School Trustees Over County Are Named Saturday

Final results on the school elections came in Monday, indicating that on every board throughout the county, voting had been light. However, the Messenger school district, Number 10, turned in a vote of 32 for T. J. Poindexter, only 14 less votes than were cast in the Hereford Rural High School board election.

Messenger was the only district to have printed ballots. Most candidates selected were write in nominees and five were candidates returned to office.

Election results were as follows: District Trustee in Number 11, Sims; C. S. Perrin, 7; Roscoe Pinnell, 2.

District Trustee in Number 10, Messenger; T. J. Poindexter, 32. District Trustee in Number 6, Bippus-Walcott; Don Guseman, 11.

County School Trustee, precinct Number 4; M. W. Blankenship, 4; C. S. Perrin, 1.

As announced in the Sunday Brand, Lyle Woodford was returned to office in the Hereford Rural High School Board, and Howard Gault was selected as new member.

J. C. Morrison was returned to the County School Board in Precinct 2, on a write in vote and Precinct 1 voters re-elected N. R. Miller to his position on the board. Precinct 3 voters did not have a vacancy on the school board.

A farm bureau director's meeting is scheduled for 8 p. m. Friday at the Court House and Clarence Morrison, president of the newly formed organization, urges the directors to circle that date on their calendar.

Jasper Cockrell had an experience the other day that has gotten him to pulling his beard and wondering if this miracle age of mechanization is all it cracked up to be. There was Jasper, going right along, minding his own business on the man-power end of the power driven lawn mower at the court house when the motor-power end decided to go on its own way, unaided. Even before Cockrell could protest, the machine had gone careening over the lawn, leaving a jagged grass-cut trail behind it, and ended only when it smashed into the east door of the court house, splintering it considerably. In his frantic efforts to subdue the thing Jasper ended up with a pair of badly scratched incantations toward the iron demon and a prayer for some tamer monster.

Earl Woods is the new employee at Farmers Equipment. He started to work for them Monday. "Son" is going to be salesman, road man and contact man for the firm, a trilogy to keep anyone busy.

And speaking of trilogies, there's the famous fishing trio, Bob Wilson, "Mac" McGilvray and Jim Lipscomb, the triumvirate who have consorted each other for fishing failures season after season (and backed each other up on fishing tales season after season). Alas! They are no more. Postmaster Jim took a back seat this year and waved his pals Wilson and McGilvray on off to greater fishing, according to Page 3.

Mrs. Paul Rudd: I really can't think of anybody I'd especially like to meet, movie stars, authors, political leaders, national home demonstration executives or anybody. I wouldn't mind meeting them, but I don't particularly crave to.

Rev. Don Davidson: If I had time to sit down and really visit with some famous American, I believe I'd rather talk to Woodrow Wilson than anyone else and discuss his plans for world peace and world federation. I think he had some ideas there we could still invoke today in a world federation plan.

Miss Carlie Rae-Frye: Abraham Lincoln, because he built his log cabin with Lincoln logs.

Foster Whaley: General Eisenhower, because I believe he is a friend of the little man. As a matter of fact, most people of his distinction don't have the feeling or consideration of the common man that he does.

G. B. Miller: Some resident in Hereford who has a house to rent.

Elizabeth Yarbro: I think I'd like to have met Mark Twain. He must have been a fascinating conversationalist and a wonderful person to know. He writes about things that are so human and so interesting he must have been great fun to talk with.

Mrs. E. Ward, Jr.: George Ger-shwin, because his "Rhapsody in Blue" is my favorite piece and it would have been nice to meet some composer like that and find out what kind of people they are.

Grant Fuller: The famous American I'd like to meet right now is my young grandson, Leo.

Cattle Sales Lead Parade As 401 Cars Move Into Markets

Cattle shippings continue to hold the lead in products shipped from Hereford, according to G. T. Slaughter, freight agent. During the month of March 346 cars of cattle and calves were forwarded from Hereford, largest single commodity either forwarded or received. From the Summerfield station, 55 cars of cattle were shipped, giving a total of 401 carloads. Cattle from Dawn are handled through the Umbarger freight station.

Construction was the key to demand for material received. Largest single commodity was 132 cars of sand and gravel. Two cars of lumber, nine cars of cement and 12 cars of brick were received to carry out the building trend. Two cars of structural steel and five cars of pipe were also shipped into Hereford this month.

The influence of planting season was evident. Three cars of fertilizer, 44 cars of potatoes and nine cars of agricultural machinery came in. A carload of automobiles and trucks, a car of oil and three cars of feed brought the total number of freight cars received to 223.

Next to cattle, wheat was the biggest commodity shipped out, but it did not even reach a tenth as many carloads as cattle. Slaughter reported 28 cars of wheat had been forwarded and four cars of other grains. Eleven cars of sheep and four of hogs reminded shippers that cattle was not the only livestock raised in Hereford.

Total number of cars shipped from here reached 393 last month. Slaughter also reported a few cars of grain and wheat shipped from the Summerfield station.

He and his mother, Mrs. Jack Wilson, went Tuesday night to be in the receiving line at the reception in honor of the Toepperweins and to meet the people who had sent Tunny the children's books. Fritz Toepperwein writes the books; his wife, Emily, does the illustrating.

They gave Tunny some new books to enjoy, and the author inscribed one of the books, "To Tunny, one of the finest boys I've ever known." Yes, Tunny's Santa Claus letter is still paying off.

BATHING REVIEW FEATURES SUITS FROM 1870 TO 1949

Capacity Audience Views B. and P. W. Annual Style Show

Climaxed with a bathing review of swim suit fashions of the past 80 years, the fourth annual Fashion Parade was successfully presented Tuesday night by the merchants of Hereford and the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Modeling fashions from Hereford stores that ranged from tennis shorts to white organdy formals, and from little girl prints to gabardine ranchman suits, 76 people participated in the show.

Like Mother Wore Starred event of the evening was the Gay Nineties Review presenting 12 models in suit types such as mother, grandmother, and even great-grandmother wore on their infrequent trips to the beach.

With Sam Nunnally as emcee and Joe Kendall, Dub Reeves, Robert Thompson as judges, the show was carried off like a regular bathing review. The four men, dressed for the part, wore bright red crepe paper ties, smash hats and rolled up trousers. As judges, they named

Audit Indicates County In Good Financial Shape

Showing a balance of $94,000 in operating funds, Deaf Smith County Sunday released figures on the operation of county affairs for the 12-month period ending Dec. 31, 1948. The figures exclusive of the building fund showed a net gain of $5,400 when the beginning balance of $89,000 was compared with the closing balance.

City Mail Delivery Survey To Consider Thirty More Blocks

A preliminary survey is being made by local post office officials this week in connection with a recommended additional carrier service for an estimated thirty blocks lying within the city limits. Following the initial survey, an official survey will be made on April 15 by V. E. Bell, Post Office Inspector from Lubbock.

"Blocks receiving carrier service must be adjacent to territory already receiving delivery," said Postmaster J. R. Lipscomb, "and houses receiving the service must be located on all-weather streets—gravel, caliche, or pavement," he added.

"Requirements for sidewalks," he continued, "might be waived provided that residents have all-weather entrances from the street to the mail box, which could be board-walks, caliche, or the like." One more regular carrier will be added to the local force, he added; in addition to the one regular and two substitute carriers now working.

Qualifications Listed

Blocks where carrier service is added must be fifty per cent improved on both sides of the block. It is hoped to extend the service to blocks bordering east on 25 Mile Avenue which lie on Norton, Kibbe, Cajalpa, Lake, Fuller, and Bradley streets. Other blocks will include those east of F Street, bordering 11th Street, and those bordering East Third on Gough and Funston Streets. Two blocks facing Park Avenue on either side of J Street are also in line for delivery service.

City Seeks Bids On New Fire Truck

Mayor W. E. Dameron Wednesday announced that the city commission will receive bids on a city fire truck Saturday, April 23. Bids to be opened at 2 p. m.

The city commission agreed several months ago to purchase this new equipment if any favorable bids were received and add it to the present fire department equipment which is considered inadequate.

During the past few months the fire chief, Earl Phillips, assistant fire chief, Glenn Witherspoon, and members of the commission have been visiting neighboring towns and inspecting the fire equipment which they have in use.

"We have three or four types in mind, at present," said Mr. Dameron.

The mayor pointed out that bids would not be received for two weeks and each bidder is to state best delivery date possible, but at that he did not expect the truck could be received before 60 to 120 days.

BARGAINS MOVE FAST

Dollar Day Draws Large Crowd

Monday's Dollar Day was a sales success judging from the people in town and the merchants' reports on customer reaction. It was the monthly special that lured people into stores but once there they bought all sorts of goods, not limiting themselves to the bargains, reported store owners and managers.

National economists have warned that April will be an "inflation month" for the next six months' buying, and that what customers and prices do during this 30-day period will be a gauge for the next half year in production and manufacturing. If April continues as it started, local merchants face a good month. Some reported Easter, buying at its peak on Monday.

Comments from business men who offered Dollar Day specials ranged from "It was a good, average sales day," to "I believe it was the best Dollar Day" of the year.

People were getting ready to summerize and buying heavily of cotton piece goods, cotton dresses and spring suits and coats. Most of the accessories that were purchased were on sale; handbags, hose, shoes, and wardrobe fundamentals sold heavily, some on sale and some at regular prices.

"People want to be sure of quality. They would sometimes turn down the unknown brands for nationally advertised goods which they had bought before and knew they could rely on," said one merchant.

"Everybody snapped up the specials, because there were good bargains all over town," was another man's opinion.

But although trends in different stores varied, the general opinion was that it had been a healthy Dollar Day.

Old Paper Drive Opens Saturday

The Boy Scouts of Troop 2 are sponsoring a paper drive all day Saturday. They have asked that people who have old newspapers, magazines, etc. put them out on the sidewalk, where the boys can pick them up on their house-to-house coverage. Proceeds from the sale of the paper will be used to purchase Scout equipment, and to aid in building up the troop.

Scoutmaster of Troop 2 is Gerald Wilson, and Bud Bradley is assistant. Last paper drive held here was two years ago, with Troop 1 participating. During the war years the Boy Scouts here were responsible for collecting 120,000 pounds of paper, receiving an award for their outstanding contribution.

Farm To Market Roads Go Before State Engineer

Still working on the farm to market road paying project for the county, members of the committee met with district engineer J. C. Lott at his Amarillo office Monday and made an appointment for him to meet with Deaf Smith County Commissioners April 15.

Lott will outline the provisions of Senate Bill 287, passed by the governor two weeks ago which delegates an additional fifteen million dollars to be used in farm to market projects, and explain just how many miles of road this county will receive under those provisions.

This step was the first action from the committee since they appeared before the State Highway Commission last week. Future plans for the entire 99 and one-half miles of paving proposed for the county will hinge on the report which Lott makes to the commissioners court.

Attending the meeting Monday were A. J. Schroeter, chairman, Ezra Norton, Leo Forrest, Cord Hammock and Judge Leonard Foster.

MAKE HOME HERE

Mr. and Mrs. George L. LeGrand, who have been living in Waco the past year, have returned to Hereford to make their home until next September when LeGrande will re-enter medical school.

Postal Receipts Still Climbing

True to the overall trend of the past three years, postal receipts are still climbing with March, 1949, topping March, 1948 by $639.55.

The windy month ended with a total of $3,842.01. Last year the total ranged at $3,202.46.

For the first quarter of the year, receipts amounted to $1,268.12, with each month exceeding the corresponding month of the previous year. This quarter showed a total increase of $2,615.92 over the $9,652.20 of January, February and March of 1948.

Last year's total receipts of the Hereford Post Office, threw it into first class bracket by topping the $40,000 mark. Postmaster Jim Lipscomb has declared that it looks like the office is on its way to maintaining this rating for 1949, as the first three months turned in 28 per cent of the necessary $40,000.

Receipts of each month are as follows:

Month	1948	1949
January	3608.69	4229.38
February	2841.05	3196.73
March	3202.46	3842.01
TOTAL	$9652.20	$11268.12

Mrs. B. T. Bell Is Seriously Ill

Mrs. B. T. Bell, mother of Mrs. Edgar Ireland of Hereford, is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Cash, in Canyon. Although she has been in ill health for several years, her condition during the past three weeks has been considered quite critical.

Mrs. Bell, a 94 year old pioneer of this area, has lived in Hereford with Mrs. Ireland intermittently for years. Since the first of the year she has been with Mrs. Cash, however.

Five of her six children are now at her bedside. They are: Barclay Bell of Los Angeles; Calvin Bell of San Diego; Grayson Bell of Albuquerque; Mrs. Ireland and Mrs. Cash. The other son, Albert Bell of San Diego, was ill and unable to make the trip to Texas.

Farm Prices Generally Steady, Despite Lower Livestock Trends

Most southwest farm products brought steady to strong prices for the week despite lower trends in hogs, cattle and some feeds, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.
 Supplies of winter vegetables continued to shrink in the southwest during the past week, as spring crops and planting progressed under favorable weather conditions. Beets sold stronger in the Lower Rio Grande Valley as half crates loaded at $1.75 to $2. Carrots showed only slight advances. Strawberries gained 25 to 50 cents a crate at Hammond, Louisiana with the reason in full swing. Klonmore strawberries brought $6.75 to $7 per 24 pint crate at auction sales Sunday.
 Most grains advanced during the week, although barley sold lower. Corn went up the most as the midwest. Fort Worth turned good wooled slaughter ewes to $15, while most ewes sold from $11 to $12 at Oklahoma City. Denver moved good and choice wooled slaughter ewes at $14.25. San Antonio took medium and good shorn ewes and wethers from $12.50 to $13.50. Southwest wools found better interest this week, but trade continued dull. Steady to weaker trends prevailed at southwest and midwest cattle markets for the week despite lighter offerings. Most classes of cattle and calves shared in the week's downturn. Odd head of good cows returned $18.50 to $19.50 at Fort Worth, $19 at Denver, and to $20 at San Antonio. Oklahoma City cleared good beef cows upward to $18.50. Houston moved canners at $14 and cutters at $16 to $18.

 Hogs and sows suffered losses of $1 to $1.50 at southwest and midwest markets as offerings increased over the previous week. Some butcher hogs fell as much as $1.75 in the midwest. Good and choice medium weight butcher hogs cleared Monday at $19.50 at San Antonio, mostly from $19.50 to $20 at Fort Worth and Oklahoma City, and from $21 to $21.25 at Denver. Sows ranged from $14.50 to $16.50 in the southwest.

Influenced by government buying and exports to the Philippines, southwest rice markets strengthened during the week. Peanuts held steady, but oil and meal weakened. Millfeeds continued recent upward trends, but most other feedstuffs sold lower. Southwest hay markets continued seasonally dull.

 accompanied by Urin Streu. Lipscomb said it was the new post office carrier system survey that kept him here. McGilvary said it Mrs. Lipscomb.

Rex Tynes, pioneer pharmacist and former drug store operator of Hereford, left this week for Friona, where he is employed as pharmacist in the Farmer County Community Hospital. Until recently Mr. Tynes has been employed as pharmacist at Close Drug here. He plans to work in Friona a few weeks and join his family in Lubbock.

Members of the Lions Club reminded that a special Ladies night program has been planned for tonight, Thursday, April 7, at 7:30 o'clock.

Also slated for general community interest is the G. W. Brumley farm sale today.

Deite Albracht left Monday for Roswell following sale of The Lady Faire beauty shop to Zeldadenges. Miss Albracht completed eight years of beauty shop work in Hereford just prior to sale of the firm. Mrs. Denges has been associated with the shop for several years.

In the form of a last minute warning to dog owners, city officials Thursday reminded Herefordites they best be looking to their pets because next week the law would start picking up all stray dogs. Merely getting the dog vaccinated and licensed was not enough. He had to be off the streets. Either pen him up or buy a leash is the request.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

In The Spring A Farm Man's Fancy Turns To Thoughts Of Love - Grass

By LUTHER PEVEHOUSE

In the spring a farm man's fancy always turns to thoughts of ways and means of securing more pasture for his livestock. On farms with plenty of water irrigated pasture grasses can be made as profitable as most crops.

In the Hereford area most irrigated pastures are established in the fall, since weed competition is lower then. However, good pastures can be secured by spring seeding if one will mow the weeds and see that the young grass gets the proper amount of water.

Land preparation for irrigated pastures should include seed bed preparation and systems of irrigation. Grasses feed at shallow depths, which calls for frequent light applications of water. Land to be seeded to grass should have a firm well packed seed bed. To irrigate, borders either with the slope or across it are very efficient in the use of time and water. Another method is to use relatively flat graded contour ditches with siphons. In the heat of the summer grasses may need to be watered every 7 to 10 days to get the maximum growth and grazing from them. Too, the pasture should be divided so grazing can be rotated. The young tender grass has the greatest nutritive value, so heavy grazing for short time intervals and then removal of stock to another patch while the first one is irrigated, is the better system. The above points were gleaned

Boy Of The Year

Jimmy Montgomery, 14, above, gets a big kick out of riding in the cab of a New York Central train on his way to New York for a week-long visit. The Hot Springs, Ark., youth was chosen "Boy of the Year" from among 300,000 members of the Boys' Clubs of America. The trip to the Big City came with the title.

ed from the U. S. Department of Agriculture Research Stations and from the experiences of many Deaf Smith County farmers who have been successful with pasture grasses including: Robert Veigel, C. J. and Gene Albracht, Fred Inman, Leo Forrest, Wallace Hill, Jack Renfro, Paul Rudd, Virgil Dodson and others.

Several farmers are planting sand love grass this spring. Among these are: Glenn Rutter, W. L. Edelman, Paul Rudd, H. V. McCabe and Carl Wimberley.

March births include: Dayrel Lee Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eibert L. Walker, March 12; Ruth Andrea Bivens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bivens, March 4; John Anthony Paetzold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paetzold, March 4, died March 5; David Edward Gith-

1949 Silhouette

The exaggerated lines of the New Look are due for modification in the "1949 Silhouette," according to Parisian designers. Restraint and moderation keynote this black and white shepherd's check town dress by Jacques Fath, who was responsible for many of last year's grotesque fashion lines. The twin spiral peplum ends in a deep point on the left seam of a slender skirt. White pique plays up the ultra-feminine collar and cuffs, and an outside yellow felt hat adds color to the ensemble.

sons, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Githens, Jr., March 4; Laura Jane Sumner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Sumner, March 7; Jerry Don Poarch, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Poarch, March 10; Jimmy Duayne Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, Jr., March 11; Charles Ray Inman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burke W. Inman, March 11; Beverly Jean Roberson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ray Roberson, March 12; Daloris Jean Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hall, March 14; Zee Ann Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Evans, March 17; Robert Ray Gentry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will S. March births at Deaf Smith County Hospital not yet recorded include: James Terrell Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wood, March 24; Nelson Edward Kendall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Kendall, March 25.

Audit Indicates

were Hospital Maintenance, 10,300; and General Improvements, $100. The general fund showed a deficit of $2,900.

In Excellent Condition Generally speaking, the county was considered to be in excellent condition. Hospital bonds, and warrants totaling $153,000 comprised the only outstanding indebtedness of the county. Permanent improvement hospital warrants, $36,000; road and bridge warrants, $11,200. All accounts showed ample funds to meet payments and interest.

Hereford Representatives Win Top Honors In State Church Contests

Mrs. Gerald Wilson and Peggy June Graham both won first place in contests at the Baptist Training Union Convention held in Abilene Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Mrs. Wilson had won first place in district contests recently and in competition with ten others from over the state, placed first at the Abilene meeting in the Young Adult Devotional contest. She is entitled to an all-expense paid trip to compete at Ridgecrest, N. C.

Peggy June won first place in the story telling contest, making a grade of 93 plus. The stories which were told in the child's own words, not memorized, were of five minutes length and all children making above 70 were declared state winners. Peggy June is the daughter of Superintendent of schools George Graham and Mrs. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dunlap spent Sunday in Amarillo visiting their son and family. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Dunlap and William Dean, Jr.

IN MEMORIAM

Faithful Pioneer Dog Served His Master Well

By WILL G. HARRIS

GOAT HEAD PRAIRIE, Summerfield—Trixy, our sable and white collie, had been mated with Red Lad and had whelped in the autumn of 1918.

Old timers here in the Texas Panhandle still talk about how wet it was that fall, and what a severe winter followed. Here, at Goat Head Prairie, torrential rains came the latter part of October. Just before one of these rains, Trixy was out with her family to give them an airing and early instructions in the ways of dog life.

She was happy, and proud of them; we all were. The downpour came almost unannounced, and sent five, toddling balls of fur scampering under the front porch. It was a terrible rain. Water rose all over the yard till it inundated most everything, including the porch.

Trixy was so frantic, she rushed in to the house, and up on the madam's bed spread. We didn't scold much, for each of us felt almost as she did. With the aid of the garden rake, I fished out four bedraggled, sodden puppies. There was one on a small island, just a clod of dirt, yards beyond my reach.

He seemed doomed to a watery grave, for the water would soon be over his head. The two little girls and the little boy were pleading, "Please Daddy, you will just have to get him, you'll have to." I was down on my belly, almost immersed in that cold water trying to rescue him. He was intelligent—even at that early age but was afraid of the water. By coaxing, and cajoling, I finally got him to make the plunge, and struggle toward me.

I forced myself as far under the porch as I could and got the rake behind him and dragged him, half drowned, to safety. Never have I seen eyes that expressed such gratitude, as he licked my hands.

The children said his name was Robinson Crusoe Harris, for he had been rescued from an island. They also said he was the one we would keep for our very own. There was no argument along that score. I believe I would have fought anyone trying to take him. With the exception of the three sable spots, he was white like Lad, who was a large pure white collie, of royal breeding.

The rains turned to snow in November, with more and more snow that covered everything with huge drifts that didn't melt till spring. It is almost impossible to comprehend the suffering and death loss of cattle before the winter ended.

This was a range country at that time, a little feed was grown for the cattle, but the summer had been so dry very little was harvested, and there was none to buy. With very little feed and no dry place in which a cow could lie down for months, the cattle became so emaciated, they could not stand the cold.

There was a windmill a few miles away and an estimated 900 cattle died there. It will put gray hair in one's head to be awakened on a sub-zero night, by this starving cattle bawling for feed, or to hear his horses gnawing the boards from the corral fence. Many a man lost his life's savings, some never recovered, and there was a few suicides.

I had come to the Panhandle in 1906, an ambitious stripling, full of vim and vision. I arrived just in time to witness a great transformation, the passing of a cattle empire.

I would take anything on a share basis, or buy anything on credit, that I thought would make money. When the winter, of which I write, came I had acquired a family, a small ranch of several hundred acres, and 75 Hereford cows. There was a deed of trust on the land, at 10 per cent interest, and a mortgage on the cattle, the family was ruined.

I had convinced my banker that I was a good risk, but to between Crusoe and me? I had given him back his life, which he never seemed to forget. He had given me back my dreams. He made his bed under my window, close as he could, and nothing went amiss around the house or corral that he didn't know.

If the fences got bad a mile away, and the cattle were eating our crops, we would whine and cry till he knew that I was awake, and then he would go, a flash of white in the darkness. He was a "one man dog." When relatives were visiting, and pictures made, he was always near me, whether I knew it or not, posing as much as I. I do not remember ever striking him; it wasn't necessary. He always knew what to do, and was always anxious to do it. He was always at the right place at the right time.

The years passed all too swiftly, out here at Goat Head Prairie. Some were beautiful, fruitful years, and others were rough. During the early thirties, drought, dust bowl, and depression ran concurrently for several years.

The surface lakes went dry, feed crops withered and the foliage blew off the stalks. There was very little made for the bare necessities of food and clothing. Again I was fighting a terrible battle for survival, with my back against the wall. There seemed no earthly way to stop foreclosure on the little ranch and the cattle.

Values were so low that if every thing had been sold, a large percentage of the debts would have remained unpaid. It was also college age for the little boy and the two little girls. Children do not wait because of drought and hard times.

It was lonely when they were gone, and glad days when vacation brought them back. Crusoe would go bounding down the lane, the first to greet them. When they had to return he would wave till they could no longer see our faces. The madam would take my hand, and the three of us would go back to the house, with the tears in our hearts.

Other years have come and gone. The seasons have rocked backward and fro many times. I never became a cattle king, but I managed to keep every acre of the little ranch. It is beautiful land, and all tillable.

The big ranches are now farm land. Irrigation has come, and the soil is very productive. Values have risen so ours is now a pretty nice spread. I still keep a good percentage of the place in grass, so the children can see how the prairie looked the way God made it.

There were times when our cup of happiness was filled to overflowing, and a time when we wept, softly, alone in the night. Most people are kind. There are many good and beautiful things, if we are in the receiving line.

There are a few sturdy grandsons to be grown into self reliant, worthwhile citizens. They think I am a great man. There is a sweet, little granddaughter whom I adore, and whom I have spoiled—her mother says I have.

Our grain crops were heavy one year. The thresher was here and I was feeding the bundles with an ease and dexterity that, perhaps, belied my years, my temples were a little frosty, Crusoe was getting to be quite an old dog, but he had no thought of retiring.

As usual he was on the job, where he thought he would be needed. Smoke was pouring from the big steam engine, and my muscles were rippling to the rhythm of the machinery, when my team gave a lurch, three dogs were fighting under the wagon. Two mongrels were on Crusoe in the fiercest struggle imaginable, and both trying for his throat. I sprang to the ground, the engineer came running and we beat them off.

But it was Crusoe's last stand. He lived for awhile, but his heart was broken. He knew he could no longer be of service to me, that he was a liability instead of an asset.

Just what started the argument I'll never know. There are times when it is hard for us all to keep our self-control, times when we give way to anger too easily. It might have been an insult, or a direct attack. I'll also never know what force kept me from impaling a cur or two on my pitchfork. I do know that whatever it was, Crusoe thought he was acting within his rights, that he was trying to protect my interest.

Mercury, the planet nearest the earth, is only 3,000 miles in diameter, which makes it the smallest among planets.

Laverne Winfrey Birthday Party

Laverne Winfrey was honored on his seventh birthday Wednesday afternoon with a birthday party given by his mother, Mrs. L. W. Winfrey at their home on North 25-Mile Avenue.

After games, and the opening of gifts, refreshments of birthday cake, jello, punch and Easter eggs were served to the guests. Balloons and Easter chickens were presented as favors.

The recent atmospheric unpleasantness has kept the local Babe Ruths and Ty Cobbs from sitting their brains loose, and sliding the seats of their pants out for the last week or so. The V. F. W. team didn't practice Sunday and the Junior team missed about a week of workouts during the bad weather. There's something about snow in April that takes the "spizzorinkum" out of the most fanatical ball-tosser.

Earl Wood and Larry Loerwald have announced that the V.F.W. game will be played here Sunday, April 24, against those slug-gin', slidin', slingin' Clovis Blackjacks. These colored boys were over here year before last and provided so many laughs for everyone from the umpire to the ticket taker that no one realized until they got home that Hereford had won. This will quite likely be a grudge game, at least as far as Conrad Clark is concerned. He was playing first base (for Hereford) in the '47 game, and received a good tromping every time a Clovis man got near his base. He swears there isn't a man on the Blackjack team that wears a shoe smaller than size 18.

To get ready for the Black-jack game, the V. F. W. boys among themselves next Sunday afternoon. They intend to work not only on their batting and base-running, but on their wise-cracking as well, and will be ready for the Clovis bunch in every way.

"Flab" Corbett tells me that the Junior ball team is running out of feed for Jodie Blonde. Jodie is the Shetland pony which they are going to give away April 16. The boys have decided the only way to keep Jodie's body and soul together is to rent her out as a lawnmower. If anyone has a good, thick lawn, with perhaps a few tulips on the side, please let Corbett know, so that the Junior team's fiery steed will last until the 16th.

This is the second year that Hereford High's gridiron is strangely idle during the month of April, due to the new School-boy football ruling against spring training. The ruling leaves coach Dalton Criswell hard put to get the boys together and line up his prospects for next fall. Most of the boys are coming out for the track team and are in good physical condition, but there is no substitute for a good, rough football scrimmage. In my opinion, the body-contact and quick thinking demanded by football is one of the best physical and mental conditioners offered to a boy of high school age.

Concerning track, "Coach" says the District 1-A track meet will be held in Canyon next Saturday. It will be a big event and all sports fans are invited to attend.

Plato once said, "Holiness is what is loved by all the gods." Raylan Evans says he wouldn't mind a little of it himself—on the Hereford golf course, that is. Raylan, "Dub" Hair, and Kent Snare shot over nine holes on the course last Sunday without lifting a putter. When I say "over" I mean it, because there ain't no holes on the golf course yet. The greens have all been moved to get away from the old sand which was once used. This sand had been oiled, and Jim Perry, who is remodeling the course, had to move the greens so he could plant grass on them with reasonable hopes it would come up. I strongly suspect that Raylan, "Dub" and Kent "drove" around the course just so they could set a par that no one can beat.

Store Fronts Get Faces Lifted As Merchants Plan Remodeling

Getting in the spring redeccating mood, several store owners along Main are working on remodeling plans for store fronts this week.

A plan to "revitalize Main Street" was presented by the Chamber of Commerce on modernization of store fronts last year, and responsive merchants have been capitalizing on those ideas. Work goes on this week at The Vogue, Halle Drug, The Candy Kitchen, City Drug, and the Star Theatre.

Mrs. Bess Moore, owner of the Vogue, said that when work was completed, the store front would extend to sidewalk frontage, eliminating display windows but sheets of plate glass on the front would make a showroom of the entire store. This additional footage will also mean more room inside the shop. Green and beige drapes will be hung in gathered folds across the top of the windows, carrying out the color scheme of the interior. Mrs. Moore points out that the store front is being modified on lines copied from the Los Angeles shop of John Fredericks.

Halle Drug this week completed renovating their store front. They cut their show windows, changed long, oblique angle windows for five foot square display cases and added 10 feet of space inside the building.

Grady Rogers says the south side will be devoted to gift and

TRANSFERS TO AMARILLO

Mrs. Clara McLean, who left Hereford the first of January to accept a position as librarian in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Temple, has transferred this week to the V. A. hospital library in Amarillo. She is residing at 1919 Van Buren in Amarillo. Mrs. McLean was librarian of the Deaf Smith County Library here for many years.

WILL SAIL FOR JAPAN

Mrs. Lynn Chisholm, who has been visiting here for the past weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wirt Phillips, left Wednesday for Seattle where she will await sailing date for Japan. Mrs. Chisholm expects to sail April 15 to Tokyo where she will join her husband.

cameras department and the additional space on the north wall will be given to magazine display racks.

A twin remodeling job will be taken over on the Candy Kitchen, City Drug Building. Work began Wednesday on the drug store. G. W. Edwards said the drug store frontage will be moved out about a foot and new plate glass windows installed. The door will front even with the windows instead of being set back from the street.

Window lights across the top of the store will be boarded up and that portion of the building will be stucco. Work may be finished in about two weeks said Ed Triefel, contractor.

Harold Close, owner of the building which houses the Candy Kitchen, said it would be remodeled along similar lines to the City Drug, but no final plans had yet been made.

Francis Hardwick says the Star Theatre is getting its final remodeling job right now.

Major portion of the work was completed last fall, and now workmen are completing installation of the tile on the front of the building. Maroon tile forms the dado on the building, and cream colored tile covers the walls. The box office is covered in maroon tile below the glassed in window portion.

Twin Violinists Present Third In Concert Series

By MARGARET BARRETT

Gerald and Wilfred Beal, twin violinists, were in Hereford Saturday night to present the third concert of the Hereford Concert Association Series. These outstanding sixteen-year-old artists are students at the Juilliard School of Music in New York City, when not on tour with the Lucius Pryor Concert Association.

Born into a family of musicians, the boys have studied the violin since they were five years old, under some of the best teachers in the nation. Proof of their concentrated study was evident in their mature performance, their mastery of technique and rhythm, and their personal assurance in playing before an audience.

Though response from Saturday night's audience to the first part of the program was not particularly inspiring, applause to the latter part of the program was enthusiastic, and the boys were called back for three encores.

First part of the program included Bach's Concerto in D minor for two violins, Beethoven's Romance in F major, played by Wilfred Beal, and Wieniawski's Polonaise Brillante, played by Gerald Beal. The Honegger Sonata for two solo violins completed the first group, and served to awaken the audience's enthusiasm for the artists. It was the first performance of this very modern sonata out of New York City, it was announced, and the closeness of its harmony, resulting almost in discord at points, was unusual and very effective.

Following a brief intermission, Gerald Beal played Saint-Saens' Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso, and Wilfred Beal played the de-Falla-Kreisler arrangement of "Danse Espagnole."

Concluding the formal program was Moszkowski's "Suite Concertante for Two Violins." Fourth and last concert of this year's season will be presented May 6 at the First Christian Church. Dr. Frank Asper, considered one of the best organists in the United States, will be guest artist.

Three Boys Serve County Sentences

Three boys, charged with theft in connection with the stealing of tractor batteries here in December, have been removed to Deaf Smith County jail to serve sentences ranging from 7 to 15 days.

The boys appeared in county court Tuesday and pleaded guilty to the charge. A jury was called, but was dismissed when the youths entered a plea of guilty. One of the boys was 17, one 19 and one 20 years of age.

As one of the boys turned state's witness, he was given a jail sentence of seven days. The other two will be held for 15 days. Their sentences ranged from 21 to 24 days, but they were given credit for the time already spent in jail while unable to make bond.

New Garden Club To Be Organized At Summerfield

A called meeting of the Summerfield Study Club was held recently for the purpose of organizing a Garden Club department within the club. The new organization developed out of a home beautification project which has been included as one of the club's objectives for the past several years.

Mrs. B. E. Roberson, president of the club, was hostess for the meeting and introduced Mrs. H. H. Caraway, president of the Bud-to-Blossom Club, who presented Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, 1st. vice-councilor of District 1, Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. who outlined plans and requirements for such an organization. Mrs. Manjeot gave instructions for organization. Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill was chosen chairman of a committee to complete plans and prepare a working schedule for the department.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Manjeot, Caraway, K. W. Neill, Lee Curry, D. C. Walser, Earl Lance, L. H. Lookingbill, Guy Walser, Walk Boston, Glen Olson, Britt Clark, O. B. Sumner, C. R. Walser, and the hostess.

Major W. E. and Mrs. Culbertson of Delavan, Illinois, are visiting here for a few days on a return trip from Arizona and the Pacific coast, where they have spent the past winter. Major Culbertson owns two farms out in the Overstreet and Heselman district. They will visit the Overstreets here for a few days, then return to their home in Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert White and children motored to Lubbock Sunday and spent the day visiting old friends formerly of Bovina, now of Lubbock.

Jack Kassahn, an assistant in the ACA office, spent Monday in Amarillo on business.

Children Visit Tuckers

Miss Ruth Tucker of Dallas and her sister, Mrs. Rocky Lee and Mr. Lee of Abilene, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Tucker over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Lee are students at Hardin-Simmons University.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bartlett and three children of Lamesa visited in the home of his brother, N. D. Bartlett, Jr. the past week-end.

Mrs. J. B. Harlin, Mrs. J. B. Snead, Mrs. Wayne Williams, Mrs. George Graham and daughter Peggy, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lawrence, Mrs. Lan Shore, and Mrs. Gerald Wilson have returned from Abilene where they attended the Baptist Training Union Convention.

Mrs. Lama Beavers was called to Lubbock Saturday at the death of her aunt, Mrs. Elmer Blanks. Mr. Beavers met her in Abilene, Sunday, and they returned to Hereford Sunday night.

John D. Pitman and Red Dillon, students from Texas University, stopped in Hereford Monday en route to Austin to visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pitman.

Garden Clubs Plan For Convention

With a large delegation expected to attend plans are virtually complete for the third annual District 1, Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. convention which will be held here Friday and Saturday. All meetings will be held in the First Christian Church. Registrations have been brisk from all over the district, according to Mrs. J. D. Neill of the registrations committee.

Entertainment plans include a luncheon Friday and a tea, for which the Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs will be host. Friday afternoon at five o'clock a breakfast Saturday morning will be held for all attending the convention.

Special invitations have been extended to all federated club presidents for the tea and special guests will be invited to attend other social affairs of the two-day session. Mrs. Lyle Blanton, district councilor, has announced.

Final plans for the convention were made at meetings held by Hereford's three Garden Clubs Friday.

Hereford Garden Club Following a discussion of the convention plans new officers were elected at the Hereford Garden Club meeting held in the home of Mrs. W. S. Flitt Friday afternoon. They include:

Mrs. W. S. Flitt, president; Mrs. Lyle Blanton, first vice-president; Mrs. Will S. Kerr, second vice-president; Mrs. Dennis Barnard, third vice-president; Mrs. E. E. Fridley, recording secretary; Mrs. E. Ramey, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Deward Roberson, treasurer; Mrs. A. O. Thompson, federation councilor; Mrs. H. E. Miller, parliamentarian and Mrs. Marshal Formby, reporter.

The program consisted of demonstrations of flower arrangements before the club with Mrs. E. E. Fridley as leader. She chose an arrangement representing Springtime using daffodils, pussywillow and forsythia.

Mrs. C. D. KeHon demonstrated corsage making, demonstrating before the club a formal corsage of Dutch Iris, and semi-formal of hyacinths and tailored corsages of King Alfred daffodils and grape hyacinths. In discussing the corsages Mrs. KeHon cautioned members to suit the flowers to the dress and to keep in mind the person and the occasion.

Mrs. Will S. Kerr demonstrated a mass arrangement using stock, sweet peas, pussy willow, daffodils and grape hyacinths. She quoted authorities on creative art who urge flower lovers to be happy with their flowers, not allowing rules and regulations to deprive them of real pleasure in arranging flowers. "A good rule to follow is to keep in mind the difference between arrangements for the home and arrangements for a flower show. Creative art demands a great deal of study if one is to get the most out of working with flowers," Mrs. Kerr said. Two Amaryllis were presented for judging. Mrs. A. O. Thompson showed her "Guyille" and Mrs. John Jacobsen, Jr. showed "The Parker Strain."

Members present were Mesdames Leroy Aven, Dennis Barnard, Jim Black, Lyle Blanton, Roy Crutchfield, E. E. Fridley, E. W. Harrison, A. V. Hendrick, John Jacobson, Jr., C. D. KeHon, Will S. Kerr, F. M. Kester, A. E. Manjeot, Deward Roberson, Jack Roberson, Marian Rutter, J. P. Slaton, A. O. Thompson, H. E. Miller, Jeff Gilbreath, Earl Springer, Phillip Barkley, Carl Frye as the hostess.

Garden Beautiful Club Mrs. Norris Larmer was hostess for the Garden Beautiful Club Friday morning.

After a business session Mrs. Deward Roberson demonstrated corsage making. She showed the group how to make corsages for formal and informal wear and how to make wristlets and hair arrangements for the teen-ager. Iris and daffodils and carnations were used in the demonstrations and a demonstration of tearing down the flowers and arranging them was given.

Announcement of the cancer drive was made by the welfare chairman and a special guest, Mrs. Maurice Tannahill, was welcomed.

Those present were Mesdames N. D. Bartlett, Jr., Tom Carter, Frances Houston, J. M. French, F. P. Lyons, R. B. Miller, Forrest Minton, P. J. Rose, Mary Seliger, E. O. Jordan, J. W. Thomas, Lisle Woodford, and the hostess, Mrs. Colby Conkwright was welcomed as a new member.

Bud-To-Blossom Club Elects Mrs. Ernest Kerr entertained members of the Bud-To-Blossom Club in her home Friday afternoon.

A New HAYING SYSTEM

... Fewer Men ... More Hay ... and Rolled Bales

These three Allis-Chalmers machines mechanize your hay harvest from start to finish. You don't even need a pitchfork. You get better quality hay, and use a smaller crew.

FRONT-MOUNTED MOWER

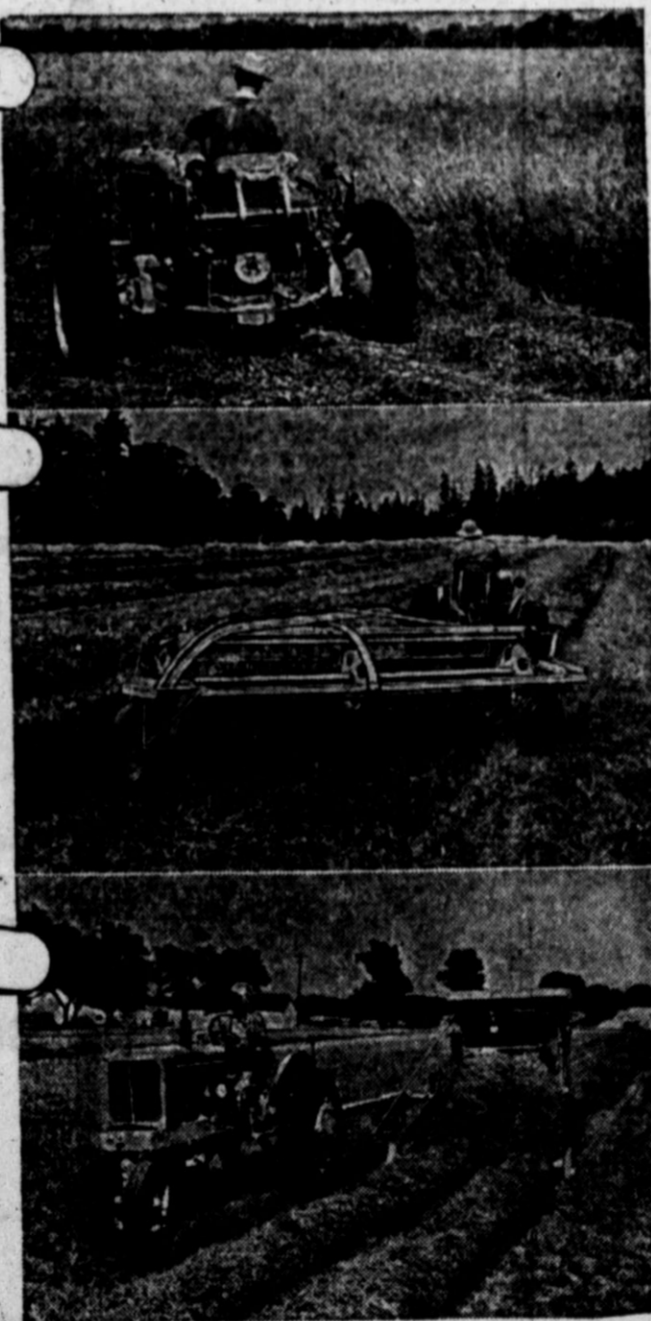

Always in easy view of the operator. Better control for mowing around obstructions. Fast hydraulic lift. Unmatched stability, particularly on hillsides. Hydraulically controlled sickle bar.

TRACTOR RAKE

Really engineered for tractor power. Power-driven, has two forward reel speeds and one reverse for tedding—shift easily as shifting your car. Castored, rubber-tired, front wheel makes it easy to lay clean, straight windrows, without pitching or roping. Ball and roller bearings throughout.

ROTO-BALER

ROTO-BALER makes weather-resistant, rolled bales—fast. Saves more leaves. Rolled bales can be fed with less waste, whole or unrolled. You can stack more tons of hay in a given area. They don't break apart when handled rough. Twine-wrapped—safe for livestock.

"City Water Plant Best On Plains" says a headline in the April 8, 1924 Hereford Brand. "How many citizens of Hereford really know what sort of water system they possess?" the Brand inquires, and continues, "The Brand ventures to suggest that not twenty-five per cent of the property owners of the city have any idea of the magnificent water plant they have down by the Santa Fe tracks, of how it is operated, of how much storage capacity it boasts in case of fire, of the kind of machinery that operates it." And the story goes on to say that the new Commissioners and other interested persons were taken on a tour through the plant and that they were "utterly astounded" when conducted down a nine by twelve cemented shaft fifty two feet below the level of the ground. Following further description of this remarkable plant, the Brand concludes: "There is not another town in the Panhandle with anything like the water supply or water plant for supplying it for use now serving the City of Hereford. It is a plant that every property owner of Hereford should be proud of." Only sixty votes were cast at the trustee election of the Hereford Independent School District. Retiring trustees E. B. Posey, J. O. Newell, and J. W. Houston were elected with fifty seven votes each, and C. O. Lee was named to succeed H. L. Broadwell with a vote of fifty-five. "As usual in such cases," says the Brand, "the lack of a contest left the election dry and uninteresting to the people."

Chosen Rodeo Queen

ored hue tied about them. Edgar Ireland's desk held similar decorations. French Thurmond's package of cigarettes on his desk was also tied about with a black bow. Miss Gregg explained as follows: "These three men agreed yesterday to stop smoking. I thought I would cinch this bargain with a reminder this morning — hence the crepe. 'Guess we are stuck,' said Mr. Hill resignedly. 'Can you beat it?'" Another front page story reads: "Elmo Lawhon and Miss Nora Beams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Beams, were united in marriage, Sunday, March 30, at the home of Rev. J. R. Sharp. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lance, Misses Mattie Woodburn, Lucille Mergert, Gladys Beams and Jeff Roberson. Mr. and Mrs. Lawhon will make their home in Black at which place Mr. Lawhon has been farming for some time."

And Stork Specials for the week were: "Born to Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Hill a 12½ pound boy, April 3, named O. G., Jr.; Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cox a son named Clifton Neil, March 28."

"Two Mail Routes" reports the Brand, stating that: "C. E. Tice is working on a rural mail route southwest last week. Mr. Tice informed the Brand that he was out over the proposed route all last week and secured eighty signatures on fifty one miles—enough patrons to insure a route six days a week." and "W. A. Daugherty north-west of town is working on a similar route to turn in that direction. Mr. Daugherty has eighty-five signers on fifty-five miles. Mr. Tice is expecting a route inspector any time."

KITCHEN MEMO

Many a good homemaker hesitates to cook fish. Yet it can be cooked so many different ways and is a welcome change for a main course. Fish Casserole uses either fresh or frozen fillets. Wash 2 lbs. fillets. Wipe with cloth. Break into large chunks and place in greased casserole. Cover with 1 pt. sour cream, ¼ lb. grated cheddar cheese, 1 small minced onion, ½ cup white wine (or ¼ cup lemon juice), 1 tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. pepper. Bake in moderate gas oven (375°F.) for about 30 mins. Serve on hot noodles—2 cups noodles boiled in salted water for about 8 mins. Serves 4.

A new aluminum foil that saves cleaning time can be put on the bottom of your broiler to catch grease from cooking foods. Use once and throw away.

There are only three uses for cold water in the average home but there are 140 different uses for hot water. An automatic gas water heater ensures a reliable supply of hot water whenever it is needed.

Take eggs out of the refrigerator ahead of time when you plan to beat them. They whip up faster, and better at room temperature.

Simmering is an excellent cooking method used by good cooks to retain food values. Turn the gas low to simmer position to keep soups, stews, vegetables and fruits gently cooking.

Evaporated milk can be soured by stirring in well 2 tbsp. lemon juice to one cup milk.

Water Shortage Is Big Worry On King Ranch As Table Drops

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Declining livestock prices aren't worrying the fabulous King Ranch nearly so much as its waning water supply.

The biggest beef-producing ranch in the world is a 976,000-acre domain which ships 20,000 cattle to market annually. The ranch doesn't buy high-priced cattle on speculation—it breeds and raises its own. It buys little high-priced feed—King Ranch cattle eat grass. So the ranch isn't caught in any jam between buyer and seller market.

But when it comes to water it has cause for concern. The South Texas water table has dropped alarmingly and you can't depend on rain.

"A cow drinks 10 gallons of water per day," said Dr. James K. Northway, famed King Ranch veterinarian, "and it takes plenty of water to grow the grass they eat." The ranch has built earthen diversionary dams in three streams to flood thousands of acres of rangeland in periods of heavy rain. The flooded soil is treated chemically to boost its fertility and planted in clovers and such grasses as giant bermuda, yellow bluestem and rhodes.

Northway, "many artesian wells were flowing. Now, in 1916," said Northway, "many wells are 117 below the surface. That's an idea of how the water table has dropped."

It has been estimated that the 75 artesian wells and 225 windmills of the King Ranch supply enough water daily for a city of 23,000 persons. The 80,000 head of cattle and the 2,800 quarter horses on the ranch quench their thirst at 883 brimming troughs. Rainfall on the ranch averages about 31 inches a year. "But it may go for six months without raining," said Northway.

The ranch, a big business with a businesslike attitude toward ranching, has spent many decades of planning for the future. After years of experiment it evolved its own breed of Santa Gertrudis cattle, approximately three-eighths Brahma and five-eighths Shorthorn, very large cattle with a very fine beef conformation. Santa Gertrudis cattle take the southwest heat well; they are harder and grow heavier on grass feeding than any other breed.

The ranch also developed its own strain of quarter-horses for its expert Vaqueros (cowboys) to ride and experimented many years to perfect strains of grasses.

In support of the new economic reform program, which is being carried out in Shanghai has begun making silver coins. The coins, bearing an impression of Dr. Sun Yat-Sen on one side and a Chinese junk on the other, will soon be rolling off this and four other minting machines at the rate of 300,000 daily.

Commenting on the livestock price decline, Dr. Northway said:

"We are on a production basis. We breed, raise and market cattle. The fellows caught by the decline are the ones who buy high-priced cattle to fatten and buy high-priced feed to fatten them on. A fat cow is just as perishable as a ripe peach. When she's ready for market, she's ready—and the man who paid too much for the cow and her feed loses money when the livestock market drops."

And too, the King Ranch has varied its interests. It does no farming but it has 400 oil wells.

Cleaning pipe in West Texas Gas Company's pipe yard.

Are Hard to Break

West Texas Gas Company is spending approximately $2,250,000.00 this year to meet your demands for natural gas service.

Although most materials are available for the 1949 improvement and expansion program... there is still one big "bottle neck." The "bottle neck" is the scarcity of steel pipe in the quantity and quality required.

To meet the demands for natural gas service, large sums of money are being spent replacing various sizes of lines in our transmission system and in our distribution plants with larger pipe.

When a line is replaced it is necessary to recondition the pipe we take out before it can be used elsewhere.

Pipe that we remove from the ground is cleaned, inspected and tested with all the meticulous care of new pipe. It is subjected to high pressure tests and pipe that will not stand "above normal usage" is discarded.

Costs of reconditioning pipe, new steel pipe, wages, and other items have risen sharply during the past few years... yet despite the increased costs... natural gas service for your home and business is still furnished you at pre-war prices.

WHAT IT MEANS:

The Cost Of Social Security

By CLARKE BEACH

WASHINGTON — What would President Truman's social security proposals cost? Estimates are difficult, but there is in existence another government system that furnishes some clues for rough comparisons. It is the railroad retirement system.

Railroad workers' retirement and unemployment insurance systems provide all the benefits which the administration has proposed to extend to most of the rest of the workers. But the proposed social security taxes would be bargain prices compared to what the railroad people pay.

The administration plan is to raise social security taxes from the present one per cent of payroll to one and one-half per cent this July. The tax would be raised to two per cent on Jan. 1, 1950. As the tax is paid both by employer and employee, this would make the total tax at each rate two, three and four per cent. In the railroad business, both employee and management now pay a tax of six per cent of payroll, making a total of 12 per cent. In 1952, the tax will be boosted to 8 1/2 per cent each.

The railroad men believe there will be plenty of money to pay the bills without additional taxes. They don't expect to ask the government for money. The government pays them nothing now except to keep war veterans' retirement credits equal to those who were not in the armed forces.

The social security plan, however, as now proposed, looks toward a time, in five to 10 years, when it will be necessary either to raise the social security taxes above two per cent or get a subsidy. One reason that railroad taxes are so high is that railroad workers with 30 years' service can retire with full annuity benefits, although the system has been in effect only 12 years. These workers get a lot more out of it than they put into it. The system took over the old railroad retirement plan, under which the railroad companies guaranteed pensions to 30-year men.

The Social Security system has a parallel problem. It is defined by the Advisory Council on Social Security, headed by Edward R. Stettinius, Jr.

"Under our recommendations, the full rate of benefits will be paid to those who retire during the first two or three decades of operation even though they pay only a fraction of the cost of their benefits."

"In a social insurance system, it would be inequitable to ask either employers or employees to finance the entire cost of liabilities arising primarily because the act had not been passed earlier than it was."

"Hence, it is desirable for the Federal Government, as sponsor of the program, to assume at least part of these accrued liabilities based on the prior service of early retirees. A government contribution would be a recognition of the interest of the nation as a whole in the welfare of the aged and the widows and children."

The proposed social security taxes would not be quite so low as they seem in comparison to the railroad retirement tax. They would be levied on wages up to $400 a month (compared to $250 a month under the present law.) The railroad retirement tax is levied on wages up to $300 a month. Benefits would be about equal. The maximum monthly benefit a railroad man and his family can draw is $144. The

New Old Age and Survivors' Social Security Insurance maximum would be $150. (The present maximum for Social Security is $85.)

A retired railroad employee, however, has one very substantial advantage over social security participants. If he wants to get a job paying any amount of money outside the railroad industry to supplement his retirement annuity, he can do so. The railroad and new social security plan would also provide disability insurance.

For the railroad folk, sickness and unemployment compensation is separate. Management foots the entire bill. Under the new social security law unemployment insurance would remain a state obligation. Sickness insurance, however, would be included under the new bill.

As A Teacher Sees It

By Mr. DOUGLAS GROOM

I would like to say a few words pertaining to students following rules and regulations set up by the administration. We would have a fine school with approximately 400 students running around with no regulations to govern their actions!

There is a reason for every rule, or it would never have been made; and grumbling by a few students will not change it. If each student would think about it a minute, I am sure he would realize how necessary these regulations are; so why not accept and follow them and save yourselves and the teachers some unnecessary trouble?

Organized rules and regulations date back as far as people started living together in groups. The Romans saw a need to set up a representative form of government to make laws by which to govern the people. Of course, there were tyrants who took advantage of this and made laws for their own selfish benefits. These were for the convenience of a select few rather than for the masses.

Today, in our country, we are under laws, and regulations which apply to everyone, regardless of his personal opinions. These are set up for the benefit of the majority and possibly they are inconvenient to that select few. That is what makes our country a democracy.

Maybe you tire of hearing the expression, "Mother knows best," or "The teacher knows best," nevertheless, it is true. Why do you suppose there are laws that a person must be 21 years old to vote, 25 years old to be a representative, 30 years old to be a senator, and 35 years old to be the President? It is because years give a person experience. Teachers are trained in matters of teaching and governing students in a group; so why not leave it to them to carry out what they have prepared themselves to do?

I find, in what little experience I have had, that no matter what rule is set up, someone is going to grumble; and among students in a school it is contagious. I dare say half the ones doing the grumbling have not stopped to analyze the thing but just started because they heard their neighbor doing so. How lucky you are that you can grumble! If you had lived in Germany before World War II or if you lived in Russia today, you would probably be begging for a school like the one we have with so very, very few democratic rules to follow.

SPORTS SLANTS

By PAT CORBETT

My good friend that has a so called column in the Hereford Brand each week certainly is a gun fan. He writes a little each week about some certain type of rifle or pistol that he knows about and believe me he knows a lot of them. But I still don't see why he doesn't write a little more about some other kind of sport besides shooting guns. Even though there's quite a few gun men around here I'm sure that the baseball fans outnumber them greatly.

The American Legion Junior team is now working out every afternoon and they are beginning to look like a good ball club. Their first game will be Sunday, April 17 at the Veterans' Park. The coaches that have been working with the boys are: Ray Hardy, Ralph Smith, Lloyd Nell, Dr. Kelton and Bartley Dowell.

The inter-mural softball team league hasn't started as yet because of the vacancy of one team. There's going to be a girl's league also.

Did you know that: Before World War II it cost a major league team $180,000 dollars a year to operate and it cost them $400,000 now.

The Exes of Hereford High School: Robert Jennings is attending West Texas State College at Canyon, Texas. He lettered in football at Hereford High School in 1944.

Today's sport fan is Mr. Dub Reeves. He became interested in sports when he was a boy on the farm and used to race his father's horses. His favorite sport is baseball with football closely behind.

Jimbo Webster, Lubbock High School back, is his favorite high school athlete and his favorite college athletes are Davis and Blanchard, the two backs who made All-America at Army.

His favorite baseball player was Ty Cobb. His biggest sport disappointment was when he didn't get to see the World Series this year. His biggest sport thrill was when St. Louis won the World Series in 1946.

—SESSION

Well, hello There!

Well at last—spring is really here. That is we all hope it's here to stay. There are a number of things that come with spring, spring fever and love. These things are too important to pass up, so let's discuss them. Spring fever—a dreadful disease which is as painful to the people around you as it is to you.

Love—Now, there are books and books on that subject so I will just say this about it: Spring is when a young man's fancy turns to what the girls have been thinking about all year.

Fishing—this is a very wonderful past time. And is it true that they bite better during school time?

Missing school—there is a good thing—not to do.

"It may be more romantic by brook or waterfall. Yet better meet on pavement than never meet at all." Stop, look, and think!

Love, K. I. A.

LAUGHS

HOW DEAR TO HIS HEART

City Woman, visiting sister in country: "Bill fairly loves the ground you walk on, Beulah." The farm wife: "He ought to. It cost him $400 an acre."

WARNING TO TELECASTERS

A man phoned to the telecasting studio from whence a dramatic production was being televised. "Let me speak to Joe," he told the girl who answered. "Joe isn't here," came the reply. "Don't give me that," barked the man. "I can see him in there, standing right by the orchestra director."

AND THE MADAM WAS HAPPY

A down east Lady of some means hired a genealogist to trace out her family tree. After months of work, the genealogist delivered the tree, a work of art, resembling a pedigree from the "400" and running back to the 15th century. The woman admired it until she spied one small limb on which this notation appeared:

"Aaron Youngest son. Died in electric chair, Sing-Sing." "That's preposterous," the lady spluttered. "I won't have it. You must change it."

The genealogist, being conscientious, was adamant, but all his objections were over-ruled: "I won't accept it that way," she lady insisted, "I shan't pay you until you correct it." Reluctantly the conscientious genealogist took the tree back to his workshop. Pondering the situation for days, he finally altered the objectionable limb as follows: "Aaron Youngest son. Occupied the chair of applied electricity in one of the nation's best known institutions. Died in the harness."

THE PRACTICAL MAN

City woman. Approaching Rocky Mountains: "Isn't the view just too, too wonderful?" Man from the plains: "Well, ma'am, I guess it would be if the mountains didn't get in the way."

MY PET PEEVE

1. Mary Nell Cassels — her little brother pestering her.
2. Audrey Hood — apple polishing and teachers' pets.
3. Ronny Durham—himself.
4. Earlena Phillips—for it to be spring one day and winter the next.
5. Donna Jean Stagner — polishing shoes.
6. Gayne Foster—cold weather in summertime.
7. Mrs. Criswell—books not straight on the shelf.
8. Bob Hamilton—men collecting money.
9. John Newsome—Algebra II.
10. JuniorMcGee—Inez Tucker.

YEAH, WHY WAIT

"Now children," smiled the school teacher sweetly, "I want you to be so still that you can hear a pin drop." After silence had reigned for an interminable 30 seconds, a kid in the corner yelled, "Okay, let'er drop!"

The band of light in the sky called the Milky Way is caused by the light from millions of stars.

If The Day Were An Hour Longer . . .

What Would You Do?
 Miss Rigler: I would still be grading papers.
 Mr. Martin: I'd like to play dominos, but I would probably work.
 Gayle Foster: I'd probably just run around, while I should be studying.
 Mary E. Hund: I think I'd sleep.
 Inez Tucker: I imagine I would spend it washing dishes.
 Louis LeGrand: I'd tell my Mother and Dad how much I appreciate all that they do for me.
 Glenn Hopson: Sleep. I guess.
 Jessie Click: Probably sleep another hour.
 Genevieve Erdman: Take life easy.
 Joan Hendrix: I'd probably study more.
 Wanda Gunstenson: Study probably.
 Sue Scarth: I guess maybe I would read or sleep.
 Gene Walker: Go see my girl.
 Ernest Hardman: I'd just have another hour to mess around in.
 Susie Rogers: Go to bed — an hour earlier, I guess.
 Lee McNeese: I'd sleep.
 Carl Wise: I'd study more.
 Mr. Jones: Go sailing.
 Miss McMinn: Try to get caught up with what I am behind on.
 Mr. Smith: I would probably fish.

Lola Brunson: I would sleep a little longer in the morning.
 Evelyn Ford: I would go to Vega.

Virginia Green: I guess I would sleep longer.
 Orene Duggan: I would study for my English test an hour longer.

Gertrude Betzen: I'd sleep.
 Rose Stephan: I'd probably spend it practicing volleyball and hunting a boyfriend.
 Dorothy Lee: I'd just ride horses.

Naoma Carter: Worry about graduating.
 Doris Jean Smith: I would listen to the radio and eat bananas and chicken.
 Danny McLallen: I'd get my studying up.

Joan Hardwick: I'd spend it with Bobby.
 Truman Price: Just live and be happy.

Billy Martin: I'd just work an hour longer.
 Billy Moore: Eat and be happy.
 Jack Stanton: I'd divide it between eating and pleasant slumber.

Mr. Sullivan: Take reducing exercises.
 Mr. Stanford: I'd help Mr. Sullivan with his plan.
 Mrs. Criswell: Wait on the annual.

Mrs. Dettman: Read another book.
 Mr. Brock: Rest that much more.
 Mr. Criswell: Work out one hour longer for track.

Mrs. Little: Sleep.
 Mr. Garner: Some kind of personal amusement or hobby.
 Miss Davis: Reading or sewing.
 Mrs. Calvert: Read another hour.

Mrs. Hudspeth: Rest an hour.
 Mrs. Whisenand: Read another science book.
 Mr. Groom: Play golf or go fishing.
 Mr. Cogdill: I'd die!

District Play Is Reviewed Monday During Assembly

Mr. Jack Cogdill reports that his one act play, "The Advantages of Being Shy" is coming along very well. Saturday it will be produced at the District meet in Canyon.

Characters in this play are as follows:
 Iris—Martha Thomas. Helen—Mary Katherine Carroll. Olivia—Jane Welch. Janet — Pat Longbottom. Miss Blakely. Sallie Womble. Tom—Jack Stanton.

Monday the students put on the play in assembly for practice.

My Pet Peeve

1. Mary Nell Cassels — her little brother pestering her.

2. Audrey Hood — apple polishing and teachers' pets.

3. Ronny Durham—himself.

4. Earlena Phillips—for it to be spring one day and winter the next.

5. Donna Jean Stagner — polishing shoes.

6. Gayne Foster—cold weather in summertime.

7. Mrs. Criswell—books not straight on the shelf.

8. Bob Hamilton—men collecting money.

9. John Newsome—Algebra II.

10. JuniorMcGee—Inez Tucker.

Comedy, Radio Play Will Be Presented

Miss Davis, teacher of social science, reports that her fifth period history class is working on a radio play giving some of the incidents in the life of Abraham Lincoln and also an un-historical comedy, "What Price America," which tells of Columbus's discovery of America. These are to be presented in an Assembly program soon.

The cast in the comedy include Michael Kelly as King of Spain; Bobbie Jane Sisk, Queen of Spain; Alma Faye Knox, Princess Anika; Ernest Hardman, Carlos; and Jack Reynolds, Columbus.

Miss Davis hopes to give the first part of the show over the air and the second part is to be given as television.

Curvaceous Angler

Hard to say if Marcellyn Gulbransen will catch any fish with that outfit, but she'll certainly capture the eye. She's all decked out as "Miss Sportsman" in the Third Annual Northern California Sportsmen's and Vacation Show in San Francisco.

UP RELEASE PRAISES HEREFORD

Lettuce Crop, New Industry Cited

United Press dispatches Friday pointed to increased interest in lettuce growth in this area, along with location of at least one new industry.

The report included location of Bush Bros. Arizona and California lettuce growers, who will plant 600 acres in lettuce this year. It also mentioned an additional 2,400 acres expected in the area.

H. Cooper and Mrs. Virginia Kicker of Walla Walla, Washington, were listed in the report as co-owners of a new electric weed machine patent, and were declared to be negotiating for a location here from which to handle Texas manufacturing and distribution.

The report was released over a

KGNC newscast at 6:45 Friday evening and created wide interest in this area. Chamber of Commerce officials said, however, that they had no information regarding the proposed industry.

Community Singing Will Be Held Every Fourth Sunday At School

By MRS. IRA RICKETTS

Several families gathered at the school house Sunday evening for singing. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parsons, Loyd, Lou, Nancy, and Doris, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Sparkman, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bowman, and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Edwards, Irene and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Edwards, Nancy and Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ricketts, Misses Augustine Gregory and Norma Lee Edwards, and Jake Millard Gregory. It was decided to have singing each fourth Sunday of each month, which everyone is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ricketts were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ricketts in Hereford. All drove out to the oil well in the afternoon and watched the operations for a while.

Pie-Supper Is Held Ford Community

Miss Sunny Browning of Vega was chosen 'prettiest girl' and John Spahr of Vega 'ugliest man' at the community pie supper held at the Ford School House Thursday evening. Miss Browning is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Browning and is a student at Vega High School. Mr. Spahr is a Vega farmer.

A radio tuned to appropriate music furnished entertainment while the crowd gathered at the school house. The men of the community then listened to a portion of Winston Churchill's speech while the women arranged the pies on a long table in preparation for the sale. The floral centerpiece was of early garden flowers arranged in a low golden-hued container.

Clinton Jackson of Hereford acted as auctioneer. After the pie sale, women of the Ford Home Demonstration Club arranged a display of hand crocheted articles made by Mrs. Gene Story of that community. Articles from the collection were sold by the club women to help Mrs. Story defray hospital expenses for her late husband.

Proceeds from the pie sale and contest will be used by the demonstration club and the 4-H club girls to defray expense of club projects. They realized $92 from the supper.

Attending were Messrs and Mesdames H. M. Benson, L. J. Straffus, Carl and Loreta, J. E. Dyer and Ann, John Spirhrne, Claudius Newbill, George Dashler, George Metcalf, Pluma, and Marvin, Henry Kinsey, George Epling, Edward, Johnnie, and Thelma Joyce, Herman Both, Mr. and Mrs. Creitz, of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bronniman of Adrian, and Supt. and Mrs. A. D. Smith and daughter of Vega.

Also present were Misses Maggie King, Peggy Irwin, Sherill Blasingame, Francene Hill, Esta Newbill, Ludene Hill, Gerry Paschel, Hilda Both, Patsy Jackson, Mrs. May H. Clare, Mrs. Gladys Dowd, Joseph Conn, Pete Goetsch, Wayne Edwards, Anthony Paschel, Joe Valentine, Jerry Montgomery, Don Newbill, Bennie Newbill, Jack Getrey, James Voyles, Bobbie Newbill, Foster Whaley, and Clinton Jackson.

Mrs. Matt Gilliland, Mrs. Alan Bell, and Mrs. W. H. Russ, sell made a trip to Lubbock Sunday, where they visited relatives.

Give it Roomit's ROADMASTER!

WHEN this sight greets you in your rear-view mirror—mister, better give over!

Overtaking you is just about the ablest performer on the road today—and wise drivers long ago learned the only thing to do with ROADMASTER is give it road room and a salute as it passes.

Reason is—ROADMASTER is something excitingly new in fine cars.

Big, yes—stretches a gorgeous eighteen feet, with all that such size means in comfort and inside stretch-out space.

But part and parcel of every one of its 4,400-odd pounds is the fastest footwork on the highway. Action is the key of every part, from its 150-hp Fireball power plant to the swift, silken, unbroken surge you get from Dynaflo Drive.

As a matter of fact, action's even invited by the price tag. By the pound, by the inch, by any yardstick you want to lay against it, it's the buy of the fine-car field.

For proof, just gather a few delivered prices on other cars and bring them around. We'll show you so much more for your dollar you'll waste no time getting an order in.

BUICK alone has all these features

- Silk-smooth DYNAFLOW DRIVE
- FULL-VIEW VISION from enlarged glass area
- SWING-EASY DOORS and easy access
- "LIVING SPACE" INTERIORS with Deep-Cradle cushions
- Buoyant-riding QUADRIFLEX COIL SPRINGING
- Lively FIREBALL STRAIGHT-EIGHT POWER with SELF-SETTING VALVE LIFTERS plus HI-POISED ENGINE MOUNTINGS
- Cruiser-Line VENTIPORTS
- Low-pressure tires on SAFETY-RIDE RIMS
- DUREX BEARINGS, magly and connecting rods
- BODY BY FISHER

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional or extra cost on SUPER models.
