

QUESTION ON STATE FUNDS

Farm-To-Market Road Committee Ask For Hearing Of State Board

Farmer Marvin Diller and County Agent Hugh Clearman compared notes Wednesday morning and decided the Monday night freeze didn't do much harm to the crops in the country. Clearman said the freeze wasn't severe enough to hurt anything and he hadn't heard any reports from farmers saying the leaves on their wheat had been frozen. Diller reported he'd looked over his cherry and apricot trees, but none of them looked as if they'd suffered any damage. Reports did flock in, however, about tractors, cars and trucks freezing up all over the county.

The fire alarm, shortly before 1 o'clock Wednesday, was reported at 131 B Street—and turned out to be a pile of trash which was burning in an alley. The fire department quickly extinguished the blaze and "no damage" was reported.

The courthouse flag, which was hoisted "upside-down" Tuesday, created widespread attention, especially among ex-Navy men, who were quick to point out that the flag is flown upside-down only in case of distress. Certain Custodian Jasper Cockrell was distressed to learn of the error.

Anybody read German? Fourth grader Tommy Vaughn has a letter he wants interpreted. It seems Tommy contributed in the clothing drive sponsored by the First Baptist Church, and stuck a note in with his contribution. The gifts were received by a church in Germany, and the pastor wrote Tommy a thank-you note. But it is partly in English and partly in German, so Tommy is stymied. Where should he get help?

Election Of Trustees Set For April 2

With the annual election of school trustees throughout the county scheduled for Saturday, April 2, County Judge Leonard Foster today said that all persons interested in filing names for the posts should do so before March 23—10 days prior to the election. Petitions should be filed with Judge Foster.

Trustee elections this year will fill eight places; two on the board of Hereford Rural High School District, three on the County School Board and one each in Messenger, Walcott, and Sims common school districts.

Qualifications for trusteeship are two-fold; the nominee must be a resident of the district and a qualified voter. To be eligible to run he must present a petition signed by five or more qualified voters.

Leo Forrest, president of the Hereford Rural School Board of Trustees, said, "Anyone who wants to nominate someone may do so by filing these petitions with the County Judge."

A check Monday morning revealed only one petition had been returned, and that was for the re-nomination of two retiring members of the Hereford Rural School Board, Leo Forrest and Lyle Woodford. Judge Leonard Foster said there was also a petition being circulated in the Messenger Common School District regarding a printed ballot.

In the Hereford Rural School District members who will continue to serve are H. H. Miller, Robert Veigle, W. T. Kelly and Sylvester Slagle. Slagle was added to the board last year and Kelly was re-elected. Members serve a three year term.

Common School Districts In the three common school districts of the county, each will elect one new member. In Messenger, school district number 10, Louis Smith is the retiring member; Wylie Wilson and George Messenger serve continuing terms. In Walcott, district number 6, Edwin Morrison is the outgoing member; Buck Brownlow and Phillip Miller are the other members. In Sims, district number 11, C. S. Ferrin re- (Continued on Page 8)

COURT ANSWERS PETITIONERS

County Vetoes Fire Equipment

County Commissioners held their regular meeting Monday, at the courthouse and vetoed the purchase of a proposed county fire truck, terming such an investment as impractical and the petitioned bond election such purpose as "illegal" and "unwise." The group also went on record in the court minutes to draw up a statement for "The Brand" on why no final action had been taken on a petition, signed by 292 residents, and presented at a previous meeting.

Upon motion of G. T. Higgins, Precinct 2, the Commissioners voted to present the letter explaining their attitude regarding the petition, which requested that they call an election to determine whether they could purchase the fire-fighting equipment. The Court also approved the pledge contract of the First National Bank as county depository; the bank pledge of $100,000 in securities, issued May 1, 1946, in the form of 10 bonds of $10,000 each, had previously been approved by the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Editor's note: The following letter, signed by all four Deaf Smith County Commissioners, comes in response to an editorial published in The Brand Sunday, March 8, asking for a definite, straight-forward answer to the 292 people who signed a petition asking the county to purchase fire-fighting equipment.)

TO THE PROPERTY OWNING QUALIFIED VOTERS OF DEAF SMITH COUNTY, TEXAS

On February 14, 1949, a petition signed by 292 residents of Deaf Smith County was presented to the Commissioners Court, requesting the Court to call elections to determine whether it should be authorized to purchase fire fighting equipment for the benefit of persons residing outside the city limits of Hereford, and also to determine by such election whether or not the County should issue bonds in payment of such equipment. The matter was discussed by the Court and it was determined that the answer to several legal questions would be necessary before the Court could intelligently act upon the petition.

On February 23, 1949, the matter was further discussed with a committee of several persons, who called upon the Court while it was in session, and it was determined that all of the commissioners favored the purchase of fire fighting equipment, provided the money with which to purchase this equipment was available; however, Mr. Guinn, one of the Commissioners, expressed himself as not being in favor of increasing tax valuations in order to purchase such equipment. The matter was again passed and not finally disposed of in order that further legal questions might be answered.

On this date, March 14, 1949, the Court has been informed by the County Attorney that, in his opinion, bonds cannot be legally issued with which to purchase fire fighting equipment. The Court has determined that the general fund of the County, out of which fire fighting equipment must be purchased, shows at present a deficit of approximately $3,000.00. It has also been determined by the Court that if time warrants are issued for the payment of such equipment, it will be necessary for the County to set aside a sufficient amount of the taxes for each year that would ordinarily go into the general fund, with which to pay the interest accruing upon the warrants issued and to retire a part of the principal of the warrants each year. If the warrants are to be retired within a proper time, the amount of tax set aside will have to be so great that it will be impracticable to issue them, unless property valuations are substantially raised. If time warrants are not issued, the equipment will have to be paid for in cash, out of the general fund, and this is absolutely prohibited by the condition of the general fund.

It is obvious, from the above, that it will be unwise to call elections to determine whether the Court will be authorized to purchase fire fighting equipment and to determine whether the County should issue bonds when the Court can take no action thereon, even though the elections should favor the purchase of the equipment and the issuance of bonds.

Done in regular session, this 14th day of March, 1949.
SIGNED BY L. H. Foster, County Judge; Troy Moore, Precinct No. 1; G. T. Higgins, Precinct No. 2; J. T. Guinn, Precinct No. 3; John I. Morris, Precinct No. 4.

New Pay-on-Completion Plan Is Established On Farm Practices

Faust Collier, local PMA head, has announced a new innovation in the payment system of four soil conservation practices listed in the 1949 program for Deaf Smith county farmers.

This innovation, a payment on completion set-up that parcels out payment before the end of the year, effects irrigation reservoirs, dams for livestock water, diversion terraces and regular terraces. It is effective immediately.

Farmers may take advantage of this program by making their application through the local office where it is received and approved. They tell the com- (Continued on Page 8)

Hereford's city limits will be increased by approximately 25 percent today if City Commissioners can meet and pass on the petition presented by citizens of outlying city areas requesting annexation to the city of Hereford. Unofficial reports showed 76 for annexation and 53 against.

These four petitions had been circulated among county residents living in bordering areas to the township and were returned last week-end. A check count was held Monday evening in the offices of the city attorney.

"Although I was on hand to give legal advice, the committee of residents were the ones who checked the four petitions, canceled duplication signatures and checked for legality of signatures by poll tax payment or exemption," said City Attorney Ray Cowart.

? QUESTION of the WEEK ?

"How big a change did the baby make in your life when 'arrived'?"

Don Marlin: "Well, I'll tell you. The way Nancy Jo affected me, for instance was last week, she had the measles and that affected me by making me stay at home."

Mrs. O. G. Hill, Jr.: "Oh, I'll tell you its wonderful. But it is quite a change. For one thing, it makes you have more home life. Of course those 2 a. m. feedings are kinda rough; but they don't last long."

Pete Cowart: "For Heaven's sake! What a bunch of screw-heads! But if you really want an answer give me a minute to think, as I want it really poetic. One could say, without exaggerating, that in every way it completely revolutionized our household. Ah, yes, when I think of those 2 a. m. feedings."

Mrs. C. R. Winget: "This new baby just makes me that much slower. I'll say. Taking care of Pamela is about all I ever get done now. Can you hear me over the telephone? She's crying so loud I wasn't sure. You see, its her feeding time and her big brother is trying to take care of her while I fix the formula, and he hasn't had enough experience yet to help any."

Bill Waldrep: "Man, what a question to ask. Hmmm, let's see how. For one thing, its made me stay at home. And you have to get up at practically any hour; and of course there's all that extra worry. It sure is noisy some-times. I don't think the people are any quieter. They just act natural, and so does the baby—at the top of her lungs."

Dr. Graham: "Change, huh? Our children came along about the same time a lot of other things in the picture changed—just getting out of the Navy, setting up a new practice, etc. They are just part of the general revolution. Of course now there is more laundry, and more subjects to photograph, but to tell you the truth, I never had really thought about what a big change they made. Neither one of them came as a very big surprise, you see."

The committee, which represented both "for" and "against" signers, then signed an affidavit that the majority favored annexation to the city. There were approximately 403 petition signers, some of which were found ineligible.

Checking the petition were Ralph Smith, Earl Waits, Carlos Vaughn, G. B. Hager, Paul S. Mathers, J. E. Turner, H. V. Williamson, Harry E. Caylor, O. B. Russell, A. Peterson and Mrs. Forrest Minton.

The petitions, addressed to the mayor and the governing body of the City of Hereford, when completed were filed with the mayor who submits it to the city commission. If they accept the petition, they pass an ordinance annexing the portion to the township.

Current city limits are Tierra Blanca Creek on the south, the airport road on the east, north along Union Avenue, west along Highway 51 to Harrison and from there to Highway 60, a block west of Knight Street.

Additions will enlarge the limits east along Whittier, north along Grand Avenue, down Mormon to Harrison, a block west of Texas Avenue and an addition just off Harrison 370 feet south, 450 west and 340 east.

There are an estimated 1260 people living in that area. Attorney Cowart said, "Of course it is impossible to know exactly how many people are living in the original city limits, but I believe an estimated 5000 would not be too many. Therefore, if the petition is accepted it will increase our population about 24 per cent."

Scouts To Give Public Pledge At Court House

Friday afternoon Boy Scouts of Hereford will hold a public pledge ceremony on the Court House lawn. Initial step in the "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty" program which scouts all over the U. S. are holding in preparation for their big Anniversary Celebration in 1950.

The service will begin at 4:15 p. m. Friday. Boys from cub troops, scout troops and senior units will participate, all wearing their scout uniforms. District committee officials will act as directors of the program.

Each boy will pledge himself to do his part in the nationwide program to strengthen the arm of liberty, and democracy in the nation. Each participant also will receive a recognition button of his part in the campaign.

The initial program of this type was held during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6-12, when a representative from each of the twelve nationwide scout regions in the United States met for a dedication review held at the foot of the Statue of Liberty.

Following this every scout unit in the nation was asked to hold a similar ceremony. Hereford's part in the occasion will be broadcast over Radio Station KPAN beginning at 4:30 Friday.

Surprised Motorists Face 100 Charges

Panhandle Highways Blocked At 16 Points

A cordon of highway blockades last Saturday night sent scores of motorists to driver's license bureaus and resulted in the filing of an estimated 100 charges over the Panhandle area. The blockades were sponsored by Panhandle peace officers. Sixteen in all, the road blocks were set up on leading highways from the focal point of Amarillo and were manned by County Officers, City Officers, Texas Rangers, Liquor Control Board members and State Highway patrolmen.

All of the blockades, like the one at Hereford, started at 11 o'clock Saturday night and ran until 4 o'clock Sunday morning. Sheriff J. C. Reese said purpose of the road blocks was a united effort among officers in the Panhandle area to snap up stolen automobiles or other stolen property that might have been taken from small towns and transported to Amarillo under cover of darkness.

The road block here was set up 1.7 miles east of town on Highway 60, and according to the sheriff no stolen property was recovered.

The united blockade idea was planned several months ago at a meeting of law officers from the area. Reese was named one of the committeemen to work out details of the project. Number of cars stopped at the Hereford block in the all night session was estimated between 300 and 400. Driver's licenses were checked and Reese declared, "Only the ears of the people who looked suspicious were searched."

The forced stop also gave officers a chance to check headlights and brakes. About 75 per cent of the cars went unsearched, officers said.

In the local block, eight men participated, including the sheriff and two deputies, two state highway patrolmen, two Hereford police and one member of the liquor control board. The road block was marked, according to police, with three reflector type glass flares and the red light atop the state highway patrol car; also reflector signs at each end of the blockade.

In the five hour session, Reese said no charges were filed for drunkenness, but two charges were filed on people operating motor vehicles without operator's licenses. One was a local case; the other involved Dimmitt residents.

"The most liquor we found in any one car was a quart of whiskey and four cases of beer, but we didn't think anything about that," said the sheriff.

Chrysler Dignitaries Visit Here On Engine Survey Tour

Robert Keller, young president of the Marine and Industrial Motor Division of Chrysler Corporation, was in Hereford Monday afternoon as the guest of Lee and Mark Benefield.

He is on a month-long survey jaunt over the state of Texas to check on Chrysler marine and industrial engines in use from the coast to the Panhandle.

Keller, son of K. T. Keller, president of Chrysler corporation, said he had stopped in Hereford particularly because of its reputation as an irrigation district, and that he was quite impressed with the farms and the farmland in the district.

During his stop in Hereford, Lee Benefield drove him around the countryside to see the Chrysler motor-powered irrigation wells in use on the farms.

"It's certainly something to see from the air, too," he said. "Of course, I'm no farmer and so I can't judge the farms in the area, but I do know it is good looking land and certainly it is important country."

Keller started with Chrysler corporation in 1932, and during the war he headed their twenty million dollar tank arsenal project.

He refused to discuss the labor situation. "Those Detroit ears are long," he said. "They stretch from Michigan to the Panhandle, so I'd rather not commit myself on that subject."

As for mechanized farming, "I can't compare your area with the entire U. S. but certainly the degree of mechanization out here is marked, and noticeable. That's a good sign."

Asked what impressed him most about the town of Hereford, Keller declared, "It's not dormant. Most towns of this size unless they have some industrial center there to key their activities around, get so lifeless. I was particularly struck with the activity and progress of the place."

"Yes," mused Ohlinger, his traveling companion and another top man from Chrysler corporation. "That's true, but I'll tell you, the thing that really impressed him most was the big Chrysler motor there by the roadside as we drove in."

Hereford Schools Close Friday For Annual Teachers Conference

About 55 teachers from Hereford are expected to attend the annual Northwest Texas Conference on Education in Amarillo Friday, Superintendent George Graham said this week. Schools will be closed all day Friday.

Conference theme this year will be "Education America Needs," and faculty members from 26 counties will hear speakers from George Peabody College, the University of Texas, NEA representatives and the president of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Some 2,300 teachers are expected to attend. Chief address of the morning will be by Dr. Henry H. Hill, president of George Peabody College for Teachers in Nashville, Tenn., who will speak on "Artists in the Classroom."

Also appearing in the opening general session will be Dr. L. D. Haskew, Dean of the College of Education, University of Texas, speaking on "Education America Needs," Mrs. Sara C. Caldwell, president of the Department of Classroom Teachers National Education Association, and Joe Humphrey, TSTA president.

Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Texas Technological College, will address the evening meeting on "Security Versus Individualism" and the Amarillo High School A Cappella Choir, directed by Mrs. Julia Dean Evans, will be the outstanding numbers on the night program.

Noon and afternoon special sectional meetings, embracing the interests of every public school and college teacher in the district will fill the afternoon.

Officers of the conference, which composes District IX of the Texas State Teachers Association are: Joe A. Gibson, Childress, President; J. Irvin Kimmins, Phillips, Vice-President; Mrs. Thomas H. Haynie, Amarillo, Secretary; Morris H. Jones, Amarillo, Treasurer; E. T. Evans, Amarillo, Membership chairman; and Miss Dorinda Bond, Amarillo, Past President.

Former Hereford Girl To Be Married In Dallas, April Date Set For Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Farmer of Lamesa, formerly of Hereford, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, LaNelle, of Dallas to Gene Cornelius, also of Dallas. The wedding will take place early in April.

St. Patrick's Day green was the theme at a crystal and silver shower given in honor of Miss Palmer recently at the home of Miss Lenore Carr in Dallas. Hostess for the party was Mrs. Donald Moreau.

Centerpiece for the refreshment table was a pottery wishing well filled with green ivy and flanked by green tapers. Gifts were presented to the honoree in a green and brown crepe paper wishing well. Twenty eight guests attended the party.

Second Graders Learn About Texas

Of all the weeks set aside for special observation both nationwide and otherwise, second graders in Central School like Texas Week best of all. Approximately 160 youngsters make up the four divisions of the second grade and most of them, if not all, are native Texans. It is only natural that they love to study the history of the state, but records show that few have the opportunity until they reach the age when Texas History is a part of their regular study in school. Under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. J. D. Bruner, Mrs. D. C. Martin, Mrs. Phil Radoovich and Miss Elia Alkman, this group first learned that "Friendship" is the motto of the state and during the week the colorful and authentic background was unfolded.

Flags—All six of them were displayed and their story revealed.
Name—Where Texas got its name and why the name was chosen.
Flowers—Facts about the official flower of Texas and where it grows best and why.
Birds—What birds are found in Texas, how many of them sing and in what section of the state they may be found.
Trees—How big they grow, their names, especially those of the Panhandle.
Maps—Maps of the state were made and the children learned how it was divided into counties, how governed, and they learned about the state capitol and the governor. Then they learned to bound the state and how Texas is being a "good neighbor."

NEWS FROM ACA OFFICE

Farmers Busy With Terracing, Land Levelling, and Summerfallow Plans

Farm plan activities have continued while it has yet been too wet for much actual field work. More thought each year is being given to diversion terraces in Deaf Smith County. A. H. Hussman has planned a 2000 cu. yd. diversion terrace. Sub soiling 12 inches or more for better water penetration has attracted many farmers who feel the hardpan in this area is causing them to lose a good per cent of water applied, according to Faust Collier, ACA director. William Ohlig has plans for subsoiling 441 acres and plans to contour chisel 100 acres for summerfallow; E. M. Rushing, 633.5 acres; Ernest Anthony, 160 acres; G. K. Horton, 1439.4 acres; W. D. Howard, 1100 acres. Walter L. Thompson plans to contour chisel 290.7 acres for summerfallow and 299 acres that will be seeded; George C. Messenger, 132.8 acres summerfallow and 298 that will be seeded; Hazel M. Clark, 156 acres summerfallow and 157.6 on other land; Viola McAfee, 165 acres summerfallow and 164.4 acres of other cropland; Audney Shults 260 acres of summerfallow and 350 acres of other land; Waldron Melton, 60 acres summerfallow; Charles W. Edwards, 80 acres summerfallow; Ira Ott, 336.7 acres of other cropland; Mal Stewart, 200 acres summerfallow; J. D. and W. T. Bruner, 206.8 acres of summerfallow and 200 acres of other cropland; Lewis L. Smith, 699.4 acres of summerfallow; W. C. Gunter, 109.8 acres of other cropland; Jack E. Walker, 436.7 acres of other cropland; Hoyt L. Smith, 639.7 acres of summerfallow and 605.2 acres of cropland; Ernest T. Allred, 294.4 acres of summerfallow and 635.4 acres of cropland; Glenn B. Allred, 150 acres of summerfallow and 282.8 acres of cropland; Charles J. Wilhelm, 50 acres of cropland. Charlie M. Palppis, 130 acres of cropland; George W. Epting, 954 acres of cropland; Thomas J. Poindexter, 390 acres of summerfallow and 1521.7 acres of cropland; W. H. Clements, 160 acres of summerfallow and 143.9 acres of cropland; Robert E. Wagoner, 510 acres of cropland; E. Albert Edwards, 751 acres of summerfallow and 881.9 acres of crop-land; M. S. Tannahill, 450 acres of summerfallow; Troy D. Stambaugh, 285 acres of summerfallow; Arthur C. Pierce, 75 acres of summerfallow and 100 acres of cropland; Frank Witkowski, 285 acres of summerfallow; F. S. Drager, 80 acres of summerfallow and 120 acres of cropland; James H. Wagoner, 378.7 acres of summerfallow; B. B. Northcutt, 160 acres of summerfallow. Plans for drilling the next crop are being made and approvals are being requested by some in case they should forget before seeding; Walter L. Thompson, 299.7 acres; Hoyt L. Smith, 639.7 acres; E. T. Allred, 123.1 acres; Robert E. Wagoner, 62 acres and Arthur C. Pierce, 57 acres. W. C. Gunter at Dawn plans to control five acres of bindweed with 2-4-D. The payment on this practice will be $48.00, for the use of 30 pounds. Leveling of land for irrigation, one of the most needed practices perhaps in our irrigated belt, is being used by A. H. Hussman, 100 acres; McNeill and Link, on the W. G. Harris farm, 90 acres; Charley H. White, 30 acres; M. G. Caywood, 190 acres; and Ray Kerschen, 417 acres. Further irrigation improvements are being carried out by Clarence Saulcy who will construct a concrete drop box using an estimated 5 cu. yds.; B. B. Northcutt will build one of the same size; C. E. Hood will build three boxes that will use approximately 9 cu. yds. and H. L. Coffin one for 4 cu. yds. Assistance at the rate of $3.00 per cu. yd. for this construction may be had through the A. C. A. office. H. L. Coffin will further improve his system by installing 130 feet of pipe which may be varied in size from 14 to 18 inches in diameter. G. D. Milner has completed an irrigation reservoir which was built under Conservation Services Program. W. F. Ponder will install 2 metal culverts that will use a total of 48 feet of 14 to 18 inch metal pipe. Joe Hoffman is building an earthen dam and grassland that will move approximately 1000 cu. yds. of dirt. George Friemel of Umbarger will seed 120 lbs. of Hubam clover to be turned under as a green manure crop. A. E. Jury plans to seed 400 pounds of hubam clover and J. W. Brown 700 pounds. A. J. Peters plans to use white sweet clover on 60 acres to turn under. Ray Kerschen will use the same type clover on 100 acres.

Earl Lance on the Walser and Lance place will use 5000 lbs. of 20 per cent superphosphate on 25 acres of alfalfa and 5 acres of Austrian Winter Peas. Price Prather will use 1800 lbs. of 20 per cent superphosphate on 12 acres of alfalfa.

Hereford Passes, No City Election Slated

Hereford is about the only town in the Panhandle that isn't busy electing city officials this year. Hereford's own mayor-commission officials are chosen on even-numbered years, but contrariwise, most of the neighboring towns hold their elections on odd-numbered years. Ferryton, Dumas, Dalhart, Panhandle, Guymon, Memphis, Amarillo are wiggling through political campaigns that are waging on barely contested elections to red hot contests. So while all the neighbors stir themselves into the bustle of democratic elections, Hereford can sit calmly by, watch the proceedings with a disinterested eye, and say to itself, "We went through that last year, and its 12 whole months before we have to do it again."

Woman's Council Is Entertained

Group two of the Woman's Council of the First Christian Church met for a program and social meeting in the home of Mrs. N. E. Gass yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Carlos Vaughn conducted the devotional lesson. Continuing a series of lessons on "The Life of Paul" a program was directed by Mrs. B. F. Cain, leader. Refreshments were served during the social hour. In 1820, the United States had a population of 10 million persons.

Rapt Attention Of Audience Is Tribute To John Anglin

By MARGARET BARRETT

Judging from the rapt attention which was given, and from the comments expressed following the concert Monday night, Hereford concert-goers were highly pleased with the performance of John Anglin, young Negro tenor, who was the second guest artist to visit here under the Hereford Concert Association. Beginning with a group of spirituals, Anglin expressed the power, rhythm and feeling of his race in his interpretation of "Jesus Lay Your Head in de Winder," "Honor, Honor," "Let us Break Bread Together" and "Ride on King Jesus." His second group of numbers, traditional art songs by Schubert, Mozart, and Grieg, displayed the intensive study of the artist in breath control and flexibility. "How Cold Your Hands Are," one of the favorite arias from Puccini's LaBoheme, was the only operatic selection on the program.

Yet Natural Gas Service Remains At the Same Low Pre-War Prices!

Compressors are important to your natural gas service. Compressors maintain movement of gas to your home. Like the price of all other equipment, the cost of compressors has risen sharply.

Your gas service bill is still the "bright spot" in the family budget because gas is one of the few items that have held the line with pre-war prices though it costs more to furnish you the service.

Imagine what your income would be worth today if you could buy everything at pre-war cost.

Housing for your telephone voice is scarce, too

Like new houses, telephone cable is not yet plentiful. It takes telephone cable to "house" your telephone voice as it travels.

Perhaps telephone poles near your house carry a telephone cable (the thick, lead-covered carrier for a bundle of wires strung from pole to pole). Why can't we connect a telephone for you to this cable?

Ordinarily we could. But today most of these cables have no idle wires in them.

So new telephones take new cable. That new cable is being made as you read these words. It is spinning out of telephone factories twice as fast as prewar. It is hurried to wherever we need it. There we hustle it into place—at the rate of a million miles of wire in cable this year alone.

Compared with normal production, telephone cable isn't scarce—it's abundant. But when 50,000 more people order telephones every month in the Southwest—as they do—even yesterday's abundance is today's shortage.

We're closing the gap, however, and we owe a lot to your patience and trust that we'll get the job done. For we're just as anxious to get you a telephone as you are to get one.

AT PENNEY'S

Miss Carol Loefner and Paul Dishman, both students at Texas Tech in Lubbock, spent the week end visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Dishman.

The period in which the cave man lived is most often called the Mousterian, taken from a cave in southern France, Le Moustier, where remains of the race were found.

Wheat Varieties School Is Held Here This Week

Approximately 20 certified seed growers and elevator operators met in the City Hall Tuesday afternoon to attend a wheat variety identification school to learn which wheat varieties were most in demand by millers and buyers.

Authorities who conducted the school pointed out that the Comanche, Tenmarq wheat group had the best milling qualities because of its high gluten content. They advised planting Tenmarq, Westar, Wichita and Comanche.

Warning against planting varieties of the Chiefkan and Early Blackhull group, they pointed out that Early Blackhull, Red Chief and Chiefkan have very poor milling qualities due to their gluten content.

If you plant early maturing varieties, Wichita and Tenmarq are considered to have fair milling and baking qualities, the experts said.

Keats E. Soder, director of the Texas-Oklahoma wheat improvement school; Fred Dines, wheat improvement director of Tex-O-Kan mills; and E. A. Miller, agronomist with the Texas extension service and four boys and a director from the Amarillo Grain Exchange conducted the school. Samples of wheat were passed and identifying marks were pointed out.

"This is the second year we have put on this program," said County Agent Hugh Clearman, "and we believe it is a good thing."

In 1947, Deaf Smith County was reported as having 65 per cent desirable or acceptable wheat by millers. Last year, after instruction on the subject, farmers jumped the buying status to 85 per cent desirable or acceptable wheat.

RELATIVES VISIT

Visitors over the week end, in the Lloyd and Lowell Sharp homes were their sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dunagan, who were en route from wintering in Ft. heart attack suffered several months ago, and is able to be up occasionally, and back to supervise his Red-Mill Tourist Courts.

A good line is the shortest distance between two dates, they say. It was a telephone line this week that called the Brand's attention to the fact that all of Sunday's datelines read "Sunday, March 13, 1948." Hmmm! Oh well, anything that happens in the worry week of March 15 can be explained easily.

In addition to the article carried March 6 about the Hereford Rider's Club, Mrs. Pat Lawhon requested the following information be added: Hugh Clearman was vice-president of the club and served as president upon the resignation of Bill Smith about Christmas, 1947, until the election in 1948. In addition to this Virgie Lee Sparks, corresponding secretary was not mentioned in the membership story.

It's unveiling day again. Three car dealers will be showing the new 1949 Plymouth Friday in Hereford, participating in the nationwide show to introduce these Chrysler products to the public. They'll be on display at Beaver Brothers Motor Company; Benefield Motor Company, and Ireland Motor Company.

"This is the first time it has been used in this part of the country, Collier pointed out. "But elsewhere it has met with immediate success because it gives the farmer his payment just when he needs it, thus it keeps down his out-of-pocket cost just at the time the work is done."

So far, G. D. Miller, who had a system of irrigation reservoirs constructed, is the only one who has taken part in the program, said Collier.

"Most of the time the kids seem to be doing pretty well," said Reese. "And the parents are co-operating with school officials and law officers very well, now that the entire program has been brought to their attention."

"It seems to me that, all in all, we've got a pretty nice bunch of kids here," he concluded.

It's Birthday For Herefords At Boys Ranch Farm

The Hereford Brand
 Thursday, March 17, 1949 Section Two

Cal Farley, main wheel behind the Boy's Ranch idea, checks up on the milking techniques of one of the boys at Old Tascosa, the original ranch that now has a subsidiary in the Axtell Farm near Spring Lake.

Jack Dempsey, idol of city boys and ranch boys, arrived at Old Tascosa to get in on one of their annual video fetes last year. Here he demonstrates his own ability at branding cattle to the admiring boys before they have a chance to show him their own skill.

One Year Ago Hereford Breeders Donated Whiteface Herd to Farm

It was just a year ago tomorrow (March 18, 1948) that 30 Hereford breeders donated a herd of registered stock to the Boy's Ranch Axtell Farm near Dimmitt with the idea that the animals to be used as foundation stock in building up a first class herd of Herefords.

They celebrated presentation of the 30 heifers and a herd bull contributed by J. S. Bridwell with a barbecue and celebration at the Bull barn.

Boys Ranch dignitaries came down to accept the gift; the donors were honor guests for the day. It was, big doings; people liked the idea because it had a future.

Now 36 Animals
 Now, one year later, these animals are the major part of the livestock herd at the ranch. The boys to date own 36 registered Herefords and 38 registered Hampshire hogs. The farm is progressing nicely with Hereford's own city commissioner, Lyle Blanton acting as supervisor of farm operations, along with his duties as Boys Ranch director.

Boy's Ranch at Old Tascosa and the farm located near Dimmitt are booming enterprises, solidly backed by the people of the Panhandle. And because the cattlemen of Hereford were the ones responsible for that herd of registered cattle, because they have a personal interest in the project, here's a one-year-later report on the Boy's Ranch farm.

Particular credit is due Ezra Norton, who helped organize the herd and who has since helped supervise, and to the following breeders whose cattle is now a mainstay of the farm:

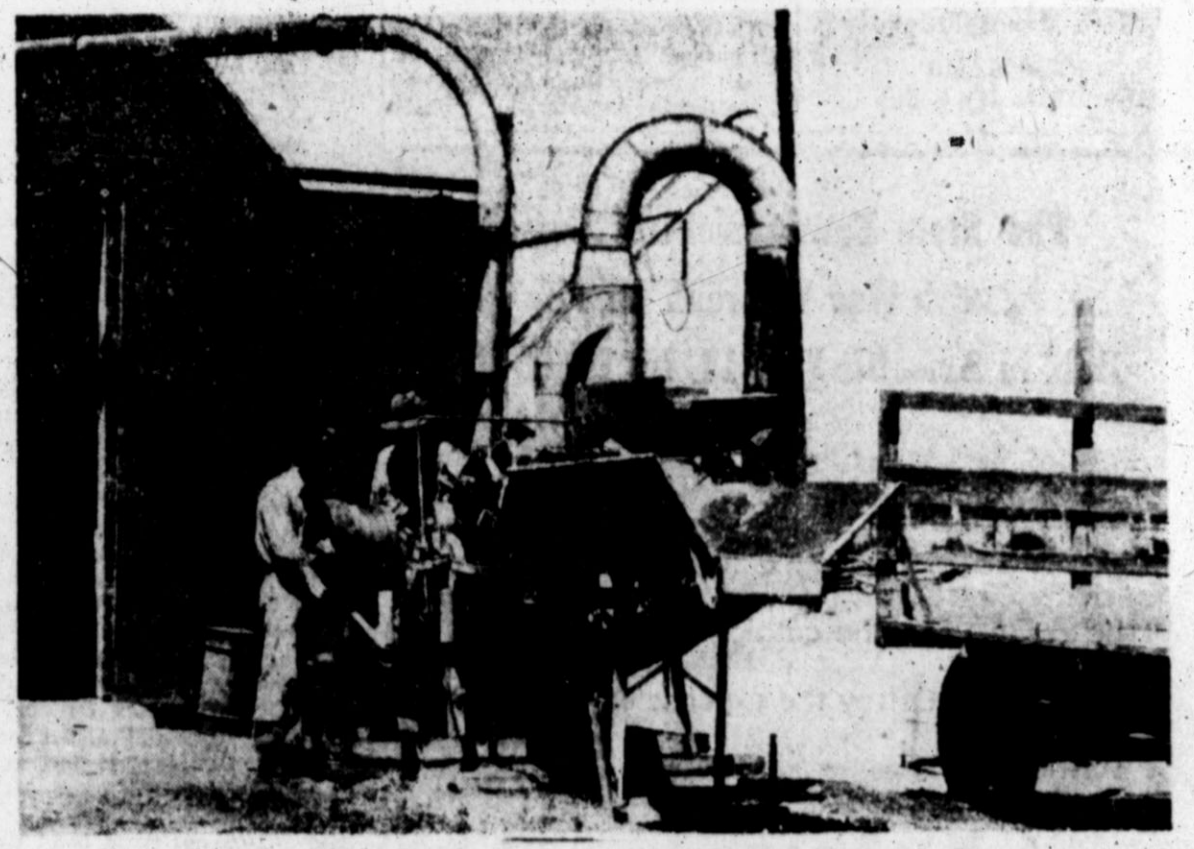

Walter Graham, J. S. Maxfield, E. H. Hare, B. E. Robertson, E. C. Reinauer, H. D. Robbins, Mal Stewart, J. R. Overstreet, Eskimo Ranch of Jack Frost Ranches, J. A. Pitman, George Burch and Son, Ed East, Hunter Brothers, C. T. Guseman, August Frye, R. L. Cocanougher, H. H. Miller, Travis Dameron, Robert Veigle, H. C. Baird, Ky Lawrence, Green and Scott, O. G. Hill and Sons, W. E. Dameron, George Muse and Son, McDonald Farms, Jim White, W. A. Higgins and Sons, and E. H. and C. P. Norton.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Axtell had a 14.9 acre plot of irrigated land near Springlake. It was land they loved; it had furnished them with a good living; but now they no longer wanted to work that much acreage, and they wanted to turn it over to people who also would love that land, to people who would help it as much as it could help them.

Driving home the cattle up at Old Tascosa. Here the fellows bring in their calves to weigh them. There's keen, but friendly, competition among the crowd on the ranch as they compete among themselves to turn out the best looking livestock.

NORTON OVERSEES HERD

Expect 30 Calves This Spring

Ezra Norton, rancher who promoted the Boy's Ranch Farm herd gift, and has since been devoting some of his time to overseeing the herd and helping them keep it in shape, reported Monday that the cattle "certainly were in good condition."

Norton makes a trip to the Ranch about once a month and is planning to go down Saturday to spray the cattle.

"They are just now getting old enough to breed, and it looks like they'll have about 30 calves this year," said Norton.

The man who said, "We Hereford people just wanted to do something for the boys," is mighty proud of the way that gift turned out, and he has passed the information on to the other men who also had an interest in the herd.

Long Time Ago

"Local business men had the pleasure of listening to two unusual addresses Monday at the Cordova Hotel, on the occasion of the weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce. State Representative Lee Satterwhite, who, with Mrs. Satterwhite, was a visitor at the home of his son-in-law, Jim Sanders, was one of the speakers, while Captain John Estes started his daily cronies with a sparkling talk crammed full of horse sense. So says the Brand of March 18, 1924, continuing.

"Mr. Satterwhite, who speaks here on political matters next Monday night, was very brief but complimentary of Hereford's progressiveness. He told how he had been instrumental in putting Deaf Smith county into his new district, when the state was reappportioned, so that he could have Hereford in his own district."

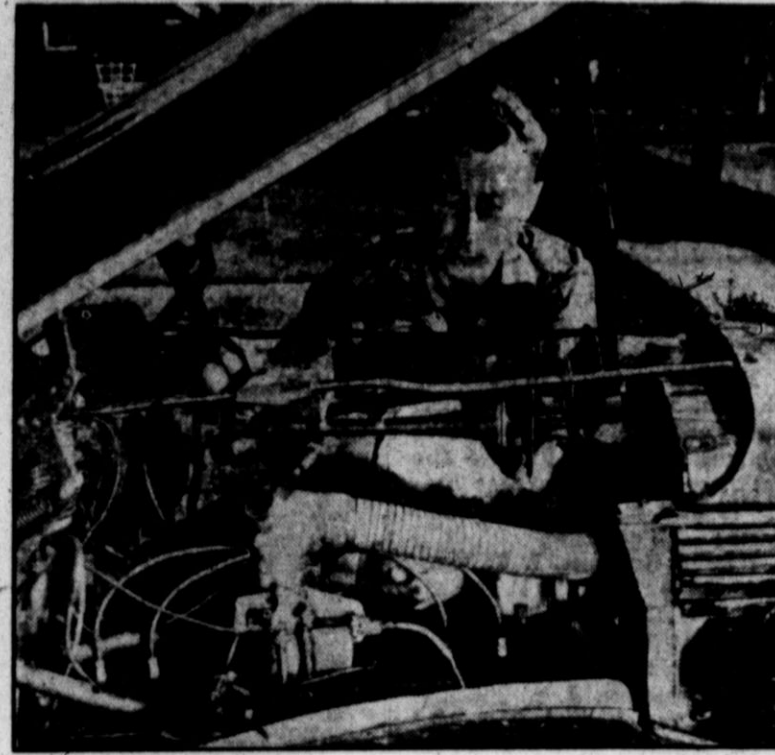

Irrigates Alfalfa

And "Here's another concrete example of what irrigation will do in the Hereford shallow water belt when carefully handled and not spread over too much territory" reads the Brand in a story about J. W. Houston, who netted $334.95 on four and one-eighth acres of irrigated alfalfa.

G. W. Brumley and Son get recognition for a shipment of Plains hogs which "went to the Hawaiian Islands last Saturday when . . . consigned to a buyer at San Diego, California who was understood to have in mind the continuation of the shipment to Uncle Sam's Island possessions."

A music study club concert is announced in the Brand at which "seven numbers will be given for the benefit of the children who are interested in the State Music Memory Contest."

Mileage Champ

R. J. Greenshilds of Wood River, Ill., tunes up the motor of the 1937-model automobile which he drove 74.22 miles on a single gallon of gasoline. His secret, he says, involved tinkering which "no car owner in his right mind" would undertake. For example, he increased the engine compression ratio, installed a special two-jet carburetor, eliminated all possible brake drag, used the lightest possible lubricants, and filed tires down to a narrow tread surface.

Another little item of interest states that "A. L. Biggs and Mrs. Hugh Witherspoon left for Ft. Worth last Saturday (where) Mrs. Witherspoon will represent the Hereford Rebekah's in grand lodge. . . and Mr. Biggs will attend a similar meeting of the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. . ."

In The Ads

One of the ads in the March 18, 1924 Brand reads: "FRANK SEZ! Groceries is bound to go up now, cuz motor licences costs money. Other wise every thing is lookin fine an we has better servis an hest clas goods for yewer aprual. Also we has buttons. (Signed) Gyles Grocery." A "stork Special" announces the birth of an 11 1/2 pound son, Calvin Edgar, to Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Brumley on March 12.

And 1924 must have been the height of the "Mah Jong" fad, since little ads to the effect "You cannot 'Chow' or 'Pung' if you Mah Jong" and "If you Mah Jong you win" are interspersed throughout the paper by the Corner Drug Store.

Local Items

Among the local items were: "Miss Pearl Rudd left Saturday morning for Bellin and Mountain Air, New Mexico, where she will visit in the home of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Collup, at Bellin and Mrs. B. Corley, another sister, at Mountain Air;" "Mrs. Phillip Broadwell returned to her home at Electra Saturday;" "J. S. Williams left Tuesday morning for San Angelo and other points in south Texas."

Westway Club Members Meet With Mrs. Hopson

Westway Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Bud Hopson Wednesday with Mrs. M. S. Roe as co-hostess.

Mrs. Junior Wilson led the program centered on the topic "What are the rights of the child?" Mrs. Johnny Townsend discussed "The Adolescent." The Constitution of THDA was read to the members, corrected and accepted.

New members present were Mrs. Vernon Wilson, Mrs. Roy Boyer, and Mrs. M. G. Caywood. Other members present were Mesdames Manuel Hawks, Joe Landers, Paul Rudd, Hughes Millard, Lyle Rickman, Townsend, Grady Wilson, Jr., Bess Werner, Bud Hopson, M. S. Roe, Carl Schroeder, Merlin Kaul, Nate Thomas, Abraham Drager and R. L. Wilson, Mrs. N. C. Hopson was a visitor.

Next meeting will be March 23 in the home of Mrs. Edgar Skypala. The club will take up glove-making at that meeting.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank those who sent cards and those who brought food in and called during my recent illness. I appreciate it very much. Mrs. Otto Lynch

The foretunner of the Stars and Stripes was the Grand Union Flag. To represent the unity of the 13 Colonies and their hope that reconciliation with Britain still was possible, this banner had on it the British jack and 13 red and white stripes.

Driving 500 miles a day, a person would have to drive for more than 7 1/2 years to cover all the 1,400,000 miles of improved roads in this country.

Sports Round-Up

By "SKEETER" SKELTON

Is no man safe from this thing? I mean the epidemic of reminiscing that has struck in the Homer Fox vicinity. The situation has gotten completely out of control. It has gotten so I can't walk down the street without being lured in to witness "The Great Orator" in action. The last time I tried to sneak by Homer's shop, I thought I had made it safely, but just as I got past the door, a lariat rope fell around my shoulders, I was dragged bodily into the store, and Homer barked, "Write this down." Below is the result.

"Back in the early thirties, we had a pretty fast-going City Baseball League consisting of six teams. One of these teams was the firemen, and a tough outfit to beat it was.

"We had a rule in those days—due to so few players being in the league (each team's roster was far from full)—anyway, this rule allowed any team that was short a player at game time to borrow a ball player. If the opposing team was agreeable, of course this called for some fancy strategy when an especially hard game was coming up, and it was customary, finally, to notice that some team was always short a ball player or two, and in every case it was the sorriest ball player on the roster that was absent.

Korean Farmers Prosper

"Well, on this smoke-smothering, spark-hunting, lot-saving Firemen's roster was a fellow named ROGER CORBETT. The boys would forget to tell Rog when the game was called or try to work it some way so he wouldn't be there and they could borrow a fast ball player from some other club, but Corbett generally made it on his bicycle in time to enter the game, and most of the time did himself proud. It was a hard summer for Corbett, 14 hours a day fighting dust and dirt and cleaning clothes, fighting fires day and night (he never missed a fire in his life and he has been a fireman for twenty years), a lot of time spent keeping his "Machine" (bicycle) in shape to go back and forth to work and to the ball games, but, stout hearted lad that he was, Corbett smashed and overran all the obstacles and marched on to show this bunch of meatheads, from the Chief to the scorekeeper, that he had what it takes to win ball games, after all. At the end of that season, Roger Corbett won the City League Batting Championship with the unbelievable batting average of .667! There were a lot of red faces.

"Corbett's baseball ambitions and future came to an abrupt halt in a post-season game this same year (it happened to be a donkey ball game). The boys were getting his baserunning mule ready with a couple of sharp horseshoe nails while he was batting (Corbett, not the mule), and Corbett came to the plate and slammed one deep into left field. When Corbett mounted he only made it with one foot, and with one foot on the mule and one on the ground, the mule headed for first base and Corbett headed for third. They parted at the pitcher's box. Wasn't fun any more, they carried Rog off the field with a serious knee injury that put him in bed and on crutches for weeks, and he will always have a trick knee.

"He might have been up with Joe DiMaggio if this hadn't happened, and maybe he wouldn't, but one thing for sure, Rog says none of those flatheads have ever batted .667 for a season, and none of them ever will."

As long as we're on the subject of Corbett, I'd better tell you about "Chub" Corbett, the Junior Baseball Team's mainstay. I saw him riding toward high school on what looked like a dog the other day. "Chub" told me it was a Shetland pony, and that the Junior team is going to give it away. If the Boy Wonder doesn't break the pony's back, it might make a handy thing to have around the house to kill mice or something. If you are interested in acquiring a pony named Jodie Blonde, I suggest you contact one of the Junior ball players.

The first use of the American flag occurred in a military ceremony on Aug. 2, 1777, the flag having been made from crude clothing material found in a fort under siege by the British.

The United States flag, according to the Library of Congress, may be flown almost anywhere 4 hours a day as long as it is for a patriotic purpose and the flag does not lose dignity.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

There are two new students at Junior High School this week. They are Claudia Stone and Mary Stone. They are both from Plainview, Texas.

Three students have re-entered school at Junior High. They are Jack Garrison eighth grade, Jimmy Tremble, and Bobby Tremble.

The eighth grade banquet is just about planned. The date is not set for sure because of difficulty in obtaining an open date.

The ground south of Junior High School is being paved to accommodate teachers who would like to park their cars there.

Seniors To Turn Hill-Billy Soon For Annual Play

By GERTRUDE BETZEN

Yes the Campbells are coming in a laugh happy play by the Senior class.

This is something the whole family will want to see. Come and watch the troubles education brings to a family from the hills. See how a country beau gets his educated girl.

Oh yes then there is the spirited grandmother who can be a real terror when she gets going.

What is another name for a well-dressed boy? You tell us after you have seen the play.

Just a group of peculiarities. One right after the other as you see: Jane Welch, Jo Ann Witherspoon, Dwight Wilson, Mary K. Carroll, Inez Tucker, Ronny Durham, Neely Kimbrough, Glenn Hopson, Martha Thomas and Earl Smith in the roles of hillbillies and society folks thrown together in a melting pot of a hilarious comedy "THE CAMPBELL'S ARE COMING" on March 24 and 25.

Remember, don't miss it—March 24 and 25.

Seniors Present Stage Furniture

Hurray! Did you hear that shout? It's the school cheering for the Senior Class. You ask why? Because the Seniors gave the school a gift in appreciation of all the wonderful things the school and teachers have given them. This gift, furniture for the stage, consists of a blonde ranch-style divan, chair, coffee table, end table, step-up table, white leather chair, and red leather hassock.

That chair was given not because the Seniors are so good, although we think they are, but because it means no more borrowing furniture for plays.

1949 Round-Up Is In Corral

By GERTRUDE BETZEN

That is what I said. The 1949 Round-Up has gone to the publishers. All the pictures have been taken. All the major events have been covered. So another year is about to be placed between the covers of a book, the only thing to remind us of the school year of 1948-49.

In the years to come these annuals now being printed, will serve as a link in the chain of life. We may look back on our school days with amusement or with sadness but no matter how we look on them each and everyone of us will always love our 1949 ROUND-UP.

Well, it won't be long now. Just a matter of waiting until May. Then we will be able to see in one book all the things that went into the making of a wonderful school year.

SPORTS SLANTS

I wish to take this opportunity to tell Charles Skelton that we wish him all the success with the sports column he is now writing for the Hereford Brand. His column will appear in the Thursday paper. His column is called Sports Round-Up. He signs the column with "Skeeter." It seems he got that name while in high school because he was so little. He is the only boy ever to come out for football to not weigh over 90 pounds. The story goes he carried the water for about eight years.

The Baseball Commission has ruled out the three finger glove or mitt that has become so popular in the last few years. The players will be allowed to wear these in the 1949 season but will not be used in the 1950 season.

The Hereford High School took a bitter loss last week when Bob Hamilton got his foot cut on the track field. The accident occurred when he tried to catch the vaulting pole as it fell. He will probably be out of running the rest of the season. He had to have seven stitches taken in the right foot. We all hope he will be ready for the district meet.

The Hereford Whitefaces had a meet with the Dimmitt Bobcats last Thursday and the Bobcats will probably return the meet.

Did you know that Texas A & M still owns the record for the most S.W. conference (football) titles. They have won seven and tied with S. M. U. for one more. The Aggies are building for the future now so don't be surprised to see the Aggies on top in a few years.

The Exes of Hereford High School: L. H. Lookingbill, Jr. is farming outside of Hereford. He played football for the Whitefaces all of his four years in high school until he graduated in 1945.

Today's sport fan is Neely Kimbrough, a student at Hereford High School. He is one of the best athletes ever to come out of Hereford High School, playing football, basketball, and track. His favorite high school athlete is James Garner, the All-American end from Amarillo and his favorite college athlete is Doak Walker, the bootbatter from S. M. U. His favorite pro athlete is Tex Coulter, the West Point football player who turned pro a couple of years ago. As you probably have guessed football is his favorite sport. His biggest sports disappointment was when Hereford lost to Phillips by penetrations in 1945 for bi-district champs. His biggest sport thrill was when he was elected football captain in 1947.

LAUGHS

First patient: (Waiting in doctor's waiting room): "How do you do? I am aching from neuritis."
 Second patient: "Glad to know you. I'm Thompson from Chicago."

NEW IDEA

Bureaucrat: "If we are unable to figure out a way to spend $220 million, we'll be out of jobs."
 Secretary: "How about building a bridge across the Mississippi?"
 Bureaucrat: "That won't cost $220 million."
 Secretary: "Lengthwise."

"These are the hours. These are the minutes and these are the seconds." I explained to my niece while teaching her how to tell time by the family clock.
 She looked puzzled for a moment, then asked: "But Auntie, where are the jiffies?"

Thinking of encouraging his wife to economize by making her conscious of her expenditures, the husband bought her an account book, gave her $100 and explained:

"Now, dear, on one side you write down the money you received and on the other you put down what happened to it, and you'll always know just where you stand."

Several days later he looked in the book and on one side found: "Received $100," and on the other side was written: "Spent it all."

Physics Teacher: "What is the formula for water?"
 Student: "H-I-J-K-L-M-N-O."
 Teacher: "What do you mean?"
 Student: "Why, you said it was H to O."

"Willie," said his mother, "I wish you would run across the street and see how old Mrs. Benton is today?"
 A few minutes later Willie returned home and said, "Mrs. Benton says it is none of your business how old she is."

GAB

-SESSION

Well, Hello There:

Say, did you boys try those little hints I told you about "Losing Friends and Agitating People?" Well, here are those hints for the girls just as I said.

1. Don't be yourself ever. Always copy someone else.
2. Think about yourself all of the time. Always be doing something about your hair, make-up or clothes.
3. Always impress your date with the other guys you have gone with.
4. Go with every Tom, Dick, and Harry, after all you have to be popular, don't you?
5. Try your best to steal the "No. 1 Guy" of all your best friends.
6. Always believe everything you hear. And above all pass it on and add something "juicy" to it.
7. A boy's pocketbook—now, here you come into your seventh heaven. Spend every cent you can and insist on going to the most expensive places.
8. After a date, never tell a guy you had fun and enjoyed it. What do you want to do, spoil them?
9. Talk down everyone, be catty, start gossip, and smear everyone behind their back; so it will make you seem superior.

Now girls, I tell you the same as I told the boys, be sure and follow these simple rules and in a week or so you won't have a friend left.
 I'll close with this toast, "To the land we love and, the love we land."

What If?

Mary K. Carroll were Mary K. Song?
 James Grimes were James Gleam?
 James Hulson were James Tentson?
 Billy Moore were Billy Less?
 John Newsom were John Oldson?
 Richard Parker were Richard Sparker?
 Gene Roberson were Gene Stealson?
 Leta Dene Springer were Leta Dene Bouncer?
 Norman Walker were Norman Runner?
 Sara Beth Owen were Sara Beth Payen?

PERSONALITIES

2. Mouse instead of man.
3. One of the many people in H.H.S. who has a soft personality.
4. Last name rhymes with the plural of a certain kind of fowl!
 NO. 2
 1. "Ain't What they Used to Be."
 2. April Showers bring 17
3. One member in the family comes in contact with much news.
4. Good friend of Casey.
 NO. 3

 2. Hero of a song about a door.
 3. Often right at the end of the players.
 4. Never been missed.

School Cafeterias Prove Real Benefit

The public school system of Hereford is proud of its cafeterias. We as students probably don't realize how much work is being put out for our benefit, but we really do like and appreciate those good meals that are served to us.

On March 1, 1949, 76,524 meals had been served in the cafeterias. 26,000 of these were served at the High school lunch room. Mrs. Daniels is supervisor at the high school, with Mrs. Layman, Mrs. Hamby, Mrs. Denny and Mrs. Wiggins as helpers. At grade school Mrs. Brunson is supervisor and Mrs. Vincin, Mrs. Little, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Willey and Mrs. Medcalf are her helpers.

On the cafeteria committee are Mr. George Graham, superintendent, Mr. D. T. Martin and Mr. D. C. Martin, principals, Mrs. Dyalithia Bradley, Mrs. Rose, Major Schroeter and Mrs. Argen Draper.

To all of these people who are working to make these cafeterias possible, we wish to say "THANK YOU!"

County farm to Boy's Ranch, retaining their six room house, surface rights and enough production from the land to assure them of a $3,000 per year income for them to live on.

Improvements given with the farm included a large modern barn, cattle barns, storage buildings, farm machinery and other equipment used in today's Plains agriculture.

Axtell wanted it to be sort of "graduate school" for Boy's Ranch fellows, who had proved they were definitely interested in agriculture.

Today that farm in furnishing part of the food needed to keep the 110 boys at the ranch and on the farm well fed and in good health.

Farm superintendent Charles A. Wallace and his wife are "Mom and Pop" to eight boys, ranging in age from 9-17. They all live in a house erected by the people of Plainview. Mrs. Wallace does the cooking for her charges and Wallace takes care of farm operations and the enthusiastic young farmers as well.

Getting to live at the farm is considered a real honor by the boys at Old Tascosa, and the homelike atmosphere that pervades the place is probably one reason. They are just one big family when they gather around the dining room table to down a hearty farm-hands meal, or swarm in the living room after the supper dishes are done to worry about home work or play a few games. It's really quite a family for the Wallaces—who are both in their twenties.

The fellows attend school, driving back and forth in a school bus which the oldest of the crowd drives, and for which he gets $50 a month for clothes and other expenses.

So much for the fellows; as for real farming operations, both Wallace and Col. Farley, the man who fathered the original Boy's Ranch enterprise at Old Tascosa, quickly state they are just getting the place underway. They've a long term program mapped out, but as yet, are feeling their way along and most of the plans are still in the embryo stage.

Currently the 800 acres under irrigation have been leased to two farmers and the boys are taking care of the livestock, in itself an ambitious undertaking for the youngsters, whose experience is limited.

The stocker cattle, hogs and chickens on the farm are used to feed the other fellows at both the ranch and the farm. There are 26 head of feeder cattle, representing the proceeds from a rodeo the kids staged at Plainview. These are being used in a feeding experiment, given ranch-grown feeds until April, when they will be marketed in Kansas City as Texas fed steers.

Plainview ranchers are backing this experiment, to help the boys build up a reputation so their cattle will be recognized and the annual market offerings will bring a good price when buyers learn to look for cattle from the Axtell farm.

It is just the determination back of this project that kept some of those animals from an early slaughter house run to eke out depleted meat rations at Old Tascosa.

Each of the eight boys at the ranch has a registered Hampshire gilt which he's feeding out as a project. After they've returned a pig to the ranch, one as replacement and one as interest, they get to keep the profit from their gilts.

The officials hope that by next year the ranch can take over complete farming operations and that in a few years there will 75 boys at the farm living in family type units similar to the one already established.

Farley's plans are to operate the farm as an irrigated farm furnishing feed for livestock which will be raised on the place, marketing all crops through livestock.

New Plymouth on Display

Plymouth's new special deluxe four-door sedan (above). Throughout the new Plymouth line beautiful, streamlined bodies are lower and narrower, seats are wider and headroom greater. At the same time overall exterior dimensions are reduced, but wheelbase has been lengthened to 118 inches and glass area is increased. Horsepower is raised to 97. Although fenders flow gracefully into the body they are detachable for ease in repair.

New Plymouth Features Beauty, Performance, Safety and Comfort

Brilliant new styling is combined with outstanding riding comfort, increased roominess, and sweeping mechanical improvements in the new line of Plymouth automobiles. Completely redesigned, the new Plymouth has a longer wheelbase for a better ride and more road stability, but less front and rear overhang for easier parking and garaging. While the silhouette has been lowered and the width decreased, there is more head and leg room and seats are wider. Typical of Plymouth's many refinements is the ignition-starter combination, with which a turn of the key starts the engine. The new Plymouths are sleek in appearance. New rear-end styling provides a graceful balance with the horizontal grille lines which emphasize the broadness of the front. Fenders which blend perfectly into body lines are nevertheless separate and detachable, thus avoiding sheet metal panels so costly to repair or replace. The new Plymouth line includes nine distinct automobiles. Special deluxe and deluxe types are on a 118-inch wheelbase, one inch longer than last year's. Special deluxe models are: four-door sedan, club coupe, convertible club coupe and station wagon. In the deluxe group are the four-door sedan and the club coupe. In addition, Plymouth will build three deluxe models on a brand new 111-inch wheelbase, a two-door sedan, a three-passenger coupe, and a new body type, the Suburban. The 97-horsepower engine has improved performance and efficiency with a new design cylinder head which increases compression ratio to 7 to 1. A new chrome plated compression piston ring reduces cylinder wear and provides greater protection during the break-in period. There are improved oil rings for greater oil economy, while a newly-designed intake manifold induces quicker, smoother engine warm-up and produces faster throttle response. Body styling which produces greater passenger room without excessive bulk also increases visibility. V-type windshields have 37 percent more area and provide excellent vision without distortion. Windshield wipers clear 61.5 percent greater area and the rear window is 35.4 percent larger.
