 1978 Coryell has been San Diego's head coach.

When he was the boss in St. Louis, Hart said, the team invariably found itself behind going into the fourth quarter - but absolutely certain that its was going to win. The players knew someone would come up with the Big Play. "We need to become believers in ourselves again," he said. "We need to get that feeling we used to have, rather than the feeling that can develop - and I'm not saying it's prevalent now, but it can happen when you start losing too many games where guys start worrying to themselves, 'What's going to go wrong next?""

That's how the Cards appeared to play Sunday. They were up by 10 points less than 13 minutes into the game and were within a whisker of making it 17-0, if only Hart had connected on a long pass. The veteran quarterback shrugged. "It's like that old 'Don Meredith line," he said. " 'If ifs and buts were candy and nuts, we'd have a heck of a Christmas '"

Akers responded that way Monday when asked if he already knew who would replace starter Todd Dodge, who suffered a shoulder separation in practice Fri-

Akers acknowledged Monday that he had decided to start Dodge before he was hurt although he had not announced a decision. "Anyone watching our practices saw he was always with our No. 1 unit. ... There was not much question," Akers told a news conference. Dodge's replacement apparently will be Rick McIvor. who was injured last year and missed spring training with grade problems, or two-year punt returner Rob

"They're both working hard, and both have done some good things, but neither one has been as consistent as Todd Dodge."

"What we've got now is a real scramble," Akers said. He said, however, he would not shuttle quarterbacks, and when he was asked if he might alternate quarterbacks in any manner, he said, "I'm not planning on it, and I'm not planning on not doing it. I'm not telling you my plans."

upset with an intentional grounding call against Oiler quarterback Archie Manning that helped end a scoring drive. Biles said tight end Chris Dressel was open in the end zone on the play. The Oilers also were operating without tight end Dave Casper, who had a back injury, and wide receiver Tim Smith, who suffered a hamstring injury last Friday. Smith caught eight passes for 197 yards against Green Bay.

We're holding a special orientation this year for moms, dads, and leaders. Brad, Susan, and our 4-H specialist, Martha Couch, will be on hand to explain the opportunities and scholar-ships available through 4-H, leadership opportunities for parents, and family involvement in 4-H. Also, leaders need to pre-schedule a first meeting for their clubs. This way when prospective members show an interest in your club, you'll have your meeting date, time and place set. (We are en-couraging clubs to try and meet throughout the month rather than all on the first Tuesday of each month - You Tuesday of each month - You might want to call other leaders and discuss each

Denny key to Phils' pennant hopes, Owens thinks

By KEN RAPPOPORT AP ports Writer If not for John Denny,

Philadelphia Phillies Manager Paul Owens thinks his team "would be planning for next year" by now. As it is, the Phillies are in first place in the National League East after Monday night's 2-1 victory over the New York Mets behind Denny's strong pitching.

Denny pitched three-hit ball for eight innings and won his 15th game with Al Holland's relief help. The victory, combined with Mon-treal's 8-0 loss to Chicago, vaulted the Phillies into first place in the East by a halfgame over the Expos.

"He's been so consistent," said Philadelphia first Darling, 0-2.

baseman Pete Rose of Denny. "I don't remember him having a bad game. Even when his arm was bothering him he gave a good effort. "He had a good sinker and curve tonight, kept the hitters off stride. And he helps himself. He bunts, fields his position." In the only other NL action

Monday night, the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 7-5.

"He (Denny) has always been honest. He tells you Denny, 15-6, struck out eight and walked two in eight when he's tired. He pitched innings before Holland pitchhis heart out in the eighth, ed the ninth for his 19th save. and I had Holland well rested," said Owens. wants a child. I am 50 years old and am in good physical condition. I have not gone into menopause yet, but the thought of diapers and bottles gives me the jitters. (My children are grown and I could be a grandmother at any moment). Also, Ann, this man is very reserved, shy about sex and doesn't care for parties or company. I am just the opposite.

After what I have gone through I don't want to risk a second divorce. What do you think my chances would be if I married this person?-On The Fence

DEAR FENCE: Not good. Any man who would ask a 0-year-old woman to produce a child for him as a vacancy upstairsunfurnished. Continue the friendship if you enjoy his company, but rule out marriage.

DEAR MISS K: I recommend a depilatory. See your druggist. If you follow the instructions carefully, the results should be excellent.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Last week I discovered my husband is having an affair, something I have suspected for a long time. But now I know for sure - her name and where she works. I am so hurt. It was better when I only had suspicions. We have been married for 27 years. I was happy and thought he was, too. I can't explain the emptiness I feel. It's like someone close to me has died. Should I confront him and her with the fact that I know? I have so much to lose if he chooses her over me. I do not want this marriage to end. I love him so much. He said as recently as last night that he loves me. But it is difficult to believe him because has lied to me so much about his whereabouts and heaven knows what else. I have done nothing to deserve this shabby treatment. Never in a million years would I have done this to him. Please answer quickly. I am so anxious to read your advice.-Devastated In Jax

DEAR JAX: Do nothing. Say nothing. You are in no shape to make such a crucial decision. People who are hurt and angry cannot think straight.

I urge you to get some counseling at once. After several weeks you will know which course to follow. Good luck.

Opening Concert

"Here's a How-De-Do, The Story of Gilbert and Sullivan" will appear Oct. 26 in Hereford as the first Community Concert of the season. A company of 14 will present over 30 musical favorites from the operettas of Gilbert and Sullivan. The Hereford Community Concert Association began its membership drive for the 1983-84 season this week.

Brown speaks about proposed facility

Rick Brown spoke to members of the Garden Beautiful Club Friday morning when the group met at the home of Dorothy Noland for a patio party. He presented an artist's sketch of the proposed YMCA building and discussed the facilities and various activities available to members.

Co-hostesses for the meeting were Margaret Young and Dottie Darden. Helen Spinks presided at the business meeting. Marie Cline, Janie Sides and Audine Dettmann were welcomed as new members. Ms. Spinks read a poem entitled "The Rose" by Alice Mortenson. The rose is the club flower.

It was suggested that members give a gardening tip at each meeting. Louise

Story of Gilbert and Sullivan heads Community Concert season

The Hereford Community Concert Association is opening its fall membership drive for the 1983-84 season this week.

Three performances, featuring a wide array of talent, from singing and acting to dancing and instrumental expertise, are planned for members of the Community Concert Association.

Mrs. Austin Rose, membership chairman, opened the concert office at 10 a.m. Monday in the board room of the Chamber of Commerce. During this week volunteers will be accepting renewal memberships.

The week of Sept. 19-24 new memberships will be accepted. Individual memberships remain at $15, family memberships are $35, and student memberships are $6. Anyone who is not contacted by a volunteer may call 364-3333 and ask that a volunteer call, or just stop in at the office, have a cup of coffee, and purchase a membership.

Does this mean that God has rejected His Jewish people forever? Of course not! His purpose was to make His salvation available to the Gentiles, and then the lews would be jealous and begin to want God's salvation for themselves. Now if the whole world became rich as a result of God's offer of salvation. when the Jews stumbled over it and turned it down, think how much greater a blessing the world will share in later on when the lews, too, come to Christ As you know, God has appointed me as a special messenger to you Gentiles. I lay great stress on this and remind the lews about it as often as I can, so that if possible I can make them want what you Gentiles have and in that way save some of them. And how wonderful it will be when they become Christians! When God turned away from them it meant that He turned to the rest of the world to offer His salvation; and now it is even more wonderful when the Jews come to Christ. It will be like dead people coming back to life. And since Abraham and the prophets are God's people, their children will be too. For if the roots of the tree are holy, the branches will be too. But some of these branches from Abraham's tree, some of the Jews, have been broken off. And you Gentiles who were branches from, we might say, a wild olive tree, were grafted in. So now you; too, receive the blessing God has promised Abraham and his children, sharing in God's rich nourishment of His own special olive tree. Romans 11:11-17

Jelly foam must go

DEAR POLLY — Can you tell me why one should skim jelly and jam after cooking? I have been doing it for 35 years, but I'll be darned if I know why. Is it OK to eat the foam skimmed off? — JEAN DEAR JEAN — The foam is perfectly edible; the reason for skimming is primarily to keep the jelly or jam attrac-tively clear with a smooth surface. However, for jellies sealed with paraffin, skimming the foam also serves another good purpose: The foam is made of air bubbles which could interfere with the the seal the layer of paraffin must make with the jelly to prevent spoilage. Best to continue skimmwith the jelly to prevent spoilage. Best to continue skimm-ing. It only takes a minute or two. - POLLY

DEAR POLLY - To remove paint from your skin, try rubbing it with cooking oil. A few years ago, I helped some friends paint a house. At the end of the day, I used oil while the guys ("We're tough!") used paint thinner for cleaning up. Needless to say, I came out clean while they had a thin film of paint left. The oil will not work if you have used thinner first, by the way. - BARBARA DEAR POLLY - When I get new shoes with smooth leather soles, I rub the soles with sandpaper. This makes them less slippery and I'm less likely to slip and fall. -HARRY

DEAR POLLY - The wax paper liners in cereal boxes are perfect for lining cookie jars to keep cookies fresh. I never used my cookie jar because I wasn't happy with the way the cookies held until I started using the cereal box liners. - ELAINE

DEAR POLLY - I always used to lose one or more of my husband's socks in the washer or dryer. Now before I place them in the washer, I pin each pair together. No more bro-ken pairs. - FLORENCE

DEAR POLLY - Making french toast is so easy when you use a microwave oven. Just mix two eggs and one and onehalf cups milk in a small bowl. Dip several slices of bread into the mixture, covering the bread completely. Put the soaked bread on a ceramic (microwave-safe) plate and put it in the micrwave oven for one minute.

I love to use cookie cutters to cut molded jello into shapes

It really perks up jello a lot! - ANONYMOUS DEAR ANONYMOUS - And I love your fun and easy Pointers! In fact, you get our Pointer of the Week Award, an autographed copy of my book Polly's Pointers: 1081 Helpful Household Hints for Making Everything Last Longer. Enjoy! - POLLY

DEAR POLLY — Instead of cleaning the kitchen can opener with water, which causes rust, clean it frequently with a toothbrush dipped in cooking oil. This serves as lubri-cation for better performance and will not harm the food.

To preserve the life of the new paneling behind the kitchen range or next to the sink, use clear adhesive plastic. I also used this successfully on my freshly painted shower walls inside the tub. It helps prevent peeling of paint and mildew. - ALBERTA

Garden Club met for its first scheduled meeting on Friday morning in the home of Mrs.

Duncan.

DEAR DR. LAMB - My alcohol tolerance doesn't seem to be very good. Don't get me wrong, I am not a drinker. But I do like to have a drink now and then on social occasions. But I feel the effect from just one cocktail and, if I have two, it is obvious that I am "under the influence." Is there any way I can improve my tolerance? Also, is there any way I can be sure I'm enough over the effects of a drink to drive safely?

DEAR READER - I am a strong believer in the saying, "If you drink, don't drive." And even though a person may not be legally drunk - in other words even if the blood alcohol may be under 0.10 percent - alcohol can still affect driving.

In many people skilled performance will decline when the blood alcohol is as low as 0.03 percent even though you wouldn't know they were affected by alco-There are things you can do to decrease emptying of the stomach and thereby slow the absorption of alcohol. Several members of meeting in Ms. Herring's Hereford Garden Club traveled to the R.H. Cowan Wildlife and Conservation Reserve. located 18 miles northeast of Hereford, after enjoying a luncheon in the home of Mary Herring on Friday.

The women toured Cowan's reserve while he explained that he had planted 10 rows of trees in his windbreak, including sand cherry, Manchurion walnut, Hartsin pear, Marden apricot, Mayberry, Mongolian cherry, cotoneaster, choke cherry, buffalo cherry, Russian olive, green ash and red cedar.

The trees furnish cover and food for the birds and other wildlife. Cowan stated that the green ash does better as it is a native of this country.

Cowan has set aside 132 of this 662 acres for the reserve and he has also planted crested wheat grass and tall wheat grass for ground cover. This provides good nesting habitat for the pheasants. He has a 40 acre playa lake that provides water for the fowl as well as a resting place for the ducks the peace precinct but not more than four. The amendment provides further, that in any precinct in which there is a city with a population of 18,000 or more, two justices of the peace shall be elected. The amendment allows a justice of the peace, constable or commissioner to continue in office until the expiration of his term, although a change in precinct boundaries results in the officer no longer being a resident of the precinct for which he was elected or appointed and allows a justice of the peace or constable to continue in office until the expiration of his term even though a change in precinct boundaries results in the abolishment of the precinct or more than one justice of the peace or constable serving the pre-cinct. Vacancies in the office of justice of the peace or constable that result from a precinct boundary change shall be filled by the commissioners court until the next general election. The amendment would take effect on January 1, 1984, and counties with populations of less than 30,000 and with more than four justice of the peace and constable precincts would have until January > amendment. The proposed amend-ment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amend-ment authorizing fewer justice of the peace and constable precincts in counties with a popula-tion of less than 80,000 and providing for continuous service by justices of the peace, constables, and county commissioners when precinct boundaries are changed."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 105 proposes a constitu-ional amendment which would limit a homestead in a city, town or village to a lot or lots amounting to not more than one acre of land, together with any improvements on the land. The constitutional require-ment that, at the time of representative associations agricultural producers to collect refundable assessments on their product sales to be used solely to finance programs of marketing, promotion, research and education relating to those products. It provides, further, that adoption of the proposed constitutional amendment will bring into effect Senate Bill 607, Acts of the 68th Legislature, Regular Session, 1983, with rejection of the amendment resulting in Senate Bill 607 having no effect. The proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment providing for the advancement of food and fiber production and marketing in this state through research, education, and promotion financed by the producers of agri-cultural products."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 30 proposes a constitution-al amendment which authorizes the Legislature to enact laws to provide for the succession of members of the Legislature in the event of enemy attack and allows the suspension of procedural rules imposed by the Constitution in the event of, or immediate threat of, enemy attack. The amendment empowers the Governor, after consultation with the Speaker of the House and the Lieutenant Governor, to suspend the constitutional requirement that the Legislature hold its sessions in Austin and allows the suspension of procedural rules by the Governor issuing a proclamation in which the House of Representatives and Senate concur by resolution ap-proved by a majority of the members present. Sus-pension of the constitu-tional rules may not exceed a period of two years under a single proc-lamation: however the lamation; however, the Governor may renew the suspension by issuing a proclamation connew curred in by the House of Representatives and the Senate through a resolu-tion approved by a major-guarantee program established pursuant to the amendment.

The constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing use of the permanent school fund to guarantee bonds issued by school districts."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution proposes a constitutional amendment which would permit the Legislature to provide for the garnishment of wages to enforce court-ordered child support payments. The garnishment remedy would not be available for other purposes. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment allowing the Legislature to provide for additional remedies to enforce court-ordered child support pay-ments." tion which may be exempted from ad valorem taxa-

state.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 14 proposes a constitutional amendment that authorizes the Veterans' Land Board to provide for, issue, and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed $800 million to provide financing to veterans of the state. The amendment requires that three hundred million dollars of the state bonds be dedi-70 proposes a constitution-al amendment to authorize cated to the Veterana' Land Fund. The Fund is to al amendment to authorize the Legislature to provide, by local or general law, a method by which judges of statutory courts with probate jurisdiction may be assigned to any other statutory court with pro-bate jurisdiction and to any constitutional county court in any county in the be used to purchase land to be sold to veterans under such terms, rules and regulations as may be authorized by law. The amendment creates the Veterans' Housing Assis-Veterans' Housing Assis-tance Fund and requires that $500 million of the state bonds authorized by the amendment be dedi-cated to the Fund. The Veterans' Housing Assiscourt in any county in the tance Fund will be utilized by the Veterans' Land Board for the purpose of making home mortgage loans to veterans for housing within the state and for the administrative for the property with repayment to be amortized over a period not to exceed five years and at an interest rate provided by law.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to permit a city or town to expend public funds and levy assessments for the relocation or replacement of sanitation sewer laterals on private property."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 13 proposes a constitutional amendment that would change the Board of Pardons and Paroles from a constitutional agency to a statutory agency and would eliminate the Governor's power to revoke paroles. The Legislature would be authorized to establish the Board of Pardons and Paroles and to require it to maintain records of its actions and the reasons for its actions. The amendment would empower the Legislature to enact parole laws. Constitutional language specifying the qualifications and terms of office for members of the Board of Pardons and Paroles is eliminated. The constitutional language governing the composition of the Board of Pardons and Paroles and the manner of filling vacancies on the Board is eliminated. The proposed amend-ment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amend-ment to change the Board of Pardons and Paroles from a constitutional agency to a statu-tory agency and to give the board power to re-voke paroles."
