Episcopal Guild To Hold Two Auctions

There will be two sales instead of one as planned by St. Thomas Episcopal Guild.

"Friends of the church have been so generous with valuable antiques, that it is necessary to separate them from the white elephant and rummage sale," according to Mrs. B. H. Kirby, chairman for the sales. The antiques will be displayed in the J. C. Penny store window in the near future.

The white elephant and rummage sale will be held Aug. 13-14 before school begins so that bargain hunters may buy school clothes early.

Diary

July 30, 1948

DEAR DIARY:

I am going to steal a paragraph from the writings of a man I do not know, but who seems to be pretty smart—

"When you see your breath on a winter morning, you face a fog and see how clouds are formed. When you observe thousands sending out so much 'hot air' you behold how facts become clouded."

In these days of radio and newspapers and orators, we are bombarded with politics, theories, world affairs, and advertising—it is hard to separate the chaff from the grain—to tell just what the world situation is, just who is the man to vote for, and which brand to buy from what store—the facts are sometimes clouded by too many claims and counter-claims.

The logical question, then, is: "what to do?" And the answer is plain—let world affairs do what they will—there is nothing I can do about them anyway; as for politicians, if a man has done a good job, re-elect him—if not fire him; as for advertising, check the firm—who buys there, how long has this firm been dealing in your locality, what is its reputation for honesty, fair dealing, prices and quality—then you will know where to buy.

We, at Streu's, do not please everybody all the time—to do so would, at times be unfair to ourselves and to most of our customers. However, we believe that our reputation is good as regards the above measuring stick. Check us.

Got lots of merchandise to sell—swatters and Airosol bombs to get rid of the deluge of crickets now prevalent—camping and fishing equipment—cooking utensils and dishes and glassware—radios and refrigerators and ranges and Delta Homecraft tools—and some nine thousand other items. We will serve you quickly and pleasantly—our prices are competitive—and our quality is the best—it pays to shop at Streu's.

Congratulations to radio station KPAN—Hereford's newest asset. may the owners and the staff enjoy prosperous and friendly business and social activities in Hereford.

STREU.

Here's "The Army Way"

There are three ways to do a thing, the right way, the wrong way—and the army way. The above statement is credited to American soldiers who saw service in the last war and we suspect it may have crossed the minds of a few in previous wars.

This week Major General K. L. Berry, director for Selective Service registrations in Texas, again went out of his way to prove the statement by placing five West Texas counties under one draft board, to complicate the situation, he selected the least accessible town in the entire five counties as his location.

The one big catch in General Berry's strategy lies in the fact that hundreds upon hundreds of young men will be forced to spend two days and one night to register, where the chore might easily have been accomplished in less than a half day at almost any one of the other towns in the five-county area.

Had General Berry taken the trouble to check, he would have found that Dimmitt is served by a mixed train which runs only three times each week. He would have also discovered that to reach Dimmitt by bus from Canyon, Hereford, Friona, Bovina and Farwell—five towns which represent three-fourths of the registrants—it will be necessary for the boys to come to Hereford, catch a south bound bus at 3:10 p. m., spend the night at Dimmitt, and return on the north-bound bus which arrives here at 3:10 p. m., the next day.

The route is optional, of course, to the Canyon boys, who can face the same situation by riding the same bus north from Tullia. In addition hotel facilities will not accommodate such large groups. General Berry will no doubt be comfortable, however, in the officer's club at Austin.

Or, perhaps, the General figures that all boys between 18 and 25 will own an automobile. General Berry and his staff no doubt took a map, (or more likely an office girl) did the taking) and located the geographical center of the five county area—without regard to transportation, a prime factor in all military maneuvers. Tactics and forethought of the type which won battles during the war—and always for the enemy.

For Better Health

The City of Hereford announced this week that it will enforce a city ordinance, passed in 1929, requiring health certificates for all persons engaged in handling and preparing foods for the public.

The ordinance is fine as far as it goes, but it does not begin to serve the general public need. What the community actually does need is an ordinance which will protect the people who buy foods, whether they be prepared or raw. The passage and enforcement of measures which afford the minimum of health protection is not too much.

True enough, Hereford is growing. It is difficult to keep up with the increasing needs of the community. Hereford is fortunate in having City Officials who are interested in the welfare of the community and the health of the people. They have taken the first step in the right direction, and we feel sure that other measures will follow.

After all, a 1929 ordinance can be like a 1929 automobile. Although seldom used, such a vehicle can easily be inadequate when compared with 1948 models.

World Wheat Price — What?

The Deaf Smith County wheat farmer, whose $2.00 a bushel product is the result of economic's basic law of supply and demand, has been watching with dwindling hopes the activities of the International Wheat Council.

The individual farmer, whose physical horizons may be limited, is nevertheless one of the key men in a world so closely knit by transportation and communication that each nation becomes interdependent on the other. What Farmer Jones decides over coffee cups in Hereford affects the people of Greece and France just as what the Brazilian farmer does affects him.

Because bread is a basic necessity of life and so many of the war-torn nations are still unable to produce sufficient supplies, the International Wheat Council was formed to work out an agreement between the 36 member nations to get the grain from the exporting to the importing countries and thereby avoid the repetition of the disastrous world trade experience which followed World War I.

But recently the agreement was tabled. The Council could not work without the support of the U. S. Congress, which refused to give them the go ahead sign and because chances of ratification in the near future therefore became a remote possibility, the Council wrote off the possibility of working out agreements on the international crop to be harvested after August 1 of this year. So a guaranteed market for U. S. farmers of 185 million bushels of wheat during each of the next five years at a fair export price flew out the window.

Now all that's left is a newly appointed Preparatory Committee to study the situation for the 1949-1950 crop in the hopes that the U. S. Congress will be more co-operative then Representatives of Australia, Benelux, Brazil, Canada, Egypt, France, India, the United Kingdom and the United States are still trying.

Today the U. S. exports more than 50 per cent of the world wheat trade, as compared with about 7 per cent for ten years ago. Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan said that even with production adjusted to a more desirable pattern, the country would need a much larger foreign market than it had before the war.

In the meantime, the wheat farmer's future again see-saws with politics.

Clippings from Our Exchanges the BOOTLEG philosopher

According to the Welasco County News, man's ancient labor saving device—animals—are about to get their revenge and turn the tables on that situation. It all involves a scheme whereby man helps bee. To bee or nor to bee—so to speak.

By O. B. Lloyd, Jr.
AUSTIN.—That ancient two-some of the birds and the bees is about to become a modern three-some. If a young Texan, buzzing about in the capitol dome, has his way Papa will some day sit Junior down and tell him about the birds and the bees—and plastic honeycombs.

Back of it all is a 28-year-old ex-G.I. George Nalle, Jr. The bees don't know it but young Nalle plans to take them off the 40-hour week. He intends to increase their production by a possible 20 per cent.
Instead of frittering away their honey-making time making a honeycomb, Nalle says he is the boy who can do it for them. What's more, he says the bees like it. Nalle is still experimenting, but he says tests show that a bee spends about 20 per cent of his time working on a honeycomb. The other 80 per cent goes for honey. Nalle hopes to add 20 per cent to 80 per cent and get a real job done.

A quick glance at our exchange papers shows Hereford's neighboring towns are also making civic improvements. The following item appeared in the Lamb County Leader:

Parking Meters In Levelland
It will cost the public to park in Levelland before long. Parking meters have arrived there and installation work is underway. It is expected they will be in operation the last of this week.
The meters were ordered installed on a trial basis by the Levelland City Commission at a meeting last month.

But the Mission Times editorially fought the controversial issue of to install or not to install meters-with-ads.

Like Ulysses the city commissioners may have to bind themselves to the mast to restrain themselves from the siren song of the meter salesman, who would "dress up" the town and have our main street look something akin to the main entrance of a circus tent.

Representatives of a newly-formed company want to make Mission the guinea pig for a brand new advertising scheme.
Their principal appeal is that they will relieve the city of the expense of maintaining the meter posts, since they want to dress up each meter post with three garish signs. They say 60% of the signs will be of nationally advertised products, but quickly admit they have not sold a single national advertiser on their new advertising gadget.

With the Friendship Train overseas a new Food Train is being planned at a time to take advantage of harvest surplus. The following item appeared in the Canadian Record:

A new Food Train for Europe's hungry populations is in the making, according to Leon M. Hill, director of a tri-state (Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma) campaign for the Christian Rural Overseas Program (Crop).

Solicitations are already underway, Hill said, and the train will roll through the Panhandle counties late this summer.

The CROP program is sponsored by Catholic Rural Life, Church World Service, and Lutheran/World Relief organizations.

Contributions of food or cash are being solicited.

The following appeared in an Amarillo paper and is being run to warn the unwary as we understand the new ice plant is planning to install a coin operated machine.

SANTA BARBARA, Calif.—A young man hit the jackpot here and almost got crushed with the proceeds.
What he wanted was a 25-pound cake of ice, so he put two dimes in the vending machine.

He got his cake of ice all right—followed in rapid succession by 31 more.
Intimidated by the incipient glacier, he dodged behind his car while the ice dealers wrung their hands.

When the deluge subsided, the young man tossed one chunk in his car and drove on.

Industrial use of silver in the United States has amounted to about 100,000,000 ounces a year since World War II, more than three times as much annually as before the war.

The Virgin Islands, containing about 50 tropical islands and islets, were discovered by Columbus in 1493.

Alcatraz, now the last stop for the nation's worst criminals, was originally fortified by the Spanish and was first used by the U. S. to house military prisoners in 1858.

Vets Will Play Umberger Sunday

The Hereford VFW team will meet Umberger in a scheduled game at the new Veteran's Park field here this afternoon, Manager Earl Wood announced Saturday.

Birthday Party For Karen Sue Daniel

Little Miss Karen Sue Daniel, was honored on her fifth birthday by her mother, Mrs. R. A. Daniel, Jr., on Wednesday afternoon.

El Nino Club Meets Friday

Mrs. M. W. Nobles, 705 25-Mile Avenue, was hostess to El Nino Study Club Friday morning at her home.

Mrs. Alton Biggers was voted in as a new member. The year book was approved.

Members present were: Mesdames Stanford Knox, Jim Bookout, John Jacobsen, Jr., Will Graham, Bill Patton, R. A. Daniel, Jr., Paul Conway, Bruce Woodell, and Joe Smith, Jr.

This will be the second game on the new field," Wood said, "and it looks like a good one."
The VFW dedicated the new field Sunday, July 18, by defeating Tullia 16 to 7.

Now that most of the votin is over and my road ain't no nearer bein paved than it was before the promisin started, I been givin some thought to a big city paper's campaign to have the farmers finance their own roads.

Accordin to this plan, the farmers would pay a tax on all the gasoline they use in farmin, and the state would take the money and build country roads. This means the more they up one row and down another, the more money the state would have to build roads with.

That ain't my notion of helpin the farmer. One city paper argues that a good road will increase the value of a farm to such a extent that the road will pay for itself.

The editor of that paper just ain't never been out here around Bootleg. You could build a concrete boulevard with hedges and petunias on both sides up and down every turn-row I got out here and a double-lane thoroughfare to the highway and my blindweed farm wouldn't produce no more than it does now under the present management, which I don't intend to change, and if it don't produce no more I don't see how its value would be increased none.

I don't know about others, but my aim in wantin a good road ain't increase the value of my farm so I can pay more taxes. It's just to get to town on. And what I want to get to town for is the same reason anybody else goes to town for. A farm is a good place, but once in a while you got to break the monotonny.

What burns me up is the idea that most city people have that if the farmer's comfort is improved a little it's got result in increased production or more food for the city people. If they build us a road, we got work harder to pay for it. I don't look at it that way. All I want a road for is to get to town on for no other excuse than I just want to get to town, and maybe occasionally haul somethin in, and if they expect me to plow more for the privilege, they can just let the present road grow up in weeds.

I haven't heard of no city man cuttin more hair or tightening more bolts or sellin more groceries or weldin more seams or writin better editorials, just because he lives on a paved street.
Yours faithfully
J. A.

Mrs. Gene Worley Rescues Neighbor Following Gas Explosion In Kitchen

Mrs. Gene Worley, wife of the Congressman from this district, was the heroine who rescued a neighbor from her explosion-torn kitchen in Washington D. C. last Sunday.

Mrs. Worley was working in the kitchen of her apartment located in a housing development in Arlington, Va., when she heard a loud explosion down the hall. She called the police and then ran to give aid, arriving at the same time another neighbor did.

Inside they found the screaming victim, clothing afire, in too dazed a condition to think clearly. They carried her outside and rolled her on the ground. The police and fire departments which arrived soon, estimated the explosion had occurred when the C. A. A. employee, Miss Escher Williams, tried to light the stove. Apparently a gas jet had been left open and gas had accumulated in the kitchen.

Mrs. Homer Brumley Will Teach Seminars At Panhandle Towns

Mrs. Homer Brumley left today for a five-day trip during which she will teach in seminars at Sweetwater, Munday, Wellington, Amarillo and Lubbock. The courses feature work she took at the School of Missions in Fayetteville Ark., and completed July 16.

Mrs. Brumley, who is conference recording secretary for the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, will be accompanied by four other instructors from this region.

Judge Reviews Sims Tax Vote

Voters of the Sims Common School district will go to the polls August 10 at the home of Cord Hammock to vote in a maintenance tax election. Mr. Hammock will serve as presiding officer.

The election is being held on the petition of 20 resident qualified tax paying voters from Sims Common School District No. 11, who desire to tax themselves to supplement the state school fund apportioned to this district.

L. H. Foster, County Judge and Ex-officio Superintendent of Rural Schools said, "This is not an election to increase the tax rate from one hundred cents on the One Hundred Dollars valuation of all taxable property to one hundred and fifty cents on the One Hundred Dollars valuation, but rather an election to determine whether or not the majority of the resident qualified taxpaying voters of the District desire to tax themselves by establishing a maintenance tax not to exceed $1.50 on the One Hundred Dollars valuation."

If the election passes, it will not automatically raise the tax rate but will enable the Trustees of the district and the county superintendent to redetermine necessary rates not exceeding $1.50 on a hundred dollars. Those rates are levied by the Commissioners Court, Judge Foster said.

Layne Is a Father

Bobby Layne, University of Texas backfield star, who will play professional football with the Chicago Bears next season, visits his wife and seven-pound son, born in a Lubbock hospital recently.

New Restricted...

(Continued from Page 1) plans for the Hromas home, and Mrs. Hromas says they expect to be among the first to build. Joe Poindexter, of Friona could not be reached, but other owners said that he also intends to start construction in the near future.

Several other owners in the new sub-division said that they expected to build this year or early in 1949. Others, like Dr. B. M. Wiltshire, said: "I don't know just when, but I hope it will be soon." In this group are Dr. M. W. Noble, Dr. Will F. Graham and W. L. Davis.

Many had indefinite plans and would merely state, "Not this year," "Not any way soon," or "Not at the present." This group included Clyde Cave, Mrs. J. L. Woodford, Grady Rogers, John Patton, A. C. Hays Jr., Wayne Evans, Raylan Evans, Mrs. Lyle Blanton, O. G. Hill Jr. and N. D. Bartlett, Jr.

Dayton Chisolm could not be contacted, but he had been reported as saying he would have to move to Hereford so he could put his boy in school.

The J. C. McCrackens have no definite plans for building soon. Mrs. McCracken said Friday. Allison believes when building gets underway, others will be eager to build and rush their plans.

$10,000 Minimum
Restrictions are not highly prohibitive as $10,000 is the low set on homes — and is not high in these days of high costs of building materials.

Materials must be new, but that is the only restriction in this line. No used or old stuff, to be remodeled, can be used. Houses must face either east or west and be 37½ feet from the street line.

A 50-foot street length of the addition is already under construction and alleys have been laid out. Another 50-foot street, between the addition and the Catholic property on the east, will also be opened, said Allison.

Demo Delegates To State Meet Named Saturday

Bob Lewis, Henry Sears and Robert L. Thompson were selected as delegates to the State Democratic convention in Ft. Worth, Sept. 14—at the meeting of the Dear Smith County convention in the County Courtroom Saturday afternoon.

The convention also selected three alternates, O. P. Cowart, A. O. Thompson and Leo Forrest. Delegates were instructed to support Harry Truman for President, and Owen Brewster for Vice President, as nominees of the party. The County Convention, however, did not wholeheartedly endorse all activities of the national convention, and passed a resolution opposing any interference by the Federal Government which might obstruct the "States Rights" status heretofore enjoyed by the individual states.

Rual Ford, O. P. Cowart and Leo Forrest were named as a committee to draft the resolution and submit it in proper form.

Engagement of Nettie Hood and Tom Wilson Announced Thursday Morning

Added to the list of early fall brides-elect is Miss Nettie Hood of Hereford, whose engagement to Tom Wilson of Dallas and Austin was announced at a lovely coffee Thursday morning by the honoree's aunt and cousin, Mrs. Mary E. Seigler and Mrs. T. E. Seigler Jr., at the home of Mrs. Mary Seigler. The young lady is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hood of Hereford, while her fiancée is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rockwell, formerly of Hereford, who now resides in Dallas.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Mary Seigler, who in turn introduced them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. J. A. Jitman, Miss Hood, the bride elect, and her mother Mrs. Charles Hood. Miss Helen Ann Pitman assumed duties of registering the guests in the bride's book, while Miss Audrey Hood, sister of the bride-elect, directed guests to the dining room.

Seasonal cut flowers were used in floral arrangements in party rooms.

Of central interest was the dining table, which was covered with an imported linen cut-work cloth, featuring the nuptial date, which was revealed on an aqua net fan in silver letters, as September-6. Background for the fan was a lovely fan-shaped floral arrangement of pale yellow carnations, all of which was reflected in a large mirror. Pale pasted colors of aqua, yellow and pink were used in the serving appointments. Miss Barbara Ann Burney and Miss Phyllis Radovich alternated pouring duties at the silver coffee service.

The couple has selected September 6 as their wedding date in a morning service at the "Little-Chapel-in-the-Woods," Denton, Texas.

Miss Hood graduated from Hereford High School, and received her Bachelor of Science Degree from Texas State College for Women this past May; she majored in Advertising Design.

The groom-to-be received his early education at Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, New Hampshire. Following that he served with the Marine Corps, and is now a senior student at the University of Texas. The young couple plan to reside in Austin until Mr. Wilson has completed his degree requirements.

Guests registering were Mesdames: R. B. Miller, Bob Higgins, Jeff T. Glibbreath, E. D. Hopson, R. P. Conaway, Homer K. Fox, J. M. Gillentine, C. C. Acker, A. R. Bateman, C. S. Perrin Alvin C. Thompson, Phil Radovich, B. E. Brunley, A. T. Fraser, J. C. McCracken, and Miss Betty Dunlap.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dettmann 319 Ave B, left Thursday for a two-week vacation trip. They will see the Grand Canyon, Hoover Dam, Yosemite National Forest, and points of interest in and near San Francisco. They will spend a week with Mr. Dettman's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Albert Dettman in San Francisco. Mrs. Fred Harmon, Dallas, Mr. Dettman's sister is also visiting in the Dettman home.

Next in order were three French productions — "Les Disparus de St. Agil", "Les Visiteurs du Soir" and "L'Eternel Retour." Society members voted "Open City," "Odd Man Out" and "Great Expectations" the three best films of the year in the commercial theatre.

Luke-Hoffman Wedding Rites Spoken Wednesday Morning

In St. Anthony's Catholic Church Wednesday morning at 8:30 O'clock, Miss Marcella Luke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Luke, of 900 25-Mile Avenue, was married to Anthony Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoffman, Father Albert Heald performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white slipper satin and Chantilly lace gown, with a molded bodice, lace yoke, and long, full sleeves, fitted at the wrist with a ruffle extending over the hands. The skirt ended in a cathedral train. Her two tattered veils of imported French illusion fell from a tiara of Chantilly lace, completed with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and wore an engagement ring which belonged to her mother.

Mrs. James Clement, who was patron of honor for her sister, wore a gown of pale green marquisette over satin, a headpiece of starched white lace, and carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Mr. James Clement was best man, and Frank Betzen ushered. Father James Salvi, organist, sang "On This Day", Lambillate; "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy", Burns; "Ave Verum", Georgian; "Ave Maria", Schubert and Bordeese. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional. White tapers, gladioli, and garlands decorated the church altar. The couple knelt on white satin kneeling benches. Family pews were marked with greenery tied with white ribbon.

Mrs. Luke wore a brown crepe dress, accented with a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Hoffman, the groom's mother wore a black printed silk dress with a corsage of pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a breakfast was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Betzen. A wedding dinner for the bridal party and close relatives was served at the home of the bride's parents. The two-tiered wedding cake was decorated in white and green and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

A reception followed at 4:00 O'clock. Mrs. H. F. Paetzold registered the guests.

The rehearsal dinner was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Betzen.

Mrs. Hoffman was graduated from West Texas High School Canyon, and attended Our Lady of Victoria College, Ft. Worth.

Mr. Hoffman was graduated from Hereford High School and served three years in the Army.

Mr. Hoffman and his bride will make their home on a farm north of Hereford.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. James Clements, Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. John Lueb, Flagler, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs.

NEW YORK — (AP) — Race tracks throughout the U. S. distributed $49,642,555 in purse money in 1947, which is almost dollar for dollar equal to the estimated value of the approximately 13,000 horses which raced in the country.

BERN, Switzerland — (AP) — The Swiss Federal Council has set-up new military regulations which will curb the authority of the commander-in-chief under conditions of armed neutrality. In time of war, however, the commander-in-chief is authorized to exercise free choice over personnel and material.

LAMPS TRAP FISH
MOSCOW — (AP) — "Evening Moscow" reports fishermen are using submerged electric lights in catching sprat. The system, perfected by a Prof. Borisovas, allows the Caspian fishermen to lower a series of 800 to 1,000-watt lamps into the sea which attracts whole schools of the fish. Once the sprat are near the lamps they are hauled quickly aboard nearby ships with nets. One expedition caught more than 3,000 pounds in an evening by the electric lamp method.

When Japan's silk industry declined in the 1920s and 1930s, many of the old country's old silk weaving plants turned to weaving rayon.

The following quotation comes from Tab's Potato Service, which is the potato broker's business bible: "The Hereford district in Texas has been shipping out the best Triumph variety potatoes of any other district in the country. The Triumphs are mature and beautiful quality. Here in Chicago they have been bringing as much as a dollar premium over those from other sections. They are offered washed and waxed, U. S. No. 1 Triumphs, fine quality, $3.00 FOB."

Mrs. J. J. Buckner got so excited over news regarding the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Buckner, that she forgot to find out her new grandson's name.

Elmer Gollehon really had his finger on the public pulse when he announced free coffee at his formal opening Saturday. The crowds came and came, and drank plenty of coffee.

Speaking of coffee, it is nice to have County Clerk Robert Thompson back on the coffee-club stools, following two major operations.

Roy N. Byrd of Canyon reported loss of 15 steers, valued at around $3,000 last Saturday. The steers were killed by lightning and were discovered last Sunday when Byrd and Clyde McElroy were out looking over the herd. None of the Byrd family was aware of the loss until the accidental inspection trip.

Believe-It-or-Not, Df. R. R. Wills and Otto Sherman this week honored the new swimming pool as paid customers. The management, in fact, reports that the "bald headed" kids are among their best customers. Harold Closs, G. T. Slaughter and Urlin Streu are fast becoming regulars. Next thing you know Boyd Knox and Homer Fox will be going off the high board, and that we want to see.

RAMEY'S ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ramey have returned from the Texas State Convention of Mail Carriers, which was held at San Angelo, July 18-21. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Vondel Houser, formerly of Hereford, who now live at San Angelo, and also relatives at Big Springs, Dennison, and Wichita Falls, and other towns on their route.

Scout Concessions The Boy Scouts have charge of the concession which began operation July 23. They offer candy and soft drinks to the swimmers and spectators and were also selling hot dogs Tuesday night. The regular staff of Boy Scouts who run the concession, and who, incidentally, get their swimming, but not their cokes free, are Jimmy Nunnally, Douglas Hicks, Lawrence Davis, and Lanny Wilkins. The basket boys who work in the office are Tommy Culpepper, Kenneth Brock, Jimmy Wilkins and Max Ford.

Regardless of whether you are watching the show, or part of it, there is plenty to see — and hear. The water splashes, the radio blares out its music, the kids shout, the spectators laugh, and the scouts hawk their wares. It's fun for everybody of every age. Witness 18-month old Beverly Barrett padding around in the wading pool and Glenn Weir deciding from the diving board that what they need is "Oldsters Night."

It is consistent panorama, however, day after day. The same people are doing the same things. Someone makes a beautiful dive, followed by a young teen-age boy charging off the diving board, grabbing his nose as he folds his body into an approximate Z-shape and lands in the pool in a shower of spray.

False Alarm For Guard

Sometimes there is some excitement. Although there have been no serious accidents at the pool, it hasn't been entirely placid. There was the time when Charles Skeleton, a senior life guard, watched James Edmondson dive off the high board and didn't see him come up. He looked down at the far end of the pool to see if James were swimming under water — no James. Frantic, Charles pulled off his shoes and went in after him, searching the bottom of the pool.

Jack Simmons, life guard, no doubt seeing the look of utter despair on Charles' face thought he was drowning and jumped in to rescue him. In the meantime, James, who swam underwater back to the diving board and crawled out on the side of the pool among a crowd of people, was wondering what all the excitement was about as he watched the two boys in the pool each trying heroically to save someone.

People are not the only things that have to be rescued either. Someone is frequently dropping money in the pool for the valiant to dive after, or the lifeguard manages to grab some stray pup just before he plunges in to join the kids.

Manager's Face Turns Red

Something new turned up missing the other day. It happened when a little girl, decked in a bra top bathing suit, a swimming cap, three coats of lipstick and a towel dashed up to manager Bud Brady pleading, "I've lost part of my bathing suit." Such statement of fact had Bud more than a little perturbed and maybe that is why it took him so long to recognize Tommy Culpepper playing practical jokes.

But even in living that down, Bud was pleased with the success of the pool. "The enthusiasm with which it has been received, definitely shows we needed a pool," he said. "We are breaking even financially, but it will take a month's operation for us to establish our definite expenses."

The only other comment he would make was in answer to the question, "How do most people feel about the new swimming pool?" Bud's answer? "Oh, B-r-r-r."

"Our town is suffering growing pains," said one committee member. "We have some laws on our books which are outmoded because of our increased population. If you have a few people, to start a community, and plenty of space for everyone, you don't need the regulations that become necessary when several thousand people must live together and depend on each other."

There was general agreement favoring presenting to the people information on the need for stricter sanitation regulations. The president of the Chamber of Commerce, Francis Hardwick, pledged that organization's support in a publicity campaign regarding the issue and made tentative plans for programs to be presented to the service clubs in the town on the subject.

America's literary history began in 1608, with John Smith's "True Relation of Virginia." Sheet steel manufactured in some mills speeds past the operator of the manufacturing machines at nearly 70 miles per hour.

Elk City Pastor To Have Program Here Wednesday

Rev. H. L. Janes of Elk City will be guest speaker at the First Baptist Church in Hereford Wednesday evening in the absence of Rev. R. H. Cagle, pastor. Included in the program will be showing of pictures which Rev. Janes took while touring Europe. He will also address the Women's Missionary Society Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A general invitation to the public was extended to attend both gatherings.

Garden Clubs Form County Council Unit

Representatives of Hereford's three garden clubs met in the County Court Room Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock to form the Deaf Smith County Council of Garden Clubs for the purpose of co-ordinating all local garden club work.

Mrs. Homer Brumley presided with Mrs. Hartland Caraway as acting secretary. Mrs. O. G. Hill read the constitution and by laws which provided that the council should have a membership made up of three members from each club including the president, past president and an elected member. The council will meet on every fifth Friday.

Plan Fall Show

The schedule for the fall garden show was presented to the members so they might be able to incorporate the plan in their year book to make available to all members divisions and scoring points for the flower show arrangements. Mrs. Art Manjeot announced that the fall show would be held Friday and Saturday, October 15 and 16.

Plans were also made for the clubs to show, at one of their joint meetings, the screening of the production, Texas Wild Flowers, which the Texas Highway Department makes available to civic groups.

Those who attended the meeting were Mesdames Art Manjeot, Dennis Bernard, Carol Whiteside, Dick Miller, Gerald Wilson, W. S. Fluitt, C. C. Ferguson, John P. Slaton, John Jacobson Jr., E. E. Fridley, R. A. Daniel, Jr., N. D. Bartlett, O. G. Hill, Jim Neill, A. V. Hendrick, DeWard Roberson, Mary Seigler, Eska Harrison, E. E. Ramey, W. M. Hull, R. N. Mr. Truman's proclamation urged all employers to give their workers sufficient time off to register on the proper day.

Each eligible man was instructed to register in the area in which he may happen to be working which he has his permanent home or in which he may happen to be on the day for his registration.

And each was warned "to familiarize himself" with the rules and regulations governing the registration program.

Earlier, Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, newly-appointed draft director, said draft-age youths should know in a week or two in what order they will be called up for service in the armed forces.

THANKS

I take this means of expressing my thanks to the people of Deaf Smith County for re-electing me to the office of County and District Clerk. You will be accorded the same welcome and service at the clerk's office as in the past and we shall remember that we are working for YOU, and that it is YOUR office, that it is through your confidence in us that we are given the opportunity of serving you.

The Younger Generation*

The two little girls at the top left are Ruth Ann Allison and Carol Ann Hays, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Allison of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hays of Dimmitt. They are the same age, two and one-half years, with just nine days between their birth dates. They have a lot of fun together, especially when they visit their grandmother, Mrs. H. G. Conkwright.

At the top right are: Steven (Stevie) Seigler, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Seigler, Jr., on the left, and Louis B. Barnett, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Barnett. There is seven weeks difference in their ages, both are 18 months old. They like to play together, particularly in the pool just completed in the Seigler back yard.

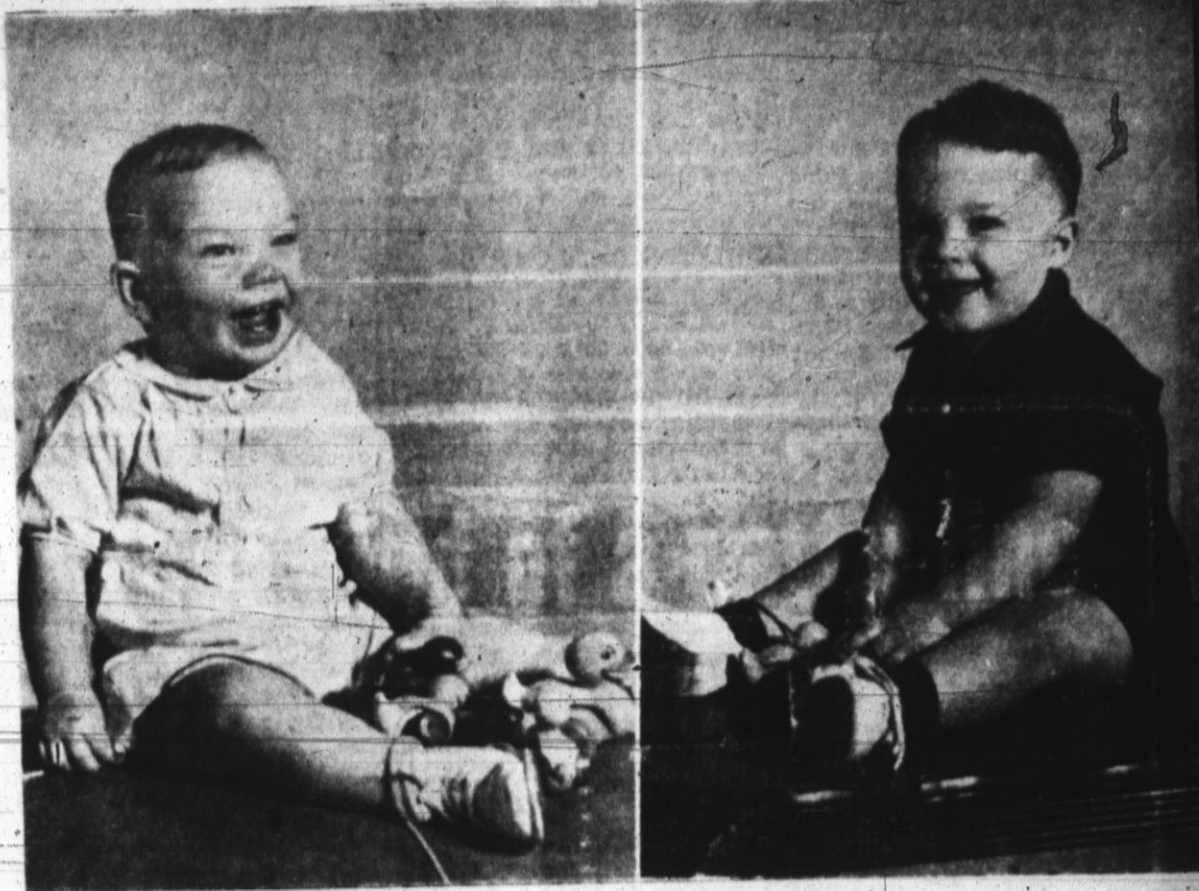

Alert and ready for anything, they find keen delight in each day's new adventures.

In the center is three-year-old Wayne Hastings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hastings. He likes to push doorbells, pop firecrackers and explore things in general.

The youngest of the group, at the lower right, is Michael Harvey, nine-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harvey, whose happy smile includes the world about him.

Weddings -- Parties -- Showers Hold Attention

To the left Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Thompson, known to thousands over the Panhandle as just "Alec and Audrey," may be seen inspecting the guest book which was signed by more than 200 friends who attended the "Open House" and dedication of their new ranch style home here last week. The generous smiles of the couple are symbolic of the couple, who married here in 1908 and have spent their lives in developing and enjoying civic, religious and social affairs of the community for more than 40 years.

The wedding of Miss Faye Crosthwaite, above, and Hewitt Milton Hanson of Dallas, was solemnized last Saturday in the Dallas home of Rev. James Alken, Jr., former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Hereford. See article on page eight for complete details.

Antique vases seen on the right will be included in the Episcopal Women's Guild sale, scheduled here in August. The vases were contributed by Mrs. Earl Wyatt of Amarillo. Judge Hamlin of Farwell has also contributed antiques and Mrs. Kirby reports that her list is growing each day.

GERMAN DEATH RATE IS LOWERED
BERLIN — (AP) — The Germans are making a comeback in health which was undermined by the war. The American Military government has announced the German death rate for the first time since the end of the war was lower than the pre-war death rate in the Anglo-American zones.
 In the twelve months ending in April, the rate dropped to 10.9 deaths per thousand population from 13.4 deaths per thousand in the preceding twelve months. The 1947 death rate in the United States was 10.1 deaths per thousand persons.

Drape Model
 Take an old plastic shower curtain, trim it in a couple of places, drape it here and there, and what's ya got? Why, a bathing suit, of course—and nifty, too. Joy Lansing, movie actress, shows the finished item to good advantage.

FIGHT ON MALARIA
LONDON — (AP) — Complete removal of malaria from the populated areas of Africa in his lifetime is foreseen by 45-year-old Prof. George McDonald, director of the Ross Institute of Tropical Hygiene. Prof. McDonald says also that a three-year plan for the eradication of malaria-carrying mosquitoes in Cyprus is well advanced, and adds:
 "This is the first time in history that this task has been attempted. And I think it is setting a pattern of what may happen elsewhere in the future." He said the World Health Organization was considering a similar campaign in a large part of tropical Africa, as an experiment in controlling the disease in territory surrounded by land, as opposed to an island.

Texans in Washington

By TEX EASLEY

Washington, July 30 — (AP)— Texas politics stir up a lot of people in this voteless city of Washington, D. C.

Even before the polls closed in the first Democratic primary election the Lone Star State the telephone calls began to pour into the Associated Press Bureau here and into the offices of the local newspapers.

"I never knew there were that many people from Texas living here," commented one editor. The contest which precipitated countless calls from other Texans was the senatorial race between Coke Stevenson and Rep. Lyndon Johnson of Austin, for Senator W. Lee O'Daniel's seat.

Word from Texas that Stevenson planned to come up as an observer during the special session of congress created interest. While he was governor he had the privilege of going on the U. S. Senate floor. Senate officials said that this courtesy is not extended to ex-governors nor even to former members of the U. S. House of Representatives.

A few days before the Texas election the C. I. O. put out a "report card" on all members of congress, grading the legislators as to whether they voted "right" or "wrong" on 16 major pieces of legislation. The Texas members as a whole batted 500, chalking up about an equal number of r's and w's. An exception was Senator O'Daniel, who had 15 w's and 1 "a". The "a" denoted absence on a roll call vote. Senator Tom Marlin was listed as voting "right" 7 times, "wrong" 8 times. And being absent on one vote.

Texarkana Congressman Wright Patman likely will be one of the busiest men in the special session, but he still doesn't think much will come out of it.

He is a ranking Democrat on the House Banking and Currency Committee, which handles price control and housing legislation. These subjects, along with civil rights measures, are certain to provoke the most heated arguments.

"It is doubtful that the special session will accomplish much real legislation," says the veteran northeast Texas Congressman.

"If the Democrats were united, President Truman would have an excellent opportunity to keep the people aroused over the failure of the Republican party to carry out platform proposals before the election what it has promised to carry out after the election."

Convention backwash: an Ohio delegate to the Democratic National convention thinks Texans are okay even though he can't agree with them on civil rights. In an interview with newsmen, Harold E. Pierce of Newark, O., said of the Southern Democrats:

"When I tried to talk with some, they would look at my badge, see that I was from the north, and remark, 'you don't know anything about our problems'."

"I stayed away from the South after that. That doesn't include the Texas boys; they were swell."

The Public Roads Administration says that of May 31, there were 2,900 miles of Federal-aid highways in Texas either being constructed or down on the long-range program for construction.

The total estimated cost of the work was put at $102,027,000 (M), of which the Federal Government would contribute $33,918,000.

There were 1,593 miles of such roads actually under construction at the end of May, at an estimated cost of $39,000,000.

The recent highway and road act passed by congress appropriates 30 percent of the total amount allocated to a state for farm-to-market roads, rural free delivery mail and public school bus routes.

Recent visitors included: Mrs. David Hearn of the Beaumont Journal, who was on a tour of the east with her husband.

The Great Rotunda of the cap-

Ride That Beefsteak!

It's the thrill of conquest and the love of money that makes a cowboy take a beating like this one in taking from a wild steer at the rodeo in Calgary, Canada. In this case, cowboys were competing for more than $50,000 in prize money in the various events at the 53rd Annual Calgary Stampede, "World Series" of Canadian rodeos.

MORE THAN 100 BEARS TRAPPED BY LUMBERJACK

PLEASANT RIDGE PLANTATION, Me. — (AP) — Lumberjack Dick Rollin's idea of fun is trapping bears.

The husky woods worker has caught more than 100 of the animals in 35 years. He sets his traps during his spare time and shoots the trapped bear with a .35 calibre automatic rifle.

He was credited with six bears in 1947, ten in 1946, and nine in 1945. His largest bear was a 400-pounder, caught last year.

Maine pays a $15 bounty for each bear tagged by a game warden.

CARD OF THANKS

We are sincerely grateful for the help rendered by our good friends and neighbors and we would like to thank every one personally, but since that is impossible, we take this means to say thanks to everyone.

To the Hereford Fire Department for their whole hearted and immediate response we also say thank you.

The Paul Lee family.

itol echoed last week to the voices of 50 youngsters in the Amarillo High School Capella Choir, who stopped here briefly en route to New York for the International Lions Convention.

Rep. Gene Worley of Shamrock met them at the depot when their train arrived and escorted them around the capitol.

Tourists stood in hushed awe as the Texas School boys and girls softly sang there on the very spot where the body of general of the Armies John J. Pershing had lain in state only a few days earlier.

THINK OF THE ECONOMY OF MILK

Then Read the Message Below

There is no waste in milk as every drop can be used and the cost is very low in proportion to other food values. Families on low cost diets need a generous allowance of milk as diets are limited in variety and lack vital essentials. MILK CAN MAKE UP THAT DEFICIT AT LOW COST!

A quart of milk is equal in energy value to approximately any one of the following:

- 1 lb. lean beef
- 9 eggs
- 6 lbs. tomatoes
- 6 lbs. spinach
- 13 small oranges
- 3 broilers
- 7 bananas
- 5 lbs. raw cabbage

For 1/4 of the cost of the moderate price market basket, milk supplies close to 1/2 of the family's food needs.

Markets

(USDA) — Many southwest farm prices moved toward lower levels during the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

All feed grains broke sharply. Increased marketings of new crop oats, barley and grain sorghums and favorable prospects for corn influenced the decline. Wheat set a firmer tone, as demand improved and marketings decreased.

Milled rice markets held firm, but buyers waited for new crop supplies, as dry weather made an early harvest likely. Millfeed prices dropped lower, and other feedstuffs developed weak undertones. Good quality alfalfa hay became more plentiful at Fort Worth, with prices trending lower. Peanut prospects looked good.

Spring lambs and yearlings advanced $1 to $2 during the week at San Antonio, but dropped $1 to $2.50 at Fort Worth, $3.50 at Kansas City, and 50 cents to $1.50 at Denver. Most markets sold ewes around 50 cents to $1 lower. Feeder lambs held their own fairly well, and breeding ewes continued in broad demand at Kansas City.

Texas 12-months staple wool sold around $1.70 to $1.75 a pound clean basis.

Most slaughter cattle lost 50 cents to $2, and best calves fell $4 at Fort Worth. However, better grades of steers, yearlings and heifers sold fairly steady at some markets, and replacement classes held up well. Cattle demand generally lacked urgency, especially for cows, which made up the bulk of offerings at several of the markets. Grass fat she-stock, canners and cutters predominated at Oklahoma City, and grassers figured prominently in the trade at San Antonio, Wichita and Kansas City.

Hog prices averaged about unchanged for the week, though much unevenness developed. Desirable weights of butcher hogs and sows ruled steady to slightly higher, while heavier lots and poorer grades largely slipped to lower levels. Wichita and Fort Worth bought pigs little changed but San Antonio paid to $1 more.

Many southwest fruits and vegetables moved in dull to weaker markets during the week. Cobbler and Bliss Triumph potatoes met very light demand in the Gilcrest section of Colorado, and most shipments went to the government's price support program. Peaches drifted steadily lower at Arkansas shipping points. North Texas watermelons and New Mexico lettuce sold cheaper at Fort Worth. Other terminal markets reported weaker trends on long lists of products.

Fryers and broilers sold lower at principal consumer markets in the southwest during the past week, reflecting last week's easiness in the specialized producing sections. Hens strengthened slightly at Denver but remained about unchanged at other markets. Generally light egg receipts held prices steady all week, except for a little strength on top grades and whites at scattered points.

Cotton prices leveled off toward a more even trend following the steady downturns of the previous week. Spot middling 15/16 inch closed Monday at $2.10 cents per pound at Dallas, $2.65 at Houston, $2.70 at Galveston, and $2.85 at New Orleans.

45 Years Ago
News items: John E. Ferguson took a trip to the C. W. Mills Ranch, situated 25 miles north-east of town, Monday last. He says cattle are fat and fine as can be.

Miss Jessie Morris of Gainsville a sister of one of our townsmen, S. H. Morris, is among the visitors in Hereford this week.

B. C. D. Bynum, the genial manager of Smith, Walker & Co., at Canyon came in yesterday on a pleasure trip to the OYO Ranch in Castro County.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tucker of Taylor are guests at the OYO Ranch... Mr. Tucker being one of the owners of the fine ranch. They were visitors in Hereford yesterday.

Note: We would like more information on the OYO Ranch. Editor Vandenberg seems to have held the ranch in high esteem 45 years ago. Where was it located? What happened to it? Any information along this line will be appreciated.

Roswell Fair Sept. 22-25: The Roswell Fair Association spared no exertions nor expense to make their annual fair one of interest to all visitors... If they excel last year's fair, they have a big job on their hands.

Last Monday the Tulla base ball team came to Hereford to play a series of three games with the local nine... Tuesday morning... the first game, Hereford won by a score of 12 to 13... and won again in the afternoon 8 to 9... Wednesday morning, Tulla won 8 to 12.

Society: Marriage at Arney. On Sunday Last at the home of the bride's father, William Dixon, who resides at Arney, occurred the marriage of E. C. Burks and Miss Eva Dixon.

Editorial: We realize we are wasting time and space in harping on this subject, but we can't resist the temptation to advocate the building of a fence around the public school grounds, plant trees and shrubbery therein and paint the new addition of the building... if not the whole building... and how about the addition that seems necessary for the term 1903-4?

LONDON PLANS SEX CLASSES

LONDON — (AP) — A 34-year old ban on the teaching of sex hygiene in London's public elementary schools has been lifted by the London County Council's education committee. Sex education was banned by the council in 1914. The committee decided that "a special note of guidance" should be prepared for teachers to use in the course.

RABBITS LURE CADDIES
SYDNEY — (AP) — Out in Goonwindi, golfers are mad with the millions of rabbits in the district. It's not that they eat the greens, burrow in the fairways, or steal the balls. They merely lead the caddies away from the course. The trouble revolves around the high prices of rabbit carcasses and rabbit skins. The local ex-caddies now go rabbiting. Schoolboys make up to $52 a week from rabbits in their spare time. Clever rabbiters are making three times that amount. Goonwindi is the center of a sheep-rasing district in southwestern Queensland.

Crosthwait-Hanson Wedding Rites At Rev. Aiken Home In Dallas

Miss Faye Crosthwait, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Owen Crosthwait, 405 McKinley, and Hewitt Milton Hanson, son of Mrs. Louise Hanson, Dallas, were married Saturday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. James Aiken, Jr. in Fort Worth. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a toast brown crepe dress with dark brown accessories. Her corsage was a lavender orchid. For something old, she carried a lace point handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. James Lafayette Crosthwait. Something borrowed was a gold link necklace belonging to Miss Melba Cunningham of Tulsa, Okla. The mothers of the bride and groom each wore a white gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Hanson was graduated from Hereford High School and attended Amarillo Business College, and is now employed at the Veterans Administration in Dallas.

Mr. Hanson is an architectural engineer and manager of the firm Wyatt C. Hedrick in Dallas. The couple are at home at 3808 Mt. Ranier, Dallas.

Things to Come

SOAPS, SHAMPOOS, COSMETICS, etc. MAY BE MADE FROM INFERIOR GRADES OF COFFEE NOT USABLE FOR DRINKING.

BETTER GO EASY WITH THAT STUFF! YOU KNOW HOW COFFEE KEEPS YOU AWAKE ALL NIGHT!

I'D LIKE TO GET SOME OF THAT PEACHES 'N' CREAM COMPLEXION SOAP!

THAT'S COFFEE AND CREAM, DEARIE! PEACHES AREN'T ON THE MARKET YET!

OH, WELL - IT'S GOOD FOR THE SCALP, I SUPPOSE.

THAT LIGHTNING WAGN'T CLOSE ENOUGH TO SCARE ANYBODY! THE TIME TO JUMP IS WHEN THE FLASH AND THE NOISE COME TOGETHER!

HOMER, YOU AND HECTOR COME IN THE HOUSE BEFORE IT STARTS POURING DOWN RAIN!

HOMER'S SO INTERESTED IN THE APPROACHING STORM THAT HE WONT PAY A BIT OF ATTENTION TO ME!

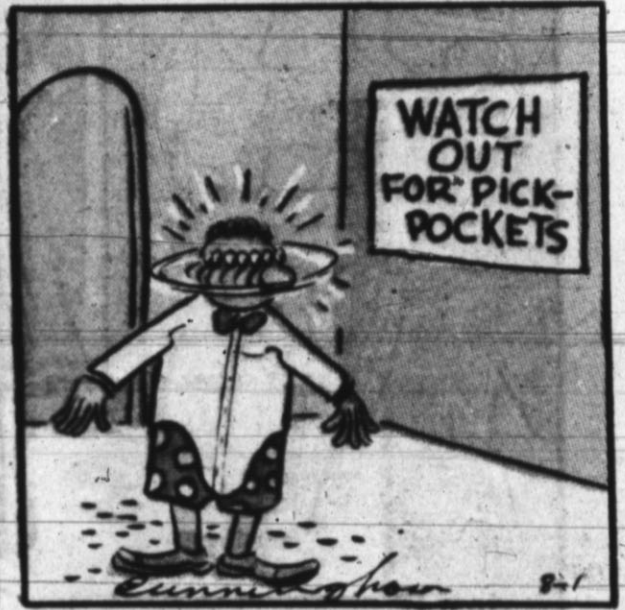

MAYBE I CAN ATTRACT HIS ATTENTION!

WOW!
