SWP Co. Plan Ready for Veterans Aid

Smaller War Plants Corporation, counting strongly on Congressional blessings for an extended life, is ready with a long-range program pledged to benefit veterans, Morton Harrison, Dallas, regional SWPC director, said Tuesday.

While Harrison outlined the agency's veteran's loan program and an over-all advisory service to returning GIs, a teletype message from Maury Maverick, national head, came to his desk. It gave the promise of a future to the plan with the news that a House committee had unanimously reported out a bill extending the agency eighteen months to Dec. 31, 1946.

And SWPC officials count on a much longer life for the agency set up to safeguard little business. They expect it to continue either in its present setup or as a branch of the Department of Commerce.

SWPC is ready to help veterans to loans through three programs—recommendations for private business loans to GIs, approval of SWPC loans for manufacturing and food processing, and granting of loans for veteran purchase of surplus government properties.

Heavy Business Seen

Although the agency has made no loans to veterans to date, Harrison anticipates a big money-exchanging business as soon as the inflation block on GI Bill of Rights loans is removed and when veterans are directed to the easy-term SWPC business and surplus property loans.

Under the GI Bill of Rights SWPC recommends veterans for all business loans except those handled by banks and loan associations through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The agency will process about 80 per cent of all such loan recommendations, Harrison predicted.

Ex-servicemen are eligible for regular SWPC loans to finance manufacturing and processing, and the government money goes at $6 for every $4 supplied by the individual.

The Surplus Properties Act put SWPC in a solid position with the right to buy up government-owned properties for resale to small business for their protection against big business purchases. It also permits loans of $9 for every $1 for the purchase of these properties by the individuals.

Veterans Make Inquiries

Veterans have made inquiries of SWPC on loans to go into the trucking, grocery, filling station and other small business, Harrison said. At present the inflationary value of property makes many of these inadvisable he added.

Harrison, a World War I Navy chief electrician, believes that veterans, now confronted with multiple war agency assistance, need a centralized and simplified advisory body.

The answer, he believes, is a five-member committee—a veteran, a "liberal banker" and three good businessmen—in each draft board area. The program would operate in conjunction TARGET, TOKYO!—is the dramatic announcement made by Spencer Tracy to the assembled pilots in this scene from the dramatic "30 Seconds Over Tokyo" film version of the first bombing of the Jap capitol. Tracy plays Lt. Col. Jimmy Doolittle with Van Johnson as Capt. Ted Lawson, whose book on the Tokyo raid became a best seller. The picture comes to the Star next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The Problems of Civilians

Pfc. Henry Ford, writing from Germany, says "You know, if I could speak German I could sure talk to a lot of people—that is, if I could get by with it. We are not supposed to have anything to do with the civilian people at all. Some of these damn people act like they are really glad to see us—gladly give us anything they got. I don't get it myself... but guess it is just that they are trying to make the best of a bad situation. "The city I am in now looks more like places back home than any place I have seen in Europe. The people stay in town and five minutes after the shooting is over they come out and carry on as if nothing had happened. We like to take towns, as it means cleaning up, living in houses and having warm beds. If I ever have a chance I will tell you about the better parts of this mess; none of it is good." Pfc. Ford is a son of Mrs. Myrtle Ford of Hereford.

Home from the ETO

Tech. Sgt. Ralph B. (Sleepy) Biggs, returning from 22 months overseas with the 8th Air Force, was scheduled to arrive at Ft. Sam Houston, San Antonio, last Thursday, prior to visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Biggs, at Hereford.

Stationed on Guam

C. G. Chapman, S 1-C, is stationed on Guam, where he is serving as a Navy postal clerk. He has been in the Pacific area since early in December. C. G. is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chapman of Fairfield, Ida., and formerly of this county.

Charter Member of Texans in the ETO

WITH U. S. FORCES IN FRANCE—Sgt. John Schneider of Hereford is one of the charter members of the "Texans in the ETO" club recently organized as an outgrowth of the original "exans in England" club. Charter members of the organization represent 110 Texas towns—from Brownsville to Amarillo and from Texarkana to El Paso—and they come from nearly every outfit now in service in Europe.

When the Texas club met in Paris recently for the first meeting on the Continent, 20,000 francs ($400)—enough to substantially aid in supporting and educating one orphan—were collected.

Sgt. Schneider, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schneider of Hereford, is a member of the 90th Division.

Morton in Hospital

Pvt. Virgil Morton, who broke his collar bone on Mar. 21, is now in the Air Base Hospital at Stockton, Calif., and reports Red Cross service and his treatment by doctors and nurses as tops. Pvt. Morton is stationed at Tracy, Calif.

Sgt. Curry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Curry of Ave. F, Hereford.

Try a Want Ad!

You're so smart... you tell me!

A lot of troubled car-owners would probably like to echo Junior's words: They're the patriotic motorists who want to take the best possible care of their cars... who want to be sure to get a fine quality motor oil. They say, "We know we should use a quality oil. But how can we tell which oil is fine quality?"

If you also wonder how to pick a quality lubricant... Phillips comes to the rescue. Gives you one easy way to make certain of getting quality motor oil.

Just read this simple, frank statement:

Phillips offers many oils because preferences and pocketbooks vary. But if you want our best oil, we tell you that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality... the highest grade and greatest value... among all the lubricants Phillips offers to car-owners like yourself.

Warmer weather is on the way. So when you change from winter-worn oil... get quality by asking for Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

It's Phillips Finest Quality

County Agent Inspects Oklahoma Dairy Herds

County Agent A. R. Bateman returned Monday night from a trip to points in Oklahoma where he inspected registered Holstein and Milking Shorthorn herds with the idea of getting some registered dairy cattle for 4-H club boys in this county.

The county agent inspected dairies at Sand Springs, Clinton and Oklahoma City and states that the prospects of buying some stock at Sand Springs are especially good. Sand Springs is the site of an orphanage started by a millionaire philanthropist and the three dairies at the institution are real showplaces, Bateman said. The fact that accurate production records have been kept on the herd, makes the purchase of calves from these herds an excellent investment in future progress of the dairy industry here, Bateman says.

THIS WEEK... AT THE USO

If you are in the USO and you hear the door open and a voice say "Howdy," (with a "Minnie Pearl" accent) so glad to be here, so proud I could come," you can be pretty sure it is Danny Wainwright. He is from Georgia but he has been lots of places since he left there. "Georgia" Thompson is also from the state which bears his name. But his favorite saying is "Nothing monotonous around here."

The Easter Bunny laid some colored eggs in the USO and thereby provided some amusement as well as food for the men. Each egg had the name and telephone number of a GSO girl on it. If you had been at the USO on Sunday you would have learned a lot about "How boy meets girl." Quite educational, I assure you.

Get out your cowgirl outfits and lariats, girls, and prepare to "rope" a man. On Monday Apr. 9, there will be another Western dance at the Clubhouse. Most of the men who attended the one in November, that was such a huge success, have been transferred out and new men have come in. Let's all come out and have a real Western time.

On the 16th of April the entertainment committee is planning a "Sock and Sandwich" party. Each girl is asked to bring two socks each containing sandwiches and a coke. These are to be auctioned off to the men—at below ceiling prices and the money is to be returned in some form to the soldiers later. So girls get your hose or socks ready early, and prepare for a good time.

There will be a Coronation Dance on the night before May 1st. Who will be this year's queen? Nominations are in order. Bring yours with the signatures of five G. I. Joes to the USO and your choice will be in the running. She must be in good standing in the GSO to be eligible.

Captain Adams, special services officer, has announced that there will be an "Army Day" dance held at the camp on Friday, Apr. 6. The new camp orchestra will provide the music and a large attendance is desired.

Would you like to participate in a "Shell-craft" class? Mrs. Whitford, whose husband is stationed here now, attended such a class in Alexandria, La., and brought some of her pins and clips with her when she came a week ago. She has sent for a price list and when we get our supplies we will announce a class. All you will need in the way of tools is some tweezers.

The Bippus club donated some Perma-cards this week and they are the favorite deck at the USO. They are made of plastic and are washable. The corners don't break off either. We understand that they are much more expensive than the ordinary card but if we can keep all 52 of them (each can be replaced by the payment of ten cents) they should be more economical in the end. Thanks Bippus!

Fifteen girls and 4 sponsors attended the USO Camp Show on Mon. night. The time of the shows is set too early for many of our girls to attend but those who went enjoyed the act by the Midget the best of all. The music of Sgt. Allen and Pvt. Rosenberg who played with the Camp Show pianist was also enjoyed. The less said about the dance at the hall after the show the better.

The boys were too tired to come back to town after the show and dance. So the girls went on home. Better luck next time.

We received cards this week from Roger Thomas, Bob Stewart, and Mrs. Garnett. Harry Kudz sent his camp papers "Howitzer" and we received Pop Frye's APO number. Mrs. Roger Thomas left Monday for Milwaukee. Roger wired that he was living in a pup tent 20 miles from San Antonio where no brides were allowed. Mrs. Kline, baby son, and her sister left Monday also for Chicago. Sgt. Kline was transferred to another camp last week.

Cookies sent in this month were doubly appreciated. We had to buy so many from the bakery that when the home made ones came in the boys ate them up twice as fast. Donors were Mesdames Lee Conklin, Buckner, John Johnson, Blanton, Jeanette Smith (for Y. W. A.), Kendall (Lone Star), Hastings, Bednorz, LeGrand, Barber and Glen Rutter. Anyone desiring to furnish cookies one day a month—or every other month—please phone Mrs. Olson. Sugar will be

Easter Parties Entertain Youngsters

Youngsters held the social spotlight last week with annual Easter festivities marking almost every day of the week. Eggs and bunnies, indispensable symbols of the season, were used as favors for tiny tots as well as for those a little older. Especially did refreshments observe the Easter season with eatable baby chicks, Easter eggs and bunnies predominating. Easter egg hunts in private homes, on church lawns and in parks entertained various groups of youngsters in celebration of the Easter week. One of the most enjoyable of the parties was that given by Mrs. O. L. Click at her country home west of Hereford to compliment Diane Emmons, daughter of Mr. an Mrs. W. M. Emmons. Eleven little girls were invited for the egg hunt on Saturday afternoon. Prize winners were Mary Lou Snelson, Irene Witherspoon and Diane. Games were played and pictures were made. Then the group gathered around the Easter refreshment table where an Easter plate was served. Centerpiece for the table was a nest of bright colored eggs with bunnies and baby chicks close by. Those enjoying the party were Ann Halle, Peggy Ann Aiken, Irene Witherspoon, Nan Longbottom, Marilyn Russell, Mary Lou and Beverley Snelson, Jane Womble, Wilcina Witherspoon and the honoree, Hardwick Party.

Mrs. C. F. Hardwick entertained with an Easter party for her two small sons, Stanley and Charlie Dean, Saturday afternoon.

An Easter egg hunt was the order of the day with Billy Woodford finding the prize egg. Games were played and Easter-time refreshments were served to Billy and Tommy Woodford, Bill Bivins, Martin Reed Moore, Tony and Johnny Benson, Mary Lou and Beverley Snelson, Bobby Mathers, Ann Halle and the two honorees.

Departments Entertain One of the highlights of the year for the beginners and primary departments of the church school is the Easter egg roll or early this year with the Presbyterian church group leading hunt and the observance began off with a party on Monday before Easter. Eggs were hunted and games were played with seasonal refreshments served at the conclusion of the games. Leaders of the department directing the party were Mrs. Arch Conklin, Mrs. C. F. Hardwick and Mrs. Frank Daniel.

For her class of tiny tots Mrs. Hardwick made clever little egg dolls, boy dolls for the boys and girl dolls for the girls, that were presented at the conclusion of the class meeting Sunday morning.

Methodist Groups Members of the primary department of the Methodist Church were entertained on the church lawn Friday afternoon with the mothers in charge of refreshments. A large group played games and hunted the eggs, which had been hidden beforehand, with leaders present including Mrs. Buford Fellers, Mrs. Harry Lomas, Mrs. Jim Black, Mrs. Jack Wright and the superintendent, Mrs. Tom Carter. Mothers present were Mrs. J. C. McCracken, Mrs. W. M. Emmons and Mrs. Oscar Easley.

Beginners Group Mrs. H. V. Williamson, supt., was assisted by Mrs. Bob Wilson, Mrs. J. O. Newell and Mrs. Walter Dunlap in entertaining the beginners group on the church lawn Saturday afternoon. Mothers assisting were Mesdames Rettman, R. R. Latham, Colby Conkwright, Stanford Barrett, A. S. Higgins, Geo. Griffith, C. M. Carpenter and J. H. Bowers.

Christian Church Party The annual Easter Egg hunt for members of the primary department of the Christian Church was held at Mothers Park Saturday afternoon. After hunting the eggs the youngsters were given sack lunches and candy favors. Mrs. Earl Phillips, supt., was assisted by Mesdames C. D. Carnahan, Herman Ford and John Robinson.

Third Graders Among the grade school Easter parties were the third grade Easter-egg hunts. Mrs. John Hutcheson entertained her room pupils Thursday afternoon. Eggs were hidden on the lawn at the C. M. Hicks home with Bobby Hicks and his mother as hosts. Approximately 40 youngsters enjoyed the hunt.

Miss Ela Aikman entertained her room pupils at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crutchfield Thursday afternoon. The party culminated a six weeks study of birds and a program was presented for the mothers of the group before going to the country. Eggs for the hunt were colored in the school room.

Refreshments were served to approximately 35 students and a group of mothers.

EASTER PARTY ENTERTAINS COUPLES CLUB Sprays of peach and plum blossoms carried out the Easter color theme in decorations for the Couples Club dinner party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Emmons Friday night. The dinner was served from the dining table which held an Easter nest of eggs and at small tables the Easter theme was evident through the use of Easter baskets in shapes of Easter bunnies and chickens filled with assorted candies.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Edelman won the high couple prize in contract games after the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Meade Halle were special guests of the club.

Members attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Troy Moore, Sylvester Slagle, Ralph Roden, Jack Bradley, Willis Edelman and the hosts.

CALLIOPIAN CLUB WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine was hostess for the Calliopian Club meeting Thursday night.

The program was in the hands of Mrs. Elizabeth Womble who reviewed the play "Jacobowski and the Colonel" a farce dealing with the occupation of France by the Germans.

Those present were Mesdames Alton Fraser, J. R. Allison, Jack Gilliland, W. C. Pitman, D. C. Laird Jr., Elizabeth Womble, Carl Perrin, Morgan Kane, J. E. Kirby, Clyde Cave, J. T. Gilbreath Jr., Wayne Evans, Miss Kathryn Davies, Miss Eloyse Pitman and the hostess.

Ellis Visits Parents

Seabee O. L. Ellis, SF-1-C, left for Camp Thomas Sunday after spending a leave with his family at Clarendon and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Ellis of Hereford.

An April Fool joke that could have had serious consequences is recalled by Seabee Ellis, who says that on Apr. 1, 1944, he was on a ship just out of the Straits of Gibraltar in the Mediterranean when German planes attacked the convoy at three o'clock in the morning.

"They were dropping eggs all around us—the explosive kind," Ellis relates. "And I'll admit we were scared; but our gunners got into action and then we were more excited than scared. Our gunners shot down two planes, and one pilot got reckless and hit the mast of one of our ships, knocked a wing off his plane and went down."

"We came out with only minor damage to one mast and landed four days later in North Africa with no more trouble. So we marked it down as a pre-Easter greeting from the Germans. It was serious, all right, but with the gunfire and the light flares playing over our ships, it was the most beautiful sight I have ever seen."

Moral Basis of Peace Is Club Discussion Topic

"We must be willing to sacrifice for peace as we have for war, if we are to avoid another World War," it was emphasized by Rev. Marvin Boyd, guest speaker at the B & PW Club meeting Monday night.

The speaker pointed out that present indications are in favor of the best peace machinery yet devised by the nations of the world, but that machinery will fail unless it is backed by the moral determination of the people. The importance of moral principles in the field of economics, education and government was outlined by the speaker, who concluded that the peoples of the victorious nations must keep and enlarge a "sense of mission" in order to build a sound world society.

Anyway, the farm rationing committee wants it strictly understood that they do not ration bathtubs "for town use." Which is at least one thing to be thankful for.

Rev. Marvin Boyd has decided he has a good effect on the honesty of B. & P. W. club members, as his visit to the club on Monday night resulted in a rash of dues-paying—and his talk did not even touch on the subject of finances.
